F. D. R. Orders Prompt Draft Rate Acceleration

Tighten Rules To Fill Deficit

May Be Necessary To Rule Out Industrial Deferment

WASHINGTON (AP)—A sharply accelerated draft rate appeared in prospect last night as a result of President Roosevelt's order for an immediate review of all occupational deferments and a speedy start on making up a 200,000-man deficit in army inductions.

Moving toward that end, selective service already has tightened rules for deferment of agricultural workers, and draft officials told congress this week that it may be necessary to rule out industrial deferments for all men under 26. The minimum age for industrial deferments now is 22.

Noting that nearly 5,000,000 men have been deferred for occupational reasons, Mr. Roosevelt declared he was convinced "that in this respect we have been overly lenient, particularly with regard to the younger men."

In a memorandum to Paul V. McNutt, chairman of the War Relocation Commission, and Maj. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, selective service director, the president said the "crucial campaigns" of this year will determine the length of the war and its cost in men and materials.

"The present allocations of personnel to the armed forces cannot be further reduced," he said, adding that "there is a very real danger in our failure to supply trained replacements at the time and in the numbers required."

The president said it was time to "strike a new balance" in division of manpower among the three major war fields—the production of food, the production of munitions, and the armed forces.

Senate Moves to Fill Gap Left by McNary

69-Year-Old Senator to Be Buried Friday

WASHINGTON (AP)—A reshuffle of the senate's Republican organization, with aggressive-minded "young Turks" in control, seemed in the making yesterday as minority members moved to fill the gap left by the death of Charles L. McNary of Oregon, their leader since 1933.

Although all of the Republicans agreed that nothing official will be done until after the funeral services are held in Oregon Friday for McNary, "freshmen" and "sophomores" members appeared determined to force the selection of a successor pledged to put new fight into the minority group.

Many Republican and Democratic colleagues will attend the rites for the 69-year-old senator, who dies Friday in Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., where he went to recuperate from a brain operation here last November.

There was talk, meanwhile, among the more newly elected Republicans of casting off the restraints McNary often had imposed and of electing an official lineup which would go "all out" against the New Deal.

Income Tax Refunds

WASHINGTON (AP)—America's fighting men and women will come first when the treasury begins ladeling out cash refunds from next month's income tax pot. Already accorded special treatment that will result in refunds to most of those who file returns, members of the armed forces were promised yesterday by the internal revenue bureau that theirs will be the first returns processed and the first checks mailed.

10 German Divisions Thrown on Defensive At Anzio Beachhead

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, Naples, (AP)—The Germans have suffered about 15,000 casualties on the beachhead at Anzio since the allied landing Jan. 22 and the 10 Nazi divisions there have now been thrown temporarily on the defensive while they are regrouping, an allied spokesman announced last night.

The spokesman, reviewing the Anzio situation "now that the enemy's first reaction is over," said that the German casualty figures included 2,816 prisoners.

The German attacks on the allied positions on the beachhead have been "supported by a larger weight of artillery than had been encountered hitherto in the African and Italian campaigns," the spokesman said, but he added that the attack had been defeated.

As a result, the German program for relieving a number of top divisions for the west has been upset, ten enemy divisions have been forced to remain on the beachhead sector and German garrisons in France and Yugoslavia have been weakened to meet the threat to Rome, the spokesman said.

His statement, issued on a day of relative lull on the Italian front except for heavy artillery duelling, was the first overall summary of the beachhead situation since the landing. It said:

"Enemy casualties cannot be accurately assessed at present, but we calculate that they may well be as much as 15,000 since Jan 22. This figure included 2,816 prisoners so far reported."

(There have been no figures issued on allied casualties in the beachhead fighting alone. On Feb. 17 Secretary of War Stimson said that total American casualties in Italy since the landing at Salerno last September were 4,158 killed, 18,154 wounded and 6,429 missing.)

4-Day Attack

The fierce four-day German attack which has just been thrown back managed to penetrate the allied Anzio positions to "a depth of two kilometers astride the main road" before being held all along the line, the announcement said.

This summary of the month's fighting on the beachhead apparently referred to the road running due north from Anzio. Questioned concerning a discrepancy between this two-kilometer figure and previous admissions of deeper penetrations, the spokesman said that it represented the net loss after the allies had flung the German forces back.

Billy Sunday's Son Dies in Plane Crash

WAYCROSS, Ga. (AP)—Mrs. Billy Sunday, 75-year-old widow of the famed evangelist, left here yesterday for Chicago to await the arrival of the body of her son, Paul T., who was killed Thursday in the crash of an army plane in California.

"I want Paul buried in Forest Lawn cemetery where his father and his brothers, Billy Jr. and George, are buried," Mrs. Sunday said.

Nazis Make Rapid Retreat

Russians Capture 2 Railway Stations On Road to Pskov

LONDON, Sunday, (AP)—The German army appeared to be retreating rapidly from all of northwestern Russia today as Moscow announced that Soviet forces yesterday had not only captured two railway stations on the roads to Pskov but had overrun 18 localities and ousted the Germans from 105 miles of a north-south railway less than 70 miles from Latvia.

The great Russian advance—which in some places was moving at the rate of ten miles a day—was nearing Pskov, communications center and key to the Baltic states, from three directions Moscow said. In addition, to the south, the Russians were declared to have won complete control of the 105-mile section of the Leningrad-Odessa trunkline between Dno and Novosokolniki.

Both of these advances were made on a continuous 175-mile front extending from the shore of Lake Pskov, and running about 20 miles north of Pskov to the Leningrad-Pskov railway where the station of Novoselye, 26 miles northeast of Pskov was captured yesterday.

Then the line swings to the southeast across the Leningrad-Pskov highway and down to the newly-captured town of Porkhov, 45 miles east of Pskov on the railroad from Staraya Russia. Then it continues south along the Novosokolniki railway to the station of Ustrug, 13 miles west of Novosokolniki on the railroad to Riga.

That was the line as pictured by two broadcast Moscow communiqués recorded by the Soviet monitor.

Swift Red Advance

The communiques also presented a picture of a swift, general Russian advance, with the Germans putting up strong fights for occasional advance positions.

In the advances which captured Porkhov and Novoselye—the drive on Pskov and its four railways and two highways—over 1,500 Germans were killed, Moscow said. In this area 150 communities were taken. South of Porkhov, the last important town before Pskov, the Russians crossed the Shelon river and reached the Porkov-Chikha-chevo highway.

OPA Gasoline Drive To Include 8 States

CHICAGO (AP)—An eight-state "compliance" drive to enforce gasoline coupon endorsement by midwestern motorists will be started March 6, the regional office of price administration announced yesterday, as part of a nationwide enforcement campaign.

Rae E. Walters, regional OPA director, said OPA agents would be at gas stations and any motorist attempting to pass unendorsed coupons would be asked to exhibit all his coupons, properly endorsed, to his board within 10 days or appear before a hearing commissioner to show reason why he should not lose his ration book.

