

Bobby Burns Tea Planned By Woman's Club Group

Quotation From Work Of Scottish Poet To Provide Theme

A "Bobby Burns" tea using as a theme a quotation from the Scottish poet's work, "The Goldenrod is yellow and the leaves are turning brown" has been planned by the members of the poetry department of the Iowa City Woman's club for their first meeting of the year Monday at 2:30 p.m. in the new clubrooms in the community building.

Ballad singing by a group of women, harp selections by Jean Taylor and the narrating of some of Burns' verse by Mrs. Raymond Memler will be included on the program.

The singers are Mrs. H. L. Bailey, Mrs. W. S. Merriam, Mrs. Dale Leonard, Mrs. S. J. Davis, Mrs. B. W. Carlson. Mrs. M. M. Crayne will be in charge of the singing, and Mrs. Gerald Buxton will serve as accompanist.

Miss Taylor will play two Scottish ballads, "Loch Lomond" and "Annie Laurie," and "The Fountain" by Zabel and "Over the Hilltop" by Margaret Hobart.

Honorees for the meeting will be Mrs. M. R. Peterson, Mrs. Bion Hunter and Mrs. C. M. Tanner.

Iowa Alumni Wed, Reveal Engagements

Helen Rodke Married To Russell Schmidt Tues. at Clear Lake

University alumni and former students in several Iowa communities have announced their engagements and marriages, according to word received here.

Rodke-Schmidt

The marriage of Helen Rodke and Russell Schmidt, both of Waterloo, took place Tuesday in the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Edstrand, in Clear Lake. The single ring ceremony was read by the Rev. J. B. Calhoun, pastor of the Congregational church in Clear Lake.

The bride wore a costume suit of tropical earth wool with black accessories. Her corsage was of white gardenias. Helen King, cousin of the bride, who served as maid of honor, wore a grape wine costume suit with matching accessories and a corsage of red and pink roses. Jim King, another cousin of the bride, was best man.

After the ceremony a wedding dinner was served to the bridal party and guests at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt. Out-of-town guests at the ceremony included Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Schmidt of Mason City, uncle and aunt of the bridegroom.

Mr. Schmidt is a graduate of Iowa State Teachers college in Cedar Falls. He plans to enter the university college of medicine this year. For the present the couple will live in Waterloo.

Lundquist-Ladenberger

Bernice Lundquist, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Lundquist of Beresford, S. D., and Dr. D. L. Ladenberger, son of Mrs. Agnes Ladenberger of LeMars, were married recently in the parsonage of the Presbyterian church in LeMars. The Rev. F. P. Pfaltzgraff officiated.

The bride was dressed in a rose wine wool dress with a baby wolf jacket and oxheart accessories. Her shoulder corsage was of talisman roses and lilies of the valley. Mrs. Lawrence Kass of LeMars, who was matron of honor, wore a navy blue suit with navy accessories and a corsage of Briarcliff roses.

Mrs. Ladenberger is a graduate of Washington high school in Sioux Falls, S. D., and of the University of South Dakota. She is a member of Delta Delta Delta sorority. For the past seven years she has been employed in the Clay county auditor's office in Vermillion, S. D.

Dr. Ladenberger is a graduate of the LeMars high school. He attended Western Union college in LeMars and the university, where he was graduated from the college of dentistry. He is a member of Xi Psi Phi dental fraternity.

After the ceremony the couple left for a wedding trip through the east and Canada. They will make their home in LeMars where Dr. Ladenberger is located.

Relief Corps Meets Tuesday

Initiation of new candidates is planned for the meeting of the Women's Relief corps Tuesday at 2 p.m. in the community building.

A business meeting will follow the initiation. Officers are asked to dress in white. All members are requested to be present for the session which is an important one.

Big Ten Gridders Ready For 45th Season

Whitney Martin's SPORTS TRAIL

- No Alibi
- Bosox Edge
- Wearing Out

NEW YORK, Sept. 8 (AP) — There are no sour grapes hanging in Joe Cronin's arbor. Nor is he predicting a 1940 Boston tea party, with the Red Sox tossing the Yanks overboard.

Using the old cistern pump technique, we tried to draw from the Bosox pilot the statement the Yankees were just lucky, that Boston would have won if —, and the New Yorkers would dance to Boston music next year. It was just like trying to draw a check on the bank of the Wabash.

