Nationalists Refused Entry Into Manchuria

Chinese Communists Threaten 'Stay Out Of Liberated Areas'

CHUNGKING (AP)—Chinese Communists issued a blunt "stay out" warning yesterday to Nationalist troops waiting ominously by the thousands on Manchuria's southern border, along the historic great wall near American-guarded Chinwangtao.

The Reds cancelled abruptly a scheduled afternoon peace talk in Chungking and said they would oppose entry of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's troops into Manchuria or any other "liberated areas."

The government, they charged, is using 49 armies aggregating 127 divisions—nearly 1,000,000 men—for "this civil war," plus 350,000 puppet troops. Forty-nine of the government divisions are supplied wholly or partly with American equipment, they asserted.

U. S. Involved
Chiang's troops, pouring from American transports in the American-secured north China port of Chinwangtao, are facing "strong Communist forces" along the great wall 10 miles to the north—ready for the main round of China's undeclared war, Associated Press Correspondent Richard Bergholz reported from the scene.

Semi-official sources in Chungking confirmed his report, conceding that the government likely will make its major drive to Manchuria by moving eastward from the Chinwangtao area along the Peiping-Mukden (Manchuria) railroad. Nationalists hope to reach Manchuria this month to replace withdrawing Russian occupation forces.

A Chinese Red spokesman asserted that many air planes were massed at Peiping, ready to carry government troops to Changchun, Manchurian capital. He inferred that Reds had no way of blocking airborne movements, but added that if any passage of ground forces through liberated areas were attempted it would instantly be challenged.

Must Withdraw
He included the railroad town of Peitaiho, near Chinwangtao, in the liberated areas from which, he said, nationalists must withdraw if the government is to comply with Red demands for a return to pre-fighting status. He insisted that Peitaiho was taken forcibly from the Communists by government troops spearheaded by United States marines.

The Communists addressed a vigorous protest to President Truman against American "armed intervention in Chinese internal affairs," and asserted that weapons which America made to defeat Japan "have through the hands of Lt. Gen. Albert C. Wedemeyer (United States Commander in China) become weapons for slaughtering the Chinese people."

5 Bodies Recovered After Plane Collision At Corpus Christi

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex. (AP)—Five bodies had been recovered from Corpus Christi bay yesterday, some of the collision of two navy planes which cost the lives of 22 men Thursday night.

Two long-range patrol seaplanes, skimming about 200 feet above the surface of the bay in the dark, collided and sank about eight miles out.

Six survivors were picked up. One died at the naval hospital, and the condition of the other five was reported serious but favorable yesterday.

The bodies of sixteen other men listed by the navy as "presumed lost" are still being sought.

After the collision one plane plummeted into the waters immediately but the pilot of the second plane fought a short vain battle to regain control. His ship was seen to wobble awkwardly and then fall, striking the water with terrific force.

Basic Labor Issues Faced by Conference

Employers, Workers Agree on Collective Bargaining Proposals

WASHINGTON (AP)—The labor-management conference was said yesterday to have cleared the collective bargaining shoals on which the postwar parley of 1919 foundered.

Dr. George W. Taylor, conference secretary, gave this word to reporters as employer and worker delegates, behind closed committee doors, sought agreement on basic labor relations issues.

Dr. Taylor, former war labor board chairman, said that in all of the six conferences committees it was "fair to say" that there was full acceptance of the collective bargaining principle.

Twenty six years ago the conference that followed World War I broke up in angry disagreement because it could not adopt a resolution stating that workers are entitled to be represented by unions or persons of their own choosing.

While such a right now is written into the Wagner labor relations act, Taylor seemed to view this general acceptance of the principle as a wholesome indication for the current sessions.

However, the committee set up to study collective bargaining declarations which could be endorsed by the conference has made no report thus far, and Dr. Taylor said it was "still analyzing" procedures.

A committee on existing collective agreements studying wildcat and "quickie" strikes, Taylor said, appeared to be in agreement that there is to be a no-strike, no lockout clause in contracts, there must be some quick terminal point in grievance procedure. A provision for deciding grievances based on contract interpretations is needed, Taylor said.

A committee looking into ways to strengthen the conciliation service is hearing conciliation commissioners and others.

96-Year-Old German Military Leader Dies

LUENEBURG, Germany (AP)—Field Marshal August von Mackensen, the last member of Germany's famed triumvirate of the first World war, died Thursday night at his estate near Celle.

The bony old cavalry leader, who served with Von Hindenburg and Von Ludendorff in making modern Germany military history, would have been 96 years old on Dec. 9.

He had not been on active duty since 1920, but he remained an implacable foe of Russia and openly supported Adolf Hitler in his rise to power and his military aggressions.

Von Mackensen was a veteran of the Franco-Prussian war of 1870-71. He was one of the German leaders at the battle of Tannenberg in which the Russians met with disaster at the outset of the first World war in 1914.

He commanded a German army at the capture of Brest-Litovsk and in 1915, after becoming a field marshal, formed a new army group named after himself.

Secretary Forrestal Criticizes Doolittle's Testimony

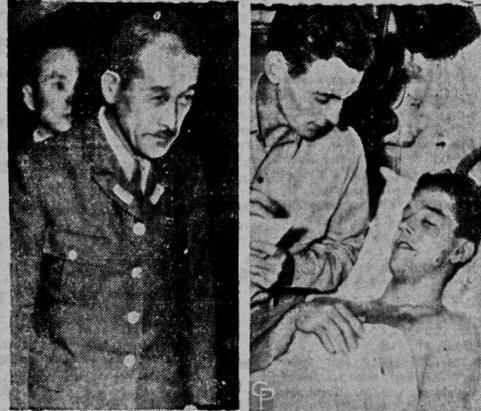

WASHINGTON (AP)—The army-navy quarrel over proposals to merge the armed forces grew so hot yesterday that the secretary of the navy protested directly to the secretary of war over testimony given by Lt. Gen. James H. Doolittle.

Doolittle had told the senate military affairs committee that "our B-29 boys are resting uneasily in their graves" because of naval commanders' claims about the part their forces played in the Pacific victory.

