Press Attacks England For Bombing Raids

Goebbels Newspaper Demands Retaliation Against Harassed Foe

BERLIN, Sept. 19 (AP)—The journalistic voice of official Germany threatened England and her civilians today with a whole catalogue of terror and declared that, in a Rome conference, the axis was assembling its full power "for the last round battle against Britain."
The press, in which there appeared hints that the war might go on through the winter, opened up in angry chorus against British bombing attacks in Germany, and the Nazi high command officially accused British pilots of having killed nine children and wounded 12 in raids on plainly marked hospitals in Prussia.
No Consideration
Der Angriff, the organ of Propaganda Minister Paul Joseph Goebbels, demanded retaliation: a thousand-fold; Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung thundered: "The scoring of accounts will be terrible."
"Hereafter," declared the newspaper Nachtausgabe, "not the slightest consideration need be taken" for British civilians.
Authorized German spokesmen said that "tangible acts" would follow the Rome discussions between German Foreign Minister Joachim von Ribbentrop and Premier Mussolini.
These "acts," it was indicated in various quarters, would be against "vulnerable" points in the British empire; the notion generally conveyed was that the war was going to open up in scope as well as in time.
(In Rome, there were indications that pro-axis Spain might be brought into an active partnership; perhaps to the extent of permitting a German-Italian legion to cross her territory against Gibraltar, a British rampart.)
Next Mission
Reichsmarshal Hermann Goering's national Zeitung summed it up this way:
"Whoever contemplates the situation sees clearly before his eyes the next mission of the allies (axis). Reduced to a short formula, it is the unification of all the powers of Italy and Germany for the last round battle against Britain which now is in a decisive stage."

Axis Confers on Joint War Policy

Foreign Quarters State That Japan Has Given Indo-China Until Sunday to Grant Demands

Report French Were Unyielding To New Demands

HONGKONG, Sept. 20 (Friday) (AP)—Official foreign quarters said today they had received information that Japan had given French Indo-China until Sunday to comply with new Japanese demands but that the French were unyielding.
Upon receipt of the 72-hour ultimatum, the French virtually would inform the Japanese to "go ahead," these quarters said.
They expressed the opinion, however, this new development did not necessarily mean the Japanese would resort immediately to military action but that instead they might seek to reach a face-saving agreement at the last minute.
(In Tokyo Emperor Hirohito had an extraordinary, three-hour conference today on "important national affairs" with the chiefs of staff of the army and navy, Premier Prince Konoye and his ministers.)
A Japanese spokesman disclosed that a special train would gather up Japanese civilians and diplomats tomorrow and it was understood they would be carried to Haiphong, thence by ship to the island of Hainan and Canton, Japanese-occupied parts of China.
This announced precaution, possibly in anticipation of fighting, since the central Chinese government itself has threatened to invade Indo-China whenever the Japanese forces enter, perturbed French colonial authorities.

Los Angeles Thunders Welcome To Wendell Willkie's 37-Car Motorcade

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 19 (AP)—Metropolitan Los Angeles thundered a tumultuous welcome today to Wendell L. Willkie as the republican presidential standard bearer's motor caravan crept into the city through crowd-jammed streets from the south.
From the time the 37-car motorcade departed from Santa Ana, where members of the official party left their special train after an overnight stop at San Diego, the line of travel moved through almost one continuous series of crowds at Seal Beach, Long Beach, Compton, Lynwood and Huntington Park.
The route then led to the plants of the North American Aviation company and the Douglas Aircraft company for brief inspection stops, then into the city proper for a short halt at the steps of city hall before the party moved on to its official hotel headquarters.
A meeting of Willkie and labor leaders at Labor temple was scheduled for this afternoon, after which the presidential nominee planned a rest before leaving for the Coliseum, site of his major speech tonight.
The stop at the El Segundo plant of the North American Aviation company consumed approximately an hour. Willkie was greeted by Ronnie Burla, vice-president, and taken on a tour of the controls of a training plane and saw scores of other trainers in the process of construction for the United States and Canada.
At the Douglas plant, he was met by President Donald Douglas, who personally escorted him through the buildings.

British Defeat, Rule of Europe Planned in Rome

ROME, Sept. 19 (AP)—German Foreign Minister Joachim von Ribbentrop came to Rome today on an armored train equipped with anti-aircraft guns and conferred for two hours with Premier Mussolini on joint axis plans to defeat Britain and rule Europe.
Spain's "cooperation" in winning the war, with Gibraltar as her reward, was widely discussed here as a likely subject between the two leaders.
Mussolini's Side
From Mussolini's side the future of Greece and Turkey—last holdouts against axis domination in southeastern Europe—also were believed brought up.
In the war to the finish against Britain, Virginio Gayda, authoritative fascist editor, declared, other European nations, "particularly friendly ones," are involved "not as spectators alone."
This was considered a reference to Spain, and there have been unconfirmed rumors of axis attempts to persuade Spain to at least permit troop passage for a land attack on Britain's stronghold at Gibraltar.
U. S. Involved
Ramon Serrano Sumer, Spanish minister and pro-axis adviser to his brother-in-law, General Franco, is still in Berlin where Ribbentrop had conferred with him prior to the Rome conference.
Italy already has launched in an offensive in Egypt toward the Suez Canal, one key in Britain's hold on the Mediterranean.
United States trends since the trade of 50 American destroyers for British western hemisphere bases also were considered by observers as involved in the talks—which may prove a pivot in the war's next turn.

Ironically contradicting former Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain's wise crack that "Hitler has missed the bus" is this picture showing the smashed remains of a London bus which was wrecked by a German air bomb.

German Attacks On London Lose Intensity In Repeated Bombings

LONDON, Sept. 20 (Friday) (AP)—A barrage of anti-aircraft fire around the city of London last night and early today slowed somewhat the pace of the German night assault on the British capital as the Battle of London neared the critical equinox period.
The Germans again struck at all parts of the metropolis but were unable to match the intensity of the Tuesday night and Wednesday morning attack which saw bombs rained in many sections of the city.
(Apparently the raid still was under way when this dispatch was filed but new censorship regulations prevent the dispatch of the exact time of the beginning and end of the air attacks.)
Autumnal Equinox
(Some quarters have said Adolf Hitler might attempt an invasion of Britain before the approaching equinox, which signals fall storms that would make more difficult the transportation of troops across the channel. The autumnal equinox comes next Sunday night.)
Only intermittent gun and bomb flashes were seen as the morning wore on.
Small groups of raiders circled the metropolis or cut across it in the wake of their earlier fellows who unleashed loads of bombs.
Mammoth German bombs exploding in central London tonight made the streets as bright as Times Square in New York and fell with roaring blasts that shook buildings from top to bottom.
This 13th consecutive nightly raid on London was loosed in heavy clouds and over the low, thick ceiling the drone of Nazi motors could be clearly heard.
Anti-aircraft cannon set up continuous streams of bursting shrapnel.
Second Attack
It was the second attack since dawn, but the previous raid was declared by the air ministry to have been made by only two German planes—one of which was shot down—which bombed east London.
During this daylight action there was an undetermined number of civilian casualties but it was declared that nothing of military importance was hit.
A total of five German planes was destroyed during the day over England, the ministry said.
As the night assault began the streets were empty; the people were no longer interested in watching what now has become a routine horror, returning every evening with the darkness.
An official of the new United States embassy in Grosvenor square, Mayfair, stood on its roof and heard the mighty bursts of the bombs and ground guns.
The raiders, plunging through dirty weather, were flying lower than usual and it appeared they had first arrived by an unaccustomed route over northwestern London.

