PITTSFIELD, Mass. (AP)—Samuel Pisani has gone hunting every season for 17 years and never even saw a deer until yesterday when he bagged a 250-pound buck.

He struggled with the deer a half hour lugging his prize to his car. But when he returned to the woods to get his shotgun, someone stole his deer.

Pisani promptly reported the incident to police and offered $100 reward for information leading to the arrest of the thief.

Arrested In Police Court

Davis Held In Embezzlement

Waives Hearing: Bond Set at $3,000

By RAY HENRY

Herman L. Davis, 43, 917 S. Gilbert street, waived preliminary hearing on a $2,555 embezzlement charge in police court yesterday. He was bound over to the Johnson county grand jury with a $3,000 bond set by Police Judge Emil Trott.

Trott ordered Davis held in the county jail until bond was posted. Two additional criminal informations, one charging desertion of wife and children, and the other obtaining money under false pretenses were dropped in police court.

Davis, former manager of the plumbing and heating department at the Iowa City Montgomery Ward store, embezzled $2,555 from the store during his eight-months' employment there, according to an information signed by H. H. Hiett, manager of the Montgomery Ward store.

With the information, Hiett turned over 9 photostatic checks amounting to $490.29 which had been collected for plumbing equipment and made out personally to "H. L. Davis." Davis cashed the checks and kept the money, according to Johnson County Attorney Jack C. White. Only the money drawn on the checks, White said, could be accounted for.

Davis said in police court yesterday he "couldn't have used $2,555 in so short a period. You can take my wife's testimony on that. This'll all come out in the trial, though."

He asked Trott to set the bond as low as possible for his "wife and family's sake."

Davis was married in 1944 and has two children, Nancy Ellen, 9 months old, and Glen Melvin, 21 months old.

According to a Montgomery Ward report, Davis was employed by the store from Feb. 18 to Oct. 6, 1947.

The report said he quit of his own accord. Shortly after it was determined that his department was short money.

Oct. 8 Davis wrote his wife from Cedar Rapids saying "I'm going to have to leave you and the children for a while."

He said he was going east, but did not mention any particular place.

About a week later, Mrs. Davis received another letter from her husband postmarked Omaha, Neb. Nov. 29 Davis returned to Iowa City, according to White, and was arrested by police Thursday.

Mud Roads To Be Repaired By Next Week, Cotter Says

Repairs in temporary housing areas continued yesterday in Finkbine and Stadium park.

Work will be resumed this morning in these same areas.

"Roads in all areas should be passable next week," according to J. Robert Cotter, manager of married student housing. "We are trying to get them out of the mud as soon as possible," added Cotter, who is assisting in the supervision of the work.

Eight dumping trucks and a maintainer were used yesterday to place crushed rock in the Finkbine area and cinders at Stadium park.

The road surfacing in these areas was too thin, according to R. J. Phillips of the physical plant, to withstand the recent rains. The water seeped through the surfacing, he added.

Maintenance work by the physical plant and the housing office will continue throughout the winter, Phillips said.

"We hope to build a thick enough surface," he explained, "to withstand the spring thaw."

The university obtains its supply of rocks from the quarries. Some cinders must be purchased from a local company, according to Phillips. At times it is difficult to obtain a sufficient supply, he added.

Confirms Russ Buying Wave

WASHINGTON (AP)—Reports of a wave of buying in Russia have been confirmed by the U. S. embassy in Moscow, Undersecretary of State Robert A. Lovett said yesterday. But he said the situation "does not indicate a breakdown" of the Soviet economy.

Lovett told the senate appropriations committee "it would be a mistake to attach too much importance" to the Russian "buying spree." He agreed with Senator Ferguson (R-Mich) that the U. S. should not be lulled by the Russian development into a sense of false security.

The undersecretary said it was the understanding of Ambassador Walter Bedell Smith's staff that American news correspondents in Moscow were unable, because of censorship, to transmit news of the buying wave outside of the Soviet Union.

First word of "panic buying" was broadcast Wednesday night by the state department's "Voice of America," which said rumors were prevalent in Moscow that prices were about to be raised and the ruble decreased in value.

Several U. S. senators interpreted the news as presaging serious economic trouble for the Soviet Union. However, diplomatic authorities attributed the reported buying "panic" to popular confusion stemming from the government's plan to end wartime rationing.

Moore Gets New Tax Assessor Post In Johnson County

County Auditor Edward Sulek yesterday appointed Deputy Auditor Guy E. Moore to the newly created deputy county assessor post.

Moore, who served nine years in the auditor's office, thus fills a position created in the county tax assessor law passed this year by the state legislature.

