

Inter-Fraternity Court Returns 'Guilty' Verdict in Probation Week Hearing

The University of Iowa Inter-fraternity court, judicial branch of the inter-fraternity organization on the campus, acting on a case referred to the court by Inter-fraternity council last Thursday, yesterday handed down an opinion on the case.

Finding Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity guilty of violating a section of the inter-fraternity constitution prohibiting certain activities of probation week.

Specific charges lodged against the fraternity were not revealed by the court, nor was the testimony of the closed session. Penally for the constitutional violation, as decreed by the court in the opinion, provides that the fraternity be fined $100, of which $50 was suspended by the court, the group losing social privileges for the remainder of the school year.

The opinion, stern in tone, rebuked fraternities who would violate the laws of the inter-fraternity organization, stating: "Let it be understood that those who hold responsible positions on the council or the court are determined that fraternity life shall not be allowed to lose its significance to the men who belong to fraternities, so long as there be bodies to make rules, and organizations to see that such rules are enforced."

The court's opinion read: "Interfraternity council has brought charges against Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity charging violation of Section 5, Article C of the Men's Interfraternity constitution, which provides: "All forms of hazing, as a part of pledgship and probation in the several fraternities, are hereby prohibited. Under this heading of hazing this article includes: (c) Any form of "horse-play" that would in any way jeopardize the physical well-being of the pledge or bring the fraternity system into disrepute. "From the testimony presented, the court is of the opinion that the activities of the fraternity during its probation week were such as to jeopardize the physical well-being of a pledge and thus to bring the fraternity system into disrepute."

"This court recognizes the current existence of a period when fraternities on the Iowa campus must prove to the university and the state that they have not degenerated as wholesome, interesting and valuable homes in which the college man may live. "Let it be known, therefore, in keeping with this awareness, that the existing forces of law and regulation which have been set up by the Interfraternity council at the University of Iowa to preside over the fraternity system will be exercised to the fullest extent of their powers in maintaining the welfare of the campus fraternity system. "And let it be understood, therefore, that those who hold responsible positions on the council or the court are determined that fraternity life on the Iowa campus shall not be allowed to lose its significance to the men who belong to fraternities, so long as there be bodies to make rules, and organizations to see that such rules are enforced. "A traditional cause of disturbance in individual groups and in the fraternity system as a whole has been the long-known probation period. It is regrettable that this designated period should have come to be called "hell week," a name which has unhappily persisted from the days when "hazing" a pledge meant considerably rougher treatment than in recent years. "Probation week has its place in the fraternity set-up. Probation week, the function of which traditionally has been to knit more closely the active and pledge members of a group into what may rightfully be called a "fraternity" in the fraternal sense, has replaced the "hell week" of an earlier period—a week in which active members took advantage of their superior positions to make life miserable for the underlings. "It becomes increasingly apparent that probation week must mean, in the fullest possible sense, a period in which those who desire to live in fraternities are brought face to face with the

Prof. Philip G. Clapp Honored by Bruckner Society

U. Orchestra Director Wins Recognition

Joins Internationally Noted Directors In Concert Tribute

Prof. Philip Greeley Clapp, head of the music department and director of the university symphony orchestra, joined the company of a number of internationally known conductors last night when he received a medal from the Bruckner Society of America.

The award was made by the organization "in recognition of his efforts to create greater interest in and appreciation of the music of Anton Bruckner, the great Austrian composer of the 19th century." Prof. Earl E. Harper, director of the school of fine arts, made the presentation at the close of last night's university symphony concert at Iowa Union in which Bruckner's "Romantic Symphony" was performed.

Distinctive Honor
Professor Clapp is the first conductor of a non-professional orchestra ever to win the medal. First given in 1933 and designed by Julio Kilenyi, the famous American sculptor, medals have been presented to such men as Arturo Toscanini of the National Broadcasting company, Serge Koussevitzki of the Boston symphony orchestra, Frederick Stock of the Chicago symphony and Bruno Walter of NBC.

The award came as a surprise to the concert audience, for no previous announcement of it had been made. Dr. Martin G. Dumler of Cincinnati, O., national president of the society, informed Professor Clapp of the honor several days ago, however.

Society Impressed
The performance of the Bruckner symphony by the university orchestra last night was considered especially worthy of note by the society because the composer's works are so difficult that they are seldom played by a student organization. Professor Clapp has been very enthusiastic about Bruckner's compositions all his life and has given them much attention in his lectures, concerts and university classes.

Founded in 1931, the Bruckner Society of America was formed for the purpose of "collecting and disseminating biographical, critical and historical material concerning Bruckner and Gustav Mahler, his great pupil." The organization is a division of the International Bruckner society.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28 (AP)—Senator Tobey (R-NH) sponsor of a resolution to eliminate personal income questions from the census, spent an hour and a half today reading to a senate committee excerpts from a batch of 4,000 letters which he described as protests against "government snooping."

University Orchestra Performs Difficult Symphony Well

By THOMAS SCHERREBECK
The large and appreciative audience which attended the fourth concert of the University Symphony orchestra last night heard not only a splendid concert but received an added pleasure in the presentation of the medal of the Bruckner Society of America to the orchestra's conductor, Dr. Philip Greeley Clapp, for distinguished service in the promotion of appreciation of Bruckner's work.

Bedrich Smetana's gay overture to his opera "The Bartered Bride" opened the program. While the orchestra caught the spirit of the overture, the fugal passages were taken at a pace too rapid to permit the strings to execute them precisely.

Professor Arnold Small was soloist of the evening in the Ernest Chausson "Poeme" for violin and orchestra. Introspective and atmospheric to a high degree, the "Poeme" contained many passages of haunting beauty which, if one were finding fault, seemed rather inconclusive. To the Chausson work Professor Small brought a beautiful tone and a fine intelligence; the "Poeme" is an illustrative work at best but one may safely say that Professor Small was on familiar ground all the time.

In response to the insistence of the audience, the soloist played the Vieuxtemps "Reverie," accompanied by Dr. Clapp.

After the intermission came the seldom heard Fourth Symphony of Anton Bruckner, subtitled "Romantic." It took more than a little courage for Dr. Clapp, the orchestra's conductor, to program a Bruckner symphony, and especially to program it for a non-professional orchestra. Bruckner is easy for neither player nor listener and, while the "Romantic" is not Bruckner at his intellectual peak or most difficult, it is, nevertheless, an excellent work with which to begin an acquaintance with him.

It is not my purpose to give a detailed analysis of the "Romantic" movement by movement. Suffice it to say that the four movements of the symphony are linked together by a subtle transformation of the theme stated by the horns at the opening of the first movement. The horn call was used to suggest the pastoral, the military, the hunt, the dramatic. While there was some diffuseness in development of ideas and a tendency to repeat an idea too many times, nevertheless the symphony amply demonstrated that it should be included more often upon symphony programs.

Whatever fault one may find in particulars of execution in last night's performance, the whole was intelligently conceived and surprisingly well performed. It would be unfair, perhaps, to pick out one section more than another for commendation, but, since the French horns carried so nobly so large a share of the burden of the symphony, we wish to thank them in particular.

And to Dr. Philip Greeley Clapp, who has labored so long in the service of Bruckner and in the developing of an orchestra which can turn out so excellent a performance of a Bruckner symphony, especial thanks.

