

The Daily Iowan

Established 1868 Vol. 79, No. 71—AP News and Wirephoto Iowa City, Iowa, Sunday, Dec. 15, 1946—Five Cents

GOOD MORNING, IOWA CITY!

Today's prediction is light snow with high temperature ranging from 28 to 33 and low from 24 to 28. The streets are slippery; drive carefully, won't you?

TWELVE PAGES TODAY

MAJOR HOUSING CONTROLS JUNKED

UN Gives Full Approval To Arms Cut

Rejects Soviet Plan For Immediate Global Census of Troops

NEW YORK (AP)—The United Nations assembly yesterday approved a universally acclaimed plan for arms reduction which would, in time, scrap all weapons of mass destruction.

Optimism over the arms program was the keynote as Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov sailed for home with American assurance that international control of atomic energy with step-by-step disclosure of all the facts would be given top priority in the plan to discard arms.

The optimism was reflected as far away as Moscow where the government newspaper Izvestia declared the work of the United Nations and foreign ministers council here had been "fruitful" and "substantial."

The arms reduction program was approved unanimously this morning amid a wave of applause in the Flushing Meadows assembly hall.

The 54-member nations then turned down by a vote of 36 to 6, the Russian demand for an immediate global census of troops and all armaments.

As Molotov boarded the liner Queen Elizabeth after attending the foreign ministers conference and most important U. N. sessions he commented that results were "as satisfactory as they are to the other delegations."

British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin, taking the same ship for home, said the ministers had "cleared away a good deal of the debris of misunderstanding and conflict and we can now proceed to lay the foundation of a durable peace."

Other U. N. developments at today's plenary sessions included:

1. Approval of U. N. administrative budgets of $19,390,000 for 1946 and $27,740,000 for 1947 and establishment of a working capital fund of $20,000,000. The United States contribution finally was scaled down from 49.89 percent to 39.89 percent. Russia will pay 6.34 percent and Great Britain 11.48 percent.

2. Setting up of the United Nations' last major body to be formed—the trusteeship council.

3. Rejected by 37 to 0 a South African request for outright annexation of the mandated territory of South West Africa.

4. The assembly selected New York city for the permanent home of the United Nations.

Didn't Get a Dollar of $25,000--Bilbo

*** BILBO WITNESS IN HOSPITAL ***

EDWARD R. TERRY, former secretary to Senator Bilbo, is pictured in a hospital bed, reading newspaper reports of the Washington senate hearings on the Washington committee that it not require him to testify at the Bilbo hearings for fear harm would come to his wife and children. Hospital officials say Terry is in "a highly nervous state." However, he has consented to testify "as soon as my health permits." (AP WIREPHOTO)

Predict Close Race if State Rent Control Becomes Issue

By DWIGHT McCORMACK

DES MOINES (AP)—If a system of state rent control is proposed in the 1947 Iowa legislature it would develop a close contest, results of an Associated Press poll indicated yesterday.

Thirty-eight members of the legislature, replying to a questionnaire, said they favored state rent control in the event the present federal restrictions are removed. Thirty-two said they would oppose the state entering that field.

Eighteen of those who had cooperated in the survey did not disclose their attitude on the matter. Thus far the other 70 legislators have not answered the questionnaire.

President Truman has been pictured as in favor of continuing rent control, but with modifications. What the 80th Congress which convenes in January will do about such control remains to be seen.

United States Senator Bourke B. Hickenlooper said recently he favored the states taking over rent control if congress eliminates it. While Gov. Robert D. Blue did not commit himself on the matter, he indicated he hoped the question would not come up to the states.

However, when the old OPA went out last summer, and before another system of controls was instituted, Blue was on the verge of calling a special session of the legislature to set up a state plan of rent control.

Hundreds of eviction notices were being filed then, and Blue expressed a desire to have the legislature set up controls to protect renters, if congress did not resume rent ceilings. Before the deadline he set for his decision, the new OPA measure was passed.

On another question in the poll, 58 legislators said they would support revision of the state housing laws to encourage construction of residences. Six were opposed to any changes, and 24 did not express their attitudes.

Thirty-one legislators said they would support legislation to approve use of pre-fabricated houses and 19 replied that they wouldn't. However, only 50 committed themselves on this.

Although there has been a great deal of discussion on the need for housing, with little accomplished toward solving the matter, only four legislators said they considered housing as among the most important legislation needed in the session opening in January.

The state housing committee will have a number of changes it desires the legislature to make in the housing laws to encourage more dwelling units. However, the committee's program has not yet been drafted.

Remove Last Victim From Tenement Debris

NEW YORK (AP)—Rescue workers whose own lives were in jeopardy while they recovered 37 bodies from the wreckage of a Manhattan tenement that collapsed early Thursday were told late yesterday that their job was finished.

W.T. Whelan, deputy chief police inspector, announced no other occupants of the tenement were known to be missing.

Wall Claims He Collected $6,000 of Pot

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senators trying doggedly to discover what became of a $25,000 campaign contribution by a war contractor in checks drawn to Senator Bilbo (D., Miss.) heard from Bilbo himself yesterday that "I never did get a damn dollar of it."

They heard from former Rep. Ross Collins, who knocked down a witness for saying Collins got about half of it, that he was paid nothing.

They heard from Roland Wall, another politician said by witnesses to have shared in the pot, that he was promised $8,000 and collected $6,000.

And they never did establish where all the money went when the senate war investigating subcommittee recessed until tomorrow.

Then they hope to learn more from a key witness who had been missing until he turned up in a hospital at Quitman, Miss., Friday night. He is Edward Terry, Bilbo's former secretary, who wrote the committee he had been threatened with death if he should testify.

Collins and Wall were low men in a four-way senate primary in 1942. The top men, James O. Eastland, who subsequently won, and Wall Doxey, entered a runoff. Witnesses testified contributions were made toward the campaign "deficits" of Collins and Wall in the interest of gaining their support for Doxey, who was backed by Bilbo.

"That statement was wholly untrue," Collins insisted.

Denials also came from witnesses Collins had called to his hotel room when he learned Bilbo was coming for a conference with him, and from Lura Harrison, a stenographer Collins had hidden behind a bedroom door.

Doxey, who has been senate sergeant-at-arms for several years, entertained for an hour as a witness telling about his surprise at learning—after he lost the election—of the $25,000 contribution. He said he had been told that most of it was paid to two of his opponents defeated in the first primary to get their support in the run-off.

"I didn't have the heart to ask Senator Bilbo what he did with the rest of it," Doxey said, adding that unpaid bills from that losing campaign had bothered him for several years.

*** WHO GOT THE $25,000? ***

'DIDN'T GET A DAMN DOLLAR'—Says Sen. Theodore G. Bilbo (D-Miss.) at the senate committee inquiry into his dealings with war contractors. Bilbo referred to a $25,000 contribution by a contractor to a 1942 Mississippi political campaign. (AP WIREPHOTO)

'DIDN'T KNOW WHERE IT WENT'—Wall Doxey, senate sergeant-at-arms and former senator from Mississippi, tells the senate committee of his surprise at hearing of the $25,000 contribution made to his unsuccessful 1942 campaign. He said "he didn't have the heart to ask" Senator Bilbo where the money went. (AP WIREPHOTO)

Price Lids on New Homes Removed; Rents Liberalized

Truman Abandons Wilson Wyatt's Program, Ends Vets Priorities on Building Materials

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Truman last night eliminated the major controls of Wilson Wyatt's housing program and ordered new steps to aid rental construction.

The $10,000 sales price ceiling on new homes was abandoned and the $80 a month rental ceiling liberalized. The priority system on building materials was junked. The way was cleared for anyone, veteran or not, to build a house for his own occupancy with government permission.

The action followed in large part the recommendations of real estate and construction industry leaders who contended that more home would be built without government restrictions than with them.

Every control Mr. Truman removed represented a reversal of the program advocated by Wyatt, who quit last week as housing expediter when the White House would not give him the authority and tighter rules he wanted.

The president fixed no specific housing goal for 1947. Wyatt's objective was 2,500,000 units started in 1946 and 1947, of which 1,200,000 were to be under way this year. Prospects are that something over 1,000,000 will be under way by the year's end.

Luxury-type housing will continue to be prohibited through a system by which each prospective builder must obtain a government permit.

In the case of rental housing projects, $80 will be the average rent for each dwelling unit, instead of the ceiling.

The limitation on store, factory, and other non-residential building will be continued. Mr. Truman's statement said, but "some increase" will be permitted because of the improved supply of building materials.

Mr. Truman declared there will be "no major modification in the objective of rapidly and adequately housing our veterans."

"The veterans' need remains extremely urgent and we recognize this by continuing to give veterans preference for every dwelling unit constructed for sale or rent," the White House statement went on.

"More family units must be made available for rent to veterans. They should not be compelled to buy in order to get shelter."

The president disclosed that the government plans financing and other aids to encourage builders to produce dwellings for rent, and said "the great bulk of this task will fall upon private enterprise."

"The techniques that we will use are those that will work today," Mr. Truman went on. "I am interested in results and I am convinced that this 1947 program will produce results."

If Sherrill carried out the agreement he will complete payments in 1961 when Robert, the youngest Gardner child, reaches his eighteenth birthday.

Pays $4,615 to Support Victim's Ten Children, Escapes Prison Term

HATTIESBURG, MISS. (AP)—

Walter H. Sherrill, 29, chose yesterday to pay $4,615 toward the support of a dead man's 10 children rather than accept a two-to-twenty year prison sentence for manslaughter.

Sherrill was convicted by an all-veterans jury in the death of John D. Gardner, killed last September in a traffic accident. County Judge William Haralson gave the defendant the alternative of contributing five dollars monthly to the support of the Gardner children until they reach the age of 18.

Sherrill carried out the agreement he will complete payments in 1961 when Robert, the youngest Gardner child, reaches his eighteenth birthday.

Bedspringitis Hits Impatient Youth, Not Ulcers

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Ulcers was general hospital physicians' preliminary diagnosis of Richard Case's ailment yesterday until an X-ray picture showed two bedsprings clips and bits of thermometer in his stomach.

Case, 18, of Bronson, Mich., then admitted, California youth authority officers said, that he wanted to get out of the authority's camp at nearby Lancaster where he had been detained.

Physicians reported an operation would not be necessary to remove the 1 1/2-inch clips, and the youth was given a thick mattress at the hospital—with bedsprings.

Student Housing Strike Closes Texas College

CANYON, TEX. (AP)—A strike by students protesting housing conditions yesterday brought an order from the board of regents closing West Texas State college for an indefinite time.

The panhandle college has an enrollment of about 1,300. Students stayed away from classes Friday after business manager Virgil Henson ignored an ultimatum to resign. A mass meeting held Thursday night protested that housing facilities were inadequate and blamed Henson.

President A.J. Hill yesterday said the housing situation "was just like everywhere else." He said it was bad, but compared with other colleges and towns, it was "average."

Politicians Roast on 'Grid' Ditties

WASHINGTON (AP)—Republicans allegedly "marching forward to the horse and buggy days" and "a bankrupt Democratic circus folding up after a spectacular run of 14 years" were roasted alike last night at the winter dinner of the Gridiron club.

President Truman, the Duke of Windsor and some 500 other guests were invited as the club members, Washington newspaper correspondents, poked fun in song and skit at the political scene.

The GOP trip "forward to the horse and buggy days" started at the entrance of a livery stable with former President Hoover and a groom looking over what they had found after a long search. It was a broken-down buggy with one wheel off. But it contained such articles as a protective tariff, a full dinner pail, the gold standard, grass seed for streets, a pot lacking a chicken, and a withered sunflower, reminiscent of Alf Landon.

The club member portraying Mr. Hoover recalled the missing wheel had been lost "just as we were going around the corner to prosperity." As search was begun for a presidential "horse" with a winning streak, this refrain rang out:

Put on your old gray bonnet With the Hoover button on it And we'll hitch old Dobbin to the shay.

When the New Deal's over We'll be back in clover— On Inauguration Day.

A southern Democratic sheriff served attachment papers on the bankrupt Democratic circus. It was conceded that the show was now relegated to the Dixie circuit, at least until things got better.

The chief clown, characterized as George Allen, presidential buddy and head of RFC, was found sobbing in Pagliacci strains:

The show is ended and my sorrows are blended With rosy memories of laughs I used to get.

Though GOP our customer has stolen You still have Harry—but I have RFC.

I hide with laughter his tears and his sorrows, Lend and be merry is still my rule—ah

Laugh and remember The fifth day of November. Laugh for the sorrow That is eating our hearts. Henry A. Wallace was portrayed in "a retreat to Moscow." With him were his marshals, Senator Claude Pepper of Florida, the recently defeated Rep. Hugh Delacy of Washington, and Elliott Roosevelt, son of the late president.

Wallace also was depicted in the role of a circus aerialist. His prototype sang to the tune of "Man on the Flying Trapeze":

Once I was happy, but now I'm forlorn. Out of the cabinet, back to the corn.

Haunted by piggies plowed under when born My body is blistered by Byrnes, Jim Byrnes.

Now this charmer who plotted my downfall and pain Said the Kremlin we never should please.

But I'll still save the world and the universe, too. As I swing on my Russian trapeze—oh.

In a setting of frozen wastelands, Napoleon Bonaparte Wallace was seen leading his marshals in the retreat to Moscow.

"My marshals," said Wallace, "We are perambulating for the greelsprail jarbunks of the hem-infrax in the United States. Under our leadership we have bronwayed and fertiled the Duvan Sprat in every walk of life. Our influ-

ESCAPED SEAL STOPS FOR NAP

CURIOUS TENANTS WATCH a sleeping seal, curled up at the back door of a San Diego hotel, after he, she or it had stopped there yesterday en route from the city zoo to the waterfront. The ambitious amphibian escaped from the zoo the night before in an unknown manner. (AP WIREPHOTO)

The Daily Iowan

(The University Reporter established 1882, The Daily Iowan since 1911)

FRED M. POWNALL, Publisher
Loren L. Hickerson, Assistant to the Publisher

TELEPHONES
 Business Office ..... 4191
 Editorial Office ..... 4192
 Society Office ..... 4193

Subscription rates—By mail, $5 per year; by carrier, 15 cents weekly, $5 per year.

EDITORIAL BOARD
 Gene Goodwin, William A. Miller, Farrell Davidson, Lawrence E. Dennis, Keith Spalding.

BUSINESS STAFF
 Wally Stringham, Business Manager
 Phyllis Sharer, Asst. Adv. Manager
 Tom Byrnes, Layout Manager
 Dick Decker, Classified Manager
 Herb Olson, Circulation Manager

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to use for republication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper and also the local news herein.

Published daily except Monday. Entered as second class mail matter at the postoffice at Iowa City, Iowa, under the act of congress of March 2, 1879.

EDITORIAL STAFF
 Gene Goodwin, Editor
 Kirk H. Porter, Asst. Editor
 Lou Pano, Night Editor
 Dorcas Ann Knapp, News Editor
 Beverly Benson, Sports Editor
 Keith Spalding, City Editor
 Mary Hulsekamp, Campus Editor
 Dick Davis, Society Editor
 Don Fadilla, Photo Editor
 Don Fadilla, Wirephoto Operator

Statuary on the Courthouse Lawn

It seems that there are a lot of people in Iowa City who don't care much for the idea of a pink granite war memorial on the courthouse lawn.

At least, that's what one would gather from the criticism which has been leveled during the past month at the proposal to construct such a memorial.

The sponsors of the project, the Iowa City War Dads, are somewhat upset about the criticism. They contend that they gave all interested county organizations a chance to air their views on the memorial at a meeting last summer and that only a handful of representatives attended.

Consequently, the final plans for the monument were announced in the newspapers recently and that was the first time that most people had heard of it. The criticism started then.

This reaction against the proposal is really quite natural when you stop to analyze it. It reflects a trend in thought which is nationwide. Perhaps it's because this most recent world war was so much more horrible than any other, but people all over the country are revolting against remembering the war dead with tombstone-like memorials.

The Russell Sage foundation and the American Public Works association have been studying this problem since the war's end. They have found that throughout the nation more and more cities are scrapping plans for memorial statuary and are building community centers as "living" tribute to those who died.

Coatesville, Pa., a city of 15,000 population, affords a good example of the current trend. There a community center will be built with $52,000 raised in a campaign directed by city officials and private citizens. The center will include an auditorium-gymnasium, kitchen and lunchroom, clubrooms, snack bar, bowling alley, a nursery and other facilities for recreational, social and cultural group activities. City funds will finance a swimming pool adjacent to the building.

The Sage foundation study describes different types of community centers in cities of all sizes, many of them built or planned as war memorials. In numerous instances, wartime USO facilities have been taken over by localities as community centers.

Now we're not suggesting that Iowa City enlarge the facilities of its community building. We cite the study merely as an indication of what other cities are doing.

Several commendable suggestions have been made concerning the best way that Johnson county could honor those who fought and died in World War II or in all wars. It is unfortunate that the new suggestions should come after the War Dads have put in so much time and effort planning the granite memorial.

Nevertheless, we think the War Dads would be wise to consider the suggestions for a "living" memorial in the same spirit in which they are offered. We strongly urge that another meeting be called of all interested citizens and organizations to solve this problem once and for all.

Honoring those who fought and died in war is not the exclusive domain of any one individual or organization. Any memorial, regardless of its type, must come from the people, and the people must feel that it is the best that can be done.

By STEVE PARK
 Daily Iowan Columnist

Only very occasionally are timely, carefully documented reports of imperialism in action and the flagrant abuse of treaty stipulations, investigated and verified by the representative of a third government, disseminated soon enough to create informed public support of that government's policy.

Significant parts of just such a report, submitted to President Truman and the senate foreign relations committee by Special Ambassador Edwin W. Pauley, have been made public this weekend. They point to a direct attempt by the government of the Soviet Union to hamper and undermine the economic (and indirectly the political) recovery of the Republic of China from the effects of eight years of struggle against Japan and nearly 50 years of internecine strife.

Circumspectly, they point to a revival of Russian imperialism along the eastern littoral of Asia and open to the Soviet Union a new avenue for final liquidation of all Chinese central government claim to the eastern provinces.

Thus, it appears that the Soviet government is determined upon a course in the Far East which is almost exactly parallel, though perhaps less crude in execution, to that followed by the old Imperial government prior to the debacle of 1904-05, when Japan with the tacit consent of the United States and Great Britain's blessing via the Anglo-Japanese alliance of 1902, destroyed Nicholas II's ambitions in Asia.

