Germany-British Empire Clash

Chamberlain Broadcasts Ultimatum

FRANCE EXPECTED TO FOLLOW BRITAIN'S LEAD

4 a.m. Deadline Passes With No Replies From Adolf Hitler

LONDON, Sept 3 (Sunday).—(Delayed by Censor) (AP)—Prime Minister Chamberlain today proclaimed Great Britain is at war with Germany after expiration of a British ultimatum to Germany to withdraw her troops from Poland.

LONDON, Sept. 3 (AP By Radio) — Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain broadcast to the world today a fateful message a quarter-hour after expiration of the deadline of his "peace or war" ultimatum to the German government.

"I have to tell you now," said Chamberlain, that this country is at war with Germany."
"He had evidently made up his mind to attack Poland
no matter what happened," Chamberlain said of Hitler.

He said the German fuhrer evidently had not even shown his proposals to the Polish government, and that Britain's ultimatum had passed without reply, so a state of war existed.

He said the people of Poland "were so bravely resisting this wicked and unprovoked attack."

France, the prime minister said, was joining Britain in fulfilling her pledges from Poland's independence, and "we have a clear conscience."

The deadline expired at 10 a.m., Greenwich mean time, (5 a.m., EST).

"You may be taking your part in the fighting services," Chamberlain told Britons.

He said they may be in trenches or in transports or in other necessary services.

He closed with, "Now may God bless you all," and fervent expression of hope, "May the right prevail."

"You can imagine what a bitter blow it is to me," the prime minister told the nation in a radio broadcast.

"The actions of this man (Hitler) show convincingly that he will never do otherwise than use force in the attainment of his will.

"Consequently we are at war with Germany," he said.
"I am certain right will prevail."

Immediately after the prime minister's startlingly brief announcement, the government broadcast a series of instructions to all citizens.

Hand rattles, it said, would provide poison gas warnings.

All day schools in the evacuation areas in England,
Scotland and Wales are to be closed, it said.

The public was warned to keep off the street as much as possible.

"To expose yourself unnecessarily adds to your danger,"
the announcement warned.

All places of entertainment are to be closed until further notice.

"They are being closed because if they are hit by a bomb, large numbers would be killed or injured."

The prime minister, speaking from No. 10 Downing street, said he could not believe there was "anything more or anything different" that he could have done.

Up to the last, he said, it would have been "quite possible to have arranged a peaceful and honorable settlement with Germany.

"Herr Hitler would not have it."

Britain had demanded that German troops be withdrawn from Poland by 10 a.m., Greenwich mean time, (5 a.m., EST) and Chamberlain said Germany had made "no such undertaking" as Britain had demanded.

The prime minister ended the war declaration with the prayer:

"May God bless you all and may he defend the right."

"We have a clear conscience," he told his people. "We have done all that any country could do to establish peace."

He said France joined Britain in her resolve to fulfill her pledge to aid Poland defend her independence.

"Now that we have resolved to finish it," he continued,
"I know that you will all do your part."

"We have done all that any country could do to establish peace," he said, "but a situation in which no word given by Germany's ruler could be trusted and no people or country could endure has become intolerable, and now that we have resolved to finish it, I know that you will all play your part with calmness and courage.

"At such a moment as this, the assurances of support which we have received from the empire are a source of profound encouragement to us.

"When I finish speaking, certain detailed announcements will be made on behalf of the government.

"Please give your close attention.

"The government have made plans under which it will be possible to carry on the work of the nation in the days of stress and strain that may be ahead.

"These plans need your help.

"You may be taking your part in the fighting service or as a volunteer in one of the branches of civil defense; if so, you will report for duty in accordance with the instructions you receive.

"You may be engaged in work essential to the prosecution of war, or the maintenance of the life of the people, in factories, in transport, in public utility concerns or in the supply of other necessities of life; if so, it is of vital importance that you should carry on with your jobs.

"Now may God bless you all and may we defend the right, for it is evil things that we shall be fighting against—force, bad faith, injustice, oppression and persecution.

"Against them, I am certain, the right will prevail."

The ultimatum was to fix a time limit on a "final warning" Britain and France gave Germany Sept. 1.

It came on the third day after Germany's invasion of Poland, which threw armies in north, southwest and south.

