GOOD MORNING, IOWA CITY!

It will be cloudy and continued warm today, but rain which is moving in from the west is predicted to fall here tonight. Cooler tomorrow.

Woman Rescued From Iowa River

May Agree on Coal Strike Soon

Say Lawyers Work on Final 'Peace' Plan

Krug Reports Some Progress; Lewis Still Noncommittal

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of the Interior J. A. Krug reported last night that "some progress" had been made yesterday toward an agreement with John L. Lewis and there was every sign that lawyers were preparing a draft of an actual agreement to end the coal stoppage.

Closing out six and a half hours of conferences during the day with the United Mine workers leader, Krug as federal administrator of the seized mines sent word to reporters that attorneys for all parties would be "busy tonight working on the progress made."

The lawyers seldom are called into such disputes before there has been a general meeting of minds bringing the issue down to details of putting the agreement into contract form.

A spokesman for Krug, however, declined to say definitely that a contract was being prepared.

Another meeting will be held in Krug's office today at 11 a. m. (CDT).

Mines Virtually Closed

Meantime, the stoppage in the mines, interrupted by a working truce that ended Saturday night, was again virtually complete.

Lewis himself had nothing to say when last night's four-hour session broke up at 7 p. m. He referred all questions to Krug, and would not even say whether he would be back today.

The UMW chief, several of his aides and two lawyers appeared tired but not unhappy as the conference ended.

Krug maintained the policy which he adopted last Friday when he said that so long as the government was in negotiation with Lewis, he would not discuss details of the conferences.

18 1/2 Cent Raise?

The amount of the wage increase favored by the government, was not learned specifically, but officials most concerned with the wage price policy have been represented as opposed to granting the 400,000 bituminous miners any more than the 18 1/2 cents hourly increase granted to the CIO steelworkers and CIO auto workers.

There was no mistaking the optimism which prevailed among persons close to negotiations yesterday. Whether this was the direct result of the conference between Lewis and President Truman at the White House Sunday night, lasting less than a half hour, was not known.

Report 2 Girl Escapees Here

Two women who ran away from the Glenwood School for girls at Glenwood are believed to have gotten off a bus at Iowa City yesterday. Local police have been unable to locate the pair.

The women were identified as Julia Sage, 18, and Ruth Smidt, 25. A third runaway, Helen Wells, 22, is believed to be in Des Moines.

Authorities believe the pair bought tickets at Oskaloosa for Cedar Rapids, but got off when the bus stopped here.

Asks Mexico for Food

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Former President Herbert Hoover, seeking more food to lessen Europe's famine, asked President Avila Camacho yesterday to help with all that Mexico can spare.

Hoover went to noon to see the president, the first Latin-American chief of state visited on his tour south as President Truman's personal representative.

Professor Dies

DR. SUDHINDRA BOSE

Sudhindra Bose, 63, Noted Far Eastern Politics Expert, Dies

Was Political Science Lecturer at SU for 32 Years

Dr. Sudhindra Bose, 63, a lecturer in the political science department at the University of Iowa since 1914, died of pneumonia and heart disease Sunday afternoon at Mercy hospital.

Dr. Bose devoted his life to interpreting Asia to America and is recognized as an authority on the Far East. His special fields at the university were world politics and oriental politics and civilization.

Born in Bengal

Born in Keotkhal, near Dacca in the province of Bengal in 1883, Dr. Bose came to the United States in 1904. He became a naturalized citizen in 1927.

He attended Comilla Victoria College of Calcutta from 1901 to 1903. In the United States he attended Park college in Missouri from 1904 to 1906. He received his B.A. degree in 1907 and M.A. degree in 1909 in English from the University of Illinois. He took graduate work at the University of Chicago in 1908 and received a Ph.D. in political science in 1913 from the University of Iowa.

Wrote Four Books

Iowa has been the only university able to present a native Indian and Hindu as a lecturer, according to Prof. Kirk H. Porter, head of the political science department. Dr. Bose has written four books: "Some Aspects of British Rule in India"; "Fifteen Years in America, 1920"; "Glimpses of America, 1925, and "Mother India," 1934.

In addition he had articles published in Nation, the American Political Science Review, Scientific Monthly, Forum, Open Court, Scholastic, Unity and the book week in the Chicago Sun.

