State Department Retaliates in New Assertion Vowing to Uphold Monroe Doctrine; Threatens German Diplomats

WALNUT, July 5 (AP)—Confronted with a challenging note from Germany calling the United States "an imperialist nation," the State Department said last night that the Monroe Doctrine was "untestable," the state department today served notice anew that it would uphold the doctrine if need be, virtually threatened to quit any German diplomat in this country.

The latter action was the fact that Harry Eden von Spiegel, the German consul general at New Orleans, was recalled to Berlin yesterday. The notice that Eden was recalled to Berlin is interpreted as an indication that the German consul general in New Orleans was not bringing the expected personal mission to the United States.

The exchange concerning the Monroe Doctrine grew out of an agreement between Germany and the United States making necessary a joint interpretation of the Monroe Doctrine.

In confirmation of this, the foreign office in Washington, according to a statement made to the press here by the State Department, had made a joint interpretation of the Monroe Doctrine in Washington. The joint interpretation was not made.

The State Department on Tuesday said that Germany had expressed a willingness to participate in the interpretation of the Monroe Doctrine, which would make it difficult for Germany to bring the expected personal mission to the United States.

SPORTS TRAIL

Here's the Story
Left on Bases
Never Can Tell

(Briefs by Whitney Martin)

July 5 (AP) — The problem notes had been regre-ted; the team was ready to come in the other night with the Pacific Coast League best—and it was ready.

There were no tears and nothing was missed out of expected laughter, expected applause, expected consumerism. Expect your friends.

Here's the Story

And now it might as well be told—how it was made by the Dodgers, heroes, and the heroes made out of that which happened to be a left-handed pitcher.

Democrats of Eight District Meet for Judicial Convention

Delegates Will Meet To Nominate Man For District Judge

Democrats of the eighth Iowa judicial district and Johnson counties meet this morning at 10 o'clock in the Iowa county court house at Mason City to nominate candidates for the Democratic ticket for district judge. Several more candidates are expected to arrive in Mason City to seek nominations for the first time.

The convention will meet to select a Democratic party ticket for the state judicial district to run in the fall election. Fifteen delegates are expected to arrive from Johnson and Polk counties, but several more are expected to arrive in Mason City to seek nominations for the first time.

Convention proceedings will be under the direction of Judge W. S. Gallaway of Polk county. Gallaway is expected to arrive in Mason City sometime this afternoon.

Mike Anderson will seek the nomination for district judge.

The convention began its task this morning by listening to Paul E. Davis, who is a candidate for president of the National Republican party. He said the nation is faced with two issues: one is the question of the war in the east and the other is the question of the war in the west.

Davis stated that the war in the east was, in his opinion, a war for the preservation of the sanctity of the constitution and the war in the west was a war for the preservation of the American way of life.

The convention then adjourned until tomorrow morning.
