Killer Winnie Ruth Judd Caught Stealing Food, Returned to Sanitarium

Half-Starved Trunk Slayer Free Six Days

Hid in Corn Field Near Parents' Home After Visiting Father

PHOENIX, Ariz., Oct. 30 (AP)—Winnie Ruth Judd, mad killer, half-starved and emotionally upset after six days of freedom from the Arizona state hospital, burglarized a home on the institution's grounds tonight to obtain food and was caught before she could flee.

The trunk murderer, who killed her two best friends in 1931, apparently had been hiding in the vicinity of Phoenix since she slipped out of the hospital last Tuesday night, paid a 15-minute visit to the bedside of her ill father, and vanished into the darkness.

Dr. Louis J. Saxe, superintendent of the hospital, said Mrs. Judd was hysterical. A sedative was administered and she was put to bed under guard.

Soup, Spaghetti
"Under no circumstances will she be disturbed tonight," Saxe said.

Hospital attendants caught the insane murderer as she fled from the home of Mel Larson, hospital engineer, on the grounds.

She had stuffed several cans of soup, spaghetti, bread and a jar of jelly into a pillow case. She also obtained two pairs of shoes and some hosiery from the home.

Dr. Saxe said she told him she had been hiding in a corn field near the home of her parents, the Rev. and Mrs. H. J. McKinnell.

"Well, here I am," she said to Dr. Saxe when ushered into his presence.

After she had been questioned as to her whereabouts the last six days, she remarked:

"I'm telling you a lot and your'e telling me nothing."

Visited Minister
Sheriff Lon Jordan reported that he learned today Mrs. Judd, slayer of Agnes Ann Le Roi and Hedvig Samuelson, whose bodies she dismembered and shipped to Los Angeles in trunks, visited three hours last night with a minister in Tempe, about 10 miles east of here.

Jordan earlier in the day had disclosed that someone telephoned him at 3 a.m. to say he had found Mrs. Judd and was in the act of delivering her to the hospital when she jumped from the automobile and made her getaway.

Dr. Saxe said he started to question her about how she had lived and what she had eaten during her absence, but "decided she was too excited."

Soviet Envoy To America On 'Hot Spot'

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30 (AP)—Constantine A. Zoumanskoy, Soviet ambassador to the United States, is customarily a very cheerful soul, but his optimism may be stretched to the limit by the effort required to bring Soviet-American relations into the realm of cordial friendship.

Since Ouzmanskoy, now ordered back to the United States, went to Russia several months ago on leave, many events have occurred that raise a question as to the present state of relations between the two countries.

The lack of cooperation charged against the Soviets by Secretary Hull in the case of "The City of Flint" is only the culmination of the series.

Feeling in administration quarters here turned sharply against Russia shortly after her non-aggression pact with Germany.

When the war began, some officials held Russia indirectly responsible for it, since they believed Hitler might not have marched into Poland if it had not been for the Russian agreement.

Tom Pendergast, O'Malley Indicted For Bribery by County Grand Jury

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 30 (AP)—A county grand jury swung another blow at democratic boss Tom Pendergast with a bribery indictment today.

As a result the one-time political czar of Kansas City probably will ride home from federal prison in a sheriff's car. He was charged in two counts with paying $82,500 to R. Emmet O'Malley, former Missouri insurance superintendent, for the latter's approval of a fire insurance rate compromise involving more than $9,000,000.

O'Malley was indicted by the same grand jury on two counts of accepting bribes.

Both men are in Leavenworth penitentiary on their pleas of guilty to income tax evasion charges growing out of the insurance case settlement.

Warrants for arrest of the two were mailed by county authorities to Leavenworth prison. They will serve as hold orders at the time the men are released. Pendergast was sentenced last June to 15 months and O'Malley to a year and a day. Both have applied for paroles.

Finns Expected To Give Firm 'No' to Russian Naval Demand

Many People Return To Cities Following Recent Evacuation

HELSINKI, Oct. 30 (AP)—Thousands of Finns who have left Finland's cities for safer areas were urged tonight to remain in the evacuation centers while the government prepared what political quarters indicated would be a firm "no" to Soviet Russian demands.

The ministry of interior in an announcement said some Finns who left their homes at the first indication of possible trouble were returning and that others were planning a similar move.

Government officials said the critical situation which caused the original exodus was not changed, and asked the Finns to remain "calmly" at the evacuation centers.

Meanwhile, translators in the foreign office worked on Finland's reply to Russia, which will be presented to Joseph Stalin and Premier-Foreign Commissar Molotov by a delegation expected to leave Helsinki tomorrow night for Moscow.

It will be the third trip to Moscow for Dr. Juho Kusti Paasikivi, head of the delegation, and Finnish Minister Vaino Tanner.

Informed political quarters intimated that Finland's reply was based on the conviction that Russia needed no naval or air bases on Finnish soil to protect her position on the Baltic and Gulf of Finland.

Coal Miners Close Dispute With Company

DES MOINES, Oct. 30 (AP)—Final differences in a prolonged contract dispute between the Scandia Coal company of Des Moines and its miners were settled today at a conference of company and union representatives, spokesmen for the two groups announced.

The agreement, which settled the question of rates of pay for miners who do conveyor loading, will return approximately 100 men to work at the company's mine No. 4, near Madrid.

The mine, first closed during a nation-wide coal miners strike last May 4, was reopened for picketing operations Sept. 12. At that time approximately 250 miners returned to work.

Plans To Speed Neutrality Bill Through House Are Approved

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30 (AP)—While a leader of the embargo bloc cried "gag rule," plans to speed the administration's neutrality bill through the house in short order were approved today by a majority of the house rules committee.

Rep. Fish (R-NY), opponent of the administration measure, especially of its proposal to repeal the arms embargo, contended the procedure adopted would deprive the house of its right to alter the form in which the measure came from the senate. But Chairman Sabath (D-Ill) denied Fish's "gag"

'The Gobble-uns Will Get You!'

Pinza Wins University Acclaim in 1st Concert

By THOMAS SCHERREBECK

Choosing Ezio Pinza, leading basso of the Metropolitan Opera company, to open the current university concert course was propitious indeed if audience enthusiasm is proof of success.

Pinza received an ovation for his singing such as few artists have received from a university audience.

The program opened with the noble aria "Qui sdegnò non s'accende" from Mozart's "The Magic Flute" and closed with "Alma Mia." Then followed two light Italian love songs, Torelli's "Tu lo sai" and the "Che fiero costume" of Legrenzi.

It was not until the second group, however, that Mr. Pinza's voice seemed easy, warm, and alive. To choose a best from the three songs in this group is difficult. The Beethoven dramatic "In questa tomba oscura" was sung with deep seriousness, contrasting with the spirited Scarlatti "Chi vuole innamorarsi." To this group were added Handel's ever-popular "Largo" and a light song by Paisiello.

In the English group, Pinza demonstrated his use of the half-voice by singing Dunhill's "The Cloths of Heaven" and MacGimsey's "Trouble." Unlike most basses, Pinza possesses command of a lyrical style not unlike that of a baritone or tenor; it is most attractive. Despite an accent which repeatedly got in the way of an understanding of the words, the English songs were well received and Mr. Pinza graciously responded with a surprisingly well-sung Negro spiritual, "There's No Hidin' Place."

Cimara's quietly moving "Ficcò la neve" opened the last group of songs. It was in the Giuseppe Verdi aria from "Simon Boccanegra," "Il lacerato spirito," that Ezio Pinza reached the high point of his printed program. To this despairing aria he brought a real sense of the theater.

To this reviewer, the finest singing of the evening was done in the first encore, the famous "Catalogue Aria" from Mozart's "Don Giovanni." Although written nearly 250 years ago the subtle wit of Mozart sparkled as brightly as ever. Pinza proved his claim to the title of the greatest Don Juan in opera. Because the audience refused to let him go, Pinza added to his program the Mephistopheles' "Serenade" from Gounod's "Faust" and "Serenatta" of Carcetti.

Ezio Pinza is not only the possessor of an unusual voice but he is an artist as well; two (See PINZA, Page 8)

H. Dudley Arrives Tomorrow To Set Up Vocoder Equipment

Research Expert Will Show Telephonic Device On Campus Thursday

Homer Dudley, Bell Telephone company research expert who invented the vocoder, newest telephonic device, will arrive in Iowa City tomorrow to set up his equipment prior to the opening of the fall meeting of the Acoustical Society of America here Friday.

Dudley will demonstrate the vocoder to the public at 8 p.m. Thursday in Macbride auditorium. It will require some time for the vocoder, or "voice coder" equipment to be set up. Dudley will bring two of his own assistants with him. Two additional assistants will be obtained from the psychology department.

LECTURE TICKETS
Tickets for the demonstration-lecture on the vocoder are still available to students and faculty members at Iowa Union desk. Admission is by ticket only.

The vocoder may some day revolutionize the long-distance transmission of the voice.

Today, the voice is transmitted as a rather wide band of frequencies, which must be "built up" by electric currents at various points over long distances.

The vocoder changes that principle. It takes speech apart, transmits it in a number of simple, low-cycle components, sends signals corresponding to those components (See DUDLEY, Page 8)

'City of Flint' Continues Southward Voyage; U.S., German Crews Aboard

Peruvian Brothers Believed Grounded In Non-Stop Flight From New York

LIMA, Peru, Oct. 30 (AP)—Hope for the successful completion of an attempted non-stop flight from New York to Lima by two Peruvian brothers was abandoned by Lima airport officials tonight as the fliers' fuel supply deadline passed without word of their landing.

The aviators, Commander Humberto Gallino, of the Peruvian navy, and Capt. Victor Gallino, of the Peruvian army, took off from Floyd Bennett field in New York at 1:43 p.m. EST Sunday and had expected to reach here at 3:43 p.m. today. Their 1,150-gallon fuel supply was expected to last a maximum of 30 hours. This limit was passed at 7:43 p.m. Several hours afterward there had been no word of the airmen since their craft was reported sighted over Miami, Fla., at 10:58 p.m. EST Sunday.

It was taken for granted the airmen had failed in their non-stop attempt, although it was pointed out that they may have been forced down temporarily at some out-of-the-way point along the 4,014-mile route.

Two German Bombers Battle British Warships in North Sea

IN THE MONEY
MICE FIND DOLLAR BILLS GOOD BEDDING

AUGUSTA, Ga., Oct. 30 (AP)—Workmen re-modeling the home of Walker Inman found a family of mice literally "in the money in one of the walls."

