World Political Interest Focused on Tomorrow's Plebiscite in Greece

ATHENS (AP)—The Greek government declared yesterday that 21 persons had been killed in new raids by Communist bands, and the commander of the Greek gendarmerie charged that "foreign officers" had participated in recent "guerrilla civil war" in Macedonia.

The two statements were issued as the government banned all political meetings prior to tomorrow's plebiscite on the return of the Greek monarchy.

Col. Tsatalos, the gendarmerie chief, did not identify the "foreign officers," nor foreign insignia which he said was found on uniforms of some captured members of the bands responsible for the outbreaks. He added that the situation in Macedonia was now under control.

Acting Premier Stylianos Gonatas disclosed the ban on political meetings, and announced that loudspeaker broadcasts of plebiscite returns would not be permitted.

He lauded both leftists and rightists for orderliness at mass meetings the past two days and the police for exemplary conduct. "Now is the chance to express our free will," he added. "If this day (Sunday) passes without disorder and with calmness everyone will know it is a credit to Greece and it will raise the prestige of the nation before the world, whose eyes are centered on Greece."

The stubby, moustached Soviet foreign minister charged before a conference plenary session that Greece was in the grip of a "terrorism" aimed at insuring a Royalist victory in tomorrow's plebiscite on the return of the monarchy.

He declared that the Greeks sought conference adoption of a resolution recommending that the Big Four examine the Greek-Albanian dispute over Albanian-held Northern Epirus in order to "create nationalistic sentiment inside Greece... on the eve of the plebiscite."

The Greek proposal was adopted by a vote of 12 to 7, with France joining the slavish bloc in opposition. Belgium and Norway abstained. The proposal will be heard at the next plenary session.

Molotov's remark on American warships presumably referred to American fleet units which are scheduled to put in at Greek ports next week—after the plebiscite—during a Mediterranean cruise.

The Soviet reparations award of $100,000,000 from Italy, endorsed by the Big Four, was endorsed by the Italian commission after it voted down 15 to 5 a Canadian proposal to defer approval until after consideration of war damage claims of Yugoslavia, Greece and other victims of fascist aggression. Canada, Australia, New Zealand, South Africa and Brazil were in the minority.

Final approval of the commission report must come from the general plenary session after other economic clauses of the Italian treaty have been acted upon. However, since all of the 21 member nations except Norway are represented on the economic commission the action was regarded as ending the dispute over Soviet reparations from Italy.

After the Canadian proposal was defeated the commission approved another portion of the Big Four draft setting out sources of the reparations.

Molotov hurled his charge of "outside interference" in the Greek elections when he spoke a second time during the morning in reply to United States Secretary of State Byrnes.

Molotov said Russia was not opposing a discussion of the Greek-Albanian border by the council of foreign ministers, but that it believed, like France, that the conference should not take up matters that did not come under the five draft treaties.

Byrnes, speaking in a firm, clear tone, said: "It seems incredible to me that we would deny one of the 21 governments that furnished troops to aid us in victory the opportunity to present its case, regardless as to our views on their claims. 'The United States has no conviction on the territorial dispute. The United States would give the right to every member to be heard.'

In his first appearance Molotov charged that Greece was "in the grip of terrorism in which every liberty has been suppressed," and that on the eve of tomorrow's plebiscite on the monarchy "everything is being prepared for the return of the king."

New OPA Controls Over Meat Industry Go Into Effect Tonight

WASHINGTON (AP)—The OPA last night restored slaughter controls over the meat industry and announced livestock price ceilings of $18.25 per hundredweight on hogs and $20.25 on cattle effective at midnight today.

OPA also granted meat wholesalers an increased margin of 25 cents a hundred pounds effective when wholesale ceilings are restored Sept. 5.

Below Yesterday's Prices

The ceilings are $2.25 higher on cattle than the price levels of June 30 and $1.40 higher on hogs, but are far below the quotations in Chicago in yesterday's uncontrolled markets.

Ceilings for dressed lamb and mutton will bring to livestock owners $3 per hundred pounds more on choice and good grade lamb than on June 30.

