Carl Klatt Takes Stand

Testifies Miller Broke Ribs With Chair

Being Disciplined For Escape Plot, Smoking in Dormitory

FT. DODGE (AP)—Carl Klatt, 33, former disciplinary officer at the Eldora state training school for boys, told a district court jury in his second degree murder trial yesterday that Ronald Miller, 17, an inmate, refused to accept punishment last August and staggered Klatt with a blow to the face.

The state charges that Miller's subsequent death was caused by a "terrific" beating at the hands of Klatt and by strenuous work on the school coal pile under a blazing sun.

Klatt testified that Miller was being disciplined for an alleged escape plot and for violating no-smoking rules in a school dormitory.

"I've been wanting to do that for a long while," Klatt quoted Miller as saying after he landed the blow.

The defendant took the stand late in the 15th day of his trial.

The defendant spoke deliberately and quietly, turning to face the jury of seven women and five men for most of his answers. Although his face had a pale, haggard look, he smiled dryly now and then. He folded his hands in his lap and leaned back in the witness chair. His suit hung loosely on him due to the fact, he had told newsmen, he lost more than 54 pounds since the "trouble began."

Harold Nelson, a former training school guard, had given Miller four blows with a harness tug when Miller refused to take any more, saying, "I won't take it," Klatt testified. Then came Klatt's attempt to get Miller to submit and the blow in his face, Klatt said.

Klatt described subsequent events as follows:

"Miller immediately got a chair, broke it over my side and leg, breaking loose one of my ribs. Blood ran from my leg so much that the lower side of my trousers was covered. Some ran into my shoe. (Klatt then demonstrated for the jury how Miller swung a kitchen-type chair from his shoulder.)

"Miller then dropped what was left of that chair and immediately grabbed another. He broke a second chair over my left arm. I then went up stairs (from the disciplinary room) to my quarters."

CHICAGO (AP)—The body of a man whom police said they believe was the quick trigger gunman who killed two Rogers park district detectives Sept. 2 was found yesterday in a shallow cornfield grave.

Chief of Detectives Walter Storms identified the dead man as Cecil (Red) Smith, an ex-convict and reputed member of a gang of handbook robbers and said Smith supposedly was killed and buried to keep him mum about the detective slayings.

The spectacular break in the three-month-old killing of detectives George Hellstern, 52, and Charles A. Brady, 36, who were shot down as they sought to question a loiterer, began with a bullet-punctuated roundup of the gang last Friday night.

Christ Perres, 27, of Joliet, Ill., was killed in the Friday battle with detectives who said they were tipped off that the gang was about to stage a $50,000 payroll holdup.

In the same encounter Lawrence (Tiny) Mazzanars, 34, Chicago, was wounded and subsequently James J. Kelly, 37, Chicago, was arrested. Renote Lolli, 39, Chicago, and formerly of Rockford, Ill., had been arrested the day before.

Doctors Say Patton Has 'Good Chance'

Damage to Spine Undetermined; May Be Able to Walk

HEIDELBERG, Germany (AP)—Army surgeons attending Gen. George S. Patton said last night there was "a good chance" he might be able to walk again, but cautioned that there "is always the possibility" the general might be crippled for life.

Col. Lawrence C. Ball, Kentucky, commanding officer in the army hospital where Patton lies paralyzed from the neck down, said there was general confidence among American and British specialists that the 15th army commander would pull through.

"It might take a few days, a few weeks, or several months," said Ball.

He said the dislocation of the vertebrae in Patton's neck was reduced, but it was still impossible to determine how much damage had been done to the spinal cord.

He explained that time alone would tell whether Patton would again be able to walk.

A night medical bulletin—the briefest yet—said only: "General Patton has had a comfortable day. His condition is progressing satisfactorily."

Mrs. Patton, who flew to her husband's bedside after the auto-truck crash Sunday in which he was injured, spent most of the afternoon with him, indicating a general improvement in his condition. She was able to talk with him for 10 minutes during the morning.

Meanwhile, the 18th military police company issued a report saying that in the opinion of investigating officers the accident was caused by "carelessness on the part of both drivers." Both, however, were listed as excellent drivers and they were returned to their units with no disciplinary action taken.

Asks Investigation After Woman Dies

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—District Attorney Edmund Brown last night wired Macon, Ga., authorities to make a complete investigation of the death and cremation of an elderly woman there—the fourth, Brown said, who has sickened and died in hotels throughout the country after becoming acquainted with a former convict under arrest here.

DUMP JAP CYCLOTRON UNIT IN SEA

HERE IS A CLOSEUP VIEW OF THE broken remnant of two Japanese cyclotrons and other atomic energy equipment seized and destroyed in the drive to rid Japan of all such equipment as it was dumped into the sea off Yokohama by Eighth army personnel. The equipment weighed more than 350 tons and two ships were necessary for the operation.

