Loyalists in Venezuela Attack Army Fortress

About 425,000 Idle in U. S. Due to Strikes

The nation's total of workers idle due to strikes teetered at around the 425,000 mark this weekend, with tomorrow marked as a crucial day in at least three major disputes.

The crippling, six-state soft coal strike, which had accounted for approximately 216,000 idle during the last month, was abruptly called off last week by John L. Lewis, and the expected return of the miners on Monday would reduce the national total to around 210,000, lowest in several weeks.

Glass Workers
However, a strike of 15,000 glass workers in 10 cities, following a breakdown in contract negotiations between glass company owners and a union wage committee, "definitely" can be expected by Monday," Lewis McCracken, secretary-treasurer of the CIO Federation of Glass, Ceramic and Silica Sand Workers of America, announced at Columbus, Ohio.

McCracken said the strike would affect employees of the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co., and the Libbey-Owens-Ford Glass Co., in Ford City and Creighton, Pa.; Clarksburg and Charleston, W. Va.; Toledo and Mount Vernon, Ohio; Ottawa, Ill.; Crystal City, Mo.; Hetteta, Okla., and Shreveport, La.

Monday was the deadline, too, set by the Western Electric Employees association of Kearny, N. J., for the company to meet wage demands.

The independent union, an affiliate of the National Federation of telephone workers, conducted a nationwide "union strength" demonstration stoppage of telephone service Oct. 5.

Selected for Action
A union spokesman said the Kearny plant has been selected for collective action by the union unless the union's 1,500 plant employees were granted a 35 percent wage increase and "improved working conditions" by Monday.

On the bright side of the picture was the settlement agreement accepted by union leaders directing the three-day work stoppage of 2,000 Michigan power workers. The agreement, however, was made subject to ratification by the union's 22 state locals, which have not yet reported their decision.

The union, which had demanded a 30 cents an hour wage boost, earlier had rejected a company offer of a 10-cent increase, but late Friday leaders accepted a mediation panel's recommendation of a 12-cent-an-hour increase, upon the stipulation that the rate should be effective until March 1, 1946, unless the panel finds the national wage pattern "has so changed as to warrant a further determination of the matter."

Both the company and union were given the right to appeal to the panel to determine if there have been changes in the national wage pattern.

British Ratify Charter As Russians Delay

WASHINGTON (AP)—Great Britain yesterday completed ratification of the United Nations charter, leaving only Russia among the Big Five to act.

The charter requires ratification by the United States, Russia, Britain, France and China, which are the permanent members of the projected world security council, and by 24 of the 46 other nations which have signed the document.

Previously the state department announced that in the last four days six states had deposited their ratifications—Iran, Luxembourg, Saudi Arabia, Czechoslovakia, Yugoslavia and Syria.

While Russia has approved ratification at Moscow, it has not completed the process by depositing the formal documents at the state department at Washington.

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP)—Cavalry forces loyal to President Isaias Medina y Angarita last night attacked Miraflores palace in hard fighting, and a junta of rebellious army officers called upon planes to blast the attackers with machinegun fire and bombs.

The cavalymen advanced on the palace amid heavy fire that caused casualties. Several truckloads of Medina forces, described by the junta-controlled radio as "Communists," seized a six-story housing project about a quarter of a mile south of Miraflores. From there they opened fire on the palace.

Other attackers took up a position on a heavily-wooded hill next to the housing center. During the fighting there was no sight of the tanks which the rebel radio said would be used. The Venezuelan army has some medium to light tanks at Maracay arsenal, possession of which was claimed by the revolutionists.

Heavy firing was heard near the Ambrozio plaza barracks in the western part of Caracas, reported to have surrendered to the rebels Friday. Cavalrymen stationed there are among the forces supporting Medina.

Firing was intense around Miraflores, with junta soldiers firing from the palace roof. The Associated Press office, only half a block distant, moved to new quarters. Stray bullets penetrated living quarters at the rear of the palace.

Phone Conversation
A junta-controlled Caracas broadcast reported the revolutionists had intercepted a telephone conversation between Gen. David Lopez Henriquez, chief of the military zone of Tachira state, and Dr. Alberto Celis Paredes, president of the neighboring state of Merida, both reported loyal to Medina.

The broadcast quoted Lopez as saying he could count on the support of Colombian planes to support Medina troops marching on Caracas.

(Radio San Cristobal in western Venezuela said that President Isaias Medina y Angarita had been reinstated in Caracas, after government cavalry had cleared revolutionary forces from Miraflores palace.)

Citizens Warned
(The broadcast said its information came from radio national, in the hands of anti-revolutionists in Caracas.)

The revolutionary junta warned citizens to remain indoors. Earlier the revolutionists had announced seizure of the country's main arsenal, and declared they had enough power to crush anti-revolutionary forces reported marching upon Caracas, the capital.

(Radio San Cristobal, still in the hands of forces loyal to President Isaias Medina y Angarita, announced that loyalist troops still

'Blithe Spirit' Opens At University Theater Tomorrow Evening

"Blithe Spirit," Noel Coward's comedy, will be presented in the university theatre tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. It is under the direction of Prof. V. M. Morton of the dramatic arts department.

Wilanne Schneider, A2 of Cleveland Heights, Ohio plays the part of Elvira, first wife of Charles. Ruth, Dorothy Stinchcomb, A2 of Muncie, Ind., is his second wife. Arnon Bonney, G of Chanute, Kan., has the part of Charles, the novelist, who is being haunted by his first wife.

Norma Walcher is the medium that brings the strange happenings to the home of Charles. Joe Kelly and Joan Sayers, A3 of Aurora, Mo., play the parts of Dr. and Mrs. Bradman. Sybil Rickless, A2 of Rochester, N. Y., plays the part of the maid in the Condomine home.

Richard Smith and Mabel Claire Allen alternate as stage managers, and Eunice Walster, A3 of Fargo, N. D., is the assistant stage manager and bookholder. Taking care of the properties for the play are Jean Ann Simonson, Kathleen Collins, and Mary Edythe Stuart, A1 of Des Moines. Make-up and costumes are under the direction of Judy Brennan, A3 of Marshalltown, and Elizabeth Jewett, A3 of Keokuk, while lighting and sound are being handled by Virgil R. Gray, Helene Wickham, A3 of Marshalltown, Judy Mitchell and Shirley Olson, A3 of Des Moines.

Other performances will be Tuesday through Friday nights. A matinee will be presented Saturday afternoon, Oct. 27, at 2 o'clock. The last showing will be Friday evening, Nov. 2, during Homecoming weekend.

13 Killed In Java Uprising

BATAVIA, Java (AP)—Fighting flared anew in Batavia last night with at least 13 persons killed as the Indonesian leader, Soekarno, called on President Truman to stop the Dutch from using American equipment to put down the independence movement.

The new clash came after three days of comparative quiet in the capital. The dead were all Indonesians. Two British Indian troops were wounded.

Foreign Minister Soebardjo of the "Indonesian Republic" announced that 11 Dutch officers attached to the organization for the relief of Allied prisoners of war had been killed by a mob in the mountains between Batavia and Bandoeng. This was not confirmed by any other source.

The foreign minister of the "Republic," in a message to United States Secretary of State James F. Byrnes, said his government had the "enthusiastic support of the entire population in all parts of Indonesia" and added "the whole civil administration is in Indonesian hands."