English Battle Fleet Goes Into Action to Demonstrate Mastery

Plans to Harass Italian Forces Along 350-Mile Coastline

ALEXANDRIA, Egypt, Sept. 19 (AP)—Britain's battle fleet has gone into violent action to demonstrate its mastery of the Mediterranean and to harass Italy's advancing expeditionary force along the 350-mile Egyptian-Libyan coastline.
All along the coast, the British say, the bombardment caused heavy damage to the invading columns.
The fleet's mighty guns burst against Italian land positions night before last after it had made a three weeks' sweep of the Mediterranean and Aegean seas.
"This new sweep of the Mediterranean and this blasting of enemy concentrations ashore is new proof of our mastery of the sea and air," said an officer aboard one of the warships.
"In the entire 2,500 mile trip no Italian warship appeared and though the fleet frequently was shadowed by enemy planes, they made no attempt to bomb us. Destroyers made an attack on two submarines. Huge patches of oil appeared on the surface of the sea after both attacks."
From Sidi Barrani to Salum—in Egypt—the fire of the fleet raked Italian troop concentrations and newly established supply bases.
The shelling came within 48 hours after the Italians had dug in at Sidi Barrani. The British maintained that it took the Italians by surprise and caused widespread damage to the bases they had prepared for an intensification of his drive into Egypt.
The fleet also heavily shelled the Libyan port of Bengasi, 300 miles west of Salum, simultaneously with a British air bombardment.
The British claimed destruction of many hangars and airplanes at Bengasi, enemy transports at Buqbuq in Egypt and the blasting of artillery emplacements at Sidi Barrani as the result of air attacks in the last 72 hours.

Plan Inspection Of Arms Plant Sites in Iowa

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 19 (AP)—Representative Karl LeCompte (R-Ia) today said that a war department officer would inspect sites near Ottumwa next week as to their feasibility for the construction of a large shell-loading plant.
The congressman said he believed the chances "very good" for the establishment of such a plant near the southeastern Iowa city.
LeCompte made the announcement after the latest in a series of conferences with army ordnance officials. He said the site must extend approximately 12,000 acres, must have an ample water supply and must be on two railroad lines.
Empty shells would be shipped in, loaded and sent from the plant to both coasts.
Hoover Tariff Policy Brought Bankruptcy To Farmers - Hull
WASHINGTON, Sept. 19 (AP) Secretary of State Hull said today that the tariff policy of the Hoover administration brought bankruptcy to the farmers, including cattle growers, but that their lot had greatly improved in the last seven years.
This was his reply to Wendell Willkie, who had asserted yesterday that the American navy should buy American beef, instead of beef from the Argentine, and thus help rebuild the nation's economy.
Defending the administration's trade policies, Hull said that in 1932 the income of the dairy industry had fallen to $91,000,000 from $1,844,000,000 in 1929 but that it rose to $1,398,000,000 in 1938 and $1,355,000,000 in 1939.

Willkie Designs Program To Keep U. S. From Totalitarianism

President Gives Speech Tonight At Philadelphia

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19 (AP)—Tussling with language which the White House declined to analyze as either political or non-political, President Roosevelt labored tonight on a speech for delivery in Philadelphia tomorrow.
The chief executive had arranged to leave the capital by special train tonight, inspect some of Philadelphia's defense works tomorrow morning, and speak in the afternoon at exercises commemorating the bicentennial of the University of Pennsylvania.
A possible tip-off that the address might take on major proportions was the presence around the White House of Justice Samuel I. Rosenman of the New York state supreme court. Rosenman has frequently been consulted by the president in advance of important speeches.

Proposes Formation Of Tax Commission To Right Country's Ills

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 19 (AP)—Proposing the formation of a special tax commission, Wendell L. Willkie outlined tonight this four-point program which he said would turn the United States away from "a totalitarian system":
"1. The rules under which business is conducted must be clear and must be stable.
"2. Government policies affecting business should be consistent.
"3. Government competition with business must be kept within well-defined limits. It must not stop the flow of capital into new productive enterprise.
"4. Business must be given a chance to make a profit."
In a speech prepared for delivery in the Memorial coliseum, Willkie contended that the Roosevelt administration had set up a tax structure that is "unscientific, repressive, and loaded with punitive measures."
"If elected," Mr. Willkie said, "I propose the immediate establishment of a special commission to study the whole tax question."

Senate Passes Profit Tax Bill

Measure Designed To Speed National Defense Program

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19 (AP)—The senate passed today the excess profits tax bill, carrying provisions designed to speed up the national defense program, and sent the measure back to the house for action on far-reaching amendments.
The bill was passed by a vote of 46 to 22.
It was expected that a joint committee would be appointed to compromise differences between house and senate versions of the measure.
As it passed the senate the bill would increase corporation income tax rates by 3.1 per cent, a provision not contained in the house bill. The new rate for corporations making more than $25,000 a year would be 24 per cent.
The measure would levy a tax of from 25 to 50 per cent on excess profits.
The senate accepted today a proposal by Senator Connally (D-Tex) to set up war-time income tax schedules ranging up to 80 per cent on top surtax brackets.
The proposal was adopted on a voice vote as an amendment to the pending excess profits tax bill. The senate had approved it on a previous occasion this year but it was rejected by the house.
Operative only when the United States was at war, the amendment would fix the normal income tax on individuals at 10 per cent and tax excess profits of corporations up to 60 per cent.

Maneuvers By Soviet Russia

BUDAPEST, Sept. 19 (AP)—Heavy Soviet Russian military concentrations and maneuvers in the region of Odessa, with Soviet Black Sea naval forces also gathering on a preparedness basis, were reported today in diplomatic dispatches.
These reported developments were believed by some sources here to have been prompted by Russia's uneasiness over the iron guard government in Rumania whose territory has been guaranteed by Germany, and Moscow's fears that the axis powers are planning to carry the war more directly into the near east.
New incidents on the Russian-Rumanian frontier are reported, including the blowing up of a bridge across the river Prut at Reni.

Where 12 Alarm Fire Razed Baltimore Cork Company

The storage plant of the Crown Cork and Seal company in Baltimore is shown as it was being leveled by a fire that required 12 alarms to bring under control. During the height of the blaze 500 volunteers were called from the onlooking crowd when it appeared that surrounding blocks of homes and business establishments were in danger. Authorities estimated that 100,000,000 bales of cork valued "at many hundreds of thousands dollars" were destroyed. The company was not engaged in national defense orders.

