GOOD MORNING, IOWA CITY!

Mostly cloudy and a little cooler today with the high temperature about 65 degrees. Low tonight about 55. Cloudy and quite cool with showers tomorrow.

Byrnes Hopes Stalin Has Stilled Charge We Use A-Bomb Threat

PARIS—(AP)—Secretary of State Byrnes said yesterday he hoped the recent statement of Soviet Prime Minister Stalin had banished the "unwarranted charges" that the United States was using the atomic bomb as a threat against Russia.

Speaking at a luncheon of the American club, the American peace conference delegation chief said he agreed with the Soviet leader that there was "no immediate danger of war," but acknowledged frankly the "seriousness" of the conflict in viewpoints among the nations.

Referring to Stalin's recent statement to a British newspaperman, Byrnes said, "I hope also that his statement will put an end to the unwarranted charges that the United States is seeking to use its possession of the atomic bomb as a threat of force against the Soviet Union, or that the responsible leaders of the Soviet Union so believe."

He also said: "I concur most heartily in the view recently expressed by Generalissimo Stalin that there is no immediate danger of war. I hope that his statement will put an end to the unwarranted charges that any nation of group of nations is seeking to encircle the Soviet Union, or that the responsible leaders of the Soviet Union so believe."

President Truman said in Washington that he was in accord with Byrnes' statement in yesterday's speech. Mr. Truman said he had discussed the speech with Byrnes over the telephone. He told a news conference he has given no consideration to another meeting of himself, Prime Minister Atee and Prime Minister Stalin.

Byrnes renewed his bid to Russia to join with the United States, Britain and France in a 40-year alliance for control of Germany, and said these would be its salient points:

1. Allied occupation of Germany would continue until demilitarization and disarmament is accepted by "whatever German government emerges."
2. Even then limited but adequate Allied armed forces would be maintained to insure compliance with the treaty, especially as to preventing German industry from converting from peace to war.
3. In this respect engineers could be more valuable than soldiers, since they could spot at an early stage any evidence that German industry was again turning to manufacture of armaments.
4. If the industrialist refused to heed instructions to close down any factories found producing for war, the Allied control officials should be empowered to summon bombers from France, Britain, and the United States or Russia to enforce compliance.

BIDS FOR STEEL PLANT ON NOTHING

A DREAMER of fantastic industrial dreams is John W. Turkovitch, 22-year-old Detroit employe of Fisher Body, who bid exactly $20,223,894 for a surplus war plant in competition with several of the country's leading industrial organizations. Investigation disclosed however, that his comparative poverty is incompatible with his ambition to buck Big, Little and Independent Steel on nothing more than "a shoe-string, like Henry Kaiser did." 39 Perish In Crackup Of Transport STEPHENVILLE, Newfound-land — (AP) — All 39 persons aboard an American Overseas plane, including the wives and children of United States soldiers in Europe perished yesterday in a flaming crash into the side of a wooded Newfoundland hill—the worst tragedy in the history of commercial aviation.

A searching party which hacked its way through wood and underbrush to the scene of the disaster sent back this terse message: "No survivors."

Nine of the 12 women aboard the Skymaster plane were en route to join their husbands, most of them with the occupation troops abroad. Five of the women were accompanied by six children, whose ages ranged from 20 months to 11 years.

The plane, a four-engined DC-4, was bound for Berlin from New York.

3 Freed Nazis Get Safe Escort

NUERNBERG—(AP)—Lt. Gen. Lucius D. Clay United States deputy military governor was reported yesterday to have ordered a safe escort to Hamburg for Hjalmer Schacht, Franz Von Papen and Hans Fritzsche, and 100 German policemen who had assembled to arrest the three acquitted Nuernberg defendants were dispersed.

Anton Pfeiffer, German chief of denazification for Bavaria in the American zone, said General Clay guaranteed the safe conduct for the trio to the British zone. He said this protection from German denazification courts was only temporary, however, and covered only their departure from the Nuernberg jail and the American zone.

Attorneys for the three said they would travel by a secret route together and probably would leave today, but later indications were that their departure might be delayed until as late as Saturday.

Von Papen, the former German ambassador to Turkey, will go from Hamburg to Stockhausen and Schacht, former Reichsbank president, will go to his home in Schleswig-Holstein. Fritzsche, former propagandist, plans to stay in Hamburg.

Because of an official blackout on news there was little word concerning the remaining 18 prisoners condemned to death or sentenced to prisons terms.

Although defense attorneys previously had stated that last hope appeals to the Allied control council for clemency would be made for all the 12 men condemned to the gallows, only one such appeal actually had been filed.

