Byrnes Wants Central Rule For Germany

Denies U.S. Intention To Force Vengeance Peace Plan on Reich

PARIS (AP)—Secretary of State James F. Byrnes called last night for the establishment of a central administration in Germany to give the beaten nation economic unity and declared that the "American government has never sought to impose a peace of vengeance" upon the Reich.

Byrnes further told the four-power foreign ministers council that if an agreement was not reached now on a centralization plan, the United States wanted an economic merger of any two or more of the present four Allied zones of occupation.

In two statements Byrnes gave a detailed account of American policy on Germany. The American secretary expressed the hope that the British threat to go ahead immediately with autonomous control of the British zone could be avoided.

Giving a detailed answer to the Soviet policy as outlined Wednesday by Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov, Byrnes said the government of the United States believed that:

1. While Germany's economic revival along peaceful lines is essential, this revival of the Reich should not be given "priority over the economic revival of countries Germany has devastated."

2. The Allies now should make clear to the German people the essential terms of the peace settlement which the Germans will be expected to accept and observe. This step should be taken Byrnes explained, "to give democratic forces in Germany a chance to assert themselves."

3. Allied controls and small security forces must be maintained in Germany for a long period "but mass occupations and occupation government of Germany, if extended over a prolonged period, will defeat our purposes."

4. The Germans must be given a "chance to minimize" by their own efforts the difficulties and hardships they are going to experience. If the Germans "are not given that chance they will ascribe their difficulties and hardships to the Allied occupation and not to the devastating war of aggression which their leaders brought upon them and the world."

5. The four-power foreign ministers should appoint special deputies to set up machinery "to work out definite lines" of a German peace settlement.

Five Die in Wreck

DONNELLSON (AP)—Five persons died yesterday and two others were injured seriously as the result of the head-on collision of two automobiles, one of which was carrying five of the victims on an intended fishing trip. Occupants of the other car were on a business trip.

Board Declares New Design Needed for Atomic Age Ships

WASHINGTON (AP)—A broad suggestion that naval ships need new and extensive superstructure design for the atomic age came to President Truman yesterday from a board of experts who evaluated the Bikini A-bomb tests for him. They reported that the aerial explosion above ships anchored in the lagoon July 1 provided "adequate" data for that purpose, and that similar information on the effect of atomic explosion on ship hulls will be sought from the second, under-water later this month.

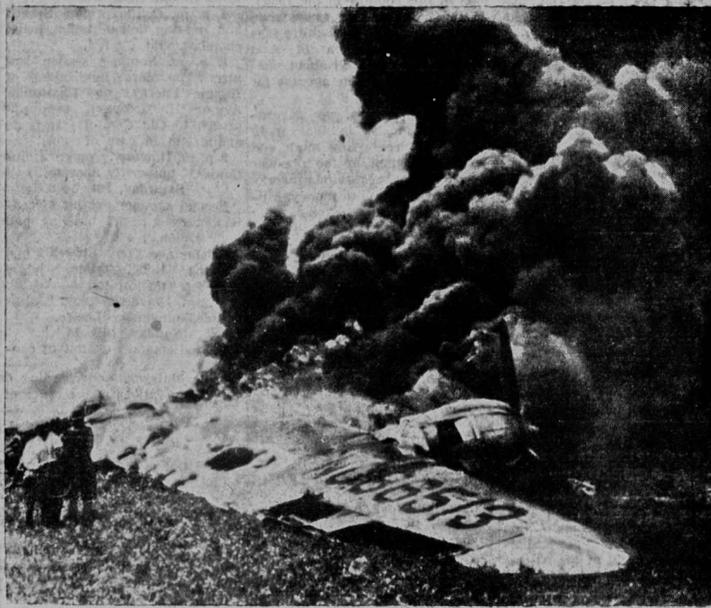

The bomb damaged more ships than any other blast in history, even though the explosion was a third of a mile off the target and away from close-spaced capital ships.

Mr. Truman made the report public at his news conference.

Because the first test was an aerial explosion, little information was obtained on possible effects to the submerged parts of ships, the board said.

Report of Second Board
A report of a second board representing President Truman also was made public by the White House. Headed by Senator Hatch (D., N.M.), it presented a "laymen's point of view" and said its

Five Die in TWA Crash in Pennsylvania

President Lists Cuts In Federal Spending

Economy Measures Hit Armed Forces, Vets Administration

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Truman announced yesterday that government spending would be cut and that programs would be reviewed for economy reasons.

These moves to cut the flow of federal funds into the national economy, Mr. Truman said in a statement, are designed to buttress price control measures now pending before congress.

Reductions in outlays of the armed forces and the veterans administration will be made where this is possible "without endangering national security or causing unjustified hardship," said the statement, issued at the president's news conference.

Mr. Truman's comment accompanied a quarterly report of John R. Steelman, new director of the office of war mobilization and reconversion. Steelman also demanded new cuts in federal spending and singled out the armed forces as the place to cut deepest.

The president told his conference that reconversion set-backs of the first half of this year had been "disproportionately magnified." More people are at work now than ever before, he said. The reconversion director's document declared that economy, even in the army and navy, could be achieved without hurting military operations aimed at fulfilling world obligations.

Truman Says United Nations Needs World Police Force

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Truman expressed the view yesterday that world peace will be attained "if we can implement the United Nations organization with a police force behind it sufficient to make its mandates stand up."

He called for the strong international police force, without going into details, in an extemporaneous address to 150 educators who called at the White House. The president urged them to help "overcome those prejudices which cause wars—religious prejudices, economic prejudices, misunderstandings between races and people of different languages."

Asks for Appropriation
The president followed up his remarks by asking congress to appropriate $100,000,000 for the federal housing agency to provide needed educational facilities at institutions furnishing courses to veterans.

The facilities provided by that

Attorney General To Write Opinions On Dubuque Fire

DUBUQUE (AP)—Attorney General John M. Rankin's long awaited appearance before the coroner's jury probing the Hotel Canfield fire was confined yesterday to a statement expressing a willingness to settle points of law through written opinions. The hearing then was adjourned until coroner F. S. Leonard receives an opinion from Rankin covering numerous points.