Under the law, Sulek remains assessor ex-officio, but Moore, as chief deputy, will supervise the actual work of handling property valuation for tax rolls of Johnson county residents outside of Iowa City. As one of Iowa's 21 largest cities, Iowa City can have a city assessor for which examinations were given yesterday.

Earlier this year, Moore qualified for the county post by passing state examinations. His position is permanent unless he is removed for cause. His salary is $3,150 per year.

Moore is married and lives at 701 Kimball road. A resident of Iowa City for 32 years, he was born in Louisville, Ky., in 1910. Moore served one year in the U. S. Navy.

Truman to Speak Today

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP)—President Truman, enjoying his Florida vacation in bright sunshine, took time out yesterday to put the finishing touches on the conservation policy speech he will deliver at the dedication of the 454,000-acre Everglades national park at Everglades City today.

Mr. Truman will speak at 1:51 p. m. (CST) for 12 to 15 minutes. The ceremonies will be broadcast by both NBC and Mutual, beginning at 1:30 p. m.

Lovett Asserts Soviets Back Strike Wave

WASHINGTON (AP)—Undersecretary of State Robert A. Lovett said flatly yesterday that current strikes in France and Italy are Communist-inspired and a "demonstration of an extension of Soviet foreign policy."

But he declared that the United States should "not get frightened out" of extending aid to Europe by "this sort of demonstration."

Lovett testified before the senate appropriations committee in favor of granting the full $597 million authorized by the senate for emergency aid to France, Italy and Austria.

He said state department officials are "greatly encouraged" by the resistance shown by both the French and Italian governments against communism. The French and Italian demonstrations, he added, apparently were timed to coincide with the foreign ministers' London conference.

House foes of the administration's program redoubled their efforts meanwhile to slash the relief figure below even the $590 million recommended by the house military affairs committee for the three European countries plus China.

Before the house ended a two-day general debate on the measure, Rep. Lodge (R-Conn) proposed that American troops be kept in Italy indefinitely "to assure law and order" in the face of Communist pressure.

Indict Ten Screen Workers Cited For Congress Contempt

WASHINGTON (AP)—Ten Hollywood scenario writers, directors and producers were indicted by a federal grand jury here today for refusing to tell a house investigating committee whether they are Communists or ever belonged to that party.

The charge was contempt of congress. Their trials are expected to begin early in January. If convicted, they face possible penalties of up to a year in jail and a $1,000 fine on each count.

Those indicted were Edward Dmytryk, a motion picture director; Herbert Biberman, a director-producer; Robert Adrian Scott, a writer-producer; and Albert Maltz, Dalton Trumbo, Samuel Ornitz, John Howard Lawson, Ring Lardner Jr., Lester Cole and Alvah Bessie, scenario writers.

U.S. SECRETARY of State George C. Marshall challenged Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov point blank in London yesterday to state Russia's price on German unity. Molotov replied with a new attack upon the western powers' policies in Germany. Molotov accused Britain and France of "actually hindering" the economic recovery of western Germany and claimed greater efficiency in the Soviet occupation zone. Marshall demanded that the council "leave generalities and engage in discussion which will enable it to make some progress."

ABOUT 500 telephone linemen were at work in Iowa yesterday, restoring service on more of the 580 circuits which were cut off in a two day sleet storm which cost the Northwest Bell Telephone company an estimated $350,000. The company said that 4,500 rural telephones were out of service yesterday.

Blue Commutes Hofer's Sentence to Life Term

DES MOINES (AP)—Gov. Robert D. Blue yesterday commuted the death sentence of Louis B. Hofer, 37, to life and the Indianapolis, Ind., prisoner, who was scheduled to hang in just five days, sobbed in his Fort Madison penitentiary cell, "I'm the happiest man in the world."

Hofer, sentenced to hang Dec. 10 for the slaying of John Hinz, 49, Anamosa reformatory foreman in an escape attempt June 12, 1946, was removed immediately from death row and ate a "main line" meal with other inmates.

Order Given After Strikers Seize 2 Cities

Many Hurt In Fighting But Authorities Finally Are In Control Again

PARIS, (AP)—French police were ordered last night to fire on mobs in self-defense after strikers had seized temporary control of two cities in the crippled nation.

President Vincent Auriol received leaders of the General Confederation of Labor (CGT) after the Communist-dominated organization said the door was open for new strike settlement negotiations.

Communist-hatched work stoppages, sending France through another day of turmoil, erupted with particular force at St. Etienne, an armament producing center near Lyon, and at Arles, 50 miles from Marseille.

Police finally drove the strikers from the streets and regained control of both cities. A number of persons were reported injured in hand-to-hand fighting.

Skirmishing continued between strikers and the authorities in Marseilles. Thousands of troops reinforced the police in France's second city where the present disorder was born three weeks ago.

