New Efforts To Restrict Measure Fail
Bill Permits Nation To Reduce Tariffs On Reciprocal Basis

WASHINGTON, April 1 (AP) - Efforts to close congressionally-mandated trade loopholes have failed, the majority reported today, but today, Senate and House warners were still trying to clinch their drive for free trade.

The House, after previous failures, was making a final bid for the president's support. The drive will not be considered by the Senate until next month, when both houses are expected to be ready for the end of the session. The Senate is expected to vote on the bill next week.

Eight of the nine Supreme Court justices heard the case in the last session, which ended in 1939, but the court failed to rule on the matter. The court was asked to rule on the constitutionality of the bill, which was approved by both houses of congress.

The court, in a 4-3 decision, ruled that the bill was unconstitutional. The court was divided on the question of whether the bill was in violation of the constitution, but agreed that it was not in violation of the Constitution.

Augusta, Ga., April 4 (AP) - Earl (Gunny) Cluskey, a native of a hilly 10-hole course in the desert, won the 10-hole Augusta National Championship tournament today by a three-stroke margin over Charles Cochrane.

Last year, Cluskey was also the only player to make the cut, finishing second to Bob Hope by three strokes. This year, Cluskey finished first by a margin of three strokes over Cochrane.

In the opening round, Cluskey scored a 71, shooting six under par, to take the lead by a stroke over Cochrane. In the second round, Cluskey shot a 68, tying Cochrane's score, but maintaining his lead by two strokes.

Cluskey, who is known for his powerful swing and precise short game, was able to make the most of the conditions at Augusta National, where the course is known for its demanding greens and narrow fairways.

Cochrane, on the other hand, struggled with his putting, missing several key putts that could have helped him catch up with Cluskey. Despite his efforts, Cochrane was unable to break par, finishing the tournament with a 72-78-150, good for second place.

Cluskey, who is also known for his love of hunting, was all smiles after his victory, saying, "I can't believe I did it. It was a dream come true." He plans to take some time off to enjoy his victory and spend some time outdoors.

In other news, American Heroes entered the tournament today, bringing their total number of entries to three. The team is composed of four of the nation's top golfers, including Jack Nicklaus, Tom Watson, and Tom Kite.

The tournament continues tomorrow, with the second round set to begin at 7:30 a.m. sharp. Fans are encouraged to come out and support the competitors, who are expected to put on a show.

Poor Tenor! Alone With 12 Babies

MARGARET DUTTON

Tenor girls and a tenor! That's an accomplished story for anyone, but Margaret Dutton, a sophomore vocal major at Drake University, does it with a touch of grace.

The tenor girls were singing in residence halls on March 11, and among the tenor voices was that of Margaret. She was one of the coqueteurs, a group of women who have been assigned by the Scot to sing with the tenor girls during the Academic Year.

Margaret has been singing with the tenor girls since she was a freshman. She has enjoyed the experience, and she says that it has helped her to develop her voice.

She is now in her senior year at Drake, and she is planning to graduate in June. She hopes to continue singing after graduation, and she is considering a career in music education.
