GOOD MORNING, IOWA CITY!

Today's weather will be mostly mild, turning cold during the afternoon. Some snow can be expected tonight and it will be much colder.

Telephone Dispute Nears Settlement

Railroad Strike Deadline Set For Monday

Conference Committee Says Walkout Ignores Railway Labor Act

CLEVELAND (AP)—Two railroad brotherhoods yesterday set 6 a. m. next Monday as the deadline for a progressive strike which could tie up the nation's rail system, but labor experts observed there were at least two ways of delaying or preventing suspension of transportation.

The strike date announcement came from A. F. Whitney, president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, and Alvanley Johnston, head of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, after the deadline leaked from brotherhood officials in other cities.

Troop Trains Will Move

Whitney and Johnston said in instructions sent to brotherhood members that only "troop trains, hospital trains and milk trains" would move in event of a walk-out, and asserted mail train employees had "the same right to refuse to perform service" as those on other trains.

In Chicago, the carriers conference committee representing major railroads engaged in arbitration of wage demands from 18 other brotherhoods or rail organizations asserted the strike call was "a senseless and flagrant disregard of the railway labor act."

Government May Interfere

If all other machinery failed, the President could seize the railroads for government operation to avert suspension of service.

All the organizations except the trainmen and engineers submitted the wage demand to arbitration in January, but Whitney and Johnston said their brotherhoods refused because this would force them to abandon the rule change issue.

The 293,000 combined membership of the trainmen and engineers represents about 15 percent of the country's railroad workers. The trainmen's membership includes brakemen, flagmen, dining car stewards, yard masters, yard men, switch tenders, baggage men and about two-thirds of the conductors in the country.

Brotherhood heads did not announce the final result of the strike votes among their members, but earlier Whitney said 90 percent returns showed 98.8 percent favoring action taken yesterday.

Group Charged With Contempt

WASHINGTON (AP)—The house committee on un-American activities initiated contempt proceedings yesterday against 17 persons.

They are Edward K. Basky, chairman of the joint anti-fascist refugee committee of New York City, and 16 members of the organization's executive board.

The contempt move followed refusal of the group to produce subpoenaed records.

Rep. John Wood (D., Ga.), chairman of the house committee, told newsmen it is trying to determine whether or not the organization has communistic leanings. Basky says it has not.

Basky said his organization had been endorsed by many leading Americans and is merely trying to assist persons being persecuted by Fascist governments, chiefly the New York regime in Spain.

in New York Basky said in a statement last night that the house committee's action was "nothing more than an attempt to harass our organization."

High School Father

TWIN FALLS, Idaho (AP)—Harry Stradley took a cigar with him when he went to the high school principal's office to explain his recent absence from school.

He hadn't played hooky, the beaming ex-marine reported, offering the cheroot to Vice-Principal Ken Kail. He had become the father of a boy.

Madrid Radio Denies Spain Helped Axis

Claims Franco Tried To Protect Near East From Hitler, II Duce

LONDON (AP)—The Madrid radio, denying that Spain actively aided the axis in the war, said last night that Generalissimo Francisco Franco prevented Hitler and Mussolini from dominating the Mediterranean, North Africa and the Near East.

Citing the late President Roosevelt, Winston Churchill and General Eisenhower as witnesses that Spain's "neutrality" helped the Allies, the broadcast said: "Hitler planned to enter Spain Jan. 10, 1941. We saw the intention of the two dictators to incorporate Spain into the axis and so to dominate the Mediterranean, and with it North Africa and the Near East.

"The one who prevented the carrying out of these ambitious plans was neither Great Britain nor the United States of America. The one who prevented it was Generalissimo Franco.

"Spain did not want to enter and did not enter the war, in spite of all the coercion of the axis powers, with their troops on our frontiers, ready to break in and march down on Gibraltar."

Bar French Nationals From Spain, Colonies

MADRID (AP)—The Spanish government last night barred all French nationals from Spain and her possessions.

The new restriction was contained in a set of drastic regulations, announced by the foreign office, to meet France's order closing the Spanish-French border last Saturday.

The government also suspended all private correspondence and telegraphic communications between the two countries, barred all exchange of merchandise and prohibited Spaniards from entering any French territory.

New Jap Constitution Guarantees Freedom Of Press, Thought

TOKYO (AP)—A new constitution which shears all sovereign powers from the emperor in favor of the people, renounces war, bans all armed forces, and sounds the death knell of the nobility, was announced for Japan yesterday.

Drawn after five months of consultation with supreme headquarters, it was launched with the blessings of General MacArthur, Premier Kijuro Shidehara and Emperor Hirohito himself.

The new national charter abolishes the largely appointive house of peers, whose titles hereafter will die with the holders, and replaces it with an elective house of councillors subordinated to an all-powerful house of representatives.

It is designed to return Japan to the family of nations, and Chief Cabinet Secretary Wataru Nara-hashi predicted it would be adopted by the diet without major change despite hot conservative opposition.

The draft sets up a British style government on a foundation which is a Japanese version of the Magna Charta.

Freedom of thought, conscience, press, religion and speech—human luxuries long rationed in Japan—are guaranteed.