Quickly, Secretary of the Navy Forrestal displaced a letter to Secretary of War Patterson urging that an "honest difference of principle" not be allowed to "degenerate into an exchange of personalities."

He said he questioned whether "death in any particular line of duty—and the resultant grief at home—should be appealed to in

Eisenhower To Testify

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP)—United States headquarters announced yesterday Gen. Eisenhower would leave "within a few hours" to testify before congressional committees in Washington and authoritative sources predicted his trip was a prelude to an assignment to succeed Gen. George C. Marshall as army chief of staff, perhaps late in December.

The official announcement said Eisenhower would return to Europe Nov. 23 after testifying in the capital and appearing in Boston and Chicago.

It was learned that Eisenhower's trip home had been requested by the war department. The famous American commander is expected to advocate to congress the consolidation of armed forces into a national department of defense. He was one of the original and most outspoken advocates of unification of the armed services into one striking force as the chief lesson of the war.

Eisenhower also is expected to report to President Truman on the status of military government in Germany.

If Eisenhower becomes chief of staff, sources here expect he will be succeeded as commander in Germany by Gen. Joseph T. McNarney, former United States commander in the Mediterranean theater.

Iowa Citian W. Pohler Killed in South Dakota

MOBRIDGE, S. D. (AP)—William F. Pohler, 42, of Iowa City, was killed yesterday when he was run over by a freight train in the railroad yards here.

Pohler, employed by the Snow Construction company of Chicago as foreman of a Milwaukee line change project, was on his way to a bunkhouse near the yards and apparently started to crawl under a freight and was caught when the train pulled out.

Secretary Forrestal Criticizes Doolittle's Testimony

order to advance any individual point of view."

The army is backing plans to consolidate the war and navy departments, and the navy is opposing them.

During the senate committee hearing this morning on the merger plans, Senator Hill (D., Ala.) asked Doolittle if he would comment about two recent statements Hill attributed to top ranking navy admirals: one by Admiral Chester W. Nimitz crediting sea power with forcing the Japanese surrender; the other by Admiral Mark Mitscher saying navy carrier-based craft won the air war with Japan.

"Admiral Nimitz and Admiral Mitscher are great commanders," said the general who led the first bombing raid on Japan. "But this war was won by teamwork. Each of the three agencies did its best. No single agency alone was responsible. I do feel very strongly it was not seapower that compelled Japan to sue for peace. And that it was not carrier strength that won the air war."

Truman Signs Tax Cut Bill

First Reduction Since 1929 Lowers Income Estimated 6 Billion

WASHINGTON (AP)—Federal tax cuts for everybody in 1946 are now an assured fact.

The White House announced yesterday that President Truman has signed the bill lopping an estimated $5,920,000,000 off the total of taxes that will be paid by individuals and corporations next year.

It will be the first general tax reduction since 1929, when President Hoover signed a "Christmas present" slash. Congressional sponsors of the cuts argued that they would stimulate business to such an extent that the treasury actually may not suffer a loss in revenue. The total cut is nearly $1,000,000,000 larger than that recommended by the government.

The legislation was signed by Mr. Truman Thursday night. Here is what it will do:

For individuals—ends income tax paying entirely for 12,000,000 persons who now pay only the three percent normal tax levied on all net income above $500; assures 10 percent or more reductions for persons making up to $50,000 a year, with smaller percentage cuts for those making more than $50,000; repeals the $5 a year use tax on automobiles, trucks and boats; holds at one percent for 1946 the social security tax assessed against employees' pay checks and employers' payrolls.

For corporations—Repeals the wartime excess-profits tax of 85.5 percent.

For veterans—Forgives all tax levies on the wartime service pay of enlisted men and gives others three years in which to settle taxes imposed on their wartime pay.

Withholding of individual income taxes from employees' paychecks will be continued. Anticipating approval of the legislation, the treasury already has sent some of its 1946 tax forms to the printer.

Three High School Students Injured In Auto Collision

Three Iowa City high school students were injured, two seriously, yesterday at 3:45 p. m. when the pick-up truck in which they were riding overturned at College and Gilbert streets after colliding with another car.

David Kupka, 222 S. Lucas street, suffered a severe cut over his left ear, a fractured collarbone and abrasions of the left knee.

Paul Dunlop, 1608 Kirkwood avenue, suffered a fractured pelvis and possible head injuries.

Margaret Lee, 1832 Muscatine avenue, suffered cuts and bruises about the face and hands.

Richard Paul Brown, 15, of North Liberty, was the driver of the truck, which skidded 68 feet and then overturned after colliding with a car driven by Hazel Schnare of route 3. Brown was traveling west on College street and Mrs. Schnare north on Gilbert street. The point of impact was 17 1/2 feet north of the center line on College street.

There were 13 students in the back of the truck and two riding in the cab. The three injured were taken to Mercy hospital by police. Mrs. Schnare and Brown were uninjured.

That real he-man weather that smashed its way into Iowa City Thursday is going to stay around quite a while longer. Today the sky will be cleared but the sun is going to keep far away so that it won't get frostbitten. The mercury will stay shivering down in a corner of its narrow dungeon.

Yesterday the mercury stayed above freezing only seven hours. And it got no higher than 38 but it did get down to 22. It was probably colder than that last night.

Stockholders Close A. J. Higgins Industry

Voting Action Taken After AFL Walkout In New Orleans

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Stockholders of Higgins Industries, Inc., New Orleans, yesterday (Friday) backed up their president's stand on labor relations by voting to liquidate the boat-building company because of a strike.

Other prime labor developments:
1. The CIO United Automobile workers rejected General Motors proposed compromise of the union's 30 percent wage rate increase demands.

2. The navy announced return to private control of three Ohio oil refineries seized as the result of strikes.

3. Ford Motor company employees belonging to the CIO-UAW voted to authorize a strike in support of their wage demands, the national labor relations board announced. Union officials emphasized that a strike would not be called unless all negotiations fail.

The Higgins stockholders' action yesterday resulted from the announcement of Andrew J. Higgins, president of the big gulf boat-building works, that he was closing his three plants "for keeps" in the midst of a walkout of 2,000 AFL workers who protested his refusal to negotiate a new contract.

