Allied Troops Carpet Anzio With Dead

Wipe Out Nazis In One of Greatest Battles of War

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, Naples (AP)—American and British troops have carpeted the ground before their Anzio beachhead line with German dead and in four days have wiped out as many as half of some Nazi units in one of the greatest and most critical battles of the war, front dispatches reaching here disclosed last night.

Meeting the German attempt to push them back into the sea with a hurricane of steel, Fifth army troops fell back in one sector but kept their lines intact and prevented a break-through. The allied soldiers were fighting doggedly to wear out the Germans.

Against them the Germans have thrown at least four divisions of infantry and armor in this battle on the beachhead front south of Rome.

Allied airmen in a day of intense activity over the beachhead yesterday shot down at least 15 Nazi planes and probably destroyed five others of the more than 100 enemy aircraft which attacked the British and American ground troops.

A dispatch filed from the beachhead at noon yesterday by Daniel De Luce, Associated Press correspondent, summed up the situation as of that moment by saying: "Field Marshal Albert Kesselring's offensive is being held."

Telling a story of swaying battle in which the Germans attacked with "almost reckless sacrifice of lives," De Luce radioed:

"I saw American doughboys and tankmen hit back and recover in two hours some ground that the Germans had paid for with a heavy loss of lives in 24 hours' continuous fighting a day earlier."

De Luce had filed a dispatch 12 hours previously declaring that Kesselring by the weight of his infantry-armor blows supported by artillery and air power, had forced the allies back in a sector four miles wide. The correspondent (See ANZIO, page 5)

8 Monks in Monastery When Bombed

WITH THE FIFTH ARMY AT CASSINO, Feb. 18 (Delayed) (AP)—Only eight of the Benedictine monks of the Monte Cassino abbey were in the monastery with an unknown number of civilian refugees and German troops Tuesday when American planes reduced the historic structure to a shapeless pile of rubble.

Italian civilians who have reached allied lines from the abbey said most of the monks left the abbey weeks ago when allied forces first approached this area.

Those who remained in the building doomed by German persistence in using it for their war purposes were urged by the civilians to leave when warning leaflets were dropped on the monastery by allied artillery Monday afternoon. An uncertain number of them were reported killed or wounded in the Tuesday air attack.

One Italian refugee injured in the bombing said the Germans refused to permit civilians to leave after the air attack had started.

No clear picture was obtained from the few refugees as to the German use of the monastery, but they agreed that the enemy had an observation post just outside the abbey with machinegun positions. Earlier information obtained by ground observers indicated there also was an observation post inside and that German troops were quartered there.

Shangri-La

PORTSMOUTH, Va. (AP)—The aircraft carrier Shangri-La will be launched at the Norfolk navy yard here on Feb. 24.

Her sponsor will be Mrs. James Doolittle, wife of Maj. Gen. James Doolittle who on April 18, 1942, led 16 U. S. army bombers in the first raid on Japan. Secretary of Navy Frank Knox had planned to make the launching address but yard officials have been advised he would be unable to attend.

Heavy Damage In London Bombing

LONDON (AP)—Widespread damage was found in half a dozen districts of London yesterday after waves of German heavy and fighter-bombers, facing a deadly anti-aircraft fire, dropped tons of explosives and incendiaries in their strongest bid to set the capital ablaze since the all-out attacks of 1940-41.

Several dozen persons were counted dead as a result of Friday night's raid, in which the Germans may have used as many as 150 planes. There was no official announcement either of the total involved, the number which reached London, or the number shot down over Britain.

All Under Control
The bombs hit at least three churches, two hospitals, a convent, an old folks' home, school buildings, stores, dwellings and other buildings. Fires ringed the city, lighting the horizon, but all were under control by morning.

Dozens of injured were taken to hospitals, and rescuers dug in the debris throughout the day seeking many believed to be still trapped.

The first unofficial reports of German planes shot down by ground defenses came from a district where American gun crews were in action and which claimed five raiders destroyed. Three others, including two of the new Messerschmitt 410s, were shot down over continental bases by Canadian Mosquitos on intruder patrol.

German Propaganda
In the usual verbal follow-up to German thrusts in the battle of the capitals, Berlin told the homeland only five planes were lost from a force of several hundred bombers which they said had made the raid.

The German news agency DNB said that "no comment is available in competent quarters of the Reich capital as to the question of whether this new attack is a prelude to the future battle of London."

The Paris radio said that although the raid was "one of the heaviest the British capital has experienced since the beginning of the war, it was still no reprisal raid."

One bomb demolished the wing containing the women's wards at an old people's home housing 550 persons. Nine bodies were recovered and four more were believed to be still in the rubble. Sixty persons were taken from the wreckage alive.

'Richard S. Powell' Dies at Home

PASS CHRISTIAN, Miss. (AP)—Ralph Henry Barbour, who wrote 140 books for boys under the nom de plume of Richard Stillman Powell, died at his home here early yesterday.

He began his writing career when he was 17. After working on newspapers in Boston, Philadelphia, Denver and Chicago he completed and had published his first book "The Half-Back" in 1899.

In his autobiography, written in 1943, he said he had published 140 books, among them "Wetherby's Inning," "Metapom's Hostage," "Spaniard's Cave," "Left End Edwards" and "The Winning Year."

Yank Planes Shell Rabaul

For First Time In This War, Mighty Jap Stronghold Hit

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN THE SOUTHWEST PACIFIC, Sunday (AP)—American destroyers daringly shelled once mighty Rabaul and its supplementary base of Kavieng early Friday for the first time in the war.