Other disturbances were reported on Billiton island, off the east coast of Sumatra. No details were available, but the Netherlands light cruiser Tromp received orders from the Allied command to leave at once with a detachment of Dutch troops for Billiton.

Soekarno, president of the self-proclaimed Indonesian government, charged in a radiogram to President Truman that some of the Dutch troops fighting in the Netherlands Indies were wearing American uniforms and were using American arms, munitions and trucks.

"Protests have been made to Allied military headquarters without satisfactory results," Soekarno asserted.

(In New York John Carter Vincent, director of the state department's office of Far Eastern affairs, said the United States did not question the sovereignty of the French in Indochina or the Dutch in the East Indies, but that the United States government would be willing to participate in attempts to settle difficulties in those territories.)

"It is not our intention," he said, "to insist or participate in enforcement measures for the imposition of control by the territorial sovereigns, but we would be prepared to lend our assistance, if requested to do so, in efforts to reach peaceful agreements in these disturbed areas."

Work on Trials
Within a month 1,000 persons will be at work preparing for the trials. They will be held "in the largest suitable places" to permit attendance of the greatest possible number of Japanese, the legal officer explained.

"The Japanese, I believe, are extremely interested in the proceedings," he remarked.

He said that "almost all the defendants we are looking for" will be captured—"provided they are not dead."

The Japanese cabinet meanwhile studied election reforms, but Japanese sources said it had decided to let the next government—"more representative of the people"—deal with the dissolution of family-controlled big business monopolies.

Food Imports
Finance minister Viscount Keizo Shibusawa announced in an interview that the cabinet was asking permission to import 4,000,000 tons of food next year—some of it aboard American ships. The permission has not yet been granted.

Other sources close to the new government said that Premier Kijuro Shidehara's cabinet would resign after the general election early in 1946, leaving dissolution of the family monopolies to the next cabinet which is expected to be "more representative of the people."

Some Clouds, Cooler Weather for City

About 4 o'clock this morning we experienced a minor cold front. You probably didn't know a thing about it but if it should be raining this morning, that is the cause of the rain. By this afternoon things should start clearing off. There still will be considerable cloudiness and cooler temperatures but that's about all. All in all, it shouldn't be such a bad day.

The mercury tried hard yesterday but couldn't get any higher in this little world that 68. The low in the morning was 30.

'BLITHE SPIRIT' CAST TOASTS A GHOST

A TOAST to an ectoplasmic wife that has materialized to plague the happiness of her husband and his second wife is being given during a scene of "Blithe Spirit," university play which opens at the theater tomorrow night at 8 o'clock. The ghostly first wife—Elvira—in the background is Wilanne Schneider, A2 of Cleveland Heights, Ohio. Dorothy Stinchcomb, A2 of Muncie, Ind., who plays the part of Ruth, the second wife, is seated foreground. Dr. Bradman, played by Joe Kelly, and Charles Condomine, the novelist-husband of the two women, played by Arnon Bonney, G of Chanute, Kan., stand behind the divan. Seated are Joan Sayers, A3 of Aurora, Mo., who is the wife of Dr. Bradman in the play, and Norma Walcher, the medium who brings the departed wife back from the other world.

HOOSIER BREAKS AWAY FOR ONE OF MANY LONG GAINS

TYPICAL OF WHAT HAPPENED to Iowa during the first three quarters of yesterday's 52-20 defeat in Iowa stadium is the left end sweep being made by the Hoosiers' Deranek for a long gain. Also typical is the long body block which an Indiana teammate is tossing into Iowa's Nelson Smith (60), Wayne Spurbuck (46) and Carl Bowen (65), Hawk guard and fullback respectively, close in for the tackle.

Blue Speaks at Police Forum

Governor Robert D. Blue, giving a summary and conclusion, was the final speaker of the first police administration forum at the University of Iowa. He spoke yesterday noon in studio E of the engineering building.

Governor Blue, who was introduced by President Virgil M. Hancher, stated that he has the problems of the law enforcement officer very much at heart. "Peace officers are the front line of defense against disorder," he said.

"The legislature can pass laws, but it is up to the individual officer to interpret and enforce them." For this reason, he continued, it is necessary that police workers have an educational background and training to fit them for their job.

"At the present time, he added, only a few large cities have standards to measure officers for their jobs, and only in the last 20 years have police training schools been used in Iowa.

During war there has always been a slackening of law enforcement and morals, said Governor Blue, and with the return of servicemen to civilian life there will be many new problems to be met with judgement and understanding.

"The future of law enforcement is dependent on new techniques of administration of justice which will improve the social condition of the country," Governor Blue declared, "but in the last analysis, local police, through interpretation and use, determine what law means to a community."

First topic on yesterday's program was a discussion of police radio equipment by Carl Menzer, director of WSUI, and Charles Nord of the Iowa department of public safety. After this, the problems of reconversion as related to the policeman and the veteran, and to the veteran policeman, were discussed by W. D. Coder, director of the veteran's service at the university, and Capt. J. H. Clift of the Cedar Rapids police department.

The three-day police administration forum was under the direction of Prof. Rollin M. Perkins of the college of law.

Truman Expected To Ask Congress For Military Training

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congressional leaders expect President Truman to ask congress, in a special message Tuesday, for a diluted form of universal military training.

While there is no definite knowledge of just what the president has in mind, capitol hill believes, on the basis of recent White House talks with some of its leaders in the field of military legislation, that Mr. Truman will not request outright compulsory training.

Instead, there is a general belief that Mr. Truman will stress a plan calling for building up an armed reserve by voluntary strengthening of the national guard and expansion of the reserve officer training corps.

Congress, once strongly in favor of universal training, has cooled off on the idea since the war ended. House military committee members said they did not believe it possible at this time to obtain committee approval for any form of compulsory peacetime training.

'Dead' Pheasant Flies From Reagan Icebox

NORTH TONAWANDA, N. Y. (AP)—When it came time to prepare dinner, Mrs. R. P. Reagan went to the refrigerator to get a pheasant which had been shot and presented to her husband by a friend.

"I opened the refrigerator door," said Mrs. Reagan, "and out flew the bird right in my face. What a shock."

It seems the cold air had revived the pheasant which had been shot in the wing and only stunted.

Indiana Stuns Hawks With 8 Quick Tallies

Thorpe, Weller Spark Iowa Scoring Spree In Fourth Quarter

By GUS SCHRADER
Daily Iowan Sports Editor

A delayed action fuse finally touched off a Hawkeye blast of surprise and power in the fourth quarter of yesterday's comedy of errors in Iowa stadium. It would have upset an alternately sensational and sloppy Indiana eleven but the Hawks had presented their Hoosier "cousins" with a handy 52-point handieap before they exploded their own three-touchdown spree.

The final score, unfortunately, was 52-20 in Indiana's favor. But the 15,800 fans went home happy, firmly convinced that it had been a moral victory for Iowa.

Two guys, whose names before the game might have been Joe as far as Iowa fans were concerned, ignited the rally. Walter Thorpe, gritty 175-pound fullback, and Wendell Weller, 17-year-old sub quarterback, engineered the Hawkeyes' first surprise score and inspired the whole team with a great show of guts when the score was 52-0 against them.

Actually, the outcome of Iowa's third straight Big Ten defeat wasn't in question after the first eight minutes. Freak plays gave Indiana touchdowns on a pass interception and a blocked punt. The Hawks didn't recover until late in the last quarter, after the Hoosiers had ripped across six more touchdowns.