The Higgins stockholders announced they unanimously voted to "place the company and all of its subsidiaries in voluntary liquidation out of court."

Higgins and Morris Gottesman, secretary-treasurer of the firm, were named co-liquidators.

The liquidators will, if it is possible for them to do so, complete all contracts on hand," the announcement said.

Ohio refineries which the navy said it would return to private operation at 12:01 a. m. today were Standard Oil company of Ohio at Lima, the Canton Refining division of the Central Pipeline company, Canton, and the Sun Oil company, Toledo.

These and 50 others were taken over by the navy on Oct. 5 by presidential order after CIO oil workers struck for a 30 percent wage rate increase. The three companies asked for release on the ground that there was no labor dispute at present.

In turning down the General Motors offer, CIO-UAW assailed the proposal as "pure economic poison."

Acceptance of an eight to ten percent increase, the union contended, would result in "chronic mass unemployment, scarcity in the midst of over-production," and "a return within three years to the three or four day work week and a six months working year for those who get jobs at all."

Some new strikes started in Philadelphia and Albany, N. Y., but the national total of persons off the job because of labor troubles hovered around the 275,000 mark where it has been the last few days.

Rumor That Stalin May Join In Talks on Atomic Energy

LONDON (AP)—Prime Minister Attlee flew last night toward Washington for atomic energy talks which he hoped would help achieve a world "safe for the common man" and banish fear of the atomic bomb.

Speaking at a lord mayor's luncheon, Attlee said he would discuss world affairs with President Truman and Canadian Prime Minister W. L. Mackenzie King "in the light, the terrible light, of the discovery of atomic energy."

"I go to the consideration of these high matters not downcast or depressed," he said, "but in a spirit of high endeavor to try to serve my fellow men."

London newspapers speculated that Premier Stalin might join Truman and Attlee for big three conferences in Washington, but a spokesman at No. 10 Downing street said "As far as we know here, there is nothing in that report."

Santa vs. Atoms

Sociology, Psychiatry Disagree

BALTIMORE (AP)—The atomic bomb was brought up yesterday as an argument against — of all things—Santa Claus.

Sociology Professor Ivan E. McDougale of Goucher college yesterday said that Americans can do the scientific sort of thinking which brought the atomic bomb but can't do the sort of thinking which would consign Santa Claus to what Dr. McDougale thinks is his overdue resting place — the junk pile.

"The Santa Claus myth has lived too long in terms of child psychology," Dr. McDougale said. "Children have to learn to get along."

And when it comes to living too long, "so has the stork myth," McDougale added.

It wasn't that Professor McDougale forgot how close it's getting to Christmas, but just a question of facing the facts with facts.

"We are a super-scientific people," he continued. "We can solve material problems, but if we try to solve social problems they say we are setting up a 'brain trust.' They laugh at it. We don't face facts with immaterial problems."

McDougale didn't find complete agreement, however, from one psychiatrist, Dr. George Preston, Maryland commissioner of mental hygiene.

Dr. Preston defended Santa warmly as a means of teaching the children kindness, generosity and honesty. "It is a valuable myth," he said, "and stories and myths are useful and harmless—but the truth is essential."

"We don't tell children that little Red Riding Hood is a factual person, or that Jack and the beanstalk is true. Well, why, then, tell them that Santa Claus is real?" "I believe in telling the truth."

Buried in Sand

DES MOINES (AP)—Ronald Tucker, 9, was buried for 20 minutes yesterday when a sand-bank cave collapsed on him, but firemen and policemen who dug him out found him conscious. At a hospital he appeared to have suffered only shock.

SETS SPEED RECORD AT 606 M. P. H.

CAPT. H. J. WILSON is shown in the cockpit of his British Gloster meteor aircraft, "Britannia," with which he set a new world's speed record of 606 miles per hour, topping the recognized mark of 469.2 miles per hour held by Germany. For the four runs necessary for the record, Wilson flew his jet-propelled craft over the Herne bay course in England. British jet-propelled.

Attlee's flight to Washington via Newfoundland was expected to take 19 1/2 hours.

To Address Congress
In Washington, congressional leaders arranged for Attlee to address a joint session of the house and senate at 11:30 a. m., CST, Tuesday.

"I want a world which will be safe for the common man," Attlee declared at the luncheon.

"London learned its lesson. Only by the world learning the same lesson can civilization endure. The foundation of world order must be laid in the hearts of men."

"I go to America with just this in view. I want to exchange ideas with the president and the prime minister of Canada to see how best we can lift from the ordinary man and woman this spectre of fear that haunts him today."

"I want to consider with them how best our common ideals of peace, freedom, tolerance and economic prosperity for all people can be realized."

Turning to foreign policy, Attlee said, "I think that you will wish me to express to President Truman our high approval of his recent speech, and our cordial acceptance of the 12 points which he laid down as the guiding principles to American policy."

"In particular we welcome the assurance of the continued active participation of the United States in world affairs."

Unity for Peace
Attlee asserted that in his view, "We must look to the United Nations and their close unity of purpose, especially that between Great Britain, the United States of America and Russia, as the foundation of peace."

Meanwhile a Moscow dispatch quoted political observers in the Soviet capital as saying they believed leaders of the United States and Britain might suggest a sharing of the secret of atomic energy if not the atomic bomb.

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Truman set aside a White House spare room last night for Prime Minister Attlee who arrives today for atomic energy discussions which may influence the future of world peace.

Occupied with preparations for the conferences in which the two will be joined by Prime Minister Mackenzie King of Canada, the president decided to forego his usual weekly news conference.

While British newspapers speculated that there was a possibility of a "Big Three" meeting soon, both the prime minister's office and the White House denied knowledge of any plans of Generalissimo Stalin of Russia to visit Washington.

The president, Mr. Attlee and Mr. Mackenzie King will hold a policy discussion aboard a yacht on the Potomac Sunday after paying an Armistice day visit to Arlington National cemetery.

University Employes Told They Must Obtain Social Security Cards

University of Iowa employes who want to receive benefits under the state old age and survivors insurance system must obtain social security numbers, according to E. T. Jolliffe, controller.

This week there was a temporary shortage of application blanks, but a new supply is now available at the post office stamp window or the university business office.