Two columns of the German army were reported by German military authorities yesterday to have gone in from East Prussia and north Germany along the old pre-war German frontier to pinch off the entire Polish Corridor (Pomerze) which Germany has claimed as part of her country and which Hitler wants because Germany is now cut in two parts, into East Prussia on the Baltic and Germany proper.

There had been a one-day delay in the declaration of war in the hope that peace might come out of Adolf Hitler's last minute consideration for a five-power conference which Premier Mussolini of Italy proposed.

Shortly before Chamberlain's proclamation 10 Downing street had issued a communique setting the time limit and announcing that Sir Neville Henderson, British ambassador in Berlin, had told the German government that if assurances were not received by then a "state of war" would exist between Great Britain and Germany.

The announcement said Sir Neville informed the German government at 8 a.m. (3 a.m., EST).

Thirty minutes before the time limit expired the German embassy in London disclosed it had "no news" and acknowledged it was "in constant communication with Berlin."

PARIS, Sept. 1 (AP)—Class lines virtually had been obliterated in Paris tonight under the common danger. Grand ladies and charwomen conversed animatedly as equals.

National Policy of France Calls For Action Identical With G.B.

PARIS, Sept. 3 (AP)—It was assumed today that France considered herself at war with Germany inasmuch as she had said she would follow whatever steps Britain took.

British Prime Minister Chamberlain's proclamation that Britain was at war with Germany left no doubt that France must follow suit.

The announcement that French Ambassador
Robert Coulondre would call on German Foreign Minister Joachim von Ribbentrop in Berlin at noon (6 a.m. EST) to demand a reply to France's ultimatum to Germany was considered as merely a formality.

Officials said Coulondre had asked for the appointment in advance and would "deliver a communication of the French government to the German government."

The rapidity with which the crisis came to a head caught the French public by surprise.

A drizzling rain rendered streets of the capital
even more deserted than usual on Sunday.

Lobbies of the chamber of deputies had been alive with rumors of a possible German reply to the French-British demand that Germany cease her invasion of Poland and withdraw her troops or consider herself at war with the western powers.

Chamberlain's radio announcement which heralded war was heard by only a few here.

At the moment of Chamberlain's fateful announcement however, Premier Daladier received Foreign Minister Bonnet at the war ministry.

NEW YORK, Sept. 1 (AP)—Fifty million dollars worth of gold has come into New York in two days—a movement attributable to the European situation.

PARIS, Sept. 1 (AP)—A young American school teacher seeking information today at a shipping office had a gas mask slung over her shoulder. She complained that it fitted too tightly.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 1 (AP) — Halting a psychopathic hearing today, Superior Judge Ben Lindsey told the crowded courtroom:
"This court will now listen to the greatest madman in the world."

Whereupon he tuned his office radio to a re-broadcast of Adolf Hitler's speech.

Thirty minutes later he turned off the radio and resumed consideration of a score of psychopathic cases.

PARIS, Sept. 1 (AP)—All Paris policemen tonight went to their stations carrying gas masks and steel helmets slung over their shoulders.

Declares Il Duce Failed To Approach Poles With Proposal

LONDON, Sept. 3 (Sunday (Delayed by Censor) (AP)— Exchange Telegraph agency, British news agency, said today that Count Edward Raczynski, Polish ambassador in London, informed it that "the Italian government did not approach Poland" concerning a reported five-power conference to settle German-Polish issues.

"Apart from the declarations made yesterday in the British parliament and apart from contradictory reports in the press," the agency quoted him, "the Polish government has not knowledge of such a scheme."

Exchange Telegraph said the ambassador declared that "any talk of such a conference" would be "ludicrous and fantastic" as long as "a single enemy soldier stands on Polish soil."

PARIS, Sept. 3 (Passed through British censorship) (AP)—
The French line said that the Ile De France had sailed from LeHavre today with more than 1,000 Americans aboard bound for home.

LONDON, Sept. 3 (Sunday) (Delayed by Censor) (AP)
—The Exchange Telegraph, British news agency, reported that the Berlin radio had announced this morning the capture of Czenstochau, Poland, by German forces.

German-American League Asks Reich Uprising Against Hitler

National Convention Reveals Plans For Propaganda Broadcasts

CLEVELAND, Sept. 2 (AP)— A call to the German people to rise up and "defeat Adolf Hitler" was sounded today by the German-American league for culture in national convention here.