The report itself carefully details the Soviet removal of $878-million in goods and equipment, and an evidently well-planned and executed destruction of hospitals, public buildings, libraries, schools, universities and housing units—this, in spite of the fact that the Soviet Union had previously recognized Manchuria as Chinese and had specifically guaranteed the "territorial and administrative integrity" of the area by the Sino-Soviet agreements of August, 1945.

The report further shows that Soviet officials encouraged looting and burning by Chinese mobs after desired removals of industrial installations had been made, treated Chinese subjects in Manchuria as enemies and released a flood of unsecured occupation currency (thus creating a rampant inflation)—this again in direct contra-vention of the Sino-Soviet Agreements.

Under normal conditions, one could not be other than greatly surprised at Russia's evidently intentional violation of the terms of a series of agreements so preponderantly in her favor.

By STEVE PARK
 Daily Iowan Columnist

Not only were the Big Three able to promise Russia special rights in another nation's dominions without that nation's consent, but they were able to guarantee fulfillment of the contract—still without that nation's consent.

A portion of the text of the Big Three agreement, signed by Churchill, Roosevelt and Stalin declares: "The heads of the three great powers have agreed that these claims of the Soviet Union shall be unquestionably fulfilled after Japan has been defeated."

China—weak, corrupt, disunited—had no choice but to comply, even though it was perfectly clear that the agreements would give Russia dominant control, for all practical purposes, of the life and activities of Manchuria.

The whole economic life of the Three Eastern provinces depends upon the railroads; Russia now has controlling interest in these railroads. Dairen has become the chief port of Manchuria; it has now been internationalized and Russian army and naval units at nearby Port Arthur can control its commerce completely.

Furthermore, a whole group of industries, upon which the railways depend and which depend upon the railways for their existence, automatically come under the purview of the treaty and are subject by the very fact of their existence, and relation to the transportation system to a varying degree of Soviet control.

Yet the Soviet government has shown itself dissatisfied even with the huge voice given it in the future of Manchuria, and apparently seeks to hamper by all means possible the rehabilitation and unification of China. By denying China the use of Manchurian resources in her reconstruction, the Soviet Union has greatly retarded China's recovery and obviously seeks to prevent by all possible means the emergence of a strong China to challenge Russia in the east.

It is quite possible that this is step toward revivifying the defunct state of Manchukuo with the difference that this time it will be a Soviet dependency, which eventually will be incorporated into the Soviet federation.

One need only recall that the drive toward the warm seas has been an integral part of Russian policy ever since the era of Peter the Great and that it was this same urge which led Russian imperialists to seek the annexation of Manchuria 50 years ago.

That this drive is as much a part of Soviet policy as it was

By STEVE PARK
 Daily Iowan Columnist

Our primary duty as a newspaper is to keep you informed, and we think information about China is important because it is our belief that a great part of the world's future is being shaped in China today.

If we could we would print pictures of UNRRA food being sold on the open market in Shanghai and pictures of peasants in Hopeh province—starving peasants for whom the food was intended. But we don't have pictures of these things.

If we could we would print pictures of Chinese government-supported concentration camps in which Chinese liberals are being "detained" because the Kuomintang feels safer with them behind barred wire. Again, we have no such pictures at our disposal.

We would have liked to print a picture of what must have been an interesting funeral—the funeral of Professor Wen I-to. He was an American-educated Chinese who believed the people of China could not be faithfully served by either the reactionary Kuomintang government or the revolutionary Communist party, and he edited a weekly newspaper in which he said so. But when he was murdered the news of his death did not quite make the headlines in the Chinese press and we didn't hear about it until days after Professor Wen was buried.

We would like to tell you something about the Chen brothers, Li-fu and Kuo-fu, the durable party bosses and Chiang Kai-shek's behind-the-scenes right wing advisers. But we have yet to see a news dispatch mention them and have run across their names only in vague interpretative articles.

We look forward to the day when the state department of the United States will stop evasively clearing its throat at the mention of American military aid to the Chinese government in its fight against the people it is supposed to govern. We would like the state department to admit that American troops have been killed in China by communists who resent being bombed by American-built planes and shelled by American-built guns in the hands of Chiang's forces.

We wish the state department would tell us what is going on in China so that we could be able to tell you. But the state department does not, so we cannot.

By STEVE PARK
 Daily Iowan Columnist

Mock Trial to Decide If Playing Slot Machine Pays off Tavern Debt

He borrowed $50 from the tavern owner—then lost it all in a slot machine before he left the tavern. Did losing the money in the tavern slot machine constitute payment of the debt?

That's the problem to be argued in the senate chamber of Old Capitol by four junior "laws" tomorrow night in the third junior law club argument. Judge Shannon B. Charlton of Manchester, in the 10th judicial district, will preside.

The final argument, to be heard by Judge James P. Gaffney of Marengo Tuesday night, concerns the sale of a property by "Sally

By STEVE PARK
 Daily Iowan Columnist

Brown" through a power of attorney from her husband, Amos, who was in the army overseas.

Martin J. Purcell of Camanche and Walter W. Reynolds of Madrid represent the tavern owner in tomorrow night's case. Appearing for the appellee are Wallace W. Butler of Muscatine and Richard T. Keough of Waterloo.

Tuesday's case will pit Robert J. Thornton of Waterloo and John R. Thornell of Sidney against Larned A. Waterman of Bettendorf and Peter A. Seip of Iowa City.

Only unmarried men of the Amish religion may go without a beard.

OF CABBAGES AND KINGS—

What a Racket Santa Has!

Yuletide Postoffice No. 10 Quonset Village Annex The North Pole December 14, 1946

Mr. Gene Goodwin, Editor The Daily Iowan Iowa City, Iowa Dear Pinky:

I had to skip town in a hurry this week. Got a chance to pick up some Christmas money sorting mail for S. Claus, so there won't be any "Cabbages" for Sunday's paper. What a racket this old cogder must have! Politicians, big-time and petty, are flooding our postal stations up here with fruit cakes, watch fobs, platinum reindeer hoofs, tickets to the 1948 Army-Notre Dame game, back issues of "Peek," lifetime subscriptions to the Congressional Record, bottles of atomic hair restorer and what have you—all of them hoping that, in return, Mr. C. will pay them a visit come Dec. 25.

Most of the politico's gifts are accompanied by brief notes giving Santa just a wee hint as to what they'd like for Christmas. I've had a few photostats of those letters made and have enclosed some samples. Best regards. Stick close to the left aisle.

LARRY

P.S. If Postmaster-General Bob Hannegan is still looking for a change of scenery, tell him we could probably work him in up here in this mail sorting setup. Tell him to leave his Democratic campaigned buttons behind, though. The only two English words these Eskimos know are: "Had Enough." One of them was in New York helping Governor Dewey get re-elected and he brought the latest GOP gospel according to Tom back with him. Now the entire polar region, bears and all, are on the Republican bandwagon. L.E.D.

The Hon. Santa Claus Christmastown North Pole Dear Mr. Claus:

You will shortly receive an autographed copy of the latest issue of the New Republic, a progressive American journal of which I am proud to be the editor.

Should you find the magazine interesting, perhaps we could arrange to send you either a two or a six years' subscription (one would be good until 1948 and the other until 1952).

We invite you to join our fight. HENRY A. WALLACE

Santa Claus The North Pole Dear Santa:

Perhaps you would do us the honor of visiting our Des Moines office on your way through the Hawkeye State Christmas day. There are one or two little matters concerning which we feel that your advice might prove invaluable: 1) What should we do about the housing problem and rent control in Iowa? 2) How can we work out some satisfactory solution to the 1948 U.S. senatorial contest? Two of our leaders, Governor Robert Blue and the incumbent Senator

Mr. Santa Claus, President United Toymakers Local No. 283 The North Pole Dear Mr. Claus:

For myself, sir, not one thing do I ask. But there are nine estimable gentlemen in Washington toward whom I urge you to be most generous. It is essential that they spend the ensuing weeks in continued good humor. The address: Chief Justice Vinson and Associates, Supreme Court, Washington, D.C.

They deserve your every attention, sir. For this favor I thank you ten thousand times, three and a half million times!

JOHN L. LEWIS

S. Claus, Esq. The North Pole Dear Santa:

Don't forget our SUI charter! American Youth for Democracy

THE WORLD WATCH—

Russian Imperialism in Action

By STEVE PARK
 Daily Iowan Columnist

Not only were the Big Three able to promise Russia special rights in another nation's dominions without that nation's consent, but they were able to guarantee fulfillment of the contract—still without that nation's consent.

A portion of the text of the Big Three agreement, signed by Churchill, Roosevelt and Stalin declares: "The heads of the three great powers have agreed that these claims of the Soviet Union shall be unquestionably fulfilled after Japan has been defeated."

China—weak, corrupt, disunited—had no choice but to comply, even though it was perfectly clear that the agreements would give Russia dominant control, for all practical purposes, of the life and activities of Manchuria.

The whole economic life of the Three Eastern provinces depends upon the railroads; Russia now has controlling interest in these railroads. Dairen has become the chief port of Manchuria; it has now been internationalized and Russian army and naval units at nearby Port Arthur can control its commerce completely.

Furthermore, a whole group of industries, upon which the railways depend and which depend upon the railways for their existence, automatically come under the purview of the treaty and are subject by the very fact of their existence, and relation to the transportation system to a varying degree of Soviet control.

Yet the Soviet government has shown itself dissatisfied even with the huge voice given it in the future of Manchuria, and apparently seeks to hamper by all means possible the rehabilitation and unification of China. By denying China the use of Manchurian resources in her reconstruction, the Soviet Union has greatly retarded China's recovery and obviously seeks to prevent by all possible means the emergence of a strong China to challenge Russia in the east.

It is quite possible that this is step toward revivifying the defunct state of Manchukuo with the difference that this time it will be a Soviet dependency, which eventually will be incorporated into the Soviet federation.

One need only recall that the drive toward the warm seas has been an integral part of Russian policy ever since the era of Peter the Great and that it was this same urge which led Russian imperialists to seek the annexation of Manchuria 50 years ago.

That this drive is as much a part of Soviet policy as it was

By STEVE PARK
 Daily Iowan Columnist

Not only were the Big Three able to promise Russia special rights in another nation's dominions without that nation's consent, but they were able to guarantee fulfillment of the contract—still without that nation's consent.

A portion of the text of the Big Three agreement, signed by Churchill, Roosevelt and Stalin declares: "The heads of the three great powers have agreed that these claims of the Soviet Union shall be unquestionably fulfilled after Japan has been defeated."

China—weak, corrupt, disunited—had no choice but to comply, even though it was perfectly clear that the agreements would give Russia dominant control, for all practical purposes, of the life and activities of Manchuria.

The whole economic life of the Three Eastern provinces depends upon the railroads; Russia now has controlling interest in these railroads. Dairen has become the chief port of Manchuria; it has now been internationalized and Russian army and naval units at nearby Port Arthur can control its commerce completely.

Furthermore, a whole group of industries, upon which the railways depend and which depend upon the railways for their existence, automatically come under the purview of the treaty and are subject by the very fact of their existence, and relation to the transportation system to a varying degree of Soviet control.

Yet the Soviet government has shown itself dissatisfied even with the huge voice given it in the future of Manchuria, and apparently seeks to hamper by all means possible the rehabilitation and unification of China. By denying China the use of Manchurian resources in her reconstruction, the Soviet Union has greatly retarded China's recovery and obviously seeks to prevent by all possible means the emergence of a strong China to challenge Russia in the east.

It is quite possible that this is step toward revivifying the defunct state of Manchukuo with the difference that this time it will be a Soviet dependency, which eventually will be incorporated into the Soviet federation.

One need only recall that the drive toward the warm seas has been an integral part of Russian policy ever since the era of Peter the Great and that it was this same urge which led Russian imperialists to seek the annexation of Manchuria 50 years ago.

That this drive is as much a part of Soviet policy as it was

By STEVE PARK
 Daily Iowan Columnist

Not only were the Big Three able to promise Russia special rights in another nation's dominions without that nation's consent, but they were able to guarantee fulfillment of the contract—still without that nation's consent.

A portion of the text of the Big Three agreement, signed by Churchill, Roosevelt and Stalin declares: "The heads of the three great powers have agreed that these claims of the Soviet Union shall be unquestionably fulfilled after Japan has been defeated."

China—weak, corrupt, disunited—had no choice but to comply, even though it was perfectly clear that the agreements would give Russia dominant control, for all practical purposes, of the life and activities of Manchuria.

The whole economic life of the Three Eastern provinces depends upon the railroads; Russia now has controlling interest in these railroads. Dairen has become the chief port of Manchuria; it has now been internationalized and Russian army and naval units at nearby Port Arthur can control its commerce completely.

Furthermore, a whole group of industries, upon which the railways depend and which depend upon the railways for their existence, automatically come under the purview of the treaty and are subject by the very fact of their existence, and relation to the transportation system to a varying degree of Soviet control.

Yet the Soviet government has shown itself dissatisfied even with the huge voice given it in the future of Manchuria, and apparently seeks to hamper by all means possible the rehabilitation and unification of China. By denying China the use of Manchurian resources in her reconstruction, the Soviet Union has greatly retarded China's recovery and obviously seeks to prevent by all possible means the emergence of a strong China to challenge Russia in the east.

It is quite possible that this is step toward revivifying the defunct state of Manchukuo with the difference that this time it will be a Soviet dependency, which eventually will be incorporated into the Soviet federation.

One need only recall that the drive toward the warm seas has been an integral part of Russian policy ever since the era of Peter the Great and that it was this same urge which led Russian imperialists to seek the annexation of Manchuria 50 years ago.

That this drive is as much a part of Soviet policy as it was

By STEVE PARK
 Daily Iowan Columnist

Not only were the Big Three able to promise Russia special rights in another nation's dominions without that nation's consent, but they were able to guarantee fulfillment of the contract—still without that nation's consent.

A portion of the text of the Big Three agreement, signed by Churchill, Roosevelt and Stalin declares: "The heads of the three great powers have agreed that these claims of the Soviet Union shall be unquestionably fulfilled after Japan has been defeated."

China—weak, corrupt, disunited—had no choice but to comply, even though it was perfectly clear that the agreements would give Russia dominant control, for all practical purposes, of the life and activities of Manchuria.

The whole economic life of the Three Eastern provinces depends upon the railroads; Russia now has controlling interest in these railroads. Dairen has become the chief port of Manchuria; it has now been internationalized and Russian army and naval units at nearby Port Arthur can control its commerce completely.

Furthermore, a whole group of industries, upon which the railways depend and which depend upon the railways for their existence, automatically come under the purview of the treaty and are subject by the very fact of their existence, and relation to the transportation system to a varying degree of Soviet control.

Yet the Soviet government has shown itself dissatisfied even with the huge voice given it in the future of Manchuria, and apparently seeks to hamper by all means possible the rehabilitation and unification of China. By denying China the use of Manchurian resources in her reconstruction, the Soviet Union has greatly retarded China's recovery and obviously seeks to prevent by all possible means the emergence of a strong China to challenge Russia in the east.

It is quite possible that this is step toward revivifying the defunct state of Manchukuo with the difference that this time it will be a Soviet dependency, which eventually will be incorporated into the Soviet federation.

One need only recall that the drive toward the warm seas has been an integral part of Russian policy ever since the era of Peter the Great and that it was this same urge which led Russian imperialists to seek the annexation of Manchuria 50 years ago.

That this drive is as much a part of Soviet policy as it was

By STEVE PARK
 Daily Iowan Columnist

Not only were the Big Three able to promise Russia special rights in another nation's dominions without that nation's consent, but they were able to guarantee fulfillment of the contract—still without that nation's consent.

A portion of the text of the Big Three agreement, signed by Churchill, Roosevelt and Stalin declares: "The heads of the three great powers have agreed that these claims of the Soviet Union shall be unquestionably fulfilled after Japan has been defeated."

China—weak, corrupt, disunited—had no choice but to comply, even though it was perfectly clear that the agreements would give Russia dominant control, for all practical purposes, of the life and activities of Manchuria.

The whole economic life of the Three Eastern provinces depends upon the railroads; Russia now has controlling interest in these railroads. Dairen has become the chief port of Manchuria; it has now been internationalized and Russian army and naval units at nearby Port Arthur can control its commerce completely.

Furthermore, a whole group of industries, upon which the railways depend and which depend upon the railways for their existence, automatically come under the purview of the treaty and are subject by the very fact of their existence, and relation to the transportation system to a varying degree of Soviet control.

Yet the Soviet government has shown itself dissatisfied even with the huge voice given it in the future of Manchuria, and apparently seeks to hamper by all means possible the rehabilitation and unification of China. By denying China the use of Manchurian resources in her reconstruction, the Soviet Union has greatly retarded China's recovery and obviously seeks to prevent by all possible means the emergence of a strong China to challenge Russia in the east.

It is quite possible that this is step toward revivifying the defunct state of Manchukuo with the difference that this time it will be a Soviet dependency, which eventually will be incorporated into the Soviet federation.

One need only recall that the drive toward the warm seas has been an integral part of Russian policy ever since the era of Peter the Great and that it was this same urge which led Russian imperialists to seek the annexation of Manchuria 50 years ago.

That this drive is as much a part of Soviet policy as it was

By STEVE PARK
 Daily Iowan Columnist

Not only were the Big Three able to promise Russia special rights in another nation's dominions without that nation's consent, but they were able to guarantee fulfillment of the contract—still without that nation's consent.

A portion of the text of the Big Three agreement, signed by Churchill, Roosevelt and Stalin declares: "The heads of the three great powers have agreed that these claims of the Soviet Union shall be unquestionably fulfilled after Japan has been defeated."

China—weak, corrupt, disunited—had no choice but to comply, even though it was perfectly clear that the agreements would give Russia dominant control, for all practical purposes, of the life and activities of Manchuria.

The whole economic life of the Three Eastern provinces depends upon the railroads; Russia now has controlling interest in these railroads. Dairen has become the chief port of Manchuria; it has now been internationalized and Russian army and naval units at nearby Port Arthur can control its commerce completely.

Furthermore, a whole group of industries, upon which the railways depend and which depend upon the railways for their existence, automatically come under the purview of the treaty and are subject by the very fact of their existence, and relation to the transportation system to a varying degree of Soviet control.