Butcher shop prices on meat which will be above the June 30 prices as a result of last night's action but lower than those at present—will be announced next week and will go into effect Sept. 9.

Anderson's Recommendations

The ceilings announced last night are based precisely on the recommendations of Secretary of Agriculture Anderson.

On cattle and calves each of slaughterer's quota is 90 percent of the amount he killed in 1944.

On hogs the new quota is 70 percent.

This increases the quotas on beef and lowers them on hogs as compared with the quotas which lapsed June 30. The former quotas were 85 percent on beef and 90 percent on hogs.

For a more effective war on the black market, all slaughter controls were centered in OPA. Before controls expired June 30, OPA had jurisdiction over only non-federally inspected plants and the agriculture department over federally-inspected plants.

OPA Administrator Paul A. Porter declared the controls will not reduce the total of meat available but will spread the supply more evenly over the country.

The object, his statement said, is to make sure that legitimate slaughterers can get their share of available meat at ceiling prices.

"Conversely, it means that no operator can slaughter a disproportionate amount of livestock," Porter continued. "Every family and every section of the country has its right to a fair share of meat regardless of the source of supply."

He termed the restored slaughter program "a very important step in holding down black market operations," since it provides a check on the source of all meat. Each slaughterer is required to mark his product so it can be traced back to him if it finds its way into the black market.

An OPA spokesman said the prices would follow "explicitly" the higher price recommendations of Secretary of Agriculture Anderson. Those recommendations—amounting to orders—were issued Wednesday, overturning OPA's plans for restoring beef, pork and lamb ceilings near the June 30 levels.

This means that butcher shop prices of meat will range above June 30 level prices by two and one half to three cents on pork and five and one half on beef cuts.

AFL Offers to Avoid Strikes, Asks to See Company Books

WASHINGTON (AP)—The American Federation of Labor offered yesterday to "speed production, avoid strikes and negotiate wage increases within price ceilings" but asked for an occasional, confidential look at employers' books.

This policy of cooperation can succeed, the AFL said, "only if employers are ready to meet us half way."

Its policy statement is set forth in its publication, "Labor's Monthly Survey." The federation declared:

"We say to American employers: we have offered to cooperate with you as partners in improving production. Show us the facts so we can know the results of our efforts. Give us production records so we can watch the increase due to our daily work."

"Give us access to financial reports so we can see the income resulting from the joint production process. Share with us equitably as increasing income makes wage increases possible."

One big AFL union, John L. Lewis' United Mine workers, called yesterday in its journal for private operation of soft coal mines in preference to government control. The government took them under its wing last May in ending a 59-day strike.

Lewis has more negotiations with the operators coming up Sept. 10.

Whether soft coal production comes to a halt once more depends on results of the negotiations. If these fail, the mine workers' journal said, it will be the fault of southern operators or the government.

The journal said the southern operators want legislation to wipe out labor's protection in the Wagner, Norris-LaGuardia, and wage-hour acts. The government, the journal said, "stymied" normal labor relations during the war and still is attempting to control bargaining.

Musicians to Strike Against New York Hotels on Labor Day

NEW YORK (AP)—A strike of musicians in 51 large New York hotels on Labor Day was voted yesterday.

Wage negotiations between the hotels and the American Federation of Musicians (AFL) collapsed, and a strike was voted at a special membership meeting.

The vote authorized 3,000 musicians to put down their instruments at 12:01 a. m. Labor Day.

It was said every hotel involved in the dispute would be picketed.

The union's executive board was authorized to call a strike against restaurants and night clubs if pending negotiations fail.

Harry Suber, strike benefit committee chairman, said the union had $1,000,000 ready to support the strike.

Hotel officials have said the union wants wage boosts ranging from 25 to 50 percent.

Richard McCann, union local 902 president, said "all the bands up to the biggest name band" would be affected by a walkout.

He said a strike would involve all musicians playing in hotels because they "are members of the union and won't cross picket lines."

To Ask Indemnities For Yugoslav Attacks

WASHINGTON (AP)—Undersecretary of State Acheson said yesterday the United States will seek indemnities from Yugoslavia for loss of life and property in two recent attacks on American planes.

