Hitler Asks for Loyalty Of Revolt-Ridden Army

Many Top Leaders Ominously Missing As Others Take Oath

Underground Reports Say Junker Generals Set Up Rival Regime

LONDON (AP)—Adolf Hitler issued an appeal yesterday for loyalty from the revolt-ridden German army, many of whose top leaders remained ominously missing from those publicly professing allegiance to the Nazi dictator and his shaken regime.

A tight official control was maintained over all information out of Germany, and virtually nothing was known beyond the Nazi version of events within the country, but in the Nazis' own picture evidence mounted that the army revolt was deep and perhaps far from being quelled.

Among many rumors springing up from all over Europe was a second-hand underground report saying that Junker generals out of Hitler's favor had set up a rival regime and called upon the German people for support, claiming the participation of "generals commanding various army groups and a number of garrisons in various towns of Germany."

Radio Atlantic

This report, broadcast by the Moscow radio and quoting the mysterious anti-Nazi radio Atlantic said the new regime was headed by Field Marshal Gen. Wilhelm Kietel, chief of the high command, Field Marshal Gen. Walther von Brauchitsch, former commander-in-chief of the German army, Gen. Franz Halder, former chief of the general staff, and Field Marshal Gerd von Bock, commander of the first army group.

On the other hand, unconfirmed reports in neutral capitals have named some of the officers, notably von Brauchitsch and Halder, as among those already liquidated by the Nazi purge.

Two full days after he first addressed an order of the day to the army telling of the attempt on his life and the abortive coup d'etat, closing with this pointed sentence:

"I know that as hitherto you will fight with exemplary obedience and loyalty until victory is ours in spite of all."

There was no official explanation of the delay in the word to the army, although Marshal Goering and Grand Adm. Karl Doenitz had addressed similar messages to the air force and navy Thursday night.

Axeman Heinrich Himmler, Gestapo chief, given sweeping power by Hitler, was reported swinging the purge knife through the army command, cutting out dissidents and installing Nazi "assistants" to each commander to insure that Hitler gets the loyalty for which he pleaded.

Swiss Report

One Swiss report said men of Himmler's immediate retinue, sped to each command, had begun a purge of officers suspected of being sympathetic with the high command rebels.

As the Nazi radio continued to claim "all now is quiet," the Moscow radio reported from Geneva that Himmler had bolstered the home army by incorporating SS (Elite Guard) detachments to keep the Reich under control.

Revolt Leaders 'Safe'

The Algiers radio said leaders of the anti-Hitler revolt were "safe somewhere in Germany" and that they included Keitel and von Bock.

As Hitler went directly to the ranks with his appeal there were no professions of loyalty from such top leaders as von Brauchitsch, Field Marshal Albert Kesselring, commander of the Italian front, Field Marshal Walter von Model, commander of the Russian front, Field Marshal Fritz von Mannstein, former commander of the east, Field Marshal Karl Rudolf Gerd von Rundstedt, former western front commander, and top-flight commanders like Field Marshal Gen. Ernst Busch, Col. Gen. Lindemann, and General Schoerner.

On the other hand the Nazis did make much of the messages of loyalty from such relatively obscure leaders as Gen. Nikolaus von Falkenhorst in Norway, Field Marshal Baron Maximilian von Weichs in southeast Europe, and Field Marshal Gunther von Kluge, commander of the Normandy front.

HITLER'S CLIQUE ISN'T CLICKING

U. S. Fleet Now Has Bases to Smash Directly at Japan

Adm. Ernest King Optimistic After Visit To Mariana Islands

U. S. PACIFIC FLEET HEADQUARTERS, Pearl Harbor (AP)—Adm. Ernest J. King, commander of the United States fleet, said yesterday after personally visiting the Marianas in a visit scene, that the fleet now has the bases to smash directly at Japan, China and the Philippines.

Back from an inspection of newly conquered Saipan, the navy chief said the fleet will "take full advantage" of the advanced positions, keeping Japan puzzled as to where the blows may fall.

King, Nimitz Confer

King announced he was conferring with Adm. Chester W. Nimitz, commander in chief in the Pacific, on "future operations, some involving quite long range views."

King, who also visited Kwajalein and Eniwetok in the Marshalls, said that the present Marianas holdings of the Americans are roughly 1,500 miles from Japan, China and the Philippines, then added:

'Enemy Will Be Puzzled'

"One thousand, five hundred miles is considered a fair operational radius for the fleet. That is an opportunity of which we will take full advantage.

"With that sweep through a 120 degree arc, the enemy will be puzzled as to where we hit next."

Boris Karloff Enters Hospital to Undergo Spinal Operation

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Boris Karloff, film and stage actor famous for his portrayal of horror parts, entered a hospital Friday night to undergo a spinal operation to relieve arthritis.

His physician, Dr. Raymond L. Jefferies, said Karloff will be unable to work for at least a month.

Hengyang Defenders Resist Encirclement In Bitter Fighting

CHUNGKING (AP)—A Chinese communique said last night that embattled Hengyang's garrison still was holding out against encircling Japanese in some of the most bitter fighting in seven years of war.

Almost a month after the Japanese laid siege to this Hunan province railway city in their attempt to seal China off from American help from the east, the Chinese said their forces had made some progress in fighting on the outer defenses.

The war bulletin also asserted Japanese forces battling north of Canton in an attempt to join those around Hengyang had been unable to score further advances.

Submarine Missing In Action

WASHINGTON (AP)—The submarine Trout, which snatched a fabulous treasure in gold, silver and bonds from beneath the muzzles of Japanese guns in the Philippines, has been lost in action against the Nipponese.

This was announced yesterday by the navy, which disclosed that the submarine Tullibee also is overdue and presumed lost on a war patrol.

Slipping past Japanese shore batteries and into Manila bay early in 1942, the Trout delivered badly needed anti-aircraft ammunition to American forces then fighting valiantly to hold the fortress Corregidor.

She took on tons of gold and silver for the return trip, along with millions of dollars worth of negotiable securities. For that trip beneath the Japanese guns all members of the Trout's crew won the Silver Star.

The Trout won a presidential unit citation in May, 1943, for having sunk 43,200 tons of Japanese shipping and damaged many other enemy ships including an aircraft carrier.

Commanding the Trout on her last war patrol was Lieut. Comdr. Albert H. Clark of Orinda, Calif. He and the crew of about 65 are listed as missing.