The rodents were snugly bedded down in a nest of much-chewed dollar bills. The currency was of the old, large size and Inman has no idea when or how the mice got their expensive bedding.

U. S. Initiates Probe of Kuhn, Pro-Nazi Bund

Leader Now Under Indictment for Theft In New York Inquiry

NEW YORK, Oct. 30 (AP)—The federal government, which only a week ago had Earl Browder, the national communist leader, indicted for passport fraud, has begun an investigation of Fritz Kuhn and the pro-Nazi German-American Bund he heads.

This was confirmed today by U. S. Attorney John T. Cahill, who would say only that allegations "of a very serious nature" were involved.

Kuhn already is under state indictment obtained by Thomas E. Dewey, the New York county district attorney, charging the theft of $14,800 of the bund's money, and the news that the stout bundman now is involved as well in a federal inquiry was met by his lawyer, Peter L. F. Sabbatino, with the declaration that it was a "witch hunt" brought about in "a struggle for glory between attorneys."

Browder's counsel raised a similar statement when the communist leader was accused of having made false representations in obtaining and using a passport.

The first disclosure that Cahill had begun action against Kuhn was made in a series of unsigned telegrams received at various newspaper offices. Exhibiting anger, Cahill denounced these anonymous messages as an attempt to thwart or hamper the grand jury and asked the federal bureau of investigation to find out who had sent them.

The rules were prepared by the state supreme court, under authority granted by the statute.

A person who wishes to prepare for the bar examination through study in a law office must, under the new regulations, spend eight full hours a day, 48 weeks a year, in the office of an attorney engaged in general practice. The office must be open every week day.

In the past, such persons have carried on their studies haphazardly in some instances, going to the mentor-lawyer's office only occasionally for advice.

Germany Assessed $50,000,000 For N. J. Explosion Damages

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30 (AP)—Germany was formally assessed $50,000,000 damages today for the tremendous explosions at Black Tom and Kingsland, N. J., during the World war, but the 153 claimants to whom the awards were made had little prospect of getting any more than $26,000,000.

The awards, made by supreme court Justice Owen J. Roberts as umpire of a German-American mixed claims commission, were preceded by a sharp international exchange in which reich representatives charged Roberts with "bias" and Secretary of State

Hull accused the Germans of trying to "frustrate" settlement of the case.

While the commission had found that the explosions were caused by imperial German sabotage, the German representatives denied this, stayed away from today's proceedings and served notice that the awards "can never form the basis for a financial obligation of Germany."

Therefore, it appeared likely that the claimants would get only the $26,000,000 which Germany had already deposited with the United States treasury to meet an award.

Norwegian Ships Escort Captive Liner

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, Oct. 30 (AP)—The captive American freighter City of Flint, which the Germans are trying to slip through the British blockade, proceeded on her dangerous southward way tonight after being escorted from Norwegian waters by a Norwegian warship.

Aboard were both her German prize crew and her American crew.

Reports from Tromsø, in northwestern Norway, that the freighter had called at that port today, were confirmed by the German consul there, when he was reached by telephone.

He said he had gone aboard but he declined to give further information.

Germany Scouted By Royal Air Force, Air Ministry Claims

Little Information

Other details of the captive freighter's dangerous voyage through war-time waters were difficult to obtain because of Norwegian government regulations against disclosing the positions of ships at sea during war time.

However, it was learned she had put in at the port at 1 p.m. (6 a.m. CST) and departed three hours later, escorted outside Norway's territorial waters by a Norwegian warship.

The early approach of nightfall in this northern latitude at this season favored the German prize crew in its efforts to take the American vessel into a German port for disposition of its cargo, alleged to contain contraband.

It was already dark when she sailed at 4 p.m. (9 a.m. CST), and she had many hours of darkness ahead.

The reports from Tromsø provided the first clue to the vessel's progress since Saturday night when official Russian sources said she had sailed from Murmansk, the Russian port in the Arctic.

(Determined not to endanger the southward progress of their prize, German officials in Berlin maintained silence on the City of Flint and her attempt to dodge the British blockade.)

Bar Applicants To Get Notice Of New Rules

DES MOINES, Oct. 30 (AP)—New rules, imposing more rigid requirements on applicants for admission to the bar in Iowa, were nearing publication today.

The rules were prepared by the state supreme court, under authority granted by the statute.

A person who wishes to prepare for the bar examination through study in a law office must, under the new regulations, spend eight full hours a day, 48 weeks a year, in the office of an attorney engaged in general practice. The office must be open every week day.

In the past, such persons have carried on their studies haphazardly in some instances, going to the mentor-lawyer's office only occasionally for advice.

Reich Strikes At American Sea Policies

BERLIN, Oct. 30 (AP)—Criticism of the United States for a "two-fold yardstick" policy in connection with the European war was voiced today by the German foreign office mouthpiece, Deutsche Diplomatische-Politische Korrespondenz.

The semi-official commentary cited as "symptoms" the case of the City of Flint, American freighter now held by a German prize crew, and the "differentiating treatment" of armed commercial ships and U-boats by President Roosevelt with its "dangerous obiteration of the character of war and trade ships."

(President Roosevelt at a press conference on Oct. 20 when asked about the possibility of extending to surface vessels of belligerent European nations the restrictions he imposed by proclamation on the use of American ports and territorial waters by their submarines, said he did not think the two were analogous.)

While the commission had found that the explosions were caused by imperial German sabotage, the German representatives denied this, stayed away from today's proceedings and served notice that the awards "can never form the basis for a financial obligation of Germany."

Therefore, it appeared likely that the claimants would get only the $26,000,000 which Germany had already deposited with the United States treasury to meet an award.

To The Supreme Court Next

IN A WAVE of war and post-war hysteria, during which the International Workers of the World with their revolutionary unionism threatened the foundations of our economic system, 34 states from coast to coast passed criminal syndicalism laws.

Most of these states either repealed them later or allowed them to fall into disuse, but now we discover not only that such a law is still in the code of Iowa, but has been employed in two cases in the state recently.

The code of Iowa states that "Criminal Syndicalism is the doctrine which advocates crime, sabotage, violence, or other unlawful methods of terrorism as a means of accomplishing industrial or political reform. The advocacy of such a doctrine whether by word of mouth or writing is a felony."

Such a law is a powerful weapon in the hands of reactionary groups. It could be employed to squelch any party or person with whom the administration disagrees or would like to see silenced.

William Sentner, a labor organizer from St. Louis, was convicted on the charge by a county court in Iowa for his activities in the strike at Newton in 1938. The other case is in Sioux City where five Communists were arrested as they left a private meeting and later charged with criminal syndicalism. Municipal Judge Berry J. Sisk will reach a decision on the case Nov. 25.

Saturday, however, Sentner was fined $2,500 by District Judge W. S. Cooper who at the same time over-ruled a motion for a new trial. Judge Cooper revealed his bias in passing sentence for he told Sentner "he believed he was honest in his beliefs, though they are erroneous." He judges not only law but also political philosophy. Sentner's real sin seems to be that he was a stranger in hostile territory. People in Iowa just don't like CIO agitators.

The defendant's attorneys filed notice of appeal to the Iowa Supreme court immediately. Surely such a decision will not be upheld in the highest court of the state or civil liberties in Iowa will become an empty phrase.

While Europe Fights

FOREIGN news, news from Washington regarding the neutrality fight, and the hullabaloo raised by the replacement of Elmer Frank Andrews, wage-hour administrator, overshadowed and practically obscured a move which directly affects U.S. industry and thousands of American workers.

Last week, Tuesday, Oct. 24, the minimum wage prescribed by the interstate industry rose from 25c to 30c an hour. At the same time the maximum week allowable without paying overtime dropped from 44 to 42 hours. If the law is enforced, these automatic changes mean more wages for some 690,000 workers, and shorter weeks or more overtime for about 2,380,000 more.

Under the wage-hour law, the administrator with the advice of industry committees can set hourly wages above the general minima. Workers in two industries will benefit directly by this phase of the law. The minima of the textile and hosiery industries was raised to 32½c and 32½c and 40c respectively.

It is cheering news in comparison to that of the world conflict. While European nations are at war raised to 32½c and 32½c and each others' throats, the U. S. is its domestic problem.

They Know How to Scare Horses, Too

SOME NEW phase or method in warfare seems to be always popping up. It is either a defensive or offensive mechanism which the allies or the nazis bring forth as a new and terrible weapon or as an impassable defense.

This time it is England which publicizes something new in defensive warfare. Mainly, bicycles. The two wheelers manned by soldiers are supposed to give England a great advantage against enemy cavalry charges. All the Tommies have to do before an impending rush of horses is to dismount, stand their bikes bottom side up, start the wheels spinning with a touch of their collective fingers, and woe be unto the Germans! For while the horses are being scared stiff by the whirling wheels, the Tommies, lying on their tummies behind the bikes, pick off the enemy with the greatest of ease.

Now we who are greatly interested in up-and-coming military technology await breathlessly the development of some ingenious device to counteract the effectiveness of the bike brigade. We wonder if scooters may do the trick!

"HITLER," says a headline in a Toronto newspaper, "given bad squeeze by Russia." Naturally—a bear's hug is always painful.

With but few games of the new gridiron season played, half of the nation's college football coaches are beginning to rebuild for next season.

The front page has definitely become the puzzle department of a daily newspaper. Now Japan is advocating a peace move.

The French continue to use rigs to root up land mines laid by Germans in non-man's land. Don't eat that pork chop, monsieur! It was decorated for bravery in action!

No country, however democratic, can enter upon a great war without suffering a loss of freedom. When Britain took up the challenge of Reichsfuhrer Hitler, parliament and people did so with the full knowledge that war meant discipline and control, and submission to orders. Since the strength of a nation at war is not merely that of its armed forces, but depends upon the sum-total of the efforts of all the people in every sphere of life, it follows that the whole nation must submit itself to authority.

This is acutely felt in time of war. All men of a certain age are liable to military conscription. All industrialists, shipowners or railway owners must be prepared to put their factories, ships, or railways, at the disposal of the state. A man's house may be commandeered or have troops or civilians billeted in it. Shops are controlled, food may be rationed, light is restricted. At any time a government department may issue an order imposing irksome restrictions upon the conduct of private citizens.