Attempts will be made to broadcast the message to Germany through three short wave radio stations, one in England, one in the United States and a secret station in Germany, league officials said.

The delegates representing a membership of 103,000 German-Americans adopted a resolution blaming Hitler's "barbarous destruction" for "destroying the good reputation of Germans
throughout the world."

The resolution calls upon the German people:

"We are calling on you out of the unshakable faith that the German nation does not agree with the policies of Hitler.

"The nazi regime of Hitler is systematically destroying the good reputation of Germans throughout the world. For over six years the world has observed with profound disgust the barbarous destruction of culture in a land of philosophers and poets.

"Hitler has started a war which will cause resentment against Germans all over the world. German - Americans are already feeling this resentment.

"Hitler must be defeated. His victory would mean the victory of barbarism over civilization.
Hitler's defeat must be your victory, a victory of free and democratic Germany."

The Lester D. Longmans Grew Tired of Europe--Just in Time, It Would Seem

By ART GOLDBERG

When a fellow decides to come back to America just because he gets "tired of Europe" and changes his passage to a different boat to leave two weeks before his scheduled departure and just one day before an imminent political situation becomes really serious; if he gets the last undelayed boat out of Egypt; if he goes to Europe this year in order to visit the more important examples of ancient art and finishes his study of them just a few days before a virtual undeclared war breaks out in Europe;—well, he's pretty doggone lucky.

A good name for a lucky fellow is Prof. Lester D. Longman. Although he traveled through France, Switzerland, Austria, Hungary, Yugoslavia, Rumania, Bulgaria, Turkey, Greece and Egypt with the prime intent of studying ancient art, Professor Longman didn't follow a one-track course. He brought back to the United States with him many intelligently keen observations on what Americans like to call a European crisis—with emphasis on the European.

Just 10 days ago, on August 24, Professor Longman and his wife left France on the Aquitania, not especially because they thought the announcement of the Russian-German pact would cause an immediate war, but because they were "tired of Europe anyway." They had originally booked passage on another boat to leave two weeks later—that would be Thursday of this week.

But Iowa's well-known professor of art will tell you that at the time he was there the French people were almost unusually calm and leading an almost monotonously normal life, despite the presence of cheap, flimsy gas masks and other precautions. People who had been in England told him, he says, that the Britons were a bit more wary than their across-the-channel neighbors, though even they were not panicky or excited to any degree of disruption.

Of course, you haven't heard about it because you haven't talked to Professor Longman, but real honest-to-gosh war maneuvers not many days ago were being carried on in the vicinity of Turkey, Greece and Egypt. There the British fleets were going to town in a big, rehearsing way.

The people of these three countries evidence a hatred of the Germans and Italians, not only as the anti-nazis hate them, but with a sincere individual spite.

In Vienna, he reports, the people are not yet completely converted to Hitlerism. By "converted" he means they have not absorbed enough of the flood of propaganda that has been thrown their way—not enough, that is, from the Nazi point of view. Consequently, one finds it requisite to repeat the "Heil Hitler" salu-

PROF. LESTER D. LONGMAN

tion every few minutes there. But those people, tourists or native Viennese, who don't think enough of the Fuehrer to leave a bad taste in their mouths with the expression, substitute for it a very rapid "Halb Liter," which means "half a gallon" and sounds like what they're supposed to say. But Vienna is not the gay, lit-ing city it once was. According to Professor Longman, it has become militarized and "Prussianized." The John Doe of Vienna however, favors the anchluss because it gave him the definitely gainful employment he hasn't had for years.

Professor Longman found no dearth of food in German territories, so far as the tourist is concerned, and even, he believed, so far as the natives are concerned. Still, a boiled egg in a restaurant comes to his buyer with a number on the shell, and the German people admit they can have no butter.

Of course, the trip was taken for art's sake, and art wasn't at all slighted in favor of politics. The Longmans found the ancient ruins in Greece in a bad state of preservation—so bad, in fact, that "you have to use your imagination to reconstruct them." They tried to reach Troy, but found it under military control and inaccessible to the tourist because the Turkish government had some pretty firm ideas of its own. Here, Professor Longman mentions incidentally, is a very powerful fort.

He's quite confident that art will not suffer even in the event of a widespread European conflict. The more important pieces are being stored in safekeeping, as are stained-glass windows of cathedrals. Preparation for their safekeeping was being made in France, for instance, way back in June. And the ancient ruins, he figures, are safe from bombardment since they aren't located in militarily strategic points.

