Soviets Describe Donets Situation As 'Serious'; Admit Nazi Gains

Report Enemy Fifty Miles From Moscow

Stukas Hammer Reds With 'Terrible Force' In Central Sector

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
LONDON—One arm of the German offensive reaching out for Moscow's throat appeared last night to have advanced to within 50 miles of the capital on the southwest, but all concurrent thrusts were reported beaten off or held to no substantial gain and Hitler apparently was making more real progress in his Ukrainian drive toward the Caucasus approaches.

To the south, the situation in the rich Donets basin was described as serious in a dispatch from a correspondent of the Soviet government newspaper Izvestia. This account, broadcast by the Moscow radio, said numerically superior German forces had breached red defenses in some sectors but were paying dearly for their gains.

Before Moscow the invaders and defenders fought in such a chaos that villages were changing hands as many as three times a day, and while the red lines were reported holding generally firm German dive bombers in some sectors clearly were beating at them with a terrible force. In the northern theater above the city their raids were described by the Soviet wireless as "uninterrupted."

German Commander Orders Fifty French Prisoners Executed

'Hundred-for-One' Nazi Reprisal System For Holtz Shooting

VICHY, Unoccupied France (AP)—Summary execution of 50 French hostages was ordered last night by Gen. Otto von Stuepnigel, German occupation commander in France, as a "preliminary measure" of reprisal for the killing Monday of Colonel Holtz, the Nazi commandant at Nantes.

Fifty more Frenchmen will be shot by German firing squads in this "hundred-for-one" Nazi reprisal system if the "cowardly criminals paid by England and Moscow... are not arrested by midnight, Oct. 23," the German order to the French nation said.

The announcement did not say whether the first 50 Frenchmen in these "preliminary measures" had already been shot or were to die at dawn today. (A Havas dispatch from Paris to Bern said they already had been executed.)

A reward of 15,000,000 francs (normally more than $300,000) also was offered for information leading to the arrest of those who shot down the German officer on a boulevard in the center of Nantes.

The Germans earlier had announced the arrest of four French gendarmes officers at Nantes, a colonel and three captains, but they were not held as hostages.

They also temporarily held the French prefect of the Loire Inferieure department, Silbert Dupard, for questioning in the case.

Dupard and the mayor of Nantes last night published an appeal asking the French people to help in tracking down the killers.

Reports of terrorism sweeping the occupied zone continued to reach here when Author Ties announced that a freight train had been derailed by saboteurs between Rouen and Le Havre.

On Iowa Club Meeting Postponed

Wickard Recommends Passage of Price Control Legislation to Prevent Inflation

WASHINGTON (AP)—Warning that the nation "may be starting on the same ruinous inflation" that developed in the last war, Secretary of Agriculture Wickard strongly recommended enactment of price control legislation yesterday but expressed the opinion that raising farm prices "are not yet out of line."

"The parallel between World War 1 and World War 2, as far as farm prices and costs are concerned, is too close for comfort," the secretary told the house banking committee. "Price charts, together with other things we see happening daily, make it appear that we may be starting on the same ruinous inflation we set out upon at about the same time in the last war."

He expressed complete agreement with the principles of the pending price control bill, to permit an administrator to impose price ceilings on single commodities as the need might arise, and said that an overall price-fixing authority, which would cover such things as wages, might be difficult to administer and, in fact, might not be necessary.

Following the line of reasoning of many other administration proponents of the present "selective" price-control program, Wickard said that such control alone would not prevent inflation and said the "surest preventive" was increased production.

Then he predicted that the nation's total agriculture production next year would be the highest in history, with the increase occurring mostly in meats, milk and eggs.

HE LIVES—THANKS TO THE COPS

His wrists and ankles securely bound to prevent his running away, John Conyers, 20, is carried by police out of a New York theater building after trying to kill himself by attempting a leap from the eighth floor of the building. Conyers said he was despondent because the parents of his 18-year-old Wilkes-Barre, Pa., sweetheart refused to consent to their marriage until the girl is 21.

