Another division of the band will direct a group of rooters from President Virgil M. Hancher's home south on Capitol street to the rally. They will leave at 7:23.

Eric Wilson, news editor of university publications, will act as master of ceremonies at the big rally on the east side of Old Capitol. President Hancher will deliver the first address.

He will be followed by Aubrey Devine, captain and All-American quarterback of Iowa's 1921 national championship football team. Devine will introduce some of the members of the 1921 championship squad who will be seated on the platform.

20 Persons Killed as American Airlines Plane Crashes and Burns

Accident Occurs Near St. Thomas, Ontario; Cause Not Determined

Witnesses Say Liner Crashed Into Field During Drizzling Rain

ST. THOMAS, Ont. (AP)—An American Airlines plane flying through drizzling rain from Buffalo to Detroit crashed and burned on a farm near here last night and the 17 passengers and crew of three all were killed.

The plane struck a field a quarter of a mile from a farmhouse 14 miles west of here at 10:30 p.m., E.S.T. It was a mass of flames when the first witnesses reached the scene for futile rescue efforts and was still burning an hour later. The cause of the crash was not determined.

Transport Pilot Faces Inquest On Fargo Crash

MOOREHEAD, Minn., (AP)—

Soothed by sedatives, a veteran flying officer last night rested for the ordeal of telling official investigators what happened during those agonizing moments yesterday in the fatal flaming crash of his Northwest Airlines transport plane.

Physicians declined to permit Captain Clarence Bates, 41, a 10,000 air hour flier to talk about the 2 a.m. disaster that killed 14—everyone on the liner but the pilot. Victims were twelve passengers, the stewardess and co-pilot.

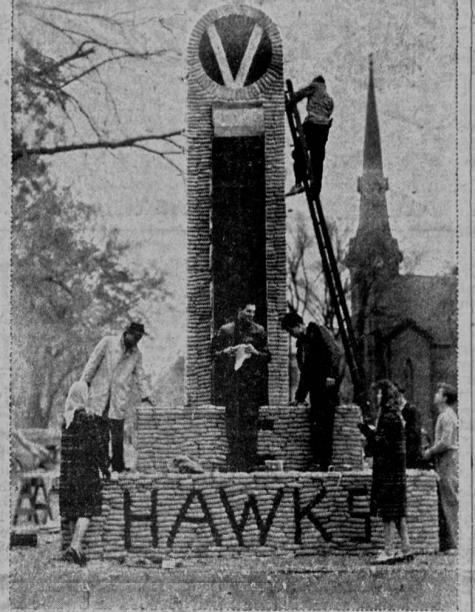

53,000 Coal Miners Back to Jobs, Lewis Accepts 17-Day Truce

Mines Operate Under Temporary Decision, Save Defense Losses

WASHINGTON (AP)—A four-day strike of 53,000 captive coal miners was terminated yesterday under a 17 day truce accepted by John L. Lewis, United Mine Workers' president, and Myron C. Taylor, director and former board chairman of United States Steel corporation.

The mines were scheduled to start reopening last night or today, and operations were expected to be back to normal by tomorrow.

Lindbergh Announces Administration Luring U.S. on Road to War

Danger from Within, America First Rally Told by Isolationists

NEW YORK (AP)—Declaring that the United States had been led by subterfuge "along the road to war," Charles A. Lindbergh told an America First Committee rally last night that "there is no danger to this nation from without—our only danger is from within."

Lindbergh further charged that President Roosevelt and his administration had never taken the American people in their confidence and "preach about preserving democracy and a freedom abroad, while they practice dictatorship at home."

Other speakers at the Madison Square Garden meeting, which attracted an overflow crowd, were U.S. Senator Burton K. Wheeler (D-Mont), John Cudahy, former U.S. ambassador to Belgium, and John T. Flynn, chairman of the New York chapter of the committee.

F.R. Orders Troops to Occupy Plant as Mediation Efforts Fail

British Air Ministry Reports Destruction Of Seven Axis Ships

LONDON (AP)—British airmen flying American-made Hudson bombers Wednesday sank or damaged seven axis ships at Al-estund, Norway, an important German supply base for the north Russian front, left a fish oil factory in flames, and machine-gunned troop barracks, the air ministry said last night.

Other planes sweeping over northern France last night attacked shipping off Boulogne and Le Havre, and fired hangars at Morlaix airdrome. Docks at Brest were attacked last night. Gunfire was heard in the London area tonight but there was no alarm, nor were planes heard.

Betty L. Little Named Queen Of Dolphins

Betty Lou Little, 21 of Kingsley, Currier, was crowned queen of the Dolphin Follies of 1942 which opened a three night stand last night in the field house pool. Miss Little was chosen to reign over the Follies from 20 representatives of campus women's organizations.

3rd Time Government Has Employed Armed Force to Halt Strikes

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Roosevelt ordered the army last night to take over operation of the plant of Air Associates, Inc., at Bendix, N.J., saying that a labor dispute made stoppage of production imminent and that the company "has failed to carry out its part" of recommendations by the defense mediation board.

Under instructions of the president, Secretary of War Stimson ordered troops from Governor's Island, in nearby New York harbor, to move into the plant this morning, with the possibility that other soldiers might come from Sandy Hook, N.J.

At the same time war department production specialists, backed by legal experts from the judge advocate general's office, were assigned to the plant. This was the third occasion on which the federal government has taken over production stopped or threatened by labor disputes.

Berlin Quarters Admit Forces Meeting Stiffest Resistance in Fight For Moscow

Reds Repulse Nazi Advances

MOSCOW (AP)—Red troops defending Moscow's approaches beat off German attacks yesterday in another bitterly contested area, around the Tula munitions center, 100 miles to the south, the Soviet information bureau reported today.

"Heavy losses" were suffered by the Germans there and also in the Volokolamsk, Mozhaik, and Malo-aryslavets sectors, the agency Tass said in a broadcast.

This Central Press map shows the vital oil pipe line in the Caucasus mountain area for which a terrific battle between advancing Germans and defending Russians, aided by British forces, looms in the near future. Inset map shows the Iran railroad which is vital in forwarding supplies for the British and Russians from the Gulf of Persia to the Caspian sea.

Fascists Outrank Nazis On U.S. Alien Listing

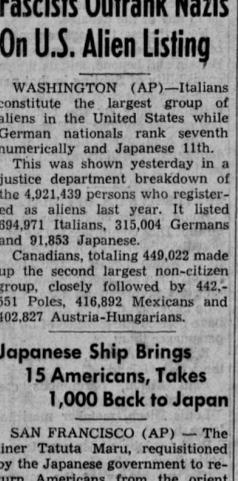

WASHINGTON (AP)—Italians constitute the largest group of aliens in the United States while German nationals rank seventh numerically and Japanese 11th.

