

A Big Day for WSUI--Moving Into New Engineering Building Addition

First programs will originate from this studio—studio B. Announcer Bill Sener is show here with Studio Hostess Georgia Gaddis.

Georgia Gaddis, studio hostess, and James Cox, in charge of continuity, are shown here in the main office of the new building.

Caught in a candid pose is Bill Sener, staff announcer, who will broadcast the first program from new WSUI studios tomorrow.

Carl Menzer, general director of WSUI, installs equipment in the central control room of the new building between the two main studios.

Radio Station WSUI Begins 'Second 20 Years' States Policy Of Peace, Preparation

First Program Of New Series Is Tomorrow

University Station Moves to Engineering Building Addition

At 9:50 a.m. tomorrow, WSUI's staff announcer, Bill Sener, will broadcast the usual program calendar for the day—but with a difference.

The program will be the first to emanate from the new $94,000 studio building, recently completed as an addition to the main engineering building.

The event, to be celebrated in a quiet way, will mark the end of the university's first 20 years of broadcasting. The station entered the educational field as a pioneer back in 1919, when the industry was new.

Through the years, more recently under the direction of three persons — Director Carl Menzer, Program Director Pearl Bennett Broxam and Prof. Bruce E. Mahan, chairman of the radio board — WSUI has risen to the top bracket of university stations in the nation.

New Fall Program
Tomorrow will mark the opening of a new fall program, prepared under the direction of Mrs. Broxam, as the station embarks upon its "second 20 years."

Moving of office and broadcasting equipment from Iowa Union studios took place yesterday afternoon and equipment from the Old Gold studios in the engineering building will be moved early this week.

Carl Menzer, director of WSUI, is personally installing all the control boards and equipment in the new building. He has been working throughout the past week and will have enough equipment installed by tomorrow to begin broadcasts from one of the five studios in the new structure.

Other equipment to the other studios will be installed soon, according to Mr. Menzer. When the building is completely equipped, there will be five studios from which broadcasts will originate.

Control Booths
Each of the studios has a control booth for directing programs (See WSUI, Page 5)

Soviet Woos Nations of Baltic, Begins Alterations in Poland

MOSCOW, Sept. 23 (AP) — Moscow's attention centered tonight on the Soviet Union's future relations with small Baltic states and on economic reorganization of the three-fifths of Poland designated the Russian zone of occupation.

On the diplomatic front, speculation was stirred by the impending arrival of Karl Selter, Estonian foreign minister, for conversations with Russian officials

Reich Mourns Von Fritsch; War in Poland Called 'Over'

By MELVIN WHITELEATHER
BERLIN, Sept. 23 (AP) — The German army mourned tonight for its former commander-in-chief, Colonel General Walther von Brauchitsch, in an announcement declaring that the German army stood "in deep mourning, yet filled with a great pride," at von Fritsch's bier.

He became the first German general to die when he was struck down yesterday "while carrying out a dangerous reconnoitering operation."

These were the words by the present commander-in-chief, Colonel General Walther von Brauchitsch, in an announcement declaring that the German army stood "in deep mourning, yet filled with a great pride," at von Fritsch's bier.

The army meanwhile declared in a communique that the war in Poland was over, despite the continued resistance of Warsaw, where von Fritsch fell.

On Adolf Hitler's orders a state funeral will be given the 59-year-old general who played an outstanding role in the revival of the German land forces before his failure to keep in step with the Fuehrer led to his resignation in February, 1938.

Before the death announcement most Germans believed von Fritsch was still in retirement. It was known, however, that he had volunteered to serve at the front and von Brauchitsch announced he had joined his regiment "on the first day" of the war.

Today's first communique, covering the situation through yesterday, said Iwowa had surrendered to the German army as Russians approached the city. Lwowa falls within the territory agreed upon as the Russian occupation zone.

The night communique said "The campaign in Poland is ended" and that the entire Polish army of millions "had been defeated, captured or routed."

But Warsaw still held out against the invaders, the communique admitted. It declared the Polish capital was one of three "hopeless situations" the others being Modlin and the Hela peninsula.

Warsaw was said by the supreme command to have been cut off from Modlin, a fortress about 10 miles northwest of the capital.

Among the Poles captured, the army said, was General Bortnowski, described as supreme commander of the Polish corridor army, along with his staff.

ROME, Sept. 23 (AP) — Premier Mussolini broke his self-imposed silence today to reaffirm Italy's war policy — avoidance of hostilities, but military preparations for any eventuality, and support of every peace effort.

In a forceful speech at the Palazzo Venezia to fascist leaders from Bologna, Il Duce declared: "In a situation like the present, full of many unknowns, the watchword has sprung spontaneously among the masses of authentic Italian people — prepare in a military way to meet any eventuality, support every possible peace effort and work vigilantly in silence."

America--A Reserve for Future of Humanity

BUCHAREST, Sept. 23 (AP) — Rumanians today lauded Premier Armand Calinescu as a martyr to patriotism as they observed national mourning on the eve of an elaborate funeral for the assassinated statesman.

Newspapers published the last decree signed by the premier a few hours before he was slain by his implacable pro-Nazi iron guard forces. The decree provided, ironically, for additional ceremonies at government funerals.

Calinescu's own last rites will be the first under the decree.

While king and peasant paid tribute to Calinescu, the cabinet apparently had wiped out the ring charged with the premier's death.

The number of iron guardists executed is now placed officially at 320, although usually well-informed circles said there were indications the toll was several times greater.

The government said that iron guardists in concentration camps were shot "while attempting to revolt."

Officials and by the possible effect of these talks on the future of the small Baltic states.

On the Polish front, huge Polish estates were being divided among former tenants and servants even as troops to the west still were consolidating their occupation. In the occupied zone, which has been widened steadily since the Russian troops entered Poland a week ago tomorrow, the new life was being inaugurated in numerous ways.

Members of the group said they would put their proposition before majority leader Barkley (D-Ky.).

F.D.R. Declines To Reply To Alf Landon

HYDE PARK, N. Y., Sept. 23 (AP) — President Roosevelt today declined an opportunity to answer a proposal from the man whom he defeated for the presidency in 1936 that he tell the nation he does not want another four years in the White House.

A person close to the president asserted Mr. Roosevelt had been urging the country since Sept. 3 to lay aside politics during this critical period in the world's history.

Senators opposed to repeal of the arms embargo agreed that they would hold their speechmaking to "reasonable lengths" if administration followers would agree not to employ "pressure" methods.

If such an arrangement could be worked out, one opposition leader predicted a vote within a month. Under the agreement, this senator said, the opposition would be given four or five days to prepare its case after the bill is reported by the senate foreign relations committee and no night senate sessions would be held. In return, the opposition would agree not to obstruct action in the foreign relations committee or to inject extraneous matter into the senate debate.

Members of the group said they would put their proposition before majority leader Barkley (D-Ky.).

Sigmund Freud, Psychologist, Dies of Heart Trouble at 83

LONDON, Sept. 23 (AP) — Sigmund Freud, 83, whose researches in the recesses of human thought brought him international acclaim as "the father of psychoanalysis," died at his suburban Hampstead home tonight — an exile from his beloved Vienna.

The octogenarian philosopher had been suffering from heart trouble since settling in exile in England in June, 1938. He lapsed into a coma yesterday and died without regaining consciousness.

Freud was virtually penniless when he arrived in London but he brought most of his library. With him also was the partly-finished manuscript of an analysis which, it was said, would explain the "sub-conscious fears and wishes" of characters in the Bible.

The aged philosopher was forced to leave Vienna after the "anschluss" of Germany and Austria. His religious heritage of Judaism made him a victim of Nazi anti-Semitism and Nazi newspapers denounced his international institute of psychoanalysis "A pronographic Jewish specialty."

