Red Army Cuts Escape From Narva

Establish Bridgehead Across Narova River; Capture 70 Localities

LONDON, Thursday (AP)—Moscow announced today that the Red army in Estonia had punched a bridgehead across the Narova river south of the German-held fortress of Narva and cut the only escape railway from the town while farther south other Soviet troops, on the approaches to Pskov, captured 70 localities and cut the Pskov-Idritsa-Polotsk railway.

In White Russia Soviet forces were reported on the move again near the long dormant front of Vitebsk, capturing more than 30 populated places including Skulovich, nine miles east of the German bastion.

The Moscow communique and its midnight supplement, recorded by the Soviet monitor from a broadcast, said the Russians "several days ago" crossed the Narova along a 22-mile front and penetrated nine miles beyond. German resistance was powerful but Soviet infantry and artillery were declared to have smashed through and reached the rail station of Auvere, cutting the railway between Narva and Reval, capital of Estonia.

This placed the Russians approximately 15 miles inside Estonia and left Narva virtually encircled. The Nazis could still escape by sea through the nearby Gulf of Finland but a highway westward was parallel to the cut railway less than a mile north of Auvere. The curving coastline was only three miles to the north.

Two regiments of Germans were routed in the bridgehead battle, the communique said, and they abandoned 25 guns in their retreat. In another sector 1,200 Nazis were killed in two days and much of their equipment captured.

A Berlin broadcast admitted the bridgehead had been established, but said it had been "further reduced" after "lively" fighting.

In the Pskov fighting, where the Russians were declared rapidly advancing upon this ancient communications center near the Baltic states, the Russian communique said "several heavily fortified strongpoints covering the approaches of the town" were captured.

However, populated places listed as captured by the Russians were all southeast, including Nevelitsy, 10 miles away. No communities were given in the north, where the Russians last were reported only six miles away. The southeast drive, however, threatened to flank Pskov in the south and cut the trunk railway, Pskov-Ostrov-Dvina-Warsaw.

Details of the Vitebsk fighting were scant, but the advance seemed to be from the east toward the city, which is already flanked on the north and south but has been stubbornly defended by the Germans.

President Roosevelt Confers With Third Far East General

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Roosevelt conferred yesterday with Maj. Gen. Albert C. Wedemeyer, third member of the allied high command in southeast Asia to visit the White House within a fortnight.

Wedemeyer, who is deputy chief of staff to Lord Louis Mountbatten, allied commander-in-chief in the area, had lunch with the chief executive but did not disclose the purpose of his White House appearance.

Previously Mr. Roosevelt saw Brig. Gen. Haydon L. Boatner, chief of staff of the Chinese army in India, who commands the northern combat area under Mountbatten. That was on February 18. Four days later the chief executive conferred with Maj. Gen. Raymond A. Wheeler, who is Mountbatten's chief supply officer.

The engagement list of the president on his first day at the White House in more than a week had a decidedly military tang.

Farrell's Government Weathers 1st Crisis

MONTEVIDEO (AP)—A brief and bloodless armed rebellion by an army colonel who marched his regiment out in battle kit in an attempt to overthrow the Argentine government of Acting President Edelmiro Farrell fizzled early yesterday, and Farrell's troubled regime apparently had weathered its first crisis.

Lieut. Col. Tomas Duco, a political unknown, staged the revolt with his third infantry regiment, perhaps in hopes of acting as a fuse for a revolution by the navy and other dissident army groups to return Gen. Pedro Ramirez to the presidency. Ramirez stepped down in favor of Vice-president Farrell in a palace coup last Thursday.

Duco and his men—perhaps 1,000 strong—"surrendered unconditionally" early yesterday after marching from Buenos Aires to a suburb, a government announcement declared.

Farrell's position appeared further improved at least superficially, during the day by the friendly attitude of Rear Admiral Alberto Teissaire and his naval colleagues when Teissaire was sworn in as new minister of the navy.

Naval leaders, it was reported, had demanded Tuesday that Farrell either return presidential powers to Ramirez, or have them delegated to the supreme court.

Some observers read the friendly ceremonies yesterday as indicating that Farrell had promised to meet their minimum demands for restoring a stable, orderly government.

Duco, friend of Ramirez, led his men from their barracks inside the capital Tuesday night to Lomas de Zamora, a suburb 20 miles away, but failure of any other groups to join him left him out on a limb, his men in battle position in the town.

Allies Block Nazi Lunge At Beachhead

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, Naples (AP)—Allied forces yesterday blocked a strong German lunge on the Anzio beachhead which may have been intended to start a new Nazi offensive.

Brief dispatches from the sector reported no great centralized drive toward the sea as having developed yet, although the Nazis applied pressure at several points along the perimeter of the British and American lines.

Field guns and mortars roared against Germans who had appeared to be making a third major effort to drive the allies into the sea.

As the reinforced enemy launched his attack, allied headquarters disclosed that Field Marshal Albert Kesselring had been equipped with a new "secret weapon"—an explosive-filled, pilotless tank meant to be steered by remote control into allied positions and detonated in the midst of the defenders.

This latest Nazi weapon had its initial try-out in the enemy's second big assault against the beachhead just two weeks ago, and was singularly unsuccessful. Fourteen were exploded by allied artillery as they waddled across no-man's-land.

