Krug Uncertain Miners Will Work

Lewis Declares Continuation Of Operations Up to Workers

By HAROLD W. WARD

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government seized the soft coal mines yesterday but failed to get any immediate assurances from John L. Lewis that the miners will continue to work when the strike "truce" expires Saturday.

Secretary of the Interior Krug, who takes charge of the mines under the seizure order effective after midnight last night, told a news conference that Lewis took the position that the question of continuing work was one for the individual miners.

Krug said that "we asked his support" in keeping the mines operating and Lewis took the request "under consideration." A second conference with Lewis will be held this morning but Krug said Lewis made "no promises, and we requested none."

Krug also conferred with representatives of the operators. He told reporters afterwards that he will attempt to work out the principles of a new bituminous coal contract during the government operation.

After this has been done, he explained, the operators will be called in "for discussions."

He said it might become necessary for the government to work out details of a complete contract—including disposition of Lewis' controversial demand for a health and welfare fund for the miners based on a seven percent payroll charge against production.

Krug said that whatever contract is eventually worked out must comply with the government's wage-price policy. He said daily reports of the progress of government negotiations would be made to the public.

Know Move Today

"I think we will know a lot more about the situation today or tomorrow," he added.

Lewis took the position, Krug reported, that under the Smith-Connelly war disputes act the union "has no alternative other than to stay out of the affairs of the mine workers" after government seizure.

The act makes it illegal to instigate a strike in any plant or other property controlled by the government.

Follow Conference

Krug's news conference followed nearly five hours of conferences held by him and Vice Admiral Ben Moreell, who will be deputy coal mines administrator, and representatives of the union and the operators.

Steelman Says Situation Poor

U.S. Conciliator Sees Little Hope Pending In Railroad Dispute

WASHINGTON (AP) — Dr. John R. Steelman, White House conciliator striving to get a settlement of the railroad wage dispute before the truce expires Thursday, said last night the "situation doesn't look too good."

Earlier, he disclosed that he was trying to put through a wage compromise. Any compromise of this nature would mean a bigger increase than an official fact-finding board has recommended.

Before going home to bed to make up some of his lost sleep, Steelman told a reporter that "perhaps a little progress was made" in yesterday's talks but "not much."

The impression prevailed that there was little administration hope for an extension of the truce under which the brotherhoods postponed the strike of trainmen and engineers, originally scheduled for Saturday, the day after President Truman signed an executive order seizing the carriers.

In persuading the union leaders to postpone the strike, the president said he was confident progress could be made in further negotiations.

The railroads have agreed to pay an increase recommended by the fact-finding board, but the brotherhoods are demanding a higher figure.

The engineers and trainmen brotherhoods seek a minimum raise of $1.44 a day for lower paid employees which amounts to 18 cents an hour and a general increase of 18 percent, which the carriers estimate will average about 20 cents an hour.

A. F. Whitney, president of the trainmen, and Alvanley Johnston, chief of the engineers, issued a statement after a conference with Steelman saying that "we hope we are making progress toward a settlement."

Hitler's Czechoslovakian Ruler Sentenced to Public Execution

Karl Hermann Frank To Pay Penalty For Lidice Massacre

PRAGUE (AP)—Karl Hermann Frank, ruler of Czechoslovakia under Hitler, was sentenced to public execution yesterday by the people's court which found him chiefly responsible for the massacre of Lidice and the destruction of the villages of Lidice and Zubri.

Frank, one time Protector of Bohemia and Moravia under Nazism, is the first Nazi of cabinet rank to be sentenced to death in a war crimes trial. Under the people's court practice of swift justice, the death sentence is expected to be carried out soon—possibly today.

Slumps in Chair

Frank slumped listlessly in his chair as the court president, Antonin Kozak, began the reading of the legalistic basis of the decision. The reading was expected to continue into today and the execution to come soon after. The court noted that Frank was not wanted at Nuremberg or other trials.

