U. S. Tank Columns Dash 55 Miles

Soviets Reach Frontier Of Austria

Drive 20 Miles Across Hungary; Capture Border Town

LONDON (AP)—Marshal Stalin announced yesterday that rampaging Red army flying columns, streaking 20 miles across Hungary, had reached the Austrian frontier, and the free Austrian radio said the Russians already had invaded that gateway to Hitler's southern mountain fortress.

Tearing through shattered enemy defense lines and driving within 43 miles southeast of Vienna, Marshal Feodor I. Tolbukhin's armored forces captured the border town of Koszeg, 52 miles south of the capital, and topped the key Hungarian rail city of Szombathely.

Capture of Szombathely cut a main supply and communication line between Vienna and Italy and carried the Red army within 175 miles of the Italian border. Tolbukhin's troops also won the Hungarian city of Kapuvár, 38 miles south of the outflanked Slovak capital of Bratislava, in their closest approach to Vienna.

The free Austrian radio said that Tolbukhin's Third Ukrainian army had driven across the Austrian frontier and captured several villages in Burgenland province. It was the first time that a liberating army had entered Austria since that country was annexed to Hitler's greater Germany by the Nazi-enforced Anschluss of March, 1938.

In a second order of the day, Marshal Stalin announced that Marshal Alexander M. Vasilevsky's Third White Russian army had completed the liquidation of the coastal pocket in East Prussia southwest of still-embattled Koenigsberg, killing and capturing 130,000 enemy troops in 18 days.

At the same time, Moscow announced that Marshal Konstantin K. Rokossovsky's Second White Russian army had taken 18,500 prisoners in fighting to clear the eastern part of blazing Danzig on the Baltic.

Mailers Ask ITU Members to Return At Register, Tribune

DES MOINES (AP)—The International Mailers union yesterday asked eight members of the International Typographical union to return to work in the mailing room of the Register and Tribune and assured them they would not lose any priority (seniority) rights by so doing.

The newspapers have been crippled since Saturday afternoon by an ITU work stoppage resulting from what the publishing company described as a jurisdictional fight between the ITU and IMU in the mailing room. The composing room force of 112 employees, all ITU members, joined the stoppage in sympathy with the ITU members in the mailing room.

In addition to promising the non-working mailers their proper seniority rights, the IMU said that if they returned by 8 a. m. today they would not be required to join the IMU, which claims a majority membership, until such time as the government might rule that the company's labor contract is with the IMU and that it is a closed shop contract.

Court Rules Invalid Beef Price Ceilings For Non-Processors

WASHINGTON (AP)—The emergency court of appeals yesterday ruled invalid OPA's wholesale beef price ceilings for slaughterers who produce only fresh beef. It upheld ceilings for processing packers.

In the case of the non-processors the court held the present regulation should be set aside.

It added that existing ceilings, plus subsidies, as they apply to these slaughterers as a group "do not afford adequate margin for profitable operation; indeed, do not permit this group to break even."

Along Western Front—Pattern of Attack Takes Shape

By Kirke L. Simpson
Associated Press War Analyst

Despite a tactical security news blackout virtually all along the flaming west front in Germany the broad pattern of the allied attack is beginning to take shape.

It could be seen clearly in consolidation of the American First, Third and Seventh army sectors beyond the Rhine into a single huge knife, cutting its way into the heart of the great central German plain. It can be discerned, too, now in the swift development of an encirclement threat to the whole congested Ruhr area and the difficult terrain south of it where stiffest Nazi resistance has been met.

The news blackout on the First army front was raised sufficiently to disclose that its tank columns had wheeled suddenly northward above the Lahn to leap 40 miles or more toward a junction with Field Marshal Montgomery's armies slashing eastward over the Westphalian plains. While the exact whereabouts of Montgomery's most advanced elements was unrevealed, field reports pictured their running wild in the open country around Munster. It seemed certain that Montgomery's armor was swinging southward also and that the actual gap between the First army in the south and British-American tank forces in the north was less than 70 miles.

A junction would cut off the whole Ruhr. It might completely trap many thousands of Nazi troops still deployed in that vast industrial community of overlapping, stone-built factory cities. Their encirclement probably would leave exposed a wide and virtually unmanned gap along the canal-connected Ems-Weser river line.

The northward wheel of the First army tends to verify the impression that frontal attack on the great Ruhr industrial hub was never contemplated in original allied plans. Defended even by secondary troops, it represented another Aachen or Casino on an heroic scale and the casualty cost of clearing the foe out of those miles upon miles of naturally strong defense positions must have been very great.

Instead the Ruhr valley has been by-passed both north and south. Now it is in immediate danger of being pinched off in a matter of days if not hours with minimum losses. Entrapment of so large a Nazi garrison as is apparently still clinging to the Ruhr salient could be the final knock-out blow in the west.

Superforts Strike Singapore Targets

India-Based B-29's Blast Oil Supplies; Results Not Available

LONDON, Friday (AP)—The German radio quoted a Tokyo broadcast today as saying 150 United States Superfortresses bombed Tokyo this morning. There was no immediate confirmation.

Berlin said the raiders who struck at 7:30 a. m. Tokyo time, dropped incendiaries which started numerous fires.

WASHINGTON (AP)—India-based Superfortresses struck Singapore again yesterday (March 29, Japanese time), blasting oil supplies in this strategic crossroads of the Japanese empire.

Approximately 40 of the huge B-29's made the attack, headquarters of the 20th airforce in Washington reported last night.

Singapore has been a popular target for the large planes. This is the third time this month that it has been hit. Previous attacks were made March 2 and March 12.

The brief announcement here said that results of the raid would not be available until operational reports had been completed.

Russia, U. S. to Ask Three Votes Apiece From United Nations

WASHINGTON (AP)—As the result of a secret agreement by the big three at Yalta, Russia and the United States will ask for three votes each in the United Nations assembly to be proposed at the San Francisco security conference next month.

The White House made this bombshell announcement yesterday. It immediately threatened a split in the American delegation to the conference. It seemed likely also to become a focal point of small nation opposition.

OPA Representatives Explain Regulations To Merchant Group

An 8 per cent decrease in price of wearing apparel and household furnishings will be effected within the next few weeks and months, according to F. L. Whittington of Des Moines, district executive of the price control division of the office of price administration.

Whittington and L. H. Norman, C. A. Whitebook and George McDonald, also of the Des Moines office, explained the new price regulation, No. 580, to 150 Iowa retailers and their employees at a meeting at the community building last night. The meeting was sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce.

"Some of these lower priced items are already on the market," Whittington asserted. "This regulation is an attempt to give retailers the price control they have been requesting, and assures the consumer that the saving is passed on to them."

Even the allied airforces were prevented by the weather from making their usual attacks on enemy targets in southern Europe.

There were only a few clashes between opposing patrols, interspersed by artillery and mortar fire of varying intensity.

U. S. SIGNAL CORPSMEN FOLLOW UP RHINE CROSSING

SHOWN ON THE BANK OF THE GREAT Rhine river in Germany are signal corpsmen of the United States Ninth army who are stringing submarine communications cable across the watery barrier, as they endeavor to keep the communications service up with the fast-advancing troops breaking out into the heart of Germany's Ruhr area. This is a United States army signal corps radiophoto.