Yet the Soviet government has shown itself dissatisfied even with the huge voice given it in the future of Manchuria, and apparently seeks to hamper by all means possible the rehabilitation and unification of China. By denying China the use of Manchurian resources in her reconstruction, the Soviet Union has greatly retarded China's recovery and obviously seeks to prevent by all possible means the emergence of a strong China to challenge Russia in the east.

It is quite possible that this is step toward revivifying the defunct state of Manchukuo with the difference that this time it will be a Soviet dependency, which eventually will be incorporated into the Soviet federation.

One need only recall that the drive toward the warm seas has been an integral part of Russian policy ever since the era of Peter the Great and that it was this same urge which led Russian imperialists to seek the annexation of Manchuria 50 years ago.

That this drive is as much a part of Soviet policy as it was

By STEVE PARK
 Daily Iowan Columnist

Not only were the Big Three able to promise Russia special rights in another nation's dominions without that nation's consent, but they were able to guarantee fulfillment of the contract—still without that nation's consent.

A portion of the text of the Big Three agreement, signed by Churchill, Roosevelt and Stalin declares: "The heads of the three great powers have agreed that these claims of the Soviet Union shall be unquestionably fulfilled after Japan has been defeated."

China—weak, corrupt, disunited—had no choice but to comply, even though it was perfectly clear that the agreements would give Russia dominant control, for all practical purposes, of the life and activities of Manchuria.

The whole economic life of the Three Eastern provinces depends upon the railroads; Russia now has controlling interest in these railroads. Dairen has become the chief port of Manchuria; it has now been internationalized and Russian army and naval units at nearby Port Arthur can control its commerce completely.

Furthermore, a whole group of industries, upon which the railways depend and which depend upon the railways for their existence, automatically come under the purview of the treaty and are subject by the very fact of their existence, and relation to the transportation system to a varying degree of Soviet control.

Yet the Soviet government has shown itself dissatisfied even with the huge voice given it in the future of Manchuria, and apparently seeks to hamper by all means possible the rehabilitation and unification of China. By denying China the use of Manchurian resources in her reconstruction, the Soviet Union has greatly retarded China's recovery and obviously seeks to prevent by all possible means the emergence of a strong China to challenge Russia in the east.

It is quite possible that this is step toward revivifying the defunct state of Manchukuo with the difference that this time it will be a Soviet dependency, which eventually will be incorporated into the Soviet federation.

One need only recall that the drive toward the warm seas has been an integral part of Russian policy ever since the era of Peter the Great and that it was this same urge which led Russian imperialists to seek the annexation of Manchuria 50 years ago.

That this drive is as much a part of Soviet policy as it was

By STEVE PARK
 Daily Iowan Columnist

Not only were the Big Three able to promise Russia special rights in another nation's dominions without that nation's consent, but they were able to guarantee fulfillment of the contract—still without that nation's consent.

A portion of the text of the Big Three agreement, signed by Churchill, Roosevelt and Stalin declares: "The heads of the three great powers have agreed that these claims of the Soviet Union shall be unquestionably fulfilled after Japan has been defeated."

China—weak, corrupt, disunited—had no choice but to comply, even though it was perfectly clear that the agreements would give Russia dominant control, for all practical purposes, of the life and activities of Manchuria.

The whole economic life of the Three Eastern provinces depends upon the railroads; Russia now has controlling interest in these railroads. Dairen has become the chief port of Manchuria; it has now been internationalized and Russian army and naval units at nearby Port Arthur can control its commerce completely.

Furthermore, a whole group of industries, upon which the railways depend and which depend upon the railways for their existence, automatically come under the purview of the treaty and are subject by the very fact of their existence, and relation to the transportation system to a varying degree of Soviet control.

Yet the Soviet government has shown itself dissatisfied even with the huge voice given it in the future of Manchuria, and apparently seeks to hamper by all means possible the rehabilitation and unification of China. By denying China the use of Manchurian resources in her reconstruction, the Soviet Union has greatly retarded China's recovery and obviously seeks to prevent by all possible means the emergence of a strong China to challenge Russia in the east.

It is quite possible that this is step toward revivifying the defunct state of Manchukuo with the difference that this time it will be a Soviet dependency, which eventually will be incorporated into the Soviet federation.

One need only recall that the drive toward the warm seas has been an integral part of Russian policy ever since the era of Peter the Great and that it was this same urge which led Russian imperialists to seek the annexation of Manchuria 50 years ago.

That this drive is as much a part of Soviet policy as it was

By STEVE PARK
 Daily Iowan Columnist

Not only were the Big Three able to promise Russia special rights in another nation's dominions without that nation's consent, but they were able to guarantee fulfillment of the contract—still without that nation's consent.

A portion of the text of the Big Three agreement, signed by Churchill, Roosevelt and Stalin declares: "The heads of the three great powers have agreed that these claims of the Soviet Union shall be unquestionably fulfilled after Japan has been defeated."

China—weak, corrupt, disunited—had no choice but to comply, even though it was perfectly clear that the agreements would give Russia dominant control, for all practical purposes, of the life and activities of Manchuria.

The whole economic life of the Three Eastern provinces depends upon the railroads; Russia now has controlling interest in these railroads. Dairen has become the chief port of Manchuria; it has now been internationalized and Russian army and naval units at nearby Port Arthur can control its commerce completely.

Furthermore, a whole group of industries, upon which the railways depend and which depend upon the railways for their existence, automatically come under the purview of the treaty and are subject by the very fact of their existence, and relation to the transportation system to a varying degree of Soviet control.

Yet the Soviet government has shown itself dissatisfied even with the huge voice given it in the future of Manchuria, and apparently seeks to hamper by all means possible the rehabilitation and unification of China. By denying China the use of Manchurian resources in her reconstruction, the Soviet Union has greatly retarded China's recovery and obviously seeks to prevent by all possible means the emergence of a strong China to challenge Russia in the east.

It is quite possible that this is step toward revivifying the defunct state of Manchukuo with the difference that this time it will be a Soviet dependency, which eventually will be incorporated into the Soviet federation.

One need only recall that the drive toward the warm seas has been an integral part of Russian policy ever since the era of Peter the Great and that it was this same urge which led Russian imperialists to seek the annexation of Manchuria 50 years ago.

That this drive is as much a part of Soviet policy as it was George Wilson, may both be out after the job. 3) What about this man Harold Stassen? Some of our younger folks think he's just about the right man for the presidency. Perhaps you could give them the benefit of your wise counsel and long experience. Surely, they would then understand.

The Iowa Republican State Central Committee

Mr. Claus The North Pole Dear Sir:

We need candidates and vote plasma. Please heed our urgent call. We're counting on your generosity in our darkest hour.

The Iowa Democratic State Central Committee

Gov. S. Q. Claus The North Pole My dear Governor:

Several years ago—you don't remember the exact date—you stopped through Washington and gave the Democratic party a political program that was chuck full of brand new ideas.

Would you mind doing the same for us this Christmas?

ROBERT TAFT ARTHUR VANDENBERG JOSEPH MARTIN

Santa Claus The North Pole Dear Pal:

Don't forget me Dec. 25. Let your conscience be your guide.

HARRY TRUMAN

S. Clauswitski The North Pole Dear Nephew:

Me, too, comrade!

UNCLE JOE STALIN

By STEVE PARK
 Daily Iowan Columnist

Not only were the Big Three able to promise Russia special rights in another nation's dominions without that nation's consent, but they were able to guarantee fulfillment of the contract—still without that nation's consent.

A portion of the text of the Big Three agreement, signed by Churchill, Roosevelt and Stalin declares: "The heads of the three great powers have agreed that these claims of the Soviet Union shall be unquestionably fulfilled after Japan has been defeated."

China—weak, corrupt, disunited—had no choice but to comply, even though it was perfectly clear that the agreements would give Russia dominant control, for all practical purposes, of the life and activities of Manchuria.

The whole economic life of the Three Eastern provinces depends upon the railroads; Russia now has controlling interest in these railroads. Dairen has become the chief port of Manchuria; it has now been internationalized and Russian army and naval units at nearby Port Arthur can control its commerce completely.

Furthermore, a whole group of industries, upon which the railways depend and which depend upon the railways for their existence, automatically come under the purview of the treaty and are subject by the very fact of their existence, and relation to the transportation system to a varying degree of Soviet control.

Yet the Soviet government has shown itself dissatisfied even with the huge voice given it in the future of Manchuria, and apparently seeks to hamper by all means possible the rehabilitation and unification of China. By denying China the use of Manchurian resources in her reconstruction, the Soviet Union has greatly retarded China's recovery and obviously seeks to prevent by all possible means the emergence of a strong China to challenge Russia in the east.

It is quite possible that this is step toward revivifying the defunct state of Manchukuo with the difference that this time it will be a Soviet dependency, which eventually will be incorporated into the Soviet federation.

One need only recall that the drive toward the warm seas has been an integral part of Russian policy ever since the era of Peter the Great and that it was this same urge which led Russian imperialists to seek the annexation of Manchuria 50 years ago.

That this drive is as much a part of Soviet policy as it was

By STEVE PARK
 Daily Iowan Columnist

Not only were the Big Three able to promise Russia special rights in another nation's dominions without that nation's consent, but they were able to guarantee fulfillment of the contract—still without that nation's consent.

A portion of the text of the Big Three agreement, signed by Churchill, Roosevelt and Stalin declares: "The heads of the three great powers have agreed that these claims of the Soviet Union shall be unquestionably fulfilled after Japan has been defeated."

China—weak, corrupt, disunited—had no choice but to comply, even though it was perfectly clear that the agreements would give Russia dominant control, for all practical purposes, of the life and activities of Manchuria.

The whole economic life of the Three Eastern provinces depends upon the railroads; Russia now has controlling interest in these railroads. Dairen has become the chief port of Manchuria; it has now been internationalized and Russian army and naval units at nearby Port Arthur can control its commerce completely.

Furthermore, a whole group of industries, upon which the railways depend and which depend upon the railways for their existence, automatically come under the purview of the treaty and are subject by the very fact of their existence, and relation to the transportation system to a varying degree of Soviet control.

Yet the Soviet government has shown itself dissatisfied even with the huge voice given it in the future of Manchuria, and apparently seeks to hamper by all means possible the rehabilitation and unification of China. By denying China the use of Manchurian resources in her reconstruction, the Soviet Union has greatly retarded China's recovery and obviously seeks to prevent by all possible means the emergence of a strong China to challenge Russia in the east.

It is quite possible that this is step toward revivifying the defunct state of Manchukuo with the difference that this time it will be a Soviet dependency, which eventually will be incorporated into the Soviet federation.

One need only recall that the drive toward the warm seas has been an integral part of Russian policy ever since the era of Peter the Great and that it was this same urge which led Russian imperialists to seek the annexation of Manchuria 50 years ago.

That this drive is as much a part of Soviet policy as it was

By STEVE PARK
 Daily Iowan Columnist

Not only were the Big Three able to promise Russia special rights in another nation's dominions without that nation's consent, but they were able to guarantee fulfillment of the contract—still without that nation's consent.

A portion of the text of the Big Three agreement, signed by Churchill, Roosevelt and Stalin declares: "The heads of the three great powers have agreed that these claims of the Soviet Union shall be unquestionably fulfilled after Japan has been defeated."

China—weak, corrupt, disunited—had no choice but to comply, even though it was perfectly clear that the agreements would give Russia dominant control, for all practical purposes, of the life and activities of Manchuria.

The whole economic life of the Three Eastern provinces depends upon the railroads; Russia now has controlling interest in these railroads. Dairen has become the chief port of Manchuria; it has now been internationalized and Russian army and naval units at nearby Port Arthur can control its commerce completely.

Furthermore, a whole group of industries, upon which the railways depend and which depend upon the railways for their existence, automatically come under the purview of the treaty and are subject by the very fact of their existence, and relation to the transportation system to a varying degree of Soviet control.

Yet the Soviet government has shown itself dissatisfied even with the huge voice given it in the future of Manchuria, and apparently seeks to hamper by all means possible the rehabilitation and unification of China. By denying China the use of Manchurian resources in her reconstruction, the Soviet Union has greatly retarded China's recovery and obviously seeks to prevent by all possible means the emergence of a strong China to challenge Russia in the east.

It is quite possible that this is step toward revivifying the defunct state of Manchukuo with the difference that this time it will be a Soviet dependency, which eventually will be incorporated into the Soviet federation.

One need only recall that the drive toward the warm seas has been an integral part of Russian policy ever since the era of Peter the Great and that it was this same urge which led Russian imperialists to seek the annexation of Manchuria 50 years ago.

That this drive is as much a part of Soviet policy as it was

By STEVE PARK
 Daily Iowan Columnist

Not only were the Big Three able to promise Russia special rights in another nation's dominions without that nation's consent, but they were able to guarantee fulfillment of the contract—still without that nation's consent.

A portion of the text of the Big Three agreement, signed by Churchill, Roosevelt and Stalin declares: "The heads of the three great powers have agreed that these claims of the Soviet Union shall be unquestionably fulfilled after Japan has been defeated."

China—weak, corrupt, disunited—had no choice but to comply, even though it was perfectly clear that the agreements would give Russia dominant control, for all practical purposes, of the life and activities of Manchuria.

The whole economic life of the Three Eastern provinces depends upon the railroads; Russia now has controlling interest in these railroads. Dairen has become the chief port of Manchuria; it has now been internationalized and Russian army and naval units at nearby Port Arthur can control its commerce completely.

Furthermore, a whole group of industries, upon which the railways depend and which depend upon the railways for their existence, automatically come under the purview of the treaty and are subject by the very fact of their existence, and relation to the transportation system to a varying degree of Soviet control.

Yet the Soviet government has shown itself dissatisfied even with the huge voice given it in the future of Manchuria, and apparently seeks to hamper by all means possible the rehabilitation and unification of China. By denying China the use of Manchurian resources in her reconstruction, the Soviet Union has greatly retarded China's recovery and obviously seeks to prevent by all possible means the emergence of a strong China to challenge Russia in the east.

It is quite possible that this is step toward revivifying the defunct state of Manchukuo with the difference that this time it will be a Soviet dependency, which eventually will be incorporated into the Soviet federation.

One need only recall that the drive toward the warm seas has been an integral part of Russian policy ever since the era of Peter the Great and that it was this same urge which led Russian imperialists to seek the annexation of Manchuria 50 years ago.

That this drive is as much a part of Soviet policy as it was

By STEVE PARK
 Daily Iowan Columnist

Not only were the Big Three able to promise Russia special rights in another nation's dominions without that nation's consent, but they were able to guarantee fulfillment of the contract—still without that nation's consent.

A portion of the text of the Big Three agreement, signed by Churchill, Roosevelt and Stalin declares: "The heads of the three great powers have agreed that these claims of the Soviet Union shall be unquestionably fulfilled after Japan has been defeated."

China—weak, corrupt, disunited—had no choice but to comply, even though it was perfectly clear that the agreements would give Russia dominant control, for all practical purposes, of the life and activities of Manchuria.

The whole economic life of the Three Eastern provinces depends upon the railroads; Russia now has controlling interest in these railroads. Dairen has become the chief port of Manchuria; it has now been internationalized and Russian army and naval units at nearby Port Arthur can control its commerce completely.

Furthermore, a whole group of industries, upon which the railways depend and which depend upon the railways for their existence, automatically come under the purview of the treaty and are subject by the very fact of their existence, and relation to the transportation system to a varying degree of Soviet control.

Yet the Soviet government has shown itself dissatisfied even with the huge voice given it in the future of Manchuria, and apparently seeks to hamper by all means possible the rehabilitation and unification of China. By denying China the use of Manchurian resources in her reconstruction, the Soviet Union has greatly retarded China's recovery and obviously seeks to prevent by all possible means the emergence of a strong China to challenge Russia in the east.

It is quite possible that this is step toward revivifying the defunct state of Manchukuo with the difference that this time it will be a Soviet dependency, which eventually will be incorporated into the Soviet federation.

One need only recall that the

Engagements, Recent Weddings Announced By Former University of Iowa Students

Weddings and engagements of the following alumni and students of the University of Iowa have been announced:

Shaffer-Goede
Lorna Mae Shaffer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Will Shaffer of Waukon, became the bride of Chilton C. Goede, son of N.H. Goede of Waukon, in a ceremony performed Dec. 1.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Goede are graduates of Waukon high school and junior college. Mrs. Goede is a graduate of the school of nursing at the University of Iowa and is employed as assistant night supervisor in University hospital.

Mr. Goede also attended the University of Iowa and is employed in Iowa City.

Weber-Olish
Donna Marie Weber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis H. Weber of Muscatine, became the bride of Frank A. Olish, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Olish of Chicago in a ceremony performed Nov. 28.

Mrs. Olish was graduated from Muscatine high school and junior college and attended the University of Iowa. She has been Y-Teen director at the Muscatine Y.W.C.A.

Mr. Olish was graduated from Muscatine high school and is now attending Muscatine junior college. He served three years with the navy.

The couple is living with the bride's parents.

Burr-Conley
Mr. and Mrs. Elmer F. Burr of Cedar Rapids have announced the approaching marriage of their daughter, Carol Marie, of Chicago, to French F. Conley, son of Mrs. Howard H. Conley of Little Rock, Ark. The wedding will take place Jan. 16.

Miss Burr attended the University of Iowa, where she was a member of Gamma Phi Beta sorority. She is now a stewardess with United Airlines.

Mr. Conley, formerly a student at the University of Arkansas, was affiliated with Sigma Chi fraternity. He is a United Airlines pilot.

Kelly-Murphy
Betie Ann Kelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T.F. Kelly of Sioux City, became the bride of Charles Bradford Murphy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Murphy of Manhasset, Long Island, N.Y., Nov. 28.

Miss Kelly attended Mundelein college and Briar Cliff college. Mr. Murphy attended the University of Iowa, where he was a member of Sigma Nu fraternity. He also attended the schools of law at Fordham and Columbia universities.

The couple will live at Great Neck, Long Island, N.Y.

Cole-Millar
Mrs. Christine Cole of Chicago, formerly of Iowa City, has announced the engagement and approaching marriage of her daughter, Caroline Cole, to Kenneth C. Millar, son of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Millar, also of Chicago.

