

SECOND ARTS FESTIVAL ANNOUNCED

Dorothea Carlson, H. Forsythe To Star in Maibaum Play

Perhaps it's hard to imagine "Saint Joan" and "Johnny Johnson" teaming up in the same play, but there'll be just that at the university theater as Dorothea Carlson of Battle Creek, Mich., and Henderson Forsythe, G of Monroe City, Mo., step into the leading roles of "Middletown Mural," final play of the community series. The production is under the direction of Marian Galloway, G of Savannah, G., a member of the dramatic arts faculty. Third member of the stage-wise trio carrying principal roles is Mary Elizabeth Winbiger of Iowa City. Mrs. Winbiger was Grand Duchess Tatiana in the 1939 production of "Tovarich." She also appeared in a leading role in "Calvario." Miss Carlson is well-known to university theater audiences. She played "First Lady" here in 1938 and has been called the "first lady" of the university theater. Forsythe this year alone has played leads in two of the four previous university productions. He was Barrie Trexel in "Susan and God" and Mio in "Winter-set." Secondary leads in the Galloway-directed show will be played by Julien Benjamin, A1 of Cincinnati, Ohio, as Clyde Du-ton, and James Andrews, A3 of Ogden, Utah, as Harvey Hill. Other members of the cast include Betty Paisley, A4 of Marion, Ill., as Bessie Beemeyer; Effie Crane, A3 of Bloomington, Ill., as Dolly Winthrop; Beverly Barnes, A3 of Sioux Falls, S. D., as Erma Peyton; Maxion Phipers, G of South Euclid, Ohio, as Laura Hollister; Virginia Branum, A3 of LaGrange, Ill., as Jane Reynolds.

Mary Jane Holm, A1 of Rapid City, S. D., as Mattie Burns; Rhoda Anderson, A3 of Thompson, as Delia Jennings; Jack Reams, A1 of Council Bluffs, as Claude Hollister and Robley Evans, A2 of Kent, Ohio, as Senator Jedidiah Winthrop. Persons who will appear in the play but have not definitely been assigned roles include Keith Porter, Eleanor Keller, Lorraine Pressler, A4 of Silver Mines, Mo.,

Lawrence Barsness, A2 of Lewiston, Mont., Eli Silverman, A3 of Cornwall, N. Y.; Hilding Ryberg, A3 of Webster Groves, Mo., and Lawson Schmidt, A1 of Des Moines. The cast, totalling almost 50 persons will appear in the world premiere performance of "Middletown Mural," written by Richard Maibaum, Iowa-trained playwright and scenarist.

Divisions of Fine Arts School Plan Gala 1940 Performances

Nationally Noted Instructors To Train University, All-State Talent for Programs of Art, Music and Dramatic Art

A second gala summer fine arts festival at the University of Iowa July 14 to 18 inclusive has been announced by Prof. Earl E. Harper, director of the university school of fine arts and chairman of the fine arts festival committee. This year's festival, shortened somewhat but more compact, will employ purely local talent, coached and trained by instructors and teachers of national note during the preceding weeks of the university's 41st summer session. Each taking an important part, the festival will include the music, art and dramatic art departments of the school of fine arts. Nationally prominent men in all three fields will be on the campus during the summer session teaching and working with students in preparation for this greater festival of student talent.

In announcing the 1940 summer festival, Professor Harper explained, "We are now receiving many high-talented students at the university, who, with this high grade instruction, can put on a near-professional show." Included in the general program, outlined in the announcement, are art exhibitions, band concerts, chamber music, conferences, dramas, lectures, oratorios, radio plays, recitals, recorded music programs and symphony orchestra concerts.

Popular Features Many of the more popular features of the first fine arts festival of last summer will be repeated this summer, some by popular request. These are the noon-day series of fine arts luncheons, a play to run in University theater each night of the festival and a chamber music concert.

Here are, department by department, the outstanding features of this second summer festival. MUSIC—Highlighting the musical portion of the festival will be a presentation of "The Damnation of Faust" by Berlioz in concert form, to be performed Sunday night, July 14, the opening event of the week's program. The University symphony orchestra with the University chorus and featured soloists, all under the direction of Dr. Thompson Stone, will present the famous work.

Director Stone Dr. Stone, director of the Handel and Hayden society and the Apollo club of Boston, both world-famous choral organizations, is well-known on the Iowa campus and about the state as a result of his many summers spent at Iowa on the staff of the music department. Over 250 summer music students will take part in this presentation, 150 making up the University chorus and 100 in the University summer symphony orchestra.

Monday evening will feature, musically, a concert by the summer session symphonic band and the All-State high school chorus, both conducted by Dr. Stone, including about 175 students. A chamber music concert will be presented Tuesday night, July 16.

All-State Groups A concert by the All-State high school symphony orchestra conducted by Prof. Charles B. Righter of the music department will be the music department's contribution to Wednesday's program of festival week. The final music event scheduled is the summer concert by the University summer session symphony orchestra conducted by Prof. Philip G. Clapp, head of the Iowa music department. Over 100 students play in this summer organization.

Special feature of this concert will be that half of the compositions to be played are those of advanced music students who are now or have recently been enrolled in the local music department. The three students to be so honored are Wendell Otey, who received his Ph. D. degree here in 1939; Jewel Peterson, who will receive his M. F. A. degree this coming June, and Leon Karel, who will receive his B. A. in music this June.

Visiting artists will include Modeste Alloo, a specialist on brass instruments and a musician of wide and varied experience. This will be his third successive summer on the Iowa music staff. Dr. Stone, a famous American, a pianist and foremost choral director in the United States as well as a noted orchestra conductor is another well-known name. Professor Clapp, commenting on the summer performance of "The Damnation of Faust," explained that the work can be most effectively produced in concert form. "This is the first time to my knowledge that it has ever been presented in this region," he stated. Professor Clapp said so far as he knew it had never been performed in Chicago or St. Louis.

NAZIS BOMB TROOPSHIPS

German Raid Follows Mining Of Two Ships

Attempt To Block Flow Of Troops to Norway By Aerial Mine-Laying

LONDON, April 21 (Sunday) (AP)—British warplanes "successfully" raided Aalborg airbase in northern Denmark last night, the air ministry announced, in an effort to cut off German reinforcements by air to Norway.

The raid, first reported attack on Danish soil since the German occupation April 9, came as Britain and France continued to land troops along the Norse coast to help stem the Nazi invasion.

Wants 'Liberal Pair' Selected by Democrats To Further New Deal

WASHINGTON, April 20 (AP)—Chairman Gillette (D-Iowa) said today that his campaign investigating committee had decided to request an additional $45,000 for its inquiry.

The committee originally was allowed $30,000 for its job of policing the elections. Gillette said it was "obvious that with the complaints he may be asked to investigate, $30,000 will be wholly inadequate."

Japan OK's U. S. Attitude

WASHINGTON, April 20 (AP)—The view that the United States and Japan are in substantial agreement in their attitudes toward the Dutch East Indies was expressed by Kenuke Horinouchi, the Japanese ambassador, after a lengthy conference today with Secretary Hull.

The ambassador said that on instructions from Tokyo he had explained to Secretary Hull his government's position with respect to the resource-rich islands, in event the Netherlands should be drawn into the war.

Soviet Bases Near Alaska Spur Defense

WASHINGTON, April 20 (AP)—Reports that Russia has established naval and air bases near the Aleutian islands, congressional sources said today, are behind intensified army efforts to strengthen defenses in Alaska.

Informed legislators said they understood that the army definitely had confirmed that Russia has constructed bases on the Siberian coast less than 100 miles from American-owned islands in the Aleutian chain which extends southwestward from Alaska. The army's high command was said to take the attitude that the bases were designed primarily for defense against possible attack by Japan on Siberia, but to feel that the United States could not afford to assume that such establishments would never be used against it.

Gillette Asks Added Funds For Inquiry

WASHINGTON, April 20 (AP)—Chairman Gillette (D-Iowa) said today that his campaign investigating committee had decided to request an additional $45,000 for its inquiry.

F. D. R. Flays G. O. P. for War Alarm Talk

Wants 'Liberal Pair' Selected by Democrats To Further New Deal

WASHINGTON, April 20 (AP)—President Roosevelt urged again tonight that his own party choose a "liberal pair of candidates" and at the same time waded into the republican opposition for "seeking to frighten the country" by declaring the present administration "is deliberately trying to put this nation into war."

It was an out-and-out political talk that Mr. Roosevelt made by radio to a series of countrywide dinners of young democrats' clubs. And while it carried an obvious bid for continuance of the new deal, it offered no tangible clue to the outstanding political question of the day: will the president seek a third term?

Asserting that America faces this year much the same kind of campaign as it did in 1932 and 1936, the chief executive added: "It seems to me very obvious that if the democratic party is to defeat the republican party next November we must nominate a liberal pair of candidates, running on a liberal and forward-looking platform."

Rescue Workers Seek Added Victims in Train Wreckage

Death Toll Reaches Twenty-Six - Injured Total One Hundred

LITTLE FALLS, N. Y., April 20 (AP)—Rescue workers pried tonight into tons of twisted sheet-covered steel, once the New York Central's proud Lake Shore limited, seeking possible additions to a known wreck death toll of 26 persons.

Traveling 59 miles an hour, the New York-Chicago passenger train last night jumped the track at a 6-degree curve, the most abrupt on the system, and crashed with terrific and death-dealing force into a massive stone embankment.

Three hundred passengers, most of whom were asleep in Pullmans on the 16-car train, were hurled from their beds into an inferno of shrieks, hissing steam and the groans of the dying. The bodies of 24 victims, most of them badly mangled, had been identified by midnight. The identity of two others was unknown. Railway employes continued to search the twisted steel cars by the flickering light of torches for others.

Approximately 100 others went to hospitals with broken bones, cuts and bruises, and physicians feared some of them may be added to the death roll of one of the nation's worst railway disasters. Examination of wreckage still is incomplete.

They're 'Belles--'

Edith Stuart, A2 of Dubuque, left, and Georgia Gaddis, A2 of Ft. Madison, right, are "Belles of the Forties," along with Jean Lawman, A3 of Manchester. Those three won a local contest to pick a successor to Lillian Russell, famed "Belle of the Nineties."

Liberty Center Girl Crowned Spelling Champ

DES MOINES, April 20 (AP)—Annabelle Kimzey, 13, of Liberty Center, Ia., was crowned Iowa's 1940 spelling champion here this afternoon.

Sets New Air Speed Record

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., April 20 (AP)—Jacqueline Cochran tonight claimed a new national speed record for 100 kilometers with an official mark of 292.6 miles an hour.

The old record was 289.9, set in 1937 by Roscoe Turner.

Floods Grip Ohio Valley, Isolate Towns

Pittsburgh, Marietta, Cincinnati Damaged By Rising Waters

MARIETTA, Ohio, April 20 (AP)—Floods gripped the Ohio valley from Pittsburgh to Cincinnati tonight and turned southern Ohio into a maze of lakes, isolating entire towns. Thousands were homeless.

Water rose menacingly around Pittsburgh's "golden triangle," downtown business area, poured past merchants' doors in Marietta, pioneer Ohio river city of 15,000, and climbed three-tenths of a foot an hour toward a tentative crest of 58 or 59 feet at Cincinnati.