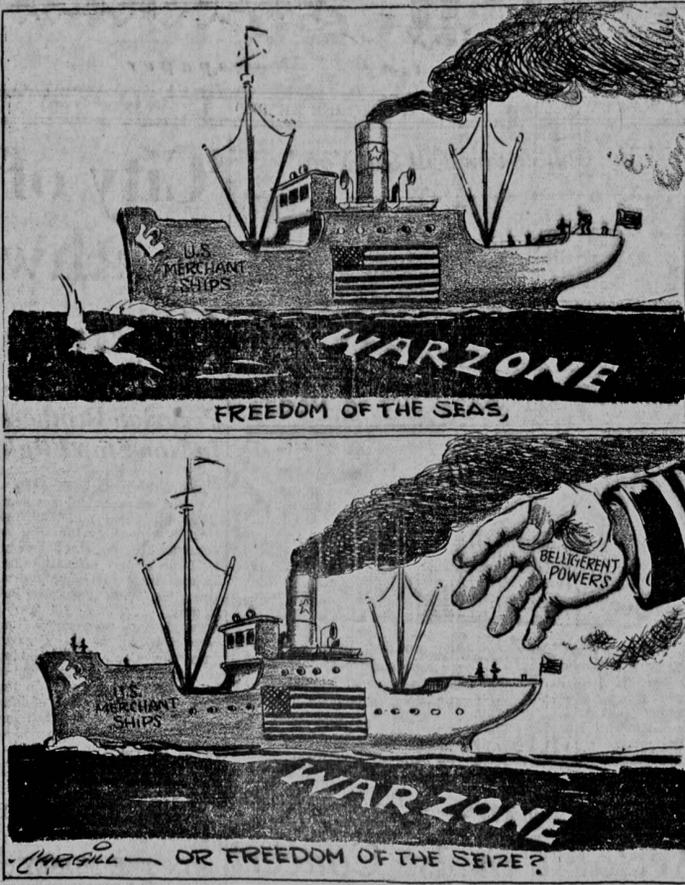

Such regimentation the people of Britain were prepared for. It was the price to be paid for the waging of war. All they ask is that the orders shall be wisely made, and that they should really be conducive to efficiency in running of the vast machine of a nation at war. Armies of officials are necessarily formed, and when they have great powers, but while the wise use of these powers makes for victory, the unwise use is a hindrance.

Government acts, of course, through various departments. One is concerned with the training of men for the army; another with the provision of skilled men for the war factories; another with the provision of food; another with taxation; another with the release and censoring of news. It may often happen that what appears helpful to one department will be an impediment to another. All the delicate balances which develop under the natural ebb and flow of freedom are likely to be thrown out when an entirely different organization is artificially formed. There is needed calculated co-ordination not only in each department of state, but between the departments; and this indicates a skilled thinking organ.

But some of the considerations which make an intrusive "brain trust" objectionable in peace time are arguments on the other side in war time. In view of the muddle that follows lack of direction, that distinguished English economist, Sir William Beveridge, is urging the necessity not only of a control board for every important industry, but a central body of men trained in co-ordinating all departments.

Stewart Says Senator Vandenberg's Friends Contend His Presidential Chances Improving

Sen. Arthur H. Vandenberg's friends contend that the Michigan solon's republican presidential chances have been greatly improved by the position he took, from the first, on the American arms embargo issue.

By CHARLES P. STEWART, Central Press Columnist

he couldn't very well be named on the G. O. P. ticket — and it's the G. O. P. nomination that, for the moment, we're discussing.

On the opposite hand, there are republican senators who have concurred with the White House on the neutrality proposition, saying that F. D. has been right in demanding that the arms exportation be lifted, subject to cash-and-carry qualifications. The position of Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio has been outstandingly to this effect. Of course, he's to be commended for voting his honest convictions, even though they were a democratic presidential's similar convictions. Nevertheless, in a republican convention, it may not be helpful to him to have a record as a vigorous booster for a democratic presidential policy.

As to the Kaleidoscope The situation changes too fast these times for a kaleidoscope to keep up with.

A ship-sinking or some such thing can change the whole prospect overnight.

It would take an Old Testament prophet to forecast what American sentiment will resemble by the time our national convention is held next June and July. I don't believe that even these Old Testamenters had such difficult problems put up to them as American diplomacy is confronted with today. They only had a few Moabites and Hittites and Egyptians and such to sort out. They simply had local frictions to deal with.

Prophesy doesn't signify today; it's a matter of guesswork.

So our democratic, republican and miscellaneous politicians simply grope in the dark.

They mean well, all of them, but God help 'em, they don't know what's going on. Nobody does. The belligerents don't.

The idea's to keep Uncle Sam out of it. Sure, but how keep out of it? And what IS it?

Middling Fat-Headed As between ourselves republicans and democrats have been middling fat-headed. They've fought over domestic issues that they ought to have agreed on.

They could be argued. But we can't argue between foreign powers. We can offer our "good offices" — and thereby risk getting into their nasty complications.

This is a case of keeping OUT of 'em.

There are two different ways of trying to do it.

But there are rival methods of trying HOW.

Senator Vandenberg, outstandingly, has got one way. President Roosevelt has got another way.

Nobody can tell, at present, which way, preferably, is which.

Maybe next year's conventions will give us a hint. Possibly not.

The 18 or more campusites who happen to live in democratic states, ones with Rooseveltian Thanksgivings, apparently won't be penalized for celebrating the day with their families. . . Except that they'll miss hearing Billy Phelps—who comes from Connecticut, not democratic. . .

If the lecture arrangers want to add a name, why don't they get Clarence Streit? . . . His "Union Now" scheme for a federation of democracies has a large following among the real anti-Nazis in England, especially among the people who are also anti-Chamberlain.

Dean William Lloyd Garrison of the Wisconsin law college may be scheduled for one of the student forums soon. . . He's a relative of the Abolitionist Garrison and a plugger for the current administration. . .

Pinza is one of the country's best baritones, but he's less well-known than any of half a dozen other Metropolitan and concert artists. . . His publicity has been conspicuous by its absence. . .

Part of the reason was obvious yesterday afternoon when, although his manager had arranged it, he refused flatly to say a word to newspaper men. . . The thin line between temperament and nastiness again. . .

Lawrence Tibbett, at the other extreme, left town full of admirers after last summer's concert. . . All of whom will pay $3 a concert to hear him again.

Of course, Pinza's the greater artist, probably. . . It's not easy to decide which is more important in a world of people.

Pinza does smoke Luckies—kind to the throat. . . They're at the end of a foot-long holder. . . Probably kinder that way.

The current hostess at the only library I've ever suspected of having read a book. . . But I wish the Union got newer books oftener.

One of the reasons the Betas were so happy about pledging Paul Bordwell springs from the fact that during rush week he happened to mention he prefers Socrates to Plato. . . Every fraternity needs one intellectual—if he isn't underfoot too much. . .

Paul's Pica Ball date didn't happen to be ready when he called at 8:30 Friday night. . . Part of which may be due to the fact that he'd neglected to let her know he was taking her. . .

There are two faculty members of the League for Peace and Democracy of Dies infamy. . . One so far to the left that he voted for the National Progressive party in the '38 elections. . . The other's been a life-long democrat from the south. . .

It's not the usual procedure, but the two co-op dorm leaders of the campus, both girls, had mothers who belonged to the swankest of sororities.

In listening to one of yesterday's not-refreshing classroom lectures, I remembered that story about Dorothy Parker. . . She'd just been informed that Calvin Coolidge was dead.

"Oh, really," she quipped. "how can they tell?"

Parade of Opinion-- (By Associated Collegiate Press)

"Our first duty in this time of turmoil and danger is to carry on our normal educational program as effectively as possible and with a minimum of confusion. Whatever course future events may take, the world will need young men versed in science and skilled in the arts of its application to promote human welfare." Dr. Karl T. Compton, president of Massachusetts Institute of Technology, urges education to follow such policies as will contribute to the maintenance of ideals which are basic to American life.

Robert E. Benchley, the Bob Benchley who rides the "bounding broomstick" on an air-waves program, has at last climbed the heights to immortal fame. Students of Loyola college in Baltimore have founded a Benchley Literary Circle to study modern American humor — and they'll first thoroughly examine the literary works of the new "dead of American humorists." The club's pin will undoubtedly be a bench with a broom leaning on it!

"When you listen to a lecture or study your textbook, think and apply the materials to your own personal environmental problems. Spend 15 minutes a day in meditation digesting the knowledge you have tasted. Let that knowledge be your servant rather than your master." Villanova college's Dr. W. H. McHugh believes that purely factual information is useless unless it is understood and used.

- What Happened?
Armstrong Hides
Jitterbug Wins

NEW YORK, Oct. 30 (AP)—The Old Professor perused a list of scores, shook his head thoughtfully, then addressed his Monday morning class of football coaches.

Class—The Old Professor.

What Happened? Old Professor—It's all right then. I was beginning to think maybe it was I who was balmy.

Francis Schmidt, Ohio State—I guess so, but we were suckered out on a couple of plays. Cornell's fast backs were too much for us, and it deserved to win. There was no letdown.

Carl S. Navelly, Cornell—The courage my boys showed in coming back was absolutely unbeatable. Ohio State is the best team we've played.

Old Professor—Mr. Kitts, why so glum? Please say something.

Jimmy Kitts, Rice—Hello.

Old Professor—I mean about your game.

Mr. Kitts—I have nothing at all to say about the Rice team. Nothing. Texas evidently had the better team. It is very smart and Jack Crain is a great back, with Fullback Pete Layden also in his class.

Dana Bible, Texas—We wanted to win this one so the boys went out and won. I think Mr. Kitts has a good team and an excellent back in Ollie Cordill.

Armstrong Hides Old Professor—Mr. Armstrong, why are you hiding those newspapers?

Ike Armstrong, Utah—I'm afraid my boys have been reading too much about themselves. Maybe they expected Denver to run when they said 'boo.' Instead they ran into a big, alert team. It was a good show for the folks.

Clyde Hubbard, Denver—You'll have to say my boys played their best game of the year. They'd been aiming at Utah all year. Boy, what a versatile attack those Utes have.

Old Professor—Mr. Allison, you seem quite content for a loser.

Stub Allison, California—We were up against a mighty fine ball club. In fact, this USC team is the best I've seen since 1931.

Howard Jones, USC—California is no slouch, and we weren't out to pour it on, but they gave us as good a scrap as we've had this year. The tackle, Lee Artoe, is a wonderful ball player.

Old Professor—Is that your hand up, Mr. Zuppke?

Bob Zuppke, Illinois—Yes, I'd like to say that our team was keyed up, but Soper's touchdown run demoralized us. While our backs were moaning about their tough luck on a previous drive, Soper shot through all of them.