Interior Minister Jules Moch, a Socialist, told the national assembly he had issued the firing order to the hard-pressed police.

Communist deputies answered by screaming "Assassin! Assassin!"

Moch spoke in answer to Communist protests over the death of three strikers from gunfire during yesterday's riots at Valence.

With 2,000,000 workers already idle, Premier Robert Schuman's cabinet ran head on into a call for a "token" strike until Tuesday by 1,200,000 government and public service employes.

U. S. Puts Embargo on Shipment Of Ammunition to Middle East

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The death toll from five days of bloodshed in the middle east rose to nearly 100 last night as Arabs flocked to recruiting offices and called for a "holy war" to prevent the partitioning of Palestine.

The United States placed an embargo on licensed shipments of arms and ammunition to middle east countries in view "of the current disorders" there.

Three hundred British troops helped put down disorder in Aden, a British colony on the Arabian coast, after 25 Arabs and 19 Jews had been killed in fighting there.

Arab leaders and the British army kept the Arabs to themselves in all but the bloody "borderland area" between Jewish Tel Aviv and Arab Jaffa. Palestine's death toll mounted to 48.

Recruiting centers were hardly able to keep pace with the flow of volunteers registering for service to defend Palestine Arabs, dispatches said. Basic military training was started for volunteers at secondary and high schools.

Wealthy Syrians donated funds to the Palestine Liberation committee. Newspapers carried reports of Arab wrath at the decision of the United Nations general assembly to divide Palestine into separate Arab and Jewish states.

Voluntary Driving Curbs To Be Asked By Administration

WASHINGTON (AP)—Administration plans for voluntary curbs on pleasure driving were revealed yesterday as Republican leaders in congress scheduled a meeting to determine whether "two or three" anti-inflation measures can be pushed to final passage in the special session.

The voluntary gasoline rationing plea probably will be sounded by the White House next week, an interior department official told the senate-house economic committee. It will be in the form of an appeal to the nation's motorists to curtail driving to save fuel for more essential needs, he said.

Senator Taft (R-Ohio) told a news conference the senate Republican policy committee will meet with house members next week to draft a G.O.P. anti-inflation program to counter the board plans requested by President Truman. This may include measures to extend export controls, regulate trading on the grain exchange and curb installment buying, he said.

VA To Let Contract In July

500-Bed Hospital Will Be Built Here

WASHINGTON (AP)—Veterans administration officials said yesterday that preliminary plans for the proposed $8 million hospital at Iowa City are virtually complete but it will be next July before contracts for construction are awarded.

A VA spokesman said a June 1, 1948, completion date has been fixed for architects' working drawings on the big project. These will be started shortly after preliminary plans are approved.

"It is customary to advertise for bids 10 days after working drawings are finished," officials said. "Then the bids are opened approximately a month later, which in this case should be around the latter part of July."

The Iowa City project will occupy a 12-acre site opposite the University of Iowa college of medicine. The necessary property already has been acquired from the state of Iowa by the federal government.

Plans call for a 500-bed general medical and surgical hospital, the VA pointed out. The unit will be virtually an integral part of the university's extensive medical center.

Rep. Thomas E. Martin (R-Iowa), of Iowa City, said the project was one of a series for which funds were appropriated by the last session of congress.

"General Bradley and General Hawley of the veterans administration urged that these new hospitals be built as close as possible to existing schools of medicine to permit cooperation with them," Martin said.

"This is one of the best federal projects to go into Iowa in many years. . . . The policy inaugurated by Bradley and Hawley will be of even greater importance as the use of veterans hospitals expands during the next 25 to 30 years."

Martin said that in "very few places" has it been possible to locate a proposed veterans hospital as close to a medical school as is the case at Iowa City.

Some delay in the project resulted from a shift in plans at one stage, Martin noted. Originally, he said, the Iowa City hospital was to be a counterpart of another planned for Omaha.

"Increased costs of construction cut deeply into the backlog of new projects," he added, "and it was found necessary to revise plans and specifications on the Iowa City unit."

"The early work had been done by army engineers in the Omaha district. With the shift, the first plans were scrapped and work on the preliminaries was undertaken again, this time by engineers at the Rock Island arsenal in Illinois."

VA officials said the arsenal had farmed out the architectural engineering preparations to two firms, Ellerbe and company, St. Paul, Minn., and Leo A. Daly and company, Omaha. It is these plans that are slated for completion any day.

Martin said engineers given the task of drafting the second set of plans were advised to keep probable rising construction costs in mind to make certain the project will come within the funds made available. He indicated he believed this stipulation was being met and that the preliminary drawings would be approved promptly.

Old Times for Wier, Mason

Just like old times. . . . year 1944 when they combined that's the opinion of Murray Wier and Charlie Mason, the Hawk point partners of Monday's 82-43 conquest of Carleton.