He told his news conference that a request for indemnities has not been presented as yet because the state department is awaiting a full report on all particulars of the two incidents.

In response to a question, Acheson said he did not know whether Marshal Tito had put in writing his expression of regret that the incidents had occurred and his assurances that they would not be repeated.

He said, however, that the department is urgently attempting to find out whether those promises have been complied with.

Five Americans were killed when an unarmed transport was shot down Aug. 19 by Yugoslav fighters. Occupants of another transport downed on Aug. 9 were released.

Their release coincided with a sharp note from this government.

In the course of his conference, Acheson also:

1. Said the Italian government has rejected tentatively a United States request for admission of 25,000 homeless refugees—most of them Jews—now in Austria. He said the Italian government has expressed concern lest supplies the country promised for the refugees would cut into the amount available for the Italians.
2. Reiterated the state department's stand that this country is not "interfering in the Greek plebiscite, and that the maneuvers of American warships, including the Aircraft Carrier Franklin D. Roosevelt are purely a gesture of goodwill. He told reporters that on missions of that sort the navy comes to the state department for consultations, and declared the ships' itineraries had been worked out together.
3. Announced that this government has been advised by Russia that Sept. 28 has been set for the preliminary five-power tele-communication conference at Moscow. The other participating nations will be China, France and Britain, and the five together will hold talks preliminary to a later world conference.
4. Disclosed that the United States has expressed hope to Russia and Sweden that any trade pact concluded between the two countries would not conflict with American objectives for world trade expansion on a multilateral non-discriminatory basis.

State Fair Closes After Setting New Attendance, Profit Records

IOWA STATE FAIR GROUNDS—Des Moines (AP)—The Iowa Centennial State fair closed last night with a record attendance of more than 500,000 and a new high in profits, which probably will run up to $125,000.

There also were new records set in receipts and expenditures.

J. P. Mullen of Fonda, fair board president, said he would be "very much surprised" if the receipts of the 88th annual exposition fell below $520,000.

At the same time, Mullen estimated expenses probably would run up to $390,000. That would make his $125,000 profit estimate a conservative one.

Attendance for the nine days up to yesterday totaled 469,876, and today's crowd, including children who were admitted free, was estimated at 45,000, running the total to approximately 514,876.

The previous record attendance was 435,385 in 1929. Attendance in 1941, last previous fair, was 427,363.

The previous profit record was set in 1920 with a total of $111,689. The net in 1941 was $78,019. Through Thursday, the receipts totaled $492,560, compared with a previous high of $410,976 in 1920. The year of greatest expense was 1929, when it cost $322,778 to put on the exposition.

"But due to labor costs, primarily overtime pay, and the higher prices for materials, our expenses this year probably will be somewhere between $375,000 and $390,000," Mullen said.

Fair board officials attributed the attendance and profit records to three things. First, this was the first show since before the war and interest was high. Second, people had money and they were willing to spend it. Third, Iowans are interested in going somewhere, and they did—through rain, shine, and hot and cold weather.

The fair board cashier's office started yesterday afternoon paying out the first of about $100,000 in prize money to exhibitors of more than 5,000 head of livestock. Open class winners were getting their money and others will get theirs by mail.

Livestock exhibitors started hauling out their animals late in the afternoon, and those in charge of hundreds of other displays began packing up to move out early last night. Some concession operators looked over the crowd and decided to hold off breaking up their stands until last night. Others decided to call it quits.

Highlights of the last day were the victory of Warren Buckley's horses from Plano, Ill., in the heavyweight team pulling contest, the awarding of first place in the 4-H club livestock judging contest to Page county for teams and to LaVerne Sunderman of Page county as the top individual, and the distribution of numerous blue ribbons (emblematic of superior grade) to 4-H club girls' demonstration teams in the food preservation and oven products, clothing, home efficiency and home furnishings divisions.

The closing afternoon's grandstand program consisted of automobile races and a circus. The Centennial fair officially closed with a last presentation of "Centennial Belles" in front of the grandstand, the usual dance, and the midnight rides and shows on the midway.