Strangely enough this was for Martin Borman, Hitler's party deputy leader, who was tried in absentia. Borman is believed dead.

Legion Vetoed Vets Bonus, Urges Income Tax Reduction

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The American Legion yesterday turned thumbs down on a World War II veterans bonus, but plumped for a reduction of income taxes and immediate cash redemption of GI terminal leave bonds.

Rejection of bonus proposals followed a noisy, shouting demonstration in support of National Commander John Stelle of Illinois in his feud with Gen. Omar N. Bradley, the veterans' administrator, and adoption of a resolution demanding an immediate session of congress to amend the veterans' training act.

Interviewed in Palo Alto, where he was inspecting a veterans' hospital yesterday afternoon, Bradley said that if the present $200-a-month ceiling pay for veterans' on-the-job training were found to be too low "we will recommend that it be raised."

"We are now getting figures on journeyman wages throughout the country," he said. "It was our feeling that veterans' pay should not exceed journeyman pay."

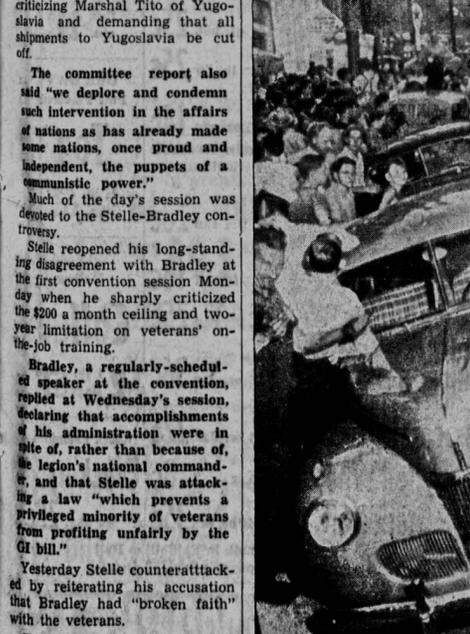

Cordell Hull Loses Ground During Day; Condition Now Grave

WASHINGTON (AP)—Ailing Cordell Hull, former secretary of state, lost ground during the day and is in grave condition, the navy medical center reported last night.

In a 9 p. m. (CST) bulletin on his condition, the hospital, said: "Mr. Hull has lost ground during the day and his condition is considered grave tonight."

The 75-year-old Tennesseean suffered a stroke Monday night, having entered the hospital, at Bethesda, Md., earlier for a general physical check-up.

TROLLEY RUNS WILD, HITS 6 AUTOS

THIS WAS THE SCENE last night in suburban Eagle Rock, Calif., after an unattended runaway streetcar sped wildly down the town's main street for ten blocks, jumped the rails on a curve and skidded sideways into six parked automobiles, one of them brand new. The only casualty was a woman on the streetcar who sprained her arm. (AP Wirephoto)

Ministers Agree On Debate Limit For Peace Parley

PARIS—(AP)—The four-power foreign ministers council agreed yesterday that the work of the peace conference should be speeded by limiting to one-half hour the speeches of each of the 21 delegations on each of the five treaties, a French source said.

The ministers instructed, Jacques Focques-Duparc, secretary general of the peace conference, to prepare complete rules of procedure for the conference's closing stages. These proposed rules will be based on principles agreed upon at yesterday's meeting of the Big Four.

Fouques-Duparc will present the rules in his name at a plenary session of the conference Sunday afternoon. That session, to be convoked under the chairmanship of British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin, will be asked to approve them.

A plenary session Monday will begin with a general discussion of the whole Italian treaty. When the general discussion is completed the delegates will begin voting on each article. No new amendments may be presented.

Although no decision was made, the ministers appeared to favor holding three plenary sessions daily to clean up the conference's work by the adjournment deadline of Oct. 15.

Union Leader Offers To Settle Maritime Strike by Arbitration

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Harry Bridges offered yesterday to determine representation for the employees. It challenged the representation of the striking independent union.

Pickets Overturn Car

In continuing Hollywood movie labor dispute, pickets overturned a car seeking to enter the gates of Republic studios and police officers used their clubs to prevent pickets from manhandling a second car. Two men were arrested.

The AFL conference of Studio unions offered to halt picketing studios if its brotherhood of carpenters is given jurisdiction over set buildings. The offer was made after members of the Screen Actors guild overwhelmingly rejected a proposal to respect picket lines. However, an industry spokesman said the proposal was merely a "gesture" as the rival AFL International Alliance of Theatrical Stage employes would not agree to any such step.

8 Hurt in Chicago

Five policemen and three workers at the American Automatic Devices company in Chicago were injured and 32 persons were injured in the third clash this week between police, strikers and non-strikers. One automobile was overturned.

