Four Allied Armies Now Across Rhine

Bombers Lash Reich Capital For 33rd Night

11,000 Allied Planes Support Troops Crossing Rhine

London, Sunday (AP)—Mosquitos lashed Berlin last night for the 33rd consecutive night, continuing unchecked the mightiest aerial offensive in history which yesterday saw 11,000 planes join the assault across the Rhine in support of troops charging toward the heart of the Reich.

The huge armada, which converged on the Rhine crossing area from England and continent-based airdromes, laid a protective wall of fire in front of the allied troops.

Incomplete returns from yesterday's castigation of the Reich showed at least 53 German planes were shot down by American fighters—exclusive of the bag for last night's Berlin raid which was not yet tabulated.

The harried Luftwaffe offered only spotty opposition. Almost half of the kills were scored as the Nazis were run down like rabbits by American fighters. Twenty enemy planes were blasted out of the sky over one field from which they were trying to escape.

Announced American losses for the day were 26 heavy bombers and 14 fighters of fighterbombers. The Eighth and Ninth airforce each lost seven fighters of fighterbombers.

Twenty of the missing bombers were from a group of 240 Liberators which plowed through heavy ground fire at tree-top level to drop supplies to airborne troops across the Rhine.

The United States Eighth airforce flew about 1,750 bomber and 1,250 fighter sorties on Saturday as Flying Fortresses and Liberators bombed 16 German airfields and dropped supplies immediately after the landings east of the Rhine by the airborne army.

United States army airforce headquarters reported all Eighth airforce operations were carried out "with success" in favorable weather with crews reporting "generally good to excellent results everywhere."

Jurisdictional Dispute Causes Strike At Register, Tribune

DES MOINES (AP)—A jurisdictional dispute revolving around union affiliation of mailing room employees caused a work stoppage in the composing room of the Register and Tribune yesterday.

A statement by the newspaper management said the company was "caught in the middle" of a dispute between the International Typographical union and the International Mailers union.

Officials of both unions claimed the majority membership of the approximately 100 employees in the mailing room.

The strike spread to the composing room, which employs 112, when the printers, affiliated with the ITU, joined the dispute shortly after the final afternoon edition of the Tribune reached the street.

Byrnes Could Fix Employment Ceilings Under Compromise

WASHINGTON (AP)—A compromise which would let the war mobilization director fix employment ceilings for individual plants and freeze workers to essential jobs was approved yesterday by a senate-house conference committee.

Employers and employees convicted of willfully violating the hiring and employment regulations issued by the mobilization director—James F. Byrnes—would be subject to a year in jail or a $10,000 fine, or both.

The bill, if enacted, would not immediately affect all business.

Airborne Troops— Cross Rhine Barrier

By Alex H. Singleton
ABOARD A GLIDER TUG EAST OF THE RHINE (AP)—I saw history's mightiest air armada—officially 500 miles long—soar triumphantly across the placid Rhine yesterday, and deposit thousands of battle-toughened American and British airborne troops in the thick of an enemy defense zone plastered in advance by an unprecedented artillery and bomb barrage.

The size of the airborne army was not announced—although some said it ranged up to 40,000 men.

But from a bird's-eye view in the co-pilot's seat of a sturdy RAF Stirling transport, I saw thousands of American paratroopers spill into the air and descend to the smoke-shrouded battlefield within sight of the Rhine.

Simultaneously, gliders carrying British troops cut loose from tugs and swooped gracefully to the shell-pocked ground.

Below, only a few miles from the scene of the gallant British airborne stand at Arnhem, the flat fields of defenses which Hitler once vowed never would be breached, were dotted with multi-hued parachutes and gliders pouring out troops and equipment.

Above the air armada curved in a gigantic "U" as the stream of planes came in two abreast, methodically dropped their tows, banked in sharp turns, and soared methodically back across the Rhine.

German planes gave no opposition.

The long procession, streaming out from bases in Britain and France served as the signal to silence the smoke-screened batteries of Montgomery's big guns as the first plane nosed across the silvery Rhine.

Navy Reports Carrier Attack on Ryukyus

Assault Closest Surface Action To Jap Mainland

U. S. PACIFIC FLEET HEADQUARTERS, Guam, Sunday (AP)—Carrier planes and bombardment battleships attacked the Ryukyu islands, 300 miles south of Japan, Friday and Saturday, the navy disclosed today, battering enemy ships, planes and airdromes at four points.

Vice-Admiral Marc A. Mitscher's task force 58 braved bad weather to strike there after pounding southern Japan Sunday and Monday, then taking on the enemy's home-based airforce in sky fights which raged on through Tuesday and Wednesday.

The approach of battlewagons to within shelling distance of the Ryukyus, naval and airbases midway between Formosa and Japan, constituted the closest such surface action to the Japanese mainland.

Today's communiqué said a heavy toll, as yet not completely assessed, was taken during the sky fights of Mitscher's carrier air arm Tuesday and Wednesday with enemy planes based on Kyushu, Shikoku and Honshu islands of Japan.

Planes from Gen. Douglas MacArthur's command also have been hitting the Ryukyus.

Acting Head of U. S. Conciliation Service Confers With Lewis

WASHINGTON (AP)—The first sign of possible government intervention in the soft coal contract negotiations came yesterday when Howard T. Colvin, acting head of the United States conciliation service, conferred with John L. Lewis and Charles O'Neill, representative of the operators.

ALLIES SQUEEZING JAPS IN BURMA

ALLIED GROUND TROOPS increased their pressure on 30,000 Japanese squeezed in the 75-mile-deep pocket between Mandalay and Meiktila as fighter planes (D) slash at the enemy's major escape route from central Burma to Thailand. Operating out of newly-won Mandalay (A), British infantrymen moped up in the area south of the ancient city (B) and (C), pushing the enemy toward Meiktila which fell to the British several weeks ago, cutting Japanese escape routes to the south.

