Jap Troops Land on Java

British 'Chutists Hit Nazis Allied Sea, Air Forces Strike Heavy Blows at Enemy Units

English Troops Land at Mouth Of Seine River

1st Successful Raid On Nazi-Held French Coast in Two Years

LONDON (AP)—Striking boldly into German-garrisoned France for the first time since 1940, British paratroopers and heavily-armed infantry Friday night carried out a successful surprise invasion 100 miles across the English channel and for a few brief hours spread terror and confusion among the Nazi defenders of the mouth of the Seine.

Setting what London quarters believed was the pattern for a new 1942 style of British offensive action which may pave the way to a major smash at Germany from a western front before the year is out, the large force operated with strong RAF and royal navy support under a combined operation headquarters, completely destroyed a vital radio location center near Le Havre, and returned with the only survivors of a German garrison as their prisoners.

Not a single plane was lost in the operation, though large numbers of bombers were used to ferry the paratroopers and many fighters were used to put an umbrella over the expedition both ways across the channel, a combined army and navy communicate said.

Likewise the naval forces which aided in the landing operations were "very light," the communicate added.

Dropping out of a moonlight sky into the light mists which shrouded their movement, the paratroopers quickly formed to attack their objective, the radio location center at Bruneval, along the coast about 12 miles north of Le Havre.

Low-flying fighters swooped down ahead of the parachutist-laden bombers commanded by Wing Commander P. C. Pickard, hero of the documentary British film, "Target for Tonight," creating a diversion for main attack at the mouth of the river which leads directly to Paris.

Although strong resistance was encountered, the communicate said, the radio location apparatus used to warn of the approach of raiding British planes on the Brittany peninsula, was "completely destroyed and heavy casualties inflicted by our parachutists."

Meanwhile, operating with split-minute precision, British fleet units approaching the Bruneval beach began shelling the area and put out assault boats with infantry which overran the beach defenses, in cooperation with the parachutists attacking from the air.

Kimmel, Short to Stand Trial On 'Dereliction of Duty' Charge

WASHINGTON (AP)—Major General Walter C. Short and Rear Admiral Husband E. Kimmel were ordered yesterday to stand trial by courts martial on the charge of "dereliction of duty" for failing to take proper safeguards against a surprise Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor.

Until the trials are held, possibly after the war, the former army and navy commanders of the Hawaiian defenses were permitted to retire to civil life on the regulation retired pay of $6,000 a year for officers of their rank.

Army Reveals Enemy Aliens Being Interned At Camp in Wisconsin

CHICAGO (AP)—The army announced yesterday that groups of enemy aliens apprehended by the U.S. Department of Justice are being received at Camp McCoy, Wis., for "permanent internment."

Making 'Fast Progress' Detroit (AP)—C. E. Wilson, president of General Motors Corporation, said yesterday that "we have made faster progress on our war production than we had even hoped to make."

Letters Made Public An exchange of letters made public by the White House disclosed that the chief executive wrote Donald Nelson, chairman of the war production board, yesterday that the months just ahead were the "critical months of the war," that present output schedules must be exceeded, and that "to win we must fight."

AEF Helps Inaugurate War Savings Week In Northern Ireland

WITH THE AEF IN NORTHERN IRELAND (AP)—Husky American troops paraded through Belfast yesterday, helping the citizens of north Ireland inaugurate war savings week during which they hope to raise $22,000,000 to "adopt" an aircraft carrier.

Crucial Spring Speed-Up Plan Is Made Public

WASHINGTON (AP)—Told by President Roosevelt that victory depends in large measure on increased arms production this "crucial spring," the war production board yesterday ordered a fresh national drive to quicken the present rate of output.

The new speed-up program calls for establishment of joint labor-management war plant committees to consider all suggestions for increasing production, 24-hour a day use of machines, awards to employers and workers for outstanding accomplishment, and faster conversion of factories to war needs.

Letters Made Public An exchange of letters made public by the White House disclosed that the chief executive wrote Donald Nelson, chairman of the war production board, yesterday that the months just ahead were the "critical months of the war," that present output schedules must be exceeded, and that "to win we must fight."

"This is total war," the president said. "We are all under fire—soldiers and civilians alike. No one is a spectator, we are all belligerents."

"The urgency of today must be felt in every shop and factory producing war goods, in every home and on every farm. Then we shall achieve the spirit and cooperative action that carries a team to victory."

Raise Production Now "I therefore direct you to take every possible step to raise production now, to bring home to labor and management alike the supreme importance of war production this crucial spring."

Replying, Nelson said he had discussed the matter with war, navy and maritime commission officials, and received pledges of their "hearty cooperation" in a "continuing national drive, designed not merely to increase production at once, but to keep stepping it up further as the war continues."

OPA Clamps Price Ceilings On Canned Fruits, Vegetables

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government clamped price ceilings on 25 canned fruits and vegetables yesterday in the first application of such regulations to any food other than sugar.

Announcing simultaneously further details of sugar rationing plans, the office of price administration said ration books would be denied to persons having more than two months' supply.

The OPA's canned goods order forbade canners and wholesalers to charge more for a selected list of items than the highest price they received in the period between February 23 and February 27.

Retailers will be responsible for stabilizing their own prices, Administrator Leon Henderson declared, adding that "should this responsibility prove too much, OPA will take steps to control prices at the retail source."

Blanketed under the ceiling, effective tomorrow, were canned apples, applesauce, apricots, cherries, fruit cocktail, fruit salad, peaches, pears, pineapples, plums, asparagus, all dried beans, lima beans, snap beans, beets, carrots, corn, peas, pumpkins, sauerkraut, spinach, sweet potatoes, tomatoes, tomato juice and tomato catsup.

Henderson said the action, to be superseded within 60 days by a permanent price schedule, was necessary to halt speculation, profiteering and price increases which since last August have amounted to about 20 per cent at the canners' level, and about 10 per cent at the retail level.

Interpreting War News— Weapons for Victory Can Only Be Forged In U.S. Factories

By KIRKE L. SIMPSON
Wide World War Analyst

The second world war enters the mad month of March amid a fury of conflicting expressions from allied spokesmen on how it should be fought — which would bode no good for unity of action but for one circumstance.

All such discussions, whether by British, Dutch, Russian, Australian or Chinese debaters of strategy, agree that the weapons to achieve ultimate victory over the axis can be forged only in the American arsenal of democracy.

Accept that thesis — and none challenges it — and it follows inevitably that the final decisions on when, where and how those made-in-USA war weapons are to be used must rest with Washington.

That is the reason the great general staff of the united nations is located in Washington; that tends to force unity of action by the allies.

There can be small doubt that Japanese success in breaching the united nations' defense line at Singapore imposed grave new problems. Singapore, even when closely besieged, was the connecting link of the Australia - Dutch Indies-China-India front. It is obvious that it was greatly hoped at the time of the Roosevelt-Churchill conferences that Singapore could hold out for months.

Churchill all but said so in his recent accounting to parliament. He deferred discussion of why Singapore collapsed so quickly, saying there were more urgent matters to be dealt with. He made no effort, however, to conceal his feelings that there was ground for criticism of the way the final defense of Singapore was handled.

That is water over the dam. The fall of the great British citadel has thrown upon Java the burden of holding the already dangerously breached allied defense front while American power is mustered to turn the tables on Japan. That is why strategists watched breathlessly as the united nations and Japan locked in a great sea battle off the Java coast over the week end.

If Java should fall, the breach in the allied front in the western Pacific-Indian ocean area would be very great. It would mean probably a complete revision of the single command arrangements of the allies in that area with General Sir Archibald Wavell as generalissimo.

Jap Sources Claim Three Allied Vessels Sunk in Java Battle

TOKYO (From Japanese Broadcasts), (AP)—Japanese imperial headquarters asserted yesterday that one united nations cruiser and three destroyers had been sent to the bottom by the Japanese fleet in the battle of the Java sea.