Plan to Call More Guardsmen

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19 (AP)—Tentative plans for calling 37,000 more national guardsmen to active duty in November were announced today by Secretary Stimson, while airmail planes rushed master copies of civilian draft registration forms to central points in each state.
The new militia orders would bring the total of guardsmen mustered into active service to 133,000, and would principally affect the 56th cavalry brigade (Texas), the 31st division (Florida, Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana), the 35th division (Nebraska, Kansas and Missouri) and the 36th division (Texas).
The plan calls for mobilizing 1,377 officers and men from the 56th cavalry on Nov. 18, at Ft. Bliss, Tex., and the remainder on Nov. 25, at Camp Blanding, Fla., Camp Robinson, Ark., and Brownwood, Tex. No additional guardsmen are to be called until after Jan. 1.
The conscription forms were forwarded to be printed by the millions locally, and were the first of 64 cards, questionnaires, placards, and booklets, which will be sent out. The total printing bill, it is estimated, will run to $1,500,000.
Army officials computed that they would need 32,000,000 registration cards, 24,000,000 registration certificates and 24,000,000 questionnaires. No explanation was given as to the size of these figures when compared with the 16,500,000 who are to be registered.
At the White House, the day produced the appointment of a committee to cooperate with the national defense commission on all phases of public health. Mr. Roosevelt, acting under the authority of a 1916 law, named a group of five headed by Dr. Irvin Abell of Louisville, Ky., chairman of the board of regents of the American college of surgeons.
Other members are Dr. Lewis H. Weed, chairman of the division of medical sciences of the national research council; Rear Adm. Ross T. McIntire, surgeon general of the navy and White House physician, Maj. Gen. James C. Magee, army surgeon general, and Dr. Thomas Parran, head of the public health service.
McIntire said problems for the committee would be mustering 16,000 physicians to examine men called under the draft act, and seeing that military needs for medical help were filled without upsetting the "civilian side" of medical care.
At the capitol, meanwhile, two committees were busy with problems arising from conscription.

To the Freshmen

Don't Let the Questions, or the Apprehensions, of This New University Life Confuse You

As we look back upon the days, not too many years ago, when our home ties were first broken and we went away to school, there comes to mind what may well be one of the truisms of life: mankind fears change above almost everything else.

The element of the unknown which hovers over one's embarking upon a new experience, in a new place, is a strain upon his physical and mental resources. A lack of familiarity with new problems which must be met, an abundance of new faces, often make a change from the beaten tracks of years a harrowing experience.

Yet, with this fundamental fear of change, we somehow look forward to new things, new faces, new places. They open avenues to new experiences; we crave new experiences.

Keeping Abreast of the Waves

So it is, we know, with many of the hundreds of new students who have come for the first time this year to live with Iowa's university family.

It's awfully important that the avenues which lead from the old to the new don't sidetrack their travelers. It's important that Iowa's freshmen feel confident and at ease as they meet the changes which come with being transplanted into the university community.

Because we traveled those avenues ourselves, those few years ago, may we pause to speak a moment with Iowa's newest students.

You will find, during the next few days and weeks, countless questions about university life for which you are not sure of the answers. You are not alone.

Ask the Temple's Elders

But remember: for every one who now is troubled by questions, three were troubled last year or the year before or the year before that. The three know the answers. Ask those sophomores, juniors and seniors. They'll be glad to help you.

You have acquired, at this point in your life, certain interests, certain likes and dislikes, certain ideals.

As the acquaintances you make here turn into friendships, look diligently for friends whose interests, likes and dislikes, and ideals, are as high or higher, as fine or finer, than your own. These are the friendships that count, and last.

You doubtless have heard, for it has been said, that college men and women go speedily wrong, that a university town and community offer all sorts of vices to lead young people astray.

Piloting a Straight Course

But you needn't be led astray. You're your own boss, you know—the captain of your own ship of state. Think and act for yourself. There are no temptations here that can't be found anywhere in the country by those who seek them.

Remember, too, that you are the University of Iowa. You are playing a part in her destiny. Your student days here will record a chapter in her life. A glorious football team may give her color; you give her depth and height.

Give her the best that you possess. To give her less is to cheat yourself. You can't afford that.

And when you're safely away on the paths of university endeavor, when the questions are gone and you're "set," look about you at the kind of world now in the making. Ask questions about it. Keep your eyes open to its trials and its errors.

It's our world. We've got to make it better.

What Are We After?

Getting the right start on a university career, avoiding getting sidetracked by this transplanted into something altogether new, will ease the strain of the job.

We've got to know, at all times, what we're after. We must answer the questions rightly, cross the gaps confidently, see the issues clearly.

The questions, the gaps and the issues we face upon entering the university today are much the same as the questions, the gaps and the issues of the world we face when we leave.

One of These Majority Leader?

Representative Woodrum

Representative Boland

Representative Cooper

Representative McCormack

The new house majority leader may be one of the above democratic congressmen, who are regarded in Washington as outstanding candidates for the position, succeeding Sam Rayburn of Texas who becomes speaker of the house, succeeding the late William Bankhead of Alabama. The quartet are Representative Jere Cooper, Tennessee; Representative Clifton Woodrum, Virginia; Representative John McCormack, Massachusetts, and Representative Patrick Boland, Pennsylvania.

A Lesson in Rising in Filmdom's Ranks

HOLLYWOOD—Lucille Ball ought to be the White Light of Hope to all the B-submerged pretties around town... A couple of years ago, after working herself no higher than a standstill, Lucille took a step up in the "Annabella" series, looked to be on the high-road at last, but nothing happened. She was indigo but game... Kept on performing her B chores dutifully, kept on trying to bring the attention of directors in her direction for parts she knew she could do if they'd let her try... When she got one, she was extra-good... And then came that picture called "Dance, Girl, Dance," with Lucille playing a burlesque queen against Maureen O'Hara's ballet dancer... She made the boys sit up and cheer, among them Harold Lloyd—who has cast her now as the lead in "Three Girls and a Gob."

ULTIMATUM!

"Dance, Girl, Dance," nice as it is for Lucille, is even a sweeter picture for its director, Dorothy Arzner, who is still the only woman picture-guider in town... Miss Arzner was unfortunate enough, a couple of years ago, to draw a number called "The Bride Wore Red"... The picture almost ruined Joan Crawford, and it was the last Arzner job until "Dance, Girl, Dance" came along to restore her career...

Times are easier, even booming, for the Boy who Doesn't Get Girl... Once upon a time the many stars were skeptical of scripts in which they had no final climch with the Gal. Feared audiences would think they couldn't have won the lady if they'd wanted to. Nowadays the loser is the winner. Bob Preston lives in the movies only when he loses the girl. If he gets her, he gets bumped off—except in "Typhoon"—but he goes along getting his weekly checks.

NEWS BEHIND THE NEWS

By PAUL MALLON

(Distributed by King Features Syndicate, Inc., reproduction in whole or in part strictly prohibited.)

Mussolini's Having African Trouble

WASHINGTON—Most devastating secret weapon used so far in this war is not the thousand pound thermit bomb which Hitler has been using on London, but the five thousand pound bomb which Mussolini has been dropping all over Africa. It is commonly expected here that the Duce intends shortly to decorate the author of the daily Italian high command war communique with the Order of the Sticky Palm.

