In the North chapel of the army airbase in Lincoln, Neb., Hazel Rank of Oxford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Rank of North English, became the bride of Pfc. Harold G. Kron, son of Mrs. Emily Kron, 1128 Rochester avenue, Feb. 12. The Rev. Patrick J. Ryan of Oxford performed the single ring ceremony in the presence of 30 relatives and friends of the couple. The Rev. V. A. Grusser presented several organ selections preceding and during the ceremony.

Pauline Rank of North English, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Serving as best man was Joseph J. Glenn of Iowa City.

Bridal Gown of Taffeta

For her wedding, Miss Rank chose a gown of ivory faille taffeta with a fitted bodice, sweetheart neckline and long sleeves tapering in a point at the wrists. Her full skirt extended into a senior train, and her finger-tip veil was held in place by a coronet of pearls. She wore a gold cross and carried a white prayer book and a bouquet of white orchids and narcissi.

The maid of honor selected a gown of aqua taffeta, also designed with a fitted bodice, sweetheart neckline and long sleeves. A shoulder-length veil of matching net fell from a tiara of aqua flowers, and her bouquet was of pink and fuchsia snapdragons.

Mrs. Rank was attired in a black dressmaker suit with black and white accessories. The bridegroom's mother chose a pink wool dress with black accessories. Each wore a gardenia corsage.

Dinner Honoring Couple

A wedding dinner in the Cornhusker hotel honored the couple after the ceremony. A wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom centered the table, which was decorated with white tapers and greenery. The couple then left for a wedding trip to Omaha, Neb. For traveling, the bride selected a Kelly green suit with brown accessories.

Mrs. Kron was graduated from St. John's high school in Victor, and Private Kron was graduated from Iowa City high school. He was employed by the Railway Express company for eight years before his entrance into the service. At present he is stationed at the army air base in Lincoln, where the couple will live.

Paper Pickup

Boy Scouts to Collect Today

"Only a scrap of paper!"

Not only is the war being won "on" paper, but "with" paper as well. Paper and its by-products, all derived from pulp-wood, are among the most vital and most versatile of the raw materials essential to modern war. Without them, experts have declared, the war could not continue, and the nation with the greatest source of supply has a distinct advantage over enemies.

Iowa Citizens, as well as residents of other communities, are able to do their part in supplying some of the large amount of this needed material when the Boy Scouts collect waste paper in and around Iowa City today.

Iowa Citizens are urged to get this paper out as early as possible, tied in flat bundles or in secure boxes and placed on the curbing in plain sight of the street.

Dorr L. Hudson, chairman of the Johnson county waste paper drive, says, "We cannot stress too strongly the necessity of complete cooperation in this all-out drive. It's up to every citizen to make this small effort toward victory."

Hudson pointed out that immense quantities of paper are required to supply servicemen overseas with vital articles packed in pulpwood and cardboard containers. It takes 81 tons of supplies wrapped in paper a month for every man compared to 43 tons in the last war.

Iowa Overcomes Purdue Quintet, 46-43

Hawks Moved To Third Place

Boilermakers Pushed Back; Tie for Fourth In Conference Race

By WALLY STRINGHAM
Daily Iowan Sports Writer

Taking the steam out of the Purdue Boilermakers, Iowa's cage kids overcame a rugged Purdue team, 46 to 43, last night in the Iowa fieldhouse.

Iowa now stands in third place in the Big Ten race, with eight wins and two defeats.

Iowa started the game rolling, with a gift toss by Postels, and the Hawks held a lead of several points in the opening minutes of the game. Paul Hoffman led the Boilermakers' rally which put them ahead with six minutes of play remaining in the first period.

However, three charity tosses by Ives and a last minute bucket by Danner put Iowa even with Purdue at the half, 18-18.

The Hawks got off to a fast start in the second period as Dick Ives, leading scorer with 22 points, dropped in four consecutive baskets to give Iowa a substantial lead. In the final minutes, the Boilermakers rallied again to narrow the count to 44-41 with minutes to go. A basket by Kremer clinched the game for "Pops" Harrison's quintet.

Ned Postels went out on fouls with 5 minutes of play left in the first period and Glen Kremer came in to finish the game. It was Kremer's first chance to play any length of time and the Dubuque cager ably filled the veteran guard's shoes.

It was one of the roughest games of the season. Both teams exhibited ragged floor play throughout most of the contest. Neither team could work the ball in under the basket and both were compelled to take long range shots frequently.

Ives' scoring brought his total to 178 points for the season, breaking the record of 161 held by Ben Trickey.

