Soviet Letter Challenges Power Of Polish Government in Exile

Nazis Form 'Medical Mission' Stabilization Program Will Allow Leaving Jobs for Higher Pay

LONDON (AP)—The bitter Russian-Polish diplomatic breach precipitated by Germany's "Smolensk graveyard story" was as wide as ever last night after a day which brought these developments:

- 1. Soviet publication of articles which led observers to believe Russia would demand a purge of the Polish government in exile in London or the creation of a rival regime on Soviet soil. 2. A London Polish government appeal "for the release" of all fighting Poles now in Russia, and a declaration that the Poles "have no need to defend themselves from any suggestion (by Russia) of contact or understanding with Hitler." 3. A Nazi-organized "medical mission" which will conduct an "inquest" at Katyn forest near Smolensk where the Germans say 10,000 Polish officers were murdered and buried by the Russians. 4. Prime Minister Churchill conferred with Premier Wladyslaw Sikorski in an effort to heal the rupture, but apparently had made little headway. The British were working closely with United States officials in attempting to repair the hole in the allied nations' political lineup against the axis.

Cleveland Bus Workers Strike

CLEVELAND (AP)—AFL unionists on Cleveland's street car and bus lines struck at midnight last night as union officials conferred with Mayor Frank J. Lausche in an eleventh-hour conciliation effort. Lausche presented to union leaders a plea from Undersecretary of War Robert Patterson to call off the strike and refer the dispute to government agencies, but cars were tied up at scores of the municipal transit system's operating stations as the deadline passed. The strike defied an order from the union's international officials. "It's out of our hands," Thomas P. Meany, the local union's president declared. "The men voted for it Tuesday night and the transit board broke off negotiations yesterday."

'No Bad Boys' Father Flanagan Offers Denver Lad Home

OMAHA (AP)—Mssgr. E. J. Flanagan, reiterating his oft-expressed belief that "there is no such thing as a bad boy," announced yesterday he will offer a home in Boys' Town to William Eugene Wymer, 16-year-old Denver youth accused of pushing two lads to their death over a 175-foot cliff near Golden, Col.

Nation to Be Placed Under Change Order Within 2 Days—WMC

WASHINGTON (AP)—The entire nation will be put under an employment stabilization program within 48 hours to enable workers, under certain circumstances, to shift from one essential employer to another for higher pay, officials said yesterday. At present such shifts can take place only in 70 areas or regions covered by stabilization programs set up through field offices of the war manpower commission.

Demands for Aviation Gas to Be Met—Ickes

WASHINGTON (AP)—Army demands for 100-octane aviation gasoline are going to be met, Petroleum Administrator Harold L. Ickes said yesterday, despite "continuous and discouraging obstacles" and "a really baffling lack of understanding, by many persons in high authority, of the vital essentiality of 100-octane."

Comdr. H. E. Stassen Reports for Navy Duty

GREAT LAKES, Ill. (AP)—Lieutenant Commander Harold E. Stassen, who Tuesday resigned as governor of Minnesota, yesterday reported to the commandant of the ninth naval district here for active duty. Lieut. Comdr. Stassen has been assigned to duty at Great Lakes, headquarters of the ninth naval district.

A SPECTACULAR RAID by a formation of huge United States Liberator four-engine bombers on the Japanese plane supply and repair base at Kendari in the Dutch Celebes has surprised and stunned the Japs by its daring. Despite the hazards of the 1,500-mile flight all planes returned safely after dropping 21 tons of explosives and incendiaries and destroying 10 enemy aircraft.

French Column Fights Savagely In Outskirts of Pont du Fahs

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NORTH AFRICA (AP)—The British First army threw in a powerful assault yesterday against an axis mountain position only 21 miles from Tunis—the Djebel Bou Aoukatz commanding open stretches of the Madjerda valley leading down to the Tunisian capital—while American troops completed the storming and capture of three important hill defenses on the route to Mateur and Bizerte. To the south the French, who are hammering at the gate of Pont du Fahs, have driven a column southeast of that town to reach the western slopes of Djebel Zaghouan despite heavy axis artillery fire, the French communique reported. This column cut the main road from Pont du Fahs to Djebibina.