Miss Cole received her B.A. degree from the University of Iowa in 1940, where she was a member of Phi Beta Kappa. After three years at Wellesley, she became a member of the advertising staff of Montgomery Ward and Company in Chicago.

Mr. Millar received the M.A. degrees from North Central University. He taught at School for Boys and Bryant and later also joined the advertising staff of Montgomery Ward and Company.

The wedding date is tentatively set for Jan. 11.

Trexler-Schockemoehl
In a Thanksgiving day ceremony at St. Mary's church, Constance Trexler married to James A. Schockemoehl.

Mrs. Schockemoehl is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Trexler of Dubuque. She is a graduate of the Academy of Visitation and Clarke there.

Mr. Schockemoehl is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony J. Schockemoehl of Dubuque. He is a medical student at the University of Iowa.

The couple is living at the apartment in Iowa City.

Simonsen-Essig
The Shatto Congregation at Los Angeles, Calif. gave the scene for the wedding of Francis Marjorie Simonsen and Robert Wardner Essig.

The former Miss Simonsen is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Simonson of Sioux City. She attended the University of Iowa where she was a member of Alpha Theta sorority.

Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Essig, also of Iowa City. He is now attending Montana State College at Bozeman, Mont.

Craft Guild to Exchange Handmade Gifts at Party

Exchanging of handmade gifts and carol singing will highlight the annual Christmas party of the Iowa City Craft Guild tomorrow night at 8 o'clock in the University clubrooms in Iowa City.

"Santa Claus" will distribute gifts showing the best craft training of the club members.

Party committee head is Mrs. E. D. Plass; table decorations, Mrs. Erling Thoen and Mrs. E. B. Kurtz; refreshment committee, Mrs. Fred Ambrose, Mary Mercer Sayre, Mrs. C. C. Wylie, Mrs. Genevieve Masson and Mrs. Carl Weber.

Commerce Fraternity Selects Members

Ivan O. Bull, C4 of Eldon, and Alan N. Polasky, C4 of Cedar Rapids, have been elected to membership of Alpha of Iowa chapter of Beta Gamma Sigma.

The American Association of Collegiate Schools of Business has designated Beta Gamma Sigma as the national honorary scholarship fraternity for colleges of commerce and business administration.

Personal Notes

Friday night girls of Unit 13 of Currier donned their blue jeans, met their dates in north lobby and piled into waiting hayracks at 7:30. After riding and singing for an hour or two they proceeded to the Charles Stuart farm for hot chocolate and doughnuts.

At 11 p.m. the party, rode back to Currier, where they gathered in south study hall around a Christmas tree and the girls presented nonsensical Christmas gifts to their escorts. Dancing to records completed the evening.

A caroling party will be held tonight by Unit 6 of Currier, with guests from Kellogg house and Quadrangle. The carolers will sing at the University hospitals and return to south foyer of Currier for dancing.

Lester A. Norton, route 7, left Friday for Pasadena, Calif., where he will spend the Christmas holidays.

Visiting the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity house the past week was Dwight Mitchell of Oklahoma City, Okla., field secretary of the fraternity.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Murdock of Boise, Idaho, are the parents of a son, Alan Roy, born Friday night at St. Alphonsus hospital in Boise. Mrs. Murdock is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mackey, 222 E. Davenport street.

"Santa Claus" will bring gifts for 20 under-privileged children at a party at the Gamma Phi Beta sorority house tomorrow afternoon from 4:30 to 5:30 p.m.

The children, all residents of Iowa City, were selected by the Red Cross to attend the party.

nation Rebekahs Group Officers

tion of new officers of the Rebekahs of the Carnation Lodge, took place Thursday night at the L.O.O.F.

The meeting and Christmas of the Past Noble Grand Thursday, Mrs. Emil Rupis elected president.

vice president is Mrs. Chris n. Mrs. Clarence Conklin ary and Mrs. Telford La-treasurer.

Kelly Noble Grand
grand of the Rebekah No. 416, who was elected by Mrs. Alfred Kelly. Officers elected are Mrs. Yavorsky, vice grand; McLachlan, recording secretary; Mrs. Lloyd Rogers, treasurer; Mrs. Mildred, trustee; Mrs. Ralph, degree captain.

han seventy members and attended the initiation of the to the Carnation Redge No. 376, last night.

Farmer was the candidate ford lodge, No. 410. Oth-lates were Marcella Fitch, V. Messner, Dorothy Stella Waltmann and Mil-lysteke. Mrs. Roscoe captain of the Carnation resided over the initiation, by the degree staff.

e meeting Mrs. Lee Ran-vas elected noble grand; A. June, vice-grand; Mrs. ne Nesbitt, recording sec-Mrs. S. A. Fitzgerald, fi-secretary, and Mrs. Em-otter, treasurer.

trustee is Mrs. Ethel Cop-Mrs. Roscoe Hughes is the gree staff captain.

members of the Rebekah are asked to join the Odd s in their annual Christmas Wednesday. There will be change of gifts.

TO WED DEC. 27

MR. AND MRS. Charles Russell of New Sharon announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Wilma, to Dale H. Cronk, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Cronk of Iowa Falls. The wedding will take place Dec. 27 in the Little Chapel of the First Congregational church. Miss Russell formerly attended the University of Iowa and is now employed in the university business office. Mr. Cronk served 39 months in the army and is now enrolled in the college of pharmacy at the university.

ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT

ANNOUNCEMENT has been made of the engagement of Theresa Ann Klein, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Klein of Dubuque, to Mr. Robert H. Jetu, son of Mr. and Mrs. Truman Jetu, 6 Kirkwood circle. The coming wedding was revealed at a birthday party Monday at the home of Mrs. Klein's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin D. Masbruck, 1107 N. Summit street, with whom the bride-to-be has made her home for two years. Miss Klein is employed at the Self Serve grocery and her fiancé is associated with the Palmer Bowling alley.

There are only some 11,000 whites among the 193,000 people living on Barbados, West Indian island. The rest are Negroes.

Ruth Hearn to Wed Robert W. Gadbois

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hearn of Kingsley have announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Ruth Vivian, to Robert Gadbois, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gadbois of Kankakee, Ill.

The wedding will take place in the Methodist church in Iowa City Dec. 19.

Miss Hearn attended Iowa State college at Ames and the University of Iowa and is now employed as a draftsman. Mr. Gadbois is attending the University of Iowa and is majoring in fine arts.

Flying fish make up the biggest single item in the diet of natives along the coast of Barbados in the West Indies.

GIFTS that make CHRISTMAS merry

It's never too late to shop for Christmas luxuries! From our wide variety of "holiday-spirit" gifts, select now — or at the last minute. Our stock is being constantly replenished, and you can always choose from the smart line listed below.

She Says: this! <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Rhinestone jewelry</li> <li>Pin and earring sets</li> <li>Chatelaine pins</li> <li>Cameo pins</li> <li>Locketts</li> <li>Birthstone rings</li> <li>Compacts</li> <li>Matching compacts and cigarette cases</li> <li>Ladies' billfolds</li> <li>Ladies' manicuring sets</li> <li>Sterling brush and comb sets</li> <li>Bracelets</li> <li>Watch bracelets</li> <li>Watches</li> <li>Chokers</li> <li>Pearls</li> <li>Pen and pencil sets</li> <li>Musical powder boxes</li> <li>Music jewel cases</li> <li>Bedroom clocks</li> </ul>	He Says: that! <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Identification bracelets</li> <li>Money clips</li> <li>Pen knives</li> <li>Gold watch bands</li> <li>Lodge pins</li> <li>Genuine Hemetel and Tigery cameo rings</li> <li>Tie clasps</li> <li>Key chains</li> <li>Cuff links</li> <li>Belt buckles</li> <li>Cigarette cases</li> <li>Cigarette lighters</li> <li>Sterling military brushes</li> <li>Electric desk clocks</li> <li>Lyman alaskan telescopic rifle sights</li> </ul>
--	---

HERTEEN & STOCKER JEWELERS
Hotel Jefferson

STRUB - WAREHAM, INC.

STRUB'S DEPARTMENT STORE

118-124 South Clinton Street Phone 9607

Have you seen my "beau-bait"?

The neatest, sweetest beau-bait in the world. Takes me from campus to cote date right in style. Soft wool in aqua, beige or coral. Junior sizes 9-14.

14.95

Joan Miller Pacific

Strub's
Iowa City's Largest Department Store — Est. 1867

Club Meetings

Methodist Bungalow Group to Meet

BUNGALOW GROUP
The Bungalow Group of the Methodist Church will meet at 7 o'clock tonight for desert and bridge at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kinney, 740 Kirkwood avenue. Assisting will be Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Ballantine.

FIRESIDE GROUP
For its last get-together before Christmas holidays, the Fireside group will have an evening of social dancing, with refreshments and entertainment. The party will be held in the Unitarian church at 8 p.m. tonight.

DAUGHTERS OF UNION VETERANS
The Daughters of Union Veterans will meet at 2 p.m. tomorrow in the Community building for their regular social and Christmas program.

Members of the group are asked to bring fresh fruits and candies to be sent to the Mary O. Coldren home. Those who are unable to attend are asked to send a contribution to the Community building tomorrow afternoon.

AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY
The American Legion auxiliary will entertain families of the legion and auxiliary at a potluck dinner in the Legion clubrooms tomorrow evening. Members of the group are requested to bring a covered dish, table service and sandwiches.

Those attending are to bring a 25 cent gift for the grab bag.

BOOK REVIEW CLUB
A Christmas party and gift exchange for members of the Book Review club will be held at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Spence, 708 McLean street.

Mrs. Alexander Kern will review "All the King's Men" by R. P. Warren. Mrs. Wilbur Schramm is co-hostess.

SARAH WICKHAM GROUP
The Sarah Wickham group of the Baptist Women's association will entertain all members of the church and their families at a potluck dinner at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Elmer E. Dierks, 230 N. Clinton street, tomorrow at 5:30 p.m.

Invitations to join the group are extended to young married couples. Guests of honor will include Dr. and Mrs. Edson Moore and family of Osage and Mr. and Mrs. Stacy Hull and family of Farmington, Me.

Christmas music and carol-singing will follow the dinner.

CHI OMEGA ALUMNAE
Chi Omega alumnae will have a dinner and business meeting tomorrow night at the chapter house, 804 Iowa avenue, at 6 p.m.

EAGLES LADIES
The Eagle Ladies will hold a potluck supper tomorrow at 6:30 p.m. in Eagle hall. The dinner will be followed by a short business meeting and Christmas entertainment. Mrs. Max Vogel is in charge of arrangements for the party.

Med Student Tests
All students planning to enter any medical college in the country in 1947 should register for the Association of American Medical colleges professional aptitude tests before 12 noon, Dec. 27. The tests will be given here Jan. 11.

The world's finest music

THE NEW YORK PHILHARMONIC SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

Sundays at 2:00 p.m.

WMT 600
ON YOUR DIAL
CBS Station for Iowa City

GIFT SUGGESTIONS

There's no gift problems for you when you look at our line of cosmetics and novelties—that add a personal touch to Christmas.

AT YOUR FAVORITE DRUG STORE

COSMETICS	PERFUMES
Helena Rubenstein	Jealousy (Blanchard)
Dorothy Gray	Dalmara
Max Factor	Ciro's
Elizabeth Arden	Well
Bonnie Bell
Du Barry	MEN'S COSMETICS
Tussy	Old Spice
	Seaforth
NOVELTIES	Swagger
Musical Cigarette Cases	Courtley
Musical Powder Boxes	Cargo
Sachet Dolls

Gifts that strike the right note!

Every day -- low prices at

Whetstone's DRUG STORE

SINCE 1872

Iowa Host To South Da

Coyotes Last Non Big Nine Midwest Foe

This Is the Way it Is Done

PROBABLE LINEUPS

Iowa	South Dakota
Ives	Girardi
Wier	Carlson
Jorgensen	Luby
Spencer	Roth
H. Wilkinson	Carlson
Time and place: Monday, 8 p. m., Iowa fieldhouse

Tickets: General admission only, on sale at door
Broadcast: WSUI

The University of Iowa Hawkeyes, fresh from the 67-51 trouncing given Detroit, entertain the last of midwest non-conference opponents Monday night when the University of South Dakota quintet invades the fieldhouse for an 8 p. m. tilt.

After this contest with the Coyotes, there will be three inter-sectional games before the first of the year.—St. Mary's of California, Dec. 19, Montana State, Dec. 23, and Texas Christian, New Year's Eve. All of these games will be reserve seat affairs.

Coach Harrison believes in taking the games as they come but it would be the roughest sort of an upset should the Hawks falter before the Coyotes. In their first three decisive wins, the Hawkeyes have shown a good defense and a wealth of offensive power.

Unbeaten Iowa has averaged 64.6 points a game while holding the opposition to 41.3 points. The Hawkeye shot percentage dropped off a bit against Detroit but still reads .274 as compared with opponents' .255.

The visiting South Dakota aggregation comes to the fieldhouse with a record which is at best average. They opened with a 43-35 victory over Sioux Falls college but then lost to Nebraska, 68-37, and Minnesota, 65-33.

They are reported to have fair height with Harry Carleton, guard as the tallest at 6-3. Tom Luby, center, hits 6-2, and Roy Roth, the other guard measures 6-1.

If the game runs as expected, Coach Harrison may be able to give his reserves a bit more of a chance to accumulate game experience than they have received to date. It is a possibility that the Hawkeye second team may start the Monday night contest.

If such should be the case, the lineup would probably read Dave Danner and Clayton Wilkinson,

DICK IVES, Iowa's sparkling forward, goes high into the air to mark up two points for the Hawkeyes in the 67-51 victory over Detroit last Thursday night. Herb Wilkinson (28) and Murray Wier are more than somewhat interested in the proceedings as are Detroit's Kemem (17), Bartz (19) and L. Knorek (26). The Hawks will attempt to do more of the same Monday night when they play host to the University of South Dakota team in the last of non-conference games with midwest opponents.

forwards; Leonard Metcalfe, center; and Glen Kremer and Tony Guzowski, guards.

In case Coach Harrison decides to stick with his veteran combination the Coyotes will face Jack Spencer and Herb Wilkinson, guards; Noble Jorgensen, center, and Dick Ives and Murray Wier, forwards.

Bears Favored Over New York

NEW YORK (AP)—The Chicago Bears and the New York Giants, professional football's two "winningest" clubs down through the years, collide in the Polo Grounds today in the National league's World Series, and a lot of folks will be surprised no end if the Bears don't bring home the pot of honey.

The greatest crowd and the gaudiest gate in the 14-year history of this annual championship playoff already were a cinch. It was just about a money-back guarantee that more than 55,000 customers would chip in to a $250,000 melon to sit in.

Champions of the west, the monsters of the Midway were strong favorites last night to come lumbering in with their fifth league championship since this east-west clash for the crown was first started back in 1933. But during the day, the betting boys who had made the Bears a 10-point choice cut the price down to a mere seven, no doubt remembering that the last time the Windy City pigskinners and stout Steve Owen's warriors tangled a few weeks ago, the Giants practically beat the hides off the Bears.

Mickey Vernon Takes American Loop Title

CHICAGO (AP)—James B. (Mickey) Vernon, spidery first baseman for the Washington Senators, formally was named the 1946 American league batting champion in official statistics released at league headquarters yesterday.

Vernon thumped a nifty .353, which topped George Stinewiss' comparatively anemic 1945 winning mark of .309 by 44 percentage points.

The champion Boston Red Sox repeated as team batting champion with a robust .271.

Vernon finished 11 points ahead of another eminent ex-serviceman, Boston's tremendous Ted Williams, who batted .342 for the runnerup spot.

For the fourth consecutive year, Williams led in most runs, 142, for a new major league record. His 343 total bases were tops for the third year and marked the fifth straight year he had stamsted for 300 or more bases.

A lefthanded slugger like Vernon, Williams exploded his biggest batting bomb on July 14 against Cleveland with three home runs in a single game.

A rousing late season comeback gave Detroit's Hank Greenberg the home run crown with 44.

varsity competition for athletes who competed as freshmen or otherwise played during the suspension of normal rules between February, 1943, and July 1, 1946.

The conference fathers reported no action on the subject of replacing the University of Chicago. However, Pittsburgh which plays six conference teams next fall continued to be regarded a strong candidate for membership.

The faculty group acted on a number of eligibility cases, including that of Boyd McCaslin, who followed basketball Coach Osborne Cowles from Dartmouth to Michigan this year. Under the league code, a player who switches schools along with a coach is ineligible in the same sport at the new school.

The faculty officials ruled an exception in McCaslin's case, however, pointing out that Dartmouth was not his school of free choice because he originally was sent there under the Navy v-12 program. When he was released from the Navy, McCaslin tried to reenter Dartmouth unsuccessfully, it was reported, and he then enrolled at Michigan.

Quarterback Bob Sandberg of Minnesota was excused from two minutes of his only varsity competition in 1942, thus giving him another year of competition.

College Cage Scores

Illinois 58, Pittsburgh 31
Kentucky 82, Texas A&M 18
Southern Methodist 49, Kansas 46
Purdue 54, Indiana State 49
Western Michigan 65, Michigan 61
St. John's 58, Loyola (Chicago) 43
Wisconsin 53, Notre Dame 49
Northwestern 63, Marquette 49
Oklahoma 63, Nebraska 52
Missouri 56, Iowa State 55
Kansas State 56, Arkansas 41
Dubuque U. 55, Parsons 34
Simpson 65, Doane 39
Louisville 55, Indiana 46
Oklahoma A & M 43, Temple 34
Laura 63, St. Mary's (Minn.) 49
Northern Illinois Teachers 37, Iowa Teachers 35
Mumouth 66, Grinnell 51
DePaul 48, Rice 44
Knox 53, University of Chicago 45 (overtime)
University of Detroit 56, Kalamazoo 48
Minnesota 75, North Dakota University 34
Lawrence 70, Coe 38

BASEBALL—April 18-19—Iowa at Purdue, April 25-26—Wisconsin at Iowa, May 23—Iowa at Michigan, May 9-10—Ohio State at Iowa, May 16-17—Iowa at Minnesota, May 29-30—Northwestern at Iowa.

WRESTLING—Jan. 18—Bradley university at Iowa, Feb. 1—Iowa at Wisconsin, Feb. 8—Northwestern at Iowa, Feb. 22—Minnesota at Iowa, Feb. 27—Iowa at Illinois.