Hull Seeks New Order After War

Sends Plans For 'Liberal Economy' To European Heads

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28 (AP)—The United States is actively seeking the support of all nations for its view that the end of the war should also bring the end of economic autarchy, regimentation and totalitarianism, Secretary Hull revealed today.

To that end, Hull said, his previous statement on the economic order and disarmament that should follow the war has been sent to American representatives abroad with instructions to bring it to the attention of foreign governments.

Asked at his press conference whether this action was limited to the neutral countries, he said it was sent to all countries. He added that his preliminary impression was that the reactions thus far received were favorable.

Discussing in broad general terms what his government seeks to do, Hull stressed the need for organizing the nations along the lines of liberal economy in advance of the end of the war.

He said that if the forces of peace and general stability, especially economic, were not organized preparatory to the transition and reconstruction period, the forces of autarchy and regimentation and economic totalitarianism would probably follow the same tendency they did after the world war.

Two Drowned In Flood Area Of Sacramento

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 28 (AP)—Sunshine through broken clouds today cheered residents of a score of flood-swept northern California towns, from which between 3,500 and 4,000 persons had been removed.

Two deaths were attributed to the flood, which spread torrents out of rivers and creeks from as far north as Dunsmuir, to San Francisco bay where the Sacramento river spills into the Pacific.

Harold E. von Bergen, hydraulic engineer, drowned at Sacramento in the capsizing of a boat as he measured the river's overflow. At Redding, the body of Irene Clemens, 19, was recovered after her car overturned in a creek.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28 (AP)—The house voted to help Finland to the extent of a $20,000,000 loan for non-military purchases in the United States today but shied away, emphatically, from taking a record vote on the question.

Although overwhelmingly in favor of helping the Finns, many members feared that European events might take such a turn that a vote for the loan could bring them election time difficulties. So by a general but tacit agreement, passage came on a rising ballot. It showed 168 for the bill and 51 against, the total a bare quorum of the house. ### Prisoners Ask Neutral Aid - Declare Return Means 'Certain Death'

By ROBERT B. PARKER JR. BUDAPEST, Feb. 28 (AP)—Budapest police, said to have been forced to act as a result of German pressure, today laid a virtual siege around the French legation here, where 40 Czechoslovak refugees were harbored with new French passports.

Nazi threats concerning Hungary's "wide-open frontier," with demands that Hungary return men who had fled from jails of the German secret police in the protectorate of Bohemia and Moravia, resulted in attempts to break up the "underground railway" which has been operating under official French auspices from Bohemia and Moravia to France.

Hundreds of other Czechoslovak refugees, most of them held in Hungarian jails, declared they faced deportation to Germany as a result of Nazi pressure. Many of them said they feared they would be put to death if they were deported.

MADISON, Feb. 28 (AP)—A test of strength of republican candidates, pledged to Vice President of the democrat's selections is assured in the Wisconsin primaries April 2.

This became certain when two slates of republican national convention delegate candidates, pledged to support Arthur H. Vandenberg, Michigan senator, and Thomas E. Dewey respectively, were filed today with the secretary of state.

Previously slates of delegate candidates, pledged to Vice President John N. Garner and to President Roosevelt for the democratic presidential nomination were filed.

Wisconsin April Primaries Will Test Strength of Presidential Candidates

MADISON, Feb. 28 (AP)—A second slate of democratic delegate candidates pledged to President Roosevelt made its appearance today. It was filed by national committeeman Charles E. Broughton, who said it was the "official" slate, backed by national chairman James A. Farley.

A new pension plan called "progressive $60 at 60," also entered the Wisconsin political scene today when three supporters of the plan asked the secretary of state to put their names on the April 2 primary ballot as candidates for uninstructed delegates to the republican national convention. The secretary of state deferred decision.

Rumania Must Make Decision By Next Week

Agreement Would Mean Virtual Trade Monopoly Of Resources by Nazis

-FROM BUCHAREST-

BUCHAREST, Feb. 28 (AP)—Authoritative quarters here today see Rumania faced with a choice between accepting a German guarantee of her borders in return for a virtual Nazi monopoly of Rumanian trade, and continued independent action entailing practically complete mobilization of her civil and military resources.

These same quarters believe King Carol's government must reach its decision by early next week, when Dr. Karl Clodius, Germany's leading economic expert, is due to visit Bucharest.

The German offer of a guarantee, authoritative Bucharest sources said today, was received while the Rumanian cabinet was considering issuance of a royal decree mobilizing the nation's industrial life under government control, and Rumanian military authorities were preparing to call to the colors on March 1 an additional 200,000 reservists, swelling the army to 1,600,000.

According to the same quarters Germany, in addition to guaranteeing Rumania's borders, would promise to prevail upon Hungary. (See RUMANIA, Page 6)

Reds Drive Relentlessly Near Petsamo

Villages Evacuated As Reds Advance Over Ice of Viipuri Bay

-FROM HELSINKI-

MOSCOW, Feb. 29 (Thursday) (AP)—Soviet Russia's army today reported the capture of six Finnish towns and villages on the Karelian isthmus, including Ylasomaa, only four miles south of Viipuri, one of Finland's most important cities.

The Russians said the Finns still were falling back in the face of their ceaseless pounding after fruitless counterattacks yesterday in which the defenders were said to have suffered "heavy losses."

The reported Soviet gains were on the western side of the Vuoksi lakes, a chain of lakes which run northward through the heart of the Karelian isthmus.

By KIRKE L. SIMPSON Associated Press Staff Writer

Russian occupation of Nausti appears to have plugged the only available direct route by which Great Britain and France could have sent military assistance to Finland without crossing neutral Norway and Sweden.

Nausti is close to the Norwegian Finnish border at the southern end of the corridor that gave Finland its Arctic outlet. The Red army's renewed attack on thinly held Finnish defenses on the Petsamo front apparently has completely cleared the narrow Arctic corridor of organized Finnish resistance.

Recently reported naval activity by the allies in the Arctic has strengthened the view that an allied expeditionary force might be sent to Finland by the Petsamo route. Demands in England for direct allies aid to Finland by such influential figures as Hore-Belisha, former war minister, coupled with appearance of allied war craft in the Arctic, probably helped stir the red army to sudden action.

Yet the dominant factor of Russian advances in the far north, as on the Karelian isthmus, is unquestionably Finland's increasingly urgent need to conserve her manpower by shortening her defense lines. The vital sector for Finland is the Karelian front and the area just north of Lake Ladoga, where an attempted wide Russian flanking movement still is stalled.

Offer Self-Government Charter

The committee for student self-government, which has been working on the Iowa campus since last fall, last night revealed details of the proposed charter which it is presenting to residence units and other organized groups on the campus.

Under the co-chairmen, George Willoughby, G of Des Moines, and Patricia Sleezer, A3 of Freeport, Ill., the committee earlier this week announced its platform, designed "to maintain Iowa's leadership in American universities by providing democratic processes of student self-government."

The charter was presented to the cooperative dormitory council last night and accepted by them, according to John Williams, A2 of Des Moines, president.

Speakers Available
Campus groups desiring to have the proposed system explained to their membership can obtain speakers by contacting the Y.W.C.A. office, the committee has announced.

Under the direction of a committee of 35 students who represent the 500 members of the committee for student self-government, the proposed charter provides membership in the Iowa

Students' association for all students registered in the university.