The court had heard testimony that all of Lidice's males over 16 years of age—about 178—were shot in broad daylight on June 10, 1942. Witnesses testified that the women and children were taken to Kladno, whence the women were sent to concentration camps and the children to scattered homes. The Nazis then put the torch to the village.

'Corn Should Grow'

A witness had testified that Frank visited the village at the time of the execution, viewed the corpses, and expressed a desire that "corn should grow where Lidice stood."

The Nazis wiped out Lidice in revenge for the assassination of Reinhard Heydrich, right hand man of Heinrich Himmler and Frank's predecessor as Protector of Bohemia and Moravia.

Hero of Pacific War Dies in Naval Hospital

CORONA, Calif. (AP) — Capt. Norman H. (Bus) Miller, 38, bomber pilot hero of the central and southwest Pacific campaigns, died at naval hospital here yesterday after several months' illness.

A hospital spokesman said his death was due to tuberculosis, probably contracted during his Pacific tour of duty.

His wife and a brother were at his bedside. The widow and their five children reside at Coronado, Calif.

During the Pacific campaigns Miller became known as the navy's one-man aerial task force. He and his B-24 crew were credited with sinking or damaging 66 Japanese vessels in the four-engine Liberator the crew christened "Thunder Mug." A commander during most of his fighting career, he won the Navy Cross, four Distinguished Flying Crosses and the Purple Heart.

U.S. Troops Smash Ring

Army Raids Vessels Along Danube River; Seizes Large Booty

VILSHOFEN, Germany (AP) — Four thousand hand-picked United States constabulary troops swarmed aboard 372 vessels in the Danube river in a surprise dawn raid yesterday, seized a huge bag of guns and contraband and apparently smashed a smuggling ring headed by remnants of the Hungarian navy.

The boats, mostly Hungarian, were suspected of smuggling German S. S. fugitives out of Germany and trading in black market supplies.

Boats Impounded

Cases of machineguns, numerous light arms, radio sets, and quantities of United States army food, clothing, and other materials were seized. Boats containing them were impounded.

Several hundred members of the once-enemy Hungarian navy were believed to be aboard Hungarian naval craft among the river boats.

At least 30 of the vessels, including 12 gunboats, formerly were part of the Hungarian navy and had fought with the Germans against the Russians, army officials said.

Hundreds Rounded Up

Hundreds of persons were removed for investigation, but the army did not disclose whether any S. S. troopers were bagged. The heavily-armed raiders struck from the shores along a 45-mile stretch of the Danube from the Austrian border up to Deggendorf in southeastern Germany.

The 5 a. m. raid upon ships lying at anchor near the river bank tumbled from bed nearly 3,000 men, women and children of 12 nationalities.

Tehran Government Confirms Red Army Deadline Evacuation

Prince Firouz Denies Ambassador's Report As Fighting Subsides

TEHRAN (AP) — Propaganda Minister Prince Mozaffar Firouz declared tonight that a state investigating committee had found that all Soviet troops left Azerbaijan province and all of Iran by the May 6 deadline set in the recent Soviet-Iranian accord.

Firouz' statement came as reports of fighting near the Azerbaijan border suddenly subsided.

Instructs Ala

He said a telegram was sent today to Hussein Ala, Iranian ambassador to the United States, instructing him to communicate to the United Nations security council the findings of the investigating committee.

Ala's report to the council of continuing Soviet interference in Azerbaijan, self-proclaimed autonomous province in the northwest, was "not the view of the Iranian government," Firouz said, but Ala's "own personal views."

Martial Law Lifted

Firouz, spokesman for Premier Ahmed Qavam's central government, issued his statement shortly after the government of separatist Azerbaijan lifted its one-day old martial law with an announcement that "peaceful methods prevail."

At the same time the central government, reaffirming a determination to settle the Azerbaijan dispute peacefully, ordered an investigation of the armed clashes on the Kurdistan frontier involving Iranian and Azerbaijan troops.

Firouz said the investigating commission had visited all principal areas—towns formerly occupied by the Red army—and that its finding also had been given to the British, Soviet and United States embassies in Tehran.