Chicagoans, meanwhile, experienced the second transportation strike this week when 1,000 AFL bus drivers and maintenance men left their posts to hold a continuous meeting on the question of wages. The union said its action, which left 330,000 persons without that form of transportation, was not a strike as no strike notice was filed. Some 25,000 commuters have been affected by a three-day strike halting operations of the Chicago, Aurora and Elgin railroads.

Truman Urges All-Out Production Effort, Industrial Peace to Avert Price Collapse

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Truman yesterday called for all-out production and an end to industrial strife, and backed up a warning by reconversion director John R. Steelman that further price inflation may spell economic "collapse."

An "important battle" must yet be won before we can honestly say we have completed successfully the transition from war to peace," the president told his news conference.

He pointed to Steelman's quarterly report, released yesterday, which said among other things that a "further rapid price rise" might diminish demand for goods and "precipitate an early and severe price collapse, with serious economic and social consequences."

As for wages, Steelman urged against a general round of "large" increases at this time. Only "special groups," he said, would benefit by such increases.

Truman asserted, the nation is "driving steadily ahead toward peacetime prosperity."

Two Die, 100 Hurt As Fire, Explosions Rock Oil Refinery

MARCUS HOOK, Pa. (AP) — At least two men were killed and 100 persons were injured last night in a fire, accompanied by earth-shaking explosions, that raged for four hours in the Sun Oil company's $1,300,000 aviation gasoline refinery before being brought under control.

The company spokesman said damage "undoubtedly will total several hundred thousand dollars."

"At least 40 of our employes, as far as we are able to determine, were injured and remain in hospitals. Most of them suffered burns," the spokesman continued.

The first explosion shook this Delaware river industrial community of 4,000 at 6:10 p. m. in the intervening four hours before the roaring blaze was checked hundreds of firefighters from communities within a score of miles sped to the scene, lit by towering flames of burning oil and gasoline.

An hour later an even heavier blast, felt in Wilmington, Del., 15 miles south, rocked Marcus Hook and Pennsgrove, N. J., across the river.

Crews of ships, some of them tankers carrying inflammable petroleum, struggled frantically to get their vessels away from docks in the area.

Officials, Housewives Agree—No Business For Meat Black Market

WASHINGTON (AP)—Officials, the trade and housewives over much of the nation agreed with OPA's meat price enforcement chief yesterday that the meat black market is virtually out of business, but there were broad suggestions that the actual non-existence of steaks and roasts has a lot to do with it.

Irving M. Gruber, the meat enforcement man, told a reporter that his 2,500 agents have all but stamped out the illicit traffic.

LIKE A JUICY BEAR STEAK?

SHOT NEAR A MEAT MARKET when it wandered into the Superior, Wis., business district, this big bear is being readied for skinning and slicing into steaks by Charles A. Erickson and William Kramer. The bear will be offered for sale to Superior housewives during the meat famine. (International)

Supports Previous Criticism Of U.S. Atomic Energy Plan

WASHINGTON (AP)—Henry A. Wallace slammed back at Bernard M. Baruch last night, declaring that the latter seeks to "intimidate" him and still fails to "come to grips" with atomic energy problems.

The ousted secretary of commerce issued a statement replying to Baruch's public rebuke for Wallace's previous criticism of the U. S. atomic control plan. Wallace declared that Baruch's "stubborn and inflexible position" is what snags the negotiations with Russia.

Amid the barrage, President Truman sought to stand clear. He told his news conference earlier in the day that the controversy is solely a matter between Baruch and Wallace, although he has made it clear previously that the control plan which Baruch submitted to the United Nations as the American delegate represents the administration policy.

Baruch in New York Wednesday night accused Wallace of misrepresenting the official atomic program and insisted that it does call for treaty provisions "governing the sequence and timing of the steps" the United States and other countries would take toward international control.

Moreover, Baruch reported that Wallace, in a personal conference last Friday had acknowledged he was mistaken. But Baruch complained that Wallace refused to sign a statement to that effect. Baruch released two statements which he said had been proposed for Wallace's signature.

Wallace, in his public statement last night, released two more drafts which he said Baruch "neglected to release." Wallace said he originally "was asked to sign" a statement expressing his "full agreement with the course being pursued by Mr. Baruch," but that he could not do so "in good conscience."

Wallace reported that he then proposed a final statement, which he said was also withheld by Baruch, and that the latter's "rejection of it shows that he would not be satisfied with any statement that could not be interpreted as a full endorsement of his position."

In that statement, Wallace wrote that "the present impasse in the United Nations atomic energy commission negotiations arises from two basic points of disagreement."