Cincinnati's flood stage is 52 feet and the anticipated crest would be far below the record of 79.9-foot stage established in the disastrous 1937 inundation. Severe damage is not caused unless the crests exceed flood stage by 10 or 15 feet.

Thousands of residents in Ohio river valley lowlands fled their homes or moved to second floors. Marietta merchants moved out stock. At Pomeroy, Ohio, a general exodus began in expectation of five feet of water in the main street by morning.

Nearly a third of rural Ohio was inundated. The Hocking valley experienced its worst flood since 1913. Among the towns completely isolated were Athens and Logan. Roads were closed at 83 places.

The Baltimore and Ohio railroad experienced track washouts in Ohio and West Virginia. Streams feeding the Ohio river continued to rise in Ohio and western Pennsylvania, but began receding in West Virginia, Kentucky and Indiana.

Allies Down 9 Nazi Planes

British Claim Four In Duels on Western Front - French Two

PARIS, April 20 (AP)—Allied fighters and antiaircraft gunners gave a wry twist to Adolf Hitler's birthday celebration today with a series of rousing western front combats in which nine German warplanes were reported brought down—six of them listed officially.

The British royal air force, claiming four of these six, announced that another was believed destroyed. The French said they shot down two German planes on the western front in savage aerial duels while their antiaircraft guns bagged another in central France. In addition, one German bomber crashed at the tip of Holland after being hit by a Belgian plane's fire. The dog-fights veered repeatedly over the Netherlands and Belgian borders.

British Push Into Norway, Nab 2 Tanks

Battle Nazi Invaders As Germans Claim Sinking of Cruiser

By The Associated Press The dogged little Norwegian army reported early today from "somewhere in Norway" that British troops had penetrated to eastern Norway and had taken up the battle against the German invaders.

The communique on Saturday's fighting also said two German tanks were destroyed in close combat about 90 miles north of German-occupied Oslo. Extent and exact location of the British operations were not disclosed.

The terse report on land operations followed a blazing display of Germany's aerial power in birthday battle for Adolf Hitler Saturday. The Germans reported destruction of a British transport and a cruiser in a Norwegian fjord; the British coastal fliers and shore batteries were kept busy Saturday night by air raiders apparently bent on laying new mines off England's southeast coast and in the Thames estuary to hamper further troop movements.

"No Lives Lost" Hardly had the British made their boast that an allied fighting force had been transported 400 miles and landed in Norway without the loss of a single life, than Germany countered officially with an assertion of Saturday afternoon air successes against British landing forces and their transport and convoy.

Germany claimed her warplanes had sunk a British cruiser guarding landing operations, set afire a big transport disembarking troops and then had "effectively" bombed allied troops already landed in Romsdals fjord near Port Andalsnes, 125 miles southwest of German-held Trondheim.

Just before that the official German news agency, DNB, declared that one British transport had been sunk and two other transports and a cruiser damaged somewhere off the Norwegian coast on Friday.

The allies, however, reported they had established themselves already on Norwegian soil with at least two British divisions and one division of French troops.

Survey Shows Job Prospects Are Improved

CHICAGO, April 20 (AP)—A definite improvement in the job prospects of 1940's vast army of college and university graduates was reported today. School placement officials—based on employer inquiries—radiated high degree of optimism in a survey by the Associated Press. More than 50 schools of higher learning situated in all sections of the nation contributed data. Their spokesmen were almost unanimous in the opinion that the gap between academic assembly lines and jobs is going to be shorter—and smoother—than it was a year ago.

The I. A. W. S. Conference

THE University of Iowa plays host to the Intercollegiate Association of Women Students this Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. More than 150 delegates from schools from the east coast to the midwest will attend, along with Iowa's women students, a well-planned convention, one that will be worthy of the tireless effort expended by the committees.

The Daily Iowan wishes to welcome these delegates to our campus and to the conference, because we feel that the visitors and the university will receive mutual benefit from this experience. With these women will come the knowledge and traditions of their respective schools. From the discussions will be gathered a fund of information which may give inspiration for new achievement as the delegates return to their campuses and put into practice what they have learned.

The conference has as its theme, "Experiment in Living." Discussion groups on Monday and Wednesday will be concerned with topics that will cover most major campus problems such as "Development of Personal Growth Within Living Groups," "Orientation of New Students," "Recreational Programs," "Finding Employment," "Social Behavior and Etiquette," and "Functions, Problems and Contributions of Government in Campus Groups."

Tuesday will be vocational day. Persons outstanding in their fields will attempt to give the delegates a better understanding of vocational possibilities and prospects. Discussions will be carried on about "Fashions," "Radio," "Secretarial Training," "Social Work," "Teaching," "Foods and Nutrition," "Journalism," "Personnel Management and Merchandising," and "Recreational Work."

It can readily be seen that there will be an exchange of ideas on worthwhile topics. No one attending the conference should go away without feeling that she has benefited greatly from this experience, this experiment with ideas.

'America's Youth—1940'

THE BEST "composite" picture of American Youth today lies in the records and "case histories" of the American Youth commission in Washington—a privately-endowed, non-governmental agency made up of leaders in sociology, industry and education, and devoted to a continuing study of youth and youth's problems.

The commission's case histories have been used as a cross-section of youth as a framework for the latest March of Time film, which records the lives and problems of America's 21 million young men and women.

The facts assembled for the film show that American youth has its problems—but it is significant that U. S. boys and girls enjoy more freedom, health and happiness than the young people of any other nation. American youth is now receiving increasingly greater opportunities for the recreation, guidance and fellowship so necessary to the making of good citizens.

Here are typical facts about youth that the files of the youth commission reveal:

To see its youth on the field of sport, the U. S. public spends 260 million dollars a year in paid admission alone.

Aviation has become the nation's greatest "young man's industry." Besieged with more applicants than it can handle, the U. S. Civil Aeronautics authority is now giving primary flight training to 10,000 boys and girls every year.

A common denominator of all young America is its love of the comic strip, read conscientiously—daily and Sunday—by every U. S. youngster.

Favorite hangout of boys and girls everywhere in the U. S. is the neighborhood candy shop or drug store, where millions of gallons of "cokes," pop, and sodas are consumed annually.

Well over half of U. S. youth, both young men and young women, report that they drink in varying degrees and amounts, from beer and wine to moonshine whiskey.

Enrolled in 1600 U. S. colleges and universities today are 1,200,000 boys and girls who no longer regard college education as a luxury but as necessary equipment in the highly competitive business of finding a job.

Fifty per cent of college men, and 60 per cent of college women look forward to marriage within two years after graduation.

With 60 per cent of all U. S. schools and colleges now co-educational, most college boys and girls who marry within the next five years will have met their wives or husbands on the campus.

Outside the nation's colleges are more than 19 million youngsters under 24, most of whom must earn a living without the advantage of higher education. Of these, barely one in 30 has achieved the ambition which is common to nearly every working boy—a white-collar job in the city.

Earning from 15 to 25 dollars a week, the average white-collar boy finds that he can live more comfortably and more cheaply by sharing an apartment with other boys whose incomes approximate his own.

Better off in many ways than youth in cities are the nation's five million farm youngsters. Although they work an average of almost 54 hours a week for wages of less than nine dollars, their health is better and in some respects their measure of security is greater than that of any other class of employed youth.

Although the long-standing American tradition of farm-to-city migration is dying out, most boys who leave the farm join the ranks of nearly two million semi-skilled youths working in U. S. industry, earn about 18 dollars a week, and study some trade at night in hopes of landing a better job.

Most numerous and most significant among the nation's youth groups today are the young unemployed, hardest hit of a generation that has grown up in depression and has never known normal times.

Largest single group of the nation's unemployed today are young men and women between the ages of 16 and 24. Almost one-fourth of America's younger generation is now growing up without the chance to earn a living that will enable them to marry and establish a family on any basis of security.

Arising out of unemployment and poverty is the temptation to commit crime. The proportion of boys between 18 and 24 in the nation's prisons is three times as great as in other age groups.

These are America's youth—the top-ranking young men and women of the world in freedom, health and happiness. They haven't the current security of Hitler's youth armies, but neither have they the arms-burden to bear.

Happy Birthday, Dear Adolf!

THE German people paid their daily homage to Der Fuehrer with added fervor on his birthday—his fifty-first.

His lieutenants-in-destruction reported happily that the "metal collection"—the people's gift to Adolf—had been pleasingly ample. In the United States we also celebrate our leader's birthday. Contrast the President's Birthday balls and the contributions to fight infantile paralysis—a battle against death and mahem—with Hitler's battle against life and health.

England now issues blue-colored paper money. In order, no doubt, to have the dough match the feelings of the tax payers who have to dish it out to the government.

Admiral Byrd couldn't find the magnetic pole, which has shifted. The Antarctic is certainly a strange place to play hide-and-seek.

Folks who blame their laziness on spring fever, we've noticed, seem to suffer from the same disease the rest of the year, too.

Knowing Your University Faculty—

Helen Dawson, College of Medicine

A FOTO-FEATURE By John J. Mueller

Miss Helen L. Dawson is the only woman on the teaching staff of the college of medicine. In fact, she could be rightfully called "Doctor" only if it happens that her degree is of the Ph.D. kind rather than M. D., so to more than 80 freshman medics she is just plain Miss Dawson, to avoid confusion.

Miss Dawson came to the university from the St. Louis Washington university medical college in 1932. She teaches a number of courses in anatomy and histology and assists in the teaching and laboratory work of other courses. Another of her duties is to teach anatomy to the art students in Grant Wood's painting courses.

Time in Ireland

A few years ago Miss Dawson had the occasion to spend five months in western Ireland doing research in anthropology for Harvard university. While she was there she really "lived" with the Irish people, and since her return her constant wish is to someday have the time to go back.

"They are the nicest people in the world," she says, "and probably the best conversationalists in the world too." Although economically they are destitute, the people of the southern and western Ireland have an attitude and an unquenchable spirit that cannot be found in any other country.

With them, according to Miss Dawson, Ireland has no ancient history—they claim that it is all the present—and the people speak of long dead national heroes as though they were still alive. Neither do the Irish forget the misdeeds of other countries toward them and they are all very sure that someday, somehow Eric will be vindicated.

The Irish Wit

"Certainly," says Miss Dawson, "the Irish have the wit that they are noted for, but they also have a very powerful set of superstitions and traditions."

Belief in the banshee is very common and there are a number of stories told by tourists themselves of hearing the cry of banshee that announces the death of a person in the family watched over by that particular banshee. "Some say that the wail of the banshee is a nerve-rending sound, while others claim that it is a sort of melancholy sound but beautifully musical."

It is also common in conversation to hear the Irishmen refer to the "little men" that inhabit the marsh lands, and mountains.

A Fairland Asserted

Ireland is really a fairland, asserted Miss Dawson, as she related an experience that "happened early one morning when I was driving to a lonely little town on the western coast.

"The road (which was very poor and the car worse) was cut through a very rough part of the country with low rocky marsh land on one side and the rugged Tenpin mountains on the other side. I drove for hours without seeing or passing anyone but a donkey cart loaded with children on their way to church. As the sun came up the mountains and marshes began to steam as the morning dew left them and the reflection of the sunlight changed the whole countryside into millions of tiny rainbows—a setting that would remind one of the Rip Van Winkle story even if you had never heard of Rip."