According to the provision of the charter, a student council would be elected by the student body. The council would be headed by a cabinet of council officers and heads of permanent committees.

The Show That Always Goes On

Scene: The office of the public safety commission at Des Moines.

Players: Death and Mr. Karl W. Fischer, commissioner of the department.

Time: Reckoning day.

Death: "Hello commissioner. Well, how did things check up last year on Iowa highways? Old 1939 shouldn't have been too bad, though you've certainly been trying hard enough to cheat me."

Commissioner: "Looks like you win again. My report shows 530 dead out of 14,981 accidents reported on Iowa highways. Why don't you take a holiday—yeah, and stay away for a long, long time."

Death: "Take a holiday! Why holidays are my best bet. Most of the highway deaths occur over Saturday and Sunday week ends and after 6 p. m. at night. That's when I'm out swinging the old scythe."

Commissioner: "We know. We know. But it isn't a fair fight, you have most of the allies on your side. There's the drunken driver, the motorist who drives on the wrong side of the road and the guy who refuses to observe the right-of-way. Those three constitute them..."

Death: "Yep, that drunken driving fellow, he's one terror on the road. Why let's see, last year he was involved in 2,413 accidents and out of that list came 113 fatalities. But you're enforcing the law on him pretty darn rigidly. Maybe I won't have him very long."

Commissioner: "Not if you can help it, you won't. But you'd think people would look after the things they owned. Not their cars though! Listen to this—296 accidents were caused by defective brakes, 84 caused by faulty steering apparatus, 25 on account of dim headlights and 42 accidents because both headlights were out."

Death: "I don't care a hoot about what caused the accident, just so I collect my due share. Children seem to be pretty cautious—only got 71, I see by your report."

Commissioner: "ONLY 71, that's terrible. You got 113 from the college age group, 15 to 24; 114 from 25 to 44; 124 from 45 to 64; and 104 over 65."

Death: "That's about all I have to report. That's a pretty bad mark for a supposedly civilized state, and then there's nothing on the other side of the ledger to balance it. I'm looking forward to the day when you'll come slinking in or not at all."

Commissioner: "Well, I'll be seeing you next year when your accounting is all done."

Death: "Yep, I know. Figures for this year are already being written in blood on this state's highways. If I have my way, you won't get such a big haul next time."

The Place Of Phi Beta Kappa

WHAT DO you think when you see someone wearing a Phi Beta Kappa key? Is it just another gold key worn as an ornament, or does it mean something more? To most people it represents an award that they have always hoped to attain, but probably never will.

Only a few students who graduate from the University are privileged to receive Phi Beta Kappa keys. Twice every year, a select group is granted the honor and right to wear the key. The monetary value of the key is only nominal, but the social significance is what counts. It denotes that the student has done outstanding work in his scholastic endeavors throughout his university career, and that he has a better chance to succeed than the average student. It is a well known fact that the possessors of Phi Beta Kappa keys are the group who will receive the highest salaries in their respective fields following graduation.

The key is to the student what the "Croix de Guerre" is to the soldier. If everyone could have one, they would no longer be desirable. But these rewards announce to society that they have made some outstanding achievement that just anyone could not accomplish.

Why bother to have these rewards if their intrinsic value is relatively insignificant. One reason is that such returns are an incentive to others. The student feels he has a goal at which to aim, and is spurred on to work harder. He tries for the Phi Beta Kappa key in a manner similar to the football player working for the Heisman award. Society takes this method of showing its approval for a certain type of behavior, and exercises special care to promote the continuance of such worthy endeavors.

The Phi Beta Kappa award is not just another key! It is symbol of honor which every student may strive to attain.

The Twenty-Second Anniversary

THIS COMING month will see the twenty-second anniversary of the influenza epidemic which swept the world during the closing months of the World War.

So busy were the minds of men at that time with the war, when great offensives were being waged, that they forgot to make much mention of the biggest American disaster of all times.

In the few months that the epidemic raged, more than 500,000 people died, more than 10 times the number of Americans who were killed or died of wounds in the war. It raced across the face of the earth, wiped out whole villages of Eskimos in the far north and leaped to deepest Africa, where it simultaneously killed tribes of natives.

The germ knew no boundaries. It leveled rich and poor, black and white. Whole families were killed within a few days' time. Mobilization of soldiers throughout the world was slowed up. Military hospitals here and abroad were crowded with sufferers.

Schools were closed nearly everywhere in the U.S.A., theaters were shut down and guards were posted at railway stations to turn back persons suspected of being ill. Medical science was powerless. Grave-diggers were at a premium in many cities and undertakers worked throughout the nights as lanterns flickered in the eerie gloom of ten thousand cemeteries.

Private sources contributed scores of millions of dollars to the Red Cross to help combat the unseen, terrifying enemy that gave the world its greatest scourge since the bubonic plagues that raged throughout Europe in the Middle Ages.

Animals died as well as humans. The germ struck down reindeer in the frozen ice lands at the same time it was killing animals in equatorial countries.

Many ships that sailed for Europe were forced to turn about and re-enter port with crews too debilitated or too weak to work.

The epidemic ended almost as abruptly as it began. It lingered over in some places into 1919. Little mention is made of it in histories. Yet there was never a greater disaster to strike the United States. It was one of the most widespread and killing pestilences the world has ever experienced.

Becoming An Iowa Tradition

WHAT TO do with your time between 4 o'clock and 6 in the afternoon? By then classes are over, and you're ready to relax before starting in on the "grind" again. Of course, you can always sleep, but by the second semester, all students know that it's only incidental.

But there is a way you can spend your time profitably. The answer is the weekly tea dances in the river room of the Iowa Union. They're fast becoming a tradition with Iowa students. For many years the tea dances have afforded students an inexpensive afternoon's entertainment. Where else can you dance without squandering, at least, a few nickels? And besides you have a good floor and all the latest popular recordings.

Informality has always been the keynote of the tea dances. Whatever you're wearing to class will be suitable for the afternoon at the Iowa Union. Moreover, that informality applies to the dancing—anything from jitterbug steps to the latest whirls is acceptable—even the "chug" is permissible.

It's a good way, too, to find out if the girl friend or boy friend can dance. Who knows? Many a casual tea dance has been the forerunner of a date for a university party.

If you've been missing out on this Iowa tradition—try it just for fun—"You'd Be Surprised."

Somehow we can't see much benefit in having a Feb. 20 this year. Just gives folks an extra day during which to worry over the income tax.

"COCKPIT OF EUROPE," 1940

Page Martin Dies! Congress Is Getting Set To Run the Fortune Tellers Out of Washington

The house of representatives District of Columbia committee is just starting an investigation of the activities of clairvoyants, fortune tellers, palmists and miscellaneous occult folk in Washington. Most city governments treat this crew pretty much as vagrants—chase 'em out of town in fact. The national capital, however, never has interfered with them. Consequently they've done a land-office business for years on the district's bank of the Potomac. They range all the way from Gipsy crystal gazers to semi-scientists.

By CHARLES P. STEWART Central Press Columnist

... once saw and heard him conducting one of these investigations. Upon its conclusion his visitor said, "Yes, but what'll I do?"

This fretted the professor: "How the heck," he exclaimed angrily, "do I know what you'll do? All I can tell you is what you OUGHT to do." There isn't much faking about that kind of business.