Molotov Hits Britain, U. S. for 'Interference'

PARIS (AP)—Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov yesterday charged Britain and the United States with "interference" in Greece, asserting that "we know British troops are there and American warships are on their way," but he failed to block peace conference discussion of the Greek-Albanian border dispute.

A few hours later the Russian claim for $100,000,000 in reparations against Italy was approved by the Italian economic committee, marking the first major accomplishment of the month-old, 21-nation European peace parley.

Britain to Ask U. S. Cash for Arabs, Jews If Parley Succeeds

LONDON (AP)—Britain will ask the United States to give economic help to both the Jews and Arabs in Palestine if the scheduled London conferences bring a settlement of the Holy Land issues, a highly-placed British official said yesterday.

But Britain, he added, no longer is relying upon any other form of U. S. participation in Palestine affairs.

The British official said Britain did not propose to ignore U. S. feelings on the Palestine issue. Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin, he said, was aware that the Holy Land represented a source of danger to Anglo-American relations and for that as much as for any other reason Bevin was going to take over active leadership of the British delegation to the London conferences, set to open Sept. 9.

U.S. Announces Plans To Democratize Korea

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States, apparently giving up hope for early agreement with Russia on unification of Korea, announced last night its intention to proceed with steps to bring democracy and self-government to the American-occupied southern section of the former Japanese-held country.

The Moscow Big Three agreement provided for erasing the rigid line dividing United States and Russian occupation zones and treating Korea as an economic and political unit. Conferences to that end, however, produced no results and were suspended some time ago.

Soviets, British Clash Over Ukraine Charge

LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y. (AP)—Soviet Russia and Great Britain fought stubbornly last night in the United Nations security council over hearing Ukrainian charges against Greece but the council delayed a decision at least until next Tuesday, two days after the Greek plebiscite on the return of King George II.

At the end of a long discussion of the case by Andrei A. Gromyko, Soviet delegate, the council adjourned until 1 p. m. (CST) Tuesday at the firm request of the United States delegate, Herschel V. Johnson.

Opposes Hearing Case

Sir Alexander Cadogan of Britain, led the attack on hearing the Ukrainian charges that Greece is menacing the peace of the Balkans with the statement that they are "wild accusations." He demanded that the council refuse to hear them in their present form.

Gromyko, equally as firm in his advocacy of the Ukrainian charges, said that great wars have started from little incidents such as the "serious clashes" he said are occurring on the Greek-Albanian frontier. He said those opposing the form of the Ukrainian complaint were "indulging in gymnastics."

Gromyko launched into a long statement on the case after some opponents of hearing it in its present form had completed their statements.

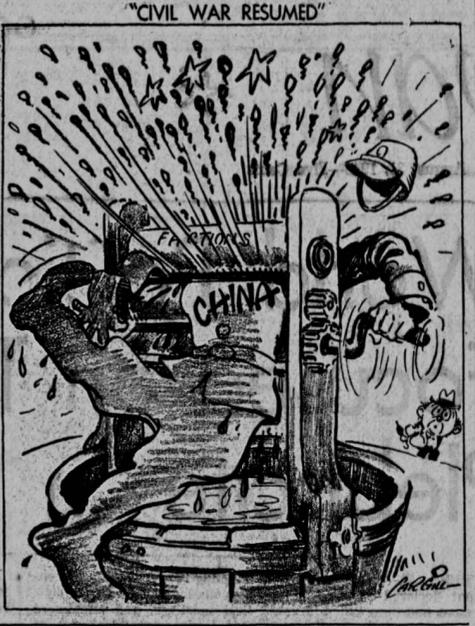

He charged that the presence of British troops in Greece raised the whole question of the foreign rule and that that was apparently the reason Cadogan was opposing the move to hear the case.

Sees Complications

The Russian delegate said that the border incidents noted in the complaint might lead to complications of more "than local nature." He said that Greece and Albania do not live in glass houses—they are in the Balkans.

Gromyko's demand for information within two weeks on the disposition of Allied troops and air and sea bases in alien non-enemy countries, such as the British troops in Greece, was placed on the provisional agenda yesterday but its acceptability, also must be voted on by the council. It was not mentioned yesterday.