Irish Interests

The Irish people are actively interested in everything—including politics, sports, agriculture and religion, the latter, Miss Dawson says, they really "live." She recalls the first day when she landed in Ireland, she attended a hurling game which corresponds to American football. "It was raining and strangely enough there was the parish priest in his flowing cassock and broad brimmed padre hat, running up and down the side lines refereeing the game."

At present Miss Dawson is working on the data that she collected in Ireland for Harvard. She divides her time between her classes and her garden; she gets "a great kick" out of working there. She is also interested in stamp collecting and she is now working on the series of American poets currently being issued.

Miss Helen L. Dawson is an average-sized person with black hair and dark complexion, and with muscles that betray her weakness for golf and tennis. She is an interesting conversationalist and not the least bit worried about realizing that today happens to be her 36th birthday.

Reaction in Northwest Shows Very Adverse Comment to Hitler's Blitzkrieg in Scandinavia

REACTION I get, in mail from the northwest, to Herr Hitler's blitzkrieg in Scandinavia suggests that Adolf hasn't enhanced his popularity in that section of the country by his thrust into the north corner of Europe. I don't think he's an idol anywhere in the United States, but comment from that particular direction is especially adverse to him.

I was brought up in that part of the U. S. — in Iowa to be specific. Now, there are a lot of German descendants in that section. Wisconsin, as we know, is full of 'em. They're also plentiful in Minnesota, the Dakotas, Nebraska and thereabouts. But the originals of this settlement were largely Germans who had left the Fatherland as liberals — fugitives from the old-style kaiserism, refugees from the German attempt of revolution of the 1840's. These times we think of a German as a Hitlerite. In those days we thought of some of them as super-radicals, as too freedom-loving to be safe.

These were folks like Carl Schurz and the warriors who fought "mit Sigel" in the war of secession. The letters I get from the progeny of these initial Germans don't indicate to me that they're Nazis.

By CHARLES P. STEWART Central Press Columnist

Never Mind the Germans However, never mind the Germans.

The American area I'm talking about was settled by Swedes, Danes and Norwegians. I never heard so much about the Finns. They were classed as Russians then.

In my day there wasn't a well-to-do American family that didn't have a Swedish, Danish or Norwegian hired girl.

They simply saturated our so-called northwest. A distinguished Norwegian-American of my days was "By God" Ravndal. He ran a Scandinavian-language newspaper at Sioux Falls, back in the 80's, and was a representative in the South Dakota legislature when I was "covering" one of its earliest sessions as a state—not a territory.

His Scandinavian name was "G. Bie Ravndal." Nobody knew what "G." stood for or how "Bie" was pronounced. But the dope was that "G." meant God. And that "Bie" was pronounced as in "pie." It was assumed that "Bie G." meant "By God"—"By God Ravndal." "By God" broke into the U. S.

diplomatic service and became very prominent. He has grandchildren representing Uncle Sam in the foreign field yet.

Scandinavia Versus Germany The question is: Can Scandinavia stand off Germany?

The answer is: No, not without Allied help. Will Allied help do the business? Maybe.

If Allied help succeeds, won't the Allies, in turn, grab the Scandinavians?

Answer—no. Why not? "Well," remark the Scandinavians' news representatives in Washington (I depend on them for a lot of information): "We think the Allies are too decent."

Some folks may be convinced by this. The fact is, I think the Allies are regarded with a modicum of skepticism by the neutral governments.

The United States isn't so awful skeptical, being well able to take care of itself. But the little neutrals—they're on the anxious seat. And you hear from 'em back in the country—correspondents who were born here and whose grandparents maybe still hark back to a Scandinavian long-ago.

session sessions under the general direction of Ruth House, A4 of Iowa City.

Dr. Bess Goodykoontz, assistant United States commissioner of education and University of Iowa graduate, is the central speaker of the conference, which is this year built around the central theme of "Experiment in Living."

Events Scheduled

Registration, business meetings, luncheons, 15 discussion groups, dinners, a smorgasbord, a tea dance, a trip to the Amara colonies, open house, a Mortar Board breakfast and a dramatic radio production have been arranged for the entertainment and benefit of the women visitors from states ranging from New York through West Virginia to Nebraska and Kansas.

Tomorrow Prof. Grant Wood, noted artist and university art instructor, will speak to delegates and the Iowa hostesses at luncheon at 12 noon in the river room of Iowa Union. A morning business meeting, three discussion groups, sorority and Tau Gamma open houses and a formal dinner in the main lounge of Iowa Union complete the first day of the conference.

Eulalia Klingbeil, J4 of Postville, president of the local University Women's association, is automatically president of the regional conference to which all Iowa women students are hostesses. Miss House, general chairman, is vice-president, Genevieve McCulloch, A4 of Cedar Rapids, is treasurer, and Beverly Barnes, A3 of Sioux Falls, S. D., is secretary.

Workers? Conference Will Have Daily Page

Journalism students from other schools who would like to work on the convention issues of The Daily Iowan should call Betty Gilliland, editor of the conference daily, at Currier hall, university extension 8425, or at The Daily Iowan, phone 4192 or 4193.

Association Regional President

EULALIA KLINGBEIL

Eulalia Klingbeil, U.W.A. President, To Preside at I.A.W.S. Convention

Eulalia Klingbeil, president of the Intercollegiate Association of Women Students this year, last spring was popularly elected president of the University Women's association, which includes all University of Iowa undergraduate women in its membership.

Because the university women are hostesses to the convention, University Women's association officers are officers of the intercollegiate association.

Miss Klingbeil, a senior from Postville, is active in her sorority, Pi Beta Phi. Besides being president of U. W. A., she is president of Mortar Board, which means she received more votes for membership to the Board than any other junior woman at the junior breakfast last spring. Last year she was society editor of The Daily Iowan, was a member of the Orientation Council, was on the Pica Ball committee, and was the attendant to the Junior Queen. She is active in the Home Economics club, in Theta Sigma Phi, honorary and professional sorority for women in journalism, and in the Associated Students of Journalism, for which she has been secretary for two years.

With a genial smile, Miss Klingbeil is "at home" with an important national personality as well as with the meekest freshman on the campus—and she will devote time and patience to both, equally.

Studio E Will Open

Women To Be Guests Of WSUI at Radio Production Tomorrow

Delegates from the universities and schools attending the Intercollegiate Association of Women Students conference will be guests of the WSUI staff at the formal opening of studio E tomorrow evening.

Studio E, the audience studio, is the largest in the station.

A dramatic radio production will be given at 9 o'clock.

WSUI participation in the convention also includes an interview with the association's executive secretary, Nancy Bogue Farley, Wayne university, Detroit, Mich., by Beverly Barnes, A3 of Sioux Falls, S. D., tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

On conversation at eight, heard over WSUI tomorrow at 8 p. m., delegates to the conference will discuss the Intercollegiate Association of Women Students activities on the various campuses. Barbara Lillick, A4 of Iowa City, will lead the discussion.

Four Iowa colleges and the University of North Dakota, none of which are members of the I.A.W.S., but all of whom were invited to the conference, will send a total of 10 women and five deans of women and assistant deans of women to the conference.

All delegates will eat breakfast at Currier hall just as the residents do—cafeteria style from 7:15 until 8:15 a. m.

Dr. Goodykoontz I. A. W. S. Speaker

Will Address Group Twice

Former Iowan Now National Assistant In Education Bureau

A graduate of the University of Iowa in 1922, and today the United States assistant commissioner of education in Washington, D. C., Dr. Bess Goodykoontz will return to her alma mater campus to preside as main speaker at the Intercollegiate Association of Women Students regional convention convening here Tuesday.

Miss Goodykoontz will speak before a general meeting of the women's conference Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock in the river room of Iowa Union. She will present a second lecture in the senate chamber of Old Capitol Tuesday afternoon at 3:15 p. m. to which the student body is invited.

Miss Goodykoontz, contributor of articles on elementary education, is one of several specialists who have been invited to discuss current and vocational interest problems before the visiting and local delegates.

Supervisor of Schools

Following graduation from Iowa in 1922, Miss Goodykoontz was a teacher in the experimental schools in Iowa City, after which she became supervisor of schools at Green Bay, Wis.

Since 1929 she has held her present position in the office of education in the department of the interior. She received a D. Ped. degree from the New York State College for Teachers in 1935.

A member of Phi Beta Kappa, she belongs to the American Association of University Women, the National Council of Education and to several educator's organizations. She was national president of Pi Lambda Theta, educational sorority, from 1933 to 1937 and has been vice president since that time.

Mrs. Gilmore Greets Group

Mrs. Eugene A. Gilmore, wife of the president of the University of Iowa, sends this message to the Intercollegiate Association of Women Students:

"The University of Iowa is generally honored in this, its first opportunity to entertain the Intercollegiate Association of Women Students. Iowa, centrally located in this section, joins with enthusiasm in the plans and purposes of the association.

"The women of Iowa, the president, and I look forward with great pleasure to meeting and entertaining the women of other colleges and trust that the visit will be long remembered for the pleasure and inspiration received on the Iowa campus.

FORT CROOK, Neb. (AP)—Accidentally shot through the cheek with his rifle when he stumbled April 3, Wesley C. Smith, 25, private from Omaha, died yesterday at the Fort Crook army hospital.

Judith Waller, a Leader in Radio Education

Judith Waller, educational director of the NBC central division who will speak on "radio" at the vocational discussion sessions at 10 a. m. Tuesday, is one of radio's pioneers.

It was her early belief in radio as a medium of education that led ultimately to the establishment of such programs of today as the "Chicago Round Table"; "Medicine in the News," an American Medical association program; Dr. Joseph E. Maddy's "Fun in Music" and the National Congress of Parents and Teachers program.

First Experience
Miss Waller's first experience with the airways was in 1922 when Victor Lawson and Walter Strong of the Chicago Daily News asked her to manage a radio station which the paper had recently purchased. Known then as WGU, the station was later to become WMAQ, now a powerful unit of the NBC-Red network.

During those early days when she was director of WMAQ, the station was the first to book all home baseball games from the field during the season, and the first to put the Chicago Symphony orchestra on the air.

The only competitor Miss Waller's station had in Chicago in those early days was KYW. She recalls that programs were conducted in a decidedly hit or miss manner for some time. Often she would book a program, then rush back to the Daily News office to write the show, then hurry to the State Street store that housed the studio to announce the broadcast.

Perhaps the most widely known program with which she has been closely associated is the University of Chicago Round Table. She and Allen Miller, then with the University of Chicago and now with the University Broadcasting council, discussed the possibility of establishing a program on Wood To Speak to I. A. W. S.

Iowa Artist Brought Midwest To National Prominence

Grant Wood, Iowa's own great artist, will speak at the luncheon of the I. A. W. S. regional conference tomorrow noon in the river room of Iowa Union.

Wood, who is a professor on the art department faculty, is generally credited as being one of the first to bring the mid-west into the consciousness of the artistic world. Known as a regionalist artist, Wood generally paints Iowa people and Iowa landscapes.

The Iowa artist has been involved in several controversies as a result of his painting; one followed his depiction of the D. A. R.