Moving boldly to within four miles of those Japanese strong-points on northeastern New Britain and northwestern New Ireland, they duelled with shore batteries and silenced them. They heavily damaged shipping. They blew up shore installations. Then they departed undamaged.

At Rabaul
At Rabaul, they smashed Simpson harbor which lies deep within Blanche bay.

Huge fires were set in dock areas. At Kavieng, the destroyers even remained until after day-break.

Rabaul, which the Japanese used for the anchorage of many warships until repeated air attacks made this too costly, was approached by the destroyers under cover of a smoke screen. The opposing shore batteries were knocked out. Flames were spread over the docks by the warships' shells.

At Kavieng
The warships at Kavieng, 160 miles northwest of Rabaul, hit a tanker which exploded. Other shells fell on small coastal vessels in the harbor. The docks were engulfed in flames after being hit. Coastal batteries were rendered impotent to resist the naval raiders.

The bombardments were disclosed today in a communique of Gen. Douglas MacArthur. He also reported that only the day prior to the shelling of Rabaul torpedo and dive-bombers from the Solomons hit 12 ships and 20 barges in the harbor there. Four medium sized cargo vessels and a tanker were believed sunk. Heavy damage was caused to two destroyers, a tanker and a patrol vessel.

Allied Subs Have Already Sunk 32 Enemy Ships
WASHINGTON, (AP)—Allied submarines, ranging from deep in Japanese waters to the Atlantic, Mediterranean and the southeast Asia area, have sunk 32 enemy vessels, probably six more, and damaged eight others.

Thirteen of the vessels were Japanese merchantmen, which were sent to the bottom by two American submarines. For the first time, in announcing the sinkings yesterday, the navy disclosed the general areas covered by the war patrols of the two submarines—"deep in Japanese empire waters."

This seemed to indicate strongly that the strength and ability of the submarine fleet has grown to such an extent that the Japanese have full knowledge it is operating regularly along the shores of Japan itself, penetrating mine fields and evading anti-submarine patrols on the surface.

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Charles E. Bedaux, French-born former sandhog who became an international figure and an intimate of the Duke of Windsor, took his own life here, an official announcement said yesterday, while facing an accusation of treason.

Immigration Agent John E. Burling said the 58-year-old engineer and industrialist swallowed an overdose of carefully hoarded sleeping tablets Monday night at a detention home where he had been held incommunicado since he was brought from north Africa to Miami Dec. 23, 1943, aboard an army plane.

American Marines Take Over Important Japanese Air Base

Russians Seize Huge Armory of German Equipment, Supplies

Kill, Capture 73,200 Nazis in 14-Day Battle of Korsun Trap

LONDON, Sunday (AP)—The Russians announced last night that they had not only killed or captured 73,200 Germans in the 14-day battle of the Korsun trap, but had seized an immense armory of Nazi equipment, including 10,000 trucks, 618 guns and 116 tanks. The Nazi Eighth army commander's body also was declared found among the dead.

The announcement said that 10,000 more Germans had been counted since figures on German losses in the great Dnieper bend debacle had been made public first last Thursday. Among these were 3,000 dead, making a total of 55,000 slain, and 7,200 additional prisoners for a total of 18,200 captives.

Moscow Broadcast
The announcement was made in a statement broadcast by Moscow radio and recorded by the Soviet monitor.

Later, a Moscow midnight bulletin gave details of steady Russian advances in the north where 130 more communities were captured in the three-day drive on Pskov, gateway to the Baltic states.

The rail station of Plyussa, 58 miles northeast of Pskov on the Leningrad-Pskov railway, was taken after a tense fight which cost the Germans hundreds of dead, the late bulletin said.

Staraya Russa
To the east the Russian forces which captured Staraya Russa tore a great semi-circle of territory out of German hands to the west and southwest of Staraya Russa. Eleven miles west of Pskov, Russia on the railroad to Pskov, was captured and Kharinov, 21 miles southwest of the ancient city also fell, the Russians said.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Educators expressed concern yesterday over the national loss of educated young men as well as the financial effect on colleges and universities from the army's curtailment of its specialized training program.

Dr. Ray Lyman Wilbur, chancellor of Stanford university, called it "one of the mistakes people in a democracy make because they do not look far enough ahead."

Forecasting many years of war, he said "long preparation is necessary" and declared that without adequate training "we're liable to get into real trouble."

In the same vein, Dr. George F. Zook, president of the American Council on Education, expressed hope the army will find a way to restore at least part of the curtailment.

"Unless this is done," he said, "the army will not have this supply of college-trained men that is so useful to them."

'Many Agree With Tax Plan' Says Willkie

DES MOINES (AP)—Wendell Willkie, candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, said last night that "hundreds of persons" have told him they agreed with his recent statement that the government should be collecting $16,000,000,000 a year in additional taxes.

"Everybody says to me that I told the people the truth and that it was right for me to say it. They say they understand me, but that the other fellow won't," he said in a press interview.

Willkie arrived in Des Moines at 5 p. m. yesterday from Minneapolis en route back to New York City from a speaking trip which took him into the Pacific northwest and to San Francisco. He planned to remain here until tonight.

Willkie's schedule while in Des Moines included a dinner last night with elective state officials, members of the Republican state central committee, and county chairmen and vice chairmen.