U. S., British Fleets Pound Ryukyu Islands

Tokyo Says American Transports Move To Invade Okinawa

GUAM, Friday (AP)—The United States Pacific fleet, augmented by a powerful British battleship-carrier task force, poured shells and carrier planes for the seventh straight day Thursday at the Ryukyus where Tokyo said American transports are moving in for an invasion of Okinawa, 325 miles southwest of Japan.

Shortly after disclosing that British warships attacked the southern end of the island chain Monday and Tuesday, Admiral Chester W. Nimitz announced today:

"The United States Pacific fleet continued March 29 to attack shore installations in the Ryukyus with carrier aircraft and with surface gunfire."

He also disclosed that Japanese planes and torpedo boats tried to deal blows to the attacking warships Tuesday night during which four of the planes and "a number of the boats were destroyed. There was no mention of any damage to the American fleet units."

British carrier planes flying from "some of the most powerful ships in the British navy" blasted enemy airfield installations in the Sakashima group of Japan's Ryukyu islands, which stretch along the southern approach to the mainland.

The attack indicated a marked change from previous methods of supply. Never before has the British fleet used a "floating supply train" on a scale large enough to permit such a long-range operation.

News that the British task force was cooperating with the American Fifth fleet came as Tokyo reported that at least 500 carrier planes had pounded southern Japan for 10 hours yesterday. They concentrated on targets that included the Sasebo and Kure naval bases in what the enemy insisted "must be considered part of a strategic plan to support the Okinawa operation."

Rain, Fog Prevent Italian Front Activity

ROME (AP)—Troops along the Italian front remained locked in their month-old positions for another day as rain swept United States Fifth army lines and fog settled over the Apennine mountains below Bologna yesterday.

Even the allied airforces were prevented by the weather from making their usual attacks on enemy targets in southern Europe.

There were only a few clashes between opposing patrols, interspersed by artillery and mortar fire of varying intensity.

Coal Operators Fail to Accept Compromise

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Labor Perkins announced last night after a series of conferences with John L. Lewis and the bituminous coal operators that the latter had rejected her last minute proposal for a new contract.

Lewis and the United Mine Workers had agreed to Miss Perkins' proposal which dropped Lewis' 10 cent a ton royalty demand, his major bargaining point.

Miss Perkins said the case would be certified last night directly to the war labor board, the initial step toward possible government seizure, such as followed the collapse of negotiations in 1943.

The secretary said the operators had also refused to agree on a plan for extending the current agreement for 30 days.

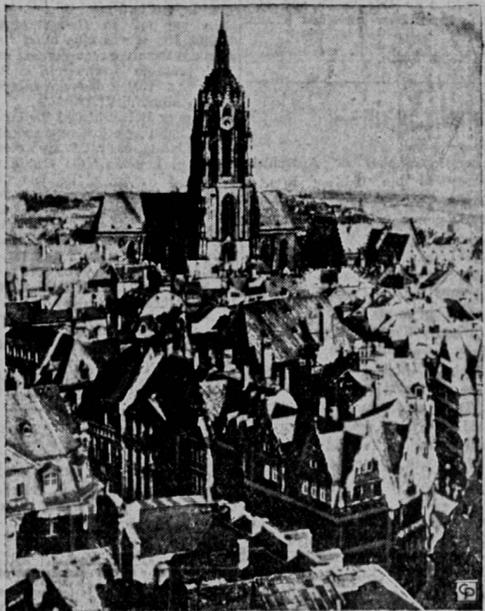

Miss Perkins revealed that she had suggested an extension with provision for retroactive payment of any wage adjustments later written into a contract.

Seventh War Loan

NEW YORK (AP)—One of the most extensive promotion campaigns in history, featuring Associated Press Photographer Joe Rosenthal's Iwo Jima flag-raising picture, will support the Seventh War Loan, May 14 to June 30, the war advertising council said yesterday.

The council said campaign material has been developed in cooperation with the treasury department and office of war information in the expectation that advertising contributed by business during the drive would top the $25,264,329 worth of contributed space and time during the Sixth War Loan.

PATTON'S MEN CAPTURE FRANKFURT

FRANKFURT-ON-MAIN, Germany's ninth largest city, was reported captured yesterday by Lieut. Gen. George S. Patton's Third Army forces in their sweep toward Berlin. The above picture shows a view of part of the city which is the center of Nazi air industry and in normal times has a population of approximately 546,000.

Roosevelt Warned Manpower Bill Faces Strong Senate Debate

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two top-flight administration senators told President Roosevelt yesterday the manpower control bill is in for "a real fight" in the senate.

Majority Leader Barkley and Senator Thomas (D, Utah), leader of senate forces backing the compromise bill, made no attempt to hide from the chief executive the obvious fact that the bill, passage of which he urged Wednesday, is in a very shaky condition.

"We just reviewed the general situation with him, and I told him there was a real fight on," Barkley informed reporters.

The bill which voted the house by a scant seven votes and has been before the senate two full days would authorize War Mobilization Director James F. Byrnes to freeze any or all workers to their jobs, prescribe employment ceilings for individual plants, and regulate or prohibit hiring of new workers, all under penalty of a year in jail or $10,000 fine.

War's Casualties Pass Civil War Total

WASHINGTON (AP)—World War II has now taken the lives of more American men in combat than the Civil war, previously the costliest in the nation's history.

The army announced yesterday that 153,791 soldiers had died in battle up to the beginning of March and the navy reported its dead at 45,750.

The aggregate for the two services since Pearl Harbor is 189,541, almost 3,000 above the 186,771 listed by the army and navy as killed or fatally wounded in the Union and Confederate armies and the Union navy during the Civil war. The number of Confederate navy dead is not available here but it is believed not to exceed the Union navy's losses.

The war between the states lasted four years, while the figures for World War II dead cover only three years and about three months of fighting. The toll may still be heavier by the time the missing are accounted for.

Beautiful Weather For Iowa City Today

All the bad weather is gone now and it is going to be a beautiful day today. It will be mostly clear, a few high clouds around to make fancy patterns on the blue sky for the enjoyment of those who have time to look at them, and warmer, that is, warmer than yesterday.

Early yesterday morning it rained quite hard, 1.9 inches. The low temperature at that time was 46 but the mercury managed to reach 67 before the sun went down and cool air moved in.

OPA to Ration Baby Shoes

WASHINGTON (AP)—Beginning May 1, all babies' leather shoes will require a ration stamp. The OPA made this announcement yesterday, simultaneously with a disclosure by the office of civilian requirements that it hopes to obtain the production of 150,000,000 pairs of high-quality fabric shoes with synthetic rubber soles for adults.

The OPA action puts babies' leather shoes, sizes 0 to 4 (worn by babies before they learn to walk) on the same basis as other leather shoes. The idea, OPA explained, is to obtain greater production of larger sized babies' shoes, already under rationing.

Demand for the smaller sizes, the agency said, "has soared out of proportion" to actual needs with the result that those sizes have taken too much of the manpower and production facilities, leaving an inadequate supply of the so-called toddlers' sizes.

Senate Group Rejects Proposal for Movie, Beauty Shop Ceilings

WASHINGTON (AP)—The senate banking committee turned thumbs down yesterday on OPA's proposal for price ceilings on movies and barber and beauty shops.

The price-controlling agency also was denied the right to extend rent controls to business buildings.

Extension of price limits to such things as haircuts, fingerwaves and screen amusements had been asked by Price Administrator Chester Bowles.

