High School Players Give—

In the early morning, the high school drama society presented a play to the students, titled "The Wake of the Wagon".

The play was directed by Mr. Johnson, the drama teacher, and the cast consisted of 15 students, including Miss Smith as the lead actress.

The audience was captivated by the performance, and the play received a standing ovation.

Rent Decontrol Reports Due

During the past few months, the rent decontrol reports have shown a substantial decrease in rental prices. The city government has been monitoring the situation closely and is planning to make further adjustments if necessary.

Rental prices have decreased by 10 to 15% in various parts of the city, and the city council is looking into the possibility of extending the decontrol period.

Lucky Strike presents the Man Who Knows—

"I've Bought" over ten million pounds of tobacco...so I speak with some authority when I say that after season after season, I've never found a better cigarette than the Lucky Strike.

It's a rich tobacco—that ripples, light tobacco that makes a swell smoke.

F. P. King, Independent tobacco buyer of Lexington, Kentucky, has been a Lucky Strike buyer for 25 years.

So remember....

Lucky Strike Means Fine Tobacco

So round, so firm, so fully packed—So free and easy on the draw.

Concert Features Popular Marches, Interurban Climax

The interurban trains were decorated with colorful streamers and buntings for the concert, which featured popular marches such as "The Marines' Hymn" and "The Stars and Stripes Forever."

One feature of the concert was the performance of the State University Marching Band, which played a medley of popular songs.

A state-wide radio call was made by police officers, urging people to stay out of town during the concert.

The crowd was estimated to be over 10,000, and the concert was a huge success.