The scoring exhibition demonstrated by the speedy pair of forwards was reminiscent of a year 1944 when they combined their cage talents to lead a Muscatine high school quintet to the state tournament.

It was the only year they played on the same prep team, but few Iowans will forget the season performance of this diminutive duo.

Hawks Host to Coyotes Tonight

South Dakota Cagers Here

The University of Iowa basketball team will attempt to garner victory No. 2 of the young cage season tonight on the fieldhouse court when they play host to the Coyotes of Vermillion, who average six feet. However, the visitors are reported to have a speedy, good-manuevering ball club.

The Hawks will also be in quest of their 28th consecutive non-conference victory on the home court and their 46th fieldhouse win in the last 49 games. They won their opener last Monday night by trampling Carleton college of Northfield, Minn., 82-43.

The Hawkeyes will enter the contest with a height advantage of about two inches per man over the Coyotes of Vermillion, who average six feet. However, the visitors are reported to have a speedy, good-manuevering ball club.

The Coyotes opened their season last Monday with a blistering 70-40 victory over Sioux Falls college. Their offensive attack is led by six-foot, three inch Forward Tom Libby, a veteran of last year, and Guard Carleton Hoy, son of South Dakota Coach "Rube" Hoy.

Iowa Coach Pops Harrison is expected to start the same five tonight who opened against Carleton last Monday with one possible exception. This shift would move Charlie Mason, surprise of the Carleton tilt, into a frontline forward job along with his twin in size, five-foot ten inch Murray Wier. Should Mason not start, Floyd Magnusson will probably get the call.

The opening guards will be Jack Spencer and Bob Schulz with the much-improved Red Metcalfe again starting at center.

The Iowa junior varsity will play a preliminary game against a Nu Sigma Nu professional fraternity team led by Dick Porto of Des Moines. Game time is 6 o'clock.

SAN FRANCISCO, (AP) — Eight more players have accepted invitations to play for the Eastern team in the Shrine East-West football game here New Year's Day. They are Backs Bob Smith, Iowa; Bobby Sullivan, Holy Cross, and Earl Maves, Wisconsin; Guards Howard Brown, Indiana; Larry Olsenkaski, Minnesota, and Vincent Di Francisca, Northwestern, and Ends Lou Mihajlovich of Indiana and Bob Renebohm of Wisconsin.

Eight others are on the East roster, with eight more to be announced.

Hawklets Open Loop Action at Davenport

A battle of champions will take place tonight in Davenport when City high's Little Hawks and Davenport's Blue Devils open 1947-48 Mississippi Valley conference cage play.

The Blue Devils are defending state champs and the Hawklets are defending Mississippi Valley kings.

Last year the Hawklets won twice during the regular season of play from the Imps and then lost to Davenport in the district tournament at Muscatine. Davenport went from there to win the state title.

Davenport opened its season against Muscatine with a decisive 33-23 win.

Coach Paul Moon has four first-line men back from last year's state championship aggregation. Paul Stange, Dick Keyoth, "Skip" Green and Dierks are the boys the Hawklets will have to contend with tonight.

The Imps match the Little Hawks man for man in height and speed.

Coach Gil Wilson will probably

Joe Louis Edges Walcott

Judges Give Split Decision

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK (AP)—An older and slower Joe Louis just barely did save his World Heavyweight championship last night at Madison Square garden when Jersey Joe Walcott, a smooth customer from Camden, N. J., carried him the limit of 15 gruelling rounds and forced the three ring officials to make a close and exacting decision.

It was announced late last night that Louis broke his right hand in the fifth round.

Knocked down twice in the early rounds and his left eye beaten until it was a mere slit, the Brown Bomber had to come with a furious rush in the closing stanzas to gain the verdict of the two judges, Frank Forbes and Marty Monroe. Ruby Goldstein, the referee, marked his card for Walcott. It was that close.

The crowd that packed the Garden roared its disapproval of the verdict, Louis, himself.

In 1944 the Muskies were pitted against a powerful Davenport club in the district finals. The Blue Devils at that time were called the most powerful high school team in the state having tucked away 26 straight victories, some over several strong out-of-state rivals. That night Mason poured in 18 points, Wier scored 17 and Muscatine won, 50-37. They grinned in unison and said, "We were pretty hot on that one." This contest was an example of how each game went. . . . Mason and Wier on top.

Coach Schnack turned out four all-stars in as many years. Walt Koehnoff was all-state two years running. Wier held the rating in 1944 and Mason

54 Fouls Called In Thrilling Tilt

(Special to The Daily Iowan)

CEDAR RAPIDS — A fighting St. Patrick's cage team took a thrilling 31-29 win over St. Wenceslaus at Cedar Rapids last night for their third straight win of the season.