Before approving the 12-months extension of the OPA act without change, instead of the 18 months asked, it was reported that members of the committee had talked "like a Dutch uncle" to OPA officials about the complaints of business over price controls.

Yank Planes Pound Japs Near Laohokow

CHUNGKING (AP)—Japanese forces imperiling Laohokow, American airbase 200 miles northwest of Hankow, were pounded from the air at a point only five miles from the city, a 14th airforce communique said yesterday, indicating the enemy had lunged forward 20 miles.

Nanyang, a Honan province town northwest of Hankow and one of the main Chinese bastions in free China's defense between the Yangtze and Yellow rivers has fallen, the communique indicated. This conflicted with other reports which claimed the city was still in Chinese hands, although heavy fighting was raging in that sector.

Ruhr Basin Cut Off From Rear

Drive Near Edge Of North German Plain 186 Miles From Berlin

PARIS (AP)—Lightning tank columns of the United States First army wheeled 55 miles northward yesterday, cutting off the great Ruhr basin from the rear and smashing almost to the edge of the north German plain only about 186 miles west of Berlin.

Running roughshod through demoralized German defenses, the hard-hitting columns knifed to a point 10 miles south of Paderborn, 43 miles almost due east of the big city of Hamm, rear door of the Ruhr. They apparently were across the Ruhr-Berlin superhighway.

This put them but 67 miles southwest of Hannover, and well out in front of the onrushing British Second army, which was driving straight east across the Westphalian plain and last was reported about 68 miles from a junction with the First army.

Third Army Advances

Simultaneously, the United States Third army lunged out 20 miles east across the mid-German plain, herding the disorganized enemy before it and rounding up 14,000 prisoners.

At last reports it was within 198 miles of Berlin, but the German radio said the Third army's Fourth armored division had driven at least 12 miles farther on and was within less than 100 miles of the border of Czechoslovakia.

The Third army captured Frankfurt on the Main, Germany's ninth largest city with a normal population of 546,000, and 45 miles to the southeast of the United States Seventh army seized Mannheim, Rhine factory city of 283,000.

First Turns North

While the United States First army wheeled abruptly north, and the British Second army—with American infantry riding its tanks—roared up from the west, German broadcasts wrote off the once rich Ruhr, greatest of the enemy arsenals.

The Ruhr, said one enemy war correspondent, was "nothing but one wide field of rubble in which the army and the Volksturm fight side by side with nothing to lose but their lives."

Associated Press Correspondent Don Whitehead declared in a dispatch from the field that the point near Paderborn was reached at 5:35 p. m. (European time) and armor was rolling on with nothing in front to hold it.

German resistance collapsed in front of this powerful sweep by the one British and two American armies, and a field dispatch said the situation had become a rout of the United States First army.

Storms Ground Allied Planes

LONDON (AP)—Driving through heavy storm clouds which kept virtually all other planes grounded, RAF Lancasters yesterday bombed a benzol plant near Brunswick in a blow aimed at stopping motor fuel supplied to the German army in the path of Field Marshal Montgomery's drive across northwestern Germany.

United States Eighth airforce bombers remained on their fields in England during inclement weather and for the first time in 45 days planes of the United States Ninth airforce were unable to make attacks on enemy targets from their advanced bases on the continent.

Yesterday ended 20 straight days of operations by fighterbombers of the Ninth, during which they flew 25,275 sorties with loss of 11 planes and played a major role in softening up the enemy for the allied armies' lunge across the Rhine.

Bad weather also shielded German bombers last night and RAF Mosquito bombers had to halt their methodical pounding of Berlin which had continued for 37 successive nights.

Falange Promotes Trouble in Spain—

LONDON (AP)—Since 1939, when the Nationalists finally won the Civil war, there have been rumormongers in Spain and abroad that "great events" were about to occur in Spain. The Germans were going to invade; Franco was about to go to war on the axis side; the allies were going to invade; and—always—Franco and the Falange had quit, were quitting or would quit soon.

The chances of an invasion of Spain as a part of general war strategy are now nil. Franco and the Falange still rule. The same men who ran Spain in 1939, 1940, '41 and '42, when the regime was violently and enthusiastically pro-German, run Spain today. The only exception is Serrano Suner, Franco's brother-in-law. Even he is only down, not out.

Contrary to reports, there have been no disorders since the Civil war in which the Spanish people proper have participated.

The people read British and American news bulletins while the press carried only Germany's version of the war from 1939 to 1943. The people waited, but now they're restless.

Last November somebody tossed a small bomb in the doorway of the German tourist office, which is housed in the national headquarters of the Falange party.

Nobody who has come here from Spain has been able to say for certain who threw the bomb which injured nobody. They say it might possibly have been Leftists. It was more probably the Germans, who suffered little damage and got much sympathy.

In February, according to Lisbon reports, two other bombs flew in part of the building housing the Falange press censorship. There again none was injured. The report most generally believed was that the Falange had bombed itself.

Why? According to residents of Spain who have arrived here recently, the Falange is hated by the army, hated by the monarchists, hated by the Catholics and hated by the people of Spain. Its only hope is and has always been its national leader, Franco.

Their self-appointed task, therefore, is to convince Franco that the Falange is the only barrier between Spain and Communist disorder.

Franco, shown proof of Communist activity in Spain, is told there are as many Falangists ready to die for a Falange Spain as there

Del Donahoo Describes—

Duties of Staff Announcer at WSUI

By JOHNNY JOHNSTON
Daily Iowan Staff Writer

The mellow voice which at midday proclaims that "Stardust Means Rhythm Rambles" belongs to Del Donahoo, A3 of Moravia, chief announcer at WSUI, whose task it is to run the program of popular tunes each noon.

"Rhythm Rambles" is getting to be somewhat of an institution," Del grinned. "It's in its ninth year and still going strong."

Fan mail pertaining to the program varies from 50 to 100 letters a week, Del added. Some include requests; others center on congratulations and good wishes.

In addition to the Stardust theme, Del selects nine other recordings from the requests sent in. Each program is rehearsed in its entirety so that it does not exceed the 30-minute limit.

Recently Del instituted the custom of saluting a different county in the state each Friday over "Rhythm Rambles." On that day he plays in order the favorite tunes as selected by residents of the county honored. So far he has saluted 12 counties, Schick hospital, the navy Pre-Flight school and the states of Minnesota and Wisconsin. The most mail he ever received was 2,500 letters from Blackhawk county.

Del transferred to the University of Iowa after attending Centerville junior college for two years. His major is speech and dramatic art. His experiences in teaching county school a year is a great help now in training cub announcers at the station.

In addition to the Rhythm Rambles show which the staff announcer always handles, Del's duties entail a daily newscast at 8:30 a. m. He also assigns announcers, writes continuity, edits news and acts as the student coordinator for WSUI activities.

"Then, too, I take care of all 'remotes,' broadcasts that take place outside of the studio, such as dances, broadcasts from the Iowa Union, music concerts, the University Sings, and Baconian lectures.

"The biggest thrill I ever had in connection with broadcasting," Del remarked, "was when I got to read a spot announcement over a national hook-up this fall when Glen Gray's band played here over the Coca-Cola show."

Del plans to continue as a mike-man after a graduation and hopes eventually to get into radio production work. His predecessor, Bill Vennell is now a WHO announcer. With that rich voice and powerful 500-kilocycle personality Del should have no trouble in finding his place in radio.

Opinion on and off the Campus—

What Is Your Favorite Form of Relaxation?