He also was a frequent contributor to Indian Review, Modern Review, Hindustan Review and other periodicals in India.

Special correspondent of the Des Moines Register during a world tour in 1921, Dr. Bose also has been American correspondent for the Hindu (Madras) for 12 years and American correspondent of the Amrita Bazar Patrika (Calcutta) since 1936.

Organizations

He is a member of the national advisory board of India League of America and the advisory board of Watumull Foundation, an organization devoted to promoting cultural relations between India and America. He was a speaker for the federal adult education project in the Ogden area in Utah in 1937.

Dr. Bose was a member of the American Political Science association, Iowa State Historical society and American Association of University Professors.

In 1927 Dr. Bose married Anne Zimmerman of St. Gall, Switzerland. Mrs. Bose is now an instructor in the French department.

Survivors include his widow and a brother and sister living in India. The body was cremated yesterday morning in Cedar Rapids.

Molotov States Charge Against U.S., Britain

Soviet Minister Says Offensive Bloc Waged At Paris Conference

MOSCOW (AP)—Soviet Foreign Minister Vyacheslav M. Molotov charged yesterday that a British-American bloc waged an offensive against Russia at the Paris conference of foreign ministers in a "desire to impose their will upon the Soviet Union."

"In an exhaustive review of the Four-Power conference, published by the Communist party newspaper Pravda, Molotov accused British-American capital of attempting to bend small nations to its will, charged the existence of a desire in some circles to 'dislodge the Soviet Union' from its place in international affairs, and asserted that advocates of imperialism in the west 'are instigating new and aggressive wars.'"

Molotov's article made these points:

1. The Soviet Union cannot accept United States Secretary of State James F. Byrnes' proposal for a 21-nation peace conference until British, Soviet, French and American foreign ministers complete preliminary drafts for European peace treaties.

2. Byrnes, by proposing ultimate reference to the United Nations of the Italian colonies question, should no solution be forthcoming from the foreign ministers, made an attempt "to utilize methods of pressure, threats and intimidation." Molotov said these methods were "alien to normal relations between states."

3. The British and Americans imposed a bloc "in their desire to impose their will upon the Soviet Union," because they did not want to reckon with the Soviet Union's demands, and thus "frustrated the possibility of an agreed decision on reparations as well."

4. In proposing a 25-year pact of the United States, Britain, France and the Soviet Union to insure the demilitarization of Germany, Byrnes made a "somewhat inaccurate statement" by saying he had obtained Prime Minister Stalin's "consent in principle last December." Molotov said in December Byrnes "did not as yet have the draft of such a treaty, and therefore Prime Minister Stalin's 'consent' to a non-existent treaty could not have been given."

5. Byrnes' proposal for a separate peace conference on Germany next November was "all the more unexpected because previously neither Mr. Byrnes nor anyone else had made any proposals concerning a peace treaty, not to mention that there does not yet exist any German government with which a peace treaty could be considered."

Increase in Seniority

"We would distort the language of these provisions (selective service act) if we read it as granting the veteran an increase in seniority over (what he) would have had if he had never entered the armed service," said the court's 6 to 1 opinion written by Justice Douglas.

The court also took these action (See VETS DENIED Page 7)

Agriculture Official Announces 10 Percent Cut in Bread, Rolls

Weight Reduction To Make Domestic Supplies Go Farther

WASHINGTON (AP)—The agriculture department announced last night that bakers will be required to reduce the weight of their bread and rolls 10 percent, effective at 12:01 a. m. June 1.

The purpose is to save cereals for famine areas abroad and to make domestic supplies go farther. With flour supplies limited to 75 percent of a year ago, many bakers have reported that they are unable to meet consumer demands for bread.

Bakers previously had been given federal government permission to make such a reduction in size of loaves and rolls without reducing prices, but few had done so because of competitive reasons.

The reduction must be made from the weight of such bread and rolls produced on March 15, or on the last prior date when the bread and rolls were made.

The order provides exemptions for bakers who, because of equipment difficulties, can not reasonably comply. Such bakers must apply for exemption by June 10.

The department meanwhile reported that 3,493,000 tons—or about 130,405,000 bushels—of wheat and wheat flour equivalent were exported to shortage areas between Jan. 1 and May 20.