Moscow Radio Says Greeks Dispatch Ship To Control Uprising

LONDON (AP)—The Moscow radio last night broadcast a Iass dispatch from Athens saying that the Greek government was sending a warship to the island of Kephallenia (Cephalonia) to quell a revolt organized by the right wing monarchist organization "X."

The Russian news agency, quoting what it said was a communication from the chief of police of Western Greece, said 15 hostages had been seized from the Democrats since the outbreak began March 4 and that "serious clashes" are taking place.

There was no confirmation from other sources.

USS Missouri to Visit Turkey

Cruise to Mediterranean Ports Called Diplomatic Mission by Washington

WASHINGTON (AP)—The 45,000-ton battleship Missouri, symbol of victory over Japan, was assigned yesterday to visit Turkey and several Mediterranean ports.

Its mission is a kid-glove diplomatic assignment into which any who care to do so can read political significance in the light of Russian moves in the eastern Mediterranean. But the state department said that "there are no political implications."

The mighty battleship, which the Japanese surrendered, will leave New York March 21 to bear to Istanbul the body of Mehmet Munir Ertegun, Turkish ambassador who died at his post here in November, 1944. The mission is one for which precedent would dictate the use of a cruiser.

Returning from Istanbul, the Missouri, escorted by the destroyer Power, will call at the Greek port of Piraeus and the politically less critical ports of Alexandria, Egypt; Naples, Italy, and Tangier, international city.

Ertegun was dean of the diplomatic corps and the state department said his body would be returned "with full honors." Michael J. McDermott, state department press officer, who said that there were "no political implications" in the trip, described Ertegun as "a man held in very high esteem from a country held in very high esteem."

Other diplomatic authorities said that whether it was intended so or not the trip to Turkey and Greece unquestionably would have diplomatic meaning to the extent that it serves as a reminder of the sea power and military strength of the United States.

Marshall Document Wanted as Evidence

NUERNBERG (AP)—Counsel for Col. Gen. Alfred Jodl asked the International Military Tribunal yesterday for a copy of Gen. George C. Marshall's 1945 report to President Truman as a defense document, declaring it would disprove the charge that Jodl was a "warmonger."

Jodl's counsel also demanded the right to present a German foreign office compilation of reports concerning breaches of international law by the allies as "causes for high command reprisals."

Baldur Von Schirach, former head of the Hitler youth movement, asked for witnesses who, he said would prove he sought the fuhrer's permission to be a peace envoy to the United States in 1940.

Iranian Troops—Stopped By Reds

TEHRAN (AP)—The Iranian war ministry said last night that Iranian troops had "been stopped by the Russians" 60 miles east of Tehran as they moved in to garrison three eastern towns which Soviet officials had said they were evacuating last Saturday.

At the same time a message from Iran's premier, now in Moscow, declared he would not accept any Soviet demands contrary to Iran's interests. He said he would protest orally to Stalin himself on Russia's delay in evacuating the country.

Three Towns

The towns were Samnan, Shahrud and Meshed, the only three places mentioned specifically in Moscow's announcement that the Red army was being withdrawn from some areas which were "more or less" quiet.

Acting Premier Bayatt read the following telegram which he said he had received last night from Premier Ahmed Qavam es Salianeh, who has been in Moscow for two weeks negotiating with the Russians:

"Report to his imperial majesty and the Majlis (parliament) that because of a party which Generalissimo Stalin is holding tonight in honor of the Iranian mission, their arrival in Tehran has been delayed and I may reach Tehran Thursday.

Protest

"With regard to the Russian troops not evacuating Iran, I have protested to M. Molotov, the foreign commissar, and at the party I am going to protest orally in the name of the Iranian government to Generalissimo Stalin himself.

If there are any demands which are contrary to the interests of Iran, they will not be accepted."

The war ministry gave no details as to where and how the Iranian troops were stopped, beyond the statement that it was "60 miles" east of Tehran, Samnan, the closest of the three towns, is about 100 miles east of the capital.

President Reaffirms Support of Charter

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—President Truman reaffirmed yesterday this nation's stout support of the United Nations charter before an applauding assemblage of church leaders to whom he also appealed for support of his domestic legislative program.

Speaking a day after Winston Churchill's appeal for an Anglo-American alliance to give strength to the UNO to prevent World War III, Mr. Truman told the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America:

"The United States expects to support that charter."

When the applause had subsided, he continued, choosing his words carefully:

"It expects to defend that charter. It expects to expand and perfect that charter. And we are confident that all the other United Nations expect to do the same."

Wyatt to Control Housing Prices

WASHINGTON (AP)—The house took the final say-so on building material prices away from the OPA yesterday and gave it to Housing Administrator Wilson Wyatt.

The step was taken by a vote of 102 to 75, completing action on all major amendments. A technicality raised by Representative Keefe (R., Wis.), however, delayed a vote on final passage until today. He demanded a reading of the engrossed bill, the official printed copy, which could not be made ready in time.

Shout Down Proposal

Earlier the house shouted down a proposal to give each veteran $200 for the purchase of a home, and it turned back another attempt to put price ceilings on the 29,000,000 existing dwellings.

The legislation has been sheared of what President Truman called its "very heart."

A coalition of Republicans and southern Democrats rejected presidential proposals for $600,000,000 in subsidies to bring out larger production of building materials, and price ceilings on existing dwellings.

Goal Unattainable

Wyatt said the goal of 2,700,000 new homes in two years cannot be attained without the subsidy authority.