Engebi Island Falls to Yanks

Capture Puts Our Forces 750 Statute Miles From Truk

U. S. PACIFIC FLEET HEADQUARTERS, Pearl Harbor (AP)—With a mighty smash American marines captured Engebi island with its important air base one day after landing on Eniwetok atoll in the Marshalls.

Several other islands in the northern portion of the atolls also have fallen to the Americans.

Admiral Chester W. Nimitz so announced yesterday, saying that preliminary reports indicated American casualties have been light. Other islands of the atoll captured were not named, but islands from that area include Muzinbarikku, Yeri and Rujyuru, southeast of Engebi, and Bogon, Bogarikk, Elugelab and Bogallua to the northwest.

The victory in many ways rivaled the lightning victory at Kwajalein atoll 400 miles to the southeast.

Assaults on other portions of the atoll are proceeding on schedule, Admiral Nimitz said. His announcement did not indicate how much resistance the Japanese offered the American invaders at Engebi with its 5,000-foot air strip.

The capture of Engebi put our forces 750 statute miles west of the Japanese' great fortress of Truk which was attacked by a great force of American carrier-based planes and the result of which has not been disclosed because radio silence must be observed by ships of the attacking forces.

There was no indication of the size of the Japanese garrison defending Engebi and the surrounding islands, in the westernmost Marshalls, but it is probable preliminary ship bombardment and plane bombing and strafing killed many of the defenders and knocked out many defense positions before the 22nd marine regiment charged ashore.

For the first time Truk is within range of American land-based planes. Ponape, 425 miles southwest of Engebi, is within easy range even of medium Mitchells and their 75mm-cannon.

Congress Challenges Bernard Baruch Plan For Post-War Changes

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Baruch plan for post-war reconstruction of industry and manpower to civilian pursuits was challenged in congress yesterday on the grounds it would deliver the future economic destiny of the nation into the hands of the executive.

Chairman George (D., Ga.) of the senate post-war planning committee led the attack with an assertion that the proposals submitted by Bernard M. Baruch, 73-year-old financier and presidential adviser, posed a basic issue whether congress or the executive should lay down the general policies for the change over.

Senator Vandenberg (R., Mich.), a member, backed up this viewpoint with the declaration that the committee is not willing to leave such decisions to "executive lieutenants" but will insist on the establishment of an overall authority accountable to congress for its actions.

In a statement, George charged that the Baruch plan for reconstructing industry, disposing of surpluses and war plants and channeling workers back into peacetime jobs was "to do the whole job by executive order under Justice Byrnes." He alluded to War Mobilization Director James F. Byrnes.

Red Cross Month
WASHINGTON (AP)—President Roosevelt, declaring the war has entered a "decisive stage requiring the fullest measure of individual sacrifice," yesterday proclaimed the month beginning March 1 as "Red Cross Month," and urged all Americans to observe it by donating to the relief agency's 1944 minimum war fund of $200,000,000.

'Learn to Sell,' Merchandiser Tells Career Clinic Audience

"Learn to buy through selling," Mrs. Evelyn Hyatt of Marshall Field company in Chicago told prospective merchandisers at the 10 o'clock meeting of Career Clinic yesterday morning.

Mrs. Hyatt stressed the importance of sales experience in paving the way for success in higher positions. While a woman is employed as a salesperson, she has an opportunity to observe the work of the section manager in her own particular department.

She also learns how to handle customers, how to work for people, qualities of merchandise, stock handling and stock care, results of advertising, store systems, store terminology and ways of solving problems in emergencies, Mrs. Hyatt pointed out.

"Seventy percent of the women in retailing are in the buying and selling end," she declared in outlining the duties of the many positions now open to women, including section managers, training supervisors, fashion coordinators, personal shoppers, job counselors and interviewers.

The personal qualities necessary for a successful career in merchandising, according to Mrs. Hyatt, are a basic and real interest in people, a personality that "sells itself," courage and decisiveness, certain creative ability, reasoning power and good judgment.

"If you expect to have a career in merchandising, recognize your limitations immediately and try to overcome them," she advised. College subjects which should prove helpful in preparing for such a position are textiles, design and art, economics, sociology, money and banking, psychology, marketing and salesmanship, the speaker said.

Students to Observe World Prayer Day In Today's Services

University students are observing Student World Day of Prayer today under the sponsorship of the Student Christian council.

Afternoon and evening activities will be held in the Presbyterian church. A fellowship hour for students and servicemen at 4:30 will precede the sacrificial dinner at 5:30.

The dinner will be 50 cents a plate and is called the "meager meal" to typify the food on which people all over the world are forced to exist. After dinner, a worship service will be held at the dinner table to dedicate the money received from the World Student Service Fund drive.

Prof. David C. Shipley will speak on "The Meaning of Sacrifice" and scriptures will be read by Margaret Barngrover, A4 of Cedar Rapids. Father Fredrick Putnam will lead the group in prayer.

Richard Brink, E4 of Luverne, is chairman of the dedication service and Betty Long, A3 of Iowa Falls, serves as chairman of the sacrificial dinner.

Vesper services will be held at 6:15 with Shigeo Ozaki, an Hawaiian-born Japanese student at the Chicago Theological seminary, as speaker.

School of Religion Records Spirituals

Recordings of Negro spirituals are the latest addition to the school of religion's collection of hymns of Iowa religious faiths.

Dr. Marcus Bach of the school of religion and Prof. Addison Alspach of the music department Friday night visited the A. M. E. church in Cedar Rapids where the recordings were made.