Lynn Waldorf, Northwestern—We were tickled to death to win a game which might have gone either way. Soper picked a great time to score his first college touchdown. Our ends were great.

Old Professor—Mr. Mehre, please sit still. You act like a jitterbug.

Jitterbug Wins Harry Mehre, Mississippi—That's just it, professor. The final score should have been: Jitterbug Kellogg 12, Ole Miss 0. Tulane's mighty good, but it hasn't played LSU yet. The Greenies should be ready for a great game with Alabama.

Red Dawson, Tulane—We beat a good ball club, but I believe we've looked better at times this season.

Old Professor—Are you relieved, Mr. Pond, or are you relieved?

Ducky Pond, Yale—Whew, what an afternoon, professor. Boy, am I glad that's over. With a man like Evashevski to back and a guy like Harmon to run with the ball, Mr. Crisler really has something.

Fritz Crisler, Michigan—Confidentially, professor, I think we may even go places this year. My boys, they were wonderful.

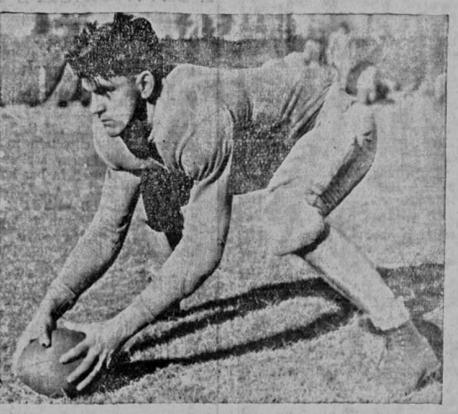

Old Professor—And confidentially, Mr. Crisler, you aren't just going, and before anybody else gets confused over their starting time, we'll call it a day. Button up your overcoats, it's right chilly out.

Aron Whips Bennett CHICAGO, Oct. 30 (AP)—Milt Avon, 150, of Dubuque, and Chicago, gave Leonard Bennett, 145-1-4, a terrific shellacking tonight, knocking out the Detroit fighter in the third round of their scheduled 10-round bout at Mari-gold gardens before 2,000 spectators.

The bell saved Bennett in the second after he had been floored for an eight-count and again for a nine-count.

Victorious Hawks Take Things Easy

Reserves Get Stiff Scrimmage Against Scrappy Frosh Team

Iowa's Hawkeyes—those who saw action at Madison last Saturday—took things easy yesterday afternoon but there was action aplenty in the Hawk camp as Dr. Anderson sent his third string through a tough scrimmage against the freshmen.

Several members of the regular team did not show up for practice while those who were out merely jogged around the practice field and limbered up their sore spots.

The reserves, however, were sent through a scrimmage against Coach Bill Hoyer's freshman squad and found plenty of trouble in the opposing crew.

Frosh Make Trouble Some of the freshmen who did surprisingly good work in the line were Peneluna, Ross, and Lauterback. The frosh seemed to stop everything the third team had to offer in the early stages of the scrimmage but could not cope with the speed and power of Carl Sullivan, "Oops" Gileard, and Bill Gallagher who ripped off consistent gains in the latter stages of the workout.

Anderson sent his second team through a long signal drill and worked his reserve guards individually before the freshmen were ushered in.

Bill Diehl, who played a spectacular game at center for the Hawks Saturday, is the only Iowa player who will probably be kept out of the Purdue encounter this week end.

Diehl Injured Diehl suffered a pulled knee, a separated shoulder, and a finger injury in the Badger tilt and had to be relieved in the final quarter of the game by Bruno Andruska.

Dr. W. W. Hayne, team physician, stated that Diehl would not report for practice until Wednesday or Thursday and it is very probable that he will be kept out of the Boiler-maker battle.

Coupee Back In Shape Al Coupee, who wore a special pad to protect his injured shoulder Saturday, reports his shoulder is good as new, which is a relief to many an Iowa sports follower.

Kinnick's injured hand seemed to be back in good shape as he limbered up his right arm in yesterday's practice.

Anderson will work his men hard from now till the end of the week in preparation for the Boiler-makers—considered by the Iowa coach as the strongest team in the conference.

Hopes are high that Jim Walker will return to the Hawkeyes some time this week. Walker said last night that his knee felt fine and that he was ready to work out with the team as soon as Dr. Hayne gave him the word.

Metz To Coach CHICAGO (AP)—Dick Metz of Chicago, one of the leading money winners of the 1938 professional golf season, signed a one-year contract yesterday as professional at the suburban Oak Park, Ill., country club.

Baer's extra pounds and power contributed heavily to his victory as Savold kept trying for effective punches after throwing off the jolt of his first round fall.

Savold 188. The winner took the first, second, fourth and eighth rounds, Savold won the third and fifth and the other two were termed even.

Baer started fast and had Savold down for a count of eight in the opening round, but the Des Moines fighter came back to give his opponent a tough battle all the way.

Dolphins Plan Raids 'Follies of 1940' To Present Divers In Bombing Act

Air raids are expected along the waterfront in Iowa City during the last few days before the Notre Dame game, according to notices received today by the head office.

No reason for alarm is seen, since the bombs will not be full of explosives, and they will not be dropped from bombers. It is just one of the many acts in the "Dolphin Follies of 1940" to take place in the fieldhouse pool Nov. 9, 10, and 11.

The air raiders are a few of Coach Armbruster's explosive swimmers, who will drop from the catwalk 40 feet above the pool. As the raid begins a complete blackout will occur, and spotlights will search for the bombers. Sirens will sound continually to warn spectators, and explosions will be heard as the bombs hit their destiny.

Eight men will be the "human bombs" in the act. The men participating are: Russ Dotson, Vic Vargon, Nick Connell, Frank Brandon, Leo Dziedzicki, Don Van Camp, Jim Cupp and Larry Hayes.

This air raid, with blackout and all the trimmings, will appear along with many other outstanding stunts. Freshman drills, varsity drills, Russian "Reds," and many other great acts will feature this year's show.

McMillin Stresses Need for Tackling

BLOOMINGTON, Ind., Oct. 30 (AP)—Coach A. N. McMillin, who scouted the Ohio State-Cornell game, told his Indiana university football squad today "We must improve our tackling if we hope to stop the Buckeyes Saturday."

Then he sent the Crimson players through a hard defensive and offensive drill.

Wolverines At Full Strength ANN ARBOR, Mich., Oct. 30 (AP)—Michigan's gridmen came out of the Yale encounter without serious injury and expect to be at full strength for the Big Ten game with Illinois Saturday at Champaign. Scouts reported to Coach Fritz Crisler that his Wolverines may have trouble solving Coach Bob Zuppke's tricky defensive formations so some work on that angle was scheduled for the next two days.

Players who saw action in the Yale game rested today while the balance of the squad scrimmaged with freshmen.

Bucks Get Comments COLUMBUS, Ohio, Oct. 30 (AP)—Ohio State coaches showed Buckeye gridders the comments of eastern sports writers on the loss to Cornell then stood back and got an eyeful of mad young men tearing up the practice field today. The Bucks meet Indiana here Saturday.

Head Coach Francis Schmidt started working on a pass defense that wouldn't leak as it did last week. Blocking and tackling came in for more attention.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30 (AP)—Fight Manager Joe Jacobs, informed of charges by Heavyweight Harry Thomas that he participated in "fixed" fights with Max Schmeling and Tony Galento, said today it "is mighty funny if took Thomas this long to get around to making the charges."

Thomas was stopped by Schmeling in eight rounds here December 13, 1937, and in three rounds by Galento in Philadelphia November 14, 1938. Jacobs was manager for both Schmeling and Galento.

"And don't forget," Jacobs added, "Thomas also fought Joe Louis. Joe flattened him in five rounds in Chicago in April of last year.

"I don't know what that Thomas is talking about. Look: He lasted eight rounds with Schmeling; he was knocked down seven times in the fight, and afterward he had to have about 15 stitches taken in his lip. If he was gonna 'dive,' he could have done it a lot earlier that night without taking all that beating.

"And Galento floored Thomas three times. After the fight he said a left hand punch to the temple in the first round was the hardest blow he had ever been hit. Why didn't he stay down then? No, sir, I don't know what Thomas is talking about and I don't think he does either."

Such a hearing can be held only after one or more of the boxers or their managers seek licenses from the commission. The commissioners then asserted that if and when such an application is made, "there will be no license granted to any of the accused until every vestige of suspicion is wiped away."

The statement was signed by Chairman Joseph Triner and his colleagues, Sheldon Clark and James Fitzpatrick.

Arch Ward Invited Governor Horner, at Springfield, said he would invite Arch Ward, sports editor of the Chicago Tribune, which published the charges made by Thomas, to discuss the case with him in the state capital. PRESSBOX PICKUPS By OSCAR HARGRAVE

THE BATTLE OF MADISON: THE LIGHT BRIGADE. The Hawkeyes certainly charged into a valley meant to be their Big Ten death, but their escape is described by Wisconsin rooters of the day who poetically explain the affair this way.

Badgers to the right of them, Badgers to the left of them, Wallowed and blundered. Pains are being taken by many a Madison writer to explain the defeat in terms of poor quarterbacking. The Badgers were, unquestionably, superior on the ground, but we are firm in our belief that it was the undeniably totemic aerial attack of the Hawks, combined with an alert defense, that brought disaster to the rugged opponents, although quarterbacking may have had much to do with the outcome, which brings us to the next question.

NAPOLEON OR HITLER: One writer said that Al Coupee ran the Iowa team like Hitler runs Germany. It is possible that all Coupee lacks is the moustache, or else is too big to be called a Napoleon, but many a spectator and sports writer admitted that the Iowa quarterbacking was of high caliber. Coupee, now well over the shoulder injury that bothered at Michigan, seems to have what it takes, including the ability to diagnose the opposition and a firm belief that the Hawkeyes can whip anyone, along with considerable speed and power. And, he has that distinguishing characteristic that has helped make Nile Kinnick an all-American candidate, a dislike for slipshod work.

SOPHOMORES: Besides Coupee, there are other new men coming along on the Iowa team. Bill Green, the flashiest runner of the lot, has added dependability to his speed. Jim Walker proved, before injuring his knee, that he is definitely a high class tackle. Wally Bergstrom filled in capably for Walker Saturday, and Bill Diehl is a good enough center for any man's team. Diehl, incidentally, took a battering in the Wisconsin game and may not be fully recovered before Saturday.