German High Command Says Stalino Taken

No Official Comment On Armies' Progress Near Russian Capital

BERLIN (AP)—Germany's high command closed the fourth month of the Russian war last night with announcement of the capture of the big industrial city of Stalino in a significant development of the campaign in the south, but it kept a complete silence on the progress of the armies around Moscow.

Once again—as before, during intervals between major announcements—the public had to take the high command's word that everything was proceeding favorably before the Russian capital.

Red Base at Dago Captured
The day brought one regular bulletin and two special ones from the high command, but the latter two dealt entirely with the capture of the Russian island base of Dago in the Baltic and with a military review of what was termed liberation—now complete—of the Baltic and northern area and the encirclement of Leningrad.

"Moscow will fall when German military leadership decides to take it," military spokesmen said. They added, however, the occupation of the Soviet capital would not be "a decisive stroke in the war in the sense of the occupation of the Donets basin, which now is nearing completion."

They compared Moscow and the Donets basin to Berlin and the Ruhr valley and added, "From a military standpoint the occupation of Berlin would not be a decisive stroke of the war; the occupation of the Ruhr on the other hand would mean a decisive turning point."

The loss of such a vast material territory as the Donets basin plus its productive centers "is the same as the loss of the war" and for that reason German forces are exerting heavy pressure in the south in an effort to take the entire area, these firm forecasts asserted.

Capture of Stalino, a city of some 455,000 formerly known as Yuzovka, placed the German armies within 100 miles of Rostov on the northwest and in the very vitals of the Donets basin and in a position to swing in a wide arc around Rostov toward the Don and the Russian Caucasus. Other German columns already stand 30 miles west of Rostov on the eastern shores of the Sea of Azov, after taking Taganrog.

Army May Occupy Strike-Bound Plant, Union Head Warns

DETROIT (AP)—Striking employees of the Great Lakes Steel corporation were warned last night by John Doherty, regional director of the steel workers organizing committee (CIO), that federal troops would march unless they returned to work immediately.

Speaking amid wild disorder before a mass meeting of 3,000 of the company's 8,600 workers, Doherty declared that the six-day strike—which has halted production of high tensile steel for army tanks and other defense needs—must be ended at once.

"The United States army already has received orders to move in," he said. The government, he added, had notified the SWOC that the strike would not be tolerated.

Doherty was hissed and booed frequently and had to shout his remarks.

Senate Group Approves New Five Billion Dollar Bill for Lend-Lease Aid
WASHINGTON (AP)—The senate appropriations committee approved yesterday a $5,985,000,000 lend-lease appropriation, the same amount previously voted by the house.

In addition the committee approved $176,605,969 of general appropriations as part of the same bill, principally to make up deficiencies of various government departments. The house had approved $280,470,774 for general purposes.

Report 32 of Crewmen Missing

BRITISH WING ITALIAN WAR HAWK

Congressional Leaders Propose Complete Repeal of Neutrality

Sinking of Two U.S. Ships Gives Added Drive to Movement

WASHINGTON (AP)—The sinking of two more American-owned merchant ships, and an appeal from Wendell L. Willkie and more than 100 other republicans for outright repeal of the neutrality act gave new drive last night to wipe that law off the statute books.

Thirty-two men, 17 of them American citizens, are missing as a result of the two sinkings, officials announced.

Commenting on the sinkings of the Lehgh and the Bold Venture, Rep. McCormack of Massachusetts, house democratic leader, said:

"This is evidence to the American people that the nazis are conducting unrestricted warfare, completely without regard to international law."

Senator Connally asserted that "as long as our ships are not armed, the German submarines can come up and play with them like a cat with a mouse."

A bill has passed the house to remove the neutrality act's ban on the arming of merchantmen, and last night senate leaders indicated they might broaden it to knock out another major provision of the act. This forbids American merchant ships to travel to certain belligerent ports or combat zones.

Secretary of State Hull, appearing before the senate foreign relations committee, said restrictions on the movement of American vessels should be repealed or modified. He called the ban on the arming of ships absurd, saying that "an indispensable part of our policy must be resolute defense on the high seas."

May Not Restrict Ship Movement
After day-long hearings on the house bill, Connally said that it was possible the committee would approve a bill knocking out the restrictions on ship movements.