Administration leaders voiced hope the senate would insert the subsidy and price ceiling provisions.

In the bill were these provisions:

1. An increase by $1,000,000,000 in the government authority to insure home mortgage loans. Thus a home could be bought with a small down payment and the government would protect the mortgagor for the remainder.

2. Continuation until June 30, 1947, of priorities and allocation authority for channeling scarce building materials into homes.

3. Preference for veterans in the purchase or rental of new houses.

4. Broad authority for Wyatt to issue directives to other government agencies.
5. Authority for Wyatt to stop or curb the export of lumber as long as scarcities exist in this country.

Adjust Prices

Representative Keefe, arguing for his OPA amendment, said it would allow the housing administrator to direct OPA to adjust ceiling prices for housing materials to encourage maximum production.

Leaders Poll Union Members On Acceptance of Compromise

WASHINGTON (Thursday)—(AP)—A nationwide telephone tiang hung in the balance early today as union leaders polled locals over the country on acceptance of a compromise settlement.

With the strike set for 6 a. m. today, the poll continued from the labor department conciliation offices at 1:15 a. m. EST.

A labor department official said officers of the National Federation of Telephone workers had agreed on terms for settlement but that announcement of the agreement between the federation and the American Telephone and Telegraph company was delayed pending agreement of the local unions.

Joseph A. Beirne, NFTW president, started calling representatives of the 17 locals involved in the strike threat early last night at a conference of management, labor and United States conciliation service representatives.

One union representative conceded it was possible one or more of the locals might "balk" at the settlement terms, so far unannounced. The unions had asked a $2 daily increase—$10 weekly—for telephone workers.

Present Conference

In advance of the present conference, which began Tuesday, union officials had said that none of the 17 would close a deal until all reached agreement. It was considered likely that this arrangement was delaying the settlement.

Secretary of Labor Schwelienbach was at the conference as it continued on into the early morning hours.

The strike already was underway at Baltimore, and three smaller Maryland cities, however. Operators walked out early last night and picketing began.

Polling Locals

A high government official said Beirne was polling the locals but did not say on what proposition. A union official in Detroit confirmed that the poll was on a proposed compromise but declined to discuss details.

In Springfield, Ill., Melvin Skinner, local chairman of the National Federation of Telephone workers, told a meeting of telephone workers that union and management spokesmen in Washington expected to announce before 1 a. m. (EST) that the strike had been settled.

However, a union leader emerged from the conference of union, management and United States conciliators in the labor department offices and told reporters it was "slow going."

Locals Balking

"Are some of the locals balking?" he was asked.

"Yes," he replied.

Mrs. Frances Smith, president of the Michigan Telephone Workers' federation (Ind.) at Detroit, who said the poll was being conducted by Beirne, declined to say whether the compromise proposal originated with the telephone companies or the labor department.

The strike was called for 6 a. m. today by the National Federation of Telephone workers which has asked for a $2 a day increase in wages.

The strike, affecting long distance service throughout the country and local phones in many cities, was declared "inevitable" in telegrams sent to members of the National Federation of Telephone workers.

Jobless Riot In Bari, Italy

BARI, Italy (AP)—Two Carabinieri were killed, several were injured, and an undetermined number of jobless were hurt Tuesday in clashes here between police and more than 2,000 demonstrators.

The trouble began when 200 unemployed, reinforced by 2,000 laborers, besieged a hall where a farmers' committee—created after similar disorders Feb. 25—was discussing ways and means of absorbing jobless.

Accusing the committee of stalling, the demonstrators set out to find agriculturists, bring them into the hall, and force them to make jobs.

The crowd actually had several frightened employers in tow when the Carabinieri intervened. In the ensuing fighting, the mob captured an armored car and forced the policemen into their barracks.

Reinforcements were rushed to the city.

There were lesser disturbances yesterday despite the reinforcements.

Hancher Talk Today Outlines Building Plans

President Virgil M. Hancher will outline the university's plans for building expansion at the Information First program in the senate chamber of Old Capitol this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

After pointing out the general campus plan and the present outlines for expansion, President Hancher will discuss briefly general education at the university.

The building program includes plans for which the university has already received appropriations and plans which do not call for state appropriations but which are handled by private financing. Proposals for buildings which will be needed at the university within the next 10 years will be presented.

President Hancher will also stress the importance of general education and discuss adult education in relation to university education.

Fence Bustin' Yankees Reunited

Chandler Only Boon to Weak Mound Staff

By JACK HAND
ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—The old fence-busting New York Yankees are back together again, ready to pick up where they left off in 1943, if some of the younger talent can fill the gaping holes in the pitching staff.

Joe DiMaggio, Charley Keller and Tommy Henrich still can take care of the outfielding. Joe Gordon and Phil Rizzuto form the keystone combination to a brilliant infield. Bill Dickey once again is behind the plate. But who is going to pitch?

Mound Staff Unheralded
Behind Spud Chandler, the "bell cow" of the staff, come 24 or 25 tossers, some of whom may be able to do the job. Nobody knows for sure because their records either are unconvincing or undependable.

Last season Floyd Bevens, a young strong-armed fellow from Salem, Ore., found himself as a big leaguer with a 13-9 win record for a sagging club. Bevens still has to prove his ability in a postwar setting against hitters like Ted Williams, Dick Wakefield and other returning stars.