University employes and staff members should report their social security number to the university business office by Jan. 1, 1946.

Here's a Program for the Veterans to Start On

The university veterans association needs perform only one small task to be beneficial—it needs only to make new veterans feel at home on this campus.

The veterans association could do many other things—aid in solving the housing problem, be of service in promoting and directing campus activities, organize a club and other recreation for veterans' wives, aid government agencies, and represent the veterans in dealings with the university administration.

All of these things could be done, and done ably, by a well-organized veterans group. But the duty of making new veterans feel at home on the campus—some may call it a social duty, but it is more than that—is as important as any of the other possible activities of U. V. A.

After all, the incoming veterans must be oriented just like any other new students. But the veteran who is a new student differs from the freshman who is a new student because of his maturity and his background.

Therefore, the freshman orientation week, which fills the needs of new freshmen adequately, doesn't meet all that is required of adjusting a veteran to this university. Only friends can help the veteran, and that is where the U. V. A. must perform its duty.

The Daily Iowan makes this suggestion to the U. V. A.: If you want something constructive to do that will not only benefit the campus but also will help knit your organization together, formulate a program of helping veterans who are coming on the campus as new students.

Such a program would not be difficult for you to carry out, but it can be handled better by you than by the university or by any other organization. After you have made progress on that program—and it would require only a few weeks—then, with your new support and your new leaders, tackle some of the other problems.

Letters to the Editor

New Vets Group?

TO THE EDITOR:

All the controversy over the veterans association could be settled by the vets themselves.

My opinion is that a new veterans organization on the campus should be organized by all the vets. That should be better than an impotent, non-supported organization such as we now have.

Other vets have some opinions. Let's hear them.

Dale Sweet

Upholds U. V. A.

TO THE EDITOR:

This is in reply to a letter appearing on this page on Thursday, Nov. 8, which charged among other things that the university veterans association, through its executive committee, had by-passed the housing problem for married veterans.

At the beginning of this semester it became apparent that if any solution could be found to the housing problem, it should be found quickly. The university veterans association could not act as a group, including all veterans, for all veterans were not a part of the group, nor did they express any desire to become members.

The U. V. A., however, did not remain inactive on this question. The office of the president of the university was contacted, and it was revealed that the university was behind the veterans in their demands for housing; the university has done and will do everything within its power to cooperate with the U. V. A. on this particular subject and others which have and will arise.

The U. V. A. continued its efforts by consulting legal counsel, and we were so advised that: the law of Iowa provides that the state may provide dormitories for students; that the interpretation of the word "dormitories" by the attorney general was correct, in that the word includes sleeping quarters, and not apartments such as was contemplated by the legislature; that such opinion was a matter of law which could not be changed until the law itself was amended; that such amendment could come only through legislative action; and that a petition to the attorney general (which was later promoted by interests outside the U. V. A.) would therefore be to no avail.

We were advised that the best course to pursue would be to contact representatives or senators, gain their sympathy, and persuade them to introduce to the legislature such an amendment. This, of course, is referred to as "lobbying" and can not be successful without some expenditures. It was hoped that enough veterans would join the association so that this lobbying could be carried out, for it appeared to be the only way, but the veterans did not cooperate. If they do not come to meetings, how can the association tell them these things of importance and gain their support?

If the attorney general should reverse his opinion as requested by the petition, this will be a very surprising reversal, but we hope that he will do that very thing. If not, we hope that the veterans on the campus will become a part of the university veterans association so that we can perhaps carry out to success this issue, which is of such vital importance to all married veterans.

The program will also include a trial session of a simulated accident case. The course will be required of all men on the Iowa City police force with the exception of those who have ten or more years experience, Mayor Teeters said. These men may take the course if they desire, however.

The instruction staff will include: District Judge James P. Gaffney; District Judge Harold D. Evans; County Attorney Jack C. White; Attorney Arthur O. Leff; Lt. Col. Earl Gifford of the national guard; Prof. Rollin Perkins of the college of law; Prof. Richard Holcomb, director of the university's bureau of public affairs; City Attorney Kenneth M. Dunlop, and William T. Hageboeck, former business manager of The Daily Iowan.

The kickoff! Stick close to that that radio contraption 'round about 1:45 today for the Iowa-Illinois carried by WSUI through the courtesy of KRNT. This is a 'can't miss' and besides it's too cold to do anything else anyway.

The second in a series of programs, "Iowa Mornings" will be heard this morning at 8:15 over WSUI. Folk lore in Iowa will be the subject of discussion with Rosa Lee Shay, A4 of Maloy, acting as chairman. Others appearing on the program are Ruth Eddy, A3 of Council Bluffs, who will consider the superstitions found throughout Iowa; Jean Marie Ruppel, A4 of Grundy Center, who will present the variants of one of Iowa's treasure-hunt stories, and Lenore Morford, A2 of Dexter, who will talk about children's play games.

Just to prove that we haven't forgotten the networks, don't forget that Saturday night is Hit Parade night and airs at 8 p. m. via WMT. Said station also carries the Helen Hayes show at 6 which is always a safe bet of good listening.

From All Around The State

DES MOINES (AP)—Horace S. Hollingsworth, 77, widely known Des Moines social worker, died last night following a four-year illness.

He was former general secretary of associated charities of Des Moines and former financial secretary of the Iowa Children's Home society.

Hollingsworth helped organize the Iowa conference of social work in 1898 and served as its president in 1914. He was chairman of the committee at the state conference in 1924 which led to passage of six new children's laws designed to correct abuses and neglect, creating a children's bureau as part of the state board of control.

DES MOINES (AP)—District court action to force Johnnie and Carmella Critelli to vacate their tavern-restaurant in downtown Des Moines was filed yesterday. Hearing on the matter was scheduled for Nov. 19.