When a reporter asked whether administration forces would not be placed in "an awkward position" by a republican effort to repeal the neutrality law completely, Connally replied:

"It would be awkward if a majority of the republicans voted for it, but if a majority would we would not have any difficulty in broadening the house bill."

Vessel Flying American Flag Torpedoed Off Coast of Africa

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two more American freighters have been sunk in the Atlantic ocean and 32 of their crewmen are missing, it was officially announced last night.

President Roosevelt, grave and grim at the news, told his press conference that the Hog Island freighter Lehgh, flying the stars and stripes, had been torpedoed off the west coast of Africa Sunday night. Her crew of 39, some of them wounded, took to the lifeboats. One boat with 22 men was picked up. The fate of the other 17 was uncertain.

Within the hour, marine circles in New York reported that the American-owned freighter Bold Venture, flying the flag of Panama, had been torpedoed enroute from Baltimore to England.

The state department later confirmed the Bold Venture's sinking, although it did not say whether a submarine, surface raider, airplane or mine was responsible. It said the sinking occurred last Thursday near Iceland. This was one day before the torpedo attack of the U. S. destroyer Kearny in the same general vicinity, as a result of which 11 sailors were lost and 10 wounded, two seriously.

Seventeen out of the Bold Venture's crew of 32 non-Americans were rescued and taken to Reykjavik, Iceland. The other 15 were presumed lost.

In connection with the Kearny, Admiral Harold R. Stark, chief of naval operations, was reported to have told the senate foreign relations committee today that the destroyer was engaged in convoy duty at the time of the attack.

Chairman Connally (D-Tex.) of the committee said that it was not established whether the Kearny was conveying British or American ships. The circumstance led to conjecture, however, that the Bold Venture itself might have been in the Kearny's charge.

Ship Former Danish Freighter
The 3,222-ton Bold Venture was the former Danish freighter Ailsund, taken over by the maritime commission and operated by the Waterman steamship company.

The 4,983-ton Lehgh was torpedoed, Mr. Roosevelt announced, near the southern end of the bulge of Africa just north of the equator while running empty on a trade voyage from Spain to the gold coast. The president indicated plainly that he held a German U-boat responsible.

Bold Venture Tenth Casualty
The president learned the fate of this ninth American casualty of the war at sea—the Bold Venture was the tenth—only a few moments before the press conference and his face wore a stern look.

As reporters crowded into his oval study, Mr. Roosevelt impatiently asked those closest to his desk whether all their colleagues were in yet. At length William Donaldson, superintendent of the house press gallery who directs press arrangements at the white house conferences, cried "all in."

Then the president told the story. He regretted to announce, he said, that a flash had just arrived telling of the sinking of another American ship.

The one boatload with 22 survivors was picked up by the British admiralty ship Bimy. Officials at the maritime commission said that four of these might be Spanish stowaways—the Lehgh had called at Vigo and Bilbao after sailing from New York Sept. 13.

'U.S. Ship Production Equals Losses of Allies'—Rear Admiral Land

SAN PEDRO, Cal. (AP)—Rear Admiral Emory S. Land, retired, chairman of the U. S. maritime commission, disclosed yesterday that American ship construction has caught up—ton for ton—with the sinking of allied shipping in the European war.

The admiral paid a surprise visit to the California Shipbuilding yards and the Consolidated Steel Corp. at nearby Long Beach, before leaving by plane for San Francisco.

"Six million tons of allied shipping a year is being sunk in this war and we are just now catching up to that in American production," Land declared in an interview. "We are making every effort to go ahead of that figure."

GETS MIGHTY COLD UP IN ICELAND

These American soldiers drilling with a 75-millimeter gun in Iceland are wearing the special caps issued them due to the bitter Icelandic climate. These troops have just arrived in Iceland, now guarded by American and British armed forces.

Mrs. Charles Rogler Addresses A.A.U.W.

Speaking to the international relations group of the A.A.U.W. yesterday morning in Iowa Union, Mrs. Charles Rogler described her native Puerto Rico as a "man's country."

"The men devote themselves to politics," she explained, "while the women attend to religion." "We have three times as many national holidays as you have," remarked Mrs. Rogler, "for we took over all of yours when we became part of the United States, but we kept our own, both political and religious."