House Appropriations Committee Approves $5 Billion Navy Fund

WASHINGTON (AP) — The house appropriations committee, declaring that the atom bomb's effect on fleets was still uncertain, approved funds yesterday to keep the American navy the world's greatest.

The committee approved a budget of $4,639,659,000 for the navy's operation during the fiscal year starting July 1.

Secretary of the Navy Forrestal had told the committee that the projected postwar fleet would be "qualitatively and quantitatively equal to all the forces of the world."

Forrestal had argued that "if the United Nations organization" were to be given "a reasonable opportunity of success, the present maintenance of our armed power" was essential.

The $4,639,659,000 which the committee had approved was $374,260,000 more than the budget had recommended but was in the neighborhood of $1,600,000,000 less than the navy had requested.

Stalin Regrets Delay Of Request for Grain By President Truman

LONDON, Wednesday (AP) — Prime Minister Stalin has expressed regret to President Truman that a request that Russia assign grain to help UNRRA meet the world food crisis did not come three months ago when the Soviet Union "could have done something in this respect."

In his answer to the president, Stalin said the request came in the middle of May "after the Soviet Union already has assigned a certain quantity of foodstuffs to France and other countries and when the resources of the Soviet Union are already being exhausted."

Truman, in his letter to the Russian leader, had expressed the hope that the Soviet Union could coordinate her actions with other grain exporting nations to obtain better utilization of the world reserves.

The broadcast said Stalin told Truman that Russia had "no objection in principle" to the suggestion of coordinating the Soviet Union's grain exports, but added that the project would require "a special study."

BULLETINS

CHICAGO (AP)—Hyde Park police last night said Mrs. Marjorie Ashe, 20, who walked out of Illinois Central hospital yesterday leaving behind her nine-day old son and a note for her husband, has been found in Burlington.

NEW YORK (AP)—Port of embarkation authorities said last night that three infants had died and 16 others were ill from an undetermined ailment that occurred during the 13-day voyage from Le Havre of the brideship Zebuloh Vance.

ROME, Wednesday (AP) — The Italian news agency Ansa said today the decapitated body of Mrs. Giovanna Evola, 44, has been found in a sack in a well at Cinisi, Sicily, and that the police had charged her three children with matricide.

The dispatch quoted the police as saying the 21-year-old eldest son stabbed his mother to death in her sleep and with his 12-year-old brother and 16-year-old sister had cut the body to pieces and hidden it in the well.

Police Suspect Murder in Car

RENSSELAER, Ind. (AP)—Discovery of a blood-stained automobile with a bullet in its top in a parking lot here sent state police and Jasper county authorities on a search yesterday for two men reported to have abandoned the car there.

Chicago police reported that the auto was one in which Charles Fodor Jr. 27, had left his home at (4253 Carroll street) Chicago Sunday night. They said he had been missing from his home since that time.

Lt. Rex Risher of Dunes Park state police post said the car contained "considerable blood and what appeared to be part of a human brain."

Detective William Hunter of Dunes Park Post said a .38-caliber slug was found between the sun visor and the metal top of the car. He said apparently there had been a slaying and the victim had been shot through the head.

Sheriff Michael said the men apparently removed all fingerprints from the auto before abandoning it.

Fodor's mother, Mrs. Charles Fodor, and two brothers came here from Chicago yesterday to identify the car.

In Chicago Chief of Detectives Walter G. Storms said Mrs. Fodor told him her son took the automobile Sunday afternoon to go to a movie.

Governor Blue Proud Of State's Financial, Legislative Records

DES MOINES (AP)—Gov. Robert D. Blue said last night he was proud to report that the state is in a "healthy financial condition" to meet reconversion needs, a depression or emergencies.

"The state has made provisions for the resumption of state highway construction and construction at the state institutions as rapidly as reconversion will permit," he continued in remarks prepared for a radio address in his campaign for the Republican nomination for governor.