Iowa's statisticians went into action with the score 52-0 against Iowa. The history hunters, who discovered that back in the early 1900's Michigan had clubbed Iowa, 107-0, weren't repaid for their efforts because the Hoosiers eased off and the Hawks struck back with their counter punch.

Once Iowa's rally was started, Game Captain Jerry Niles returned to the game and took over the tiller. He sneaked over from the two-yard line for the first Big Ten score for the Hawks this year and then passed to end Ralph Woodward in the end zone for the second marker. Slender Dick Meyer scored Iowa's last touchdown by diving on a kickoff in the end zone while dozing Hoosier backs stood idly by.

Jerry Niles bootied both of Iowa's extra points and ran another one across only to have the play nullified because Herb Braun, who came in to hold for a placekick, had one knee touching the ground.

The Hoosiers hit so fast and often from far out in the first half that they scored more touchdowns than first downs—six to four. Bob Ravensberg, brilliant Hoosier end, started the afternoon's scoring by intercepting Niles' pass on a fake third down punt. He went 30 yards for that one and a minute later dived on a blocked Hawkeye punt in the end zone for the second touchdown.

From that point on, here's the tabulation of Indiana scoring: George Tallafero grabbed an Indiana fumble, shot 62 yards to the goal; in the second quarter, Tallafero scored again from 74 yards out, Bill Armstrong went 43 and Dick Deranek the same distance. Four points after touchdowns by Charles Armstrong made it 40-0 at halftime.

Brooklyn Ben Raimondi, Hoosier quarterback, lived up to high sounding press notices by hitting John Gorkis with a perfect pass in the end zone and later laying a long one in Deranek's lap on a play that covered 52 yards.

Substitute Freely
After this reassuring margin was reached, Indiana Coach Bo McMillin found courage to substitute freely, but hurriedly rushed his regulars back into the fray when Weller and Thorpe started their come-back campaign in the last period. The best Hoosiers available were in the game when Iowa scored its touchdowns.

End Bob Gustafson played his usual hard game of good blocking and tackling but had tough luck on a couple of passes. Outstanding man in the line was big Bill Kay, 220-pound tackle.

Move to Abolish 'Unamerican' Group

WASHINGTON (AP)—A push to do away with the controversial house committee investigating unamerican activities has been started by critics.

The action was prompted by a threatened investigation of news analysts by the committee. Opponents of the committee declared that such a probe would be an attack on "freedom of speech and thought through the press and radio."

Reps. Patterson (D., Calif.) and Hook (D., Mich.) are leaders of the movement to do away with the committee. They asserted they have support of "a large group of liberals" in the house.

Patterson introduced a bill late Friday to accomplish their purpose. He told reporters:

"A large number of us have opposed their committee right along, because it has a record which is unamerican."

"We are thoroughly sickened with it now, and it seems appropriate to act when the committee starts to move in on our fundamental freedoms."

"The investigation of the news columnists and radio commentators is a complete violation of the principle of free speech."

The study of output of news columnists and radio commentators was announced during the week by committee counsel Ernest Adamson. He said the group wanted to scrutinize the writings and speeches to see "if they are subversive."

Several committee members told a reporter they planned to back Adamson in his move. Chairman Wood (D., Ga.) commented that Adamson's action was "merely a routine checkup, to help define what is unamerican and what is not." Wood emphasized that to scripts, columns or their authors had been subpoenaed by the committee.

'For Sale' Joke Draws Unexpected Offer

BALTIMORE (AP)—Some children placed a "for sale" sign in front of Elmer Shank's home in the Roland park section as a pre-Halloween prank.

A passerby saw it and made Shanks an offer for the house. Shanks accepted. Now he's planning to buy a farm.

Editorials:

Those Fighting Hawkeyes Are Back Again

They used to call 'em the Fighting Hawkeyes. Well, send up another cheer. They never fought harder, against greater odds than they did yesterday.

Win? Well, not this time. Lose by just a couple of points? No, not exactly. But the scoreboard didn't tell how narrowly we were beaten.

Imagine trailing by 52 mountainous points, and with only one quarter—15 minutes—of play remaining. There wasn't any chance of an Iowa victory. There wasn't much chance of making the score look good. In fact, there wasn't even much reason for continuing the game.

There were people in the stands in the middle of the third quarter who would gladly have seen the game end at that point because they thought Indiana was bound for more touchdowns.

But send up a louder cheer, please. Those Fighting Hawkeyes rose up and smoked Indiana for 20 points. Out of a tired, battered bunch of players came the courage of our bygone greats.

It wasn't just a spark or a flash. There's nothing freakish or momentary about an 82-yard march right through the Indiana team. It was courage—lots of it. And whatever else our team does, we hope they never lose that kind of courage.

It was spirit—lots of it. And it came from the fans who were ready to stand by an Iowa team even though it was being humbled in defeat. We never want to lose that spirit, either.

It was Nile Kinnick—standing out there invisible. The players had learned from him and from others that anything can be done.

Sure there is a lot of difference between 52 points and 20 points. But the more important difference lies between 20 points and none at all.

Those 20 points symbolize the fighting spirit of the Hawkeyes. And they represent the shape of the things to come—next year, maybe, or the year after . . . and after that.

Iowa is going to be great again. No team, no school that has the courage Iowa has is going to stay long on the bottom.

Iowa has been great before—many times. We've won our share of the championships, and we've walked off with our share of the glory. We're going to do it again.

So cheer again for the Fighting Hawkeyes! And cheer for the fighting students who backed them!

And thanks, Nile.

Wars and Men

(Chicago Daily News) Says Dr. H. J. Curtis of the Oak Ridge atom bomb factory: "Freely publishing all the facts of atomic power now known would be equivalent to giving a small boy a can of gasoline and a box of matches to play with in order that he might learn the hazards of fire."

Dr. Curtis evidently has jitters when he contemplates the prospect of a continuous Fourth of July on a global scale. But we fear that he does the small boy an injustice when he impliedly compares him to some of the nations of the world. Up to now small boys have behaved individually better than adults massed in national units. Their mischief is not malice.

It has been said that the men of the old Stone age had the average mentality of a 20th century 12-year-old. But they had too much sense to have organized wars. Wars came with civilization.

A World Federation?

Some 50 men and women, many of them distinguished and all highly respected, are urging that the world drop the United Nations organization and the San Francisco charter, and turn to the formulation of a world federation.

They declare, in effect, that the world is wasting time trying to solve the problems of war and peace through an association such as the United Nations. And they urge us to start immediately to build a federation.

Because the arguments these men and women put forth are logical and easily acceptable up to a point, their declaration that we are only wasting time may cause many to doubt the long-range worthiness of the United Nations organization.

But it is a fallacy to say that we are wasting time, for it is obvious that we could not, for many years, establish a world federation.

What would Stalin say if he were asked to enter a federation—like our federal government, for instance—in which his voting power would be cut considerably?

What would be said in London? What would be said even in Washington? The answer would be a chorus of "no's."

But we do have in our hands a compromise proposal which the Big Three apparently are agreeable to working under, and which can, if given more than just lip service, benefit all nations.

Though we believe the men and women who suggested abandoning the United Nations organization were doing more harm than good, their sincerity can not be doubted. Among them were former supreme court justice Owen J. Roberts, former Gov. Robert P. Bass of New Hampshire, and Grenville Clark of New York and Thomas H. Mahoney of Boston, reputed international lawyers.