Punching and probing harder at American and British lines at several points around the approximate 25-mile perimeter of the beachhead, the Germans opened their newest thrust with a strong attack by infantry and tanks about midway between Carroceto and Cisterna Tuesday morning after a heavy artillery bombardment of the entire beachhead.

The enemy appeared to have shifted the brunt of his attack several miles eastward from the Carroceto-Anzio road, down which he tried to drive two weeks ago at a heavy cost of life for limited gains.

Yugoslavs Kill 43,000 Germans

NEW YORK (AP)—The Moscow home radio said yesterday that Yugoslav patriot activity under Field Marshal Josip Broz (Tito) had cost the German army 43,000 men during the winter campaign of December and January.

The broadcast, quoting the Russian army newspaper Red Star, said the German losses included 28,000 officers and men killed.

Check Shows F. D. R. Promised 4-5 Vote For '44 Nomination

WASHINGTON (AP)—The "stop Roosevelt" advocates in the Democratic party have announced moves in the south, in Massachusetts, and in any other primary state where they can get on the ballot, but a check yesterday shows President Roosevelt already has tentative promises of four-fifths of the convention vote needed for a fourth term nomination.

No Democratic convention delegates have yet been chosen. The first 10 will be elected in a New Hampshire primary March 14. But with the filing yesterday of nomination papers in Wisconsin for a slate of delegates pledged to a fourth term, preliminary steps have been taken—so far without noticeable opposition to line up 476 convention votes for Mr. Roosevelt. And these come from only 13 states, all outside the solid south.

There will be 1,176 votes in the convention, with a majority—589—needed to nominate.

Britain Backs Finnish Treaty

Agrees to Russia's 'Peace-Now-or-Else' Demands on Finland

LONDON (AP)—Great Britain, an ever-reluctant foe of the Finns, has placed her weight behind Russia's "peace-now-or-else" demands on Finland, it was disclosed yesterday, and hopes persisted in London last night that the northern country would pull out of the war soon.

The possibility was not overlooked that a Finnish peace might lead other axis satellites—Bulgaria, Rumania and Hungary—to seek a similar path out of the war.

Authoritative London spokesmen reported that the British government after consultations required by the Anglo-Soviet pact had agreed to the terms submitted by Moscow to Finland, terms described by one informed government source as "moderate."

No Clue There was no positive clue here to Finland's reaction, but the atmosphere generally was optimistic despite apprehensions expressed in dispatches from Stockholm. Some speculation developed on the possibility that Finland might offer counter-terms and that she might ask for British-American guarantees.

The impact of the Finnish negotiations on Bulgaria, Rumania and Hungary was being watched closely and the feeling was widely held here that they were likely to await settlement of Finland's problem to measure the cost of leaving weakened Germany.

While Bulgaria in particular repeatedly has been rumored to be feeling for a way out, there has been no confirmation of any official moves. She undoubtedly has been frightened by the fate of Italy and it is reasonable to assume she is waiting now to see whether Finland is able to escape without turning the country into a battleground.

Call for Consultation In the case of all the satellites except Finland, any peace negotiations would call for consultation with Washington since the United States is at war with the others.

An end of the war between Britain and Finland—in which there has been no fighting—would come automatically if and when a Soviet-Finnish peace should be declared. Under the terms of the Anglo-Soviet treaty "a separate peace cannot be negotiated," a spokesman said, explaining that one signatory cannot negotiate a peace without consulting the other.

New York Racketeer, Sentenced to Death, Has High Insurance

NEW YORK (AP)—Louis (Lepke) Buchalter, whose execution is set for tonight, has been insured for $1,600,000, it was said yesterday as a federal judge removed one of the erstwhile racketeer's last chances of being spared.

It appeared Lepke could be saved only by the man who once named him "public enemy No. 1"—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey.

A former intimate of Lepke said the gangster not only was insured for $1,600,000, but also had put aside a fortune before the law hung an out-of-business sign on his underworld cartel, which fattened off the garment industry by extortion, backed by threats and violence.

Judge Clarence C. Galston turned down an application for a writ of habeas corpus which might have given Lepke another stay along with Louis (Boss) Capone and Emanuel (Mendy) Weiss, both scheduled to die with Lepke for the 1936 slaying of Joseph Rosen.

What companies might have insured Lepke, who was convicted of the narcotics charge in 1939 and murder in 1941, was not disclosed by the informant, whose name authorities requested be withheld.

RAF Raids Europe After Day of Quiet

LONDON, Thursday (AP)—Berlin's short and long wave radio stations went off the air last night, signifying the possibility that RAF raiders were over Europe again.

The indication of a new night assault on Europe came after a day of quiet on the allied air front.

Yank Power An increase in the striking power of American Marauder medium bombers was disclosed yesterday in a monthly review by U. S. headquarters and the air ministry.

During February 3,200 tons of bombs were dropped in 2,000 individual plane attacks made as part of 20 operations, providing an average bomb load of 1.6 tons for each plane. This is half again as large as the mediums were averaging a few months ago.

13 Marauders Lost Thirteen Marauders were lost in February—nine to anti-aircraft gun fire and four to enemy fighters.

British Mosquito bombers attacked points in western Germany Tuesday night and returned without loss. The western European air front was quiet today.