It's often stated that a good many congressmen are patrons of the capital's necromancers. I asked Professor Lamar if this was true. "One thousand times no," he rejoined. "They're too sophisticated to believe in ghosts and too conceited to consult a really competent adviser."

Investigator Schulte Representative William T. Schulte of Indiana is in charge of the impending inquiry.

Schulte will do a good job of it. He was a "magician" himself before he got into politics—a legitimate sleight-of-hand performer, like Houdini; a showman; not a bogus soothsayer. He's still a paid-up member of the International Alliance of Theatrical Employees.

"We're going to get rid of this bunk, ledgerman and alleged mind-reading in Washington," he promises. "It's been rampant too long already."

The last bunch of investigators' weakness was that they weren't well enough acquainted with the game they were trying to investigate. They couldn't see through the tricks that were played on them. The tricksters, however, can't put anything over on Bill Schulte.

Such a congressional quiz was conducted several years ago, but it petered out without any definite steps having been taken to regulate the profession. Now another inquiry has been voted, under the chairmanship of Representative William T. Schulte of Indiana, to take up the work, for whatever it may amount to.

Harry Houdini Before the last investigator body the late Harry Houdini was the outstanding witness. Houdini was a "wizard," a sleight-of-hand performer. But he laid no claim to supernatural power. He simply said he was a trickster. The others he denounced as mere fakers.

He told his story to that effect and left Washington. Then the regular necromancers got loose. Houdini was needed back again, to rebut their testimony. The committee wired to him. He came. Seating himself in the witness chair, he flipped from his ... pocket, onto the table in front of him, a little wadded-up ball of yellow paper, with the remark, "I'll give $1,000 to any medium in this room who'll tell me what's on that paper."

"Why," answered Representative Frank R. Reid of the investigative group, "that's the telegram we sent to you, asking you to appear before us." Houdini started violently, "I said," he exclaimed, "that I'd pay it to any 'MEDIUM.'" "Well," instantly cried Reid, "I'm a medium. I always knew I had that occult power. Where's my $1,000?"

Reid never got his $1,000, but the incident spoiled that investigation.

Astrology There was a celebrated astrologer in Washington—"Madame Marcia." She was in close touch with Mrs. William McKinley and professed to have foreseen the McKinley assassination. Superstitious folk believed it. I knew her. She lived up on U street. She said she didn't much believe in spiritualism—the "spirits," she admitted, had a tendency to fool you. But the stars, she alleged, are infallible.

Professor Marcus Lamar, another professional, verged on being a genuine psychologist. He'd put on a spiritualistic performance as if a customer insisted on it, but he much preferred to study an applicant's mentality and personality and then give his patrons the advice that he honestly believed best adapted to the latter's special requirements. Actually 'No Such Person' George Spelvin, Often Listed on Playbills, Same as Another

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—Sometimes in the list of characters on theatrical play-bills you run across the name of George Spelvin.

Actually, there is no such person. He is as fictitious as any of the characters in the play itself—perhaps more fictitious, because he has no human counterpart.

He is a cover-up, a pseudonym for actors who play two parts in the same show. For instance, if I were an actor in Uncle Tom's Cabin and played both Topsy and Little Eva you'd see something like this: Little Eva—played by George Tucker; Topsy—played by George Spelvin.

The virtue of this make-believe is two-fold: it helps preserve an illusion, and it keeps the audience from finding out how cheap the producers are, the supposition being that producers who weren't cheap would hire an extra actor to play the other part.

We've been running into George Spelvin for years, not only in playbills but also in various columns. For he is usually nominated by columnists to play the role of the "Average American" or any other role they want.

But in all the years we've encountered him, it never occurred to us that he should form the subject of a New York letter until Norman Nelson, of Fort Worth, Texas, wrote in and inquired after this Mr. Spelvin. So, Mr. Nelson, this one is on you.

Perhaps we shouldn't stop Mr. Spelvin without inquiring into his antecedents. Winchel Smith, the playwright, usually gets credit for creating this mythical bloke.

Smith never liked to have the characters of his plays listed without Spelvin's name, and on those occasions when no actor played two parts—you'd find him there anyway. Once Smith caused this line to be inserted in the playbill: "A Policeman—played by George Spelvin." There was no policeman in the play.

Fifty-second street is so crowded with noisy, rowdy bars where loud orchestras play, that it has long been known as the Street of Swing.

But there is one place, at least, in the very heart of 52nd street where the only swing to be found is in the swing of a giant negro's arm as he swings open the barbecue pit to serve ribs, barbecued pork ribs with hot, red barbecue sauce.

It's a great place for afternoon eating and after midnight eating and in-between eating. You get barbecued oysters and slaw and those big, lean, beautiful ribs with that sauce, and sweet potatoes and apple pie and coffee, for a buck.

You can even have a little music with your ribs if you shove a nickel into a coin machine which plays records. But that's the only music there is, just the music of the ribs barbecuing and the machine playing. And the records—well, I suppose some of them are swing, because now and then you run into one of Benny Goodman's records. Which, after all, isn't very surprising when you consider that this barbecue banjo is owned by Benny Goodman's brother.

Kermit To Fight for Finns

Teddy Roosevelt's Son May Lead Brigade Recruited in England

LONDON, Feb. 28 (AP)—World war. Early last November Maj. Kermit Roosevelt, son of the "Roughrider," probably will lead an international brigade being organized in England to help the Finns, it was announced today by the Finnish aid bureau which is doing the recruiting.

The first 500 of these 2,500 volunteers already is on the way, and the former American explorer and shipping president is waiting for the war office to open tomorrow to resign his commission in the actionless British army and lead the internationals to Finland.

This was disclosed as official quarters were reported to have under serious consideration the sending of a large allied expedition to Finland to replace the unofficial form of volunteer aid. Roosevelt is the 50-year-old son of the late President Theodore Roosevelt of the United States. He is a major in the British army which he joined shortly after the outbreak of the war with Germany.

He served with both the British and American forces in the

By BILL BUCKLEY
 DURHAM, Feb. 28 (Special to The Daily Iowan)—City high started out to pull the first big upset of the 1940 sectional basketball tournament by dumping Muscatine here tonight, but couldn't keep up the early-game pace, and finally fell behind, 38 to 32. The loss eliminated Iowa City from the tournament play.

City high started out to make short work of the evening's opposition, running up a 10 to 4 advantage in the first quarter. The Little Hawks were working for close shots and setups and getting them. All five of the starting men figured in the scoring.

The balanced Red and White offense continued to operate in the second stanza, with Dick Culbertson, Jack Fetig and Ray Sullivan combining to rack up a 16 to 12 lead at halftime. But what happened to the Little Hawks from there on in is just one of those things.

Muscatine came out after the intermission showing plenty of fight, proceeded to rag Iowa City unmercifully, and literally stole the ball game from the Little Hawks. Fumbles, bad passes, and wild shots were in order on both sides from there on in and only by breaking in for some setups was Iowa City able to maintain a 27 to 24 third-quarter lead.

Muscatine took the lead in the game for the first time soon after the final quarter started and never lost control of the action afterward. Except for free throws by Mark Lillick and Jack Fetig, and a brief three-point scoring flurry by Bud Lemons, the Hawks let practically stop still.