Nazi Horrors Shown in War Criminals Trial

NUERNBERG (AP)—A shrunken human head and lamp shades made of human skin were submitted as evidence at the war crimes trial yesterday. Sickened Nazi leaders slumped sullenly in the dock as the American prosecution unfolded the grim tale of concentration camp horrors.

Jew-baiter Julius Streicher, singled out by the prosecution for the first time yesterday, was the only one of the 21 top Nazis able to view the exhibits for any length of time. He leaned forward and inspected them with considerable interest.

The court also was shown a captured roll of German movie film taken in a ghetto somewhere in Europe.

The film showed women being stripped naked and chased through the streets while S.S. (Elite guard) troops and German soldiers stood by enjoying the scene. The film recorded floggings and in one instance showed a civilian dragging a woman by her hair.

The preserved head, reduced to the size of a baseball, was that of a Pole who had been caught fraternizing with a German girl. The lamp shades were made from skin of prisoners at Buchenwald who were selected because they had the best tattoo work on them, then killed by injections, affidavits of former inmates at the Buchenwald camp said.

The prosecution also introduced statements of the defendants showing their intention of doing away with the Jews of Europe.

Dr. Alfred Rosenberg, chief exponent of Nazi race ideology was quoted as urging Hitler in 1941: "Instead of executing a hundred Frenchmen, let us execute a hundred Jewish bankers."

Hermann Goering was quoted as exclaiming after the slaying of Ernst vom Rath, a German embassy staff member, in Paris in 1938: "These pigs will not commit another murder—I would not like to be a Jew in Germany."

Hans Frank, former governor-general of Poland, was disclosed to have told his subordinates in a speech to "Liquidate the Jews yourselves, and don't bother the higher-ups." He said there were 3,500,000 Jews in Poland, "Too many to shoot or poison, but we'll get rid of them somewhere."

Jap Sub Commander Testifies in Navy Case

Indianapolis Failed To Follow Zig-Zag Course—Hashimoto

WASHINGTON (AP)—Over defense protests, a former Japanese submarine commander was admitted as a prosecution witness before a navy court martial yesterday to tell how he sank a large warship which he said was making no radical change of its course.

Iko Hashimoto, short, squat and bullet-headed, told the court trying Capt. Charles B. McVay, 3rd, that he fired six torpedoes and scored three certain hits on a large warship between Guam and Leyte after trailing her for 27 minutes the night of July 29-30.

McVay, skipper of the U. S. Cruiser Indianapolis, is being tried on charges of negligence and inefficiency in connection with the loss of the ship in that area that night. The negligence charge is based on the allegation that he failed to maintain a zig-zag course.

Hashimoto testified that about 11:05 p. m., (zone minus 9 time), July 29 his submarine was about 290 miles slightly west of due north of Palau. He said he surfaced his ship to take bearings and discerned a "dark object" about 11,000 yards away.

He immediately crash-dived, swung in the direction of the target, and began to close range, keeping the ship under constant observation through the night periscope. At about 3,000 yards, he recognized the ship as of the 10,000-ton cruiser class or larger, and at 1,500 yards fired six torpedoes in two salvos of three each, at three-second intervals. He said he got three certain hits, confirmed by observation of three separate columns of water.

Hashimoto said the target ship obviously made no radical change of course while he had it under surveillance, but that it might have made a minor change.

RAF Strafes Fleeing Traffic

BATAVIA (AP)—Indonesian leaders in Sumatra expressed complete solidarity yesterday with the "republic" of Premier Sutan Sjahrir in demanding full independence from the Dutch.

In battle action in Java, meanwhile, RAF planes machine-gunned vehicles fleeing from a village fired by the British in a reprisal raid.

Acting Governor Amir of the Indonesian government in Sumatra was flown from Padang with three staff members in a British plane for conferences with officials of the unrecognized Indonesian republic in Batavia. Later Amir told a news conference:

"We are standing full behind Dr. Soekarno (president of the Indonesian republic) and the Sjahrira cabinet. Like people in others parts of Indonesia, we reject Dutch domination status and demand full independence.

"Sumatra, with the strongest youth movement in Indonesia, has long been a country of revolution against the Dutch. Every act against the population of Java we feel is also directed against ourselves."

The village set afire by British Indian troops was Bekassi, the scene of the massacre three weeks ago of 22 survivors of a plane crash. Bekassi is about 12 miles south of Batavia.

Still Cloudy and Falling Temperatures

We may get just a little bit more snow in small bunches of flakes but it seems that most of it has passed us. The sky over Iowa City will still be pretty much filled up with clouds today. And it seems that colder weather is moving in. Not much colder, but noticeably so.

TINY TRIPLETS FLY ACROSS NATION

RICHARD O'BRIEN, a former paratrooper, herds his two-month-old triplets in his arms in Atlanta, Ga., before taking off with the babies and their mother in an airplane bound for their home in Dufur, Ore. The 36 points of triplets were born in Fort Benning Regional hospital on Oct. 10, two months before the veteran received his discharge. The young O'Briens, Jo Ann, Jerry Leroy and Jackie Ray, look up 27 pounds of space on the airliner and were the youngest set of triplets ever to fly.