Governors Approve—Ballot Compromise

WASHINGTON (AP)—A poll of governors indicated general approval yesterday for the federal-state servicemen's vote compromise, but the executives were practically unanimous in emphasis on the state ballots.

With most of them, in fact, approval was based on the fact that they believe state ballots can be made available. Some questioned whether they could approve the short form federal ballot which the pending legislation provides for use in event servicemen or women apply for but do not receive a state ballot by Oct. 1.

Under a change made in the measure yesterday by a senate-house committee hammering it into shape for final action, the federal ballot could be used in any event only by service voters overseas on election day. Advocates of state ballots insisted on this ban against the federal ballot's use within the United States.

The compromise, which is expected to come up for house and senate action next week, provides:

1. Use of a federal ballot for voters of states which have no absentee balloting machinery, if the governor certifies by Aug. 1 that the federal form is acceptable.

2. Use of a federal ballot to supplement state absentee ballots if the governor certifies the federal form is acceptable under state law. Service voters would have to swear, however, that they had applied for a state ballot but had not received it by Oct. 1. Thus state ballots would get preference.

100 Enemy Dead Counted After 4 a. m. Attack on Island

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, Southwest Pacific, Thursday (AP)—Troops holding Momote airfield on Los Negros island in the Admiralties repulsed a Japanese counterattack yesterday, less than 24 hours after the Americans' surprise landing on the island.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur, who personally directed the invasion, said in his communique today the enemy's counterattack in the rain-soaked jungle was "bloodily repulsed" and that landing troops of the dismounted first cavalry division had "successfully consolidated" their position.

"There are a few details available, but apparently the enemy attack was pretty sharp," said a headquarters spokesman.

He said that approaches to the 5,000-foot long airstrip were on favorable terrain but very narrow, forcing the enemy to concentrate his counterattacking forces along a narrow front.

The Japanese attacked about 4 o'clock in the morning, but were driven off before daylight. Nearly 100 enemy dead were counted.

The communique said that American losses "throughout these operations have been negligible." The invaders went ashore Tuesday from destroyers without interference from Japanese planes or aircraft. They soon wiped out Japanese resistance to take possession of the airport.

MacArthur said the airfield, which was taken with little damage, "will shortly be in full use by our air forces."

The Japanese could be reinforcing their Los Negros garrison from Manus island, across a narrow strip of water to the west. Size of the force on Manus was not precisely known.

American Liberator heavy bombers and Mitchell mediums are supporting the ground forces by hammering enemy positions behind their lines.

Other enemy bases bombed were Wewak, Hollandia, Hansa bay and Madang, all on the northeastern New Guinea coast.

Physician Fears Rise in Philippine Prison Camp Death Rate

CHICAGO (AP)—The death rate among prisoners at the Santo Tomas internment camp in the Philippines will rise unless they receive proper food and medicines, a physician who returned from there reported yesterday.

Dr. Frank E. Whitacre of Sylvania, Ohio, who was repatriated on the most recent trip of the Gripsholm, gave a detailed account of health conditions among the 3,900 Americans and others held in the Jap concentration enclosure.

His medical report, which the American Medical association said was the first to be published in this country about the general health conditions among Americans interned by the Japanese, said:

"The number of deaths after 22 months is probably not much in excess of that found in a group of the same size in normal times. But it must be expected that the mortality rate will increase, for nutritional disturbances are growing and the drug and medical supplies situation is deplorable."

British Ambassador Believes Germans Want Peace Now

SCRANTON, Pa. (AP)—Lord Halifax, British ambassador to the United States, said last night he believes that "if it were possible at this moment to take a free vote of the German people, a great majority would declare for peace—peace at once and peace at almost any price."

Loneragan's Counsel Expects to Prove That Purported Confession Was Faked

NEW YORK (AP)—A flat statement by Wayne Lonergan's counsel that he expected to prove that Lonergan's purported confession was "a fake" electrified yesterday's session of the young cafe society man's murder trial.

In questioning the last of the 11 talesmen who so far have been rejected by the prosecution, defense or by agreement, he referred outright to the purported document as a fake confession. Responding to Assistant District Attorney Jacob Grumet's shouted objection, General Sessions Judge John J. Freschi ruled that the word "fake" be stricken out and permitted substitution of the word "alleged."

Later, Broderick was allowed to say that he expected to show during the trial that the alleged confession was a fake confession.

Newscaster To Lecture

The Information First audience this afternoon will hear Bob Burlingame, assistant news editor of WHO, as he discusses "America and the Four-Front War." The lecture will be at 4 o'clock in the senate chamber of Old Capitol.

Burlingame has been with station WHO as a newscaster since 1938. During his work in this field he has developed a keen sense of news of the day and recognition of its importance to future world affairs.

He has worked out a plan for a four-front method of war, which he will explain in his lecture this afternoon.

Burlingame will be interviewed at 3:15 this afternoon over WSUI by Eleanor Keagy, A4 of Ottumwa. He will be introduced at the Information First lecture by Mary Jane Neville, A3 of Emmetsburg, who will act as chairman of the discussion period following his lecture.