Well, so much for concrete facts and observation. But when Professor Longman gets comfortably situated on his spacious, sloping lawn and draws freely on his pipe he comes up with a bit of speculation that has for a basis the things he saw and heard on the continent just 10 days ago. To wit:

Providing Russia doesn't fight—and Italy is almost certain not to—one Adolf Hitler will one day find his unheeding ears pinned securely to his head. Apparently Hitler was waiting to find out whether or not he could count on help from Italy, but with favorable information not forthcoming decided to jump anyway. Certainly he lost an advantage by waiting and certainly he didn't fool anyone by saying he thought it unnecessary to ask for Italy's material backing.

Indications are that, after a trip home in a boat that in mid-ocean was ordered to cut off all communication with the United States—he had sent a radiogram home just a few hours sooner—was ordered to paint its windows black and travel in darkness the remainder of the voyage, Professor and Mrs. Longman are happy to be home.

Rabbi M. Kertzer Will Join School of Religion Faculty

New Member Comes Here From Alabama; Succeeds Prof. Jung

Rabbi Morris Kertzer, former director of the B'nai B'rith Hillel foundation at the University of Alabama, has been appointed as the Jewish representative on the faculty of the University of Iowa school of religion, whose work will be broadened in the fall to include the direction of religious and cultural activities for the Jewish students at the university as part of the new Hillel extension service program. He succeeds Prof. Moses Jung, who has resigned.

Ordained at the Jewish Theological Seminary of America in 1934, Rabbi Kertzer served as assistant to Dr. A. L. Sachar, national director of the Hillel foundations, at the University of Illinois, and then became director of the foundation at Alabama. Expansion of the Jewish work at the school of religion came in response to the wish of the trustees, it was explained by Henry Monsky, president of B'nai B'rith and chairman of the National Hillel Foundation commission.

Anxious for the Jewish faculty member also to sponsor religious and cultural activities for Jewish undergraduates at Iowa, the trustees turned to the Hillel foundations and asked to be included in the developing Hillel extension program.

The Hillel foundations, which serve Jewish students as cultural, social and religious centers, are maintained by B'nai B'rith at 12 universities. In district No. 6 of B'nai B'rith, of which Iowa is a part, there are foundations at the Universities of Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota. The work at the University of Iowa will be part of a newly organized extension program.

Goodman scored a 67, four under par, to lead Dawson 7 up at the end of 18 holes. He was out in 33, two under, this afternoon to end the match at the 27th hole.

In winning, Goodman gained a second leg on the Arcola cup, a handsome silver trophy. Three victories are necessary to gain permanent possession.

It was Goodman's first tournament appearance since the National open at Philadelphia in June. While Goodman's putting was phenomenal today, it was no more brilliant than his iron and wood play. He seldom had more than a 10-foot putt.

Bosox Smack Yankees, 12-7

Thump Red Ruffing For 19 Safe Blows In Vicious Assault

BOSTON, Sept. 2 (AP)—They haven't been able to do much against the other American league clubs lately, but the Boston Red Sox exerted their mid-season mastery over the New York Yankees today for a 12 to 7 victory.

In snagging their sixth triumph of the last six games with the world champions, the Red Soxers humbled big Red Ruffing with the worst battering a pitcher has received in the major leagues this season.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 2 (AP)—

Back home after a disastrous eastern road trip, the St. Louis Cardinals could not snap out of their losing ways today and they dropped the opener of a three-game series to the Pittsburgh Pirates, 11 to 3.

The Cardinals remained in second place 5 1/2 games back of the National league-leading Cincinnati Reds, but the Chicago Cubs were at their heels, only a game behind in third place. The Cubs beat the Reds today, 6 to 1.

New York took the opener 10 to 6 with five out of nine homers and Brooklyn captured the nightcap 7 to 2 with two of the game's three circuit smacks. In addition the Dodgers had the advantage of rookie Hugh Casey's four-hit pitching in the second contest.

Yanks Rout Australians in Opening Round of Davis Cup Net Play

HAVERFORD, Pa., Sept. 2 (AP)—Stunning their confident opponents with twin victories in the two opening singles matches, the United States Davis cup tennis forces virtually routed the Australians at the outset of the challenge round at Merion cricket club today.

