Allies Push Ahead in Close Fighting

Allies Seize Seaport Past Italian Capital

Fifth Army Takes Town

Clark's Troops Meet Slight Resistance In Lightning Pursuit

ROME (AP)—In lightning drives of as much as 26 miles in 24 hours, the allied Fifth army yesterday captured Civita Castellana, 32 miles north of Rome, after other swift armored units had pounced through Civitavecchia, important seaport 38 miles northwest of the Italian capital.

Only the slightest resistance was being encountered by Lieut. Gen. Mark W. Clark's troops as they pressed after the reeling German 14th army, which an allied spokesman declared had been reduced to "battered remnants."

Highway Junction Civita Castellana is the junction of three main highways and two electric railways. Light reconnaissance units entered the town early in the evening.

Reporter Explains D-Day Postponement

LONDON (AP)—The blustery channel weather, which delayed the western invasion 24 hours and at one time nearly caused an allied disaster, began clearing during this third day of assault, easing the task of troops unloading from light, wave-kicked landing craft.

German Commentator Says Soviets Launch Attack North of Iasi

No Red Confirmation Of Reported Push In Moscow Broadcast

LONDON (AP)—A top-ranking German radio commentator declared yesterday that powerful Russian armored forces had launched an offensive on a wide front north of Iasi in Romania and had advanced several miles in the center and on the left flank.

No Confirmation There was no immediate Russian confirmation of the push and the Nazi commentator, Ernst von Hammer, did not say flatly that it was the beginning of the expected Soviet thrust through the Galati gap toward the Ploesti oil fields and the wealth of the Danube valley, generally expected to be timed with the allied invasion of Hitler's Europe from the west.

Allies Ignore Nazi Claims of Fighting Beyond Fallen Bayeux

Germans Say Troops Threaten to Strangle Air-Borne Americans

LONDON (AP)—The Germans asserted last night that furious fighting with the allies was reaching out on both sides of fallen Bayeux and contended their reinforced troops were biting into the western end of the allied bridgehead in France and swinging into position to strangle two infantry-supported American airborne divisions at the mouth of the Vire river.

Nazis Withdraw

A German broadcaster admitted widening of the allied bridgehead to about 38 miles and said that its deepest point was in the Bayeux sector. One commentator said the German command, in view of the air-borne landings, "had to withdraw German forces stationed on the coast north of Bayeux, in order to use them for reinforcing the southern defense barrier."

Allies Await Strength

It was indicated that the first forces ashore Tuesday could have pushed ahead more rapidly than they did, but Gen. Dwight D. Chances of 'Young Tom Dewey'

With the Republican convention only a few weeks away, it looks to the uninitiated political observer as though Thomas Dewey is as good as in. Relative strength as indicated by the Gallup poll, several private polls, and the statements of campaign managers (taken with a grain of salt, of course) show the New York governor to be far in front of his closest rival, Governor Bricker of Ohio.

Opinion—

DO YOU THINK NEWLY ELECTED CONGRESSMEN SHOULD BE GIVEN TRAINING?
George Brehm of Cedar Rapids, government field representative: "Congressmen probably should have training just as anyone without experience in a certain type of work should have some training."
L. D. Sheppard of Des Moines, insurance salesman: "No, I do not think they need training. I do not believe their offices are that complicated."
M. C. Cramer of Monroe, traveling salesman: "Yes, they should be trained because they are elected from the ranks of laymen and need some political training."

William H. Cobb, University Secretary, Resigns

Will Assume New Position

Business Manager's Resignation Ends 22 Years With SU

William H. Cobb, business manager and secretary of the University of Iowa, who has been associated with the institution since 1922, will take a position with the Teacher's Insurance and Annuity Association of America Sept. 1.

President Virgil M. Hancher, when making the announcement concerning the resignation, said that in his new position Cobb will be secretary of the corporation and an officer of the board of directors. The organization was established by the Carnegie corporation and deals exclusively with insurance and annuity contracts for personnel of American colleges.

In regard to Cobb's new position President Hancher said, "We regret the fact that we are to lose Mr. Cobb, but the offer from the association was too good for him to reject, carrying with it fine opportunity for advancement."