Greek Drama Class Broadcasts Tragedies

Students of Prof. Dorrance S. White's Greek Drama in Translation class, presented each Monday, Wednesday and Friday morning at 9 a. m. over WSUI, are this semester participating in the reading of parts of the tragedies of Aeschylus, Sophocles, and Euripides, the comedies of Aristophanes, with a few modern tragedies based on the classical theme, such as Racine's "Andromache," Turney's "The Daughters of Atreus," and O'Neill's "Mourning Becomes Electra."

To date nine Greek plays have been read and analyzed on the air, four of Aeschylus, four of Sophocles, and one of Euripides. Six other plays of Euripides remain to be given over the air and two or three of Aristophanes' comedies will also be presented.

Margaret Rowland, A3 of Dayton, Ohio, and Shirley Rich, A4 of Ottumwa, both dramatic art majors who have done a great deal of work in the University theater, have taken roles in these plays.

Recently Miss Rowland enacted Cassandra in Aeschylus' "Agamemnon" while Miss Rich read Clytemnestra in "Agamemnon," ("Libation-Bearers," Sophocles' "Electra" and Euripides' "Electra." Miss Rowland read the part of Electra in these plays.

Donald Low, A3 of Sac City, has taken such roles as the seer Tiresias, Creon the King, and Orcestes. The part of Jocasta in "Oedipus Rex" was played recently by Florence McCoy, A3 of Kansas City, Mo.

Participation of the class in radio readings entirely voluntary and plans are being made to give a number of other members of the class a chance to take part, possibly with a union reading of choral parts by several women, before the semester is completed.

The practice of having members of the class participate in the readings and endeavor to approach the dramatic effect of the original character tends to make the course correlate with the departments of speech and English. The roles read by members of the class over the air are entirely unrehearsed. The students, however, are encouraged to study the parts carefully and to fully interpret them.

Navy Concert Band To Broadcast Tonight

Four distinct styles of music will be heard tonight at 8 o'clock on this week's WSUI radio concert by the Iowa Navy Pre-Flight school band under the direction of Chief Musician J. J. Courtney.

Included in the program are "Three Dances" from "The Barttered Bride" (Smetana); "Persian March" and "Perpetuum Mobile" (Strauss); "Rhapsody in Rhumba" (Bennett); "Semper Fidelis" (Sousa) and "American Red Cross March" (Panella).

CONSUMERS' CORNER

Do you hate to wash dishes? Women who take pride in the appearance of their skin and hands choose dishwashing soap as carefully as they do their toilet soap. This is the secret of avoiding garden-variety hands, and there are many good dishwashing soaps from which to choose. They suds fast, make dishes sparkle and rinse off easily. The soap generally considered mild are the kindest to the hands.

Don't go at dishwashing "willy-nilly." Before you even start to clear the table, take a minute to straighten up the kitchen. Put pots and pans to soak, clear the drain-board and empty and clean the sink. As you bring empty dishes from the table, scrape them and then stack them on the drainboard.

Keep Leftovers in Icebox
Assemble leftovers in bowls with covers and other suitable refrigerator containers. Then put them all into the refrigerator at one time.

Rinsing the dishes before washing makes the job pleasanter and saves soap—important these days. It also keeps grease and bits of food out of the dishwasher.

A dishcloth that is greasy and gray, and dish towels that are stained and wet are two very good reasons for hating to wash dishes. You can avoid them both.

Use well-made, open-mesh dishcloths and wash and rinse them

Mortar Board Election To Be Held Monday

Elections to Mortar Board, national honorary society for senior women, will be held Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the senate chamber of Old Capitol, according to Shirley Rich, A4 of Ottumwa, president of the organization.

All university women registered as first or second semester juniors or as first semester seniors may take part in the election. Each voter will check the names of 20 students on a list of eligibles released from the registrar's office. Those eligible must have maintained a 2.68 average or above and must be classified as first or second semester juniors or first semester seniors.

The 20 girls chosen will hold another election at a later date to determine which students among them will be members of the Board.

Members are chosen on the basis of scholarship, service and leadership. The purpose of Monday's meeting is to elect by popular vote those students possessing the second and third qualifications.

The list of scholastically eligible women will be posted today through Monday on the student affairs bulletin board in Old Capitol. Prospective voters are asked to read the names in advance in order to formulate some ideas as to how they will vote, Miss Rich said.

Professors Discuss Post-War Problems

The sharp readjustments and personality problems which will face servicemen after the war were recently discussed by Prof. Wilbur R. Miller, head of the department of psychiatry, and Prof. Charles R. Strother of the speech and psychology departments in a forum program broadcast by WSUI.

"What men have learned about killing other men will affect them deeply and such violent emotional forces, once released, may be hard to control. However, there is no way of knowing whether the changes which may occur will be anti-social or useful," Professor Miller said.

He pointed out that in some cases, this increased aggressiveness will have to be curbed, whereas in others, men who have realized their capabilities, will become aggressive leaders in civil life and therefore more stable. Professor Miller predicted that many who have found adjustment in military life will probably remain in service.

Professor Strother said that veterans' organizations will be important in readjusting men to civil life because they understand common problems which at first may baffle the families of the returning soldiers.

Ramblers Beat Lone Tree

Colbert Paces Local Team to 34-26 Win With Thirteen Points

St. Mary's mighty mites of Iowa City, paced by Eddie Colbert who dumped in 13 points, kept themselves very much in the high school tournament last night as they pounded out a 34-26 victory over the Lone Tree quintet.