She explained that American women would be homesick in Puerto Rico because bridge is not played there. There are no clubs for women.

Touching on points of interest to women in this country, she compared food prices here and in Puerto Rico. "Here meat seems very cheap to me," she said, "for all our meat is imported from the States; but oranges—oranges are different. At home I pay 20 cents for a hundred oranges!"

Hoppe Demonstrates Trick Billiard Shots

The 'Straight Rail', 'Anchor Block' and 'Mis-cue' Are Just Routine for 'Willie'

Willie Hoppe, three-cushion billiard champion of the world, demonstrated to a packed gallery in the main lounge of Iowa Union yesterday afternoon the tricks of the game which have won him this championship for the past two years.

An exhibition three-cushion match between Hoppe and Leo Gaulocher, A4 of Iowa City, opened the program. Gaulocher, one of the best players in Iowa City, provided ample competition for the champion. He piled up 23 points before Hoppe ran out with 35.

After the match, "Willie," with characteristic ease, performed some of the most difficult shots known in the game. He showed the "straight-rail" and "anchor block" shots which experts use in carom billiards for "runs" as high as 500, invented by the late Jake Schaefer, sr.

He performed some of his favorite trick shots, such as the unethical "mis-cue" shot, the "double draw," the "figure-8" shot, the masse "follow around the table" shot and the alltime favorite "baseball" shot, which is done by banking the ball to the side rail and rolling it around the table after catching it on the rebound.

After the demonstration, Hoppe answered questions and explained the fundamentals of the game. He believes that good billiard players must have the very best initial training or they will never be able to enter top-flight competition.

This fall he is on a tour which takes him to many college campuses. It is his hope that in these visits he can aid beginning players who are having difficulty with the approach, the stand, the handling of the cue and the strokes. He is more interested in playing before students than experts.

His tour will end on the west coast Dec. 18, at which time he plans to "get lots of rest, plenty of practice and hope for the best" when he defends his title at the national tournament in Chicago, Jan. 12.

There will be 12 contestants in the tourney. Six will qualify for the round-robin tournament which decides the championship for 1942. Hoppe plans to play billiards for another year or two. Then he hopes to retire to a farm in Conn.

The National Billiard association, under whose auspices Hoppe appears, is promoting billiard interest all over the country by sending exhibition players, sponsoring tournaments and trying to develop better billiard halls for playing the game.

Albino Cuckoo Is Latest Addition to SUI Collection of Abnormal Birds and Animals

A white cuckoo with pink eyes is the latest addition to the University museum.

Sent in by Vaughn Benthayesen of Tracy, the bird is perfectly normal except for its odd coloring. It will soon be on display in the museum's collection of abnormal birds and animals.

This white cuckoo is scientifically known as an albino. The complete lack of pigment has caused the feathers to be white, while the fact that the blood can show through the colorless eyes has made them appear pink.

In contrast to this albino is the black squirrel which is already on display. It has such an over-supply of pigment that it is completely black. Such an animal is known scientifically as melanistic.

Other abnormally colored specimens in the exhibit include a tan and white skunk with dark red eyes, a bronze and white pheasant with white tail feathers, a white mole and a pink-eyed, white robin.

The Pro Arte quartet will open the 1941-42 university concert series with two programs today in the main lounge of Iowa Union.

Quartet movements by Hadyn, Beethoven and Dvorak will be included on the afternoon program at 3:15. Featured at the 8 o'clock concert will be works of Mozart, Borodin and Brahms.

Established in Belgium, the Pro Arte quartet is now connected with the University of Wisconsin, where its players serve as artist members of the instructional and coaching staff of the school of music.

Tickets for the concerts are still available in room 15, music studio building, until noon today. After that they may be secured at the main desk of Iowa Union. Activities tickets must be presented at the door with the concert tickets.

It has appeared extensively in chamber music festivals both here and abroad and has also made many phonograph recordings of outstanding works of many composers.

Musicians of the quartet are each of unusual ability. As they have no pedagogic duties and do not appear in solo performances, they are able to dedicate themselves exclusively to the playing of quartets.

However, their superb artistry is due not only to their constant association but to the matchless instruments which they employ in their playing.