"The state has on hand amounts sufficient to insure that there will be no default in the payments of homestead credits or old age assistance, should there be a depression, and it has on hand sufficient general balances to meet any emergencies which may develop in connection with veterans' rehabilitation," Blue added.

"I am proud of the record which has been made financially in the administration of the state of Iowa not only during the period I have been your servant, but during the administrations of Governor Wilson and Governor Hickenlooper.

"I am also proud of the record which the legislature has made during the recent sessions in insuring that the state shall not default in its obligations, and of making provisions for the maintenance of a sufficient surplus in the state treasury to tide us over the reconversion period of emergency upon which we have already entered."

UVA to Sponsor—

Cost of Living Meeting May 27

The University Veterans' association will sponsor a "Cost of Living Conference" May 27 at 7:45 in Macbride auditorium, Paul Helmer, A4 of Iowa City, president of the group, announced last night.

The conference will be concerned with the effects of the OPA and rent control on the cost of living. Helmer stated, and will feature speakers representing industry, labor, retail business, agriculture and the OPA.

Be Great Help

"With the intense national interest in the future of the OPA," Helmer said, "the UVA felt that a 'Cost of Living Conference,' with experts on both sides of the question speaking, would be a great help in presenting the vital issues to the general public."

The program will start with talks by the participants in the conference, followed by a panel discussion, and concluding with a general forum in which members of the audience may voice their opinions and ask questions.

Moderator for the conference will be Robert Blakely, a member of the editorial staff of the Des Moines Register and Tribune.

Speakers will include Joseph Clay of the Clay Equipment Co., Cedar Falls; Sam Park, manager of Bishop's cafeteria in Des Moines; Mrs. Raymond Sayre of Des Moines, head of the women's division of the Farm Bureau federation; A. A. Couch, president of the Iowa AF of L; Dean Bowman, regional director of the OPA from Chicago, and Floyd Whittington, district head of OPA from Des Moines.

The meeting is open to the public, and representatives from all colleges and universities in Iowa and other midwest schools have been invited to attend.

Broadcast Over WSUI

More than 60 organizations in Iowa City will be specifically invited to send representatives to take part in the general discussion, Helmer said, and every veteran in the university will receive a card urging him to attend.

The conference will be broadcast over radio station WSUI starting at 7:55 p. m.

Unrest Seethes Among Near East Arabs

Although the Iran-Azerbaijan border disputes have taken the spotlight for the moment, trouble also is brewing in other parts of the near east. A "call to arms" has gone out to the Arab world, and the Iran situation is likely to make the Arabs even more restless.

The Arabs are uniting against the adoption of the British-American inquiry report which advocates the immediate settlement of 100,000 Jews in the Holy Land.

From all the rulers of the little Arab nations have come pledges of active support to the Arab population of Palestine in their fight against the continued influx of Jews.

Ibn Saud, king of Saudi Arabia, in offering aid, called the report "an injustice without precedent." His pledge of support was similar to statements from Syria, Lebanon, Iraq, Transjordan and Egypt's Wafdist party.

Arab lawyers are preparing a case for presentation before the international court of justice, charging violation of article 22 of the League of Nations covenant.

All these developments must be alarming to the British foreign office. To the government in London, a pro-British near east is essential to the line of empire and to the control of vital oil supplies.

It was with the hope of promoting better feelings and a sounder trade position that Britain announced plans to withdraw from Egypt. But the Arab antagonism is a dangerous crack in the carefully constructed dyke against anti-British sentiments.

An alarming as these developments may seem in high British quarters, they must appear secondary to the Arab threat to enlist Russian aid in their struggle against the formation of a Jewish state on the Mediterranean.

Already the British have lost one important diplomatic struggle in the near east—the Iran dispute with Russia. Now the whole near east threatens to rise. The aid of the Soviet colossus will certainly prevent the British from using some of the most important of their weapons of empire-building and empire-maintaining—armed intervention and terrorism.

What's more, this struggle against the immigration of Jews can not help but solidify the Arab dreams of a pan-Arab federation and give birth to new outbursts of nationalism among the people of the desert and valley of the eastern Mediterranean.

