Iowa Art Show Would Be—

Spectacular In New York

By EMILY GENAUER
(Printed from New York World Telegram, July 13, 1946)
Iowa is the place where the tall corn grows. It also produced Grant Wood. Any similarity between the two is purely a matter of personal opinion. Any similarity between the two and the exhibition of contemporary art called "Iowa Summer Show," which has just opened at the State University of Iowa, is nil.

Iowa Fine Arts association "to assist the university in the development of its program in the fine arts"—in short, to raise funds so the university may buy out of the exhibition paintings especially nominated by a jury of critics and artists. Under this program the university gradually will acquire a collection of contemporary art not only comparable with the best in America, but providing for its students' use and pleasure the art equivalent of a library.

World Watches Inflation in U.S.

The consumer is not the only person watching the rising cost of living with one eye and the ineffectual bumbblings of congress with the other. The rest of the world is watching inflation creep up in the United States because its effects will be worldwide. One of the first international reactions to the end of OPA was Canada's raising the price of the Canadian dollar from 91 cents to parity with the United States dollar.

His Balance Was in the Red

The setting of this fable is at the main gate to heaven. St. Peter is there, but he has become such a familiar figure as the gate-keeper in all such fables that we will put the spotlight on one John Doe, also a familiar figure, albeit usually in different settings. John has been confronted with his sins which, we are sorry to say, were manifold. He had got off to a good start in his earthly journey, but had run afoul, according to the record, some time late in 1946, A.D., as the mortals reckon time.

The Customer Is Always Right

Smart businessmen are showing a great deal of interest in customer preferences these days. They realize that not only does John Public have a lot of pent-up purchasing power, but he has a lot of wrath too—wrath aroused by unduly poor service and shady dealings during the war years.

Latin Americans Ask Sympathy -- Foster Among Iowa Citizens

Talk Outlines Plan for Better Inter-Relations

"Our brothers south of the line are hungry to be understood if we will make it psychologically possible," said Dr. O. D. Foster, guest professor in the history department, in a "family talk" sponsored by the Union board yesterday.

Dr. Foster based his talk, "The Decalogue of Inter-American Democracy," on 10 points he considers vital for the foundation of better understanding, more amicable relations and a truer conception of democracy between the two Americas.

Dr. Foster compiled the points three years ago in Mexico in an attempt to get the reaction of five outstanding men in the fields of Latin American politics and education to 100 institutes he would present before Rotary groups in America and Canada.

The five men acknowledged and signed the Decalogue and one, Judge Fernandez MacGregor who represented Mexico for 10 years in the world court at The Hague, remarked "within this framework all our inter-American problems could be solved."

Foster's Decalogue

The 10 points comprising Dr. Foster's Decalogue are:

1. Each American nation is expected to be free within itself but not free to interfere in other nations' affairs.
2. Each American nation is expected to develop in its own way without external pressure.
3. Each American nation is to respect, to aid and to treat all other nations as it would be treated by others.

"Simple application of the 'Golden Rule,'" Dr. Foster reminded his audience.

4. Each American nation is to participate in formation of policies affecting all.
5. Each American nation is expected to give always to other nations the benefit of the doubt.

Create Suspicion

Explaining this point, Dr. Foster said that while we ourselves are innocent until proven guilty, we create suspicion among the Latin Americans with a foreign policy which says, in effect, "You are guilty if you can not prove yourself innocent."

6. Each American nation is expected to emulate the best in other nations.
7. Each American nation is expected to receive from other nations only the respect it merits and begin housekeeping at home.

"How much respect do we merit after grasping Mexican territory and seizing the Panama canal from Columbia?" he asked, and added that among Latin American nations "Uncle Sam is considered as a gangster over and over, over and over and not without reason."

8. To accept no rights from another nation without assuming commensurate obligations toward them.

Too frequently in our policy toward South America, according to Dr. Foster, "political stranglehold follows economic stranglehold" upon a nation.

9. Each American nation is expected to recognize that international sovereignty is to be encompassed in the framework of international necessity.

Need Equal Sovereignty

Failure to realize this point is one of the troubles now facing UN, said Dr. Foster. "We can never have world organization or world democracy until we recognize that other nations have equal rights in international sovereignty... until we stop fighting the battle of the flags." He reminded his listeners that possession of the atomic bomb and a large navy does not give us moral superiority over other nations.