Born in Tipton in 1893, Cobb graduated from the University of Illinois in 1919 and was assistant to the controller in the business office there until 1922 when he came to the University of Iowa as auditor.

He became controller in 1932 and assumed his present title in 1938.

Cobb has written articles in the field of institutional accounting and business procedure and has served as vice-president of the Central Association of University and College Business Officers.

'Friends of Library' Association Begins Book Collecting Plan

In order to enlarge the resources of the university library, a collecting program is now under way under the sponsorship of the newly-created Friends of the Library association, Prof. Rollin M. Perkins, president of the local chapter, has announced.

"We believe that the University of Iowa can have one of the greatest research library collections in the Midwest. The university can purchase new books but it cannot buy the records of daily community lives which in themselves are the basis of a great research library," Professor Perkins said.

Judge James Bollinger of Davenport, former student at the university, will address the first public meeting of the association in Iowa City, June 19. He is known as one of the greatest students of Abraham Lincoln, and has designated the university as the ultimate repository of his personal Lincoln library.

A series of chapters in Iowa towns and in larger cities throughout the nation is planned by the Friends of the Library organization and a library magazine will be published.

University alumni and other citizens interested in the university are being urged to supplement the regular library purchases by donations of books, local documents, letters, pamphlets, business records, and personal libraries.

Letters written by soldiers, records of local clubs, correspondence of influential citizens, publications of schools and other community organizations and collections of books are among the material the university is anxious to collect.

The five classes of membership which have been established are: student for one book yearly, $1; sustaining, $5 annually; patrons, $25 annually and life, $500.

Local Women Needed to Roll Dressings

The need for women to make surgical dressings is immediate. One hundred million surgical dressings must be shipped monthly by the Red Cross to battle fronts all over the world and now, particularly to the European front.

Local Quota
The local chapter has been asked to pledge a quota of the 30,000,000 dressings which will be made by women in the mid-western area. They will need many women to help fill this quota.

All women in Iowa City are asked to answer this call for help; they will find surgical dressings headquarters at City hall.

A letter to directors of surgical dressings chairmen demanded, "ARE YOU PREPARED TO MEET THE REQUEST OF THE WAR DEPARTMENT?"

Letters from overseas indicate the gratitude of the medical units to which Red Cross dressings go. One such letter declares in part, "The great quantities used are indicated by the official statement that as many as 1,000 dressings are used in the treatment of one wounded man." Another letter states, "It takes many things to fight wars and our weapons are dressings and plasma first."

Supply Important
Still another letter from the Pacific area tells, "Were the supply of surgical dressings to stop, then we would stop and stay stopped. That you keep up your supply is of utmost importance in the winning of this war."

Many women feel that the small contribution of a few dressings is of little account; another letter from the war area declares, "Every wound must be dressed, not just some wounds, or certain wounds, but all wounds, large or small, must be dressed and dressed often."

With the invasion comes a challenge thrown at every man on the fighting front. An equal challenge is before every woman in Johnson county.

"We cannot fail those men who give so much for us," declares Mrs. H. D. Price of the surgical dressings public relations committee.

Dodgers Grab Twin Bill

Bums Move Ahead From 7th to 5th Place; 1/2 Behind New York

BROOKLYN (AP)—The Brooklyn Dodgers took both ends of a double header from the Philadelphia Phillies yesterday, 6-3 and 8-1.

The double triumph enabled the Dodgers to leap from seventh into fifth place, only half a game behind the fourth place New York Giants.

The Dodgers won the opener by scoring four unearned runs in the eighth inning, Ray Hamrick, Philly shortstop, being guilty of a costly error.

Ed Head notched his first victory of the season in the night-cap. French Bordagaray hit a home run and Augie Galan who hit safely in the opener to extend this hitting streak to 19 games, was stopped in the second.

Four Pittsburgh Mound Artists Give 13 Hits; Pirates' Standing Slips

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The Chicago Cubs pounded four Pittsburgh pitchers for 13 hits yesterday to break the Pirates' four-game winning streak with a 10 to 6 triumph in the opener of their series.