OPA Raises Butter Value to 16 Points

WASHINGTON (AP)—Price Administrator Chester Bowles last night ordered the ration value of creamery butter increased to 16 points a pound from 12 points, effective at 12:01 a. m. today.

He said the hike was necessary because "more creamery butter is being bought with red stamps at the present time than has been allocated to civilians by the War Food Administration."

Farm and processed butter will continue at eight and four points a pound, respectively.

Trade reports indicate, OPA stated, that civilian consumption is running as much as 20 percent over the July allocation of 100,000,000 pounds.

The 12-point value had been in effect since last April 30. Previously, the ration value was 16 points.

Red Army Captures Strategic Panevezys, Baltic Coastal Town

Russians Take City In Move to Trap 30 Nazi Divisions

LONDON, Sunday (AP)—Gen. Ivan C. Bagramian's First Baltic army, racing into the heart of Lithuania in an effort to trap 30 German divisions anchored along the Baltic coast, yesterday captured Panevezys, only .85 miles south of the Latvian capital of Riga on the Baltic sea.

Premier-Marshals Joseph Stalin in an order of the day termed Panevezys "an important stronghold in German defenses covering the main road from the Baltic to East Prussia." Its fall put Soviet columns within 80 miles of East Prussia, and within 40 miles of the rail junction of Siauliai, whose seizure would trap perhaps 300,000 German troops in Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania.

Reds Break Into Pskov

Russian troops 300 miles to the south toppled the rail junction town of Chelm, only 38 miles from the big city of Lublin and 200 miles from German Silesia, in another powerful drive into the heart of Poland, Stalin announced in another order of the day.

The daily Russian communique also announced Soviet troops attacking in Finland had reached the Finnish-Russian border recognized by Moscow after the 1939-40 winter war, and also said that Russian troops attacking in northwestern Russia had broken into Pskov, gateway to southern Estonia and northern Latvia.

Street Fighting

Street fighting now is going on in Pskov, the bulletin said. Thus the Germans, torn by an internal revolt in their army, also were being hammered back in broken fragments on a front of more than 800 miles.

Capture of Panevezys represented a 45-mile westward advance from Skopiskis, taken Wednesday by Bagramian's forces which cut off the German supply railway leading to Daugavpils, 85 miles east of Panevezys. The seized city is 135 miles east of the German East Prussian Baltic port of Memel.

Chelm was the first sizeable town in German-occupied Poland to fall in the Russian march toward Warsaw and central Germany. The Moscow radio in announcing its liberation played the Polish national anthem immediately after the Soviet anthem.

Racing through a total of 1,178 towns and villages, many of them great strategic prizes, eight Russian armies scored their greatest string of victories in the 30-day offensive.

A total of more than 5,000 Germans were captured; the remnants of four or five axis divisions surrounded northeast of Lwow in southern Poland. That encircled enemy group now has been completely smashed, Moscow said.

By-passing the stronghold of Lwow the Russians captured Jaroslacow, only 20 miles from Lublinsk and only 182 miles from German Silesia.

U. S. Heavy Bombers Hit Ploesti Oil Fields

LONDON (AP)—Approximately 750 heavy bombers of the United States 15th air force smashed at Romania's Ploesti oil fields yesterday bringing to more than 7,000 the total of Fortresses and Liberators which have struck within a six-day period at Hitler's staggered war plants and resources.

Even without counting the Ploesti bombing, an air force spokesman described the Sunday thrust Friday onslaught as "the heaviest blows in a single week in the history of the U. S. strategic air force in Europe."

More than 100 targets in Germany alone were hit by 6,431 heavies and 5,043 fighters from Britain and Italy, which dropped more than 16,000 tons of bombs. Yesterday's Ploesti raid probably will raise the bomb-weight total to 18,000 tons.

Battering through dense flank and numerous enemy fighters, the Mediterranean-based bombers carried out the 11th raid on the Ploesti area. Escorted by Mustangs and Lightnings and using instruments to penetrate a heavy smoke-screen, they struck their blow a few hours after a night attack by other Mediterranean-based planes of Parbudice, site of two of the largest oil refineries in Czechoslovakia.

Berlin itself was battered again Friday night by block-buster bombs dropped by swift Mosquitos—their 12 raid since D-Day on the Nazi capital.

Allies Push Ahead On Normandy Front Despite Heavy Rains

Yanks, Canadians Repulse Germans, Take Three Villages

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS, Allied Expeditionary Force, Sunday (AP)—Despite mud which bogged down fighting along much of the Normandy front yesterday, allied forces, after repulsing several German counter-attacks, struck out in two sectors, making substantial gains and capturing at least three more villages.

The allied offensives were balked at the key points eight miles east of Caen and at St. Lo by six-inch deep mud—the result of two days of torrential rain—but Americans and Canadians improved their positions at intermediate points.

Three Towns Captured

Four miles south of Caen the Canadians in morning and afternoon drives lopped off a four-sided German salient of several square miles along the Orne, taking the towns of Etavaux and Eterville and re-occupying Maltot. Earlier in the day Headquarters had acknowledged Maltot was back in German hands.

Forty-five miles to the west, just north of Periers, American doughboys drove several hundred yards across the little Seves river near the town of Seves to form a new spearhead which threatened the Carentan-Periers road below the present allied drive down the road from the northeast. The new spearhead drove to within a mile and a half of the highway.

German Losses Heavy

German counter-attacks, all of which were thrown back, cost them heavily in men and they lost at least 14 tanks.

In one attack southwest of Caen the Germans were mowed down in heaps by British machine-gunsners who coolly let their tanks slip through.

The bitter fighting—in sharp contrast to the quiet everywhere else on the 100-mile front—began late Friday and raged for two hours, Associated Press correspondent Roger D. Greene reported.

Wallace Betrayal Shocks Gallery

By Daily Iowan Staff Writer

CHICAGO, July 22—The pattern of the Democratic convention was simply that the professionals won over the amateurs.

But for Iowans the big story is that Henry Wallace, who four years ago in this same hall won an unpopular nomination and was booted until he had to leave the platform with his speech of acceptance in his pocket undelivered—this year lost the nomination but was cheered until the rafters rattled and came out of defeat something of a hero.