Japanese Ship Brings 15 Americans, Takes 1,000 Back to Japan

THEY BURLESQUE FAMED BUBBLE DANCE IN DOLPHIN FOLLIES

The formation of a huge "T" climaxed the "Bubbly Dolphins" number of "Tropical Trade Winds," the same theme of the Dolphin Follies of 1942 which opened at the field house pool last night. The "T" was made from hydrogen filled balloons which were released at the end of the water drill to cover the ceiling. A "bumps" routine highlighted the dance number which shared comedy honors with "The Flying Collegians," "Happy Island Hula" and "The Three Question Marks." The dancers from left to right are Robert Becker, E3 of Clinton; Don Gilbert, A3 of Kansas City, Kan., and Edward Armbruster, A5 of Kansas City, Kan.

Overlapping Shifts Improves Iowa City's Police Patrol Work

Iowa City residents—students and townspeople alike—have noticed and commented upon increased numbers of policemen on the downtown streets at rush hours of the day and on Saturday nights.

A lot of the credit for that goes to Police Chief Frank J. Burns.

There are 13 men on the Iowa City force. Each works an eight-hour day. By overlapping the day and night shifts of his men, Chief Burns has a larger number on duty at hours when they're needed most.

During the five o'clock rush each day, there's a policeman stationed at each of the downtown intersections and on the Burlington street intersections—six in all—plus one on duty at the station and two in the squad car. That also is the situation on Saturday evenings, when Iowa City's traffic is heaviest.

Chief Burns' new system thus places four extra men on duty at the important hours. Now there are nine on duty at those times; formerly there were five. At other hours, when traffic is normal, two men patrol the streets, two are on duty with the squad car, and one is at the station.

There has been no increase in the force, therefore no added expense to Iowa City taxpayers. The chief merely has shifted his men to eight-hour periods of duty instead of the earlier 12-hour shifts. It's easier on the men, too, and who doesn't get a little tired at the end of a 12-hour stretch?

We hope Iowa City is awake to this new set-up. Chief Burns has found it an all-round success. "Cooperate with these men," he urges. "They are there during the rush hours to help you get home earlier—and safely."

About America's Girl Scouts And Woman Who Founded Them

"When the Great Recorder comes To write against your name, He writes not that you won or lost But how you played the game."

October 31 has ever been associated with dancing fairies, laughing imps, haunting ghosts, flying witches, and dandy pranks; but today the birthday of Juliette Gordon Low takes precedence over Halloween in the hearts of 700,000 little girls in dull green uniforms. They are the Girl Scouts of America.

Juliette Low was born Oct. 31, 1861, and died on Jan. 17, 1927. She made both her entrance into the world and her exit from it in Savannah, Ga.; but, not for one instant must anyone think she spent her entire life there.

It was in the summer of 1911 in England that she dreamed of creating an interesting field for young girls that would be a movement toward universal peace. Through friends there she got the idea of forming an organization for the girls of America.

In 1912 at a tea party in Savannah, she made her dream come true. For it was that piece of burning timber—a meeting of a small group of girls in her home—that set off the fire of today in the hearts of 700,000 girls.

Today, when the cannons of Europe are already blasting fragments into the solidarity of our American frontier; today, when democracies are being called on to make their greatest stand; we have to appreciate the fact that the Girl Scout movement is a burning, soaring flame.

Their motto is "be prepared" and they are prepared—to be useful citizens and to help others at all times, no matter what the emergency may be. Their interest is home making, community life, the out-of-doors, international friendship, amusements. They help the children of newcomers in a community to become adjusted, the refugees to understand and appreciate America as Americans do. They help the poor and give volunteer service to clinics, hospitals, welfare offices and other health agencies. The Girl Scouts rank high in our civilian defense work.

Mrs. Low could not be disappointed today if she were alive. She would be greatly overjoyed to see these girls in the dull green uniforms at work and at play. They will be the women of tomorrow—they will be the backbone of national womanhood when the war is over!

Do they not bring home to you, keenly, that democracy must be saved and that our American heritage must be preserved? Give them a cheer—those girls in dull green—the Girl Scouts of America.

Who Are the Real Enemies Of Today's Republican Party?

Then there is the absurd attitude of some of today's republicans...

Wendell Willkie stated his foreign policy clearly in the 1940 election. This policy was exactly like the policy Cordell Hull and President Roosevelt, with congress, have been following since they arrived in office.

Yet some of the same people who cast republican ballots in 1940 are now honestly criticizing that thing for which they voted. The Chicago Tribune ruled Willkie out of the republican party because he chooses to follow the policy he promised to the people—a policy the Tribune supported.

Only those who were blind with anti-administration prejudices failed to see that Willkie's fundamental objection to Roosevelt was the president's domestic policy. Willkie expressed the belief that salvation didn't lie in organized relief, but in more freedom for business, to give more jobs, thus creating a greater demand for the products of business.

Willkie still believes that. He isn't the enemy of the republican party. The enemies are the Vandenberg et alio, in order to justify their present actions, explain that the only way they hoped to defeat Roosevelt in 1940 was to advocate a policy as close to that of the president as they dared.

Now they are disregarding everything they endorsed when they supported their party's leader in the last election.

Just who is republican today, anyway?

Stalin Gets Religion—Under Fire

With the need for democracy's airplanes in Russia becoming progressively acute, it appears that among other concessions, the Soviet is willing to lessen the intensity of religious persecution. Evidently Joe Stalin got jealous when he heard the American spiritual, "All God's Chillun Got Wings."

A MAN ABOUT MANHATTAN

Broadway's Men in White; They're Not Doctors, But They Administer—By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—There is, alas, nothing very clinical about Broadway, but along about 4 o'clock in the morning it does become—for an hour or so at least—a street that is filled with Men in White.

They aren't embryo medics or police doctors. The man in front of Lindy's is in white, and he has a hose, a bucket, and a mop. For nearly half an hour he hoses the sidewalk, scrubbing it to the curb. Then he dries it. If he didn't, those unthinking actors who swarm in there and out of there between midnight and daybreak would track the place up. Their footprints would make Lindy's look like Grauman's Chinese theater in L. A., where everybody leaves footprints in concrete.

