

National—Discuss Control of Meat, Distillers and Hotel Rents

Oppose Return to Rationing of Meat

WASHINGTON, (AP)—An array of meat packers and distributors lined up solidly yesterday against a return to meat rationing. They argued it would bring back black markets.

Senator Wherry (R-Neb.) said that "confusion" in the administration about the return of controls will mean less meat and higher prices.

"There is no conceivable way in which rationing alone, or in combination with price controls, will produce more meat for lower prices," Wherry said in a statement.

A senate banking subcommittee heard spokesmen for various parts of the meat industry declare that black markets would surely follow rationing.

Also, Jay C. Hornel, chairman of the Board of the George A. Hoffel and company meat packing firm, said in a letter to Senator Flanders (R-Vt.):

"Already we find potential black market operators negotiating for facilities and for livestock supplies."

George R. Dressler, secretary of the National Association of Retail Meat Dealers, Inc., of Chicago, told the senators potential black market operators have already been active throughout the west looking for supplies.

Dressler also said there isn't as much buyer resistance to meat prices as is commonly thought.

Most such resistance is to the prices for better cuts which customers "will never understand are never in sufficient supply when everyone wants them," he said.

The subcommittee is considering Flanders' bill which would authorize the department of agriculture to set up meat rationing machinery on a standby basis.

Truman Asks Distillers To Limit Grain Use

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Truman yesterday called on whiskey makers to limit their use of grain voluntarily to the rate of 2 1/2 million bushels a month established for January.

The government's power to allocate grain to distillers expired at midnight last night.

Mr. Truman asked congress last Thursday for a nine-months extension, saying the shortage of grain "jeopardizes the national security."

In calling on distillers to limit their use of grain voluntarily, Mr. Truman expressed regret in a statement that congress had failed to "act in time" to extend his allocation powers.

He said he hopes congress will take favorable action as soon as possible.

The Distilled Spirits Institute representing about 65 percent of the distillers, disclosed meanwhile that prior to the president's appeal, it had sent telegrams to all segments of the industry urging them to be reasonable in the use of grain when controls expire.

Rep. Wolcott (R-Mich), chairman of the house banking committee, declared after reading the message that it would be "nonsensical" to continue to restrict American distillers.

He contended that the government has authorized the shipment of corn to foreign countries for use not in feeding the hungry, but for making liquor.

No legislative action has been taken on the president proposal of Thursday.

The 2 1/2 million bushel voluntary quota which Mr. Truman asked compares with an average monthly consumption of 5 million bushels of distillers in the first 10 months of 1947.

tax on business, recapturing the $3,200,000,000 relief granted to individual taxpayers.

3. Let husbands and wives in all states split their incomes for tax purposes.

The Republican bill contains the income split provision for married couples and a $100 increase in personal exemptions.

In addition, it would offer percentage cuts ranging from 30 percent for those at the lower end of the tax ladder and 10 percent at the top.

Rayburn said the $200 personal exemption boost proposed by the Democrats would take 10 million persons off the tax rolls.

Republicans claim their $100 increase would take out 7,400,000 persons.

In contrast to the Democrats, the Republicans called for no tax increases, but only cuts.

The Democrats' plan will be laid before the House Monday, shortly before the vital vote which is expected to send the Republican measure to the senate.

The Daily Iowan

Established 1868—Vol 80, No. 107—AP News and Wirephoto

Iowa City, Iowa, Sunday, February 1, 1948—Five Cents

630 'New Century' Graduates Get Degrees

THE IOWA UNION as 630 graduates assembled for the "Second Century" commencement exercises yesterday. Prof. M. Willard Lampe, in the absence of Prof. Forest C. Ensign, read the commencement address.

Lampe Delivers Address In Absence of Forest C. Ensign

Speaking to 630 candidates for degrees at Iowa Union, Prof. Willard M. Lampe, director of the school of religion, delivered a commencement address written by Prof. Forest C. Ensign entitled, "The Second Century."

Degrees? Children Not Too Impressed

By BILL MACBRIDE
Graduating students at yesterday's commencement exercise in Iowa Union found, as all graduates do, that getting the scroll is only a part of the afternoon's events.

Coaxing 630 candidates for degrees into a formation to march upstairs to the main lounge was the first test.

Prof. Frederic G. Higbee, director of convocations, was in charge of herding the crowd. Using a gun-type, electric megaphone, such as those employed in landing procedure on navy aircraft carriers, Prof. Higbee argued, cajoled and pleaded with his contingent.

After 22-minutes, his efforts were rewarded. Four or five definite lines of graduates were headed up the stairs with orders to "follow the man in front of you."

When the last candidate filed across the stage in the main lounge and received his scroll from President Virgil Hancher, the afternoon's events were just beginning.

The caps, gowns and scrolls had to be returned to the university. That meant lining up again in the River room and standing around with the other 630 hot and tired, but happy persons to check the items in.

Some of the graduates had to go out into the cold afternoon sunlight to face a battery of proud parents, wives or friends before riding themselves of the graduation uniform.

When the caps and gowns were returned amid a search for "Mom and Dad" or "the little woman" ensued. In some cases the object of the search was a wandering child, not too impressed with daddy's passing from the campus into the world of reality.

Much congratulatory back-slapping, handshaking and hugging followed the reunion of families.

It was a great day for 630 potential "world beaters." In many cases it was the culmination of a process started seven or eight years ago and interrupted by war.

In spite of the inevitable confusion, most of the graduates agreed that it was a happy day.

Ensign, a member of the faculty of the university's college of education, was unable to deliver his address because of illness.

About 2,200 friends and relatives of the mid-year graduates attended the exercises.

The title of the talk referred to the second century of the university because the mid-year class was the first class of this new century, or the last class of the old. The university celebrated its 100th anniversary in 1947.

Delivering the address written by Ensign, Lampe told the graduates, "We are part of a continuing institution devised long ago to serve the nobler needs of society, and no doubt destined to operate not only for a second century but for many another."

He reminded the commencement audience that of the 15 greatest universities in the United States, seven are state universities, Iowa being one of them.

In recalling the past history of the university, Lampe related that the University of Iowa was the first to admit women on equal terms with men. He said that no candidate has ever been turned away because of race, color or religion.

Lampe asserted that from the very beginning it was the intention of those in authority to make the university an institution that would give the state the sort of citizens it needed to insure the future of a commonwealth of free men.

Reminding candidates that their diplomas entitle them to fellowship with 40,000 living Iowa alumni, Lampe concluded, "It is you, the graduates, standing between these two centuries, who will bind us into the great brotherhood of graduates of these two centuries."

After the address, President Virgil M. Hancher delivered the "Charge to the Candidates" and awarded degrees.

Predict UN Entry Into Palestine in Spring

LAKE SUCCESS (AP)—The United Nations partition commission will enter Palestine in March or April, informed quarters predicted yesterday.

Sources close to the commission stressed that the five-nation body was not ready to accept the British warning that the UN should stay out of the Holy Land until two weeks before the end of British rule. Britain has set May 15 to end her old League of Nations mandate.

Crash Survivor Saved By German Ex-Pilot

DIGNE, France (AP)—The only survivors among 22 Americans in two U.S. plane crashes in the Alps yesterday credited a German prisoner of war with saving his life.

Sgt. Angelo LaSalle of Des Moines, was thrown clear when his plane—a B-17 Flying Fortress—burned. He was found by Horst Kupski, former German air force pilot, working for a French farmer on the mountain. The German removed his own shoes, coat and hat and put them on the American.

The Fortress crashed yesterday just after its crew had sighted the wreckage of an air force C-47 transport which went down Tuesday. Twelve Americans, including three women and five children, died aboard the transport.

Doctors described LaSalle's condition as fair.

All bodies of the Fortress victims have been recovered. Three bodies still remained in the wreckage of the transport which crashed while on a flight from Istres airbase, near Marseille, to Udine, Italy. The women and children passengers were on the last leg of a trip from the United States to join their soldier husbands and fathers in Trieste.

McNutt 'Proud' To Run

NEW YORK (AP)—Paul V. McNutt said yesterday he would be "proud" to be running-mate to President Truman should he seek election.

McNutt, former governor of Indiana, now a resident of New York, also said at a news conference that he is available as a candidate for Democratic national convention delegate from New York.

Democrats Propose Another Tax Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—House Democrats proposed a $200 additional personal exemption yesterday for every income tax payer.

There was every indication, though, that their bid was too low to offer serious competition with the $5 1/2 billion Republican tax cutting bill slated for House passage Monday.

The whispered-hope substitute which a group of Democrats worked out in ex-Speaker Sam Rayburn's office would do three things:

1. Raise personal exemptions and credit for dependents from $500 to $700.

2. Put back an excess profits

Says US Oil Supplies Too Low For War

WASHINGTON (AP)—Current U.S. military oil supplies are too low to sustain a major war effort more than two weeks, Rep. Dewey Short (R-Mo) said yesterday.

Short is chairman of a House armed services subcommittee.

Short, whose group is making a study of the military oil picture, added: "Our reserves are dangerously low and our fleet would have difficulty remaining in action if trouble broke out in the near future. It depends for much of its oil on middle eastern sources, which we almost certainly would lose quickly if we go into a war."

"It is doubtful if current supplies are sufficient to keep the fleet in action and to keep our tanks and air planes moving for as long as two weeks."

Says US Oil Supplies Too Low For War

But, he declared in an interview, "while the situation now is dangerous, it is beginning to clear up and the petroleum people in the army and navy believe it will improve vastly."

One "encouraging aspect" Short added, is that the oil problems of potential enemies, "are worse" than ours. He did not name any of the possible enemies.

Hotel Owners Oppose Re-control on Hotel Rent

WASHINGTON (AP)—Federal recontrol of rents in hotels was vigorously opposed yesterday by the American Hotel association.

Spokesmen for the organization, who said it represents 75 percent of the hotels in the country, stated their case before a senate banking committee.

It has under consideration a rent control extension bill which, among other things, would put rents in residential hotels back to their June 30, 1947, levels.

Contending that occupancy of hotel rooms is "declining dangerously," Daniel J. O'Brien of Toledo said: "Competition will take care of our prices."

With present rent controls scheduled to end Feb. 29, the pending legislation by Senators Ives (R-NY) and Baldwin (R-Conn) would extend the restrictions to June 30, 1949.

Portland, Me. (AP)—Aides of Harold E. Stassen said yesterday the former Minnesota governor running for the Republican nomination would have at least 230 delegates on the first ballot at the national convention.

I takes 548 to get the nomination.

The Stassen camp announced it was counting on at least 17 of the 30 delegates in the three northern New England states Stassen visited—Vermont, New Hampshire and Maine—with Stassen himself listing Maine and Connecticut as his two strongest states in the region.

He told reporters he expected to win a majority of the eight delegates in New Hampshire's presidential preference primary March 9—important as it is the first primary in the nation.

The 40-year-old Stassen appeared confident during his five-day tour of northern New England and at the end told reporters: "I would not change places with any other candidate at the moment." He did not elaborate.

He clearly appeared counting on many of the supporters of the "Draft-Eisenhower" movement swinging to his banner—and went out of his way to cultivate this support along with the favor of the younger Republicans and veterans.

California Demos Back Truman Administration

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP)—A delegation pledged to the renomination of President Truman was named yesterday by the Democratic party of California.

The party agreed the successor to national committeeman Edwin W. Pauley, resigned, would not be named until after the national convention in June.