Taking a 2-0 lead in the first seconds of the game, the Ramblers of St. Mary's kept a substantial lead throughout, while the Lone Tree five ran themselves ragged trying to keep up with the faster, scrappier St. Mary's team.

Pint-sized Colbert, who led the Rambler attack with 13 points, dropped in five field goals and three free throws, while John O'Brien of St. Mary's was close behind him with three field goals and four free throws for a total of 10 points.

Hot-shot for the opponents was Don Eden who garnered three field goals and seven free throws to equal Colbert's score of 13 points. Eldon Jarrard, with nine points, was the most outstanding player for Lone Tree, as his fast break and cut for the basket couldn't be stopped by the Ramblers.

Playing for keeps from the opening minutes in the game, the Ramblers scored 21 of their 34 points in the fast and furious first half. Held to only three field goals in the first half, the Lone Tree squad took advantage of their many free throw opportunities scoring six points by this method.

With fouls aplenty in the second half, both teams made the most of their points in this way. Three field goals apiece were made, but the rest of the points came via free throws.

St. Mary's really had their big moments in the first quarter when O'Brien, Stahl, and Colbert swished in two buckets apiece. The score at the end of the first quarter read 14-6 in favor of the local five.

Having cooled off a little in the second quarter, the Ramblers still played at too fast a pace for the Lone Tree boys, and as the buzzer sounded ending the half, St. Mary's led 21-12.

Lone Tree inched up a little on the Ramblers in the third quarter but at no time seriously threatened their lead. The fourth quarter saw both teams fouling freely, with St. Mary's getting three points and Lone Tree six points by the free throw route.

Riverside, Cosgrove Win Out in Tournament

Shueyville Shellacked 45 to 11 by Riverside

Winners Challenge Iowa City Cage Five In Semi-Final Round

Shueyville, unable to stop a hard-driving Riverside offense, dropped by the wayside 45-11 last night in their first game of the sectional tournament at City high. The Riverside five had little trouble moving into the semi-final round tonight when they will meet St. Mary's of Iowa City at 6 o'clock.

Kos High Man

Dale Kos, Riverside forward, led the winning team by tossing in seven field goals for 14 points. Close behind him were Cress and Burich who connected for ten and eight points respectively.

Making more than half his team's total, Leonard Zalesky, Shueyville forward, sparked the loser's attack with three baskets for a total of six points, while Novotny connected for four markers and C. Netolicky contributed one.

Unable to find the range of the basket, Shueyville drove in for shot after shot only to see them constantly miss their mark. C. Netolicky played the best defensive game for the losers while Zalesky looked the best on offense.

Shueyville Held Scoreless

After battling for two minutes without a score, Kos finally dropped a short one in from the side to start Riverside on its way. Shueyville was held scoreless until five minutes of the game had elapsed, and then Zalesky broke the ice. Riverside led 9-4 at the end of the first period and 21-4 at the half.

Shueyville was stopped cold the entire second quarter as they failed to connect for a single point. Novotny started the second half with a basket for the losers, but that ended their scoring for that period as Riverside tightened their defense and smoothed out their scoring punch to go sailing ahead 33-6 at the end of the third quarter.

Burich Leads Reserves

The Riverside reserves, led by diminutive Bob Burich, who connected for all four of his baskets in the last period, finished the game for the victors. Kos was the outstanding player for Riverside while Hal Cress, Elmer Kron and Lyle Fox all turned in good floor games.

World's Lightweight Boxing Championship Gets Another Bouncing in Garden Friday

Montgomery, Beau Jack Clash for 3rd Time in Title Bout

NEW YORK (AP)—Half the world's lightweight fistic championship, which bounced around as erratically as a football since late in '42, gets another kick Friday night.

The newest item in the snarled situation, a 15-rounder in Madison Square Garden, brings together Sidney (Beau Jack) Walker, the former Augusta, Ga., bootblack who holds the New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania version of the laurels, and Bob Montgomery, the Philadelphia and Sumter, S. C., lad.

Once before Beau Jack had the title but Montgomery took it away from him. Then Beau Jack took it back. They've been in there against each other for 30 rounds, with honors even. Customers aggregating 36,209 paid $191,373 to see 'em do it, and promoter Mike Jacobs says Friday's "rubber" match will draw more than $90,000.

While Monty and Beau have been doing their title-trading, the other half of the championship has been held by Sammy Angott of Washington, Pa., who has the blessing of the National Boxing association.

Here's what caused it all: Dec. 19, 1941—Angott took title from Lew Jenkins.

Nov. 13, 1942—Angott relinquished title and retired.

Dec. 18, 1942—Beau Jack kayoed Larkin; New Jersey joined New York in recognizing the "Beau." NBA, aghast, refused to go along.

Five months later Angott decided on a comeback, and NBA

Hawkeye Highlights

Iowans in the Northwestern basketball series here this weekend won't have to face four Wildcat players who made 290 of the team's 525 points in conference games. They are Graham, 64; Ward, 79; Carle, 87; and Vodick, 60. N. U. players remaining, however, scored 203 points: Schadler, 94; Felt, 59; Schumacher, 33, and Clawson, 17.

Hawks Pass Physicals

Dave Danner and "Bucky" Walter, Iowa City freshmen forwards on the Hawkeye squad, have passed their pre-induction army physicals exams in Des Moines. They don't know when they will be called.