Bobby Riggs started the invaders tumbling by vanquishing their champion, Jack Bromwich, 6-4, 6-0, 7-5, and then Frankie Parker applied the crusher as he outlasted Adrian Quist, 6-3, 2-6, 6-4, 1-6, 7-5, in a long, bitterly fought duel.

Rigney Smears Detroit, 2 to 0

CHICAGO, Sept. 2 (AP)—Johnny Rigney turned back the Detroit Tigers today with a two-hit performance, giving the Chicago White Sox a 2-0 victory and the pitcher his 13th win of the season and 10th in a row.

The Sox got only six hits off Buck Newsom but bunched three of them in the fourth for all their runs. Mike Kreevich knocked out a home run and Larry Rosenthal tripled and scored on Eric McNair's single.

Rigney pitched hitless ball for six innings, Pete Fox getting the first hit off the young right-hander in the seventh. Rudy York got the second, a double in the ninth.

Passeau Hurls For Rampaging Hartnett Entry

CINCINNATI, Sept. 2 (AP)—The Chicago Cubs took advantage of a shaky Cincinnati Red infield and added sparkling defensive play for a 6 to 1 victory over the pace-makers today.

Claude Passeau allowed eight scattered hits in turning in his 13th victory of the season.

The Reds, idle for four days, allowed the Cubs to score three runs on two walks, two errors and a sacrifice in the first inning.

Bartlett hit a home run in the fourth inning. In the Reds' half, the Cub shortstop turned in the defensive feature of the day when he took McCormick's line drive and turned it into an unassisted double play, nailing Goodman who had hit a two-bagger.

Another Trophy

MANCHESTER, Mass., Sept. 2 (AP)—Alice Marble, of Beverly Hills, Cal., undisputed queen of the world's tennis courts, today added the Essex bowl to her list of trophies, defeating Valerie Scott, of England, 6-1, 6-2, to win the Essex county women's invitational tournament for the third time.

Miss Marble, who previously won the tournament title in 1933 and again last year, took a place with the great Helen Wills Moody, the only other tennis star to retire an Essex bowl in the tournament's 15 years of history.

Bendix Race to Fuller

CLEVELAND, Sept. 2 (AP)—Sportsman-pilot Frank Fuller rode the crest of the Bendix transcontinental air race to a smashing new record and $12,500 in cash prizes today.

Fuller gunned his powerful Seversky, a stripped-down military type plane, at an average speed of 282.098 miles an hour from Burbank, Calif., to Cleveland, for the opening of the national air races. A crowd of 15,000 greeted him.

The ruddy-faced San Francisco paint manufacturer negotiated the 2,042 miles in seven hours 14.19 minutes—40 minutes better than his record of 258 miles an hour, set in 1937.

Fuller then raced the extra 406 miles to Bendix, N. J., arriving with a coast-to-coast elapsed time of 8 hours, 58 minutes 8.4 seconds, for another Bendix record, an average speed from Burbank of 273.14 miles an hour. His previous coast-to-coast mark was nine hours 35 minutes.

The flier won $9,000 for first place to Cleveland, $2,500 for a new record to Bendix and $1,000 for having completed the coast-to-coast dash in the best time.

Miss Jacqueline Cochran, who won the 1938 Bendix with an average speed of 248.774 miles an hour, failed to start today's race. She said she feared to take off in foggy conditions with her plane so heavily loaded with gasoline.

Arthur Bussey, of Roversford, Pa., followed Fuller into Cleveland with an elapsed time of eight hours, 21 minutes and eight seconds, averaging 244.486 miles an hour. The position won him $5,000 in prize money, Paul Mantz of Hollywood won the third place of $3,000 by reaching Cleveland in eight hours, 41 minutes and 38 seconds, averaging 234.875 miles an hour.

Max Constant, Hollywood pilot, flying one of Miss Cochran's planes, was fourth with an average of 231.366 miles an hour. The place brought him $2,000. Mrs. Arlene Davis, titian-haired Cleveland aviatrix, the only woman besides Miss Cochran to enter, finished fifth with an average speed of 196.842 miles an hour. Dale Myers of Tulsa, Okla., flew with Mrs. Davis but said "she handled the controls all the way." Fifth place was worth $1,000, but Mrs. Davis receives $2,500 additional as a special woman's prize.