Musical recordings include "Have a Little Talk With Jesus," "Trampin' Song," "Everytime I Feel the Spirit" and "The Raining Song."

William Mueller Marries Elizabeth Cook In Ceremony in Congregational Church

In a single-ring ceremony performed at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the Congregational church, Elizabeth Cook, daughter of Mrs. Carleton H. Cook of Glenwood, became the bride of Lieut. William R. Mueller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard C. Mueller of Davenport. The Rev. James Waery officiated.

Preceding the ceremony Helen Judt of Aurora, Ill., accompanied by Mrs. G. W. Buxton at the organ, sang "Through the Years" and "Ich Liebe Dich" (Beethoven). The church was decorated with white gladioli against green palms.

Bonny Johnson of Cedar Rapids was the maid of honor and Pfc. J. Gordon Rock of the Creighton Medical school of Omaha, Neb., served as best man. Ushers were Pfc. Dick Goenne, Herbert Penningroth, Pvt. Hubert Cline and Jack Voreck, all students at the University of Iowa.

Satin and Marquisette Gown

Given in marriage by her uncle, K. R. Cook of Glenwood, the bride was attired in a white floor-length gown fashioned with a satin bodice and marquisette skirt, long satin sleeves, pointed at the wrists, and a yoke of marquisette. The finger tip veil fell from a Juliet cap of mouline bobinet roses. She carried a bouquet of white roses and freesia.

The bodice of Miss Johnson's pale pink gown was of satin and the full length skirt was of marquisette. It was styled with a sweetheart neckline. On her head she wore a pink Juliet cap of mouline and satin braid. Her flowers were sweetheart roses and violets.

Mrs. Cook, mother of the bride, chose a light grey wool gabardine dressmaker suit for the occasion. She wore white gloves and a flowered hat of green roses. Her corsage was of gardenias.

Reception in Pi Phi House

A reception for relatives and friends was held after the ceremony at the Pi Beta Phi sorority house, 815 E. Washington street. For a traveling costume the bride chose a French blue wool gabardine ensemble with dark brown accessories and a white orchid.

The couple will be at home Feb. 23 at 870 Seward, Detroit, after a short wedding trip to Chicago.

The bride was a junior at the University of Iowa where she is affiliated with Pi Beta Phi sorority. Lieutenant Mueller was graduated from the university last year. He was a member of Sigma Chi fraternity and is now in the office of chief of ordnance in Detroit.

Out-of-Town Guests

Out-of-town guests at the wedding besides the parents of the couple included Dr. Emmet Rock, Dr. and Mrs. William C. Goenne, Mrs. William C. Goenne Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Schwind, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Kuttler, Mrs. Albert Lagomarcino, Mrs. Charles W. Nails, Mr. and Mrs. James Craton, Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Rubl, Cadet Franklin Lee Barnard and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mueller, all of Davenport.

Bonnie Mae Diebold, H. G. Hedges Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Chester Johnson, all of Cedar Rapids; Mr. and Mrs. K. R. Cook, Mrs. Fay McManigal, Mrs. L. C. Dean and Mrs. D. D. Wheeler, all of Glenwood; Janan McQuillan of Charles City; Connie Leonard of Des Moines; Marilyn McHugh of Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. Bennett Cullison of Harlan.

The vest has a black dragon design and a black and white bow for trim. More white dragons trim the kimona sleeves on the jacket and the trousers.

Guadalcanal Grass Skirt

In addition to a victory on Guadalcanal, the Sea Bee brother-in-law of NADINE PEARSON, A1 of Waukee, brought home another prize. It's a genuine native skirt of natural grass. Unlike the commercialized "hula skirts," it has no beadwork or waist band.

Nadine wears it as a rare piece of costume jewelry for dressy occasions.

The background is coral-orange decorated with an all over Indian-looking design in bright blue embroidery. It's a shoulder style, which was evidently popular there long before we Americans adopted the idea. The oddest thing about it is its shape, consisting of a smaller flap pocket, somewhat like the wide neck of a flat bottle at the top, attached to a large compartment below which has back and front flap pockets. The University chorus, under the direction of Prof. Herald Stark of the music department, will present its third concert of the season Sunday at 4 p. m. in the main lounge of Iowa Union. Free tickets for the concert may be obtained at the Union desk.

Gladys Notebloom, A4 of Orange City, and Donald Ecroyd, A4 of Arkansas City, Kan., will sing solo parts on the afternoon program. One of the selections which will be sung by the group next Sunday was written by a former conductor of the University chorus, Louis H. Diercks, a member of the music department from 1931 to 1933.

The program will include "When His Loud Voice" (Handel); "The Profundist" (Gluck); "The Wall of Heaven" (Brahms); "The Omnipotence" (Schubert), with Miss Notebloom, soprano; "He Is the Lonely Greatness" (Benjamin); "In the Wilderness" (Bainton); "The Dying Swan" (Diercks); "Tune Thy Music to Thy Heart" (Rowley); "Spring Delight" (Cui); "Swansea Town" (Holst); "Has Sorrow Thy Young Days Shaded?" (arranged by Davis), with Mr. Ecroyd, tenor, and "What Shall We Do With a Drunken Sailor?" (sea chantey).

Ohio State Takes Over First Place in Conference By Earning Tenth Victory in Twelve Starts

Buckeyes Lead Illini by Only Slight Margin, 50-45

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP)—Because Northwestern suffered its second defeat last night when it lost to Michigan, 50 to 45, Ohio State took over first place by earning its 10th victory in 12 starts at the expense of the defending championship Illinois five.