The latest occurred when his painting, "Parson Weems Fable" went on display in the Associated American Artists galleries in New York City. The painting, which depicted the famous cherry tree incident in the life of Washington as a legend not based on fact, incited some critics to cries of "un-American."

Wood stated he merely wished to show the Washington story was a "delightful American myth" and that he meant to "re-awaken interest in the cherry tree and other bits of American folklore that are too good to lose."

He did point out, however, that it has been proved that the colorful anecdote had little basis in fact.

Among his best known works are "American Gothic" and "Woman with Plants." He was born in Cedar Rapids and spent some time in Paris studying art before he returned to his native state, where he won international fame for his paintings of the mid-west.

Tomorrow's I.A.W.S. Luncheon Speaker

Grant Wood, pictured above, professor of art in the University of Iowa art department, has developed a way of painting which is distinctly "Grant Wood." A believer in painting what one knows because one can best portray the life one has grown up in, Grant Wood has pictured his family and his friends in the pictures such as "American Gothic" and "The Woman With the Plant."

Many Iowa City citizens appear in illustrated editions of Sinclair Lewis' "Main Street," and Iowa country landscapes and Iowa small town streets have again and again been subjects of Mr. Wood's lithographs and oil paintings. Recently he has started a series of American myths in oil—with the result that the whole nation has read or written about Grant Wood's "Parson Weems Fable."

Women Students May Get Slips For Absences

Any University of Iowa students who wish to be absent from classes during the three-day conference should obtain excuses from the dean of women's office in the basement of Old Capitol.

Signed by Mrs. Adelaide L. Burge, the excuses say that since "we are encouraging our students to take part, we shall appreciate your cooperation in giving opportunity for making up work missed."

Radio Speaker

Round Table Evolves

After months of work, the Round Table was evolved. It represented many radical departures in broadcasting, chief of which was the absence of a prepared script, the sine qua non of the "experts." Today the program has one of the widest followings of any broadcast. And it still is an ad lib broadcast.

Educators in general credit Miss Waller with leadership in starting radio on its road to importance in education. Her system has been used as the basis from which evolved the Ohio school-radio plan and the Wisconsin system.

Now, after more than 18 years in radio, Miss Waller continues her interest in radio in education by arranging for the broadcast of all educational and public service programs for the NBC in the midwest.

Iowa Four-Mile Team Second at Kansas Relays; Rideout Beats Cunningham

LAWRENCE, Kan., April 20 (Special to The Daily Iowan)—A University of Iowa record fell today at the Kansas relays here, although the Hawkeyes finished second to Minnesota. With Cameron Campbell, senior distance man, setting the pace, the Hawkeyes ran the four-mile relay in 17:57, beating the old mark by eight-tenths of a second.

Campbell, running as anchor man on the Iowa team, pulled up from fourth place and 30 yards behind the leader to finish just three yards back of the winners.

Mel Erickson, Ed Elliott and Carl Schnoor were other members of the Iowa team.

Other Hawkeyes, Art Schlauder and Jim Wilson in the dashes, and Hank Vollenweider in the high hurdles, failed to qualify. Vollenweider was leading in his event until he fell in the semi-finals. Bill Leuz, in the shot-put, was also eliminated.

Outstanding performance of the relays was that of Blaine Rideout, who outdistanced Glenn Cunningham in the mile to smash a Kansas relays mark held by Cunningham. Rideout ran the distance in 4:10.1.

Other record-breaking performances were turned in by the University of Oklahoma's sprint medley quartet, Baker university's sprint relay team and four Abilene Christian college athletes who ambled two miles in seven minutes, 48 and four-tenths seconds.

But it was Cunningham who stole the show, although his aged legs no longer had the "kick" to offset Rideout's challenge. He announced before the run that he would be connected with Cornell college at Mt. Vernon after September 1.

120-yard high hurdles—Won by Gatewood, Texas; second, Revel, Pittsburgh, Kan.; third, Cope, Colorado; fourth, Leonard, Colorado. Time 14.4.

100-yard dash—Won by Piker, Northwestern; second, Littler, Nebraska; third, Kamadoti, Texas; fourth, Koettel, Oklahoma. Time 9.8.

Half mile college relay—Won by Oklahoma Baptist; (Pittman, Westbrook, Tyler and Watson) second, Pittsburgh, Kas. Teachers; third, Wichita, fourth, Southwestern, Arkansas. Time 1:25.7. (On comparative basis for three heats) 1:29.5.

Shot put—Won by Hackney, Kansas State, 49 feet 5 5/8 inches; second, Crooks, Colorado, 48 2 3/4; third, Wilbets, Nebraska, 48 4 7/8; fourth, Jenkins, Colorado, 46 1/2.

University two mile relay—Won by Drake; (Crowley, Baralou, Rasmus, Hall) second, Oklahoma A and M; third, Iowa State; fourth, Kansas State. Time 7:50.5.

Invitation mile run: Won by Blaine Rideout; second, Wayne Rideout; third, Agelhis San Roman; fourth, Glenn Cunningham. Time 4:10.1. New record (old record 4:12.7, by Cunningham in 1924).

University spring medley relay: Won by Oklahoma, (Lyda, Mathews, Koettel, Gahan); second, Nebraska; third, Arkansas; fourth, Kansas State, time 3:25.3

(new record, old record, 3:27 Rice Institute, 1928).

University four mile relay: Won by Minnesota (Gilljegen, A. Gill, Rhodes, Rasmussen); second, Iowa; third, Colorado; fourth, Kansas State. Time 17:48.3.

University quarter mile relay—First heat: Won by Texas, 11.3; second, Oklahoma, 11.5; third, Minnesota, 11.8; fourth, Kansas, 12.4.

Second heat: Won by Kansas State, 12.1; second, Iowa State, 12.5; third, Arkansas, 14.4.

Abilene Christian (Sanders, Beadles, Mowask, Rushing); second, Wichita; third, Emporia (Kas); Teachers; fourth, Pittsburg (Kas) Teachers. Time 19:38.1.

University distance medley relay—Won by Missouri, (St. Denis, Knight, Reeves, Munkki); second, Oklahoma A. and M.; third, Kansas; fourth, Arkansas. Time 19:12.2.

Invitation college sprint medley relay—Won by Baker, (Kramer, Timmons, Flindley, Williams); second, Missouri Valley; third, Westminster; fourth, College of Emporia. Time 3:36.7. (New record, Old record 3:39.2 by Baker in 1929).

Pole vault final: The first by Bryan, Texas and Higgins, Missouri, at 13 feet 3 inches. Tie for third O'Hara, Kansas; Thistlewaite, Northwestern; Hunt, Nebraska, 12 feet 9 inches.

fourth, Wilbets, Nebraska 141 feet 10 inches.

High jump: Won by Boydston, Oklahoma A. and M., 6 feet 2 inches; second, Schnack, Iowa State, 6 feet 5 inches; third, Jay Smith, Northwest; 4 feet 2 inches; tie for fourth, Day, Kansas State and Kite, Wichita U. and Puett, Colorado, 6 feet 3/4 inches.

College one mile relay—Won by Oklahoma Baptist (Pittman, Westbrook, Tyler, Watson); second, Emporia State; third, Pittsburg Teachers; fourth, Pittsburg Teachers. Time 3:19.7.

University one mile relay—Won by Minnesota (Johnson, Irvine, Garrity, Frank); second, Kansas; third, Drake; fourth, Arkansas, Time 3:21.1.

 Daily Iowan Sports Editor

Iowa's defending Big Ten champions saw their 10-game victory string snapped yesterday in a determined ninth inning rally that netted Illinois two runs for a 4-3 victory.

The Vogelmen, behind the hurling of Fred Hohenhorst and Bob Stastny, had appeared well on the way to their third conference win until the fatal ninth. The Hawks scored in the first inning, again in the fourth and in the seventh.

Illinois' winning rally began innocently enough on Andy Kantor's low throw to first of Drish's grounder and Drish went to second on Astroth's sacrifice out. Capt. Tony Pyrz of the invaders, who had managed nary a safe hit until it was most desperately needed, stepped to the plate and smashed a whistling liner down the left field foul line for a triple. Drish scored to tie the count, and on Bob Cook's wild throw, Pyrz followed him home.

The Hawkeyes, behind for the first time since early in the game, started a rally in their last time at bat, but the spark wasn't quite there. Kantor began the inning auspiciously with a single over the pitcher's box, but Prasse flied out to center for the first out. Things looked like they were picking up when Jimmy George walked after Kantor had stolen second, but Norm Hankins and Bob Cook both whiffed as Alan Grant, Illinois hurler, bore down to pitch himself out of the hole.

Previously, the invaders had scored twice in the fourth off Fred Hohenhorst. They began the spurge when Drechsler beat out an infield out to deep short and then scored on Evers' three-base clout to left field. Evers scored the second run when he came home on Bill Hapac's single.

The Hawkeyes scored in the first when Hankins singled to drive Prasse home, in the fourth when Stastny's single drove in Frank Kocur and in the seventh on Prasse's triple and George's drive between second and short-stop.

All told, the Hawkeyes outth-

Big Ten May Decide Chicago's Fate Today

Schedules May Omit Maroons

Athletic Directors Meet at Chicago To Decide Question

CHICAGO, April 20 (AP)—Athletic directors of the Big Ten will gather here tomorrow to decide whether to include the University of Chicago in the conference sports schedules for next season.

The officials deferred completion of the 1940-41 basketball schedules several weeks ago after pointing to Chicago criticism of sports conduct at other conference schools.

It was pointed out that an "unknown spokesman" at Chicago said other Big Ten schools could not play winning football without violating Big Ten regulations. This was stated in explanation of the Maroons' withdrawal from intercollegiate football.

The athletic directors asked the school to retract the statement, or give facts in support of it. Last week President Robert M. Hutchins gave the athletic directors the institution's answer, but so far it has not been revealed.

If the directors decline to schedule the Maroons in sports, the action will virtually ostracize the school in the Big Ten. However, Chicago cannot be expelled from the conference except by the faculty committee.

Auker Makes Debut As Brownie Hurler With 8-Hit Win

ST. LOUIS, April 20 (AP)—It may be true what they're saying about the Browns—that the team is destined to wind up the season in the American league cellar—but not if they play like they did today in smashing the Chicago White Sox, 11 to 1.

Making their delayed opening appearance at home before a paid attendance of 4,775, the Browns clicked off 13 hits, nine from the bats of its "imported" outfield, Rip Radcliff, formerly with the White Sox, and Walter Judnich and Joe Gallagher, ex-Yankee farmers.

Radcliff, getting revenge on his old teammates, drove in five of the Browns' runs with a homer and two singles. Judnich and Gallagher each got three hits, too, including a double apiece.

As further evidence that other teams finally have given the Browns some worthwhile help, Elden Auker, the submarine pitcher obtained from Boston, made his debut in a St. Louis uniform and pitched a tight game, yielding eight hits and walking none. Joe Kuhel's home run in the fourth inning robbed him of a shutout.

Trainers Will Meet During Drake Relays

The annual meeting of the National Athletic Trainers' association will be held in Des Moines during the running of the Drake relays on the morning of April 27 at the Fort Des Moines hotel.

Bill Frey of Iowa City, their secretary, plans to have the trainers O. K. a summer clinic some place in the mid-west. They will also talk over plans that will bring the high school coaches closer to the training field, making it possible for these coaches to handle the injuries that come into their squads from time to time.