Big Ten Swimmers, Wrestlers Struggle for Championships

Conference Meet At Evanston, Last '44 Wrestling Competition

ANN ARBOR, MICH.—Big Ten swimming and wrestling championships for 1944 will be at stake in conference meets to be held today at Evanston, and on the basis of dual meet performances of the past month Michigan looms as the title favorite in each case.

The Wolverine swimmers are clear cut favorites to win their 14th conference championship in 18 years with Northwestern and Purdue rated second and third. Michigan has beaten Northwestern twice, 46-38 and 54-30, and downed Purdue 61-23. The same three schools are expected to battle it out for the wrestling crown, won last year by Indiana with Michigan second. Michigan has won four straight matches from conference opponents and two of the Wolverine grapplers are unbeaten. They are Bob Reichert at 121 pounds and Jim Gailles at 175.

Other strong Michigan wrestling entries include Lowell Oberly at 136 pounds, George Curtis at 155 and John Greene in the heavy-weight division. The Wolverines last won the conference championship in 1938.

In the swimming championships Michigan entries are favored to win at least four of the nine events on the card and to place heavily in all of them in the matter of seconds, thirds and fourths. With Mert Church and Chuck Pries the Wolverines should finish one-two in both the free style sprints and also appear to have an edge in both the medley and free style relays.

The first place battle in the breast stroke will be between Heini Kessler of Michigan and John Walsh of Northwestern.

Church is one of the two defending champions from last year who will be on hand Saturday. He is 50-year titlist. The other will be Ohio State's Keo Nakama, 220 and 440-year champion and record holder, who is the only member of last year's championship Buckeye team which beat out Michigan, 66-61, for the crown.

Freshman Paul Maloney of Michigan, national A. A. U. mile champion, will be a threat to Nakama in both distance swims with Achilles Pulakos also expected to pick up points in the 220.

This week's competition will be the last of the year for the wrestlers but the swimming team will compete in two more meets, the national collegiates at Yale March 23 and 24 and the national A. A. U. championships here a week later.

Second Hawk Player Leaves for Service, Purdue Final Game

Call to service as an army air corps trainee has removed Floyd Magnusson of Ft. Dodge, reserve forward and center, from the University of Iowa basketball squad, marking the second player to leave in less than a week.

Magnusson said that the Purdue game of Friday evening was his final one. Therefore he misses the Notre Dame contest at South Bend next Saturday and the games with Northwestern here March 3 and 4.

Other Hawkeye who departed this week was Jimmie Grafton of Moline, Ill., substitute guard who had appeared in seven of the eight conference games.

Coach "Pops" Harrison, although sorry to lose the two players from his small squad, nevertheless does not have to worry about departure of any first team players. Dick Ives is not yet 18, Dave Danner won't be called soon, Lloyd Herwig has a war research deferment, and Ned Postels and Jack Spencer are 4-F.

Shifts in Little Hawk Quintet May Indicate End of Loss Streak

Hoping to crack a five game losing streak, the Little Hawk basketball team tonight at 8:15 to battle Charles City in a non-conference tilt. In an effort to snap his cagers out of the doldrums, Coach Fran Merten has made a number of shifts in his starting lineup to see if the changes can put the team on its feet again.

Gene Matthes, who has been a starter at one of the forward positions all year, has been shifted to a guard slot, while Dick Kalous, a guard all season, will team with Bob Freeman in a forward position.

Don Trumm will remain in his guard position, while Willie Orr will again start at the pivot post for the Hawkeyes. This combination has not been tried in a game thus far this season, but it may be the shift that will put Merten's five back on its toes again.

Not having won a game since they vanquished Dubuque 29-22 Jan. 14, the Little Hawks may have a tough time with a Charles City team which is rated only fair. The Charles City quintet has a record similar to that of the Little Hawks at the present time.

The City high five now rests in sixth place in the Mississippi Valley conference league, after dropping successive games to Davenport, Franklin, Roosevelt, and Clinton (two). Next week's game with Wilson of Cedar Rapids will be the last regular season game for the Hawkeyes.

Buckeyes Win Over Illinois

Ohio State Chalks Up Ninth Conference Win, Downs Illini, 52-41

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP)—Ohio State rang up its ninth Big Ten victory in 11 starts by downing Illinois last night, 52 to 41 as Buckeye center Arnold (Stills) Risen connected for 19 points.