Mrs. O. G. Fais, G of LaMars: "Sleeping."

Doris Howard, A2 of Pocahontas: "I like to listen to boogey-woogy music. In fact, I like to hear just about any kind of popular music."

Ted Byrne, coal salesman of Rock Island, Ill.: "Photography is my hobby. Child portraits are my specialty. I have done more than 100 of them. The war has cut down a lot on this activity. Most of the work I do now is taking candid portraits with flash bulbs."

Von Cavros, A1 of Cedar Rapids: "Listening to radio programs, I believe, is my favorite pastime. I enjoy hearing music, especially popular music."

Louise Coons, C3 of Carson: "My favorite way to relax is to read a good book by a good fire with no one to bother me."

George Matlack, chemist of Iowa City: "There are a lot of ways I like to relax. Perhaps my favorites are reading, listening to classical music, and hiking."

Adeline Witzke, stenographer of Iowa City: "Reading mystery stories."

Phil Kantor, M3 of Los Angeles: "Right off hand, I would say that dancing is my favorite form of relaxation. I try to hit most of the dances around here."

Phil Gerber, A3 of Aberdeen, S. Dak.: "Right now the best form of relaxation I get is going to movies. I don't have much time to see movies now, however, because the end of the semester is a busy time."

O. E. Meacham, ticket agent of Iowa City: "I am almost too busy to have any relaxation. My favorite sport is baseball, but when you work seven days a week, you don't have much time to do anything."

Harvey Heaverlo, electronics worker of Oskaloosa: "My favorite form of relaxation is working with photography. I like to take kodachrome portraits."

Bob Tedesky, A1 of Duquesne, Pa.: "Listening to swing records is relaxing. If I really want to relax, however, I like to hear classical music. We have a lot of good records over at our fraternity."

Donald Dill, A1 of Mt. Vernon: "I believe that reading magazines is my favorite relaxing. I also like to hear music, commentaries, and music on the radio."

With AEF Screw News From Front

By Robert Wilson

ON THE WESTERN FRONT (AP)—The latest humor harvest along the Western Front turns up a GI who lost a tooth to enemy action—but didn't get a Purple Heart—an MP whose pocket was picked by a Nazi prisoner, and a tanker who put all his eggs in one basket.

Mrs. Ida Mae Kelly's son, who left home at (3997 Keller Road) Holt, Mich., to become a private first class in the 10th armored division, is out in front of the 1945 hardluck derby. German shrapnel knocked out one of his teeth. The medics informed him he was ineligible for a Purple Heart because the tooth was false.

What happens to policemen in old jokes actually happened to Sergt. William Fox (484 Grandview Ave.) Ridgewood, L. I., who was frisking a group of captured Germans. Brother MP's called him into the office and handed him his wallet, right out of the pocket of a slippery fingered Nazi in the prisoner's cage.

Sergt. William Shake (415 Miller ave.) west Terre Haute, Ind., was getting breakfast when the call came to arms. He put a dozen eggs in a basket, put the basket on the back of his tank, rumbled 25 miles across Germany and fired 60 rounds at fleeing German tanks. Then he stopped to resume getting breakfast. Not an egg was broken.

Two treasure hunting Pic's of the eighth division spotted a heavy iron safe in a pile of rubble. Licking their lips in anticipation, Mario Chiraco (1832 Vanduyke street), Detroit, Mich., and Pfc. Kaden (no first name given), (928 Kilsyth road), Elizabeth, N. J., attacked it for an hour with hammers, axes and crowbars.

Inside the safe they found 12 neatly stacked packages of K rations.

The 30th infantry division boys though they had nabbed a Nazi general, he was decked out in such highly polished gold and glittering braid. But grilling by Capt. Roy Avis, Council Bluffs, Iowa, unmasked him simply as a railroad station train caller overrun in a German retreat.

It may not be funny to Paris bartenders, but Brussels soon is to become the largest rest center in the European theater with the formation of the Belgian leave section commanded by Lieut. Col. Frederick Kraschel, Harlan, Iowa.

One of the attractions is a mammoth dancehall where a bar, commanded by Lieut. Victor Spence (10347 Somerset ave.), Detroit, Mich., dispenses beer, soft drinks and ice cream—with chocolate sauce.

Mud Won't Halt Reds This Spring

MOSCOW (AP)—This week will usher in Russia's annual muddy season, but it appears probable that, mud or no mud, the Red army this spring will plow ahead, mounting its big drive on Berlin.

The Red army already has opened its spring offensive against Vienna. In Germany, Hungary, Poland and Czechoslovakia, the roads are better than territory on which the Russians have fought in the past, but the main communication lines pass through sectors which in a matter of days now may be quagmires.

Soviet communication lines extend for hundreds of miles, over some of the worst roads in Europe. But for this very reason, a great amount of time and effort has been spent during the last two months, particularly by engineer and labor battalions, on the highways in eastern Russia and Poland. So, despite the war, the arterial highways through White Russia and the Ukraine probably are in better shape this spring than at any other time in the past five years.

One engineer to whom I recently talked and who had been working on the roads in White Russia and Poland said: "If the railways and Poland said: 'If the railways can keep up with the pace we've set on the highways, we'll be all right.'"

The railways, of course, are a difficult problem. The Germans, in their advance across the Soviet Union, destroyed thousands of cars. The Soviet Union did not have too many to begin with.

To get rolling stock across Poland, the Red army has had to widen the railroad gauge on hundreds of miles of railways in a relatively short time. Many hundreds of miles still have not been widened.

(Russian railways have a five-foot gauge; those in Poland and Germany are standard gauge, four feet, 8 1/2 inches.) Railway crews led by some of the best specialists in the Red army now are working frantically on this job because, no matter how optimistic the highway engineers are, the railways are superior transport in the muddy season.

Persons returning from Poland report that railway crews are working in shifts throughout the night widening tracks to accommodate the heavy loads pouring westward.

Bridges too are part of the picture. With the coming thaw, many bridges over the Vistula, Danube, Oder, Drava, Neisse, Bug and Dnepr rivers will receive a terrific challenge from waters already commencing to rise. Steel is short in the Soviet Union and not much of it is going into bridges. Roughly 95 per cent of the bridges across these rivers are made entirely, or more than half, of wood.

I am holding no brief for Germany, certainly not for Japan. I am for making them pay.

"But from the standpoint of preventing future wars, the unknown soldier tombs are nil.

"I am advocating a new kind of unknown soldier shrine, to include the bodies of an American, Englishman, Frenchman, German, Italian, Russian, Chinese, Japanese, as hostages to future peace."

Smythe takes his inspiration from Franklin, who said: "There has never been, or ever will be, any such things as a good war or a bad peace. All wars are follies, very expensive, and very mischievous ones."

Smythe contends that "the time to stop wars is before they start," and that "war memorials should not glorify war; they should promote peace." His proposal has been sent to the state department and it also was given to foreign delegates at the Dumbarton Oaks conference. He will seek to have it presented at the San Francisco security conference.