KINNICK'S UNDERSTUDY: The man kept on hand as a replacement for Nile Kinnick during the past two years had slim pickings. Imagine, if you will, being used to fill in for one of the midwest's, and the nation's, most brilliant performers—a tireless performer at that. That's what Buzz Dean did. He kicks, passes and does everything Kinnick does, but look at the competition he had until Coach Eddie Anderson began using him at right halfback. Dean is still on hand to carry the kicking and passing load should Kinnick meet with misfortune, but, meanwhile, the "Buzzer" is getting the chance he wanted for three years and Iowa fans are seeing in the forgotten understudy a rugged and furiously driving back who has been, in recent games, one of the most effective runners. Dean, it will be remembered, scored the only Iowa touchdown against Michigan on a pass from Kinnick.

Thomas Barred From Ring

Max, Galento, Nate Lewis Also Ousted

CHICAGO, Oct. 30 (AP)—The Illinois State Athletic commission tonight barred Harry Thomas, Tony Galento, Max Schmeling, Nate Lewis and Joe Jacobs from Illinois rings pending a complete hearing of "fixed fight" charges made by Thomas.

The ruling was announced after the commissioners had discussed the allegations of Thomas, a former heavyweight fighter, that the results of his bouts with Schmeling and Galento "had been entered weeks before the fighters entered the ring."

Governor Orders Inquiry The members met after Gov. Henry Horner had ordered a thorough inquiry into Thomas' story of his alleged "dives." They pointed out that neither the three fighters nor their managers held licenses in Illinois or had applied for any. Their formal statement added:

"After consultation with Attorney General John E. Cassidy, the commission was informed that it had no jurisdiction to conduct an investigation at this time. However, it is the unanimous opinion of this commission and Governor Horner that none of the accused parties will be allowed to engage in any boxing enterprise in the state until there has been a complete hearing of the charges made by Mr. Thomas."

Such a hearing can be held only after one or more of the boxers or their managers seek licenses from the commission. The commissioners then asserted that if and when such an application is made, "there will be no license granted to any of the accused until every vestige of suspicion is wiped away."

The statement was signed by Chairman Joseph Triner and his colleagues, Sheldon Clark and James Fitzpatrick.

Arch Ward Invited Governor Horner, at Springfield, said he would invite Arch Ward, sports editor of the Chicago Tribune, which published the charges made by Thomas, to discuss the case with him in the state capital. Ward said he had received no direct invitation, but would go to Springfield tomorrow, if asked.

Governor Horner ordered the inquiry in the wake of reports that efforts would be made to promote a match between Ga-

St. Pat's Drill Hard for Final Tilt Wednesday

St. Pat's 13 man squad went through a long session of signal drill last night in preparation for the West Branch tilt Wednesday afternoon.

Coach Ryan sent the Irish gridders through play after play and if a mistake was made the play was run until it was done right. Blocking was stressed and the lads from the south-side hit with more vigor than they've shown all season.

It's the last chance for the Irish boys to win their letters. With not a victory marked up on the St. Pat's record Coach Father Ryan says, "No win, no letter."

West Branch went down before U-high last Friday, 19-0. St. Pat's lost the third game of the season to the same team, 34-14.

The Irish, not playing last week, have had some good, long, hard practices and should show some good play against the West Branch outfit Wednesday.

Galento and Max Baer here this winter and another bout between Galento and Joe Louis here next summer.

"Signor Galento doesn't fight in Illinois until this matter is cleared up," the governor told reporters. "No one is going to fight in this state under that cloud of suspicion."

Ring Mix-Up Sends Jacobs Into Action

NEW YORK, Oct. 30 (AP)—Fight Manager Joe Jacobs, informed of charges by Heavyweight Harry Thomas that he participated in "fixed" fights with Max Schmeling and Tony Galento, said today it "is mighty funny if took Thomas this long to get around to making the charges."

Thomas was stopped by Schmeling in eight rounds here December 13, 1937, and in three rounds by Galento in Philadelphia November 14, 1938. Jacobs was manager for both Schmeling and Galento.

"And don't forget," Jacobs added, "Thomas also fought Joe Louis. Joe flattened him in five rounds in Chicago in April of last year.

"I don't know what that Thomas is talking about. Look: He lasted eight rounds with Schmeling; he was knocked down seven times in the fight, and afterward he had to have about 15 stitches taken in his lip. If he was gonna 'dive,' he could have done it a lot earlier that night without taking all that beating.

"And Galento floored Thomas three times. After the fight he said a left hand punch to the temple in the first round was the hardest blow he had ever been hit. Why didn't he stay down then? No, sir, I don't know what Thomas is talking about and I don't think he does either."

Such a hearing can be held only after one or more of the boxers or their managers seek licenses from the commission. The commissioners then asserted that if and when such an application is made, "there will be no license granted to any of the accused until every vestige of suspicion is wiped away."

The statement was signed by Chairman Joseph Triner and his colleagues, Sheldon Clark and James Fitzpatrick.

Third East Ekes Out 20-19 Victory Over Third South; Jefferson Wins Over Gables

Four games started out of the fourth week of the intramural touchfootball tournament yesterday afternoon.

A converted point won the game for Third East of Hillcrest over Third South. L. Stauffer, Monroe and Ed Stauffer were the sparkplugs for Third East. L. Stauffer was on the passing end as he completed two long passes to Monroe and Ed Stauffer for the first two touchdowns. Monroe ran the ball over for the final score. Saunders starred for the losing team as he ran the ball over for the first score for Third East. Schmidt passed to Miller for the second touchdown and Saunders' pass to Cardamon was responsible for the third score. The final score of the game read 20-19.

Fourth Rallies Fourth rallied in the second period to win over First 19-6. It was a pass from Fane to Lawhead that accounted for the only score in the first period for Fourth. In the second period, four passes from Fane to Ely accounted for the second score that put Fourth in the lead 13-0. A power play by Smith for First through the center of the line made the score stand 13-6. The final score of the game occurred when Fane of Fourth threw a pass to Cowan to clinch the game. Jefferson Wins, 19-18 Jefferson nosed out Gables by the score of 19-18. Noah of Jefferson started the scoring by running for a touchdown. Then Othouse of Gables used a power play through the center of the line to bring his team within one point of a deadlock. Lowell Smith of Jefferson ran the ball for a touchdown to start the second period scoring. But as Jefferson kicked the ball to Gables, Othouse received the ball and ran it back for a touchdown making the score 13-12 with Jefferson on the long end. With 30 seconds to play, Smith threw a pass to Noah to put Jefferson in the lead 19-18. A late touchdown for Gables with less than 20 seconds to play was made as Othouse threw a pass to Wall. The miss for extra point spelled defeat for Gables.

Upper D Drubs Upper C Upper D trounced over Upper C by the score of 33-6. The passing of Schrader for the Upper D team was the highlight of the game. Schrader completed passes to Snider, Hines and Overholt to account for five of the six touchdowns made by Upper D. The

Women To Take Men to Spinster's Spree November 10

Dick Barrie To Appear For Affair

Dance at Union Will Be Third All-University Party

Dick Barrie and his orchestra will play for the Spinster's Spree, the annual "girl-take-boy" affair, Nov. 10 in the main lounge of Iowa Union from 9 to 12 p. m.

At this third all-university party, the three most eligible bachelors, as picked by university women, will be presented.

A sweet yet rhythmical band with a musical trick for identification that plays all tempos and can do up "a bit of swing when necessary" will furnish the dance music. Dick Barrie was a featured trumpet player for three years with Kay Kyser. Three years ago he started his own band and is now playing in the Lowry hotel in St. Paul, Minn. Previous to being in St. Paul, he played at Bill Green's Casino in Pittsburgh.

Barrie features with his band a girl singer, a male singer, a trio and glee club arrangements.

The Spinster's Spree committee includes Eulalia Klingbeil, A4 of Postville, chairman; Gerry Genung, A3 of Glenwood; Josephine McElhinney, A2 of Iowa City; Clara Walker, A3 of Davenport; Helen Berlau, A3 of Newton; Martha Lois Koch, A4 of Evansville, Ind.; Bernice Borden, A4 of Omaha, Neb.; Clara Lauderdale, A4 of Tama; Maisie Johnson, C3 of Farlin; Doris Christiansen, and Eileen Henderlider, A3 of Onawa.

Dr. Edvard Hambro Speaks About Neutrality Thursday

Norwegian Presents Second in 1939-40 Lecture Series

"The Rebirth of European Neutrality" will be the subject of the Baconian lecture Thursday night in Old Capitol by the well-known Norwegian internationalist, Dr. Edvard Hambro, head of the section for international relations of the Chr. Michelsen Institute of Bergen, Norway.

Dr. Hambro comes to the University of Iowa as the second Baconian lecturer in the 1939-40 series.

Dr. Hambro, whose father is the president of the Norwegian Parliament and president of the supervisory committee of the League of Nations, is an authority on international relations. He has attended the Universities of Oslo, Geneva, and Yale, the Nansen foundation in Oslo, the Rockefeller foundation in New York, and Michelsen institute of Bergen.

In 1933 he was appointed temporary collaborator of the information section of the Secretariat of the League of Nations. He also had a position on the plebiscite commission for the Saar.

The author of numerous articles, his greater works include "L'execution des Sentences Internationales," published in Paris in 1936, and "Norge og Folkeforbundet," published in Oslo in 1938.

As a lecturer, Dr. Hambro comes highly recommended. Mr. S. Shepard Jones, director of the World Peace foundation of Boston feels that what Dr. Hambro has to say on international relations is important and adds, "I am glad to recommend my young Norwegian friend most enthusiastically." When a lecturer at Harvard in 1937 he was most enthusiastically received.

Dr. Hambro will speak in the senate chamber of Old Capitol at 7:30 Thursday evening.

Dr. H. Shirley Takes Position At Stanford U.

Dr. Hale F. Shirley, former assistant professor of psychiatry at University hospital, has taken up work in the child guidance clinic at the Stanford university medical school. Dr. Shirley, who visited clinics in New York City before going to California, was in charge of children's division of the outpatient department at University hospital before his resignation Oct. 1.

Graduated from the University of Iowa College of medicine in 1927, he served his internships here in General, Children's and the Psychopathic hospitals. He spent a year at Washington university at St. Louis in 1930-31 and studied on a Rockefeller scholarship at John Hopkins university in 1936-37. From there he returned to University hospital as assistant professor of psychiatry. His vacancy has not yet been filled.

Merle Miller Will Address Legion Group

Merle Miller, A4 of Marshalltown, will speak at the south-eastern district meeting of the American Legion and the American Legion auxiliary at Clarinda Thursday. His topic will be "Students Serve Democracy."