This compares with a goal of 4,666,000 tons or about 174,000,000 bushels set for the period.

Vets Denied Job Preference

Supreme Court Rules Selective Service Act Allows Prewar Status

WASHINGTON (AP)—The supreme court ruled yesterday that the selective service act does not give returning veterans preferential or "super" seniority in their prewar jobs.

A returning serviceman, said the court, steps back on the "seniority escalator" at just the point "he would have occupied had he kept his position continuously during the war."

Increase in Seniority

"We would distort the language of these provisions (selective service act) if we read it as granting the veteran an increase in seniority over (what he) would have had if he had never entered the armed service," said the court's 6 to 1 opinion written by Justice Douglas.

The court also took these action (See VETS DENIED Page 7)

Engineer Loses Life, 30 Marines Injured In Train Derailment

Escaping Steam Kills Philadelphia Trainman; Eighth Seriously Hurt

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP)—A Pennsylvania railroad trainman was scalded to death and more than 30 of 208 combat marines were injured, eight seriously, yesterday in the derailment of a Maryland bound troop train on a little used spur 15 miles east of here.

Escaping steam trapped and killed Engineer C. E. Merget, of Philadelphia, in the cab of his locomotive.

Badly Burned

Badly burned by the hissing vapor was Fireman L. F. Kurtz, of Harrisburg. He was admitted to a hospital here.

Chief Clerk J. A. Wickenhaver, of the company's Philadelphia division, said the only other crewman injured was Howard Kenny, a train agent from Germantown, Pa. He was discharged from the hospital after treatment for lacerations about the head.

208 Marines on Board

Maj. Eugene Strayhorn, of Oceanide, Calif., commander of the train, said there were 208 marines on board "just back from China and Japan" bound from San Diego, Calif., to the naval station at Bainbridge, Md.

Army Denies Laxity

NEW YORK (AP)—Death of eight G.I. babies who arrived here aboard the transport Zebulon B. Vance May 19 were not caused by "negligence or misconduct on the part of the vessel's medical staff" or by "unsanitary conditions aboard," an army inquiry board said last night.

George Olmsted Charges Blue With Using 'Gestapo Tactics'

In a written statement given out before he was scheduled to address a luncheon meeting of local Republicans yesterday at the Hotel Jefferson, George Olmsted, candidate for the Republican nomination for governor, lashed out at his opponent, Gov. Robert D. Blue, charging him with "gestapo tactics" in connection with the primary campaign.

Olmsted charged that these tactics are being "used in a last minute attempt to intimidate state employes, businessmen and Republican men and women in a desperate effort on the part of my opponent to secure his nomination."

He said that a state employe had been "threatened with discharge if he did not support the governor's nomination" and that businessmen had been told "they would receive no more state business if they did not desist in supporting Olmsted."

Highway construction "is being held out as an inducement" for supporting Blue, he asserted.

Officer Faces Cruelty Count

BAD NAUHEIM, Germany (AP)—Lt. Granville Cubage was accused by the prosecution yesterday of issuing orders to guards at the United States army guardhouse at Lichtfield, England, to beat imprisoned American soldiers "to the floor" if they refused to obey orders.

The court martial of Cubage, Oklahoma City officer, on charges of cruelty to prisoners, was resumed yesterday after a three weeks delay. The prosecutor said it would be shown that Cubage told the guards that "If the prisoners did not comply with orders, the guards could beat the prisoners to the floor."

Testimony that the six-foot physique of the officer helped him win appointment as a prison officer was offered to the court.

Doolittle 'Gripe Board' Proposals Announced By War Department

WASHINGTON (AP)—Far-reaching proposals by the Doolittle "gripe board" to sweep away all social distinctions between army officers and men were made public yesterday by the war department with a promise that they will be adopted if feasible.

The board called for abolition of off-duty saluting, of social discriminations, and even of the terms "enlisted man" and "officer" in favor of plain "soldier" for everybody.

Students Hear Cries, Revive Her on Shore

Refuses to Give Her Name; Report She Fell From Bridge

A woman who fell or jumped into Iowa river late last night was rescued by several University of Iowa students who heard her scream.

Name of the woman could not be learned. Police said the woman, suffering from shock and in a weakened condition, would not tell her name.

She also would not say whether anyone was with her when she fell into the river. Patrol boats were searching the river south of Park bridge.