FIVE SENATORS HOPE TO ENTER BERLIN WITH YANKS

Sen. Styles Bridges (R.) New Hampshire

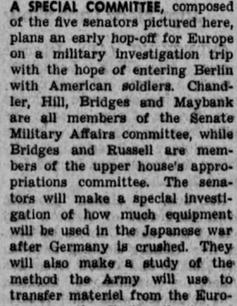

Sen. Lister Hill (D.) Alabama

Sen. Richard B. Russell (D.) Georgia

Sen. Albert B. Chandler (D.) Kentucky

Sen. Burnet R. Maybank (D.) South Carolina

Sen. Burnet R. Maybank (D.) South Carolina

A SPECIAL COMMITTEE, composed of the five senators pictured here, plans an early hop-off for Europe on a military investigation trip with the hope of entering Berlin with American soldiers. Chandler, Hill, Bridges and Maybank are all members of the Senate Military Affairs committee, while Bridges and Russell are members of the upper house's appropriations committee. The senators will make a special investigation of how much equipment will be used in the Japanese war after Germany is crushed. They will also make a study of the method the Army will use to transfer materiel from the European to the Pacific theater of war. (International)

Ted Gunderson of City High Wins Original Oratory Contest

WSUI to Broadcast Three Top Orations

Extempore Speaking, Debate Competitions To Be Today

Ted Gunderson, representing Iowa City high school with his oration "Begin Here," won first place in original oratory yesterday during the annual final contests of the Iowa high school forensic league which began yesterday continuing today and tomorrow.

Gunderson's original oratory, centered on racial discrimination, placed first in competition with seven other high school contestants from all over the state. The three high ranking orators, Gunderson; second place winner, Helen Braden of Oskaloosa with her selection, "The Tarzan Realist"; and third place winner, Arthur Davis of Central high school in Sioux City with his oration, "What's Wrong With America?" will be broadcast over WSUI today at 3 o'clock.

Debate and extempore speaking contests hold the spotlight in today's schedule which includes three broadcasts by contestants from the 22 high schools entered in the five divisions of this forensic meet.

8:00 a. m. Debate, round III, senate chamber.

9:00 a. m. Drawings for preliminary extempore speaking, board room, old capitol.

9:00 a. m. Annual meeting of the Iowa High School Forensic league, board room, Old Capitol.

10:00 a. m. Preliminary extempore speaking contest, house chamber.

11:00 a. m. Debate, round III (section 2), senate chamber.

1:00 p. m. Debate, round IV (section 1), senate chamber.

2:15 p. m. Debate, round IV (section 2), senate chamber.

3:00 p. m. Broadcast of high ranking orators, station WSUI.

3:30 p. m. Debate, round V (sections 1 and 2), senate chamber.

4:30 p. m. Debate, round VI (section 1), senate chamber.

5:30-5:45 p. m. Radio interviews, studio B, station WSUI.

7:00 p. m. Drawings for final extempore speaking contest, board room, Old Capitol.

8:00 p. m. Extempore speaking finals, studio E, station WSUI.

9:00 p. m. Debate, round VI (section 2), senate chamber.

The final round in the extempore speaking contest will be broadcast over WSUI tonight at 8 o'clock from studio E in the Engineering building.

Judges for the various contests in the final rounds of the forensic tournament are chosen from university personnel in the college of law and the department of speech. Judges for the original oratory contest were: Betty Cook, graduate assistant in radio broadcasting; Prof. F. H. Knower, the department of speech; T. R. Lewis, speech instructor; H. E. Nelson, speech instructor; and Conrad Posz, graduate assistant in the speech department.

Those acting as judges for the final rounds today and tomorrow are: Dale Dilts, LI of Hesston, Kan.; Gordon Christensen, LI of Iowa City; Warren Aekley, LI of Iowa City; Wayne Britton, G of Grandview, Mo.; T. R. Kennedy, G of Brazil, Ind.; Clarence Edney, instructor of speech and acting head of the speech department at University high school; Mr. and Mrs. David Ehrenfreund of the psychology department; McIlrath of the speech department; Donald Eroryd, G of Kansas City, Kan.; Helen Harton, G of Albion, Mich.; Arnon Bonney, G of Chanute, Kan.; Ava Smith Carmichael, G of Sundown, Tex.; William Porter, assistant in the school of journalism and Dick Baxter, graduate assistant in radio broadcasting.

At 9 o'clock this morning, officials of the league will meet with the coaches and advisers from the 22 schools represented for the annual meeting of the Iowa High School Forensic league in the board room of Old Capitol.

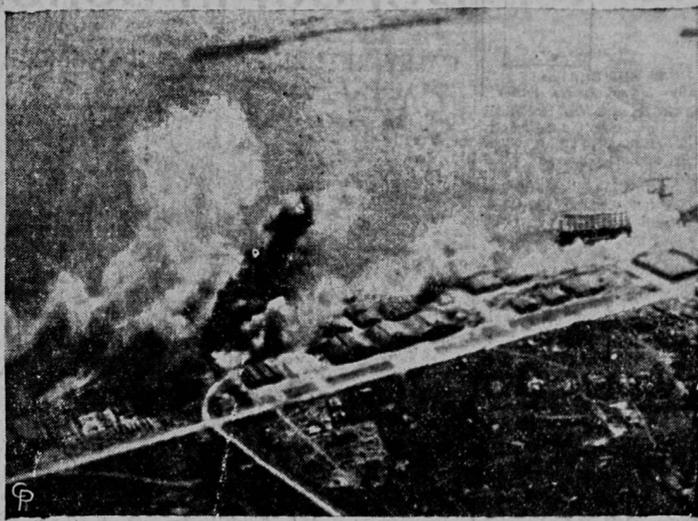

McCarty Discusses— Iowa Economy

"We can safely say that there will be no significant changes in the Iowa economy for at least a year," Prof. H. H. McCarty of the college of commerce told Iowa City Rotarians at their weekly luncheon in Hotel Jefferson yesterday.

In order to be prepared for changes in our economic structure, we must remember that the economy of Iowa is based on agriculture and the industries and services serving agriculture directly and indirectly.

The people of Europe will need to import foodstuffs for at least another crop year. "The farmers of Iowa will have to continue their expanded production for another year in order to meet their

USO Hostesses Plan Easter Egg Hunt, Roll Sunday Afternoon

An Easter egg hunt for all servicemen and junior hostesses will be held Sunday at 4 p. m. on the lawn of the USO building led by J. B. Martin, USO director, with Wanda Siebels, A3 of Amber, and Nadine Wharton as captains of the hunting teams.

Tonight a special USO committee will color 600 eggs for the hunt which will be followed by an Easter egg roll. The winning team will be presented with a three-tiered Easter cake which will be served on the lawn.

Ping-pong tables and horseshoe courts will be set up Sunday afternoon if the weather permits.

In the militarily decorated ballroom at the USO, a dance for all servicemen and junior hostesses will be held tomorrow evening at 7:30 with music provided by the public address system. A large navy anchor with streamers leading to it will be spotlighted with colored lights as the feature of the decorations which will include plaques with insignia of all navy units.

Jean Church, G of Newburn, N. C., is designing the decorations, which are not yet completed. Miss Church is an assistant instructor in the art department.

On the junior hostess central committee in charge this weekend are Jean Boehm, Alice Adair, Lillian Bauer, Maxine Belger, Shirley Clark, Josephine Cihan, Mary Cowling, Jacqueline Durr, Marion Ferguson, Helen Goodfriend, Jean Hancock, Joanna Herring, Dixie Johnson, Dorothy Metzger, Kathryn Pollock, Adelle Quartin, Pat Short and Sara Stuckey.

At the piano in the lounge, Dorothy Lowery, A4 of Mason City, will be featured at a song and jive session.