With Russia at their back, the Arabs have a potent weapon. Whether the British will repudiate the inquiry commission report, we do not know. But whatever course is taken, it is certain that irreparable harm to the empire has already been done.

This struggle will draw the Arab world closer together than it has been since the crumbling of the great Moslem empire in the 12th century. Russia, already tacitly invited to participate, will strengthen her hold on the eastern Mediterranean at the expense of the British lion.

What's Cooking?

A poster entitled "What's Cooking?" and depicting last week's scene at the Nikko railway station in Japan would make excellent army recruiting material.

There was a lot of brass lined up for the chief of staff's departure, but it didn't phase Corporal Dutton of the honor guard. He showed no mean amount of the metal himself in his frank replies to General Eisenhower's questions about the enlisted men's mess.

Informed that "It's a bum mess," the general asked in effect: "What's been cooking?" The colonel said: "Steak." The corporal said: "Pork chops." The company commander said: "Steak." The corporal said: "Pork chops."

Now the general might have temporized or ruled in favor of the gold-barrled majority. But, "I'll take the corporal's word for it," he declared. "He ought to know what he had for dinner." And the commander was ordered to submit a written report on the corporal's criticism—not of the kind or quantity of food, but on the gold cooking.

Whether pork chops or steak, the whole thing has a fine flavor of democracy. And General Eisenhower's assertion "If there is one thing I insist upon, it's a good mess," will do nothing to decrease his popularity among his G. I.'s.

As for the corporal, his immunity was assured—even from K. P.—for the chief's parting shot was: "And I don't want anything to happen to this man!"

A Housing Aid

The state of New York has taken steps to see that none of its houses are empty while veterans search for a place to live.

Under an emergency housing act, the state housing commission has been given the power to seize the housing units which are "held off the market for higher prices or other reasons."

The commission recently used its power for the first time. After repeated appeals to the landlords had failed, it took over 80 empty apartments and gave permission to 80 high-priority home-seekers to move in.

The landlords, of course, will receive reasonable rents on the units. But they have lost the right to keep them vacant if they please. The state insists that they be occupied.

Such state government action probably sounds drastic to many. But few will think that it is unfair. And it should be remembered that the state is taking such action against individual freedom only because of an emergency. No one liked the draft, either, but all realized that it was a case of emergency—that some temporary individual freedom had to be sacrificed in order to insure it for the long run.

New York City test found that one of the best color combinations for school rooms is copper rose and cream. But the blackboard still continues to dominate the scene.

The Florida Everglades swampland covers 5,000 square miles of that state. How in the world did the press agents ever happen to let THAT bit of news get out?

Nothing makes a big league ball club owner more nervous than to hear, emanating from the club house, the soft strains of: "South of the Border—Down Mexico Way."

Students Urge Support of OPA

The second meeting of the student discussion group on current problems facing our country was held on Monday evening. An enlightening debate covered pro and con of OPA.

It was the majority opinion that continuation was essential, and an even more powerful OPA, as advised by Chester Bowles in a recent address, should be instituted. The group of 10 students agreed that our feelings should be made clear to the Iowa senators and action on the bill in question should be taken at once, before the June deadline for the present bill arrives.

The following telegram was drafted and sent to Senator Hickman by the students agreeing in the continuation of OPA at the meeting:

"Eight students of economics (at the) State University of Iowa after discussing the matter fully believe unless OPA is extended without any crippling amendments, our country and economy are doomed for socialistic straits. We believe that a stitch in time saves nine and an unemasculated OPA is necessary until supply equates with demand. We therefore strongly urge that you support the OPA in its original form by reversing your stand for restricting amendments. We also urge you to give unqualified support to Chester Bowles' program. We will be watching for immediate action."

The public discussion group stands for free expression of ideas, whether of the minority or majority of opinion. We believe that similar action on the part of other interested people will do much to change public apathy to active interest in governmental functions which regulate their lives from day to day.

The members of this group will be satisfied if they do nothing more than bring to the fore the necessity for public action in a democracy.