Bringing suit for forcible entry were trustees of the C. Huttenlocher estate, owners of the building. Their petition charged the Critellis had violated a 1944 lease

Iowans Rated Low Team Against Illinois Today

GASSIN' with GUS

By GUS SCHRADER

SO YOU'RE ONE of the folks who think it's kinda rough when you get caught in a long line of autos going to and from the stadium on football afternoons . . . That's bad, I'll admit, but after talking to Mrs. Nile Jones about the old days of Iowa football, I decided that our troubles aren't so bad after all . . . Mrs. Jones, whose late husband captained the 1904 team, attended the university when everybody drove their horses and buggies to the games, which then were held in the old stadium behind reserve library by the river . . . Well, they put in the CRANDIC railway in 1905 and that speeding monster was about as strange to the Hawkeye horses as a Big Ten football victory would be to Iowa right now . . . Mrs. Jones tells of the pandemonium when the horses bucked, balked and bolted when the tram went past and we're glad our car has seen trains before.

A RECENT COLUMN concerning the griping of Minneapolis sportswriters over Minnesota's two-game losing streak, fetched forth a few enlightening quips from our friend Gus Peterson, veteran newspaperman who used to hang out in Gopher-town . . . "Why those Minneapolis people don't know what it is to get whipped," says Pete. "Up there they start yelling if the team doesn't finish the season with nine victories in an eight-game schedule . . . Why I remember one fall when the sportswriters started an investigation when the Gophers slipped a little and won a couple games by the margin of only two or three touchdowns."

AND IT SEEMS TO US that these Pittsburgh U. students are purely amateurs at this business of taking defeats . . . Two days ago they circulated a petition demanding that Coach Shaughnessy, the real inventor of the "T" formation, be replaced as Pitt coach . . . Of course, if their claim that Shaughnessy really is doing a sloppy coaching job is true, then more power to 'em . . . But otherwise compare scores and you'll see that either we're getting tempered to consistent defeat here at Iow or else the Pitt kids just wanted to attract attention.

The Panthers lost to Purdue, 28-0, and to Notre Dame, 39-9 while Iowa was being snowed, 42-0 and 56-0 by the same teams . . . And heck, they were beaten by Temple and Michigan State by such ridiculously low margins as 6-0 and 12-7 . . . They should look to Iowa and feel like the man who said: "I complained because I had no shoes until I met a man who had no feet."

I GUESS THE TROUBLE is all over at Ohio State now between Coach Carroll Widdoes and the sportswriters . . . Most of the squabble grew out of the Paul Sarnginghaus dispute when "Oom Paul" told reporters he was quitting and Widdoes didn't like it . . . So he imposed an Ohio State "OWI" office of his own and wouldn't let players talk to newspapermen . . . But getting back to Sarnginghaus, I heard when I was at Columbus in October that the Buckeye star was pretty much a prima donna and not liked by either players or coaches . . . After leaving a string of gridiron stardust at Ohio State in 1942, he went to Annapolis and made only the third string there . . . And now I think he's feeling a little sorry for himself for not taking the big pro offer he turned down to return to play second fiddle for the Buckeyes this season.

COACH WIDDOES His Methods Extreme

PASS THE HASH

LAST WEEK Ronald Wulf, reserve Iowa center, was happy to receive his shoe in the mail from the Morrison hotel in Chicago . . . He'd lost it there after the Notre Dame defeat and had to come back on the train with one stocking foot . . . RED FRYE, sub center on the Iron Men team of 1939, came back to town this week with his wife . . . Red is through with the marines now after a fine service record . . . TOMMY HAND, Hawkeye down and erstwhile center sub, made his football experience come in handy during the Wisconsin-Iowa game last week . . . Entering the game when things were going bad for the Hawks, Tommy found everybody yelling at everybody else in the huddle with only confusion resulting . . . "Lissen, you mugs," T. warned the players, "we've got one quarterback here and he'll do the signal-calling . . . The rest of you shut up" . . . They did and the team managed to work together after that.

Phi Gams Top Section 2; Tie Between Gables, Pi KA in 3rd

With the exception of several games yet to be played next week, schedules have been completed in the intramural touch football league. The championship of section 1 has been decided, with the strong Sigma Nu squad heading the final standings.

In section 2, however, Phi Gamma Delta, currently the leader, has an all important contest scheduled for Tuesday evening with a greatly improved Delta Upsilon sextet, the darkhorse of that section. A DU victory would throw the section lead into a tie, necessitating a play-off.

Yet to be played in the small dormitory section is the game between Gables and Pi Kappa Alpha for the number one spot of that section. Both teams are undefeated.

Badgers, Wildcats Attempt Second Win

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — Northwestern and Wisconsin, each with one victory and one tie to show for their western conference endeavors this season, clash today in the Badgers' homecoming game expected to draw 45,000 spectators.

The Wildcats have been defeated three times as compared with Wisconsin's two losses but were favored on the strength of their win over Purdue, their strong showing against Ohio State, and their 7-7 tie with first place Indiana.

OLIVER LEADS GOLFERS

DURHAM, N. C. (AP) — Chunky Eddie (Porky) Oliver of Wilmington, Del., climbed back among golf's tournament contenders after a four-year stretch in the army, scored a two-under-par 68 here yesterday to take the first round lead in the $5,000 Durham open. Oliver grabbed a one stroke lead with 10 players, including favorite Ben Hogan from Hershey, Pa., right on his heels with 69's. Denny Shute headed another handfull with 70's while amateur Lt. Cary Middlecoff was among nine with 71's.

Hawklets Trample Wilson, 38-7

 HAWKLET STREAKS FOR TOUCHDOWN AGAINST WILSON ***

Chug Wilson Scores Three Touchdowns; Passes Feature of Tilt

By PAT McPARTLAND
City high's Little Hawks smashed the Wilson Ramblers, 38-7 last night to climax a season equalled by few teams in the past. Driving from the opening minute, the Hawklets completely outcharged their Cedar Rapids rivals, and played at top speed throughout the contest.

Led by Chug Wilson, whose running was brilliant all evening, the locals put across 25 points in the first half. Never bogging down, they went on in high gear until the final gun.

Chug Wilson galloped 27 yards in the first quarter to start the rout after the Ramblers failed to gain and were forced to punt following the kickoff. A pass from Lefty Jimmy Sangster to Evan Smith was incomplete and the count stood 6-0.

Wilson again failed to gain after receiving co-Captain Bob Devine's kickoff and punted to Sangster on the Hawklet 25 where he returned to the Rambler 45. Iowa City promptly marched to the Wilson 18 yard marker as the period ended.