Secretary Ickes Raps 'Statesmen' for Attack On F. D. Roosevelt

CHICAGO (AP)—Secretary Ickes ran a caustic tongue over the Pearl Harbor inquiry and the Hurley case last night and opined that the Republicans "have already recognized their opponent" for 1948—"they are determined to run against Roosevelt."

"My own confident prediction is," he said, "that FDR dead will give them as sound a trimming as ever did FDR living."

"There is only one difficulty that I can see in the way of a sweeping victory for the Republicans on the disintegrated Pearl Harbor issue seven years after the event," Ickes observed. "Unfortunately for them, and despite their own responsibility for our unpreparedness, we did win the war."

"It is not even creditable, thus belatedly, for ex-post facto 'statesmen' to insinuate, with no regard for the truth, that Roosevelt baited a trap at Hawaii which our navy in the hope that the Japanese would do what the Chicago Tribune and its fellow members of the Chicago-New York-Washington newspaper axis insisted that it would not do, namely, make war upon the United States."

British Vote To Take Loan

LONDON (AP)—The house of commons voted last night 345 to 98 in favor of accepting conditions of a $4,400,000,000 loan from the United States, which Foreign Minister Ernest Bevin asserted left many Britons with the "discomfort" of just coming from a money lender's office.

The voting, after two days of heated debate in which labor government leaders argued that Britain must either accept the loan or go hungry, was climaxed by a last minute personal clash between Bevin and opposition leader Winston Churchill.

Many conservative members heeded Churchill's plea to abstain from voting, on the grounds that a heavy vote in opposition by the Conservatives would be especially injurious to British interests in America.

Referring to earlier Conservative assertions that the labor government got the worst of the bargain in the loan negotiations, Bevin pounded with his fist and roared:

"Is that a claim they (the Conservatives) would have got better terms?"

Tokyo Warned Hitler of Attack

WASHINGTON (AP)—Pearl Harbor investigators learned yesterday that Tokyo sent word to Hitler Nov. 30, 1941, that "there is extreme danger that war may suddenly break out between the Anglo-Saxon nations and Japan."

The same message, which a navy report said the army decoded Dec. 1, also told the Japanese ambassador in Berlin to advise the German Fuehrer that "the time may come breaking out of this war may come quicker than anyone dreams."

Hitler was to be informed, too, that "if Russia joins hands tighter with England and the United States and resists us with hostilities we are ready to turn upon her with all our might."

The message was contained in a two-volume navy statement, given the joint congressional committee, of the evidence gathered by the navy in its Pearl Harbor investigations.

It was introduced after Gen. George C. Marshall concluded seven days of testimony by agreeing that he could have telephoned some form of warning to Hawaii Dec. 7, 1941, without endangering code-cracking secrets.

Secretary Byrnes

Moscow (AP)—Bad weather delayed Secretary of State Byrnes, expected here yesterday, and he may not reach this snow-bound capital or the big three foreign secretaries' conference until the weekend, a United States embassy spokesman said yesterday.

Muscovites show great popular interest in the conference which is scheduled to open Saturday, and which will deal with such prime questions as atomic energy, and peace treaties, Iran and the Dardanelles.

asked that committee counsel try to determine whether it was true that a week's alert was called off just the day before the Japanese attack.

Senator Ferguson (R., Mich.) read into the record an Associated Press dispatch from Honolulu Aug. 25, 1941, saying Lloyd's had discontinued sale of war risk and bombardment insurance in Hawaii.

Union Votes Overwhelmingly To Walk Out for Wage Increase

A strike of CIO electrical workers in General Electric, Westinghouse and General Motors plants was authorized yesterday in nation-wide balloting, while a GM spokesman declared the auto workers strike in GM plants might last six more weeks.

Leaders of the CIO United Electrical, Radio and Machine workers said negotiations would continue, however, and that no walkout would be called in the GE, Westinghouse or GM plants before Jan. 1.

The national labor relations board announced returns in the balloting, in which approximately 200,000 votes were cast, showing that union members overwhelmingly favored striking if necessary in an effort to gain a $2-a-day wage increase.

The UE is the third largest CIO union and in taking strike action it joins the other two major CIO affiliates—the United Automobile workers and the United steelworkers.

Plants of the three firms affected are located in 75 industrial centers in 16 states. Leaders of the electrical union previously rejected a GM offer of a 13 1/2 cents an hour pay boost, approximately 13 1/2 percent.

Prospects Poor

The forecast dimming prospects of an early settlement of the auto workers strike at GM plants was made before announcement of the electrical workers' voting.

Harry W. Anderson, GM vice-president, predicted the strike might last "at least six weeks longer" and said the corporation does not contemplate any increase in its twice rejected offer of a 10 percent wage rate boost of 13 1/2 cents an hour.