'I Am Not Guilty' Says Charlie Chaplin To Grand Jury

LOS ANGELES, (AP)—Actor-Producer Charles Spencer Chaplin failed in two efforts yesterday to nullify grand jury indictments charging him with Mann act violations and then pleaded innocent. Federal District Judge J. F. T. O'Connor set Tuesday, March 21, for the opening of the white-haired little comedian's trial on charges that he transported Joan Berry, his 25-year-old red-haired former protegee, to New York with immoral intent.

"I am not guilty," said Chaplin clearly as he was asked to plead to the first count. A moment later he repeated the words as he pleaded to the second count, which concerned Miss Berry's alleged return trip to Hollywood.

Defense Attorney Jerry Giesler had entered a motion to quash and had filed a demurrer in his attempt to knock out the indictments. In the first he had contended that the federal grand jury which indicted Chaplin was not legally constituted because the list from which it was drawn contained the names of no women.

Giesler based his demurrer on the grounds that the Mann act was designed to prevent commercialized vice and trafficking in women for gain, and that it was not concerned with "individual acts of sexual indiscretion."

The Patriotic Way To Make Out Tax

WASHINGTON (AP)—Instead of sweating blood over making out their income tax returns, employees of an airline here are going to donate theirs to the Red Cross in exchange for services of a tax expert.

Second Officer Karl Ruppenthal of Transcontinental and Western Air, Inc., notified fellow workers yesterday that he would exchange his services in making out returns for blood donations.

Ruppenthal, 26, and a Phi Beta Kappa at the University of Kansas practiced law in Kansas City before joining TWA to fly overseas for the air transport command. His brother Hal, also a flier, was killed in a plane crash in the south Atlantic last year.

Yanks Blast Rabaul; Allies Hit Augsburg

Cripple Nazi Plane Plants

Demolish 14 Centers, Down 641 Airships In Aerial Onslaught

LONDON (AP)—Giant fires burned themselves out in Augsburg last night and the ruins of at least 13 other centers of German aircraft production gave smoldering evidence of the greatest sustained aerial onslaught in history—an onslaught that a high American air force spokesman said had now rendered Nazi factories unable to keep up with combat losses.

The Germans in six days have lost 641 planes in air combat with the American invaders alone, plus many more new ones on the ground outside factories, and uncounted others in process of completion in the bombed works.

The cost to the allies has not been negligible: about 3,500 airmen on 400 heavy bombers and 50 fighters lost, roughly $100,000,000 worth of planes, but the loss was described as economical in view of the aggregate of 17,000 sorties and the great damage done to the enemy.

The offensive which began one week ago last night with 2,300 long tons of bombs hurled on Leipzig by the RAF, was rounded out with a 1,700-ton RAF overnight blow against Augsburg.

The week's bomb tonnage was estimated at 17,500 dropped by the Americans and RAF together. Operations went into a temporary lull yesterday, with Typhoon patrols over the French coast as the only activity reported. These cost the Nazi two planes.

But in the week of sustained assaults, by the RAF at night and the United States army air forces by day, the German aircraft industry has suffered its greatest losses of the war.

The factories no longer are believed able to make up air losses, said the American spokesman. He disclosed that since Jan. 1 twin-engine fighter production in the Reich has been cut 80 percent and single-engine fighter production 60 percent. These figures may be revised upward as they are based on latest reconnaissance and are still only preliminary.

Senator Plans Test Of Soldier Vote Bill

Hatch, Biddle Confer To Send Ballot Law Into Supreme Court

WASHINGTON (AP)—A move developed in congress yesterday to push the constitutionality of federal absentee ballots to a quick supreme court test in an effort to end the quarrel over voting methods for the armed forces.

Senator Hatch (D-NM) announced that he had conferred with Attorney General Biddle on legislation necessary to bounce a federal ballot bill into the court for a ruling far enough in advance of the election to remove any possible post-election contest of service votes.

He will present the plan tomorrow to senate and house colleagues as they begin the third week of their stalemated attempt to find a service voting law that will satisfy both the administration's federal ballot advocates and the "states rights" forces.

The New Mexico senator—a federal ballot supporter and one of the senate conferees—will propose that a service vote law be passed setting up a federal absentee ballot, and include in it language blueprinting a supreme court test before the votes are actually cast.

Harvester Employes Strike FT. WAYNE, (AP)—Production was virtually halted yesterday at the Ft. Wayne plant of the International Harvester company as more than 3,500 of approximately 4,000 employes quit work.

Argentine Army Man Appointed Acting Navy War Minister

MONTEVIDEO, Uruguay (AP)—Amid indications of considerable tension in Buenos Aires the government headed by Gen. Edelmiro J. Farrell announced last night the appointment of Gen. Diego Luis Mason as acting foreign minister and Gen. Juan Pizarini as acting navy minister at war.

The appointment of Pizarini marked the first time in Argentine history that an army man has taken over the naval portfolio which always has been in the hands of a naval officer. It also was confirmation that Admiral Benito Suroy had resigned that post when President Pedro Ramirez "delegated presidential power" to Vice-president Farrell Friday.

Resigned Under Force (In Washington information received that General Ramirez had resigned under compulsion. This opened up the question of United States recognition of the Buenos Aires regime.)

The resigned Suroy was a childhood friend of General Ramirez, and rumors have been circulating that Ramirez refused to sign the document by which he "delegated authority" to General Farrell.

Both Mason and Pizarini now are charged with two ministries. Mason already holds the agriculture portfolio and Pizarini is public works minister.

Fill Vacancy The appointment of Mason to the foreign ministry filled a vacancy created by the elimination of Alberto Gilbert last week in a palace putsch which also resulted in the dropping of Presidential Secretary Gonzalez.

The general impression of the situation brought here by informed travelers is that the reshaping of the cabinet still is not concluded.

Token System Now in Use

WASHINGTON (AP)—The OPA closed books on months of preparation yesterday and gave the nation's housewives the "token system" of buying rationed food.

Tagged for first use today, the new plan makes the blue stamp in ration book four exchangeable for processed foods and the red for meats and dairy products, and gives each stamp a flat 10-point value.

The tokens are good indefinitely, while the stamps have limited validity as under the old system. "Through the use of 10-point stamps and the new tokens, the work of all who handle the ration currency—the public, the trade, the ration banks—will be greatly reduced," OPA said. "Almost 2,500,000,000 stamps—60 percent of the 4,000,000,000 going over retail counters each month under the old program—will be eliminated."

Meat Shortage

CHICAGO (AP)—Shortages of better grades of beef are likely to occur in some sections of the country during the spring and "probably will be accelerated materially by black market operations," the American Meat Institute predicted yesterday.

The institute, composed of most of the nation's meat packing companies, said in a survey of the meat and livestock situation that marketing of cattle in the early spring is expected to be considerably reduced from present levels.