In his support, Democrats from Florida, Michigan, Pennsylvania, and California challenged the party bosses with some of the plainest talk ever heard in a Democratic convention. His own 10-minute speech seconding the re-nomination of Mr. Roosevelt, although not calculated to win nominations or influence bosses, established him as a fighting symbol of liberalism in the party. He is not going to have a second term, but he is going to be one of the

Three Allied Columns March on Florence; Patrols Near Pisa

Enemy Falls Back Toward Gothic Line With Artillery Duels

ROME (AP)—Three allied columns marched on Florence last night with one force less than 14 miles away, while patrols on the west stabbed to within four miles of historic Pisa and its famous leaning tower.

Two fresh German divisions were thrown into battle—a captured officer's diary described them as "slackers, cripples" and 47-year-olds—and the enemy from sea to sea still fell back toward the Gothic line above Florence and Pisa.

British Push Ahead

The greatest immediate threat to Florence was a Fifth army column which already had fought well past Tavernelle, 14 miles south of the city on inland highway No. 2.

The British army was driving up the Arno river valley on another good road in the vicinity of Sangiovanni, 18 miles southeast of Florence.

Positions Consolidated

Seventeen miles away on the southwest, doughboys seizing Castelfiorentino were in a position to strike toward Florence on a secondary road and push on north to the Arno.

A communique said the Fifth army was consolidating positions on the south bank of the Arno, where there was heavy cannonading in duels between long-range artillery and German guns in the mountain outposts of the Gothic line. Allied counter-fire destroyed several big German guns, it was announced.

Suicide Squads

Suicide squads in circular concrete pillboxes were left behind by the Germans at curves and road forks, while north of the Arno American patrols found roadblocks and heavily-mined woodland.

Polish troops on the Adriatic sector pushed north as much as three miles and made contact with the enemy four miles from the fishing port of Senigallia, at the mouth of the Meta river. They captured a number of towns, including Montemarcano.

RUSH NAZIS TO KONIGSBERG

LONDON (AP)—The Moscow radio said last night that martial law has been declared at Konigsberg, capital of east Prussia, and that Nazi troops are being rushed to the city.

The OWI yesterday quoted the Stockholm newspaper Aftonbladet as saying that a "state of emergency" had been proclaimed in Konigsberg and that fighting has broken out near the Masurian lakes between Nazi SS (Elite guard) troops and "thousands of prisoners of war" interned in east Prussia.

Jap Foreign Policy Remains Unchanged

Tojo, Ousted Premier, Placed on Army List, Hari-Kari Invitation

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
A new government under Gen. Kuniaki Koiso, former governor-general of Korea, took office in Japan yesterday and official spokesmen announced that Japanese foreign policy, especially regarding greater east Asia, would remain "absolutely unchanged."

Tojo on Reserve List

Gen. Hideki Tojo, outgoing premier previously stripped of half a dozen jobs, was officially placed on the reserve list even in the army—a virtual invitation to commit hari-kari—the war ministry announced in a statement broadcast by the Japanese news agency Domei and recorded by The Associated Press. This seemed to be drastic treatment for so young a general, Tojo being only 59.

Premier General Koiso was quoted by the Tokyo radio as saying in his first statement after taking office that "victory will be ours if we have full confidence in it, and in our moral rights." In this statement, recorded by United States government monitors, Koiso added that his aim at home would be to strengthen morale, and abroad to strengthen "both spiritual and material forces."

Navy Minister

Adm. Mitsumasa Yonai, who received the emperor's mandate to cooperate with Koiso in formation of the new cabinet, will serve as "temporary deputy prime minister" and navy minister, Domei announced.

Mamoru Shigemitsu is retained as foreign minister and assumes as well the job of minister of greater east Asia affairs and foreign office.

Yanks 13th Air Force Hits Yap on First Birthday Anniversary

ADVANCED ALLIED HEADQUARTERS NEW GUINEA, Sunday, (AP)—Celebrating the first birthday of the 13th air force, Liberators pounced on Yap Thursday and again Friday to keep that Japanese air base from interfering with the landings on Guam, 552 miles to the northeast.

The second raid occurred on the day the marines and soldiers went ashore on Guam's west coast. (Guam was invaded Thursday, July 20, west longitude—U. S. time, which is July 21 in the east longitude time belt specified in communique of Gen. Douglas MacArthur).

The big bombers, blasting at runways and dispersal areas of Yap in the western Carolines, shot down two of nine enemy interceptors the first day and six out of 11 the second day.

The Liberators pounded Yap, enemy air base, with 87 tons of bombs headquarters said in today's communique.

It was toward Yap that remnants of Japan's Guam air force attempted to flee July 7—only to be shot down by carrier planes softening up that former U. S. outpost for invasion.

Admiral Nimitz Says Americans Hold Firm Around Port Apra

Bombardments Aid Troops to Hurl Back Pre-Dawn Landings

PACIFIC FLEET HEADQUARTERS, Pearl Harbor (AP)—After repulsing two Japanese counter-attacks, American forces on Guam have made satisfactory progress and secured key positions around Port Apra, main objective on the island, Adm. Chester W. Nimitz said in a communique yesterday afternoon.

On the southern front, Nimitz said, American forces captured 875-foot Mt. Alifan, overlooking Agat town. The town is little more than two miles south of the lower sweep of the Harbor.

In the north, the Americans secured control of a five-mile road stretch between Piti town and Agana. This is part of the highway leading behind the harbor.

Northern forces also gained control of Cabras Island, a two-mile sand spit at the harbor's northern stretch, occupying half of it.

Marines Storm Ashore

Troops of the third marine division landed in the north and the First Provisional marine brigade stormed ashore at the southern end. Elements of the army's 77th infantry division landed later.

Air, naval and artillery bombardments aided the troops in hurling back pre-dawn Japanese counter-attacks on both beachheads, which were established first on either side of Orote peninsula, the land arm encircling the southern part of port Apra.

Counter-Attack Repulsed

In the north the Japanese directed mortar fire against the Yanks the first night after their landing Thursday. The counter-attack, beginning before dawn the next morning, was hurled back after sun-up.

When the Japanese thrust on the southern beachhead early Friday morning was thrown back the enemy left behind five tanks and approximately 270 dead.

The southern beachhead extends from Agat town to Bangi point.

Unit Leaders

Brig. Gen. Lemuel C. Shepherd Jr., La Jolla Calif., commands the first provisional marine brigade; Maj. Gen. Allen H. Turnage of Widewater, Va., heads the third marines, and army Maj. Gen. A. D. Bruce of Temple, Texas, led the 77th division troops.

The provisional marine brigade is composed partly of veterans from all raider battalions participating in the Solomon campaigns. They were commanded then by Lieut. Col. Evans F. Carlson, Brig. Gen. (Then Colonel) Merritt Edson and Col. Harry Liversedge.