On the third play of the second quarter Bob Krall scored from the visitors' two yard stripe. The try for extra point was once more no good. Again Wilson received the kickoff and once more they were forced to give up possession of the ball. This time it was a pass from Sangster to co-Captain Harold Eakes for a 27 yard touchdown play. The point after again failed.

The Ramblers this time marched to the Little Hawk 25 on a pass from Gaines to Verbieck only to have Hawklets' Wilson intercept on his own 25 and race 75 yards for the fourth marker of the half. Bob Krall this time kicked the point, and the scoreboard read Iowa City 25, Wilson 0 as the half ended.

After an exchange of punts and a fumble, the Hawklets plunged the ball to the Rambler 15, where Bob Krall knifed through his right tackle to cross the goal. The kick was no good, and City high had rolled up 31 points.

Wilson took over in the fourth and after taking a Hawklet punt on their own 40 yard stripe, two passes from Gaines to Verbieck netted the visitors a marker. Gaines drop kicked the point after and made the count 31-7.

The Little Hawks took the kickoff, and after two attempts at the line, Sangster tossed a pass intended for Smith which Wilson's Levi intercepted. Gaines then threw a strike at Verbieck which netted the Ramblers 50 yards to the Iowa City 3, where they could not quite push the ball over.

The Hawklets took over on downs and on the first play, Sangster passed to Krall on a sleeper to the City high 42, Chug Wilson tore 53 yards through tackle to complete the evening's scoring.

Reserves finished the tussle for both teams, and the Little Hawks were on the Rambler 30 when they lost the ball on a fumble after a pass completion, Reichart to Stark. The game ended with the ball in Wilson's possession on their own 25 yard line.

Sooners Clash With Cyclones

NORMAN, Okla. (AP) — The University of Oklahoma, tied with Missouri for the Big Six conference football lead, will defend its position against Iowa State when the teams clash today.

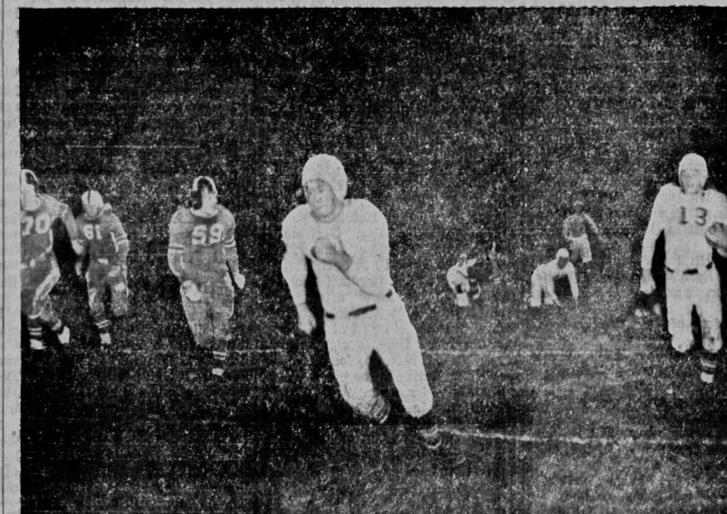

The Sooners, awakened by the sudden resignation of Coach Dewey (Snorter) Luster effective after this season, will try for their 17th straight conference contest without a defeat. If the Sooners win today and then bump Missouri next week, they will have won their third straight pennant for Luster.

Oklahoma will field a heavier and probably faster team than the Iowans. The Sooners average 180 pounds to Iowa State's 178.

Gophers Hope Chill Will Stop Hoosiers

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Light tapering-off workouts by both teams yesterday completed preparations for the Indiana-Minnesota football game today, with the Hoosiers favored to keep their record clear of defeat.

Weather bureau officials said a temperature of about 15 above was expected today, and Gopher fans hoped the cold would handicap the Indiana passing game.

QUARTERBACK JIMMY SANGSTER carries the ball (left) for one of City High's four markers in the first half of the contest with Wilson of Cedar Rapids last night. The Red and White struck early in the first quarter, fired later in that stanza and twice again before the half. Clearing the path for Sangster is Chug Wilson, fullback, who later scored.

Army, Irish Starters Unaltered; Devore Lauds Team's Spunk

NEW YORK (AP) — Throngs of skeptics who refused to believe last year's 59-0 rout of the Irish give an underdog Notre Dame eleven a fighting chance to upset the Army powerhouse today in the nation's number one football game.

The Army was conceded to be the best club in the country with its powerful line and dazzling backfield combination of Glenn Davis and Doc Blanchard.

Coach Hugh Devore of Notre Dame announced his regular backfield that started the Navy game would be ready for use against the Cadets including fullback Frank Ruggerio and halfback Elmer Angsman.

The Army was expected to stick to the same starting lineup that has rolled to six straight wins this fall, stretching the West Point victory string to 15 over the past two seasons.

Passers to Headline Purdue-Miami U Tilt

LAFAYETTE, Ind. (AP) — Purdue's football team plays Miami university for the first time today in a game likely to be notable for pass attempts.

The once-bested Boiler-makers' offense has featured the aerial combination of Bill Canfield and Bob DeMoss, while the Redskins from Oxford, Ohio, have leaned heavily on tosses from Bob Witche to Bill Hoover in winning six of seven games against smaller colleges.

Miami's hopes of upsetting the Big Ten club suffered a setback

BEAR MOUNTAIN (AP) — No matter what Army's mastodons do to his earnest young men today, Coach Hugh Devore says he always will regard this year's Notre Dame team as one of the greatest ever molded in South Bend.

"Not in ability, of course," he amended, "but for having done the most with the least natural equipment. I'll take this team of mine. Even if they get the daylight kicked out of them today I'll still be proud of them, and I've told them so."

It appeared clear that the Irish mentor didn't have any great hopes of snapping the Cadets' string of victories.

"It would be foolish to make a lot of big talk about beating Army," Devore said. "Men who know football say they have one of the greatest teams of football history. We don't have that kind of team. We don't have any speed. All we have is the scrapping bunch of boys it ever has been my pleasure to coach. I'll only promise that they'll make Army fight for everything it gets."