Earlier, the corporation took its charge of "illegal picketing" into the courts in the midst of its discussions of the question with the striking CIO United Auto workers.

Seek Injunctions

The corporation sought injunctions against GM strikers in Cleveland and Chicago, accusing them of using "threats and personal abuse" to prevent employees from entering GM plants in those cities.

The court action drew an immediate reply from Walter Reuther, UAW vice-president, that "they can issue all the injunctions in the world, but the judge isn't going to make autos."

The company at one time held that the picketing issue would have to be settled before it considered the union's 30 percent wage rate increase demand, basis for the 24-day-old strike that has made 213,000 idle.

Efforts Collapse

Elsewhere on the automotive labor front, there were no developments, with the Ford-CIO-UAW negotiations in recess, but in Washington labor department efforts to settle a 48-day strike of 4,000 Greyhound bus employees in 18 states collapsed. Federal conciliators said the company had turned down a government proposal to set up a fact-finding committee. They added negotiations would be reopened "whenever there is reason to believe that something worthwhile will be accomplished by such action."

In Chicago, spokesmen for some 130 class one railroads and 20 railroad unions asked the national railway mediation board to intervene in a contract dispute involving about 1,000,000 operating and non-operating workers. Involved in the dispute are the questions of wages and working rules for the operating brotherhoods.

DES MOINES (AP)—The bodies of Gunner Anderson and his wife were found late last night in their combined filling station-home north of Polk City.

Anderson, an invalid, was in his wheel chair. Both had been shot through the head.

Details of the tragedy were not immediately learned.

Dr. Willis M. Fowler Writes Hematology Text for Medics' Use

"Hematology—For Students and Practitioners" is the title of a recently published text written by Dr. Willis M. Fowler, professor of internal medicine at the university.

"Hematology (the study of blood) is a part of internal medicine rather than an abstract science or specialty in itself," says Dr. Fowler. "The subject is treated in that light, emphasizing clinical aspects and therapeutic measures instead of dwelling on theoretical or controversial measures."

Dr. Fowler's book grew gradually during the last dozen years from lecture notes and a collection of drawings, charts and photomicrographs. It will be used as text in the course of laboratory diagnosis for sophomore medical students.

The author's interest in hematology was first stimulated by the late Dr. C. W. Baldrige of the university. Dr. Baldrige prepared the first of the series of notes

Ramblers Hit Loras Tonight

Leaving Iowa City tonight, St. Mary's Ramblers will journey to Dubuque to tussle with Loras in a try for their fifth straight victory. The Ramblers have been set back with the illness of their mentor this past week, but with their past performances and ample material they should be able to show championship plays against Loras.

Starting the game will be Billy Suplee, Andy Chukalas, Bart Tooney, Jack Schrader and Eddie Rocca. Of course many of the improved substitutes probably will be sent in as the game proceeds, so most of the cagers going may see action.

The Mariani held light practices during the week as they worked on their passing and shooting. With the past scoring done by the boys, their shooting couldn't be improved much.

The local cagers will be facing a team with considerable experience when it comes to handling a basketball: Loras has 20 returning veterans from last year's squad as none of the players were seniors. This tilt should prove to be a hot battle as the handicapped Ramblers want to continue the honor of being the only undefeated team in the city high school class.

Tom Smith Protests Horse Doping Charge

NEW YORK (AP)—Tom Smith, trainer of the nation's most successful 1945 racing stable, is to appear before a joint session by the state racing commission and the Jockey club today to plead for remission of his one-year suspension on the charge that one of his animals was stimulated.

Because of Smith's prominence and the issues involved, the session has been awaited with enormous interest in racing circles. Newspapers from as far away as San Francisco have asked for reservations in the commission's trial room, which will accommodate only 100 persons.

Smith, a veteran of some 50 years around the tracks and noted as trainer of the great Seabiscuit of a few years back, is employed by Mrs. Elizabeth Graham's Maine Chance Farm, which won more money than any other stable this year and numbered such top runners as Star Pilot and Beaugay.

The suspension was slapped on Smith last month by the Jockey club on the charge that Magnific Duo, one of his lesser horses, was given ephedrine by means of an atomizer before a race at Jamaica on Nov. 1.

Illinois-Ohio State Tilt Starts Action; Iowa Begins Dec. 22

The ice will be broken tomorrow night in the Big Ten's 25th basketball season, but Iowa's defending champions won't get their feet wet until Saturday night, Dec. 22, when they bring Illinois, their arch-rival of the hardwood, to Iowa City for the opener.

The Illini, victorious in four of five non-conference warm-ups, will start the league's action by entertaining Ohio State's veteran Buckeyes in Champaign tomorrow night. Seven other conference teams will be active, but against non-loop foes.

Although Jack Burmaster, sophomore guard, appears to be the only fixture in Illini Coach Doug Mills' lineup, the starters against the Buckeyes probably will include Hal Craig and Bob Doster, forwards; Robert Rowe at center, and Jim Seyler pairing at the guard post with Burmaster.