Next Tuesday, Mr. Miller will speak to the education department of the Davenport Woman's club on "Newspaper as a Propaganda Technique."

Gillette To Speak To Wesley Players At Student Center

Prof. Arnold Gillette of the university speech department will speak to the Wesley Players at their meeting tomorrow at 8 p. m. at the Methodist student center. The subject of his talk will be "The Staging of Russian Plays."

Sidney Cantor To Give Lecture This Afternoon

Dr. Sidney M. Cantor will present a lecture on "Carbohydrates as Chemicals" this afternoon at 4 o'clock in the chemistry auditorium. He will illustrate his talk with lantern slides.

Dr. Cantor comes to the university in connection with the recently established fellowship in the chemistry department of the Corn Products Refining company of Argo, Ill., where Dr. Cantor is a research chemist.

The chemistry department is sponsoring this lecture which will deal with the utilization of starch and various hydrolysis products of starch as chemical raw materials.

Pi Epsilon Pi To Sponsor 'Men's Week'

Will Begin Sunday; To Last Until Rally, Committee Advises

Pi Epsilon Pi, national honorary pep fraternity will sponsor a second annual "Men's Week" on the Iowa campus, according to a proclamation formulated by the organization. "Men's Week" will begin next Sunday and last throughout the week before the Notre Dame game, according to information released by the committee in charge.

Serving on the committee for Pi Epsilon Pi are Ed Glazer, chairman, Walter Wright, Arnold Levine, Fred Stage, Tom Measheim, Harry Elmetts, Dave Rude, Ed Hoag, Stan Taylor, Bob Dyer, Vince Harsha, Tom Kruse and Dick Collins.

The proclamation issued by Pi Epsilon Pi declares, "Men of Iowa and all loyal male supporters of the Hawkeye institution will refrain from shaving their beards starting the preceding Sunday of the Notre Dame game and will let them grow until after the Friday night pep rally. All men with the exception of medics and dentists shall either refrain from shaving or be subjected to the consequences as determined by the Kangaroo court."

The Kangaroo court will convene at the intersection of the sidewalks of Schaeffer hall, Old Capitol, and Macbride hall.

The pep fraternity has announced that Friday afternoon it will award prizes on the steps of Old Capitol for the longest beard, the most unique beard, the lightest beard and the heaviest beard.

Besides not shaving, males are requested by Pi Epsilon Pi to attend classes dressed in shabby pants, dirty shirts and without neckties. In case of cold weather, the proclamation points out, top coats will be acceptable.

Iowa Dentists To Have Clinic

Dr. Carroll Stewart Will Address Group; About 200 Expected

All Iowa dentists, even if they are not alumni of the University of Iowa, are invited to the 31st annual alumni clinic here Nov. 17 and 18, Dean Alvin W. Bryan announced yesterday.

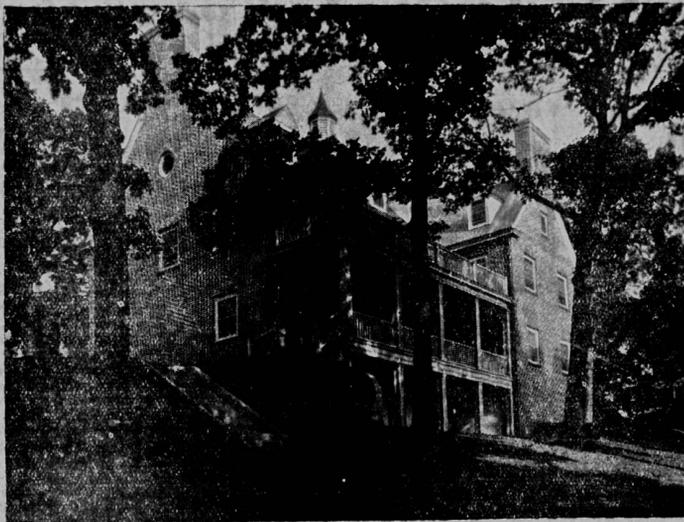

The dentists will hear several experts in special lectures and will learn of new developments in their profession at the chair and table clinics.

Dr. Carroll W. Stewart of Chicago is the only non-alumnus and out-of-state speaker on the program. He will talk on "Some Phases of Pathology and Surgery of Special Interest to Dentists."

About 200 persons are expected at the clinic, Dean Bryan said. The final details of the program now are being arranged. Sessions will close Saturday noon so that alumni can attend the Homecoming football game with Minnesota.

Shrimps do not like bad weather and bury themselves in the sea bed, so catches are smaller in stormy weather.

Alumni Purchase Delta Sigma Delta House

This is the Iowa Gamma Gamma chapter house of Delta Sigma Delta, which alumni have purchased for the Iowa active members. The professional dental fraternity is the only national dental fraternity and the Iowa chapter is one of 33 such groups in the United States. Dr. W. E. Spence of Iowa City announced the purchase yesterday.

Working Their Way Through Ingenuity, Paint, Brushes, Industry Aid Three Iowa Students

Harry Matt, Charles Bishop and Wayne Bishop. Ingenuity, paint, brushes and industry are the means by which three men on the campus are working their ways through college.

Two brothers, Wayne, A4, and Charles Bishop, A2 of Winterset, and Harry Matt, A3 of Sioux City, do everything from painting show cards and truck lettering to interior and exterior decorating.

The business received its impetus a year ago when Wayne Bishop opened his first shop in the hay loft of an old barn in Iowa City. Expanding business prompted him to think of renting a larger and better studio, but the propelling force was an accident wherein one of his best customers fell down a whole flight of the rickety barn stairs.

This year Bishop has his shop above a downtown paint store, and has incorporated his younger brother and a friend into the business.

Bishop's painting has carried him to many interesting places. At one time he was a seaman in charge of painting on board a ship sailing in the Arctic ocean. He has ridden freights all through the western United States, painting as he went.

Matt and Wayne Bishop are both majoring in art and are ambitious to become commercial artists for magazines. Matt has already laid out and illustrated a complete catalogue for a novelty company.

Many of the clever decorations outside the sorority and fraternity houses at Homecoming time will be the work of Charles Bishop, who also decorates for parties.

Previous to coming to Iowa City, Matt was a prize fighter in Sioux City and Council Bluffs. Now he trims windows, builds displays and backgrounds, paints board, metal, glass, paper and muslin signs, designs letterheads, trade marks, buttons and badges, does gold leaf lettering and makes layouts for commercial advertising.

The centennial button which was displayed this summer by residents of Iowa City was designed by Wayne Bishop.

Several portfolios of photographs of their work are kept, most of the pictures having been taken by Wayne Bishop.

None of the three has a hobby, as they all consider painting a recreation as well as a means of self-support.

Alum Dentists Buy Home For Local Chapter

Delta Sigma Delta Now To Own House Previously Rented

Iowa Delta Sigma Delta alumni have purchased the Iowa City chapter house of the national professional dental fraternity for use by University of Iowa active members, it was announced yesterday by Dr. W. E. Spence of Iowa City, deputy grand master of the Iowa Gamma Gamma chapter.

The local chapter house is at 108 River street. The house has been rented by the group for several years.

Gamma Gamma chapter was organized here in 1914 and is one of 33 chapters located in various dental colleges all over the United States.

The local alumni chapter is one of 37 auxiliary chapters of alumni in the United States. There are also five alumni chapters in foreign countries. These are in London, England, Paris, Victoria and New South Wales, Australia, and Rotterdam, Holland.

Dr. Spence has been deputy grand master of the local chapter for 17 consecutive years. He represented the chapter in purchasing the house.

H. Mathieson, Walter Eynon Make Inspection

H. H. Mathieson, sanitary engineer of the Los Angeles health department, and Walter Eynon of Canton, Ohio, inspected the University of Iowa sanitary and mechanical engineering departments Friday and Saturday.

Both men are interested in the extensive research which has been done in these departments recently. Eynon received his M. A. degree from the Case school of Applied Science of Cleveland, Ohio.

Mecca Alumni To Be Invited To Homecoming

Special invitations prepared by the college of engineering are to be mailed this week to 1,400 engineering alumni urging the former students to participate in the Homecoming week-end festivities of Nov. 17 and 18, according to general chairman Prof. Byron J. Lambert, head of the civil engineering department.

A reception for the engineering visitors in the office of Dean Francis M. Dawson is scheduled from 10:30 until noon on Saturday morning preceding the Homecoming game. Last year 200 alumni attended the reception which was inaugurated four years ago, according to Professor Lambert.

Freshman 'Y' Group Elects

D. Smith President Of Cabinet of Six To Discuss Policy

Six women have been selected by the newly-elected freshman officers to serve on the new Y.W.C.A. freshman cabinet, Anne McPhee, executive secretary of the local "Y," announced yesterday.

The new cabinet members and the committees they head are Mary Barnes, A1 of Iowa City, social service; Evelyn Nebergall, A1 of Iowa City, social chairman; Martha Mullan, A1 of Odebolt, publicity chairman.

Winifred Coningham, A1 of Middletown, Ill., promotion chairman; Kathleen Hennessy, A1 of Council Bluffs, freshman discussion group, and Marilyn Anderson, A1 of Manning, conference chairman.

The new cabinet will meet once a week to discuss the policies and programs of the freshman Y.W.C.A. group.

Officers, elected by an all-freshman "Y" meeting, include Dorothy Smith, A1 of Iowa City, president; Priscilla Rogers, A1 of Coon Rapids, vice-president, and Rosemary Lawhorn, A1 of Iowa City, secretary-treasurer.

Charline Sagau, A4 of Denison, is upper-class cabinet adviser to the freshman group.

Poets of Iowa To Meet Here Next Saturday

Will Hear Theobald, Engle, Walker, Ashton In Poetry Discussions

Members of the Iowa Poetry society will meet in Iowa City Saturday with Paul Engle, Margaret Walker, Prof. John W. Ashton and John Theobald as guest speakers on the all-day program which is to include a 12:30 p.m. luncheon at Iowa Union.

The four phases of poetry to be discussed are southern, western, American verse, contemporary poets of England, and the ballad as a special form.

Paul Engle, whose volume of poetry, "Corn," was published this year, will speak on "Working With Poetry." Professor Ashton, whose subject will be "Ballads and Their Makers," will trace the history of the ballad form of poetry, citing interesting types he has discovered in research on this subject.