Ernie Bonham, a disappointment for the last two seasons although he came back strong in the final months of 1945, is unsigned and missing valuable training time when, at 32, he should be one of the better hurlers in the league. There have been reports that President Larry MacPhail was going to see him but nothing definite has been done.

Southpaws Prominent
There are seven lefthanders in the crop, including Marius Russo who is still a question mark because of a winter arm operation. If Russo can chuck like he could in 1945 he can be the No. 2 man on the staff. Joe Page, an unpredictable southpaw, pitched one good game in Panama and Rookie Bill Wight, who still belongs to the Newark Farm club, was the brightest-looking prospect uncovered in the Canal Zone excursion.

None of the others, except the veteran Jake Wade, has proved himself in fact company.

Red Ruffing hasn't reported despite threats of fines from MacPhail. The headhead won seven and lost three for the club after getting out of the army last summer. Although he is 41, he still has enough left in his right arm to come in very handy to manager Joe McCarthy. Aley Donald comes in the same category, but his is a very doubtful case because of a shoulder operation.

Baseball Nine Enters International Meet

Baseball players of the University of Iowa in early May will participate in the international correspondence baseball field games contest with Australia, Coach Otto Vogel said Wednesday.

Iowa is one of nine American universities asked to enter the competition by H. Archie Richardson of Hollywood, Calif., who was asked by the Australian Baseball Council to arrange for the combined American team.

Events are circling the bases against time, throwing the baseball for distance, and fungo hitting for distance. Iowa, California, U. C. L. A. and Pennsylvania are the four universities which have accepted the invitation so far.

Off Returns to Lineup

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Recovered sufficiently from the flu to return to his familiar stand in right field, Manager Mel Ott of the New York Giants banged two singles for the Witek Washouts yesterday as they defeated the Zimmerman Zombies, 9-2, in a forenoon intrasquad game.

Big Ten Mat, Tank Meets This Weekend

Championship time in the Big Ten arrives tomorrow for the swimming and wrestling teams. The Hawkeye swimmers go to Minneapolis, stamping grounds of the Golden Gophers, where once again the mighty Ohio State and Michigan squads will rule as favorites to take the conference title. The Iowa grapplers will invade Champaign in an attempt to capture the title which they missed by one point last year.

Ten University of Iowa swimmers will make the trip north, Coach Armbruster announced. Winners of five out of six dual meets during the season, the Hawkeyes have an excellent prospect of finishing among the top three in team scoring. The Iowa squad will be headed by Dick Maine, fastest man in the conference in the 150-yard backstroke and Kenny Marsh, high scorer on the team, in the sprint events.

Other Hawkeyes having good changes in the scoring race are Arthur Van Haven in the 220- and 440-yard distance events, Bernie Walters in the 50-yard free style and breast stroke, Gilbert Sheckler in the breast stroke, and the medley relay team.

The traveling squad will include Bill Boswell and Jonas Halldora, Iowa's dependable co-captains, Bernie Walters, Dick Maine, Kenny Marsh, William Metier, Gilbert Sheckler, Arthur Van Haven, Al Stanley, and either Chester Cole or Ralph Katz.

Three undefeated grapplers will head Mike Howard's list of matmen making the trip to Illinois. Heading the group will be "Rummy" Macias, only remaining Hawkeye of last year's four man powerhouse that swept into Evanston, Ill., and surprised everyone by nearly taking the meet. Macias will be defending a flock of records including his Big Ten title in the 128-pound class. This weekend he will be striving for the honor of holding a Big Ten title for three consecutive years.

Lynn Gray will go into the meet without a defeat during the season. He has taken five straight wins in the 165-pound class and rules as one of the favorites in that division.

Bob Johnson, Hawkeye 175 pound grappler, also has a perfect record for the season. He has won four straight and shown improvement in each meet.

Four other matmen will make the trip as Iowa goes after the team title in earnest this weekend with a seven-man squad. They include Bill Quinlan at 126 pounds, Dick Barker at 131 pounds, Jim Knowles in the 155-pound class and Leon George in the heavyweight division.

LAFAYETTE, Ind.—Although he is only five feet, eight inches tall, Purdue's Dick Kilpatrick has established an all-time Boiler-maker high jump mark of six feet, five inches.

Teeloxes, DTD Take Victories

Two well matched pairs of teams fought it out in the basketball intramurals last night with the Teeloxes emerging on top over the Behemoths and Delta Tau Delta over Pi Kappa Alpha. The Irregulars won their game from Kellogg house by forfeit while Byington and West Lambert postponed their game.

Bob Gustafson paced the Teeloxes to a 36-24 win, hanging 11 points, while Dick Schmedden hit four long shots and Allen McCord scored seven. At half time, the winners held only a one point lead, 11-10.

It was nip and tuck in the tilt between the DTD's and PIKA's, but by the half the DTD's had rallied and forged ahead to lead, 16-8, at the midway mark and finished off with a 28-20 score against the hard fighting PIKA's. Keith Walker hit eight while Lowell Brockman got some long shots in for a total of six. Bob Gaffron also ran up six with two field goals and two free throws. O. J. Lawhorn was hot for the losers, chalking up the largest score of the evening for individual honors with 12.