For, despite what you read and hear from Rome, the limp end of the axis has been conducting this war strictly in the tradition of his conquest of undefended Albania and Ethiopia. Private official dispatches confirm the suspicion that the only thing the Italians have won so far is what the British did not want.

ITALIAN LITERARY CLAIMS

Best literary claims of the entire war to date were given out in Rome when the Italians marched into El Solum, a small desert town on the Libyan-Egyptian border of little military consequence. You would think from the communique they had captured Alexandria, but the fact is El Solum has a very small harbor seldom used in peace-times and not used by the British as a base. Daily since then each paragon of advance along the desert-shore road has been heralded with literary trumpets that make a cub out of Xenophon, first to a town appropriately named "Bugbug" and thereafter similarly to other sand ditches.

Actually the first British base along the road is halfway to Alexandria at a place called Matzoh. The impression prevails here that the British are just letting the Italians string themselves out until the task of supplying advance columns becomes difficult, and then the British fleet may let them have it. Practically the whole stretch of road from El Solum to Alexandria is close enough to the sea to be shelled by British ships, and there is no other avenue of escape as all to the south West" with Constance Bennett) may be thinking about a stage play, but I don't believe the Broadway itch is keeping him up nights. Pat's gratitude to the movies is best expressed by his, "Who ever heard of an actor owning a chunk of a race track?"

NOBODY HURT

The British claim to have sent several cruisers all the way from Gibraltar to Cairo right under Mussolini's nose without seeing a sign of Italian opposition on the surface or in the air. Only once, immediately after the Italian leader decided the allies were beaten badly enough to permit him to venture into the war, did a few vessels of the Italian fleet make the mistake of encountering the British. A smokescreen was laid by someone and someone fled. Indication that it was not the British lies in the fact that since then Mussolini's ships have not been heard or seen outside Italian ports. Mussolini's mare nostrum seems to be mere Britannica, except the British cannot use it much for commerce and the Italians are able to supply their forces in Libya.

DUCE DISGUSTED

Mussolini's preference for the pen rather than the sword confirms the inside hints which have frequently reached high official quarters here that the Duce has a serious problem of popular morale to deal with at home. It substantiates the belief that the Italian people generally have no stomach for this war. In the absence of fighting and victories, but not of taxes and belt-tightening, their enthusiasm can be kept up for a time by daily rhetorical devastation of the desert. But there is a suspicion here that Mussolini is becoming very impatient with Hitler for failing to win the war for him promptly.

MYRON C. TAYLOR

Not a single word has been allowed to slip out edgewise concerning Myron Taylor's report on peace and war from his vatic listening post. The report was presented to the president at Hyde Park three weeks ago, yet no inkling has developed even as to whether Taylor is to return to his peace mission.

A thorough indication that he will not be the sub-official talk among new deal diplomats that Taylor's health is poor and he does not desire to resume the strain of active service.

But far more conclusive evidence is the complete absence of any interest in peace now among this government's diplomatic directors. There is good reason to believe Taylor reported the vatican working energetically to establish a political basis of peace which would restore the autonomy of conquered nations (presumably France, Belgium, Holland and perhaps Poland). The new dealers would look on such a peace as a German victory even if it guaranteed cessation of the attack on England. Clearly this government is not now interested in that and there is no reason to expect Mr. Taylor's health will be permitted to improve officially.

Pledge Prom Tonight Will Climax Another Sorority Rush Week at S. U. I.

Jack McLean To Play For Annual Affair

270 Rushees Register For Formal Rushing; Choose Sororities

At 5 o'clock this afternoon invitations to pledge will be extended to sorority rushees.

At 9 o'clock tonight the Pledge Prom, held in the main lounge of Iowa Union, will climax another sorority rush week.

Women from the 270 rushees registered for formal rushing this year named the sororities of their preference parties given by each chapter. All rushees who named their preference will call at the Pan-hellenic office this afternoon for their invitations to pledge.

Immediately afterwards the rushees will be taken to the 13 chapter houses and pledging services will take place.

The Daily Iowan will announce the names of sorority pledges tomorrow afternoon.

Pledge Prom

Satin drapes and colored lights will decorate the main lounge of Iowa Union for the Pledge Prom, which will continue until 1 a. m. Long dresses will be worn by the rushees, but their escorts will dress informally.

Hosts at the party will include Robert McClure, C4 of Des Moines; Walt Berns, C4 of Elmwood Park, Ill.; Jim Bromwell, A3 of Cedar Rapids; Rex Oleson, A3 of Cedar Falls; Jack Hagens, J4 of Missoula, Mont.; Jim Kent, A3 of Iowa City; John Cochill, A4 of Livermore; Robert McGregor, A4 of Cedar Rapids, and Dick Witt, A4 of Shell Rock.

Down Melody Lane with Jack McLean is the theme of the orchestra supplying music for dancing, as Jack McLean and his musicians come to Iowa City from the Aragon and Trianon ballrooms in Chicago.

Three hundred tickets will be issued for the party and each fraternity house will be given a limited number of stag cards. This is the only party giving such stag tickets.

Active members of sororities may purchase tickets for the dance after tickets for the new pledges and their escorts have been distributed.

Chaperons for the Pledge Prom will be Col. and Mrs. H. H. Slaughter, Prof. and Mrs. Fred Pownall, Prof. and Mrs. Rufus Putney and Mr. and Mrs. Charles I. Okerblom.

According to the regulations set

Waiting for Rushees . . .

before the preferred party last night in the Pi Beta Phi sorority house, 815 E. Washington, are pictured Allayne Konechy, A2 of Cedar Rapids, and Julia Weaver, J3 of Shenandoah, members of Pi Beta Phi sorority. Each sorority on the University of Iowa campus gave a formal dinner in its chapter house yesterday as the final party in the series making up formal sorority rush week. Invited to the parties were the rushees in whom the sororities were especially interested. After the dinner, at 9 p. m., rushees went to Iowa Union to make out and file preference cards, naming the three sororities of their choice in order of their preference.

Freshmen To Be Honored at Weekend Social Events

Dances Given On Saturday

'Get Acquainted' Party For Women Given Tonight at Currier

Dancing, a treasure hunt, and games are a few of the entertainments that will be offered to freshmen at social events that will be given in their honor this week end.

An open invitation is extended to all freshmen women to go on a treasure hunt at the "Get Acquainted" party in the south reception room of Currier Hall from 8 to 9:30 tonight.

About 150 women are expected to attend the party. In charge of the event will be Germaine Potter, A2 of Davenport.

Acting as hostesses for the freshmen women will be several upper classmen. They will include Helen Berlau, A4 of Newton, president of Currier Hall; Jane Nugent, U of Oak Park, Ill.; Ruth Sully, A3 of Des Moines; Felice Swan, A4 of Ida Grove; Virginia Ivie, A3 of Shenandoah; Bette Embick, A4 of Hytchinson; Kan.; Mary Louise Winslow, A3 of Des Moines; Mary Louise Nelson, A2 of Laurens; and Barbara Murchison, A3 of Sidney.