1. "Whether the United States should continue its production and stockpiling of atomic bombs during the period of negotiation and the transition to full international control."
2. "Russian refusal to agree to an international system of inspection."

"We cannot hope to achieve success in our atomic energy negotiations with Russia," Wallace's proposed statement to Baruch continued, "until a plan is devised which will assure her, by deed as well as by word, of our sincere desire to pay due regard to Russian as well as American security needs during the period of transition."

No Chops 'Till Summer

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Anderson said at a press conference here yesterday that the nation's housewives need not expect to have any pork chops on the family dinner table before "next summer."

University Married Students Organization Seeks Hospitalization Plan, Fire Insurance

The University Married Students organization last night took preliminary steps toward establishing a hospital care plan for all university married students and their children.

A committee will be appointed in the next day or two to select and submit to UMISO for adoption the most inclusive hospital and medical care plan for married students.

Plans were also made to investigate the possibility of blanket fire insurance coverage for the personal belongings of all the residents at Hawkeye and Riverdale villages.

UMSO Chairman Francis Weaver, L3 of Mason City, revealed that a letter to the FPMA office in Chicago has been sent by Mrs. Lorraine Dennis, G of Mason City, explaining the urgent need for automatic clothes driers in the laundry buildings at Hawkeye and Riverdale.

FPMA recently denied the villagers' request for these units, and the approaching winter season has emphasized the need for some sort of provision for drying clothing other than in the already crowded space of the trailers, Weaver explained.

In a letter from Dean C. Woody Thompson of the office of student affairs, the UMISO was advised that Richard Schweitzer, of that office, has been appointed to liaison work between office of student affairs and the villages.

In an earlier meeting last night, the Hawkeye village council decided to take action to fill the post for a male representative to that group from the mid-east section of the village, if the post remains unfilled after Sunday.

Provisions of the village constitution call for council action to fill vacancies within the group if the section concerned fails to give any candidate the required 51 percent majority vote within 14 days of the opening of the fall semester. No candidate has polled a majority vote in three previous elections.

The Hawkeye group also appointed Mrs. Dennis to draft and distribute to all residents a questionnaire which will state the amount of repairs needed in each trailer. The repairs are required in many cases, before cold weather causes undue inconvenience to the householders.

Russia Will Respect U.S., British Desires At UN, Smith Tells World Affairs Forum

Predicting that Russia will respect the desires of Britain and the United States in matters of policy before the United Nations organization, Prof. Goldwin Smith of the history department said last night that he believes growing differences between nations of the world will stop short of war.

Professor Smith, who served with the Canadian diplomatic and intelligence services during the war, spoke before the first fall meeting of the World Affairs forum.

"British and American foreign policies will move closely together, as their economic and military interests are very similar," he told the forum.

"We shall see a general agreement upon areas of major policy such as Turkey and the Dardanelles."

In a short business meeting after Professor Smith's talk, forum members elected Lynn Fontaine, G of Marion, and Al Levine, A1 of Sioux City, to a publicity committee to plan for future meetings and activities.

The World Affairs forum will work with the American Veterans' committee, the Atomic Energy Control committee, and other Iowa City groups in supporting the United Nations organization and its functions.

Cardinals Win National League Pennant

By Gayle Talbot
 BROOKLYN (AP)—A hair-raising ninth inning rally by Brooklyn's battling Dodgers fell short yesterday and the St. Louis Cardinals wrapped up their fourth National league pennant in five years by taking the second and deciding game of their unprecedented play-off series, 8 to 4, before a heart-broken throng of 31,875 at Ebbets field.

Held to two hits by Murry Dickson, a trim right-hander, for the first eight frames, Leo Durocher's scrappers slugged the pride of Tracy, Mo., from the hill with their final gasp in the last inning and rushed three runs across before Harry (The Cat) Brecheen finally stunned them into submission with two season ending strikeouts.

The bases still were filled with Dodgers when Howie Schultz, tall Dodger pinch-hitter who had clouted a home run in the opening game of the play-off at St. Louis, swung from his heels at a third strike and missed.

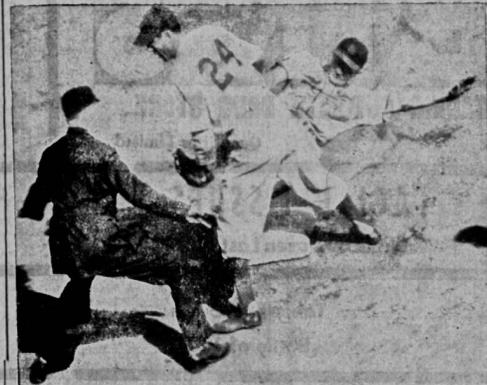

So bitter was the disappointment of Brooklyn's fandom that, a minute after the final out, Enos "Country" Slaughter was wrapped in a fist-swinging session with a Dodger roofer near home plate. The cops finally pried them apart after several hundred fans had closed in on the combatants.