Then there's Schrafft's at Broadway and 43rd. About four a.m. the big trucks drive up, and out pile more men in white. They are met by a similar crew who come running out of Schrafft's, and for the next hour or so they lower hundreds of bottles of milk, hundreds of dozens of eggs, hundreds of baskets of fresh produce into the basement or cellars via chutes through the sidewalk. They're getting ready for the appetites to be satisfied during the next 24 hours.

Across the street is a big fruit juice stand. I think they sell orange juice and pineapple juice, plus sandwiches. The four waiters back of the bar are in white. Not far away is a milk bar, and everything there is white. They even have a white tom cat who prowls about the place, living off cream and chicken. Doubtless he is partial to white meat. His name is Whitey. You can see these things if you hit the White Way just at the right time.

But you've got to be on time. For, after while, the man in front of Lindy's puts away his mops, the trucks drive off, the milk bar becomes grey with day, and Whitey vanishes. Then Broadway looks just like it does the way you remember it the last time you were here.

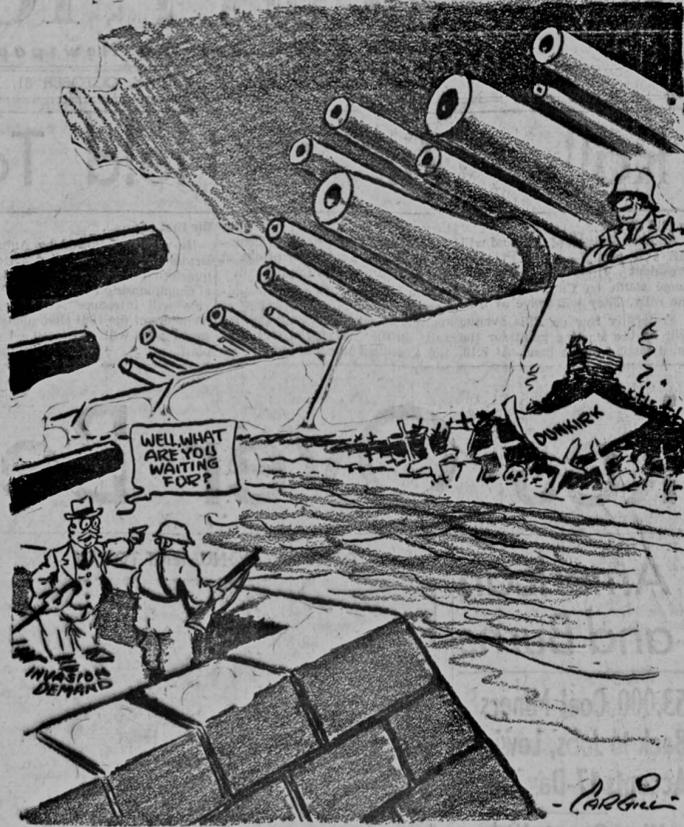

That 110-room estate on Long Island known as "Idle Hour" is to go under the auctioneer's hammer this week. This is of interest because the $3,500,000 manor, built in 1904 by W. K. Vanderbilt, subsequently became the home of the dead gangster Dutch Schultz and also of the "immortal" Baby Jean.

Baby Jean was supposed to live forever because she was to be insulated against sin by the Royal Fraternity of Mater Metaphysicians, who renamed the place "Peace Haven." However, this ambitious experiment collapsed when the child's mother, a waitress, demanded it be returned.

It was during the prohibition era that Schultz moved in and augmented the place with a fleet of high-powered speed boats. His policy rackets and rum running are known to have earned him a fortune, though none of it has been found since the night he was rubbed out by rival gangsters in Hoboken. Schultz died mumbling strange things about "chimney sweeps" and "Canadian bean soup." Caretakers about the place believe some of the money may be buried in the estate's walls.

In any case, "Idle Hour" will no longer be idle, and the serenity of Peace Haven will shortly be shattered by the banging of the auctioneer's hammer. Maybe you'd like to look in on the proceedings. You'll find it at Jakkdale, L. I., overlooking Great South Bay.

"ENGLAND EXPECTS EVERY MAN, ETC."

NEWS BEHIND THE NEWS By PAUL MALLON

Unlimited U.S. Naval War Against Germany—

WASHINGTON—Repeal of the neutrality act constitutes a declaration of unlimited naval war against Germany, a war that can be carried right up to Nazi shores if the president wants.

First, at the start of this war, Mr. Roosevelt was only scouting our offshore territorial waters. Next he extended his defense patrol to an indefinite zone further out. Then he acquired the bases from Britain and moved his fighting zone out near the mid-Atlantic under a hemisphere defense theory. Lastly, he pushed upward into Iceland. Now the senate repealer proposes to take off all the limits and let him go as far as he likes.

While this must plainly mean war, unlimited naval and air war in the Atlantic, to every conscious man in the street, officialdom here expects it to be something considerably less. Of course it all will depend upon what Mr. Roosevelt chooses to do.

Off-the-record officials suggest all PDR wants now is to convoy American merchant ships right up to British ports. Their safety, while loading and unloading, is supposedly to be left to British aircraft. In fact, they say, most American merchant ships are too busy in Latin America and the Far Eastern trade to be spared for this work. Consequently they reason that the psychological effect of the new program will be greater than the practical effect.

Their expectations are further strengthened by the fact that British ship sinkings were lower in August and September than in any two previous months of the war. Obviously the British did not require this step. Indeed, no practical necessity for it has been offered in any of the debates.

Nevertheless, the legal extension of our defense zone to the shores of Britain and beyond, entails the responsibility of fighting in that new area—the extent of fighting being restricted only by the remaining law against another AEF going out of this hemisphere, and the president's undisclosed naval and air intentions.

SUBVERSIVE U.S. OFFICIALS?—Some mighty choice names are on that Dies committee list of supposed subversive government officials which is being guarded more closely than Mr. Morgenthau's gold pile. To give you an idea, those who have had a quick glance at it, have noticed the mention of no less persons than:

- Robert M. Lovett, secretary of the Virginia Islands. Paul Sifton, bituminous coal commissioner. Louis Bloch, member maritime labor board. Paul Appleby, under-secretary of agriculture. The machinery of the government is apparently grinding to get out all against whom subversive activities can be proved, but it may grind, exceedingly slow. Rumors and counter-rumors that many have already been required to walk the plank are in circulation, but the situation is far from that yet.

The Dies list of 1124 federal employees has been turned over to the FBI for the fullest investigation.