TENNIS—May 2—Iowa at Minnesota, May 17—Wisconsin at Iowa, May 23—Iowa at Illinois (tentative), May 24—Iowa at Purdue.

INDOOR TRACK—Feb. 1—Northwestern, Iowa, Chicago at Chicago, Feb. 12—Minnesota at Iowa (tentative), Feb. 15—Ohio State, Iowa, Northwestern at Chicago, Feb. 22—Iowa at Notre Dame, March 1—Iowa, Northwestern, Wisconsin at Wisconsin, March 8—Western conference meet at Illinois, March 22—Purdue relays at Lafayette, March 29—Chicago relays at Chicago, April 19—Kansas relays at Lawrence, April 25-26—Drake relays at Des Moines, May 3—Iowa at Northwestern, May 10—Iowa at Minnesota, May 24—Wisconsin at Iowa, May 31—Western conference meet at Northwestern, June 7—Central intercollegiate meet at Marquette, June 20-21—National collegiate meet.

KXEL AT THE TOP OF YOUR DIAL 1540 WATERLOO
50,000 WATTS

Englert NOW ENDS WEDNESDAY—
Doors Open To-Day 1:00 P.M. 37c 'til 2:00
A Battle Royal of KISSES KICKS and KEENAN!
JOHNSON in MGM's Sparkling Musical Romance
NO LEAVE, NO LOVE
KEENAN WYNN PAT KIRKWOOD CUCAT-LOMBARDO & ORCH.
Added COY! GREAT AMERICAN "Color" Cartoon NEWS

Dear Joe & Jane
Here's a couple made while you were away. Did you miss them? Your favorite Gene "Laura" Tierney is back at Thunderbird Field. Were you there when they made this flicker? For a good afternoon's or evening's entertainment we recommend these two below. Come on down and recall your cadet flying days.
Sincerely,
Pastime

Starts TODAY PASTIME It's "Laura" in a new role
SHE'S INTOXICATING... BUT HE'S AFRAID OF HANGOVERS!
Frank Ross presents ARTHUR WAYNE "The More the Merrier girl... in the more the merrier kind of picture!"
"A Lady Takes a Chance" CHARLES WINNINGER PHIL SILVERS
Gene Tierney Preston Foster John Sutton in "Thunder Birds" in Technicolor
Extra • Latest news, Color Cartoon

Sports Shots

By Bob Collins

...s no getting around the ever, is only 24 years which isn't too ancient.

A lot of sports writers have been advocating out loud or under their breath that the Big Nine drop football relations with Notre Dame after the current contracts have expired. The idea is that the Irish are annually so powerful that they play physical havoc with opponents and render them near defenseless for a week or so after the actual game. They pointed out that Illinois, Purdue, Northwestern and Iowa all took two weeks to fully recover from their tussles with Notre Dame, and that indirectly the Irish contributed to an additional loss by each of these teams in their next start. All of which is possibly true.

Nevertheless I'd hate to think that the day would come when any school in the Western conference would duck any team in any sport. The obvious advantage of good football entertainment with filled stands and the national publicity that comes from a shot at the "king" more than offsets any detrimental results. The answer would seem to be for school fearing dismemberment to schedule an open date or a breather game the week following their Notre Dame engagements.

is point does have some but not too much. A always operates under a leap of five points more when playing away from. This handicap exists and every time no matter many warm-up tilts may been played away from for each floor is different each has its own peculiarities.

Big Nine portion of the league with the games that is a fair set up with six in Iowa City and six away. Only sad feature is that the game will be played at night and that will be one in which the Hawks can't give a thing away.

king of Illinois, the Whiz andie is retained and pro-always will be by that of cage artists who earned el back in 1943. But, actuey aren't exactly kids any All but Andy Phillip are d and Jack Smiley has two n. The average age, how-

The Pick of His at the IOWA Starts Today

It's a hot... of a merry mix-up!

COLUMBIA PICTURES presents FRED MACMURRAY Pardon My Past

with MARSHVILLE CHAPMAN
AKIM WILLIAM RITA
LAMIROFF - DEMAREST - JOHNSON
Harry Davenport - Douglas Dumbrille

BOY ACUTE - LUMBERT AND SCOTT
HARRY TAPPY CUSHINE
AND PAUL HILL BARRY TERRY
BRAD TAYLOR - RUTH TRENT

SWING NEIGHBOR
Plus Cartoon and News

Do Come Early!
Doors Open Today 1:00 p.m.
3:50 THT 3 p.m.

VARSITY NOW ends TUESDAY!

G.E.F. presents LEIGH RAINS CAESAR AND CLEOPATRA

Plus 'THE ANIMALS TALK'
World's Late News Events

Doors Open 1:15-9:45
STRAND 35c
NOW ENDS "TUESDAY"

2 First Run Hits!

They Fitted Their Strength, Courage and Faith Against the Almost Unbeatable Dangers of the Land Itself—to Find GOLD.

DEATH VALLEY

Color!
ROBERT LOWERY HELEN GILBERT NAT FENLTON STERLING HOLLOWAY RUSSELL SIMPSON
PHOTOGRAPHED IN DEATH VALLEY in Cinetone COMPANION FEATURE

with The Bowery Boy
SHOCK BUSTERS
LEO GORCEY - HUNTZ HALL
Bobby Jordan - Gabriel Dell - Billy Beaudry

SWEITZER'S INN
will be closed from December 15 to January 3
We will re-open then to serve our famous Chicken and Fish Dinners to students.
See you next year!

Basketball
MONDAY Dec. 16th
So. Dakota University vs. IOWA
8 p. m. Fieldhouse
ADMISSION I-Book Coupon No. 9 or $1.00—Children 50c No Reserved Seats
HERB WILKINSON

Student Directory
NOW ON SALE
at Department of Publications
W9 East Hall
and
Local Bookstores
Price 65 Cents

UWA to Distribute Application Forms for Calendar, Code for Coeds Editors

Application blanks for editor and art editor of next year's Code for Coeds, and editorship of the University Women's association calendar, both annual UWA publications, will be available tomorrow.

Notices are being sent to all housing units that applications may be obtained tomorrow through Saturday at the UWA desk in the basement of Old Capitol, according to President Dorothy Kottemann, A4 of Burlington.

UWA council members will select the two editors on the basis of the applications, and the Code for Coeds editor will choose the art editor and her staff from the other applicants.

Application blanks must be returned to the UWA desk by Wednesday, Jan. 8.

Applicants Qualifications

Any woman student with writing ability, a sense of organization, interest and initiative may apply for editorship of the Code for Coeds. Her application must include a criticism of last year's booklet, suggestions for a new book and 500 words applicable to the code in her own writing. For art editor, qualifications include drawing ability, interest and initiative. Applications must criticize last year's book, submit suggestions for this year's and submit at least two sketches applicable to the booklet.

In applying for calendar editorship, women must suggest new layouts for the publication. UWA council members will select the editor on the basis of the applications.

Separate application blanks, besides space on the Code for Coeds blanks, will be available at the UWA desk for calendar editor applicants.

Code for Coeds, which celebrates its 10th anniversary with the coming edition, is designed to acquaint new women students with campus activities and customs. It and the calendar, which lists UWA-sponsored activities and university holidays, are published annually.

The booklet is sent to freshmen and transfer women students during the summer, and the calendar is distributed to all women students early in the school year.

Hancher, 4 Others Meet to Interview Rhodes Candidates

President Virgil M. Hancher is a member of a five-man, six-state district committee which interviewed 18 Rhodes scholarship candidates in Des Moines yesterday. The committee met to determine which six men will be awarded scholarships to Oxford university in England.

District committees met yesterday in eight cities from coast to coast, but the results will not be announced for several weeks. Yesterday's final selection was made from a group of 144 candidates, three from each of the 48 states, who were chosen by state committees of selection to appear for personal interview before the district committees.

Competition for the award this year reached its highest peak in California the Democrats outnumbered the Republicans almost two to one in primary registrations. But they apparently voted in large numbers for Republicans or for candidates nominated by both parties who happened to be Republicans. Los Angeles, the big Democratic center, voted every which way, even to write-in votes against regular party candidates. San Francisco went Republican but elected a Democratic congressman. After the recent election the Pendergast organization in Kansas City was left with only two minor county offices, county surveyor and coroner. It was the second heavy blow dealt the Pendergast machine. In 1940 a coalition of Republicans and independent Democrats took over the city hall after a "clean-up" campaign.

UNION PREPARES FOR CHRISTMAS

A TOWERING CHRISTMAS TREE set up in the lounge of Iowa Union yesterday got a thorough tinsel trimming by three members of a Union board sub-committee in charge of decorations. The board lit fires in all five of the Union's fireplaces which will be kept burning every day next week. The River room was also decorated for Christmas dances to be held Wednesday and Thursday at 4:30 p.m.

since the founding of the scholarships in 1904. Some 871 candidates representing 233 American colleges and universities have contended for the 48 appointments awarded yesterday. Selection was made on literary and scholastic ability and attainments, character, leadership and physical vigor.

J.H. Stephens Elected To Phi Beta Kappa

Election of Joseph H. Stephens, A4 of New Hampton, to membership in Phi Beta Kappa, national honorary scholastic fraternity, was announced yesterday.

Stephens is a history major and will be graduated in February. Nine other members were elected last Monday.

Carr, Noyes Funds Open to Students For Next Semester

All undergraduates who have completed residence requirements and are eligible for Carr and LaVerne Noyes scholarships for the second semester may obtain application forms at the office of student placement, Old Capitol.

Robert L. Ballantyne, secretary of the committee on student aid, said yesterday that time may be saved by applicants if they obtain application materials this week and fill them out during Christmas vacation.

Residence requirement for scholarships is a minimum of one semester of study at the university. Students now in their first semester of work will have met that requirement at the start of second semester, Ballantyne said. The Carr scholarships pay $30 each semester and the Noyes scholarships, $50 each semester.

Both scholarships are awarded on a basis of financial need and academic proficiency. The Noyes scholarships are limited to children of persons who saw military service during World War I. They are eligible if either parent served during that war prior to May 11, 1918, or if they served overseas at any time prior to Nov. 11, 1918.

No other requirements must be met, but neither scholarship is open to veterans of World War II

Handel Inspired to Compose 'Messiah' While in 'Spiritual Trance' for 24 Days

Handel's "Messiah," to be performed Wednesday by the university orchestra and chorus, inspires thousands of people each Christmas-time—but it was a double inspiration to George Frederick Handel.

He composed the oratorio in 24 days—in what is said to have been a spiritual trance—and gave most of the money from its performances to the poor.

Handel wrote "The Messiah" in 1741, and because of the scope and magnitude of the work, the speed of its creation is regarded as history's greatest feat of musical composition. He worked day and night during the 24 days, never once leaving his house.

The first public performance of the oratorio was at Dublin in April, 1743. It was enthusiastically received, and Handel soon returned to London to produce "The Messiah" there.

London was not greatly pleased with the oratorio, partly because it was regarded as "sacrilege" by religious elements who objected to dealing with sacred subjects in "playhouses." In its first London season, "The Messiah" was performed only three times, and then not by its real name but by the title, "A Sacred Oratorio." This title was used for many years thereafter.

The oratorio, its performances usually conducted by Handel himself, grew in popularity with the years, however. Handel's last performance of "The Messiah" was at London's Covent Garden, eight days before his death.

Handel, a prosperous composer for his time, did not care attending school at government expense.

Mabel Reed Weds Ralph Vasquez Here

Mabel Reed, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. William Anderson Reed of Chattanooga, Tenn., and Ralph Vasquez of Iowa City were married yesterday at 5 p.m. in the Baptist student center.

Performing the double ring ceremony was the Rev. Elmer E. Dierks.

The bride is a graduate of Chattanooga high school and the University of Chattanooga, where she was a member of Phi Mu sorority. The bridegroom is a graduate of National Institute, high school in Panama City, Panama, and the University of Chattanooga, where he was affiliated with Phi Sigma Iota fraternity.

Mr. Vasquez is a Spanish instructor in the romance language department. The couple will make its home at 730 Iowa avenue.

Members of the Amish religion are forbidden to ride in automobiles or tractors.

GREGG COLLEGE
 A School of Business—Preferred by College Men and Women
4 MONTH INTENSIVE COURSE
 SECRETARIAL TRAINING FOR COLLEGE STUDENTS AND GRADUATES
 A thorough, intensive course—starting June, October, February. Bulletin A on request.
 SPECIAL COUNSELOR for G.I. TRAINING
 Regular Day and Evening Schools Throughout the Year. Catalogs President, John Robert Gregg, S.C.D.
 Director, Paul M. Fair, M.A.
THE GREGG COLLEGE
 Dept. NW, 6 N. Michigan Ave., Chicago 2

BIG CITY—

(Continued from page 2)

has been strongly entrenched as mayor for 13 years.

Republicans gains in St. Louis are attributed largely to a shift in the heavy Negro vote there. It is reported that in other cities also many Negroes who were consistent supporters of Roosevelt voted Republican last November. However, most observers regard the shortages of meat, soap and other consumer necessities as the big reason for the Republican sweep in all parts of the country.

In California the Democrats outnumbered the Republicans almost two to one in primary registrations. But they apparently voted in large numbers for Republicans or for candidates nominated by both parties who happened to be Republicans. Los Angeles, the big Democratic center, voted every which way, even to write-in votes against regular party candidates. San Francisco

MULFORD

SANTA DOESN'T SIT DOWN ON THE JOB

He's found these Christmas gifts—

- Electric Vibrators
- Five fine kinds of electric broilers
- Ice buckets
- Hostess sets
- Relish dishes and trays
- Console sets
- Flo Mar Pottery
- Bun Warmers
- Hostess cake covers
- Vegetable casserole dishes
- Aluminum coasters and Pan American Aluminum
- Queensware

Only 8 shopping days till Christmas

MULFORD

ELECTRIC SERVICE

115 S. Clinton Dial 2312

ALDOUS

Ready for Christmas

In a house that says "WELCOME EVERYBODY"

A festive touch in the window and on the door is like putting out a sign that says "Merry Christmas and come on in!" It's the spirit of household merriment showing. And it can show everywhere—in sprigs of evergreen over the mantel or busy doorway, in the center of the dining table with Christmas candles and red berries, and in the window and on the door where every caller will feel the welcome it extends. Give your home this Christmas cheer.

Place your Christmas gift orders early by dialing 3171

ALDOUS FLOWER SHOP

112 S. Dubuque

A Great Christmas Gift

ELASTI-GLASS

Zipper Golf Jacket

$5.95

You can swing freely... in this new ELASTI-GLASS golf jacket

Complete freedom of swing in this feather-weight golf jacket. Tailored of the waterproof miracle material Elasti-Glass. Remains smooth, soft and pliant...cannot dry or crack. Electronically sealed seams, full-length zipper front. In Fairway Green or Crystal Clear.

Elasti-Glass is an organic glass of almost living elasticity. It contains no silica or rubber! Made from "Vinyllite" based resin. Covered by U. S. Pat. No. 2,298,313. Registered Trade Mark.

Also — A Raincoat Makes A Much Appreciated Gift — $9.95 to $25.00

BREMERS

Quality First with Nationally Advertised Brands

Betty Ramiller Tops Debaters In State Meet

Betty Ramiller of Burlington was ranked the outstanding debater at the Iowa Forensic league high school debate and discussion tournament held at University high school yesterday.

Miss Ramiller was rated 5.0 in the three rounds to lead debaters from five Iowa high schools.

Other debaters named superior were Dick Wischmeir of Burlington and Bob Highbarger and Jim McKinney, both of Muscatine.

Receive 5.0 Ratings
In the morning rounds of discussion Allan Morgan, University high school; Highbarger, Bob Evans and George Webster, also both of Muscatine, received 5.0 ratings.

Other superior discussers were Earl Mason and Dick Millintron, both of Mason City; Jim Scharff of Waterloo; Margie Porter of University high school; Beverly Burman and Charles Huggins, both of Burlington, and Stanley Effending and Marilyn McMullen, both of Dubuque.

In the extempore speaking contest, Marion Warming of Burlington was accorded the only superior rating.

No superiors were given in oratory, but four persons—Highbarger, Dorothy Stillman and Joe Goldbach, both of Burlington, and Miss Ramiller were ranked as excellent.

More Than 125 Participate
More than 125 high school students participated in the contest, debating and discussing the question of socialized medicine. The tournament opened the season for the high school debaters.

Dr. C. W. Edney, head of the University high school speech department, directed the tournament, and Betty Ann Erickson, A4 of Spencer, was tournament manager. Assisting her were Perry Long, G of Hastings, Neb.; Arlene Nelson, A4 of Sioux City; John Oostendorp, A3 of Muscatine, and Pat Grothaus, A4 of Iowa City.

Two Auto Collisions Cause $225 Damage

Cars driven by Charles Singelman, 832 Dearborn street, and R. C. Humphrey, 1509 Muscatine avenue, collided yesterday morning causing $150 damage to the Singelman coupe and $75 damage to Humphrey's car.

The crash occurred as Singelman was backing out of a private drive and Humphrey was driving east on Burlington street.

In a second accident reported yesterday morning, a car driven by Robert S. Hoyt, 1107 E. Burlington street, received slight damages when it and a sedan driven by Paul E. McNutt, route 7, collided on Washington street at 10:30 a.m. No damage to the second car was reported.

AVC to Meet Tuesday

The Johnson county chapter of the American Veterans committee will meet Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the City hall council chambers.

The agenda will include committee reports as well as regular business.

HEY, SANTA CLAUS, DON'T FORGET ME

WHEN YOU COME TO OUR HOUSE, SANTA CLAUS, don't forget our chimney's kinda small. And we don't have a fireplace for my stocking. We live in a trailer in Hawkeye Village. But we've got a Christmas tree with tinsel and everything. And I want a doll and a sled and a red cap and . . . This urgent request was made by Colleen Van Horne of trailer 157, yesterday as she tugged on Santa's coat tail. Santa had just stepped out of Ford Hopkins Drug to see if the snow that blanketed Iowa City during the afternoon would be deep enough to carry his sleigh. From all reports, his load of toys will be heavier than ever this year. (DAILY IOWAN PHOTO BY DICK DAVIS)

Police Hunt Accident Car

Police are searching for a black 1936 Ford sedan with red wheels which failed to stop after colliding with a parked car on Bowers street Friday night.