A total of 54 fouls were called in the contest, 31 of them on the local squad. But the Red Hawks from Cedar Rapids could connect on only 9 of their 29 free throws. Meanwhile, the Irish made 17 free tosses in 28 attempts.

The Irish outgouted the Red Hawks all the way, but had extremely tough luck on their shot attempts. The game was so rough that all five of the St. Patrick starters fouled out of the game. The reserves did a very creditable job of staying off a last minute Red Hawk rally.

Scoring for the locals was evenly divided between Herdlskn, Duffy and O'Connor. Treka and Panek paced the host team.

BURLINGTON—In a rough and tumble basketball game, which saw 52 fouls called on both teams here tonight, St. Mary's Ramblers of Iowa City roared to victory over St. Paul's of Burlington, 49-40.

Led by the brilliant offensive and defensive play of Center Johnny Suplee and the sparkling floor play of little Dale Seydel, the Ramblers rallied in the final quarter to pull away with the victory.

After trailing, 28-25, at halftime, St. Mary's tied the score at the third quarter mark, 33-33. Leading with only two minutes, forty-five seconds left in the game, 38-37, the Ramblers iced the game in the next 25 seconds with a ten point spurge.

An exhibition of 22 etchings, paintings and sculptures by faculty members of the art department will open Sunday at the Davenport Municipal Art gallery.

The display which extends through January contains prize winning work by Professors Maurizio Lasansky and Joseph Cox, and by Instructors Malcolm Myers and Byron Buford.

Other faculty members who have contributed to the exhibition are Humbert Albrizio, Stuart Edie, Shirley Hammond, James Lechay, Harold Lotterman, Jane Wilson, Leroy Burket, Raymond Parker and Donn Steward.

A painting by Mary Holmes, former SUI instructor and now a faculty member of the University of Ohio, is included.

PERSONAL NOTES

The proctors and officers of South Quadrangle were guests of Mrs. Verne Spencer, housemother of that dormitory, at an informal Christmas dinner Thursday night at the Methodist church in West Branch.

Members of the sales and service departments of the Eldon Miller trucking company will hold a Christmas party tomorrow night at 6:30 in the private dining room of Hotel Jefferson. C. I. Ricketts will be in charge. Two films entitled "Our Iowa" and "Snow Fighters" will be shown after the dinner.

Members of Delta Delta Delta held their Christmas formal last night at the chapter house from 9 to 12. Chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. Clair Hamilton, Mrs. Harlette Evans and Mrs. Lida Filkins. Nancy Noble, A4, Princeton, Ill., was in charge.

Edna Jacques, Mount Pleasant, a former university student, is visiting friends in Iowa City this weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. David Milligan, 424 1/2 S. Clinton street, are spending the weekend in Chicago.

Currier women spending the weekend at home are Lois Emanuel, P2, Marion; Shirlee Smith, A1, Cedar Rapids, and Rosalie Clark, A3, Mitchellville.

Ed Jochumsen, A1, Stockholm, Sweden, and Ed Beeh, A1, Fort Dodge, are spending the weekend with friends in Fulton, Mo. They will attend a formal dance at William Woods college tonight.

Woodchopper in Action

YOU ARE WELCOME TO COME

The manufacture of clothes for women and children is BIG BUSINESS DONE BY SMALL UNITS

It is big business in national economic importance — big business in total sales volume — big business in its number of establishments and employees. But it is made up of numerous comparatively small units.

In these circumstances, the progress of each manufacturer depends on his ability to anticipate fashion and business trends and to gear his operations so as to take advantage of these trends.

J. Robert Cotter—One Man's Job

When it rains, the roads get muddy. That sounds simple enough but to J. Robert Cotter in his capacity as manager of married students' housing, it means another headache.

There's a network of over 3 miles of roads in the temporary housing areas which somehow has to be maintained. This isn't as simple as it would seem—considering that cinders must be gotten someplace, that there's a shortage of help of any kind, that materials often just aren't available, and bad weather hinders the work.

But Cotter and his associates tackle this and other problems in stride. Sometimes we wonder whether the problems of running a number of little cities are fully appreciated. We didn't until a check with Cotter revealed this typical day's activities:

Cotter's job, in some respects, is like running a metropolitan hotel—only more so. A wife calls up to say there's a leak in the roof. Someone's gas stove is leaking—and oh yes, can you fix the ice box drain pipe?

A GI drops in to ask for a piece of string—baby pulled off the kitchen light cord. Another reports a broken spring in the living room couch. And air is getting in the bedroom wall. Our stove isn't working, won't you send somebody to fix it?