The Buckeyes led the Illini by only a slight margin through most of the first half until they built up a 31 to 26 halftime lead.

The Illini overtook Ohio State with eight minutes to go, when they slid into a 45 to 44 lead on Stan Patrick's basket. The Buckeyes regained the advantage on Arnie Risen's field goal but in quick order Bob Morton threw in two baskets and Walt Kirk one for Illinois to put their team ahead, 51 to 46.

With two minutes left Ohio moved in front again on baskets by Don Grate, Paul Huston and Jack Dugger, 52 to 51, but Patrick's goal made it 53 to 52 for Illinois. Then Grate fouled out for the Buckeyes and McQuade took his place with less than a minute remaining.

McQuade was fouled by Illinois' Jim Seyler and made both free throws to settle the game in Ohio State's favor.

Purdue Wins 52-50 Over Wisconsin

Fights Stubbornly In Overtime Period Before Huge Crowd

MADISON, Wis. (AP)—Purdue blasted Wisconsin's hopes of a share in the Big Ten basketball title, fighting stubbornly through the regulation game to surge ahead in an overtime, 52 to 50, before a crowd of 13,000.

The victory kept the Boilermakers in the championship race with a season record of 8 wins and two defeats. It was Wisconsin's third loss in 10 starts.

Although handicapped by loss of nine regulars and first string reserves, who were forced to return to Lafayette because of the 48 hour service men's leave rule following a game at Iowa City Friday night, the Purdue team played Badger regulars on even terms all the way.

Wisconsin led at halftime 19 to 16, but this scant margin evaporated quickly after the intermission as Purdue crept into a 26-26 tie.

DEAD END KIDS YOUNG AMERICA IN ACTION "JUNIOR ARMY"

From The Sidelines . . .

by Yoke

Talk about covering yourself with glory, the Hawkeyes sure dished themselves a double dose Friday night when they dropped a highly touted Purdue team 46-43.

There is nothing quite so potent as the cage kids when they get aroused for a game and that was definitely the picture on the floor of the fieldhouse while an over-capacity crowd watched, cheered and fought with the boys.

Hats off to officials John Getchell and John O'Donnell for a good free job of running a game. In an affair of that sort it is pretty hard to be very tough otherwise the game would have resolved itself into a matter of walking from one court into the other and to see how many free throws each of the contestants could make.

The Purdue outfit is one of the best we've seen on Big Ten wood this season. Paul Hoffman at forward is one of the greatest men in the game this year as he was able to worm his way through an intricately planned Iowa defense to score.

"Skimmer" Miller, the Iowa scout, was right when he called it football on wheels. Dave Danner said after the game that he felt like he was right back on the gridiron again, crashing the line for a touchdown.

I liked the way Hoffman had of putting the ball behind his back when he went in to "hit the line" to score.

One excited fan got his thrills redoubled as he tossed the ball in twice when it came out of bounds during the riot. With a cool, nonchalant air, as if he had done it thousands of times before, he lobbed the sphere to the referee and settled back at the ring-side ropes to be secretly honored and admired by the other Hawkeye fans around him.

WHAT PRICE GLORY, WHAT PRICE GLORY!

And a special doffing of the hat should go to Glenn Kremer, the boy who imitated Postels better than Postels can do it.

When Ned left the game early in the first half it looked like the Iowa fortunes would sink to a new low. But when Glenn came in and overcame his nervousness to shine as the stellar defensive man of the evening Iowa fans breathed a sigh of relief and at last knew that the Hawks had reserve strength to depend on.

Halfback Goes to OCS

CAMP ADAIR, Ore. (AP)—Selection of Sgt. William Shakespeare, one-time Notre Dame halfback, as the only member of the 70th division for infantry officers' candidate school at Ft. Benning, Ga., was disclosed yesterday.

Under drastically reduced officer candidate quotas, one selection was allotted the 70th. Shakespeare arrived here as a buck private last August. His home is on Staten Island, N. Y.

Director J. E. Takes Second Feature At Hialeah Big Day

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Calumet Farm's Sun Again and Ella K. Bryson's Director J. E. flashed to convincing victories in Hialeah Park's two big horse races yesterday and justified the confidence of the season's biggest crowd of 13,099, which installed them favorites.

Jockey Ted Atkinson piloted Sun Again to a two-length triumph in the $7,500 added McLennan handicap.

Director J. E. added to his growing fame by outrunning five other good three-year-olds in the $5,000 stagehand, the secondary feature.

Burdened with high weight of 122 pounds, Sun Again ran the mile and one eighth in 1:52.5 and established himself as choice to win the $25,000 Widener handicap two weeks hence.

Second place by a head went to Greentree stable's Four Freedoms, with Eurasian, third.

Sun Again paid $4.60, $3.30 and $2.70. Four Freedoms returned $8.90 and $4.60, and Eurasian's $3.20.

The highly-ranked stakes performer Bolingbroke, also bearing 122 pounds, ran seventh in the nine-horse field.

Marriage Takes $25,000 New Orleans Handicap; Pays 8 to 2

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Coward and Dupuy's fussy old eight-year-old gelding Marriage won the $25,000-added New Orleans handicap at the fair grounds yesterday, beating out William Helis' Rounders by a nose.

The victory gave Marriage two wins in a row in the New Orleans' cap, biggest stake of the winter meeting, and cost Jockey Jack Westrope $2,500, the winning jockey's share of the proceeds.