A puzzled reader writes in to ask a fair question about China. The answer has world-wide importance. She asks why in the name of common sense the warring Chinese government and Communist factions don't get together. Doesn't money still talk in China, she asks? Can't the Chinese see that war makes them poor? Aren't they supposed to be good businessmen?

Will Congress Renege on Reorganization?

The congress which recently adjourned passed one measure which President Truman signed "with pleasure." That was the congressional reorganization bill—the LaFollette-Monroney bill—which directed a reduction in the number of standing congressional committees, ordered registration of lobbyists, boosted salaries of congressmen, provided additional clerical help to facilitate the work of congress and, in general, was directed toward streamlining congress and permitting it to operate in a more efficient manner.

On the Slow Road to Inflation

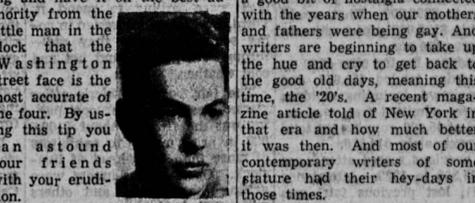

The OPA has made some estimates as to just how much more money Americans will have to lay on the line for consumer goods this year as a result of price increases demanded under the price control act passed by congress. OPA officials expect that the new law will cost Americans more than $2,000,000,000 a year in higher living costs.

Letters to the Editor: The Iowan Readers Forum

TO THE EDITOR: Your sub-head, "Soviets Veto 3 UN Membership Bids," in Friday's "Iowan," was more associated with the box-score of the voting in that article showed that the United States and Britain vetoed 2 UN membership bids. Isn't that news? Shouldn't the headline have read, "UNITED STATES VETOES 2 UN MEMBERSHIP BIDS?"

Focal Points

THE REVELATION IN THIS COLUMN may drop a bomb into the lives of many Iowa Citizens who heretofore have governed their lives by the time on the city hall clock. Said clock is an interesting specimen in that you can get four different times of day by walking around the block.

There are a YOKO good many things that have happened because of the discrepancies of that clock. They tell me that a young fellow was refused right at the altar in the Methodist church because he thought he had plenty of time when he rounded the corner by the city hall.

Local Moose Win National Honors At Chicago Meeting

Iowa City's Moose lodge took a majority of honors in competitive events held yesterday at the national convention of the Loyal Order of the Moose in Chicago, according to word received here.

Wayne E. Putnam, governor of the local lodge, was installed as supreme sergeant-at-arms in ceremonies held yesterday.

The Iowa City Moose drill team, in their first national triumph, took first place with their demonstration. The drill team is under the direction of Charles Schmitt.

Then Grenadiers drum and bugle corps of the local lodge again won the national championship, under the direction of Jack Fromm.

Iowa City units in the convention parade Thursday night also won first place, according to judges.

The lodge degree team, which recently handled the initiation of the record midwestern class at Mooseheart, Ill., was entered in the competition of lodge degree staffs yesterday afternoon. Results of this contest were not available last night.

Funeral Rites Held In Washington, D.C. For Mrs. Wilcox

Funeral services for Mrs. Francis C. Wilcox, the former Genevieve Bryan, a 1932 graduate of the University, were held in Washington, D. C., Aug. 22. Mrs. Wilcox died at her home in Washington Aug. 19. Burial was in Arlington cemetery.

She was the wife of Francis O. Wilcox, also a University of Iowa graduate, who is now head international relations analyst at the Library of Congress.

A native of Durant, Iowa, Mrs. Wilcox taught in Iowa two years after her graduation from the university. She accompanied her husband to Geneva, Switzerland, in 1933 when he went there for advanced study in the field of international relations. They went to Washington to live in 1942.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Wilcox is survived by her daughter Carol Lenore, her mother, Mrs. Minnie Byrnes of Durant, and a brother, Col. Victor A. Byrnes, now stationed with the army medical corps in Nagoya, Japan.

Joe Dolezel, Iowa City assistant police chief, and two patrolmen will attend the annual Iowa State Policeman's convention at Council Bluffs Sept. 9 through 11.