Thursday when it became apparent that injuries would keep fullback Don Couch on the sidelines. He had scored seven touchdowns for the Redskins this season.

Navy's Ace Passer, Wolverine's Ponsetto Replaced in Lineups

BALTIMORE (AP) — Changes in the backfields of both Navy and Michigan were announced yesterday as the teams held final workouts for their intersectional battle today in municipal stadium.

At Annapolis, where the Middies will remain until this morning, Comdr. Oscar Hagberg, Navy's head coach, said he expected to start Bruce Smith at quarterback in place of Bob Hoernschemeyer, and Tony Minisi in Bo Kelly's right halfback spot. Hoernschemeyer and Kelly were bruised in the Notre Dame game last week.

Coach Fritz Crisler said upon arriving yesterday afternoon with his Michigan squad that his second string quarterback, Howard Yerges, probably wouldn't start because of injuries, and that his third team field general, George Hutter, probably would get the call. Joe Ponsetto, team captain and regular quarterback, made the trip but will be unable to play because of injuries, Crisler said.

Petition Spurs Pitt; Bucks Highly Favored

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Angered over a students' petition asking removal of Coach Clark Shaughnessy, the oft-beaten but aggressive Pitt Panthers take on a heavily-favored Ohio State eleven here today with fire in their eyes.

The high-scoring Buckeyes arrived here yesterday afternoon and worked out at the stadium.

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. — For the first time in six straight Saturdays, Iowa's Hawkeyes will go into a football game the favorites. But this time it's only as favorites to win uncontested control of the Big Ten's cellar today when they meet the conference's only other victoryless team, Illinois, here in the Illini memorial stadium.

But the old "This is the week for an upset" attitude again rode with the Hawks into Champaign last night as they arrived from Chicago and set up headquarters in the Inman hotel. The 33-man squad stopped off in Chicago yesterday afternoon for a short workout at a University of Chicago practice field near Stag field.

Iowa spirit ran high in the hour long session as the Hawks romped through formations in sweat clothes. The temperature was chilly and the sweeping wind made everyone hustle to keep warm.

New Worry

The stopoff in Chicago revealed a new worry for Coach Clem Crowe. A bad cold kept fullback Art Johnson from venturing into the snappy drill yesterday and might hinder the big Ft. Dodge veteran in today's game. This leaves the team with only two "whole" fullbacks—Herb Braun and Derrald Foster—because No. 2 fullback Carl Bowen is partially disabled with an injury.

However, Coach Crowe said last night that his starting lineup would be unchanged from the one announced earlier this week. Only change from the team that started against Wisconsin last Saturday will be the substitution of Dan Sheehan for Bob Gustafson at right end.

Illini Favored

All the football fans in Champaign are talking about how much stronger the Illini are expected to be today with the help of several vets who have recovered from recent injuries. The betting odds as usual favor Iowa's hosts by three or four touchdowns.

Little Optimism

The Iowa coaches were inclined to be pessimistic last night about their team's chance today. Line coach Bud Boerfing thought "Illinois is at least as strong as Wisconsin." The two teams tied 6-6 three weeks ago.

The Iowa squad will leave after the game this afternoon for Chicago, spend the night there and arrive in Iowa City at 3:30 tomorrow.

Doane Defeats Simpson, 13-6

INDIANOLA (AP) — Doane rallied in the second half yesterday to defeat the Simpson college football team, 13 to 6. Simpson's only score came in the second quarter on a 26-yard pass from Bob Williams to Clyde Gaines.

HAWKEYE GUARD

LOUIS GINSBERG, 185-pound left guard, teams up again with right guard Paul Fagerlind in today's tussle with the Illini. A regular at that post all season, Lou has proved his worth in his first year of college competition.

And also as usual, Iowa goes into a ball game depending heavily on the pitching arm of Jerry Niles who accounts for the Hawks' possessing the longest aerial average of any Big Ten team. But since the Illini happen to own the tightest pass defense in the league, Iowa may have to resort to a weak running game as an offense today.

Police Limit Student Loads On City Buses

The number of persons carried by the Iowa City Coach Co.'s buses, hauling students to the high school area in east Iowa City, will be limited to 45 for the small buses and 50 for the large coaches, beginning Monday.

The decision to do something about the overcrowded buses came out of a meeting called by the public safety committee of the city council, and held Thursday night at the City hall.

The vision of the bus drivers will be improved by painting white lines on the floor of the buses and requiring all passengers to stand back of them.

Police Chief Ollie White said yesterday that the restrictions on overloading would be rigidly enforced as well as the regulation requiring the drivers to operate the buses with the vision unobstructed.

Any drivers operating overloaded buses, and any persons jamming the front end of a bus so as to obscure the driver's vision, will be apprehended by police if seen, he said.

Complaints have been registered for many months that the buses were being operated on the high school run with more than 60 persons piled in the vehicles.

If the buses leave the downtown areas with a full load, they are not to stop for any more passengers, it was said. Local police, who will assist with the loading, will also see that this rule is enforced.

Parents and students are asked to assist in the problem by seeing that not all of the students try to get to the high school area at the same time and on the same bus.

Eloise Fili Files Suit for Divorce

Veterans' Committee Presents Varied Views on Organization

Concerning recent controversy over the University Veterans association, Bill Leaming, G of Newton, chairman of the group's steering committee, said yesterday, "There has been some discussion recently concerning the organization as being a closed one. It is true that the constitution of the Veterans association as written is more on the order of a closed organization, but the constitution is broad enough so that by simple amendments, any changes in the association can be made."

"For instance, paid membership in the organization is not a prerequisite to a vote," Leaming continued.

Pleased at Interest
In referring to letters to the editor and recent editorials in The Daily Iowan, Leaming said, "I am pleased to see that the rank and file of the organization has taken so much interest. That was the goal for our postponement of elections."

"Approximately three weeks ago our election for the Veterans association was postponed to investigate further interest. At the end of a month we hoped that we would be able to get better representation for the association."

Election of officers for the University Veterans association will be conducted at a meeting of the association in the near future. The date of the meeting and details of election will be announced later.