The official announcement said the battle was joined Friday night. It mentioned no Japanese losses.

The Japanese news agency, Domei, claimed that a British cruiser of the Exeter type was set afire and "put out of action" in a bombing attack off Batavia.

Three Dutch warships of 3,000 tons were plastered with bomb hits off Batavia and one ship was set afire, the newspaper Nichi Nichi claimed.

Imperial headquarters officially claimed still another sea victory at Wake island where shore guns were said to have repulsed an unidentified naval squadron.

U.S. Subs Push War To Enemy's Doorstep

HONOLULU (AP)—American sailors who "hadn't seen the light of day for months" unfolded stories of triumphs under the seas yesterday and told of carrying the war "right to the enemy's front doorstep" in the far Pacific.

They also reported Wake island, which fell to the Japanese Dec. 22 after a two-week siege, was "deserted." Date of the submarine inspection of Wake was not given.

"Their stories," a navy spokesman said, reveal for the first time a type of heroism that gets scant publicity because submarine operations of necessity are secret operations.

The navy, in a release from the office of the commander in chief of the Pacific fleet, gave its own description of the men as "grinning, triumphant, taciturn," and said reports indicated their craft torpedoed enemy ships "sometimes almost in view of lookouts at his principal home ports."

Regarding the Wake island reports, the navy's announcement said two enemy destroyers were wrecked and beached during the savage Japanese assault.

Japanese Cruiser, Three Destroyers Hit In Great Sea Battle Near Coast of Java

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Japanese invasion troops landed on Java last night and today. The battle for the tough little Dutch stronghold was presumably going full blast with air, sea and land forces engaged.

A statement from official sources announced the landings in the province of Bantam, in the Bay of Inramaju and about 19 miles east of Rembang, but there were few details of the fighting. It was known that united nations naval and air forces put up a bitter fight against the landing contingents at Bantam and presumably heavy fighting was in progress at the two other points of invasion.

Dutch, Australian and United States planes were in action against the invasion fleets and united nations naval forces were in the thick of the battle on Java Sea.

Reds Continue To Blast Nazi Units in North

MOSCOW (AP)—Desperate Nazi attempts to save the trapped 18th army by rushing up air-ferried reinforcements drawn from the spring offensive reserve have been frustrated by Russian anti-aircraft gunners and fighter planes, dispatches from the Staraya Russa front declared last night.

They reported shooting down big German supply and troop planes and capturing prisoners who said they were sent to the front from camps in Germany where they were being trained for the spring drive.

Nazis Lash Out Southwest of Moscow, on the front extending through the Donets basin and into the Crimea the Germans were reported lashing out fiercely in counter attacks possibly intended to divert the strong Russian pressure in the northwest.

The red army acknowledged that at one place on the southern front the Germans drove a wedge four miles wide and six miles deep into the Russian line, but said Russian counter measures straightened the front and wiped out the assault force.

Sororities Rank Best In Group Percentage Of Phoenix Donations
A total of $274.22 has been contributed to the Phoenix Fund—a post-war aid fund for students called to the service of the nation—in the first three weeks of the semester collection period, it last night by Dick Lindquist, A3 of Des Moines, treasurer of the Fund's central council.

He listed total contributions for the first week of collections at $102.40, or 1.5 cents per student; contributions for the second week fell to $80.96. The third week's total was $90.86—or 1.4 cents per student.

Sororities ranked best in the percentage of their groups to contribute, he announced, while Hillcrest and Currier had led all other groups in total collections over the three-week period.

Members of the council and their collectors had a tough row to hoe as their campaign got underway for funds to bring Iowa students, called to the colors, back to school to finish their academic work when the war is over.

They had to tackle the job of contacting thousands of students, many of whom live in town and can't be called upon personally by collectors for the Fund.

Upper Hand for Moment

But for the moment at least the allies held the upper hand—had, despite the "overwhelming superiority in numbers" of the enemy, put out of action the 8,500-ton cruiser Mogami and three destroyers, part of a powerful enemy force that was escorting a fleet of 40 troop ships.

So successful were the allied blows—launched by Dutch, British and Australian units as well as an American force consisting of a cruiser and five destroyers—that the huge convoy was dispersed and the transports "when last seen" were steaming north to safety.

None of the American ships were damaged heavily and all were intact—intact to meet a new thrust which the enemy might make at any moment, for from Bandung, Java's military headquarters, came word that the shell-shattered units of the Japanese armada were massing again in the northern reaches of the Java Sea to return to the long-threatened assault on this well-fortified island.

In Burma, where the situation already was admittedly "very serious," the invader's troops were believed massing for a new offensive on Rangoon, and London acknowledged the Rangoon-Mandalay railway line probably had been cut. Yet the outmanned British imperial defenders still appeared to be exacting a punishing price for every enemy gain. Some 2,000 Japanese infantrymen were wiped out in a single attack on a Sittang river bridgehead.

On Bataan peninsula there again was a lull in the fighting.

House Okays Second War Powers Bill After 4-Day Debate

WASHINGTON (AP)—The second war powers bill, vesting vast emergency authority in the hands of federal agencies and the president, was passed yesterday by the house little changed from the form originally advocated by the administration.

The action came on voice vote as the climax to four days of heated debate.

As finally passed and sent back to the senate for concurrent action on comparatively minor amendments, the measure contained a controversial provision giving federal reserve banks limited authority to purchase government obligations from the treasury. Under present statutes, they must be purchased on the open market.

Minority Groups as Allies: Dangers Face Them in War

It is often wise to examine the nature of one's allies when one is engaged in desperate, last-ditch fight to preserve what one has and has had for a number of years. Not so much their nationality, for we all know the British, Dutch, Australian and American peoples are knotted together in this war.

Social standards in America amount to so many beans, and we dismiss them as such. Labor is hardly a minority, but if labor can be called such, it can also be said that labor, above all forces, has created more obstacles in the path of an American sweep to victory than any other single force.

Religious minorities have, in the main, been of little importance. The Jew, if he is in the minority, has worked just as hard as any Gentile. Other religious groups—small but important, because this is the United States—have turned with a great fervor to the cause of national defense.

From Singapore to Curacao, the black man has joined us in the fight to keep the world for freedom. In the United Nation's armies are hundreds upon thousands of black men—with General MacArthur, with General Percival, with American, Australian and British forces in Java. Their gallant fighting is a thing to be cherished. In the United States the black man has not shirked his task, either.

It cannot be said he has received a "good deal," either. Brass-hat bigotry in the armed forces, and foolish traditions have acted against his best interests.

We ought to remember in times like these that each of our allies deserves just what we ourselves are getting, whatever that may be. He deserves warm clothing and good food and the right to the pursuit of happiness. He should be permitted to eat where, as and how we do, to live in the same kind of house as ours, and on the same street. There should be no vicious legislation against him, no legislation that is hushed about in public but comes sharply to the fore in committee and council meetings.

Laborer, religious objector, or colored man—each deserves his fair place in our society in war time.

A Good Man Is Mr. Henderson

Mr. Henderson is his own publicity agent, and a good one.

Big Leon may be right (and we think he is), and he may be wrong (economics is a treacherous maze, and the administrator's convictions are pretty strong). His is a whale of a job. But he's a whale of a man—with only respect implied.

To go down with Henderson would be to go down fighting. He has a faith in himself and a faith in his country that can't be ignored. He had to have or he'd never have broadjumped the indifference and opposition he faced in Washington. And he had to be a man to "tell" the "Institute"; that was a glorious showing.

No, he doesn't need our pat on the back, and he'll probably never feel it—but at any rate, Let's Help Henderson.