Mrs. Tibbett, formerly of Chicago, divorced the singer in 1931 on charges of cruelty. Tibbett later was married to Jennie Mars-ton Adams Burgard, member of a New York banking family.

Finland May Accept Russian Terms Soon

Reds Demand 100,000 Germans Stationed in Finland

LONDON (AP)—Peace may come to war-weary Finland early this week with acceptance by the Finns of Soviet Russia's terms, diplomats agreed last night as they kept their attention on negotiations between the two countries.

One big stumbling block in the terms, which circulated here unofficially, was said to be a Russian demand for the internment of 100,000 German troops in northern Finland.

Another serious problem was posed by Russia's reported demand for restoration of the 1940 borders, beyond which Finnish troops have advanced.

The view that peace negotiations had made distinct progress was strengthened by the mere fact that Finnish censorship, ordinarily strict, had permitted publication of the purported Russian terms. This seemed to signify the government was preparing its people for some important move. The 1940 peace caused profound surprise among the Finns at home because they then thought they were winning the war.

Another fact that lent credence to the peace reports was that Russia was holding up a ground campaign on the Leningrad front, where the Red army is in an advantageous strategic position.

Destroyers Shell Kavieng

Axis Radios Continue to Report Battle for Guam

U. S. PACIFIC FLEET HEADQUARTERS (AP)—American destroyers shelled Kavieng for the third time this month and bombers blasted the heart of Rabaul, Gen. Douglas MacArthur announced today as axis radios reported a violent battle was being fought for Guam.

The United States navy department offered neither confirmation nor denial of a Berlin broadcast that a fight "for possession of the Pacific isle of Guam" has been underway for days.

Destroyers, unhampered by Japanese warships or planes, sank one ship and left two in flames in Kavieng harbor on the northern tip of New Ireland, about 650 miles south of Truk. Another cargo vessel was left sinking off nearby New Hanover island.

Japanese were reported pulling out of both Kavieng and Rabaul, where Admiral William F. Halsey's bombers turned from blasting her airbases to hitting "the weakening enemy base" in the city itself. A munitions dump, a power plant and many buildings were demolished.

On the opposite flank of the Bismarck sea medium bombers and attack planes destroyed ten Japanese aircraft at the Wewak air center on New Guinea, damaged 13 others, hit ten barges and silenced four gun positions.

More than 2,000 miles north of Wewak, Tokyo radio said in a broadcast yesterday, American naval formations are attacking Guam.

Only previous recent mention of Guam, former United States outpost captured by the Japanese in the first week of the Pacific war, was in Admiral Chester W. Nimitz' Friday communique when he reported the island was attacked by the same carrier forces that raided strong enemy bases at Saipan and Tinian Tuesday. All three islands are in the southern Marianas, about 1,400 miles south of Tokyo.

Democratic Leader Expresses Opposition To Churchill Thesis

NAPLES (AP)—Count Carlo Sforza, democratic leader who carried the torch of Italy's anti-Fascists through years of exile in the United States, yesterday expressed bitter opposition to Prime Minister Winston Churchill's thesis that King Vittorio Emanuele should remain on the throne and Marshal Pietro Badoglio retain the premiership until the allies capture Rome.

Party Leaders He declared, furthermore, that the leaders of six anti-Fascist political parties, comprising the Italian committee for national liberation, concurred in his "profound disagreement" with the view of the Italian political situation Churchill expressed in his war review on Tuesday.

It was understood that Sforza, who returned from exile to lead in the restoration of Italian democracy, had communicated to Churchill his conclusion that the prime minister's speech had caused "deepest dismay among millions of Italians."

Military Victory

(In London the magazine New Statesman and Nation assailed Churchill's decision as "neither honest politics nor sound strategy. The idea that the allies are supposed to be fighting for certain principles and rights seems to have been cynically discarded from his mind. Nothing counts save military victory.")

Medics And The A. S. T. P.

Discussing the announcement relative to the discontinuance of the A. S. T. P., the Journal of the American Medical Association for Feb. 26 says that this program is the only technique that has been found for assuring an adequate supply of physicians for the army, the navy and the civilian population regardless of the duration of the war.

"Since the United States entered the war, the maintenance of medical education by provision of a continuous flow of premedical and medical students has given great concern to medical educators and to officials of the selective service system and of the army and navy medical departments. Just when the A. S. T. P. seemed to be functioning with reasonable satisfaction, a new announcement relative to its discontinuance has come forth; now every one involved is again on the 'anxious seat.' As we go to press, apparently the fate of the A. S. T. P. is being decided. If a decision has not already been reached, those concerned should realize that this is the A. S. T. P. is the only technique that has been found for insuring automatically an adequate supply of physicians for the army, the navy and the civilian population regardless of the duration of the war.

The bureau of naval personnel has recently received many inquiries concerning reports that the navy college program may be discontinued. All inquirers have been advised that the navy department has no plans to discontinue this program. The U. S. navy is still expanding. The urgent need for technically trained young officers continues, and the colleges and universities participating in the V-12 program are doing a splendid job of producing such officers. While changing war-time conditions may, from time to time, necessitate revision in the quotas for the program in order to conform with the needs of the service, the navy does not contemplate discontinuance of the program, the bureau states.

"Whether the war ends soon or is greatly prolonged, both premedical and medical students must be kept in school in numbers sufficient to provide for the medical needs of the next few years. The transfer of the medical students now in the A. S. T. P. to the enlisted reserve corps, on inactive duty, assigned to premedical or medical schools, may not meet the needs of the situation. Previously there was great unrest in the student body because these young men were constantly confronted with a feeling of inferiority in relation to those in uniform. Many premedical students dropped their work to enlist. Medical and premedical students naturally wish to be 'in the war.' Before the inauguration of the A. S. T. P. it was becoming increasingly difficult to persuade such students that their duty in this war was the pursuit of their

Lavish Entertainment Is the Mode In Nation's Capital

By HELEN ESSARY, Central Press Columnist

WASHINGTON—"It was a famous vintage, that of 1848," wrote Fitz-James O'Brien, "a year when war and wine threw together."

"It was of a famous vintage, that of 1944," I might write, paraphrasing Fitz-James O'Brien, "a year when war and wine and Washington threw together."

Add to "Washington" the word "parties." Then you have complete the hilarious mood of the capital of the world this year when more men are fighting and dying than ever fought and died together in the history of civilization, whatever civilization is.

In this capital of the world, you and I, typical Washingtonians, have indeed gone mad with party giving. And I am ashamed of all of us as I write this.

Within the last few months I have participated in more lavish entertaining than at any time during my years of living in Washington.

"This is not a season when people decline," the manager of a country club told me the other day when I, myself, was planning a luncheon. "You had better count on acceptance from everybody you invite."