Some of the points to be clarified by the attorney general:

1. Does the section of the Code of Iowa 170.2 covering the necessity of rope fire escapes in non-fireproof hotels apply to Dubuque?
2. Does the fact that the state department of agriculture makes hotel inspections relieve city officials of responsibility?
3. Define neglect of duty on the part of public officials regarding enforcement of the Code of Iowa?
4. When a willful neglect of duty has been shown by a public official or officials and death results from that neglect of duty, can that official or officials be charged with the crime of manslaughter?

HOUSING MEETING

Married veterans who are in need of housing and who are willing to spend some time and energy to acquire housing are urged to attend a meeting tonight at 7:30 in the Parish house of the Episcopal church, 320 E. College street.

James Farrell, Noted Author, To Visit SUI

James T. Farrell, noted American author and creator of Studs Lonigan, will arrive here July 22 for a two-week stay as guest lecturer and observer.

Farrell will speak to the writers' workshop class at 3 p. m. Monday, July 22, in a session open to members of the class only. Subsequent addresses will be announced soon.

A native of Chicago, James Farrell is noted chiefly for his Lonigan trilogy, three novels tracing the growth of Studs Lonigan of Chicago's south side. The first book of three, "Studs Lonigan," won the Book of the Month club award in 1937.

Farrell attended the University of Chicago for three years and worked at numerous jobs, including part-time reporter. He was awarded the Guggenheim fellowship in creative writing for 1936-37.

He is co-author with Hortense Alden of the play "The Mowbray Family." He has published about 20 books, including several collections of short stories, and frequently has contributed stories to magazines.

A novel, "Bernard Clare," and a volume of short stories entitled "To Whom It May Concern" are his latest books, both published this year.

Farrell is a member of the National Institute of Arts and Letters. He is chairman of the civil rights and defense committee of the American Civil Liberties union.

680 Housing Units Due in Ten Days

Senate Vote Defeats Taft OPA Amendment

WASHINGTON (AP)—The administration won a major round in the OPA revival fight last night when the senate defeated an attempt by Senator Taft (R., Ohio) to deprive OPA of discretion and force it to raise manufacturers' price ceilings to cover increased costs.

The decision came on the closest possible margin—a 40 to 40 vote. A tie vote defeats an attempt to amend a bill.

This action removed one of the last major hurdles to senate passage later of a measure to restore some price and rent controls for one year.

The vote came only a few hours after President Truman told his news conference that every day which passes without price controls increases the country's danger of runaway inflation, which he said thus far had been prevented.

Rejection of the Taft proposal left intact in the bill a compromise formula worked out by Democratic Leader Barkley (Ky.) for prices of manufacturers, processors and producers.

Briefly it would require the revitalized OPA to boost ceilings to add an industry's average cost increase to the average prices for 1940.

Earlier in the day, the senate approved 59 to 20 an amendment preventing OPA, when and if it is revived, from applying rent ceilings in any state which has its own rent control system, or sets up such a system in the future. The amendment was sponsored by Senators Knowland (R., Calif.) and Ferguson (R., Mich.)

Cordell Hull Urges British Loan Approval

Says Vote Will Test America's Leadership In World Cooperation

WASHINGTON (AP)—Cordell Hull played an administration trump card yesterday for the $3,750,000,000 British loan, telling the house its vote tomorrow will test America's leadership for world cooperation and peace.

"There will be ruin for us and the world if we sit still," said the retired secretary of state and right hand of Franklin D. Roosevelt in guiding the nation's wartime foreign policy. Hull's arguments were made in a 1,500-word letter read to the house by Speaker Rayburn (D., Tex.).

"This cinches it," said Rep. Priest (D., Tenn.), after Hull's letter was read. The senate has approved the loan. The house plans to vote tomorrow.

Priest said his latest poll shows Democrats favoring the loan six to one, and that five members previously opposed had informed him they now will vote for it. Opponents reported that a Republican poll indicated a large ratio in opposition.

Taking the floor immediately after Hull's letter was read, Rep. Knutson (R., Minn.) said "over the years a halo of super-wisdom has grown over Mr. Hull, that is not warranted. He has been wrong as many times as he has been right."

The Minnesotan said he would prefer to take advice on financial matters from Jesse Jones, former commerce secretary, who has opposed the loan in its present form as a subsidy for Britain and called for the posting of collateral by the British before credit is extended.

Food Poisons 300 Persons

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Friday (AP)—Police Captain Howard Lewis reported that physicians rushed to Kaufman's hotel near the Atlantic City boardwalk told him that 300 of the hotel's 400 guests were stricken with food poisoning early today.

The guests began collapsing in the hotel lobby, Lewis said, several hours after the evening meal. He added that near panic developed among the other guests when they realized they had eaten the same food.

Six persons were taken to Atlantic City hospital where two were reported in serious condition.

Rejects Australian Plan

NEW YORK (AP)—An authoritative source said yesterday that Soviet Russia had rejected Australia's proposal for an autonomous authority to control atomic energy and had again refused to surrender her veto right on matters connected with atomic control.

See Possibility Of Construction By Fall Term

Prospects for veteran housing here improved last night as George Horner, university architect, reported that 680 barracks sized apartments will start arriving by sections in Iowa City in a week or 10 days.

Horner returned last night from Chicago where federal public housing administration officials approved university plans for the location of the reconverted barracks at 12 sites on campus.

FPHA construction engineers promised to put all possible pressure on construction to get as many as possible of the houses completed by the opening of the fall semester, Horner said.

Each of the 340 one-story reconverted barracks will be sectioned off to form two apartments.

Construction of the barracks will be completed according to the terms of a contract between the FPFA and a private construction company, as yet unnamed.

Priority in assigning students to the apartments will be the same as used previously in other university veteran housing units according to Dean C. Woody Thompson of the office of student affairs. Married veterans who are residents of Iowa and have two or more children will have first priority.