He lived for 78 years in Vienna — 45 years in one apartment. All of Freud's property was confiscated in Vienna except his books, and it was said he had been allowed to leave only after an emergency committee of the American Psychoanalytic association raised $8,400 to pay the German government a debt owed by "The International Psychoanalytic Verlag," a magazine founded by Freud.

One of his earliest works, published by Dr. Josef Breuer, a Viennese neurologist, was "Studies in Hysteria." He wrote voluminously and his 80th birthday found him in almost complete retirement after finishing the 12th and final volume of his assembled works.

The sad, white-whiskered psychoanalyst arrived in London on June 6, 1938.

Graduate College To Sponsor Series Of Forums Beginning Thursday Night

As a part of the graduate college lecture program this year a series of open forum discussions of the problems of war or peace, the first of which will take place Thursday at 8 p.m. in the senate chamber of Old Capitol, have been planned.

The series, being arranged under the auspices of the graduate college with the cooperation of the various departments of the social sciences, will present both sides of the questions sanely and dispassionately, it was announced yesterday.

"The quick taking of sides, or the sudden flare of emotion, do not belong to a community which is training itself in the arts of thought and reason," said Prof. C. W. de Kieviet, chairman in charge of the series program.

Problems of American neutrality will be the subject of the first forum. Forum chairman will be Dean George D. Stoddard of the graduate college with discussion leader Prof. Kirk Porter, a recognized student of neutrality and international law and an experienced forum leader.

The second forum in the series is scheduled for Oct. 10, the problem being "Propaganda and Common Sense." This is the rest of the program.

Oct. 24—"The Diplomacy of the War of Nerves."
Nov. 8—"Freedom on the Seas."
Nov. 21—"Men and Materials."
Dec. 5—"Strategy of the War."
Jan. 9—"Psychology in the War."
Feb. 6—"Threats to Civilization."
Feb. 20—"War and Social Structures."
March 6—"A Rational Peace."

Assisting Professor Porter Thursday evening on the panel will be Prof. Howard T. Bowen, Prof. H. J. Thornton, Prof. F. H. Bordwell, Prof. Stephen Bush, Prof. Orville C. Irwin and Prof. W. T. Root.

Business Rise Greatest Since October, 1937

NEW YORK, Sept. 23 (AP) — The blast furnaces, mills, railroads and other productive forces of the United States clattered along this week at their best gait since October, 1937, and registered the sharpest period-to-period rise in almost five years.

Simulation came to some extent from orders generated from neutrals, very slightly as yet from belligerents needing our products as a result of Europe's war, but mostly through enlargement of domestic demand. Some factories went on a three shift basis and clerical forces were overwhelmed with the wealth of inquiries.

Pan-American Meeting Opens

PANAMA, Panama, Sept. 23 (AP) — President Juan Dones-Arosemena of Panama urged 21 American republics today to safeguard their neutrality to provide "a reserve for the future of humanity."

Opening a special Pan-American conference to discuss neutrality and commercial problems growing out of the war in Europe, Arosemena told the delegates any American country which departs from neutrality "will face the most tremendous of responsibilities."

The conference, meeting at the national university, was called by agreement of several American countries, including the United States, under an inter-American agreement reached at Buenos Aires in 1936 providing for consultation in case the peace of the continent is threatened by war within or outside the western hemisphere.

The chief task of the new world, Arosemena said, "is to maintain our household in condition that we may live in it as reasonable and free human beings."

Sea Becomes Netherlands' First Defense

AMSTERDAM, Sept. 23 (AP) — The sea, public enemy number one to The Netherlands for centuries, was being held in reserve tonight as one of the first-line defenses of this neutral nation and to a lesser extent of her mobilized neighbor, Belgium.

The Netherlands and Belgium, while voicing the utmost hope of keeping out of the war and warily pursuing a course of strict neutrality, nevertheless have mobilized all their resources against any possible attempt by the belligerent powers to turn these small nations into a battleground.

Armies have been mobilized to back up the self-defense policies of both countries and a highly essential part of the plans is the possible flooding of large areas lying below sea level in case of invasion from any direction.

However, it was stressed officially that no opening of dikes has taken place and inundation would be carried out only in case of extreme danger.

Hitler Sees Increased German Attack Along Western Frontier

PARIS, Sept. 23 (AP) — German forces today increased the vigor of their attacks against a 60-mile sector of France's western front positions, and French advisers said the Germans were operating under the eyes of Adolf Hitler and Col.-Gen. Walther von Brauchitsch.

Military observers said it was too early to tell whether this was the beginning of an expected major German offensive, but the pressure coincided with the reported arrival of the Fuehrer and his army commander in chief at Germany's Westwall.

It was reported from Berlin that Hitler stood on the heights within sight of Warsaw Friday. Von Brauchitsch had left the eastern front previously.)

The German assaults on the western front extended all the way from the Saarbruecken area south to Bienwald forest.

America Depends On Education

WHEN A GREAT portion of the world is upset by conflict and there is danger besetting the structure of civilization, those to whom the heritage of culture is sacred look to education for its preservation.

It is well expressed by Nelson P. Mead, president of the College of the City of New York who prefaces another year of higher education with the statement, "In these troublous times, democracy's strongest safeguard against the inroads of totalitarian philosophies is education. At this very moment the traditional values of our civilization are being challenged, and the colleges and schools of the country will have to assume a more important role than ever before in guiding our youth to examine intelligently our culture of the past, and more particularly, the events and movements of today."

Does that mean that to protect democracy education is to close its ears and tape its mouth that students may hear nothing but the democratic philosophy in classrooms? Quite the contrary, in the opinion of Alf M. Landon, 1936 republican presidential nominee. Voting unequivocally for freedom in education as the best protection for democracy's ideals, Landon recently said, "I want my son to go to a school where they teach all forms of government. I want him to know all there is to know about communism, fascism and socialism, as well as representative forms of government. I want him to know all the good and the bad points of all these theories of government, as they have been worked out in actual practice in the past and present."

As true as it is that education must keep up with the times in its assignment as guardian of democracy, it must listen to the warnings of men who wish to protect education itself from crumbling in the disorder of governments.

"Education exists," says President Robert M. Hutchins of the University of Chicago, "not merely so that the rising generation may face, discuss, and, if possible, decide questions basic to political society and human life. It exists to foster moral, intellectual and spiritual growth. Its results should be a sound character, a disciplined mind, and an elevated spirit."

Old Capitol Remembers

ONE HUNDRED years is a long time. It is enough to give veneration to a man or a building, long enough to increase the reverence with which students and professors admire Old Capitol.

We have noted with pleasure the increased interest that Old Capitol has attracted since the city centennial observation. It is as though the building had become of age at 100 and any doubt that one might of had as to its real importance has been dispelled. There is no man who has witnessed the stream of events that Old Capitol remembers.

"Old Capitol remembers" — that phrase every student has heard often this fall. Born in the centennial, conceived in the mind of Iowa's most brilliant historian, "Old Capitol Remembers" is a title that becomes the keynote of the year's induction.

A tribute to the building around which University of Iowa life centers is this paragraph from the induction speech of President Eugene A. Gilmore:

"Scenes have shifted, personnel has changed. Many activities have moved elsewhere. But the Old Capitol remains, now the center and symbol of the university born within its walls, uniting the present with the past, and expressing those sterling qualities of good proportion, nice balance, simplicity, dignity, stability and worthiness which sound education ever seeks to inculcate."

Students new to the campus will soon come to revere the Old Capitol building as do returning students and alumni.

The words of the university hymn will ring always in their ears, reminding them of the glory and heritage that is theirs.

Parade Of Opinion

By Associated Collegiate Press

A new note has entered the opening-of-the-year editorials in the college press — a note that is ominous and fearful in contrast to the usual happy welcomes of other years. Almost without exception, first issues of the college newspapers for this school year carry warnings to their readers to keep a weather eye on the war and diplomatic movements of the world, and to study with renewed interest the causes of war and the ways and means by which the U. S. can keep out of armed conflict.