Superforts Hit Mitsubishi Engine Factory

Strike in Greatest Demolition Raid Against Japan

21ST U. S. BOMBER COMMAND HEADQUARTERS, Guam, Sunday (AP)—Superfortress bombers in the greatest demolition raid on Japan hit the mammoth Mitsubishi aircraft engine factory near Nagoya shortly after midnight Saturday.

It was estimated unofficially at headquarters that at least 225 B-29's made the low level attack on the industrial outskirts of Nagoya, which itself has been hit nine times since last mid-December by Superfort raids. Two of the former attacks, March 12 and 19, were mass incendiary blows.

Pre-raid weather reports indicated that conditions over the target would not permit visual bombing at low level.

While the incendiary raids were made by 300 to 350 planes, the previous demolition attacks have been delivered by perhaps less than half that number of Superforts. Headquarters has never stated the exact number, confining its announcements that the raids were delivered by a "sizeable force."

(Twentieth airforce headquarters at Washington said "a very large task force of Superfortresses" hit major industrial targets at Nagoya. The preliminary announcement said "today's mission was accomplished by precision bombing against specific targets.")

The Mitsubishi plant was bombed through fierce anti-aircraft fire for the fourth time last Feb. 15. It is one of the two biggest factories of its type in Japan.

With the Nakajima plant Musashino, near Tokyo, the Mitsubishi Nagoya factory accounts for around three-fourths of the Japanese airforce's combat plane engines.

High School Forensic Tournament to Be At SUI March 29-31

All types of speech activities will be included in the program of the 39th annual Iowa High School Forensic league tournament to be held at the University of Iowa March 29-31.

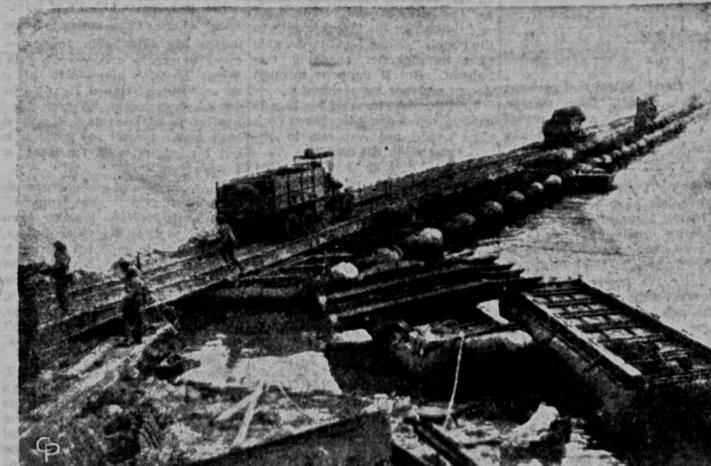

Prof. A. Craig Baird, chairman of the league, announced the qualifiers for the tournament earlier this week. Championships will be determined in two classes of debate, original oratory, extemporaneous speaking, radio speaking and interpretative reading.

Debate teams from 12 high schools, selected after four district contests, will be represented by two teams of two speakers each, arguing for the championship in the final tournament on the national high school topic: "Lowering the voting age to 18 years." Subject-matter for the five speaking contests in the tournament will be focused upon issues of the war and the home front.

Three of last year's champions in debate will defend their honors this year. In class A debate, they are Burlington high school, winner of first place, and West Waterloo, third place winner. In class B competition, St. Patrick's of Waukon, with top score in 10 of its 14 debates for 1944 competition, defends the title.

Participants in the forensic tournament will vie for certificate awards to first and second place schools in the final contests. The awards are made by the extension division of the university. Four-year scholarships in the college of liberal arts, engineering and commerce are awarded to six of the members of the debating teams appearing in the final championship debates and to the winners of first place in extemporaneous speaking and original oratory. Individual certificates of merit will be given the leading "speakers for victory" in each school as recommended by high school authorities.

Russian Forces 40 Miles From Austria

Stalin Discloses Great New Offensive Timed With Western Attacks

LONDON, Sunday (AP)—Russian tanks and infantry, smashing within 40 miles of Austria and 81 miles southeast of Vienna, have surged 43 miles across western Hungary along a 62-mile front in a great new offensive timed with the allied assault in the west, Premier Stalin disclosed last night.

The massive breakthrough in Hungary, thrusting toward southern Germany's "mountain redoubt," where the Nazis are expected to make their last-ditch stand, came as Berlin reported a savage, swaying battle raging in the Nazi capital's outer defenses 31 miles east of the city.

The Vienna-bound offensive exploded as the enemy said the Red army had built up a 17-mile long, six-mile deep bridgehead across the Oder river before Berlin and had hurled new powerful forces into the assault.

At the same time, Moscow announced that Soviet forces in upper Silesia had captured the industrial cities of Neisse and Loeb-schuetz and were probing the Sudeten mountain defenses leading from Silesia to Brno, Prague, and Hitler's Czechoslovak arsenal.

Far to the north, the battle for the twin isolated Baltic ports of Danzig and Gdynia was drawing to a close as Russian forces drove to within three miles of Danzig and less than two miles from Gdynia.

Nazi Strength at Rhine

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS ALLIED EXPEDITIONARY FORCE, Paris (AP)—Field Marshal Albert Kesselring, who prisoners say has succeeded Field Marshal von Rundstedt, as German commander in the west, is believed to have elements of 35 divisions facing Field Marshal Sir Bernard L. Montgomery's 21st army group which smashed across the Rhine north of the Ruhr yesterday.

New Italian Defense

ROME (AP)—Reconnaissance patrols reported yesterday that the Germans apparently were constructing new defense positions on the central Italian front south of Bologna.