Mills used 18 players in Illinois' 51-34 triumph over Detroit U. Tuesday and the Illini probably will continue to depend on strength in numbers rather than a "regular" lineup. Burmaster paces the scorers with 51 points.

Other games involving Big Ten teams tomorrow night are:

Western Illinois State Teachers at Chicago
 Indiana at Louisville U.
 Michigan at Great Lakes
 Iowa State at Minnesota
 Marquette at Northwestern
 Washington U. at Purdue
 Wisconsin at Notre Dame

U High Meets Tipton, Tutors This Weekend

The University high basketball team will launch into its heaviest weekend of the season tonight as the Rivermen play Tipton there. This will be the first Eastern Iowa conference clash of the season and the first away-from-home game for the Blue Hawks. Tomorrow they will travel to Cedar Falls to meet Teachers high.

Last night Coach Don Barnhart said it is possible that Nick Anderson, junior forward, may not play tonight. He is sick with "a touch of food poisoning," and if he is not in shape to start against Tipton, Barnhart plans to start Gus Helm in his place.

If Anderson is able to play, Helm will move to the other forward post, with Jack Hady being benched. Other probable starters will be Steve Nusser at center, and Bill Greene and John Miller at the guards.

The two games at Tipton tonight will begin at 7:15 and 8:30, with the reserves of the two schools starting the night's festivities. The Blue Hawk varsity will be trying to get back to their winning ways of last year, when they topped the conference. This season, in the first two games played, the Rivermen did not look too impressive in defeating Williamsburg and losing to Roosevelt of Cedar Rapids.

Tipton is not expected to be very strong, since last week the Tigers lost a 38-15 game to Monticello, but in league clashes the outcome often is unpredictable. Last year U. high won both games, and the host club will be out to even the score.

Coach Barnhart yesterday named a traveling squad of 15 men who will make the trip to Tipton, and 10 who will travel to Cedar Falls tomorrow afternoon. The game there will be a curtain-raiser for the State Teachers college game and will begin at 6:15.

This week has been spent almost entirely on fundamentals, which have been stressed in all the practice sessions. Passing, shooting, dribbling and defensive play have received a lot of attention from the Blue Hawk mentor. Last week U. high defense fell apart in allowing Roosevelt to come from behind to win.

Ned's Status 'Encouraging'

Developments on the eligibility status of Ned Postels, regular Iowa guard, are "very encouraging," according to E. G. (Dad) Schroeder last night. The Iowa athletic director could not say definitely that Postels would remain eligible for another season of competition but he expressed confidence that some decision would be reached before the Hawks resume operations against Nebraska here Monday night.

Some doubt as to Postels' status had been expressed here following introduction of the new Big Ten rule which limits participation of athletes to three seasons under most circumstances.

If the decision should go against Ned, Pops Harrison probably will replace him with Tony Guzowski, who started for the first time against South Dakota State. Other available guards, in addition to Herb Wilkinson, include Theron Thomsen, Mike Semyan, Bob (Dutch) Wischmeier and Leo Cabalka.

Iowa Athletic Teams Have 50-50 Record

Sports teams of the University of Iowa now have an even break in fourteen contests of 1945-46, with the heaviest part of the schedules to occur after Jan. 1.

The basketball team has contributed four victories, football two, and cross country one. All of the seven defeats were in football.

In 1928 Coleman Griffith of the University of Illinois predicted that the one-hand shot would supplant the two-hand shot in basketball.

2 Golf Stars Escape Injury, Start Meet

PORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—Byron Nelson and Harold (Jug) McSpaden escaped unscathed from an auto accident and a forced plane landing and will be here today to start slugging it out as a field of 90 professionals and amateurs move out in the $10,000 Fort Worth Open.

Nelson, the Denton, Tex., farmer who ends his vacation by entering the Fort Worth open, was splattered with ten dozen fresh eggs when his automobile overturned three times near Denton. There was no other damage.

McSpaden, the perpetual second-place finisher, made a forced landing in his private plane which he flew here from Florida. Jug landed in a pasture, called the Fort Worth airport for location of Glen Garden Country club, where the 72-hole tournament is to be held, then took off and landed on fairway No. 1 at the course.

Nelson, who has won 18 tournaments this year and has finished in the money in 101 consecutive meets, will share the favorite's tag with little Ben Hogan.

Chapman's Back—But His Cage Career Is Over

Tom Chapman, a tall, red-headed army airforce lieutenant who still looks suspiciously like a darn good basketball player, reported to Coach Pops Harrison last night.

But Tom's appearance at the practice session of Iowa's basketball team was both a hail and a farewell.

It was hello after nearly three years absence from the Hawkeye court; it was farewell because Tom won't play any more basketball in the fieldhouse that not so long ago reverberated to the echo of his name from the lips of every Iowa fan.