Illinois was ahead only once—late in the first half—when Howy Judson and Junior Kirk scored from the field to put Coach Doug Mills' five in front, 14-13. Kirk's 13 points were high for the Illini, who dropped their sixth in eight conference games.

In the last two minutes of the first half Bob Bowen, Don Grate and Risen clicked for a basket each, giving the Buckeyes a 19-14 lead which they quickly increased after the intermission.

With the score 39-24 about midway in the second half, Kirk sparked an Illini rally, registering seven points on three fielders and a free throw, but the Buckeyes again put on the steam and won going away on baskets by Risen and four long shots by Bowen.

U-High Loses To Mt. Vernon Team, 29-11

U-high was defeated last night in an extremely slow-moving game by the Mt. Vernon Maroons who scored a 29-11 victory over the Bluehawks. U-high's only scorers were Capt. Don Wagner with 4 points, Steve Nusser and Jack Shay with 3 each, and Jim Williams with 1 point.

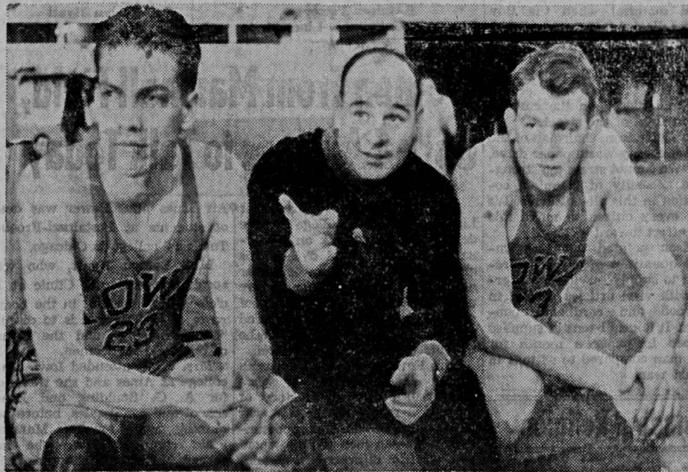

The Maroons clicked a little better with Jack Koch and Wolfe garnering 7 points each, Hemenway and Jim Koch swishing in 6 points each, and Woofe and Fischer tossing in 2 and 1 respectively.

Six Track Records Menaced by Irish, Michigan Track Meet

Wolverines Favored Team, Has 12 Meets Of Last 13 Meets

ANN ARBOR, MICH., (AP)—Six meet records will be threatened here today when the track teams of Michigan and Notre Dame clash for the 14th time since 1900. The meet, to be held in Yost Field house, will open at 8 p. m., EWT.

Records in danger are those for the 440, 880, mile, low hurdles, pole vault and broad jump. The Wolverines, on the basis of their smashing 93-11 win over Western Michigan as compared to the 62-51 victory scored over the Broncos by the Irish, will be a definite favorite for team honors. Notre Dame has beaten Michigan only once in the previous 13 track meets between the schools.

The last Michigan-Notre Dame meet, held here in 1942, resulted in a 58-46 win for the Wolverines but the Irish have dropped only one dual collegiate decision since then. That was to Marquette by a three point margin two weeks ago when the Irish split their squad to send a number of stars to the Millrose Games at New York.

Notre Dame standouts are Ralph Pohland and Frank Martin in the middle distances, John Yonakor in the shot put and Phil Anderson in the pole vault. Pohland is a Marine transfer from Minnesota and one of the best collegiate half-milers. He was second in the Big Ten outdoor meet last week.

Martin won the half, mile and two mile against Western while Yonakor tossed the shot 48 feet 11 1/2 inches against Marquette. In the latter meet Anderson vaulted 13 feet.

In the half Pohland will face John Roxborough, Bob and Ross Hume and Dick Barnard of Michigan while in the mile Martin will clash with the Hume twins. Meet records of 1:57 for the 880 and 4:19.1 in the mile may easily fall. Bob Ufer of the Wolverines will take a crack at the meet mark of :49.2 in the quarter while Elmer Swanson seeks to better :07.5 in the lows. The pole vault record of 12 feet six inches may go while the broad jumpers will be aiming at a standard of 22 feet 10 inches. Bob Segula in the vault and Carl Nichols in the broad jump are Michigan's leading entries for the events.

Ft. Eustis, Va., has a new building housing eight bowling alleys as an addition to its soldier recreational facilities.

Gophers' 1st Big Ten Win Sinks Indiana

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—Minnesota won its first Big Ten basketball game of the season last night, handing Indiana its 11th consecutive defeat. The score was 48-47.