The woman's scream was heard shortly after 11 p. m. Students who aided in her rescue were Bill Quinlan, A1 of Clinton; Roger Kane, A3 of Chicago; Mallory Mitchell, A1 of Chicago; Pat Foster, A1 of West Branch, and Paul Fagerlund, A2 of Waterloo. Bob Clem, A2 of Cedar Rapids, helped administer artificial respiration.

The men said the woman told them she "didn't want her husband to know about it."

She was taken to the Sigma Chi fraternity house and then to University hospital.

A hospital interne said the woman told him she had fallen off Park bridge.

Police said it was reported a woman answering her description was seen walking on Park bridge about 11:05 p. m.

The men who rescued her said she struggled against their efforts. Kane hit her in the face and she quit.

She was wearing a heavy, black coat and was floating on her back when the men reached her. Quinlan reached her first.

The woman was believed to be about 24 years old, and it was reported she is a student.

PRAGUE (AP)—The Communists and other extreme left wing parties won 51 percent of the total vote in Sunday's hotly-contested Czechoslovak parliamentary elections, virtually complete returns showed last night.

A Communist party spokesman predicted the slim plurality would be sufficient to assure extreme left wing control of the 300-member assembly, which will draw up a constitution.

Neutral observers foresaw this as the apportionment in the assembly:

Czech Communists 93, Czech Social Democrats 36, Slovak Communists 21, Slovak Labor party 2, or a total of 152 for the extreme left wing groups.

Socialists 58, Catholic People's 46, Slovak Democrats 42, Freedom party 2, or a total of 158 for the moderate leftists.

Latest totals from Bohemia Moravia included: Communists 2,205,648; National Socialists 1,298,917; Catholic People's 1,110,920; Social Democrats 855,771.

Slovakia: Democrats 988,275; Communists 490,257; Freedom 67,575; Labor 49,983.

Chiang Demands Red Cooperation in China

NANKING, Tuesday (AP)—Chiang Kai-Shek was reported today to have advised United States General Marshall that Chinese Communists must recognize government sovereignty in Manchuria and help restore communications there as a precondition to further peace talks.

Ta Kang Pao, owned by the extreme right wing of the Kuomintang (national party) said Chiang's terms were included in a letter sent Marshall from Mukden by special plane. The newspaper said Chiang indicated he would remain in Manchuria for another week.

On the other hand, women can get good silk hose—and plenty of them—for about $3.50. But for a dress they must pay prices in proportion to what men pay for suits or shirts.

Rents are terrific. Three Americans attached to a governmental agency pay $500 a month for a small apartment. But it has a "view" of the Bosphorus. That word "view" makes a difference, but places with nothing more to look out upon than a bunch of goats cost about $50 per room per month.

Used Car Prices An American agency had a 1940 Packard sedan. One day a Turk walked in and offered $10,000 for it. An executive, thinking the man was jesting, shook his head. The Turk promptly upped his bid to $15,000.

The price structure seems to extend even into customs. My Christmas from America arrived in March. On a pair of $7.50 pajamas I paid $38 duty. Customs on a shirt came to $18, and to $16 on six wool ties.

And yet the wage structure in Turkey remains low. Ahmet Emin Yalman asserted recently in his newspaper Vatan that the government should take steps to bring about a better balance between salaries and the cost-of-living.

Interpreting The News...

By JAMES D. WHITE

Associated Press News Analyst

The Siamese say it's an invasion.

French troops, reportedly crossing the high, jungle-shrouded Mekong river to capture two Siamese towns, may want to argue the point.

The legal question involved is likely to be this: Did the French, fording the swift Mekong as it flows between high mountains, cross into legal Siamese territory, or into territory legally belonging to the Kingdom of Laos, and therefore to Indo-China, and therefore to France?

Captured Area In 1941 the Siamese—with Japanese encouragement—grabbed this territory on the western (The "Siamese") side of the Mekong. It was formalized May 9, 1941 in a Franco-Siamese treaty signed in Tokyo.

When the Pacific war came, Siam was such a useful ally to Japan that ex-Premier Tojo awarded Siam even more territory—nibbles out of British holdings in Burma and Malaya.