Wilson Falls to City High, 42-32; Marians Win Handily, 37-23

CEDAR RAPIDS (Special)—Two Iowa City teams won first round games in the district high school basketball tournament here last night. St. Mary's strong class B quintet dropped Center Point, 37-23, and City high blasted Wilson high of Cedar Rapids, 42-32 in a class A battle. In the other tilt on the night's card Atkins eliminated St. Mary's of Cascade, 36-26.

City high's win set up an all Iowa City game in the tournament, scheduled for Friday night. The Little Hawks will engage University high in the first meeting of the two schools this season. The winner will represent Iowa City hopes in the class A division of the sub-state tourney which will be held in the Iowa fieldhouse next week.

Hawkllets Win
Led by torrid Bob Freeman, who gathered 18 points, the Little Hawks kept up a steady pace to win going away, 42-32. Scoring 11 points in each of the first two quarters and 10 markers in each of the two last stanzas, Coach Gil Wilson's quintet had little trouble with the Ramblers.

St. Mary's Advances
St. Mary's had little difficulty disposing of Center Point in their first lap in the district tourney, 37-23. The Ramblers grabbed an early lead behind the sharp shooting of Billy Suplee and Andy Chukkalas which they never relinquished.

Sub-State Meet in Fieldhouse Next Week

Iowa's fieldhouse, site of the state high school basketball finals, also will be used for one of the four sub-state tournaments, it was announced here yesterday afternoon.

Sixteen teams will play here beginning Tuesday evening, Mar. 18. Three games are scheduled for Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, and two each for Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

According to rules of the Iowa high school athletic association, under auspices of which the tournaments are held, four teams in each sub-state meet will qualify for the final tournament in the fieldhouse Mar. 20 through 23.

For the sub-state meet here, only general admission tickets will be sold for each of the five sessions.

Another of the four meets will be held in the State Teachers college gym at Cedar Falls. The other two sites will be selected Sunday following completion of district meets now underway.

Loop Trackmen Vie at Chicago

By JIMMY JORDAN

CHICAGO (AP)—The rivalry of close competition will be exploded on the track of the University of Chicago fieldhouse here Saturday night when Illinois and Michigan hook in what appears to be another two-team race for the Big Ten track championship.

Michigan is the defending champion. The Wolverines scored 55 1/10 points to win the meet last year—one more point than Illinois.

12 Iowa Thinclads Enter Big Ten Meet

Coach George Bresnahan last night named 12 Iowa trackmen who will compete in the annual Big Ten indoor track meet which will be held in the Chicago University fieldhouse Friday and Saturday.

Ike Johnson and Dan Sheehan, leading Hawk point getters to date, head the list. Johnson will compete in the broad jump and run the low hurdles and Sheehan will enter the broad jump, pole vault and high jump, an event he is undefeated in so far this season.

Others making the trip include: Nelson Smith, half mile run; Eugene Freels, high and low hurdles; Bernie Lewis, one-half and one-mile runs; Dick Washington, sprints; Walter Thorpe, pole vault and Keith Gotthardt, shot put.

Comprising the mile relay team for the Hawks will be John Hunter, Eric Wilson, Otis Finney and Pete Schwinn.

Player-Manager List Dwindles to Three In Major Leagues

NEW YORK (AP)—Playing managers will be as scarce in the big leagues this season as butler with only Mel Ott of the New York Giants and Lou Boudreau of the Cleveland Indians combining playing with master-minding during the coming campaign.

Last year Joe Cronin and Leo Durocher, managers of the Boston Red Sox and Brooklyn Dodgers respectively, did a little playing in the early part of the campaign, while Ben Chapman, boss of the Philadelphia Phils, tried his hand at pitching in the latter part of the season. But all three have scratched themselves from the active roster this year.

This is in contrast to 10 years ago when the two majors were dotted with playing bosses. The 1936 list included Bill Terry, Giants; Charlie Grimm, Cubs; Frank Frisch, Cards; Jimmy Wilson, Phils; Pie Traynor, Pittsburgh; Cronin, Red Sox; Jimmy Dykes, White Sox; Mickey Cochrane, Detroit and Rogers Hornsby, Browns.

Reports Hike Records Of Hawk Prospects

Reports that a former "all-American" basketball player from Long Island U. is coming to Iowa to play with the Hawkeyes next season apparently are exaggerated, according to Coach Pops Harrison. The player referred to was Ed Rathgahn, who went to Long Island U. as a freshman but never competed there, and certainly never won all-American honors.

"Just what good Rathgahn and John McMann (another service star who is slated to come here) will do us next year we don't know," the Iowa coach said yesterday. "It is obvious that their records have been exaggerated in early reports."

inches in the high jump and is expected to score in the broad jump, and George Walker last year's high and low hurdles champ.

Michigan scored 36 of its points in last year's meet in the half-mile, mile and two-mile runs, and is expected to count heavily in those events again.

135,757 Iowa Fans Can't Be Wrong—

NO, IOWA'S basketball team wasn't the conference champion again this season, but statistics just released show it was the most popular... The Hawkeyes outdrew all other Big Ten quintets with a total attendance for 12 games reaching 135,757... Away from home, Iowa was the third best drawing card, but the top three teams had the benefit of road games in Chicago stadium plus a 14,000 crowd or better when they played in Iowa City... Strange part of the figures is champion Ohio State's tiny total of 67,332... And Wisconsin's Badgers won only one game, but were second high in total attendance with 124,092... Here's the way the turnstiles spun this season.