"Local folks were in hopes that when his long odyssey from Burma was over that Tom would play another season of basketball for the Hawks. But the recent Big Ten curb on athletes who completed three years of varsity competition before February, 1943, knocked this in the head.

"I don't know if I'd have played anyway," the former Storm Lake star grinned last night. "Maybe I'm getting a little old to keep up with the boys Pops has out there now. All of my basketball this season will be played from right here on the bleacher seat."

There was a chance—a slight one—that Chapple could have petitioned for eligibility. He missed about six games from his 1942-43 season by going to the army.

"Nope," he answered when questioned about this, "I'm going back to school for one more semester to get my degree. When does the second semester start?"

The orient hasn't seemed to have wrought much change in the former Iowa cage great. He's tanned, but still the same old Tom. Another item demping his contention now is a family—wife and child—and that's a pretty important one for a soldier who's been away for three years.

University Grapplers Meet in Finals Today; Macias, Gray Crowned

The university wrestling tournament finals will be held this afternoon in the wrestling loft at the fieldhouse with six matches scheduled. First match will start at 4:15.

Eight wrestlers are to receive medals as champions in their weight division. Lynn Gray in the 175-pound class and 'Rummy' Macias in the 136 pound division have no opposition in their weight class and will receive their medals without having to wrestle. Both men are major I winners on the mat squad.

Leon George and Walt Thorpe, member of Iowa's football team, will wrestle in the heavyweight and 165-pound class respectively.

In the 121-pound class, Orville Fried decided Leonard Lybbert, 6-2, yesterday afternoon in the only bout wrestled. This afternoon's matches will bring together the following men:

121—John Nyberg vs. Orville Fried
 128—Lloyd Messerly vs. Bill Quinlan
 145—Dick Barker vs. Art McCabe
 155—Wayne Sands vs. Herman Ginsberg
 165—Walter Thorpe vs. Clyde Yates
 170—Leon George vs. Art Clark

Yellow Cab, Bremers, Kaderas Tied for Top in City Cage Loop

At the completion of the third week of play in the City basketball league three teams are tied for the lead. Yellow Cab, Bremers and Kaderas have perfect records with three wins. The three teams have shown plenty of scoring punch in the games played.

Bremers' strong quintet is sparked by their tall center, Howard Meyer, who leads the field in the scoring column with 34 tallies. Meyer dropped in 17 points in one game with Bremers and Harbour netted 16 in one outing. Bill Kay has totaled 16 in two games and played a fine defensive game.

Kaderas scoring power is evenly divided with four men totaling better than 15 points in the three games played. C. Colbert is tied for second in league scoring with 30 points.

Yellow Cab has had the roughest going in their three games. They were almost stopped by a determined Oxford five but managed to "eke out a 29-28 victory on a basket by Grieve in the closing seconds of the game. They have a tall, fast, fighting squad with Grieve and Barry starring in offensive roles.

The leading scorers are:

Howard (Bremers) 34
 Grant (West Side) 30
 C. Colbert (Kaderas) 30
 Kennedy (Kaderas) 27
 Grieve (Yellow Cab) 25
 Allen (Franks Service) 25
 Marshall (Sigma Nu) 22
 Barry (Yellow Cab) 22

Although he has been out of competition for 16 months, Jack has been installed a 5-12 favorite over Joyce, who has developed into a leading lightweight contender.

Jack, who won and lost the 135-pound crown in his spectacular prewar career, has moved up into the welterweight division and expects to weigh in around 140 pounds for today's scrap. Joyce scales about 137.

A crowd of close to 18,000 and a gate of $100,000 was predicted by Promoter Mike Jacobs.

Little Hawks Play Tonight At Davenport

Iowa City high's Little Hawks travel to Davenport tonight to meet the Blue Devil cagers in what is expected to be the toughest game so far this season. The Hawks' go into the fray at top strength, according to Coach Gil Wilson, and will give the Imps an all-out battle.

Wilson yesterday expressed pleasure in the way his squad has performed in recent games, and said the Hawks should make a good showing in their first real test of power in the conference.

The Blue Devils have won one conference tilt, defeating Franklin of Cedar Rapids last Friday, 43-32. The Imps also beat Muscatine, 25-14, the same team which downed the Little Hawks by one point in the first game of the year. This would put the locals in the role of the underdog if they have not, improved since the season's opener.

City high will depend on Bob Freeman and Jim Van Dusen for a showing in the point column, both having been consistent scorers in previous contests. Jim LeBeune and Bob Paulson are the top marksmen for the Devils.

The Little Hawks hope to keep on the victory trail by whipping the conference rival, and strengthening their league standing. With one loop and three non-conference wins behind them, the Hawks have steadily improved in their floor game, and increased the percentage of shots made since the loss to the Muskies.

The Hawkeye freshman-sophomore team, led by Gene Hetrick, play a preliminary tussle with the Davenport juniors, the tipoff slated for 7 and the varsity game at 8:15.

To assure soldiers in the Aleutian area of Christmas mail, the postoffice is accepting one parcel without a request, to be mailed not later than Dec. 20.