For Iowa City, Dick Culbertson was outstanding for his offensive and defensive play and for his rebound work off both bankboards. Kenny Bloom sparked the Muskie offense with his long-range bombardment in the last half.

Cold Bothers Lee

NEW YORK (AP)—Lee Savold, Des Moines heavyweight contender who is booked to meet Bob Pastor in a 12-round bout at Madison Square Garden Friday night, developed a head cold yesterday which may keep him from going through with the fight on schedule.

Savold was examined by Dr. William Walker and Dr. S. L. Meylackson, who will give their final decision after another check-up tomorrow morning.

Minors' Action To Be Forwarded to Majors For Action on Rule Change

DURHAM, N. C., Feb. 28 (AP)—Completing the first phase of the appeasement program agreed upon by Commissioner K. M. Landis in baseball's feud over farm systems, the minor leagues have voted unanimously to amend rule 11 (1) of the major-minor pact.

The result of the poll of the 40-odd leagues that comprise the national association was announced today by President William G. Bramham, who now will forward the measure to the majors for action.

Under baseball law a club may option (or farm out) a player only three seasons, but since whole chains of clubs are owned or directed by the same individual it was possible to keep a player within a chain for additional years by assigning his contract outright to an affiliated club.

Wrestlers To Meet Big Six Competition on Road Trip

Varsity, Frosh Swimming Teams Clash Saturday

Coach Dave Armbruster started to work in earnest yesterday to prepare the Hawkeye swimming team for the Big Ten meet March 8 and 9. The team practiced together yesterday as a unit for the first time since the Chicago meet last Saturday.

Grapple Kansas State Friday Night, Meet Nebraska Saturday

Somewhat irked by the defeat at the hands of Iowa State last week-end the University of Iowa wrestling team will leave this morning for Manhattan, Kansas, where the Hawks will meet the powerful Kansas State grappling squad Friday night.

Saturday they will wrestle Nebraska at Lincoln. Last year Kansas State was tied by Iowa and Nebraska was beaten.

One change has been made in the Hawkeye grappling team line-up. James Taylor is replacing Phil Miller in the 145-pound division. This will be Taylor's second chance to prove himself in a Big Ten meet. The last time that he got the call he was thrown in 5:21 by Blaine McKusick of Minnesota.

Paul Whitmore, who is tied with Capt. Clarence Kemp for total point honors, will be up against some real competition at Manhattan. He will face Capt. Leon "Red" Reynard who has been wrestling for about seven years against hard competition. Reynard spent three years in the Navy before he enrolled at Kansas and this is his senior year at the Wildcat school.

Newell Ingle will also have his hands full at the Kansas State meet. He will face the leading point getter of the Wildcats when he wrestles Verle McClellan.

The other Hawkeyes will be endeavoring to better their records and to improve their technique as the Big Ten meet is scheduled for the following week-end at Lafayette, Indiana.

Some of the Hawkeyes who should go pretty far in the Big Ten meet are Clarence Kemp, Paul Whitmore, Art Johnson, and Bill Sherman.

Following is the lineup for the Kansas State meet:

Iowa	Kansas State
Sherman..... 121	Fansher
Julius..... 128	Hartman
Ingle..... 136	McClellan
Taylor..... 145	Duncan
Kemp (C)..... 155	Van Fleet

Kinnick Ranks 2nd With 272 Ballots; Poll Closes Tonight

A wave of support for "Iron Mike" Enich yesterday sent football's captain-elect into the lead in the "Athlete of the Year" balloting, replacing All-American Nile Kinnick as the pacemaker. Enich polled a total of 180 votes in the boxes at Racine's No. 1, Whetstone's No. 1, the D and L grill and at The Daily Iowan.

Balloting for Iowa's "Athlete of the Year" will close at 9 o'clock tonight and the winner will be announced in tomorrow morning's Daily Iowan. Voters at Whetstone's No. 1, Racine's No. 1, the D and L grill and at The Daily Iowan are cautioned to use the ballots printed in The Daily Iowan.

against a total of 87 yesterday for Kinnick. Enich's spurge moved his total to date up to 306 against Kinnick's 272, a lead of more than 30 votes.

Demonstrating that most of the opposition will come from other members of the original "Big Five" of the contest, Harold Haub, Dick Evans and Jim George moved ahead at a steady rate. Haub, star pitcher and one of baseball's co-captains, moved past Evans into a strong third place at 195 votes, while Evans still led George, the other baseball co-captain, by some 50 votes.

Evans' total was increased by 40 votes yesterday, while Haub compiled a one-day mark of 66. George added 26 yesterday to his previous 112 for a total last night of 138.

Behind the leaders trailed a large field, of which Bill Sherman, star wrestler, appeared the most strongly supported. Sherman had nearly reached the 100-mark last night, with a vote of 93, 27 points ahead of Clarence Kemp, wrestling captain. Kemp was just two points ahead of Al Armbruster of the swimming team, who rested in eighth place with 66.

Newsom Still Absent

LAKELAND, Fla., (AP)—Manager Del Baker of the Detroit Tigers indicated today he was getting peeved over pitcher Buck Newsom's absence. Newsom is four days late already for spring training, and Baker, with a trace of sarcasm in his voice, said Buck had advised that "urgent business" was keeping him away.

Frosh Thinclads Will Run During Iowa-Gopher Meet

Coach Ted Swenson's freshman trackmen will run four exhibition races Friday night as the varsity team meets the Minnesota thinclads in the Hawks' first dual meet of the indoor season.

The freshman events have been added to the regular meet for many years and always give the spectators an extra thrill or two. This year the customers will get a glimpse of some fine 440-yard running when the Todd brothers, Walter and Ralph, team up with Irvin Wolf and three others in this event.

The yearlings will be running before their first university crowd, and, wearing their traditional green jerseys, will be setting times which will count in the next post-meet. This week the team is competing with Michigan's frosh via the mails.

Men entered in the 60-yard dash are: Walt Todd, Bill Smith, Henry Clay, Bob Wilson, Ralph Todd, Phil Atkins and Bernie Mertes. Entered in the 440 are the Todd brothers, Irvin Wolfe, Meyer Markovitz, Smith and Ed Wilkerson.

Former Coach At Washington Draws Favor

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 28 (AP)—Although Temple university officials continued mum over their choice for a successor to head football Coach Fred Swan, reports were current tonight that James D. (Jimmy) Conzelman, former coach of Washington university at St. Louis, is favored for the job.

University authorities admitted Conzelman was in Philadelphia last Saturday but denied any agreement was reached or even that Conzelman evinced any desire to coach the Owls.

A school spokesman added also that "three men are being considered and all are from the middle west. Conzelman is included. The other two are now employed and it would be unfair to announce their names."

Conzelman, an author as well as coach, resigned at Washington university last December.

PRESSBOX PICKUPS

By OSCAR HARGRAVE

Illinois can claim a record in basketball—that closely approximates Notre Dame's traditional one-point victory mark. The Illini, who face Iowa Saturday night, have won four games this year by a total of seven points. The Illini have won seven of 10 Big Ten tilts. Bill Hapac, Illinois captain, holds the individual conference scoring record of 34 points, marked up against Minnesota.

By scoring eight points in the last two games, Vic Siegel can reach the 100 mark, thereby becoming the sixth Iowan in history to reach the century. Others were Jack Fulk, 1923; Hector Janse, 1924; John Barko, 1935; and Benny Stephens, 1938 and 1939. Stephens, with 215 points in all games in 1939, holds the season's scoring mark for the university.