After Japan collapsed Siam agreed to give back these British holdings but said nothing about the Indo-Chinese ground acquired before the war. Moreover, Siam signed treaties with Britain, China, Australia and New Zealand, but none was signed with France. This may be in part because no one in Siam or Vichy France or Free France seems to have bothered to declare war.

U. S. Stand Enter Uncle Sam. Last January a state department official said the American government didn't recognize Siam's 1941 acquisition of Indo-Chinese territory and felt it ought to revert to Indo-China.

Early this month both America and Britain asked France to "guard against any violations of Siamese territory by French troops in Indo-China." French diplomats negotiating an American loan may have heard this, but it appears not to have penetrated to the high jungles along the Mekong.

Marker's Observers Advise—

Wait to Build Home if You Can

By EDWARD S. KITCH AP Newsfeatures

CHICAGO—Housing specialists, conducting a series of talks on "Tomorrow's Home," flash a caution sign for prospective house builders.

They suggest that if your situation allows you to wait for as much as a year-and-a-half then don't enter the housing market. It's much too rugged for comfort. The market today is one of "desperation" prices, says Charles G. Wright, construction analyst for the bureau of labor statistics, who was one of the speakers. He offers a yardstick for comparative construction costs.

Cities Land Costs

A common ratio between cost of land and the cost of building is one to five, he says. For the $6,000 house, improved land would cost approximately $1,000. For his more up-to-date brother the $12,000 house — it would cost $2,600.

Wright bases the cost of building on the amount of cubic feet of living space. A conventional frame house including full basement, and ranging between 12 and 20 thousand cubic feet, will cost at today's best prices, about 50 cents per cubic foot to build. If brick construction is used, including fireplace, bay windows, two tile baths, the cost will increase to 75 or 80 cents per cubic foot. Added to this is the cost of the land and mortgage expenses.

How much should I pay? A common rule has been that one should not pay more than twice his annual income, he said. Some say two and one-half times. But Wright thinks a more accurate estimate is to see to it that the part of one's monthly payment which represents interest mortgage insurance, taxes and house insurance does not exceed 20 percent of your take-home pay. The total payment should not exceed a fourth of take-home income.

Prefabricated Outlook

How about the prefabricated house? A study by the bureau of labor statistics on prefabricated war housing indicated a 10 percent overall man-hour saving by this method, Wright said. But its chief obstacles are building codes, possible opposition by building trades, contractors and material suppliers, and obtaining public acceptance of dry wall interiors in place of plastered walls.

"By waiting, you won't be likely to get lower construction costs," he said. "But you'll have the advantage of knowing in advance what is to go into your house, and what it will cost. You'll have the chance of getting contractors to bid against each other instead of having to get down on your knees and beg one to take your job."

Degree List Reaches 447

Tentative lists of candidates for degrees at the university's 86th Commencement June 8 total 477, according to Paul J. Blommers, university registrar.

The final list, to be announced a few days before commencement, will probably be reduced because of failure of some applicants to fulfill all requirements for awards, Blommers explained.

The number of applicants this year marks an increase over the totals of the last two years, when applicants totaled under 300. War-time Commencements occurred in late April under the accelerated program.

Since the schools of medicine and dentistry are still operating under a different term plan, no degrees will be awarded to students in those colleges in the June Commencement.

Candidates for B.A. degrees top the list, totaling 276. Ranking next are B.S., 59; M.A., 46; graduate nurse, 41, and B.S. in physical education, 18.

Vets' Children Quarantined

Dr. M. E. Barnes, director of the university department of health, has reported that more than 100 children, at an average age of three, are exposed to the measles in Hawkeye Village. So far, only one case has been reported.

Dr. Barnes said that more cases were expected before the end of the month since all the children play together and the families are closely associated.

The measles, the doctor said, are the "old fashioned" type, especially serious for children under five. The measles are preceded by a cold three or four days after exposure.

The situation is being treated as a unit and all the children are being quarantined although the adults are allowed to come and go as they please. Other children may not enter the village.

A hyper-immunization serum, Gamma-Globulin, has been obtained from the state department of health and is available for use at the university pharmacy for local physicians.

Johnson Outlines Plan to Achieve Peace At Eastern Iowa Science Group Meeting

Scientists can contribute greatly to peace through their knowledge and methods, Prof. Jack T. Johnson of the political science department told the Association of Eastern Iowa Scientists last night. Speaking on "Physics Discovers Social Science" at the regular monthly meeting of the association, Professor Johnson outlined the means that scientists can use to achieve peace.