Freakish Tornadoes Strike Ohio, Killing Three, Injuring 150

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Northern Ohio counted three dead last night and destruction mounting upwards of $4,000,000 as it dug out of debris strewn by a series of tornadoes that left nearly 500 homeless and injured more than 150. The twisters, Ohio's worst since the Lorain tornado of June 28, 1924, struck freakishly in 11 widely separated sections of Cleveland, slashed through Akron and a dozen smaller communities, damaged nearly 2,000 homes and crippled several war plants.

OPA Chief Declares Many Smaller Homes To Receive Increase

WASHINGTON (AP)—Price Administrator Prentiss Brown announced yesterday that next winter's fuel oil rations in the 33 states where oil use is restricted will not be cut and that some rations "notably for smaller homes," will be increased. Registration for next season's coupons will be handled almost exclusively by mail, he said. Local boards will send out renewal application blanks late in May or early June, so that the coupons can be mailed back in time to permit the public to start filling tanks on or soon after July 1.

Strong Air Attacks

The allied air forces, although limited somewhat by unfavorable weather, kept the enemy's front line areas and his communications and air fields under strong attack. The British army's attack on the Djebel Bou Aoukatz, which lies 12 miles northeast of Medjez-El-Bab as a barrier before the Medjerda plain, carried about 400 yards short of the crest in the initial operations. Daniel de Luce, Associated Press correspondent, reported from the front that the British shock troops went in at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon in an urgent effort to smash this last important obstruction between them and the Tunisian plain, charging behind a heavy allied artillery and bomber barrage.

Red Airmen Destroy Forty German Planes

LONDON, Thursday (AP)—Russian airmen and gunners yesterday destroyed 40 German planes, 23 of them in the Caucasus, but there was only scattered minor ground fighting, Moscow announced early today.

Deep-Rooted Sources The whole controversy is deep-rooted. The Poles demand a return of the eastern part of the territory they ruled before their 1939 collapse. The Russians who took that land over, and were in turn routed by the 1941 German invasion, say that the land historically is theirs. Yesterday the Soviet government newspaper Izvestia in Moscow printed an article by Wanda Wasilevskaya, identified as president of "the union of Polish patriots," in which she said "we are sure the Soviet Union will give us Poles in the Soviet Union the opportunity of fighting for our country shoulder to shoulder with Soviet citizens." Wasilevskaya said the Sikorski government in London was illegal and did not represent the true Poland, and observers immediately saw the implied possibility of the establishment of a Polish military or political organization in the Soviet Union. The Communist party organ Pravda editorially attacked "the treacherous behavior of the Sikorski government," and accused it of supporting "Hitler's slanderous fabrications" in seeking an international Red Cross investigation of the German Smolensk story. Poles Confer In London late last night the Polish government met after Premier Sikorski and acting Foreign Minister Count Edward Raczyński had conferred with Churchill at No. 10 Downing street. The statement issued by the Poles later did not withdraw the request made to the International Red Cross. Instead the Poles were believed to have added more fuel to the fire by asking "the release" of Poles of fighting age in Russia along with thousands of members of their families and the (See POLISH, page 6)

Yanks, Canadians Hit Japanese Kiska Base

WASHINGTON (AP)—Canadian pilots flying United States Warhawk fighter planes joined the continuing aerial offensive against the Japanese base on Kiska island Monday, the navy reported yesterday, and assisted in delivering a total of 13 attacks during which "a number of buildings were destroyed." The Canadians carried out two of the raids, the others being delivered by United States fliers. A navy communique said that in addition to destruction of the buildings, hits were scored on the main Japanese camp, on the airfield runway and on North Head, a point of land flanking the northern entrance in the Kiska harbor. The 13 raids Monday raised to a total of 142 the number of raids against Kiska to date.