John Theobald will draw on his experience at Oxford, England, with the famous English poets, Spenser, Auden and Lewis, to discuss "Modern English Poetry." Theobald has taught at Queen's college in Canada, and with Robert Frost for five years at Amherst. He published his first works with the English poets in Oxford anthologies, and will read several poems with which he won awards including those which have appeared in "Atlantic," "Poetry" and "Saturday Review" magazines.

Miss Walker, now doing graduate work in creative writing at the University of Iowa, will speak on "Poetry in the South." She is a graduate of Northwestern university and worked in 1937 on a novel of Negro folk-lore in connection with the Federal Writers' Project in Chicago.

A special feature of the meeting here will be the presentation of awards for poems submitted to the society for its poetry contest. These prizes include three cash awards, three book awards and a founder's prize of five dollars given by Beulah Vick Bickley.

Gains Overshadow Losses In State As Business Shows Improvement

Gains slightly overshadow losses in Iowa business and incomplete data for early October suggests further improvement, the current issue of the University of Iowa's "Business Digest" points out.

Prof. George R. Davies, the editor, declares that such improvement is "obviously attributable to the rapid gains both in national production and speculative markets which have been stimulated by the European war."

He said that September, 1939, figures were above those of a year ago by such percentages as 71 per cent in business building contracts, 26.6 in new car sales, 29.6 in residential building contracts, 12.1 in bank deposits, and 4.4 in employment.

Referring to the national situation, Professor Davies declared that business advances continued strong through September but weakened in October.

"It is generally assumed that this retardation was due primarily to peace talk and secondarily to a realization that the boom itself was too strongly speculative. Business leaders emphasized the danger of excessive expansion and overproduction that accompanied other booms and they discouraged further advances," he said.

The university expert characterized prospects for business as highly uncertain. Factors involved include nature and effect of neutrality legislation, possibility of a European truce, and the influence of both business and government in restraining a boom.

Plan Program To Raise Funds

Parent-Teachers Will Bring Company Here November 16

The Staples Magician company will be brought here Nov. 16. It was decided at a meeting of the Parent-Teachers council last night in the public library. Purpose of the program will be to raise money for the milk fund.

A. D. Henshlag, principal of Horace Mann school, is in charge of the tickets. The poster committee is headed by Mrs. Fred Brown.

Prof. G. Ferguson Visits in Chicago

Prof. Grace B. Ferguson of the social administration division of the college of commerce is in Chicago this week attending the executive sessions of the American Association of Medical Science workers.

Professor Ferguson is vice-president of this national organization.

'Quiet Hallowe'en or Else - - -'

Local History of All Hallow's Eve Shows Period Of Comparative Calm (?)

By JACK HAGENS

"Hallowe'en may be used for smaller boys at this time were putting wagons on the buildings and pushing wood piles over.

Whether violence was expected in 1885 or not, the city was patrolled all night by police officers armed with "warlike clubs." The Vidette-Reporter, in an editorial, remarked that "the cops were out to arrest any student overstepping the law, and further commented that "he must be attired in college clothes." It further stated, that at this time, "no student ever forgets his experiences with the 'Bohee' cops!"

The period of quiet Hallowe'en began in 1910, for then an all-university party was held to celebrate Hallowe'en. Although the 1915 celebration was featured with parties, picnics, and dances, a whole corps of university janitors kept guard through the night. The Daily Iowan commented, "They had a hard time keeping awake!"

By 1930 science began entering into Hallowe'en pranks: when paraffin replaced common soap, Iowa City buses and business houses were marked. All the old-timers believed this to be worse than the pranks of the old days! In very recent years, the city has taken over the University fieldhouse and has sponsored a parade and games to keep children out of mischief.

What the university students will do this year, only tonight, All Hallow's eve, will tell!

Drake Suspends Student, Takes Action Against Five Others

Charges Made After Victory Celebration

Pranksters Denied Honorable Dismissal By Faculty Council

DES MOINES, Oct. 30 (AP)—The Drake university faculty council today suspended one student for the semester and took action against five others and two former students in connection with what it termed "disorderly conduct" growing out of a football celebration a week ago.

The specific charge, although not contained in a statement issued from the office of President D. W. Morehouse, was "breaking up of classes" in school's Monday, Oct. 22, celebration following Drake's football victory over Iowa State college Oct. 18.

The council's action also included

ed provision for appointment of a committee by the president to confer with the student council "concerning future policies regarding student activities."

The committee had not been appointed tonight, the president's office stated.

Charges against the eight students grew out of disturbances which necessitated dismissal of several classes, a spokesman said.

Two former students were denied honorable dismissal by the council action, meaning the university may refuse to transfer the students' credits to another university and also refuse them re-admittance to Drake.

Opportunity to Appear

In all instances, the students were given an opportunity to appear before the council for redress.

Less stringent action was taken against the other five under a conditional arrangement whereby two of them are to forfeit four semester hours of credit for their part in the affray.

University officials declined to give out the names of the students.

Tea Dances Begin at Union Tomorrow

Committee Named; Dances on Thursday Planned This Year

The first tea dance of the current year will be held in the river room of Iowa Union tomorrow from 4 to 5:30 p.m. This is the first of a series of Wednesday tea dances which will continue every week through March.

There will also be Thursday tea dances for engineering students and others who are unable to attend the Wednesday dances. The time will be announced later.

Tea dances are sponsored by the student board of Iowa Union and have been a successful activity for several years. Music is supplied through phonographic recordings of past and present popular tunes.

The committee for the tea dances includes Richard Witt, A3 of Shell Rock, chairman, and William Creasey, L3 of Kingsley, and the following Union board sub-committee members: Evelyn Anderson, A2 of Honey Creek; Martha Lois Koch, A3 of Evansville, Ind.; Robert Gordon, A3 of Des Moines, and Robert Miller, E3 of Waverly.

Dr. R. Dexter Will Address Club Tonight

Lecturer To Open Series of Talks Before Men's Group

Dr. Robert C. Dexter of Boston, Mass., director of the departments of social and foreign relations of the American Unitarian association, will open a series of lectures in Iowa City, when he addresses the Men's club tonight in the Unitarian church.

Known as a lecturer, writer, and special investigator in social, economic and international fields, Dr. Dexter will discuss "America's Responsibility in the Present Situation" tonight immediately after a dinner in the church at 6 o'clock.

All men have been invited to make reservations for the dinner through the Rev. Evans A. Worthington.

"The Bases of a Permanent Peace" will be the subject of a round table discussion which Dr. Dexter will lead in the senate chamber of Old Capitol tomorrow afternoon. Chairman will be Dr. M. Willard Lampe of the school of religion, which, in conjunction with the graduate college, is sponsoring the round table.

Robert Dexter Addresses Lions Tomorrow Noon

Robert Dexter, Boston, Mass., will address the weekly meeting of the Lions club tomorrow noon in Reich's pine room, it was announced yesterday. Dexter is secretary of the social and foreign relations department of the American Unitarian association.

His subject will be "How Long Can We Remain Neutral?" Dexter has traveled extensively in Europe.

Dr. Dexter will also talk tomorrow to the Lions club at noon and to the university labor economics classes in the morning. He will address the Rotary club Thursday noon.

After the Munich accord in 1933, Dr. Dexter was instrumental in establishing the only American relief agency to function in Bohemia and Moravia until last August. He has traveled extensively in Europe.

Dr. Dexter, who is an active member in international peace organizations, taught social and political science at Skidmore college and Clark university before assuming his present position.

Peace Prayer To Be Offered By Catholics

Foundation To Sponsor Mass Tomorrow; Invites All Students

In observance of the feast of All Saints, the Catholic foundation will sponsor a mass for peace at 12:10 p.m. tomorrow at St. Patrick's church. All Saints day is a holy day of obligation in the Catholic church.

The Foundation issued the following statement regarding the mass:

"In response to the appeal of his Holiness the Pope for renewed prayer that God may remove the scourge of war from His children, the chaplain of the Catholic Foundation will offer the Holy Sacrifice for peace at 10 minutes past noon on the feast of All Saints at St. Patrick's church.

"The day is chosen because it is a holy day of obligation, when all Catholics attend mass, and because of the significance of the feast in honor of all those who have attained to the peace of the vision of God after the warfare of this life; among the saints in heaven there is no distinction of color, race, or nation, for all are united in Him who is the Lord of all.

"The hour is chosen with the students primarily in view, so that they may attend their morning classes, assist at mass, and have time for lunch before their afternoon classes.

"The Catholic foundation invites all students, Catholic and non-Catholic alike, who believe in the power of prayer to come and join their private prayers to the Holy Sacrifice in petition for the divine gift of a just and lasting peace."

Downey Acquitted In False Pretenses, Embezzlement Case

Durban Downey, Iowa City, has been dismissed of the three charges held against him by County Attorney Harold Vestermark, T. M. Fairchild, justice of the peace, who heard the case Oct. 21, said yesterday. Downey was accused of two embezzlement charges and obtaining money under false pretenses.

A case of reckless driving, charged against Dale W. Southwick, Iowa City, was continued for the second time. His trial, which was to be held yesterday, was postponed until Nov. 14 in Judge Fairchild's office.

A survey shows city dogs live longer than those in the rural sections. And no wonder—the metropolitan pooches don't have to spend their lives dodging Sunday drivers.

If Mussolini gets any stouter the Italian government may face a huge increase in expenditures—for reinforcing those balconies he just loves to stand on.

One of the unsolvable mysteries of life is why no matter where you decide to spread your picnic lunch it's always on an ant hill.

We are far more athletic than our grandparents, according to a noted physician. That's easy to understand. Gramps didn't get all the exercise we do in crawling in and out of motor cars.

The Scotch export more than $100,000,000 worth of whiskey to this country annually. Though they don't drink any of it, we'll bet they get a bigger kick out of that item than the Americans do.

Council Will Review Program for Second Sewage Project

Detailed Plans Call for Many Short Hookups

Council Will Set Date For Public Hearing If Proposal Granted

City Engineer Fred E. Gartzke last night announced that he would submit detailed plans for another Iowa City sewage project to members of the city council who will convene in a special session at 11 a. m. tomorrow to issue funding bonds for the city.

Labor on the new project, Gartzke said, would lay an estimated 1,400 feet of pipes at various points throughout the city, will be furnished by WPA if the request filed two months ago, already approved by the district office, receives presidential assent.

"This plan is intended to affect a number of short spans throughout the city," he continued, "and will serve in some cases as connections between longer lines."

If the council accepts the plans as given, it is expected to set a date for public hearing on the proposal.