They stated many truths after their meeting at Dublin, N. H. We do need a world organization "adequate to prevent war and designed to restore and strengthen the freedoms that are the inalienable rights of man."

War must be abolished "if civilization is to continue." And in some ways the San Francisco charter is not strong enough.

But to dump the United Nations organization—thus robbing the world of a good many benefits that will arise—simply because the association can not cure all the world's ills is too illogical to seem good judgment.

It is true of course that a world federation with strength would be better than the United Nations. But the unsolved problems of freedom for peoples such as the Asiatics would likely be a great danger to the success of a federation. And success would be particularly hazardous when even the United States refuses to accept the same kind of world equality that exists among the states of this nation.

Until we can achieve world federation, we must work with what we have. And the efforts of the Dublin conferees could be better spent helping the United Nations organization to the point where he can have a federation, instead of suggesting that the United Nations disband.

Covering The Capital

WASHINGTON—As this is being written the last edition of one of the strangest publications born of this war is going to service men still on duty cleaning out global war's four corners. It is "Curly Caminita's Capital Round-up."

Ludwig Caminita is never known by any other handle than "Curly," even around the petroleum administration for war, where he is a member of the public relations staff. He is a small chunky fellow, with a round, good-natured face and curly hair as black as a new shoe-shine.

His good humor is exceeded only by his energy and (like a lot of good Americans) not so far removed from the old country) by a deep-rooted patriotism, which he never wears on his sleeve.

Even before we got into the shooting part of the world mess, Curly was knocking on the doors of the recruiting offices of the army, navy and marines. He got along fine until he got to the doctors. They would have no part of him, in spite of the fact that he looks as husky as a young ox. Curly pleaded, signed waivers and saw a thousand people, but the fighting war went on without him.

Back in 1942, when our first troops were fighting across the plains and hills of North Africa, Curly sat down and wrote a letter. It was nothing more than that—just a long gossipy letter, broken up into subheads that gave the news about Washington, politics, the movies, radio and sports, and a few jokes.

Instead of sending the letter to just one fellow he knew, Curly had it mimeographed. He gave some to friends to send to men they knew in the service.

The response was almost instantaneous. With it came a demand for more. Curly piled notes on his desk, pulled up his typewriter and "Curly Caminita's Capital Roundup" was born.

For 136 weeks, despite office duties, becoming a father, and occasional ailments, he never missed a week of getting out the "Roundup." From that little beginning, it grew to 16 (often 18) pages of single-spaced type (about 12 times as long as the piece you are reading). Before long 900 copies were being mailed out every week.

How many readers Curly had will never be known. The "Roundup" was handed around until it was worn out. It was placed in recreation rooms. For more than a year, one V-mail station photographed it and sent it to units in the Pacific. Shipboard and army and marine-unit papers picked up sections of it weekly. It was used on overseas radio stations that beamed recreational programs.

The "Roundup" outgrew Curly and his pocketbook. But he was never at loss for a staff—mostly other government workers and Washingtonians who were fired by Curly's enthusiasm.

Even when money was needed, someone always came through. For more than a year a local stencil company donated the stencils on which the "Roundup" was cut.

Curly's only remuneration is in the thousands of letters he has received from GI's all over the world thanking him for his thumb-nail of week's doings at home. That, he says, is all he wants.

From All Around The State

WASHINGTON (AP)—Three cities in Iowa—Des Moines, Sioux City and Council Bluffs—were placed in group two, areas in which the labor supply and demand are in balance, yesterday by the United States employment service in the agency's first peacetime classification.

USES said the new classifications are in no way related to the wartime labor market classifications which were keyed to manpower controls. Their purpose, the agency said, is simply to provide information about labor market conditions in different parts of the country.

Areas selected for the survey, USES said, were those containing a central city or cities with 75,000 or more population, or those with special labor problems. Des Moines and Sioux City were listed separately, and Council Bluffs was listed along with Omaha.

MILWAUKEE (AP)—The kidnaping case against Lester Thomas, 36, Dubuque, Iowa, was continued at his arraignment in district court Friday, to next Wednesday. The Iowan was accused by Lavina Bahl of Milwaukee, who court records showed was an unwed mother, of kidnaping her son Richard, six. Thomas, who claims to be the child's father, has contended the child had been placed in his custody and that the mother took the child to Milwaukee without authority before the alleged kidnaping of the boy from a Milwaukee school playground last November.

CHARLES CITY (AP)—Charles City recorded its second infantile paralysis death of the year, when George C. Hanson, 32, died Friday. Cheryl Ann Kay, five, died recently from the disease.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senator Hickenlooper's office reported yesterday that the rural electrification administration has allocated more than $1,000,000 to three Iowa cooperatives. The Rideta Electric cooperative of Mt. Ayr was allocated $300,000, the Union South-west Power company of Greenfield $675,000, and the Monroe-Chariton Valley cooperative of Albia $273,000.

DES MOINES (AP)—The largest September production of chicks by commercial hatcheries in the history of Iowa was recorded last month, the Iowa crop and livestock reporting service said yesterday. The total was estimated at 400,000, compared with the previous September record of 247,000, established in that month of 1943.

DES MOINES (AP)—The Republican party expects to make gains in the congressional elections of Indiana, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Missouri and Illinois in 1946, Herbert Brownell Jr., Republican national chairman, said in a news conference here yesterday. The Midwest continues to hold the key to Republican success, he said. Brownell added that the party will concentrate on the congressional elections rather than the 1948 presidential election.

DES MOINES (AP)—Plans for resuming the Iowa state fair next year are going forward and Lloyd Cunningham, secretary of the fair board, said yesterday the exposition would feature an observance of the 100th year of Iowa statehood.

Although the war department has not given a definite date when it will release the grounds, used as an airforce storage depot since soon after Pearl Harbor, it is cooperating and Cunningham has given the state 4-H organization and other interested groups the "go ahead" signal on plans for next year.

The last state fair was held in 1941 and there is approximately $80,000 available for the 1946 exposition. It will cost considerably more than that to put the buildings and grounds in shape, but the war department is expected to pay a large share of this expense Cunningham said.

CRESTON (AP)—Representatives of the Union Southwest Power company of Greenfield said yesterday a $675,000 allotment to the firm by the rural electrification administration in Washington would be used for construction of a power plant in or near Creston and that construction would start next spring.

The Union Southwest Power company is made up of four cooperatives—the Farmers Electric company of Greenfield, the Adams County Electric company of Corning, the Rideta Electric Cooperative of Mt. Ayr, and the Clarke County Electric company of Osceola.

DES MOINES (AP)—Republican state chairman of Iowa and 10 other midwest states decided at a conference here yesterday to set the age range for members of the Young Republican organization at 18 to 30. The range in Iowa previously was 18 to 36.

Missionary to Korea To Lecture Tomorrow On Japanese Religion

Dr. C. A. Clark of Korea will address Prof. Morris Kertzer's class, "Living Religions of Mankind," tomorrow at 11 a. m. in room 107 Macbride hall.

He will speak on "Contemporary Religion in Japan and Korea," and will discuss the place of Shintoism in Japanese life and the probable effect of the recent disestablishment of Shintoism as a state religion.

Dr. Clark went to Korea as a missionary teacher in 1902 and has returned to the United States for only four visits.