Iowa Hawkeyes End Baseball Season This Week at Chicago

Seek High Position But Big Ten Chances For Top Spot Gone

Their championship hopes crushed by three straight defeats, University of Iowa baseball players end their season Friday and Saturday by meeting the University of Chicago there. Iowa led the league last Saturday morning with a 4-1 record. But they lost to Wisconsin in the afternoon and dropped games to Minnesota Monday and Tuesday.

Contributing to Iowa's downfall was the weakening of the pitchers in the late innings, for both Roy Stille and Jack Kennedy had to hurl at Minnesota after only two days of rest following the Wisconsin games. Usually each pitcher has a week of rest under the scheduling of conference games in a normal year.

Best that can be won now is a high spot in the first division, if the Hawkeyes can finish with a 6-4 record by beating Chicago twice. Since Indiana has cancelled its schedule, five other teams will play only eight games, leaving Iowa, Minnesota, and Wisconsin as the 10-game teams. Hawkeye hitting fell off in the last two series and now stands at 253, as compared to opponents' 229. Iowans have collected 87 hits and 52 runs, while foes have 83 hits and 53 runs, but the Hawks

Plans Made For Athletics

Faculty members of the physical education department here met yesterday to draw up plans for a program for the 500 basic engineering students who will arrive here sometime early in May. The university physical education department will have charge of the physical training and sports program of the engineering group, and although the plans have not been completed at this time they will include an intramural program, it was stated yesterday by E. G. "Dad" Schroeder, director of athletics here. He said that the program will provide for such sports as kitenball, track, tennis, volleyball, baseball and others. Plans are also pending for a summer session program for university students, but no definite action can be taken on these until the final results of registration are learned. An intramural program, however, has been provided for, and university students still will have access to the tennis courts and golf course. Any man registered in the university may also obtain a locker and towel service upon showing his registration card, it was stated.

It was announced yesterday that, beginning next week, the fieldhouse swimming pool will be open to university men for recreational swimming after 6 p. m. every day.

More details concerning both the army and university physical training programs will be given out later.

Golfers Accurate Only

NEW YORK (AP)—The old question of "How high is up?" has a new companion. It is "How accurate is accurate?" And after digesting a few figures concerning degrees of accuracy we've decided to be a little less hasty in referring to a pitcher's accuracy with a baseball or a fighter's accuracy with his punches or a golfer's accuracy with his mashie.

Particularly the golfer's accuracy, as what we have learned makes the common practice of describing a golfer's play as perfect sound rather silly.

This belated education is the result of a conversation between Gene Sarazen, the golfer now representing a firm specializing in precision instruments, and another gentleman of mechanical mind.

The question of how accurate a top-notch golfer really is bobbed up, and Sarazen's companion got out pencil and paper and started putting down figures.

When he had finished it was fairly clear that a top-notch golfer is about as accurate as a description of Hitler being a benevolent soul steeped in the milk of human kindness.

We won't attempt to go into the higher mathematics involved in reaching this conclusion, as we begin to get lost when we get above three figures and would rather donate the two cents we are short in our account than spend hours trying to track them down.

'Burnt Cork' Likely Loser

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—It appeared yesterday that Burnt Cork still is a likely starter in Saturday's Kentucky derby and in that case the boys and girls—a little doubtful now as to who will win—are convinced they know who'll finish last.

The Cork is the big, handsome hay-stoker owned by Rochester of the radio. In his latest racing effort, Tuesday's Derby trial, he staggered home last. Starting him in the derby mile-and-a-quarter would be a whole lot funnier than any of his owner's gags ever were.

Returning him to the list—on the say-so of Mr. Benny's Man Friday of the ether—boosts the possible starting field for the Blue Grass brawl to somewhere between nine and a dozen, headed by Count Fleet and Ocean Wave.

When Burnt Cork finally ambled to the finish line Tuesday, even the folks who didn't know a race horse from a merry-go-round movie voted unanimously that anything over three quarters of a mile for the Cork is strictly a cross-country bunion derby.