Contest Managers Announce Judges, Officials For Second Annual 'Battle of Champions' at Shrader Field Thursday

W. Adamson, W. Gower To Pick Winners

Captain L. Kuhre, Major Church, Hayek Listed for Judging

Judges and officials for the second annual "Battle of Champions" to be held in Iowa City at Shrader field Thursday at 8 p.m. were announced last night by contest officials.

William L. Adamson, pipe-major of the University of Iowa Scottish Highlanders, will judge drumming of the junior corps and the one band participating, and William Gower, supervisor of instrumental music at Iowa City high school, will judge bugle playing at the event.

Uniforms and equipment will be inspected and rated by Capt. Leand B. Kuhre of the United States Army corps of engineers and head of the University of Iowa engineering regiment, Maj. Joseph Church of the university military department will judge cadence.

Colonel Hayek To Judge Field maneuvers will be judged and rated by Col. Will J. Hayek of the 113th cavalry unit of the Iowa national guard and Lieut. Col. Carroll A. Bagby of the University of Iowa military department.

Timekeepers for the contest will be Milton R. Petersen and Dale Evans. Each competing organization will be allowed 15 minutes on the field.

Seven organizations, six drum and bugle corps and one band, are on the program for the event. Officials have announced that proceeds from gate admissions will be used to purchase new uniforms and instrument cases for the Iowa City Grenadiers, hosts of the Iowa City contest.

Other organizations who will be present for the Iowa City program of the round robin tournament among participating groups are the Cedar Rapids Musketeers, the Des Moines Sons of Legionnaires, the Newton V.F.W. junior drum corps, the Chariton band, the Boone Spanish Musketeers, the Cedar Rapids Cavaliers and the Iowa City Grenadiers.

Classes A and B The first four named above are competing in class A and the last three are entered in class B, the respective classes depending on the number of years the group has been organized.

An extensive advertising campaign is underway for the event, many posters already have been placed in downtown windows and a folder including over 100 advertisements soon will be distributed. The advertisers are local merchants who are sponsoring the Iowa City event.

As each group arrives in Iowa City Thursday afternoon, if time permits it will parade through Iowa City streets. Following the last competitive event on the evening program the judges' decisions will be announced after which will be a massed demonstration by all groups entered.

About 40 of the 56 members of the Iowa City Grenadiers will play with the organization at their exhibition Thursday night. A new feature of the group is a four-girl color guard which marches ahead of the band. Bob Roth is the drum-major.

First steps in organizing the Iowa City group were taken March 24, 1937, when there were 25 applications for membership. Organization was completed and suits were issued to the boys Nov. 7, 1937, and they first appeared in uniform Nov. 11.

City Support At the beginning the drum and bugle corps was sponsored by the local organization of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. The Grenadiers as now organized are sponsored by parents of the boys in the organization and have the support of business men, service clubs and lodges.

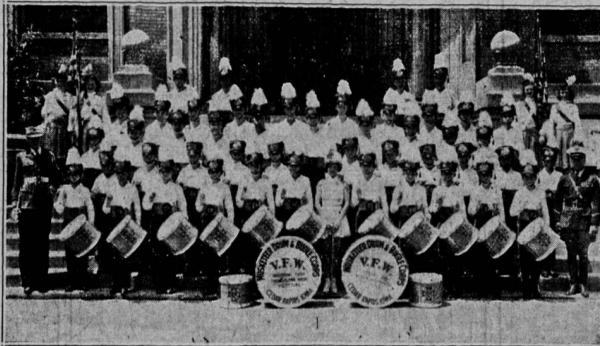

From the beginning the corps has been under the direction and leadership of Jack Fromm who also directs all other corps taking part in Thursday's program except the Chariton band.

During the present season the boys have appeared in uniform many times in Iowa City and have visited several other towns and cities of the state. They have visited this summer in Cedar Rapids, Chariton, West Liberty, Hills, Solon, Riverside and others. Some of the boys assisted the Cedar Rapids Musketeers at a national competition meet at Boston, Mass., last week.