Mrs. Harriet Walsh will continue dancing instructions for servicemen and junior hostesses tomorrow afternoon from 5:15 to 6:15 in the gymnasium of the USO building.

Proceeding the Easter egg hunt, a movie, "There Goes My Heart," will be shown in the lounge at 2 p. m. The Sunday tea-dance will begin at 2:30 with music provided by the public address system.

A music hour will be held in the lounge from 4 to 5 p. m. featuring Leo Cortimiglia at the piano.

Serving in the snack bar this weekend will be members of the Servicemen's Wives' club, including Mrs. J. P. Cady, Mrs. Frances Kelso, Mrs. Ethlyn McDonald, Mrs. Jeanne Maternach, Mrs. Howard Mahoney, Mrs. Joan Carlson, Mrs. Howard Rankin, Mrs. Howard Brammer, Mrs. Lois Wiley, Mrs. Mildred Romance, Mrs. Maurine Black, Mrs. Clarence Faust, and Mrs. George Cronheist.

share of the European demand," Professor McCarty explained.

In 1940 only 36 per cent of the gainfully employed persons in Iowa were engaged in farming. The rest were working in four groups of services: supplying the farmers with machinery, fuel and other production needs; processing, transporting and marketing their products; supplying the needs of the farm family, and the service industries, recreation, education and religion.

The place in the economy and the prosperity of these persons serving the farmer all depend on his prosperity.

"In looking forward to the future we must remember these fundamental facts about our economy so that we can intelligently meet all changes which may occur but are now unpredictable," Professor McCarty concluded.

WAC Specialty To Highlight Campus Night

The Campus Night floor show tonight will feature a skit on "The Women's Army Corps," with the alternate title "The Finish of Nan McGrew." Starting in the show, to begin at 10 o'clock tonight in the River room of Iowa Union.

His appearance will mark the first known public performance of a major work for cello solo and band.

In addition to the feature solo work, the band will play numbers by Borodine, Debussy, Bach, Gounod and Delibes, concluding the concert with two lighter compositions by Romberg and Conrad.

Second act on the Campus Night show will be a quartet, composed of Patricia Miller, A3 of Iowa City; Patricia Fraher, A4 of Waterloo; Joyce Horton, A3 of Osceola and Mary Sass, A4 of Streator, Ill. The quartet will be accompanied by Melba Sands, G of St. Paul, Minn.

The final act on the program will be songs by Beverly Snell, A4 of Donnellson, accompanied by Leo Cortimiglia, C3 of Iowa City.

Prof. E. T. Peterson To Conclude Series Of P. T. A. Lectures

Prof. E. T. Peterson, acting dean of the college of education, will deliver the final lecture of the "Guiding the Citizens of Tomorrow" series sponsored by the P.T.A. council this afternoon at 3:30.

"Postwar Compulsory Military Training for All Young Men—Is It Necessary? Is There an Alternative?" will be the subject of Dr. Peterson's talk. The meeting will be held in the clubrooms of the Iowa Illinois Gas and Electric company.

Proceeding the Easter egg hunt, a movie, "There Goes My Heart," will be shown in the lounge at 2 p. m. The Sunday tea-dance will begin at 2:30 with music provided by the public address system.

A music hour will be held in the lounge from 4 to 5 p. m. featuring Leo Cortimiglia at the piano.

Orchesis Recital Annual Spring Event To Be April 4

The annual spring recital of the Orchesis honorary dance club will be given in the mirror room of the women's gymnasium April 4.

The Orchesis dance club was started on the university campus in 1921. Miss Margaret H'Doubler founded the first Orchesis club on the University of Wisconsin campus in 1921 and was an instructor here when the club was founded. The name, Orchesis, was taken from the Greek word meaning "to dance."

In addition to presenting their own programs the group has brought various dance programs to the campus. In 1934 and 1935, in cooperation with the men's physical education fraternity they presented Ted Shown and his company. In 1936, Kretzberg, a German dancer was here under the sponsorship of Orchesis and in 1937 the Humphrey-Weidman group and in 1938 they brought Honya Holm and company.

Miss Janey Price will be guest artist in the recital to be given April 4. The university women who will dance are: Helen Carroll, A1 of Atlantic; Janet McTavish, A3 of Esterville; Rose Mary Harmier, A1 of Iowa City; Gloria Huenger, A3 of Whiting, Ind.; Betty Stillians, A1 of Des Moines; Frances Carter, G of Muncie, Ind.; Carol Wellman, A2 of Moline; Gwenn Buster, A3 of Grandview; Betty Shori, A3 of Elgin, and Pat Short, A2 of Des Moines.

The committees in charge of arrangements are: Invitations, Betty Shori and Helen Carroll; costumes, Dorothy Reutner, A1 of St. Louis, Mo.; publicity, Rose Mary Harmier and Gwenn Bustr.

Clem Crowe to Arrive In Hawk Camp Today

Contract Starts Sunday, April 1

Ten Lettermen of 1944 Hawkeye Squad Still Enrolled in University

Clem Crowe, Iowa's new acting head football coach for the next two seasons is scheduled to arrive this afternoon at 5:50. Athletic Director, E. G. (Dad) Schroeder said last night.

Crowe, who comes from Notre Dame where he has been head basketball coach and assistant line coach in football, will be welcomed at Iowa City by Director Schroeder and other athletic officials, as well as by newspapermen.

Two-Year Contract

His two-year contract, on a 12-months basis, will start Sunday, April 1, and from all indications Crowe is just as anxious to get started with spring football practice as are some of the lettermen of last year's squad.

Some 10 lettermen of the 1944 squad are still in the university but three of them—Paul Fagerlund, Russ McLaughlin, and Jack Kelso—are now members of the baseball squad; and John Stewart, navy dental trainee, is busy with his heavy study schedule.

Other lettermen who are still at Iowa and probably will be back include: Bud Flood, guard; Bob Wischmeier, end; Ralph Katz, Forrest Masterson, and Jim Lagomarcino, tackles; and Nelson Smith, halfback.

Semester Ends

Since the Iowa semester ends April 21, the new coach will have little time for spring drill and some of the athletes who would participate might not be here next fall. However, Crowe believes it will be a start in rebuilding the Hawkeyes as a football power.

There has been no real spring football practice at Iowa since pre-war 1941. A small group drilled briefly in 1942 after the departure of Major Eddie Anderson, but Frank Carideo and Jim Harris left later in the spring and nothing of value was accomplished.

Influx of Veterans

Football fortunes for the Hawks next season can be very good or just average. However, the emphasis seems to ride on the thought that they will be much better than the dismal 1944 season. University officials expect a big influx of war veterans next fall, and out of this group, athletic officials expect, will come a goodly number of candidates for the Hawk eleven.

It is also possible, but not very probable that Dave Danner and Chuck Uknes, stars of several years back might be back to bolster the team. Both Uknes and Danner declare that they are going to play, but that will be entirely up to university doctors.

Danner and Uknes

Danner returned from the service with an injured back that forced him to wear a brace for some time. But last winter, the call of basketball urged him out to the fieldhouse and a try at the Hawk team. The experiment failed, however, but did indicate that Danner might be able to play next year if he keeps on improving.

Uknes' Physical Condition

Uknes' physical condition is a big question mark as far as athletics are concerned. He tried out for the Hawkeye baseball nine this spring, and it appeared that he was set for a starting position, but once again the doctors stepped in and declared that his health would not permit him to play. The future, however, might prove that Chuck can and will play football next year.