Cubs Take Advantage Of Errors to Wallop St. Louis Cards, 4-0

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The Cardinals displayed anything but world championship form yesterday, as the Chicago Cubs, taking advantage of four errors, whitewashed St. Louis, 4 to 0, on the 7-hit twirling of Hiram Bithorn.

Faulty play by the champions gave the aggressive Cubs a pair of unearned counters in the first inning. Stan Hack and Ed Stanky started the game with successive singles and Harry Walker fumbled the latter ball allowing the runners to advance to third and second.

Bill Nicholson batted in Hack, Stanky advancing. Dominic Dalesandro walked. Here the Cubs attempted a double steal and the Cards again came up with an error, this time a low throw from Walker Cooper to second as Stanky scampered home with the second run.

Cooper, who had a bad day all around, tossed a lone to third trying to catch Len Merullo off home for a couple of nights, or by soap salesmen passing through in line of duty.

Louisville can't be blamed if out-of-towners come there for the sole purpose of seeing the derby, for Nor can Matt Winn, who has announced he'd run the race privately if necessary, and has made no bid for foreign spectators.

However, some outsiders will be there. Eventually the government might get seriously annoyed and crack down, but hard. The derby could be just that extra piece of rope for a community hanging. It's up to the fans to decide.

Federal Judge Dismisses 2nd Petrillo Case

CHICAGO (AP)—Federal Judge John P. Barnes, acting on a motion filed by the department of justice anti-trust division, yesterday dismissed without prejudice the government's second suit against James C. Petrillo, president of the AFL American Federation of Musicians.

The suit had asked for an injunction restraining Petrillo from interfering in the manufacture of musical recordings. It charged that Petrillo's ban on record making was an illegal conspiracy in restraint of trade and alleged that he and the union were attempting to eliminate from the air approximately 550 independent radio stations dependent largely or entirely upon phonograph records for their musical programs.

Assistant U. S. Attorney Daniel O. Britt, head of the anti-trust division here, gave no reason for the requested dismissal when he presented the motion, but when questioned last night said:

"The government is still considering the matter and will continue giving careful consideration to see that the activities of Mr. Petrillo are within the law."

The first government suit was dismissed by Judge Barnes last fall when he ruled that he had no jurisdiction in the case, asserting it involved a labor dispute. Last February Petrillo's attorney sought dismissal of the second suit on the same grounds, but Barnes over-ruled him, holding that the second suit raised issues not mentioned in the first complaint.

Axis African Doom Foreshadows Future

WASHINGTON (AP)—Axis armies in Tunisia are reeling to their doom under a concentrated allied air barrage that in the judgment of air experts is only a forerunner of what is in store for Germany itself once the round-the-clock attack from Britain reaches its full scope.

Official figures from allied headquarters in Africa credit the north-west African air force with having dropped nearly 2,000,000 pounds of bombs on enemy targets on both sides of the Mediterranean and on his sea supply lines within a single week. The results in axis planes, shipping and base facilities knocked out represent an absolute barrier to the escape of any substantial portion of the axis forces defending the dwindling Tunisian hump, in the opinion of informed allied military judgment men who cannot be further identified.

"Ideal Combination"

The air onslaught also lends point to the argument advanced by British Air Vice-marshal F. MacNeece Foster, in an address yesterday before the British and Canadian club of New York City, that an "ideal combination" of British night and American day bombing has been worked out in raids over Germany within recent months. Carried out on a sufficient scale, he added, it was "capable of producing results which may well greatly shorten the war in Europe... enabling us both to turn our full weight upon Japan."

"The one great need for an effective air offensive by day over Germany is more aircraft," Marshall Foster said. "I know that this fact is equally appreciated in both Washington and London."

Both Methods Essential

The British air officer admitted that initially some Britons doubted the practicability of American conceptions of high-level, precision bombing due to the probable heavy loss ratios and that some Americans doubted the effectiveness of British mass night bombing. But both methods have been proven in actual practice over Germany to be "essential and complementary" and are calculated to yield swift results "if carried out on the necessary scale," he added.