Six of the houses will be located by Park bridge, north of Riverdale trailer camp; 43 between the shelter house and trailer camp; seven along Riverside drive west of the trailer camp; five between the university theater and shelter house; 46 between the theater and fine arts building; 37 along Riverside drive below Law Commons.

Seventeen south of Westlawn; six back of the children's hospital and west of Westlawn; 143 on the golf course between the fourth and sixth greens; 13 south of the parking lot west of University hospital; six in the grove off Newton road leading to the fieldhouse, and 11 south of the fine arts building by the Union bridge.

Picket Food Market In Buyers' Strike

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Pickets marched in front of Philadelphia and Camden stores yesterday to back up their demands for a nationwide buyers' strike as a protest against rising prices.

More than 100 stores were picketed in Camden, across the Delaware river, and the drive is already showing results, said William T. Harker, president of local No. 1, Industrial Union of Marine and Shipbuilding workers, CIO. Harker said pickets had been withdrawn from seven or eight stores after owners restored OPA price levels.

The huge Reading terminal market—largest food market in Philadelphia—was picketed by men carrying signs which read: "This market is violating OPA ceiling prices. Remember in November."

Inside, meat lines found steaks at 69 cents a pound; butter at 85 cents; and eggs at 69 cents a dozen.

Teen agers paraded in tattered clothing, carrying placards: "This is what the well-dressed worker will wear without OPA."

Wholesale meat prices here were said to have risen as much as 100 percent. Butter was retailing at 75 cents to $1.16 a pound.

Sites for Emergency SUI Housing

LOCATIONS OF THE 340 barracks are as follows: (1) six barracks by City park bridge; (2) 43 between the shelter house and Riverdale trailer camp; (3) seven on Riverside drive west of the trailer camp; (4) five between the university theater and shelter house; (5) 46 between the theater and fine arts building; (6) 37 along Riverside drive below Law Commons; (7) 17 south of Westlawn; (8) six back of the children's hospital and west of Westlawn; (9) 143 on the golf course between the fourth and sixth greens; (10) 13 south of the parking lot west of University hospital; (11) six in the grove off Newton road leading to the fieldhouse; (12) 11 south of the fine arts building by the Union bridge.

Kick Him Off the Team

What would you think of a catcher who called for a gut ball, saw the batter knock it over the fence, then, when the same batter came up again next time, called for another gut ball?
Would you want him on your team? Of course not. And if you're a baseball fan you wouldn't waste any time telling him about it, either.

A Time and Place to Play

The dynamic progress brought about through science and machines has done much in solving man's problem of obtaining a living; it also has done much in creating other problems. Now that science has made it unnecessary for us to work long hours, the problem of how best to use ever-increasing hours of leisure looms before us.

Food Scarcer Now Than During '30's

WASHINGTON — You didn't hear anything about food shortages in this country in the 1930's. Then why the shortages now when the department of agriculture says this year's production of food crops and livestock is about one-third greater than the average for 1935-1939?

B.I. Payne to Speak To University Club

B. Iden Payne will speak on "Paradox of Shakespeare" at the University club luncheon Tuesday noon. Mr. Payne is a visiting Shakespearean director at the university theater this summer.

Bureau of Audience Research To Be Established This Fall

Prof. Norman Meier Named Acting Director Of New Unit Here

A bureau of audience research designed to study newspaper, magazine and radio audiences will be established this fall under the auspices of the school of journalism, President Virgil M. Hancher announced yesterday.

Prof. Norman C. Meier of the psychology department will be acting director.

Cooperate with WMT
The bureau is an outgrowth of a study of radio news made last winter by the university in cooperation with radio station WMT, Cedar Rapids. WMT has commissioned the bureau to make studies of problems important to the radio industry.

The establishment of such a bureau here will make available to this part of the country scientific techniques which have been used previously only in large cities and in the industrial east.

"The basic question to be answered by this new bureau is the basic question of all mass communication," Prof. Wilbur Schramm, director of the school of journalism, explained.

"Before any editor or station master can do a better job," he said, "he has to know what his audience is—how big—what kind of people are in it—what and when they read and hear—what they like and dislike—what is the effect on them of what they read and hear."

Gallup Poll Consultant
Professor Meier has been with the university since 1929. He has been a consultant to the Gallup poll and the Iowa poll, a visiting research expert for Young and Rubicam Advertising Agency. This summer he will participate in the Colorado Colloquium on the Measurement of Public Opinion. He has published a number of books and articles on social psychology and the psychology of art.

Associated with him in the bureau will be several research assistants. There will also be an advisory committee from the campus and another representing leaders and research experts in radio and publications.

Hanchers to Entertain Married Vets, Wives

President and Mrs. Virgil M. Hancher will entertain at a garden party for married veteran students and their wives Saturday, July 20. The event will take place from 3:30 to 6 p. m. at the president's home, 102 E. Church street.

Dr. Wannier Resigns; To Head New Jersey Physics Laboratory

Dr. Gregory H. Wannier, will resign from his position as instructor and lecturer in the physics department at the end of the summer session to head the theoretical section of the Socony-Vacuum physics laboratory at Paulsboro, N. J., he announced yesterday.

Work in theoretical physics has gained prestige in the last few years, Dr. Wannier explained, and the Socony laboratory will institute research in catalysis, the nature of catalytic reaction, and structure studies of oils, all in the theoretical field.

A lecturer in the physics department since 1941, Dr. Wannier has worked chiefly in theoretical, or mathematical physics, including theories of solids and liquids and behavior of material under temperature changes.

Educated abroad, he entered the United States on a Swiss-American exchange fellowship to study at Princeton university. He studied at the University of Cambridge in England and received a Ph.D. degree at the University of Basel in Switzerland.

Before joining the faculty here, Dr. Wannier was an instructor at the University of Texas from 1939 to 1941. He also taught at the University of Bristol in 1938 and at the University of Pittsburgh in 1937.

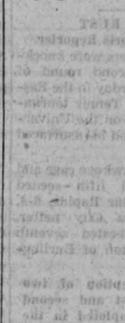

Dr. and Mrs. Wannier and their son, Milton, live at 1034 E. College street.