The winning point came with only eight seconds remaining, with Gene Kelly sinking one of two free throws to break the 47-all deadlock.

The game was close through the entire first half with Minnesota's 22-19 lead at the half being the biggest margin enjoyed by either team up to that time.

Bill Wright, veteran Minnesota forward, topped both teams in individual scoring with 18 points while Retherford was best for the Hoosiers with 12.

'Marriage' Holds Top Weight in Handicap

New Orleans Race Draws 15 Veterans Of Racing Campaigns

NEW ORLEANS, (AP)—Vow-ard and Dupuy's ancient but rugged Marriage was assigned top weight of 124 pounds in today's $25,000 handicap at the fair grounds here, which has attracted 15 veteran campaigners.

William Helis' Irish-bred Rounders will carry 120 pounds and Bob-anet stable's Gay Bit, the only 3-year-old entered, 107.

First Fiddle, Mrs. Ed. Mulrenan's fast-finishing big grey horse, also was assigned 120 pounds and will be ridden by Jockey Jack West-roppe.

Others entered and their weights were: Brownie, 114; Reaping Glory, 112; OK Sugar, 102; Jack S.L., 117; Sugar Ration 105; Go Gino, 115; Incoming, 105; Amber Light, 117; Parasang, 112; Alfios, 105; and Pop's Pick 114.

First Fiddle's two-length victory in Tuesday's mile and 70-yards Lecompte handicap, likely will make him one of the choices in the big money race which is at a mile and a sixteenth.

The aging Marriage, however, has a habit of upsetting the dope when the big money is at stake. He won the event last year and was overlooked in the betting, paying $76 for 2. Posttime for the race, which will be broadcast over a nationwide hookup (Mutual), is 5:15 p. m. (CWT).

Sports Trail...

By WHITNEY MARTIN
NEW YORK (AP)—It's a little like trying to figure out whether the chicken or the egg came first, so it is anybody's guess as to whether, if perchance major league baseball failed to finish the season, the demise would be caused by lack of manpower or lack of attendance.

Personally, we'd call it a tie, in that the two are so closely associated it is difficult to consider one without the other. That is, lack of attendance would probably follow lack of manpower, as if the quality of the game took too much of a tumble due to inadequate player strength, it most certainly would affect the gate.

In speaking of manpower that is just what is meant. It stands to reason the clubs could get enough 16 or 17-year-olds together to fill out the squads to any desired numerical strength, but that would be boy-power, and a lot of customers aren't going to pay Babe Ruth and Joe DiMaggio prices to watch kids they could see on a corner lot for nothing.

It has been noted that signed contracts are coming in to the clubs in a very slow trickle, almost a drip, in fact, and an astute baseball man we were talking to explained it this way.

"Most of the players have jobs in defense plants or are otherwise helping the war effort. They are afraid to send in their contracts because that would be advertising the fact they planned to leave their jobs, and their draft boards would take notice of that fact. They fear that, if they happen to be 3-A right now they will be slapped into 1-A before they could blink. In other words, they're just a little bit fearful that quitting a war job to play baseball will not be looked upon kindly.

"You will notice that several players employed in defense work have announced they won't play this year. Now the chances are they could make considerably more money playing ball, so, barring the possible patriotic motive, the conclusion is that they are afraid to quit their present work."

This anonymous gen also remarked that the men who have shown the most signs of breaking down in a good old cry over the 1944 outlook are owners who have their own chips at stake. The everything-is-lovely lads for the most part are the salaried men, he said, who stand to lose only their salaries should the game collapse.

The club owners, he said, not only would lose possible profits but would find themselves going rapidly into the red as day-by-day passed and attendance dwindled. Those fellows have more at stake than their jobs. They also have to watch their credit.

This isn't a cry-baby outlook for baseball, but is just an effort to take a realistic attitude toward possibilities. Personally, we think baseball will struggle through some ways, barring unforeseen war developments.

Intellectually. A student can't possibly take part in all of the activities offered or even half of them, but he should have at least one which he is particularly interested in."
Marilyn Fromm, A3 of Mason City: "No, I don't think the students take advantage of all the activities, especially the student religious groups. The few students behind these groups put forth so much effort to provide the activities, it seems too bad that more persons can't attend them. The speeded-up program, of course, takes more time for studies, but there are so many opportunities offered by the university, I think these should be better response."
Jane Van Ausdale, A1 of Dav- enport: "In comparison to the great number of excellent activities offered on the campus, the number of students in active participation is unnecessarily low. The student fails to take advantage of these opportunities and consequently misses a lot that college has to offer."