Wildcats Absent 2 Years

No games with Northwestern have been played in the Iowa fieldhouse since 1941. In the past ten games at Iowa City, each team has won five, and in the past fifteen, the Hawks lead, 9-6. Wildcats make up for not appearing in 1942 and 1943 by playing twice this weekend.

Nationals Lure Macias

Rometo Macias, Davenport freshman who won the Big Ten 128-pound wrestling title in his first intercollegiate bouts, hopes to compete in the National A. A. U. championships in Baltimore, Md. in April. Macias, two years out of high school, loves to wrestle so much that he will take on almost anyone... even army and navy cadets outweighing him 20 or 30 pounds.

Sports Trail . . .

By WHITNEY MARTIN
NEW YORK (AP)—It's one of those days when the weather is frowning all over the place trying to make up its mind whether to rain or snow or just sulk, which reminds you that in normal times you'd be heading for Florida about now, which reminds you there isn't much grousing in major league circles this year about the prospect of training in the north.

A year ago there were dire forecasts of what would happen to the fragile athletes if they were required to expose their curving arms and running legs to the flirty March elements up here, the growls leaving the general impression the arms would snap right off at the elbow some crisp day and the leg muscles would curl up into knobby cue balls.

Well, nothing like that happened, and it turned out the season started with the men remarkably free from the aches and pains usually a by-product of prolonged workouts in sunny climes and the long exhibition junkies northward. It seemed the players practically conditioned themselves into the invalid ward.

Last year proved that the long, sun-baked workouts were just a happy interlude not necessarily essential to a season's play.

Branch Rickey is permitting Whit Wyatt and Johnny Cooney, a couple of venerable gents who live in the south, to do their early training at home, and this may set a dangerous precedent as a great many ball players live where the snows seldom fall, and they might think they should be given like consideration.

It does seem a little odd, at that, to make men living in the south come north to train when the argument is advanced that northern training isn't so good. A pitcher could get in shape down there throwing at a barn door or by getting the village tavern keeper to catch for him.

The other players might have a little trouble sharpening their batting eyes, but otherwise they could round into condition nicely.

Anyway, the clubs are training in the north again, and if scores of the players are disappointed, they shouldn't feel too badly about it. If these were normal times they wouldn't be going south, or anywhere else, with major league teams.

Impressive Cosgrove Five Downs Tiffin

36-22 Win Sparked By Meade; Numerous Fouls Called in Tilt

Opening their tournament bid in a very impressive manner, the Cosgrove quintet crushed Tiffin 36 to 22 last night on the City high court. Starting the game with a bang, the Cosgrove boys led the Tiffin team 9 to 3 at the end of the first quarter. The second quarter was a little closer, with Tiffin narrowing the margin to 12 to 9, when the two teams stopped for their half time rest.

Meade Leads Cosgrove

Meade was the outstanding player for Cosgrove, as he managed to hit the hoop for 12 points, with several of the baskets going in from tricky spots on the floor. The winners ball hawking and fast breaks down the floor, was too much for the fighting Tiffin team. Both squads put up a sticky defense, which forced the other team to shoot from far out on the court.

Fouls were quite numerous, as both teams were fighting for the chance to remain in the select circle, to continue playing in the tournament.

Brant Shows Spirit

Brant looked like the favorite for the losers, as he continued to play heads up ball, long after the game was on ice for the Cosgrove five. His one handed shots were spectacular at times, as he also shot from far out on the court.

Plays Sharon Tonight

Cosgrove will continue its bid for sectional glory when the team meets Sharon tonight on the City high floor. The game should be one of the better games of the tournament, as both squads are on a more even par than the previous teams they have played.

Sharon Downs Kalona, 30-23

Sehr Leads Victors With 12 Points; Sprecker Makes 6

With Sehr leading the way the Sharon Firewagon rolled over the quintet from Kalona with the score of 30-23. The Kalona cagers were completely out of form until the last quarter when they staged a rally that failed to knot the score. Once in the final period the Kalona five brought the margin to only 3 points.

High scorer of the game was Sehr with 12 markers. Sprecker was high for Kalona with 6. Hershberger, the tall center, from Kalona, did not show up against Sharon as he did last night. High scorer in the first round of the tourney, he was able to account for only one basket and one charity toss.

In the initial quarter Sprecker was the only Kalona player to toss the ball through the hoop as he connected on 2 free throws. Meer, Shaffer and Sehr each split the net for Sharon to bring the score at the end of the period to 6-2.

The second quarter was equally slow for Kalona as Coach Frazer's five held the losers to a lone free throw. Meer scored three points for Sharon while Shaffer put a goal in and Yoder made a free throw. The half ended with the scoreboard reading 13-3.

After the intermission Kalona offense slowly gained momentum as the entire team provided its share of points in the third period. Kalona netted more scores in this quarter than Sharon as they counted up 11 while holding Sharon to 9.

In the final period due to the stalling of the Firewagon the Kalona boys were unable to make the potential rally effective as they went down fighting.

Sharon is playing in tournament competition without the aid of the high scorer of the team, Lackerder, who is ill. Shaffer and Zadranek appeared as the most aggressive players on the floor as they repeatedly took the ball and sent it back down the court for another Sharon scoring threat.