The doors of Iowa Union will be flung open to freshmen students at an open house from 8 to 12 p. m. tomorrow. Admittance for men and women will be by tickets received in their freshman booklets.

The Silver Shadow, the University of Iowa's own night club, will entertain students from 8:30 to 11:30 p. m. with a special preview of its attractions this winter.

Bill Sener, G of Chicago, will be master of ceremonies and Don Dodge and his Avalon orchestra will supply music for dancing. Three floor shows will be presented during the evening.

Performers who will appear in the floor shows will include Jean Hedlund, A3 of Cedar Falls, baton twirler, and Virginia DeButts, A3 of Melbourne, who will sing. Another feature of the evening will be tap dancing by Ted Cole, A2 of Thurman.

Another dance for freshmen students will be given in the river room. Music will be by Len Carroll and his orchestra.

Entertainments offered in the women's lounge will include bridge, chess and checkers. The Iowa Union library will be opened and a book display will be arranged.

A program of recorded music from the Carnegie music library may be heard in the music room of Iowa Union during the open house. In the main lounge, women's lounge and library, the rental library of reproductions will be hung.

Also open to freshmen tomorrow

Will Wed Tomorrow

Mrs. C. P. Luick of Belmond announces the approaching marriage of her daughter, Jean Stebleton, to Evan Parry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Parry of Cedar Rapids. The wedding will take place at 4 p. m. tomorrow in Coast house, women's cooperative dormitory, 530 N. Clinton. Officiating will be the Rev. Hlon T.

Jones of the First Presbyterian church here. Mr. and Mrs. William Chapman will attend the couple. Miss Stebleton was graduated from Belmond high school and will be a junior in the university here. Mr. Parry is a graduate of Williamsburg high school and will also be a junior in the university.

Among Iowa City People

Visiting Mrs. H. E. Feay, 422 Bowery, today, are Mrs. H. Saenfield and son, John, of South Bend, Ind. The visitors are on their way to Los Angeles.

B. Fitzpatrick of Greeley, Col., who is associated with the First National bank here, is visiting in the home of his mother, Mrs. Mary Bothell, 308 S. Dubuque.

Anne Marie Sheely of Marshalltown visited friends here yesterday. She was graduated from the university here June 3.

A wedding license was issued yesterday to Evan J. Parry, 21, of Cedar Rapids, and Norma Jean Stebleton, 19, of Belmond, by R. Neilson Miller, clerk of court.

Bill Hunter, route 5, was an Ames visitor Wednesday.

Dr. and Mrs. D. F. Fitzpatrick returned Wednesday from Chicago. Dr. Fitzpatrick attended a meeting of the American Society of Industrial Surgeons there this week.

William I. Lewis, legal, of Whittier, Cal., and Mrs. Iva C. Hardesty, legal, of Cedar Rapids, were granted a wedding license yesterday by R. Neilson Miller, clerk of court.

To Explain S. U. I. Life

1,500 Frosh to Report For All-Freshman Assembly Today

Today's the day—when nearly 1,500 freshmen will begin the most important episode of their lives—today the new college students will become acquainted with the first phase of the life at the University of Iowa.

All freshmen this morning at 9:30 a. m. will report to the all-freshmen assembly in the auditorium of Macbride hall. Attendance is required of all students in the college of engineering, liberal arts and pharmacy.

The usual condition of freshman "bewilderment" will be erased after the new students participate in the program of 21 events designed to acquaint them with all angles of their new career.

Qualifying and placement examinations will begin this afternoon at 1:30 in the field house. (Required of all students in the colleges of engineering, liberal arts and pharmacy.)

Following the examinations, the new students will rally for their informal "get acquainted" tonight. The place and time of the "get acquainted" activities will be announced at this morning's freshmen assembly.

Women Golfers Play This Morning At Country Club

Members of the Iowa City Women Golfers' association will begin play at 9 o'clock this morning at the local country club.

A luncheon will be served at noon in the clubhouse.

Former Student Sells Writing To Warners

Hartzell Spence, who graduated from the University of Iowa in 1930 and is now a member of the New York United Press staff, has sold a book to Warner Brothers studio.

The much-sought biography, "One Foot in Heaven—The Life of a Practical Parson," based on the author's father, will not be published until early next month. However, since the galley proofs were first seen, it has been the object of spirited bidding among motion picture producers.

Any Iowa City woman who wishes to affiliate with the Iowa City Woman's club may call Mrs. L. C. Jones, 5522, membership chairman, or Mrs. E. T. Hubbard, 5848, club president, for information, it was announced yesterday. Application blanks will be mailed on request after they have been endorsed by two members of the club.

Resident guests may attend one departmental meeting and one general meeting, according to the announcement. After one meeting each, guests will be asked to pay a small fee.

Members attending the first fall meeting of the general Woman's club at 2 o'clock this afternoon in the clubrooms are to bring their membership cards and present them at the door.

An executive meeting will be held at 1 o'clock, preceding the general meeting. Applications for memberships will be voted on. An invitation to attend the general meeting today is extended to new Iowa City residents.

by the university Women's Pan-hellenic association, further rushing activities will not be resumed by sororities until Sept. 27.

Detroit Beats A's Twice To Tie Cleveland

Bengals Meet Indians Today; Start Series

Greenberg, York Support Surprise Pitching With Hitting

By DALE STAFFORD
 DETROIT, Sept. 19 (AP)—The fence-wrecking Detroit Tigers pounded the Philadelphia Athletics into humble submission, 13 to 2 and 10 to 1, in a double header today, thereby climbing into a first place tie with the Cleveland Indians.

The Bengals and the Indians open a "promoter's dream" three game series here tomorrow with the American league pennant probably hinging on the outcome.

The Tigers got brilliant pitching from two unexpected quarters and tremendous slugging by their home run twins—Hank Greenberg and Rudy York—in their one-sided victories.

Greenberg and York both homered in the first game and each slugger drove in five runs. York hit for the circuit in the nightcap and batted in three runs while Greenberg was sending one runner over the plate with a double. Greenberg scored a total of seven runs, four in the opener and three in the nightcap.

The surprise pitching came from Floyd Giebell, a lanky blond up from Buffalo where he won 15 games and lost 16, and Paul Trout, the No. 1 disappointment of the Tiger pitching corps this season. Giebell scattered eight hits in the opener as he won his first American league start of the year.

The Tigers combed Lovell (Chubby) Dean for 14 hits and 28 bases in the first game which was decided in the third when Greenberg hit his 37th homer of the year and his 13th in 16 games with one on base. Previously, the Tigers had scored twice in the first inning on a Philadelphia error, a walk and York's 400-foot double off the screen in center field.

York's 31st homer sparked a three-run assault in the fifth and Greenberg's three-bagger with the bases full highlighted a four tally outburst in the sixth.

The Tigers backed Trout's fine pitching with a 13-hit-23 base attack in the nightcap. York got Detroit enough runs to win in the second inning when he hit for the circuit after Greenberg had walked.