Next comes the janitor—utility supplies are short this month, and his men are having trouble keeping the units clean.

The barracks were built of unseasoned lumber—the only kind available. So the doors and joints warped. Somebody has to see that they're fixed as well as possible. The job falls to Cotter.

Safety in the areas is a major consideration. Parking rules must be set up, and speeding controlled.

Material shortages pop up in connection with practically every move. Not enough furniture can be gotten. A simple little thing like a shortage of the right kind of nails may hold up some project.

Fences to protect the children were on order for months before they finally came.

About the only thing this personable, busy young man hasn't been called on to do yet is give advice to the lovelorn and sit up with the babies.

His friendly, always-ready-to-help attitude has smoothed over the trials and tribulations of many of the students in the area. From what we've gathered, he's always willing to talk over suggestions from students, and often consults them well in advance of any decision. The most recent illustration of this was the fuel conservation meeting Thursday night.

Living in a barracks himself helps him appreciate the many little things that can be done to improve them. Overloaded with work as he is, he's seldom too busy to talk over the most trivial matter.

The feeling is pretty wide-spread that in spite of many difficulties, he's doing a great job which is really appreciated by the students.

Letters to Editor:

(Readers are invited to express their opinions in Letters to the Editor. All letters must include hand written signature, address and, if student, classification. Typewritten signatures are not acceptable. Only one letter per student. The right to edit or withhold letters is reserved and, of course, the opinions expressed do not necessarily represent those of The Daily Iowan.)

DISMAL COMMENTARY TO THE DAILY IOWAN:

It is a dismal commentary on the humanity of our students that, with two-thirds of the Campus Chest drive over, less than one-sixth of the goal has been achieved.

The lines at the movie theaters on Saturday nights... the ticket sellout for the Woodchopper's ball (last night), and the well-filled trays at the campus cafeterias all argue no real scarcity of money. Apparently, then SUI students are merely indifferent to the desperate needs of others.

And, if some of your readers raise a quizzical eyebrow at my mention of food to ask if I expect them to give up meals in order to contribute, I say, yes, that is exactly what I mean.

Faced with an atomic war, we must realize that education towards peace is a dire necessity.

"PUZZLED" READER

TO THE DAILY IOWAN:
The Daily Iowan's "puzzled" music critic has in turn puzzled this reader.

The reviewer evidenced a certain amount of understanding when he refrained from laboring over small technical imperfections in the band's performance... At that point the critic's understanding comes to an abrupt halt.

Why begrudge Bach's Prelude from "The Well-Tempered Clavichord" a band performance? A strict adherence to the reviewer's "musical philosophy" would regulate much of the music of Bach to the dusty archives because clavichords are now almost non-existent.

Why withhold from the band members the pleasure of becoming better acquainted with the music of Bach, Bizet, Wagner, Debussy, etc, simply because such music was originally written for such presentation by other media?

Russia's Own 'Dollar' Diplomacy

By J. M. ROBERTS, JR.
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

Russia may be adopting a form of "dollar diplomacy" of her own.

Reports of a panicky buying spree on the part of the Russian people, apparently in fear of devaluation of their present currency, come close on the heels of discussions in the Russian press of the possibility that the country will adopt the gold standard and go into international markets to fight the Marshall plan.

Heretofore the Moscow government has played around with its money. Through differences in buying privileges accorded different classes of workers, one man's dollar—to put it in terms of American money—might be another man's cent and still another's quarter.

But Russia recently has had a close-to-home demonstration of what can be done with "hard" money in the steadily strengthening economies of two of her satellites, Poland and Czechoslovakia. Their currencies are more stable than any others in Europe with the exception of the Swiss franc.

If Moscow wants to start a money fight there are indications that she has considerable wherewithal. For 20 years the government has been conducting an intensified gold production program and is believed to have many billions of dollars worth stacked up. Not so much, perhaps, as the 22 billions held by the U. S. but perhaps half that.

Only a few days ago Charles Prince, former specialist on Soviet economic problems for the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, pointed out in an article in United Nations World that, by pegging the ruble to gold, Russia could establish a tight ruble area within her own orbit as well as complete with the dollar and the pound in areas whose production will be vitally needed in the conduct of the European recovery program.

"The Soviet government could not only purchase goods and materials which it needs, but also force up the price of those goods and materials in terms of dollars and pounds," Prince said. "Countries exporting goods to the U. S. S. R. under such arrangements could then use the gold to buy commodities freely on the world markets—purchases not envisaged in the finely balanced arrangements proposed by the Marshall plan. The end result would be that the Soviet Union would acquire valuable goods at low cost (since it does not reckon costs in its own gold production) and weaken the influence and control which U. S. economic interests exercise in various parts of the world."