Mahan, Co-Workers Show Visual Aid Films to Rotarians

To illustrate the work of the bureau of instruction of the University extension division of which he is the head, Prof. Bruce E. Mahan and two of his co-workers, Lee Cochran and John R. Hedges, showed a group of three visual aid films to Rotary club yesterday.

"The use of these aids by the army and navy and their demonstrated efficiency has put the whole program at least 24 years ahead," commented Professor Mahan. The university has been granted funds to build a new library which will include an improved visual instruction center. As Professor Mahan pointed out, "Men who have used visual aids in the war will demand that teachers be informed of this new and successful method of instruction." The first type of aid, two by two kodachrome slides, was demonstrated by Cochran. According to him, the State University of Iowa has been selected as one of eight depositories in the country for 33 slides issued by the United States office of education and the Office of Inter-American Affairs. The collection. Low cost and easy creation of new pictures are the chief advantages of this form of aid.

John Hedges chose a double from a 35 mm. film strip on China for illustrating this aid. These strips, which can be purchased at $2 each, may be used to supplement motion picture films. During the war they were used in industry to teach skills and by the army to show military tactics.

"Watchtower over Tomorrow," a regular film was the third type of aid shown. Teaching by the new methods includes three processes: preparation by reading or oral instruction, the showing of the film and the follow-up or test.

"This," said Professor Mahan,

Speech Students to Give Medieval Nativity Play in 3 Local Churches

The traditional nativity play, started in the Middle Ages in Coventry, England, will be revived Sunday for three performances as part of community carol services.

These services are at 3:30 p. m. at the Episcopal church, at 5 p. m. at the Methodist church, and at 7 p. m. at the Congregational church. Local choirs and actors from the university speech and dramatic arts department.

The traditional medieval method of presentation will be used. The actors come down the aisles of the church and are all presented to the audience in a dramatic invocation before the play itself begins. Time and place are very flexible; the shepherds walk in and they are in the fields—they walk a few feet and they are before the manger. Herod's throne and the manger are seen at the same time, though the audience knows they are miles apart.

Like a medieval manuscript, the play offers strong dramatic contrasts—from the struggle of Joseph to realize the importance of the Christ child, to the adoration of the simple shepherds. The angry Herod seemed to the medieval people a symbol of evil power in all ages, and they enjoyed laughing at his raging.

Lutheran Students Plan Christmas Events

Carolling, a Christmas candlelight service and a Christmas party will make up the Christmas program of the Lutheran Student association for Sunday night.

The group will meet at the Zion Lutheran church at 7 p. m. for the candlelight service and then go carolling to Mercy hospital and the homes of invalid members of the Lutheran church. After the carolling the students will return to the church parlors for a Christmas party. A Santa Claus will be present to supervise the exchange of gifts.

Arlene Balster and Leland Milligan have planned the service. Committee members under these team captains are Otto Troehl, in charge of the party; Patricia Heyer, carolling, and Dolly Humphrey, food.

Cars Collide Thursday At Street Intersection

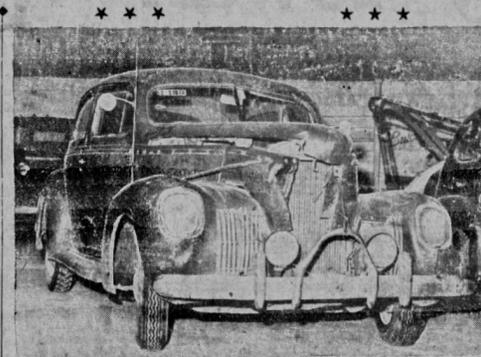

Cars driven by Mrs. Edna Smith, 1730 F street, and R. Schnaffner, 2111 E avenue, Cedar Rapids, were damaged in a collision at Dodge street and Iowa avenue at 4:50 p. m. yesterday.

Mrs. Smith was going south on Dodge street and Schnaffner was traveling east on Iowa avenue.

Officers Find Killer's Car in Mock Accident

The hit and run car which Wednesday night snuffed out the life of Joe O'Toole, route 10, in a mock accident staged by police as part of their in-service training course, was located yesterday morning by investigators, according to Police Chief Ollie White.

The car, identified as a '39 Nash by fragments of the headlight found at the scene of the accident, was located on the second floor of the Nall garage, 210 E. Burlington street, by Patrolmen Emmet Potter and William Holland. The Nall garage was the second repair shop checked by the officers in their search for the car.

The accident happened about 8:15 p. m. at Dodge and Davenport streets. O'Toole was riding a bicycle without lights on the wrong side of the street going south. Witnesses stated that the car was traveling east on Davenport street and turned north on Dodge street, hitting the bicycle at the northeast corner of the intersection.

According to witnesses, the car stopped down the street after the crash. The driver got out, looked at the body, then returned to the car, tossed out an object, and drove away. One witness stated that the car was driven in such a manner as to suggest that the driver was intoxicated.