I.C. Boys to Compete In Fall Tournament

The first of the season's monthly table tennis tournaments for junior and senior boys will be held at the recreation center the first of next week, Eugene M. Trowbridge, director of the center, said yesterday.

Any Iowa City boy of high school age or under may register for the tourney at the recreation center until Saturday night. University students are not eligible.

Trowbridge announced that the tournament would differ from last year's in that both junior and senior boys would be in the same group. This will be done to prepare the boys for the Iowa City tournament and state-wide competition next spring, he explained.

Anderson Juggles Hawkeye Lineup for Comeback

'Bounding Bill' Green, Two Others Replaced On Starting Eleven

Stauss, Vollenweider, Staak 'Get the Nod' To Start Purdue Tilt

"There's your starting lineup for Saturday, so you can start writing about it right away," barked Dr. Eddie Anderson yesterday, as he and the Hawkeye griders hit the comeback trail together, and the squad responded with a grim but spirited workout.

It was a definite departure from the Hawkeye mentor's custom of keeping the starting team in doubt right up to the last day, and it was even more unusual because three new faces were an integral part of that bunch.

Three New Faces

John Staak was at Al Urban's right tackle slot, Bill Stauss was at fullback in place of Bill Green, and Henry Vollenweider had Bus Mertes' right halfback position. Staak is a sophomore, Stauss a letterman junior, and Vollenweider a letterman senior.

Bill Parker and Bill Burkett continued to man the ends, Jim Walker was at the other tackle, Gene Curran and Ross Anderson at guards, Capt. Bill Diehl at center, Al Couppee at quarterback, and Tom Farmer at left half. Green alternated with Stauss yesterday, but will be kept in reserve as a "game-breaker."

It was a squad which showed a complete about face yesterday to its attitude in drills of late, and while the Hawks were there for business, they were working for each other all the time. In fact, the men worked so hard, especially at correcting each other's mistakes, Anderson had little more to do than tell them when to start on something new.

Short Scrimmage

Only a few minutes of contact work, with the first and second teams working against another line, to finish up the two-hour drill, was on the program. For the greater part of the session, the Hawks worked defensively against Purdue formations.

With George Sanborn taking the part of John Petty, pile-driving Boilermaker fullback, and Nile Kelly emulating the play of Kenry Smock, trier threat left halfback, Purdue's plays, both running and passing, had little success against the fast-charging lines of the first and second strings.

Trickey Not Dressed

Ben Trickey, who suffered a broken nose in the Wisconsin game, watched the drill from the sidelines in civilian clothes. Dr. Robert N. Bartels, team physician, said the little quarterback would be back in uniform today, and would probably be ready to play by Saturday.

As the Hawks prepared for Purdue there Saturday, it was learned that Bill Green leads the Big Ten in pass-receiving, and Jim Youel is the third most efficient passer. Green has gained 102 yards on nine tosses, and Youel has completed six passes in 16 attempts, two being intercepted. Green is fifth in the rushing department, with 105 yards in two games for an average of 3.9 yards per trial.

Purdue May Lose Galvin for Season

LAFAYETTE, Ind. (AP)—Left Halfback John Galvin of the Purdue university football team was on the field yesterday in street clothes and trainers said they were doubtful whether Galvin, who suffered a facial fracture last week, would be able to play again this season. The Boilermakers scrimmaged in practice for their homecoming game next Saturday with Iowa.

TO PLAY IN EXHIBITION TOMORROW

Ann Casey, A3 of Mason City, state women's golf champion, will play an exhibition match with Patty Berg, Helen Detweiler and Joe MacRae at 2:30 tomorrow afternoon on Finkbine course. Before annexing the state title in Davenport this summer, Miss Casey won the Northwest Iowa championship in Spencer and the Golden Mashie tournament at Lake Okoboji in 1940. The past two seasons she has qualified in the Trans-Mississippi Women's tourney, the Western Open and the Western Closed.

Brechler Drills U-High Gridgers on Passes In First Practice Since Mt. Vernon Game

Stimmel Brothers Return to Add Punch To Offensive Attack

A strengthened U-high squad reported for practice yesterday afternoon for the first time since it's win over Mt. Vernon last Friday.