Hy Vandenberg, who relieved Henry Wyse in the fifth, was the winning pitcher. Preacher Roe, knocked out of the box in the second inning in which the Cubs counted eight runs, was the losing hurler.

Vandenberg pitched himself out of a jam in the ninth when the Pirates loaded the bases with none out.

From the Side Lines By Yoke

We closed yesterday wondering what would happen to the Seahawks now that the main bastions of their first team are leaving for advanced bases. This, from the local point of view is just about the same as if the St. Louis Browns were to lose most of their team.

Now I don't want you to think that the calibre of the teams are the same and there is no necessity here of certain persons taking hold of this statement and bartering me with it from now on, but in the bush leagues you teams are ranked as importantly as in the majors so if your town doesn't happen to have the majors there the bushes are the best.

And it certainly is true that we have had some fine baseball put out across the river in the past three years due to the pre-flight program.

So we have to come around to the point of view that there will be no joy in Mudville, since the boys passed on to advanced training.

Charlie Tourek, third baseman, has been quite outstanding during the year with his brand of play. He is sharp around the hot corner, very sardonic lets anything slip by and knows heads up ball. At the plate he is a thing of beauty and a joy forever.

His two home runs against Ottumwa are two of the finest we've seen on the local lot. His consistent hitting in the pinches has insured easy baseball writing since the inception of the season.

Russ Wendland at second base, has been perhaps the steadiest of all of the infield. I can't remember having seen Russ bobble one even during the practice games and his play under pressure has been plenty good.

Bob Steuber, has come in for the greatest raves from the scribes due to his phenomenal ability to be every place at once. He is one of those guys that do anything in the sporting line with more than a little ability although his sense of the proper angle when a picture is being taken or what will be of news value concerning himself is more than uncanny.

His play for the baseball team has been heads-up, and timely. We haven't seen much of Walters, looked once at Galpin and were impressed.

To a great extent Ken was overshadowed by the success of Bob Raniszewski who left several weeks ago. Perhaps if Galpin could have gotten out a little bit more, more would have come from his stay at the local base.

A spectre walked into the newsroom last night, handed me a box score, and walked out again. The mysterious score showed that the Co. B beat Co. A, medals against dents.

We take this to be the first game in the newly opened season. Well, we shall duly report to you our findings after a survey of the box-scores.

Boston Red Sox Spill World Champs By 9th Frame Homer

BOSTON (AP)—Just as darkness threatened to enforce a deadlock, catcher Roy Partee bashed out his first homer of the season in the ninth inning last night to give the Boston Red Sox an 8-7 win over the slumping New York Yankees in a twilight game.

While going down to the ninth defeat in their last 11 starts, the Yankees wiped out 6-0 and 7-6 leads, only to be held in check by the veteran Mike Ryba, who relieved Pinky Woods on the Boston mound with none out in the fourth frame.

Partee's game-winning blow was the 27th homer registered against the Yankees this season.

Michigan Heavy Favorite In Big 10 Baseball

CHICAGO (AP)—Michigan is a heavy favorite to wrap up its eighth Big Ten championship of the school year Saturday when the Wolverine baseball team closes conference play with a double-header against Purdue at Ann Arbor.

Coach Ray Fisher's classy aggregation has rolled up six straight victories over Iowa, Ohio State and Indiana to lead the loop as the only unbeaten entry.

He was 34 years old when he joined up, and although he had a remarkable season with the Dodgers in 1942, winning 15 games while losing four, he knew he was nearing the end of a major league pitching trail that had started with Pittsburgh in 1929.

1944 Intersection Football Scheduled

NEW YORK (AP)—Intersection football games, glamour dates of the pre-war schedules, are making a return appearance this fall.

The cross-country type of grid contest went into a two-year hibernation following Pearl Harbor but stages a definite comeback this season with Notre Dame, whose collection of nicknames includes that of Rambler, participating in five and Pennsylvania and Duke scheduled in three each.

Penn's program, however, is unique in that the Quakers won't leave their home gridiron all season. Duke comes to Franklin field on Sept. 30, William & Mary is there on Oct. 14 and Michigan visits the same scene on Nov. 4. On the remaining fall Saturdays Penn is at home to eastern elevens.