There was some disposition in Washington to read into the remarks of so high ranking a British air authority a reply to Australian pleas for a greater allotment of air strength—pleas that General MacArthur and his spokesmen have supplemented with frequent warnings of growing Japanese concentrations north of the vital New Guinea sector.

British Pound Nazi Communication Lines

LONDON (AP)—British bombers hammered Nazi communication and supply lines in Holland and northern France yesterday and damaged two enemy mine sweepers in an assault on a small enemy convoy in the channel off Brittany, the air ministry announced last night.

Possibly indicating another RAF sweep over Germany, the Berlin radio was silent last night for 50 minutes starting at 10:30 p. m.

Mustangs on offensive patrol damaged several barges and locomotives in Holland and fighter bombers struck at a number of railway targets in northern France. Whirlwind bombers escorted by Spitfires attacked the convoy.

Three aircraft were reported missing from the day's operations.

Fitch Company Denied Shipment of Alcohol

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Guy M. Gillette (D., Iowa) said yesterday the war production board had refused an alcohol allocation to the F. W. Fitch company of Des Moines to fill army and navy orders.

"That seems strange, since we've been told there's so much alcohol on hand," the senator commented.

"The WPB chemicals section insists on maintaining the limitation on alcohol to the Fitch company because the orders to be filled are for post exchanges and not directly for the war effort.

"But they did make this concession, that if the present trend of alcohol supplies continues they might allocate some around July 1," Gillette added.

represent employers. Who then would they represent but themselves!

For owners to lose this last vestige in management is worse than State Socialism, under which the owner has at least a remote voice in the selection of management by ballot.

Industry cannot be held responsible for war or post-war production if it is stripped of its managerial faculties!

MR. KEYS CHALLENGES: Management still exercises every single right with one exception. The Wagner act stopped employers from abusing and endangering the whole system of free enterprise by exploitation of labor.

Foremen, too, suffered from the short-sighted policy of unrestrained greed which was responsible for the unionization of all workers. But an erroneous interpretation of the Wagner act temporarily deprived foremen of proven benefits—collective bargaining.

Impartial investigation of the status of the great majority of foremen will quickly establish the fact that they no longer have the right to hire and fire or to make company policies. They are strictly employees and are entitled to protection.

MR. DESVERNINE REPLIES: Manufacturers' associations are purely experience-exchanges and statistical research agencies. They never dictate policies binding on anyone or control the activities of any member.

The proposed "Foreman's Association" is designed to be a union in which outside paid organizers will dictate the employment conditions, wages, relations, etc., of its members and will undoubtedly assert exclusive collective bargaining rights for all foremen.

If it is not that, why not be candid and so state?

It is the fact that its organizers, to justify their pay, will claim these prerogatives which would impair managerial functions and responsibilities and lead to the socialization of industry.

Lieut. C. P. Erdman Talks on Philippines

Navy Instructor Gives Discussion of Islands At Meeting of Lions

Lieut. C. P. Erdman, instructor at the Iowa Navy Pre-Flight school and a former resident of the Philippine islands, discussed the islands at a luncheon meeting of the Lions club in the pine room of Reich's cafe yesterday.

Many people criticized General MacArthur for temporarily vacating the islands, he said, but this action is easily explained by pointing out that at this time we were not sufficiently organized to fly in supplies and men over the great distance between the United States and the Philippines.

The Philippines are of strategic importance because by paddling from island to island, it is possible to travel from the extreme northern part of the 7,000 islands to the Dutch East Indies and on to Singapore by canoe.

The people are small and brown, music-lovers and inclined toward procrastination. No one needs to work since fish, bananas and other tropical fruits are abundant.

The churches, army and navy have done much to civilize the Philippines, being especially active in improving sanitation.

Lieutenant Erdman believes that many Americans taken prisoner are being held at St. Thomas, a Catholic university in Manila.

While in the Philippines, Lieutenant Erdman was Y. M. C. A. secretary at Manila. He established a camp for 75 American boys with the purpose of hardening them by instruction in camping and hiking in order for them to be able to compete with young men living in the United States.