NEWS BEHIND THE NEWS

By PAUL MALLON

Domestic Communists Take Advantage of Soviet Victory

WASHINGTON—The domestic communists are taking advantage of American admiration for brilliant red military successes in Russia, to organize a campaign to drive out of this government certain officials whom they long have disliked—presumably so they can get their own boys in.

The local reds hastily ducked underground when Stalin signed the treaty with Hitler promising neutrality and supplies at the start of the war, a treaty which made the war possible. The locals became nazis then.

Now they are democrats. Their homeland has been attacked. Although accustomed as they are to having the party line take more hairpin turns than the Burma road, they have required a little time to get their breath back from the last one and adjust their vocal chords to the democratic tune again.

The first shrill test of their re-adjusted larynx came only ten days ago when they took up a phrase dropped by Mr. Roosevelt at a press conference and discovered the presence of a "Cliveden set" in Washington. Their magazine "The New Masses" published a list of women, senators and government officials whom it charged were in this "set".

No one here paid much attention because the communists tried to lay it all on the head of Mrs. Evelyn Walsh McLean, who has been prominent socially but not active politically.

The magazine was not quite clear about what Mrs. McLean's "set" was supposed to be doing. It is implied they had spread some ill-founded rumors, but did not mention any such rumors. It said Hitler must have heard of the rumors from Mrs. McLean's salon, but did not say how he got them or how they could have done him any good if they were ill-founded. Clarity, however, has never been an essential of the party line when it is nazi, democratic or unblushingly communistic.

The "set" notion was falling like a dud when the communist newspaper, The Daily Worker, picked it up. The paper started running editorials like the one Thursday entitled "The Cliveden Set and the Duty of the Press" in which it complained because the American press has not taken up its war against the "set".

Also it published a story that CIO President Philip Murray had written all members of congress asking that the Dies committee be dissolved because the committee had not investigated the Cliveden set, American appeasers and nazi organizations and agents.

The Daily Worker heralded this as "the gathering storm against Dies," but it was still obviously having difficulty gathering it.

Obviously the most energetic commie storm gatherer would not do all this cloud-rolling just to annoy a society woman. Of course, such a low if somewhat thin cloud might befog popular attention from strikes by some of Mr. Murray's unions, such as the aluminum strike in Cleveland which was holding up bombers. That might make his interest understandable but not that of the communists who are waiting in Russia for the bombers.

The commie interest was apparent in their choice of government officials for their Cliveden set blacklist, a list to which their paper is daily adding. Obviously, too, their "Cliveden set" could not be the same one Mr. Roosevelt was talking about because at the head of their blacklist were:

J. Edgar Hoover, the FBI pursuer of nazi agents; Assistant state secretary Adolph Berle, presidential brain trust.

Assistant state secretary Breckinridge Long. A lot of secondary state department officials were in the list including an officer who once refused a passport to a red, and a few formerly isolationist senators like Wheeler and Nye added some flavor to it. Also included was Eleanor Patterson, another society woman, who is running a newspaper here. What these people said about Roosevelt before the war was nothing compared to what the nazified Daily Worker was saying.

Great Help to the Nazis— If any of this makes much sense to you from any standpoint, you are a better reporter than I. As long as no one can say who spread what rumor, or did anything worse, the campaign itself stands as the greatest possible help the nazi cause has received.

It is an open boldfaced attempt to cast treasonous implications upon and to oust certain officials of Mr. Roosevelt's government, including the one who is conducting anti-nazi espionage.

It is the old red international commintern phase of communistic propaganda—trying to run every government in the world—rearing its head at just the wrong time when this government is doing everything it can to aid Moscow. It is attempted interference with Mr. Roosevelt's government just when he is trying to help them most.

No wonder Stalin tries to run the party line from Moscow. With such lightheaded zealots as the local communists doing the wrong thing for him at the wrong time, it is clear some intelligence is needed from somewhere.

A MAN ABOUT MANHATTAN

This Is the Way The Rialto Spins—By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—This is the way the rialto spins, my friends... Two big empty trucks drive up to a theater in West 44th street.

A blonde young woman is found in a midtown hotel with her head bashed in. All she has on is a pair of black stockings. Clutched tightly in her hand is a shiny new quarter... Stuff for an O. Henry.

A song writer who has been married seven times continues to be the wonder of Times Square... His name is Joe Howard. At night he sings all the songs that made him famous... And the most famous of these is the one that wonders, "I Wonder Who's Kissing Her Now?"

Rudy Vallee tells John Barrymore he expects to receive a commission in the navy soon, and Barrymore hawks, "One more reason for a two-ocean navy."

Lawrence Tibbett thinks he'll be able to weather the sugar shortage all right. The singer owns a 120-acre farm named Honey Hill. On it are a dozen hives of bees. "A little honey," says Tibbett, "can make you forget all about your sugar any day."

A pup dachshund in a Rockefeller Center beauty salon moves around with a magnet attached to its neck—picking up hairpins... A noted woman columnist, Dorothy Thompson, attends a Broadway showing of "Cafe Crown," a play about an eccentric eating house down town.

After while there is a fracas, and the women are finally evicted—but not until Miss Thompson has been kicked in the stomach and severely bitten in the hand.

Meanwhile, up town, the chef of a famous nightclub gets into an argument with his girl... The first thing anybody knows this chef is down on the floor gurgling out his life's blood.

My friend is ill... But when Dr. Tucker (no kin) of Roosevelt hospital gets there her friend is beyond all earthly cares. Then the police start throwing questions at her. "My mind," the girl tells them, "went blank... and I don't know what happened."

This, my friends, is how the rialto spins... Congressman Melvin Maas and Congressman Dow Harter. 9:30—Keep 'Em Rolling

Locally, the new system raises questions which should be dealt with directly... First, it should be ascertained if a considerable number of students will be affected adversely—that is, if local draft boards will cease their program of deferment until the end of a term as now practiced.

If the student is then inducted, the committee will deal with his personal property by storing it in Iowa City, sending it to his home, or disposing of it in any way directed by the inductee. His other interests could also be attended to by the committee.

THE locale for this minor idyll is New Hope, a new town in western Iowa just across the borders from Dakota. New Hope has been settled for the most part by immigrants from the eastern states.

These entities from Miss Suckow's story, they are seen and told through the eyes and thoughts of two small children, Clarence, the banker's son, and Delight, the new minister's daughter.

When Delight leaves, the brightness of New Hope is dimmed for Clarence. At the same time, there is the sense of the shadow over the town which will grow with the coming years—when the newness wears off and the community dreams fail to be realized.

It is this hint of another side of the picture which saves "New Hope" from sentimentality. As can be gathered, this is vastly different from Miss Suckow's previous books, and it is unfortunate that it will invariably be compared with "The Folks." Characterization is good, and the author's genuine talent for catching on paper the rhythms and melody patterns of Iowa speech is unimpaired.

The Johnson county public health nurse's office has been moved from the second floor of the courthouse to a room adjoining the recorder's office on the first floor, officials said yesterday.

The move was made to provide room for the Johnson county tire rationing board which will in the future occupy the former nurse's office.

As yet, the board of supervisors has not chosen a successor to Aila Hiltunen, county nurse, whose resignation becomes effective April 1. Miss Hiltunen will assume a position with the state services for crippled children.

Has the young tyrant of the house upset his cod liver oil all over his bed? To remove the stains from bedding and linens, cover with equal parts of banana oil and thick soap paste. Let it stand for thirty minutes, then wash out in warm suds and rinse thoroughly.

Pans blackened by excess cooking time are an eye-sore to the fastidious cook. To clean them, fill the pot half full of water, add half a cup of vinegar and bring to a boil. The black will wipe right off after this simple operation.

Grease spots in clothing can be removed in a jiffy with a hot iron and a blotter. Tear the blotter in half, placing a piece on both sides of the spot. The hot iron over the blotter will melt the grease, which will be absorbed by the blotter.