Three hits off Nelson Potter netted two more tallies in the third inning and from this point on the Tigers kept on rolling, bagging one run in the fifth, three in the sixth and two more in the seventh when Pete Fox hit a homer.

Blast White Sox Hopes With 10-1 Win Behind Red Ruffing

CHICAGO, Sept. 19 (AP)—The New York Yankees, still refusing to be counted out of the American league pennant race, overwhelmed the Chicago White Sox 10 to 1 today to take a firmer grip on third place and keep within four games of the lead.

Red Ruffing, the veteran who has been unsteady recently, had one of his better days, scattering seven safeties and getting scored on only when Joe Kuhel hit his 25th home run in the sixth inning. It was Ruffing's 14th win.

The Yanks kept up a 14-hit barrage throughout the game and never were in jeopardy after scoring three runs in the first inning on Joe Gordon's double, Charley Keller's single scoring Gordon, and George Selkirk's 16th home run.

Gordon and Rolfe hit successive doubles at the start of the third for two runs, Rolfe coming around on a fly and an infield out.

Jack Knott turned Chicago's pitching chores over to Bill Dietrich in the fourth and Yanks got to him for two more runs in the fifth on Keller's single with two on and finished with three runs in the eighth on a walk, three hits and an error.

Derringer Wins Over Phillies For Number 20

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 19 (AP)—Big Paul Derringer chalked up his 20th victory of the season today as the champion Cincinnati Reds turned back the Phillies for the third straight day, 4 to 1.

Derringer held the Phils to seven hits and was seldom in trouble. Ben Warren's homer in the ninth saved the tailenders from a shut-out.

Rookie Joe Podgajny of the Phils pitched on even terms with his famous mound opponent, but three errors by Bobby Bragan, Harry Marnie and Joe Marty in the second and third innings gave the Reds three unearned runs.

In the ninth Podgajny's wild pitch followed by Dick West's single accounted for the Reds' last tally.

Cardinals Beat Bucs, 2-1, 8-2

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 19 (AP)—The hopes of Frankie Frisch and the Pittsburgh Pirates to oust St. Louis from third place faded quickly today as the rampaging Cards set back the Bucs twice 2 to 1 and 8 to 2 and boosted their margin over the fourth place Pirates to four and one-half games.

William Henry McGee set Pittsburgh down with five hits in the first game, two of them by trusty Arky Vaughan, while the Cards were handing Rip Sewell, Pirate ace, his fourth defeat against 15 victories. Singles by Terry Moore and Enos Slaughter behind a pass to Jimmy Brown in the first inning provided the two runs.

St. Louis clinched the second contest in the seventh with five consecutive singles off rookie Ken Heintzelman and Bob Klingler.

U-High Meets Richland Team

An inexperienced U-High eleven will try for its initial victory of the 1940 season in an afternoon game at Richland today. Bob Bender, star tackle, is the only returning regular from the fine Blue team of last year, therefore Coach Brecher is pinning his hopes on Bender's ability to hold the green team together.

George Lehman, will be paired with Art Huesinkveld at the end positions. Bender and Glen Stimmel, the only other experienced man from last season, will hold down the tackle posts. Two inexperienced boys, Marcus Young and Bud Halverson, will be at the guards. Bill Frey, Jr., son of the former University of Iowa trainer, will start his first game as pivot man. Lee Sigling at quarterback, Ranshaw, a newcomer to U-High, and Jack Evans at the halves, and Bus Smith, fullback, round out the starting lineup.

Browns Drop Bosox

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 19 (AP)— With Manager Joe Cronin on the bench with a spiked hand and a makeshift lineup playing, the Boston Red Sox lost their season finale with the Browns today, 2 to 1.

Dropping the two-game series to the Browns ended Boston's mathematical chances to win the American league pennant.

Elden Auker, while allowing nine hits, choked all the Sox scoring threats, except in the fifth when doubles by Ulysses Lupien and Johnny Peacock produced Boston's lone run.

Tribe Scrambles to 3-1 Win Over Washington

Indians Drop Back Into Tie

Al Smith Outpitches Leonard to Let Tribe Sweep Series

By RAY BLOSSER
 CLEVELAND, Sept. 19 (AP)—The hit-hungry Cleveland Indians drove to a 3 to 1 triumph over the hapless Washington Senators today to carry a first-place tie with the Tigers into their all-important pennant series opening tomorrow in Detroit.

Lefty Al Smith, exponent of the screwball pitch, outdid Emil (Dutch) Leonard, right-handed knuckle ball artist, to give the Indians a grand slam, doubled and vulnerable, in the three-game stand with the Senators.

Although the Nats garnered eight hits off Smith, who wrote his 15th victory into the records, the only one that counted was an eighth inning homer into the lower left field stands by Johnny Welsaj, who batted for Leonard with Washington three runs behind.

Cleveland had only six bingles, but they came when they counted and Leonard himself helped the Indians' cause. Ben Chapman led off the second stanza with a single to center. Roy Weatherly popped out and with Lou Boudreau up, Leonard tried to pick Chappie off first base. He threw so poorly that the ball went by Jack Sanford at first base. Ben made the most of that opportunity, going all the way to third and tallying on Boudreau's fly to George Case in center field.

The Senators then threatened several times, but three Cleveland double plays erased all threats of an honest-to-goodness uprising against Smith, ex-National leaguer who came to Cleveland after a record of 16-2 at Buffalo last year.

Buddy Lewis and Gerald Walker led off with singles in the fourth, but Cecil Travis popped to Catcher Rollie Hemsley and Jimmy Bloodworth obliged by grounding into a double play, Boudreau to Mack to Trosky.

The Indians' ace twin-killing combination also ended a Washington threat in the seventh after Travis and Bloodworth started with singles. Sanford popped to Ray Mack at second and Jimmy Pofahl grounded into his second double play of the afternoon. His preceding time at bat, in the fifth inning, Sanford had opened with a single but Pofahl's grounder erased both.

Oscar Vitt's boys, who make few honest hits but make the most of them, clinched the game in the sixth inning with a two-run stamper after two men were out.

Little Hawks Meet Wilson Here Tonight
 City high, still with the pleasant flavor of the 38-0 victory over Lone Tree fresh in its mouth, tonight plays host to a strong Wilson high eleven from Cedar Rapids. Hostilities will begin at Shraider field at 8 o'clock.

The Little Hawks spent the week learning new plays and signals, with contact work taking a back seat. In last night's drill Coaches Herb Cornack and Francis Merten ran their gridders through kick-off plays and pass defense work in addition to signals. While they are busily working on a yard gaining pass offense, the Iowa City mentors are well aware that a good pass defense is equally as important as a successful pass tossing combination.

Tomorrow night's game marks the Red and Whites' first venture in the 1940 Mississippi Valley conference race. Although Wilson is as yet untried by a scheduled opponent, Coach Bill Barnard's Ramblers took a shot at Anamosa last Saturday in an unscheduled encounter. Nevertheless, Wilson is expected to have plenty on the ball and willing to show it at the crack of the gun tonight.