No Alibi

Big Joe not only refused to assert his team might have won. He insisted that the Yankees won because they are the better team. "Those Yankees are a really great team," Cronin declared. "And here's something most of you overlook. Their speed. They're fast in the field. They're fast on the bases. If you fumble the ball just an instant, bingo, they're there."

"And they're just at a nice age, which means they'll be good next year. Getting back to their speed, twice yesterday they had men on first and third with one out. Ordinarily the infield would play in closer hoping for a double play. But with batters such as the Yanks have, and their speed, you can't take a chance on that. They are liable to smash the ball right through you, and if you try for a double play they are so fast you'll probably fail and a run will score."

Bosox Edge

Cronin's praise is an unselfish gesture, as he could easily belittle the champions inasmuch as the Red Sox, up to today, had a 10 to six edge in their games.

"They beat the other strong teams, though," he said ruefully, "and we lose to them. They take three from the White Sox; we lose three to the White Sox."

As to his own team, Cronin has little to say, even declaring to tee off on his pitching staff, which most fans blame for the downfall of the club.

"When Woodrow Rich hurt his arm, it hurt us," he admitted. "He looked fine, won four games, and appeared due for a big year. As it is, I can start my best pitcher only once a week. Ruffing can start for the Yanks every four days. Only when Grove starts can I sit back and say: 'Well, he's going to either win it or lose it.' In other games I have to figure beforehand whom I will send in the sixth inning, and who will relieve him in the eighth."

Wearing Out

"I don't know how long Lefty will go on. Let's see, Jess Haines was pitching when he was 43, and I guess they never did find out how old Jack Quinn was."

Cronin pointed to the purchase of Herb Hash and Bill Butland, Minneapolis pitchers, as an indication the Sox were already thinking of their 1940 hurling staff, but aside from reckoning that youngsters like Ted Williams, Jim Tabor and Bobby Doerr, all of whom he praised highly, should be even better, he was cagey as to the 1940 outlook.

"It looks like a winter of hard work," he admitted.

And considering what must be done to build up the team to the strength of the Yankees, that's a gem of understatement.

Title Match Is Postponed

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8 (AP) — The featherweight championship bout between Joey Archibald of Pawtucket, R. I., the titleholder, and Harry Jeffra of Baltimore, scheduled here for Sept. 11, was postponed today because of a training injury to Archibald.

District of Columbia boxing commission doctors examined a cut over Archibald's eye after a workout today and decided that it required three stitches and would render the champion unable to fight for several weeks.

The United States government has set aside three national parks in Alaska, containing a total of 5,801,883 acres.

CHICAGO, Ill. (Special) — Big Ten football squads will report to their coaches Sept. 10 to mark the beginning of the 45th Western conference gridiron season and the 61st year of organized competition in the sport among member institutions.

Football in Big Ten schools dates to the first decade of the sport in American colleges. Michigan in the spring of 1875 played racing in what is considered the first intercollegiate game in the west, just 10 years after the first intercollegiate game between Princeton and Rutgers.

While the sport remained popular as interclass competition and recreation on other Western conference campuses, Michigan undertook an ambitious interscholastic schedule in 1881, going east to play Yale, Harvard and Princeton.

Ohio State in 1890 played four games, and the same year Illinois met Illinois Wesleyan in a contest added to the program of the Illinois Intercollegiate Athletic and Oratorical Association Field Day, which originally included competition in oratory, baseball, track and tennis.

Northwestern had maintained a team without formal recognition before 1892 but in that year a 10-game schedule was played. In

The following year, 1892, Minnesota played its first intercollegiate game, scheduling two contests with Hamline college, and in 1896 Indiana organized a squad.

Purdue in 1897 played a single game with Butler, and in 1899 Iowa played its first game with Grinnell and Wisconsin met Beloit college and a Milwaukee club team.

Ohio State in 1890 played four games, and the same year Illinois met Illinois Wesleyan in a contest added to the program of the Illinois Intercollegiate Athletic and Oratorical Association Field Day, which originally included competition in oratory, baseball, track and tennis.