"This is wartime," he added, "and people go mad for fun and food and drink during a war. I remember how they behaved during the last war. They gave parties on some excuse or another all over the place. This is a bigger war. So the parties are bigger."

The club manager was right. The other day Washington saw the most stupendous party it has ever seen since the days Mrs. Adams moved into that inconvenient executive mansion and hung her washing (John's red flannel BVD's and everything) in the drafty east room to dry.

When Paul V. McNutt was sort of in transit from the Philippines, where he ran the show, to Washington, where he was to help in the running of a much bigger show, he gave the biggest party that had ever been given in Washington up to that moment.

I remember the tables of food, the bars of drink and the way the hundreds or so guests wandered about saying, "Isn't this the most extravagant performance you've ever seen? But for heaven's sake don't miss those exquisite crab patties! Or the pate de foie gras! Or that beautiful champagne! Come on, let's get some of everything before the crowd closes in."

Washington Correspondent Bascom Timmons' reception at the Statler in honor of Gridiron Club President Charles Gridley and National Press Club President Sam O'Neal had the exotic qualities of Governor McNutt's reception, plus a wartime tinge. The very, very best people were there. And they stayed and laughed and drank and ate and felt that the world belonged to them. I had a grand time.

As I said in the beginning of this column that it is meant to reflect the mood of wartime Washington—all the parties in Washington are terrific. The charming reception the minister of Egypt and Madame Hassan gave recently included every guest invited, plus some who had queried the hospitable gates. All other capital entertainments are the same this year of the holocaust.

Take me as an example of the Washington mood. I accept invitations and I give them, yet all the while I'm a little ashamed of myself and of all the rest of us who are proving we have forgotten premedical and medical studies to prepare them properly for military and civilian practice.

For we have forgotten the war. This war which we entered with lofty talk has become routine business.

We have lost that sense of urgency, of immediate danger. We read the reports of what is happening on lonely beachheads in places that we know nothing about. News of disaster means little more than thicker printer's ink on white paper.

We hear the radio reports of battles and battle plans, of the loss of hundreds of men. We have a momentary sense of fear. But we also have a momentary sense of fear when we listen in on mystery stories.

Yesterday I did shiver with horror when I heard the ill in one announcer's voice as he shouted "THE GREATEST WAR in all time."

The words and the tone had the sound of a barker in a nine-ring circus. "It was of a famous vintage, 1944," I repeat the words. "A year when war and wine and Washington threw together."

A Criticism of Contemporary Literature, And a Guide to Good Reading

Edited by Jarvis A. Thurston

RESTORATION PURITANISM: A Study of the Growth of English Liberty by Harry Grant Plum, published by the University of North Carolina Press, 1943. Price $2.50.

Reviewed by PROF. M. WILLARD LAMPE. This book is an exposition of Puritanism and of its significance in English history. It is also intended to be a corrective of tendencies to discount Puritanism by two groups of people; first, those who see in the Puritans only a lot of narrow foibles, and second, those who emphasize the economic interpretation of history at the expense of other factors, particularly the moral and religious.

religious conceptions and convictions. They were not the originators of this fight, but rather the heirs of many other preceding achievements in the struggle of the individual against autocratic power. Indeed, the English reformation was different from the reformation on the continent because of this earlier English tradition from the Magna Carta on. Moreover, the Puritans played a part in the struggle for liberty far more significant than they themselves knew.

Professor Plum does not obscure the "narrowness" of Puritanism, including several references to its own opposition to religious toleration because of its fear of Catholicism. But, when one surveys the whole period, the outstanding facts are, first, Puritanism's opposition to autocratic authority, both civil and ecclesiastical, in the interests of individual conscience and freedom, and second, its insistence, especially after the chastening that came from persecutions, upon the religious and moral virtues which alone give strength to an individual or nation. In this latter respect, the Wesleyan revival of the 18th century was the true successor to Puritanism.

The length of the text proper is only 100 pages, but the bibliography requires 20 pages—a clear suggestion of the well-documented and thorough character of the work.

It is always refreshing to read a book by a scholar who sees and shows significant meaning in human history.

Prof. Herald Stark to Lead S.U.I. Chorus in Concert

Third in Series Will Be Given In Iowa Union

Choral Composition By Former Conductor Included in Program

Prof. Herald Stark of the music department will lead the University chorus in its third concert of the season this afternoon at 4 o'clock in the main lounge of Iowa Union.

Gladys Noteboom, A4 of Orange City, and Donald Ercroyd, A4 of Arkansas City, Kan., will sing solo parts on the afternoon program. A choral number by Louis H. Diercks, former member of the university faculty, will also be presented.

The program will include "When His Loud Voice" (Handel); "The Wall of Heaven" (Brahms); "The Omnipotence" (Schubert); with Miss Noteboom, soprano; "He is the Lonely Greatness" (Benjamin); "In the Wilderness" (Bainton); "The Dying Swan" (Diercks).

"Tune Thy Music to Thy Heart" (Rowley); "Spring Delight" (Cui); "Swansea Town" (Holst); "Has Sorrow Thy Young Days Shaded?" (arranged by Davis); with Mr. Ercroyd, tenor, and "What Shall We Do With a Drunken Sailor?" (sea chantey).

Brahm's "The Wall of Heaven," is considered the best of his seven motets written for mixed a cappella chorus. "The Omnipotence," one of Schubert's greatest songs, is sometimes used as the opening selection of operatic singers who wish to astonish and hold in awe a recital audience.

In this arrangement, in which Miss Noteboom appears as soprano soloist, Spicker has used the chorus to give body to the tone in several of the stronger passages but has not changed the essential character of the piece.

Diercks' composition, "The Dying Swan," is one of a group of four newly published songs for a capella chorus. A former conductor of the University chorus, Diercks is at present head of vocal and choral music at Ohio State university.

Collection of Work By Art Professor Will Be Exhibited

An exhibition of drawings, watercolors and oil paintings by Prof. Philip Guston of the art department will be sponsored by student Union Board March 5 to 19 in the main lounge of Iowa Union.

The largest group to be displayed is the collection of drawings and watercolors depicting army air corps training that have been printed in Fortune magazine. The latest ones appear in the February issue.

These works include "Advanced Pilot Training," "Fighter Pilots," "Oxygen Test Chamber," "Ball Turret Gunner," "AT 6's Over Matagorda Bay," "Waiting for the Green Light" and "Airfield Runway Sections."

Professor Guston has also done a group of drawings on Navy Pre-Flight training, based on the Iowa City school. Typical sketches are "Abandon Ship Drill," "Clothes Inflation Drill" and "Hand Grenade Class."

The oil paintings to be shown are ones chosen from Professor Guston's collection from different years. They include "Portrait of Shanah," "Martial Memory," "Bombardment," "Halloween Party," "Lemonade and Doughnuts" and "Young Mother" (unfinished).