Paul Whitmore, Iowa 175-pound wrestler, has a chance to end a long winning streak when he faces Leon Reynard, Kansas State star, Friday. Reynard has won 23 straight bouts. Whitmore has won all but one bout this year, losing to Bolinski of State Teachers by a close decision.

There's a regular turn-about between Vic Vargon and Leo Bydrzycki, Iowa swimmers. The two have alternated in winning first and second in diving in four Iowa meets this year.

The mile relay may decide the Iowa-Minnesota track meet here Friday night. Outdoors last spring the two teams were tied at 63-41 when the mile relay came up. The Gophers, like several dual meet opponents, forfeited the event to Iowa's brilliant team of Fred and Carl Teufel, Milt Billig and John Graves. Both outfits have rather green mile-relay teams this year.

There will be a bit of rivalry carried over from the gridiron to the cinders in Friday's meet. Bill Green of Iowa and Sonny Franck of Minnesota each scored a touchdown when the Hawks shaded the Gophers last fall—the touchdowns playing an important part in the game. Franck's marker put the Gophers far into the lead, but Green's catch of Kinnick's pass in the end zone gave Iowa the game, 13-9.

Green, incidentally, appears heavier and stronger than last fall. There was worry in some quarters about the added weight, but Green hasn't slowed up—at least, he lost by only a few inches to Northwestern's fleet Piker in the triangular meet at Purdue last week. And, the weight may help in football next fall, considering that he carries it at the rate of 6.3 for yards.

Dickey Gets More Wages

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. Feb. 28 (AP)—Catcher Bill Dickey signed a 1940 contract with the New York Yankees today which was reported to call for $20,500, a $2,500 increase over last year.

Charlie Ruffing remains the only pitching holdout. Ruffing, at home in Long Beach, Calif., is asking a $5,000 increase over the $20,000 he got in 1939. There are five other players unsigned—outfielders Joe Di Maggio, Mike Chataek, and Bill Matheson and infielders Joe Gordon and Red Rolfe.

Blues Scrimmage Hillel Quintet Before Tourney

The U-high Bluehaws, yesterday afternoon, went through a grueling practice game and scrimmage against the University of Iowa Hillel club in preparation for their state sectional tourney game at Mount Vernon Friday.

Coach Paul Brechler stressed ball handling and court strategy in order to put a smooth working team on the floor Friday. The boys showed spirit and finesse especially on jump balls and out of bound plays.

Savold Goes To Hospital

NEW YORK, Feb. 28 (AP)—Influenza forced Lee Savold, promising Des Moines heavyweight, into a hospital tonight and apparently is likely to cause postponement of his 12-round bout with Bob Pastor of Detroit scheduled for Madison Square Garden Friday night.

Pinkie George, Savold's manager, said, "It's up to the commission and to Mike Jacobs to decide whether the show is off or not, but obviously Lee would be too weak to go through with the fight."

He said he expected to confer later tonight with Jacobs, the promoter, who was en route here.

Munks Stage Major Offensive Hillcrest Roomers Get Ringside Seat; Foe and Friend Enter Fray

As close as words can describe, that means the action that is going on every day in the trees on the south side of Hillcrest. A group of animals, preferably chipmunks or the like, create every day a battle that is a runner-up to any of the major war battles.

Possibly 10 chipmunks enter into this little contest each day. They give no indication of the reason for the warfare and from all observation they fight as lone units. One minute a chipmunk is a friend, the next he is a deadly enemy.

There are about four or five trees that the chipmunks use as their battle ground. The manner of attack, by the way, is not deadly and the only weapons used are the feet and agility of each contestant. It all begins when one chipmunk chases the other out on

Robert A. Schick, E4 of Huntington, W. Va., was selected to be the University of Iowa's representative at the sectional meeting of the American Society of Civil Engineering which convened at Iowa State college at Ames yesterday.

Schick, chosen by faculty and students for "excellence in scholarship and engineering abilities," will be awarded a junior membership award at the sectional conference.

Prof. Edward Bartow Resigns As Chemistry Department Head

70-Year-Old Faculty Member Ends 20 Years Of Service in June

Prof. Edward Bartow, professor and head of the chemistry and chemical engineering departments here since 1920, yesterday announced his retirement as head of the two university departments, to become effective at the end of the present academic year. The announcement was made in the 1940 alumni news letter recently published.

Professor Bartow, who received his B. A. degree from Williams college in Williamstown, Mass., in 1892, will continue on the staff of the chemistry department, the announcement said.

The chemistry head studied in Germany at Göttingen university, famous for its Society of Sciences, where he was awarded his M. A. and Ph.D. degrees in 1895. He received his doctor of science degree from Williams college in 1923.

The announcement was made in the recent news letter, being distributed to more than 800 alumni chemists and former and present faculty members. Formerly a mimeographed pamphlet, the recent issue of the news letter was mechanically printed.

An excerpt of Professor Bartow's retirement announcement disclosed in the news letter follows:

"The 20th year of my connection with the State University of Iowa is completed with the present academic year. By the rules of the University it is necessary to retire at the age of 70. My 70th birthday was January 12, 1940, and this will therefore be the last letter written to you as head of the department."

Research Head Speaks Tonight On Chemistry

Discussing "Random Interchange of Organic Radicals," Dr. George Calingaert, director of the chemical research laboratory of Ethyl Gasoline corporation in Detroit, will be guest of the Iowa section of the American Chemical society at a lecture tonight at 7:30 in the chemistry auditorium.

A graduate of the University of Brussels, the speaker has done considerable work on the reaction of the organic-metallic compounds, which are governed by the laws of change, local authorities said.

The lecture, open to the public, will be illustrated with moving pictures compiled by Dr. Calingaert in his work at the Detroit laboratory, which employs 18 chemists and 32 engineers.

Prof. Martin Will Lead 'Y' Discussion at 4

Prof. Herbert Martin, head of the philosophy department, will speak on "My Philosophy of Life" at the weekly discussion group of the Y.M.C.A. this afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Y.M.C.A. office of Iowa Union.

One in a series of discussions, today's talk and roundtable will be presided over by Max Paige, A2 of Waterloo, president of the Y.M.C.A.

This Time It's Libel!

Law Students Argue Fourth Case Today Before Attorney Left

"Amos Brown is a thief, wife-beater and cheater"—that in any language is slander when spoken and libel when written!

Amos Brown, a purely fictional character, and experiences similar to his are going through a test today and tomorrow when the court of the college of law convenes.

Student law seniors, representing the plaintiff and defendant in the case of slander and libel, are arguing today before Attorney Arthur O. Left, presiding judge.

Henry Ottesen, L3 of Davenport, and Robert Edmondson, L3 of Brighton, are arguing as attorneys for the plaintiff, John Lamont, L3 of Cherokee, and William Smith, L3 of Iowa City, are attorneys for the defendant.

In what proves to be one of the most interesting cases yet to be heard, the jury will again be composed of students and townspeople who have requested to act as jurors. Jurors are selected from a list of names that have been sent to the law school requesting participation in the trials.

Facts which will be established in the case are proof of damage, slander per se, special damages and privileged communications.

The case will last through tomorrow and is the fourth in this year's series.