By replacing ice cubes with boiling water, a refrigerator can be defrosted in 20 minutes instead of the usual over-night operation.

"Give Uncle Sam a Lift With Thrift"

Spring's coming! To get that winter look off light leather furniture use a sponge and hot suds made of mild soap. After a gentle scrubbing, wipe off the dirty suds and quickly spread a thin film of clean soap over the leather. Let it dry and then wipe off with a soft cloth, polishing the leather as you do so.

Do your bath towels stay soft and fluffy, or do they become flat and limp after several tubbings? Here is a simple trick without a word of magic to make them retain their cuddly absorbent qualities. After the towels are washed and on the line, take hold of the two free corners and shake briskly. Do not iron, as this crushes the nap again.

To mask those scratches on dark furniture, paint them with iodine. After the medicine has dried, rub up a gloss with furniture polish and you'll discover that iodine heals all kinds of scratches and cuts.

Rayon fabrics lose strength when wet. Never iron rayon until it is practically dry to avoid injuring the threads and shortening the life of the garment.

Prof. C. C. Wylie, head of the university astronomy department, yesterday said that a total eclipse of the moon will occur here Monday evening at 6:52 just before the sunset at 6:57.

According to Professor Wylie, the eclipse probably will not be visible since there are usually clouds or haze on the horizon. He said that to attempt to see the eclipse one should be on a high clear vantage point and have a pair of binoculars. The moon at the time of the eclipse will be directly opposite the setting sun, Wylie said.

A graduate college lecture on "The War Economy and the Future of Free Enterprise" by Prof. Frank H. Knight of the University of Chicago will open the discussion at the third faculty roundtable forum Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in senate chamber, Old Capitol.

Three members of the university faculty will participate in the discussion following Professor Knight's address. They are Prof. Stephen H. Bush, head of the romance languages department; Prof. Frank L. Mott, director of the school of journalism, and Prof. Clyde Hart of the sociology department.

Prof. Everett Hall, head of the philosophy department and director of the series of forums dealing with post-war readjustment, will officiate as chairman.

Before going to the University of Chicago in 1928, Professor Knight served on the Iowa faculty as an associate professor in the economics department from 1919 to 1922 and professor in that department from 1922 to 1928. He was a lecturer at the London school of economics in 1938.

Professor Knight is the author of "Risk, Uncertainty and Profit," published in 1921, and "The Ethics of Competition and Other Essays," published in 1935. He has also contributed several articles on the theory of capital and the relation of economics and ethics to magazines and newspapers.

Professor Knight's translation of "General Economic History" by Max Weber was printed in 1927.

Born Nov. 7, 1885, he studied at the American university, Harman, Tenn., from 1905 to 1907 and received his Ph.D. degree at Milligan college, Tenn., in 1911. His B.S. and M.A. degrees were earned at the University of Tennessee, Knoxville, in 1913. Cornell university, Ithaca, N.Y., awarded him his Ph.D. degree in 1916.

Professor Knight was an instructor of economics at Cornell in 1916 and 1917 and at Chicago university from 1917 to 1919. He is a member of the American Economic association, Royal Economic association and Economical Historical society.

The philosophy department is sponsoring the series of roundtable discussions.

14-Week Law 'Semester' Is Summer Plan

Students May Finish Law Training in Two Years Under Speedup

The University of Iowa college of law will offer a full semester of work during a 14-week session this summer, it was announced by Dean Mason Ladd following the completion of summer plans.

The session will begin on May 11—the date of the beginning of the summer "semester" in all colleges of the university—and will close on Aug. 15.

Students from other schools not scheduled to close by May 11 may enroll in the Iowa law college on June 8, Dean Ladd announced. The summer session in law will be divided into two seven-week terms, the first ending June 27, the second beginning June 29.

The new program of the college makes it possible for new students to accelerate their work sufficiently to graduate within a two-year period by utilizing summer periods of study.

Juniors in the college of liberal arts may combine their liberal arts—law programs, the first year of law counting as the fourth year of liberal arts, to receive their B.A. degrees in February, 1943, the dean announced. The first year of law study will have been completed at that time. The second year of law work may be completed by the following August, and the final year by June, 1944.

This is the first year that a complete semester of first-year law work has been offered in the summer.

A complete program for a semester of credit also is offered for junior and senior law students. The entire program, designed to meet the needs of the wartime emergency, is in accordance with the program authorized by the Association of American Law Schools.

Course Arrangement Changed

The Iowa college has reorganized its entire course arrangement, Dean Ladd announced. Each semester now is divided into two eight-week units. Students may complete specific units of study in any eight-week period. The regular courses of the normal semester have been divided so that some will be completed in the first eight-week period, others in the second.

Students may therefore complete a definite part of their law training in short intervals of time prior to their enlistment or call into the armed forces.

The courses of the college are important as background for service with the Federal Bureau of In-

Aaron Rowe Denied Eviction Writ Against Paul Gegenheimers

Justice of the Peace J. M. Kadlec Friday denied a writ of eviction to Aaron Rowe who was seeking the eviction of Paul and Evelyn Gegenheimer, defendants, from the John Kelley farm property north of Oxford. The plaintiff, according to the decision, is entitled to a lease of rental on property which he occupied in 1941, but not to the house and farm buildings and certain land which he did not have rented in 1941.

Atty. Clair Hamilton represented the defendants and Atty. Edward L. O'Connor represented the plaintiff.

University Symphony Orchestra Will Present Fourth Concert Wednesday in Union Lounge

Jelinek, Viola Soloist, To Give Performance Of 'Harold in Italy'

Fourth concert of the University Symphony orchestra under the direction of Prof. Philip Greeley Clapp will be presented in the main lounge of Iowa Union, Wednesday evening at 8 p.m., with Otto Jelinek, first viola of the orchestra, as soloist.

Jelinek will be heard in a performance of the symphony, "Harold in Italy," by Hector Berlioz. The work is based upon Lord Byron's poem, "Childe Harold's Pilgrimage," which was published in two installments in 1816 and 1818. The poem describes scenes and past events in countries which Byron had visited.

In 1834, Berlioz was commissioned by the great violinist, Paganini, to write a viola concerto. However, Paganini was dissatisfied with the first sketches because he felt the orchestral portion seemed to outweigh in musical importance the solo viola. Berlioz says in his "Memoirs," "Finding that the plan of my composition did not suit him, I applied myself to carrying it out in another way, without troubling myself any further as to how the solo part should be brought into brilliant relief."

"I conceived the idea of writing a series of scenes for the orchestra, in which the viola should find itself mixed up, like a person more or less in action, always preserving his own individuality. The background I formed from my recollections of my wanderings in the Abruzzi, introducing the viola as a sort of melancholy dreamer, in the style of Byron's Childe Harold. Hence, the title of the symphony, 'Harold in Italy.'"

The complete program is as follows:

- Symphonic poem, "Veshrad" Smetana
- Four orchestral excerpts from "Psyche" Franck
- "The Slumber of Psyche" "Psyche borne away by the Zephyrs" "The Gardens of Eros" "Psyche and Eros" Intermmission

Symphony, "Harold in Italy," for orchestra with solo viola. Berlioz Otto Jelinek, solo viola

W.R.A. Nominations To Be by Application

Blanks Due Friday; Election of Officers To Be Held March 18

Nominations for the executive offices of the Women's Recreation association and positions on the executive board including all club presidents, are now being made by application, a system innovated by the association recently. Mary Jane Huber, A4 of Cedar Rapids, president of W.R.A., announced yesterday.

All students seeking nomination for the offices of president, vice-president, second vice-president, secretary, treasurer and other positions on the W.R.A. executive board, may now secure application blanks at the women's gymnasium.

Applications must be filed at the desk in the women's gymnasium by 6 p.m. Friday.