Prof. P. G. Clapp Will Be Honored At Orchestra Concert

Anniversary Program To Feature Work By Conductor

In an anniversary program in recognition of his 25 years at the University of Iowa, Prof. Philip Greeley Clapp, head of the music department, will lead the University summer symphony orchestra in "Die Ideale" as the opening number of the concert Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock in the main lounge of Iowa Union.

"Die Ideale" is the 12th and last symphonic poem written by Liszt in his decade as court conductor at Weimar. It is based on the word poem by Schiller, in which man looks back on his past life and realizes the disillusionments he has suffered and the unfulfilled ambitions, but also becomes aware of the saving values of friendships and work.

"Concerto for Piano and Small Orchestra" (Shostakovich) is written for strings and one trumpet, with a solo piano. Kathryn Rose, A4 of Story City, will carry the solo part.

This concerto is considerably lighter than any of Shostakovich's eight symphonies. The first movement is fairly serious, the second light, airy and graceful, with a light bounding, joyous mood winning out in the final movement.

The final number, "Symphony No. 5 in D major," was composed by the conductor in 1926. This is its first performance anywhere. Besides numerous shorter numbers, Professor Clapp has composed 11 symphonies and is at work on his 12th. The fifth is composed of three movements, Moderate, Not Too Fast and Lively, Energetic. It is quite short for a symphony, playing time requiring only about 20 minutes.

A special program, with a biography of Professor Clapp by Prof. E. E. Harper, director of the school of fine arts, has been prepared for the concert Wednesday. This program will be sent to university and college presidents, heads of schools of fine arts, schools of music and music departments, colleges of music and fine arts, all former music students at the university, professional musicians and to several magazines and newspapers.

University Parties— Summer Formals a 'Must'

Service Dances

WITH THEIR ESCORTS dependent on cabs, girls nowadays have found that an 8 o'clock date for a Battalion dance may mean 8:15. Catching up on their fashion literature while waiting for their escorts last night are Carolyn Porter, A2 of Iowa City, and Marjorie Schloemer, A2 of Davenport. Carolyn, left, wears a flowered pique formal featuring a shirred bodice and gathered skirt. The flowered print is blue and red on a white background, and a red horizontal stripe borders the waist and hem lines. Marjorie has chosen a waffle pique dress with a navy blue snow crystal design. The shirred bodice and gathered triangle-shaped pockets are accentuated by decorative bows of navy blue.

"Long dress parties," the serviceman's delight, are so numerous this summer that a summer formal has become a "must" in the wardrobe of every S. U. I. co-ed.

Formals of fluffly chiffons, gay chintzes and simple piques bedecked milady as she attends the navy battalion dances. A. S. T. P. dances and all-university parties. A summer zephyr personified is BETTY DENKMANN, C3 of Davenport, in her gown of white marquisette. It features a fitted lace bodice with an inserted marquisette yoke edged with a lace fringe. The full double-layer skirt and full bishop sleeves are also of marquisette.

LYNN SNYDER, A4 of Toledo, Ohio, steps out in a lush royal blue pique with a low sweetheart neckline and short sleeves trimmed with a scallop. The gown is fitted as far to the hip line and then flares into a full gored skirt. An all-over design is created by white braid applique.

Cool and feminine-looking is JEAN WILSON, A2 of Traer, in her formal of white organdie with a fitted bodice and full gathered skirt. A shimmering flower pattern is woven into the material which is accented by gold sequins on the straps and around the shoulder line. Jean carries out the effect with gold slippers and gold and rhinestone earrings.

The favorite of SARA JANE PECK, A3 of Marshalltown, is her unusual red and white striped cotton formal. The stripes run vertically on the gathered bodice and waist band, but horizontally on the full gored skirt. The shoulder straps and square neckline are of white pique. The ensemble is completed by a white pique bolero which features a big sailor collar in matching striped material and red stripes bordering the short sleeves. Three buttons in the shape of stars add further trim down the front. To complete the costume

Boswell's mother, Mrs. Ted Boswell, who is en route to Washington after a month's visit here.

Visiting Myrtle Keeley, 1190 E. Court street, is Mrs. Louise Anderson, instructor in St. Catherine's school at Davenport and a graduate of the University of Iowa.

Civil War Veterans, Five Affiliated Groups Plan Encampment

Total Attendance Of 2,000 Expected At Des Moines

DES MOINES (AP)—Plans for the national encampment here Sept. 10-15 of veterans of the Civil War and members of five affiliated organizations were announced yesterday by Katharine R. A. Flood, national secretary of the Grand Army of the Republic.

A total attendance of between 2,000 and 2,500 persons for the combined gathering is expected, according to Miss Flood, but perhaps not more than 15 of 20 of the "boys in blue" will be here.

Average Age 99

The average age of the few remaining war veterans is 99. George H. Jones of Augusta, Me., the national commander, is 94, having been only 15 when Lee surrendered at Appomattox.

Thirty of the veterans attended last year's national encampment at Milwaukee.

Marine Corps Band

As was the case six years ago, the last time the national G. A. R. encampment was held in Des Moines, the 85-piece United States Marine Corps band is expected to be an outstanding feature of this year's gathering. Congress has passed and President Roosevelt has signed a resolution assuring the band's presence, Miss Flood stated.

Plans are being made for the band to give a public concert at Drake stadium, in addition to its numerous appearances at convention sessions.

78th Encampment

This will be the 78th annual encampment for the G. A. R., and probably the last formal gathering of the veterans themselves. Action may be taken at the meeting to close up the affairs of the Grand Army of the Republic, although the affiliated organizations would go on holding a joint convention from year to year.

The women's relief corps will be holding its 62nd national convention this year. For the ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic, it will be the 58th convention, and for the Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War it will be the 54th.

Customary Parade
The Sons of Union Veterans will be meeting for the 63rd year and the auxiliary of the Sons of Union Veterans will be holding its 58th meeting.

There will be the customary parade. Guy A. Logan, former adjutant general of Iowa, and Brig. Gen. Charles H. Grahl, present adjutant general, are in charge of encampment arrangements.

The 1943 Iowa legislature appropriated $5,000 toward the expenses of the encampment.

Previous national G. A. R. encampments in Des Moines were in 1922, 1926, 1931 and 1938.