	Home	Away	Total
IOWA	84,400	51,357	135,757
Wisconsin	71,500	52,592	124,092
Northwestern	75,702	47,748	123,450
Purdue	47,500	61,564	109,064
Minnesota	63,386	43,600	106,986
Illinois	35,777	54,942	90,719
Indiana	25,740	42,734	68,474
Ohio State	16,900	50,432	67,332
Michigan	31,600	32,605	64,205
Chicago	12,400	27,331	39,731

Great Pressbox News for Tait—
WELL, WE NOTE with some pride that this corner was the target of part of Tait Cummins' column in the Cedar Rapids Gazette last Sunday... The venerable (that ought to stop him) Tait sought to set us right on this business of Iowa's alleged refusal to accept a bid to the Garden this month... Also thought about rotund Mr. Cummins when all this news came out about the several Big Ten schools' intentions of remodeling their press boxes... This should be great tidings for Tait... He and I watched a lot of lousy Iowa football games together last fall in all sorts of press boxes, and I believe that Tait enjoys a good set-up for the press better than anyone I know.

HELL BE DELIGHTED with the new three decker box Illinois is erecting to take the place of the screen shrouded old icebox they have now... And he'll welcome something new at Purdue to keep the slanting rays of the afternoon sun out of his eyes... No doubt Northwestern's and Michigan's plans will make happy-go-lucky Tait even happier... BUT THE THING THAT WILL REALLY SEND HIM, is this elevator which Ohio State is planning to carry the fourth estate characters up to their lofty box... Last season a typewriter, overnight case, box lunch and his bay window were almost too much for Tait to tote with him to the stadium pinnacles.

Pass the Hash—
IOWA'S FINAL basketball game at Minnesota last Saturday tied for the questionable honor of containing more personal fouls than any other Big Ten contest... Forty-nine fouls were charged—25 on Iowa and 24 on the Gophers... THE 22,892 folks who packed Chicago stadium Field 23 constituted the largest crowd ever to watch a college basketball game... IOWA'S TRACK team has an ace backer in Mrs. Eric Wilson, wife of the Hawkeye publicity man... Prime interest, of course, is Eric Wilson Jr., who did a bangup job of anchoring the winning mile relay last Saturday, and who promises to be a stove off the same barrel as his father... Eric Sr. was an Olympic team member... HIGHEST LOSING score in the Big Ten basketball race was Minnesota's 61 points against Iowa Jan. 28... No wonder them Gophers wanted revenge last Saturday.

Cabalka's Father Dies
Leo Cabalka, University of Iowa basketball minor 1 winner this season and baseball squadman, was called to his home in Cedar Rapids Tuesday evening by the death of his father.

Designate Friday as World Day of Prayer; 'Things That Make for Peace' to Be Topic

Women all over the world will pray on the World Day of Prayer, Mar. 8, for "Things That Make for Peace."

Prayers will begin in the Fiji Islands just west of the international date line early in the morning of what would be Thursday here, and progress through Asia around the world to end the World Day of Prayer on St. Lawrence Island, a tiny Eskimo island just off the coast of Alaska, 30 miles east of the date line.

The seed of the World Day of Prayer began in 1887, when Mrs. Darwin R. James called her Presbyterian Women's Home Mission society together to pray for their missionary work. The idea of women from all Protestant churches praying on a single theme on a certain day developed into a national organization, and in 1927 became an annual international event sponsored by the United Council of Church Women. By 1936, women of 50 countries were kneeling on Mar. 8 to pray for the single goal chosen each year by the council.

During the war, the World Day of Prayer continued to be observed, though under difficulties in warring areas. When the European countries were under Nazi dominance, the observances were held secretly, and few dared attend. In Korea Japanese rulers imprisoned missionaries and followers alike for distributing religious literature in connection with the World Day of Prayer. One missionary died in prison before the others were liberated at the insistence of the United States department of state.

Tomorrow the women of Iowa City will join in the international prayer for the peace which will prevent the oppressions suffered by so many nations during the war. Services will take place in the First Methodist church from 11 a. m. to 2 p. m. A devotional service will be sponsored by the united churches of Iowa City in the morning, and the Rev. Fernando Laxamana, student minister at the First Congregational church, will speak in the afternoon.

At 7:30 p. m. a service in connection with the World Day of Prayer for those who cannot attend during the day will be led by the Rev. V. V. Goff, assistant pastor of the Methodist church.

Three Johnson County Republicans Announce Intentions to File for Supervisor Positions

One Iowa City Man Among Candidates For June Primaries

Three Johnson county Republicans will file nomination papers for positions on the county board of supervisors. The announcement came yesterday from Fred Johnson, chairman of the county Republican central committee.

Candidates are E. Earl Thomas, 505 Brookland Park drive; Merrill C. Douglass, route 2, West Branch; and W. L. Snider, route 1, Kalona.

Thomas is a candidate for the term beginning Jan. 1, 1947, the term sought by Preston Koser and Robert Mahoney Sr., the two Democratic candidates. Elmer E. Dewey is the incumbent.