The committee accepted Pauley's resignation and directed his work be turned over to James Roosevelt, as state chairman, and Mrs. Edward H. Heller of San Francisco, national staff committeewoman.

Roosevelt had declined comment on whether he might succeed Pauley.

Will Rogers, Jr., who previously had demanded a "widening" of the delegation to include more pro-Truman groups, expressed satisfaction with the selection of the delegation.

The Wallace third party issue, both Rogers and Roosevelt said, was ignored in the selection of delegates.

Foreign—Trouble in India and Germany; Soviets' Big Budget

Unrest in India as Gandhi Rites End

NEW DELHI (AP)—Indian military authorities announced early yesterday that the cremation of Mohandas K. Gandhi's body was complete.

The flickering light of the assassinated Hindu leader's funeral pyre was allowed to die out during the night. Previously it had been expected to burn for 36 hours.

This morning Gandhi's son, Devadas, returns to the burning ground to decide whether the ashes will be preserved or cast into the holy Jumna river or the Ganges river.

As the fire of the fragrant sandalwood logs of Gandhi's pyre burned low, an Indian soldier occasionally stirred the embers with a long bamboo pole.

Throughout the night groups of worshippers visited the scene of the cremation. But the huge crowd which witnessed the solemn ceremony yesterday had gone.

Yesterday, amid mob scenes of hysterical grief, Devadas Gandhi placed the coals to the four corners of his father's pyre. Police and soldiers swung sticks and rifle butts to keep back tens of thousands of devoted followers who shoved forward trying to see the ceremony. There were numerous casualties but no deaths.

Bombay police said they had begun a major investigation into an alleged plot to kill Gandhi and leaders of the Congress party. Ten persons have been arrested in connection with the probe, they said.

It has not been determined whether Gandhi was killed as the result of a plot or whether his slayer carried out his act without accomplices.

During the investigation, police said, six illegal radio transmitters were seized.

BABY CONDITION WORSE

BERN, SWITZERLAND, (AP)—The condition of Princess Igor Troubetzkoy, the former Barbara Hutton, became critical yesterday and she underwent a second abdominal operation.

Germans Plan Strikes Against Food Shortage

FRANKFURT, GERMANY (AP)—Growing efforts to foment mass unrest in western Germany were reported yesterday as nearly 3 million German workers planned strikes against food shortages next week.

Three separate 24-hour strikes have been called for Tuesday in huge areas of the British-American occupation zones. They were expected to largely paralyze industrial activity.

Soviets Ask Highest Budget In History

MOSCOW (AP)—Russian finance minister A. G. Zverev proposed last night to a joint parliamentary session of the supreme soviet the largest budget in the history of the Soviet Union.

With Prime Minister Stalin and Foreign Minister Molotov among his listeners, Zverev called for expenditures of 387,900,000,000 rubles and a revenue for 428,000,000,000 rubles in 1948.

The amounts would come roughly to $77,580,000,000 in expenditures and $85,600,000,000 in revenue.

The appropriation recommended for Russia's armed forces for the current year was 66 billion rubles. That would amount to 17 percent of the total budget and a cut of 2 1/2 billion rubles from the 1947 military expenditure.

President Truman has asked the U. S. congress for $11,025,000,000 for national defense in the next year. Washington experts have contended that the Russians do not include in their military budget many items that are carried in the U. S. as national defense expenditures.

A fourth member of the board was wounded as he fled.

Constable Fruh of nearby Meadownland, said the slayer had been present at the meeting during discussion of his license application. He left and returned with a 30-30 caliber deer rifle. As the man re-entered the school house in which the board was meeting, Fruh said, he started shooting.

VFW Discuss UMT

OMAHA (AP)—Veterans of Foreign Wars officials from five states, assembled here yesterday for a "pow-wow," discussed opposition to universal military training within the ranks of the V.F.W.

Merton B. Tice, Mitchell, S.D., department commander, described what he called "terrific opposition" by some veterans" to the training.

Members of the V.F.W. auxiliary posts in district 10 also were gathered here. States represented are Nebraska, South Dakota, Iowa, Kansas and Missouri. Sessions will continue through today.

New Leaders in India

LEADERSHIP IN INDIA'S Congress party, with Gandhi's death, now is divided between Prime Minister Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru (left) and Deputy Prime Minister Vallabhai Patel (right). Nehru is the man in the government who was closest to Gandhi and the assassin of Indian leader once said Nehru was his heir as party head. Patel, known as the Congress' strong man because of his severe policies, frequently clashed with Nehru and Gandhi was a bitter political enemy.

(AP WIREPHOTO)

Iowa Rolls Easily Over Regis, 76-48

Wier Garners 26 Points; Metcalfe 12, Magnusson 11

By BUCK TURNBULL
Sports Editor

The University of Iowa basketball team won its 33rd consecutive home non-conference game here in the Hawkeye fieldhouse last night, easily trimming Regis college of Denver, 76-48. The victory was Iowa's tenth of the season against two losses.

Twisting, turning, uncanny little Murray Wier was never better, firing in 26 points in 30 minutes of hard-driving basketball. The Muscatine fireball had a shot percentage of .578 with 11 field goals in 19 attempts.

The game was anything but exciting for the sparse crowd of 8,469. Play was rather slow and deliberate at times, mainly from the Regis quintet, with only sparks of good ball-handling and shooting.

However, considering the exam release, the Hawks were just as good as could be expected—and they were up against a vastly inferior foe. The taller Rangers from the land of the tall Colorado mountains had every intention of staying in the thick of the fight, but the Hawkeye manpower wore them down in the second half.

Probably one of the brighter moments in the entire contest was the advent of Forward Floyd Magnusson into the lineup to open the second half. Coach "Pops" Harrison had used four forwards in the spot opposite Wier in the first period—Bob Vollers, who started, Charlie Mason, Stan Straatsma and Jack Wishmier—but it was "Maggie" who stole the spotlight.

The Hawkeyes led at the intermission, 33-26, when Magnusson went to work with his one-handed push shot. He dumped in two field goals in the first 30 seconds of the half, followed this with a free throw to give Iowa its biggest lead of the game to that point, 38-26. He went on to score 11 points before the fray ended, hitting five of seven shots for a .715 average.

While Regis went for eight straight minutes of the last period without a point, the Hawks forged far into the lead. They pushed their advantage from 38-31 with 16 minutes left in the game to 58-31 with eight minutes to go.

The Rangers, hampered by the loss of four star freshmen from their squad due to a Big Nine rule forbidding their use against conference opposition, taking the lead at two different stages before they fell behind. With the ball game seven minutes old, a charity toss by Bob Fisher put them in front, 9-8. Then, with the score knotted at 16-15 with 13 minutes gone, a Fisher hook shot found the mark.

But Iowa Center "Red" Metcalfe retaliated with a "hook-shot" a la Metcalfe variety to tie the score. Seconds later the Hawks had another basket and the lead which they pushed to

Regis Col.	Iowa
Waters, f. 10	Magnusson, f. 11
Moore, f. 6	Wier, f. 26
Antonelli, f. 10	Vollers, f. 10
Kipatrick, f. 0	Mason, f. 2
Fisher, c. 6	Straatsma, f. 1
Coursey, c. 3	Wishmier, f. 0
Burns, c. 2	Freeman, f. 0
Sheehan, g. 1	Metcalfe, c. 12
	Finley, c. 5
	Finley, c. 1
	Spencer, g. 0
	Schultz, g. 0
	Hall, g. 1
	Guzowski, g. 1
	Harris, g. 2
	Parker, g. 0
	Watkins, f. 1

Totals... 19 10 19 Totals... 30 16 17
Halftime score: Iowa 33, Regis 26.
Free throws missed: Regis—Fisher 3, Moore 2, Coursey, Burns, Finley, Moore 2, Magnusson, Freeman, Finley, Schultz, Hall, Harris.

the winning margin. This two-point margin was the result of Wier's jumper—he didn't touch and he pitched. It never touched the rim.

Fisher and Forward Harvey Moore paced the Ranger scoring attack with 16 points apiece. The over-all Regis shooting percentage was .292 compared with Iowa's excellent .340, which was built up in the second half.

Regis Coach Larry Varnell put little Bobby Burns, 5-foot, 11-inch guard, in the game to play tag with the high-scoring, unstoppable Wier. But the Iowa hit-shot was the same as ever—his back red, his face blazing and his legs and arms turning in every direction at the same time. And when Wier departed from the tilt with 10 minutes left, he looked fresh as a daisy. The same could not be said for Mr. Burns.

When the regulars left the game with a little more than nine minutes left to play, the Hawks had hit 12 of 14 free throws. Not bad at all!

The fans were treated with a very interesting show between halves when two sets of grade school hoopsters hooked up in a short wild ball game. In fact some of the heartiest cheers were bellowed during the intermission.

The crowd was commended by the public address announcer after the game for its good sportsmanship. The fans as a whole were the best home crowd of the year.

Coach "Pops" Harrison used his entire 17-man squad against the Rangers and 13 of them hit scoring figures.

In a preliminary game, the Iowa freshman squad of Coach Vince Harsha whipped the Hawkeye JV's, 59-35. The frosh led at halftime, 29-16. Bill Andrews led Harsha's cagers with 20 points while Elwin Duhm paced the JV squad with 12 markers.

Kentucky 68, DePaul 51
Coe 66, Grinnell 58
Iowa State 39, Colorado 38
St. Louis 48, Creighton 25
Bradley 74, Colorado College 45
Butler 39, Ohio University 35
North Carolina State 72, Wake Forest 43

DRIVING TO SHOOT is Bob Vollers (26) of Iowa while Bob Moore (24) and another unidentified Regis College player attempt to stop him. The action took place in Iowa's easy victory over the Denver club, 76-48, at the Iowa fieldhouse last night.

Hawks, Cats Tangle Tomorrow

The February stretch drive—a "this is it" for the University of Iowa basketball team—begins tomorrow night when the Wildcats of Northwestern invade the lair of the Hawkeyes.

The Iowa team, winner of three Big Nine games in five starts, has not seen league action since the loss to Minnesota Jan. 19 at Minneapolis. The Wildcats are deadlocked with Ohio State in the loop cellar with one win in five games after their battle with Michigan last night.

But in the last few years the Purple has been exceptionally difficult against Iowa, winning last winter in Chicago stadium, 59-40. In their last appearance here in 1944, Northwestern knocked Iowa out of a share in the Big Nine title in the season's final game, 42-41.

Tomorrow's scrap should revolve around the two scoring stalwarts, Murray Wier of Iowa and Bill Sticklen of Northwestern. Wier is currently hitting at a .418 clip compared to Sticklen's .208, with the Muscatine red-head averaging 24 points per game to the Purple star's 14.5.

Other Northwestern starters are: Forward Jimmy Barr, good scorer and ball-handler; Center George Maddock, 6-foot, 5-inch 230-pound football tackle; Guard and Captain Chuck Tourek, defensive demon, excellent rebounder, and Guard Tom Worth.

The probable line-ups:
IOWA: F. Wier (3-10), F. B. Sticklen (6-11), S. Straatsma (6-2), F. J. Barr (6-2), R. Metcalfe (6-4), C. G. Maddock (6-3), Bob Schultz (6-1), G. C. Tourek (6-2), J. Spencer (6-2), G. Worthington (5-11).
Time and Place—Monday, 8 p.m., Iowa fieldhouse.
Tickets—Sell-out.
Preliminary Game—Junior Varsity vs. Wilkinson All-Stars.
Broadcasts—WSUL Iowa City; KWDM, Des Moines.