The FBI has reports from other quarters mentioning many other employees and these are being investigated. The Dies list is not considered official proof upon which to act. It names only those connected with communist front organizations, often masqued as innocent peace outfits. When the FBI finds better proof, it will submit an official black list to departmental directors for action. This will take a long time.

BEST BOOK ON REPORTING—

The only honest, objective disclosure of the trade secrets of Washington reporting and censorship that I have ever read is Delbert Clark's new book, "Washington Delineate." Others have tried the subject but always with preconceived notions of what they wanted to prove. As a result they produced the distorted picture they sought.

In view of developments to date, this will be to the advantage of the applicant, inclusive of those whose needs can be answered only by cash. Due to economic conditions generally, unexpected work changes are continuing to occur. A few openings exist at present for those with reduced class schedules interested in a small part-time cash income. Also, a number of night jobs are available, paying either in board or cash, for dish washers, restaurant waiters, and soda fountain men. LEE H. KANN Director

King Corn Comes Into Own As—

Cornhusking Champ

—Ivyl Carlson Wins Gruelling Contest

King Corn came into its own again this week as another state champ was crowned in one of the toughest athletic contests in the world—cornhusking.

Yesterday Ivyl Carlson, of Madrid, won the state championship when he husked 2,550 pounds of corn in exactly 80 minutes of competition. Carlson—no relation to the famous Carl and Elmer, national tournament winners in 1935-36—goes to the grand final at Pociro, Ill., next Monday.

Cornhusking is no trivial sport. There is no time out, no sauntering to the sidelines for a drink, no time to wipe perspiration from the eyes. It's gruelling work for 80 minutes.

The ears of corn sail through the air almost 60 to a minute at a pace that would kill an ordinary athlete.

Cornhusking, on a competitive basis, thus becomes a science. The husks must be stripped clean, in a

Tuberculosis Association To Inoculate 'Borderline Cases' Against Smallpox

Persons classified as "borderline cases" will again this year be inoculated against smallpox and diphtheria as part of the Johnson County Tuberculosis and Health association immunization campaign, County Nurse Aila Hiltunen said yesterday. The program is planned for Nov. 5-10.

Described as needy individuals not eligible for relief, the "borderline cases" are being treated in the hope of stamping out smallpox. The disease has been found in 27 different counties since the first of the year.

The number of cases indicates that smallpox is being kept alive on a general scale in Iowa and the safeguards are being taken to prevent epidemics, Miss Hiltunen explained.

National Boy Scout Director of Cubbing Addresses Rotarians

Prof. Charles F. Smith of Columbia university, associate national director of cubbing for the Boy Scouts of America, spoke to members of the Rotary club yesterday on the origin of the youth movement in Germany.

The speaker related the story of a young man he knew who went to Germany in 1930 to go to school. He became interested in the German youth organization and is now believed to have been killed in service with the Nazi armies.

Realizing that no country can rise tomorrow higher than the youth today, Hitler set out to capture youth with his program of building strong bodies, the speaker explained. He pointed out that those same youths are now the high government officials of the Reich.

Sweeting Wins Damage Case

A $99.99 judgment against two university students was awarded to Carson W. Sweeting, Varsity taxi-cab driver, yesterday by J. M. Kadlec, justice of the peace.

The university students were Stanley Kaplan, D3 of Brooklyn, N. Y., and Irving Goldston, D3 of Revere, Mass.

According to the charge, Sweeting's car was damaged in a collision at the intersection of Clinton and Burlington Oct. 18 when Kaplan and Goldston, riding in a car driven by Goldston, failed to completely stop at the stop sign.

School Board Recommends Re-Establishing Defense Classes to Be Held in Iowa City

Courses Would Offer Necessary Training In Defense Industries

Plans for the re-establishment of defense classes similar to those conducted in Iowa City high school last spring and summer are being considered, Supt. Iver A. Opstad announced yesterday.

Recommendations for the opening of defense classes were made by the school board at the regular meeting in October. The proposed classes would be held in the high school shops from 7 to 10 p.m. Courses are planned to give pre-employment training in vital defense industries such as aircraft, ordnance and construction. Opstad also pointed out that the program would be helpful to those doing general farm work.

Entrance qualifications demand that the applicant must be between the ages of 17 and 24 and must not be going to school. Both Iowa City residents and those living outside the city are eligible to enroll.

Men employed on N. Y. A. projects or enrolled in CCC camps will be permitted to take the courses. Preference will be given to those who have not taken the classes before, but those who have been previously enrolled are eligible.

Opstad said that it is desirable that all applicants register with the state employment office before work is begun.

Community Chest Drive To Close at Noon Today

The Iowa City Community chest drive will close today at noon, Alva B. Oathout, drive chairman, announced last night.

Nearly $15,000 in collections is expected to be recorded at the close of campaign activities. However, a few more contributions, mostly from people now out of town, are anticipated.

Local Man Indicted For Carrying Gun Without Legal Permit

Will Charles, Iowa City, was indicted in federal district court at Davenport Wednesday on a charge of possessing a sawed-off shotgun without a permit. Indicted at the same time was C. C. Alfred of Robinson, Ill., who was charged with impersonating a federal officer.

Alfred was arrested in Iowa City Sept. 7 for allegedly representing himself as an official of the United States geological survey.

According to complaints made by Johnson county residents to federal officers, Alfred led them to believe he was investigating the possibility of oil deposits.

Federal agents reported that Alfred also led local people to believe that oil had been located on their lands and then induced them to place orders for drilling machinery.

Alfred pleaded innocent in the federal court of his connection with the sale of oil drilling machinery. He will be given a jury trial.

Police Force Will Be Doubled To Handle Homecoming Traffic

21 Highway Patrolmen To Assist I.C. Police In Directing Traffic

Again this year the local police force will be doubled to handle the huge amount of Homecoming traffic in and about Iowa City, Police Chief Frank J. Burns said yesterday.

Along with this, Highway Patrol Chief C. A. Knee announced that he is sending 21 patrolmen to assist the Iowa City police force in directing the vast stream of traffic.

There will be no parking on either side of Burlington from Johnson street west to the stadium throughout the whole day, Chief Burns said.

After game time no west bound traffic will be allowed on Burlington from Dubuque to the stadium. There will be a policeman at all business intersections to aid out of town motorists.

Local merchants and truck drivers are asked to complete their heavy traffic and unloading before 10 o'clock Saturday morning and during the game only.

On Friday evening, Halloween, five squad cars will constantly police the residence districts for local pranksters.