Another member of the steering committee, Ed Hicklin, A3 of Wapello, expressed a different opinion. "Lack of organization in the association is due to the fact that we, as an organization, have no real purpose for existing. Mention was made in a recent editorial in The Daily Iowan that there are lots of jobs for the veterans to do as an organization, but what are they?" he questioned.

Housing Situation
"I don't believe the association could take a stand in the housing situation because they aren't and wouldn't be powerful enough. That is a job for the university—not the University Veterans association."

"The vets have a good field here at the university," Hicklin continued. "They have received excellent treatment through the veterans service and the university. Why, then, should they need an organization to promote their own interests?"

In contrast to Hicklin's opinion, Larry Brown, A1 of Richmond, Va., said, "I think the Veterans association is definitely a good thing. Although it's in its first stages, it is important from a social point of view. It should acquaint the vets with each other, and make them feel at home on campus."

"Maybe its only purpose would be a social one, but that is important enough to merit its existence," Brown stated that he had attended one meeting of the association, but had been unable to attend others.

An active member of the association, Eugene Jesse, E2 of St.

Charles, declared "When the U. V. A. was first organized, the constitution drawn up by law students of the association was entirely too complicated for its other members to understand. It should have a very simple constitution, getting away from so much formality. In my opinion, the present constitution should be done away with." Jesse was treasurer of the organization last year.

Wants Information
Although he has never gone to any of the association's meetings, Don Corrigan, A1 of Ottumwa, stated, "I do not belong to the Veterans association for I do not know too much about it. If I had a more basic knowledge about the organization's purpose and functions, I might be interested in joining."

At present the association is under the auspices of a steering committee. Members of the committee are Leaming, Hicklin, and Bobette Merrick, A2 of Des Moines.

Funeral Rites Monday For Ella Hunzinger

Funeral services for Miss Ella Hunzinger, 69, will be at the Oathout funeral chapel at 2 p. m. Monday with Dr. L. L. Dunnington officiating. Miss Hunzinger died at the home of Ann Kern in Riverside at 7:20 p. m. Thursday. She had been ill for several weeks.

Miss Hunzinger lived on the Hunzinger homestead five miles south of Iowa City on highway 218 until three weeks ago.

She was born Jan. 19, 1876, in Johnson county, the daughter of Margaret Meintzer and Godfrey Hunzinger. Miss Hunzinger and her brother Jacob farmed on the homestead after the death of their parents. Jacob died in July, 1944.

She is survived by one sister, Mrs. Katherine Glaspey of Iowa City and several nieces and nephews.

Burial will be in Meintzer cemetery in Liberty township.

Journalists to Revive Wayz Goose Tradition

Plans for reviving the traditional Wayz Goose banquet were discussed at a meeting of Sigma Delta Chi, men's professional journalism fraternity, Thursday night.

The Wayz Goose banquet, which was sponsored by the Associated Students of Journalism before the war, will probably be sometime in December, according to Joe Mather, A4 of Lake View, president.

Tickets to the banquet will be sold to journalism students by members of Sigma Delta Chi. The Wayz Goose Gazette will be published in connection with the banquet.

Baconian Lecturer Speaks on Essential Economic Principles

"The essential principles of economics—not countinghouse arithmetic—were better understood by the ancient world than they are today," said Prof. G. R. Davies last night in a Baconian lecture. "However," he added, "the ancient world did not have the techniques to apply them."

Economics cannot be considered a science, Professor Davies said, as it differs fundamentally from one country to another. Moreover, the natural scientist does not have to take into consideration the human factor.

"Scientific economics deals with world-wide interrelations among things with respect to human wants. It seeks to discover the principles of harmonious equilibrium which have never yet been realized except perhaps in a frontier society."

The elementary principles of economics, as defined by Professor Davies, are the distribution of income between the working personnel and capital.

In a simple state of primitive times, Natural Law would provide generously for savings and taxes, but civilizations, he said, have grown not in terms of Natural Law but more largely in conformity with jungle law. As markets expanded, these empires came into conflict with one another, each promoting an increase of population far beyond what could be taken care of, in order to have cheap labor and large armies. This economic structure, he stated, provided necessary organization but it meant privilege for the few and poverty and unemployment for the masses.

"Today the great corporate systems hold the irresponsible power of quasi-taxation and depression. Against them is arrayed the equally irresponsible power of organized labor. And government, traditionally weak, finds it difficult to effect reasonable compromises," said Professor Davies.

Literary and religious classics "have given man the faith that ultimately society will conform to the laws written in the nature of things, as it has done in the physical sciences," Professor Davies ex-

We haven't forgotten this boy...have you?

He hasn't forgotten.

We haven't forgotten, either, soldier.

Not you—or the hundreds of thousands of other veterans who have sweated and bled and given their hands, legs, eyes, minds—yes, and their lives—while we sat at home, cheering.

ON OCTOBER 29TH, the last—and the most important—Bond drive yet made in this war begins... the great Victory Loan.

Secretary of the Treasury Vinson has directed a message to every firm in this city—just as he did to us—asking for co-operation in this—your chance to express your thanks to the boys who won this war.

He is asking labor and management, working together, to contribute once more, as they have done so successfully in the past, to the achievement of E Bond goals.

The only way this can be accomplished is by accepting a definite quota—and then meeting it. Both the men and women on pay-rolls and the plants themselves should accept these quotas.

The great Victory Loan will help provide cash for many purposes.

It will help raise the money to get our boys home. It must raise the money to give them their mustering-out pay and veterans benefits—educational and all the rest.

It will help pay for war goods already used and take care of contract terminations.

Most important, it will do everything money can do to help patch up the broken bodies and lives of men like this.

For this is the loan with a heart. Of all loans in this war, it is the most human. It pays for healing instead of killing—mercy instead of pain.

Can any businessman look a Victory Bond salesman in the eye and say the Victory Loan is less important than the others—or that he cannot pledge his firm to meet the quota which the Treasury asks him to accept?

We think not. And so we here sign our names in pledge that we accept our quota and will do everything in our power to meet it.

We know we can count on other Americans to do the same.

LET'S ALL MEET OUR QUOTAS IN THE VICTORY LOAN