Announce Engagement

MRS. C. L. ROBBINS, 1049 Woodlawn street, announces the engagement and approaching marriage of her daughter, Jane, to G. H. Holmes of Cedar Falls. Miss Robbins is instructor in piano and staff accompanist of the music department at the Iowa State Teachers college in Cedar Falls. She is a graduate of the Oberlin Conservatory of music at Oberlin, Ohio. Mr. Holmes is director of the University of Michigan school of journalism, where he received his M.A. degree.

Nellie Nelson to Wed Jim Israel in Double Ring Ceremony Today

Nellie Nelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Nelson of Fairfield, and Jim Israel son of Mrs. W. R. Israel of Cedar Rapids, will be married at 6 p. m. today at the English Lutheran church in Iowa City.

Candles and bouquets of flowers will decorate the church for the double ring ceremony.

The bride will wear an aqua street length crepe dress, fashioned princess style with cap sleeves. Carrying white carnations, Miss Nelson will be given in marriage by her father.

The couple will be attended by Wanda Nelson of Batavia and Fred Israel of Cedar Rapids, brother of the bridegroom.

A dinner for the immediate family and friends will be held at Iowa Union at 7 p. m., following the ceremony.

The bride was graduated from Fairfield high school and from the University of Iowa, June 8. The bridegroom is a graduate of Franklin high school in Cedar Rapids and is now a sophomore in the college of engineering at the university. He is a pledge of Delta Chi fraternity.

Out-of-town guests will include Mrs. W. W. Israel of Cedar Rapids, grandmother of the bridegroom; Muriel Abrams of Lynbrook, N.Y., former college roommate of the bride; Mrs. Eugene Nelson of Chicago, cousin of the bride, and Betty Rizer of Fairfield. The couple will make its home in Iowa City.

Currier to Sponsor Sunday Tea Dances

A series of Sunday matinee tea dances under Currier Hall's supervision will be held in the River room of Iowa Union from 2 to 5 p. m. beginning this Sunday. The dances will be for residents of all the men's and women's housing units on campus.

During the academic year River room tea dances were under the sponsorship of Union board. Since Union board did not find it possible to continue these dances this summer, they will be under the supervision of Currier hall girls.

Polly Coen, A4 of Washington, D. C., will be in charge of the committees for the dance. Barbara Berse, A3 of Woodbridge, N. J., will be head of hostesses, and Mary McCracken, A3 of Morton Mills, will head the room committee.

Alumni Club Plans Reactivation Of Groups Throughout Nation

Efforts toward reactivation of local university alumni clubs throughout the United States that have been inactive during the war will be included in the 1946-47 program of the University Alumni association, according to Prof. Bruce E. Mahan, director of the alumni service.

With the association program correlated with the university centennial commemoration, reactivation will be culminated by a National Iowa Night Founders' Day meeting of all the clubs, to Feb. 25, 1947, in connection with the university centennial celebration.

Before the war there were 69 local alumni clubs in Iowa and 34 in cities throughout the United States. An attempt will be made by the Alumni association to establish new clubs in Iowa counties and cities outside of Iowa where the number of alumni is sufficient to warrant it.

Victory Reunion
A Victory reunion of classes at Commencement and Alumni day is planned for June, 1947. If possible, the number of life members of the association will be doubled during the centennial year. At present there are 1,056 members.

Films produced by the bureau of visual instruction of the extension division will be distributed to stimulate further alumni interest in the university, Professor Mahan said.

The association will make a list of alumni who have achieved distinction in their respective fields of activity and awards of achievement will be made from this list at the 1947 June commencement.

A plan for the selection of these alumni will soon be announced. Working with Professor Mahan in securing nominations for the awards is a committee consisting of Judge Theodore G. Garfield, Ames, chairman; Ruth Fall Hollingshead, Albia, and W. Earl Hall, Mason City.

Centennial Committee
Final selection of award recipients will be made by a centennial faculty committee on awards and citations which includes Prof. Kirk Porter of the political Science department, chairman; Prof. Karl E. Leib of the college of commerce; Prof. A. Craig Baird of the speech department, and one other member to be appointed.

An alumni association committee has been appointed to consider the advisability of making the proposed auditorium for the university an alumni project. This committee includes Prof. F. G. Higbee of the college of engineering, chairman; Cable Von Mau, Davenport, and Ben F. Butler, Waterloo.

Commemorative Plates
Authorization of a new edition of the university commemorative plates, with special attention to the Old Capitol number, has been made by the association board of directors.

Preparation and distribution of an alumni directory for the centennial, through the department of publications, is under consideration.

The possibility of expanding the University of Iowa News Bulletin or the establishment of an Alumni Association magazine is under consideration by a committee consisting of vice-presidents Harry Boyd and Prof. Frank Horack of the political science department; Fred M. Pownall, director of publications, and Professor Mahan.

Completion of the war records file and the compilation of a university honor roll is a centennial project. Professor Mahan said that a full-time executive assistant in the alumni office will be appointed soon to assist in the program for the coming year.

Story of Iowa's First Constitution Featured In Palimpsest Issue

The story of how Iowa's first constitution was adopted in the face of much criticism and political bickering is featured in the July, 1946 issue of the Palimpsest, monthly magazine of the State Historical society of Iowa. Entitled "Iowa Adopts a Constitution," it was written by Jacob A. Swisher, research associate in the society. Other articles in this month's issue include a resume of Iowa poems and poets by Prof. Luella M. Wright of the English department and the story of Iowa's only big league baseball team by Frederic C. Smith, Keokuk newspaperman. Professor Wright's article is entitled "A Century of Verse" and Smith's story, "Keokuk in Big League Baseball."

Jacobs Advances to Semi-Final Round

Otto Reaches Golf Finals

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Two blazing, identical stretch nines — one which won and one which sailed — highlighted the semifinals of the National Women's College tournament yesterday as Dorothy Germain of Beaver college and Phyllis Otto of Northwestern university reached into today's finals.