Many college editors are making good use of the analogy between our battles of the gridiron and Europe's battles on land, sea and air to point out the advantages of U. S. collegians over the youth of other lands. Here's how the University of Tulsa Collegian put it:

Today, students find bloodshed and heroes enough on the football field. Today, boys working their way through college as a result of the last war know that a war boom is a fickle, unstable thing. Today co-eds realize that glamorous uniforms lead to very unglamorous breadlines. Today, T. U. students say flatly that they will refuse to fight."

But, says the Gettysburg College Gettysburgian, "it is hopeless to expect that we can ignore the dangers of a widespread conflict even 3,000 miles away. . . but it is not necessary that we digest the especially prepared propaganda directed at neutrals needed to help in the conflict. Let us keep our minds open, our hands clean, and our country free and neutral for the development of our own civilization."

The futility that most collegians feel about war is aptly phrased by the Hobart College Herald: "The most discouraging aspect of the whole situation is that there are no indications that things will be better after this Second World War is ended. We are witnessing a vicious circle in which wars engender hate which causes new wars and more hate. It seems to be impossible for a people to fight a war without building up so much hatred of the enemy that a reasonable peace is impossible."

There is a general feeling among collegians that we must stay out of this war, come what may. The anti-war oaths popular some two or three years ago seem to be cropping up anew. Listen to the University of Richmond, Collegian: "To the man who says we can't stay out of war, say: 'We owe nothing to Britain and we have nothing to fear of Germany. We can stay out of war; we must stay out of war; we will stay out of war!'"

War—the great destroyer of progress and routine living in college as well as out—is again disrupting the lives and the plans of countless U. S. educators and educational organizations.

Although the nation is not directly engaged in the second great European conflict, here is a quick survey of how the war is effecting higher education today:

Rhodes scholarships have been suspended for this school year. The 1939 scholars-elect will remain in this country, and those already in England have been asked to return to the U. S. as soon as passage can be arranged. But scholarships now in force are not cancelled. They are only suspended until circumstances make it possible for them to be resumed.

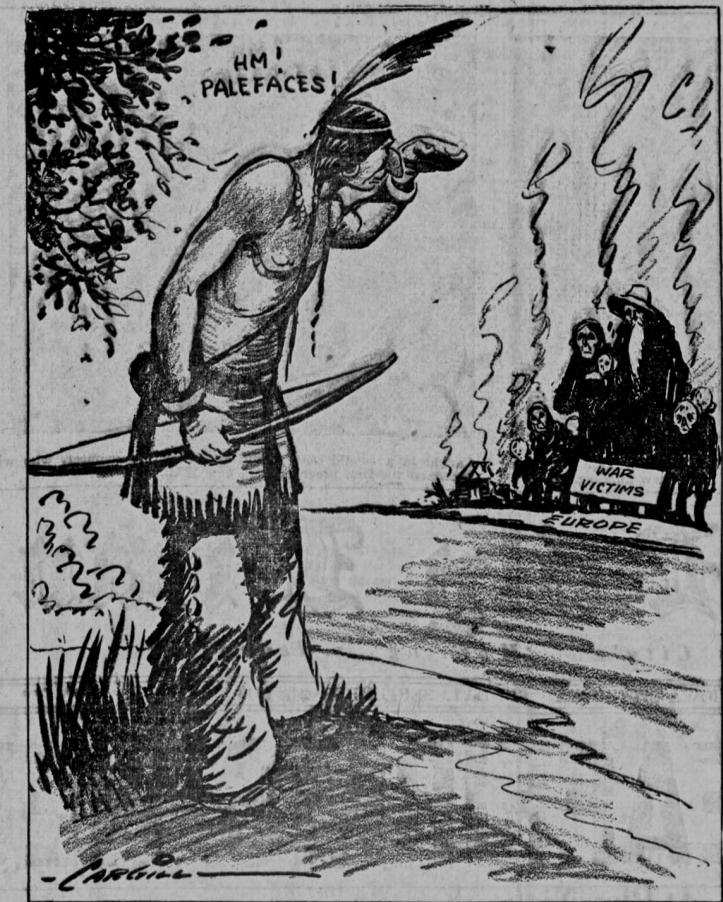

In addition to the Rhodes scholarships, all foreign student exchanges between this country and Europe have been cancelled. More than 300 students are affected by this war-time measure. In addition to this, some 7,500 students who each year study abroad at their own expense will be forced to continue their education here.

First announcement of a curricular change in a U. S. university comes from Massachusetts Institute of Technology, which has instituted a new advanced course in marine engineering. This move was made because of the prospect of an enormous expansion in naval and merchant shipbuilding in the next ten years. U. S. navy officers will aid in giving the course.

R. O. T. C. students worrying about their status should the U. S. be drawn into the war, have this announcement of an army official to establish their responsibilities.

"The R. O. T. C. cannot be called into service by the federal government as it has no jurisdiction over the university units," R. O. T. C. students need not serve sooner than a person who has not had such training, the official indicated.

Stewart Says Borah Slated as Chief Opponent To Roosevelt's Neutrality Bill in Extra Session

Senator Borah is the star performer at this extra session of congress. Even before the session's opening the indications had begun to be that he'd lose his fight to maintain unqualified American neutrality in the present world situation.

President Roosevelt, demanding modification of the Nye neutrality law, hadn't exactly out-argued him, but as the time neared for the lawmakers to convene it had grown pretty apparent that public sentiment favored the presidential side of the case regardless of reasoning, pro or con.

All the same, the Idaho statesman has put up a formidable scrap. He undoubtedly has more influence with his fellow legislators than any other single individual on Capitol Hill, but not enough to offset the odds against him. He has enough, though, to give the administration an anxious spell of it. He's like a warrior who goes down to defeat after having piled up a tremendous stack of badly damaged opponents. Losing, under such circumstances, isn't a bit discredit-able.

Senator Borah makes an equally good talker, but it's clear that he's in the minority class. I know plenty of Americans who at least were not outright anti-German in 1914, but who are emphatically so now. Not that they want to get into the war, but they want to be as non-belligerently helpful to the democracies as they can.

Five Per Cent of Theater Goers Intelligent Enough To Appreciate Plays -- Pearl Buck

NEW YORK—If the other 95 per cent makes retaliatory gestures in a manner that will be felt at the boxoffice, Pearl Buck shouldn't be bewildered. For an explanation she will have only to go back to a speech she made in 1937, which went like this:

"In the theater only five per cent of the audience is intelligent. A good play fails because the rest aren't interested in it. They want the same thing over and over again. They want everything to turn out all right in the end for the man and the girl. The average motion picture is abominable fodder in which Clark Gable makes love at a big salary."

It is to be hoped these words do not return like Banquo's ghost to the banquet, for Miss Buck has left off novelizing for the moment and written a play, "Flight Into China," which has had its first trial in a New Jersey playhouse. It is the story of a Jewish refugee who flees nazi persecution and finds asylum in China.

This is Miss Buck's first journey into playwriting, although her novel, "The Good Earth," found its way to the theater through the careful rewriting of Owen Davis and his son Donald. Miss Buck's great admiration for the Chinese is well known, and it is among these people that she knows so well that her hero finds the peace that comes with com-

New Dormitory Students To Be Guests at Party Saturday

Iowa Union To Be Scene Of First Event

Earl Harrington To Provide Music For Mixer Dance

Tickets for 600 couples for the all dormitory freshman and transfer party, Greenies Gamble, Saturday from 8:30 to 12 p.m. in the main lounge of Iowa Union will be issued to new students in the various dormitories this week, according to an announcement made by the co-chairmen, John Dillinger, G of Avoca, and Virginia Franquemont, A4 of Des Moines. Earl Harrington and his Avallon orchestra will play for this informal opening event on the dormitory social program for the 1939-40 school year. A green color scheme will be carried out in decorations and programs. No admission will be charged, and new students will be able to obtain tickets for the affair from their proctors and floor advisors. At the door of the union they will be identified by the proctor or advisor from their dormitory.