The victory, which they appeared to have in their hip-pockets by an overwhelming margin until the Bums made their final, gallant rally, squared the Red Birds off for the World Series against the Boston Red Sox starting Sunday at St. Louis. They won Tuesday's playoff opener in the Mound City, 4 to 2.

Up to the time the Dodgers put on their delayed explosion, Dickson had hurled masterful ball and appeared to have the situation entirely in hand. After yielding two singles—one of them very scratchy—in the opening round, he had set the Brooklyn down without a semblance of safety in the seven succeeding innings. Only one Dodger hit a ball out of the infield during that brilliant stretch.

The Cardinals in the meantime had pounded six Brooklyn chukkers for 13 solid blows, including three fence-busting triples and a brace of doubles, and had piled up a commanding 8-1 lead. Many fans began leaving the park well before the home team faced Dickson for the last time. Nobody expected anything to happen, really.

BEANS REARDON yells SAFE as St. Louis outfielder Ervin Dusak slides into third base after clouting a long drive. Helplessly waiting for the ball is Dodger third baseman Augie Galan. (AP WIREPHOTO)

Augie Galan, who had snared one of the first-inning hits off Dickson, opened the excitement with a two-bagger into the right center field to bring the crowd to its feet, but they all sat right down again when Dixie Walker, who failed to get a hit in the play-off, lofted to center.

At that juncture Ed Stevens, who had knocked Galan in with Brooklyn's run in the first, swatted a terrific triple deep into the corner between right and center-field to drive Augie in again. Carl Furillo followed with a clean single to center which counted Stevens, and when Dickson wavered and walked Pee Wee Reese, Manager Eddie Dyer reluctantly waved Brecheen in from the bull pen.

Bruce Edwards, husky young Dodger catcher greeted the Card southpaw with a ringing blow into left to bring Furillo home and by that time the stands were in a bedlam. The roar probably could have been heard the other side of the East River when Cookie Lavagetto batted for Harry Taylor, sixth of the Brooklyn twirlers, and worked Brecheen for a walk to load the bases.

That was when Brecheen proved his class. With the potential tying run at the plate, the little lefthander bore down and struck out Eddie Stanky, Dodger second baseman, on four pitches. Stanky watched the third strike whistle past.

Howie Schultz, Brooklyn's last hope, worked Brecheen to a 3-2 count, and then missed the final, fatal curve by about six inches. It was all over, and the Cardinals, who had been pre-season favorites to capture the flag by many lengths finally had squeaked through.

Red Sox Tip All Stars, 4-1

BOSTON (AP)—The Boston Red Sox took the third and deciding game of their World Series tune up clashes with the all stars 4-1 yesterday and immediately headed for St. Louis.

Ted Williams, the Sox' home run slugger who sustained a bruised right elbow in the first of the tune-up series Tuesday, grabbed the train along with his teammates.

There were 2,740 paid customers on hand to see the Sox clinch the game in the fourth when Rudy York homered with one man on.

The Sox got one in the second on singles by Bobby Doerr and Mike Higgins and picked up another in the seventh on singles by York and Higgins and an infield error.

The only all star run came in the first off Earl Johnson on singles by Snuffy Stirrweiss and Luke Appling.

Hawks Bound For Ann Arbor

Iowa's upset bound Hawkeyes were to board a train at 9 a.m. today which will eventually lead them into Michigan stadium at Ann Arbor to seek their first win over the Wolverines since 1924.

Rated a poor starter in the Western conference the Hawks boosted their stock by blasting favored Purdue 16-0 last weekend, and expect to continue the onslaught Saturday.

Only twice in history has an Iowa team dumped Michigan and those came in 1900, when the Hawks were champions of the conference, and in 1924.

Nine times the Hawkeyes have been turned back—five of these by margins ranging from one to six points—with one game ending in a tie.

Dr. Eddie Anderson gave the squad their final tuneup last night on offense and defense to be used in the second conference game of the season—and how well these lessons have been learned will be shown Saturday.

Lou King, the cool field general, and Bob Phillips, who plays either end, have been named to captain the Iowa eleven against the top rated team in the conference.

Anderson has had the Hawkeyes working mostly on defense this week to prepare for the tricky formations the Wolves will use.