A native of Minnesota, Dr. Clark studied at the University of Minnesota and was graduated from Macalester college. He received a Ph.D. degree from the University of Chicago.

He will arrive in Iowa City today. A limited number of visitors to the class will be welcome to hear his talk.

Churchill Warns Of Years Ahead

WOODFORD, England (AP)—Former Prime Minister Winston Churchill, warning of anxious years ahead, declared yesterday it would be grievous if the already-sharp political rift among Britons "deepened and widened until it became a gulf."

"The breakup of the famous coalition government has led inevitably to a division of our people into opposing parties such as we have not seen since the days before the first great world war," the conservative leader asserted.

"I share with many people a deep anxiety about the future, and it seems to me that these next few years may well decide our own place in the world. It is a place which, if once lost, might never be regained."

But, he added, "my invincible belief is that the future of Britain and the vast commonwealth and empire around us is in our own hands, and the qualities which have carried our island race through will not desert us now."

JAP SWORDS TOPIC OF ENVY

THE ENVY OF MANY Yank soldiers is Pfc Vincent Smith of Dady, Fla., sitting on a heap of captured Jap Samurai swords at the Ustunomiyama arsenal on Northern Honshu Island in Japan. The wicked weapons are most highly prized among souvenirs of World War II. Thousands of them were gathered by the 3,443rd Ordnance company of the Eighth Army. Smith's outfit, and sent to the arsenal. ### Authors Talk Tuesday Night

Lewis Browne, author, lecturer and world traveler, and Ely Culbertson, lecturer and contract bridge expert, will open the university lecture series with a discussion at 8 p. m. Tuesday in the main lounge of Iowa Union. The topic will be "What About Rhythm? Two Points of View."

Although Culbertson first gained recognition as an authority on contract bridge, he has developed a wide attention. His early years were spent in Russia where he took part in the revolution.

Lewis Browne, historian and travel writer, has lectured in America, Europe and Asia. Among the books he has written are "This Believing World" and, recently, "See What I Mean!"

Free admission tickets for the discussion are now available at the Union desk. All tickets that are not claimed by students will be distributed among townspeople.

Included in this year's schedule for the lecture series are: Madam Pandit of India, Dec. 11; Louis Bromfield, author, Feb. 12; Robert St. John, NBC commentator, April 3.

Foreign Students Teach Languages By Imitation

Nine foreign students, whose native countries range from Costa Rica to Belgium, are introducing a new method of learning a foreign language by imitation in Spanish and French drill classes.

From Latin America come six of this year's Spanish drill masters: Odelle Chaves, Hilda Chen-Apuy and Margeurita Straber of Costa Rica; Nilda Castro of Peru; Marta Priceno of Chile, and Josefina Chaves of Colombia.

Miss Chen-Apuy is back for her second year at the university. She is a member of Pi Lambda Theta, national honor society for women in education. Another Costa Rican is Miss Straber, who is studying pre-dentistry. Miss Odette Chaves is studying commerce here.

Miss Priceno is learning American methods of physical education which she plans to put into practice in her native Chile. Josefina Chaves is interested in physiotherapy, and Miss Castro's major is sociology.

In the French department this year are three young French-speaking women—Marge Hoover Parker and Jacqueline Ragner, both from Paris, and Andre Jossogne from Belgium.

Psychology is the primary interest of Miss Parker, who plans to work for her M.A. degree. Miss Ragner has spent four years in the United States, but this is her first experience in the middle west.

Majoring in psychology is Miss Jossogne, who has been in the United States for five years.

Catholic Chapel Offers Communion

Holy communion for 100 members of the Catholic Daughters of America will be offered at St. Thomas More chapel at the Catholic Student Center at 8 o'clock this morning.

October activities will be completed with a Halloween party Tuesday at 6:30 p. m. in the Knights of Columbus hall.

Mrs. Thomas Kelly will be in charge of arrangements. Assisting will be Mrs. L. C. Fitzpatrick and Mrs. Lois Vedepo, co-chairmen; Margaret Dwyer, Wanda Elberts, Mrs. Frank Englert, Helen Goering, Mary Giffin, Margaret Milder and Mrs. Margaret Tillson.

Loretta Rummelhart, Arthur J. Kantor To Wed Tomorrow

In a double ring ceremony tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock, Loretta Rummelhart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Rummelhart, 320 S. Johnson street, will become the bride of Arthur J. Kantor of Jersey City, N. J., in St. Mary's church. The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Carl Meinberg will read the vows and offer the nuptial mass before an altar banked with fall flowers and white chrysanthemums.

Nuptial selections will include a vocal solo "Ave Maria" presented by Mrs. Mary Schmidt, accompanied by Zita Fuhrmann.

Kathryn Rummelhart of Iowa City will attend her sister as maid of honor, and Frank Goffe of Jersey City will serve as best man.

Dressmaker Suit

The bride will be attired in a light blue dressmaker suit, complemented with a blue ostrich feather hat. Her colonial bouquet will be of pink roses.

The maid of honor will wear a black suit, accented with pink accessories, and her shoulder corsage will be of white chrysanthemums.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Rummelhart has selected a luggage tan dress, with which she will wear black accessories. Her shoulder corsage will be of bronze chrysanthemums.

Immediately following the ceremony a wedding breakfast for the family will be served at Hotel Jefferson.

ness office and in Oklahoma City, Okla.

Mr. Kantor received his B.A. and M.A. degrees from Seton Hall college in South Orange, N. J. He took additional work at Columbia university and Fordham university in New York City. He was recently discharged from the army and is now employed as director of the Rolla, Mo., USO. The couple will reside in Rolla.

Prof. James Jones Contributes Chapter To Pharmacy Text

Prof. James W. Jones of the college of pharmacy has contributed a chapter entitled "Heat and Refrigeration" to a new textbook on pharmacy, "American Pharmacy," Dean Rudolph A. Kuever of that college is one of the advisory editors.

The book is in four volumes with the first one already off the press, the others to appear within the next two years.

The first volume containing Professor Jones' chapter presents fundamental principles of pharmacy. Succeeding volumes will treat inorganic and organic medicinal substances, principles of dispensing and pharmaceutical chemistry.

Congregational Church Group Elects Officers

Last Sunday the Congregational Student fellowship elected the following officers:

Vicki VanDuzer, A3 of Waterloo, president; Tom Lawton, E1 Meyer, A3 of Ackley, secretary; of Victor, vice president; Lorraine Henry Edwards, A3 of Cleveland Heights, Ohio, treasurer; Dorothy Coates, A2 of Nashua, supper chairman; Dick Rasmussen, C2 of Forest City, inter-varsity council representative; Jean Meggers, A1 of McGregor, program chairman.

Symphony Orchestra To Feature Modern American Selection

The work of an American composer that 50 years ago was a forecast to modern music will be presented by the university symphony orchestra in the opening concert of the season Wednesday at Iowa Union.

This selection, "Symphonic Sketches" (Chadwick) sounds new and American because of its free use of jazz and swing rhythms. George Whitefield Chadwick, the composer, does not hesitate to use camp-meeting tunes and dancehall syncopations.

Of the four sketches the first, "Jubilee," may be described as "a real celebration." The second, "Noel," is tender and peaceful, befitting Christmas eve. The last two sketches are humorous. "A Vagrom Ballad" describes the adventures and misadventures of a truly American hobo as he tramps the rails.