With an incoming nine of 35, under men's par, the Northwestern star from Atlantic, Iowa, ripped Carol "Babe" Freese, the lead college, Portland, Ore., stylist, 2 and 1, after making the turn down.

Spectated Patricia O'Sullivan, he Bradford junior college, Boston, scrapper, also slugged out a 35 on the back nine against Miss Germain, but even that wasn't good enough. The Beaver college veteran outlasted the Irish girl, 2 and 1.

Fighting a bad hook most of the way, Miss Otto scrambled all over her outgoing nine. But, then, she did freckled little "Babe" Freese. They halved only two of the first nine holes, with the Oregonian picking up her halfway margin of one hole on the 385-yard seventh with a par.

The Iowan started her drive on the 14th with a birdie, followed it with another on the 16th, and she clutched a one-up lead she never relinquished. She parred the 17th while "Babe" was running into trap trouble and it was all over.

Miss Germain started out to make a runaway of her semifinal match with "Pat" O'Sullivan and by the 11th green had worked up a five-hole advantage.

But, the Irish girl turned on the

Zaharias Takes Easy Victory Over Casey

DENVER (AP)—Babe Didrikson Zaharias of Denver continued her string of easy conquests in the Women's Trans-Mississippi golf tournament yesterday, overwhelming Ann Casey of Mason City, Ia., 7 and 6 in the first of the quarter-final matches.

Miss Casey couldn't match the broad-shouldered Babe's powerful drives which were measuring 240 to 290 yards and she was four holes down and virtually out of the contest as they rounded the turn with the Iowan only one stroke over Women's par of 38 but with Mrs. Zaharias three under.

Mrs. Zaharias took the tenth with a birdie, her fourth of the match, won the 11th with a par three when Miss Casey went one over and the 12th with par fives. Polly Riley, Fort Worth, Tex., city champion, moved just as easily into the semi-finals with a 7 and 2 over Betty Haemerle of St. Louis city links.

heat on the 405-yard 12th with a brilliant eagle three as Miss Germain was getting down with a birdie four. Miss O'Sullivan came back with a par three on the 13th, halved the 14th and 15th with pars and copped the 16th with yet another par to chop Miss Germain's lead to two holes.

Her par three on the 17th, however, was good enough only for a half and the match was over.

Nancy McIntosh of Huntington, W. Va., another Beaver college swinger, defeated Marilyn Pollock of Miami university, Oxford, Ohio, one up in the finals of the tournament's first flight.

Blasts First Nine With 31

DES MOINES (AP)—Johnny Jacobs, hotter than the July sun, tore Hyperion's par to shreds yesterday as he hustled into the semi-final round of the Iowa Amateur golf tournament.

Belling Johnny, after sizzling John Stoltz of Ottumwa, 4 and 3, with a four under par blast, turned his fire on Denmar Miller of Des Moines, three-time champion, for a 3 and 2 victory.

The Cedar Rapids sharpshooter, seeking his fourth straight title, tore into Miller with a 31 first nine, five under par and the lowest score recalled by tournament historians. The streak brought Johnny a 4 up lead and he didn't need to win a hole on the inside.

Jacob's subpar strokes were so effective Miller won only one hole, the 15th with a birdie 3, and Denny was one under par for the 15 holes. The match ended on the 14th green where Miller missed a 5 foot putt for a birdie 3.

Johnny played out the seven holes on the inside in even par, leaving him nine under for his day's work against Stoltz and Miller, and 16 under for the 76 holes he has gone in the tournament.

Jacobs' 31 against Denny topped by one stroke the blistering early pace he set against Stoltz in the morning.

Miller had advanced to his shot at Jacobs with a 3 and 2 triumph over Phil Donohue of Sioux City.

Dick Stiverson, the 18-year-old Centerville surprise who knocked off John Kraft of Oelwein, 2 and 1, followed through with a 1 up decision in 20 holes over Pete Jordan of Des Moines, 1932 Iowa open king, to get a semifinal position against Jacobs.

The Northwestern university player lost the 18th hole to Jordan but refused to crack and won on 20 when Pete three-putted. Dick did not use a caddy and carried his own clubs to register two startling wins.

Art Andrews, Jr., son of a former Iowa open champion, and Dixie Smith, both of Des Moines, were the lower bracket shooters to reach the semifinals. The former whipped Wayne Harrell, another Des Moines entry, 1 up and Smith topped Merle Kouson, also of Des Moines, 4 and 3.

Longest match of the day was a record breaking 23 hole affair won by Routson from C. W. Dennis of Sioux City in the third round. It was the longest match in tournament history for a duel scheduled only for 18 holes.

The semifinals will be played over the 36 hole route.

Semifinal pairings: John Jacobs, Cedar Rapids, vs. Dick Stiverson, Centerville, Dixie Smith, Des Moines, vs. Art Andrews, Jr., Des Moines.

Browns Hit Twice; Beat Athletics, 4-3
PHILADELPHIA (AP)—St. Louis made only two hits off Phil Marchildon and Bob Savage but combined these two bingles with three bases on balls to score four runs in the seventh and defeat the Philadelphia Athletics, 4-3, yesterday.

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Lynwood (Schoolboy) Rowe shackled the last-place Pittsburgh Pirates with three hits yesterday to lead the Philadelphia Phillies to a 4-1 victory. The Buccos were saved from a shut out by Frank Gustine's first home run of the season in the seventh inning. Attendance was 3,772.

Rowe yielded two singles in the first inning, and then held the Pirates' batters hitless except for Gustine's circuit blow.

Yanks Get 9 Runs Off Feller; Red Sox Slip Past Detroit, 3-2
NEW YORK (AP)—Making his third start in five days and pitching with only one day of rest, the mighty Bob Feller absorbed one of the worst beatings of his career last night as the New York Yankees slugged his offerings for 11 hits and nine runs in five innings and went on to whip the Cleveland Indians 9-1.

A throng of 56,243 fans watched Blazing Bob, who on Tuesday had set the National League All-Stars down with two infield hits in a brilliant three inning stint, go down to his sixth defeat of the season and his first against the Yankees this year.