This is the third year of the trainers' association. It was formed during the Drake relays in 1927. Its present president is Jack Heppinstall of Michigan State college.

Win Second Straight Game In Home Park

CHICAGO, April 20 (AP)—The Chicago Cubs got only seven hits today but the timeliness of their safeties, backed up by a fine defense and some excellent relief pitching by rookie Ken Raffensberger, produced a 4 to 3 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals.

Hawkeyes Drub Grinnell Netsters, 6 to 1 To Start 1940 Season

The University of Iowa tennis team started the 1940 season with an easy 6 to 1 victory over Grinnell on the field house courts yesterday afternoon, with the sterling performances of three sophomores featuring the match.

The Hawks went unbeaten in the five singles matches, and broke even with the visitors at doubles. Capt. Bob Sandler was forced to three sets before disposing of Gene Piesner, 6-0, 8-10, 6-1. Sandler had little trouble in the first and third sets, but the steady play of Piesner in the second stanza was too much for the Hawkeye ace.

The number two battle was also a nip and tuck affair with Bob Wollenweber finally taking a close third set and the match, 6-4, 1-6, 6-4. John Paulus, six foot four inch sophomore, had little trouble in disposing of Jim Beisenstein, 6-1, 6-0.

Bob Jensen and Louis Wurl, outstanding sophomores, easily won their matches. Jensen took the measure of Dick Adkins, 6-2, 7-5, while Wurl defeated Charles Sayre, 6-1, 6-2.

The number one doubles match went into the twilight hours before the Grinnell team of Piesner and Savage finally eked out a 5-7, 9-7, 6-3 victory over Sandler and Wollenweber of Iowa. Evers set was closely contested, with the comeback of the Grinnell team the feature of the match. The Iowans led, 5-0, in the second set after taking the first set, 7-5, but the visitors tied the set up at 5-all and finally won, 9-7. The tiring Iowans offered little opposition in the deciding set.

Last Formal Dance of Year Friday Evening

Ted Weems To Play For Party in Union; To Announce Beauties

Tickets for the Junior Prom, last university formal dance of the year to be given Friday from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. in the main lounge of Iowa Union, will go on sale at 8 a.m. tomorrow at the main desk of Iowa Union. There will be no restriction of sale to juniors, so any university student may purchase a ticket tomorrow.

Chaperons for this party will be Dr. and Mrs. F. R. Peterson, Prof. and Mrs. John W. Ashton, Prof. and Mrs. H. H. Rowley, Dr. and Mrs. Jack T. Johnson and Prof. and Mrs. Fred M. Pownall.

Ted Weems and his orchestra will play for dancing Friday evening. Coming with Weems will be Elmo Tanner, whistler, Marvel Maxwell, songstress, and Perry Como, romantic young baritone.

Party committee members have announced that decorations will be in the spring theme. Against a background of spring flowers, the six Hawkeye beauties will be presented in accordance with an annual tradition. These six university women who will not be announced until the party Friday night have been chosen by McClelland Barclay, magazine artist; Perc Westmore, Hollywood make-up expert, and George B. Petty, creator of Esquire's "Petty girl."

Since the Prom is a strictly formal party, closing hours for university women attending the party will be extended to 1:30 a.m.

Local Pan-American Group Observes 25th Birthday of Union With Dinner

Flags of Pan-American nations, flowers and candles of ivory and rose served as table decorations at the annual dinner of the Iowa City branch of the Pan-American league Thursday evening in Iowa Union. The dinner celebrated both the semi-centennial of the Pan-American Union and the ninth anniversary of the league.

Prof. Ilse P. Laas, president of the group, served as toastmistress and read messages of greeting from Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, L. S. Rowe, director general of the Pan-American Union in Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Clarke Stearns, national president of the Pan-American league, and ambassadors of several Pan-American countries.

Short talks on the program were given by President Eugene A. Gilmore, Prof. Stephen Bush and Prof. E. K. Mapes. Mrs. Donald Winbigger and her mother, Mrs. E. L. Gleason, in colorful costumes, interpreted three Spanish dances.

Other events of the evening were songs by the Pan-American students and an illustrated talk on Colombia, South America, by Prof. Allen Tester who recently spent two years in that country. F. J. Rohrer of Chile, Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Maymi of Puerto Rico, Prof. Juan Lopez-Morillas of Spain, Winston Hall, president of the recently formed Pan-American student league, and other Pan-American students were introduced by Professor Laas.

Mrs. Jack Hinman Jr., was chairman of the committee in charge of arrangements. Assisting her were Mrs. E. D. Plass and Prof. Tacie Kease. Officers for the coming year will be elected at the final meeting of the league which will be May 16.

Plans will also discuss plans for a tea to be given by the freshman cabinet for the senior Girl Reserves of Iowa City high school. Elizabeth Winbigger, Girl Reserve advisor and a member of the Y. W. C. A. advisory board, will be a special guest at the tea, which will be given Tuesday, April 30, at 4:15 p.m. in the Y. W. C. A. conference room.

Mayor Announces City Drama Week

April 29-May 4 Date of Official Civic Program

Community Players Will Sponsor Drive For Membership

The week of April 29 to May 4 was officially named Community Dramatics week and the work of the Iowa City Community Players was endorsed yesterday in a proclamation made by Mayor H. F. Willenbrock.

Stating that the Community Players would contribute greatly to the cultural development of Iowa City and that the group was cooperating with other groups to increase civic activities here, Mayor Willenbrock urged the support of the project by Iowa City people.

Proclamation

The proclamation read as follows:

"Whereas it has been shown that there is a definite need in this community for civic expression of dramatic art and the formation of an organization to promote this expression; and

"Whereas such an organization has been formed and is cooperating with other organizations in the stimulation of civic activities in Iowa City; and

"Whereas this organization known as the Community Players is a non-profit making organization; and

"Whereas this organization will contribute materially and artistically to the cultural development of Iowa City; and

"Whereas many other communities, large and small, have similar organizations which take a prominent place in civic life; now, therefore,

"Be it proclaimed that the week beginning April 29 and ending May 4 shall be known as Community Dramatics week and I do hereby urge the support of the people of Iowa City in the promotion of the Community Players organization and its work."

Endorsement

Coincident with the mayor's declaration was a statement issued by Gordon Brown, secretary of the chamber of commerce, praising the efforts and aims of the Community Players.

Said Brown, speaking for the chamber of commerce, in his statement, "In connection with our drive to stimulate civic activities, we have discovered a group of enthusiastic young citizens of our city working along similar lines.

"That group is the Community Players who are giving us a phase of civic enterprise in which all Iowa City people may express themselves dramatically and enjoy plays produced by themselves.

"We are proud to endorse such an effort which we feel will place Iowa City along with such other cities which have realized a Community Players association and deem its contribution to the development of the city as invaluable."

Membership Drive

During Community Dramatics week the Community Players will sponsor a city-wide membership drive, it was disclosed last night by Elmer Bladow, director.

"The purpose of this membership drive is two-fold," Bladow said. "First, the money raised by the drive will serve as the main support of the operation of the organization; and secondly, it will provide persons admission to the plays at popular prices."

Persons holding membership cards will be privileged to vote in the election of candidates to the board of directors as vacancies occur in it, to participate in the productions presented by the organization and to attend performances of the plays, he pointed out.

Cards

A membership card which costs $1.25 will entitle its holder to attend the three summer productions of the Community Players as well as two membership nights which will occur during main productions, he explained.

A membership night, he said, will consist of three one-act plays. Both original and tested plays will be produced, Bladow added.

Purpose of Training

"The purpose of these one-act plays," he declared, "is to provide those who have had little or no training in dramatics and who feel a quiet normal urge to act with a source of instruction and training."

Bladow asked that the community aid him by submitting original scripts to be used on membership nights.

Membership will be divided into three distinct types, he said: the associate membership (everyone who buys a membership card will be included in this group); the patron's membership, price $5, bearing the extra privilege of free attendance at the Community Players social events, and the contributing membership, costing $25. While the last offers no other privileges than the patron's membership, it will serve to mark the contributor as a "good angel" to Iowa City dramatics.

Sigma Delta Chi Will Sponsor Roundtable On Writing, Editing

Editor

Frank W. McDonough, editor of Better Homes and Gardens, will lead a roundtable discussion on magazine writing and editing here May 11. His appearance in Iowa City is sponsored by Sigma Delta Chi, national professional journalism fraternity.

Frank W. McDonough, of Des Moines, editor of Better Homes and Gardens, will lead a roundtable on magazine writing and editing here May 11, under the sponsorship of Sigma Delta Chi, national professional journalism fraternity, James Fox, president, announced last night.

McDonough will be the guest of the Iowa chapter of Sigma Delta Chi at a luncheon honoring initiates. The luncheon will be in the Blue Room of the D and L grill, following initiation ceremonies, May 11.

Recognized for his achievements in editing by leading teachers of journalism, McDonough has had printers' ink on his fingers since he was 10, and carried a newspaper route. He has been editor-in-chief of Better Homes and Gardens since July, 1938.

McDonough edited his high school newspaper two years, was advertising director of student publications at Creighton university for one year and edited a weekly newspaper in West Des Moines during the three years he attended Drake university.

Following his graduation from Drake in 1928, McDonough became a member of the Meredith Publishing company organization as an assistant to the editor. He became assistant editor in January, 1931, and associate editor in July, 1932.

He was acting editor of the Meredith publication from August, 1937, until July, 1938, when he became editor.

The roundtable will be open to the public.

Relief Corps Plans Meeting For Tuesday

Plans have been announced for the meeting of the Women's Relief corps Tuesday at 2 p.m. in the community building.

After a business meeting, there will be a social hour, and members will play cards. Those planning to attend are reminded of the kitchen shower.

Committee members include Mrs. Ida Adams, chairman, and Mrs. Elmer Dewey, Mrs. T. J. Delsing, Mrs. Minnie Luscomb, Mrs. John Hart, Mrs. Carl Kringle and Mrs. Jennie Jenks.

Teams of six members each will be selected to canvas the city for membership subscriptions, Bladow said.

Articles Filed

A ticket headquarters will be set up, he added, and there is possibility that a pre-drive meeting to which members of all Iowa City service clubs will be invited, will be held.

Bladow also announced that articles of incorporation of the Community Players into the Iowa City Community Playhouse association were ready to be filed.

Bookshelf J. Howarth To Begin New Novel

Tomorrow morning at 10:30 Jeanne Howarth, A4 of Atlantic, will begin Alice Tisdale Hobart's "Their Own Country" on the Bookshelf program over station WSUI.

The plot revolves around Hester and Stephen Chase, the indomitable pair of "Oil for the Lamps of China" who leave war-torn China to return to the United States.

In their attempt to attain security in the newest of civilizations they are often reminded of conditions in the oldest civilization. They discover that peace, contentment and security are not so easily gained as they had imagined.

TIPS ON THE SHOPPING MARKET

By JUDY WEIDNER

Just in time for the Junior Prom STRUB'S has unpacked a huge array of beautiful new cotton formal — so fresh they look as if they'd never been touched by the human hand. Truly a party creation is one of white with small red dots trimmed with bright red rick-rack trim having puffed sleeves and full skirt. And, too, there is a beautiful one having a lovely multi-colored plaid full skirt and belt with a white top.