Wednesday's program also includes Beethoven's "Fifth Symphony" and the prelude from

"Lohengrin" (Wagner).

Hawks Not Depressed by 52-20 Loss; Boeringer Praises Spirit

By JACK SCHROEDER
Through the congestion and noise in the Iowa dressing room could be heard the voice of Hawk Coach Bud Boeringer who was congratulating the Hawkeyes for their excellent show of fight and spirit in yesterday's 52-20 defeat by Indiana.

"You played a good ball game," the Hawk coach said, "but you can't spot a Big Ten team 20 points and still beat them. And that is exactly what we did. We handed the Hoosiers three touchdowns at the very outset and we had to start from there."

Boeringer had reference to the first three Hoosier touchdowns that consisted of a pass interception a blocked punt and a fumble that resulted in a 64 yard touchdown for the score-hungry Indiana eleven.

The Iowa squad was especially tired after the grueling battle as they trudged slowly into the dressing room but were fired with enthusiasm after having broken into the scoring column in Big Ten competition.

Although most fans believed it was Wayne Spurbeck who fell on the blocked punt in the last quarter, it was later revealed to have been Dick Meyer, substitute end who gave Iowa its third touchdown.

In that exciting last period, Paul Fagerlind was knocked out on a savage block and was at a loss to know where he was until he arrived in the Iowa locker room. After Spurbeck replaced him in the lineup, Fagerlind wandered over to the Indiana bench and then to the Hoosier locker room.

"I certainly fouled up plenty chances out there," commented Walter Thorpe, Iowa's 175 pound substitute fullback who was truly the hero of yesterday's game.

Field umpire E. C. Kreiger who was well worn out after the fast moving fray added, "Everything in the books happened out there this afternoon."

Coach Clem Crowe explained the Hawk surge of power in the fourth quarter by explaining, "We were clicking better and the plays were run correctly."

There was much discussion over Coach Bo McMillin using his first team through most of the game. McMillin's explanation of this was that he "just wanted to see what the boys could do." On this Boeringer commented, "Any coach should know what his team can do after piling up 52 points."

Iowa's casualties were comparatively light. Aside from Fagerlind, who was taken to hospital for examination, Nelson Smith was soundly jarred with a vicious tackle in that exciting last quarter and possibly re-injured his ribs. Ira Lund suffered minor bruises and Carl Bowen was shaken up with a savage tackle. Walt Thorpe also was taken to the hospital to examine a possibly cracked rib.

HERO IN DEFEAT

WALTER THORPE
Iowa Fullback

WALT THORPE, hard-running third string fullback, was Iowa's man of the hour yesterday. He sparked the team with some stirring runs in the fourth quarter that led to three hurried touchdowns. The Rock Island army dischargee was injured during the game and later taken to University hospitals for examination of a possible rib fracture.

Franklin Wins State Prep Track Meet Here

Franklin high of Cedar Rapids ran away with honors yesterday morning in the 24th annual running of the state inter-scholastic one mile team races. The team, composed of Lloyd Ewart, James Nolan, Keith Sanford and Robert Sneckenberger captured third, fourth and fifth places in the sixty-four cent race.

Single honors went to Paul Sloan, East Des Moines, as he ran the mile in 4:38.3. His first place coupled with two of his team mates finishing eighth and fourth respectively gave the capital city squad the number two spot in the final results. Another Des Moines school, North high, finished third.

In the class B section, Cresco

Badgers Tie Illinois, 7-7

MADISON, Wis., (AP)—Wisconsin and Illinois fought to a 7 to 7 tie in a bruising Big Ten football game yesterday that saw Illinois fumble 11 times and the Badgers recover eight times after the teams had packed all of the scoring into a feverish first period.

The Illini swept into a 7 to 0 lead in the opening minutes on a brilliantly executed pass play. Wisconsin came back with the kickoff and went 65 yards on line plays to knot the score. That happened before the game was seven minutes old. After that it developed into a bruising defensive battle with Illinois losing many scoring opportunities through fumbles and Wisconsin bogging down after several good offensive maneuvers had taken them into Illini territory.

Illinois' best chance to break the tie came in the closing minutes when it marched from its own 44 to the Badger two only to lose the ball by a fumble on first down. An attempt at a field goal from the 26 yard line by Ray Jones, Illinois Linesman, also late in the final period, was a few feet wide of the posts.

was the winner, with Marion and University high of Iowa City following.

State Drops Huskers, 27-7; Warner Watches

AMES (AP)—Iowa State college, its offense sprinkled with long runs and hard downfield blocking, swept over Nebraska, 27-7 yesterday, with the Cyclones' first grid mentor, Glenn S. (Pop) Warner, watching from the stands as a special homecoming guest.

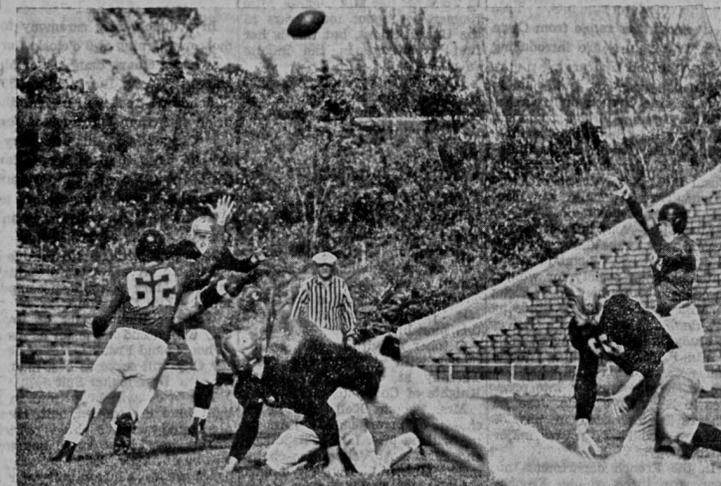

Nebraska's only score came on the first play of the last quarter, when with Iowa State having the ball on its own 17, Dick Howard started through the right side of his line, Gerald Moore, Husker fullback, stole the ball at the scrimmage line and ran over untouched to score.

AS HAWKS TOOK THIRD STRAIGHT DEFEAT

IOWA'S JERRY NILES, who scored the Hawks' first Big Ten touchdown yesterday, gets off a punt in the third quarter as opposing linemen rush in belatedly. Nelson Smith (66), halfback star who jarred his old rib injury again in the game, is on the ground at right. Ciolli, Hoosier guard (62) is closest to the kicker, having dodged past an Iowa blocker.

Irish Smother Pitt, 39 to 9

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Fought virtually to a standstill for two periods by a heated-up Pittsburgh eleven, Notre Dame proved its class by pouring across four touchdowns in the second half and winning going away, 39 to 9, before a packed crowd of 65,000 in Pitt stadium yesterday.

The Panthers, amazed even their own supporters by holding the undefeated Irish to a 12-2 score at the half and actually outplaying the South Benders through the greater part of the second quarter. Not, in fact, until after the final period opened was Coach Hugh Devore of the Irish able to relax and withdraw the star who makes his team click, Frank Daniewicz.

But for Daniewicz, with his dazzling runbacks of kicks and his unerring passing arm, Notre Dame might have been given a genuine fright. Only the fact that he passed for two of the Green's first three touchdowns and set up the third with a peg to the one-yard line enabled Notre Dame to stave off Coach Clark Shaughnessy's inspired scrappers through the early part of the contest and set them up for the knockout in the closing period.