Cornell Champion Wrestlers Lowell Lange, Dick Hauser Injured in Auto Collision

Lowell Lange and Dick Hauser, both NCAA wrestling champions, were among six Cornell college students seriously injured in a head-on automobile collision last night at Cedar Rapids.

Lange, also national AAU 136-pound titleholder, suffered possible kidney injury and a possible fracture of the left foot. Hauser, 121-pound intercollegiate champ, suffered severe lacerations. X-rays were being taken to determine the full extent of his injuries.

Buford Beck, wrestling team manager, received a fractured skull and deep cut on the head. Cornell Homecoming Queen Mollie Nishiyama, Marjorie Pursell and Candace Hinz were the other students injured.

Driver of the other car, Roosevelt Covington, received a broken right leg, fractured ribs, a lung injury and possible fractured skull. He was leaving another automobile, both to be delivered to an Omaha auto dealer.

Michigan Gains Big Nine Lead

ANN ARBOR, MICH. (AP)—The University of Michigan seized the Western conference basketball leadership here last night, by convincingly trouncing Northwestern, 53-47 before 7,000 fans.

The victory gave Michigan a record of three wins and one loss which gives the Wolverines a narrow margin over Wisconsin, currently idle with 5-2.

The Wolverines also gained revenge over the Northwestern outfit that earlier inflicted the only defeat on the Michigan record, and shoved the Wildcats into a last-place tie with Ohio State.

Northwestern's scoring threats, Forward Bill Sticklen, and Center George Maddock, were held to seven and nine points respectively. Michigan's classy guard, Pete Elliott, clamped down on Sticklen and Center Bill Roberts limited Maddock's success.

Michigan's cause was aided inestimably under the basket by Don McIntosh, who, along with the clever Mack Suprunowicz, sparked the second period play for Michigan.

LOUISE SUGGS WINS
MIAMI, FLA. (AP)—For the fourth straight time in 8 months, National Amateur Champion Louise Suggs of Atlanta, Ga., defeated her clubmate Dorothy Kirby in winning the 16th annual Helen Lee Doherty Golf tournament 5 and 4 here yesterday.

Navy Signs Sauer As Gridiron Chief

ANNAPOLIS, MD. (AP)—George Sauer yesterday resigned as head football coach at the University of Kansas to accept a four-year contract for the same job at the Naval Academy.

The 37-year-old coach, whose Jayhawk eleven went to the Orange Bowl this year, conferred earlier this week with Academy officials at Annapolis. He was one of two "professional" coaches interviewed by Captain Tom Hamilton, newly appointed athletic director at the navy school. The other was Charles (Bud) Wilkinson, University of Oklahoma coach.

Sauer, former University of Nebraska all-American full-back, led the Jayhawkers to its second consecutive Big Six conference co-championships.

During world war II Sauer was in the navy, serving as a lieutenant commander aboard the carrier Enterprise. He had served as head coach at New Hampshire for five years before entering the service.

While at Nebraska, Sauer was all Big Six fullback in 1931, 1932 and 1933. He played with the Green Bay Packers professional team in 1935 and 1936.

Gene Hettrick, City high's leading scorer, was held to seven points. However, he was forced to play under wraps during the entire last half, and departed via the four route with four minutes remaining.

"Whitey" Diehl took scoring honors for the Little Hawks with 10 points. Sisk and Ramsey led the Waterloo attack with 12 and 11 points respectively.

West Waterloo (45) IOWA CITY (41)
Ramsey, f. 5 1 Diehl, f. 5 10
Kemp, f. 4 1 B. Fenton, f. 3 1
Sisk, g. 3 0 H. Hettrick, c. 3 1
Gradinger, g. 2 3 Shain, f. 1 1
Nadler, g. 1 7 S. Reichardt, g. 1 3
Neighbors, f. 0 0 Beals, g. 3 1
Dunham, g. 1 0
Wood, g. 1 1

Totals... 14 17 18 Totals... 16 9 11
Halftime score: West Waterloo 25, Iowa City 18.

Other members of the all-stars are Leo Cabalka, Jim Graham, Jim Humphreys, John Kaslak, Jack Dittmer, Bob Knarr and Bob Watkins.

Weston Addresses Boxers
Dan Weston, noted light heavyweight of Macomb, Illinois, will address all Iowa City Golden Glove entrants tomorrow night in the Community building at 8 o'clock.

TEXTBOOKS

- PSYCHOLOGY
- PHILOSOPHY
- SOCIOLOGY
- ENGLISH
- EDUCATION
- ART
- HISTORY
- SPEECH

And a variety of other texts
We are glad to take special orders

the bookshop

114 E. WASHINGTON

The Town is Crazy About JEANNIE

"BEST LIGHT COMEDY OF THE YEAR!"

ee Rapturous, captivating, heartwarming, enchanting. Has the gleam of real gold. —TIMES ee Light and fresh... told with laughter. —SUN ee As perfectly blended for American tastes as Heig & Hain pink bottles. —PM
ee Artful—appealing. —TRIBUNE

Scenes From Shakespeare's
MACBETH

NOW • TODAY
35c Till 2 p.m. Then 50c

35c Any Time Late Show IOWA TODAY Ends TUESDAY

MURDER IN HOLLYWOOD with Raft on killer's trail!
GEORGE RAFT LYNN BARI NOCTURNE Extra Disney Cartoon

TARZAN TRAPPED by treacherous white hunters!
TARZAN AND THE HUNTRESS JOHNNY WEISSMULLER BRENDA JOYCE JOHNNY STEPHENSON

Doors Open 1:15-9:45

STRAND

—ENDS TUESDAY—
"FIRST TIME — FIRST RUN"

DARING THRILL HITS
PRISON WITHOUT BARS
CITY WITHOUT MEN

Doors Open 1:15-10:00

Englert

—ENDS TUESDAY—
NOW
It's a 4-alarm love and laugh riot... the year's smash comedy surprise!

Shows — 1:30 — 3:35
5:40 — 7:45 — 9:20
"Last Feature 9:55"

GINGER ROGERS
CORNEL WILDE
It Had to Be You

PLUS
Bagpipe Lassies
"Novel Hit"
Bout with a Trout
"Cartoon"
— Late News —

VARSIITY-NOW
—ENDS TUES.—

LUPINO CLARK MORRIS
WARNER BROS.
"DEEP VALLEY"
FAY BAINTER - HENRY HULL

PLUS
Borah Ninnevitte and His Harmonica School
Colortoon — Late News

—VASITY—
Starts WEDNESDAY!

ORIGINAL and COMPLETE PRESENTATION.
Two hours of glorious music, color and imagination.

Special Engagement
WALT DISNEY'S FANTASIA
in Technicolor with STOKOWSKI
RELEASED BY RKO RADIO PICTURES, INC.

Presenting The Music of Bach, Tchaikovsky, Dukas, Stravinsky, Beethoven, Ponchielli, Moussorgsky and Franz Schubert

Pledges Pick Dance Queen Candidates

Sixteen candidates for queen of the interfraternity pledge dance, "Paddle Hop," have been selected from women's housing units; Bob Charles, pledge council president, announced yesterday.

Larry Barrett will furnish the music for the formal dance to be held in the main lounge of the Iowa Union Friday, from 9 to 12.

Candidates are Margaret Patty, Alpha Delta Pi; Doris Doyle, Kappa Kappa Gamma; Jan Tyler, Delta Gamma; Sue Winter, Alpha Xi Delta; Beverly Bagge, Sally Watson, Donna Lee Iverson, Maxine Lewis, Currier; Joyce Bahr, Alpha Chi Omega; Jean Dahl, Zeta Tau Alpha; Barbara Hinkle, Chi Omega; Fran Whistler, Kappa Alpha Theta; Jo Chipman, Delta Delta; Jan Colby, Gamma Phi Beta; Madronna Green, Pi Beta Phi, and Elaine Gradinger, Sigma Delta Tau.

Chaperons will include housemothers from all social fraternities and Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Huit, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Marshall, Prof. and Mrs. C. Woody Thompson, and President and Mrs. Virgil M. Hancheb.

Bill Sindlinger is chairman of the social committee, assisted by Kirk Chaney and Jim Dubois.

PERSONAL NOTES

Out-of-town guests present at the wedding of Patricia King and E. Stewart Griffith yesterday were the bride's grandmother, Mrs. P. J. King, and Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Switzer, all of Osceola; Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Yeager, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Yeager and daughters, Marilyn and Sandra, all of Fairfield.

Ben Shlaes, C3, Rock Island, is visiting friends this weekend in Champaign, Ill.

Mervin Aptak, A1, left for his home in Tulsa, Okla., yesterday. He will attend the University of Tulsa next semester.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernie Bracker of Des Moines are visiting friends in Iowa City this weekend. Mrs. Bracker is the former Chloe Anne Shutte.

Bertel Rosenstock, A1, Sioux City, is visiting in Chicago this weekend.

Beverly Barger, A1, Des Moines,

Foulds-Johnson Wedding Performed

TWO UNIVERSITY STUDENTS, Mary Lou Foulds and Robert Charles Johnson, were married yesterday in a double ring ceremony in the parsonage of the First Methodist church. Dr. L. L. Dunnington performed the ceremony. Attendees were Kathryn Horslund, C4, Waterloo, and Richard Tripp, G, Sioux City. The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Foulds, Sterling, Ill., attended Lindenwood college, St. Charles, Mo., and is a junior in the college of liberal arts. She is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma social sorority. The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Johnson, Sioux City, attended Iowa State college and is a senior in the college of liberal arts. The couple will be at home at 918 E. Jefferson street.

is visiting in Wapello this weekend.

Freshman women from Currier house spending the weekend at home are Betty Boswell, Marshalltown; Rose Marie Staudt, Marble Rock; Sue Goltman, Clinton; Charlotte Rogers, Lytton; Nancy Brown, Earlham; Jo Ann Robinson, Des Moines; Clara Falk, Washington, Iowa, and Diane Hathorn, Fort Snelling, Minn.

Earl Youngstrom, C3, Dayton, is spending the weekend at home.

Virginia Johnson, A2, Oak Park, Ill., is visiting in Des Moines this weekend.

Delta Gammas who are home for the weekend include: Joan Hood, C3, Des Moines; Julie Paul, A4, Waterloo; Sally Zuercher, A4, Cedar Rapids; Carolyn Brenton, A3, Des Moines, and Donna Jensen, A3, Council Bluffs.

Chi Omegas spending the weekend at home are Anne Arganbright, A2, Guthrie Center; Marjorie Lowry, A3, Cedar Rapids; Anne Mudge, A2, Sioux City; Peggy Fuller, A2, Centerville; Mary Edythe Stuart, A4, Des Moines; Shirley Lewis, A2, West

Liberty, and Esther Haack, A2, Vinton.

Bill Block, A2, Davenport, and Bill Sutter, A3, and Joe Sutter, P4, both of Burlington, are visiting their homes this weekend.

Dean Paarmann, A2, Davenport; Bob Conner, A2, Keokuk, and Dick Vaughn, A2, Ottumwa, all of Delta Tau Delta fraternity, are spending the weekend at their homes.

Duane Pearson, E2, Davenport, is spending the weekend at home.