10. Each American nation is expected to realize that its own interests can best be served in serving other nations best.

We can profit much by studying the Latin American educational system, which concentrates more on the humanities while we concentrate on techniques, according to Dr. Foster.

"How can we talk democracy to other nations," Dr. Foster asked at the end of his talk, "when we continue to suppress a large portion of our own population on the basis of racial discrimination and intolerance?"

Chipman Stops Boston, 10-0

Bruins Score Eight Runs in First Inning For Easy Victory

CHICAGO (AP)—An eight-run first inning was all the Chicago Cubs and pitcher Bob Chipman needed to gain a 10-0 win over the Boston Braves before a crowd of 10,614 persons in Wrigley field here yesterday.

Twelve Cubs batted in the first inning, kayoing both starter Johnny Sain and Ed Wright, his immediate relief, before anybody was out.

Three more Cubs raced across the plate after southpaw Ernie White arrived to finally put out the fire. The Cubs scored again in the seventh on a walk, Billy Jurgens' single and Chipman's fly. Phil Cavarretta hit his No. 6 homer in the eighth off Si Johnson, fourth Boston pitcher.

Chipman, a substitute starter for ailing Claude Passeau, allowed only six hits in gaining his No. 3 triumph.

Kelso Takes Sports Post

Amos Kelso, a leading figure in Iowa City sports for many years, will be the Director of the Veteran of Foreign Wars' athletic program in Iowa, according to word he received yesterday from the VFW state commander.

Kelso's job will consist of instituting and co-ordinating VFW athletic activities in nine districts in Iowa. He will work with nine district directors who are to be named.

The Iowa Veterans of Foreign Wars' program is to be a part of a national VFW plan to establish diversified athletic activities for returning servicemen. National plans include the whole field of sports from softball leagues to marksmanship ranges.

Kelso expressed hope that a local district VFW organization will be operating softball and baseball leagues next summer and bowling and basketball leagues in the winter. He also said he intends to travel to the National VFW convention at Boston in September to gain further information pertaining to the Vets athletic program.

Kelso, who works at the Dane Coal yards office, has managed several softball teams in Iowa City. At present he is managing the VFW, post No. 2581, team which is leading the Iowa City softball league with six wins and no losses.

Phils Drop Cards, 10-7

Northey, Seminick Hit Fourbasers to Halt Redbird's Win Streak

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The home-run bats of Ron Northey and Andy Seminick temporarily halted the St. Louis Cardinals drive toward the National league lead last night as the Philadelphia Phils took the opener of a three-game series 10 to 7 despite a four-run Cardinal ninth inning rally.

Northey walloped his 11th four-master of the season in the opening inning with one on as Card starter Ken Burkhardt was driven from the hill, and hit another off Ted Wilks in the fifth. Seminick's came with the bases loaded off Howard Krist in the five-run seventh.

Oscar Judd's left arm had the Redbirds caged till the eighth and even the two runs scored that frame looked small, but when Stan Musial singled with the bases loaded in the ninth, Charlie Schanz was called in to relieve. He started well forcing Whitey Kurovski to bounce into a double play but then Enos Slaughter singled home a run and Marty Marion's one baser drove in another so Dick Mulligan was brought in to retire pinch batter Harry Walker and end the threat.

Yanks' Ace Shortstop Suffers Concussion

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Yankees established a new major league home attendance record yesterday while taking both ends of a doubleheader from the St. Louis Browns, 3-2 and 8-4.

The nightcap was marked by an injury to shortstop Phil Rizzuto of the Yanks in the fourth frame. Rizzuto was struck in the face by a pitched ball thrown by pitcher Nelson Potter and although he remained conscious, he was taken to New York hospital with a concussion.

In the opener, the Yanks scored the winning run in the final frame when Aaron Robinson singled with the bases loaded. Floyd Bevens was nursing a 2-0 lead going into the seventh frame but the Browns knotted the count on a two-run homer by Jeff Heath.

Keller highlighted New York's second game triumph by clouting his 19th round tripper of the season with the bases loaded in the third inning.

Yankees Smash Attendance Mark

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Yankees, riding the coattails of the Boston Red Sox and cashing in on the arclights, yesterday set a new major league home attendance record when they drew 30,159 paying fans for their doubleheader with the St. Louis Browns.