Also coming in for some brushing up has been the passing attack with Emlen Tunnell, Bob Smith and Bob Sullivan doing most of the pitching.

This combination completed seven out of nine throws against Purdue.

The 36 players making the trip are:

- Centers—Dick Laster, Jim Lawrence, Paul Kruse.
- Right halfbacks—Bob Smith, Dell Bartells, Duke Curran, Jack Legg.
- Fullbacks—Dick Hoerner, Russ Fechter, Ron Headington.

Hawklets Invade Dubuque in Mississippi Valley Conference Battle Tonight

Facing another crucial test in their bid for the Mississippi Valley grid championship, the Little Hawks from City tonight face the Dubuque Rams at the Senior high field at Dubuque.

Prospects for a City high win are increased since it appears that Bob "Chugger" Wilson will be available for part time duty at right half. Leo Zeithamel will also be ready to see some action. Both Wilson and Zeithamel were injured in the Davenport game.

Dick Williams can take over the quarterback slot with Jim Sangster moving to right half or fill in at Wilson's position. Rox Shain and Holger Christensen will be ready to spell Zeithamel if necessary.

The Rams present a fast eleven that includes track stars in all four backfield positions. Bill Roberts, Dick Pape, Jim Sandrock and Jim Michel are the speedster ball toters while Michel is also an outstanding passer.

Coach Wilbur Dalzell's squad uses the single wing and also runs a few plays from the "T". The Rams are a strong defensive club as their performance against the defending champions, East Waterloo, indicates.

The Little Hawks will hold a weight advantage over the Rams. The Dubuque line averages 169 while the Hawklets forward wall is over the 180 mark. The Ram backfield averages 156 and the Little Hawks backs 165.

Cabbages and Kings

By LAWRENCE E. DENNIS

Out in California, where popular Governor Earl Warren was renominated last summer by a comfortable majority on both the Republican and Democratic tickets, a nip-and-tuck political battle is shaping up between the two U. S. senatorial candidates, William Knowland, GOP incumbent, and his well-known opponent, Will Rogers Jr.

DENNIS

Pro . . .

By DWIGHT W. EDWARDS Water Company Manager The American Waterworks Conference in May, 1946, at St. Louis, devoted a large proportion of its time to considering the immediate future of the water plants of this county.

By DAN C. DUTCHER Company Attorney The argument that has been advanced that approval of the franchise will mean that the present rates will be in existence for 20 years—or as they put it, "the water users of Iowa City will be the helpless victims of excessive rates for the next 20 years."

Con . . .

By Prof. Herman H. Trachsel Fellow water consumers. You and I, as well as all other citizens of Iowa City have been asked to renew the water franchise for another 20 years.

All of the facts concerning the business. The most outstanding defect of this franchise is the lack of any provision for establishing a definite valuation. This is essential if regulation by the council is to be placed on a workable basis.

One of the principle questions discussed was, "When is all this money coming from?" Operating expenses have gone up so that 60 percent of revenues are expended to provide service to existing customers, leaving only 40 percent for taxes, depreciation, interest, and new construction.

Is it an effective system? The opponents say that it is not because the company will drag the city into court to contest any rate reduction. There is no question but that if the rate is fixed unreasonably low the company can contest it in court.

It is cheaper to soften water at the central source of supply rather than in thousands of homes. We pay $18 or more per year to operate an individual softener. Those who try to soften water with soap have adopted not only the most inconvenient, but also the most expensive method of securing soft water.

It is necessary to have soft water to keep clean, because soap has very little cleansing action until it lathers, and it will not lather in hard water. There is not a word in the proposed franchise to improve the water.

Where, then, are we to get the money? The answer is that it will have to be borrowed. This borrowing may be done by bond issue, or by a loan from some insurance company that you, yourselves, have invested your money in.

It has been suggested that this franchise has been "rushed thru." I'll leave that to you. The franchise was first requested on Aug. 12 and given its first reading. It was considered on its second reading on Aug. 26. Finally on Sept. 9 it was given its third reading and adopted by the council in an empty council chamber.

I know, too, from my contact with the waterworks industry, that there is no doubt about the need for expansion, improvement and extension of water service in the country as a whole and in Iowa City in particular.

The board of directors and management of this company are genuinely concerned with meeting the needs of Iowa City. It will require planning, materials, labor, and at least, money, to give the city of Iowa City the water service that it will demand and be entitled to.

Interpreting the News...

(First of Two Stories) By W. F. ARBOGAST Associated Press Staff Writer If you have the idea that a congressional inspection trip is all play and no work, you should go on one some time.