Yours for active democracy,
A. F. Widlak
Secretary

Red Sox Win, Boost Lead to 6

Nats to Win Title—Griffith

By BUS HAM
WASHINGTON (AP)—This may shock the Boston Red Sox and New York Yankees:
The Washington Senators are going to beat them out in the American league pennant race—Clark Griffith says so.
The white-haired old gentleman who directs the Senators, currently sizzling through the west, put it this way in an interview:
"I'm not saying that the Red Sox and Yankees aren't good ball clubs—they are, darn good, in fact—but we're going to beat them out."
"We're going to do so because we're the best balanced club in the league. We may not be the flashiest but we're sound defensively with a wider spread in our hitting and pitching strength."

Relief Hurler Shines in 6-4 Tiger Defeat

DETROIT (AP)—Earl Johnson, blond southpaw relief hurler, pitched and batted the Boston Red Sox to a 6-4 victory here yesterday over the Detroit Tigers, climaxing an uphill battle by driving in the last two Boston runs with an eighth inning double.

Johnson, achieving his third victory in relief this season, pitched five innings of hitless ball after the Tigers had profited by sloppy Red Sox play to get away to an early 4-0 lead.
By coming from behind with a 12-hit attack, Boston erased the sting of four early errors and a wild pitch that gave Detroit all its runs in the first two innings. George Metkovich homered with nobody aboard in the third and the Red Sox scored twice more with four bunched singles in the fifth, driving Virgil (Fire) Trucks to cover.

Johnson doubled off relief man Al Benton in the seventh and brought home the tying run on Ted Williams' two-bagger.
Dom DiMaggio singled in the eighth and stole second with a slide that put him out of the game with a leg injury. Hal Wagner was purposely passed and Johnson lashed his second double to right center to win the game.

JATO Rockets Hep Racers

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Duke Nalon, Beverly Hills, Calif., driver, tried out his auxiliary rocket power speedster at the Indianapolis motor speedway yesterday and pronounced the test a success.
Although the run was not timed officially, the dapper pilot said his car was traveling at the rate of 100 miles an hour when he fired a four-second JATO rocket and that the speed increased to "130 miles an hour and possibly 140."

When Nalon pressed the release button on his rocket, the car, traveling on the back stretch of the two and one-half mile track, lurched forward leaving a long trail of smoke behind. The smoke would be hazardous in the race.
Cars powered by rocket or jet are not eligible to compete in the annual 500-mile race May 30. The demonstration was the first of the rocket-assist principle applied to racing cars in this country. The rocket was of the type used during the war to help planes get into the air rapidly.

W. H. Mason, assistant to the president of the General Tire company, which makes the rockets, said the test was preliminary to experiments to be made "to see if rockets can be used as auxiliary brakes on railroad trains."

Cards Upset by Late Phil Rally, Descend To Tie With Dodgers

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Coming from behind the Philadelphia Phillies rallied for three runs in the sixth inning yesterday to trip the St. Louis Cardinals, 4-3, and drop the Redbirds into a first place tie with the idle Brooklyn Dodgers.
The Phillies hammered Ted Wilks and Fred Martin for five hits in the sixth. The uprising was touched off by Ron Northey leading the frame with a home run over the right field wall, his third of the season.
Al Jurisch, credited with his third win of the year, was tagged for two runs when Whitey Kurowski drove his third round tripper of the campaign into the left field stands with one on in the second inning.

U High Track Squad Wins

University high's Rivermen finished their varsity track schedule in strong style yesterday afternoon as they defeated Muscatine high, 72-55, in a dual meet held on the Iowa City high field. Three U. high men are slated to go to Ames to compete in the state outdoor meet Saturday, May 25.
Bill Greene took high honors for the Blue Hawks against Muscatine, racking up 16½ points for the afternoon. Following closely was Jack Hady, who contributed 15 points to the Rivermen's total. Craig Harper's time of 54.4 in the quarter-mile dash was the best recorded in the dual meet.
In all, U. high took 11 first places and tied for one, while Muscatine counted first three times and also tied for first once. The Muskies gained most of their points through their strong control of second and third places.
The three third places who will represent U. high at the state outdoor meet at Ames this Saturday will be Craig Harper in the quarter-mile, Jack Hady in the high hurdles and Arnold Swails in the pole vault event.