Pressure Grows on East, West— Allies Tighten Vise on Germany

By Kirke L. Simpson
Associated Press War Analyst
The allies tightened the vise with a vengeance this weekend upon Nazi Germany.

The crushing military pressure being exerted from both east and west should bring a quick determination whether the Germans are offering a brittle shell or a hard core of final defense.

With the massive new crossing of the Rhine, coupled with the Russian onslaught east of Berlin, the final strategy pattern upon which the allies are counting to break Germany's will to fight on is emerging from beneath the smokescreen of military security.

Soon the world should know whether the Nazi war machine, bomb torn as it has been, is capable of creaking along for an indefinite time, or is likely to collapse suddenly in ruins.

Chinese Announce Loss of Icheng In New Jap Drive

CHUNGKING (AP)—The Chinese high command announced last night the loss of Icheng, Han river town 145 miles northwest of Hankow, as the new Japanese offensive in central China gained momentum.

The high command also announced that Japanese forces striking southwestward in Honan province on a 90-mile front stretching from Lushan to the Peiping-Hankow railroad town of Chumation had made further advances.

The communiqué said the Japanese advanced as much as 25 miles in some sectors of this front.

A communiqué from the United States 14th airforce said fighters and bombers had attacked Japanese troops and transport in Honan province in support of Chinese troops battling the Japanese drive.

Spain Backs Up Protests to Tokyo

MADRID (AP)—Spain, backing up her stern protest over the bayoneting of Spanish civilians by Japanese fleeing Manila, announced yesterday that all Spanish diplomatic missions abroad had been ordered to cease representing Japanese interests.

(The Japanese news agency Domei quoted Sadao Iguchi, spokesman of the board of information, in a Tokyo broadcast, as "categorically" denying that Japanese troops had committed atrocities against Spaniards in the Philippines.)

The government's announcement, which came as the new United States ambassador, Norman Armour, presented his credentials to Generalissimo Franco, said Spain also had dispatched an "energetic demand for satisfaction" to the Tokyo government for the attacks on the Spanish nationals.

Heavy Bombers Blast Formosa Airdromes

Cebu Island Raided; Shipping Attacked In China, Sulu Seas

MANILA, Sunday (AP)—Heavy bombers dropped 145 tons of bombs on airdromes and a naval airbase on Formosa Friday, raided Cebu island in the central Philippines with 116 tons, and destroyed or damaged nine freighters and tankers in the China and Sulu seas.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur said the Liberators, "continuing the destruction of the enemy airforce on Formosa," hit the Tainan airdrome and the Okayama naval airbase.

Many planes were put out of action, gun emplacements were silenced and fires and explosions were observed in hangars, warehouses and railyards.

On Cebu, the big bombers flew with attack planes and fighterbombers to attack installations around Cebu city, midway along the east coast. MacArthur said fires and explosions indicated the destruction of stores and ammunition.

Meanwhile elements of the 11th airborne division advanced nine miles south of Batangas to clear completely the shores of Bantangas bay on the Verde island passage, vital shipping lane into Manila.

General advances were reported on the northern Luzon front.

Rain Clouds to Start Breaking Up Today

Towards this afternoon this rainy condition should start breaking up. Rain is expected in the Iowa City vicinity but whether much will fall in the city is uncertain. Anyway, this afternoon the threat of rain will be over and generally partly cloudy conditions will prevail. There's a good chance of more rain this morning.

Despite yesterday's cloudiness, the mercury reached a high of 74. The low was 50. After the front of this thunderstorm area passes, it should get somewhat cooler.

Looking Ahead in Washington—

WASHINGTON (AP)—Inside story of why congressional leaders suddenly went into high gear to extend the draft law is that they think Germany may collapse before May 5, when the law expires.

Earlier plans were to allow the legislation to stay on the shelf until the last possible moment to minimize chances of amendments and changes. But it would be risky with the deadline close by.

More Armies?: Disclosure that the United States 15th army is in Europe raises the question: do we have a 10th, 11th, 12th, 13th and 14th army?

When existence of the Ninth army was disclosed, it had not yet been announced that we had an Eighth army. It was stated that the Ninth was so designated to avoid confusion with the British Eighth.

Later it developed we did have an Eighth army, in the Philippines.

Hanging On: Forecasts that the movement to consolidate some congressional committees will get nowhere are underscored by this: Members of the house rivers and harbors committee discussed merger with flood control and perhaps other committees.

Philippine Trade: State department officials have raised Philippine hopes for early resumption of trade by announcing that plans were ready to ship $60,000,000 in consumer goods to the islands.

Actually no goods have been purchased by the foreign economic administration for the Philippines. Because of shipping difficulties, it is doubtful that such goods could be sent until the last quarter of the year.

When La Guardia Broadcasts

By George Quint

NEW YORK (AP)—Promptly at 1 p. m. today, a squatty man with a mop of unruly black hair will unbutton his vest with a single motion born of long practice, yank his dark-rimmed spectacles off his forehead and strain forward over his desk like a racehorse at the barrier.

He will drum on his desk in city hall with his fingers and gesture to the director of the city's radio station to stop playing the marine hymn, nod to the announcer to introduce him, and then say, "Patience and fortitude."

That will be Mayor Fiorello H. La Guardia, sometimes known as "The Little Flower," "The Hat," or "Butch," in his "weekly talk to the people." When La Guardia gets at a microphone, anything can happen. But it happens through design and not by accident.

Last Sunday, he used his broadcast to announce that New York City would not continue to observe the midnight curfew.

Today he may have another sizzler that will evoke national and municipal reaction. He may give a new recipe for spaghetti or beef goulash. He's done that, too.

Very soon, east side stores—open on Sundays—were jammed. Listeners often have been startled to hear La Guardia say, "Betty, run in and get me such and such" or "Rube, what's the lowdown on this or that?"