Mixer dances, named tags and the various dormitory social directors in attendance to introduce the freshmen and transfers are means planned to aid in getting the new students acquainted with each other. Dormitories participating in the party and in the tentative all-dormitory social program include Currier hall, Eastlawn, Westlawn, Hillcrest, the Quadrangle, and both the nine men's and two women's cooperative dormitories. The party committee representatives from the various dormitories who will be at the introduction will include Harriet Harlow, A2 of Toledo, Lois Larson, A4 of Rockford, Ill., Ruth Summy, A2 of Des Moines and Helen Kahl, A4 of Bettendorf, all from Currier hall; Mary Frances Arduser, A2 of Cedar Rapids, Mildred Ross, A4 of Humboldt, and Miss Franquemont, Eastlawn; Mary Frances Regan, A4 of Iowa City, Town Coeds; Helen Koenig, Westlawn; Tom Teas, A4 of Dallas, Don Purvis, C4 of Grundy Center, John Gillotti, A4 of Des Moines, John Galbraith, G of Hamilton, Ohio, and Lawrence Ely, A3 of Guthrie Center, Hillcrest.

Hawkeyes Close Week With Lengthy Session

'Oops' Gilleard Works Again At Halfback

One of the longest practice sessions of the year was given Hawkeye gridders yesterday afternoon as Coach Anderson gave his men a variety of scrimmage, punting, and fundamental drills.

Scrimmage was again limited to tackling in the line as Anderson worked his first and second string backs and linemen in blocking, and brushing up on their signals.

Gilleard, who has been used recently in place of Russell "Rabbit" Busk, showed promises of holding down a permanent position in the regular backfield as he blocked, ran, and hung on to Kinnick's passes like a veteran.

Anderson sent his first and second string backfields through a long punting scrimmage with Kinnick and "Buzz" Dean doing the booting. He also had every man on the squad kicking placekicks as he made preparations for developing a regular kicker to be used on kick-offs.

With an array of veterans like Kinnick, Dean, McClain, and Roger Pettit, the Hawks should have some of the finest kickers in the country. Jens Norgard and Ken Pettit seemed to have the most consistency of any of the men in booting placements as most of their tries went well over fifty yards.

With the opening game against South Dakota just one week ahead, Anderson had his linemen and backs tackling, blocking, running through signals, and scrimmaging all afternoon.

With the exception of Couppee, who has a slight leg ailment, the entire squad is in good condition.

Deadline Set For Net Meet

With only two days left before the deadline tomorrow night, the entry list for the second annual fall all-university tennis tournament has reached 15, with much interest being shown by many university men.

Art Wendler, tournament manager, urges all additional men interested in entering the tournament to get in touch with him before tomorrow night.

The draw will be made after the deadline tomorrow, and the first round matches must be played by Thursday evening.

DiMaggio Belts 29th Home Run In New York Win

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23 (AP)—Monte Pearson made a bid for recognition as a world series starter today by holding the Senators to five hits as the world champion Yankees rapped out a 7 to 1 triumph, their fifth straight this week.

It was Pearson's first appearance on the mound since Sept. 7, but he showed fine form in shutting out Washington after the first inning. Sam West tripled and scored in that frame when Catcher Bill Dickie dropped Joe DiMaggio's throw after Buddy Lewis raised a fly to center.

DiMaggio hit his 29th homer with one on in the seventh in the biggest of the Yankees' 11 blows off Dutch Leonard, who lost his third straight decision to the champions after whipping them four times in a row earlier.

Cards Wallop Cubs, 7-3, To Stay in Race

Enos Slaughter Hits Homer for Victors; Leiber Clouts 23rd

S. LOUIS, Sept. 23 (AP)—Spurred on by Cincinnati's double conquest of Pittsburgh, the slashing St. Louis Cardinals walloped the Chicago Cubs, 7-3, today to stay in the National league pennant chase.

As it was the Cards lost ground to the league-leading Reds and now trail by 3 1-2 games but had the Cubs won the margin would have been 4 1-2 games, almost too much to overcome in the eight games remaining.

Veteran Lon Warneke couldn't withstand a Chicago uprising in the third and Fiddler Bill McGee was withdrawn for southpaw Clyde Shoun at a crucial moment in the ninth but St. Louis showed no mercy for Cub pitchers, either, three being used. Starter Bill Lee was charged with his 15th defeat. He was trying for his 19th victory. McGee was the victor.

Enos Slaughter, St. Louis right fielder, electrified the ladies day crowd with a home run inside the park in the first inning, driving in Jimmy Brown ahead of him to give the Redbirds a 2-0 edge.

By the end of the third, however, the Cubs were ahead, 3-2, due to Hank Leiber's 23rd home run of the season in the second and a series of singles in the third.

From then on the Cardinals were masters.

Sophs Star for Cyclones Wallace, Seaburg Help Iowa State Cause In 19-0 Victory Over Coe

AMES, Sept. 2 (AP)—Iowa State's Cyclones, with two sophomores, Jack Wallace and Bob Seaburg, figuring prominently in the attack, opened their 1939 football season here today with a 19-0 victory over Coe college.

Held scoreless by the fighting Kohawks during the first period, the Cyclones scored their first touchdown shortly after the start of the second period when Bernard Michelson, sophomore tackle, blocked a punt and Doug Graves, an end, fell on the ball behind the goal line.

Coach Jim Yeager used many reserves during most of the second quarter, but returned his varsity to action at the start of the second half.

With 13 minutes gone in the third period, Merle Osborne, veteran fullback, thundered down the field for 42 yards before he was stopped by Ciesler. Coe fullback. Two running plays picked up six yards, then Seaburg, quarterback, threw a flat pass to Lindsay Vinsel, right halfback who ran 10 yards for the second touchdown.

Hugh Schenck, North D. M., Wins High School Golf Title

Cyclone reserves took over the scoring in the fourth period. The Cyclones pounded and passed their way to the Coe 11-yard line and Wallace faded back to toss a pass to Johnny Bowers, substitute halfback. He ran unmolested over the goal line and Wallace added the extra point.

Coe threatened seriously only once, going deep into Iowa State territory after a punt exchange. The Kohawks advanced to the one-yard line but lost the ball on downs. Wallace then kicked out of danger for the Cyclones.

Buck Newsom Hurls 7-Hitter Against Tribe

CLEVELAND, Sept. 23 (AP)—Between Buck Newsom's seventh-pitching and the batting power of Rudy York and Charley Gehring, the Detroit Tigers drubbed the Cleveland Indians today, 6 to 3, and avenged the Tribe's 5-4 triumph yesterday.

The Indians held onto third place but the Chicago White Sox crept up to only one game behind by taking two games from the St. Louis Browns, 6-2 and 9-4, the second being called on account of darkness in the eighth inning.

Newsom held the Indians in check all the way. They collected two hits in only one frame, the second, when Roy Weatherly scored on a double and single. Cleveland counted twice in the first, but one marker resulted from Detroit errors. The other was chalked up by Ben Chapman, romping in on Sammy Hale's double.

The Tigers laid down a vicious attack in the initial chapter, scoring four runs on as many hits and one Tribe error. The bingles included York's double and Gehring's single.

In the fifth, Gehring tripled and loitered home as York connected for a four-bagger. It was in this frame that Johnny Allen was relieved on the mound by Joe Dobson, who in turn gave way in the eighth to Johnny Broaca.

Cincy Hurler Jailed

CINCINNATI, Sept. 23 (AP)—At a crucial moment in the Cincinnati Reds' pennant drive, Lloyd "Whitey" Moore, young righthanded pitcher, got himself into the doghouse today.