After scanning the dictionary I was unable to find the words to describe these many alluring party frocks including red and blue prints with narrow straps and accented with multi-colored wooden bead necklaces, nets of lovely pastels, chiffon, prints, checks, and polka dots. When passing through town this week be sure to see STRUB'S special window. Your wishes will be fulfilled at the biggest party of the year when you appear in the formal of your dreams that you found at STRUB'S.

Spring really hit the Gamma Phi house with a bang this week resulting in three pinhangings for the week. One of which was that of "Jackie" Goss, who is now wearing the Delta Tau Delta pin of Fritz Mueller.

Remember, there are only four more weeks before exams. It is time to be thinking about those term papers and theses. Need a helper? MARY V. BURNS at the Paul-Helen Building is an expert typist and mimeographer at very reasonable rates.

Dazzle your escort at the Junior Prom or please Mother on Mother's Day with an exquisite new perfume from STRUB'S cosmetic counter. Here you will find all odors of nationally advertised perfumes and colognes including Worth, Prince Matchabelli, Jeanne Lanvin, Duvelle, and Guerlain displayed in attractive bottles that you will want for your dressing table. Prices range from as low as a dollar a dram on up at STRUB'S.

We wonder what Marion Lowry's (Gamma Phi) Phi Gam date must have thought when he asked about her waist measure so he could make her a grass skirt for the Fiji Island Party. Her reply was 36 inches.

Do you realize that there are exactly four more weeks left before exam week rolls around. Greet it with a smile this semester — have an I.E.S. lamp on the job. Scientifically correct for easy reading, sewing, work, or play an I.E.S. lamp helps protect eyes of young and old from strain. Makes more study hours available as your eyes tire less easily — see IOWA CITY LIGHT AND POWER'S complete stock.

YES SIRE—it was a real live bat that was flying around in Reserve library Tuesday night.

Someone just awakened to the fact that Eleanor Droll, A.D.P.I., has been wearing a ring given to her by Howard Anker of Peoria since Christmas.

Nowadays it's as important to have a streamlined kitchen as it is to have a streamlined car. The modern kitchen is designed for efficiency and is beautiful because of it. Inquire about streamlining your kitchen at HAWKEYE LUMBER COMPANY — you'll be amazed to learn how little a really up-to-date kitchen will cost you! This can be done for as little as $5.00 a month with no down payment.

Jean Hurlson, Gamma Phi, is now wearing Pep Grawe's Delta Chi pin.

Now is the time to try an automatic gas water heater! The call of the great out-of-doors is much in evidence these days — but no more than the call for hot water. In homes with automatic gas water heaters, there is plenty of hot water for everyone — ever ready with the turn of a faucet. Convince yourself by consulting the water heating experts at LAREW'S. You can't be clean without hot water.

Your lovely party frock or suit needs expert care so that you will look your best for the Junior Prom! Trust them to PARIS CLEANERS to keep them in perfect condition and your clothes will serve you longer! As colors are restored to their original beauty and garments are fitted to exact measurements, you'll be satisfied in every way.

Step lightly and sprightly into the sentimental season in PENNEY'S gentle, fragile gowns. You'll set hearts whirling and feet twirling at the Junior Prom when dressed in PENNEY'S beautiful new formal creations of cottons and nets in both pastel and bright colors. Remember you can save by buying at PENNEY'S.

Hope you will enjoy the Junior Prom, considered by some the nicest party of the year — it is an excellent opportunity to use Marcelle Cosmetics—a wonderful make-up that will not irritate your skin—DRUG SHOP has Marcelle Cosmetics—come to 3 S. Dubuque St. Edward S. Rose—Pharmacist.

The witchery of flattering style with supreme walking, and dancing ease—what a happy combination to discover in ONE shoe! But it's no trick at all when your choice is a pair of DOMBY'S sparkling sandals with the sleek and shapely lines that enhance your foot's loveliness—and the corrective feature that gives your foot every reason to feel as young as it looks. Have twinkling toes that never tire at the Junior Prom in a pair of DOMBY'S newest evening slippers.

Men like Rafield's, the ideal suit hat, for their charm and feminine appeal. You'll adore them because they "do something" for you and because of their authentic styling and fine hand detail. You will find just the hat to wear at the conference in STRUB'S complete display of newest styles.

Do you realize that one of the most important days of the year — MOTHER'S DAY — is only two weeks away. Present your mother with a gift that she'll truly treasure for many years to come — your photograph. It's sure to be a masterpiece if KADGHI'S is your photographer.

The new Spring season is really something to get excited about when you can wear a playsuit like those that have just been unpacked at YETTER'S. You'll find a complete selection of frolicking fun-fashions at YETTER'S including three-piece spun rayon prints and stripes (shirt, shorts, and blouses) also plain colored two-tone combinations such as shorts of pink and skirt of blue. Also many sun-bath dresses of brilliant plaids.

And for a truly smart slacks suit—see the many styles that YETTER'S have just unpacked. One is a pencil striped spun gabardine at only $3.98 while another is a window pane check spun rayon at $2.98—both have zipper closings and belted trousers as well as patch pocket overblouses. March into spring and summer fun in style by choosing yours in any size or color at YETTER'S tomorrow.

Have you heard that Marjorie Jamison, Tri Delta, is now wearing Bud Burns' Beta pin?

SEARS' ROYAL PURPLE

Your transportation troubles dissolve like a puff of smoke in the air when you dial 3131 for a YELLOW CAB! Worry-free transportation is YELLOW CAB'S specialty. Let YELLOW help you make that eight o'clock or keep that business appointment on the dot, or whisk you away to an evening of gaiety and fun at the Junior Prom with nothing to worry about when it comes time to wend your way homeward. It's a YELLOW for the thinking fellow, everytime!

Trust your dresses of delicate materials or your expensively tailored suits to LE VORA'S CLEANERS, and you will be sure to make a perfect appearance at the Junior Prom. Extra attention will be given to pleats and tucks in dresses as well as creases in suits resulting in a suit or dress that looks like new. Speedy pick-up and delivery service and budget-saving prices at LE VORA'S. Dial 4153.

For a little added enjoyment learn the game which Dorothy Pownall, Theta, and Jim Bristol, Sigma Nu, are having so much fun playing. I think they call it "Pin, pin, who's got the pin!" Well, anyway, Dorothy doesn't have it at the present moment.

Remember, Girls, Friday night is the Junior Prom. And you'll be a dashing heroine, dangerous and lovely, when wearing one of VOGUE BEAUTY SHOP'S new coiffures! The new Spring coiffures designed by VOGUE'S expert operators are excitingly different and vibrant! Dial 7532 for your appointment tomorrow!

And Ginny Miller, Gamma Phi, is the proud possessor of John Cockrill's Delta Chi pin.

Spring is really here at last—so it's time to be thinking of those pleasant cruises down the Iowa River again. Toss your books aside this afternoon and enjoy Spring at Iowa U. at its loveliest with a restful canoe ride. Finest equipment furnished by FITZGERALD'S BOAT HOUSE—next to the Union. We'll be seeing you!

Bring the party to a grand climax after tripping the light fantastic all evening at the Junior Prom at REICH'S CAFE, the food shop with the campus spirit. Relax and refresh at REICH'S before calling it a day and you can then be sure she'll long remember the occasion as a highlight of her campus life. REICH'S is WHERE THE CROWD GOES.

THE STATE MOTOR PATROL

By Charles Beckman

I haven't available, at the moment the exact figures showing the number of auto fatalities which have disgraced our highways this year. But I state confidently that, without the good work of our motor patrol, the number would have been half again as large. That officer you see beside the highway, watching the flow of traffic, is not merely a "speed cop" intent on catching someone doing seventy. He is a public guardian, watching to prevent a murder. For all reckless drivers are potential murderers and against them the Motor-Patrol has declared a war without mercy.

Much traveled people tell me that they never appreciate our highway officers until they go into other states and see the non-signallers, the in-out-outers, the passers-on-hills, and the wrong-side-of-the-roads making every mile of highway a death risk. Then they long for the sharp curb our officers put on the selfish, lawless driver.

The officers' work is dangerous and they do it fearlessly. It calls for tact, good judgment, and an astonishing knowledge of law. They are courteous men, but firm, and I marvel at their courtesy for I doubt that you or I could speak as restrainedly as they do, to a dangerous killer at large.

They are the motorists' best friends.

Next Sunday Mr. Beckman of the Beckman Funeral Home will comment on Our National Guard unit.

Fifteen Undergraduates Seek Six Positions on Union Board

 Liberal Arts Candidates for Union Board—Six Will be Elected Wednesday ***

Three Men, Three Women To Be Elected

Liberal Arts Students To Vote Wednesday At Polls in Union

Fifteen undergraduate students, nine women and six men, are candidates for the six positions on Union Board which are available to students in the college of liberal arts. The election, scheduled to take place Wednesday in Iowa Union, will decide which three women and three men will represent the college on the board.

At the same election, one one-year term student member and two two-year term student members of the board of trustees of Student Publications, Inc., will be decided. The polls will be open from 8 a.m. until 5 p.m., with polling taking place in the Y. W. C. A. rooms of Iowa Union.

Evelyn Anderson
Among the women candidates is Evelyn Anderson, A2 of Honey Creek, Gamma Phi Beta activities chairman, member of an I. A. W. S. conference committee and member of Pi Epsilon Pi. She has been active in freshman and transfer orientation, on Hawkeye and Frivol. In Y. W. C. A. she acted on the social committee and on a party committee. She was a member of the Homecoming committee.

Mary Frances Arduser, A2 of Cedar Rapids, activities chairman of Eastlawn, this year was a member of the Y. W. C. A. council and will be on the cabinet next year. As a member of Pi Epsilon Pi last year, she was on the Pep Jamboree party committee. Interested and active in the proposed student government movement, Miss Arduser also has participated on I. A. W. S. and U. W. A. committees and is on the Inter-Dorm council. She has been an assistant in W. A. A. Handcraft club.

Betty Gilliland
Betty Gilliland, J3 of Des Moines, who is serving her second year on the Currier hall council, also is on the Y. W. C. A. council and on the Inter-Church council. She is a member of the U. W. A. council, is convention editor of the I. A. W. S. regional conference and last year worked on freshman orientation. She is president of the local chapter of Theta Sigma Phi, journalism honorary sorority, is assistant campus editor of The Daily Iowan and served on the Pica Ball committee. She was a member of the central committee for the Religious Activities finance drive.

This year's Hawkeye editor, Martha Lois Koch, A3 of Evansville, Ind., is pledge sponsor of Pi Beta Phi sorority and has been corresponding secretary. She was selected to head next year's freshman orientation program, and is publicity chairman for the I. A. W. S. conference. Besides working as an orientation leader, she has also been on the Y. W. C. A. council, was publicity chairman for U. W. A. coffee hours and belongs to the Spanish club. She has served on the Spinners' Spree and Junior Prom party committees.

Mary Carolyn Kuever
Mary Carolyn Kuever, A2 of Iowa City, rushing captain of Delta Gamma sorority and Pan Hellenic representative, is art editor of the 1941 Hawkeye. She was chairman of this year's hosts and hostesses of U. W. A. coffee hours and is activities editor of "Code for Co-Eds." She is a Y. W. C. A. council member, has participated in freshman orientation work, has worked on Frivol and on The Daily Iowan shopping column.