He simply is addressing Betty Cohen, a secretary, or Reuben Lazarus, his legal aide, because he can't find a paper he needs on his desk, crowded with doodads.

He never uses a script—well, hardly ever. He does when he's broadcasting a Christmas message or an Easter sermon or when he wants to cite figures or technical data. As for notes, they may be bulky reports, a newspaper (unclipped) or a letter from a child or a mother.

Recently, he criticized the OPA sharply for increasing point values on available meats and lowering them on the hard-to-get cuts. Waving a steer neck bone, and describing it minutely, he said, "Why throw these away? Let them be sold. They make excellent soup."

He endorsed a substitute for potatoes a few weeks ago. "Dobros," he called them—Jerusalem artichokes. "But don't pay over 10 cents a pound," he warned.

He often speaks of his wife, Marie, and his son, Eric. "Are you listening, Eric?" he asked one day when he urged children to pay more attention to their manners.

"I don't feel well, Marie; I'll be home early," he said another time after discussing his troubles.

Gamblers are his pet subject. He calls them "tin horns," "punks," "chiselers" or "chieves"—a combination of chiselers and thieves.

At times, his voice squeaks; at times, he tries to become dramatic. Often, he leans into the microphone and becomes confidential, particularly in chastising a big corporation.

"You know what I mean," he almost whispers. Then he booms, "Cut it out!"

Right now, he's trying to get eggs sold by weight instead of by the dozen.

He admits he violates every rule of diction, and he often gets his English scrambled, but there's no mistaking his meaning.

He leads orchestras and he likes music. One afternoon after his broadcast he cleared his office, while dozens of persons waited to see him on official business. They waited an hour outside.

La Guardia was listening to an operatic program on the radio.

Ed Berwick, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce: "The United States should give its just share, but we shouldn't carry the other boys along. We're going to have to rebuild Europe, but let's not be Santa Claus."

Martin J. Sovets, farmer of Solon: "I am in favor of an additional appropriation of 20 million dollars if President Roosevelt is. I have a lot of faith in him because I think he's done everything all right so far."

Marion Ferguson, A2 of Davenport: "No, I don't think so because we are going to have enough to do in our own country to aid returning veterans financially."

Helen Oltman, A3 of Oak Park, Ill.: "Yes, definitely, because until Europe is reconstructed our trade will be limited. Our trade and the reconstruction of Europe seem to me to depend on each other."

Dorothy Hagler, visitor from Denver, Col.: "I don't think so, because we have already given our share of money for the lend lease program. I think we've also done our share by sending fighting men and supplies to the European fronts. We should at least wait until the final peace conference to decide our part in reconstruction."

Mrs. V. J. Sanders, visitor from West Liberty: "I'm decidedly against increasing the appropriation. The United States is responsible for a share of the expense of reconstructing Europe, but the other allied nations should also contribute."

Jean Stamy, A4 of Marion: "First I think an appropriation for our own rehabilitation should be taken care of and then if we have a guarantee of world organization, so that peace will be maintained, I think we should make appropriations to rebuild Europe."

Opinion on and off the Campus— Should U. S. Give More Than Lend-Lease To Reconstruct Europe?

reconstruction of Europe seem to me to depend on each other."

Henry M. Kessler, farmer of Solon: "Europe will certainly need some help. Someone has to lend them the money, and I don't see why it shouldn't be the United States. There is a lot of money being spent in this country for less constructive purposes."

Mrs. Ralph Fowler, 1023 Ginter Avenue: "I think it's a good idea. Twenty billion dollars is a huge

FDR Names Daniels Secretary in Charge Of Press Relations

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Roosevelt said yesterday Jonathan Daniels will become the White House secretary in charge of press relations.

Roosevelt is asking Stephen Early, who held the press job for years, to stay on as a White House secretary temporarily, pending the choice of a secretary in charge of appointments.

Gen. E. M. Watson, who had the appointments assignment, died on the return trip from the Yalta big three conference.

Roosevelt said in a statement that "I hope to be able by early June to name a permanent secretary in charge of appointments. At that time Steve will be free to enter private employment, in accordance with the wishes he has expressed to me."

Daniels, 42, is a former Raleigh, N. C., newspaper man. He has written several books, the best known being "A Southerner Discovers the South" and "A Southerner Discovers New England."

Student Art Salon To Open Tomorrow In Union Lounge

The twelfth annual student art salon, sponsored by Union Board, will have its opening tomorrow afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock in the main lounge of Iowa Union.

One hundred pieces of art done by students in the art department will be on display until April 2. The show will be taken down for a week and exhibited again in the Union lounge from April 9 to 19.

Everyone is invited to attend the student show and to vote for his favorite picture in each medium as the basis for popularity awards. Quality awards will also be made to the undergraduate student and the graduate student whose entries are considered best.

A special feature of the art salon this afternoon will be a talk by Mary Holmes of the art department. Miss Holmes will speak at 4 o'clock on her impression of the show and the student work exhibited.

The show includes 32 oil paintings, 31 gouache and water color pictures, 17 pieces of sculpture and 19 monochrome drawings. This is the largest student art salon ever presented at the university. Judges for the quality awards will be Prof. Philip Guston, Stuart Edie of the art faculty and Miss Holmes.

Members of the Union Board art subcommittee and some members of Union Board will act as hosts for the afternoon. Enid Ellison Cutler, G of Webster City, is chairman of the art committee. Members of the committee are Eleanor Pownall, A2 of Iowa City; Jayne Livingston, A3 of Fort Dodge; Beatrice Mintz, G of New York City; Royal Burkhardt, E2 of Montezuma; William Robinson, A3 of Lamoni; Bob Marshall, A3 of Atlantic; and Norma Ems, P2 of Saverton, Wyo.