Notre Dame's travel schedule puts it in Boston for a struggle with Dartmouth on Oct. 14, in Baltimore for the navy game on Nov. 4, in New York Nov. 11 for Army and at Atlanta for the game with Georgia Tech on Nov. 25. In addition, Tulane comes to South Bend, Ind., on Oct. 7.

Army and Duke collide in a New York City stadium on Oct. 28.

Not all the traveling will be confined to the eastern sector. Texas Christian comes north to Kansas City for a game Sept. 23 with the University of Kansas and Texas A & M crosses over to Miami, Fla., for a Dec. 8 clash with Miami University.

Tulsa, a participant in the last two Sugar Bowl games, is the opponent of Mississippi university in Memphis on Oct. 23 and host to the IBA Seahawks Nov. 4.

Senators Tilt Athletics, 7-5

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Washington Senators pulled themselves out of the American league cellar yesterday by scoring two runs in the 11th inning for a 7 to 5 victory over the Philadelphia Athletics in their series opener.

The Senators led 5-2 going into the ninth, but the A's pushed over three runs to send the game into extra innings.

The winning runs scored on George Myatt's triple, after Jim Sullivan reached first on Irv Hall's error and Milo Candini beat out an infield tap.

Allied Officials Find Thousand Wounded Germans in Rome

ROME (AP)—A thousand wounded German soldiers have been found in the hospitals of Rome, allied military government officials said Wednesday.

More than 25,000 casualties were being treated here just before allied occupation but the Germans succeeded in evacuating most of them, it was ascertained.

The transition of Rome from a combat city to near normalcy began within a few hours after occupation, and within 48 hours soup kitchens, capable of feeding 400,000 persons were opened.

AMG health officials said there was not a single case of malaria in the city, 16,000 hospital beds were available, large quantities of coal were obtained for power and some parts of the city had electricity within a few hours.

The University of Rome, courts, libraries and elementary schools all were opened within the first two days.

It was announced that two well-known Fascist newspapers, Popolo di Roma and Giornale d'Italia had been suppressed. Others continued publication but under new editorial staffs.

Arrangements have been made for the Japanese ambassador to the Vatican, whose legal residence is outside Vatican city, to visit the Vatican whenever he chooses but his liberty is restricted to a direct route from his residence.

AMG also announced the Germans had liberated all convicts in the city's penitentiaries and jails but that at least a third of them had been rounded up.

Physician Reports—FDR's Health Excellent

WASHINGTON, (AP)—President Roosevelt's personal physician termed his health excellent in all respects last night—stirring new speculation over a fourth term nomination or a war voyage for the chief executive.

Reporting to newspapermen on a physical check-up Mr. Roosevelt underwent May 26 at the naval medical center, Vice Adm.

Ross T. McIntire, described the president as: "In better physical condition than the average man of his age."

He said the president's mid-spring vacation in South Carolina enabled him to throw off the effects of a series of winter illnesses—flu, intestinal upsets, colds, a sinus infection and acute bronchitis.

The president's weight—around 180—is "about four pounds under the weight we have always felt fine for him," McIntire said, "but he says it is the best weight he's had."

The doctor said he will keep the president on a restricted schedule if the routine can be worked out, but the chief executive is not now on as strict a diet as he was in the early spring.

He has resumed swimming occasionally and his doctor said every effort will be made to get the president into the sunshine as much as possible, particularly for the weekends.

Save for the president himself, McIntire probably has more to say than any other individual about the immediate public future of Mr. Roosevelt. Besides spurring the fourth-term talk, yesterday's report recalled recent discussions of a possible trip abroad.

Ninety-five of the graduates were members of the class of 1945, receiving their bachelor of science degrees a full year ahead of schedule because of the academy's accelerated wartime program, and the other 137 were graduated as temporary ensigns in the academy's reserve class.

The class of 1945 represented 27 states, the District of Columbia and the Territory of Alaska. There was one cadet from Iowa, whose name was not announced.