The 25-year-old hurler, who has won 13 and lost 11 for the Reds this year, faced disciplinary action of an undisclosed nature from the club and police charges of drunken and reckless driving.

Reds Recall Barrett

CINCINNATI, (AP)—Manager Bill McKechnie of the Cincinnati Reds announced yesterday he would recall right-handed pitcher Charles "Red" Barrett from the Indianapolis Indians of the American association, where he has been pitching good ball on option.

Leaders Win Both Halves Of Twin Bill

CINCINNATI, Sept. 23 (AP)—The Cincinnati Reds battered the Pittsburgh Pirates today for their second straight double - victory with a show of championship calibre pitching and batting before 20,954 fans.

The Reds thus stretched their lead to 3 1-2 games over the second place St. Louis Cardinals, who won a single game from Chicago.

Bucky Walters, the National league's ace pitcher who knows what a bat is for, spotted the Pirates to a 5-2 lead in the first three innings of the opener and socked a whistling triple and later a double to help win his sixth straight game and 27th of the year, 6-5.

Then Lefty Lee Grissom threw some of the best ball of his career in the nightcap, holding the Pirates to one run and five hits while the Reds pounded the plate six times. Lee gave never a walk and had the Pirates in chains throughout, aided by plenty of high-priced support.

Bill Werber, the Reds' smart third baseman, smacked his fourth homer of the year in the first game and his fifth in the second. Wally Berger also turned in his 14th homer in the nightcap.

The Pirates, pugnacious as ever, got their first game lead and all their runs on a walk, Elliott's double and Van Robays' homer in the first, and a disputed homer by Wilbur Brubaker, with two on in the third. Most of the Reds argued Walters had Brubaker fanned but Umpire Bill Campbell called a ball and Wilbur dropped the next ball over the left field fence. Campbell heard about it from the stands.

Summarized, the situation reads something like this: The Iowa team wants to take somebody to the cleaners and they don't get a chance to treat the reserves that way. When Saturday afternoons come around they should feel still more anxious for battle and that is exactly when there may be some need of roughing or being roughed.

WSUI Moves to New Studio Building

and all entrances to studios are through double doors; the first door must be closed before the second, the one into the studio, is opened.

All windows of the studios, both to the control booths and to audience galleries, are of double glass and the inner panes are set at an angle to prevent reflection of sounds through the studio, which causes echoes.

A unique color scheme is used throughout the building, some doors being painted bright red and others bright blue. The red doors designate private entrances. They lead to studios and control rooms where programs might be in progress and are to be opened only by operators and officials, it was explained.

Spectators' Galleries

The blue doors, according to the explanation, it is permissible to enter. They lead to offices, laboratories, spectators' galleries and hallways.

The main offices of the building are on the second floor and are reached through the main entrance of the engineering building. In the main office space are the offices of Mr. Menzer, Mrs. Broxam and Bill Sener, staff announcer.

On the first floor of the building are offices of radio instructors, a sound effects room and continuity and script writing rooms.

In the basement of the building are technical laboratories and a garage. There are other offices, laboratories and special rooms elsewhere in the building.

Studios

The other four studios are named by letters, studios A, B, C and D.

Studio A is to be used by Prof. H. Clay Harshbarger in his radio training courses. It is located on the first floor of the studio building and is unique for its facilities for instruction. The classroom for students is separated from the actual studio by a large glass window, double and sound-proofed as all others. The control room also is separated from the studio but is opened to the classroom so that students may see and hear how the operator directs the programs.

The glass window separating the two parts of the room is the largest of all in the building.

Studio B is on the second floor near the offices and a large window from it opens into the foyer adjoining the offices. This is the studio from which the first programs will be broadcast.

Studio C

Next to studio B is studio C, a central control room separating the two studios. They are both the same size and are both operated from the one control room. In addition to audience windows in both studios, large windows open into the studios from the control room. Most of the programs will come from these two main studios.

Studio D is at the front of the building on the third floor. It is the studio from which classroom broadcasts will originate. The room is equipped with a blackboard for instruction and the classes will meet there for the broadcasts.

Audience Studio

Above the third floor and at the front of the building is a fourth floor which houses the overhead control booth of the large audience studio, a projection room for the audience studio, a recording room where all recording equipment

Orientation Council, Leaders To Entertain Women Transfer Students, Freshmen Today

Teas Will Follow 3 o'Clock Meeting In Macbride Hall

Freshmen and transfer women students will be guests of the orientation council, leader and faculty wives at a mass meeting this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the auditorium of Macbride hall and at teas afterward.

All leaders and assistant leaders are asked to come at 2 o'clock for a meeting. Plans for fall orientation will be outlined at this time.

Program plans for the mass meeting at 3 o'clock include group singing; an explanation of orientation; introductions of Dean of Women Adelaide L. Burge, Helen Focht, assistant to the dean, and Susan Runner, A4 of Iowa City, head of orientation; a colored film of the university and general announcements. Ruth House, A4 of Iowa City, is in charge of the meeting.

Teas

From the mass meeting the groups will go to the homes of the various faculty wives where tea will be served. Transfer students will be entertained at a tea in the river room of Iowa Union.

Among the teas planned by the various groups is a "circus" affair to be given in the home of Mrs. H. B. Eversole, 333 Ferson avenue, for the members of group 10. Balloons with the names of the freshmen on them will be hidden around the house. An added attraction will be a counter in the kitchen where hot dogs and pink lemonade will be served. Croquet in the backyard if the weather is fair, and marshmallows to toast over the indoor fireplace in case of rain are planned. Mar-will be housed and from which all recorded programs will originate, and a storeroom.

The building is thoroughly ventilated and provision has been made for the installation of air-conditioning equipment if desired at any time.

The structure was built as an addition to the engineering building at a cost of $94,000, part of the funds being provided by PWA. The new structure will house under one roof all University of Iowa radio equipment.

County Grants Franchise

An electric transmission line franchise was granted to the state board of education by the Johnson county board of supervisors last week allowing the University of Iowa to erect electric and telephone communication lines to connect radio station WSUI with the out-of-the-city antennae towers to be located two miles west of Iowa City.

The towers will be located near the west end of Pinkbine golf course south of Coralville. Carl Menzer, director of WSUI, has announced that construction of the new antennae towers will not be started until the federal authorities have handed down their findings on the university's request for increased power for station WSUI.

The university station has been granted permission to operate on 1,000 watts but has asked permission to increase that power to 5,000 watts. A hearing on the request was held at Washington, D. C., July 23 but no report of the findings has been made as yet, Mr. Menzer stated.

Fire Damages Mabie Auto

Firemen were summoned yesterday noon to extinguish a small fire in an automobile belonging to Prof. E. C. Mabie of the university dramatic arts department, 109 Grand avenue court.

The fire was caused by a backfire through the carburetor. Firemen reported little damage.

Student Social Organizations Will Entertain

New Iowa Students To Be Guests Tonight At Student Centers

Several student church groups will entertain new students at supper hour and vesper programs tonight at the various churches and student centers. Other groups will entertain at get-togethers and parties later in the week.

"Faith in Action" will be the topic which Leola Nelson will discuss at a meeting of the Lutheran student association at 6:30 at the Zion Lutheran church. Supper will be served at 5:30. Friday evening a student mixer in the church parlors to which all Lutheran students will be welcome is planned.

Episcopal students will be welcome at the rectory, 212 S. Johnson street, at 7 o'clock tonight. A reception for students is planned for next Sunday at 4 o'clock at the rectory.

All English Lutheran students are invited to come and get acquainted during a social hour at 5:45 at the church.

The Westminster Fellowship of the Presbyterian church will entertain new students at a supper and recreational hour at 5:30 at the church. The Rev. Elton T. Jones will be guest speaker at the vesper at 6:30. His topic will be "So This Is Religion."