A. S. T. P., V-12 Test Planned For March 16

The third army-navy college qualifying test for the army specialized training program and the navy V-12 college program will be given March 15 under the supervision of Paul Blommers of the university examinations office. Students wishing to take the test must make application in the office of student affairs.

Students who are eligible to take the test, though they took it either on April 2 or Nov. 9, 1943, must take the test again if they still wish to be considered an applicant.

Although eligibility to take the test is not dependent upon a high scholastic record, a student is advised that unless he stands at least in the upper half of his class his chances of qualifying are poor. The competition for the college programs of the army and navy is keen, and only students having a good school record are likely to qualify.

Students who take the qualifying test will be required to indicate on the day of the test their preference for the army program or that of the navy. Taking the test does not constitute enlistment in either branch of the armed services and having taken the test, a student is not obligated to enter the program if he is accepted.

However, no candidate who expresses a preference for one branch of the service will be considered by the other. Because no change in preference may be made after the day of the test, applicants should carefully consider in advance the eligibility requirements for each program and which program he prefers.

The purpose of the army specialized training program is to provide technicians and specialists for the army. Those selected will study at government expense, at colleges and universities in fields determined largely by their own qualifications. They will be soldiers on active duty, in uniform, under military discipline and on regular army pay.

The curricula vary in length from one to eight 12-week terms, except that the medical and dental curricula are of the length in use at accredited colleges. The successful trainee advances uninterruptedly to the completion of his course. All trainees, however, are subject to call to other active duty at all times. A. S. T. P. trainees are expected to receive college credits for their work.

Civilian men who will be 17 but not yet 22 on July 1, 1944, are eligible to take this test. Those who receive satisfactory scores are instructed to present their qualifying notices to army authorities after induction. These candidates are then sent

First Capital Bank Displaying Checks Past Presidents', Famed Statesmen's Checks Included

On display for a week in the First Capital National bank are checks of famous Americans, loaned by the Colonial Trust company of New York. Included in the display are 72 checks of men prominent in the history of the United States.

A 1733 check of Thomas Penn, son of the founder of Pennsylvania, is in the collection, as is one signed by Frederick Baron von Steuben, a German-American hero of the American revolution.

President's checks of Thomas Jefferson, James Madison, James Monroe, Theodore Roosevelt, Benjamin Harrison, Andrew Jackson, Millard Fillmore, William H. Taft and W. G. Harding are shown. Famous statesmen are also represented, such as Albert Gallatin, a secretary of the treasury; Henry Clay, candidate for president, and Daniel Webster, representative, senator and secretary of state.

Checks of men of letters, James Fennimore Cooper, Ralph Waldo Emerson, Mark Twain, Nathaniel Hawthorne and Walt Whitman, are displayed.

Other outstanding persons whose checks are shown are Robert E. Lee, Confederate general; William H. Seward, who negotiated the purchase of Alaska, and Cyrus W. Field, who laid the first Atlantic cable.

The smallest amount is 75 cents on a check signed by President Fillmore, and the largest is $16,733, signed in 1874 by Russell Sage when he was a member of the New York stock exchange.

The only certified check in the collection is for $3,500, drawn by "Boss" Tweed, New York alderman, who was tried in 1874 on the charge of official embezzlement, found guilty, and escaped to Spain. He was captured and returned to New York to die in prison in 1878.

to special army training stations for their 13 weeks of basic military training. It is during this basic training period that selection is made to fill vacancies in the A. S. T. P. courses.

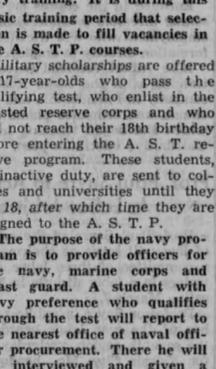

Military scholarships are offered to 17-year-olds who pass the qualifying test, who enlist in the enlisted reserve corps and who will not reach their 18th birthday before entering the A. S. T. P. reserve program. These students, on inactive duty, are sent to colleges and universities until they are 18, after which time they are assigned to the A. S. T. P.

The purpose of the navy program is to provide officers for the navy, marine corps and coast guard. A student with navy preference who qualifies through the test will report to the nearest office of naval officer procurement. There he will be interviewed and given a physical examination. Previous to assignment to a college he will be on inactive status, but will be a navy enlistee and will be subject to military order from the navy only.

The length of time a student will be in the program will depend on his previous college education, if any, the type of course for which he is qualified and to which he is assigned and his continued demonstration of adequate scholarship and officer-like qualifications.

The qualifying test is the first selection of men for the college programs of the army and the navy. The test will be given only on the morning of March 15, and candidates who do not take the test at that time will

Red Cross Drive Opens

Jack Johnson Outlines Ways to Contribute To War Campaign

The Red Cross War Fund drive for 1944 began yesterday with a house-to-house canvass of the residential districts, according to Jack T. Johnson, chairman of the Johnson county War Fund campaign.

Johnson outlines methods by which Johnson county contributors may give funds. If not reached by a personal solicitor, contributors are asked to mail or bring donations to War Fund headquarters, 3 S. Dubuque street.

In Johnson county, 64.4 percent of the contributions go to the national organization, and 35.6 percent is to be kept for local purposes. This year the goal is $36,500 compared to about $7,600 in previous years.