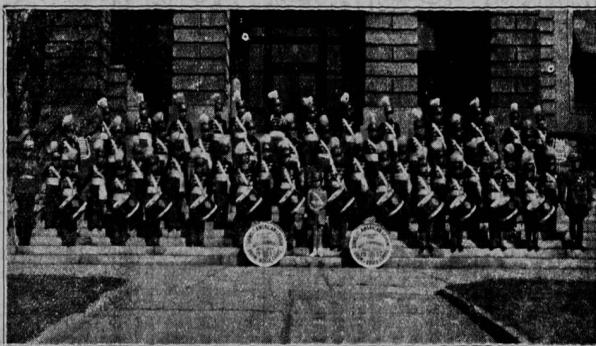

The Cedar Rapids Cavaliers and the Boone Spanish Musketeers, both in class B competition, are all-girl organizations, the former having been organized only this year and in competition for the first time.

DES MOINES, Sept. 2 (AP)—Assistant Chief of Police Roger West said tonight four men who were associated with Glenn Bales, special officer for Younker Brothers store, were taken to police headquarters and disarmed about 6 o'clock.

West said the men gave their names as Leo Belgard, G. H. Belgard, Loy Brooker and Art E. Dillon, all of Adel, Ia.

After their guns were taken from them, the four were released, West added. He said Bales had a Polk county gun permit but the other four had permits issued in Dallas county.

Pickets have begun carrying cameras as they make their marches.

Score Killed, 30 Wounded By Nazi Bomb

Correspondent Dodges Air Raids on Warsaw Damage Checkup

By ELMER W. PETERSON WARSAW, Sept. 2 (AP)—Twenty-one dead and over 30 wounded were counted tonight after a German bomb had struck an apartment house in a Warsaw workmen's quarter.

The bombs tore off the side of the apartment house as if it had been made of paper. Rescue workers still were clearing away the resultant pile of debris in a search for further casualties when I inspected it.

One of the bombs had dug a crater fully 20 feet in diameter, and the open ground was piled high with furniture and belongings.

In the center of a large park in the southern section of Warsaw, I saw where a bomb had struck a simple wooden dwelling, killing two persons and wounding one. In an open field near the Vistula river, where 10 light bombs apparently had been released simultaneously, they had dug craters in a 100-yard circle.

With me on this tour of inspection of damage done by the German air bombings were G. Burke Elbrick, secretary of the American embassy; Clifford Norton, charge d'affaires of the British embassy, and officials of the Polish foreign office.

Lake Gets More Fish

State Fair Exhibit Furnishes Stock For Lake Macbride

Nearly 300 game fish, all of legal size, were shipped to Lake Macbride yesterday from the Iowa State Conservation commission exhibit at the Iowa State fair in Des Moines and placed in the lake.

The consignment included 31 bass, 115 bluegills, 100 bullheads and 25 crappies. None of the bass were under two and one-half pounds in weight and the largest of the fish taken from the exhibit measured 22 inches in length and weighed six pounds.

The fish placed in the lake represented the commission's entire fair exhibit with exception of pike which have never been placed in the lake.

The fish were brought from Des Moines in a specially made truck by Paul R. Thompson of Lansing, a conservation official. He said he used 350 pounds of ice in the tanks between Des Moines and Iowa City.

C. R. Woman Asks Damages After Fall

Suit was filed in district court yesterday by Mrs. Viola Evedland of Cedar Rapids asking damages amounting to $5,177.50 from Fred Keim when she allegedly fell from the porch of a house in Cedar Rapids said to be owned by the defendant.

The plaintiff claims that she slipped and fell from the porch as a result of faulty steps on the residence which she and her husband leased from Keim. The petition states that the plaintiff suffered a fractured ankle and a knee injury as well as much "pain and suffering."

Of the total amount asked in the suit, $77.50 is for medical fees, $100 for household help necessitated by her inability to perform the regular household duties and $5,000 for pain and suffering.

The accident is said to have occurred July 3 and the petition states the plaintiff is still confined to her bed.

Atty. G. F. Burest of Cedar Rapids filed the action.

The ceremonies will extend all through the day from morning to evening and at night. Participating in the program will be several visiting bishops and clergy from several districts of the church in this section of the country.

Funds for the erection of the edifice have been provided by the Iowa-Nebraska District Mennonite conference. This same group sponsors the program of the church.

A mid-week program will not be held because of a district conference meeting at West Union church near Wellman. The Rev. Norman Hobbs, pastor of the church, announced yesterday that revival services will begin Sept. 27 with Jessie Martin, evangelist of Waterloo, Ontario, Canada, in charge.