The Stimmel brothers were back in the lineup after a week's absence. Capt. Glenn Stimmel, former fullback, did not seem to lack driving power because of his absence and Coach Paul Brechler had him in the left tackle position clearing holes for the fast backs. The only other change in the line was Bill Helm alternating at the guard positions.

In a long offense drill, Charles Barber and Chuck Kent, backfield stars of the Mt. Vernon game, recaptured off long gains against the second team behind nice blocking. Still hoping for the right kind of weather, Coach Brechler sent the Rivermen through an extensive drill in pass plays. Jack Shay showed considerable improvement in finding his mark at the tossing job. Gene Rummells and Calvin Stimmel alternated at the quarterback position.

Dr. M. F. Carpenter, coach of the U-high cross-countrymen, announced yesterday that the tracksters have scheduled Dubuque high for a return mile dual meet Friday afternoon. Because of the close finish of last Friday's meet with Dubuque here, Dr. Carpenter said the outcome of the race will probably depend on the finishing position of the third U-high boy.

Mini Scrimmage Frosh
CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP)—The Illinois freshman squad used Notre Dame formations and aerial plays yesterday to make several long gains against the varsity in a scrimmage session. Art Dufelmeier of the freshmen impersonated Angelo Bertelli, Irish ace thrower, and had good success with his passes.

Delta Upsilon kept its undefeated record intact yesterday, with a well-earned 19 to 6 victory over Sigma Chi in intramural competition.

Larry Cole grabbed the ball from the hand of a Sigma Chi passer early in the first half to put his team in an early lead as he raced across the goal untouched.

Halfback Joe Gantz passed to Walt Wright for the extra point. A few minutes later Gantz worked the same play and Wright scored another six points for the victors. Just as the first half closed, Bill McPartland, Sigma Chi back, passed to Dick Goenne for a touchdown, and what later proved to be the only score for the losers.

The pitching arm of Gantz put the game on ice in the second half as he passed for two more touchdowns. The first was to Cole, who caught the ball standing alone in the end zone, and the second a short one to Colin Gould for the final touchdown. Both tries for the conversion failed.

Phi Delt Bill Martin, caught a touchdown pass in the closing seconds of the game to give his team a 21 to 19 victory over Sigma Nu. At the close of the first half, the Sigma Nus seemed to be well on their way to an easy triumph with a 12 to 0 margin. Bob Young, Sigma Nu back, intercepted a pass in the opening minutes and ran 40 yards to score. Then, before the Phi Delt had a chance to get set, Young threw to Ralph Claves for another six points.

The winners opened up in the second half and racked up 21 points. George Jones, trapped by the Sigma Nus when he tried to pass, ran through them for 15 yards and a score. Jones threw to Don Feeney for the conversion. As soon as Phi Delta Theta had possession of the ball again, Jones passed to Lee Houck who ran three yards to score. Jones found Houck unguarded, and passed to him for the extra point.

In the meantime, Bob Young, who was outstanding for the losers, had thrown two touchdown passes both times to Reeves Hall. The attempts at conversion were both failures. With but 35 seconds to go, Jones faded deep and winged a pass to Martin who made a one-hand leaping catch to score the touchdown. Just for a clincher, Jones threw to Houck for the final point.

Delta Chi won a hard-fought game from Pi Kappa Alpha by a 13 to 12 count. Winston Lowe, Pi Kappa Alpha back, opened the scoring with a 15 yard jaunt around left end, and soon after, teammate Harry Carlson added six more points as he raced 20 yards for a touchdown. These 12 points ended the losers' scoring for the day.

Phi Gamma Delta won 2 to 0 from Phi Epsilon Pi on a forfeit.

Passing the Buck

by BILL BUCKLEY

It was with some misgivings that we opened a letter last Monday with a return address of Superior Court of Illinois, M. L. McKinley, Chief Justice, Cook County, Chicago. . . . At first, we didn't recognize the name, and hastily checked over any possible misdeed on our part in the Windy City.