Westrope had originally signed to ride Marriage, but obtained his release to chauffeur First Fiddle, which finished third, a half length back of Rounders.

Under a careful ride by Jess Higley Marriage made his bid in the stretch to overhaul Rounders. The winner paid $8 for $2. Rounders paid $6 to place and

First Fiddle returned $3.60 to show.

Graham Plays for Colgate

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP)—Otto Graham, Northwestern's all-America football player, made his basketball debut in the east last night, scoring 19 points to lead Colgate to a 53-49 victory over New York University—the Raiders' 10th triumph in 13 starts.

Graham, a naval trainee who was captain of Northwestern's cagers until he reported to Colgate Thursday, made nine baskets and one free throw and relayed four scoring passes although he almost had to be introduced to his mates.

Hoosiers Win Over Gophers

Contest Won By Free Throw In Last Few Seconds

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—Indiana and Minnesota battled to another 48 to 47 decision in their Big Ten basketball game here last night but this time the Hoosiers were on the winning end in a game that went one overtime period.

The game was a duplication of Friday night's encounter in many respects. The score at the half was 22-19 for Minnesota last night as in Friday night's game and the contest was won by a free throw in the last few seconds, duplicating the winning point in the first game.

Indiana really got going in the second half and on free throws by Claude Retherford and baskets by Gene Faris, Jack Mercer and Retherford went ahead, 35 to 32.

Minnesota knotted the count at 39-all and again at 40 and 42 before the regular period ended.

Francescatti Will Play His Stradivarius In Wednesday Night's Performance Here

Tickets for Concert Available Tomorrow At Iowa Union Desk

French Violinist

Zino Francescatti

When Zino Francescatti, French violinist, presents his concert in Iowa Union Wednesday night at 8 o'clock, he will play his "Hart" Stradivarius, an instrument he obtained in New York City a few years after coming to America.

Francescatti, who has been called "worthy of the mantle of Paganini," will appear here Wednesday night as the second guest artist presented this year in the university concert series.

Tickets for the concert will be available at Iowa Union beginning tomorrow. University students may obtain tickets by presenting their student identification cards at the ticket desk in Iowa Union. A limited number of reserved seats will be sold to the general public.

The violinist made his American debut with the New York Philharmonic Symphony orchestra in 1939. During the past four years he has made concert tours throughout the country and has appeared with every major American orchestra and has also played on radio programs.

Wednesday night's concert will include "Sonata in A major" (Bach); "Variations on a Theme of Corelli" (Tartini-Francescatti); "Sonata in A Major, op. 47" (Beethoven); "Week-End" (Galland); "La Fille aux Cheveux de Lin" (Debussy-Hartmann).

"Minstrels" (Debussy); "Polka, from 'The Age of Gold'" (Shostakovich), and "Introduction and Rondo Capriccioso" (Saint-Saens).

Censorship Tight

DRASTIC CENSORSHIP restrictions on Allied correspondents covering the bloody fighting below Rome, imposed by Gen. Sir Harold R. L. G. Alexander, commander of all Allied forces in Italy, have drawn considerable criticism both in Washington and London.

Elmer Davis, OWI director, requested the war department to investigate the matter. Sir James Grigg, British secretary of state for war, pledged that "immediate inquiries" will be made into the question of "why Anzio dispatches are being sent to Naples for policy censorship." Alexander is shown in this new picture as he visited front near Cisterno. (International)

Shirley Lewis, "Il Penseroso" (Heller); "Warrior's Song" (Heller); Tommy Brook, "Scotch Lullaby" (McDowell); Warren Luse, "Lento" (Scott); "Dance Negre" (Scott); Gerry Cobb, "Sous Bois" (Staub); "Romance" (Sibelius); Richard Hazlett, "Sonata Op. 2 No. 1 Allegro" (Beethoven); Mary Lu Kringsel, "Sonata Op. 2 No. 1 Prestissimo" (Beethoven) and Barbara Baird who will play "Intermezzo Op. 118 No. 1" (Brahms) and "Concerto D Minor Allegro" (Mozart).

REVIEW

cated in a brief quotation. Back of the Gospel of Mark, Dr. Grant contends, there was the meaningful manifold of the Apostolic preaching (see Chap. IV). This preaching as discerned in "The Acts" and in "Mark" makes it perfectly clear that the earliest Christianity we know had a two-fold basis, and stood upon two feet, history and experience. The history was there in the oral traditions of Jesus' life and death; and the experience was equally real and could now be shared anywhere and by anyone. . . . There were no limits to the range of this experience of the risen, glorified Christ. . . . It is so to this day; for we greatly lessen the effectiveness of the Christian message if we insist upon getting it all inside the four walls of past history. Moreover, we shall never catch the real ethos of the New Testament until we abandon our exaggerated 'historicism.' (pp. 83, 84)