Professor Guston was born in Montreal, Canada, and has studied in California and New York. He is known for his murals in the federal and municipal buildings in Washington, D. C., Los Angeles and New York, and at the New York World's fair.

Recently commissioned by Fortune magazine to make a pictorial record of army air training, Professor Guston has also done sketches of defense industries which have appeared in previous issues.

A navigation mural done by Professor Guston is used for classroom training at the Iowa Navy Pre-Flight school.

Orchestra to Present Works of MacDowell, Beethoven in Concert

The University Symphony orchestra will present its fifth concert of the season Wednesday at 8 p. m. in the main lounge of Iowa Union. Prof. Phillip G. Clapp of the music department will lead the group in playing two works of Edward MacDowell and Ludwig van Beethoven.

The concert will begin with "Suite No. 2 (Indian), opus 48" (MacDowell) which includes "Legend," "Love Song," "In War Time," "Dirge" and "Village Festival." A theme from the Iowa tribe of Indians will be played in "Love Song."

MacDowell was one of the first composers to suggest an American style of music. His "Indian Suite" does not use native instruments or crude harmonies as a background, but Indian music is suggested in the melodies.

Beethoven's "Symphony No. 7, opus 92," the last number of the program is known also as "The Dance" symphony. The liveliest and most brilliant of the composer's nine symphonies, it is based upon Irish folk songs.

Free concert tickets will be available beginning tomorrow morning at the main desk of Iowa Union.

Currier Roommates— Their Men on the Map

—Service Ribbons

PAT KIRBY, A2 of Greenville, exclaims over the clever wall map which ELEANOR ANDERSON, J3 of Rock Island, has hanging in her room at Currier. Eleanor and her roommate, MILDRED CORDS, A3 of Rudd, have attached movable red, white and blue ribbons to the wall of each ribbon is a label denoting the name and rank. Pat and Eleanor are sitting on a corner couch covered with flowered chintz on a light blue background. The pillows which line the wall are ruffled in the same material and the drapes on the narrow window to the left are also in matching chintz. The curtains on the window to the right are buff colored and have the initials of their owners applied in blue.

Psychologists say February is the "slump" month, and maybe you're finding it so. Some gals get a pick-up from going downtown and buying a new red hat—others find that changing the furniture about and putting up new room decorations make for righter-brighter livin'. Because fashionable living is as important as fashionable dressing, here are a few suggestions from some Iowa coeds, experts on interior decorating.

The large old-fashioned rooms of Currier annex provide grand opportunities for quaint and clever decoratin', and SYBILANN HANSON, U of Spirit Lake, and DOROTHY, A2, and VERDELL WIRDS, A3, both of Iowa Falls, have taken advantage of them. Their third floor room has a round window similar to a huge port-hole. The girls have trimmed it all the way around with a ruffle of white plaid dimity. A round mirror on the opposite wall with an identical dimity ruffle serves as a match-mate. Below the mirror the girls have made a small dressing table with a ruffled skirt and have covered a round footstool for a seat to match.

Patriotic Theme
Patriotically minded are BETTY GUTE, A2 of Gilden, LUCILLE WEHRMAN, A2 of Luzerne, and ARLENE BALSTER, A2 of Monticello, who also live at Currier Annex. The girls have reserved one wall of their study alcove for the army, and one for the navy. Pictures and insignias of men in these branches are arranged in decorative panels. On a larger wall they have fastened a huge map of the United States and over the location of each camp where a friend is stationed they have pasted a bright red star.

A clearing-house for hobbies is the room of PENNY BLOOM, A1 of Nashua, and PATSY ROBERTS, A1 of Berger, Tex. To curtain the large bay window which extends from ceiling to floor on the east wall of their third story room, the girls have made drapes of inexpensive but attractive gold cheese cloth. All across the top they have hung a scalloped panel of green chambray. Pinned on this is Patsy's collection of gay napkins from restaurants all over the country. On the walls, Penny has hung her collection of brightly covered menus, adding more "atmosphere."

Hand Painted Chest
An original piece of furniture was decorated by MARION KELLEHER, A3, and BETTY COMFORT, A4, both of Des Moines, who purchased a chest of unfinished wood which stands about three feet high. Around the handles of the four drawers they painted a circle of bright flowers, and on the top and each side they painted a large caricature of a man's face.

A mixture of the Fiji Islands and Old Mexico has prevailed the Pi Phi room belonging to JEAN HAMMER, A1 of Sioux City. On the floor is a huge natural grass rug fringed on one end with six-inch strips of weirdly colored yarn, which Katie's brother sent her from the Fijis. On the wall hangs a giant size Mexican sombrero woven of colored straw, giving a charmingly foreign effect to the room.

Addicted to the army air corps are JANE McTAVISH, A2 of Estherville and MARY HALLER, A3 of Eagle Grove, Alpha Delta Pi. Their bedsreads have tan airplanes scattered over a maroon background and are centered with the army air corps emblem. On the wall is a big aerial photograph of an army air corps flight school.

Blue and White
One of the more sophisticated college rooms is that of ELEANORE KEACY, A4 of Ottumwa, and NORMA NIKLASEN, C4 of Brookings, S. D. They have quilted the base of their bed in navy blue satin to match their navy blue satin spreads applied with the Alpha Delta Pi crest in white. Navy blue drapes with white cotton draw curtains hang at the windows, and their dressing table has a skirt of matching blue satin.

Professor Cioffari To Talk at Simpson

Vincenzo Cioffari, associate professor in the Romance languages department, will lecture tomorrow morning before students in Simpson College, Indianola, on "Streamlining the teaching of modern languages."

He will describe the new ideas put forth in the intensive language program working with the American Council on Education. Professor Cioffari, who teaches Italian in the A. S. T. P., will then tell how these findings have been worked into courses of the program on a large scale, and the result that can be accomplished by these methods.

"The basic idea of the intensive language program," says Professor Cioffari, "is that a language is treated as a living organism and must be learned without being dissected. It should be learned through use rather than through theories, with particular emphasis on pronunciation in order to make oneself clearly understood."

roof of their fourth floor room at Currier, SADI ANKA MOON, A3 of Lamoni, and SUE JONES, A2 of Williamsburg, created a series of imaginative animal cartoons. Done in water color, they feature such original creatures as "Casper the Camel," "Swinburn the Swan," "Hector the Hog" and their special pet, "Gomer the Gremlin."

SKIPPY MATHIS and E. JANE MILLER, both A2 of Des Moines, have created extra storage space by standing two orange crates on end to make shelves. They have covered it with a skirt of white cotton embroidered with the names of their college friends. Orange and green banding around the top of the flounce matches their orange and green Bates curtains and spreads.

Nautical and nice is the room belonging to HELEN KAE CARTER, A4 of Mitchellville, and VIRGINIA ALLER, A1 of Keota, at the Zeta Tau Alpha house. A small maple pilot's wheel forms the base for their fish bowl, which contains colored stones, baubles, and two brightly gold fish. A matching maple wheel is the base for their desk lamps, which have white shades with blue nautical designs. Their curtains are blue and white, and their bedsreads are white chenille with more nautical prints.