Formerly, Johnson stated, the Red Cross operated largely under peace time conditions, but inasmuch as the Red Cross is an auxiliary of the armed forces, its functions increase in time of war.

"Obviously the dollar contribution, while helpful, must be supplemented with gifts of larger amounts," Johnson said. However, every person giving a dollar or more will receive a membership card.

Red Cross Campaign
"Enthusiasm and cooperation in the 1944 war fund drive for Red Cross is even greater this year than last," stated Jack T. Johnson, war fund committee chairman after the first day of the campaign.

Johnson said the residential solicitors met outstanding success in their first day's campaign, and "if things end the way they've started, we'll exceed our $36,500 quota."

World-wide activities of the American Red Cross include services to the armed forces, home front services and foreign war relief. An executive staff and millions of volunteer workers engage in a wide variety of occupations to back up the Red Cross field force.

Primary among these are the blood donor workers and local home service staffs. Equally vital are the chapter production corps members, who supply surgical dressings and knitted articles for men and women of the armed forces.

Necessary Red Cross equipment includes service buildings in all army camps, Red Cross recreation buildings provided by the army or navy in hospital zones and equipped by the Red Cross with every type of recreational equipment and motor vans and trucks as well as a great amount of medical and surgical material provided by Red Cross.

Johnson said that "as the number of sick, wounded and disabled men increases, Red Cross services to the armed forces increase in intensity. Demobilization and discharge for disability in their turn bring difficult problems of adjustment with which the Red Cross must help the soldier and the veteran and their families for many years to come."

Contributions for the Nile Kinnick scholarship fund from former university students, Lieut. Sam Shulman, now in North Africa, and Sergt. John Chapman, stationed in China, for $50 and $25 head the list of "far-away" donors," said Ed Breese, chairman of the Junior Chamber of Commerce Kinnick scholarship fund committee.

Iowa City chapter of the junior chamber alone has contributed $5,000 toward the $50,000 goal for the scholarship fund, Breese announced, and several other committees are joining the campaign under the sponsorship of statewide Junior Chamber of Commerce chapters.

"Cedar Rapids, Davenport, and Mason City have started campaigns and other Iowa cities will enter the campaign," Breese said.

In the Iowa City chapter of the junior chamber, plans are being completed for the appointment of four sub-committees to assist in the drive under the captaincy of Jack White, Ray Bywater, Lloyd Harrington and Dean Jones. Personal contact with business firms will be made by these four teams.

SUI Symphony Gives Able Interpretation Of Colorful Program

Contrast for Dramatic Contrasts For Dramatic Beethoven Symphony

By MILDRED BUOY
From the picturesque beginning of MacDowell's "Indian Suite" to the dramatic finale of Beethoven's "Seventh Symphony," the University symphony orchestra presented a colorful concert last night in Iowa Union. Under the direction of Prof. Philip G. Clapp of the music department the group appeared in the fifth concert of the current season.

The second movement of MacDowell's suite offered music of local color based upon melodies of Iowa Indians. "Love Song" demonstrated the vibrant tone quality of the orchestra as it played the peaceful melody.

Perhaps the most fascinating part of the suite was the third movement, "In War Time," with its dramatic and strange melodies. Then followed the foreboding "Dirge" contrasted by "Village Festival," the final movement. Here the group showed its ability in the technique of pizzicato.

The Beethoven "Symphony No. 7, opus 92" was the second and final work of the program. With sudden transitions from the vivacious and gay to powerful climaxes the symphony presented a challenge to the group for correct interpretation. Throughout the work the orchestra played with sympathetic understanding. The audience listened with rapt interest as the lively, dance-like melodies of the first movement were played in turn by each voice of the orchestra.

A familiar melody appeared in the allegretto movement. As one instrument the orchestra played the haunting theme, building to crescendos and then diminishing as the melody shifted from one section of the orchestra to the other.

After the calm ending of the second movement came the presto

Even Washington officials have reduced their bulging briefcases to manila folders and canvas satchels. The traditional traveling toothbrush will have to become a pocketbook hitch-hiker if this condition continues, but civilians have not objected too much, as staying at home is now vogue.

12 Hour Wartime Training Classes Begin

"If worker hasn't learned, instructor hasn't taught" is the theme of a current series of wartime training classes for business executives sponsored by the retail trade division of the Iowa City chamber of commerce. This 12-hour course is taught by Helen Albert, representative of the distributive education department of the Iowa state board for vocational education.

In the first of a series of six two-hour classes held in the Sears Roebuck company store, Miss Albert stressed the four main points in teaching an employee merchandising methods. Four basic steps of instructing a salesperson include preparing the learner—teaching him facts concerning the merchandise; explaining the merchandise—demonstrating mechanism or fundamentals of the products; application of information to job situation, and testing employee's ability to work successfully with merchandise.

Enrolled in the classes are personnel directors or supervisors of employment who will transfer information directly to employees.

Miss Albert received personnel training with the Sears Roebuck company in Philadelphia and Cincinnati and ordnance plants after which she began teaching in the distributive education plan.

movement, outstanding for precise phrasing. As if intoxicated with power after the preceding melodies, the symphony then moved to a brilliant climax in a storm of fury.

Following the turbulence of the Beethoven symphony, concert listeners heard the tranquil melody of "Love Song" as an encore.
