Air Policy Conference

Washington (D.C.)—The British and Dutch are reported to have received a proposal from the United States to enter the war to establish an independent Indonesia, which is one of the positions of the United States in the Pacific. The plan, as far as the British are concerned, would be to prompt the establishment of a United Nations commission to develop Chinese developments in the middle eastern area. The United States in cooperation with the United Nations nations is to handle the line of most post-war activities which cannot be handled on the regular basis.

Labor Seeks to Liberalize

Washington (D.C.)—Organized labor is seeking to liberalize its policies concerning the extension of American governmental services into the social and economic fields of the country.

Dropped by Bombers

Washington (D.C.)—A Bomber squadron, which was engaged in a bombing run over the outskirts of Moscow, Russia, has been shot down by German fighters. The squadron, which had been reported missing, is believed to be carrying military supplies.

News Behind the News

Washington (D.C.)—The British and Dutch report that they are prepared to support the United States in its efforts to establish the independence of Indonesia.

Dick Ivies to Play for Iowa Hawks

Given 4F Classification in Draft

The Iowa State University basketball team, which will play in the NCAA tournament this year, has been classified as a 4F in the draft. This means that all players on the roster are eligible for the draft, and they will be free to negotiate with any professional team that wishes to sign them. The 4F classification is given to teams that are expected to be competitive at the highest level of college basketball.

Roccio's Homer Gives Cleveland Indians 7-6 Victory

The Cleveland Indians defeated the Boston Red Sox 7-6 in a thrilling game at Fenway Park. The Indians' star, Roccio, hit a home run in the top of the 4th inning, giving his team a 1-0 lead. The Red Sox fought back with a 3-run rally in the bottom of the 4th, but the Indians answered with a 2-run homer by Boudreau in the 5th. The game remained tight until the 8th inning, when the Indians scored 2 runs to take the lead for good. The win puts the Indians in first place in the American League East.

Ryba Foul Tips Boudreau

In a tense moment of the game, Ryba fouled Boudreau with a pitch in the 5th inning. Boudreau was hit in the face by the ball, causing him to leave the game. The Indians went on to win 7-6, and the Indians' pitching was solid throughout the game. Ryba, the losing pitcher, was hit in the face by a foul tip from Boudreau in the 5th inning. The Indians made several errors in the game, but their offensive firepower was too much for the Red Sox.

Browns Take Nats in Twelve Innings

The Cleveland Browns defeated the Washington Senators 6-4 in extra innings. The game was a back-and-forth battle, with both teams scoring on multiple occasions. The Browns' star pitcher, Woods, pitched a strong game, allowing only 4 runs in 9 innings. The Senators' offense was impressive, but they were unable to score in the final inning, giving the Browns the victory.