Douglass seeks candidacy for the term beginning Jan. 1, 1949, now held by Marvin Stahl.

Snider is a candidate for the term beginning Jan. 1, 1948, now held by J. E. Pechman.

None of the candidates has previously run for public elective office.

Thomas, 60, a Union township farmer for many years has been a director of the county Farm Bureau for 12 years, served on the township AAA committee of which he was the first chairman, and was a township trustee.

Douglass, 32, who now operates a farm in Graham township and served five years as county Farm Bureau director, is vice-chairman of the Graham township AAA committee, and has served as chairman of war bond and Red Cross committees.

Snider, 59, has been a Johnson county farmer for 37 years and now owns a farm in Sharon township. He has been active in school affairs serving as a director and member of the Sharon high school association board. He is an AAA member and has been a director on the board of the Farm Bureau.

Presbyterian Church Plans Potluck Dinners During Lenten Season

A series of family potluck suppers with addresses by Dr. P. Hewison Pollock will be held each Thursday in the Lenten season at the First Presbyterian church.

Dr. Pollock's general topic will be "Who Follows in Their Train?" The schedule of talks will be: March 7, The Monk; March 14, The Friar; March 21, The Reformer; March 28, The Puritan; April 4, The Missionary; and April 11, The Ecumenists.

April 18, Holy Thursday, a candlelight communion service will take place in the sanctuary of the church at 7:30 p. m. instead of the potluck supper and talk.

Jaycees Start Street Cleaning Campaign

A program to clean up the streets of Iowa City has been launched by the local Junior Chamber of Commerce with the appointment of a three man committee composed of Roy Holt, Ivan Bane and Glenn Kennedy.

The committee was set up by President Jack C. White to study conditions and find likely spots on downtown streets to place waste receptacles. According to the present plan, receptacles would be purchased by the Junior Chamber and maintained by the city department of streets.

The need for these waste cans is obvious, White said, and with the cooperation of the Iowa City residents the program will be a success.

License Issued

A marriage license was issued yesterday by the clerk of district court to J. A. Buckwalter and Carole A. Kelly of Iowa City.

Mrs. Dale Stanfield Funeral to Be Held Tomorrow at 2 P. M.

Funeral services for Mrs. Dale Stanfield, 7, 903 E. Page street, who died yesterday at a local hospital, will be held at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the Oathout funeral chapel. The Rev. Norman Hobbs will officiate.

Mrs. Stanfield was born in Johnson county April 1, 1874. She married Charles E. Stanfield July 17, 1895. The couple moved to Iowa City from Tiffin in 1919.

Mrs. Stanfield was a member of the auxiliary of the Sons of Union Veterans and the Daughters of Veterans.

Among the survivors are a son, Erwin J. Stanfield of Iowa City and a daughter, Mrs. Harold Aubrecht, route No. 5, Iowa City.

Burial will be in the Tiffin cemetery.

Iowa City Farm Loan Association to Meet

The Iowa City National Farm Loan association will hold its first postwar meeting Monday noon in the Hotel Jefferson, according to Carl Williams, president of the group.

Speakers will include Frank O. Osborn, vice-president of the Federal Land bank, and F. W. Ellerbrock, secretary-treasurer of the local organization. Two new directors will be elected Monday from the association's 450 stockholders.

Baptist Group Plans Lenten Talk Sunday

"A Challenge for the Lenten Season," a discussion of the Disciple Plan, will be the topic of the Roger Williams fellowship meeting Sunday at 5:30 p. m. in the Roger Williams house.

The meeting will be led by a group of students in the fellowship Disciple Convocation in Des Moines Friday and Saturday. They are: Jean Prentis, Valerie Dierks, Mary Jane Trenerry, Mary Pottorf and Clem Alley.

Mayor Proclaims March Red Cross Month

Iowa City Mayor Wilber J. Teeters last night issued a proclamation calling for the participation of citizens of the community in the local Red Cross campaign. The text of the mayor's statement follows:

"Whereas, there will be 15 million veterans of World War II whose successful readjustment to civilian life requires the combined efforts and resources of all agencies, public and private, and

"Whereas, there are now more than half a million American servicemen and women whose important but monotonous assignment of helping to keep the peace in Europe and the Pacific calls for strong and continuing measures to sustain their morale, and

"Whereas, there is a greater need than ever in our peacetime civilization for the training of its people in the ways of safety and health, and

"Whereas, there is a continuing need for preparedness against a relief of natural and man-made disasters which every year take their toll of American life and property, and

"Whereas, the American National Red Cross with its nearly 4,000 chapters is charged by its congressional charter of 1905 with the performance of these and other humanitarian tasks,

"Be it therefore resolved that I, Wilber J. Teeters, mayor of the city of Iowa City, in accordance with the proclamation of the president of the United States, naming March as American Red Cross month, do here and now urge all the people of Johnson county to contribute generously to the 1946 Red Cross Fund campaign which began March 5. I further urge that they remember the end of the war brings no end to the tremendous program of this organization in administering to the needs of American servicemen, veterans and civilians."

Gordon String Quartet—Enchanting Musicale

By W. THOMAS MARROCCO

Those who were unable to attend last night's recital of chamber music presented by the Gordon String Quartet missed an enchanting musical treat of a well chosen program with examples of the classic, the late romantic, and contemporary periods.