"There are three causes of war," he said, "and peace can be attained only by alleviating them. They are: population pressure, nationalism and economic class structure."

"If the scientist could disseminate technological information more widely population pressure could be alleviated." In normal times there is an abundance of wheat in the west due to the technological advances of the wheat eaters, but the rice eaters always have a dearth because science has not been used to solve their problems.

Another contribution that science can make to minimize nationalism which is associated with racialism would be to popularize scientific information. For example, the color of one's skin or the structure of one's head has no influence on intelligence or ability.

"If science can demonstrate to the world the benefits that have been reaped by its international character," Professor Johnson said, "nationalism might be broken down."

Scientists should participate more in politics and discard their traditional aloofness.

Professor Johnson discussed the wide distribution of industrial products in the USSR and in the United States and their consequent economic independence of export for prosperity.

"It is useless to talk about international control of the atomic bomb," he said, "unless the root causes of war are removed."

Heard about June 30th, Joe?

Here's the story. June 30, 1946, is the last day on which you can enlist... or reenlist... in the Regular Army and still be sure of retaining your old grade and family allowance for the duration of your enlistment.

Those are two very important points. First of all, if you have served with the Army and earned a stripe or two, you can enlist within 90 days after discharge and before July 1, 1946, and be sure of keeping your grade.

And if you have a family and dependents, you can enlist before July 1, 1946, and make sure the family allowance will be continued for a 1 1/2, 2, or 3 year enlistment period.

Those hard-earned stripes mean extra pay. Why throw them away? And your family will live comfortably if you enlist now and get the advantage of the family allowance benefit.

So think it over and act today. These two points mean opportunities for advancement and added pay as well as that all-important security for your family. Stop in at your nearest Regular Army Recruiting Station today. They'll give you all the information you want on that very important date... JUNE 30, 1946.

Kurovski Tops National Hitters

NEW YORK (AP) — Whitey Kurovski of the St. Louis Cardinals belted the ball at a .522 pace the past week to displace Brooklyn's Dixie Walker as the National league's individual batting leader.

The blond third sacker from Reading, Pa., jumped his average 55 points to .383 by pounding out 12 hits in 23 trips to the plate including games of Sunday.

Walker's mark dropped from .389 to .369 but he managed to hold second place. The Cards' Stan Musial trailed Walker by one point last week but the Donora greyhound tumbled 22 points during the week to third with .362.

VERNON LEADS WITH .405
CHICAGO (AP)—Washington's Mickey Vernon is still holding his own as the major league's only .400 hitter, but he is finding the pace hard to keep.

Third baseman Dario Lodigiani of the Chicago White Sox maintained second 19 points behind Vernon with .386, but he has played in only 19 games and chances are it will be a long time before the ailing Italian slugger will be back in action. He recently underwent an operation for removal of bone chips in his elbow.

Actual runner-up is Ted Williams of the Boston Red Sox with .351.

Trackmen End Tune-up Today

Iowa's track squad will run off the second half of the intra-squad meet today and will spend the rest of the week preparing for the Big Ten championships which will be held in Champaign, Ill., Friday and Saturday.

To date, 13 events have been run off in the meet and the team captained by Eric Wilson Jr., has a 10 point lead over John Hunter's crew.

Rex Ploen turned in the best time in the first half of the meet held last Friday when he blasted a 9.9 second run in the 100 yard dash.

Iowa will probably enter a 16-man squad at Champaign. The mile relay team of Ploen, Hunter, Wilson and Otis Finney is rated among the best quartets in the conference.

Iowa Officials Attend Conference

Five members of Iowa's athletic department staff will attend the Western conference pow-wow at Champaign, Ill., this week. The meetings of athletic directors, faculty advisors and football coaches will precede the conference track which starts Friday and is concluded Saturday.

Director E. G. (Dad) Schroeder and Rollie Williams, assistant director, will meet with the other conference directors Thursday. Prof. Carl Leib, faculty advisor and athletic board chairman, will represent the university in the faculty conference; and Dr. Eddie Anderson, head football coach, and his two assistants, Joe Sheeketski and Frank Carideo, will confer with the football coaches. All are expected to leave Iowa City tomorrow morning.