Prof. Johnson To Give Talk At Minnesota

Prof. Wendell K. Johnson of the psychology and speech departments will deliver three addresses before students and faculty at the University of Minnesota this week.

Speaking tomorrow before University of Minnesota classes in speech pathology, Professor Johnson will discuss current research or stuttering.

The practical applications of general semantics will be the subject which Professor Johnson will take up tomorrow at a student and faculty seminar in general semantics at the University of Minnesota.

Professor Johnson will deliver his third lecture Saturday on "Stutterers and the Private Worlds" at a noon luncheon of the Minnesota State Speech Correction association.

Mrs. Weber To Be Card Party Hostess

Mrs. William Weber will be hostess tomorrow at an American Legion auxiliary card party at 2:15 p.m. in the legion rooms of the community building.

The public is invited to attend.

The Japanese have announced that they have conquered China. Which is, so far, the year's high in wishful thinking.

Interpreting the War News—

France, England Blocked From Route to Finland as Russia Occupies Nautsi

Reds Reported In Full Control Of Arctic Line

Allied Naval Activity Thought Indication Of Relief To Come

By WADE WERNER
HELSINKI, Feb. 28 (AP)—The red army's relentless pressure against Finnish defenses along the shell-pocked Karelian isthmus continued today to the accompaniment of successful Russian attacks on the far northern front near Petsamo.

The Finnish high command communique made scant mention of the isthmus fighting, saying only that the "enemy suffered heavily" and that Finnish forces fought defensive actions with "lively" artillery action on both sides.

As Soviet forces attacked across the ice of Viipuri Bay, apparently planning to envelop the city of Viipuri, civilians were withdrawn from many villages along the bay's western shore since they had come within range of advancing Russian artillery.

The Russians seemed determined to thrust the spearhead of their attack westward along the Gulf of Finland at all costs. There were signs this might prove costly since the Finns have strong batteries along the coast, though the coastal fortifications further south, centering around Koivisto, already have fallen into Russian hands.

In addition the Finns are standing firm at Taipale, the eastern end of the isthmus defense line where repeated Soviet assaults have failed to gain ground ever since the war started Nov. 30.

Taipale remains the rock on which all Russian attacks have broken like waves against a cliff.

(Here two lines of the cable from Helsinki were deleted by the Finnish censor.)

Apparently the Russian high command feels confident the Finns are not strong enough to counter-attack, but they have been wrong on several previous occasions—notably at Suomussalmi and northeast of Lake Ladoga where entire Russian divisions were cut off and destroyed.

Is He Happy?

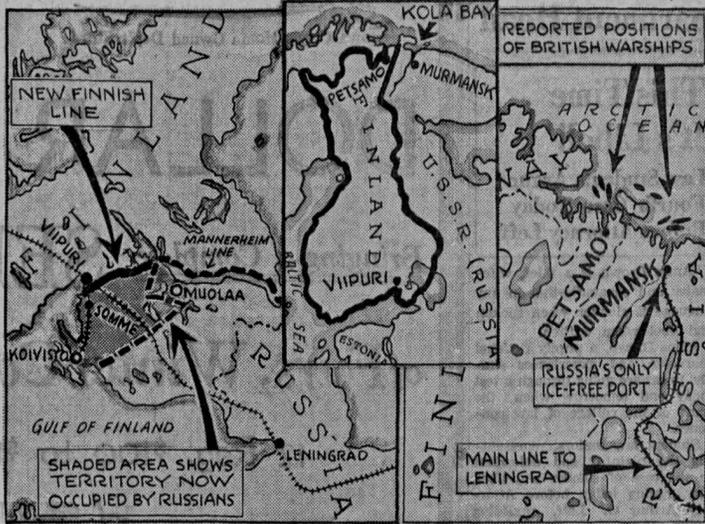

Happiest little boy in the United States is George Mellenthin of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., shown above in an affectionate pose with Champion My Own Brucie, selected by the judges as best dog of the show at the Westminster Kennel club show in New York City. My Own Brucie is owned by George's father, Herman Mellenthin.

Held as "Raffles"

F. H. Johnston
Frank Henry Johnston, 35, who was paroled from San Quentin prison after serving a term for looting the home of Dolores Del Rio, is arrested by Vancouver, B. C., police and, according to the authorities, has confessed a $26,000 gem theft from the wife of Major Austin Taylor, noted horseman. Johnston, police say, traveled in the swankiest of social circles and picked his victims from the social blue book.

SOUTH AND NORTH OF FINLAND IN WAR SPOTLIGHT

These maps show how the two extremities of Finland, south and north, are figuring in the day's war news from Europe. In the south, map at left, is shown the area where the heaviest fighting with the Russian invaders is taking place. Meanwhile, British warships appear in the north off Kola Bay (map at right). Fighting in the Petsamo area has also increased. Center map shows the great distance, the length of Finland, between the two theaters of activity.

Interfraternity Court

R. Skalowsky Chief Justice Of S.U.I. Court

Interfraternity Body Names Law Student For Term of Year

Raymond Skalowsky, L2 of Norfolk, Neb., was named chief justice of the interfraternity court by that body preceding last week's case involving a violation of the inter-fraternity constitution.

He will serve for one year. The other six acting members of the court are Tom Loudon, A4 of Fairfield; Loren Hickerston, A4 of Iowa City; Hugh Ellsworth, C3 of Adel; Edward McCloy, C4 of Iowa City; Clark Dillon Franks, C4 of Lisbon.

Associate justices of the court are Chan Griffin, C4 of Vinton; Anthes Smith, L2 of Ft. Madison; and Robert Noel, L3 of Estherville.

Members of the court, named each fall by the office of the dean of men, serve one year and are eligible for re-election. Candidates from each fraternity on the campus are considered for membership.

The seven regular members of the court comprise the panel for a case, referred to the body by the executive committee of the inter-fraternity council. Associate members fill vacancies on the bench when a regular justice cannot preside, either through physical inability or because his house is involved in the case before the court.

Board Shifts Action

MISSOULA, Mont. (AP)—The Montana board of education last night rescinded its previous action in asking for the resignations of five members of the Montana state university faculty and endorsed the administration of President George Finlay Simmons. The faculty members were called upon to resign last September as a result of faculty dissension which led to criticism of Dr. Simmons' administration. The board voted that the resignation of E. A. Atkinson, psychology professor, would not be considered as such, and that H. G. Merriam's request for a year's leave of absence without pay be granted.

ideals of fraternities, so that, with initiation, they may become good fraternities men.
"WHEN A FRATERNITY PERMITS THE 'HELL WEEK' INFLUENCE TO OVERSHADOW WHAT THIS BODY DEEMS TO BE THE ESSENTIAL PRINCIPLE OF PROBATION WEEK, THE WEEK HAS LOST ITS SIGNIFICANCE TO THE INDIVIDUAL GROUP WHO VIOLATES, EITHER OPENLY OR UNDER COVER, THE PRINCIPLES UPON WHICH THE WEEK IS SANCTIONED."

"The constitution of Interfraternity council has defined the terms of probation week, enacting rules which apply to all groups for the benefit of all groups.

"The constitution has provided that when any of these rules is violated, the Interfraternity court, upon the discretion of the executive committee of the council, shall, as a judicial body, act upon the charge, determining the innocence or guilt of the group involved and designating punishment in the case of guilt.