How much money are we concerned with? The preliminary estimates are that there will be required in the neighborhood of $30,000 of improvements to serve new customers; that the new river crossing—which is essential to the operation of the plant—will be about $40,000, and that there will be approximately $30,000 of improvements made to the plant and the present $30,000 of improvements made to the plant and the present distribution system.

What about the city and the people of Iowa City? Do they need a franchise? Do they need a contract that they can enforce against the company which will insure that they have water service where it is needed, when it is needed and that it is pure and plenty of it for fire protection?

I am aware, of course, of the question that has been raised as to rates in Iowa City. I can speak with authority that the Iowa Water Service company is making every effort to reduce expenses, increase efficiency and expand its business so that a reduction in water rates will be possible.

However the matter of rates may appear to you, this fact has impressed me: the business of the Iowa Water Service company is, after all, a small business compared with many others in Iowa City. The gross income from the sale of water—and this means all of the money that the company takes in a year—is less than $150,000. I am confident that this amount of gross sales would be in the category of one of the smaller businesses in Iowa City.

Ballantyne Elected Alpha Phi Omega Advisor

Robert Ballantyne, A4 of Iowa City, was elected senior fraternity advisor of Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity, at a meeting Wednesday night. Members elected to fill vacancies until the regular November election are Robert Sinnott, A3 of Muscatine, secretary; Milo Brandt, G of Panora, treasurer, and Wesley Carr, E3 of Kenmore, N. Y., alumni secretary.

These are some of the things that I am sure the people opposing this franchise have not thought of. If they have and still are in favor of delay, then I say to you that they are not as concerned about the welfare and progress of Iowa City and its people as those who dislike the necessity of people living in basements, garages, trailers, etc., in Iowa City and who are in favor of eliminating such a condition as soon as possible!

Furthermore, so far as the operation of the plant and the improvements made in water service in Iowa City are concerned since I have been a director, I know it to be a fact that the first concern of this company is for the safety of the people of Iowa City, both from the standpoint of the purity of their water and fire protection. Whatever complaints there have been in the past, I can tell you that this company has done everything which modern science and methods can provide to furnish the best possible water to the people of Iowa City, as verified by the state board of health.

Section 15 of the proposed franchise should be eliminated completely, and a workable provision such as has been suggested inserted in its place. This will be fair to both the company and consumers. As long as the franchise continues, the company will receive the specified return on its investment, and if the grant is terminated it will receive the full amount of its investment.

University Hospital Workers Receive Charter From CIO

CIO United Public workers, local 726, yesterday announced the climax of their four-week organization drive at the University hospital and have been granted an official charter from the national union, according to Paul Corbin, national CIO representative for United Public Workers union.

Corbin claims the union has organized 70 percent of all University hospital employes, but this figure could not be confirmed yesterday.

To Meet Hospital Head

He also announced that a meeting with Gerhard Hartman, University hospital superintendent, has been tentatively arranged for Monday or Tuesday as the opening of collective bargaining on the union's program.

Primary among the unions demands, according to handbills, circulated at the hospital during the last two days, is one requesting an 18 1/2-cent an hour wage raise, with a 10 percent bonus for night work.

In addition, the union asks a 25 percent increase in wages to meet the "skyrocketing cost of living."

Corbin said the wage raises asked are in accord with the national wage policy adopted in 1944.

Lowest Paid in Nation

He asserted, "State University of Iowa employes are the lowest paid in the United States."

Other demands in the union program are seniority, job security, elimination of split shifts, equal pay for women employes and elimination of favoritism in hiring and firing.

The union also will ask an eight-hour day and job classification provisions to give persons doing the same type of work the same salary.

According to Ray Wagner, president of local 12, Iowa State University employes, and AFL affiliate, said the AFL union at the hospital had consolidated with the CIO union within the last year, but was unable to say how many AFL union members were involved.

Hartman and Harold A. Smith, assistant administrator at the hospital, were both out of town last night and could not be reached for comment on the new organization.

Chaplain to Speak

Chaplain Loren T. Jenks will speak at the Roger Williams fellowship vesper at 6:30 p.m. Sunday on "World Mindfulness in Religion."

R. Diaz Fined $100 For Disorderly Conduct

Roglio G. Diaz, graduate assistant in the physiology department, yesterday was fined $100 and costs in police court on a charge of disorderly conduct.

A university student discovered Diaz looking in a window Wednesday night at 322 N. Clinton, according to Police Chief O. A. White.

When Diaz fled, the student, a member of the university track team, gave chase, overtook him and brought him to the police station, Chief White said.

Chairmen Announce Committee Locations

Chairmen for the Johnson county central committees of both the Republican and Democratic parties announced headquarters locations yesterday.