According to the new system, a nominating committee of seniors on the executive board will select two nominees for each position. W.R.A. election of officers will be held Wednesday, March 18, election day for all university women's associations.

The application system provides an equal opportunity for election for all qualified persons who are interested in the organization.

W.R.A. sponsors roller skating, square dancing, social dancing, honorary clubs including Salk, Orchestra, Tennis and Basketball, and recreational activities including Archery club, Hockey club, Hawkeye Hoofers outing club, Badminton and Handicraft club.

Here Every Iowa Citizen Asked to Do Volunteer Service

Local Civilian Defense Group Begins Project

To Establish Booths Open for Registration For Duration of War

"The war is on our front and back door steps," Mrs. Erling Thoen declared yesterday as she announced the Civilian Defense council's program whereby every Iowa City man and woman is asked to register for volunteer service so that "it won't happen here."

Beginning tomorrow and extending through next Saturday registration booths will be set up in the Iowa-Illinois Gas and Electric company building, the post office, Racine's No. 1, the Johnson county courthouse and the library which will be open for registration for the duration.

"It is entirely possible that people of coastal areas may be evacuated to this community in which event there would be a definite need for food preparation, nursing, clerical work and other services designated on the registration card," Mrs. Thoen, chairman of the local registration, said.

There are actually a great number of jobs essential to home defense which anyone can be trained to handle, she pointed out. Many persons who are willing to work do not volunteer because they feel unqualified.

Officials stressed the fact that persons who volunteer will be called upon to serve only in Johnson county. They said that many persons had refused to sign-up because they believed they would be called to serve elsewhere.

It is necessary that everyone in Iowa City give his entire support to the local defense program in order that this city have an absolute system of handling and controlling emergency situations relative to the war, the registration chairman added.

"Too many persons," she said, "have the idea that it can't happen here. They don't realize that the war is already at our doorstep and may spill over the middle west at any time."

Many persons who have relatives in the armed forces have the attitude that they are doing all that is necessary. The same attitude is found in various relief knitting circles throughout the city.

Though they are doing their part to aid someone else, they are blind to the fact that we are not asking them to help someone else in this local program, but to assist in an organization to defend themselves, Mrs. Thoen asserted.

The seven registration stations will have an ample supply of registration blanks which will give every opportunity for choice of civilian defense work. Little experience is necessary at this time, officials say.

Everyone is urged to watch The Daily Iowan throughout this week for announcements of those services in which there are insufficient registrations.

Upon completion of the registration and organization, registered persons will be sufficiently trained to fill their own particular jobs.

Women who will have charge of the seven registration stations are Mrs. O.B. Linneth, Mrs. J. G. Gartner, Mrs. W.F. Loehwing, Mrs. D.L. Crissinger, Mrs. W.R. Horrabin, Mrs. William Peterson and Mrs. Jessie Gordon.

Assistants at the registration stations beginning tomorrow will be: Mrs. E. Y. Sangster, Mrs. Ed Watkins, Mrs. Francis Boyle, Mrs. George Maresch, Mrs. L. R. Spencer, Mrs. C. L. Palmer, Mrs. H. M. Howard, Mrs. William Holub, Mrs. P. D. Ketsel, Mrs. L. R. Reid, Mrs. Frank Russell, Mrs. William Peterson, Mrs. C. W. Keyser, Mrs. Thomas G. Caywood, Mrs. B. Patrick, Miss G. Emerson, Mrs. P. W. Above is the front of the civilian defense volunteer enrollment card which all residents of Iowa City will be asked to fill out this week. Seven registration stations will be open during the regular business hours. Officials have asked that everyone fill out one of the above forms so that work in the program may be carried out with the most efficiency. Listed on the back of the civilian defense volunteer enrollment card are 24 specific branches of service in which Iowa City men and women can enroll to help formulate a plan of protection for this city. Although the card makes no specific reference as to the field of service, local officials yesterday stressed the fact that volunteers will be called upon to serve only in Johnson county.

PHOENIX FUND—

dime a week are collected from students at Iowa, and from others who care to contribute, each week. (Tuesday is the campus collection day.)

Funds are audited by the university treasurer, and are put regularly into defense bonds, where they serve the immediate purpose of helping to fill America's coffers of war in the struggle against the axis.

The fund will continue building until the war is over. The money contributed, in the name of the students of Iowa, will be used to help defray the costs of returning to school for Iowa students who have enlisted or who have been called into service with the nation's armed forces.

Details of the plan have been widely publicized on the campus. These are the salient features:

The fund will be used solely to pay the tuition and other expenses, up to $200 per year, of any student returning to the university and meeting the following requirements:

1. He shall have served in the armed forces of the United States for a period of at least six months.
2. He shall have been in attendance at the University of Iowa on or after October 15, 1940, and shall have been in attendance in the University of Iowa at the time of induction or enlistment. (Students who enlist during the summer months, or who are called then, fill the above requirement provided they were in attendance during the previous semester.)
3. While in previous attendance at the university, he shall have maintained a grade-point average equivalent to that required for graduation by the college in which he was enrolled.
4. He shall make application for the gift to the university committee on student aid, and his worthiness and need of the gift will be determined by them on the basis of their established principles. The committee on student aid shall be the determining body in the granting of the gifts of this fund.
5. The fact that an applicant is or has been affiliated with a fraternity will not exclude him from the benefits of this fund if he otherwise qualifies.

Alaska's delinquent juveniles are sent to institutions in the United States proper.

Red Cross Officials For Johnson County To Convene March 10

County Red Cross officials announced yesterday that the Johnson county chapter of the American Red Cross will have its annual meeting March 10, at 7:30 p.m. in the Community building.

Reports will be heard on the operations of the organization since last year and the annual election of officers will be held.

Ellis Crawford is the present chairman of the chapter. Other officers are Mrs. W. T. Hageboeck, first vice-chairman; Mrs. Meno Spann, second vice-chairman; Mrs. William Spears, secretary and Milo Novy, treasurer.

K. W. Arnold Serves 30-Day Jail Sentence

Following his arrest by Police-man James Ryan, Kenneth W. Arnold, who neglected to pay a $50 fine for petty larceny last May, is now serving a 30-day sentence in the county jail.

Arnold had been fined $100 April 3, 1941, by T. M. Fairchild, justice of the peace. However, providing that Arnold would pay the fine by May 12, 1941, Fairchild had reduced the sentence to a $50 fine plus costs, or 30 days in jail.

When Arnold failed to appear before either Fairchild or his attorney, Robert Larson, a mittimus was issued last July.

Police Judge Fines Two

Police Judge William J. Smith yesterday fined Stanley Nelson $5 on charges of speeding and Leroy Wenman $5 for intoxication.

Hawkeyes Win; Illinois Clinches Loop Title

Blister Purdue On Last-Minute Splurge, 42-36

Chapman Breaks Old Season Scoring Mark As Hawks Keep 2nd

By BILL BUCKLEY
Daily Iowan Sports Editor

Iowa's potent Hawkeyes blistered Purdue's struggling Boiler-makers with a last-minute six-point barrage here last night, to pull a close ball game out of the fire, 42-36, and maintain a second-place tie with Indiana in the Big Ten standings.

Held in check by a close-knit, hard-checking Purdue defense all through the battle, the Hawks put on one of their typical thriller-diller finishes before 10,000 roaring spectators to earn sweet revenge for a mid-season 45-44 setback on the Boilers' home court.

With the score tied at 36-all and only 45 seconds to play, Co-capt. Rudy Soderquist, who took scoring honors in the game with 13 points, sneaked behind the Purdue defense, took a pass from Co-capt. Vic Siegel and twisted in a back-hand set up for the winning points.