Northwestern had maintained a team without formal recognition before 1892 but in that year a 10-game schedule was played. In 1892 also football was introduced with the opening of the University of Chicago, a seven-game schedule being sponsored by coach and acting captain Amos Alonzo Stagg.

With the exception of Chicago, intercollegiate football in 1899 was a natural evolution from interclass and unorganized play. At Michigan in 1892 it was recorded "a group of 120 freshmen defeated 80 sophomores." At Ohio State the sport's formal introduction was thought to be "eliptical rather than spherical." The ball was to be returned but someone broke into the room where it was kept and used it so that it could not be sent back to the manufacturer.

Paid coaches did not appear until 1890. Team play was directed in early years by individuals who generally had previous experience and were named coach and as a rule acting captain. Alexander Bruce was Wisconsin's first coach as the only team candidate in 1899 who had ever played the game. Scott Williams, of Sterling, Ill., was the father of the sport at Illinois and qualified as first captain, manager and coach because, as tradition has it, he was the only student who had ever seen a game.

Graduate and professional school students with experience on eastern teams were important in the early development of the sport in the middlewest, notably in Michigan and at Northwestern, where Marshall Noyes, a law student and graduate of Yale, was the first coach in 1892. Albert Berg, a native of Lafayette who had lost his hearing as a youth and who had played at Gallaudet college, Washington, D. C., coached Purdue's first team in 1897.

Stagg, coming to Chicago in 1892, was unique as a full time paid coach and in his case a scarcity of material demanded he also took his place on the field. Parke Davis, a former Princeton tackle, was engaged at Wisconsin in 1893.

The general mushroom growth of football and of the colleges themselves in those early days provided an ideal culture for theills which generally beset inter-collegiate athletics and football in particular in that era. To curb those evils at the instance of President Smart of Purdue the presidents of seven midwest colleges met in 1895 to sponsor an organization for the regulation and control of intercollegiate athletics.

The Intercollegiate conference, popularly known as the Western conference or Big Ten, dates from that meeting although it was not until the following winter that the faculty representatives, designated at the presidents' meeting as the legislative organ for the new group and as such a unique feature of the new conference, met to inaugurate the conference program. At that time Minnesota, Wisconsin, Illinois, Michigan, and Northwestern, were represented together with Lake Forest college as represented at the original meeting. Iowa and Indiana were admitted to membership in 1899 and Ohio State in 1912.

Coach Brechler in Hunt For Successful Backfield Group

With the finding of a backfield combination, his foremost worry, Coach Paul Brechler continued to shift his Blue and White charges in an attempt to find the best functioning group during the regular drill yesterday.

Jack Canney appears to be a permanent fixture in the U-High backfield, and Cy Beye will probably take a stab at a running position when he returns to drill. Chuck Means was in the tailback position and handled the ball on

Walters' Homer Enables Reds To Maintain Lead Over Cards

Blast Breaks Tie With Pittsburgh As Bucky Grabs 23rd

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 8 (AP) — Bucky Walters held Pittsburgh to five hits today and lofted an eighth inning home run which broke a tie and shoved Cincinnati to 5 to 2 victory, evening the four game series here at two each.

It was Walters' 23rd triumph of the season and marked the 26th complete game he has worked. He also was the tenth pitcher manager Bill McKechnie had called upon in the past three days.

The Pirates played the game under protest after a violent argument in the fifth inning. With Lee Handley on second base and George Susce on first Max Butcher rolled to Linus Frey. Frey tagged out Susce but threw wild past McCormick when the Pirate catcher bumped him, Handley scoring.

The Cubs got 10 hits but four Cardinal plays put out down their scoring chances.

Gutteridge And Slaughter Pace Cards To Win

CHICAGO, Sept. 8 (AP) — Enos Slaughter and Don Gutteridge batted the St. Louis Cards to a 10 to 3 victory over the Chicago Cubs today, enabling the winners to stay within four and a half games of the league-leading Cincinnati Reds.

Gutteridge sent four runs home on two triples and Slaughter drove in one run and scored thrice himself on a double and three singles. Bill McGee was jerked in the fifth when he was leading 5 to 1,

Oil Boom In Illinois Town

With about 30 active operations already going on, the search for oil at Keensburg, Ill., southwest of Mt. Carmel, continues. One well has been completed, producing 35 barrels per hour. Another, on a church lot, has been cored. The photo shows the elevator in the middle of the village with a string of three derricks.