The other Iowa City police force delegates will be G. R. Hall and F. H. Lewis.

Dolezel is on the executive board of the organization. Several members of the force will attend the Iowa law enforcement officers school of instruction at Muscatine Sept. 24, according to Police Chief Ollie White.

The Muscatine school is one of a group of six instruction schools planned for this fall. The other schools are scheduled as follows: Chariton, Sept. 26; Oelwein, Oct. 1; Hampton, Oct. 3; Council Bluffs, Oct. 8, and Sioux City, Oct. 10.

Chaplain to Speak At Union Service

The speaker at the final union church services in the Methodist church tomorrow will be Lt. Col. Loren T. Jenks, army chaplain. Chaplain Jenks will speak on "Germany's Postwar Religion."

Tomorrow's service is the last in a series of union services sponsored by the following Iowa City churches: Congregational, First Presbyterian, First Christian, First Baptist and Methodist.

Chaplain Jenks, who resides at 726 E. Washington street with his wife and two daughters, is doing graduate and research work at the University of Iowa on an army assignment.

The chaplain has been in the army since 1941. During his overseas duty, he was in charge of the religious activities of the Seventh army in Europe.

He attended the University of Iowa in 1935-36 after graduating from Coe college and taking graduate work at Drake university.

Chaplain Jenks was called to active duty with the army from a pastorate at the Lake Harriet Christian church at Minneapolis, Minn.

Complete Auto Captures Softball League Crown

Trounce Kelly Oilers, 10-0, Behind Tucker's Two-Hitter

The Complete Auto softballers blasted their way into the City league championship last night with a 10-0 win over the Kelly Oilers in the third game of the playoff.

After being held to only one hit by Mel Greazel Thursday night, the Automen finally got to big Mel for nine safeties including three extra-base knocks, in the six inning game.

Ralph Tucker limited the Kellymen to a pair of scattered singles but was in trouble in the third and sixth frames. A walk, an error and a hit batsman loaded the sacks in the third but the Oilers couldn't push the runs across. Again in the sixth, the Kellymen had men in a scoring position on a free pass, a fielders' choice and an error.

Complete Auto in contrast left only two runners stranded on the base paths and took advantage of every opportunity. With one out in the bottom half of the second, Stewart was safe on an error and scored on Dvorsky's two-bagger. Jack Shay drove in the Automen's third sacker before the rally ended.

Turning two hits into as many tallies in the third inning, the Auto nine raced into a four run lead. Bailey cracked a long home run into right center for the first score. Clayton Colbert singled and went all the way around on passed balls.

The fourth frame was the big blow-out for the winners as they pushed six runs across to put the ball game on ice. Shay drew a walk, moved to second on Hank Giomo's single and scored on Bill Bock's one-bagger. John Albrecht drove in Bock with a safety and Bailey sent two more tallies across the plate on his single. Colbert walked and Tucker cleared the bases with a long triple to center to end the scoring.

Bailey led the Automen's nine hit attack with a homer and a single to drive in three runs. P-51 Smashes Bendix Trophy Race Record

CLEVELAND (AP)—Paul Mantz, making his fourth try in 12 years, won the Bendix trophy classic yesterday, pushing his souped-up army fighter past the National Air race grandstand four hours, 42 minutes and ten seconds after he took off from Van Nuys, Calif., more than 2,000 miles away.

His average speed of 435.6 miles an hour was 153 miles faster than the record established in 1939.

Mantz, whose home is in Burbank, Calif., finished third in 1938 and 1939. In this race he flew a North American P-51 Mustang, the fat-bellied speedster that fought in both Europe and the Pacific.

Wilburn Wins Again
DES MOINES (AP)—Automobile racing at the Iowa State fair ended yesterday the same as it started with Jimmy Wilburn of Indianapolis winning a majority of the events in which he competed.

Kelly Oilers in Action As Softball Tourney Opens Here Sunday

Due to the delays in the State softball tourney at Des Moines, the Iowa City Invitational tournament has been cut from a 16 team affair to an eight team, double elimination meet. The $400 prize money is not to be cut by the reduced number of teams.