But that letter was from "Mike" McKinley, undoubtedly one of Iowa's greatest fans and boosters, the same Mike about whom the song, "Mike McKinley of Iowa U." was written. . . . Judge McKinley was writing to set us straight on a column of last week in which we asked, "Whatever happened to Ozzie Simmons, the all-time running great—still playing top Negro football in Chicago?"

Before we go into that, however, let's talk about McKinley a bit. . . . Mike played center for Iowa in 1894, and graduated from the law school. . . . Since, he has become one of the institution's most prominent alumni, and is one of the most active. . . . Under his personal sponsorship, many Chicago athletes have participated in just as many different varsity athletic sports at Iowa.

Mike's sponsorship doesn't end, as it does with most alumni, in sending out material for their school, with the finish of the athlete's competitive days. . . . He sets them up in life's work, too, and his faith in them has been rewarded by his boys' many successes. . . . He has a host of friends, both at Iowa and all over the world, persons who know what he means to Iowa and its athletes. . . . That's why that song was written about him. . . . He is Iowa spirit.

The judge's letter was about Ozzie Simmons, and you'll see why the above paragraph is so true, by reading the message with us.

"In justice to Ozzie Simmons," writes Judge McKinley, "who gave his all on the football field for the University of Iowa, I have to say that after he left the university, he played one season with the Patterson, N. J., Panthers in the American Association. Ozzie was the only colored boy in the league. He returned to Chicago after the season was over, and I was able to get him placed as a playground director in the board of education.

"When the following football season came along he was offered an increase in salary to again play with the Panthers, but having a position here, refused to give it up to play pro football. . . . He must have been thought a great deal of, for I had a letter from the mayor of Patterson, the sheriff of that county and the governor of the state, stating that they understood I was his sponsor for the position of playground director, and asking that he be given a ninety-day leave of absence to again play with the Panthers.

"That was secured for him. He played a second season with this team, and returned to his position as playground director. In the meantime, he had taken a correspondence course from the university, completed his studies and received a degree in physical education. He was anxious to get into the physical education department of the Chicago public high schools, but in order to be eligible to enter, it is necessary, after receiving a degree from a university, to attend Chicago Teachers' Normal college for eighteen months.

"He has been in attendance at this college during the daytime, having a night position with the board of education, and expects to complete this work at the college this coming February. At that time he hopes, and I am anxious to secure for him, a position as coach in one of the Chicago public high schools. I am hopeful that he may discover another Ozzie Simmons' amongst the colored high school athletes.

"Incidentally, I might say that he has been living a clean, upright life, and is most highly regarded by everyone with whom he comes in contact. Very truly yours, M. L. McKinley."

Enich, Andruska Back On 10-Day Leave From Marine Training Station

Mike Enich and Bruno Andruska, two of Iowa's 1939 football freshmen, dropped in on a third, Capt. Bill Diehl, last night, on their way home with a 10-day leave from the Marine Training station at Quantico, Va., where both are enlisted.

When the following football season came along he was offered an increase in salary to again play with the Panthers, but having a position here, refused to give it up to play pro football. . . . He must have been thought a great deal of, for I had a letter from the mayor of Patterson, the sheriff of that county and the governor of the state, stating that they understood I was his sponsor for the position of playground director, and asking that he be given a ninety-day leave of absence to again play with the Panthers.

Phi Gamma Delta won 2 to 0 from Phi Epsilon Pi on a forfeit.

Cormackmen Drilled For Davenport Test

Passing was again stressed by Coach Herb Cormack yesterday afternoon as he sent his charges through a light practice in preparation for the all-important Davenport game Friday night.

The Little Hawks tried several new pass plays that worked effectively in the dummy scrimmage held at the close of practice. Dave Danner and Bill Sangster showed their aerial ability, hitting the backs and ends time after time for long gains. Noticeable among the new plays were the tricky laterals that took place unexpectedly and caught the defense entirely off guard.

Cormack worked his backs on passes for half of the session while the linemen pushed the blocking sled over the field.

Dean Yanauish suffered a shoulder injury early in the practice but it was not considered serious. The regular tackle was able to run signals at the close of the session and will be ready for the game Friday night.

The only change in the Hawkeye lineup from the starters of last Friday was Art Cornwall's appearance as a first team guard post. Cornwall, who played on the first team at the beginning of the year, has been bothered with a leg injury and hasn't seen much action in the past few games.