Chapman, Hill Score

Fifteen seconds later, fiery Tom Chapman dribbled the length of the court in one of his mad rushes for another push-in, and 20 seconds after that, Wendell Hill swished a long shot from the side, as the bewildered Boiler-makers went to pieces.

The crowd, a roaring, seething mass of partisan humanity, seemingly blared its loudest for Soderquist's bucket, but its succeeding efforts for Chapman and Hill were proportionately noisier.

Chapman, who counted 10 points, blasted another record off the university books in the game, running his season's total to 223 points to crack Ben Stephens' 1938-39 mark of 215.

It was Iowa's fifth straight loop victory, and shattered a Purdue string of three in a row. And the Hawks earned this one all the way.

Battling a cold night of its own and the best defense in the Big Ten, Iowa worked its collective heart out in the tussle, staving off the effects of a ragged offense and defense with great work in the clutch and a never-say-die attitude.

Siegel Defensive Demon

Siegel came up with the season's defensive gem, however, holding Purdue's Forrest (Frosty) Sprowl to a lone basket and free throw, after the Boiler-maker ace had tallied 155 points in 12 previous conference games.

Purdue took a 3-0 lead early in the tiff, but Iowa tied it up after six minutes at 6-6 on Milt Kuhl's tip-in. The Hawks then took the advantage, and with Soderquist hitting consistently on long shots and his mates missing only two free throws, built up a 23-16 half-time count.

Iowa kept pace for the first three minutes of the second period, but a two-man uprising on the part of Capt. Don Blanken and Cecil Polk of the Boiler-makers brought the score to 27-26 after five minutes. Kuhl and Hill allayed the insurrection with a free throw and two buckets, but Purdue pulled up again at 32-30 with nine minutes left on two free throws and a one-buzzer.

Purdue Takes Lead

Ben Trickey stole a rebound for another Hawk basket, but Sprowl scored his lonely three points and John Tierney a free throw to deadlock it at 34-all with six minutes to go.

Vince Harsha came in long enough to sink a charity toss and send his team ahead, but Allen Menke retaliated with a pair of the same to give the Boilers a short-lived lead which Soderquist neutralized with only two and a half minutes in the game.

The teams raced hither and yon in wild efforts until Soderquist sank his game-clincher, and from then on it was all Iowa.

Michigan Five Whips Chicago Quint, 49-36

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP)—Michigan's basketball team conquered Chicago's cellar-dwelling Maroons 49 to 36, in a Western conference game last night that had all the atmosphere of a college intramural contest. It was Michigan's second straight victory, its longest winning streak of the year.

Twenty-four players saw action—and the crowd at the finish was not much larger. Most of the spectators moved to the exits midway of the second half. It was Michigan's fifth conference victory, but to Chicago it was just No. 31 on a string of consecutive Big Ten defeats.

Center Jim Mandler of Michigan was top individual scorer with 14 points and Bob Zimmerman of the Maroons got 11, most of them in the closing minutes when the game was in the burlesque stage.

Michigan presented three players never before in the lineup in Ralph Gilbert, Herb Stein and Footballer Paul White.

Hoosier Five Takes Minnesota, 54 to 45, To Tie Iowa for 2nd

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (AP)—Indiana university's Hoosiers beat Minnesota's Gophers, 54 to 45, before 6,000 fans last night in a Big Ten basketball game that helped break up a four-way tie for second place.

The outcome eliminated Minnesota from the deadlock and, with Iowa's victory over Purdue, left Indiana and Iowa tied for the runner-up spot, each with nine victories and four defeats in the conference.

The Hoosiers, in avenging the 63 to 43 lunking the Gophers gave them earlier in the campaign, were ahead throughout the game. They got four points before the visitors got one; led, 32 to 19, at halftime, and once, in the second half, after three straight field goals by forward John Logan, held a 45 to 25 lead.

Marians Drill For Catholic State Tourney

The Iowa City Marians will run through a final light workout this afternoon before traveling to Dubuque to meet St. Joseph's of LeMars at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in the first round of the state Catholic high school basketball tournament.

The LeMars crew, which won the diocese tourney at Sioux City, is certain to offer the Rambler's plenty of competition Monday.

St. Mary's had a two-week rest from competition before the tussle with St. Pat's Thursday night, when the Marians ripped through the Irish for a 33-15 victory. Coach Frank Suplee believes the Rambler's should be in top shape for the tilt tomorrow.

Because of their long lay-off from competition, the Stuppel-men were a little ragged in the game with the Irish last week until the last quarter, when Joe Haisch, George Seemuth and Eddie Chadek started raining in buckets. Following three quarters of wild passing and bad timing, the Marians finally opened up with their hard-driving, fast offense which was too much for the Krittamen.

St. Mary's will depend on Tony Brack, who has run up an all-season scoring mark of 325 points in 23 contests, along with Harold Seemuth, to head the offensive attack against St. Joseph's. Melvin Smith, who snared practically all of the rebounds under the St. Pat's basket Thursday night, and Eddie Chadek, who has been doing a successful job of working the ball up the court, will be on hand to manage the back court.

The winner of Monday's game will meet the winner of the Corpus Christie of Ft. Dodge vs. St. Mary's of Waterloo tussle in a second-round encounter Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The finals and the consolation tilt will be played Tuesday night.

HAWKEYES STRUGGLE MIGHTILY—Iowa strengthened its second-place position in the Big Ten at the expense of Purdue last night, but had to go through a grueling battle to do it, as these pictures testify. At left, Iowa's Milt Kuhl (11) snags a rebound from three smothering Boiler-makers—Allen Menke, left, Capt. Don Blanken (6), and Cecil Polk—as Tom Chapman (16) gets by with a little illegal aid. Above, Co-capt. Vic Siegel (26) gracefully goes into an adagio dance, as he and Chapman go after a rebound under Purdue's basket. Boiler-makers John Tierney (4) and Menke (3) are out of it. A crowd of over 10,000 watched the Hawks in action, and a capacity jam of 13,000 is expected for the Illinois game tomorrow.

Iowa, Hoosier Gymnasts Lose to Chicago As Shanken Twins Win All But One Event

Maroon Pair Drop Only Tumbling First; Hawks Place Third

It was just too much Shanken twins for Iowa and Indiana gymnasts yesterday afternoon as the agile pair from Chicago collaborated for a first place in every event except tumbling to lead the Maroons to victory in a triangular meet.

The Windy City team ended up with a total of 592.09 points, while Indiana finished a close second with 566.67 points. Iowa trailed the field with 443.66 markers.

Drop One First

The only first place that one of the Shanken's didn't win was the tumbling, in which Indiana's Trummer took top honors with 37½ points, followed by Courtney Shanken with 36. Coakley, another Hoosier, finished third in tumbling with 32½. This was the only event except the longhorse in which Chicago did not outscore its other two competitors, and ended up with a total of 94½, while Indiana racked up 97.

The Maroons jumped into a small lead on the horizontal bar when Earl Shanken earned 40 points for his performance to win first, while Gouchour, Indiana's star, took second with 35½. Twin Courtney came in third with 34. Chicago earned 101 points in this competition, Indiana 98 and Iowa 73.

Sweep Flying Rings

The flying rings event was swept by Chicago, with the Shankens and Jim Degan winning the first three places to add 105 more to the already-leading Maroon total. Kridelbaugh, Marv Simpson and Bob Gross brought the Hawkeyes in second with 87, and Indiana trailed them by half point.

The Shankens repeated again on the parallel bars, sweeping first and second, while Gouchour easily took third. Chicago's 105 on the bars brought its total up to 416½, and Indiana's 100 in this competition gave it 376½. Iowa trailed the Hoosiers by 52 points at this stage of the game.

Shanken Outstanding

Although Earl Shanken came through with a win on the long horse, Sarter and Trummer of Indiana placed second and third to give it 93.17 points, with Chicago nabbing 81.09. Iowa was a good distance behind its two competitors with 45.16 markers.