Aaron Robinson, powerful Yankee catcher cracked two homers, his second circuit smash coming with the bases loaded to climax a five-run fifth inning outburst. Robby's first homer scored Nick Etten who had opened the bottom half of the fourth frame with his second straight single.

Dodgers Fall To Cubs, 1-0
CHICAGO (AP)—Johnny Schmitz, Cub southpaw who was chosen for the National League All-Star squad but was held out of the top-sided game in Boston, lived up to his All-Star rating yesterday when he pitched the Cubs to a snappy 1-0 victory over the league-leading Brooklyn Dodgers.

In a mound battle that was run off in an hour and 58 minutes, Schmitz bested Brooklyn's Joe Hatten, allowing only three hits, no two in the same inning.

After Eddie Waitkus had fled out, Phil Cavarretta belted a double to deep left to put the winning run on base. Peanuts Lowery was purposely passed, then Marvin Rickert singled to right, sending Cavarretta home with the game-ending run.

Giants Spurt in 5th To Beat Cards, 13-3
ST. LOUIS (AP)—The New York Giants came to life in the fifth inning last night and stayed that way to run their current victory string to five games and end a Cardinal streak at the same figure with a 13-3 victory, tenth of the season against seven defeats for Dave Koslo.

Harry Brecheen held the Giants hitless for four innings but was driven to cover in the five-hit, seven-run fifth that ended with a three-run homer by Johnny Mize, his 18th of the season. Koslo, who didn't allow an extra base hit all evening, produced a two-run double of his own in the Giants' three run sixth.

The triumph, in which every Giant contributed to the 14-hit total, was the fifth for the New Yorkers here his season and they haven't lost a single contest in Sportsman's park.

Dave Danner Tops Seeded Star

Iowa City Net Meet Goes Into 3rd Round

By BILL RUST
Daily Iowan Sports Reporter
Two seeded players were knocked out in the second round of men's singles yesterday in the Eastern Iowa District Tennis tournament being played on the University of Iowa clay and hardsurfaced courts.

Dave Danner, Hawkeye cage and net star, downed fifth seeded Frank Nye of Cedar Rapids, 6-4, 7-5. Another Iowa City netter, Harold Kiyuna, bested seventh seeded Elbert Fulton of Burlington, 6-2, 4-6, 6-2.

With the exception of two matches, the first and second rounds were completed in the men's singles. All first round matches and some second round contests were played in Junior singles and Women's singles.

Drawings were made late yesterday in the Men's doubles, and drawings for Junior doubles will be made this morning. All matches up to the semi-finals will be completed today, with the semi-final and final events scheduled for tomorrow.

With the exception of Nye and Fulton, seeded players scored victories and marched into the third stanza of the tourney. Lt. Commander Warren Angstadt, seeded number 1, bested Doug West of Cedar Rapids, 6-1, 6-1.

The Nelsons, Bob E. and Bob A. of Silvis, Ill., seeded 3 and 4, won easy victories, as did the two Iowa Citizens seeded, Ken Cline and John Ebert.

In addition to upsetting Nye, Danner played one of the hardest battles of the day to best George Garrett of Davenport in the first round. Garrett won the first set, 6-2, and Danner had to fight from behind to take the last two sets, 6-3, 6-3.

Seeded players also advanced in the Junior singles. First seeded Allen Lusk of Davenport won from Dale Godbey of Ft. Madison, 6-1, 6-3. Iowa City's Bruce Higley, seeded number 2, downed Jim Waters, Grinnell, 6-3, 6-1.

In the third round of the Men's singles, Angstadt, stationed at the Ottumwa Naval Air station, plays Kent Drummond of Davenport; Bill Crain, Iowa City, matches raquetts with Danner;

Kiyuna plays John Paulus of Iowa City

Bob E. Nelson takes on Bill Johnson of Davenport; Cline plays Jim Netolicky, Cedar Rapids; James Dorothy of Grinnell tangles with Bob A. Nelson; Ebert plays the winner of the Engelbrecht-Spilka match; and S1/c W. H. Brinkman of the Ottumwa NAS plays the winner of the Millican-Ball contest.

Results, second round, Men's singles:

Cline over Dr. Ed Robinson, Iowa City, 6-3, 6-3; Angstadt defeated Doug West, Cedar Rapids, 6-1, 6-1; Kent Drummond downed A. McGowan, Waverly, 6-3, 6-1; Crain bested Paul Hasbrough, Iowa City, 5-7, 6-4, 6-3; Danner defeated Nye 6-4, 7-5; Kiyuna over Fulton, 6-2, 4-6, 6-2; Paulus downed Garry Margolius, Iowa City, 6-2, 6-2.

Bob E. Nelson defeated Danny Calkins, Cedar Rapids, 6-1, 6-2; Brinkman won from Ken Wilson, Grinnell, 6-3, 6-0; Ebert bested Robert Powell, Grinnell, 6-0, 6-1; Dorothy won from Malcolm Coy, Cedar Rapids, 6-3, 6-4; Netolicky defeated Higley 3-6, 6-4, 6-3; and Bob A. Nelson won from Ken Donelson, Ames, 6-2, 3-6, 9-7.

US Order Bans Worker Strike

Iowa City Postoffice Employs Must Sign No-Strike Statement

The Iowa City postoffice received an order yesterday to have anti-strike statements signed by all employees.

This is part of a national order requiring all government workers to pledge they will not strike against the government of the United States.

According to a recent news release, either government workers will sign, or their pay checks will stop.

Postmaster Walter J. Barrows says that he expects all 70 local members of the postoffice department to sign, and that he has not received instruction on what to do if a postoffice worker does not sign.

Congress has recently attached riders to appropriations bills stating that no part of funds used for government work may be paid to an employee who is a member of an organization that supports the right to strike against the government.

Congressional members have expressed disapproval of the recent surge of strikes and a set of resolutions which were adopted at the annual convention of the CIO United Public Workers union. The union had adopted by-laws interpreted as opening the doors for calling strikes against federal, state and local governments.