"It is with recognition of the value of maintaining the integrity of a system as a whole that a judge or jury punishes an offender.

"This body places emphasis upon the principle involved in this case. That principle is this: 'The allied fraternities on the Iowa campus have made rules for the benefit of the integrity of the whole. THOSE RULES MUST BE OBEYED.'

"Therefore, it is the unanimous decision of this court that Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity is guilty of violating the Interfraternity constitution as charged and directs that:
'1. Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity shall be fined $100, of which $50 shall be suspended, the fine to be paid in to the treasury of the Interfraternity council by March 5, 1940.
'2. Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity shall lose all social privileges for the remainder of the second semester of this 1939-1940 academic year. The loss of social privileges shall be defined as the loss of the right to gather within the house or elsewhere for other than scholastic purposes.
'All justices concurring.'

Intercollegiate Debaters Will Argue Today

Warburg College, S. U. I. To Discuss Isolationist Policy

Independent of the forensic tournament opening today, there will be an intercollegiate debate contest at 1 o'clock this afternoon between speakers from Warburg college, of Waverly and the University of Iowa. Debates will be held in Schaeffer hall, rooms 7 and 104.

Upholding the affirmative for Iowa are Wayne Book, A2 of Storm Lake and Willard Nelson. The negative team is composed of Fred Bower, A2 of Dubuque and David Scott, A2 of Galena, Ill.

Proposition for the debate is "Resolved: That the United States should follow a policy of strict (economic and military) isolation toward all nations outside the Western hemisphere engaged in armed international or civil conflict."

northern Finland must raise doubts in military minds that the Petsamo corridor is actually destined to play a very significant part in deciding Finland's fate unless it is as an airway. With Red forces in complete control as indicated by their occupation of Nautsi, availability of that pathway for any allied troops that might be ordered to Finland is dubious at best.

The Finnish Arctic corridor lies hundreds of miles north of any of the critical objectives of Russian attacks in Finland.

Nautsi is a village on the Petsamo-Gulf of Bothnia highway, the only important road in the region. It is 400 miles, or so from the gulf, however, too long a distance for any real Russian attempt to cut Finland in half by

Youth Orchestra Trials To Begin on March 2

Winners To Go To Des Moines For Audition

State Victors Will Tour South America With Stokowski

Members of the audition committee for the Iowa City district, before whom young musicians in this area trying for places with the all-American youth orchestra will appear at Iowa City for tryouts Saturday, were announced yesterday by Theodore P. Eslick, state NYA administrator.

Applicants in Iowa for places with the 100-piece youth orchestra, which will make a good-will tour of Central and South America this summer under the direction of Leopold Stokowski, noted conductor, are being recruited through the facilities of the national youth administration in Iowa.

University Faculty

Those named as members of the Iowa City district audition committee, all of whom are on the faculty of the university, are Philip Greeley Clapp, head of the music department; Prof. Arnold Small, Prof. Hans Koebel, Himie Voxman, O. T. Jelinek and William Gower.

The audition is scheduled to start at 9 a. m. in the music school building. Twenty-three young musicians in this district have made application for the audition, it was announced, and each has been notified by mail to appear before the committee on the specified date.

Counties comprising the Iowa City audition district are Johnson, Cedar, Jones, Linn, Washington and Poweshiek.

Will Go to Des Moines

It was pointed out that on the basis of ratings given at the district audition, the state audition committee, composed of five members, will determine which of the musicians will be invited to Des Moines for the state try-out March 9.

Members of the state audition committee, named by Chauncey A. Weaver of Des Moines, governor's representative for audition arrangements, are Willard A. Moore, state supervisor of music for the work projects administration in Iowa, chairman; Doris Adams Hunn, lecturer and recitalist, specializing in symphonic repertoire; Dr. A. P. Atkins, director of the Argonne post band, American Legion.

Frank Noyes, professor of violin and director of the symphony orchestra at Drake University, and Charles J. Tesar, instructor of instrumental music at Roosevelt high school in Des Moines also make up the state audition committee.

286 Applications

Eslick said that Monday 286 applications had been received in the state NYA office from young Iowa musicians interested in trying out for the youth orchestra.

Eslick emphasized that youths interested in auditioning must provide for their transportation to the try-outs. Those who are selected for places with the orchestra after the state and regional auditions and after a final audition before Stokowski will be paid regular union wages for the duration of the tour.

Admitted to Probate

The will of Elmer Coulter, who died Feb. 13, was admitted to probate in Johnson county district court yesterday.

Paul Coulter and Etta Coulter Hemingway were appointed executor and executrix. A bond of $5,000 was set by the court.

A guide to the merchant opening on the calendar — the Iowa City helping him select open dates for featuring sales and special events has been issued by the Iowa City chamber of commerce to 400 business places and public buildings and organizations in the city.

A 1940 calendar of events, which includes both city and university happenings, marks the first project of its kind ever undertaken by the local chamber, according to Gordon Brown, secretary of the chamber of commerce.

The calendar, printed on 11 by 14 inch white cardboard contains all important days fitted into three columns.

Today marks the retail merchants' leap year dollar day. Tomorrow, the start of a new month, is headed by a university hap-

Finnish Aid Exceeds Hopes

Dress-Making, Sweater Knitting by American Red Cross Successful

Dress-making and sweater knitting by the Johnson county chapter of the American Red Cross for the Finns and Poles has surpassed original hopes of the local organization, Mrs. Martin Pederson, executive secretary of the local chapter, said yesterday.

Four groups of women, three in Iowa City and one in Oxford, have promised to make 5 to 10 dresses for each group, she said.

Mrs. E. P. Tyndall is in charge of the King's Daughters which have taken goods enough for eight dresses.

The Women of the Moose, under the direction of Mrs. Thomas Abbott, are making 10 dresses. A third group of Iowa City ladies under the direction of Mrs. Jennie Jenks expects to make five dresses.

The Oxford ladies group have asked material enough for eight dresses, Mrs. Pederson said.

Scout Activities To Be Planned At Round Table

Plans for Boy Scout activities were withheld last night by scout officials pending a round-table discussion to be held tomorrow night by county and district scout masters, assistants and committeemen at the home of Owen Thiel, scout executive for Johnson county.

According to Jack J. Swaner, chairman of the Johnson county district committee, M. R. Petersen will conduct the discussion.

"The scout organization needs the support of men who are interested to the extent that they will devote some time and are willing to serve the organization in troop committee work," Swaner emphasized.

Consequently the discussion meeting will include the activities for the scouts during March, and also plans of how to secure men to devote some time to scout work, Swaner said.

The names of Alva B. Oathout and John P. Kelly last night were added to those of Mrs. Howard L. Beye and Prof. Thomas G. Caywood as candidates for election to the Iowa City school board in the elections March 11.

The bi-partisan school committee made the selections last night in a 20-minute meeting in the council chambers of the city hall after Dr. Fred T. Bauer and R. J. Baschnagel declined their Tuesday night nominations by the committee.

Tomorrow noon marks the deadline for filing nomination papers with Charles Gallier, secretary of the board, it was announced.

Two persons will be chosen in the March 11 elections to membership on the school board. Baschnagel, on withdrawing his name as a candidate yesterday, said, "For reasons that are convincing to me, it is necessary that I withdraw my name as nominee for election to the Iowa City school board named by the bi-partisan nominating committee."