The Shanken twins competed in all six events and showed the crowd some of the best all-around exhibitions seen here. Earl is the 1940 and 1941 national collegiate long horse champion, while Courtney won the national collegiate all-around title in 1941.

The Hawks tried hard, but at best were no match for the Chi-

Kotz Sets New Mark As Wisconsin Edges Ohio State, 44 to 39

COLUMBUS, O. (AP)—Wisconsin Forward Johnny Kotz set a new Big Ten basketball scoring mark yesterday as the Badgers defeated Ohio State, 44 to 39. Kotz rung up 20 points to set a season's scoring record of 193 markers. The old record was 184 points by Jewell Young of Purdue in 1938.

Young got his 184 in a 12-game season, while this was Wisconsin's thirteenth of the year, with two more to play, giving Kotz a good chance to run his record well past the 200 mark.

Rice Batters 3-Mile Mark

NEW YORK (AP)—Greg Rice, the little dynamo formerly of Notre Dame, shattered the world indoor record for the three-mile run by covering the distance in 13:45.7 in the climax of spectacular performances at the A.A.U. championship games in Madison Square Garden last night.

Evashevski Signs at Pitt

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The University of Pittsburgh announced yesterday that Forrest Evashevski, former football star at the University of Michigan, has been named backfield coach at Pitt. Evashevski now is head football coach at Hamilton College, Clinton, N. Y.

Dubuque Takes Parsons, 50-33

FAIRFIELD (AP)—Dubuque university, knocked out of the Iowa conference basketball title race by Iowa Wesleyan Friday night, finished its season by beating Parsons 50 to 33, here last night.

Chicago outfit, Indiana, in its first year of competition, showed up well in its third time out this year. In two previous starts the Hoosiers dropped Nebraska and lost a close one to yesterday's victorious Maroons.

Siegel Strengthens Athlete Poll Lead

Star Guard Boosts Margin to 100 Votes Over Tom Chapman

Voting in The Daily Iowan's "Athlete of the Year" poll yesterday was all Co-capt. Vic Siegel of the basketball team, as the close of the polls left only a day and a half of participation.

Siegel, supported heavily by two self-appointed campaign managers from his gym class at Iowa City junior high, pushed into a 100-vote lead over Tom Chapman, also of the cage team. Siegel had 150 votes to Chapman's 50.

Wendell Hill and Milt Kuhl completed the stranglehold that the hardcourt performers have had on the poll to date, Hill holding third place with 30 votes and Kuhl fourth with 26. Capt. Bill Diehl of the football team stood in fifth with 22 votes, and Jim Walker, his teammate, sixth with 13.

Several individual campaigns for campus favorites were in progress yesterday, with several organization ballots being counted. At Currier hall, a ballot box in the south lobby polled a heavy vote for the members of the basketball team.

Won in past years by such greats as Nile Kinnick, Erwin Prasse and Mike Enich, this year's award will be made between halves of the Illinois-Iowa basketball game tomorrow night. A ballot may be found elsewhere on this page.

Hawkeye Rifle Team Outscores Iowa State At Local Fieldhouse

The University of Iowa rifle team defeated Iowa State in a shoulder-to-shoulder match at the fieldhouse range yesterday afternoon, 1855 to 1823. It was the first varsity shoulder-to-shoulder competition this season.

Individual scorers for Iowa were C. Hamm, 383; R.L. Pettit, 371; J.M. Ruby (capt.), 369; L.F. Sven, 367; S.K. Stattler, 365.

Illinois Cagers Stop Wildcats To Clinch Title

CHICAGO (AP)—The University of Illinois basketball team last night clinched its first undisputed Big Ten championship since 1915 by defeating Northwestern, 63 to 49, before a crowd of 18,931 persons at the Chicago stadium. The victory gave the Illini 12 wins in 13 conference games.

Illinois swept into a 3 to 2 lead in the first minute of play and Northwestern never was able to match the Illini fast breakers, whose lone loss of the season was to Indiana. Illinois held a 31 to 23 advantage at the half.

Menke Gets 19 Points As Illini Roll Over Northwestern, 63-49

Ken Menke, Illinois forward, tallied 19 points on eight field goals and three free throws to head the scoring brigade. Russ Wendland of Northwestern claimed second place on the list with 17 points.

Leading, 54 to 40, and seven minutes remaining to play, Illinois relaxed its firehouse offense and possibly passed up an opportunity to set a conference scoring record to replace the 69 total now held by Purdue and Northwestern. In the last five minutes, Coach Doug Mills sent in an entire new team.

WPA Survey Shows 431 Cars in Iowa City Listed in Total of 7,644 Discarded Autos

A WPA survey revealed yesterday that 431 cars in Iowa City were listed in a total of 7,644 discarded automobiles containing badly needed scrap metal which are rusting in 154 car "graveyards" located in Iowa's 16 largest cities.

J. M. Naughton, Iowa WPA administrator, stated the survey was made because of the anticipated shortage of approximately six million tons of scrap metal for the coming war. This information will be forwarded to the war production board, he said.

"By automobile graveyard is meant a lot or building containing five or more cars or trucks in various stages of dismantling," the WPA administrator explained.

"This includes used-car lots where dismantling is proceeding but does not include used-car places with only cars or trucks which they plan to sell in running condition."

Due to the shortage of scrap metal for steel mills in the nation, it is expected that used cars will supply between two and three million tons of critically needed scrap.

Survey data showed that Cedar Rapids topped the list of Iowa cities with 1,663 cars located in 11 graveyards. Des Moines was second with 1,273 in 26 lots.

Other cities included in the survey were Waterloo, Mason City, Burlington, Keokuk, Muscatine, Clinton, Council Bluffs, Davenport, Dubuque, Marshalltown, Ottumwa, Sioux City and Ft. Dodge.

Sioux City Students Entertain Spectators At Basketball Game

Students of Central high school, Sioux City, performed between halves of last night's Iowa-Purdue basketball game.

Drum majorettes were: Phyllis Smith, Shirley Fremming, Peggy McClintock, Margaret Bluit, Mary Ed Frye, Maureen Harter and Marilyn Huff. John Griffin was drum major. The performance was directed by C. I. Kappham, music director of Central high.

Will Convene Tuesday

The regular meeting of the Iowa City Junior chamber of commerce will be held Tuesday at 8:30 p.m. above Smith's cafe, it was announced yesterday.

Mother in Custody Following Slayings

SIGOURNEY, Ia. (AP)—A six-month old boy, John Edmund, and his 9-year-old sister, Anna Catherine, are dead and their 38-year-old mother is in custody as the result of a shooting yesterday afternoon at the farm home of Ed Peiffer, 11 miles southeast of Sigourney.

Another boy, Jerome, 8, was shot in the arm but his wound is not considered critical.

Sheriff E. E. Tremmel of Keokuk county quoted Mrs. Peiffer, mother of seven, as saying she had planned to shoot the four younger children and herself, but her "nerve" failed her.

"She said she thought the three older children could get along," the sheriff reported.

The baby was shot with a rifle as he lay in his crib. Anna Catherine and Jerome were shot with a shotgun as they started to enter the house, but found the door latched against them.

The children's father, Keokuk county agricultural adjustment committee chairman, was at his office in Sigourney when the tragedy occurred, about 4 p.m.

First word of the affair to reach Sigourney was a call to the sheriff's office from Mrs. Peiffer, who said "something terrible" had happened. She asked that officers be sent.

The sheriff said Mrs. Peiffer had been under a doctor's care for a nervous condition.

Late tonight Mrs. Peiffer was bound over to the district court. The hearing was set for Monday morning.

State Safety Official To Present Program

Dan J. Steele, field representative of the Iowa department of safety, will present a safety program at 8 o'clock tomorrow night in the Moose hall under the sponsorship of the Women of the Moose.