Near-Expired Ration Stamps Not Usable For Future Purchases

DES MOINES (AP) — Ration stamps which are about to expire cannot be deposited with retailers for future delivery of rationed goods, the Des Moines district office of price administration said yesterday.

Pointing out that red ration stamps A, B, C and D expire at midnight Friday, the OPA warned that these stamps are of no value to consumers after that time, and should be destroyed.

Any retailer who accepts stamps which are about to expire and promises his customers delivery of rationed goods after the expiration date is violating federal regulations as well as the patriotic spirit of the rationing program, OPA officials said.

Iowa Citizens Warned To Expect Blackout

Prof. Rollin Perkins Announces Schedule Of Various Signals

Residents of Iowa City should be on guard for an unannounced surprise blackout, Prof. Rollin M. Perkins, chairman of the Civilian Defense program, announced Wednesday.

Because there was some confusion in connection with last week's blackout, Professor Perkins pointed out particularly that there are no whistles to indicate "all clear."

Every home should be now be acquainted with the meaning of the various signals, a summary of which appears below.

1. The "yellow" advance warning signal is given only by telephone to a few individuals and establishments.

2. The "blue" signal, indicating total blackout, preliminary to a total blackout, is an uninterrupted two-minute blast, at which time street lights go off and the community must blackout, except for essential industries which may continue work.

3. The "red" signal, meaning total blackout, consists of a series of short blasts (five-second blasts at three-second intervals). All lights must go out, except for authorized blackout lights; pedestrians must leave the streets, and cars and busses must be parked with lights out and ignition off while their occupants seek shelter.

4. After the immediate danger is past but while the risk of its return remains, the "blue" signal indicates partial blackout again, not all clear. The procedure is the same as under 2 above.

5. The "white" or all clear signal is not given by whistles, but street lights will go back on and WSUI will announce that the blackout is over.

Dean Phillips Sees Housing Boom Soon

A housing building boom and a wave of new products and improved forms of old ones will occur in America during the post-war period, according to Dean Chester A. Phillips of the college of commerce.

He points out that our advancing technology and the utilization of new and lighter steels, aluminum, magnesium, and the wide development of plastics will enrich the flow of both consumers' and producers' goods.

There will be an obvious deficiency in housing facilities just as in the 20's, when one of the mainsprings of economic activity was the satisfaction of housing requirements," he said.

He believes that a big feature of the post-war economy will be a government debt of almost appalling proportions, but distributed more widely than the public debt has ever been distributed before.

Employing Japanese Suggested to Aid Farm Labor Shortage

CHICAGO (AP) — Elmer L. Shirrell, director of the war relocation authority, declared yesterday that 40 percent of the 106,000 American-Japanese and loyal Japanese aliens in the ten relocation camps in the west and southwest are expert agricultural workers who can help lessen the middle west's farm labor shortage.

Hiring of American-Japanese farm help will lighten the burden of the taxpayer, Shirrell said in an address to the Chicago Farmers association.

"At present Americans are paying about a million dollars a week to maintain ten camps." He said "to stop this tax load by turning the labor ability of the American-Japanese into productive channels the war relocation authority needs the help of every farm owner or employer who has a job available.

"These people are adequately adapted to midwest farming. They have a wide background of field crops, livestock, particularly hogs and poultry, and their skill in truck farming is nation wide. Many are graduates from western agricultural colleges."

It has happened to thousands accustomed to full iceboxes before Pearl Harbor. In this case, however, the icebox might have been better stocked had the lady not used up her ration coupons before more were available and expended too many points for too little. It was all in the newspapers, her husband is telling her. Had she watched them for ration reminders this wouldn't have happened! He is right. Keeping you up with your ration news is only one way your newspaper serves the home. To make you a better homemaker whether it's to fashion your own spring suit or to refurbish the living room... to assist you in your war effort generally whether it's showing you how to grow a better victory garden or more ably serve civilian defense...