The good midweek turnout boosted the Yanks' turnstile count to 1,510,934 for 46 home games, enabling them to surpass with ease the 1,485,166 standard hung up by the pennant winning Chicago Cubs in 1929.

Moose Nine to Play Cedar Rapids Sunday

Sunday afternoon at City Park the local Moose baseball nine will play the Cedar Rapids VFW club who displayed power plus Wednesday night when they defeated the Ottumwa Seahawks to the tune of 15-1.

Claude Cypra, who was a reserve outfielder for Iowa university this spring, lead the Vets' eleven hit attack with three blistering singles. Big Bill Diehl, famous Hawkeye Ironman, played first base for the Vets while Stastny, former Hawk pitcher, worked the last three innings on the mound.

Another former Iowa pitching ace, lanky Red Kenney, worked three innings for the Vets. The strong yankee nine was able to garner only one hit in the five and a half inning affair which was called because of rain.

The battery for the local Moose nine have not been announced as yet for Sunday's game.

Red Sox Roll To Double Win

BOSTON (AP)—With Bob Feller having left town, the Boston Red Sox resumed their rough handling of the western clubs yesterday by trouncing the Chicago White Sox in both games of a doubleheader, taking the first 3-1 and the second 6-1.

The Sox scored all their runs in the first game in the fifth inning off lefty Ed Lopat. Doubles by Tom McBride, Dom DiMaggio and Ted Williams after Roy Partee had opened the inning with a single accounted for the scores.

Dave Ferris limited the White Hose to seven hits in the afterpiece as he turned in his 14th success.

Ted Williams got his only hit of the nightcap in the second when he beat out a high bounce to Kolloway. He scored a few seconds later when Bobby Doerr drove his 12th home run of the year over the left field wall and screen.

VMI Football Coach Charges Navy Raid On Good Athletes

LEXINGTON, Va. (AP)—Usually quiet-spoken Allison (Pooley) Hubert, head coach at Virginia Military institute, who has lost five football players to Navy in a month, yesterday raised his voice against what he described as "the rotten way Army and Navy both get these boys up there without any regard for scholastic qualifications."

Hubert said at least two of the five lettermen the Navy got in its "raids" at VMI "didn't have good enough grades to get into the academy." In this respect, he pointed to the case of Lynn Chewning, All-Southern conference fullback last year, and Billy Nofsinger, second team All-Virginia end, both of Richmond, Va.

Rear Admiral Stuart H. Ingersoll, Commandant of Midshipmen at Annapolis, told a reporter that the complaints were "ridiculous" and "absolutely untrue."

"We have no double standards here at the academy for the athlete and the non-athlete," he said.

Reynolds Stops A's, 8-2, On Five-Hitter

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Allie Reynolds held the Philadelphia Athletics to five hits yesterday as Cleveland pounded Luther Knerr for 10 safeties and an 8 to 2 victory, his third straight. By their victory the Indians moved into fifth place.

Cleveland punched over the winning two runs in the fourth after one out. Hank Edwards doubled to right and scored on Lou Boudreau's two bagger to left. Boudreau then counted on Ken Keltner's single.

Bremers Whip Oilers To Tie for Second

Bremers moved into a tie for second place with the Kelly Oilers in the Iowa City softball league by defeating the Oilers last night, 14-5. The winners showed power at the plate in blasting out twelve hits, four of which were home runs.

Kirkendall homered for Bremers in the second, scoring Kaley who had walked. Guzowski and McGreevey homered in the third as Bremers went wild and collected nine runs on six hits.

The Oilers scored three times in the second frame. Coon slashed out a single, Parizek walked, and the runners advanced on a long fly by Sullivan. White smashed out a single scoring Coon and Parizek and scored on a single by Moss.

Woolf drove out a homer for Bremers in the fourth, and the final two runs came in the seventh on hits by Guzowski and McGreevey and two Oiler errors.

The Oilers staged a rally the last of the seventh which produced two runs when White walked and Ancianx poled out a long homer.

Woolf went the route for Bremers, giving up four walks and six hits.

CHICAGO (AP)—Fast-starting Johnny Bulla, hulking Chicago professional, uncorked one of his patented blazing get-aways with a record-matching, four-under-par 67 to dominate yesterday's opening team play competition in the Chicago Victory National golf tournament. Favored Byron Nelson faltered to a 74.