Steele, representing the department's safety council, will show two motion pictures and give a brief talk. The meeting is open to the public.

Tomorrow's program is a part of a nation-wide safety campaign to lower the country's accident rate. The campaign will stress safety in industry and on the highway, in the home, schools and on the farm, as well as safety information for the public.

Lone Tree Company Asks $188 Judgment

The Eclipse Lumber company, Lone Tree, yesterday filed a petition in Clerk R. Neilson Miller's office asking $188.26 judgment against Dr. Earl L. Richey and Vera M. Richey for building materials.

The petition states the company entered an oral contract with the defendants to furnish materials to install a new roof and spouting for a Lone Tree building for which the contract price was $166.88 plus $21.40 for extras.

Besides asking for judgment with interest at 5 per cent from Dec. 15, 1939, and costs, the Lone Tree firm seeks to establish a mechanics lien on the property.

Atty. William R. Hart represents the plaintiff.

OLD HOME TOWN

The Listening Post--

By LOREN HICKERSON

FOR IOWA'S YANKS . . .
French soil must have felt good to the British boys who carried out that raid on the French coast yesterday . . . They may have been among those who escaped Dunkirk by the skin of their teeth . . .

I wonder if Hitler has begun to wonder where he'll go from his "Dunkirk" when the Allies start smashing into the continent from all directions . . . Maxim Litvinoff has invited the Allies to make that party this spring, and that's a good idea . . . But to carry it out, Stalin will have to arrange some kind of lend-lease help for the Allies . . . perhaps boats to get us to Europe by spring . . .

The phone rang on Jim Jordan, the Register's local correspondent, a couple of weeks ago . . . The boys at the Register wanted to know who owned "Birthplace of Herbert Hoover," one of Grant Wood's most famous oils . . .

Gardner Cowles Jr. is the owner . . . He also has something or other to do with the Register, and there was probably at least one red face when the information was relayed . . .

It seems that the university doesn't own a single one of Wood's original oils, which seems a shame in the light of the fact that he was a member of the staff here for almost a decade . . . while one of the nation's greatest artists, if not alone at the top . . .

MONEY FOR IOWA'S YANKS: The Phoenix fund's central committee announced collections covering the first three-week period of the campaign today—as per story on Page 1 of today's Iowan . . .

The fund thus far has netted $274.22, and it has been an uphill fight for the men and women who have worked and sweated at it . . . Not too good for a student body of 6,500, but at least the groundwork has been laid . . .

Sororities have led the organized groups in percentage contributions per student, but Hillier and Currier have topped the list in total contributions . . .

Town groups, most unorganized of the campus, have come through remarkably well, although their percentage has been low . . . That's the group the central committee would be most happy to see call at the treasurer's office to voluntarily leave their dimes, either by the week or for the entire semester . . .

The girls are more enthusiastic contributors than the boys . . . Remarkable one girl: "Every college boy in the country is for this plan except Iowa's . . ."

Fraternity contributions have been practically non-existent on the basis of the first three weeks . . . Quad contributions dwindled after the first week . . . The boys doubtless had movin' in mind . . .

A few faculty contributions have been made, and the central council is preparing an organized contact of the men and women of the administration and faculty, many of whom want to get in on the giving . . . They'll have their chance, and the council has been pleased with the faculty response . . .

One thing should be pointed out for the benefit of student skeptics who want to be sure . . . The Phoenix fund's books are being kept meticulously . . . You can take a look at them any time, I'll wager . . .

Some of the screwiest arguments have been used to knock the plan around . . . One girl in dramatic arts is taking pleasure in thinking up arguments against contributing . . . Arguments like: "Why the bond's won't MATURE until just ages after the war . . ." Recommended: a course in elementary economics, with a chapter on money and banking . . .

The snowball will roll faster from now on, I'm guessing . . . It isn't inconceivable that more money will be put into the war effort by students at Iowa, in the name of the students at Iowa, than by any other two universities in the country . . . It's immediate job will be to help whip the axis . . . It's far-reaching effect will be in returning, with interest, to put Iowa's Yanks back in school again . . .

Treasurer F. L. Hamburg has gone all-out in cooperating with the boys and girls of the central council. They'd like to extend him a bouquet, via The Listening Post . . . And to the givers of the first 2,742 dimes for the

Officials Expect Paper Drive To Top Last Month's Collection

U-High Basketball Game Nets Over $92 For Local War Fund

Although official totals were not available late last night, it is expected by Red Cross officials that the amount of paper collected in yesterday's Victory paper campaign, here in Iowa City, will be considerably larger than the 41,000 pound total collected last month.

Early last evening an estimated 35,000 pounds had been turned in—a figure greater than the one for the corresponding period last month.

Along with the announcement of the paper drive totals, Red Cross officials said that the Red Cross benefit game played Friday night in Iowa City between the University high school and the West Branch basketball teams had netted $92.05 for the war fund. This brings to $225.55 the total contribution to the fund from University night.

Jim Rasley, chairman, George Lehman, Barbara Baird, Geraldine Cobb, Cynthia McEvoy, Vera Lackerder, Maynard Whitebook, Edwin Kurtz and Bob Jeans comprise the U. High committee responsible for projects to raise the school's contribution.

Eleven Iowa City business firms donated trucks for use in the collection of bundled paper set out on porches yesterday. Boy Scouts were again called on to assist in the drive after an insufficient number of members of the Iowa City high school freshman class, requested to work in the campaign, volunteered for the duty.

Firms donating truck and drivers were: Maher Transfer, Bob Maher driver; Schuppert and Koudelka Plumbing Co., Joe Koudelka, driver; Nate Moore Electric Co., Nate Moore, driver; E. F. Zimmerman; Hawkeye Lumber Co.; Iowa-Illinois Gas and Electric Co., Roy Rohrig, driver; Ben Harms.

Burket and Updegraff; Iowa City Bottling Works, Don McComas, driver; Sidwell Dairy Co., George Wright, driver; Maher Transfer Co., Bob Maher, driver; Swanner Dairy, Stanley King, driver, and Bob and Henry Service station, Tom Welsh, driver.

Merchants to Convene
Pod merchants of Iowa City will discuss delivery problems at a meeting in the Jefferson hotel Monday evening at 7:30. Anyone interested is urged to attend.

Mathews vs. Sladek Damage Action Slated For Hearing Monday

The $8,558 damage action of Julius J. Mathews vs. John Sladek, second jury case of the February term of district court, is scheduled for hearing at 10 a.m. tomorrow when petit jurors report.

Mathews' petition states that on Sept. 20, 1941, while driving east on a dirt road in Lincoln township, the defendant drove into the rear of the plaintiff's car, causing damage to it and severe injuries to himself.

He charges Sladek with negligence and states he was thrown violently into the back seat of the car from the impact, causing injury to his right pelvis, a chip fracture of the right hip joint, numerous contusions and a chip fracture of the third vertebrae.

Mathews seeks $300 for medical and X-ray expenses, $5,000 for past, present and future pain and suffering and $3,000 for permanent injury to his back which he alleges has prevented him from doing regular farm tasks and deprived him of future earning capacity.

He asks $258 for damages to his car. The accident occurred at 8:30 a.m. on a Lincoln township road about 12 miles southeast of Iowa City. The law firm of Dutcher, Ries and Dutcher represent Mathews.

With spring on its way you'll be wanting to invest in some new slippers . . . First of all you'll be wanting a slip that will flatter those new spring sheer blouses . . . perhaps, one with lace trim. Secondly you'll be needing a plain slip to wear with those new pastel sweaters. But, nevertheless, whatever kind you're looking for, see the array of slippers at the H & H HOSIERY STORE . . . In the size you wear there's a style you'll like . . . the H & H has the largest variety of slippers in Iowa City—From 89c to $1.98.