Thirty-Nine Divorce Actions Filed as Court Deadline Passes

County Clerk Miller Gets Five Actions On Final Day

As the deadline passed yesterday afternoon for filing of cases for the September term of district court the total number of divorce suits was raised to 39. In addition to this number, there are four separate maintenance cases on file.

A total of five cases were filed with County Clerk R. Neil Miller yesterday. County Clerk Miller said that the number of cases on file would probably near a record if not set a record for divorce cases. An all-time record number of divorce cases has been filed in Scott county for the September term of court there, it is reported.

Grace Harden is seeking separate maintenance from Ira Harden on the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment. The plaintiff has resided in Iowa City for 20 years and, according to the petition, the defendant is residing in Ft. Worth, Tex.

The couple were married June 27, 1927, in Muscatine county and lived together until two years ago. Mrs. Harden charges that the defendant came to Iowa City in the spring of 1939 and took the couple's only child, Ira, 11, to Texas with him. She charges that the defendant has "harrassed and worried the plaintiff by starting various divorce actions against her."

In the suit she asks separate maintenance, custody of the child, $20 a month support money for the "balance of her life," the household furniture and the title, possession and ownership of property belonging to the couple in Muscatine. Atty. Lee Farnsworth filed the suit.

In a divorce action filed yesterday afternoon, Ursula Goody asks separation from Robert Goody, Jr. The couple were married in Omaha, Neb., Aug. 25, 1937, the petition states, and lived together until Aug. 15, 1938. Mrs. Goody charges cruel and inhuman treatment and asks costs of the action to be paid by the defendant. This suit was filed by Attorney Ingalls Swisher.

Esther Payne Muenzer filed a petition seeking a divorce from Hans Christian Muenzer on the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment. She seeks custody of three minor children and $50 a week support for herself and her children. According to the petition, the couple were married in Chicago June 3, 1923, and lived together until Aug. 30, 1938. Attorney William R. Hart represents the plaintiff.

A petition for divorce was filed by Mary E. Lewis from Dean E. Lewis on grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment and desertion. The couple were married Jan. 4, 1937, at Rock Island, Ill., the petition states. The plaintiff seeks custody of a minor child and $50 a month support money. The petition also asks the court that the defendant be restrained from interfering or molesting the plaintiff or child. Attorney Arthur O. Leff filed the action.

Alene Finch Arn filed action against Donald William Arn yesterday. The divorce action is based on grounds of cruelty. The couple were married Sept. 11, 1936, the petition states. The plaintiff asks custody of two minor children and was granted temporary injunction by Judge Harold D. Evans permitting her to hold furniture and an auto owned by the couple and restraining the defendant from molesting the plaintiff. The law firm of Byington and Rate filed the action.

The September term of court opens September 18, when the grand jury meets. Petit jurors have been instructed to appear for duty Sept. 25.

August County Tax Collection Is $42,728.78

Collections during the month of August in the county totaled $42,728.78, it was announced by County Treasurer W. E. Smith in his regular monthly report to the county auditor yesterday.

The report said current tax collections amounted to $27,013.76, delinquent taxes $3,491.18 and miscellaneous collections were $12,222.84.

Current tax collections, the treasurer said, included $1,242.69 in the poor fund; 10,241.61 in the school district fund; $4,444.85 in the corporate funds. A total of $1,472.75 was collected in auto fees while the secondary road maintenance fund contributed $2,798.87.

Will Inaugurate West Branch To Iowa City Route

A star mail route will be inaugurated between Iowa City and West Branch it was made known yesterday by Postmaster Walter J. Barrow. The plan to be established will be permanent and will

Washington Man Brings Petition For Damages

A petition filed in district court by J. L. Yeggy of Washington, Ia., against Noble Sweeting and Chester L. Sweeting, both of this city, seeks to collect damages totaling $175 as the result of an auto accident.

In the petition the plaintiff alleged that the defendant, Charles L. Sweeting, was "negligent and careless" in the operation of an auto which collided with the car driven by the plaintiff on November 19, 1938. The petition stated that the Sweeting car was owned by Noble Sweeting.