There have been recent indications that the future size of the conference will be discussed.

Chicago Now Within One Point of 3rd

CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago Cubs returned home yesterday to take a 4-1 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals and southpaw Howie Pollet.

The win left Chicago only one percentage point out of a third place tie with the Cincinnati Reds, who were rained out at Pittsburgh. Both are six games behind the league leading Dodgers.

Gaining their third victory in six games against the Cardinals, the Cubs scored all their runs and eight of their nine hits off Pollet during the six innings he worked.

Another southpaw, Rookie Johnny Schmitz gained his fourth decision in his fifth out as a starter by throwing a five-hitter for the Cubs. Catcher Clyde Klutz was the only Cardinal to trouble Schmitz, getting three of St. Louis' five hits.

After wasting two hits in the first, the Cubs dented Pollet for a run in the second on three hits. Andy Pafko, Nicholson and Clyde McCullough singled in succession to fill the bases. Pafko scored when Bill Jurgens hit into a double play.

Pollet managed to silence Chicago bats again until the sixth, when the Cubs clinched the verdict for Schmitz with three runs.

Cardinals Fear More Raids

Dyer Sure Slaughter, Musial, Moore Won't Bolt to Mexicans

CHICAGO (AP) — Manager Eddie Dyer of the St. Louis Cardinals still has his fingers crossed against further raids on his club by the Mexican league which already has lured pitchers Max Lanier and Fred Martin and second baseman Lou Klein from the Red Birds.

"I know many of my other players have been contacted by Mexican league representatives," Dyer said as his club faced the Chicago Cubs in the second game of their current series. "It's hard to tell just what some of them will do."

Stan Musial, slugging Cardinal outfielder, has rejected a south-of-the-border offer. Dyer said he was certain that his varsity outfield of Musial, Enos Slaughter and Terry Moore would stay with the club.

LANIER, MARTIN SHOVE OFF
ST. LOUIS (AP)—Max Lanier and Fred Martin drove away yesterday from major league baseball for at least five years toward the Mexican border and the "fabulous sums" of the Pasquel brothers.

"If we were 25 years old or younger, we wouldn't have accepted the proposition," said Lanier. He and Martin are 30. "But we realize we have no more than five years of baseball left and for the sake of our families we figured we couldn't turn this down."

End Speedway Trials Today

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Four more drivers qualified yesterday for the 500-mile Memorial day race, leaving six places in the 33-car starting field to be filled today, the last day of qualifying runs.

Hal Robson of Huntington Park, Calif., made the day's best time, averaging 121.474 miles an hour for the 10 miles in his Phillips Miller special. It is an 8-cylinder rear drive car.

A World War II hero, Zenon (Bud) Bardowski of Gary, Ind., who had sunk his savings in a semi-stock part racer and planned to drive it, yesterday hired a driver, who qualified. The driver is Buddy Rush of Ruskin, Fla., a veteran of dirt tracks, who will drive for the first time on the big oval. He rode as a mechanic in the 1933 race.

Rush's qualifying speed averaged 116.268 miles an hour.

GASSIN' with GUS

By GUS SCHRADER

2nd or 5th for Iowa Baseballers?— IOWA'S baseball team is sweating it out this week. . . . Their season concluded a bit abruptly by last Saturday's cancellation of the final game against Illinois, the Hawks won't know until Saturday whether they will finish in a tie for second or fifth place in the Big Ten. . . . Right now they're in second with a 6-3 record, a place they share with Illinois and Michigan. . . . But all three of the next trio of teams in the loop can finish ahead of them with a certain amount of success this weekend. . . . Michigan plays two games at Ohio State and can claim sole right to second place by winning, thus ending with a 6-2 mark. . . . Indiana and Minnesota (both 5-3) play Purdue and Northwestern, respectively and can wind up with 7-3—if they win.

BUT 2nd or 5th, the final standing can't do much to dent the coaching record of Otto Vogel. Only four times since Ot came here in 1925 has an Iowa baseball team finished in the second division of the Big Ten. . . . and the first time, in 1926, there were only 12 men out for baseball. . . . The second time (1931) was the year after Iowa was ruled out of the conference for alleged athletic professionalism, and no athletes were available. . . . Only Michigan can boast a fatter diamond record than Iowa's. . . . This past year was the first after a three-year hitch for Vogel. . . . The Hawks have won or tied for four conference crowns. . . . There are more ahead.