Al Mathews, a former student now living in Chicago, is visiting Kathleen McCormac, A3, Letts, this weekend.

Bob Bell of Chicago is visiting Eleanor Nissen, A4, Walnut, this weekend.

Okla.'s New Headache

OKLAHOMA CITY, (AP)—A white man sought to enroll in Oklahoma's new law school for Negroes, injecting a new element of confusion into the state's efforts to preserve racial segregation in education.

To Wed May 2

MR. AND MRS. DAVE WHITSELL, 229 Grand avenue, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Carolyn, to John D. Stuhler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Stuhler, Monticello. A graduate of Iowa City high school, Miss Whitsell completed her training in x-ray technique at University hospital last May. Mr. Stuhler is a senior in the university's college of medicine and will receive his degree in March. He is affiliated with Alpha Kappa Kappa, national medical fraternity, and Sigma Chi, national social fraternity. The wedding will take place at the First Methodist church in Iowa City, May 2.

Meetings, Speeches—

Town 'n' Campus

SADDLE CLUB—Officers and trustees of 1947 and 1948 of the Iowa City Saddle club will meet at 7:30 tomorrow night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S.A. Fitzgarrald, 335 S. Dubuque street.

REBEKAH LODGE—Past Noble Grands of Iowa City Rebekah Lodge No. 416 will meet at the home of Mrs. Florence Fenlon, 404 S. Summit street tomorrow night at 7:30. Mrs. C.G. Mullinex will be the assistant hostess. Mrs. Charles Yavorsky, retiring Noble Grand of Lodge No. 416, will be initiated.

IOWA DAMES—Election of officers for the University of Iowa Dames club will be held Tuesday night at 7:30 at the Wesley annex, 213 E. Market street. There will be a regular meeting following.

Patricia King, E. Stewart Griffith Wed

IN A SINGLE RING CEREMONY yesterday afternoon, Patricia King, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. King, Livingston, Mont., became the bride of E. Stewart Griffith, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Griffith, Red Oak. Dr. Marcus Bach performed the ceremony in the Little Chapel of the Congregational church. Janet Greene, Chicago, and John Griffith, Red Oak, brother of the bridegroom, were attendants. The bride graduated from Park County high school, Livingston, and attended Montana State college. She is a senior in the combined course of liberal arts and nursing at the University of Iowa. Mr. Griffith graduated yesterday from the college of law. The couple will be at home at 203 N. Linn street.

ed by a talk by Janine Freyrens Johnson street, at 2:15 p.m. Tuesday of Belgium.

BOOK REVIEW—Book Review club will meet with Mrs. Norman Sage, 1016 E. College street, at 7:45 tomorrow night. Mrs. E.B. Wilkinson will be co-hostess. Mrs. Ivan Hedges will review "Men's Most Dangerous Myth" by M.F. Ashley-Montagu.

UNIVERSITY NEWCOMERS—A guest tea will be given by the University Newcomers at 2:30 p.m. tomorrow in the clubrooms of Iowa Union. Members of Newcomers have been asked to bring wives of their department heads as guests. Chairman of the tea is Mrs. E.J. Olesen. Mrs. Joseph Howe is hostess. Mrs. H.C. Harshbarger will speak on "Spring Gardens."

GIRL SCOUTS—Intermediate Girl Scout leaders will have a round table discussion at 1:30 tomorrow in the Girl Scout office, 119 1/2 E. College street.

BOOK AND BASKET—Mrs. Herbert Ashdown, 220 Church street, will entertain the Book and Basket club at a 1 p.m. luncheon tomorrow. Assisting her will be Mrs. John Barick and Mrs. Grace Kendall. Members are requested to bring their own table service. Roll call will be answered with a current event.

AMISTAD CIRCLE—The Amistad Circle will meet at the home of Mrs. Guy J. Chappell, 331 S.

ELKS LADIES—A business and social meeting of the Elks Ladies will be held at 2 p.m. Tuesday in the Elks clubrooms. Mrs. C.A. Bowman is chairman for this month.

MUSIC STUDY CLUB—The Music Study club will meet at 2:30 Tuesday at the home of Mrs. F.M. Dawson, 723 Bayard street.

STORY TELLER'S LEAGUE—The Story Teller's league will meet at 7:30 Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. Ellis Crawford, 1103 Muscatine avenue. Mrs. P.W. Herrick will be the assistant hostess. Story teller will be Mrs. Cecil Wilson and Prof. Gladys Lynch will conduct the workshop period.

PANHELLENIC—Alumnae rushing advisers and sorority rush chairmen will meet with members of the Panhellenic council for their regular meeting Tuesday at 4:30 p.m. in conference room 111, University hall.

Miss Fletchall Wed To John Albrecht

Vaughn Fletchall and John G. Albrecht were married yesterday in a double ring ceremony at the First English Lutheran church. The Rev. Ralph Krueger officiated.

Mrs. Albrecht, daughter of Mrs. Zula Fletchall, Grant City, Mo., graduated from Grant City high school and is a sophomore in the University of Iowa's college of liberal arts. Her husband, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Albrecht, 1212 E. Court street, Iowa City, attended Kansas State college and received his B.S. degree from the university yesterday.

Mrs. Elinor Tucker, Iowa City, was matron of honor and Ralph Tucker was best man. After the ceremony, a reception was held at Dean House.

Following a short wedding trip to Chicago, the couple will be at home at 1212 E. Court street.

More than 200 ships were damaged by mines in the two years immediately after World War II.

Grecian-Queck Vows Spoken Yesterday

Nuptial vows were spoken yesterday by Lucille Grecian and Dallas Queck in the Zion Lutheran church. The Rev. A. C. Proehl performed the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Robert Noack, Rock Island, Ill., attended the bride as matron of honor. Paul Grecian, Lone Tree, was best man and usher was Keith Queck, Cordova.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Riley Grecian, Riverside, was graduated from Lone Tree high school. She is employed as a beauty operator. The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Queck, Fontanelle, was graduated from Fontanelle high school. He attended New York university and is now a junior in the University of Iowa's college of liberal arts.

Following a wedding trip the couple will be at home at 526 S. Dubuque street.

Denmark has doubled the area of her country devoted to forests in the past 75 years.

Monday Specials

Shop Aldens Monday for Exceptional Values:

Smart, New
BLOUSETTES
1.98

Bright rayon blouses for under your suits and jackets. They wear and wash beautifully. Made full and plaid for comfort.

Aldens Town and Campus Shop

Extra Long
NYLON HOSE
1.49

Formerly 1.98, these sheer nylons are now only 1.49. Extra long length in 30 denier, 51 gauge nylons.

Aldens Main Floor

Baby
EVEN-FLOW BOTTLES
caps, nipple, and bottle ..... 25c

The complete set of three parts for 25c. These new even-flow bottles are what every mother wants. Feed the baby easily and healthfully.

Aldens Second Floor

Two-in-One
PANTIE-GARTER BELT
1.98

Here's the new combination pantie and garter belt. Lace lastex top with run proof rayon pantie bottom. Adjustable garters, and lace trim pantie.

Aldens Second Floor

"Soap Granules"
HOUSE HOLD SOAP
29c box

Pure white soap granules... kind to your hands and safe for your fabrics. Washes clean and white.

Aldens Appliance Store

Nest of 4
GLASS BOWLS
35c

Fine quality clear glass bowls for mixing and serving. Made in 4 convenient sizes that fit into each other. Set of 4 only 35c.

Aldens Appliance Store

Electric
HOT PLATE
1.19

Handy to use in kitchen or at the table is this small electric hot plate. Has three legs and chrome finish.

Aldens Appliance Store

Assorted Men's TIES
1.00

Here's the ideal Valentine gift for the man of your heart. One of these economy priced ties with that much-more-expensive look. Choose any color from prints, plaids and plains.

Aldens Main Floor

Strub's Aldens

118 South Clinton Phone 8-1101

If You Cannot Shop at Aldens on Monday, Your Phone or Mail Order Will Gladly Be Accepted

Back to School . . .

BOOKS

Attention G.I.'S Bring in your requisitions

We carry ALL the
TEXT BOOKS
and
SUPPLIES

UNIVERSITY BOOKSTORE

— ON THE CORNER —

MOVING

After Graduation?

Let us provide you with the most modern equipment available. Also safe storage and economical crating for rail shipment.

CALL

Thompson Transfer & Storage Co.
dial 2161

SELECT WIDE VARIETY RECORDS
• Victor
• Columbia
• Capitol
• Decca
• Majestic
SPENCER'S HARMONY HALL
15 S. Dubuque St.

Elmo
special formula
cream

big $2 jar... $1
only

This half-price offer is intended to acquaint more ladies with the amazing effectiveness of Elmo Special Formula Cream. Helps soften and smooth away lines and wrinkles like magic, especially on the throat and under-chin. Get a number of jars, while you can get them at this amazingly low price!

ALDENS

Elmo SALES CORPORATION—PHILA., PA.

Jeannie's Apron Strings Remained Tied To Hearth; Heartstrings Torn by Vienna

Even Champagne Fails To Effect Seduction Of Solid Cinderella

By JACK O'BRIEN

We have with us this weekend a bonny British import entitled, with significant simplicity, "Jeannie."

"Jeannie" is the quiet, heart-warming tale of an ordinary-looking little Highland domestic who takes a fling in pre-war Vienna.

As a Cinderella story it lies closer to the practical reality of a Sears-Roebuck catalogue than the gilt fantasy of a fairy story. Jeannie's too solid to be fatally seduced by even so intriguing a combination as champagne, waltzes and a hand-kissing count . . . or even the answer to her fondest dreams; hearing "The Blue Danube" played at its source.

Her staunch little Scottish heart is as consistently of the Highlands as heather and good whiskey.

Her Continental sabbatical never really carries her very far from the hearth.

Jeannie's dream come true is already of another time and another world . . . an era of gigolos, Cook's tours, pre-inflationary millionaire travelers . . . of a Vienna as gay as red-checked table clothes; as romantic as a mortgaged castle—a Vienna whose national anthem was a Strauss waltz.

Those days, as the guy in the comic strip used to say, are gone perhaps for ever. Though of only yesterday, they are already dimmed in a fairyland haze.

But Barbara Mullen sees that Jeannie is as real as today . . . embarrassingly naïve, charmingly candid, she is as eternally appealing as the rarity of a truly honest woman . . . one who lies only about her age.

This is another of those quietly amusing little personalized comedies which never "kill ya" but comfort you with chuckles. It's a brand of humor at which the British ("Storm in a Teacup," "Kippis") and the French ("Well-digger's Daughter," "Cage of Nightingales") are masters. And it's a brand which continues to bewilder the hysterical mass of American movie-goers who search frantically for the opportunity to "roll in the aisles," only to have to settle for Danny Kaye laying waste his talents in a discarded script of Bob Hope's.

Aside from the personable presence of Miss Mullen, "Jeannie" claims the talents of Michael Redgrave, one of the most agreeable actors to ever walk before a camera.

The versatile Mr. Redgrave was available to the local public in two widely divergent roles last week. He's fine as the long-suffering tourist and washing-machine salesman who valiantly seeks to share Jeannie's tenaciously defended "independence." He was also amazingly believable as a schizophrenic ventriloquist in "Dead of Night," a role which in the hands of a lesser talent might have been ludicrous.

This British melodrama, incidentally, was an imaginative and suspenseful thriller. If you missed it, you might watch for it to turn up again sometime.