The Panthers, who entered the game 30-point underdogs, ran up a net gain of 261 yards from scrimmage against 316 for the victors, and their total of first downs was 11 compared to Notre Dame's 14.

Michigan State Trips Wayne Eleven, 27-7

EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP)—Michigan State college's football team set back a weak Wayne university eleven, 27-7, yesterday for the Spartans' third straight victory.

Gopher Passes, Power Blast Wildcats, 30-7, In First League Win

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—Minnesota tried just about everything the fertile brain of Bernie Bierman could think up to overwhelm Northwestern, 30-7, before a homecoming crowd of 56,000 yesterday. Power plays, deception and passes took the Gophers down the field for four touchdowns after they had broken the scoring tie with a field goal from the educated toe of halfback Merlin Kispert in the second period.

Northwestern's expert passing combination of pitcher Jim Farrar and catcher Max Morris accounted for the lone Wildcat counter and kept the Gophers on their toes all the while.

Morris grabbed one pass from Farrar to put the ball on the Gopher 48-yard line and then shared another one to gallop 25-yards and across the goal line midway in the second period.

The Minnesota attack was geared to the Bierman formula of hitting 'em in the middle and hitting 'em hard. Only eight passes were attempted. Six were completed.

73,558 Fans See Buckeyes Break String

By HAROLD HARRISON
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Purdue's unbeaten and untied Boilermakers wrote "the end" yesterday to Ohio State's football winning streak with a masterful exhibition which produced a 35 to 13 victory over the Bucks, who had won their last 12 games.

A huge outpouring of 73,558 fans saw the Boilermakers blast the Bucks from the opening whistle and it wasn't until the final period that Ohio State was able to score.

The Boilermakers were almost letter perfect, ripping passing holes in the Ohio line and operating their deadly passing combination of Bob DeMoss, to Bill Canfield with such precision they had the Bucks hanging on the ropes all the way.

Purdue, now heading the Big Ten parade, scored in every period. Each touchdown was manipulated beautifully. The Boilermakers went 50 yards for the just tally Demoss' passes to Norman Maloney, Canfield and Norb Adams, setting it up for Ed Cody to smash over from the three-yard line.

The second period wrote Ohio State's doom as Purdue picked up 16 more points with a devastating passing attack. Twice Canfield got in behind Ohio defense men to take DeMoss-thrown passes for touchdowns. The first was from the 37-yard line. The second was from the seven. Cody went over a few plays earlier in that series but the ball was called back for a penalty.

Cornell Eleven Blasts Coe Gridders, 52-14; Rega, Smith Sparkle

MOUNT VERNON (AP)—Cornell, led by the passing combination of Rega to Smith, yesterday handed Coe, a traditional rival, a 52 to 14 beating—the worst since 1908.

Rega accounted for three touchdowns and passed to Virgil Smith for two more. George Burke, chat charging right half, added two to the Cornell total, and Glen Davidson scored one Pinky Capron and Chuck Jacot shared the point after touchdown honors, Capron getting two and Jacot one.

Coe got its two touchdowns in the last quarter, one play giving the entire length of the field to count.

Madsen Case Opens Monday

The trial of Mrs. Ruth Madsen for murder will open at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning in the district court at Tipton. The state supreme court yesterday denied a stay order on the trial which had been sought by attorneys for the state.

The purpose of the stay order would have been to have Mrs. Madsen returned to the state hospital for the insane in Cherokee, from which she was released recently. The superintendent of the Cherokee hospital has filed an appeal to her release in district court there.

Mrs. Madsen has filed an appeal in the state supreme court to stay action on her appeal. The high court will not act on her appeal until January.
Mrs. Madsen will stand trial for the murder of her husband at their home near West Branch in September, 1942. The state alleges that he was shot in the back of the head with a shotgun. She was under parole from the state hospital at the time.

Recently the district court at Cherokee held that she had recovered her sanity and granted her a writ of habeas corpus. Her attorneys are Edward L. O'Connor of Iowa City and J. C. France of Tipton.

Glockler Presents Chemistry Award

Prof. George Glockler, head of the chemistry department of the university, gave the presentation speech and awarded the American Chemical Society Award in Pure Chemistry to Prof. Fred Wall of the University of Illinois in Chicago Friday night.

The award, given to the young chemist who does the most outstanding work in pure chemistry each year, consists of $1,000 donated by Alpha Chi Sigma, professional chemical fraternity.
Professor Glockler was the research director of the thesis on physical chemistry written by Professor Wall at the University of Minnesota.
Professor and Mrs. Glockler are guests of the Chicago section of the American Chemical society this weekend.

R. Westbrook Joins
American College
Faculty in England
Robert R. Westbrook, a former student at the university, is a new member of the faculty at Shrivensham American university in England.
He joined the faculty of 130 civilian educators and 100 military instructors at the army's information and education division university at the opening of the second term. He will instruct soldier-students who are taking business administration courses.
Westbrook also attended the University of Minnesota. He was in the United States navy during World War I and was on active duty with the naval reserve from 1918 to 1922.

"LET'S GO STEPPING"

If the doctor has prescribed for your welfare vitamins, you will want the best possible concentrate. Edward S. Rose of the DRUG SHOP can be depended upon to safely fill your prescription. Since nowhere is the integrity and experience of the maker of more important than in the field of vitamin production, you will want a dependable establishment like the DRUG SHOP to supply your vitamins.

There's a little saying that goes, "Pat now, Pat forever; Kelly now, but not forever." We're not betting on that, however, because there's a certain Navy Lieut., name of Hal Kelly, who has a high rating with one Pat Kelly, Currier, Minneapolis is conveniently close to you, we might add.

A young woman's heart turns to flowers anytime in the year so, fellows, remember this with a special date arises. CURTIS FLOWER SHOP is always glad to help you choose what's right for the next dance or football game.

Flash! . . . something new in the milk-drinking world, fellas and gals. You tired of this tasteless milk? Then just try some of the Swaner Dairy's Mello-D homogenized milk, rich in minerals and vitamins. You'll really go for its tempting flavor that goes so well with those sandwich lunches after classes. What's more, Mello-D milk contains nutritive ingredients necessary to keep 'way those winter colds so . . . try Swaner's today.

At last we've found the ideal socks at BREMERS called "Jumps." They retain their original size no matter how many times they're washed and they are made of the finest all wool. You'll want them nice and roomy, so choose your size between 10 and 13. The ivory white will blend with everything and they're only 85c.

It's a big ole reunion this weekend for Terry Noe (Tri Delt, now of Chicago) and Phi Delt, Pete Torvik. In case you haven't kept up with this romance—their pin chaining was a summer session event.

Even the name VARSITY-HAWKEYE tells you that these cabs are at the service of you students. The drivers are dependable, the service is quick, and the rates are low. Call them anytime—to meet trains and busses, to make classes on time, to take your dates. They'll be there when you need them, so dial 3177 and one of the cabs with the green lights will pick you up promptly.

BRENNEMAN'S VEGETABLE MARKET has all you could ask for when it comes to super quality apples, grapes, melons and of course that ever favorite, cider. When you're ready to decorate for fall parties you'll find the traditional pumpkin is handy at BRENNEMAN'S also.

The colonel's daughter on an army post is any girl's dream, and this summer it must have even appealed to Jane Zeck, Pi Phi, who's usually uninterested in the male species, because L.E. Bud Thorpe is visiting her this weekend and that usually means something!