Meanwhile investigation is being made of the theft Friday night of a black 1936 Ford coach reported stolen from Otto Sasina, route 1.

A 1936 Ford hub cap, a piece of black fender and a red wheel flashing were found at the scene of the Bowers street crash. The parked car, owned by Prof. Marcus Bach of the school of religion, received about $50 damage.

Sasina told police yesterday afternoon that he parked his car in the 100 block of S. Capitol street at 8:30 p.m. Friday. When he returned at 10 p.m., the car was gone, he said.

The stolen car has red wheels, and both front windows are broken, Sasina told police.

SUI Music Students To Present Recitals

Twenty-five students will present two recitals in the music building tomorrow afternoon at 4:10, as a part of the music department student series.

In the north music hall a program of piano and cello performances will be heard. Composers represented on this program will be Bach, Beethoven, Mozart, Saint-Saens, Chopin and Debussy.

Participating in this recital will be Harriet Boekenhoff, A2 of Quincy, Ill., cellist; Pianists Betty Drees, A3 of Carroll; Mary Ellen Gatens, A4 of Iowa City; Ruth Collister, A3 of Cedar Rapids; Anthony Dengler, G of Little Rock, Ark.; Shirley Holmes, A1 of Newton; Oliver Wade, A3 of Cedar Rapids; Marion Pantel, A4 of Muscatine; Jeanne McDonald, A2 of Lima, Ohio; B. J. Hamm, A1 of Livermore, and Carolyn Woods, A3 of Burlington.

The other recital will be held in the south music hall and will include both instrumental and vocal numbers. Featured in this recital will be Henry Hoeltje, A2 of Iowa City, baritone; Charlottee Wolford, G of Clear Lake, and Lillian Parizek, A1 of Iowa City, sopranos; David Hoover, A2 of Centerville, and Edward Currie, A2 of Schaller, tenors; Helen Gower, A2 of Iowa City, and Betty De Moss, A3 of Quincy, Ill., violinists.

Patricia Brower, A2 of Iowa City, oboist; Mark Kelly, A1 of Centerville, clarinetist; Laura Wolf, G of Canon City, Col., flutist; accompanied by Charles Elbe, G of Iowa City, pianist; and Elbert Masmar, A1 of Clarinda, accompanied on the piano by Norma Cross, music department in "playhouses." In its first Lon-Rock, Ark.; Shirley Holmes, A1 of Newton; Oliver Wade, A3 of Cedar Rapids; Marion Pantel, A4 of Muscatine; Jeanne McDonald, A2 of Lima, Ohio; B. J. Hamm, A1 and Deemes Taylor.

Kind Policemen Give—

Parking Meter Lessons

—Instead of $1 Fines

If Iowa City police hadn't been kind enough to let drivers "get used to the parking meter idea" they would have been at least $26 richer from $1 overtime fines in 30 minutes yesterday!

'Overtimers' Decrease
A quick check of the parking meter block at 11 a. m. showed 16 red "expired" signs displayed prominently before cars whose owners failed to deposit money or overstayed their time. In another 15 minute check at 2:30 p. m. the "overtimers" numbered 10.

Tickets were given for overtime parking, but drivers were given a lesson on operation of parking meters instead of a fine when they reported at the station.

Puzzled Motorists
Numerous comments and puzzled expressions came from un-

One woman drove into an empty space, went into the nearest store, phoned the police station with this question — "Do I put my money in now or when I leave the store?"

suspecting motorists as the parking devices, designed to promote greater turnover in downtown parking, began operating yesterday.

"Where does the money go?" was the most popular inquiry. It seems the mental covered coin slot fooled most everyone—it took a second look to find the black arrow labeled "coin" pointing toward the right side of the meter. Time dials jump 12 minutes for a penny, 60 minutes for a nickel. Self-consciousness was noticeable when motorists were confronted with depositing money. Most drivers examined the meters for several minutes and looked up and down the street before parting with pennies and nickels.

Even pedestrians stopped for a look. One puzzled fellow gazed at a meter for a full five minutes, shook his head and walked away.

Watch Dials Jump
High school boys stood on one corner putting pennies in to watch the time dial jump—farther on papa handed pennies to the kids so they could push them into the slot—and humor has it that many business men "toyed" with the machines on their way to work.

Comments that meters resembled hitching posts of old were plentiful—many farmers, waiting patiently for the Mrs., gathered around the meters instead of leaning against buildings or standing on corners.

No Change
Prize for the funniest incident goes to a businessman who hunted several minutes for a parking space to buy only cigarettes. With a sigh of relief he drove into a recently vacated spot to find that he didn't have any change for the meter.

Meters didn't seem to scare motorists away, however, because empty spaces were few and far between. By early afternoon money in individual meters ranged from 5 cents to $1.34.

Police report that only a few meters didn't function properly, and these have been repaired.

Services in Muscatine For Mrs. C.K. Patten

Funeral services for Mrs. C. K. Patten, 51, of Omaha, will be held at 2:30 this afternoon at the Whittig funeral home in Muscatine. Mrs. Patten died Friday at her home following a lingering heart ailment. She was the former Agatha Healey.

She was a graduate of the State University of Iowa and a sister of the late Mrs. J. A. O'Leary Sr. of Iowa City.

Mrs. Patten is survived by her husband and daughter and one sister, Mrs. J. N. Brugman of West Liberty.

Great Britain first laid claim to the West Indian island of Barbados in 1605, when an English ship landed there.

$15,000 Suit Filed Against Connells

A $15,000 damage suit was brought against J. F. Connell and Robert J. Connell of Iowa City yesterday in district court.

Ethel C. Johnson filed the petition, which states the Connells showed negligence in driving and caused an accident resulting in the death of Howard C. Brown of Cedar Rapids. The plaintiff is the administratrix of Brown's estate.

According to the petition, Brown was standing beside the highway at the scene of an automobile accident four miles north of Iowa City Sept. 22 when he was struck by a car driven by J. F. Connell.

DIAMONDS

Of Rare Beauty
And Quality

The rare beauty and quality of Fuik's diamonds makes the gift of perfection for the girl of your dreams.

Forty-five years of established business have made Fuik's the home of quality.

Matching Wedding Rings

I. FUIKS

Jeweler & Optometrist
220 Washington St.

Important Announcement

... from TOWNER'S

Regarding Our Jewelry Department

We have decided to sell out now, before Christmas, our entire present stock of costume jewelry.

To accomplish this we have taken drastic price reductions and we advise your prompt attendance to share in these extra-ordinary and desirable jewelry bargains.

This Unusual And Sensational Closing-Out Sale of Jewelry!

Brings to you our entire costume jewelry stock assembled for this Christmas season—now it is to be sold at price reduction of

1-2 1-3 1-4 1-5

Every Piece of Jewelry at a Discount

Pears — brilliants — Mexican Silver — Gold — Plastics — Clips — Pins — Necklaces — Chokers — Bracelets — Rings — Combs — Compacts — Charms — Locketts — Chains — Lighters and other gift items.

Our Jewelry stock has been grouped on separate counters for convenient selection and quick selling . . . attend this sale to morrow.

Store Open
9:30 a.m.
Every Day

Towner's

After Wednesday
Open Evenings
11 9 p.m.

The Present PERFECT

A siren scent with all the warmth of a southern sea. From $2.25 plus tax

LUCIEN LELONG

Iowa City's Fashion Store

TOWNER'S

10 South Clinton Street

A CHRISTMAS PRESENT FOR HER FUTURE

Gorham
STERLING

Nothing could say "Merry Christmas" quite the way a gift of Gorham Sterling does . . . everyday! For a present of solid silver lasts a lifetime. Start her Gorham Sterling with a few place-settings . . . add more over the years. We have a wide selection of lovely Gorham Sterling—come in and choose your pattern today.

Price shown is for one place-setting and includes 20% Fed. Tax

GORHAM LYRIC 875-07

HAUSER'S JEWELRY STORE

Unive Art Ex

Display Influenc Observ

The first art work by a young artist school for the main gallery building.

To continue display in 125 pieces of pupils ranging in age.

The children influenced by museums and discussions of art read aloud to Mrs. Shirley, a supervisor of a

Indep

There is a great pretation in the exhibit—we remember and things were made to or to tell them when they die.

"I think that given a variety of the art program own experience provided with the child is to work on his

However, a ritual problem teacher come particular ne she can help and as a group ton pointed c

Everyd

Pupils at elementary school three dimensions materials the using in the ording to such work he art carries o day life and them from t special sub school.

She emphasizes children's art this century, ginning to ur sophisticated applied to ch

Children's freshness of freedom of e lions to be school work, remarked.

Principles through pain creative medical applicat Throckmorton principles o children eve things as co clothing, ar rooms at hor flower arran

Child

"Children of their own principles lea come one of influences o ality," she de

Art instru grade and ju whose work Middents; th are taught b teachers hav ing experien for advance iversity art d

Painting used in the charcoal, w

SANTA CLA neapolls yest another grea Bettens. Alt 485-1-11

University Elementary School Art Exhibit Opens Today

Display Features Art Influenced by Stories, Observation, Holidays

The first large public exhibit of art work by University elementary school pupils opens today in the main gallery of the university art building.

To continue through Dec. 31, the display includes approximately 125 pieces of art by more than 90 pupils ranging from 5 to 11 years of age.

The children's art work was influenced by field trips, visits to museums and adult art exhibits, discussions of holidays and stories read aloud to them, according to Mrs. Shirley Throckmorton, supervisor of art at the schools.

Independent Work

There is great variety of interpretation in the four groupings of the exhibit—"things we see, things we remember, things we imagine and things we make." No attempt was made to direct the children or to tell them how to proceed when they did the art work, Mrs. Throckmorton stressed.

"I think that when a child is given a variety of material, when the art program is related to his own experience and when he is provided with new experiences, the child is sufficiently stimulated to work on his own," she said.

However, each child has individual problems, and after the teacher comes to understand the particular needs of the children, she can help them individually and as a group, Mrs. Throckmorton pointed out.

Everyday Applications

Pupils at the University elementary schools have been doing three dimensional art work with materials they are accustomed to using in their own homes. According to Mrs. Throckmorton, such work helps them realize how art carries over into their everyday life and is intended to keep them from thinking of art as a special subject taught in the school.

She emphasized that interest in children's art has only come in this century, and we are only beginning to understand that adults' sophisticated standards cannot be applied to children's art."

Children's art has spontaneity, freshness of vision, originality and freedom of expression—qualifications to be found in all their school work, Mrs. Throckmorton remarked.

Principles which children learn through painting or some other creative medium can have a practical application, according to Mrs. Throckmorton, who believes such principles can be realized by children every day through such things as color combinations in clothing, arrangement of their rooms at home, table settings and flower arrangements.

Children Enjoy Art

"Children get a lot of fun out of their own accomplishments and principles learned in art can become one of the most important influences on their whole personality," she declared.

Art instructor of the fourth grade and junior primary pupils whose work is on exhibit is John Middents; the other five grades are taught by Doris Byrd. Both teachers have had previous teaching experience and are studying for advanced degrees in the university art department.

Painting and drawing media used in the displayed art were charcoal, water colors, chalk,

Shopping Hours

Stores in Iowa City will remain open until 9 p. m. from Dec. 18 to 23 and will be open until 4 p. m. Dec. 24 to accommodate pre-holiday shoppers.

Grocery stores will be open until 9 p. m. Monday, Dec. 23 and will close Christmas eve at 5 p. m. powder print, crayon, pencil and tempera.

Later this year the pupils will use clay, ink washes, mural paintings and applied designs in their art work.

This spring there will be separate exhibitions of art work by each grade, with each child selecting the work he wishes to be shown. Parents will be invited.

Faculty Members Attend Engineering Meeting in Chicago

Dean F. M. Dawson, Prof. Huber O. Croft and Prof. Fred Higbee, all of the college of engineering, will leave today for Chicago to attend a meeting of the general councils of the American Society for Engineering Education.

Meetings of three ASEE subdivisions—the general council of the national society, council of the engineering colleges and research association and council of engineering college administrators—will be held during the three-day conference.

The national society is headed by Professor Croft. Dean Dawson is president of the council for engineering colleges and research association and vice-president of the society.

About 40 representatives from colleges and schools will meet at Chicago to discuss such problems as increases in enrollment, writing of a teaching manual, publication policy for the monthly Journal of Engineering Education and cooperation with the United Nations educational, scientific and cultural organization.

Probably the most pressing problem is the increase in enrollment, which has doubled since prewar years, Professor Croft said.

Vacation Jobs Open To SUI Students

Jobs for 50 students are available during the Christmas holiday at the Wilson Packing company in Cedar Rapids.

Robert L. Ballantyne, manager of student placement at the office of student affairs, announced yesterday that students may work the number of days they are free, but the company prefers workers available for the whole vacation period.

Pay scale is 86 cents an hour with time-and-a-half for work beyond an eight-hour day and an additional 5-cent-an-hour bonus for work after 6 p. m.

An additional 15 to 20 jobs are available during the holiday period on campus in grounds and building work, Ballantyne said.

Students interested in these jobs should contact him in the office of student affairs, Old Capitol.

Junior Farm Bureau To Observe Chartering

Johnson county Junior Farm Bureau members will celebrate tenth annual writing of the club charter at their holiday dinner Monday night in Hotel Jefferson.

The group has recognized writing of the charter each year since 1936 when it was inscribed. The former junior Farm Bureau presidents will speak. Leslie Milder, president, West Branch, will be toastmaster.

Officers for the 1947 year will be introduced. They are Kenneth Smalley, president, and Philip Hotka, vice-president, both route 3; Mary Ann Thuerlauf, secretary, Solon, and Matt Eckermann, treasurer, Oxford.

Prof. Wendell Johnson, director of the speech clinic, will address members of the Negro forum at 6 p. m. today.

Professor Johnson's topic will be "People in Quandaries." The meeting will be held in the YMCA conference room of Iowa Union.

The name cranberry or cranberry refers to the resemblance of the bud and stem to the head and neck of a crane.

Alpha Phi Omega 21 Years Old Today

Alpha Phi Omega, the only fraternity of more than 400 Greek letter organizations devoted chiefly to service, will observe its 21st birthday today.

Since 1930, when Omicron chapter was installed here, members of the local chapter have been pledging themselves to campus, community and national service. All college men who are or have been affiliated with the Boy Scouts of America are eligible for membership, regardless of creed or color.

Work in clothing drives, tuberculosis campaigns and daily visits to university students in University hospitals have been included in the fraternity's activities.

More than 110 Alpha Phi Omega chapters are located on campuses all over the United States.

Student Council to Plan Musical Show Tuesday

Plans for the all-campus musical comedy show will be made at a Student Council meeting Tuesday night at 7:30 in the senate chamber of Old Capitol.

Beverly Benson, A2 of Omaha, will report on preparations for the Campus Chest drive.

Hillel Group to Hold Chanukah Party Today

The Hillel Jewish foundation will hold an open house Chanukah party at Hillel house today at 2:30 p. m. Dancing, entertainment and refreshments will feature the afternoon's festivities.

Admission will be by membership cards which will be sold at the door to new members.

Co-chairmen of the event are: Phyllis Studner, A3 of Omaha, and Sam Garolinsky, E4 of New York City.

Art Head to Give Humanities Lecture

Characteristics of 20th century art and science will be discussed by Prof. Lester D. Longman, head of the art department, in his address before the Humanities society tomorrow night at 8 o'clock in the art building auditorium.

In this illustrated lecture on "Contemporary Art and Science," he will explain related characteristics of developments in the two fields.

Humanities society lectures are open to the public. Graduate students and faculty members are eligible for membership, in the society, and are mailed meeting

Santa Needs Helpers; Gift Production Snag Disappoints Children

Santa Claus struck a production snag yesterday and disappointed some 100 boys and girls at Children's hospital.

Santa was scheduled to appear at the hospital yesterday afternoon during the YWCA Christmas party, but last-minute gift complications forced Party Chairman Connie Carlson to report a sleigh breakdown to the children.

But they were assured Santa would appear Wednesday night instead, although they don't know Santa's helpers are frantically scouring the town for presents.

Gifts contributed by freshman Y members, originally intended for Children's hospital, were switched to the convalescent hospital to meet a more immediate need.

Several campus housing units have offered to contribute dime and quarter gifts for the children. Anyone wishing to give Santa a helping hand may leave presents for the children at the YWCA rooms in Iowa Union before Wednesday.

Notices after paying the 25 cents yearly dues to the secretary, Prof. Alexander Kern of the English department.

Baptist Students to Hold Christmas Service Today

Baptist students will attend a candle-lit Christmas vesper service at 6:15 p. m. today in Roger Williams house.

Those attending are asked to bring a gift of money, food or clothing to be given to those in need.

Chairmen of the evening will be Glenn Evans, P1 of East Moline, Ill., and Mary Alice Evans, G of East Moline. Wallace Ash, A2 of Des Moines, and Valerie Dierks, A2 of Iowa City will be in charge of vespers, and Don Robertson, A3 of Des Moines, and Annette Robertson are chairmen of the banquet committee.

Methodist Church Group To Give Play Today

Wesley players of the Methodist church will present the play "No Room in the Hotel" at 6:45 p. m. today in the church sanctuary.

Barbara Hall, A4 of Marshalltown, will direct the play, and Ed Wieben, G of Iowa City, will be stage manager.

A technicolor film will also be shown and Mrs. William Cupp, harpist, will play.

Goodbye, Red-Tile Top—Hello, Leak-Proof Roof

The zoology building is having its top lifted.

Sounds of banging, smashing and crashing herald the departure of the old, leaky, red-tile roof which has shielded the four-story zoology building from rain and snow for many years.

The new, leak-proof roof will be put in place during Christmas vacation.

Beautification is also underway inside the building, where offices and laboratories are being painted.

'Morning Chapel' to Air Canterbury Club Talks

Canterbury club members will discuss "The Incarnation in Relation to Modern Life" over the Morning Chapel program this week.

Under the direction of Rebecca Davis, G of Elkridge, Md., the program will consist of talks by Donald Kreymer, A4 of St. Louis; Leon Wilkins, A2 of Keokuk; Mrs. Edward Gill, Australia; Eugene Stach, A3 of Lusuear, Minn.; John Weiser, A4 of Ft. Madison, and Patricia Griswold, G of Hamburg, N. Y.

Morning Chapel is broadcast over WSUI every weekday at 8 a. m.