Bus Mertes

Another possibility that would definitely boost the Iowa attack is the questionable return to school of Bus Mertes, former Hawkeye and Seahawk star backfield man. Mertes played the whole season for the Cadets last fall and was transferred to Great Lakes shortly after the close of the season. In early January when he visited in Iowa City on a leave, he said that he was to receive a medical discharge from the navy and that he wanted to return to school at Iowa. However, whether Mertes will receive a discharge or not remains to be seen.

One of the big problems facing Crowe would be solved if this trio did return to school. He would have in Mertes, one of the best ground gainers in collegiate football. Bus led the Seahawks scoring last year in almost every game, and the Cadets were one of the most powerful service teams in the country. Uknes would add the power and speed to the backfield that has been lacking in the past few seasons, and Danner would, without much doubt, bolster a sagging line position and

High School Substitution Rules Changed

CHICAGO (AP)—A new rule, designed to curb the "endless procession" of substitutes in the waning minutes of high school basketball games will go into effect next season, H. V. Porter, secretary of the National Basketball Rules committee, announced yesterday.

He said the rule affecting high school teams only was passed recently in New York at a special meeting following the annual meeting of the rules committee.

"At a special called session of the National Basketball committee of the United States and Canada a curb was placed on the confusion caused in games where there has been an endless procession of substitutes in the last few minutes by the team behind in the score," Porter said in a prepared statement.

"Under the new rule for 1945-46, it will be illegal for any player to re-enter a game if he is withdrawn during the last four minutes of play. The only exception would be in case of a tie, and for a tie game each overtime period will be treated the same as the last four minutes."

He said the rule was instituted because coaches would send in a substitute almost every time the whistle blew near the end of the game in order to gain a few seconds on each play.

Pacific Coast Season To Open Tomorrow

LOS ANGELES (AP)—As usual, the Pacific Coast league will be the first to break the baseball barrier.

The opening Saturday will be watched closely throughout the country, because as the initial start, the league will serve as a test tube for another year of war-time baseball.

Advance sales indicate that interest is even greater than it was a year ago when the league launched what proved to be the biggest season in its history.

Just as a year ago, club owners can promise nothing definite in the matter of playing talent which will be the first to break the base-goers to make a winner. Yet last year brought the closest race in the closest in the entire history of baseball.

enable the Hawks to throw some passes—that is if Crowe is able to come up with a passer of any merit. All of this, however, is mere presumption, and well wishing, and probably will not materialize.

At any rate, Clem Crowe has a problem that has to be solved right away. He is looking for a house to accommodate his family of Mrs. Crowe and eight children. His eldest son is serving in the navy,

Baseball—Spring Training

ST LOUIS (AP)—Marty Marion, holdout shortstop of the St. Louis Cardinals, arrived yesterday and discussed salary terms with President Sam Breadon but no contract has been signed, nor was there any word as to whether progress has been made toward agreement.

Meanwhile, rain kept the players off their infield and they devoted the day to running in the outfield and pepper play on a nearby lot.

Rain Halts Tiger Drill

EVANSVILLE, Ind. (AP)—Rain yesterday washed out the second Detroit Tiger workout in 16 days of spring training. Fewer than a half dozen men were in uniform when a downpour chased them back to their hotel and the drill was called off.

The Tigers' next squad game, a nine-inning tilt, has been set for next Saturday.

Pitching Staff in Shape

TERRE HAUTE, Ind. (AP)—Rain cut the Chicago White Sox' squad workout to a half hour under the grandstand, with the pitching staff doing a lot of throwing. Manager Jimmy Dykes said his pitching staff looked in good shape, especially the veteran Thornton Lee. Dykes, however, wouldn't object to seeing his two holdout hurlers in camp—Johnny Humphries and Orval Grove.

Cubs Hold Morning Drill

FRENCH LICK, Ind. (AP)—Charley Grimm's Chicago Cubs held a morning workout yesterday when showers forced the squad to forsake the regular diamond for the depot grounds. Jimmy Wilson, former Cub manager, now a Cincinnati Red, visited Grimm to complete arrangements for the party of 42 Red players due to arrive here Monday.

Reds Drill Indoors

BLOOMINGTON, N. Y. (AP)—The Cincinnati Reds' infield looked a bit like that of other and better years yesterday, as Frank McCormick donned a uniform, took his accustomed place at first, and led the team in hours of indoor drill. Copious rain prevented outdoor work.

Woody Williams was at second again yesterday; Steve Mesner at third, and Walter Flager at short.

Athletes Seek NCAA Titles In Swimming

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP)—A small but select field of 70 athletes from midwest and eastern colleges will compete for 11 individual titles and the team championship in the 22nd National Collegiate Athletic association swimming meet here today and tomorrow.

Michigan's squad, Western conference champions seeking their 13th NCAA championship, and Ohio State are co-favorites for the team title with Cornell an outside possibility.

Travel Restrictions

Because of travel restrictions most of the eastern contenders are sending only one or two swimmers after individual title. Yale, last year's winner, and the usually strong North Carolina, Army and Navy teams are not entered.

The nation's top sprinter, Eugene Rogers of Columbia, is expected to take individual meet honors and the banner race may be his meeting with Michigan's Capt. Mert Church in the 100-yard free style Saturday night.

Renewal of Feud

Although Paul Murray of Cornell holds the top breast-stroke rating, the 200-yard race will be marked by a renewal of the feud of Heini Kessler of Michigan and Vern Ojampa of Minnesota, co-champions of the Western conference where both finished in 2:35.8.

Schools represented include Cornell, Columbia, Ohio State, Michigan, Wayne, Michigan State, Iowa, Minnesota, Princeton, Canisius, Northwestern, Rensselaer Poly, Illinois Tech, Indiana and Purdue.

the arrival yesterday of Pitcher Rube Fischer, three-fourths of the Giants' roster, or thirty players, now are in camp. Sixteen of them are pitchers. Counting the Jersey City squad and the 16 and 17-year-old youngsters under the sponsorship of Carl Hubbell, head of the Giants farm system, there are 155 players here.

In addition to routine batting and fielding practice, the workout consisted of one-half hour drills in cutting runners off at the plate from the outfield and running down men between bases.

Indian Competition Postponed

LAFAYETTE, Ind. (AP)—Manager Lou Boudreau has postponed intra-squad competition among the Cleveland Indians until some of the regulars, including Outfielders Ray Seery and Myril Hoag, recover from charley-horses.

Roy Cullenbine, another fly chaser, won't start the experiment of switching to third base until his legs are in shape.

Maybe So

By BOB KRAUSE

Daily Iowan Sports Editor

THE HIGH SCHOOL basketball coaches throughout the nation can now loosen the belt, sit back, sigh deeply, and start worrying about something else. Yesterday good news came into view when it was announced that the much-maligned unlimited substitution rule is to be scrapped for next season.

The new statute which is to go into the books states that, from now on, meaning until they change it again, a man may not be substituted into a contest if he is taken out when less than four minutes are left of the contest.

Do Away

The object of the change is to away with all the stalling which was so prevalent during the campaign just completed. Outstanding example of this, as we mentioned before, was seen in a recent St. Mary's game in which the same two men were substituted for each other over 20 times in the closing moments.

The idea here, dreamed up at the risk of a coach's life, is to stop the clock at opportune occasions in order to fluster the opposition and in general slow up the forward progress of matters. If it isn't done by a clever artist it usually fails, and only results in a series of rather pointless time outs.