Bulla, runner-up in the British open and recent Kansas City invitational, was over par only once as he welded a 34 and 33 to share the lead in one of the three combination events serving as warm-ups for the $10,000 Victory open starting tomorrow.

Bulla Leads in Chicago Tourney

Fires Sub-Par 67 As Nelson Falters

CHICAGO (AP)—Fast-starting Johnny Bulla, hulking Chicago professional, uncorked one of his patented blazing get-aways with a record-matching, four-under-par 67 to dominate yesterday's opening team play competition in the Chicago Victory National golf tournament. Favored Byron Nelson faltered to a 74.

Bulla, runner-up in the British open and recent Kansas City invitational, was over par only once as he welded a 34 and 33 to share the lead in one of the three combination events serving as warm-ups for the $10,000 Victory open starting tomorrow.

Kiner Leads Pirates To Win Over Giants

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Lacing out a three-run homer and two singles, Ralph Kiner led the Pittsburgh Pirates to an 8-5 victory over the New York Giants yesterday.

After the Pirates had knocked starter Ken Trinkle from the hill in the first inning with a three-run blast, Kiner applied the crusher in the fourth by belting his 16th four-master of the year with two mates aboard off reliever Red Kress.

Joe Louis Beaten In Golf Tourney

DETROIT (AP)—Heavyweight champ Joe Louis bowed out yesterday in the semi-finals of the third annual Joe Louis Golf tournament here as Dr. Remus Robinson of Detroit topped the Brown Bomber 3 and 2.

Louis bested defending champion Sam Stewart of Atlanta in the second round of the amateur division. The big fighter, who led 2-up when darkness halted the match Tuesday night, coasted to a 6 and 4 win in the morning round.

The afternoon 18 was a diffed story, as Dr. Robinson fired an eagle and three birdies as he ousted Louis from the tournament.

8 Veterans Organizations Unite On Plans for OPA Resolution

Group Representatives Back Price Control, Suggest Buyers Strike

Representatives of the eight veterans' organizations in Iowa City met last night at the Community building and drew up plans for a resolution to be sent to Iowa congressmen on the extension of OPA.

It was the first time all the Iowa City veterans' groups were represented in joint session.

A committee was chosen which will meet tomorrow night at 6:30 p. m. in the Iowa Memorial Union to draft the resolution.

It was further suggested that a buyers strike be called on all excessively high items selling in Iowa City.

Members of the resolution committee will include Guy Keller of University Veterans association, Lew Neville of the American Veterans of World War II, J. R. Cotter of Veterans of Foreign Wars post 3949, and Nyle Jones of the American Veterans committee.

The following is the text of a tentative resolution suggested at the meeting:

"Resolved: that the following veterans' organizations of Iowa City, Iowa, are agreed that a strict plan of price control is necessary until supply meets demand as a defense against inflation and the accompanying loss of buying power, and that the organizations agree to cooperative and united action to attain that end."

Representatives at the meeting included: Nyle Jones and Lawrence Dennis of AVC, J. R. Cotter of VFW post 3949, Lew Neville of AmVets, Fred Johnson of the American Legion, Ray Floerchinger of VFW post 2581, Jerry Geriseck and Guy Keller of UVA, R. W. Hess and Lester Norton of the Disabled American Veterans, and H. H. Wade and Harry Crosby of the Reserve Officers association.

Didn't Expect Rain Repairmen Neglected To Replace Roof

Yesterday morning Dean Emeritus Carl E. Seashore of the graduate college didn't feel any panic when he walked into his office in the psychology department. But he must have experienced a feeling of the futility of it all, akin to that felt by Londoners who lose their homes by delayed action bombs.

When the top floor of East hall's central section burned last April, the offices below sustained considerable damage from water, but the occupants sighed for relief that it was no worse.

But when Dean Seashore and Prof. Norman C. Meier of the psychology department opened the doors of their offices yesterday morning, there it was.

The plaster was off the ceilings and heaped on desks and bookcases. Pictures on the walls were akimbo and the colors were smeared. The covers of books were curled and the floor was covered with two inches of water.

Investigation showed that it wasn't a bomb, nor even another fire. It was just delayed action from the first one. The men repairing the damage on the floor above ripped off the roof without replacing it with waterproofing.

They hadn't expected rain that night.