The rather amazing script considers, along with several other things, the intriguing possibility of a ventriloquist's dummy usurping part of his master's personality and distorting it into an almost fiendishly human personality of his own.

Redgrave is worth watching in both performances. And you may be better off for having missed the mystery picture this time around. Less fortunate who wandered in upon it last week found themselves massacred, along with Claudette Colbert and Henry Fonda, in a fabulous and fatiguing piece of American history which the Beards have somehow missed . . . we all should have been so lucky.

Fined for Speeding

Floyd Kenneth Siders, Swisher, Iowa, was fined $17.50 in police court Friday by Police Judge Emil G. Trott for speeding.

Martin Ryan, Iowa Truck Driver, Gets Honor for Heroism

WASHINGTON (AP)—Martin Ryan, 41, truck driver honored as Iowa's "driver of the month" last May, yesterday was named one of 10 winners of special mention in the 1947 national "driver of the year" contest.

The mention was based on Ryan's quick thinking April 6 when he helped save the lives of four persons after a highway accident near Cedar Rapids.

Ryan lives in Omaha, Neb. He qualified for the Iowa honor, however, because his act of heroism occurred in Iowa and because he does most of his driving here. He drives a semi-trailer truck between Omaha and Cedar Rapids.

Verl Langford of Buena Vista, Colo., was named the driver of the year.

Last April 6, Ryan was one of the first to arrive at the scene of a head-on collision nine miles west of Cedar Rapids. Five members of the John A. Marshall family were trapped inside their burning car.

Ryan put out the flames with the fire extinguisher from his truck, gave first aid and assisted in handling traffic. Mrs. Marshall died but the highway patrol report said Ryan's "quick thinking and alertness" helped save the lives of the other four.

Accuse Film Coach

HUSBAND of Jacqua Lynn, 23, an actress, charges in a divorce suit filed in Superior court in Los Angeles that Ben Bard, 52-year-old dramatic coach, induced Miss Lynn to be Bard's mistress on promises to "make her a famous actress and idol of thousands." The charges were filed by Paul Haertel, 25-year-old merchant marine first officer. Bard denies the charges. The actress is shown. (International)

Appeal Gaffney Decision To Iowa Supreme Court

Notice was filed yesterday in district court appealing a decision in the J.W. Ruess contested will suit.

The defendants in the original suit appealed to the Iowa supreme court a decision of Judge James P. Gaffney. Gaffney had overruled motion for a new trial after a petit jury had heard the case and brought a verdict.

New trial had been asked after the jury declared the will null and void in favor of the plaintiffs.

According to the original petition the will was valued at $50,000.

Attorneys for the appealing defendants are Ries, Dutcher and Osmundson, and Pauline Kelley.

Portland cement was first developed commercially early in the 19th century.

Postpone Inquest In Des Moines Death

DES MOINES (AP)—County Attorney Carroll O. Switzer yesterday, after conferring with Deputy Coroner J. E. Kessell, postponed a decision on an inquest into the death of Mrs. Anna Marie McGrevey.

Kessell earlier had been asked to conduct an inquest tomorrow into the fatal burns received by the 44-year-old woman early Friday in her home here.

The county attorney said he would meet with the deputy coroner and Sheriff Howard Reppert to examine results of the investigation.

Reppert, whose deputies have reported that apparently two separate fires occurred in the McGrevey home, commented:

"I don't think too much of the cooperation we have received from the coroner's office so far."

Did you know all sweaters returned from Kelley's are Cellophane wrapped.

KELLEY CLEANERS LAUNDRERS
Iowa City's Oldest
Phone 4161

Yes, last semester's worries are gone So—Why not start this one out right at the ANNEX?

Let's celebrate! Get the gang together tonight for a good time. Everyone will have fun when you meet at the Annex.

the ANNEX

"across from the CRANDIC"

Around the Campus

Has your watch stopped running and are you having difficulty having it repaired? You should try WARNER'S!!!

Benefit by Mr. O'Hara's 35 years of experience in watch repairing and by the quick service you get when you take your watch to be cleaned or repaired at WAYNER'S!!!

WAYNER'S also do engraving and jewel repairing, so when you want your jewelry personalized and in top working order, take it WAYNER'S.

Salomy . . . where she danced . . . I don't know . . . but Currier room 246 is quite well versed on the subject of SALOMY. No, this isn't starting another "Passion Flower" routine!

DO IT THE DAVIS WAY! . . . For sparkling clothes, clean and well-pressed, send your garments to DAVIS CLEANERS. Clothes may make the man, but poorly kept clothes can break him . . . So to make your wardrobe look like a million dollars, and to make you feel like the same amount, DO IT THE DAVIS WAY with DAVIS CLEANERS.

Heard in Currier . . . "Dis' Gilck . . . As I was coming in the other night, I saw a fella kissing his girl goodnight on the doorbell!"

Gwen Hoglan . . . "Why didn't he kiss her on the mouth???"

Latest in dry cleaning equipment . . . newest in solvents . . . quick, meticulous care for your clothes . . . pick-up and delivery service! . . . Yes, that's why everyone is pleased with work done by NEW PROCESS LAUNDRY AND CLEANERS. Just let your garments take one trip to NEW PROCESS and you'll have formed a habit. A good one to get into . . . the NEW PROCESS habit!

Harriet Bigus has a new and equally ingenious way of answering the telephone . . . much to her roommate's embarrassment! It goes like this . . . "Bigus Florist shop . . . which pot do you want?"

Found SAE jazz fiends, Phil Grawl and Jim Mitchell buried 'neath a stack of hit records at HUYETT MUSIC SHOP yesterday . . . listening to that lady with the low-down voice, Nellie Lutchter, give him out with "He's a Real Gone Guy." Mighty mellow, Ruth Murphy's "I Can't Give You Anything But Love" is another hit disc among the wide collection at HUYETT'S. An album any modern music fan will be craving is the new "Collector's Items" filled with never before released recordings by Stan Kenston, Red Nichols, Peggy Lee and other favorites. Be sure to shop for your favorite records at HUYETT MUSIC SHOP.

The Quadrangle bulletin board, usually a rather sedate thing loaded with President's Office sanctioned announcements, has been filled to the bursting point with frantic offers of clothing, fountain pens, and other items—all for a VERY moderate price. Seems as though the end of the month is around again. . . . An unusual bargain appeared the other day, however. "For Sale . . . the Old Dentistry building . . . reasonable . . . four musty profs thrown in . . . see Virgil."

"Oh, how I hate seven-thirties!" Betty Hanson yells every morning at the crack of dawn . . . Looks like she'll have 'em next semester, too, but that gal knows all the answers . . . She gets the gang together on these cold icy days, phones 3131, and rides to class in a YELLOW CAB. That's what we call using your brain before seven-thirty. Remember, dial 3131 for a YELLOW CAB.

Have you heard about the new length???? Overheard Tom and Joe debating about the purchase of a new topcoat. The conversation ran thus . . . "I liked it, but I don't know, it's awfully long. Of course, they're wearing them longer this year, you know!" Now we've heard everything!!

In the market for a radio for your room? . . . AT KIRWAN'S FURNITURE STORE you'll find radios and radio-phonograph combinations of the finest makes ready to bring you hours of entertainment and enjoyment . . . RCA table models, $24.95 . . . Trav-ler portables, $14.95 less batteries . . . Victor table combinations, $9.50 . . . Among these models and many others at KIRWAN'S you'll find just the right radio at just the right price.

QUESTION OF THE MONTH . . . WHO WILL BE THE KING AND QUEEN OF HEARTS???

"The way to a girl's heart is through cosmetics" . . . take heed, fellas! . . . That gal you're cravin' to have for a valentine is going to be a lot more receptive if you hand her a cosmetic set from LUBIN'S DRUG STORE. "Suzanne," "Vigny," Lucien LeLong, "Yardley," "Coty," "Bourgeois" . . . only to mention a few of the well-known brands which LUBIN'S carry. Each set contains cologne, bath powder, perfume . . . and some also contain lipstick, and rouge. LUBIN'S also have beautiful compacts . . . "Yardley," Rex, "Evening in Paris," and "Richard Hudnut." You can't go wrong on a valentine gift from LUBIN'S. Stop in today.

PINNED . . . Jean Christensen, Gamma Phi, to George Vest, DU Dienne Duling, Theta, to Don Rodwig, Sig Chi Joyce Herrin, Alpha Chi, Joe Lieb, Delta Chi

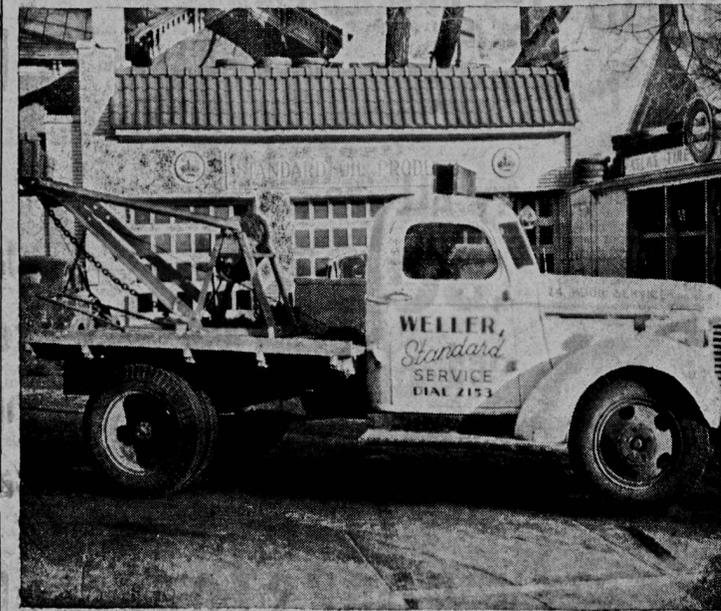

ENGAGED . . . Gwen Wren, Centon Place, to Jay Hesser, Theta Xi

CHAINED . . . Jody Nissen, Alpha Xi to Bob Kriedeman, ATO from Wisconsin

You Won't Have To Do THIS . . .

IF . . . You Do This!!! Call WELLER Dial 9038

When Cold Weather Hits, WELLER STANDARD SERVICE Can Help You.

"Don't ever change" . . . he whispers softly in your ear. Capture that "look" he likes so well in a KRITZ portrait. KRITZ portraits are lighted . . . but most of all they're YOU. You in your most flattering mood . . . a natural, yet glamorized you. Make an appointment at KRITZ studio soon to get that KRITZ portrait taken soon!

Ask the girl of your dreams to be your valentine . . . with a Hallmark card. Humorous or serious . . . Hallmark valentines are just right for sweetheart, mother, sister, brother, roommate, friend . . . all around suitable cards. Beautifully and cleverly decorated, these cards will express your sentiments perfectly on that day of remembrances. Stop in RIES IOWA BOOK STORE soon and buy valentines for those important people in your life.

Hear tell Kenny McKay has found a second home by virtue of frequent trips to Davenport to see some chorus girl who also waltzes Fridays at the "Majestic" . . . We're only kiddin', kids!

You can say nuts to finals with hot salted peanuts, from BOERNER'S. They're tasty! They're downright delicious!

For a tempting addition to any midnight snack or party have salted Double Kay nuts on hand. BOERNER'S have a special on chewy cashews . . . 98c a pound . . . so hop right down to get hot salted peanuts at BOERNER'S for your next study or party session.