As a result, a new policy of the union states "that the international president shall not, under any circumstances, approve a strike against the government."

Local unions throughout the country were also ordered to amend their by-laws within 60 days by banning strikes.

SUI Band Needs 2 Glockenspiel Players For Football Season

With preparations being made for the fall football season marching band demonstrations, Prof. C. B. Righter, director of the university band, announced yesterday that there are two vacancies for glockenspiel players.

Professor Righter said men students interested in learning to play the instruments should report to his office, room 15, music studio building, for an interview. Applicants need not necessarily be music students, but some musical background would be helpful.

The glockenspiel—"marching bells"—is a percussion instrument, consisting of metal bars, tubes or bells, tuned to the chromatic scale and played with two hammers.

Local Mail Increased 50 Percent by Rush Of First Day Covers

Fifty percent of the mail from Chicago at 5:15 p. m. is first day covers, and the mail on that train has increased by 50 percent, according to Postmaster Walter J. Barrow, speaking to the Iowa City Stamp club last night.

Yesterday, the postoffice department had nine men servicing requests for first day of issue covers of the 3-cent Iowa Centennial stamp. About 45,000 envelopes were received by the eleventh day of handling requests.

Among guests to be invited to the presentation ceremony of the first sheet of stamps to Gov. Robert D. Blue, are Adm. William Leahy, Henry A. Wallace, Herbert Hoover, Iowa senators and congressmen, college presidents, and state and county officials. The third assistant postmaster general, Joseph J. Lawler will extend these invitations. The presentation at 11 a. m., August 3, will be the centennial of the ratification of the state constitution.

Harry E. Winn of Cedar Rapids was appointed head of organizing the exhibition of collections of first day covers at the community building.

A buffet dinner is planned for visiting collectors and dealers on Saturday evening, August 3, under

Dr. Trussel Receives Rockefeller Award

A Rockefeller foundation fellowship for a year's study at Johns Hopkins university in Baltimore has been granted Dr. Ray E. Trussel, university epidemiologist and associate in the department of hygiene and preventive medicine, Dean Ewen M. MacEwen said yesterday.

Dr. Trussel will do special work for the New York state department of health at Albany, N. Y., until he starts studying at Johns Hopkins in September. He and his family will live in Baltimore until he completes his studies.

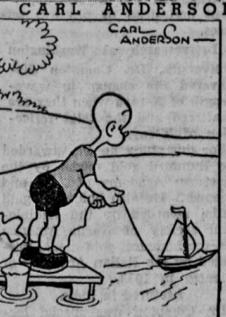

Dr. Trussel returned last January from military service in the Far East, where he served with the army as an epidemiologist. Graduated from the University of Iowa in 1941 with an M.D. degree, Dr. Trussel was an instructor in the department of hygiene and preventive medicine before entering the army.

Dr. O'Connor to Talk On Training of Deaf

The final Friday afternoon lecture in the university's summer conference series on Speech and Hearing Rehabilitation will be delivered today by Dr. C. D. O'Connor, principal of the Lexington School for the Deaf, New York City, at 4 o'clock in the senate chamber of Old Capitol.

Dr. O'Connor, to be introduced by Prof. Scott Reger of the otolaryngology department, will speak on the education of the deaf.

Saturday morning from 10 to 12 o'clock Dr. O'Connor will preside at a round table discussion in the senate chamber on special problems in the education of the deaf and hard of hearing. Ray Graham, director of the special

Dr. Arthur H. Compton to Lecture Here Tonight

Atomic Expert To Give Fifth Series Speech

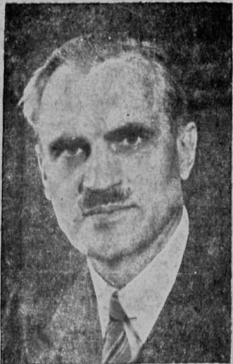

To Discuss 'Moral Implications of Atomic Energy' at 8 p. m.

"The Moral Implications of Atomic Energy" will be the subject of a lecture by Dr. Arthur H. Compton, internationally known atomic expert, at the fifth summer series lecture here tonight.

Active in the development of the atomic bomb, Chancellor Compton of Washington university, St. Louis, performed vital experiments in transmitting uranium into plutonium at the University of Chicago. His chief associate in these experiments was Enrico Fermi, noted Italian physicist.

Dr. Compton will speak on the west approach of Old Capitol at 8 p. m. The talk will be broadcast over WSUL.

Author of many scientific dissertations, Dr. Compton also has written several books including "The Human Meaning of Science," "X-rays and Electrons," and "The Freedom of Man."

X-Ray Work

He was chairman of the National Research council committee on X-rays and radioactivity from 1922 to 1925 and received the Nobel prize for physics in 1927. For 16 years he was the Charles H. Swift distinguished service professor at the University of Chicago, also serving as chairman of the physics department and dean of physical sciences.

In research at Washington university, Dr. Compton discovered the change in wavelength of X-rays when they are scattered and the total reflection of X-rays.

For this study he was awarded the Rumford gold medal by the American Academy of Arts and Sciences. He also holds the gold medal awarded by the Radiological society of North America and the Matteucci gold medal presented by the Italian Academy of Sciences in 1933.

Lectured in India

Dr. Compton was special lecturer at Punjab university, Lahore, India in 1926 and 1937, and was an Eastman visiting professor at Oxford university, England, from 1934 to 1935.

Since 1934, he has served as chairman of the Laymen's Missionary movement and has been co-chairman of the National Conference of Christians and Jews since 1938.

Dr. Compton has been a member of the national cancer advisory board since 1937, vice-

SUI Buys Beckmann's 'Carnival'

Purchase of Max Beckmann's triptych oil, "Carnival" for the permanent university art collection was announced yesterday by Dr. Earl E. Harper, director of the school of fine arts.

The work, described by experts as "the most important painting shown in any exhibition in the United States this summer," was chosen from 12 paintings recommended by a three-man jury for possible university purchase. It is currently on exhibit in the art building as part of the second annual summer exhibition of contemporary art now showing at the university.

