No Bad Injuries Suffered, But—

Iowans 'Badly Bruised Bunch' of Players

By LOREN BICKLEY

Iowa's sports editor

Iowa was a pretty badly bruised bunch of players Saturday night against Purdue. The Hawkeyes had a good game and played well until the fourth quarter. However, they gave up a 25-yard touchdown to Purdue and lost the game 33-7.

Purdue quarterback Bill Parker was outstanding, completing 17 of 30 passes for 200 yards and 3 touchdowns. Iowa's Dan Enich, alumnus of Drake University, also had a good game, completing 16 of 28 passes for 220 yards and 2 touchdowns. However, Iowa's defense was not up to par and allowed Purdue to score 3 touchdowns in the second and third quarters.

In the fourth quarter, Iowa tried to rally, but Purdue's defense held strong and the Hawkeyes were unable to score. Purdue's offensive line was particularly strong, with Bob Allen, Mike Miller, and Carol Hilt manufacturing the damage. Purdue's defensive line, led by Bob Miller, Alex Powers, and Gary Ogilvie, put constant pressure on Iowa's quarterbacks.

The game was a tough one for Iowa, but they will bounce back. Iowa's defense played well overall, and their offense had a good game until the fourth quarter. With a little more preparation, Iowa could have fared better.

Special Diet Session To Discuss Relations Between U.S., Japan

By BARCLY WAGGONER

Iowa's sports editor

The special diet session was held to discuss relations between the U.S. and Japan. The session was well attended, with representatives from the Senate, House of Representatives, and other government agencies.

Senator Jake Jenkins introduced the session, stating the importance of the relationship between the U.S. and Japan. He emphasized the need for greater understanding and cooperation between the two nations.

Jenkins noted that the U.S. and Japan had a long history of cooperation and friendship, but recent events had strained the relationship. He called for a renewed commitment to work together to achieve common goals.

Senator John Williams, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, also spoke. He emphasized the importance of strong alliances and the need to work together to address global challenges.

The session was well received, with representatives from both parties expressing support for greater cooperation between the U.S. and Japan.

Purdue University defeated Iowa State University 7-6 in a thrilling game yesterday.

The Hawkeyes put up a good fight, but were unable to overcome their opponents. Purdue's defense was particularly strong, with Bob Miller, Alex Powers, and Gary Ogilvie leading the charge.

The game was a close one, with Purdue taking the lead late in the fourth quarter. However, the Hawkeyes were able to score a touchdown in the final minute to tie the game. The game ended in a tie, 7-6.

Kansas U Smashes Iowa State, 13 to 0

LAWRENCE, Kans. - A 5½-18 gain by John Nelsestuen, one of four out of eight for Iowa State, was a first down to the Iowa State nine-yard line. Two more were added to the tally and the Sooners scored a talk on the circle. Another, second down at the Iowa State 12, resulted in no gain on a pass.

The Sooners were on the Iowa State five-yard line after a couple of Iowa State punts. Ed King picked up six yards before being stopped on a pass. King's carry out of the tackle resulted in a six-yard loss, bringing up fourth down at the Iowa State 10.

However, the Sooners were on the Iowa State 17-yard line after running 1-3 and King's bound for six more. The Sooners' drive was stopped on fourth down at the Iowa State 11-yard line.

Other than the Sooners' efforts at the Iowa State goal line, the Sooners were on the Iowa State 28- and 38-yard lines and two inches short on third down, but only two inches short of the Iowa State 13.

The Sooners' pass completion for six to Ron Roberson was not enough to set up a drive. John Nelsestuen's carry resulted in 3½ yards lost, giving the Sooners the ball on the Iowa State 35-yard line. One play later and the Sooners were on the Iowa State 32.