Campus Chest Drive Deadline Extended; $2969 Collected

By ROGER MENGES
The Campus Chest drive will be extended through Dec. 9, Chairman Ray Tierney, A4, announced yesterday as total collections reached $2,969.

Yesterday's collections were the largest to date, amounting to $1,360. But $7,031 more will be needed to reach the drive's $10,000 goal.

Student Council President Mel Heckt said the drive has been extended through Tuesday to give the solicitors more time to see persons they have not been able to contact. Heckt urged solicitors to "bend every effort" to make the campaign a success.

Joy Bowers, A2, general solicitations chairman, stressed how much the drive depends on each solicitor's effort to convince students of the importance of their contribution.

LOUIS—

 was so disgusted at his showing against his veteran Negro opponent that he attempted to jump through the ropes the instant the last bell rang and had to be forcibly restrained by his handlers.

Far from scoring his 15th straight knockout, as he had been expected to do, Louis was himself dumped to the canvas twice in the early rounds and never succeeded in putting Walcott down.

The champion hit the floor for a two count in the second chapter and went down for a toll of seven in the fourth, both times from whistling rights to his jaw.

A crowd of 18,914 which paid a record Garden gate of $216,477 sat in amazement through round after round as Walcott, regarded merely as the best of a sorry lot of heavyweight contenders, stepped around the Brown Bomber and tied him in knots.

There could have been no doubt after the first few rounds that Louis, the great champion, had slipped. The old punch wasn't there. In the ninth round Louis hurt Walcott with a right and then backed him against the ropes with a fusillade of blows. But Walcott never looked like going down, and before the round ended he was trading punch for punch with the Champion.

Mason, Wier—

 broke into the first state selection the following year. Their scoring abilities were almost identical. Best season total for Kocheff was 200 points. Red-headed Murray equaled that number and Mason scored 202 points in his last year, 1945.

The same season, in which the Muskies were defeated by Ames in the state finals, Mason held the state tournament record of 29 points in three games.

Enthusiasm is running high around Muscatine and the rest of the state. Many ardent Hawkeye fans can see a story of scoring finesse in the making here this year. It's a tale that began four years ago and could end with a dramatic flourish.

Debate Forum Goes Into Final Day; No Results Announced

Prof. E. C. Mable, head of the speech and dramatic arts department, will address the intercollegiate forensics conference at a luncheon at Hotel Jefferson today, Conference Manager LeRoy Cowperthwaite announced last night.

Cowperthwaite said "things have gone very smoothly in the conference so far." Fifty-one debates and three preliminary rounds of discussion were held yesterday. Seventeen debate teams — 15 from visiting schools and 2 from Iowa — met and debated the 1947 intercollegiate question, "Resolved: That a Federal World Government Should Be Established."

Announcement of the results of the discussion and debate will be made today, Cowperthwaite said, following the final rounds.

Extempore and public speaking competitions will take place today. Finalists in after-dinner speaking will compete at a luncheon this noon, with Herb Kanzell, G. New York, N. Y., acting as master of ceremonies.

Final tabulation of the attitude scale presented to conference participants to determine student opinion on national and international issues will also be announced this afternoon.

From Athens to Iowa City in 21 Days

By FRAN SCHWEITZER

Alice Issidoridis stepped off the late 5:55 Rocket last night after a twenty-one day trip from her home in Athens, Greece, "tired but happy."

Alice greeted her brother, Costas, a graduate chemist who came to the university in 1946.

"We'll take my luggage to Westlawn," she said, nodding her curly dark head, "but let's not bother with it tonight, Costas. I haven't had any sleep in two days." She spoke English with an accent.

The 29-year-old student has enrolled at the university under an "international tuition scholarship" to work for her PhD degree in biochemistry. She received her master's degree from the University of Athens in chemistry and studied in Vienna, Austria, and Freiburg, Germany.

"I started working for my doctor's degree at the University of Freiburg," she said, "but my work was interrupted when the institute was destroyed in 1944 during an air raid. At home in Athens, the laboratories are almost completely destroyed, too," she added, "so no serious research work can be carried on there."

"It was warm when I left Greece Nov. 14," she said, pulling her handmade tweed coat closer, "not at all like the weather here. In fact," she explained, "I stopped off at New York to purchase a new pair of boots—and three pairs of nylons," she added with a grin.

"You see, nylons are eight dollars a pair in Greece and hard to buy," she explained. All of the clothing in Athens is handmade including the shoes and leather goods, she said glancing down at her trim military brown oxfords.

"We select the material and pattern and take it to the tailor who makes all of our wearing apparel. We don't pick out a dress or coat in a shop and take it home," she continued.

"Long skirts" are in style here just as they are in Athens, she noticed, but said that she dislikes the "saddle shoes." "I think the anklets are nice and practical," she added.