Plans call for numerous minor additions as far as Court street and as far as Manville addition, Gartzke disclosed. He said the improvement, outlined by his office, has been prompted partly on request of several residents.

The program, he continued, will be almost as extensive as the recently completed work in the Cook, Sargent and Downey additions and Sunnyside addition, on Harrison street, Second avenue, and a trunk line from Clinton to Keokuk streets.

The construction, which involved $10,749 to finish, was accepted as complete by the city council Oct. 9. The project was begun in July, 1938.

Case Begins Against Miller

Concerns Accident Encountered in 1937 While Driving Truck

First testimony was taken yesterday afternoon in Johnson County district court in the $800 damage suit of the Great American Insurance company against Eldon Miller, local trucker. Jurymen to hear the case were selected during the morning.

The suit follows an accident which Miller had in 1937. He was returning from Chicago to Iowa City with a shipment of goods for the White Line motor company when he ran into a ditch near Mendota, Ill. The cargo was destroyed. The Great American Insurance company carried the insurance for the White Line firm.

Jurymen impaneled to hear the case are Harold S. Kendall, Juanita Breese, Edward Tuttle, Sherman Cox, Lola Key, Charlie Novotny, Sophia Stramp, Mabel H. Davis, R. J. Cerham, Ed J. Dvorsky, George R. Black and Edna Fountain.

Judge James P. Gaffney is presiding at the case.

Thompson Car Found Monday

Police yesterday afternoon reported the recovery of a 1939 sedan belonging to Charles Thompson, West Branch, in the Law commons parking lot.

Thompson told police Sunday that the car was stolen from the 200 block on Iowa avenue between 7:30 and 10:30 that evening.

Community Chest Campaign Extended for Few More Days; All Donations Not Accounted

59 Per Cent Short Of $17,850 Goal; Eight Groups Report

Jack J. Swaner, campaign director of the Iowa City Community Chest, last night announced that the Chest drive, previously scheduled to end today, will be extended "a few more days until either the $17,850 quota is reached or all means of attaining that goal are exhausted."

The extension of time, Swaner explained, has been prompted by the fact that not all solicitors have been able to complete their reports.

Yesterday afternoon Chest proceeds stood 59 per cent below the $17,850 goal, when officials reported $7,398 collected since the drive began a week ago.

Collections to date include the following reports from the eight divisions:

College of medicine and university hospital, $1,061; business, $1,425; professional, $544; national firms, $1,460; residential, $645; employees, $65; university, $2,180; and public schools, $18.

Only one school has completed its plans for donations, it was reported.

Low-cycle signals need not be "built up" as frequently over long distances as high-frequency signals, and therein lies the commercial value of the vocoder, still in the experimental stage.

As it exists today, the vocoder provides an interesting means of entertainment for the layman.

Expression in speech is due to the constant swing up and down of pitch as one speaks. When the vocoder cuts the swings in half, the voice seems monotonous; when it doubles the swings, it becomes brilliant, when it boosts swings of the voice to four times normal, speech sounds unnatural.

The vocoder controls can be reversed so that a high pitch becomes low, the tune of a song is unrecognizable, and speech sounds like that of the Scandinavians.

By electrical changes, the vocoder changes a man's vigorous tones into the quavering voice of a

Tomlin Rites To Take Place On Wednesday

Funeral service for Mrs. William M. Tomlin, 50, 1113 E. Jefferson street, who died suddenly at a local hospital late Sunday afternoon, will be held at 10:30 a. m. tomorrow at the Hohenschuh mortuary. Burial will be in St. Joseph's cemetery.

Mrs. Tomlin was born in New York City Feb. 6, 1889, and came to Iowa when she was 13 years old.

Survivors include her husband, William M. Tomlin, and eight children, John, Perry and Betty Tomlin, William and Carl Hauser, Lloyd Tomlin, Mrs. John Cornwall and Mrs. George Norton, all of Iowa City; and eight grandchildren.

T. LeVora Dies Suddenly In Iowa City

Owner of Varsity Cleaners Moved Here In 1913 From Ottumwa

Thomas Jacob LeVora, 52, owner of LeVora's Varsity Cleaners, died suddenly at 12:52 p. m. yesterday at Mercy hospital.

He was born in Chicago in 1887, where he lived for 25 years. He moved to Bonapart in 1912, then to Ottumwa for a year before coming to Iowa City.

Mr. LeVora was a member of the local Eagles and Moose lodges. Survivors include two sons, Elmer and Clarence LeVora, and five daughters, Mrs. Ralph Goody, Mrs. William Chapman, Dorothy, Betty and Aileen LeVora, all of Iowa City, and a brother, John LeVora, of Chicago.

His wife preceded him in death Nov. 4, 1935. Funeral arrangements are to be completed this morning.

Children's Hallow'en Parade To Be This Evening at 7:30

Hallow'en festivities for Iowa City school children will start promptly at 7:30 this evening, according to Eugene Trowbridge, director of the recreational center.

At this time all the costumed boys and girls will meet in front of the community building for the parade through the business district to the old city high gym where the main program will be held.

Starting from the community building, the parade will proceed north to Washington street, then west to Clinton street. Here the line of costumed marchers will head north to Market street, and then east on Market to the gymnasium at the intersection of Market and Van Buren streets.

Headed by a police escort, the parade will be led by the 80-piece Iowa City high school band, the Grenadiers junior drum and bugle corps and a Boy Scout and a Sea Scout detail.

As the line of marchers enters the gymnasium, five judges picked from the drama department of the Iowa City Woman's Club will make their choices for the 25 awards for outstanding and most original costumes in the seven classes.

After the grand march around the gym, Don R. Mallett, assistant dean of men, will lead the assembled celebrants in a mass sing, with the words to the songs shown on a large movie screen.

Most of the thrills and chills of the evening will come with the showing of an eight-reel talking picture entitled "Tarzan and the Green Goddess," starring Herman Brix, Olympic swimming champion.

The retail merchants bureau, a division of the local chamber of commerce, is financing the showing of the movie.

The annual Hallow'en parade and frolic is to close with a surprise feature.

Costume judges from the Iowa City Woman's club include Mrs. George Van Duesen, Mrs. Edwin Oberg, Mrs. Clay Burkhardt, Mrs. Clarence Beck and Mrs. Basil Carlson.

Pinza--

by no means compatible things. To each song he brings an excellence of taste and intelligence which gives his listeners the feeling that they have just heard "the" correct interpretation. Tone color and style of delivery are dictated by the type of song sung. Although he demonstrates on numerous occasions that he has a keen sense of the theatrical, never does he forget that he is singing in recital and not in opera.

The fact that he is a basso seems never to inhibit Mr. Pinza. His voice is warm and vibrant and responsive to whatever demands he makes upon it. Pinza is truly a great singer.

Fritz Kitzinger, Mr. Pinza's accompanist, contributed much to the success of last night's concert. Especial mention should be made of his playing of the difficult accompaniment to the Mozart aria from "Don Giovanni."

'Keep Out of War,' Urges Kitzinger

In the business of making Ezio Pinza comfortable after the train trip from Chicago, and in the applause that followed last night's concert, there was one in the background who, while very important to the whole scene, was somewhat lost in the shadow of the man he serves.

For three years, Fritz Kitzinger has accompanied Pinza, basso who appeared last night in the opening concert of the 1939-40 campus concert series in the main lounge of Iowa Union.

Before becoming associated with Pinza, Kitzinger accompanied Grace Moore, Gladys Swarthout and others.

Mr. Kitzinger excitedly nodded his head and without hesitating said, "I have been in the United States five years, and soon a citizen—a good one, I hope!" when he was asked if he was a native of Germany.

"All I like is to become American citizen; all I want is that we keep out of the war," he said simply and smiled as one citizen to another.

'Midsummer Night's Dream' To Be Presented November 14

City High To Give First Performance In New Auditorium

A presentation of Shakespeare's "Midsummer Night's Dream," to be given Tuesday evening, Nov. 14, by Iowa City high school students, will be the initial performance on the stage of the large theater auditorium of the new senior high school building.

Approximately 75 high school students will participate in the production with the aid of a selected orchestra under the direction of William Gower, director of instrumental music at the high school, it was announced yesterday by Lola Hughes, dramatics director. The play has a cast of 33, Miss Hughes said.

Work on the play has been underway for the past month with girls in dramatic classes and in the Paint and Patches dramatic club working on costumes in the little theater workshop. In the elaborate workshop under the stage, crews have been constructing scenery for the production. Large sets are constructed in this workshop and lifted to the stage by means of large hoists which are set above the stage and hold the scenery in place during the play.

Carroll Hogan is designing the scenery and Edward Oldis is head of the execution of designs. Bob Parden and Raymond Leffler will control the new switchboard. The stage has one of the most complete sets of lighting equipment in any high school auditorium.

A mixed chorus of 24 members led by Ansel Martin, director of vocal music at the high school, will sing the "Bridal Chorus" with Lorene Liston playing the Mendelssohn music.

Leading players in the cast include Jule Kaspar as Theseus, Ann Martin as Hippolyta, Helen Eye and Bronnie Martin as Hermia and Helena, Dean Williams and Vernon Bothell as Lysander and Demetrius, Bob Swisher as Bottom, Bill Houck as Puck and Anne Waterman as Titania.

The sun, it seems, never sets on its title to the British Empire. While Japanese are slapping English folk in China the Iceland chess team defeats the Canadians.

Freezing Temperature Skids To 32 Degrees

Gray skies over Iowa City yesterday yielded traces of snow that melted as it hit the ground. Clouds dispersed last night.

Gloves and overcoats were brought out of closets as the mercury fell to 32 and climbed no higher than 42 degrees, as compared with normal Oct. 30 readings of 35 and 57. Marks a year ago were 40 as low and 61, high.

Never Ceases to Express Her Gratefulness

"One day recently I called at the home of a woman whose vision was seriously affected by a general rundown condition. She was hardly able to see her way about the house. First of all I recommended that she see her eyesight specialist at once for a check-up on her eyes."

"I then explained our service and made many suggestions but she felt she could not follow my advice at the time, except in the kitchen. After one week of having a 'well-lighted kitchen,' she telephoned the office, expressing her appreciation and asked them to send me back to complete the job in her home."

"On my second trip I spent over three hours washing globes and replacing bulbs and shades in her living room, hallways and cellar."

"She is now able to get around the house easily and enjoy the cheerfulness of Better Light for Better Sight. I have always felt my time was well spent for she never ceases to express her gratefulness for our Home Lighting Service."