Chief Burns asked that all Iowa Citizens cooperate to the fullest extent during the next two days. "With this willing cooperation only can we hope to maintain good traffic conditions."

Public Library Will Celebrate Book Week

Discussion of Child Reading Accompanies New Book Exhibition

A book exhibit and a discussion meeting will feature the Iowa City public library's program of activities to be held next week in conjunction with National Book week. The exhibit, which will be open to the public throughout the week, will display new books bought this fall for children and will be held in the juvenile room, according to Mrs. Jessie Gordon, librarian.

Although a time has not yet been set, a discussion group will meet sometime during the week to evaluate books and magazines of all kinds which might be added to the child's own library.

Invitations are extended to those interested in joining the discussion group, Mrs. Gordon said. However, as the group is limited in number, those wishing to attend are asked to contact Mrs. Gordon at the library.

The theme for National Book week this year is "Forward with Books" and during the one week activities throughout the nation emphasis will be placed on the importance of books in the development of character, morale, and judgment.

The primary purpose of book week, Mrs. Gordon said, is to interest parents in the best kinds of books to secure for the child's own library.

In relation to National Book week, John Studebaker, United States commissioner of education, says, "When people are burning books in other parts of the world, we ought to be distributing them with greater vigor, for books are amongst our greatest allies in the fight to make democracy work."

Police Judge William J. Smith yesterday fined 19 persons a total of $47 for minor violations. Judge Smith said that most of these cases are such minor offenses that with a bit more care they could be avoided.

The largest number leading the list were those fined $1 for illegal parking. They are Truman Shrader, John Albert, Frank Fisher, M. R. Faber, Thomas Robinson, Eldon Kesslering, A. B. Baldwin, John Ludwig and Virgil Hancher.

Those fined $5 for speeding were Dale Brinkmeyer, Wilbur J. Madden, Frank Jedlicka, Fred J. Dever and John Lindsey.

John Hanlon and Frank Kroll each paid $1 for ignoring traffic signals and $5 was assessed of John McNally and Ervin Switzer on charges of intoxication. Roy Roth was fined $1 for driving without a license.

Mann to Speak On War and the Future

Top Ranking Author Says America Should Prepare for Peace

Dr. Thomas Mann, famous naturalized American exiled from Germany, will deliver the second lecture in the current university series Tuesday, at 8 p.m. in Macbride auditorium. He will speak on "The War and the Future."

Dr. Mann, top ranking author, is an authority on present day political affairs. He has stated that "America's position is not to aid warring nations but to maintain good against evil forces."

Despite the acknowledged difficulty of our times, he has stated that "United States is better informed concerning world events than ever before." He believes unflinchingly in the principles of democracy and in the final victory of our type of government over all others.

"Humanity must first conquer the past that threatens it," Mann declares. "Don't forget for a moment that conquering alone is enough."

His advice to America is "Prepare now for the good peace which is to follow."

Little Hawks Outscore Franklin, 27 to 25

Captain Diehl Suffers Minor Leg Injury; May Not Be Able to Start Indiana Game

Red Frye Banged-Up, But Will Be in Shape For Opening Kickoff

Squad Runs Through Long Defensive Drill; Stops Passing Attack

Iowa's hopes of upsetting a favored Indiana team in the Hawks' Homecoming battle tomorrow were almost nil at practice yesterday, as Capt. Bill Diehl turned up with a leg injury, and it was thought at first that the Hawkeye leader would not be able to start the game.

But Dr. Robert N. Bartels, team physician, said that the injury was only a charley horse, and treatment should make Diehl ready to go at the start of the game. His leg was injured in the Purdue game last Saturday, but he failed to report it until Wednesday night, when it started to stiffen up.

Frye Scares Hawks
A minor scare, of major importance, came in the last 15 minutes of the practice, when George (Red) Frye, who would have to carry on in Diehl's place, received a blow on the shoulder which numbed his arm. It was not serious, however, for Frye was reported all right after the drill. Meanwhile, Diehl jogged slowly around the practice field, almost belying the doctor's report on him. If the Hawk, who has sparked the line all year with some great line-backing, does not start or play, his job will fall to Frye, who has won two letters and is an able substitute, and Bob Lauterbach, an inexperienced but willing junior.

See Hoosiers Again
Coach Eddie Anderson gave the squad another long defensive session against Indiana plays yesterday, with both the first and second strings alternating against the reserve team simulating Hoosier formations.

Nile Kinnick took the passing role of Billy Hillenbrand, leading passer of the Big Ten, but both he and Dick Hoerner, freshman back, had little success in connecting to receivers.

Frye was the only new member of the varsity lineup, which Anderson has stayed with all week in drills. Dr. Eddie said his "probable starters" would be Bill Parker and Bill Burkett, ends; Jim Walker and Bob Otto, tackles; Gene Curran and Ross Anderson, guards; Al Couppee, quarterback; Tom Farmer, left half; Bus Mertes, right half; and Bill Green, full—with the center position to be filled by either Frye or Diehl.

Hoosiers Leave For Date With Hawks

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (AP)—Indiana university's fight Hoosiers left at midnight last night, minus injured regular center John Tavener, for their Saturday football game at Iowa. They will practice on Coe college field in Cedar Rapids today and go to Iowa City Saturday noon. Earl Doloway and Billy Hillenbrand rehearsed punting in scrimmage between the two first teams yesterday.

Fall Baseball Practice Satisfies Coach Vogel

Coach Otto Vogel summed up the results of the fall baseball practices in a very general manner, when he stated yesterday that he was satisfied with the progress of the squad along some lines, but that he hoped to iron out certain weaknesses during the practices inside in the fieldhouse.

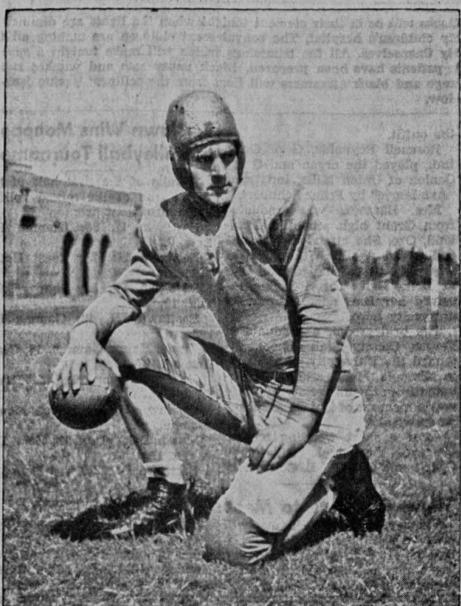

He stated that he was particularly pleased with the work of the pitchers. Several of the pitchers have gained the control which they lacked last year, and should make strong bids for starting assignments next spring. Although he made no mention of any hurlers in particular, the veterans included Dick Hein, Wendell Hill, Ted Gordinier, Bob Faber, Jack Kenney and Roy Stille.