Others who helped with the student art show are Margaret Shuttleworth, A3 of New York City, and Jean Reininga, A3 of River Forest, Ill.

Spring finery or not, you'll probably still be hungry come Easter. So how about an Easter party? Well, join the parade down to BRENNEMAN'S VEGETABLE MARKET. Pick out olives and pickles, sandwich-makings like peanut butter and jam, juicy red apples and your favorite cookies. Add a real Easter touch with colored eggs all ready for you. Make it an Easter to remember with a bang-up party and food from BRENNEMAN'S.

A ticket to Oklahoma! June Turner, Currier, is the proud possessor, and instead of the play, this ticket leads straight to Norman, Okla., where Burl Middelendorf, former cadet in Pre-Flight, is stationed.

Now the food at the Law Commons is perfectly all right, but Marge Keefe, Pi Phi, is wondering just what was the significance of this little incident that happened at dinner last week. She was sitting peacefully waiting for her dessert when one of the waiters put a paper bag in front of her. Now that was a strange time to be getting gifts, but Marge opened it anyway and up came a live chick. We're wondering if she ever did find the significance.

With Easter just a week away, we bet you're looking for a special gift for her. FORD HOPKIN'S can settle all your worries at their cosmetic counter. Stop in and look over their sets of Evening in Paris Mails Oul, or Chen Yu. That's a gift she'll always remember, and you'll always remember FORD HOPKIN'S for their wide selection of cosmetics. Make this Easter a happy one for her.

Prof. E.C. Mabie Announces Cast for 'The Searching Wind'

Play to Open April 10

Broadway Hit By Lillian Hellman Has Cast of 12

The cast for the next university play, "The Searching Wind" by Lillian Hellman, was announced yesterday by Prof. E. C. Mabie, head of speech and dramatic art department. "The Searching Wind" will be presented in the University theater the evenings of April 10-14.

Starred in the three leading roles will be Dorothy Mielke, A2 of Lansdale, Minn., as Emily Hazen; Clarence Edney, speech instructor at University high school, as her husband Alexander Hazen; and Betty Wenzel and Dorothy Stinchcomb, A2 of Muncie, Ind., alternately playing the part of the other woman, Catherine Bowman.

Reg Petty, A1 of Springfield, Mo., is cast as Samuel Hazen, with Willis Otto, A1 of Rock Island, Ill., as his understudy. Other members of the cast are Russell Lembke, G of Iowa City, as Moses Taney; Jo Weaver as Sophronia; George Reichard, A3 of Oskaloosa, as Eppler; Jerry Feniger, A1 of Davenport, as Edward Halsey; Arnon Bonney, graduate assistant in the speech department, as James Sears; Alvin Kaiser, G of Le-Grande, Ore., as Count Max von Stammer; and Ted Kennedy, graduate assistant in the speech department, as Ponette.

"The Searching Wind," directed by Professor Mabie, evolves around a triangle situation. Alexander Hazen is an ambassador who would have filled his post with greater competence had he married sympathetic Catherine Bowman, with her understanding and interest in foreign affairs. The wife, Emily, brings her friend Catherine to her home. Emily has not seen Catherine since 1923, but she knows that her husband has been seeing Catherine every summer.

A play with a thesis, "The Searching Wind" is a story of this war and its causes, as brought out through frequent flash-backs to 1922 in Rome, 1938 in Paris, and 1923 in Berlin. The flash-backs show what has already happened in the lives of these three people to bring about the present situation.

Settings for this sophisticated play were designed by Prof. Arnold S. Gillette of the dramatic art department. Bernice Prisk is directing the costuming and Prof. Huxton D. Sellman is in charge of the lighting.

Spanish Artists Present— Vivid Dances, Music

Emilio and Teresita Osta, the American pianist and his dancing sister, will present a repeat program of music and dancing tomorrow night at 8 o'clock in Iowa Union. The Ostas, acclaimed from Canada to Argentina for their mastery of Hispanic folk-music and folk-dancing, appeared on the campus last summer during summer school. Tickets for tomorrow's program are available at the Union.

The Ostas are now on a nationwide tour sponsored by the Griffith foundation. As usual during their concert tours, they have been making frequent stop-overs at such army camps as Ft. Bliss, Tex., and Ft. Hancock, N. Y.

Emilio Osta is credited with having the largest repertoire of authentic Spanish music among young pianists now making public performances. Into every one of the tours made by the brother-sister team has gone the product of years of travel and study in Mexico, Cuba, Brazil, Argentina, Uruguay, Peru, Venezuela, Ecuador and other Latin American countries.

After formal training as a pianist by internationally known music masters and study with masters of Spanish classical dancing in Mexico City, Emilio and Teresita Osta set out to study the music and festival dances of ancient tribes in the Inca civilization.

Wherever they went they learned the music and dances which bore the true flavor of the region. In Chile they mastered the cueca; in Ecuador, the pasillo; in Venezuela, the joropo. In Mexico and Central America, they learned dances and songs from the Aztecs which go back to pre-colonial days.

On one of these jaunts, the Ostas abandoned a journey to Mexico City to attend an Indian concert in the picturesque village of Tamazunchale, known to American tourists as "Thomas and Charlie." When the concert of ancient violins and primitive native instruments came to a close, the young Californians and their Indian hosts adjourned to a secluded spot to "swap" dances.

To add to the authenticity of the dances they had so meticulously studied, Teresita supplemented this knowledge with research on Spanish, Latin-American and Indian costumes to produce the colorful creations worn by the dancer. Many of her vivid costumes were presented by admirers in Spanish America, as a tribute to her skill and versatility.