MUMPS THE WORD! Jim Shneider, ATO, may feel "swell" but it gets sooooo lonely in an isolation ward. He won't be lonely long, though, if they spread like his jaw did. So, BEWARE!

What a relief . . . that dreaded final is over! . . . You deserve a rest . . . so hop, skip, or jump over to the MAIDRITE and relax to your heart's content. Whether it's a delicious sandwich or a foaming beverage you're indulging in . . . the MAIDRITE is the place to go . . . for a pleasant atmosphere, courteous service, and all around good eating pleasure. Stop in the MAIDRITE after that next final.

Meet the "MASS" . . . How's the "HEAP"? Introductions and salutations like this make one wonder just what we have at the Sigma Chi house. You can trust it all back to a Tom Collins . . . their pledge, that is . . . who has a unique habit of nick-naming people. So meet the "MASS", Tom Tom Lyons and Burto "HEAP" Hughes!

Word has it that Conrad Amos . . . the co-ed's most eligible bachelor . . . is going to prove that he "loves" 'em all" during second semester.

Phi Psi, Charlie Antoine de la Chapelle is the man you want to see if you're thirsty for between-class coffee. He foots all the bill . . . right, Charlie????

The Modern Singer Course In Home Dressmaking

Teaches You To Make Your Own Clothes Skillfully, Easily . . . .

Making clothes . . . like most things you do with your hands . . . can be accomplished either the "hard" way when you muddle through by yourself and hope for the best . . . or the skillful, sure way that experts have perfected.

Singer Home Dressmaking Lessons teach you by actually seeing you through the making of a dress. From the selection of fabric and pattern to the final fitting, you have the attention of the most expert teachers Singer can find . . . and train.

SINGER SEWING CENTER

125 S. Dubuque

Judge Gives Davis 30 Day Jail Sentence

Herman L. Davis, 917 S. Gilbert street, was sentenced to 30 days in the county jail by Judge Harold D. Evans in Johnson district court yesterday.

Davis pleaded guilty Jan. 24 to charges of embezzlement. He was accused of embezzling $2,555 from the Iowa City Montgomery Ward store in a preliminary information filed by H. H. Hiatt, manager of the store.

The hearing was continued to yesterday after Clair Hamilton, Davis' attorney, brought up a point of law concerning the indictment.

Hamilton claimed that since the body of the indictment charging Davis with embezzlement did not contain the amount embezzled, the court would have to sentence Davis for the offense of petty larceny.

In sentencing Davis, Evans said:

"The court finds the statutes of Iowa provide that if a clerk or agent embezzles funds he shall be guilty of larceny. The law concerning larceny provides that when the value of the property stolen exceeds $20, a penitentiary fine shall be imposed. If it does not, the sentence shall be $100 or 90 days in the county jail.

"The supreme court has held that a man must be sentenced on the charges in the body of the indictment.

"The court is of the opinion that under the law as it stands the only punishment the court can impose is the punishment for the lesser offense—petty larceny."

Hold Funeral For A.F. Winborn, 91

Funeral services for Alfred Thomas Winborn, 91, will be conducted tomorrow at 2 p.m. at the Sharon Evangelical church by the Rev. Ira J. Hoover.

Winborn died at a hospital in Vinton at 4:30 a.m. yesterday following an illness of several months.

Born in Ohio Oct. 19, 1856, the son of James and Emily Shoemith Winborn, he came to Iowa City at the age of 14.

He lived for a few years in Nebraska and was married in 1880 to Martha Gorsuch, coming to Johnson county in 1888. He farmed in this community until his retirement in 1924, then moved to Kalona.

His wife preceded him in death in 1937.

Surviving are five daughters, Mrs. Elza Means, Iowa City; Mrs. Rev. Dorr Whitmore, New Providence; Mrs. Lester Means, North Liberty; Mrs. Roy Sipple, Mt. Vernon; Mrs. Ralph Shaw, Vinton and three sons, John J. Winborn, Iowa City; Lewis A. Winborn, Williamsburg, and George M. Winborn, Davenport. Also surviving are one sister, Mrs. Caroline Zager, Tipton, 29 grandchildren and 22 great grandchildren.

FAMOUS PAINTINGS

Portrait of the Admiral; Portrait of an Admiral's Wife
Human Insight, Dramatic Lighting.

(Because of the unusual importance of the Metropolitan art show being exhibited in the art building gallery, The Daily Iowan is presenting daily an illustration of one of the famous paintings with an accompanying article.—The Editor.)

Rembrandt's Paintings Reveal Inner Beauty

By JOAN LIFFRING

Rembrandt Van Rijn (1606-1669) had the ability to interpret people literally and psychologically. Many students of art criticism consider him the world's greatest painter and an extraordinary etcher.

Great because of his understanding of human nature, Rembrandt painted a philosophical portrayal of mankind. A versatile artist, the Dutchman painted portraits, religious themes, landscapes, and mythological scenes. He used mythological subject matter as an excuse for painting sensual pictures. His landscapes capture beauty beyond the superficial aspects of nature.

During the first half of his life, Rembrandt was concerned with making a name for himself. Public failure and personal difficulties plagued him in the last half of his life. When he started to decline economically and socially, Rembrandt did his greatest paintings and his feeling for humanity increased.

The Admiral and the Admiral's Wife were painted about this time.

His later portraits frequently are subjective, reflecting his own moods. They are often melancholy and serious. Rembrandt reveals great understanding and sympathy for humanity in his work.

Rembrandt captured beauty in almost everything he painted. Although his subject matter may appear ugly, "at the hands of a artist any subject can be translated into beauty," Prof. Lester D. Longman, head of the art department has said.

Many of his paintings are removed from photographic reality by a mysterious glowing light. His lighting effects gave vitality and dramatic tension to his work.

Rembrandt particularly enjoyed doing self-portraits. He frequently dressed in one of his many costumes when painting himself. Often he painted himself making faces in a mirror. He created such portraits only for his own enjoyment. He painted many of them in his old age. No other artist ever painted so many different self-portraits.

Rembrandt was the son of a well-to-do miller. He did most of his work in Amsterdam. He had many pupils and imitators. Often they signed his name, so it's hard for the critics to tell you which work is Rembrandt's.

Discharge Two From Mercy Hospital After Highway Auto Accident

Richard Mickelson, 18, Davenport, and Ruth Jorgensen were released from Mercy hospital in Iowa City yesterday after being hospitalized following an automobile accident northeast of Oxford on Highway 6.

Mickelson suffered a slight concussion and was rendered unconscious. Miss Jorgensen had a fractured wrist.

Another passenger in the car, Eileen Weir, Davenport, was uninjured. Both girls are Drake university students.

The accident happened about 3:30 a.m. yesterday, when a 1947 Chevrolet driven by Robert Q. Boese, 23, Davenport, rolled over on Kennedy hill.

Deputy Sheriff Marold Gaspey, who investigated the accident, said Boese apparently lost control of his car as he came around the curve.

Schedule Panacea For Eight Showings Beginning March 12

Committees for the Panacea show were set up at a recent meeting. The show, sponsored by ODK, Mortar board and Student council is scheduled for eight performances starting the night of March 12.

Bill Bauer, G, is chairman of the committee. Other committee chairmen are Margery McDonald, A4, publicity; Jean Sprott, A3, production arrangements; Nancy Green, A4, programs and program advertising, and Leo Ziffrin, treasurer.

Harold Hayes, G, will direct the production. Larry Barrett and his band will play for the show. Barrett is writing the musical scores.

Warren Coyner will design stage settings. Any students who wish to do stage work or costuming should sign up at the show tryouts Monday and Tuesday nights in MacBride auditorium according to Hayes. Rehearsals will begin Feb. 15, and Wednesday and Thursday nights in 221A Schaeffer hall.

A Mary Muffet ORIGINAL

"On-the-Cuff"

17.95

Simply stunning simply . . . big bold cuffs, an off-center inverted pleat in front, another dividing the back tip to toe . . . self-belted rayon gabardine, Exclusive With Us.

DUNN'S

BEST FOREIGN FILM OF THE YEAR!

PRIZE FILM THE YEARS MOST HONORED MOVIE!

"TO LIVE IN PEACE" TAKES A PLACE OF DISTINCTION AMONG THE FINE MOTION PICTURES OF OUR TIMES. It does that wonderful thing of supporting our faith in humanity in an enjoyable and moving way! —Bosley Crowther, N. Y. TIMES

"EXCELLENT. A film masterpiece. Nothing quite like this film has ever come to the attention of your reviewer." —Archer Winsten, N. Y. POST

"A WONDERFULLY JOYOUS FILM . . . whoever sees it will have felt he has lived through it and has thereby enriched his life. DON'T MISS IT!" —Cecelia Ager, PM

"A SUPERB FILM . . . humorous, compassionate and altogether satisfactory. Aldo Fabrizi is magnificent!" —John McCarten, NEW YORKER

CAPITOL FRIDAY

Plan Funeral Services For Mrs. Bontrager

Funeral services for Mrs. Hattie M. Bontrager, 78, will be held Tuesday at 1:30 p.m. at the Lower Deer Creek church and burial will be in the Lower Deer Creek cemetery. Mrs. Bontrager died at the home of her daughter, Miss Dorothy Bontrager, 1814 H street, yesterday morning following an illness of several weeks.

She was born in Johnson county Dec. 7, 1869, the daughter of Johnathan Gingerich and Catherine Schlucker Gingerich, and was married in 1895 to Dan W. Bontrager. They established their home on a farm in Johnson county.

She was a member of the Menonite church.

Surviving are her husband, six sons, four sisters, 12 grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Chimney Fire Destroys Mentzer Farm House

Fire destroyed the Irvin M. Mentzer farm house three miles south of town on the river road at about 9 a.m. yesterday, Fire Chief J. J. Clark reported.

The blaze apparently started from chimney sparks and gained considerably headway before the fire truck arrived, Clark said.

Lack of water prevented firemen from saving anything but the outbuildings and some furniture, he added.

Speaks at PTA Mrs. Oscar Pando of Buenos Aires will speak to the St. Mary's PTA group Monday on schools in South America.

A potluck lunch for PTA members will precede the speaker at one p.m. in the St. Mary's assembly hall.

Mrs. John Dee, 1125 E. Washington, is head of the St. Mary's group.

Arrange Half-Time Twirling Exhibition

A twirling exhibition by Millard Curtis and William Fenholt, both A1 of Charles City, will be presented by Tailfeathers, university pep club, as the half-time entertainment at the Northwestern-Iowa game tomorrow night.

The university game band under the direction of Arnold Oehlson, assistant director of bands, will furnish band accompaniment for the twirlers. Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Parsons will be co-chairmen of the program committee.

To detect general evidence of life on planets other than the earth would require telescopes much larger than any in existence.

GET OFF TO A GOOD START

next semester

at STUDENT SUPPLY

- Parker, Sheaffer, Esterbrook Pen and Pencil Sets.
- University crest stationery
- White and Wykoff Notes
- Stationery
- Greeting Cards
- Anatomy Disecting Kits and Lab Aprons
- Notebooks, Fillers, Indexes
- Spirals, Colored Pencils, Erasers
- Student Fluorescent Desk Lamps
- Waste Baskets
- Complete line of Textbooks.