In the Mississippi Valley conference race, the Little Hawks are still tied for first place. Other undefeated teams are East Waterloo and Davenport.

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP)—Coach Lynn Waldorf began tuning up Northwestern's passing game yesterday, with Bill de Correvont and Otto Graham slated as the men to direct an aerial war against Ohio State Saturday. Because of the Buckeye line strength shown against Purdue last week, it was expected Northwestern might rely heavily on passes.

Freshman Tracksters Outstanding in Meet

First results of the all-university track meet yesterday afternoon, indicate this year's freshman track squad includes some promising boys for future competition.

Standouts of the afternoon were Ralph Beardsly and Frank Montgomery. Beardsly, with a toss of 43 feet 3 inches, made the best mark for freshmen in the shot put event for the last three years. Frank Montgomery, despite the slow track, was clocked at :08.6 for the 60-yard high hurdles to lead the sprint men.

Summaries:
60-yard dash: Frank Montgomery (freshman) first, Irving Goldberg (freshman) second, Leon Bland (freshman) third, Clarence Christiansen (freshman) fourth. :08.7.

Professional Frats Play

Playing under a new system this year, professional fraternities will meet in their first intramural football games this week. For the first time in intramural history, these fraternities will play in a league made up of their own members, one of which will be named professional fraternity champion at the end of the season. This winner will compete with champions from the other intramural football leagues for the all-university title.

Professional fraternity games scheduled for this week are Wednesday, Psi Omega vs. Phi Chi; Thursday, Alpha Chi Sigma vs. Delta Theta Phi.

Arthur Brayton Gives Local Kiwanis Club Pointers on Selling

"Executives in business today shrink from showing their hearts," asserted Arthur Brayton in his speech on "Personality" given yesterday noon before the Iowa City Kiwanis Club. "Friendliness and humanness should be used in selling."

Brayton, who is chairman of the Des Moines convention bureau, has been conducting a series of sales schools here for the last five weeks. These schools have been sponsored by the retail trade division of the chamber of commerce.

The speaker pointed out that salespeople and business executives should develop personality in selling by improving their manner of speaking and their vocabulary. The retailer never knows when the customer may be dissatisfied, and it is these customers who make up a community, he said.

In uncertain times like these, the speaker continued, when so many of our business men are active in defense work and junior executive positions are open, it is important that men have a perfect knowledge of their business.

The impression of the community given to visitors now is mainly given by salespeople and laborers, Brayton declared, but executives and trained workers could develop a business personality and use their opportunities to impress the visitors more advantageously.

"We have ability and stability in business," the speaker concluded. "Let's make the best of it."

Chairmen Discuss Plans For Local Scout Show

Committee chairmen of the scout exposition to be held Nov. 28 and 29 met last night in the boy scout office, 210 1/2 E. Washington, and discussed plans for the show.

Judge Directs Jurors To Examine Property In Alberhasky Case

Judge James P. Gaffney late yesterday afternoon directed petit jurors to view the premises in dispute in the Linder vs. Alberhasky case and return to court at 9 o'clock this morning.

The jury of ten men and two women heard testimony Monday and Tuesday from 15 witnesses, 11 of whom testified for the defendants. Judge Gaffney indicated the case would probably end today.

According to the plaintiff's petition, the defendants removed buildings from a six-acre tract of land north of Iowa City and left holes in the ground. For damage done to the property, Linder asks $2,250.

County Court to Hear $5,668 Damage Suit

The John W. Kintzinger vs. Fred L. Beranek $5,668 damage suit is the next case assigned for hearing in Johnson county district court, it was announced yesterday by Judge James P. Gaffney.

Jurors are to report for duty at 9 a.m. Tuesday when the case will be opened, Judge Gaffney said.

The case concerns a truck-car accident on the "River Road" between Cedar Bluffs and Solon on July 22, 1940.

According to the petition, Kintzinger seeks $568 damages to his car, and on another count asks $5,000 for injuries received by his wife, Mrs. Catherine A. Kintzinger.

The plaintiff alleges, the petition states, that the defendant was negligent in the operation of his truck, thereby causing the accident.