Almost every college room on the campus has been lived with some original ideas, making them not just "four walls," but "home." So if you're planning a room for summer school, or eager to redo your present abode, take a tip from these Iowa Coeds who have already designed superior interiors.

Painter Tells Of New Trend In Designing

"Today's commercial designer has not only to think of the scientific and technological progress being achieved—he must also consider sociological development, economy of improvements, transportation and replaceable parts," L. Moholy-Nagy, painter, stage-designer and architect, told the Career Clinic audience yesterday morning.

In discussing "New Trends in Design," Moholy, who is director of the school of design in Chicago, illustrated his talk with films showing the past, present and future of such utilities as the telephone, washing machine, grinding machine, airplane and automobile. "The advancement of the motor-car," he stated, "represents one of the best examples of obsolescence."

Moholy pointed out that many of our commonly-used utensils, appliances, containers and tools are based on observations of nature. "Streamlining is one of our most ingenious devices," he said. "Yet we find in nature a perfect example of streamlining—the seal."

The artist gave the history of the chair as an example of progress brought about by scientific research. "The industrial revolution developed new materials such as plywood, plastics and seamless steel tubing, and with them new methods of production, which employ machines instead of hand tools. Today we can produce new chair forms, seats with two legs instead of the usual four, and in place of 40 or 50 joints, four or none at all—Tomorrow there may be no legs needed—just a seat on a compressed air jet."

Our forefathers progressed by using only simple tools and whatever raw materials they could find, Moholy said. "Our problem now is to use present-day materials and machines as capably as our ancestors used the limited means and tools at their command."

Notice: Johnson county has more than filled its "E" bond quota of $806,420 according to the report of the Federal Reserve bank in Chicago showing $809,399.50 worth of purchases.

Although some of the counties in Iowa have not filled their "E" bond quotas, Des Moines headquarters announce that the state as a whole has exceeded its quota.

Iowa Hawks Bow to Notre Dame 66-42

Irish Tounce Hawkeye Five

Ives Scores 8 Points To Leo Klier's 17; 14 Points for Danner

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP)—The University of Notre Dame, holding leading Big Ten scorer Dick Ives to only four field goals, romped to an overwhelming 66-42 victory over the University of Iowa last night while its own sharpshooting Leo Klier racked up 17 points.

The Irish shot away to a 15-1 lead in ten minutes and held the Hawkeyes scoreless from the floor for the first 12 minutes of the game. At intermission Notre Dame led, 29 to 13.

The Hawkeyes opened strong in the second half, closing the margin to 33-23 in Notre Dame's favor within five minutes mainly on the work of Skip Herwig and Ives.

Marko Todorovich and Klier got together at this point and, although Ives and Danner matched them most of the way for the next five minutes, the Irish led 44-33 midway through the second half.

During the last ten minutes of the game Notre Dame ran away with Iowa and Coach Ed Krause's free substitution cleared the Irish bench of reserves.

Klier's 17 points was high for the game, although he sat the last ten minutes out, and Dave Danner provided Iowa's best with 14 points.

It was the last game for Coach Krause, who reports for marine corps duty tomorrow, and for Todorovich and Bernie Rutledge, Notre Dame regulars who also are leaving for the armed forces.

900 Iowa High School Teams Open the Race

DES MOINES (AP)—Almost 900 Iowa high school basketball teams will open the race for the state title when 64 sectional tournaments get underway during the coming week.

All the sectionals will start Wednesday except for a Tuesday opening at Iowa City.

Mason City, the defending champion, opens against St. Ansgar at Northwood. The Mohawks go into the race with a less impressive record than last year when they swept to the crown with a 30-game winning streak.

Under this year's tournament setup the A and B class teams will keep their identity in the sectionals and through the 16 district races but then will combine in the four sub-state meets which will determine the four title contenders for the championship round.

Like Mason City, Webster City—the 1943 runnerup—has not performed quite up to last year's level but still is a lively contender. Waverly and Davenport, semi-finalists in 1943, are back with good teams this year.

Minnesota Defeats Chicago 49-36

Winds Up Its Home Big Ten Basketball Season

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—Minnesota wound up its home Big Ten basketball season here last night, defeating Chicago, 49 to 36, on the strength of a second half rally.

For a time during the first half it appeared that Chicago might break its long string of consecutive conference defeats. The Maroons rallied from a six-point deficit early in the game to take the lead half way through the first half and held a 24-23 edge at the intermission.

But the Maroons then were held without a score from the floor for the first 18 minutes of the second half. Minnesota, meanwhile, built up a 35 to 27 lead in the first five minutes of the final stanza, then Wright dropped in two baskets while Charley Flanagan was getting a free throw to give the Gophers a 13 point advantage.

The Maroons finally got a field goal when Sam, Gallaher caged one with two minutes to go and Fred de Graw got another in the closing seconds.

Northwestern Downs Purdue

Boilermakers Ousted From Big Ten Race By 51-45 Defeat

LAFAYETTE, Ind. (AP)—Northwestern's Wildcats, roaring from behind in the second half, handed Purdue its third Western conference basketball defeat in 11 starts last night, 51 to 45. The loss eliminated the Boilermakers as a Big Ten title contender.

Northwestern, which lost its third conference decision Friday night to Illinois, staged a strong finish to wipe out a 25-to-24 half-time deficit and coast in with the verdict.

A tie for the loop crown with Ohio State is now impossible for Purdue. Ohio State finished the campaign with 10 wins and 2 losses.

It was consistent firing of Schumacher, Carle and Schadler that proved too much for the home five. Schadler caged 14 points to pace the Wildcats, while Steve Frazier, Boilermaker pivot star, meshed 16 for the losers.

Purdue raced away in front at the outset, as Frazier and Paul Hoffman found the range, but Schumacher led a 'Cat comeback which finally got the visitors ahead at 10 to 9. It was nip-and-tuck to the half, and Northwestern's rebound strength told the story in the second period.

The victory was Northwestern's seventh in ten starts.

Bluejackets Prepare For Final Game

GREAT LAKES, Ill. — After their victory over the National AAU champions, Phillips "66," the Great Lakes Bluejackets began preparation for the wind-up of their high scoring season.

Although they are tied with last year's Bluejacket quintet in the games won column, this third Great Lakes team of World War II, has broken the scoring records of any team representing the Naval Training station thus far.

Herman Schaefer and Paul Armstrong, the two Hoosier Hot Shots, each have surpassed the previous record established two years ago by Bob Callihan of the University of Detroit, who scored 308 points in 36 games. Schaefer has scored 380 points in 32 games played, while Armstrong has a total of 348.

In the set-back at the hands of Notre Dame last Saturday, Great Lakes lost five points in the national standings of basketball teams, but still remained as the nation's number one service team.