Two Army Bombers Collide Over Honolulu

HONOLULU (AP)—The death toll as the result of an airplane collision over the city today, first announced as 17, tentatively was placed at 11 after further investigation, with two other persons reported missing.

The two army medium bombers which collided normally carry crews of five men each. Police assumed that all 10 men had been killed.

Army authorities said later that only two men had been assigned to fly aboard each plane. Unless hitchhikers were aboard, they said, the two planes contained no more than four men.

Police Chief W. A. Gabrielson said seven civilians also were killed when exploding, flaming airplane wreckage struck several houses and destroyed four. Two persons also believed to have been in the houses are missing.

OPA Officials Organize New Ration Panels

"We're starting all over again," said George A. Croft, district information executive of the Office of Price Administration, who met with ten price and rationing specialists from the Des Moines office and panels of the local rationing board at Hotel Jefferson last night.

There was a general understanding that at this meeting there would be no reference to past disturbances, explained Croft, and the district officials treated the entire proceedings as that of launching a new board.

Walter D. Kline, acting district director of the OPA, was unable to attend the meeting.

Roscoe Taylor, chairman of the committee of businessmen, presided over the dinner meeting attended by 60 persons, including those who have been appointed to the new war price and rationing panels. Joe Dalley, district board operations executive, spoke to the group, giving a general outline of the duties and authority of the board and panel members.

Following Dalley's talk those who had received letters of their appointment to the rationing and price panels broke up into five groups. Highway and non-highway gasoline, fuel oil, automobile, bicycle and stoves panel members composed one group.

A second group was the tire panel. The third included price control and food panel members. The fourth was food rationing and the fifth group composed the clothing, heavy durable goods and services panels.

With each of these five groups OPA specialists met to explain the rudiments of their work. The entire meeting was carried on as an organization meeting to prepare the new panels for operation, according to Croft.

Organization of panels to conduct the various phases of the rationing and price control programs in Johnson county had been proposed to the district OPA office by the Iowa City business men's committee, with R. J. Phelps as chairman and C. R. McCann as alternate chairman of the board.

Chairmen have not yet been selected for the rationing and price panels. Personnel of the panels is as follows: food rationing, J. F. Clek, John Nash and William H. Ryde; highway gasoline rationing, James Records, Joe Shalla, J. W. Anderson, I. J. Barron and Harold Clearman of Oxford; non-highway gasoline, Rollie Work, North Lib-

Authorities See Increased Hospital Occupation

Civilian hospital occupation is the highest on record at the present time and hospital authorities expect a rapid expansion of facilities in the post-war period, according to Robert E. Neff, administrator of the University hospital.

Reasons for the expansion are two-fold, Neff said. During recent years, persons have become more educated to the need of hospitals and hospital care when they are ill.

Secondly, an important factor in contributing to the high occupancy rate may be explained by the growth of the Blue Cross hospital plan, which now has about 14,000,000 subscribers throughout the United States and Canada.

Blue Cross is an insurance plan whereby people pre-pay their hospital expenses on a monthly basis. The Blue Cross plan of insurance is approved by the American Hospital association on the basis of certain required standards such as financial stability. In order for a Blue Cross plan to be approved, these standards must be met.

Seventy-five or 80 percent of the entire university family now carries Blue Cross insurance, enrollment each member to 30 days hospitalization.

In the United States, 78 of these Blue Cross plans have been approved, and two are operative in the state of Iowa.

The present high occupancy of hospitals may also be explained by the fact that the public now has more money than ever to spend on hospital service.

Post-War Demand Seen
Because of the growing tendency for the average individual to go to a hospital when he is sick, where equipment, devices and procedure are available, there will undoubtedly be a higher demand after the war.

Hospital occupancy now is approximately 10 percent greater than during the last war.

Even now, hospitals are experiencing a need to expand their physical plants, but war shortages are preventing progress and the lack of men and building materials prohibits great material expansion.

Neff believes there will be greater demand on the part of society in general after the war so that all those who need hospitalization will get it.

It is estimated that a ratio of five hospital beds per 1,000 population in the United States will be necessary in post-war years to meet reasonable need for hospitalization.

At present, the ratio is about four or four and a half beds per 1,000 population.