It is this emphasis of Form-Criticism, however, that has evoked the greatest opposition. New Testament research seeks historical certainties and for the most part seeks for them in written documents. Yet, in the opinion of your reviewer, the careful, constructive "tradition criticism" espoused by Dr. Grant, which goes beyond an arid historicism and interprets the truth-values of the Synoptic Gospels in terms of the vitalistic and empirical Christian faith, will not long await general acceptance among scholars and laymen alike. While almost every chapter in "Our Earliest Gospel" merits the attention of the reviewer, the one entitled "Was Mark Anti-Semitic?" will unquestionably evoke the most widespread comment. It is particularly apropos to call attention to this discussion at a time when anti-semitism has become once more an insidious and virulent infection in human relationships. Dr. Grant writes: "It is one of the strangest and also one of the most abhorrent and diabolical paradoxes of Western Civilization that the people among whom Christianity arose and to whose religion it owed the most historically, have been for nineteen centuries the object of undying animosity. Moreover, at no time during the Carrocco and Sezze areas of the beachhead. Allied naval units continued their support of the beachhead by shelling German positions inshore and U. S. navy torpedo boats fired torpedoes against enemy destroyers or minelayers northeast of Corsica with unobserved results. The Germans have thrown U-boats into the battle. These undersea raiders are lurking in the waters off the beachhead to prey on the vital allied sea supply line.

time during all the so-called Christian centuries has this hatred risen to such a height as at the present day in central, eastern, and southern Europe. . . . Here in this country it has recently broken out in certain quarters, with a few ignorant and noisy advocates and an illiterate credulous following; but, please God, we shall stifle the hateful monster before it grows to threatening proportions, to plague, destroy, or disgrace us." (p. 207)

Was Mark anti-Semitic? Dr. Grant's chapter is illuminating—and exciting—and since it is the hope of your reviewer that this significant discussion will be widely perused by readers of The Daily Iowan the controlling thesis need not be here divulged. Those who are familiar with Dr. Grant's contributions to New Testament scholarship and the controversies they have, many times, occasioned will welcome this new volume and the further controversy which is sure to follow. For those who are unacquainted with the highly developed techniques of Biblical criticism, this volume of essays might well prove to be a happy introduction.

as much difficulty getting them to accept our philosophies of life as we would have to get the labor unions to drop their selfish interest and adopt a national interest viewpoint. Their leaders justify their own existence and their own salaries by concocting all manners of reasons to justify selfishness and they will get those reasons daily into your newspapers through speeches, statements, and news developments. Foreign nations even will accuse us of being grasping and imperialists while they themselves are practicing imperialism and are grasping all they can get. Remember when they called us "Uncle Shylock."

In such a situation, we must demand self-interest and do it daily into the ears of our government and our people. There is no other way to offset propagandists than to confront them with the facts, not every once in a while, but every minute of every day, the facts of their own selfish attitude, their own imperialism, antagonistic ways, cartels, their own riches of raw materials, and world air and sea bases.

Don't lie about them. Don't trick them. Don't propagandize against them. Above all, don't let us become embittered against them and become anti-British or anti-Russian.

Dispel their propaganda with truth. Express their self-interest with facts. Don't let them come to believe their own false claims as nations do after these are repeated sufficiently often.

If we follow such a just course for a few years, perhaps we will have some nations coming to us on the ground we like to work on, the philosophy upon which we would prefer to deal with them. If they see they cannot get away with anything, that their old methods are useless, perhaps they too will see the wisdom of an unselfish christian way of dealing for world betterment.

I do not see any other hope of bringing them around to that sound basis of international relationship.

put as much "junk" in her purse as the Iowa coed does. "Holoku" Gown From Hawaii HAANAH TYAU, G of Honolulu, who has only been in the United States four months is the possessor of a real Hawaiian "Holoku" or festival gown similar to our formal. It's made of maroon cotton with a large white flower design and is fashioned with a ruffled v-neck and puff sleeves. Fitting tight at the hips, it extends into a long train similar to that of a bridal gown in back. The front of the skirt comes just to her ankles. This is the costume worn by the older Hawaiian women and by the younger Hawaiian girls who wish to dress up for a "Luau" or special party. Flower leis, or gaily-colored paper ones such as Hannah's, complete the effect. Although it's not wearable, PAT LORENZ, AI of La Grange, Ill., is proud possessor of her genuine Australian boomerang. It's a v-shaped affair, made of a very light wood similar to balsa. Native bird designs are burned into the wood, and when you throw it, it comes sailing back. Exotic as a dark-eyed Spanish lass and mysterious as deep dark jungle is the Tabu perfume received by MERLE WINTER, A2 of Dysart. A gift of Exs. Rex Hartzell, who purchased it in Cuba, it comes in a three-inch square glass bottle with a shiny black top. The label has a black background with a red border and the words "Tabu by Dana" in silver. Because it's almost impossible to obtain in the United States, Merle wears it only for "special" occasions. Many other Iowa coeds have received lots of other original and attractive gifts from their boys overseas, and though it's not half as nice as having the boys themselves around, they're at least a little proof that something desirable is resulting from the war.

SUI Still Not Notified About A. S. T. P.

Army and university officials connected with the army specialized training program still have received no definite official orders regarding the war department's decision to curtail training of most units of the program, Col. Luke D. Zech, commandant of the A. S. T. P. units stationed on the campus of the University of Iowa, said yesterday.

The university will be directly affected by the program of reduction, which is being put into effect by withdrawing 110,000 men from the training program in an effort to boost the army's manpower total, still 200,000 men short of the total it should have reached two months ago.

Approximately 750 men will be taken from their studies in the university, leaving a total of from 554 to 590 men enrolled in some courses. This figure includes men in advanced medicine, dentistry and engineering courses, and approximately 75 members of the A. S. T. P. reserves, 17-year-olds who have not yet been inducted into the army.

The present enrollment of A. S. T. P. students at the university constitutes the largest such unit stationed at any one school in Iowa. A total of 1,300 men have been attending army-supervised classes here.