Vogel added that several sophomore players showed a great deal of promise during the few weeks of the fall practices, and with the improvement they should show before spring, may be able to break into the lineup.

He was hesitant about mentioning names of those who might figure in Iowa's baseball hopes for this coming spring, because the season is still several months away and players who now look good may fade, while those who are receiving less attention now may improve rapidly and figure in his plans.

Passing the Buck

by BILL BUCKLEY

In celebration of Homecoming or something of the sort, the university of Iowa will hold its first organized pep meeting of the year tonight, and for the second time Hawkeye rooters will have a chance to give vent to a little of the rooting for their team, which has been stored up for almost six weeks.

Yes, most everybody will be there tonight. . . The band will actually be out, roped off in its own little space. . . The speakers will not be jostled by the friendly crowd—they'll be roped off in their own little space. . . The crowd will see what's going on, and, like good-natured dummies, will respond to the words and yells all planned for it. . . Police will be there to see that no one gets to shake any big shot's hand. . . Yes, everybody except the 500 couples going to the dance will be there.

Why does Iowa spirit have to be like it is? . . . Because the enthusiasm of the students is so stifled by rules and regulations, ropes and customs, that everybody's afraid to give vent to enthusiasm for fear of being branded a radical. . . There's no close spirit here, no outbreak of "we're behind you, team," no incentive for singing "On Iowa" out of pure desire to do so.

We received a letter the other day, signed "a disillusioned Iowa rooter, James Heyer." . . . Undoubtedly a university student, Heyer wrote this letter just after seeing the Hawks off for Purdue last Saturday. . . but let him tell you about it.

"I have read with interest your discussion of the poor school spirit, and I agree with you 100 per cent. . . It's lousy. . . But how can it be improved is another question, and one that should interest every student on the campus, especially our pep fraternity.

"On Friday morning, as we all know, the football team left the Rock Island station for the home of the Purdue Boilermakers. . . The night before they promised the students at the pep meeting that they would bring home the bacon. . . And I for one think they will really try to do just that. . . At this same pep meeting they must have felt the same way I did when the cheer leaders asked the students to be at the station this morning to give the team a big send-off—that is, they felt that at last the student body had worked up a little enthusiasm. . . Perhaps they were just as disappointed as I, when on arriving at the station, they saw such a few loyal rooters down to wish them well.

"Fresh from a high school where school athletic spirit and active, interested cheerleaders are both an accepted fact, I received quite a jolt when I discovered that not one of the cheerleaders had shown up to lead the students in their well-wishing.

"And now, dear editor, I ask you, how can you expect the student body to work up the old spirit if the alleged cheerleaders can't even show up at one of their own 'ideas'. . . It does seem that one of them might have made arrangements to be there, even if they knew that the representation of the school body would be small. . . For the next time they ask them to turn out, it will be even smaller, and with good reason.

"You have talked of poor spirit, and the cheer leaders have begged for better spirit, but when the time comes for them to do something

Bluehawk Gridders Gunning for Triumph In Last Game of Season Against Tipton

U-High Will Spring Passing Assault In Contest Here Today

U-high's Rivermen will be gunning for a climactic victory this afternoon as they meet Tipton here at 3:10 for their last game of the season.

A U-high aerial assault will be tested against the Tigers running attack, as the two conference teams battle out a tie standing. Each team has a 500 average in conference games. Against the Bluehawks' record of one win, two ties and one defeat, the Tigers have two, tied one and lost two.

Tigers Seek Revenge
To avenge a last year 12-12 defeat by the Rivermen, Tipton will place most of its offensive drive in the hands of two speedy backs, Bud Miller and John Wilson. These two boys run from a spread formation, sweeping the ends behind a well balanced line. Practically all of its season's points were scored in this manner. Tipton scored 47 conference points against opponents' 34, while U-high has scored 27 against 34.

Although the Rivermen have spent a week's practice on defense and in tackling practice, both teams will undoubtedly depend on their offenses to win.

A revised line will be the defensive hope of Coach Paul Brecher in this afternoon's tilt. After a hard week of tackling drill and scrimmage practice the forward wall looks better than any previous time this season. Bud Halvorsen, right tackle, is still the backbone, making his position practically invulnerable to opposing teams.

Bad Luck Again
The Tigers depend mainly on Virg Stinocher, left guard, and Capt. Carl Wehde, fullback, on the defensive side.

Ill-luck which has been dogging the U-high squad the entire season struck again yesterday afternoon. Charles Barber, first string back, failed to report for the last practice session because of a leg injury, and it is doubtful whether he will see action today.

Capt. Glenn Stimmel filled the left half position left open by Barber. The starting lineup was not issued for this afternoon, with some doubt still hovering over constructive toward such a spirit, they are nowhere to be seen. . . Perhaps it is unfair to put all the blame on them. . . I realize it was chilly this morning. . . But if there is poor school spirit, no one can be blamed more than our alleged cheer leaders. . . If you see what I mean."

That's calling a spade a spade, what? . . . We don't agree entirely with what Heyer has to say, especially blaming it all on the cheerleaders. . . But there's a lot in what he does say, and more in what has been left to say. . . Iowa plays at home tomorrow, and two will get you one that if there are any cheers for the Hawkeyes, they'll come from old alumni, who are really interested, and not from Iowa students, who don't give a . . . care.

Roth, Casey, Sangster, Danner Lead Way As Hawklets Dominate All Departments; Smith Keeps Thunderbolts in Ball Game

By BOB BUCKLEY

A well balanced City high team last night badly outplayed, but barely outscored Franklin high of Cedar Rapids in a free scoring game that finally ended 27 to 25 for Iowa City.

The Little Hawks scored in every period and excelled in every department—passing, plunging and kicking.

Joe Casey showed the boys from Franklin, his former teammates, how the game should be played, as he scored two touchdowns and was the mainstay in the Hawklet defense.