However, on Wednesday night, when the Bluejackets trounced the Phillips Oilers, they bounced right back into top flight position in the nation, and will continue their quest this week for another championship of the armed forces.

Before the final tabulations can be made, Great Lakes must play at Minnesota Monday night, St. Thomas in St. Paul on Tuesday, and meet Wisconsin at the training station next Sunday evening.

Bunker Hill Team Takes 41-36 Win Over Indiana U.

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (AP)—After trailing for three quarters of the game the Bunker Hill naval air station basketball team rushed into a 41-36 victory over Indiana university last night.

Paced by Bob Rowland, who scored Indiana's first seven points, the Hoosiers took an early four-point lead. Rowland and Mercer together kept Indiana three to five points ahead for the remainder of the half, which ended 26-19 in favor of the Hoosiers.

The visitors shackled the Indiana scoring duo in the second half, holding the Hoosiers to three field goals. Wright high point man with 14 eventually put Bunker Hill into a tie at 32-32. Herron broke it with a free throw, and a few minutes later Wright tied it again.

Peed broke that deadlock on a free throw, scoring Indiana's final point with five minutes to go. Thurnblad put the fliers into the lead on a fielder and Wright and Small clinched it.

Pinky Higgins, Paul Dean Pass Induction Physicals

DALLAS (AP)—Pinky Higgins and Paul Dean, a couple of baseball playing Texans, have passed their pre-induction physicals.

They appeared at an induction station here Friday and after their tests returned home to await a call from the army.

Higgins is a 34-year-old infielder for the Detroit Tigers, while Dean, who along with his brother Dizzy once made one of baseball's finest pairs of pitchers, was in baseball only a part of last season. Dean, 30, has been manufacturing barrels to be used in shipping food overseas.

Western Michigan Upset PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Temple university scored one of the biggest upsets of the basketball season last night by handing Western Michigan its first defeat of the season by a college team, 55 to 51, in the nightcap of a double-header at Convention hall.

Gil Dodds Sets Record

By HAROLD CLAASSEN NEW YORK (AP)—Gil Dodds, Boston's plank pounding parson, wiped out all indoor records for the three-quarter mile last night.

Dodds hit the tape in 4:08.3—a meet record—after crossing the three-quarter stripe in 3:01, to erase the 3:01.2 world mark set by the late John Borican of Asbury Park, N. J., for that odd distance.

A sell-out crowd of 16,000 spectators, put in a record-breaking mood by Ed Conwell of New York earlier when he equalled the world standard of :06.1 in the 60-yard dash, gave Dodds all the help he could during the final quarter but couldn't pull him through.

Later the throng saw Bob Ufer of Michigan, pump through 600 yards in 1:11.3 to establish another meet mark, wiping out the figure set up by Charles L. Belcher of New York in 1940.

Hugging the shoulder of the oval all the way, Dodds pounded through the first half mile in 1:58.8 and sprinted right along to hit the three-quarter mark in 3:01.

He had absolutely no competition after the quarter mile mark and finished with a 75 yard edge over Don Burnham of Dartmouth, Bill Hulse, of New York, led at the end of the first quarter in :60.3 but then dropped behind.

Bob Hume, of the University of Michigan, finished third with Hulse fourth.

The meet got off with an upset when Les Eisenhart of Columbus, Ohio, former national collegiate half mile champion, and John Roxborough of Michigan, present Big Ten king at the distance, finished in that order in the 1,000 yard run.

John Fulton of San Francisco, and Joe Nowicki of Rochester, the favorites, could do no better than third and fourth in the rough race that was timed in 2:15 at Madison Square Garden.

The 60-yard dash went to Ed Conwell of N. Y. university, in the world record equalling time of :06.1 and Ed Dugger, formerly of Tufts but now with Uncle Sam's army at Dayton, Ohio, snagged the 60-yard high hurdles in :07.5.

Western Michigan Upset PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Temple university scored one of the biggest upsets of the basketball season last night by handing Western Michigan its first defeat of the season by a college team, 55 to 51, in the nightcap of a double-header at Convention hall.

Hawkeye Highlights

A home court record over a five-year period of 37 victories in 50 games is held by Iowa basketball teams. The current team's record of nine straight wins boosts the total. Hawkeyes will attempt to maintain a perfect home record for the season when they meet Northwestern March 3 and 4. Figuring conference games only, the Iowans have won 19 of 30.

Iowans Probably 1, 2 in Scoring Dick Ives and Dave Danner, Iowa freshman forwards, look like cinches to finish first and second in the Big Ten individual scoring race for 1944. If they do, they will be the first pair from one university to take the title and runner-up since 1933 when Joe Reiff and Elmer Johnson of Northwestern were 1, 2.

Ives now is first with 178 points, Danner is fourth with 170, but the second and third place men, Risen and Grate of Ohio State, have completed their league season and other contenders are far in arrears.

Flying Feats Bring Awards Awards for flying feats against the Japs have been won by two former Iowa swimming team members. Lieut. James Cupp of Fairfield, marine flyer, downed at least 13 Jap Zeros and won the Distinguished Flying Cross, while Lieut. Wilbur Wehmyer of St. Louis, army pilot, helped to sink a submarine in the Aleutians and earned the Air Medal.

Everything Even: N. U.-Iowa Everything is even in the Northwestern-Iowa basketball series at 25 victories each. Iowa now will go after wins here next week-end which would mean a share of the conference title. In the last ten games at Iowa City, each team has won five.

60-YARD RECORD TIED CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP)—Claude "Buddy" Young, Illinois freshman, tied the American 60-yard dash record of 6.1 seconds and captured three events yesterday as Illinois defeated Purdue and Notre Dame in a triangular indoor track meet.

Illinois scored 64½ points, with firsts in nine of the 12 events. Purdue collected 32½ points and Notre Dame 32.

runner-up position with a 70-73-143 as Weed went down the list with a miserable 81.

Woods wasn't alone in his discomfort, however, for the veteran Byron Nelson trudged in with a 78 holes he said "was the worst 18 holes I've shot in five years."

NEW ORLEANS, (AP)—Harold "Jug" McSpaden of Philadelphia, held a two-stroke edge on the field in the 5,000 New Orleans open here yesterday, though he slipped from his four-under-par first-round performance, going one over par with a 73 in the second round.

McSpaden has totaled 141 strokes on the 36 holes played, and yesterday was bothered apparently by a baby gale which buffeted the city park course's long, tricky fairways.

Sammy Byrd of Birmingham, who was tied for second spot yesterday with Craig Wood, clung to

"Iowa U" Letters Carved in Bark of a Jungle Tree

Letters carved in the bark of a jungle tree on a Pacific island caught the eye of Norman Krause, United States navy, former University of Iowa student.

"One day we went swimming in one of the small rivers," he writes in a letter received here. "Up the stream was an old gnarled tree, stretching well over 100 feet tall.