Margaret Kuttler, A3 of Davenport, president of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority, was popularly elected president of the U. W. A. for next year. This year she had Six men are running for the three positions limited to men in the college of liberal arts. John K. Bangs, A2 of Fairfield, a member of Sigma Nu fraternity, has participated in freshman debate and in freshman golf. He is vice-president of Y. M. C. A. James Bromwell, A2 of Cedar Rapids, rushing chairman of Phi Kappa Psi fraternity last year and present treasurer of the organization, was a member of the Sophomore Cotillion party committee. He has been on the Religious Activities Finance drive central committee, is on the Varsity debate squad and has worked on Hawkeye.

Frank Burge
Frank Rayner Burge, A2 of North Liberty, has been an active member of the Pershing Ri-files for the two years he's been in school. He was on the Sophomore Cotillion party committee. For two years he has worked at Iowa Union, where he is frequently called upon to assist in Union Board activities.

Secretary of Phi Gamma Delta fraternity, John J. Maher, A2 of Springfield, Ill., went out for freshman football, for freshman basketball and for varsity football. He won the freshman football scholarship trophy. He is song leader for the Phi Gamma Delta finalists in the university sing.

John R. Williams, A2 of Des Moines, is president of the Co-Op Dormitory council and is president of Kellogg house. He is vice-president of the Inter-Dormitory council and works as a page in general library.

Louis Wurl, A2 of North Tawanda, N. Y., resident of the Quadrangle, has a freshman tennis numeral and holds last year's freshman tennis scholarship trophy. He is a member of the Varsity tennis squad. A member of the Dolphin fraternity, he was on the Dolphin show scenery committee. Mr. Wurl is a member of the Art Guild.

In Other Colleges
Other representatives to Union Board — one each from the colleges of medicine, dentistry, pharmacy, engineering and education, one each from the graduate college and from the school of nursing, and two from the college of commerce — will be determined within the colleges by methods selected by them and approved by Union Board.

Present president is Bill Sener, G of Chicago. The board includes in its activities the house, art exhibit, library, tea dance, games and bridge committee and sponsors annually the Club Cabaret and the Homecoming party, as well as determining the policy of Iowa Union.

Former Faculty Member Named To College Post

Edith Bell, formerly a member of the university faculty, has been appointed art director of the Frances Shimer college workshop in Mt. Carroll, Ill., June 24 to Aug. 3. The workshop will stress active participation in the college theater and in writing and painting. Miss Bell was appointed an instructor at the university in 1917 and an associate in 1930.

In 1921 and 1922, she attended the National Academy of Design on a Joseph Pulitzer scholarship and she also received a Louis Comfort Tiffany foundation scholarship.

She resigned from the University of Iowa faculty June 30, 1938, when she took a position at Frances Shimer college.

54 Iowa High Schools Indicate Intention To Enter Iowa's First Non-Competitive Music Festival

The final list of high schools which will be represented in the first annual University of Iowa high school music festival was announced yesterday by Prof. Bruce E. Mahan, director of the extension division.

Fifty-four high schools have indicated their intention to enter the non-competitive festival which will be the first of its type sponsored by the University of Iowa May 2, 3 and 4. High schools entering the festival will bring instrumental and vocal groups and vocal and instrumental soloists.

High schools to be represented are Kellerton, Keokuk, Keota, Lost Nation, Manning, Marion, Mediapolis, Monona, Mt. Vernon, Muscatine, Nevada, New Hampton, Newton, Oelwein, Oskaloosa, Ottumwa.

Renwick, Shenandoah, State Center, Tama, Tipton, Wapello, Washington, Waterloo (East), Waterloo (West), Wellman, West Liberty, Williamsburg, Ames, Blairtown, Carson, Centerville, Clear Lake.

Clinton-Lyons, Columbus Junction, Cresco, Davenport, Dawson, Dubuque, Eldora, Eldora Training school, Fairfield, Forest City, Ft. Madison, Goldfield, Grinnell, Ida Grove.

Dubuque, Immaculate Conception Academy, Iowa City, University high, Jefferson and Johnston.

Each of these schools will be represented by members in the all-festival orchestra, band and chorus to present a concert in the fieldhouse Saturday night, May 4. These three groups of festival participants will rehearse twice daily during the three days of the festival.

Courage, My Girl!

Attractive Feet One Attribute For These Wedge Soles

Courage, little girl! You've got to have courage for this growing style in shoes, wedge soles.

But it calls for more than courage to wear wedge soled shoes. It calls for attractive feet and legs and especially the ability to wear a distinctive fashion with ease. If you have these, little girl, try wedge soles.

Wedges for play shoes or street oxfords are not new by several seasons, and by now they're more or less accepted. But this year has brought an opening—wedge, shall we say?—into other types of footwear. And in shop windows and on the streets, little girls, just look around you at the different kinds.

Pumps—Black and White
Especially attractive are black and white pumps, just ready for the first day of spring. Their heels, a bit higher than spectator, are a definite wedge with a black and white horizontal stripe—entirely for the effect. Toes are open.

Patent leather sandals with almost nothing around the ankles and two broad bands of leather over the toes offer wedge heels, too. Decidedly eccentric evening sandals are the same, only in fabrics.

Ready for street wear are a perky pair of alligator pumps with little bows like Dorothy's in Oz. Navy gabardine is used for another pair of pumps, which have a heel never to be noticed casually anywhere. The heels are the usual medium high wedges but instead of being solid, they are cut out triangularly to show that they really are heels.

Sports shoes, of course, could not be forgotten. Ready for spring and summer are some in colored linen with horizontally striped wedges. To complete that hot-weather touch, they sport open toes and side lacings.

Tea To Honor Bride-To-Be

12 Guests To Share Courtesy for G. Keller This Afternoon at 3

Honoring Georgene Keller, who will wed Howard Grothe May 4, Mary Louise Tennyson, Joyce Anderson and Bobbie Bouchard will entertain at a tea in Reich's pine room at 3 o'clock this afternoon. Twelve guests will share the courtesy. An out-of-town visitor will be Mrs. Thomas Kennefick of Eagle Grove, a sister of the bride-elect.

The honoree will be presented with a miscellaneous shower of gifts.

Elks Ladies Club To Have Party Monday

A luncheon-bridge party will be given by the Elks ladies club at 1 p.m. tomorrow in the club-rooms. Mrs. Joseph Gartner is chairman of the committee in charge.

Reservations should be made before tomorrow noon by calling Mrs. Harold Vestermark, 3662, or Mrs. H. J. Hilbert, 6516.

HANS KOELBEL

Prof. Hans Koelbel To Give Violin-Cello Recital Wednesday

Program Scheduled For 8:15 at Union; Free Tickets Available

The violincello recital to be given by Prof. Hans Koelbel of the music department Wednesday at 8:15 p. m. in Iowa Union will demonstrate the capacities of one of the most versatile of all solo instruments.

The composition dates of the numbers Professor Koelbel has selected for his program range from the early 18th century to last year. Differing also in style, the works to be played by Professor Koelbel are:

- Sonata in G minor, op. 5, no. 2 Beethoven
- Adagio—Allegro Rondo: Allegro Gluck
- Melody Bolero (first performance) Sarabande and Borrees I and II

Bach
Lindner
Concerto in B flat major...Boccherini

Allegro
Adagio non troppo
Rondo: Allegro

Klara H. Robbins, wife of the late Professor Robbins of the college of education, composed the "Bolero" last year. It was awarded first prize in the string contest of the Iowa Composer's contest, sponsored by the Iowa Federation of Music Clubs, last year.

Professor Koelbel has appeared frequently in recitals, sponsored by the music department; this year, including solo performance with the university symphony orchestra. He will be accompanied Wednesday night by Prof. Philip G. Clapp, head of the music department.

Observatory Graduate
Born in Germany, Professor

Mrs. Minerva Knight, A. A. U. W. Head, Names Four Delegates to Des Moines May Convention

Four official delegates were appointed to attend the state convention of the American Association of University Women in Des Moines, May 3 and 4, by Mrs. Minerva Knight at the local luncheon meeting yesterday noon in Iowa Union.

Delegates will be Mrs. William J. Petersen, Prof. Nellie S. Aurner, Mary Love and Prof. Luella Wright. Mrs. Knight will also be a delegate in her official position as president of the local A. A. U. W. E. Hyl Martin of the state A. A. U. W. board, will also attend the convention.

Dr. Genevieve Stearns, associate professor in pediatrics, spoke on the "Place of Women in Science" at the meeting yesterday. Dr. Stearns advised senior guests at the luncheon, "Don't go into science unless you are good. Mediocre women in science can't get by as men often can."

Interested Women Succeed
But Dr. Stearns also declared that statistics show women who go into science because they are really interested in it are succeeding. Women must have the realization that they have to be as good and even better than men, they have to be able to take criticism and to do their own share of the work that is required and more. Dr. Stearns said.

"Let the men know that you can take it, for your own sake and the benefit of the women who come after you in science," she warned.

The field of nutrition, teaching in women's colleges, library work, research and most important, government work along scientific lines hold definite openings for women, the speaker suggested.

"Have to Scratch"
Dr. Stearns concluded by saying, "Women do have a place in science, but they have to scratch to keep it."

It was also announced at the meeting that the local group has sent $115, which is $1 for every member, to the national office as their contribution to the fellowship fund for this year.

A meeting in New York yesterday of the Fellowships Award committee of the International Federation of University Women evidenced the determination of organized college women to carry forward their educational program in the face of war conditions.

Three Fellowships
Gathering at Barnard college, Columbia university, the committee will award three international fellowships of approximately $1,500 each, the Mary R. Woolley international junior fellowship in arts, the international senior fellowship in science, and a special fellowship to go to a representative of some country which has never yet received one of these awards. These fellowships are open to members of university women's organizations in 34 countries, and are to be used for study in some country other than that of the holder.

Dr. Virginia C. Gildersleeve, dean of Barnard college, past president and one of the founders of the international federation, commented on the continued need for such fellowships:

"Light of Learning"
"I think it is of great importance that we should keep the light of learning and international understanding alight through these dark days, so that it may shine out again brightly when the time for reconstructing the world comes."

Once each six years the full committee to award these grants meets in this country, and 1940 was the scheduled year. But due to travel difficulties, the three European members, from Amsterdam, London and Paris, were unable to come. Another evidence of war conditions was the conspicuous absence of candidates from Austria, Czechoslovakia, Poland, Finland, and also from Germany and Italy, where associations of university women have been forced to withdraw from international cooperation.

Each national association belonging to the International Federation of University Women has a right to present a list of not more than three selected applicants for the fellowships being awarded today, and those competing this year are Great Britain, Norway, Holland, Palestine, Belgium, Hungary, Ireland and the United States.

Faith in Future
While it was impossible for many of the European associations and federations to send either representatives or applications recent communications from abroad to the American Association of University Women show a faith in the future for international cooperation to forward education for women.