Saturday was a busy day for those Zetas who shouldered rakes and helped their Delta Chi pledge dates with the duty of raking leaves. As a result, the Delta Chi pledge motto has become "Data Zeta!"

Imagine giving yourself a permanent! You can do it too, in 2 to 3 hours at home. Everyone's talking about the lovely, lasting waves and soft curling ringlets you get with a PORTRAIT home permanent. It's fun to do, and easy—and inexpensive too.

PORTRAIT wave kit is complete. It contains all the curlers, waving lotion and neutralizer you'll need for a long-lasting curl. PORTRAIT preparations are like those used in beauty-salon type permanents costing up to $15 and more and are laboratory tested. Ask the cosmetician for a PORTRAIT today. Only $1.49 plus tax at your FORD HOPKINS STORE.

Familiar words 'round campus . . . "C'mon over to the AIR-LINER after class." That's right, you can get that old energy back after the ever-popular double feature . . . grilled sandwiches and S.U.I.'s favorite beverage. By the way, stop in for dinner some evening too and try their yummy steaks. We bet you make THE AIRLINER tops on your lists of "musts".

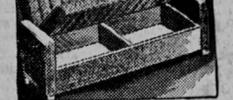

As of Wednesday night, John Mitchell's Phi Rho pin has been keeping steady company with Miriam Vieth's Alpha Chi lyre and they make a good-looking twosome.

Seems the Navy took the offensive at the Delta Gamma house this week. Strategic result . . . a Phi Gam pin for Jane Scheerer from Lt. (J.E.) Jim Pilscher, formerly of the U. of Michigan and stationed at present in Dallas.

Fleet's in as far as Luella Brown is concerned. Yep, Charles Sanders U.S.N.R. of Seattle, Washington is here for the weekend to see how his Delta Tau Delta pin from the U. of Washington is doing these days. Incidentally, there's a diamond in the bargain too . . .

Intelligent planning by home-makers can help to relieve Iowa City's crowded living conditions. Service personnel, veterans and other students are clamoring for rooms and apartments, and under these circumstances, a space savers are invaluable. The most practical one we can think of is McNamara's new luxury lounge—a sofa bed.

This attractive lounge plays a dual role, for at night it actually amounts to an extra bed in your room—large, easy to make up, and complete with a comfortable inner-spring mattress. During the daytime it quickly slips into character as a lovely modernistic sofa, covered with a smart new fabric which blends in perfect harmony with your decorative scheme.

To add to the surprises which this luxury lounge offers, there's a roomy storage compartment where bedding can be tucked safely away out of sight.

The intelligent way is the saving way, and you'll be saving space and dollars by combining practicality with attractiveness in the purchase of a luxury lounge at McNamara's.

Our apologies to Joan Young and Westy Ralston for not acknowledging the pin hanging of several weeks ago, but things happened so fast it took us a while to catch up with you. Now we see it's just a case of one thing leading to another—first came the pledge prom and the big meeting—a few days later Joan was wearing both a Delta Gamma pledge pin and an ATO pin.

No can do? Well, gals, you don't have to bake 'cause THE PURITY BAKERY is your solution to baking problems. Just try their wide selection of homemade cookies . . . brownies, butter-scotch-pecan, oatmeal-raisin, English rocks, fruit bars, sugar cookies . . . just to mention a few. How about that . . . why not perk up those desserts with PURITY homemade bakery goods this week?

You want to keep your fall wardrobe really sharp looking? Well, your answer is DAVIS CLEANER'S on the corner of Iowa and Dubuque streets. Managed by a student for all S.U.I. students, DAVIS is hard to beat . . . An air-filtered cleaning process, 10 percent discount books for students only, and last but not least QUICK service . . . need we say more?

Jerry Niles received a brand new shiny Sig Ep pin by mail Friday and we predict that by the time this goes to press it will be hanging side by side with the Theta diamond of 'Gitsie Lewis, transfer from Drake. This has been the biggest and speediest amour so far this year for it only took a week. It's our guess that it's here to stay—just definitely!

Out-of-this-world food plus a friendly atmosphere minus inefficient service equals . . . the Princess Cafe. That combination adds up to delicious meals everyday of the week except Tuesdays. So why not take us up on it and try the Princess today . . . just a block and a half off campus.

Wedding bells, rice, and old shoes were the order of the day Saturday for the Delta Gamma's Marmie Leopard and Red Baker U.S.N. decided there was no time like the present. Can't blame them, can you?

First prize for the most socially active pledge class goes to the Phi Deltas — not satisfied with the customary one skip night, the Phi Delt pledges inaugurated to skip three times, to the delight of their actives. First skip night was with the Gamma Phi pledges; the second, and only official one, was with the Pi Phi's; and as the pledges told the actives, it was a social obligation to skip with the ADP's the following night. Erstwhile pledge president Gerald Morgan went down protesting.

Where to Go . . .

A "find" for a fair maiden . . . We mean the leopard stenciled Latin stroller fur coat with mouton cuffs worn by Ellie Taylor, Pi Phi. Further dramatization is achieved with the two-piece lime jersey Perry Brown dress, accentuated by the brown felt spool sailor hat.
Russ Hounshell, Phi Delt, admires the complete ensemble which Ellie selected at STRUB'S FASHION CENTER.

It is as traditional as Old Capitol itself . . . Canoeing has always been a favorite pastime at SUI. What could be a better way to spend these beautiful autumn days than drifting down the Iowa River in a canoe, en route to a picnic, perhaps. The very best canoes are available at FITZGERALD'S boathouse, just north of the Iowa Union. Call your best gal and head for FITZGERALD'S this afternoon.

The colonel's daughter on an army post is any girl's dream, and this summer it must have even appealed to Jane Zeck, Pi Phi, who's usually uninterested in the male species, because L.E. Bud Thorpe is visiting her this weekend and that usually means something!

You needn't be in the dark anymore — not when MULLFORD'S have light bulbs in all sizes to brighten your room and your smile. You won't be exasperated when a bulb burns out unexpectedly if you have a supply of them to meet emergencies. Studying is made easier and more pleasant when adequate lighting is provided. MULLFORD'S ELECTRICAL SERVICE will meet your needs, so stop in at 122 S. Clinton tomorrow.

Do you yearn to be a campus beauty? Are there times when you need a makeup especially designed to hide small skin blemishes? Have you heard about Chen Yu's new Cloudsilk cake makeup? Then try Cloudsilk today. It's exquisitely fragrant, smooth as a flower petal and leaves a satiny finish to all type skins. In six luscious shades for $2 plus tax at FORD HOPKINS. P. S. Chen Yu makes refills too.

Yes, it's true—it takes lots of shoes to keep busy campus feet well shod. Also, campus shoes need to be trim and sturdy like STRUB'S casuals with many styles in black and brown. You'll like the brown and white color combination or the smart gabardine wedgies with closed or open toes which are right for semi-dress dates. Whatever your shoe needs, you'll find them in STRUB'S upstairs shoe department.

Until you've been out to Doc 'n Betty's Two Mile Inn you just aren't a full-fledged SUI-Iowan, because it's the place where the college crowd goes for tops in food and enjoyment. When you hear Doc's cheery "Hi!" as you walk in the door and when you taste some of Betty's delicious chocolate cake, you'll be convinced that this is a part of college which no student should miss. See you at the Two Mile Inn most any time.