Riverside Residents Hospitalized Here

Several residents of near Riverside, injured in accidents and hospitalized here, are making satisfactory progress, the hospitals announce.

Betty Novy, severely burned while she helped in the spraying of a chicken house at the Novy farm, is in one hospital. In another are Edwin and Bertha Kron, of Riverside, and Gwendolyn Michel and Leda Glaspy, of Hills, injured when the Kron car skidded on gravel near Riverside.

Saturday, last all-university dance of the summer session.

Artist to Be Present At Unveiling of Three Paintings at 4 P. M.

This afternoon at 4 o'clock in the main lounge of Iowa Union, friends and all interested persons are invited to attend the unveiling of the three paintings of Eve Drewelowe Van Ek, artist, who attended the University in 1923 and obtained her M.A. degree in fine arts from the university in 1924. The artist will be present for the unveiling.

The paintings to be presented, an which will become part of the university gallery, are "Sawtooth Skyline," "Crug; Chink; Chasm" and "Monsieur Poinsett."

Eve Van Ek used one of her original paintings as a partial fulfillment of the requirements when getting her M.A. degree. She was the first student here to receive such a degree in fine arts.

The Van Ek paintings are done in watercolor, ink brush drawings or lithograph crayon effects. Most characteristic of her work are mountain-scapes, and character and figure studies of deck passengers, people on streets, park loungers and flower studies. She says she loves flower paintings as "They lend themselves to riotous color and exotic design."

She has exhibited pictures in national and international shows, the New York World's fair, regional exhibits, by invitation and in jury shows. She also has had five one-man exhibitions at the University of Colorado and Boulder Art association; three at the Denver Art museum and two in New York.

The artist appreciates and is pleased, she contends, when the Salvation Army man comes for yearly discards and asks for permission to see her paintings. Considered equally complimentary by her was the tree surgeon who took care of her trees and when meeting her ejaculated, "Oh, are you the Mrs. Van Ek who paints the pretty pictures?"

Empty Truck Upsets Near North Liberty

No damage was caused in the overturn of an empty truck near North Liberty yesterday morning. The driver, Edward Barnwell of Streator, Ill., and Roger Kent of Allentown, Pa., who was riding with him, were not hurt, according to Sheriff Preston Koser.

The truck, property of the G. and D. Co. of Streator, was able to proceed on its own power. It skidded and overturned on wet grass at the side of the road.

Iowa AAA Group Personnel Changed; H. L. Dieterich Ousted

Some of the county AAA chairmen were reported to have raised the question of political manipulation in connection with Dietrich's dismissal.

Dietrich has said that he favored a farm program "free from political entanglement, which is conducted in harmonious relationship with other agencies and organizations and which is farmer administered."

In his statement regarding the change, he said that no charge was made against him but that he was informed that the shift was "in the interest of the program."

"Complete Harmony" He asserted there had been "complete harmony between the state committee and the fieldmen during the last year" and that "the relationships with other federal agencies and groups in the state had been excellent."

"This unity has been carried down into our county associations," he said. "No one denies this. I will rest this statement and my record with any county association in Iowa."

Iowa Prison Parolees In Armed Forces Have Good Records

DES MOINES (AP)—Records of the state board of parole showed yesterday that approximately 24 Iowa men with prison sentences behind them were serving in the armed forces with apparently no black marks against their behavior in the service.

One was killed in action, two have been wounded, one is a prisoner of war and another has been decorated for bravery in rescuing a pilot from a burning ship.

The board's records listed one 20-year-old youth, who while serving a term for rape, was made a hospital assistant. After about two years in the army, he has been commissioned an officer in the medical corps, the records said.

Navy Finds McCoy Tough

Sailors Play Today Against Camp Ellis On Iowa Diamond

With Lou Rochelli's resounding triple and Charley Heck's sharp single, which combined accounted for all four of the Seahawks' runs, the Iowa cadets defeated a stubborn Camp McCoy nine 4-1 at the Iowa diamond.

Scoring two runs in the third and two in the seventh the Seahawks recorded their 20th straight victory. They got two tallies in the third on Rutenbar's single, Wieland's fielder's choice and Heck's hard single. Securing their victory the cadets scored two runs in the seventh when Yamor walked Rutenbar drilled a single to right and both runners scored when Rochelli's slashing triple down the right field line.

Army Threatens Once

Threatening only in the 7th when men reached second and third the McCoy nine held in check by the mound work of Ed Wieland, former White Sox hurler.

Steady fielding of Heck and Rochelli in the cadet in-field cut off any threat the 16th infantry could put forth.

Best Ball of Season

In gaining their 20th straight victory, the Seahawks played their best ball of the season against a tough army ball club. Cutting down any threat the army could muster, the cadets at times looked like major leaguers in their play.

Today the Seahawks will be seeking their 21st straight win when they meet another army team, Camp Ellis, at the Iowa diamond. Game time 2:30.

Ryan's Homer Breaks Tie-Up To Fix Cards

BOSTON (AP)—With the score tied at 5 to 5, Connie Ryan whacked out a homer in the eighth inning with two out yesterday to give the Boston Braves a 6 to 5 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals.

The Braves got four runs off Sylvester Donnelly in the fourth after he had pitched himself out of three holes. Max Macon cleared the bases with a triple to account for the first three tallies then scored on Tommy Holmes' single.

With the Braves leading 5 to 2 in the eighth, the Cards tied the score. Hopp walked and Sanders homered. Walker Cooper singled to center, Bergamo got an intentional walk and Marty Marion's fourth hit of the game, a single, brought in Cooper.

CLEVELAND (AP)—Washington's Nationals ended their four-game losing streak and at the same time snapped the Cleveland Indians' string of four straight triumphs yesterday with a 9 to 6 victory in a free-swinging contest.

The Nats pounded Allie Reynolds, Ray Post and Joe Heving for 12 blows, including seven doubles. The Tribe attack against three Washington hurlers included Pat Seery's 10th home run and three two baggers.

A fumble by Ray Mack with two out in the second loaded the bases and led to three unearned runs as George Case cleaned the sacks with a double.

Paul Richards singled home a run for Detroit in the second and Roger Cramer, celebrating his 38th birthday, hit a two-run single in the third. Bobby Estalilla belted his fourth homer in the fourth and he and Dick Siebert each drove in a run in the fifth to tie the count. York homered in the sixth off Christopher.