Games start Sunday morning at 8 o'clock with both City high diamonds in use. Losing teams drop into a second bracket and the winners of the brackets will meet at approximately 4 o'clock. If the top team in the winners' bracket should lose, another game will be played to decide the $200 first prize award.

In preparation for the tourney, Kelly Oilers, runners-up in the local softball league, have added George DeMoss and Cliff Heacock to their roster. DeMoss and Heacock are an experienced battery and played for VFW 2581 in the National VFW tourney at Topeka, Kan.

In addition to DeMoss, the Oilers have big Mel Greazel ready for mound duty and classy Virgil Burnett behind the plate.

Kenny Moss at first, Rusty Anclaus at second, Riggle at third and Bob White at shortstop have been playing spirited ball in the infield for the Oilers in the City league playoffs and will take the field for the Kellymen Sunday.

Ray Sullivan, Ray Fritsch, and Fritz LeGrand will be patrolling the outfield gardens for the local team.

Plan Cage Practice
In preparation for the 19-game schedule which opens Dec. 2, coach "Pops" Harrison will call out the University of Iowa basketball players Oct. 1 for several workouts weekly.

More Signal Drills at Iowa

Coaches Joe Sheeketski and Frank Carideo said yesterday that learning play assignments still is the big job facing University of Iowa gridder before the opening game here Sept. 21 with North Dakota State.

Four line squads worked under Sheeketski, while backfield candidates polished off mistakes in timing under direction of Carideo, who is acting head coach until the return of hospitalized Dr. Eddie Anderson.

Later the linemen and backfield were brought together and coordinated their assignments, using the "T" as the springboard for the attack against a defensive team simulated by blocking dummies.

The squad, which numbered 78 at peak strength soon after opening of fall drills, was down to around 68 yesterday, with four more players voluntarily quitting after seeing they could not meet the competition.

Among those turning in their suits was Dave Williams, speedy Negro fullback, and all-state football and basketball player in 1943 and 1944 from Ottumwa and Jack Hammond, letterman tackle last year.

Squad Changes, Scrimmages Feature Big Nine Grid Drills

LAFAYETTE, Ind. (AP)—Boiler-maker football coaches yesterday intensified a search for passing support for Bob DeMoss, quarterback, as the Purdue candidates were sent through two drills.

Among the most accurate passers during the workouts were two newcomers, Kenneth Gorgal, freshman from Peru, Ill., and Jack Melito of Grand Rapids, Mich.

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP)—Three former Notre Dame players were seeking starting berths at Illinois as the second week of practices neared completion.

End Bill Huber has moved into the No. 1 left end position while Julie Rykovich is paired with Buddy Young in the varsity backfield. The third Notre Dame griddler, Chick Maggioli, is listed as a second string halfback.

Coach Ray Eliot put the Illini through the third consecutive day of scrimmage, and for the third time Maggioli stood out. The hard-driving 180-pound Mishawaka, Ind., halfback, who ran 70 yards to give the Irish a 13-7 victory over Illinois in 1944, ripped off four runs of 20 yards or more in the scrimmage yesterday.

COLUMBUS, O. (AP)—Ohio State ought to be reasonably sure of its extra points and field goals in this fall's football games, Ernie Godfrey, the Buck's toe-educator, concluded yesterday after working with Johnny Stungis and Max Schnittker.

Schnittker kicked the 40-yard field goal which beat Northwestern 16-14 last year, and Stungis, an air corps veteran, booted one that broke a 26-2 tie with Illinois in 1943.

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP)—The place-kicking of Vic Schwall and punting of Dick Connors—both of Chicago—featured yesterday's light drills at Northwestern.

Today the Wildcat coaches have scheduled two regulation game scrimmages to get a good look at 125 football candidates who are still reporting before cutting the squad.

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP)—Joe Signaigo of Memphis, Tenn., a letterman at guard position on the 1943 Notre Dame squad, will return to the Irish after 15 months service in the Pacific theater, coach Frank Leahy said yesterday.

Bob Numbers, a center candidate, will not return to the campus this fall, having entered school at Lehigh.