Delta Theta Pi Whips Gamma Eta Gamma In Champion Form

Delta Theta Pi of the professional fraternity league, served notice that it would be a championship contender yesterday, with a 27 to 7 victory over the Gamma Eta Gamma team. Wendell Pendleton put the losers in an early lead with a pass to Rolston for six points. The same play was responsible for the extra point. Chuck Honnold, star passing back of Delta Pi, evened up the game with a pass to Jim Brown, and Honnold droppicked the extra

The Thunderbolts started out strong, and had a touchdown within the first 30 seconds of play. Iowa City received the kickoff and after two unsuccessful plunges, tried to punt. Phil Bramsen, right tackle, broke through the City high line to block Bill Sangster's boot, and Frankie Powers fell on the ball for the first score. Orville Lunning plunged for the extra point, and Franklin led 7-0.

Hawklets Score Second
Immediately Iowa City got a break as Sangster kicked out of bounds on the 4-yard line and Delzell made a bad kick trying to get out of the hole. The Little Hawks took the ball on Franklin's 27-yard line and immediately the passing attack began to function. Sangster hit Dave Danner along the sideline, and the halfback went out of bounds on the 4. Bob Roth, who played his best game of the season, plunged over for the score, but Franklin still led as Dean Williams missed the kick for the extra point, his first miss of the season.

Then again it was the blazing speed of the Thunderbolt star, Herald Smith, that stunned the Hawklets. After several futile attempts at the line, Smith circled his right end, cut back, and ran 49 yards for a touchdown. Dean Barnhizer was rushed into the line-up, but his droppick went wide and the Thunderbolts led 13 to 7.

This ended the scoring in the first quarter, but in the second stanza the Red and White machine got rolling again. Both Casey and Sangster pushed the Franklin line all over the field, but it was another pass from Sangster to Danner that put the ball in a scoring position. With the ball on the 30-yard line and eight yards to go for a first down, Danner pulled down a perfect pass. He was stopped on the 4-yard line. In two plays, "Joltin' Joe" Casey scored the touchdown, and Dean Williams added the extra point to make the halftime score 13-13.

The second half started off with a bang, as Iowa City showed everything they had. Consistent gains on plunges put the ball on the 4-yard line from where Casey took a lateral from Sangster and scored. Again the dependable Williams converted.

Then Smith took charge again, intercepting an Iowa City pass and putting the ball on the 46-yard line. Two plays and Smith cut around end to run 50 yards and score standing up. This made the score 20-19 and Iowa City took its turn.

It tore the Franklin line apart and scored again on a pass from Sangster to Danner from the 5-yard line. Williams again booted the ball through the uprights, and with an eight-point lead the Little Hawks seemed satisfied.

Franklin Scores Last
But the Thunderbolts weren't with one minute left to play, Smith faded and threw a 30-yard aerial to Delzell, who was finally tackled on the Iowa City 13. Another pass, and they were on the 1. Delzell scored from this point, but the extra point was wide, and the game ended with Iowa City holding a two-point margin.

3 Purdue Sophs to Start
LAFAYETTE, Ind. (AP)—Three sophomores will be in Purdue university's backfield at the start of Saturday's Fordham football game. Coach Mal Elward said yesterday just before 12 Boilermakers left by train for New York City. Sophs Bob Hajzyk, Frank Meakin and Bob Chester will start with Senior Fullback John Petty. Purdue will practice today at Westchester Country club at Rye, N. Y.

the first touchdown, and then the same passer threw to Bob Tower for the conversion. In the last half, Leutwiler passed again to Osterberg for a score, and then personally ran the ball across for the extra point.

Homecoming Badges of the Past

Martin D. Pederson, 1504 E. College, is shown above holding his complete set of SUI homecoming badges. The first badge bearing a resemblance to those of the present was issued in 1924. However, an undated black and gold pin was sold in 1923. Pederson, who likes football because there is "lots of action," thinks that the best game he has seen was between Iowa and Notre Dame in 1921. Predicting a Hawkeye victory Saturday he said "a great team can't be kept down."

Homecoming House Displays To Be Selected

Sorority, Fraternity Decorations To Receive Gold Cups

Committees from the local Lions and Kiwanis clubs will judge sorority and fraternity homecoming decorations tonight and tomorrow morning to determine winners in the contests sponsored by those organizations.

The sorority whose display merits the Lions club cup will entertain that organization for its meeting Nov. 12. The winner will be publicly announced at that time. Kappa Alpha Theta won the cup for 1940 homecoming.

Committee members appointed to judge the decorations tonight are Harold Donnelly, chairman, Frank Parker and Prof. Walter Daykin of the college of commerce.

For 21 years the Iowa City Kiwanis club has awarded a traveling cup to the winning fraternity display. This year's decision will be announced about 11 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Judging will be done this evening for lighting effects, and tomorrow morning for theme chosen and skill in execution.

Dean Mason Ladd of the college of law, president of the Kiwanis club, appointed George Koser, chairman, Charles O. Ingersoll and J. E. Beigle as judges.

The traveling cup, won by Delta Upsilon last year, may be kept by any fraternity winning the contest for three successive years.

MEET PLATYPUS—MUSEUM ODDITY

On display in mammal hall of the University museum is perhaps the strangest combination in the animal world—the platypus, also known as the duck bill or duck mole. About 18 inches long, with brownish-gray fur, the platypus has a bill like a duck, a spur on each hind leg like a rooster, digs a hole in the ground like a ground squirrel, swims in the water, lays eggs like a bird, and nurses its young. Early Dutch sailors brought back skins of these animals to England, but were discredited for many years because scientists claimed that no such animal could be in existence.

SUI Journalism Graduate Writes Expert Kitchen Guide

WSAU Continuity Writer Suggests Clever New Hints for Homemakers

By CORINNE HAYES
Daily Iowan Food Editor

Hot off the press comes "If You Cook" authored by a 1938 graduate of the University of Iowa school of journalism.

Lenore De Vries managed to find time to write this expert kitchen guide despite her duties as director of women's activities and continuity writer for radio station WSAU in Wausau, Wis.

Recipes have no place in Miss De Vries' clever book. Feeling that homemakers are eager to learn new kitchen efficiency and cooking she deals with many facts about many things.

Kitchen Is Office
"The kitchen is the office in which the homemaker spends many of the working hours of her career—it deserves careful planning."

Miss De Vries suggests that you treat your kitchen and kitchen methods to a little conscientious face-lifting for more enjoyable working time.

Food containers should be arranged so that you can get at them easily with labels to the front for quick selection. Shelf lining material can be oilcloth, linoleum, wallpaper or regular shelf paper. The last two can be covered with wax paper and easily wiped clean with a damp cloth.

"If you are using oilcloth on your table, pieces of adhesive tape or felt glued to the underside of the cloth where it hits the table corners help prevent cracking."