Hannegan Back In As National Boss Of Party Democrats

Kelly Claims Truman's Name Not Mentioned Till Late in Race

CHICAGO (AP)—Robert E. Hannegan of St. Louis, was re-elected chairman of the Democratic national committee yesterday and immediately pledged his efforts to accomplish a welding of all factions within the party to bring a November victory to the Roosevelt-Truman ticket.

With a cash balance of $116,000 on hand but a campaign fund of $3,000,000 to be raised, the party named all of its national committee officers and heard reports that Sen. Harry S. Truman of Missouri, the president's new running mate, probably would carry on an extensive campaign while the chief executive gives most of his time to the war.

News Conference
"I'm going to find out what the national committee and the commander-in-chief want me to do before deciding campaign plans," Truman told reporters.

At a news conference, Truman made public an exchange of congratulatory telegrams with the president while, meantime, an official announcement of his second ballot nomination for vice-president showed he received 1,031 of the convention's 1,176 votes, with

Vice-President Henry A. Wallace getting 105.

"I send you my heartiest congratulations on your victory," the president's message said. "I am of course very happy to have you run with me. Let me know your plans. I shall see you very soon."

'See You Soon'
Truman replied: "Thank you, Mr. President. I am happy to be your running mate. I will be in Missouri until Aug. 1, our primary day. I am at your command and want to see you soon."

At the request of fellow-members, Truman said he would delay resigning the chairmanship of the special senate war investigating committee.

"I intend to resign, however," he said. "I do not want to get the committee into politics. I think it has much work to do yet."

Truman Not Mentioned
Apparently in an attempt to quiet rumors that Hannegan had been using his office to promote Truman, a fellow Missourian, for the second place position on the party ticket, Mayor Edward J. Kelly of Chicago told the national committee meeting yesterday that Hannegan "never mentioned" Truman's name at the beginning of the race.

Hannegan started working for Truman's nomination only after he thought it was proper to do so, Kelly added.

While the national committee met to set up the loose ends of the convention, two Massachusetts Democrats who accompanied the state's delegation to Chicago, said they were dissatisfied with the Roosevelt-Truman ticket and would campaign in New England for Republican nominees, Governor

Thomas E. Dewey and John W. Bricker.

'Rain or Snow'
The two are Joseph Lee, former Boston school committee member, and Charles H. McGhee, former state Democratic chairman.

However, the national committee meeting heard this statement from the national committee-woman from Alabama: "It may rain or snow in the south, but it won't be Dewey."

WALLACE—

him. And this story is not about who won, but how Wallace lost.

Wednesday night he went to the convention as chairman of the Iowa delegation. He was applauded for seven minutes when he entered. In fact, throughout the convention every mention of his name, every appearance, every playing of the Corn song was greeted with cheering. There was little enthusiasm in the galleries for Senator Truman.

Moment of Decision
On Thursday Wallace went to the convention platform to second the renomination of President Roosevelt. This was a moment of decision. If he had really wanted to play the political game, he would have made a conciliatory talk. But he made a fighting speech. He threw down the gauntlet to the south on the race question. He threw down the gauntlet to the conservatives of the party. The only question, he said, is whether the Democratic party is to be a truly liberal party—whether it believes sincerely in President Roosevelt's liberal policies.

The ovation was deafening. But Mayor Kelly smiled tolerantly and told his Illinois delegation it was to be Truman. Chairman Hannegan told reporters that the president had said Truman would add real strength to the ticket. Senator Truman said it was all settled; he was to be nominated.

Session Adjourned
But liberal support continued to rally behind Wallace. Thursday evening the galleries and many of the delegates started a parade and demonstration for Wallace that lasted 35 minutes. There had been some talk of nominating candidates for vice-president that night, but when Chairman Hannegan and Mayor Kelly saw the temper of the crowd they lost all interest in nominating vice-presidents. "This is getting serious," said Convention Chairman Jackson. He put a motion to adjourn. "No!" bellowed the galleries. "The motion is carried," announced Jackson.

"The Democrats sure whoop it up," said Harvey Bennett Fishman, quiz kid, who was helping to cover the convention for the Sun.

"If they had voted last night, they would have stampeded for Wallace," another reporter said. "But tomorrow it will be Truman on the second ballot."

Galleries for Wallace
Friday Mayor Kelly and the other convention took pains to see that the political action committee would not again pack the galleries. The doors were closed early, the crowd held to a minimum, the convention held in session all day in order to invalidate tickets to the evening session. But the galleries were still for Wallace.

Mayor Kelly nominated Senator Lucas. The crowd took to finishing sentences for him.

"We want..." he began. "Wallace!" the crowd boomed. "We want to go out of here with..." he began. "Wallace!" they thundered.

Wallace Demonstration
Wallace's own demonstration was noisy and enthusiastic, although it was without the benefit of music from the great organ or band. Lucas, Truman, Barkley, Broughton, all the other candidates had music, but the Wallace backers had no help except their own shouts. When Senator Guffey of Pennsylvania demanded angrily why there was no music for the Wallace stake dance he was told that Mayor Kelly and Chairman Hannegan did not want any. But the Wallace demonstration lasted 20 minutes and was the only long or enthusiastic one given any of the candidates. "There aren't enough states in line," said the professionals. "He hasn't enough strength to put it over."

Seconding speeches produced more fireworks. Senator Pepper in one of the best speeches of the day, said that the Democratic party and the nation dare not turn down this symbol of liberalism. Governor Arnall of Georgia said that rejection of Wallace would be hailed throughout the axis. Richard Frankenstein, the C. I. O. leader, speaking for the Michigan delegation, brought the gallery to its feet by a fighting denunciation of bosses.

"Do a few men in Jersey City speak for America?" he asked.

"No," roared the galleries.

"Do a few men in Chicago, in Tammany hall, in Kansas City speak for America?"

"No," the crowd thundered.

Reporters tried to recall when such plain talk had been sent out over the air from a national political convention.

Truman's nomination was duly made and seconded. There was no parade, little demonstration.

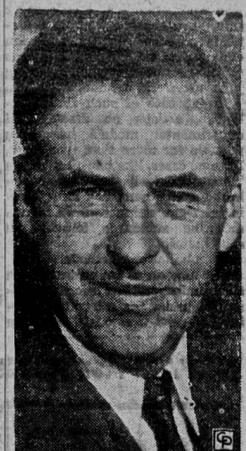

Stage Set
By late afternoon the stage was set for the final act, the voting. The big coliseum, with its red seats, its red-and-white-and-blue bunting, its klieg lights, its more than a 100 photographers and 300 reporters, was quieter. The galleries applauded every vote for Wallace, but the chips were down, and mere applause would not do the job.