Cornack plans to start the same eleven he started against Lone Tree last week. At ends will be Davis and Crossett; tackles, Brothers and P. Miller; guards, Montgomery and Bothell; center, Crumley. In the backfield will be Pettig, B. Miller, Schuppert and Towell.

Permanent Injunctions Issued Against Five Tavern Owners By Judge James P. Gaffney

Defendants Accused Of Liquor Law Violations By County Attorney

Permanent injunctions were issued in Johnson county district court yesterday by Judge James P. Gaffney against five tavern owners accused of liquor law violations. The attorney for the defendants in the cases appeared in district court and conceded the injunctions.

The case of Lee Schneider of Cosgrove, the sixth tavern owner charged with law violations according to information filed Aug. 31 by County Attorney Harold W. Vestermark, was taken under advisement following the presentation of evidence. The county attorney also seeks a permanent injunction against him.

When County Attorney Vestermark filed the informations on Aug. 31, he asked temporary and permanent injunctions against all tavern operators and against the owners of property surrounding four of the taverns.

Injunctions Issued

Injunctions were issued yesterday against Don Alberhasky, proprietor of the Green Gables, restraining him from selling beer and intoxicating liquors by the drink; George Alberhasky, proprietor of the Sunset club, restraining him from selling liquor by the drink; Ernest J. and Edna I. Smith, operators of a filling station and tavern four miles east of Iowa City, restraining them from selling beer without a permit and liquor by the drink; Victor and Marge Oliva, proprietors of the Rivera tavern, restraining them from the same two acts, and Arthur C. and Nellie B. Stimmel, operators of the Village tavern, restraining them from the same acts.

No witnesses were presented in court yesterday morning. On Sept. 4, Judge Gaffney issued temporary injunctions against three of the tavern operators.

Atty. E. A. Baldwin represented all defendants except Don Alberhasky who was represented by Hamilton and Cahill.

Seventh Case Of Paralysis Reported Here

Johnson county's list of infantile paralysis victims rose yesterday to seven with the discovery of another case of the disease in Iowa City.

Latest reported victim is Joy Secor, 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey O. Secor, 228 E. Prentiss street. Dr. Isom A. Rankin, city physician, reported the case as only light and said that the patient is in good condition.

Yesterday's was the second case to be discovered in Iowa City. Two victims have been found in Coralville and the schools there have been closed temporarily. Schools have also been closed in Cosgrove and Hills following discovery of the disease there.

RUPTURE

SHIELD EXPERT HERE

H. M. SHEVYAN, widely known expert of Chicago, will personally be at the Montrose Hotel, Cedar Rapids, Sunday and Monday, only September 22 and 23, from 9 A.M. to 6 P.M.

Mr. Shevyan says: The Zoetic Shield is a tremendous improvement over all former methods, effecting immediate results. It will not only hold the rupture perfectly but increase the circulation, strengthens the weakened parts, thereby closes the opening in ten days on the average case, regardless of heavy lifting, straining or any position the body may assume no matter the size or location. A nationally known scientific method. No under straps or cumbersome arrangements and absolutely no medicines or medical treatments.

Mr. Shevyan will be glad to demonstrate without charge.

Living Presidents University of Iowa Has Four Connected With Institution Here

Unique among educational institutions is the situation existing at the University of Iowa.

Living today, is a president-emeritus, ex-president, acting president and president-elect of the university's executive staff.

President Emeritus Walter A. Jessup is now president of the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching in New York.

Former President Eugene A. Gilmore is at present on the law faculty at the University of Pittsburgh. He will return to the University of Iowa next year to become a member of the local law staff.

Acting President Chester A. Phillips will resume his duties as dean and professor of the local college of commerce when the president-elect takes office.

Recently chosen president-elect is Virgil M. Hancher of Chicago, who found success in the legal profession following his graduation with two degrees from the University of Iowa a few years ago.

May Register For Conference

New Students Can Complete Registration For Religious Activities

Freshmen may still register for the school of religion's conference being held tomorrow and Sunday in connection with the freshmen week program.

Registration may be completed for the conference in the office of the religious activities board, Iowa Union. Fees of $2, which includes lunch Saturday noon and supper tomorrow night at City park, as well as dinner Sunday noon, are paid at time of registering.

The conference which closes with a university vespers service Sunday afternoon, includes in addition a program of events tomorrow afternoon and Sunday morning.

Upperclass men and women, prominent in different phases of student life, faculty members and religious leaders will take part.

Listed on the program are Prof. S. H. Bush, Dean George D. Stoddard of the graduate college and such student leaders as Loren Hickerson, editor of The Daily Iowan and William Sener, WSUI announcer and staff member.

The conference will consider such questions as: What should college mean for religion? How can I be sure of my choice of vocation? How should I choose my friends?

County Agricultural Planning Committee To Elect Officers

There will be a meeting next Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in the farm bureau office of the Johnson county agricultural planning committee to elect officers for the coming year, County Agent Emmett C. Gardner said yesterday.

In addition to the election of officers, the county agent said there will be a discussion of topics regarding the project of the planning committee for the coming year. A report of accomplishments of the planning committees throughout the state will also be given.

Present chairman of the local committee is M. F. Sullivan and Mr. Gardner is secretary. The project for the past year has been "Weed Control."

From 'Barnstorming' to Commercial Flying

Everything from "barnstorming" with aerial circuses to straight commercial flying and flying instruction has been the experience of Paul Shaw, owner and central figure of the Shaw Aircraft company at the Iowa City municipal airport.

"Iowa City in 1928 wasn't exactly air-minded," Shaw said, "but there were a few hardy souls with visions of romantic adventure who were eager to fly."

By 1928, when Shaw came to Iowa City, flying had become staid and prosaic compared with the antics indulged in years before by unregistered and almost untrained pilots, he added. In those earlier years, Shaw, tired of waiting for his instructor to find time for more dual instruction, had soled without permission and without adequate supervision—something no student today is ever permitted to do.

Careless Flying Forbidden

In the early days of '28, flyers were just beginning to be licensed but no real check was made to ascertain their standing. "I had already become convinced that 'stunt' flying was responsible for 80 per cent of the accidents," Shaw said, "and from that time on careless flying of a Shaw ship was absolutely forbidden."

Shaw moved to Iowa City in 1928 and became a member of the staff of a wholesale concern dealing in automobiles, but the call of flying was too strong. Already an experienced pilot, he devoted more and more time to his flying until he was working full schedule in teaching and commercial flying.

"In the spring of 1929 a young man's fancy turned in the same direction as a young lady's," Paul commented, "and soon there was a Mrs. Shaw living in Iowa City."

Mrs. Shaw, in taking over the clerical duties of the air school, tried to keep account of the man who was booked weeks ahead at fairs and celebrations and who, between meals, would take over publicity flying for organizations, athletic events, motion picture houses and various clubs.

Commercial flying for Paul Shaw meant taking every job that needed doing.

"Flying is just beginning to recover from the effects of the depression," is Shaw's opinion. Apparently everything was going well when the 1929 stock market crash came followed by the bank crash; then the 1933 and 1935 depressions took their toll, Shaw explains.

