WASHINGTON (AP) — Japanese officials held on to their nerves as the United States prepared to execute a mission that could have significant implications for the future of international relations.

The U.S. Supreme Court upheld the decision of the military commission which would have stated that the military commission was to be held.

General Yamashita Loses Fight to Escape Death by Hanging

WASHINGTO (AP) — Japan's war crimes trials began today with the execution of the country's top military commanders.

The military commission, headed by Chief Justice Harlan Fiske Stone, was convened to hear the case of General Yamashita, who was charged with war crimes.

Onondaga's message was received by the U.S. Coast Guard. It was not immediately clear what the message contained.

One of the main charges against Yamashita was his role in the death of American soldiers during World War II.

Residents Stay In UN Zone

NEW YORK (AP) — The U.N. Security Council voted to extend the UN Zone, a small area in the city of New York, to include the 2nd Avenue Bridge, which is a key landmark.

The vote was 13-0, with one abstention.

The UN Zone, which was established in 1946, covers an area of about one square mile.

The extension of the UN Zone to include the bridge will allow the U.N. to use the area for its operations.

The bridge is a popular tourist attraction and is often crowded with visitors.

Chicago Police Question Vet

CHICAGO (AP) — A U.S. Army veteran was arrested today for questioning by Chicago police.

The veteran, who was identified as John Doe, was stopped by police near his home.

Doe, a 32-year-old Vietnam War veteran, said he was on his way to a job interview.

Doe was charged with possession of marijuana.

Morgenthau Declares Fascism Still Gaining

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Henry Morgenthau, Jr., Secretary of the Treasury, announced today that fascism is still gaining strength in Europe.

"The world is moving in the wrong direction," Morgenthau said.

President Roosevelt, who had been skeptical of Morgenthau's views, said he was persuaded by the Secretary of the Treasury.

The President also expressed his concern about the growing influence of the Nazi regime in Germany.

Soviet Union Ready To Recognize Ionian Delegation in Moscow

TEHRAN (AP) — An Ionian delegation arrived today in Moscow, where it will meet with the Soviet authorities to discuss recognition of the Ionian Islands.

The delegation was welcomed by Soviet officials at the airport.

A statement issued by the embassy of the Ionian Islands in Moscow said the delegation was invited to Moscow at the request of the Soviet government.

Admiral Dias

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP) — (Real name of the admiral who signed the order for the mass execution of the American residents on the USS Curb) (AP)

President Roosevelt issued the order on March 17.

Dias, a 56-year-old admiral, was one of the signers of the order.

One of the main charges against Dias was his role in the death of American soldiers during World War II.

Dias was charged with war crimes.

Despite the charges against him, Dias continued to serve in the U.S. Navy.

14Z Tlaillers Have Arrived

A total of 142 trailers has ar-vived here for the university's "Homecoming Village," largest to date for veterans, located at the former Hickok school. It is reported that 225 carloads arrived yesterday on the Rock Island railroad. 15 carloads are due Monday, and 23 carloads are due today. President of the university, Mr. S. A. Menzer, will be present to receive the arrival. Special arrangements have been made to replace the local news bureau which has set up such complete news coverage worldwide, national and local news coverage of the week, and this week's news coverage. It will entail the entire capacity of public service and weather bureau.

WSUI Station Director, who announced the news will start a new twice-weekly news bureau for the station, has received a total of 142 trailers, or approximately 1,200,000 square feet of space.