The recital opened with a sparkling performance of Mozart's quartet in B flat despite Mr. Gordon's injury to his left hand. The melodic idiom of Ravel's quartet is strictly diatonic with its parallel progressions so typical of the impressionistic French school.

It is of interest to know that the premiere performance of this work in 1906 in New York was received with a mixture of consternation, frigidity, and ridicule.

Since that time, through the efforts of contemporary composers, our aural sense has been subjected to a continuous bombardment of cacophony, so that we not only find parallel seconds and sevenths interesting, but stimulating.

Smetana's quartet in E minor, a remarkable work for its freedom and intimacy of style, was played with unusual warmth and vitality. The Polka in the second movement, pregnant with Bohemian flare and flavor, is often the subject of controversy among quartetists as to what lengths that flavor and flare should be carried, yet retaining the character. The Gordon Quartet showed excellent taste in pursuing the middle path.

Insofar as the writer is concerned this group welded together four well-trained minds into one solid group—even their body movements were synchronized.

All personal likes and dislikes recede to the background when this quartet performs. These attributes have combined to win for it a high rank among chamber music groups before the American public.

Sedivec Funeral Rites To Be Held Saturday

Funeral services for Mrs. Elizabeth Sedivec, 67, a lifetime resident of Johnson county, will be held at McGovern's funeral home at 2 p. m. Saturday with the Rev. D. G. Hart officiating.

Mrs. Sedivec, who was born in 1879 in Newport township, died Tuesday in Cedar Rapids at the home of a daughter-in-law. She had been ill for several months.

She is survived by her husband, Dan Sedivec, one daughter, three sons, three brothers and four grandchildren.

Burial will be in Oakland cemetery.

Natural Crossroads Fetzer Traces Growth Of U. S. Cities

Great cities seem to occur at either a break in transportation or a natural crossroads, Prof. John Fetzer of the university college of commerce told Lions club members yesterday noon.

In his discussion of city development Fetzer cited Davenport as an example of a combination of the two factors. He explained that as the frontier opened up, crossing a barrier such as the Mississippi river, it was necessary to have a trading post since the pioneers relied upon the east as a source of materials.

Fetzer attributed Chicago's growth to its location near the closest port of one of the richest agricultural producing areas in the world. "Here again," he said, "was a transportation break."

Boston, Philadelphia and Baltimore are all older than New York and have good harbors, he said, and yet New York has become the financial and commercial capital of the world. It was the outlet from New York to the Hudson river and through the Mohawk valley, making a tremendous funnel to the middle west, that contributed so greatly to the development of that city.

Joseph G. Mellecker Fined $25 on Charge Of Reckless Driving

Joseph G. Mellecker, route 7, was fined $25 and costs in police court yesterday for reckless driving. Leonard Vorel of Tiffin paid a fine of $10 and costs for failure to yield the right of way.

Charged with driving without a license, Vernon Inman of Iowa City received a suspended $10 fine. Robert Anderson of West Branch was fined $10 and costs for passing within a no-passing zone on a state highway.

Lee Cox, 935 E. College street, paid a $1 fine for blocking the sidewalk with a car. Dick Lundeman of Iowa City, was fined $1 for overtime parking, and Walter Thorpe of Iowa City paid a $1 fine for parking on the wrong side of the street.

Mrs. L. Smith Named To Red Cross Post

Mrs. L. Smith has been named headquarters chairman for the 1946 Johnson County Red Cross Fund campaign by Lynn DeReu and Elwin Shain, co-chairmen of the drive.

The local Red Cross office, 15 1/2 S. Dubuque street, will serve as headquarters and will be open daily from 9 a. m. to noon and from 1 p. m. to 5 p. m. Workers will turn in money there. Mrs. Dora Chapman, cashier, is assisted by staff assistants and other volunteer workers.

'Price Consciousness' Aim of Local Panel

The local Information Panel of the Office of Price Control will meet this afternoon with views of enlarging the panel for better distribution of price control information. Schools and women's organizations will be represented in an effort to make the public "price conscious" of the rising cost of living.

Veteran's Executive Committee Proposes Revised Constitution

W. J. Dougherty, O. C. Sutherland and Dr. W. D. Houlette, members of the Iowa City veterans' administration, explained their work at a meeting of the University Veterans' association last night in the chemistry auditorium.

The administrators told of various problems which confront veterans and how they are solved. Dougherty, contact representative, said veterans enrolled in the university are not eligible to take other courses such as flight training unless the university undertakes such training in its curricula.

A lengthy discussion took place during the first part of the meeting when a proposed constitution, drawn up by the association's executive committee, was read by William Henke, LI of Charles City.

Gordon Christensen, L3 of Iowa City, referred to the present constitution and challenged the legality of voting upon the proposed constitution with only a portion of the total number of veterans on campus present.

It was decided by those present that the proposed constitution would be published in The Daily Iowan and voted upon at the next meeting.

Committee reports concerned Quadrangle food prices, formation of a baby sitters unit for veterans' families, plans for a spring party and recreation for veterans' wives.

Police reported yesterday that a car stolen in Iowa City Monday night was found in Cedar Rapids Tuesday.

The car belonged to Mrs. Estel Clark of Onawa and was taken from its parking place on Washington street.