Police located the object thrown from the car, which was a wine bottle with a good set of finger prints, and it will be used in identifying the driver.

The Nash car located in the garage was identified by fitting the broken parts of the headlight found at the scene of the crime to the glass remaining in the frame. Hair and fibers which matched those of the clothes worn by the victim were found on the fender. The fender also had blood on it

HERE IS THE CAR which Iowa City police officers, investigating the death of Joe O'Toole, route 10, in a faked hit and run accident at Davenport and Dodge streets Wednesday night, found in a repair shop yesterday. The investigators believe that they will apprehend the driver sometime today from evidence found in the car and at the scene of the accident. Part of the four-week's policemen's in-service training school conducted by the Iowa City police department, the accident was staged by one group of officers and is being investigated by another group.

which is being checked with samples taken from the body. Mud specimens from under the fender are also being analyzed. Green paint which matched the color of the bicycle was also found on the car.

Pictures taken at the scene of the accident of the tire treads in mounds for reckless driving issued Oct. 12. The name of the suspect is being held until he can be arrested.

"We expect to pick up the driver of the death car tomorrow afternoon," the investigating officers said yesterday.

The mock trial will take place in the city council chambers Monday at 2 p. m., with District Judge Harold D. Evans presiding.

erty; Alice Winborn, Wesley and Edith Hotka, Oren Alt, and Miss Sedlacek, all of Iowa City, are committee members in charge of the banquet.

Rock Island Resumes Main Line Travel After Train Accident

Traffic over the Rock Island railway's main line near Oxford was resumed yesterday 12 hours after derailment of an eastbound passenger train.

Two passenger cars and three baggage coaches of the La Salle Street Limited left the rails but did not overturn. No one was injured in the mishap, cause of which was unknown by railroad officials.

Some Chicago bound traffic was rerouted yesterday by way of Washington and Allerton.

Damage to equipment and road-bed was estimated at $15,000 by railroad officials. Only five rails were replaced by the crew which completed necessary repair at 3:30 yesterday afternoon.

Passengers on the derailed train left Iowa City early yesterday on an emergency train made up here. The emergency train consisted of three pullmans taken from an equipment train which happened to stop in Iowa City during the night.

Officials said that the train was operating at a slow rate of speed on a reduced speed order for that area when the accident occurred.

and residents who may not have received seals by mail.

The red double-barred cross, adapted from the Lorraine cross, is the emblem under which for 42 years the National Tuberculosis association and its affiliated state and county organizations have carried on an intensive campaign for the prevention and control of tuberculosis.

HOW YOU CAN HELP BRING A SERVICE MAN HOME FOR CHRISTMAS

Traveling facilities . . . right now . . . are more crowded and overburdened than they have been since the war began. Many thousands of service men and women are forced to wait at Pacific Coast points for transportation inland, to demobilization, then to rejoin their families. Many are waiting at Atlantic Coast points also.

The situation is critical and you can help. If you must travel by train any time between now and the end of February, when the "peak" of demobilization is expected, be ready to adjust your plans. Then you will be sure that the seat you might have taken did not keep a veteran from returning to his home and family during these holiday weeks.

ROCK ISLAND is transporting tens of thousands of service people, to get them back for happy family reunions just as quickly as possible. Also, ROCK ISLAND has again sacrificed a large number of coaches to the military "car pool." These coaches will go to make up special trains at seaboard points.

Trains will be overcrowded. You may be disappointed . . . and not be able to make the holiday trips you had planned. Students are urged to arrange departures at times when they can be handled. There will be no extra coaches or extra trains until this emergency has been relieved.

We want to do our very best in this present emergency, and we are sure that all other Americans want to cooperate, too.

Your ROCK ISLAND LINES . . . and the service men . . . are counting on you to limit your traveling during these next ten or twelve weeks . . . unless your emergency is most urgent.

THE 1945 ALL-AMERICAN FOOTBALL TEAM

Selected by

The 350 Members Of The American Football Coaches Association

HERE, at last, is an All-American football team selected by the men best qualified to judge—the football coaches of the nation.

It's the first time in the history of college football that any publication has been privileged to announce a selection from the top authorities in the game.

350 COACHES TO VOTE

These are the men who have set the college football stage—discovered, trained and turned out the players. Together, they have witnessed all of the good football in the entire season.

NEW METHOD OF JUDGING

During each week of the football season, coaches watched with trained eyes every man who looked like All-American material. Week after week, these reports were filed with the Association, tabulated, and returned to the coaches for a careful study and a final, end-of-season vote.

The men who made this final All-American team are the real "Who's Who" among the nation's players, as selected by the "Who's Who" among the men best qualified to judge.

Don't miss the American Football Coaches Association 1945 All-American Team in the December 29th issue of The Saturday Evening Post.

Again the Post pioneers in a sports venture of interest to millions of fans. To keep up with all that's new in the nation's favorite sports—be sure to read the Post every week.