Happy Holiday Fashions

Mrs. Edleman has just returned from New York

The new garments are beautiful!
Some new dresses in sizes to 44.
Some lovely new gabardines, crepes, wools. New suits.

Holiday Partners

There are new skirts... new blouses... and new sweaters.
Also ask to see our two, three and four piece slack suits. Separate jackets and slacks.

There are many bargains in winter coats, winter suits and dresses. See our $8.30 and $10.00 rack of dresses.

WILLARD'S APPAREL SHOP

SANTA CLAUS AND FRIENDS

SANTA CLAUS showed up at the Shrine children's hospital in Minneapolis yesterday with Jack Dempsey (right) and Tommy Gibbons, another great heavyweight boxer, to spread cheer among the crippled patients. Although no sports luminary this particular Santa Claus weighs 485-pounds. Wonder if Dempsey is trying to get him into the fight game. (AP WIREPHOTO)

A Little Girl With A Big Gift

Just a little girl offering her grandmother a Christmas present, but how much this simple act symbolizes.

Most people have learned early in life the joy of giving. Christmas is the time when we express that knowledge and realization. The spirit of Christmas expresses love and appreciation . . . keeps alive the warm bonds of friendship throughout the years.

But how much more it would mean if we could but find the way to keep the Christmas spirit alive through all the days of the year. This, actually, is what we now seek. Let us pray that we will soon find the means to that end.

University Veterans Association

American Legion Roy L. Chopek Post 17

American Veterans Committee Johnson County Chapter

American Veterans of World War II — Post 32

Disabled American Veterans Old Gold Post 19

Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 2581

Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!

Doc and B MILE-INN f with good ol you holiday typical "Doc extend to e bestest for 15 TWO-MILE- piece of Mor made pie . . day season t

Joyce Kea Philippson ar hall from the Bob Lothing are also roo from the hous Saturday nig Bob pinned J ned Sallie. B Too many te that and you Ton Tessies!

Hi, Ho, an mas from D Hang the hol window—the ery door—and CLEANERS a Merry Chri New Year.

The Mary ler twosome teh rocks, al the rocks, at stones . . . and a spark!

Time to Say Mr. and Mrs. thank everyo response to th GRECIE FOR the same time to all of you s best wishes PORTRAIT City's best ph

Around the Campus

Campus Consultants

Hersh Herzberg

Dottie Parker

Nancy Green

Where to Go . . .

Season's Greetings

Doc and Betty . . . of TWO-MILE-INN fame . . . chime in with good ole St. Nick to bring you holiday greetings. And in typical "Doc fashion" may we extend to each of you "the bestest for 1947". Drop in at the TWO-MILE-INN today for a piece of Mom's delicious homemade pie . . . start your holiday season the right way.

Joyce Kearsing and Sallie Philippon are roommates. They hail from the house of the Zetas. Bob Lothringer and John Drew are also roommates. They hail from the house of the Betas. Last Saturday night at a Beta party Bob pinned Joyce and John pinned Sallie. Be careful you Zetas! Too many ten pound deals like that and you gals will be "Two Ton Tessies!"

Hi, Ho, and A Merry Christmas from DAVIS CLEANERS. Hang the holly high in every window—the mistletoe over every door—and again may DAVIS CLEANERS extend to everyone a Merry Christmas and a Joyous New Year.

The Mary Moeller-Kay Statler twosome is certainly not on teh rocks, although their road of the rocks, although their road of stones . . . a jeweled SAE pin and a sparkling diamond ring.

Time to Say Happy Holiday . . . Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Grecie wish to thank everyone for their splendid response to the newly modernized GRECIE PORTRAIT STUDIO. At the same time they wish to extend to all of you seasons greetings and best wishes for 1947. GRECIE PORTRAIT STUDIO . . . Iowa City's best photography shop.

Gifts that say "Merry Christmas" are practical gifts from BOERNER'S. Always desirable, yet practical, are Jewellite combs and brushes. These Jewellite products come in blue, pink and crystal and the brushes all have pron bristles. Other gifts from BOERNER'S that are on the housewife's "I Want" list are thermometers . . . outdoor, indoor, candy and meat thermometers. Come in to BOERNER'S tomorrow and finish your Christmas shopping.

A new fraternity spirit is now in the "do" Between the boys of Phi Delta, Beta and Sigma Nu. Together on campus they're seen in mass Instead of the usual "one for one" class. They party together and share their fun So here's to when by all men it's done.

Santa is just hot with the latest tips . . . First, on how you can save at MAID-RITE. 'Cause he knows with Christmas shopping in full tide your eating time and money will be limited . . . so that's why he suggests that you eat at MAID-RITE. There you can get a luscious home-cooked meal promptly and cheaply. Second, that MAID-RITE extends to each and everyone of you a "Very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year."

Let Santa beautify your home for the holidays in the traditional American manner . . . with a Christmas tree from BRENNEMAN'S. For an added dash of Yuletide spirit place a balsam wreath from BRENNEMAN'S over your doorway . . . or a little sprig of English holly or mistletoe can do wonders for your home. Order from BRENNEMAN'S today while our stocks are still complete.

The LAREW COMPANY has the ideal gift to make your home more comfortable the year round. Have Santa fill your stocking with a water softener, calculator or water heater. We don't mean, this quite literally, of course, but LAREW'S have these appliances in stock for immediate delivery. These necessary luxuries make ideal Christmas gifts for your home. Drop in at the LAREW COMPANY and make your selection of a practical gift.

An ideal gift suggestion comes from MULFORD'S ELECTRIC SERVICE—an ice bucket. This ice bucket comes in bright shiny chromium with ice tongs to match. Priced at only $2.29 it is a favorite on everyone's Christmas list. Another suggestion from MULFORD'S is a Farberware table roaster which broils, cooks and toasts and makes meal-planning oh so easy. Come in tomorrow and see MULFORD'S galaxy of gifts.

Nine little Sigma Eps Are waitin' to be hitched. They didn't use their horse sense. It seems they are bewitched By nine little lovelies Who didn't tell them neigh. So throw the wedding harness on And send them on their way!

Apples, Apples . . . Delicious Apples . . . Giant Apples! That's what you'll get at the FRUIT BASKET. For it's at the FRUIT BASKET that quality and quantity in fruit are yours. Besides our giant apples you can get giant oranges, grapes, grapefruit, bananas and the like. Buzz down to the FRUIT BASKET tomorrow and take home a bag of revitalizing energy . . . fruit.

Until next year we say "Good-bye" Our parting word is with a sigh. To each of you we now extend Best wishes to the very end. MERRY CHRISTMAS AND HAPPY NEW YEAR

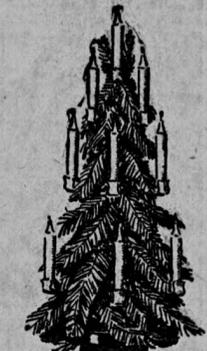

PRESENTS PERFECT from WHETSTONE'S . . . Gift problems are unknown here . . . we have the perfect present for everything SHE wants. Sparkling successes by Coty, Max Factor, Helena Rubinstein, and Tussy . . . plus all those "just what I wanted" extras that make your Christmas selections ring the bell every time. Come polish off your list at WHETSTONE'S in one fell swoop. While you're here doing your Christmas shopping take advantage of our complete fountain service.

DICK RASMUSSEN, A4 OF FOREST CITY, DELTA SIGMA PI, GAVE WITH THE SPARKLER TO ALYCE SMITH, EASTLAWN. BEPERCUSSIONS OF SAID EVENT . . . FIVE POUNDS OF CANDY WAS PASSED AROUND TO THE LUCKY EASTLAWN GIRLS.

Jack Downer can't make up his mind So to and fro he goes From women to a writer's world. (Then to a place called—)

This "Oh, my" Phi Psi has combined The two into a tale. Read "Women" in your next Frivol And watch the ladies pale.

Jacki Shellady, Gamma Phi, and Bob Brumer, Phi Psi, don't let a little thing like a snowfall bother them. No siree, look at their smiling faces as they step into a smart, comfortable YELLOW CAB. YELLOW CAB, come rain, shine, or snow takes you to your destination quickly, comfortably, safely. Just dial 3131 . . . about the most popular number in town . . . for mighty fine cab service. How about calling a YELLOW CAB to catch that vacation-bound train, bus or plane?

This is not intended to be a dirty dig, but we must mention that one of the insignificant signs of the time is that thing tacked on the frivol office door. It reads, "Please wipe feet before entering—No room for dirt." Need we say more?

Is she full of captivating complexities? Is she gay, whimsical, unpredictable . . . But your pride and joy? Don't whiten a hair over it. Make her Yuletide season complete . . . take her to dinner at the HOT FISH SHOP. The HOT FISH SHOP specializes in Southern fried chicken and luscious fish dinners. Pleasant courteous service, the best food obtainable and reasonable prices reign at the HOT FISH SHOP. It's just a hop and a jump from downtown Iowa City . . . right on Riverside Drive . . . but that hop makes all the difference between a pleasant evening and "Just eating." Remember it's the HOT FISH SHOP.

This is the story of a boy, girl and love. The plot's the usual thing, ends with a diamond ring. First we find a fool in school named Eddie Clarke. Pat Rinella and this fella Hit it from the start.

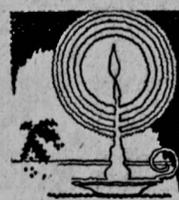

And now you've guessed the rest. We wish our very best To this cute Zeta gal and our Quadrangle pal.

Amid this season of holly and mistletoe comes this last minute gift suggestion from HERTEEN & STOCKER. HERTEEN & STOCKER have just received a new shipment of cigarette cases for HIM and for HER. These cigarette cases are both large and small, both silver and gold. Priced from $3 up they are THE gift for THE person. Let HERTEEN & STOCKER advise you tomorrow on ideal gift suggestions.

From SUTTON'S RADIO SERVICE comes this practical gift suggestion . . . A Porta-Broil. The Porta-Broil . . . as the name implies . . . is a portable electric broiler and fryer . . . among its many advantages is the fact it can also be made into a stove for frying, toasting, making coffee and etc. or else into a space heater. Priced at only $5.95 this Porta-Broil is a "must" for the modern equipped home. Come in to SUTTON'S tomorrow and get this gift of all gifts.

Luggage is the perfect gift for the student . . . and BREMER'S is the place to get it. BREMER'S stock of men and ladies luggage is complete. Top grain cowhide Gladstones, overnight bags, ladies' hat boxes, airplane luggage and genuine leather briefcases comprise a few suggestions. These bags come in varied colors of brown, tan, beige, grey, blue, green, and maroon. To help with the budget BREMER'S have an established lay-a-way plan or credit service. So for the practical give luggage from BREMER'S Come, come, Cam! Tell us more. The only facts that we're familiar with are that one day last week-end Cam Smith, Gamma Phi, was pinned to Harold Caudal, Beta.

Season's Greetings—And an abundance of Christmas cheer. KRITZ STUDIO'S promise of dependable service holds true in 1946 as in the past years. So remember it's KRITZ STUDIO for the best in portrait photography.

A Gay Time For All!!! For an evening of whirl wind gaiety . . . hilarious fun 'n' frolic . . . dancing to your heart's content . . . luscious jumbo steaks served sizzling hot . . . plan to come out to the MELODY MILL tonight and every night.

More in the way of "sparkle stuff" Kathy Byram, Courier, has a beautiful diamond from Ted Schultz, U. of Calif. grad. Tis said they met on Wakiki Beach and since have paved the romantic path with "miles" of letters.

STROMSTEN STUDIO wishes to thank students for splendid cooperation and to wish each and every one a very MERRY CHRISTMAS and the best in 1947. We hope you'll all have a truly "HAPPY HOLIDAY."

The Daily Iowan Want Ads Get Results

CLASSIFIED RATE CARD

CASH RATE
 1 or 2 days—10¢ per line per day
 3 consecutive days—7¢ per line per day
 4 consecutive days—5¢ per line per day
 1 month—4¢ per line per day
 Figure 3 words to line—
 Minimum Ad—2 lines

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY
 50¢ col. inch
 Or $5.00 per month

All Want Ads Cash in Advance Payable at Daily Iowan Business office daily until 5 p.m.
 Cancellations must be called in before 5 p.m.
 Responsible for one incorrect insertion only.

Dial 4191
 * * *

FOR SALE: Used tuxedo size 36. Phone 5260.

FOR SALE: Sawed kindling for sale. Thompson Transfer. Dial 2161.

FOR SALE: Moving. Must sell baby bassinet $5.00, grey Honey-suckle carriage $20.00, 5 tube table model radio $10.00. Call 4308.

FOR SALE: Bausch and Lomb microscope. Call 6832.

FOR SALE: Davenport. 224 N. Dodge. Dial 6659.

FOR SALE: Piano. Dial 6592.

FOR SALE: 8x10 Clearflax rug, tilt back chair and ottoman, cricket chair. Dial 3756.

FOR SALE: Two radios, G. E. Portable combination plug in radio and armchair parlor radio. Excellent condition. 1128 Rochester.

FOR SALE: Shoe skates CCM made in Canada, sizes 11 and 11½. Dial 9196.

FOR SALE: Man's shoes 10½ D, galoshes, rubber boots, Firestone hockey skates 11½. Dial 5468.

FOR SALE: 2 pair of ladies' black shoe, size 8; 1 pair of gym shoes, size 5; 1 ski suit, size 12; dresses and coats, Misses sizes 9-11. Dial 5468.

FOR SALE: Excellent double-breasted tuxedo. Size 34, short. Perfect if you are 5' 6" or under. Call 7576.

FOR SALE: Complete drum outfit. 628 North Linn.

FOR SALE: Canaries. Dial 6889.

FOR SALE: Pure-bred Cocker Spaniel puppies. Red, blond and black. Ideal for Christmas. Harold Larew, 2 miles west-North Liberty. No Sunday sales.

FOR SALE: 1939 Deluxe Ford 4 door Sedan, Radio heater, Tires A1, Motor A1. For sale to highest bidder. Dial 3042.

FOR SALE

FOR SALE: Just arrived — 1 Bausch and Lomb Binocular Microscope and 2 Bausch and Lomb medical microscopes. Also all types of Ophthalmoscopes. Medical Arts Surgical Supply Co., Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

SHOP AT KIRWAN'S for your Christmas gifts for Mother or Dad. Large assortments of table lamps, smokers, magazine racks. Kirwan's will wrap any of your selections for shipping. Kirwan Furniture, 6 So. Dubuque.

CASH FOR YOUR USED CARS
 Any Make or Model
 It Will Pay You To See Us Before You Sell

MANN AUTO MART
 221 E. College

LOST AND FOUND

LOST: Hand tooled brown leather purse. Tinted value. Reward. Call 5817.

LOST: Tan billfold in or near Schaeffer Hall Thursday afternoon. Reward. Call Ext. 8246, Sally Mattes.

LOST: Reward—Glasses, clear plastic frames left Sunday night about 9:30 behind the back seat of 4-door late model car parked at Northwest entrance of Hillcrest facing the Quad. Call Ext. 8768.

LOST: A pair of rimless glasses in brown case. Call 3814.

WANTED TO RENT

GRADUATE assistant in Psychology Dept. and wife desire apt. after holidays or by first of next semester. Call 80137 or write Box K-21, Daily Iowan.

WANTED TO RENT: Garage vicinity of Linn and Market Sts. Phone 9582.

WANTED: Room and board on campus for graduate men students. Call 4159 after 5 p. m.

WANTED: Student veteran and wife desire single room for occupancy Jan. 1. Write Box J-20, Daily Iowan.

DOCTOR, resident at University Hospital, and wife desire furnished apt. or room. Preferably near Hospital. Call 4121, Room 826, Hotel Jefferson.

INSTRUCTION

GIRLS—WOMEN
 Wanted to be a Practical Nurse? BIG DEMAND—HIGH WAGES Instruction. High school not necessary. Easy to learn at home in spare time. Prepare now for this interesting, profitable work. Write for FREE information. Wayne School of Practical Nursing, Box L-22, Daily Iowan.

APARTMENTS

FOR RENT: Apartments in Riverside, Iowa. Dial 9590.

DELIVERY SERVICE

DELIVERY SERVICE, baggage, light hauling, Strong's Repair Shop. Dial 3545.

HELP WANTED

WANTED: Nursemaids for University Hospitals. Apply at Office of Nonacademic Personnel, Room 201, Old Dental Building.

BEAUTY PARLORS

HOTEL JEFFERSON
 Dial 5665
 Shampoo and Hairset $1.00
 Manicures $.75
 Rose Wombacher Mary Reed

BAKERY SUPPLIES

Fancy Pastry
 Party and Decorated Cakes—Our Specialty
 Dial 4195
SWANK BAKERY

WHERE TO GO

You'll Catch Up With the Crowd at DUFFY'S
 FOOD that you'll like with the DRINK you enjoy
DUFFY'S TAVERN
 221 S. Dubuque St.

RADIO SERVICE

SUTTON RADIO SERVICE
 Guaranteed Repairing
 Pick-up & Delivery
RADIOS-PHONOGRAPHS
 in stock for sale
 331 E. Market Dial 2239

Let Us Repair Your RADIO

*3 Day Service
 *Work Guaranteed
 *Pickup & Delivery
Woodburn Sound Service
 8 East College Dial 3265

FOR PROMPT RADIO REPAIR SERVICE

Dial 2450
 Pick Up and Delivery
Hoff Radio Service
 222 E. Prentiss St.

Dance to Recorded Music

We have the latest records
Woodburn Sound Service
 8 East College Dial 6731

Typewriters are Valuable keep them CLEAN and in REPAIR

Frohwein Supply Co.
 6 S. Clinton Phone 3474

NOTICE

I WISH to inform folks in Johnson county and vicinity that I am available every evening to transact any business for SMULE-KOFF'S of Cedar Rapids. Call John Dee. Phone 7489, Iowa City.

MOTOR SERVICE

Your Tire Troubles Are Over When You Bring Them to Our Shop
OK Rubber Welders
 OFFER YOU EXPERT SERVICE IN Tire Balancing Beading Capping Retreading Patching
DUTROS OK RUBBER WELDERS
 117 Iowa Ave.