And Miss De Vries further recommends that you varnish oilcloth with a clear varnish to make it wear longer and keep its color better.

In keeping with the full spirit of the occasion, the banks of Iowa City will transact no business after 12 o'clock noon on SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 1st

GRADUATE WRITES COOKING GUIDE

After discussing the problems of homemakers with them, Lenore De Vries, a 1938 graduate of the university, has written a cooking book. "If You Cook" is a summary of kitchen shortcuts to efficiency and fun. Miss De Vries is on the staff of radio station WSAU in Wausau, Wis.

small kitchen equipment—she tells just what you actually need and how to use it best. Silver and other household metals, marketing and correct food storage are but a few of the other topics discussed by the author.

Dish washers—special instructions and shortcuts are generously presented in "If You Cook."

And, according to the author, you should put a flourish in those snacks for students and workers. (Fresh vegetables and relishes can be wrapped in a piece of dampened cloth.)

Homemakers are advised to be constantly on the alert for new suggestions about cooking which will come from the radio, publications or chatting with friends. Don't count on your memory to serve you, jot down all hints as you get them and file them for future use.

(Illustrations used in the column were drawn by Dick Spencer.)

Hangers Help
How many times have you lost your place in a cook book? Well, the solution is simply a skirt hanger—it will keep the small book open to the desired page and can be hung in a convenient spot. To better protect your card file, shellac recipe cards—to keep them handy when in use, fasten two snap clothes pins near the work table at eye level.

Miss De Vries tells us how to enlist utensils and gadgets for double or even triple duty.

Don't limit the use of your kitchen scissors to cutting fruits—mince parsley and chives, trim crusts for dainty sandwiches or cut bacon slices in small pieces.

Put your glass pie plate over your cooking—it'll make a cover you can see through without removing. And that hourglass egg timer will indicate when your three minutes are up for cooking or for that long distance phone call.

Toys Can Be Used
A trip to the playroom or the toy counter will do wonders in helping you keep house. A small slate or blackboard placed in a convenient spot is just the thing for jotting down those items you must remember to buy. For sweeping stairs, under furniture or dusting behind pictures, you'll find a child's broom handy.

Are you a wiener worrier? Are you afraid of losing the wieners in the fire? Use a wire corn popper for cooking wieners over an open fire to prevent juices from running out as they do when wieners are pierced.

Miss De Vries devotes several pages of her book to large and

Donut Jack-O-Lanterns Appear for Halloween
Donuts have always been traditional Halloween food, but they can be as modern as tomorrow's stratosphere plane if they step out in a new disguise. A unique idea for Halloween party favors is found in the Donut Jack-O-Lantern which is a palate-tickling novelty and easy to make.

Donut Jack-O-Lantern
12 plain donuts
2 egg whites
3/4 cups confectioner's sugar
1/2 teaspoon orange extract

Insert a wooden skewer in each donut. Beat egg white slightly, add sugar gradually, beating until stiff; then knead until smooth and creamy. Melt over hot water; add flavoring and coloring. Dip donuts in fondant, remove to waxed paper and chill. Draw a jack-o-lantern face on each with melted chocolate. Serves six.

NEW MENU TRICK
Brazil Nutaroons
2 egg whites
1/2 cup sugar
1/4 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 cup toasted Brazil nuts, coarsely rolled

Beat eggs foamy but not dry; beat in sugar and salt gradually, add toasted Brazil nuts and drop by teaspoonful on an ungreased baking sheet. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for 15 minutes. Remove from pan at once. The recipe makes 4 dozen nutaroons.

Brazil Nut-Meal Banana Bread
1/2 cup butter
1 cup sugar
2 eggs, well beaten
1 cup ripe mashed bananas
1 teaspoon lemon juice
2/3 cups sifted flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 1/4 cups toasted Brazil nuts, rolled fine

Cream butter and sugar until light and fluffy. Add eggs, ripe bananas and lemon juice, mixing well. Sift together flour, baking powder and salt. Add to first mixture gradually, mixing well after each addition. Add toasted Brazil nuts. Cover bottom of loaf pan with waxed paper, grease well, and fill 2/3 full. Bake in moderate oven (375 degrees F.) for 1 1/2 hours.

Brazil Nut Keep-Forever Cake
1 cup water
2 cups seeded raisins
1/2 cup brown sugar
1/2 cup liquid honey
1/3 cup shortening
2 1/2 cups sifted flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
1 teaspoon soda
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon allspice
1/8 teaspoon nutmeg
1 cup toasted Brazil nuts, coarsely rolled

Mix together in a saucepan water, raisins, brown sugar, honey and shortening, simmer for three minutes. Cool and sift together flour, baking powder, soda, salt and spices. Add this mixture to cool liquid, a little at a time, mixing well. Stir in toasted Brazil nuts. Cover the bottom of a long, narrow loaf pan with waxed paper, grease well and fill 2/3 full. Bake in a slow oven (350 degrees F.) for 1 1/2 hours. This makes 1 large loaf or 2 small loaves.

SERVE THEM APRICOT CRESCENT
For your Homecoming week end guests, why not prepare an Apricot Crescent? Time o day makes no difference for this recipe. For breakfast, luncheon or dinner, not to mention coffee or tea, your family and friends will never let it return to the kitchen.

The foundation for this economical quick coffee cake is a rich scone dough. Any fruit filling for this crescent is equally as good as the apricots and raisins used here. During apple season, finely chopped apples flavored with a dash of cinnamon and nutmeg make an ideal filling. Tender plump prunes are also good and as always, nutritious and flavorful.

Apricot Crescent
2 cups sifted flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon sugar
4 tablespoons shortening
2 eggs
1/2 cup milk
apricot filling

Sift together flour, baking powder, salt and sugar. Cut in shortening. Beat 1 whole egg and 1 egg yolk reserving 1 white for top. Add milk to beaten eggs and add all dry ingredients. Stir only enough to make dough hold together. Turn out on lightly floured board and knead 1/2 minute. Roll out to rectangular sheet about 1/4 inch thick. Brush with melted butter, and spread with apricot filling. Roll up jelly-roll fashion, sealing edge firmly. Curve into a crescent on greased cookie sheet. With scissors, cut outer edge of crescent almost to the center, in slices about 1 inch thick. Turn each slice slightly on its side. Brush roll with remaining egg white and sprinkle with sugar. Bake in moderately hot oven (425 degrees F.) 15 to 20 minutes. Makes one large crescent.