Purchases of paintings from the exhibition by the university are made from special funds and not from the regular tax supported income.

The oil triptych, measuring 74 by 115 inches—almost mural proportions, is one of about a half-dozen such triptychs painted by Beckmann since 1937.

"Carnival" was completed in 1943 at the time the artist was exiled in Holland from the German Nazi regime. It arrived in this country a few months ago, during a Beckmann show at the Buchholz galleries, from which Dr. Lester D. Longman, head of the art department, secured the work for the university exhibit.

Arriving too late for inclusion in the then current Beckmann show, the painting received its first public showing among the 160 works in the university annual exhibit.

Although correct "literary" interpretation of the triptych is left "intentionally ambiguous," according to Dr. Harper, it is, in a general sense, a "dramatic metaphor, on a monumental scale," depicting "diverse forms of human reaction to the harsh realities of our time."

president of the Chicago Tumor institute since 1937 and a regent of the Smithsonian institute since 1938.

After he had received a bachelor of science degree from the College of Wooster, Ohio, in 1913, Dr. Compton attended Princeton university, receiving a master of arts degree there in 1914, and a doctor of philosophy degree in 1916.

Studied at Cambridge

He also studied at Cambridge university, England, and has received doctor of science degrees from Ohio State, Yale, Princeton, Brown and Harvard universities, the University of San Marcos and the University of Arequipa.

He holds the degree of doctor of humane letters from the University of Tampa, a doctor of laws degree from Washington university and from the University of California. In 1934 he received a master of arts degree from Oxford university, England.

After serving as a Portor Ogden Jacobus fellow at Princeton in 1915 and 1916, Dr. Compton became an instructor in physics at the University of Minnesota. He left that post to accept a position as research physicist with the Westinghouse Lamp Co., Pittsburgh, Pa.

From 1919 to 1920 he studied at Cambridge university, England, as a national research fellow in physics. After his return to this country, he became head of the physics department at Washington university, a post he held until 1923. He returned to Washington university to become chancellor in 1945.

Society Membership

Scientific societies of which Dr. Compton is a member include the American Optical society, the American Association for the Advancement of Science, of which he served as president in 1942; National Academy of Sciences, National Research council, and the Solvay International Congress of Physics in 1927 and 1939.

He is also a member of the following foreign societies: Reale Accademia dei Lincei, Rome; The Prussian Academy of Sciences, Berlin; Royal Akademie, Amsterdam; Royal Society of New Zealand; Royal Society of Sciences, Upsala; Deutsche Akademie der Naturforscher; Indian Adameny of Sciences; Akademie der Wissenschaften in Wien, and the Chinese Physical society.

Mahan Leaves Today For Chicago Forum

Prof. Bruce E. Mahan, director of the extension division; Lee W. Cochran, executive assistant of the extension division, and John R. Hedges, director of the bureau of visual instruction, are leaving today for the University of Chicago to attend the eighth midwestern forum on visual teaching aids. Cochran will speak tomorrow afternoon on "We Look Ahead in the Field of Audio-Visual Aids."

C.H. Gould Dies Here

Mr. Charles Henry Gould, 72, 202 Park road, died yesterday afternoon at Mercy hospital following a three weeks' illness.

Mr. Gould has been a lifetime resident of Johnson county. He was born in Madison township, May 2, 1874, of John and Priscilla Laurence Gould. Mr. Gould was one of fifteen children.

He is survived by four sisters and five brothers: Mrs. I. L. Pollock and Miss Mabel P. Gould of Iowa City; Mrs. R. S. Wright of Stanhope; Mrs. Edna Bennett of Tahlequah, Okla.; Harry Gould of Scarsdale, N. Y.; John G. Gould of Santa Cruz, Calif.; Oliver J. Gould of Pullman, Wash.; Vernon G. Gould of Ames, and Dr. I. L. Gould of the veterans' hospital in Des Moines.

The body was taken to Beckman's. Funeral arrangements have not been made.

Zion Lutherans Plan Church Improvements

Church improvements for the Zion Lutheran church at Johnson and Bloomington were discussed last night at the semi-annual congregational meeting of that church, according to the Rev. A. C. Proehl.

The Rev. A. C. Proehl, pastor of the church, said, new lighting fixtures were authorized to be purchased, the entire church is to be fully rewired, the interior is to be redecorated and the congregation authorized the council to close the contract for a new organ.

About 70 members of the congregation attended the meeting.

FIRST DAY COVER

IOWA CITY stamp club designed this imprint for the special first day envelopes for the 3-cent Iowa Centennial stamp which the post-office sells on August 3. Clubmembers will circulate, sell, and stamp and mail these cachets. Another souvenir and stamp collector's envelope is being prepared by the Chamber of Commerce.

Graduate Assistants May Get Assignments To Vet Quonset Huts

Dean C. Woody Thompson of the office of student affairs said yesterday that it might be necessary to assign some of the quonset huts now under construction to graduate assistants. He added that if such assignment is made, the graduate assistants must fulfill the requirements for first priority by being veterans with two or more children.

Explaining the labor situation in construction of the 680 veteran housing units allotted to the university, Dean Thompson said that whether or not students could work on the project will depend upon the construction company which does the work.

Dean Thompson said that the erection of the converted barracks is arranged through the federal public housing administration and that if the work begins during the period between the summer and fall semesters, students who want to work on the project could probably obtain employment from the contracting company.

D.C. Duncan Named New Editor-in-Chief Of Iowa Law Review

Appointment of David C. Duncan, L3 of Iowa City, as editor-in-chief of the 32nd annual publication of the Iowa Law Review was announced yesterday by Dean Mason Ladd of the college of law.

Dean Ladd also announced the appointment of Harold J. Birch, L3 of Walkkill, Ill., as notes editor; Howard E. Hensleigh, L3 of Iowa City, as comments editor; and James Holton, L3 of Cedar Rapids, as book review editor. All were on the board of editors of the review last year.

Other appointments to the board of editors are still pending, Dean Ladd said.