City Officials Defendants In Cost Action

Des Moines Legal Firm Asks $6,270 Allegedly Due

The mayor, members of the city council and the city clerk were named as defendants by the law firm of Stipp, Perry, Bannister, and Starzinger of Des Moines in a petition asking that a writ of mandamus be issued by the court commanding the defendants to take necessary steps to pay the plaintiff $6,270.

The petition stated that the amount represents the sum due the plaintiffs by the defendants for services rendered and cash advanced on behalf of Iowa City.

The plaintiff alleges that the city council approved payment of the balance at a council meeting April 2, 1937.

The defendants said this sum represented the amount not yet received after a portion of the services were paid for.

The plaintiffs in the petition declared, "the defendants have failed and refused, and continued to refuse, to take any action whatsoever with regard to the plaintiff's claim against the city of Iowa City."

Funeral For Mrs. Rossie Will Be Mon.

Funeral services will be held Monday morning at St. Patrick's church for Mrs. T. R. Rossie, 53, who died at her home, 112½ E. College street, at 6:30 yesterday morning following a lingering illness.

Mrs. Rossie was born in Crenshaw Pa., and lived in Chariton several years before moving to Iowa City four years ago with her husband and family.

Besides her husband she is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Mildred Perrelli of Des Moines, Mrs. Thomas Polezoies of Iowa City and Betty Rossie of Iowa City; three sons Robert A., Leo and Joseph, all of Iowa City, one brother and eight grandchildren.

Burial will be in St. Joseph's cemetery. The body is at McGovern's funeral home.

replace the present temporary star route being operated that necessitates the mails going first to West Liberty before reaching West Branch.

The postmaster said sealed proposals are being received at the office of the assistant postmaster general and will extend until September 26, 1939.

Postmaster Barrow said the 9.9 mile trip will be made six times a week but there will be no service on holidays. He announced the bond required for the bid was $1,000.

Billy Burke Files Damage Suit For $2,395.55 In District Court

A suit asking $2,395.55 damages from Delbert L. Harris, doing business as the Merchant's United Delivery, was filed yesterday in district court by Billy Burke.

Burke charges that a delivery truck driven by an employee of the merchant's delivery service hit him and "hurled him" to the pavement with "great force" as he was walking across the street in accordance with a green traffic light.

The accident occurred, according to the suit, March 4, 1939 at the intersection of Burlington and Dubuque streets.

The plaintiff charges that as a result of the accident he suffered unconsciousness, severe bruises on all parts of the body, a ruptured blood vessel in one of his legs and shock. The suit also states that plaintiff was confined to the hospital from the time of the accident until April 2, 1939, that he was unable to work for two months and by reason of said injuries is still

Johnson County Reveals Plans For Nursing Service Group

Generalized Program During Coming Year Will Be County-Wide

A county-wide organization of nursing service was announced yesterday by Mrs. Hilken K. Thompson, Johnson county health nurse, that will entail all the phases of a generalized nursing program for the coming year.

In announcing the program she said the county has been divided into districts, five in number, by the nursing service and would be directed by the nursing service.

Each committee directing its own district will support the service, educate the communities with the plans and duties of the service as well as keep the nurse informed of health conditions within its district, she said.

Listing by the districts are as follows:

District 1—Monroe, Jefferson, Big Grove, Cedar, Graham, and Newport. Mrs. Orpha Zajicek, chairman.

District 2—Madison, Penn, Clear Creek, and West Lucas. Mrs. E. L. Baker, chairman.

District 3—Oxford, Hardin, and Union. Mrs. J. B. Burns, chairman.

District 4—Washington, Sharon, and Liberty. Mrs. Mahlon Amish, chairman.

District 5—East Lucas, Scott, Lincoln, Pleasant Valley, and Free-

Hitler Lacks Support at Home

Rev. C. J. Bready Gives Views on Situation After Recent Trip to Germany

By Staff Writer

He returned to his home and son at all times and will kill himself should things suddenly turn against him.

The Cedar Rapids pastor is confident that if this opposition group could get in power the present war would be short-lived. But he also believes that, with the huge army in power, a revolt would be suicidal—providing, of course, the army remains faithful to Hitler. The Anglo-French "peace front" is now attempting to sow the seeds of revolution by propaganda promotion.)</p