When the break came, near the end of the second ballot, and Maine switched its vote to Truman, the crowd shouted in protest, but they might as well have tried to stop Lake Michigan. As soon as the verdict was clear, Iowa moved to make the vote unanimous. The chairman ruled the motion out of order, and the states kept rubbing salt on the wound, changing their votes to Truman.

Mayor Kelly was photographed holding the hand of Truman high in the air like a winning boxer's. Truman was brought forward to make a nervous little speech, and the convention was over.

Back in the Sherman, Henry Wallace received reporters with his homely grin, praised Senator Truman as a fine, liberal nominee, said that he would continue to work for the ticket, legally denied that his own rejection was a repudiation of liberalism by the party. Then he went for a long walk by the lake front. Today he came home to rest a few days in Iowa.

"I know" said my cab driver. "There was a guy. I dunno they should've done that."

Sam Rayburn, Others Trailing in Primaries

Early Returns Show Effects of Squabble Over National Issues

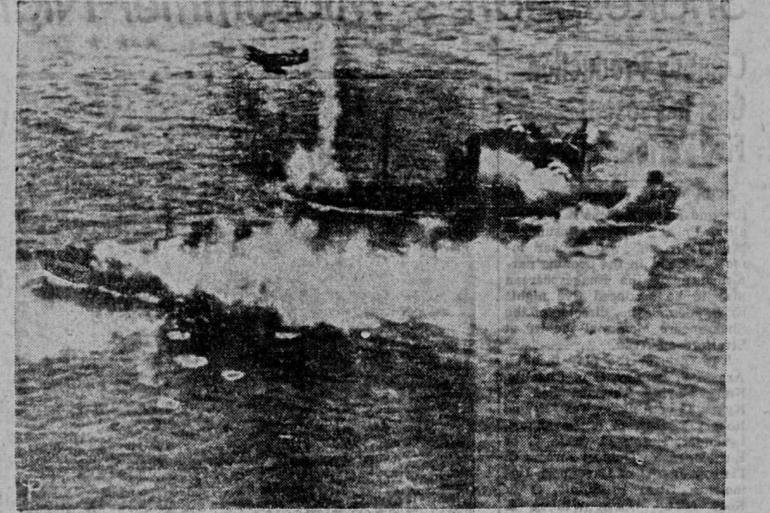

DALLAS (AP)—Five of Texas' incumbent congressmen, including Speaker of the House Sam Rayburn, trailed opponents in early returns last night in a Texas Democratic first primary election. Bucher singled and went to third place offices continued to hold good leads.

The primary, held against the background of an intra-party squabble over national issues, began the process of nominating candidates for the November general election. The second, or runoff primary, where it is needed, will be held Aug. 26. Democratic nomination in Texas usually means election.

Returns from one incomplete county in the fourth congressional district, which Rayburn has represented for 32 years, showed him with 635 votes to 645 for State Senator G. C. Morris of Greenville, and 20 for George Balch of Commerce.

The fragmentary returns in congressional races were hardly enough to establish a trend, but showed Reps. Hutton Summers in the fifth district, Joe Mansfield in the ninth, Richard Kleberg in the Coke Stevenson with 20,309 votes to 1,482 for Mrs. Minnie Fisher Cunningham of New Waverly, his nearest of eight opponents. General state races were overshadowed in interest by the congressional contests and the fight by pro-Roosevelt and regular state presidential convention factions over electors on the November ballot.

Girl Corn Detasseler Dies in Truck Accident

DES MOINES (AP)—A 16-year-old girl corn detasseler was killed yesterday when the pickup truck in which she was being returned from work struck loose gravel on highway 141 two miles north of Camp Dodge.

The victim, Lucille Littlepage, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Al Littlepage, Van Meter, was riding in the cab of a truck driven by Dean Harkins, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. V. R. Harkins, DeSoto.

Two other girls, riding in the cab, Barbara Meusburger, 16, and Dorothy Allen, 24, both of Waukegan, were taken to Mercy hospital. Miss Allen was treated for shock. Dr. A. E. Shaw, coroner, said Harkins was cleared of all blame in the accident which was termed "unavoidable."

Deputy sheriffs reported after investigation that a grader had gone north on the road a few minutes before the accident, leaving a gravel ridge.

Geological Survey Employe Receives 'Home-Front' Award

WASHINGTON (AP)—Awards to 23 interior department employes for suggestions to improve "home-front service" were announced last night by Secretary of the Interior Harold L. Ickes.

Among these were two Iowans. Claire E. Putz, Waucoma, Iowa, stenographer of the Geological survey, Iowa City, Iowa, received an award. Honorable mention went to Ruth A. Pritchard, Ottumwa, Iowa, stenographer in the bureau of mines, now residing in Washington, D. C.

Forrestal said that crews for ships, planes and bases, and men for projected operations between now and next June 30 require an additional 580,000 personnel. Approximately 197,000, he said, are expected to be made available by transfer from other duties in the naval service, and the others are required from civilian sources.

Senate Group Says Nation Will Suffer Winter Fuel Shortage

Black Market Gas Makes Heavy Slash In Civilian Supply

WASHINGTON (AP)—The senate's committee on fuel oil shortages asserted yesterday that with careful handling, mild weather and higher production of coal the national will barely scrape through the coming winter without suffering.

It said there can be no increase in civilian supplies of heating oil and gasoline until military requirements decrease.

The committee reported there is danger the Pacific coast will become a critical area for oil if the crescendo of the battle of the Pacific increases while the war in Europe is at its peak. It said strenuous efforts are being made to provide additional oil transportation and storage for the coast and recommended that steps to increase production in the Elk hills (Calif.) naval oil reserve be pushed vigorously.

The committee's annual report made public by Senator Maloney (D-Conn.), chairman, denounced the black market in gasoline coupons which it said is cutting heavily into civilian supplies and urged that efforts to stamp it out be increased.

Serious View The committee took a serious view of the coal situation and said civilian users will escape suffering only if they follow the government's request to lay in their supplies during the summer and accept available grades of coal.

"Should production continue in line with the most optimistic expectations, and should we escape an unusually severe winter, we will probably scrape through and reach the end of the forthcoming heating season with stockpiles down to an absolute minimum," the committee said.