HOLLYWOOD—

about all this. It came up the other day when they were plotting a new movie called "Wing And A Prayer," a story of life on an aircraft carrier. One sequence calls for men on the hangar deck to see a movie while the carrier is plowing the drink. Right away somebody thought what kind of picture men on a flat-top might like to be seeing, and wrote in "Tin Pan Alley" as the picture-within-a-picture. Betty Grable and Alice Faye would be fine. It stayed that way until somebody remembered that "Tin Pan Alley" wasn't exactly new, and soldiers who were currently enjoying "The Birth of a Nation," "Way Down East" and others you mentioned in your piece, Hal, might get a horse laugh on Hollywood.

 Buzzers were pressed, stairs were vaulted, and quick-like-a-tiger Betty Grable's newest, "Pin-Up Girl," got the call. If the soldier circuit speeds up as hoped, maybe the boys will be seeing "Wing And A Prayer" and the Grabel thing on the same bill.

Meteorology Tests to Begin Thursday

Final examinations in the pre-meteorology training course will be administered to the army air corps students stationed here Feb. 24, 25 and 26.

The tests, administered by classroom instructors, will be given under the supervision of Prof. E. N. Oberg of the mathematics department, academic director of the pre-meteorology school.

Covering the subjects of humanities, mathematics, vector-analysis, geography and physics, the tests are regular army form tests, distributed by the Chicago meteorology committee, with headquarters at the University of Chicago.

They are administered in all pre-meteorology schools throughout the nation at approximately the same time and cover the material of the entire course.

Because of the discontinuance of the "A" meteorology course, students who pass these examinations will not go into meteorology work, but the tests will form a background for whatever branch of the army air forces to which they are transferred.

Many of the men may be expected to go into communications work and for them the passing of these examinations will be a basic

City Revokes Beer Permit

The class B beer permit of Henry A. Musack Sr., operator of Musack's Tavern, 221 S. Dubuque street, was revoked yesterday morning at a special session of the city council. Notice was delivered to Musack by Police Chief Ollie A. White at 11 o'clock yesterday morning.

The license, issued in July, would have expired July 8, 1944. The council revoked the license, charging the operator with violating the law by selling beer to minors in the tavern. Musack was fined $50 last week in police court for the violation.

He was asked at that time by Police Judge Jack C. White to submit his books for inspection, indicating what percentage of his business was in the sale of beer and what percentage from the pool room in the back of the tavern. This investigation will determine whether or not he will be fined for allowing a minor to sell beer in his establishment.

What happens when your hat comes down?

SOMEDAY, a group of grim-faced men will walk stiffly into a room, sit down at a table, sign a piece of paper—and the War will be over.

That'll be quite a day. It doesn't take much imagination to picture the way the hats will be tossed into the air all over America on that day.

But what about the day after?

What happens when the tumult and the shouting have died, and all of us turn back to the job of actually making this country the wonderful place we've dreamed it would be "after the War"?

No man knows just what's going to happen then. But we know one thing that must not happen:

We must not have a postwar America fumbling to restore an out-of-gear economy, staggering under a burden of idle factories and idle men, wracked with internal dissension and stricken with poverty and want.

We must not have breadlines and vacant farms and jobless, tired men in Army overcoats tramping city streets.

That is why we must buy War Bonds—now.

For every time you buy a Bond, you not only help finance the War. You help to build up a vast reserve of postwar buying power. Buying power that can mean millions of postwar jobs making billions of dollars' worth of postwar goods and a healthy, prosperous, strong America in which there'll be a richer, happier living for every one of us.

To protect your Country, your family, and your job after the War—buy War Bonds now!

Buy-a-Plane

St. Mary's Doubles Bond Goal

Students in St. Mary's school more than doubled their $15,000 goal in the war bond and stamp Buy-a-Plane campaign which began Jan. 18 and ended yesterday. The students sold $1,600 in war stamps, $28,500 in series E and $7,500 in series G bonds.

The campaign, a part of the National Schools at War program, has as its aim the selling of defense stamps and E bonds sufficient to buy a $15,000 Fairchild 19-PP airplane.

Bernard Brogla, freshman, was highest among the students in individual sales with a total of $3,925 war stamps and bonds. Shirley Kindle, sixth grade, sold $2,462, and Charles Boyd, eighth grade, sold $2,250. Other students selling over $1,000 in bonds and stamps were Ann Scanlon, Gwendolyn Yenter, Lucy Burek and Jack Monnig.