Hailed by critics in North and South America as a virtuoso in his own right, Emilio has added original compositions to his vast store of ancient musical rhythms. Besides her concert appearances on such stages as that of the Hollywood Bowl and the St. Louis Municipal opera, Teresita has also reproduced her graceful dances for movie-goers.

Ames Cyclones Win 1945 State Title

Beat Muskies In Thriller

Come From Behind In Last Few Seconds To Triumph 35-33

DES MOINES (AP)—Ames Little Cyclones the "Destiny Kids" of 1945 Iowa interscholastic basketball, won the state championship last night with a 35 to 33 victory over Muscatine's Little Muskies.

Capt. Jim (Bring 'Em Back Alive) Buck literally did just that as he pulled his Little Cyclones from what appeared imminent defeat by tying the score at 33 all with a one-hand shot from the side and then broke the tie with a calm free throw with only 45 seconds to play.

Again it was little, black-thatched Charley Mason who was the Muscatine hero. Stunned in the second quarter when he was slammed into the seats along the sidelines, the scrappy forward came back to score 15 points.

Mason, the sharp-shooter of the team that won the co-championship of the Little Six conference and whose basket eliminated Ottumwa in a first round sizzler, led a drive in the second half that looked as if it would carry Muscatine to victory.

But the Ames kids, red hot tournament players, simply would not be whipped.

The Little Cyclones, off with a rush, spurred a 12 to 7 first quarter lead but the Little Muskies fought back to hold Ames to one point in the second quarter and gain a 13 to 13 half-time tie.

From there on it was a rough, rousing struggle with Muscatine holding a slight advantage, except for one instance, until Buck pulled his bring 'em back alive stunt.

Tailing at the end of the first quarter 6-10, Sioux City's Central high school team came back to defeat Storm Lake, 32-18, for consolation honors. The victory gave Sioux City third place in the title race.

Hawk Teams Battle to Tie

The first and second teams of Waddy Davis' 1945 edition of the Hawkeye baseball nine battled to a 1-1 tie yesterday afternoon in their first intra-squad full length game of the season.

Behind the pitching of Knack and Fagerlind, Team One held its opponent to five hits in the first six innings, but Calvert poled out a single off Wisniewer late in the seventh, advancing to third and home on two wild pitches shortly after, for the first tally of the game.

Team One retaliated with the tying run early in the eighth when McCord connected with a single from Hoffman, stole to third and crossed the plate on Schulz's hit.

Hitting was light, with no one getting more than two. The longest hit of the game was a three-bagger by Spencer, second team catcher, in the second frame. Team One earned eight hits and Team Two, seven, and each squad had one error.

Zulfer went the route as catcher for the first team, turning in a lot of fine backstop work. Spencer filled the Team Two catcher post admirably for eight innings, turning it over to Hull in the last stanza. Hokanson and Smith pitched the first six innings for Team Two, allowing two and three hits respectively.

Coach Davis appeared very pleased with the results of the contest. The Hawks look exceptionally strong defensively and offensively, as they go into the home stretch of practice before their opening game with Ottumwa here, April 2.

Board Approves Crowe as— Head Hawkeye Football Coach

Iowa football for the fall of 1945 took on a new aspect yesterday when it was officially announced by President Hancher that Clem Crowe, former Notre Dame star athlete with coaching experience at three institutions in the past 19 years, has been officially approved by the state board of education as the University of Iowa's acting head football coach.

Crowe spent a few days in Iowa City two weeks ago visiting athletic officials and it was rumored then that he would be the new Iowa coach, but university officials refused to comment on the possibility, other than to say that Crowe was "very interested in coaching job at Iowa."

Admitted Contract
About a week later, back in South Bend, Ind., Crowe admitted that he had signed a two-year contract to coach the Hawkeyes, but refused to name the details of the contract.

University officials then admitted that he had signed a contract, but emphasized that he would not be coach until the board of education approved the recommendation that the athletic department had sent to them.

President Hancher, in announcing board approval yesterday, said that Crowe would take over the Iowa position on a two-year contract, starting April 1 on a 12-month basis. He leaves the Notre Dame coaching staff where he served one season as head basketball coach and line tutor in football.

In his new position, Crowe succeeds Edward P. (Slip) Madigan, acting coach of 1943 and 1944, and fills in for Major Edward H. Anderson, who has been on leave of absence with the army medical

Michigan Wolverines, Miami U, Win Purdue Indoor Relays

LAFAYETTE, Ind. (AP)—Michigan's powerful Wolverines and the Redskins of Miami university, Oxford, Ohio, extended their twin domination of the Purdue indoor relays last night as they successfully defended their university and college division championships in the third annual renewal of the meet.

Michigan, scoring heavily in the distance relay events and displaying its usual tremendous team strength, collected 36½ points for first place in the university division. Miami, paced by its great hurdler, Harold (Whitey) Fisher, rolled up 48 points in the college division for a new team scoring record.

Illinois finished second in the university division with 20 points, and Western Michigan was second to Miami with 25.

Miami's victory was its third in the three-year existence of the meet. Michigan won for the first time last year. Notre Dame was the first university division titleholder.

Other finishers in the university division were: Purdue, 16½; Great Lakes 16; Marquette 10; Minnesota 9; Missouri 8; Notre Dame 6; Drake 6; Indiana 4; Iowa Pre-Flight 4; Wright Field 3, and Ohio State 1. Iowa, Northwestern and Michigan State failed to score.

NYU Defeats Bucks In Final, 75 to 60

NEW YORK (AP)—Overcoming a 10-point lead in the last two minutes to send the game into overtime, New York University last night won the basketball championship of the N. C. A. A. with a 70 to 65 triumph over Ohio State at Madison Square Garden.

Summer Practice
Crowe will call all the available football material now at the University together early in April and will later conduct four weeks of summer practice in accordance with Big Ten regulations. Iowa's 1945 schedule includes games with six conference teams and Notre Dame and Nebraska, with the possibility that one additional non-conference contest may be booked.