New Methodist students have been invited to attend the dine-a-mite supper at the church at 6 p.m. A vesper hour with Deah C. E. Seashore as guest speaker is planned for 7 p.m.

"When Three Young Men Left Home" will be the theme of a talk by Prof. Roscoe Woods at the meeting of the Roger Williams club at the Baptist student center at 8:30.

The Lutheran student association of St. Paul's Lutheran chapel will meet for luncheon, discussion and a social hour at the chapel at 6 o'clock. Friday evening there will be a mixer in the recreation rooms of the chapel. All students are invited to attend.

Weather Saturday's Mercury Above Normal

Temperatures were slightly above normal in Iowa City yesterday, the highest reading of 80 having been recorded in the afternoon. Overcast skies tended to lower the mercury in the early evening.

Yesterday's low of 51 degrees was only one above normal. No precipitation was measured.

Sorteado Wins Belmont Race

NEW YORK, Sept. 23 (AP)—Charles S. Howard's Sorteado, South American-bred four-year-old, established a new American turf record for one and a half miles today when he won the $7,500 Manhattan handicap at Belmont park in 2:28 2-5.

Under the guidance of Buddy Haas, Sorteado clipped one-fifth of a second off the old record held jointly by Handy Mandy and War Admiral and finished a half-length in front of Townsend B. Martin's Cravat with William Woodward's Isolator only a head away in third place.

Sorteado, an 8 to 1 shot, carried 112 pounds. When Handy Mandy established the old record in 1:27 at Latonia he had 109 in the saddle while the Admiral packed 128 when he equalled it in the 1937 Belmont stakes.

Beloit Trims Simpson, 14-0

BELOIT, Wis., Sept. 23 (AP)—Opening their 1939 grid season successfully, the 1939 Beloit college Blue Devils handed Simpson College of Indianola, Iowa, a 14-0 defeat here tonight.

The first quarter saw both teams scoreless with Beloit holding Simpson deep in the Red territory. Beloit scored in the second quarter after Virgil passed and ran the ball to the 1-yard line where Lloyd Plinske went over. Otis Andrews kicked the extra point.

Simpson did not threaten during the quarter. The score was not changed during the third quarter and it wasn't until late in the fourth period when a 25-yard pass, Virgil to Gloth, brought the ball to the 8-yard line Lloyd Plinske again crashed center to score, while Andrews repeated to kick the extra point.

THE BOOK PARADE

'Mexico, An Object Lesson'

Social Scientist . . .

Raymond Moley, author of AFTER SEVEN YEARS, which was published by Harper and Brothers Wednesday.

THE BOOK . . . "Mexico, An Object Lesson," an English author's observations of one of the most colorful and politically important nations today. Published at Boston by Little, Brown and Company at $2.50. This book was published in England under the title, "Robbery Under the Law."

THE AUTHOR . . . Evelyn Waugh writes provocatively, believes that man will never be self-sufficient or complete on this earth, believes that inequalities of wealth and position are inevitable.

THE REVIEWER . . . Thomas W. Scherbeck, graduate assistant in the English department. At the beginning of his new book, "Mexico: An Object Lesson," Evelyn Waugh states, "I was a conservative when I went to Mexico and . . . everything I saw there strengthened my opinions."

As a tourist one suspects Mr. Waugh of being not unlike the majority of English travelers. He seems to be a bit put out that Mexico is not at all like Jolly Old England — whatever that may mean today. Almost everything about the country, except a few reluctantly dragged out admissions of beauty, scrape on his too sensitive nerves: the noise, the crowds, the smells, the hotels, the people, the architecture.

Mr. Waugh is more than a disgruntled tourist. When he permits his talent for reasonable analysis to take hold he writes well. He believes, for example, that the political position of the country teeters somewhere between communism, nazism and desperation. He is, of course, defiantly pro-British on the question of the expropriation of the oil fields and feels that the tail of the British Lion has been most unfairly twisted. He believes that American intervention into Mexican affairs has always been either "stupid or venal" and nonchalantly predicts Mexico in the future a part of the United States.

And, either because of his initial premise or because of the weight of evidence piled up, he firmly believes that Mexico has definitely deteriorated with every "left" step she has taken. Mr. Waugh writes best on the question of the church in Mexico. In favor of Catholicism, he seems to prove that the state's action against the church was both ill-founded and disastrous.

The portrait of Mexico which Evelyn Waugh paints is not a flattering one, not one to beguile many tourists for a gay holiday, not one to encourage too friendly relations. Whatever the reader's final reaction he will be forced to admit that Waugh writes with conviction on what he conceives to be the truth.

THE BOOK . . . "Escape" was a Book-of-the-Month club choice. Published at Boston by Little, Brown and Company for $2.50.

THE AUTHOR . . . remains behind the veil with the pen name of "Ethel Vance."

THE REVIEWER . . . Beth Browning. There is no such person as "Ethel Vance." The publishers have decided that she is better left unnamed. But her novel, an elaboration of an incident in naziland, that suspicious country patrolled by political police, is really quite a daring one.

a concentration camp, saved for her execution by a timely operation. Her trial was quick and secret; the date for her death is but a week away and her fate is known by only a few people.

Her son, an American-born artist with little or no influence, was informed by a frantic note scrawled on an aspirin wrapper. The firmly corseted general who makes a fetish of his loyalty, knows and fully approves of Emmy Ritter's death sentence.

The young camp doctor who performed the operation for Emmy's temporary preservation, knows, and an old family servant who did his best to defend her at the trial is aware of her impending execution. The only other person outside of the prison who knows of her condemnation is the tired and impoverished countess who for 15 years has loved the general.

This novel gathers momentum and excitement as the characters become less and less resigned to Emmy Ritter's fate. It is a story built on atmospheric details, some ugly, some fine, which suggest the desperation of the German people as they readjust themselves to another new Germany. The plot itself is realistically incredible, but the author's splendid knowledge of the beauties of southern Germany are refreshingly presented.

. . . And Dramatist

Orson Welles, co-founder of the Mercury theater in New York, who with Roger Hill, headmaster of the Todd school for boys at Woodstock, Ill., and a former teacher of Welles, presents THE MERCURY SHAKESPEARE, which was published Wednesday by Harper and Brothers. Each play is presented with an introduction and with line illustrations by Orson Welles to help the reader to visualize the text.

Hockey Club Invites University Women To Visit First Meeting

University women interested in playing field hockey as an extra-curricular activity are invited to attend the first meeting of the Hockey club to be tomorrow from 4 to 5 p. m. on the Women's athletic field, according to an announcement made yesterday by the club's head, Mildred Anderson, A3 of Las Vegas, N. M.

Equipment for the game is furnished by the club which is sponsored by the W. A. A. Lorraine Frost of the women's physical education department is advisor for the Hockey club. Women who plan to go out for the sport are required to dress in regulation gymnasium suits, Miss Anderson said.

Hockey club's plans for this year include a play-day for all colleges in Iowa. The play-day will be held some Saturday this fall, it was stated. One of the most popular sports for women, hockey is the only sport in which international competition is held. In 1937 a hockey team from Scotland visited the campus. According to Miss Frost, the hockey club may make a trip to Chicago to represent the University of Iowa at the tournament games held in connection with the umpiring conference scheduled there in November.

Mrs. Eliot H. Powers and daughter, Patricia, of Midland, Tex., are visiting in the home of Mrs. Powers' parents, Dr. and Mrs. I. W. Leighton, 947 Iowa avenue. Mr. Powers will join them next Saturday for a visit of several weeks.

Season Tickets for 1939-40 University Concert Course Go on Sale in Music Studio Building

Season tickets for the 1939-40 University concert course will go on sale tomorrow morning in room 15, music studio building, according to an announcement made yesterday by Prof. Charles B. Richter, committee chairman. Ezio Pinza, basso of the Metropolitan Opera company, the St. Louis symphony orchestra an instrumental trio and Zimbalist, violin soloist, are all scheduled to appear in the series beginning Oct. 30 with Pinza and ending March 6 with Zimbalist.