Car Washing and Greasing Our Specialty

Sorensen & Johnson
 Texaco Service
 231 E. College Phone 7243

Now Available Christmas Gift Appliances

PLUMBING HEATING
 114 S. Linn Dial 5870

You Can Find All Kinds of ANTIQUES - LINENS CHINA

at Mrs. Reynolds' Hobby Shoppe
 17 So. Dubuque

"ALL KINDS OF INSURANCE"

S. T. MORRISON & CO. A. O. KELLEY
 203½ E. Washington St. Phone 6414

WHO DOES IT

We Fix-It Shop
 All types of skates sharpened by machine method. All home appliances, guns, locks, etc. repaired.
 111½ E. Washington Ph. 4535

Blackman Decorating Shop

Asphalt, Tile, Linoleum, Shades, and Carpet
 311 So. Clinton Dial 7713

THE FIRETENDER AUTOMATIC STOKER

Immediate Delivery
Larew Co.
 Plumbing & Heating
 Across from city hall
 Dial 9681

Complete Insurance Service

Auto Fire Bonds Health & Accident
G. W. BUXTON AGENCY
 Paul-Helen Bldg. Tel. 3223

Kritz Studio

24 Hour Service on Kodak Finishing
 3 S. Dubuque St. — Dial 7332

Dance to Recorded Music

We have the latest records
Woodburn Sound Service
 8 East College Dial 6731

Typewriters are Valuable keep them CLEAN and in REPAIR

Frohwein Supply Co.
 6 S. Clinton Phone 3474

PASSENGERS WANTED

ONE OR TWO students to central North Dakota. Leaving 5:00 p. m., 20th. Call Ext. 634

TRANSPORTATION WANTED

STUDENT couple would like ride to Rochester, New York or vicinity Dec. 20 or 21. Will share expenses. Call Charles C. Thomas, 5480.

WANTED: Ride to Newton for couple Dec. 20 or 21. Call 4953.

RIDE WANTED to Minneapolis either 20 or 21. Share expenses. Call 4296, Bert.

STUDENT WILL share Expenses on ride to Memphis, Little Rock or vicinity of either. Call 4145 or 4146. Ask for Turner.

WANTED: A ride to Cedar Rapids Friday, December 20, after 4:30 p. m. Call Ext. 8313. June Churchwell.

WANTED TO BUY!

WANTED: Four tickets to Iowa-Indiana game, Feb. 23. Urgent. Call 9671, Russ Roder.

LOANS

Christmas Money
 Quick Loans For Long Lasting Gifts
 Come in—Phone—Write Us
 Michael D. Maher, Mgr.
MISSISSIPPI INVESTMENT CORP.
 (Owned and operated by veterans)
 Phone 5622
 20-21 Schneider Bldg.

Money $ $ $ $ Money loaned on jewelry, clothing, cameras, guns, diamonds, etc.

RELIABLE LOAN & JEWELRY CO.
 (Licensed pawnbrokers)
 (Registered Watchmaker)
 110 S. Linn St.

SHOE REPAIR

Save Time and Money
 Your reports and theses neatly and quickly typewritten.
MARY V. BURNS
 Notary Public
 601 Iowa State Bank Bldg.
 Dial 2656

EXPERT SHOE REPAIRING

ROGERS RITE-WAY
 128 E. College

INSTRUCTION

VETERANS
 FREE Business Education Fully Accredited
 —COURSES—
 Junior Accounting Business Administration and others
la. City Commercial College
 203½ E. Wash. Phone 7644

"Play More... Live Longer"

Athletic Equipment
 Recreational Supplies
 Toys, Bicycles, Tricycles
John Wilson Sporting Goods Co.
 Honor Sweaters — Trophies — Sportswear
 24 South Dubuque Dial 2626

TRANSPORTATION WANTED

STUDENT couple would like ride to Rochester, New York or vicinity Dec. 20 or 21. Will share expenses. Call Charles C. Thomas, 5480.

WANTED: Ride to Newton for couple Dec. 20 or 21. Call 4953.

RIDE WANTED to Minneapolis either 20 or 21. Share expenses. Call 4296, Bert.

STUDENT WILL share Expenses on ride to Memphis, Little Rock or vicinity of either. Call 4145 or 4146. Ask for Turner.

WANTED: A ride to Cedar Rapids Friday, December 20, after 4:30 p. m. Call Ext. 8313. June Churchwell.

WANTED TO BUY!

WANTED: Four tickets to Iowa-Indiana game, Feb. 23. Urgent. Call 9671, Russ Roder.

LOANS

Christmas Money
 Quick Loans For Long Lasting Gifts
 Come in—Phone—Write Us
 Michael D. Maher, Mgr.
MISSISSIPPI INVESTMENT CORP.
 (Owned and operated by veterans)
 Phone 5622
 20-21 Schneider Bldg.

Money $ $ $ $ Money loaned on jewelry, clothing, cameras, guns, diamonds, etc.

RELIABLE LOAN & JEWELRY CO.
 (Licensed pawnbrokers)
 (Registered Watchmaker)
 110 S. Linn St.

SHOE REPAIR

Save Time and Money
 Your reports and theses neatly and quickly typewritten.
MARY V. BURNS
 Notary Public
 601 Iowa State Bank Bldg.
 Dial 2656

EXPERT SHOE REPAIRING

ROGERS RITE-WAY
 128 E. College

INSTRUCTION

VETERANS
 FREE Business Education Fully Accredited
 —COURSES—
 Junior Accounting Business Administration and others
la. City Commercial College
 203½ E. Wash. Phone 7644

"Play More... Live Longer"

Athletic Equipment
 Recreational Supplies
 Toys, Bicycles, Tricycles
John Wilson Sporting Goods Co.
 Honor Sweaters — Trophies — Sportswear
 24 South Dubuque Dial 2626

FURNITURE MOVING

MAHER BROS. TRANSFER
 For Efficient Furniture Moving—Ask About Our WARDROBE SERVICE
DIAL - 9696 - DIAL

PERSONAL SERVICES

Personal Service
 Davis suits, overcoats, topcoats made to measure for men and women.
 Henry Weidner, Dial 3469

Iowa City's Finest Hamburgers Are Found At

KOBY'S KORNER
 South on Highway 218, Across from Miller's Garage
Koby Serves
 • HOME MADE PIE • HAMBURGERS • CHILI • SOUP
 Open From 9 P.M. to ??

C. O. D. CLEANERS

106 South Capital
 Cleaning — Pressing and Blocking Hats — Our Specialty
 Free Pickup and Delivery Service
DIAL 4433 —We pay 1¢ each for hangers— DIAL 4433

OLD HOME TOWN by STANLEY

YOU GOT ONE GOOD BREAK, BUKE! YOU'RE GOING TO LAND IN THE TREES. INSTEAD OF TH' HARD ROCKS DOWN BELOW!!

BACK ROAD FOLKS "OFF THE BEATEN PATH!"

CHRISTMAS CARDS

In Boxed Assortments With Sentiment to Please. Humorous, Artistic, Modern Religious, and Conservative.

Ries Iowa Book Store

Christmas Gift Guide

Diamond rings, wedding bands, pen and pencil sets, antique dishes. Wrist watches guaranteed 1 year. Masonic emblems, watch chains.

Electric razors—triple heads—Schicks, Sun Beams, Remingtons. Electric fans, electric heaters.

Portable typewriters, records, guns, 410 shotgun shells, garbage pails, earphones.

Hock-Eye Loan
 111½ E. Washington

Christmas Suggestions

CHRISTMAS
 • Trees
 • Wreaths • Mistletoe

BRENNEMAN SEED STORE
 217 E. College Phone 6501

PERSONALIZED ITEMS

For Personal use or Gift Giving stationery, book matches, napkins, coasters, pencils, book plates, lip tissues, playing cards, & party sets

"Monogramming is not a side line with us... it's our Business"
 Orders Made Ready in 24 hours

Hall's Novelties & Gifts
 304 N. Linn

A Key to the "Right" Gift

Watches ELGIN
 Diamond Rings & Wedding Rings
 Bracelets Compacts and Cigarette Cases
 Pins and Earring Sets
 Delta Pearls
 Tie & Cufflet Sets
 Toilet Sets Lighters

Fuiks
 Jewelry and Optometrist
 220 E. Washington St.

Personalize Your Christmas Gifts

SEND MOM and DAD Your Voice on Record Do it TODAY At

Woodburn Sound Service
 Dial 80151 8 E. College St.

Someone Forgot To Check the Oil!!

Don't let these LITTLE details slip your mind or you too may have car trouble
 Let "DON" check your car regularly for GREASING OIL BATTERY SERVICE
 GAS TIRES

COFFEY'S STANDARD SERVICE
 Burlington & Clinton Sts.

POPEYE

BLONDIE

HENRY

ETTA KETT

POPEYE, DID YOU ORDER ANY ICE??

BLONDIE

HENRY

ETTA KETT

DID I ORDER ANY ICE??

BLONDIE

HENRY

ETTA KETT

SO HE THINKS I'M SILLY!!

BLONDIE

HENRY

ETTA KETT

Robert Friers to Show Film On Mexico Here Tuesday

Robert Friers, adventurer and motion picture producer, will bring a bit of Mexico to Iowa City in a color motion picture travelogue, "Mexican Holiday," to be shown at 8 p. m. Tuesday in the chemistry auditorium.

Scenes of the floating gardens at Xochimilco; Salina Cruz, "ghost harbor of the tropics;" Paricutin, Mexico's new volcano and the ruins at Mitla will be featured in the combination lecture-film brought here by the Iowa Mountaineers.

Friers, who has made several photographic expeditions to Mexico, Central and South America, began his travels at an early age. Before he was 20 he had visited every state in the United States and Mexico, every province in Canada and had tramped to Alaska.

On a $5 bet with his roommate at the University of Michigan, Friers took a hitch-hiking trip around the world on $82.

In 1940 Friers walked through Central America to the Panama Canal, living on native food at a cost of 11 cents a day.

Another year found the adventurer in South America making a solo motor trip from the Atlantic to the Pacific, his only companion a two-pound monkey.

Iowa Mountaineers will be admitted to the lecture on presentation of membership cards. Admission is 60 cents to non-members.

ROBERT FRIERS

Trosky to Address Junior C of C Meet

The Iowa City Junior Chamber of Commerce will hear a talk on "Big League Baseball" by Hal Trosky of the Chicago White Sox at a meeting Tuesday in Hotel Jefferson.

Trosky, who lives on a farm near Norway, Iowa, was scheduled to appear two weeks ago but failed to arrive due to car trouble in Cedar Rapids. This time the Jaycees plan to send a special car to get him should the same trouble recur.

The meeting is scheduled for 7 p. m. Members will be charged an admission fee of one usable toy or a quantity of canned goods. These will supplement Christmas baskets which the Jaycees plan to distribute to needy Iowa City families.

According to Maynard Meacham, president, further details of the tentative Christmas program will be worked out at the meeting.

Quadrangle Cotters Find Santa's Smokes

Christmas came early to the occupants of Quadrangle cottage 7 and 8 who want it known they still believe in Santa Claus.

It was late when the cotters (an old Scottish word for people who live in cottages) arrived home the other night and discovered not only a package of cigarettes under each pillow but also a sign hanging from a rafter which bore the simple but cheery message, "Merry Christmas."

Instantly the cottage glowed with radiant Christmas light and smoke . . . all because of the unknown Santa.

"Santa is a great guy", remarked one of the cotters as he exhaled smoke through his nose. "My favorite brand."

'Friday the 13th' Jinx Doesn't Scare Them

It almost looked Friday as if the prospective Christmas brides and bridegrooms were superstitious!

By 3:30 p. m. of the "unlucky" day, County Clerk R. Neilson Miller hadn't issued a single marriage license. But between that time and the 5 p. m. closing, four couples happily defied the "Friday, the 13th" superstition and paid the necessary sum for their precious piece of paper.

They were: Charles E. Morgan and Elizabeth Cejka, Iowa City; Dale H. Cronk and Wilma Russell, Iowa City; Emery G. Tribbey and Nanetta Waldron, Iowa City, and Robert H. Gipple and Norma M. Buser, Muscatine.

Johnson County Corn Scheduled for Nearby Markets, Livestock Feed

Johnson county's largest corn yield in history will be used mostly in nearby markets and for feeding livestock.

Raymond A. Smalley, AAA director here, said county farmers probably will not contribute greatly to the national cash corn market.

A great number of farmers are expected to apply for three percent corn loans instituted by the government, Smalley revealed. The loans will enable farmers to hold their crop for feeding purposes.

Nickel Stamps Increase Airmail 40 Percent

Airmail has increased by nearly 40 percent since Oct. 1, according to Postmaster Walter J. Barrow.

He said enthusiasm among Iowa City businessmen and citizens for the nickel airmail has grown steadily during the past two months.

Continued heavy use of the five-cent airmail is expected during the pre-Christmas holiday, Barrow said.

Nancy Guile Has—Cosmopolitan Collection

—Of Unusual Dolls

CINDERELLA IS PREPARED for a picture by Nancy Guile, youthful City junior high school doll collector. These and others of Nancy's dolls have been displayed in almost all the grade schools in Iowa City. The dolls shown come from all corners of the earth, and represent all types of peoples.

By JERRY JURICEK

When Nancy Guile sees a new doll and wants it, it's not because she likes to play with it, but because she wants it for her collection.

Since she received her first mama doll on her sixth birthday, Nancy has been collecting dolls. Her collection now includes dolls from both the eastern and western hemispheres, from demure lit-

Coming to Nancy from China, by way of Chicago, is a stately miniature Mandarin Chinese scholar. He's had trouble over the span of years, as evidenced by the portion of his mustache that has disappeared, but he still is full of life. He shakes violently when the cane he carries is removed from his hand. It's all done with wires, in the form of fine springs concealed in his arms and legs.

Latin America is represented by two of Nancy's dolls. One comes from Old Mexico, the other from New Mexico. Both are dressed in native costumes—one as a peasant woman and the other as a bride.

The peasant woman is ready for a fiesta, with all her best jewelry. Small pieces of native silver are sewed to her costume to add the authentic touch.

A porcelain Japanese doll is included in the collection. His outstanding feature is the ability to open and close his eyes. His porcelain companion is a Chinese matron, complete with traditional Chinese trousers and embroidered jacket.

Nancy is now looking for an old Dresden doll, either with or without a leather body. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Guile, 821 Iowa avenue, have joined the search but thus far they have had little luck. Mrs. Guile says not even a Cedar Rapids doll hospital operator knows where such a doll may be found.

Perhaps the most unusual way Nancy obtained a doll was from a friend of her father. He found a rag doll with an embroidered face on a railroad platform and showed it to Mr. Guile.

That evening there was another doll in Nancy's collection.

Brown Resigns Position

George E. Brown of the Iowa City police department has submitted his resignation to be effective Jan. 1, it was learned yesterday.

Brown expects to enter private business here. He has been a member of the department since April, 1942.

Always The Home Owned Store
58th Year
Telephone 2141

Yetter's Season Skipper It's Our Wizzard In a Blizzard

IT'S TWO COATS IN ONE
IT'S EXCLUSIVE AT YETTER'S

$55 and $49.95

You wave your magic wand . . . mumble a few words . . . and presto! . . . a coat that's a Fall-Winter-Spring proposition! It's a simple trick—magic in one easy lesson. On balmy days you leave out the lining, let the collar lie flat . . . On zero days you button in the toasty lining, pull the collar up and there you have it . . . our "Wizzard in a Blizzard" . . . Soft warm Fleece, Handsome Tweed.

Sizes 10 to 20

COATS — Second Floor Fashion Center

Schools May Charge Non-Resident Tuition For G.I. Students

Colleges and universities may legally charge non-resident tuition for all students enrolled under the G.I. bill if "customary tuition charges" do not meet the actual cost of instruction, the Iowa City Veterans organization council learned yesterday.

The information was contained in the Veterans administration's reply to a query made by the council concerning legality of non-resident charges for veterans in colleges. The council had offered to take action to test the legality of such charges.

Authority for making the non-resident tuition charges was given institutions in an amendment to the original G.I. bill, the Veterans administration said.

Toys, Midgets to Talk In Junior High Play

City junior high school students are stealing a page from Hollywood, by writing and producing their own Christmas program which will be presented Friday, Dec. 20.

The play is based on the theme of midgets and toys that talk. Georgia Black, junior high school assembly director, is directing the presentation.

THE SIGN OF CHRISTMAS is in the spirit of giving! So we have listed below for you a number of suggestions that will help to cut down your Christmas shopping lists . . . gifts that will build a holiday mood! Our display is brand new . . . select from it today.

- Electric Grills
- Hot Plates
- Electric Clocks
- Toasters

- Universal Carving Sets
- Electric Ovens
- Universal Steak Knife and Fork Sets
- Electric Heaters

- Record Players
- Vanity Mirrors
- Medicine Cabinets
- Chrome Bathroom Accessories

IOWA CITY

PLUMBING & HEATING CO.

114 South Linn

BETTER YOUR HOME . . . BETTER YOUR LIVING . . . With Better Gifts for the Home

Thoughtfulness plays a great part in the selection of a gift for that dear friend or casual acquaintance. The discriminating Santa leans to practicality in Noel selections. We forecast kind thoughts to that kind missus or sir who gives home furnishings . . . The kind of furnishings you'll find in our gay Yuletide selections!

From Sofas to Tables, Gifts for Lasting Joy and Satisfaction

- Coffee Tables, Modern and period, from . . . $ 17.95
- Lovely End Tables, Start from . . . $ 12.50
- Kneehole Desks, Modern and Period, from . . . $ 39.95
- Sewing Cabinets, With Accessories . . . $ 18.50
- Commodes, only . . . $ 13.95
- Table Lamps in all Styles, from . . . $ 8.79
- Beautiful Mirrors, Choose from . . . $ 1.98
- 4' x 6' Shag Rug, White and Colors . . . $ 15.95
- What-Nots, Corner Shelves, From . . . $ 4.50
- Colorful Hassocks, from . . . $ 3.95
- Card Tables, Decorative Tops . . . $ 8.49
- 6-Way Floor Lamp, from . . . $ 19.95
- Lambskin Rugs, from . . . $ 11.95
- Stunning Magazine Baskets, from . . . $ 4.98
- Chrome Trim Smoking Stands . . . $ 2.98
- Children's Table and Chair Sets . . . $ 10.50
- Children's Desk Sets . . . $ 19.50
- Children's Reed Chairs . . . $ 5.98

Majestic Combination Radio, Table Models

KIRWAN FURNITURE 6-8 So. Dubuque