The Jefferson hotel will house both organizations. The Democrats will locate in room 316 and the Republicans in room 416.

Republican Central Committee Chairman Fred V. Johnson said the office would open on Oct. 17 with Mrs. Elmer D. Cherry as secretary.

William J. Jackson, chairman for the Democratic central committee, said Secretary Mabel Fitzgarrald would officially open the headquarters office at 9 a.m. today. Office hours will be from 9 to 5 daily, including Saturdays.

Jackson also announced two additions to the headquarters committee. M. E. Baker of Oxford and Harry Shulman were appointed to assist Chairman Jack C. White and James L. Ryan.

Walters' Divorce Action Reinstated in Court

Mable Walters reinstated divorce proceedings against Edward M. Walters in district court yesterday.

Mrs. Walters had started action against Walters earlier, but the couple had lived together since that time. In yesterday's amendment she charged that Walters had failed to reform as he had promised.

The couple was married May 1, 1944 in Iowa City and separated Aug. 13, 1946. Mrs. Walters charges cruelty. Swisher and Swisher are her attorneys.

Knights of Columbus To Hold Golf Meet

The annual Knights of Columbus golf tournament will be held Sunday at Fairview golf course, according to Francis J. Boyle, tournament chairman.

Twelve prizes, including a grand championship trophy, will be presented at a pot-luck supper following the tourney. A free lunch will be served to all contestants at noon.

New OPA Head Arrives

William C. S. Busby of Davenport, arrived in Iowa City yesterday to assume his duties as new OPA district supervisor for Johnson and Iowa counties.

Busby succeeds L. F. Marquam, who has gone to Albuquerque, New Mex. to serve as OPA price specialist.

Named to the post Oct. 1, Busby has been busy since that time closing several OPA boards for state reorganization, particularly the Marengo board in Iowa county which will now be administered by the Iowa City office.

For the present, the new administrator has no immediate change of program. However, he named as his first step the setting up of a price panel board which will be selected from citizen volunteers.

"I earnestly desire the representation of University of Iowa students on this panel board," he said.

The OPA price panel board is a fact-gathering organization which makes recommendations concerning OPA violations.

Jackson also announced two additions to the headquarters committee. M. E. Baker of Oxford and Harry Shulman were appointed to assist Chairman Jack C. White and James L. Ryan.

Busby has been with the OPA since June, 1945, administering zones in Clinton and Dubuque.

Correction

It was erroneously reported in yesterday's Daily Iowan that both the meeting of the Ball and Chain Club, composed of Episcopal young married couples, and the all-Lutheran party, sponsored by the LSA and Gamma Deltas, would be held last night.

The Ball and Chain club will meet tonight at 7:30 in the Trinity Episcopal parish house.

The all-Lutheran party will be held at 8 o'clock tonight in the River room of Iowa Union. The Daily Iowan regrets the errors.

City to Observe Fire Prevention Week Oct. 6-12, Mayor Teeters Announces

In a statement issued yesterday, Mayor Wilber J. Teeters announced that Fire Prevention week in Iowa City will be observed Oct. 6.

Fire Chief J. J. Clark said the local fire department is planning an education program to include radio talks, fire drills and talks in the local schools, and bills and posters throughout the city.

Fire inspection has been completed in the outlying districts of Iowa City, and the business places will be inspected in the near future Chief Clark said.

Mayor Teeters' statement in full read:

"The week of Oct. 6 is Fire Prevention week, set aside to call attention to the care we should all take in preventing needless loss of life and property throughout the nation by fires.

"This past year we have had two disastrous hotel fires, one in our own state, both of which could have been averted.

"Iowa City again has been exceedingly fortunate, for which we are thankful.

"Two surveys have been made in recent months by experts so that we might have a true picture of our fire hazards and what we should do to guard against a possible disaster here.

"It was recommended that we purchase a booster pump and an aerial ladder and add additional men to the department. The equipment has been purchased as recommended, but due to present conditions delivery cannot be made for 300 days.

"The crowded condition of Iowa City and the hundreds of temporary houses for university students increase our potentially fire hazards.

"Recognizing our great responsibility, may we not ask everyone to be on the alert and to use unusual care during the coming months?"

Figures reveal that fire losses in Iowa City for 1944 were $24,605.00 and that 201 calls were made. Noember was the most disastrous month, with $7,155 in property damage.

In comparison 1945 losses were more than double that of 1944, amounting to $54,224.30. Property damage in February totaled $15,952.00. Two hundred thirty-eight calls were made during the year.

This year's fire loss figure already exceeds last year's, according to records in Chief Clark's office. Losses have amounted to $54,295.50.

"During the first nine months of the year, 178 calls were made.