Pinza, born in Rome, early abandoned civil engineering for a singing career. He made his debut in Rome at the Teatro Reale dell'Opera and for three years was leading basso under Toscanini at La Scala. He joined the Metropolitan in 1926. Returning to the campus again are two members of the trio appearing Jan. 8. Harold Bauer, pianist, has appeared here several times before, the last Jan. 22, 1936. Albert Spalding, violinist, who made his professional debut in Paris when he was 16 years old, was here for the 1936-37 concert course.

Gaspar Cassado, cellist and third member of the instrumental trio, appeared on the United States stage for the first time last year. He first appeared as soloist with the New York philharmonic before opening a concert tour. The second oldest symphony orchestra in the United States, the St. Louis symphony will return to the Iowa campus for the sixth consecutive time. The orchestra will conduct a matinee and an evening concert in the main lounge of the Iowa Union Feb. 15. Vladimir Golschmann, director of the orchestra, has built it into a world-famous organization.

TIPS on the SHOPPING MARKET

By JUDY WEIDNER

THE old school bell rings again, but this year the fall styles give it a new note. Everything is changed as the clothes are pepped up with a bit of color and originality. To be the best dressed girl on the campus visit STRUB'S fashion floor. Among the highlights of the new sport outfits ranks the original Dorsa. It is a stunning one piece dress of sheer rabbit-hair wool pleated so as to give the effect of a dress and coat with sailor collar and buttoned front.

The new Carlye, which is pictured in the new Madamselle, is another leading number. With black and white dominating in color also this season is a nifty outfit — black skirt, white crepe blouse, checked jacket with a bright red girdle belt. You will not be able to get along on the campus without one of STRUB'S new reversibles, many colors and combinations — plaid, tweed, camel hair — each equipped with new hoods.

Have you got your "Sloppy Joe" sweater yet? You must have one whether it be a cardigan or a slip over. STRUB'S large stock of these ever-popular sweaters include all colors from naturals to the very brightest shades.

The new jewelry like the ready-to-wear is different this year. Leading the new styles is the metal drop jewelry — necklaces, clips, and pins are all of the gaudy, festooned type in all the new fall colors of bittersweet, moss green, wine and Pacific blue. Popular among the fall accessories are the new fitted bags — especially the school-girl styles which is strapped over the shoulder as featured in Madamselle. With plain colored outside and plaid inside it adds color to the costume. Never need you fear of forgetting your school supplies as this bag is equipped with pencil and paper and even has a compartment for your cigarettes.

The popularity of REICH'S CAFE is justified by the service and quality of food the patrons receive for the modest price they pay. When you're picking the place for you and your friends to get the sustenance of life, you will do well to consider seriously making your headquarters — at REICH'S.

These football days require a sporty but comfortable shoe. Your need can easily be supplied in many colors and styles — some right out of Vogue — at LORENZ BOOT SHOP. LORENZ also has a selective choice of dress shoes to fill your need for the oncoming fraternity and university parties. Come in and let us show you the new fall styles. You will find LORENZ easy on your pocketbook, too.

YES, TOWNER'S have those "College Classics" you have all been looking for! This nifty little hat is so practical as it serves every purpose. You can find them in all colors including the new fall shades so it should be simple to match every costume.

Taxi! Taxi! Don't just make it an ordinary taxi, but be sure that it is a YELLOW. You are always assured of the finest service and most dependable, and friendly drivers, when you call a YELLOW. Dial 3131 for prompt service. Don't forget when you want transportation to the game, Saturday. Same popular prices!

When fixing up your room, be sure you are arranging it for excellent study conditions. How is the lighting? That is especially important to safeguard your eyes. Come in and see the wonderful display of I. E. S. lamps at the IOWA CITY LIGHT AND POWER. Application Forms Available for Pilots' Training Course

U. S. Officials Seek Rapid Student Action

Medical Examinations, Other Requirements Must Be Passed

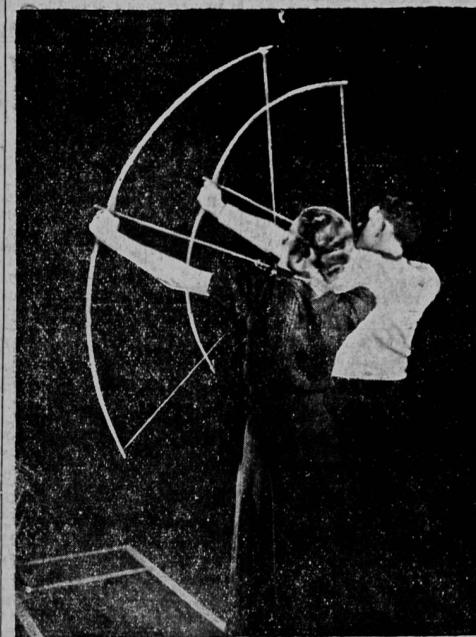

Applications from candidates for the Civil Aeronautics authority's pilots' training course now are being received at the office of Dean Francis M. Dawson in the college of engineering.

Dean Dawson said yesterday that although all arrangements for the course are not yet completed, pending definite instructions from Washington, D. C., the application forms are available for all interested students.

It is the desire of federal authorities that its applications be received as rapidly as possible. When the list is complete, medical examinations will begin and those able to meet all requirements, including those of good scholarship, will be admitted to training.

University officials have the course so set up that work can start soon after final details are received from the CAA in Washington. The total number of students to be accepted has not yet been learned from Washington.

Student Archery Club Begins 12th Year at University of Iowa

The student archery club will begin its 12th year of activity on the University of Iowa campus when it holds the first meeting of this semester Tuesday from 4 to 6 p. m. on the women's athletic field, the president, Phyllis Whitmore, A3 of Batavia, has announced.

Open to both men and women students, the club is sponsored by the Women's Athletic association. Prof. Ellen Mosbeck of the physical education department is faculty advisor of the group. Equipment for 36 shooters is furnished by the club and all persons interested are urged to attend, according to Miss Whitmore. Special instruction will be given to beginners. Open tournaments will get under way early in the season for all shooters, it was said.

William J. Petersen To Start Series Of 12 Radio Lectures Over WSUI

William J. Petersen, lecturer in history, will review Iowa's war history in a series of 12 radio lectures over station WSUI, the first to be tomorrow and the last Dec. 18.

War in the news and rumors of war have had much space in present day conversation; it is this new interest which has prompted Mr. Petersen to devote time to the military episodes of pre-civil war days.

Mr. Petersen, in telling the purpose of the series, said, "While these incidents pale into insignificance compared with those that have been fought during the 20th century, they may lend a

Art Collection To Be Shown October 9

Contemporary Artists To Be Represented At Art Exhibition

Two collections of drawings by contemporary artists will be on display in the art building until Oct. 9, one in the exhibition lounge and one in the auditorium.

The auditorium group is composed of drawings by American and foreign artists who have recorded first-hand impressions. The exhibit, loaned by the Weyhe gallery of New York, includes small works of internationally known artists as Barlach, Maillo, Diego Rivera, Segonzac, Covaerubias, Raphael Soyer, Gaston Lachaise and Rockwell Kent.

The other exhibit is a group of drawings, the work of Ivan Mestrovic, contemporary sculptor. Mestrovic, born in pre-war Serbia in 1883, carved small things from stone and wood as he went about his duties as a shepherd. Following his natural tendency as a stonemason's apprentice, he enrolled in an art school in Vienna and was influenced by the work of Michelangelo, by Byzantine art, and by the archaic Greek.