Little Hawk Nine Meets Knights Today

City high winds up its 1946 spring baseball season this afternoon at four o'clock when the Little Hawks meet St. Ambrose of Davenport on the Hawket diamond. The game was postponed, twice previously because of adverse weather.
Coach Gil Wilson indicated last night that he would use Sonny Dean, workhorse of the Little Hawk mound staff, against the hard hitting Knights.
The rest of the Hawket lineup will remain the same as the team that dropped a 3-0 decision to Wilson of Cedar Rapids a week-and-a-half ago.

Find No Monopoly in Baseball

NEW YORK (AP)—Charles Segar, publicity director for the National League, issued a "writ" yesterday which appears to show that organized baseball, regardless of whether it is a monopoly, has represented one of the riskiest investments in the world for many a year.
"As far as our league is concerned, it's strictly a rich man's game—owning a ball club," he said. "I've just finished going back over the financial records of all eight teams since 1915, and with one exception they show that each owner was needed to keep them going during that period."
Segar was willing to concede that all the teams in his circuit would make money this season, but insisted they couldn't count on it over the long haul.

Carrasquel Released From Vera Cruz Club

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Pitcher Alex Carrasquel, released by Vera Cruz of the Mexican baseball league, joined the Mexico City club yesterday.
Monday the Venezuelan said he hoped to return to the Chicago White Sox, who bought him for $7,500 from Washington last spring. The White Sox said they didn't want him back.

Chapman Ties Finkbine Mark

Tom Chapman, sorrel-haired sensation who starred on Iowa's basketball court before the war, tied the golf course record on Finkbine field yesterday afternoon with a scorching 69—three under par. The same number of strokes were posted by Bob Miller, former Iowa golfer, back in August 1934, according to golf coach Charles Kennett.
Chapman took just four strokes to the hole on the top nine. On the lower nine he chalked up three's on No. 10 and 18, and four's on the other seven holes. Milton Beal and Leo Gaulocher were playing with the Storm Lake athlete on his record tour.
Chapman posted a 71 and a 73 a week ago as the Hawk links- men downed Minnesota in a conference match.

Feller Beats Yanks for No. 6

CLEVELAND (AP)—Bobby Feller chalked up his sixth victory of the year yesterday and ran his strike out total to 93 in 80 innings by fanning eight New York Yankees in Cleveland's 7-2 conquest of the Yanks.

Bill Diekey broke Feller's spell with a single to right after two were out in the fifth. The Yanks collected three more hits in the seventh including Tommy Henrich's fourth homer of the year and their fifth and final safety in the eighth.
Cleveland hopped on Floyd Bevens, who also opposed Feller in his stadium masterpiece, for four runs in the first frame. Frankie Hayes came up with the bases loaded and drove a double off the right field screen to send home three runs.
The Indians drove Bevens to cover with a single tally in the fourth and scored their final two markers in the eighth at Charley Stanceu's expense.

L. A. Seniors—

Escape Exams

The recent railroad freight tie-up worked to the advantage of lucky liberal arts seniors yesterday. The examinations they were to take as part of a national testing program arrived three hours late, and the entire program was cancelled, according to Robert L. Ebel of the university examinations service.

Liberal arts sophomores reaped only half benefits. The remainder of their tests, which were to be taken tomorrow and next Tuesday, have been cancelled, but they took the scheduled examinations yesterday.

The tests, ordered May 8, were finally shipped by truck on May 13, but failed to arrive until 4 p. m. yesterday.

Classes had been suspended to allow for the testing program. However, no more time could be scheduled for the examinations, so the remainder of the tests have been cancelled, Ebel said.

Regular class sessions will be held tomorrow afternoon and Tuesday.