"Many names and initials were carved on the trunk but one stood out for me. For there in the bark of the ancient tree, thousands of miles from the place which inspired it, was carved 'Iowa U.'"

Student Technicians In Physiotherapy Learn Kenny Method

An investigation of the Kenny treatment for infantile paralysis victims which is being carried on by the physiotherapy department here at the university, a recent Medical Bulletin, publication of the college of medicine, reveals.

The Bulletin reported that student technicians are taught how to care for the patients, how to apply hot packs, and how to assist in muscle re-education. Clinics also have been held for medical students to acquaint them with the Kenny treatment and the results obtained.

After the diagnosis is established, treatment is prescribed and carried out by the technical staff of the physiotherapy department. Methods of applying the hot packs also taught to the nurses and they are given instruction in correct nursing care of acute cases.

Members of the committee are Dr. W. D. Paul, director of the physiotherapy department, Dr. A. L. Sals of the neurology department, and Dr. Theodore J. Greteman of the orthopedic surgery department.

Chairman of the drive is Prof. Jack T. Johnson. Under him are 19 captains and about 274 workers who will try to conclude the drive Wednesday and Thursday, but may continue soliciting for a week.

Irene Newkirk Sues Driver in Accident For $1,500, Costs

Irene Newkirk, administratrix of the estate of James Newkirk, who died December 11, 1943, has petitioned district court for $1,500 with interest and costs of the action from C. E. Goodrich.

A truck owned and operated by C. E. Goodrich, driving along highway 6, collided with a car owned and operated by Elmer Beals in which the deceased was riding Dec. 9, 1943.

keeping the truck under control; in operating his truck at speed in violation of the rights of others, and in not having the proper lighting on the truck.

Miss Newkirk, daughter of the deceased, is represented by William R. Hart.

Lady, lady this is the month in which you should be sharpening your romance muniton for that dip into a future. Leap year doesn't last long, you know. While you're peering around for just the right bankroll with a 6 foot stature and black curly hair, you can be workin' on a career. Well, now that shopping tip A is out of the way you can start some eye-gazin' for glamour—

It works both way. . . the way to a WOMAN'S heart is through her stomach! So fellas, if you really want to get in solid with the girl friend, take her to SWANERS after that show to-night. What gal wouldn't fall on her ear for a thick vanilla malt or a rich chocolate soda with oodles of smooth ice cream in it. That's for her . . . so remember, boys, drop into SWANERS with the girl friend.

The dinner time treat to remember. Tempting and always delicious is a lunch-time, treat at FORD HOPKINS. Fun for you, your family and friends in special weekend menus and turkey at the top of the list. A walk around the corner and do drop in to be served at the fountain or booth—FORD HOPKINS.

One more Phi Psi pin's out, gals . . . one less Phi Psi at large! Gamma Phi, Phi Hedges is the lucky girl, and Bill Sangster, the guy without his hardware. They tell me this romance dates back to death old high school. . . moral: NAB 'EM EARLY, GALS!

You'll have the best little pocket full of dreams imaginable if you are wearing a new jersey nightie from H and H. Lookin' smart and springy, they come in blue, tealose and white all flowered and lovely at $4.50. Others in sweet soft crepes and satins smartly colored in tea rose and blue are $2.98 at H and H. HO-SIERY SHOP.

Just ask Kay Kelly bout those expensive Florida calls from marine fiancée Beryn Murphy and she'll probably ship you a grapefruit by return mail. Calls are cash affairs too and $12 in slot nickles is a lot of love it appears from here.

You are always welcome—is a nice thought and does make one feel good to buy at a place where the clerks are friendly and glad to see you—well you are always welcome at DRUG-SHOP—maybe its a vitamin product, a prescription or some drug or medicine—EDWARD S. ROSE, Pharmacist will help you—just south of Hotel Jefferson.

Speaking of spring fashions, we understand Dorothy Herrick, Delta Gamma, saw plenty of her red suit when she went to Florida with Ruthie Anderson (Sanborn) who was married recently. Maybe next time you'll keep your suitcase with you, Dorothy. Rumor has it she's back now and her suitcase is in Florida. Too bad!

No wonder Ruthie Shambaugh posted all the "follow the arrow" signs by the phones in the Tri Delt house this week. She was expecting all the important call from Bob Watson, who is stationed at Fort Leonard Wood. Result—Ruthie and Bob are spending the week-end at her home in Clarinda.

All DUNN-up and beautiful. DUNNS are now showing formal—so different, distinctive, and really dashing in fashion. Flowered and plain taffetas, or new glamour in a jersey top and net skirt which can be worn the year around. Formal with either plaid or checked skirts and contrasting plain top which will stand out in a group. And you'll find sheer dresses or white and green crepes. Colors of red, black, white, powder blue, purple, green, aqua, and pink at prices ranging from $14.95 to $29.95. Go into DUNNS for that formal fashion parade.

Two girls in the Kappa Kappa Gamma house certainly believe in leap year so I'm told. Shirley Forbes received a diamond from A. T. O. Tom Tierney who recently graduated from the school of pharmacy. Mac Thoreson hung his Delta Tau Delta on Mary Alice Dorr. Congratulations and best wishes, kids.

Let's meet at the MAID-RITE HAMBURGER SHOP after class. Those delicious maid-rites are the thing they serve and that special is what you hear so much about. Everything from a sandwich to a meal. You can get fountain beverages as well at the MAID-RITE.

Fritzie (Winifred) Mathis, Currier, is a busy gal these days what with trekking Des Moines ward to collect diamonds, etc., etc., and etc. Incidentally the sparkler was Cpl. Bob McAfee's present to her last week-end.

Not only did Helen Coffin, Alpha Xi, receive a diamond, but Marge Butterfield passed the five pounds on Valentines day announcing her engagement to Frank Free, Meteorologist here on campus. Sounds like love in blossom.

Men's pajamas by the nationally known makers, B. V. D. are at the top of the list at BREMERS. Long wearing cottons in fast color, prints, stripes or paisley designs are pajama security. They come in either coat or slip-over style and are full cut for sleeping freedom. Sizes B to D priced at $2.47. For men six foot or over BREMERS have the D-slim pajamas at $2.97.

FINALLY the Sigma Delta Tau initiated all their 18 children Friday night!!! For a while there, they were such bad youngsters, we thought they never would make the grade. . . fooled us, didn't they? ? ?

Perk up, little birds, it's spring. The first sign of the season is that eye roaming that means shopping days are ahead. THREE SISTERS have those clever butcher linen dresses and crepes and jersey prints that are brand new. Smart navy blue in the tailored, or new drape styles are also here priced from $6.99 to $12.95. And just take a peek and you'll be sold on the new shipment of white frothy cotton and crepe blouses in. Frilly and smooth they are those always dependable jobs. $2.99-$3.99. THREE SISTERS.