When someone suggested "having a coke," Alice immediately asked, "Do you mean Coca-Cola? Oh, I don't like the stuff at all. I would rather go to sleep now but tomorrow I want to see Iowa City," she said.

Sigma Chi To Play Santa For 15 Kids

Santa will be 12 days early this year for about 15 youngsters from the children's hospitals—through the auspices of Sigma Chi fraternity.

The Sigma Chis will play host—and Santa Claus—to the children Saturday afternoon, Dec. 13, at the chapter house. A party complete with games, prizes, ice cream and cake, and gifts was pictured yesterday by Dick Puetz, A3 of Davenport, who will decorate the house for the event.

"We'll probably get just as much enjoyment out of it as the kids," he laughed, as he described how Jimmy ("The Bear") McHugh, A2, Chicago, will don the guise of Santa Claus and pass out gifts.

"We're inviting some girls to help us make the kids feel at

And From West Point...

CONSULTING THEIR NOTES during a discussion session of the intercollegiate forensics conference are Cadets John F. McArdle, (left) from San Bernardino, Cal., and William R. MacDowell, Ada, Okla. They arrived in Iowa City at noon yesterday to represent West Point in the conference after their plane was held up by bad weather.

Truck-Car Accident Reported To Police

An accident Monday involving a Coca Cola company truck and a car driven by H. E. Dow, 714 Iowa avenue, was reported yesterday to police.

The accident took place on Market street near Dubuque street.

John F. Lee, 615 E. Jefferson street, was the driver of the truck, according to accident reports filed by both drivers. The reports listed damage to the truck at $25, and to the Dow car at $50.

300 Students Move Into New Quarters

Today is moving day for approximately 300 cottage residents.

"The moving is part of the housing office's preparations for next semester," explained Imelda C. Murphy, manager of the dormitory assignment office.

Cottages with few residents are being emptied and the students moved to vacancies in the main dormitory or cottages, she added, to simplify assignments for new students arriving next semester.

Mrs. Murphy estimated there would be 100 vacancies in February for women and 250 for men in the cottages.

Actual figures will not be available until a survey is taken next week to determine how many students are leaving housing units at the close of this semester.

Prof. Engle 'Doing Well' After Operation

Prof. Paul Engle of the university English department was reported as "doing nicely" last night by a hospital authority following a major operation Thursday.

He was admitted to Mercy hospital Wednesday.

Prof. Engle plans to leave the university next month for an indefinite period to write poetry. He is an instructor in the writers workshop.

home," Puetz explained. They will be Jean Clark, Nancy Gilson, Barbara Kemmerer and Mrs. Frances McLaughlin.

WSUI's Broadcast Heard in New York

Persons in New York, North Carolina and Pennsylvania heard the local broadcast of the Iowa-Carleton basketball game last Monday night direct from WSUI, according to the station's program director John Highlander.

Post cards, requesting schedules of Iowa cage contests, were received by WSUI from Buffalo, N.Y., and New Castle, Pa., and one man reported to Highlander that his sister had picked up the broadcast in North Carolina.

WSUI has a transmitting power of 5,000 watts with a primary service area including parts of Iowa, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Illinois and Missouri, according to Carl Menzer, station director.

Chinese Doctor Thinks—

U.S. Loan 'Very Nice'

By G. W. SCHRODER

Bland, affable Dr. Wang Wen-Yi thinks the proposed U.S. loan of $60 million to China is "very nice."

WANG WEN-YI

Having left his wife and son in China, he arrived at the University yesterday to study bacteriology. He will work here under Prof. William M. Hale of the college of medicine.

"Cholera, typhus, typhoid and dysentery are the prevalent diseases in China," Dr. Wang said. "There is a great need for trained doctors, necessary drugs and medicines."

During the war, Dr. Wang served as a doctor with the Chinese air force. His present "tour of duty" in Iowa is being financed by the American bureau for aid to China and the National Lanchow university, a recently organized school in China.

Doctors in China don't make very much money, according to Dr. Wang.

in your field, you can get very rich, of course. But in the country, a doctor won't make as much as a merchant. And, if you're on a fixed salary," Dr. Wang shrugged his massive shoulders, "that isn't too good."

Dr. Wang believes American aid to China will help fight inflation there.

"Of course, your dollars won't stop inflation at once, but they'll certainly help."

Dr. Wang, who is a Christian, had a good word to say for American missionaries and their work in China.

"I graduated from an American missionary school, you know."

It's a long way from Shanghai, China to 28 N. Governor street in Iowa City, but Dr. Wang seems to have made the change with equanimity.

"I have always hoped to work here. Now it will be a privilege to study here under Professor Hale."
