THE BUSINESS OF SAVING LIVES UNDER FIRE

Earlier this month, Mrs. Walter Latham, president of theTextView, Inc., went to the United States for a long-needed vacation.

HOSPITALS

Carefully planning, our London representatives and Miss M. Warren are checking the British hospitals where in most areas the country is in the hands of the Edward Pockey of the King Edward Fund for British volunteer hospitals.

A call on Dr. Henry Warner, a former associate of theTextView, Inc., found him to be in patient care abroad. He will be out of the city this week to attend to hospital needs.

We would like to mention the British hospitals of Plymouth, Brixton, and Northumberland, which are known for their excellent care. They have an excellent record for saving lives and are doing everything possible to provide the best care possible.

The patients behind the scenes. They put their health on the line every day. Many of the patients are fighting for their lives in these hospitals.

BRIGADIER GENERAL INSTITUTE

This large hospital is one of the major hospitals in the British medical community. It is located in the midst of the London area and is known for its excellent care. The hospital has a large staff of doctors and nurses and is well-equipped to handle the needs of its patients.

This hospital has treated 1,500 patients in just six months and is expected to treat another 5,000 patients in the next six months.

The Red Cross and the Salvation Army are doing wonderful work in these hospitals. They are providing food, clothing, and medical care to the patients and their families.

The BRIGADIER GENERAL INSTITUTE

This hospital is located in the heart of the city and is one of the largest hospitals in the country. It has a staff of over 2,000 doctors and nurses and is well-equipped to handle the needs of its patients.

Many of the patients are children and are being treated for a variety of conditions. The hospital has a large number of volunteers who are helping to care for the patients.

APRIL SHOWERS

The sun will be shining brightly when the spring flowers begin to bloom. It is a time of hope and renewal as the world begins to emerge from the cold, Winter months.

Indifferent Attitude Endangers Democracy, Attorney Declares

"Almost anyone, by the simple device of neglecting and ignoring democracy today, is in effect inviting the kiss of death from the Nazi, Fascist, or Communist dictator," Attorney Anthony F. DeFeo told the students of the University of Illinois Saturday in a vivid picture of the present-day situation and its relation to the democratic ideals of the constitution.

"The time has come when the State is no longer a safe haven for any person," the attorney declared.

"It is definitely the duty of every person to resist the tyrants of Europe," he said, "and to work towards the American way of life, in which the job of every individual is to extend the realm of freedom in order to strengthen the fourth arm of American democracy, the third arm of the nation, the American people."

Hawks Play Intrasquad Game in Stiff Workout

Meet Luther, Minnesota In Weekend Tilts

Batting Average Rises Over Earlier Record; Hawks Have More 2-Baggers Than Any Other Team

An intangible gain was the order for the team's defense. By getting improving fielding all over, this year's World Champions are sure to get a share of the 1941 World Series. This will help the Hawks to meet Luther Friday in the semi-final of the Luther Tournament. The semi-final and final games will be in Lake City.

Bill Anderson, the Scotchman, is expected to return to the fold this weekend after spending two months in the service. Bill Pirnie, the senior at Luther, is another player who may be available to the Hawks.

In closing of the 1941 baseball season, the Hawks have improved their pitching, but have suffered a loss in their outfield. Bill Anderson, the Hudson outfielder, may return this weekend, bringing the Hawks back to their original strength.

Frey Promotes Friday Evening Fight Program

With the coming of some big names of the ring, the Hawks have stepped up the pressure. The in-trasquad game was excellent and the Hawks have been working on the unusual crowd prices, which are 25 cents.

The Hawks have been getting good crowds for their games at the Lake City, but the big names of the ring will bring in a larger crowd this week. The Hawks have been working on the big names and the crowd prices will be much higher.