STUDENT SUPPLY STORE

17 S. Dubuque

Dial 9613

Sparkling Commencement Address

Yesterday's commencement address was a far cry from the usual oral dysentery of the ordinary commencement onslaught. It was prepared by Prof. F. C. Ensign and read by Dr. Willard Lampe because of Prof. Ensign's illness.

It was sharp, penetrating, concise. It sparkled with witticisms which, as Dr. Lampe pointed out, characterize the loyal custodian of many of SUI's traditions.

It was aptly titled The Second Century—meaning SUI's second 100 years. Its challenge was more by implication than direct statement. Rather than enjoining the graduates to "die for dear old Iowa" it showed by specific example the growth of an institution not content with the old ways of mediocrity.

It pointed out the ways in which the university has pioneered in new educational techniques. The implication was clear. Those who have a heritage of trying the new from their Alma Mater can do no less themselves.

A Course on Communism at SUI?

Zechariah Chafee, professor of jurisprudence at Harvard, proposed the other day that people in this country study communism to find out what it's all about.

He made the proposal before a UN sub-committee considering international freedom of information.

Why should he have to propose this freedom for the U.S.—like it was something new? Aren't we the country supposedly most concerned with freedom? Isn't that what we advertise? Maybe, then, we as a nation are just as guilty as the patent medicine fakery.

It's ridiculous how this subject is avoided like cancer. It's as dangerous as cancer—yet we have thousands of research men constantly at work studying cancer to find out what it is. The only persons in public favor studying communism are the hysteria-whippers of the Un-American activities committee.

How ridiculous it would be if ill-trained, uninformed persons, staffed our University hospitals to study diseases. The medical profession and all other public spirited people would be up in arms.

Yet we avoid conscientious study of communism in schools and colleges—abandoning the field to the little, mean-minded bigots. Is it any wonder that a state of national hysteria has been whipped up?

The medical profession long ago abandoned the scare, superstition, and unscientific approach to disease control.

Let's have scientific rational and controversial study of communism. Let's give students an opportunity to find out what it's all about. How can you combat an idea without knowing what it is?

The fear that study would produce converts is so much hogwash—if an intelligent approach pointed out both its strength and weakness.

We think the pitfalls would outweigh the advantages—and that this would be readily apparent. But we can't escape an idea merely by avoiding it. Sometime it may sneak up on you in a dark alley. Not knowing what it is weakens your ability to battle it.

We say bring communism out in the open; examine it, analyze it, argue it. The debate should strengthen our democratic faith by comparison.

The same day that Chafee made his suggestion, a Newark, N. J., school board banned The Nation and Soviet Russia Today from its high school libraries. But, of course, they have learned their lesson from the burning of the books in Germany. Must we repeat her mistakes?

It is part and parcel of the same problem: can we intelligently and courageously battle out the ideological question of the century? Or shall we tuck under our arm and run for the cover of suppression and censorship?

If we do the latter, we will have publicly admitted our enemies have won the battle. For we will have openly admitted our system and our basic beliefs can't stand the test of competition. We think they can.

INTERPRETING THE NEWS

Possible Omens of the World's Future

By J. M. ROBERTS, JR.
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

An odd situation is developing in my files. The alphabet is playing some grouping tricks which take on the aspects of fate.

It's in the section of the file devoted to ideas, catch phrases, quotations, figures and the like which I may use once and then discard. The folder tagged "British Economic" is right next to "Bread" and "Benelux," the Belgium-Netherlands-Luxembourg customs union agreement which many people think provides a pattern for the ultimate rehabilitation of western Europe's economy.

"Cominform," "Comintern," and "Communism" come together, and they are followed by Czechoslovakia, which is right now in the throes of having its future relations with the Communists solidified. I assume that the next folder, "Disarmament," fell into its place purely for contrast.

"European (General)" would naturally be expected to dominate "Foreign Policy (U.S. General)" and so it does, coming just ahead.

They are followed immediately by "France," "Germany" and "Greece," all of which America is trying to save from the bolsheviks through "Interim Relief," the folder which intervenes before those of other countries under our defense wing, "Iran" and "Italy."

"Japan" and "Korea" fall together, each with its "U. S. vs Russia" subdivision. The "Middle East," where Jew and Moslem contend for power, is next to "Moral Warfare." This is a fat file of quotations from generals and Quakers, princes and paupers, who are campaigning throughout the world for a peace based on the principles of goodness which are common to all great religions. "Poland," the "Refugees" of Europe who won't go back to Russian-controlled countries, "Romania," and "Russia" are a bulging quartet of folders. The notes they hold might very well be in one.

Near the back of the drawer are the two most important files of all—"U. N.," the organization which the United States hopes to nurture until, some day, it can guarantee world peace, and "U. S. (Preparedness)," which is being increasingly recognized as essential if we hope to live until that "some day."

Appropriately enough, the next two files contain jottings about "World Federation," which many think the U. N. will ultimately have to become, and "World Pressures," things like populations outstripping agricultural resources, spots made "hot" by oil, channels of trade, migration of peoples, and just plain nationalistic covetousness which world federation would have to overcome.

No, I'm not superstitious, and I haven't been digging into my desk's viscera like an ancient soothsayer looking for omens. It's just there.

Operate On Nimitz
SAN DIEGO, CALIF. (AP)—Fleet Admiral Chester Nimitz yesterday underwent a foot operation in naval hospital, and was afterward pronounced in good condition.

The Daily Iowan

ESTABLISHED 1868

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 1948

Published daily except Monday by Student Publications, Inc. Entered as second class mail matter at the postoffice at Iowa City, Iowa, under the act of Congress of March 2, 1879.

FRED M. POWNALL, Publisher
WALLY STRINGHAM, Business Manager
R. BRUCE HUGHES, Editor

Subscription rates—By carrier in Iowa City 20 cents weekly or $7.50 per year in advance; six months $4.00; three months $2.00. By mail in Iowa $7.50 per year; six months $4.00; three months $2.00. All other mail subscriptions $8 per year; six months $4.25; three months $2.25.

MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Associated Press is entitled exclusively to the use for republication of all the local news printed in this newspaper, as well as all AP news dispatches.

Board of Trustees: Leslie G. Moeller, Kirk H. Porter, A. Craig Baird, Paul R. Olson, Dorothies Davidson, Jack O'Brien, Lester Brooks, Steve Blinning, William A. Miller.

Business Office ..... 4191
Editorial Office ..... 4192
Society Office ..... 4193

Careful, Boys! It's Greased!

I'D RATHER BE RIGHT

We've Too Many Answers

By SAMUEL GRAFTON (New York Post Syndicate)

The International Business Machines corporation has devised a new electronic calculator which solves problems faster than mathematicians can think them up. You crack your head for two or three years, formulating a problem, and I.B.M.'s new calculator spits out the answer in a couple of seconds, and then waits for more, sneering electronically while you try to compose yourself.

Well, I guess that's solved. But for some reason I find I.B.M.'s new gadget, with its 12,500 vacuum tubes, operated from a console like an organ, vaguely alarming. It seems too much like a symbol of our time, geared for producing the most precise and beautiful-tooled answers to questions which nobody knows quite how to formulate.

Don't look now, but is that machine simpering? It seems to wear a smirk a room wide, challenging our age to ask it something. And we are like the man who after many weary adventures has finally come before the sibyl, only to find he doesn't seem to remember what it was he wanted to know.

Maybe what we need is a machine that will ask intelligent questions. I.B.M.'s apparatus, right now, is working out the exact position of the moon for every six hours through a period of 200 years. In doing so it solves, every seven minutes, an equation which would take 300 pages to print. But surely doubt about the precise position of the moon is not the anxiety which keeps the world awake these nights, and tossing.

And our age, after all, is rich in answers that don't seem to help very much. Four is the sum of two and two, and D.D.T. for bugs, and universal military training . . . for what? Almost everybody says universal military training is the answer, but what question does it answer?

Come, I.B.M., don't you have an attachment that will allow us to feed an answer into your machine, so that we can see whether an accurate question comes out? Universal military training is perhaps the answer to: how can we protect ourselves against sudden attack?

But somewhere, back of that, must be another question, having to do with how we managed to get into a situation involving fear of attack, and how the people of this world can arrange to live as friends and brothers, a big uneasy question, very hard to formulate, and embarrassing to wrestle with, while the speedy answer machines of our age lounge and wait.

Let's make a military union of all the nations of this world which hate Russia. Well, that's an answer. But what was the question? How to make peace? No, that can't quite be it. We are overwhelmed and swamped by answers, fired at us in two seconds or seven minutes, but the process of framing a proper question has not been speeded up at all. And so we shudder, longing for peace, but not knowing even how to ask for it, until finally, in quiet desperation, we beg the answer machine to tell us where its fancy bred, or in the heart or in the head, or how does the moon stand? It is not what we want to know, exactly, but it is the best we can frame up to keep the apathy busy.

It is a wonderful roomful of machinery at I.B.M., and it is a great thing to have it dedicated, as it has been, to science, but it only underscores the pity that questions still have to be evolved unelectronically, in heart and mind, and set down painfully by hand.

Condition of SUI Student Reported Still Serious

Reported still in serious condition in a Des Moines hospital last night was Thomas Abbott, A2, Des Moines, injured in an automobile accident Wednesday night.

Early Thursday morning, his father, Dr. Walter D. Abbott, a brain surgeon, operated on Thomas to relieve pressure on his brain caused by the accident.

COMMENT Around Town and Campus

By RAY HENRY and RICK TIMMINS

In connection with the Warren Johnson manslaughter case, Sheriff Murphy testified at the preliminary hearing that an eye-examination given to Johnson the day after the accident revealed he had practically no vision in his right eye, and couldn't judge distance of an object.

Highway Patrolman Lester Nieland of Marengo told us the vision requirements for getting a chauffeur's license are 50 percent vision with both eyes and if blind in one eye, 60 percent vision with the case is set by the Department of Public Safety and is not set by statute.

With the winter months still renting their wrath on Iowa City, it is hard to believe that stores have their spring styles in stock already. One university woman was looking over the dresses with a friend the other day and remarked that the dresses were last year's stock. One look at the length of the dresses should have convinced her 'tain't true.

At a speech last week at Iowa Wesleyan college, County Attorney Jack C. White was introduced as a prominent possibility for the Democratic candidate for lieutenant-governor. The speech and introduction was broadcast over WSUI.

Iowa City has 510 parking meters. Des Moines has 1,160. Iowa City takes in an average of

Capote, The Rage—

Writes Sordid Story

—In Strangling Prose

By JACK O'BRIEN

The biographical blurb on the jacket of Truman Capote's first novel, "Other Voices, Other Rooms" tells us . . . "He was born in New Orleans; he is 23. He has: written speeches for a third-rate politician, danced on a river boat, made a small fortune painting flowers on glass, read scripts for a film company, studied fortune telling . . . worked on the New Yorker, and selected anecdotes for a digest magazine . . . His stories have appeared in Harper's Bazaar, Mademoiselle, etc."

Mr. Capote writes very much as if every word of this is quite true. While reading his novel one is likely to:

- (1) realize why, thanks to Mr. Capote's speeches, that unidentified politician remained third-rate.
- (2) wonder why he didn't

stick to painting glass and . . . (3) occasionally run across paragraphs which indicate that he might have picked up something valuable while working for the New Yorker.

In the treatment of his subject, —homosexuality—the love of an adult male for a boy just barely in his teens, Mr. Capote has adopted an unromantic attitude that might be commendable except that he has sacrificed the sanity of psychological objectivity for the persuasion which he seems to feel lies in a highly personalized form of poetic prose.