University officials emphasized that Crowe will be empowered to select what assistants he needs to handle the Hawkeye squad. However, they said as yet, they did not know who his assistants would be. Crowe also plans to work with Coach Pops Harrison and the Iowa basketball squad and it is likely that Harrison will help Crowe with football, especially as a scout.

Irish Graduate
Crowe graduated from Notre Dame in 1926 after three years as a football end and basketball forward. He was end on the 1924 team, which featured the famous "Four Horsemen", and captained the 1925 eleven which won nine of ten games. In 1926, he was selected as all-western basketball forward. He was the first of six Crowe brothers of Lafayette, Ind. to compete at Notre Dame between 1923 and 1939.

The 41-year-old Crowe coached from 1932 through 1942 at Xavier university of Cincinnati, Ohio until that institution abandoned athletics for the duration. Between 1926 and 1932, he was head football coach and athletic director at St. Vincent's college, Latrobe, Pa.

Xavier Record
At Xavier Crowe developed good teams from a student body with only 900 men. He was made head coach after four games of the 1935 season had been played and his complete record there includes 45 victories, 26 defeats, and 2 ties for a percentage of .633. He was also head basketball coach and director of athletics after 1935.

He came to Notre Dame in 1944 as head basketball coach and football line coach. His 1944-45 Irish basketball team won 15 of 20 games and broke Notre Dame scoring records. Crowe appeared at Iowa City, Dec. 23 when his cagers lost to Iowa and again Jan. 10 when the Irish beat the Iowa Seahawks.

Best Season in 1938
Crowe's football teams at Xavier had their best season in 1938, with 7 wins and 2 losses; and in 1941 when they won 9 of 10 games and ranked 41st in the nation. Among the opponents of the Musketeers during Crowe's regime were: the University of Kentucky, West Virginia, Creighton, Centenary, Mississippi State, Detroit, South Carolina, Georgetown university, Ohio Wesleyan and Ohio university (Athens).

The new Iowa coach is married and the father of nine children. The eldest son, 19, is in the armed forces, and the youngest is 4½ years old. Mrs. Crowe is a graduate of Purdue university and formerly was a member of the teaching staff in physics.

Paul Fagerlind, regular right guard on last year's team expressed the probable opinion of the gridiron candidates about the appointment when he said, "I, for one, am glad that the board approved Crowe. I'm looking forward to spring practice and the season next fall. We are going to be a lot tougher than last year."

Macias Loses At Dallas

Romero Macias, Iowa's Big Ten champion wrestler in the 121-pound class lost his first match of his intercollegiate career last night in the National AAU wrestling tournament at Dallas, dropping a close decision to Murray Adelman of New York.

Jim Woltz, Iowa's only other entrant in the tournament was eliminated in the opening round Friday. Woltz wrestled in the 165-pound division.

Maybe So

Hail To The Champs

By BOB KRAUSE Daily Iowan Sports Editor

WE PROMISE you that we won't mention the matter again, but, with a certain amount of braggadocio, we again "hint" that we had a hunch that Ames would be the club to beat in the state high school tournament. The way the Little Cyclones handled a desperate Muscatine crew in the closing and insane moment of last night's game was masterful.

In such tense and important affairs as state tournaments there is always a tendency for some of the young men to lose part of their sanity when things really get close and exciting. Those who manage to remain on an even keel usually come out on the long end of the score. Ames was able to do just that.

The way we heard it the moment that broke the Muscatine spiritual back came right near the end. Ames had followed a wise policy of taking the ball out of bounds following Muscatine fouls. However, at the height of the madness, the Little Cyclones elected to try for one shot after a penalty. This pause seemed to throw the Muskies completely off their game and, as the attempt was successful, the strategy worked to perfection—giving Ames the two-point edge.

The reason, if anyone should care to hear it, for our elaborate hunch concerning the potentialities of the new champs, was their terrific brand of ball all through the sectional, district, sub-state, and infinitum contests. The team seemed to be moving like a forest fire with the wind behind it, gathering momentum all the time.

Well, we doff the lid to the new champions. They won the hard way. Somebody called them the "Destiny Kids." This may be a trifle Hollywoodish, but they surely did kid Muscatine's destiny.

Ft. Wayne Zollners Win Pro Basketball Championship

CHICAGO, Ill. (AP)—The Fort Wayne, Ind., Zollners, recently crowned kings of the National Basketball league, romped away with their second straight world professional championship by defeating the Dayton Ohio Acme Aviators, 78-52, in Chicago stadium last night.

The Acmes, who Friday set a tournament scoring record as they thumped the Chicago American Gears, 80-51, scarcely gave the crowd of 15,119 anything to cheer about. From the start the Zollners broke up most of the Aviators' scoring attempts, and then rushed back down the floor to tally a goal for themselves.

Bud Jeannette, somewhat diminutive alongside the players with whom he competed, was the spark plug in the Zollner attack. Jeannette, voted the tournament's most valuable player for the second time in the seven-year history of the meet, scored 18 points and turned in an outstanding defensive game.

By BOB KRAUSE Daily Iowan Sports Editor

WE PROMISE you that we won't mention the matter again, but, with a certain amount of braggadocio, we again "hint" that we had a hunch that Ames would be the club to beat in the state high school tournament. The way the Little Cyclones handled a desperate Muscatine crew in the closing and insane moment of last night's game was masterful.

In such tense and important affairs as state tournaments there is always a tendency for some of the young men to lose part of their sanity when things really get close and exciting. Those who manage to remain on an even keel usually come out on the long end of the score. Ames was able to do just that.