Most important of these messages were those from three of the officers of the international federation, Karin Kock of Sweden, first vice-president; Germaine Hannevert of Belgium, second vice-president, and J. M. Bowie of Great Britain, treasurer, who recently held a meeting in Brussels, the first since the beginning of the war. In the absence of word from the president of the federation, Dr. Stanislaw Adamowicz of Poland, these officers have carried on at-fares of the organization. They wrote:

"The essential thing for us, as university women, is to keep alive the spiritual values, to keep intact the human inheritance of thought, of free conscience, which will escape destruction."

Aid in Distress
"Let us give our first thoughts to aid colleagues in distress, and to safeguard the encouragement to scientific work through our international fellowships."

Excerpts from other messages follow:
From Finland: "We thank our Federation friends everywhere for their understanding and assure them that we will work on in faith and patience in the face of any ordeal the future may hold in store." Even in the matter of dues, Finland's group was on record as wishing to pay as soon as possible.

From Esthonia
From Esthonia: "We are so glad to know that the Federation will work on courageously even in present-day difficulties, and we express our warmest thanks for all the effort to keep the very close link among international university women."

From Belgium came a report of fortnightly consignments of clothing for French evacuees and of frequent gifts of money to fellow university women from the warring countries.

From Great Britain: "International work must be given a new direction, and out of seemingly insurmountable difficulties must arise new ventures."

France: "Victory and peace, when they come, must find us strong, and united to face the work of liberation and the immense social and international reconstruction that will be the task of tomorrow if culture and civilization are to survive."

A machine which exerts 3,000,000 pounds pressure has been devised. What a handy little tool for some Washington lobbyist!

Student Pilots Will Compete For Awards

Nation's 3 Outstanding Fliers To Be Selected On Grades, Competition

Student pilots from 382 out of the 435 colleges taking part in the Civil Aeronautics Authority's civilian pilot training program will participate in the national competition for the $15,000 Shell aviation scholarships and awards, it has been announced by Major Lester D. Gardner, executive vice-president of the Institute of Aeronautical Sciences.

The nation's three outstanding pilots will be selected by means of an audit of their grades and by a nationwide flight competition on or about July 15. Seven regional elimination contests are to be held, after which the seven winners will compete for the three national scholarship awards at Washington, D. C., at a later date.

The winner of the national competition will receive a scholarship of $1,000 to be used for advancement of his education along aeronautical lines, the executive board said.

The university or college which is judged to have made the best record in training student pilots as a participant in the C. A. A. program will receive the Shell intercollegiate aviation trophy.

Awards will be made on the basis of the student's record in the government flight and ground courses and his ability to execute specified flight maneuvers with maximum precision and safety.

Miller, Olsen Win Contest

Champion Birdhouse Builders To Have Names on Plaque

Don Miller, 530 Washington, and Bill Olsen, 119 S. Linn, won first place awards in the birdhouse contest held yesterday afternoon at the Recreational Center.

Their names will be inscribed on bronze plaques which will be erected in City park.

Dr. E. J. Anthony had charge of judging the entries.

Don Miller also won second place with another birdhouse and Donald Parker, 1129 F street, won third place.

The contest was sponsored by the Recreational Center in conjunction with the garden section of the Iowa City Woman's club.

63 DEGREES Temperature Above Normal Mark

Mercury again climbed to a high of 63 degrees yesterday, one above the normal mark for April 20. Clear skies saw thermometers stay above a low of 37, two below the average minimum.

A year ago yesterday extremes of 39 and 58 were recorded.

Mrs. M. Evans State Officer

Mrs. M. Evans, Johnson county probation officer, was re-elected secretary-treasurer of the state probation association at a conference held the past three days in Des Moines.

Lena Vogt of Linn county was re-elected president, and Paul Covert of Scott county was re-elected vice-president of the organization.

Th theme of the meeting was "Your Problems and Mine" in dealing with problem children.

Searching for a definition of the problem child, members of the conference adopted "any child that annoys an adult" as an acceptable description.

The meeting was held in conjunction with the state welfare association meeting.

Red Cross To Accept Aid For Norway

Mrs. Martha Pederson, executive secretary of the Johnson county chapter of the American Red Cross, said yesterday the county chapter has been instructed by Norman H. Davis, national chairman, to accept voluntary contributions to aid war sufferers in Norway.

The American Red Cross is expecting word from the Norwegian Red Cross as to their requirements. The statement was issued to 3,700 Red Cross chapters in the United States.

In his statement Davis said it is highly possible that the Red Cross will have to charter at least one ship to carry relief supplies to Norway and Finland.

The Red Cross is studying how to get aid to Norway without encountering difficulties with the blockade and other war conditions, Davis said in his communication. Since the ships will be flying under a Red Cross flag they may be permitted to pass with little difficulty, he added.

An effort will be made to communicate with the relatives of Americans by the organization, Davis stated. Relief ships may be sent to Greenland in case normal communications as a result of the war are disrupted, he concluded.

Mrs. F. Lacina Rite Tomorrow At St. Patrick's

Funeral service for Mrs. Frank Lacina, 57, of Scott township, who died Friday night in a local hospital after a brief illness, will be held at 9 a.m. tomorrow at St. Patrick's church. She will be buried in St. Joseph's cemetery.

Survivors include her husband; two daughters, Mrs. Alfred Kline and Mrs. Frank Carson and a son, George Lacina, all of Iowa City.

The body will be taken from the Hohenschuh mortuary to the home today.

7 Student Church Groups Plan Sessions This Evening

Hillel Club Will Be Guests at Meeting Of Wesley Foundation

Seven student church groups will meet for business, social and devotional sessions this evening in the various student centers and church parlors.

'Christian . . .'
"Citizenship at Work" will be considered at the vespers service of the young people of the Congregational church at 7 o'clock tonight. The speaker will be Milo Himes, A2 of Normal, Ill.

The subject of the discussion will be the summer work service camps sponsored by the Quaker society over the United States to offer practical experience in solving regional problems. The camps are open to young people.

Supper will be served at 6 o'clock, and there will be a youth hour for recreation at 5 o'clock.

Prof. and Mrs. . . .
William Morgan will hold the second in a series of open forums at a meeting of the Christian students in the Kappa Beta sorority house at 6:30 tonight. The subject is "Boy-Girl Relationships," and Professor and Mrs. Morgan will answer questions raised at the last meeting.

Several students from the Christian church group will attend a mass meeting for students in Ames at 3:30 this afternoon. The meeting is a celebration of the first movement of the group to be accomplished, the liquidation of the Ames church debt.

Prof. A. D. Mattson . . .
Instructor in Christian Ethics at Augustana college in Rock Island, Ill., will be the guest speaker at the "Program for Peace" special series of the Lutheran Student Association at the English Lutheran church tonight at 7 o'clock.

He will discuss "The Church and the Social Outlook." The service is part of the national observance of a two-day dedication and prayer for peace, observed yesterday and today by Christian students over the United States and in China and Japan. The observance is in the form of a service of fasting and prayer.

The Lutheran student associations sponsored a luncheon last night as a reminder of the privation suffered by students in warring lands. The service tonight will welcome all students and Lutheran students especially are invited to attend.

Guests . . . of the Wesley Foundation of the Methodist church will be members of Hillel club at the 7 o'clock vespers in the Methodist church tonight. Two members of each organization will form a student panel to discuss "America's Attitude Toward the War."

From Hillel club will be Carl Ettinger Jr., C4 of Cedar Rapids, and William Rivkin, A3 of Davenport. C. Edward Wilson, A3 of Ottumwa, and Paul Morgan, M1 of Iowa City, will represent the Wesley Foundation.

A dine-a-mite supper will be served at 6 o'clock in the church. The second in a series of discussions of "Men-Women Relationships" will begin at 8 o'clock. Mrs. J. J. Runner will be in charge.

Residents . . . of Scattergood hostel in West Branch will be in charge of the meeting of the Westminster Fellowship of the Presbyterian church at 6:30 tonight. Mildred Holmes will be chairman of the group.

The program will include a talk by Albert Beam, and piano selections by Rudolph Schreck. Supper will be served at 5:30.

An Informal . . .
banquet-style meeting will be held by the Student Fellowship of the Evangelical and Reformed church at 5:30 tonight in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Kern, 415 S. Summit. In charge of the program will be Anna J. Kaufmann, A4 of East Grand Forks, Minn.

On the musical part of the program will be violin selections by Miriam Boysen, G of Melbourne; a duet by Ina Stanley, G of Indianapolis, Ind., and Don Emery, G of Pawtucket, R. I., and a solo by Irwin Lage, P3 of Gladbrook. Virginia Wickenkamp, A3 of Sigourney, Carl H. Schutte, A2 of Mendon, Ill., and Mrs. Kern are the stewards' committee.

A Selected . . .
group from the deputation teams of the Roger Williams club of the Baptist church will be in charge of the church service at 10:45 this morning. Members are Bill Langston, A3 of Little Rock, Ark., chairman; Reuben Peterson, G of Trent, S. D.; Anne Prentiss, A2 of Mt. Airy; and Wayland Fullington, G of Marshall, Tex. Their subject will be "Radiant Living."

Betty Jane Morgan, A1 of Ottumwa, Ill., will be the leader at the evening meeting of the club at 6:30 tonight. She will lead a discussion on "Values." Others who will participate are Don White, A3 of Ida Grove; Alice Swain, A1 of Lake Ronkonkoma, N. Y., and Bill Bruner, A3 of Webster City.

The Rev. Elmer E. Dierks will speak on "The Story Peter Told," at the 9:45 meeting this morning of the Roger Williams class.

Four-Day Chamber of Commerce Campaign Starts at 'Early Bird' Breakfast Tomorrow

Starting an intensive four-day campaign to raise $11,120 for the budget of the Iowa City chamber of commerce, the entire organization is expected to attend the "Early Bird" breakfast at the Jefferson at 8 a. m. tomorrow, W. T. Hageboeck, general chairman, announced last night.

First reports from all divisions will be heard at an 8 o'clock breakfast Tuesday morning, while the campaigners will gather at the same hour Wednesday for the second report. Final reports will be heard at the closing dinner next Thursday at 6:30 p. m.

Already in Field
Several divisions have already been in the field for several days. Two of these, the executive special group, headed by L. D. Wareham, and the university division with Prof. E. W. Hills as chairman, are expected to make final reports on their progress at committee meetings immediately after tomorrow morning's breakfast.

The national firms division, with Jack Beigle as chairman, will continue its work through Thursday night but Mr. Beigle expressed the opinion last night that this division will have its division goal raised in full before the final dinner report is made.

Hageboeck Presides
Hageboeck will preside at tomorrow morning's breakfast and will award the canary bird to the first worker to appear and an alarm clock to the last one to register. There will be door prizes each morning, it was announced.

announced, and also a prize to the highest individual worker in the general sales division which has Roscoe E. Taylor as "colonel."

The program committee, headed by Leland Nagle, president of the chamber, as chairman, has arranged many novel stunts for each report meeting. The programs will be short, Nagle said. Each report breakfast is scheduled to last less than 60 minutes.

"Over the Top"
"This campaign can be put over the top if each worker takes his seriously and takes time to sell a real investment in the chamber," Taylor said last night. "We are not asking donations nor contributions to the chamber. It is not that kind of an organization. We have selected our prospect list carefully and have listed names of firms and individuals needed to help make this organization what it should be."

Taylor announced his sales organization personnel as follows:

write qualifying examinations for the doctorate during the May examination period please report at the college of education office, room W113, East hall, by April 28.