Whaddayah Decorate Your Office With?

"LORD GIVE me strength to hole a putt so long that even I, when talking of it later to my friends, need never to lie," begs a sign called "The Putter's Prayer" in Charlie Kennett's office at Finkbine field clubhouse. . . . ATHLETIC Director "Dad" Schroeder has a rusty horse shoe hung up on the west wall of his fieldhouse office. . . . That's not unusual, except—according to Dad—very few people know how to hang 'em up. . . . "You have to place the horse shoe so its shanks point up," he explains, "or else all the good-luck it contains will leak out on you."

'Over-Demand Without OPA'

Statement Hit As 'Scare Propaganda'

"If the OPA is abolished the backlog of demand for consumer goods will overbalance the present productive capacities," Dean Bowman, regional price administrator of the Chicago area, declared at the Cost of Living conference sponsored by the University Veterans association in Macbride auditorium last night.

Bowman's statement drew sharp criticism from Joseph Clay of the Clay Equipment Co., Cedar Falls, who termed it "beautiful scare propaganda."

"If the people think manufacturers are going to make goods and not make profit, they're suckers," Clay continued.

In answer, Floyd Whittington of Des Moines, regional price executive, said, "The OPA was given to us by the government as a public trust, and it has been our duty to keep inflation down. We will continue as long as we feel that the trust given us represents the will of the people."

Speakers
In addition to Bowman, Clay and Whittington, the audience heard Rex Conn, farm editor of the Cedar Rapids Gazette, presenting the farmers' viewpoint; G. J. Timmermann, president of the Midwest Timmerman Co., spokesman for the businessmen's side, and Sam Park, manager of Bishop's cafeteria, representing the attitude of the retailers.

"The traditional place of the farmers seems to be in between, and that's where they are concerning price control," said Conn. "Most farmers favor a year's extension of price control, but they want the subsidy program gradually eliminated."

Speaking for the businessmen, Timmermann said they are divided as to the continuation of the OPA. He quoted a poll taken recently in Davenport which showed that 60 percent of the local businessmen were in favor of continuing the OPA.

"The businessmen still believe that those who are governed least are governed best, however," he asserted. "They want to get back to work and get the merchandise in the field. A supply of ready merchandise is the answer to the problem."

Restaurants Suffer
Park said that although the restaurant business didn't suffer generally during the war, the OPA's handling of hardship cases is "un-American."

In answer to Park's and Clay's criticisms of the OPA's pricing policy, Bowman explained that the OPA doesn't try to set prices on everything, that it just freezes existing prices in industries, automatically pricing them.

"Price control is not painless, but we can't expect perfection," Bowman stated. "We've had a tremendous job to do and we're doing it."

City Council Okays Six Tennis Courts for College Street Park

Recreation Commission To Spend $10,500 On Sports Area

The city council last night gave its consent, subject to the approval of the Park board, to the installation of six tennis courts on the south half of College street park.

H. S. Ivie, chairman of the city recreation commission, submitted the plan for the construction of the courts to the council. He said he wanted only the approval of the council as the recreation commission will obtain the necessary $10,500 to build the sports area.

Ivie emphasized the future recreational value of the tennis courts in Iowa City. They will be doubles courts of all weather material. The commission will maintain them Ivie said.

Twenty-one trees will have to be removed to provide room for the courts. Sidewalks in the south half of the park will be removed to make way for the installation.

Police Ask About Raise
Patrolman Jerry Hall, representing the local police force, asked the council what progress had been made toward a decision in the recent wage increase request submitted by the police department.

He was told the finance and police committees will meet this week to deliberate on the increase requested. The committees will then call a special police delegation to conference with them.

The police and fire departments, along with other city workers, submitted petitions for wage increases a month ago. No definite action has been taken on the petitions.

Parking Meter Demonstrated
A representative of the Dual Parking Meter Co. demonstrated one of their parking meters before the council.

An ordinance establishing the position of building and electrical inspector as an assistant to the city engineer was approved. Frank Koler was employed to fill the position. He will begin work June 1 and will receive $250 a month.