The way we heard it the moment that broke the Muscatine spiritual back came right near the end. Ames had followed a wise policy of taking the ball out of bounds following Muscatine fouls. However, at the height of the madness, the Little Cyclones elected to try for one shot after a penalty. This pause seemed to throw the Muskies completely off their game and, as the attempt was successful, the strategy worked to perfection—giving Ames the two-point edge.

The reason, if anyone should care to hear it, for our elaborate hunch concerning the potentialities of the new champs, was their terrific brand of ball all through the sectional, district, sub-state, and infinitum contests. The team seemed to be moving like a forest fire with the wind behind it, gathering momentum all the time.

Well, we doff the lid to the new champions. They won the hard way. Somebody called them the "Destiny Kids." This may be a trifle Hollywoodish, but they surely did kid Muscatine's destiny.

Heavy Vote Expected in Monday's City Election

Voters to Fill 12 Offices

Van Der Zee, Teeters Mayoralty Candidates; 21 Others Run

By JOE MATHER
Daily Iowan Staff Writer

A fairly heavy vote is expected in tomorrow's city election, with interest in the campaign increased to a rapid tempo last week as whispering campaigns, rumors and rumors about rumors developed in many quarters aimed at both parties.

The polls will open at 7 o'clock tomorrow morning and close at 8 p. m. The precinct polling places are located in the same places that they were for the city primary election Feb. 26 and last fall's general election.

The voters will select officials for 12 city offices for a term of two years. A mayor, two aldermen-at-large, a city treasurer, police judge, city assessor and an alderman from each of the five wards will be elected tomorrow.

A large number of sick and absentee ballots were filed at the office of the city clerk last week. Plans have been made by candidates and party workers to assist voters in procuring transportation to the polls.

Usually 4,000 or more ballots are cast in a city election. This year the balloting is expected to be heavier than average. Party lines are often broken in city elections.

Neither party can expect to win on the strength of the party vote.

Candidates

The candidates are: For mayor, Mayor Wilber J. Teeters, Republican, is seeking reelection. He is opposed by Jacob Van der Zee, professor of political science.

M. Dean Jones, service station proprietor, and I. J. Barron, insurance agent, are the Republican candidates for aldermen-at-large. The Democratic candidates are Ruth A. Callahan of the State historical society and William A. Grandrath, employed at Means' grocery.

Aldermen

In the second ward Vernon I. Capen, proprietor of Capen Supply company, is the Republican candidate. John A. Stromsten, professional photographer, is the Democratic candidate.

Adolf N. Boeye, salesman for Bremer's, is the Republican choice for alderman from the third ward. The Democratic candidate is Charles T. Smith, senior laboratory assistant in the state hygienic laboratory.

Councilmen

Running for reelection as councilman from the fourth ward is Carl S. Kringel, secretary of the Security Abstract company. Mrs. Evans A. Worthley is his Democratic opponent.

The fifth ward Republican candidate is Roy A. Ewers of A. N. Ewers and company. His Democratic opponent is Ambrose E.

Cooper of the United States geological survey.

For city treasurer E. B. Raymond, Republican, is running for reelection opposed by Milo Novy, Democrat.

The race for police judge promises to be one of the closest in the election. John Knox, Republican, now holds the position. Scott Swisher is the Democratic candidate.

Park Commissioners
Dr. William Rohrbacher, Republican, is seeking reelection as park commissioner. The Democratic choice is James T. Aldous, proprietor of Aldous Flower shop.

Symphony, Chorus To Present Program Of Easter Music

The university symphony orchestra and chorus will combine their talents Wednesday evening for a program of Easter music at 8 p. m. in the main lounge of Iowa Union, with Prof. Herald Stark of the music department conducting.

The first half of the program will feature Bach's church cantata "Come, Thou Lovely Hour of Dying." This work was composed in Weimar in 1715 for the 16th Sunday after Trinity. The lesson for this Sunday was the raising of the widow's son from the dead.

The solo parts in this number will be sung by Katherine La Sheck of the music department, contralto, and Donald Ecroyd, G of Arkansas City, Kan., tenor.

Following intermission, the chorus will sing "Seven Last Words of Christ" (Dubois). This will be the third year that this composition has been sung at the University of Iowa during Holy week.

Patricia Miller, A3 of Iowa City, soprano; Richard Koupel, tenor, and Prof. Thomas Muir of the music department, baritone, will sing the solo parts.

The chorus is composed of 130 persons and the orchestra has 80 members for this performance. The chorus is made up primarily of students, with a few townspeople who have previously sung in the Easter concert completing the number.

PEOPLE ARE ASKING QUESTIONS

1 Why not flush dirty streets frequently?

Answer: Water costs too much in Iowa City. If elected, we plan to find a supply of cheap water for this purpose. A good well may be the answer.

2 Can't something be done about the rates charged for water?

Answer: The council alone has the legal power to regulate and fix the rates charged by all utility corporations. If elected, we shall make an impartial and scientific investigation of the facts, and work for a solution fair to the water company and to the public.

3 Do you plan to renew the agitation for a city-owned light and power plant?

Answer: We do not. That issue was settled by the voters eight years ago. But do not forget that the agitation of those years has saved the merchants $7,000 a year for electroliner lighting and saved the users of electricity in their homes, shops and stores more than $4,000 per month—a total of over $500,000. And do not forget that the courageous council which made electricity cheap in Iowa City was led by Van der Zee—now a candidate for mayor.

4 What about law enforcement in Iowa City?

Answer: As required by the oath of office, we pledge fair and impartial law enforcement for all.

5 Do you favor the reduction of taxes?

Answer: As property owners, we naturally say "yes." Your city taxes have gone up four mills during the past two years; but we remind you that the increase is partly due to your voting in favor of bond issues for a swimming pool, airport extensions and recreational facilities. We are pledged to a job of thrifty municipal housekeeping.