Often Works

When done by the expert coach, however, the results are often satisfactory. For example, New York university used it to beat Ohio State when the two met to decide the NCAA championship of the east. The Buckeyes were leading by 10 points with two minutes left and were generally setting a fast pace. At that point NYU sent in a host of substitutes. They succeeded in completely unnering Ohio and proceeded to pull the battle out of the flames.

Trifle Ashamed

All of which brings us to the point of wondering when the colleges are going to do their bit by changing the rule. Personally, we feel that they ought to be just a trifle ashamed to see their younger brothers pulling a fast one by scrapping it first.

Well, we're glad to see that the job has been done by at least one faction. From now on possibly a good, fast game won't have to start coughing and sputtering in the closing minutes. Then the appetite of the speed-hungry customer will be satiated, for a while.

Athletic Goods To Be Scarce

WASHINGTON (AP)—Don't lose any balls out in the brush this season, brother, or you may not be able to play another day—the wartime athletic equipment shortage is becoming that acute.

The Office of Civilian Requirements yesterday made this disclosure, and admonished:

"Sports-loving Americans who want to go on getting their exercise in athletics ought to start digging into their attics and basements for balls, bats and such equipment."

Any item made of critical materials like leather, wood, textile or rubber is rapidly disappearing from the shelves and stock rooms of sporting goods dealers.

Since September, 1944, the war department has been taking most of the newly-manufactured athletic equipment in preparation for V-E day.

Men Occupied

"When Germany falls, the army will have to keep many men occupied in Europe, and one of the best ways to do that is through athletics," the OCR pointed out.

Baseballs, softballs, bats, gloves, golf balls and so on are becoming increasingly scarce to civilians.

The OCR recognizes the essentiality of athletic equipment, but it may be two years after the war before a normal supply can be had again.

CAN'T KEEP GRANDMA IN HER CHAIR

She's as lively as a Youngster—Now her Backache is better

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the body. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 16 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

University High Track Hopes Suffer Setback With Loss of Williams

University high track hopes suffered a setback yesterday when it was learned that Jim Williams, broad-jumper and sprinter, will be lost to the team for the coming Eastern Iowa conference track meet tomorrow night. He is sick with a cold and fever.

Hartscock will take Williams' place in the 50-yard dash, along with Eric (Rickey) Wilson, and will also participate in the broad jump. Easton will compete on the half-mile relay team as another substitute for Williams.

Hawklets Hold Diamond Drill

Although City high's students are now enjoying an Easter vacation, about 20 Little Hawk baseball players went through a hitting and infield drill yesterday afternoon on the field in back of the City high gym.

Coach Earl Sangster has spent this week in general practice sessions for the squad while also working to develop his pitching staff.

Showing the most promise in the hurling department are Russ Lackerder, Dick Drake and Evan Tallman. Lackerder and Tallman also look good at third base.

Two Veterans' Teams Schedule Grudge Tilt

Two baseball teams composed of veterans attending the university of Iowa will battle it out in a grudge game today at 4 o'clock on the river field west of the reserve library. This will be the first game in a series to be played by the veterans.

George Phetteplace, Lt. of Des Moines, captains the army "Sad Sacks" and Kenneth Carter, Lt. of Coleburg, will lead the navy "Salty Dogs" team.

The game is free to the general public.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (AP)—Home runs by Bob Johnson and Nick Polly helped the Boston Red Sox defeat the New York Yankees 12 to 6 yesterday in the first of nine exhibition games between the two teams.

N. Y. U. Takes Third Place

Mikan, DePaul Star, Leaves Game in First Half With Five Fouls

NEW YORK (AP)—The Oklahoma Aggies, N.C.A.A. champions, won the mythical national basketball championship tonight, defeating DePaul of Chicago, the invitation tournament winners, 52 to 44, in a benefit game at Madison Square Garden that turned over to the Red Cross.

New York university, after being ahead 19 points with 10 minutes to play, had to go all out to defeat Bowling Green 63 to 61 for third place in the first game of the double header.

The Ohioans tied the score at 54-54 with three minutes to play and from there to the finish the lead changed hands seven times before Sid Tanenbaum, who led the scorers with 25 points, dropped in the deciding goal. Kubiak paced the losers with 17 points.

The battle of giants between the Aggies' seven-foot Bob Kurland and six-foot nine-inch George Mikan of DePaul failed to materialize as Mikan went out of the game on five fouls after 14 minutes of play. Before he left the game their play had been almost even-Stephen, with Mikan accounting for nine points and Kurland eight.

Although temporarily hampered by a sprained wrist, Chuck Snook appears to be one of the most able contenders for the hot corner.

With infield positions still far from definite, Dean Hartzler is one of the leading contestants for the position of shortstop and seems now to have the inside track.

Both Don Sehr and Jimmy Sangster, who are working out as pitchers, also are first basemen, with Sangster possibly having a slight edge because he is left-handed.

First definite game for the Red and White nine is slated for April 13 with Solon, although it is hoped that at least a couple of games can be scheduled before that time.

Churches Plan Union Service

"The Seven Words of the Cross" will be the theme of the Meditations given by seven Iowa City ministers at the annual community three hour service today from noon until 3 p. m. at the Trinity Episcopal church.

An introductory meditation will be given by the Rev. Fred W. Putnam, rector of Trinity church. At 12:20 the Rev. Ilion T. Jones of the First Presbyterian church will speak on the word, "Father, forgive them for they know not what they do." The Rev. Elmer E. Dierks of the First Baptist church will speak at 12:45 on the word, "Today shalt thou be with me in paradise."

At 1:10 the Rev. Victor W. Goff, Methodist student pastor, will speak on the word, "Woman, behold thy Son, behold thy mother." The Rev. James E. Waery, pastor of the First Congregational church, will speak at 1:35 on the word, "My God, My God, why hast Thou forsaken Me?"

At 2 o'clock the Rev. Donovan G. Hart of the First Christian church will speak on the word, "I thirst." Prof. David Shipley of the school of religion will speak at 2:20 on the word, "It is finished." The word, "Father, into Thy Hands I commend My spirit," will be the topic of the Rev. L. L. Dunnington of the First Methodist church, who will speak at 2:40.

The prayers between meditations will be read by the Reverend Putnam, and organist for the service will be John Adams. The vestrymen of Trinity church will serve as ushers.

Sergt. Albert Schmidt Dies on Iwo Jima

T/Sergt. Albert Otto Schmidt, 22, son of Mrs. Albert Schmidt, 130 E. Jefferson street, has been reported killed in action Feb. 20 on Iwo Jima.

Serving in the marines, Sergeant Schmidt left this country for overseas duty in July, 1944. His mother believes that Iwo Jima was the first action in which her son had participated.

Born in Iowa City on June 11, 1922, Sergeant Schmidt attended Iowa City high school for two years before going to Kansas City where he graduated from high school.

He joined the marine corps in August, 1940, and received his training at New River, N. C. He was stationed as an instructor in communications at Camp Pendleton, Calif., previous to leaving this country.

Surviving besides his mother are his wife, who resides in Ely, Nev.; one brother, S 1/c William Schmidt, who is serving aboard a submarine in the south Pacific; his grandmother, Mrs. Otto Schmidt, and an aunt, Ruth Schmidt, both living at 515 Davenport street; and another aunt, Mrs. Mable Fullerton, who lives at 130 E. Jefferson street.