University officials are uncertain as to the effect the curtailment of the program will have upon the university. The students who will be withdrawn will leave by April 1, according to the announcement by the war department.

Colonel Zech, in speaking of the announcement, which was made public Friday, said "I understand it is correct," and explained that the university would lose a group of men pursuing studies not included in the war department's list of subjects to be retained.

He stated that no specific orders have arrived in his office regarding the contracts between the army and the university, but that formal notification of the procedure to be followed would soon arrive.

Each unit of the army stationed here, he said, holds a separate contract with the university, so that there are from 8 to 12 separate contracts to be considered. The contracts contain a 90-day clause providing that the provision of facilities by the university may cease 90 days after government notice is received.

The effect of the enrollment drop-off will, nevertheless, not

Post-War Committee To Ask Referendum On Recreation Plan

A proposal for a referendum on the creation of a commission plan of control and tax-supported recreational program will be made by the Iowa City post-war planning executive committee at a general planning committee meeting tomorrow night at 7:30.

The executive committee will submit the question through a resolution. Committee members are Mrs. E. W. Paulus, C. Woody Thompson and Newton Weller, who will present the proposal.

The resolution points out that there is an increasing need for community interest in juvenile problems and adequate recreational facilities; that the Iowa code provides for definite authority for such facilities through a commission under city jurisdiction, and that the duly authorized municipal swimming pool will necessitate a business-like and systematic management of the civic interests in this public improvement and related playground developments.

Therefore, upon the favorable recommendation of the recreational board of Iowa City, the special investigating committee and the executive committee of the Iowa City post-war planning committee, the post-war planning committee recommends an appropriate petition be circulated among city voters regarding this matter and presented to the mayor and city council for action as provided by law.

It is also recommended that upon completion of proper petitioning the city administration give serious consideration to submitting at the next possible regular election, June 5, the question of the city's initiating a tax-supported recreation program under a commission plan in accordance with state statutes concerning swimming pools and juvenile playgrounds.

The resolution also states that, in connection with the petition and submitted question to voters, it should be made clear by favorable action, that the city is understood to be authorized to levy annually a tax not to exceed one-half mill which shall be used for the maintenance, operation, and improvement of playgrounds and the municipal swimming pool.

Present War Has Advanced Acceptance Of Airplanes 20 Years, Speaker Says

Opportunities for women in aviation, a field "which has captured the imagination of old as well as young people," were discussed by Mrs. Kathleen Power of United Air Lines' school and college service department at the Career Clinic yesterday morning.

"It is believed that the present war has advanced the acceptance of the airplane by 20 years," Mrs. Power said in urging her listeners to think seriously about the conditions at the university as at some other schools already struggling with reduced incomes because of decreased civilian enrollment. Some schools will lose two-thirds of their total enrollment.

The war department order directed virtual abandonment of the A. S. T. P. by April 1, excepting only the advanced students and, of course, the reserves. Of the approximately 145,000 men now assigned to A. S. T. P. only 35,000 will remain in the colleges and universities throughout the nation, about 5,000 of whom are pre-induction students.

structive uses of the airplane after the war, rather than its destructive functions during wartime.

"United Airlines employs a staff of researchers whose express job is to study the past, present and future of aviation," she said. "The predictions based on the findings of these persons state that within four years after the conclusion of the war, domestic air transportation will be five times its 1941 size. Furthermore, their estimates show that 80 percent of the passengers now travelling by Pullman will go by air."

The jobs open to women are mainly in the fields of public relations, according to Mrs. Power. Such jobs include stewardesses, passenger agents, counter saleswomen, outside saleswomen, reservation saleswomen, wire operators and radio operators. The general requirements for these positions are United States citizenship, excellent health, height of at least five feet, two inches, and at least 21 years of age.

Women are also being hired as link-trainer operators, drafts-women, accountants, engineers, statisticians, librarians, dietitians, nurses and laboratory technicians, Mrs. Power said.

"United Airlines is expecting a terrific increase in personnel, necessitated by the great expansion in world travel after the war," she declared. Ten years after the armistice the company is expecting to have 25,000 employees as compared with the 7,500 now on its payroll, she pointed out.

"THE CONSULTANTS KNOW WHERE TO GO"

Even George Washington would be out on a limb if you "axed" him about this week's news and must do's. Besides remembering the birthday of our nation's first leader there are those important victory first needs that just must be considered. Salvage drives and saving and contributing books and spare pennies for the fellows over there have to be first in today's "dear diary, I dood it."

BREMERS have just received that shipment of Shtelane all Lamb's wool, v-neck, pull-over sweaters. These McGregor sweaters are a fine ribbed weave with a slightly brushed surface in soft pastel shades of canary yellow, luggage tan, and green. Sizes 36-44; price, $5.00 at BREMERS.

Tickets at Union tomorrow for "Swing Salute," Feb. 26

Rings are pretty excitin'! At least Willie Seemuth, Tri Delt, had a mental and physical relapse after her man, Bob Stevenson, Coast Guard, presented her with a diamond last Saturday night. As the story goes, Willie slept Monday afternoon and forgot to pick up her five pounds. But Tuesday wasn't too late! Best wishes, kids.

The Lenten season always means a special amount of meal planning and budget devising. Fruits and vegetables, fresh and so healthful will make your family doubly fond of those nourishing meals. Your grocer has those necessary meal-time ingredients each day for you. As you choose and plan remember LAGOMAR-CINO-GRUPE CO. serves your grocer and you.