His strong nationalistic spirit frequently is shown in his sculpture based on heroic deeds or characters in Balkan history. Most famous works of Mestrovic in America are his two bronze Indian riders in Grant park, Chicago. Many of the drawings in the present exhibition are work preliminary to sculpture.

Board Members To Meet Tomorrow

All members of the Women's Athletic association board have been asked to meet at 8 p. m. tomorrow at the women's gymnasium for a business meeting. Isabelle Armstrong, A4 of Hutchinson, Kan., president, will be in charge.

Residents To Vote Tuesday on Power Franchise Proposals

Light Company Seeks Electric, Gas Privileges

Local Power Group Promises Reductions If Vote Approves

By ARTHUR BELLAIRE
Iowa City voters will go to the polls Tuesday to determine the eventual status of the Iowa City Light and Power company.

If ballots carry a double "yes," the company will hold two 15-year franchises, one for gas, the other for electricity.

If the vote on both ordinances is "no," the company will continue to operate in Iowa City as usual, although subject to removal any time the city may deem it advisable.

Members of the city council gave the ordinances their first and second readings July 10, and their third a week later with but one objection. The objector was Sam Whiting Jr., third ward alderman, who favored a 10-year franchise in preference to 15. His motion was lost for want of a second.

Election Delayed
Although the election date for public approval of the ordinances was set for earlier in the summer, it was delayed until Sept. 26 as a result of a petition signed by 300 Iowa Citizens and the consent of Roscoe E. Taylor, vice-president and general manager of the local company, so that absent voters would not be inconvenienced. According to Taylor's explanation before the council, the company has nearly reached the peak load which its present generating equipment will carry and has planned a $514,000 development program to increase the output of the Coralville plant.

Taylor said that the building program and development at the Coralville plant needs 15 years to be carried out systematically and to be financed.

Asserting that the two 15-year franchises will save Iowa City users $40,000 in reduced rates, Taylor said: "If the franchise is cut to a 10-year period, the company will be limited to a building program only half as great as is proposed under the 15-year plan, and the proposed rate reduction schedule would have to be cut about in half."

He continued that the company has planned to begin work on a new 5,000 kilowatt turbine immediately if the franchise is granted and that another would be placed in service in about eight years.

The company plans to remodel its present plant to accommodate two new 5,000 kilowatt turbines if the proposed franchise is granted.

The savings which, Taylor said, would be effected by Iowa Citizens under the proposed franchises are: residential lighting, $15,011; commercial lighting, $3,911; and power, $5,087, a total of $24,009 on electricity; and on residential gas consumption, $13,842, and commercial gas, $1,213, a total reduction on gas of $15,055.

According to law, the two franchises, if approved by the people, would not be exclusive of any other company who might wish to establish itself in Iowa City and work in competition with the present company.

Background
Since January, 1934, the Iowa City Light and Power company has been operating without franchises, meaning that the city has had the right since the date of expiration of the previous franchises, and will retain the right until new franchises are granted, to prevent a private utility from using its property, as its streets and alleys, for electric light wires, poles and other distributing equipment.

Historical records reveal that the gas and electric properties in Iowa City belonged to local citizens until they sold out in 1912 to the present Iowa City Light and Power company. As a result of that purchase, the company obtained two franchises, good for 25 years each, which dated from January, 1909, until the same month in 1934.

Over a year before the expiration date, the company announced its request for two new 25-year franchises. At the same time, it changed from manufactured gas to natural gas and reduced gas and electric rates that would, it said, save the users more than $50,000 a year.

The seven-man city council at that time unanimously passed the two franchise ordinances and the issue was put before the people Oct. 11, 1932, 15 months before the termination date of the original franchises.

Opposition
Opposers to the franchises formed a party before that election and appealed to the voters to defeat the franchises. Their efforts were rewarded when the citizens voted "no" on the franchises by a count of almost three to one.

April 17, 1934, marked the beginning of a three-year campaign for a municipally-owned light company. This again was put before the people and was approved, although the council elected to plan such a plant left office before definite lines were drawn.

Long and intense litigation between the Iowa City Light and Power company and the city, and between the Iowa City Light and Power company and officials of the Public Works administration, who had promised Iowa City a grant of $413,000 for the new municipal plant, apparently prevented the council from acting for the new plant.

After the 1937 election, which expelled the council which had proposed municipal ownership, the Iowa City Light and Power company refunded more than $90,000 to its users, and established new lower rates.

Offer of Sale
Once during the struggle an offer of sale was made by the local light and power company to the Municipal Ownership League council. That was in 1935, when the company offered to sell out to the city, but the city council refused the offer since it said it wished to purchase the distributing system only. The council declared its intentions to set up its own generating plant if the private company would sell its poles and wires, but no sale was made.

Under the proposed new rates for residence lighting the consumer would pay five cents a kilowatt hour for the first 20 kilowatt hours; four cents for the next 20; two and a half cents for the next 160; and two cents a kilowatt hour for all electricity used in excess of the first 200 kilowatt hours, according to Taylor.

Other Rates
The commercial service rates under the new franchise would be five cents for the first 50 kilowatt hours per meter per month; three cents for the next 450; two and a half cents for the next 3,500; and two cents for all in excess of 4,000 kilowatt hours.

The proposed reduced rates for residential gas consumption are 20 cents a therm for the first 15 therms per meter per month; 18 cents for the next 35; 15 cents for the next 50; 10 cents for the next 150; and eight cents for the next 350.

Commercial gas rates under the new franchise would be 20 cents per therm for the first 15 therms per meter per month, and 12 cents for the next 35.

The Iowa City Light and Power company will be legally bound to enforce the rates in the event of the passage of the franchises unless their own expenses are increased to a point where an increase of rates would be necessary for them to derive suitable income to satisfy their output.

'No Franchise' League
Chief opponents to the two franchises are a group of citizens organized recently as the "No Franchise League."

With no mention of a municipal light plant, league officials are urging voters to stamp "no" on the franchises, contending that without franchises, a company is on its "good behavior."

Polls Listed For Election
A total of 259 absent voters' ballots have been cast for the special election Tuesday, the city clerk's office reported yesterday.

It is expected that 300 persons will have voted by absent voter's ballot by Tuesday. At that time Iowa City voters will decide on the gas and electric franchise question.

Following are the voting places:

First ward, first precinct: courthouse; second precinct: Letts O.I. company, 213 S. Madison street.

Second ward, first precinct: city hall; second precinct: city park pavilion.

Third ward, first precinct: C. S. A. hall, 524 S. Johnson street.

Fourth ward, first precinct: Alert Hose house, 204 N. Linn street; second precinct: Iowa City Community building, College and Gilbert streets.

Fifth ward, first precinct: Iowa City Bottling works, 525 S. Gilbert street; second precinct: Villhauer's garage, 813 Seventh avenue.

The New Gas and Electric FRANCHISES WILL BRING THESE BENEFITS TO YOU!

1. Savings of $40,000.00 Annually in New Low Gas and Electric Rates!

These savings amount to as much as 10% on BOTH gas and electricity rates for average residential customers. It is anticipated that still further reductions can be made during the franchise period.

2. Addition of More Than $100,000.00 to Iowa City Payrolls!

A half-million dollar power plant will be begun at the earliest possible moment after the new franchises are granted and will mean $100,000.00 in added wages for local labor. This money will be spent locally for every-day needs. The Company rigidly adheres to a policy of hiring local labor whenever possible.

3. A New $514,000.00 Power Plant Addition to Insure You Continued Good Service and to Protect Iowa City Against Power Famine!

Your personal welfare and that of every family in the community depends to a considerable extent upon a cheap and adequate supply of Gas and Electricity. Iowa City does not now have a safe reserve of electric generating capacity. However, with a favorable vote on the new franchises, the Company will immediately proceed on comprehensive plans to enlarge its generating and distribution facilities and assure you of an unflinching supply of Electricity.

Think It Over! Then Act Tuesday In Your Own Interest