Estimated Consumption The committee said estimated consumption and export of bituminous coal for the present heating year was estimated at 626,000,000 tons with production estimated at 610,000,000 tons while anthracite consumption and export was estimated at 42,500,000 tons which the committee said would mean a deficit of 5,000,000 tons.

It said, however, that it had

Explanation Sought For Increase in Polk County Marriages

DES MOINES (AP)—The census bureau has asked the Polk county district court clerk for an explanation of the 47 percent increase in marriages in Polk county.

The increase for the first six months of this year was shown in a recent report made by the clerk to federal census officials.

During the first half of 1944, 964 marriage licenses were issued by the clerk, compared with 656 for the same period in 1943.

Leap year might account for some of the increase, according to Deputy Clerk R. L. Ross, but he believes the jump in marriages has been brought about by the number of war brides and the present opportunity to get married without delay.

Ross explained that persons, particularly soldiers here on short leaves, can get their health blood tests, licenses and marriage ceremonies all on the same day. This is possible in Polk and several other Iowa counties having authorized laboratories.

Ross said the four states adjoining Iowa now not only required blood tests but have periods of waiting before marriage licenses can be issued.

This situation, according to Ross, not only keeps marriages in Iowa but brings in out-of-state business.

30 Iowa Counties Reach E Bond Goals

DES MOINES (AP)—Thirty Iowa counties have reached their "E" bond goal for the Fifth war loan, V. L. Clark, executive manager of the Iowa war finance committee, announced yesterday.

Twenty-nine other counties have "a good chance" of reaching their goals, Clark said.

Iowa still lacked $8,300,000 of reaching its allotted "E" bond total of $74,000,000, according to federal reserve bank reports through Friday, and it will take more than $1,000,000 a day until the end of the drive to reach the goal.

Clark said the treasury had ruled that all bonds sold through next Saturday, July 29, and remitted by banks and issuing agents on that date, would clear the bank in Chicago and be included in Fifth war loan totals.

"We have a definite will to win in the Fifth war loan campaign and with our need $8,300,000, we feel we have an outside chance to reach our goal," Clark asserted.

The list of counties reaching their "E" bond goals by Friday included Adair, Adams, Audubon, Benton, Black Hawk, Buena Vista, Carroll, Clarke, Davis, Decatur, Dickinson, Grundy, Harrison, Howard, Humboldt, Jasper, Kossuth, Lucas, Lyon, Marshall, Mills, O'Brien, Osceola, Pocahontas, Pottawattamie, Story, Taylor, Wayne, Winnebago and Wright.

Family Picnic A family picnic will take place place for members of Iola council No. 54, Degree of Pocahontas at City park Wednesday at 6:30 p. m., after which a business meeting will be held in the Woodman hall at 7:30 p. m. In charge of the picnic are Mrs. V. J. Albrecht, Mrs. John Holdt, Mrs. O. L. Rees and Mrs. Charles Ancaux.

been assured by the solid fuels administration that in no event will domestic consumers be asked to accept a cut of more than 10 percent in their receipts of solid fuels during the coming winter.

Industry Gets O. K. To Construct Models Of Post-War Goods

WASHINGTON (AP)—Industry received the go-ahead signal last night to build models of post-war goods embodying new materials and wartime improvements in design and technology.

The War Production Board action is effective at once. It is the second of chairman Donald M. Nelson's four orders—holy opposed by the armed services until last week's compromise which delayed some of the program—paying the way for ultimate reconversion of industry to consumer goods.

Forbidden Articles The permission to build experimental models, if neither labor nor machinery is diverted from war work, applies to passenger cars, refrigerators, civilian airplanes, vacuum cleaners, television equipment, radios and numerous other products, even including juke boxes and vending machines.

In the case of such flatly forbidden articles, no assembly of experimental models has been possible for more than two years. In some cases, like bicycles, WPB's "victory model" regulations allowed experimentation only within the rigid, stripped-down manufacturing standards imposed to save metal.

Limitations Removed The new order not only removes such limitations but affords priority aid under the fairly high rating of AA-3 previously available

'Hi, Chum'—Foxhole Mistake

WITH THE AMERICANS IN NORMANDY, July 21 (Delayed)—(AP)—Frederico Carlos who was born in Mexico and joined the army in San Francisco shared a Normandy foxhole with a German—by mistake. Carlos rectified it by taking the German prisoner.

A dark little man with a hair-line mustache, Carlos had fought all night helping his unit take an enemy strong point and he was tired.

"My sergeant, Edwin A. Lunn, of Rock Island, Illinois, said Hey, Carlos, I think we've cleaned all the Jerries out." The fighting son of Zacatecas in Zacatecas state related, "so I tumbled into the first foxhole I saw for some rest. After about two hours I was awakened by a cough. I said to myself 'that must be a Jerry in here.'"

"I had to think fast. Making out like some more of our boys were in there I said 'Hey Joe, let's get this Jerry.' Jerry must have understood. He came from behind a blanket which had been used for a partition saying 'Maeradoo' or something like that.

"It was an extra big foxhole fixed up for several men. It was dark in there and I hadn't noticed when I went in. This German paratrooper had been hiding so long in the foxhole that he'd caught a bad cold. After he calmed down a bit he said sorta wistful that he'd like to go to New York. I said 'so would I, chum!'"

Police Raid Dunkel Hotel; Find Liquor

Gambling Equipment With Wine, Whisky Seized Yesterday

A raid on the Dunkel hotel, 6 E. College street, at 4:30 p. m. yesterday yielded wine, whisky and gambling equipment, Iowa City police said last night.

The police found assorted bottles of wine and whisky, some opened and some still sealed. About half bore Iowa liquor stamps, but the rest carried Illinois stamps, Chief Ollie B. White indicated. There were 27 bottles in all.

The department had been watching the establishment for illegal whisky sales and for illicit gaming. White said. It was upon a search for further liquor stores that police came upon the gambling equipment, several pairs of dice and a large dice table in a basement room.

Proprietors are Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Dunkel.

The material picked up in the raid will be inspected by the county attorney, police said.

Name Chest Fund Heads

Dale Welt and I. J. Barron are chairmen of the War Chest drive to begin this fall in Iowa City.

E. J. Liechty, chairman of the Community chest board announced after a district organization meeting held here Friday.

Headed by Carl Weeks, of Des Moines, state officers of the drive used the Friday meeting to instruct local workers in means for the effective prosecution of the campaign. Each community will have to adapt the suggested methods to its particular needs, Welt and Barron believe.

The new appointees will announce their workers later, they said.