Many who wanted to fly had no money and those who had enough to pay for instructions had no confidence in the future, he added. "Now the C. A. A. student training program has created such a demand for pilots that they are at a premium as instructors," Shaw continued, "and many persons have been reawakened to the value of the air."

Long Hours

The increase in private students added to the C. A. A. program keeps Shaw's many planes in the air from early morning until late at night. Paul, himself, frequently arrives at the airport at 4:30 a. m. and works through until 8:30 p. m.

However, he does not require the same strenuous schedule from his four instructors or from his mechanic who teaches the "ground school." Forty-five students make a full week without the private lessons.

One of the interesting duties of his position has been cross-country trips such as carrying an astronomer from the University of Iowa to observe meteors, carrying military officials up to review troops from the air and carrying a local physician to an emergency operation.

Shaw did not find the pot of gold at the end of the rainbow, but did discover one day while flying that rainbows sometimes form in perfect circles—as viewed from an airplane.

They Need Aid

NEW YORK, (AP)—The Committee to Defend America by Aiding the Allies was informed by cable last night that its London office was bombed last night during a German air raid. The office was on the top floor of a six-story building and officials here said it apparently was completely destroyed.

Clean Stuff?

SANTA FE, N. M., (AP)—J. B. Jones, Albuquerque soap salesman who ran second for lieutenant governor in the democratic primaries, filed a statement of campaign expenses today.

It listed: "Two cases of soap . . . $12."

Open for Business

LONDON, (AP)—Selridge's, the great London department store founded by an American, Gordon Selridge, will reopen for business tomorrow after two days' closing because of minor bomb damage, officials said tonight.

Reconstruction

VICHY, France, (AP)—The French government allocated 25,000,000,000 francs (about $500,000,000) yesterday for reconstruction.

A person, opines old Grandpappy Jenkins, should always listen to both sides of an argument. That's why, says G. J., nature has given us two ears.

Parker Pelzer Accepted Into Naval Reserve

Parker Pelzer, son of Prof. and Mrs. Louis Pelzer, has been accepted to serve as aviation cadet for flight training in the United States naval reserve, it has been announced.

He passed his educational and physical examinations before a navy board Monday in Chicago, Ill., and will begin ground school training at the Glenview airport in Chicago sometime between now and November.

Pelzer will later be sent to Pensacola, Fla., navy air corps base. He received his private pilot's license this summer after completion of the civil aeronautics authority course at the university.

He graduated from here with a B.A. degree this year, and won a major letter on the university's rifle team in addition to several medals.

Executors Appointed By Judge Gaffney

Mary W. McLaughlin and John McLaughlin, son and daughter of the late M. J. McLaughlin, yesterday were appointed executors of the M. J. McLaughlin estate by Judge James P. Gaffney in district court.

Editor's Course Will Be Given

School of Journalism Will Conduct Two Conventions This Year

Professional and amateur journalists will gather at the University of Iowa on two different week ends this fall for affairs conducted by the school of journalism.

Prof. Frank L. Mott, director of the school, announced yesterday that the 14th annual editor's short course would occur Nov. 8 and 9.

It is primarily for editors and publishers of the Iowa Press association, an organization of weekly newspapers. The course last year was held at the state university in 1938 and last year was at Iowa State college.

The annual convention of the Iowa High School Press association has been scheduled for Oct. 18 and 19. All schools are welcome to send representatives, whether or not they publish school newspapers or yearbooks, Professor Mott said.

Masons Hear Nile Kinnick

Nile Kinnick will address the members of the Masonic service club at their regular noon luncheon meeting at 12 o'clock today in the Masonic temple.

Members and guests are requested to be present.

Bank to Pay Last Dividend

A total of $9,200 in dividend checks amounting to a 1.2176 per cent payment from the receivership of the Farmers Loan and Trust company bank will be available today at the receivership offices in the basement of the Iowa State bank building, it was announced yesterday by D. W. Bates, state superintendent of banking.

This will be the final dividend paid by the receivership, according to the announcement and will make a total of 56.9896 per cent paid out to depositors.

Man is the most generous of creatures. He goes to a lot of trouble staging a picnic, of which the ants get the greatest benefit.

School Board Rejects Bids On Stoker for School Building

Elks Lodge Will Initiate On October 16

Norwood C. Louis, exalted ruler of the local Elks lodge, announced yesterday that District Deputy J. W. Winger Jr. of Keokuk will be a guest at the Iowa City lodge's meeting of Oct. 16.

A class of candidates will be initiated at that meeting when Mr. Winger will pay his official visit and conduct inspection of the officers in rendition of their ritualistic work.

To Organize Two Bands For University

Organization of two bands now is under way at the University of Iowa as auditions move forward under the direction of Prof. Charles E. Righter.

A football band of about 120 pieces, trained in smart maneuvers, will drill three times weekly. It will appear at each of the four home games and probably at one out-of-town contest.

Another group, known as the varsity band, also is being organized. It will make its first appearance at the induction ceremony of Sept. 26.

Prof. Righter has reported that a number of veterans of the crack football band of 1939 have returned. Auditions for the two bands can be made at any time in the music building, Professor Righter has announced.

Bids Fail to Meet Specifications Set Up For New Equipment

Sealed bids on a stoker for the Henry Sabin school building were opened at a meeting of the Iowa City school board last night but all five bids submitted were rejected because none fulfilled specifications set up by the board.

The matter of deciding whether to consider the bids submitted last night or to call for new bids was referred to the grounds and buildings committee of the board.

The board voted to place Ruth Yocum, kindergarten teacher, on full time employment from half time. She has been teaching the Roosevelt school kindergarten in the mornings. The kindergarten sessions at Roosevelt school have now been changed to afternoons. Miss Yocum will teach then at Roosevelt school and at Longfellow school in the mornings.

The board also approved the list of holidays and vacations for Iowa City's public schools for the 1940-41 term. First holiday to be considered was Armistice day on Monday, Nov. 11. The board decided that the schools will do as the city decides for this day. If the city observes the holiday, the schools will also.

The other schedule is as follows:

Thanksgiving day—Thursday and Friday, Nov. 28 and 29. (These dates are subject to change by proclamation by the president or governor.)

Christmas—Dec. 21 to Jan. 5 inclusive.

Easter—April 5 to 13 inclusive.

Memorial day—Friday, May 30.

High school commencement—Thursday, June 5.

School closes—Friday, June 6.

S. U. V. Plans Picnic Tonight

A picnic supper is planned for the Sons of Union Veterans and their auxiliary at 6 o'clock tonight. The supper and business meeting following will be in the G. A. R. rooms of the county courthouse.

Movies from the university visual education department will be shown. Chairmen of the meeting will be Mrs. J. A. Swisher and Mrs. A. C. Harmon.

Divorce Granted

Bertha Hook was granted a divorce in district court yesterday from John G. Hook. Atty. Ingalls Swisher represented the plaintiff.

Feathers Above

My fine feathered friend, now is the time to buy a hat. And there's where the feathers are flying, because it's nary a bonnet but what has a plume of some description. But where is the woman who would give her hat back to the Indians?