Despite Mr. Capote's efforts toward beautification in style, his novel remains miserably sordid. One reason for this is that, either by design or uncontrolled imagination, Capote has surrounded his two main characters with a cast of caricatures one has never encountered outside the covers of several mediocre novels.

In addition to a sideshow dwarf and a female barkeep with a huge wart there are—the usual faded flower of Southern gentility; a man with several bullet holes in him who remains alive enough only to utter one syllable words and drop red tennis balls; a murderous Tom-boy, and several of the stereotypes of revivalist-ranting, superstitious, charm-toting "niggers" which do so much toward advancing the intellectual liberation of the Negro in our Land of the Free.

Letters to Editor

Boils at Boyle

TO THE DAILY IOWAN:
Is Hal Boyle the replacement for W. Pegler? If so, in my opinion, he is a suitable one.

I had, until the article on G. B. Shaw, considered W. Pegler the greatest self-portrait artist in the business. Now I am beginning to doubt my rather hasty judgment.

Boyle has executed an unexcelled portrayal of his pitheoid mental physiognomy with a parsimony of strokes to make even such artists as Pegler, Bilbo, and G. L. K. Smith appear amateurish.

I am deeply ignorant of the mechanics of journalistic protocol but must suffer Boyle's giggles and maivete because he suffers vicariously embarrassment at intelligent self-assertion?

D. D. GORDON
N212 Hillcrest

(How's that again, please?—The Editor.)

Asks More Quality

TO THE DAILY IOWAN:

In the case of Pegler versus the people you have taken the stand that both camps should be represented on your editorial page. I fully agree. But why confine this principle to politics, and leave the arts in the hands of monopolies?

A music critic, a dramatic critic, an art commentator may wish to be the most equitable judge in the world; eventually the lack of fair competition will lead to irresponsibility, if not to arrogance.

Surely an organization like The Daily Iowan, with its large supply of aspirant journalists, ought to be able to assign more to one reporter to a field. Mr. O'Brien is often good; he would be better if he had a pace-maker.

Let's have less personality shows, less self-consciousness, and more quality.

TOM ROSENMEYER
113 Schaeffer hall

Continues Snyder Case

Judge Harold D. Evans yesterday continued the case of Jesse Newt Snyder, charged with operating a motor vehicle while intoxicated, to not later than March 15. Snyder pleaded guilty Dec. 19, 1947, and the case was continued for sentence. His attorneys, Swisher and Swisher, asked for a further continuance yesterday and it was granted.

Capote, The Rage—

Writes Sordid Story

—In Strangling Prose

By JACK O'BRIEN

The biographical blurb on the jacket of Truman Capote's first novel, "Other Voices, Other Rooms" tells us . . . "He was born in New Orleans; he is 23. He has: written speeches for a third-rate politician, danced on a river boat, made a small fortune painting flowers on glass, read scripts for a film company, studied fortune telling . . . worked on the New Yorker, and selected anecdotes for a digest magazine . . . His stories have appeared in Harper's Bazaar, Mademoiselle, etc."

Mr. Capote writes very much as if every word of this is quite true. While reading his novel one is likely to:

- (1) realize why, thanks to Mr. Capote's speeches, that unidentified politician remained third-rate.
- (2) wonder why he didn't

stick to painting glass and . . . (3) occasionally run across paragraphs which indicate that he might have picked up something valuable while working for the New Yorker.

In the treatment of his subject, —homosexuality—the love of an adult male for a boy just barely in his teens, Mr. Capote has adopted an unromantic attitude that might be commendable except that he has sacrificed the sanity of psychological objectivity for the persuasion which he seems to feel lies in a highly personalized form of poetic prose.

Despite Mr. Capote's efforts toward beautification in style, his novel remains miserably sordid. One reason for this is that, either by design or uncontrolled imagination, Capote has surrounded his two main characters with a cast of caricatures one has never encountered outside the covers of several mediocre novels.

In addition to a sideshow dwarf and a female barkeep with a huge wart there are—the usual faded flower of Southern gentility; a man with several bullet holes in him who remains alive enough only to utter one syllable words and drop red tennis balls; a murderous Tom-boy, and several of the stereotypes of revivalist-ranting, superstitious, charm-toting "niggers" which do so much toward advancing the intellectual liberation of the Negro in our Land of the Free.

Letters to Editor

Boils at Boyle

TO THE DAILY IOWAN:
Is Hal Boyle the replacement for W. Pegler? If so, in my opinion, he is a suitable one.

I had, until the article on G. B. Shaw, considered W. Pegler the greatest self-portrait artist in the business. Now I am beginning to doubt my rather hasty judgment.

Boyle has executed an unexcelled portrayal of his pitheoid mental physiognomy with a parsimony of strokes to make even such artists as Pegler, Bilbo, and G. L. K. Smith appear amateurish.

I am deeply ignorant of the mechanics of journalistic protocol but must suffer Boyle's giggles and maivete because he suffers vicariously embarrassment at intelligent self-assertion?

D. D. GORDON
N212 Hillcrest

(How's that again, please?—The Editor.)

Asks More Quality

TO THE DAILY IOWAN:

In the case of Pegler versus the people you have taken the stand that both camps should be represented on your editorial page. I fully agree. But why confine this principle to politics, and leave the arts in the hands of monopolies?

A music critic, a dramatic critic, an art commentator may wish to be the most equitable judge in the world; eventually the lack of fair competition will lead to irresponsibility, if not to arrogance.

Surely an organization like The Daily Iowan, with its large supply of aspirant journalists, ought to be able to assign more to one reporter to a field. Mr. O'Brien is often good; he would be better if he had a pace-maker.

Let's have less personality shows, less self-consciousness, and more quality.

TOM ROSENMEYER
113 Schaeffer hall

Continues Snyder Case

Judge Harold D. Evans yesterday continued the case of Jesse Newt Snyder, charged with operating a motor vehicle while intoxicated, to not later than March 15. Snyder pleaded guilty Dec. 19, 1947, and the case was continued for sentence. His attorneys, Swisher and Swisher, asked for a further continuance yesterday and it was granted.

OFFICIAL DAILY BULLETIN

Items in the UNIVERSITY CALENDAR are scheduled in the President's Office, Old Capitol. Items for the GENERAL NOTICES should be deposited with the city editor of The Daily Iowan in the newsroom in East Hall. GENERAL NOTICES must be at The Daily Iowan by 2 p.m. the day preceding first publication; notices will NOT be accepted by telephone, and must be TYPED OR LEGIBLY WRITTEN AND SIGNED BY A RESPONSIBLE PERSON.

VOL. XXIV, No. 107

Sunday, February 1, 1948

UNIVERSITY CALANDER

8 p.m. Iowa Mountaineers: Color Film Travelog: "Western Europe—Sunny Italy to the Snow-Bound Alps," by Winifred Walker; MacBride Auditorium
Monday, Feb. 1
4:30 p.m. Lecture: "Some Aspects of Renaissance Music," by Egon Kenton, Art Auditorium
8 p.m. Basketball: Northwestern vs. Iowa, Field House
Tuesday, Feb. 2
8 p.m. Lecture: "Satanic Symbolism in Jerome Bosch," by Professor Wm. S. Heckscher, Art Auditorium
Wednesday, Feb. 3
7:30 a.m. Opening of classes.
(For information regarding dates beyond this schedule, see reservation in the office of the President, Old Capitol.)

GENERAL NOTICES

WOMEN'S GYM
The pool in the women's gym will be open to all women students for recreational swimming on Monday, Thursday and Friday afternoon from 4:30 to 5:30 and Saturday mornings from 10:30 to 11:30. Clinic hours on Tuesday afternoon from 4:30 to 5:30 and Saturday morning from 9:30 to 10:30 are intended only for those who need special help and practice in order to meet a swimming requirement.

HAWKEYE SALESMEN
All salesmen selling Hawkeye notes can now obtain their checks received on commissions at the treasurer's office. The persons who have not received checks payable to them on last year's sales are requested to check with the treasurer's office.

HIGHLANDERS
There will be no further practice for the Highlanders until Feb. 5.

ART EXHIBIT
The art exhibit is open from 9:00 a.m. until 10:00 p.m. on week days and 1:00 p.m. until 10:00 p.m. on Sundays.

WOMEN'S CLOSING HOURS
Closing hours for university women have been extended to 11 o'clock tomorrow and Monday nights, Janet Gutz, chairman of the central judiciary board, announced yesterday.

NEW BAND MEMBERS
Prospective new band members will report to band office, room 15, music studio building before completing second semester registration. Prof. C. B. Richter, director of bands, has announced.

SOCIETY FOR GENERAL SEMANTICS
Dr. Russell Meyers, neurosurgeon, will speak on "General Semantics and Your Nervous System" Monday, February 2, at 8:00 p.m. in Conference Room 1 of the Union.

SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA
There will be a regularly scheduled symphony orchestra rehearsal at 7:15 p.m., Tuesday, Feb. 3, in North rehearsal hall of the music studio building.

OMICRON DELTA KAPPA
A meeting of Omicron Delta Kappa will be held at noon Monday, Feb. 2 in the private dining room of the Iowa Union.

PANACEA TRYOUTS
Panacea tryouts will be held in MacBride auditorium Monday and Tuesday nights starting at:

12:30 noon Voice of Iowa
3:30 p.m. News, Newsweek
4:00 p.m. Record Shop
5:00 p.m. Disc, Jockey Contest
6:00 p.m. News, Widmark
6:30 p.m. Abe Burrows
7:00 p.m. Suspense
8:00 p.m. Joan Davis
8:30 p.m. Vaughn Monroe
9:00 p.m. Howdy's Open House
9:30 p.m. News, Widmark

9:30 a.m. Circle Hour Variety Show
10:15 a.m. American Legion
12:30 p.m. WFO National Corn Show
2:00 p.m. Edwy Howard's Orchestra
2:30 p.m. One Man's Family
3:30 p.m. Symphonette Honored Music
4:00 p.m. Theater-Green Pastures
5:00 p.m. News, Nielsen
6:00 p.m. Jack Benny
6:30 p.m. Phil Harris
7:00 p.m. Charlie McCarthy
7:30 p.m. Fred Allen

WSUI PROGRAM CALENDAR

WSUI CAL-
10:30 a.m. News
10:30 p.m. Lutheran Hour
2:00 p.m. New York Philharmonic Symphony
3:45 p.m. News, Hallock
4:15 p.m. Here's To You
4:30 p.m. Hour of Charm
5:00 p.m. Family Hour
5:30 p.m. Pause That Refreshes
6:30 p.m. Blondie and Dagwood
8:00 p.m. Meet Corliss Archer
9:30 p.m. Strike It Rich
10:30 p.m. News, Widmark

it enhances, more often it is just self-consciously clever . . . and sometimes it is just self-conscious. Also, despite the propaganda that Capote's work is a soulful swan-song to the degeneracy of Southern culture, the fact remains that he is never as telling in this respect as William Faulkner or, for that matter, the political pages of your daily newspaper.

There are some excellent scenes in the novel; a couple between Joel and Isabel and the interlude when Randolph paints the boy's portrait, for instance. But since Capote still remains less concerned with what he says . . . than the jingly poetic and vine-strangling way in which he says it, the adjective for him is not so much "genius" or "startling" or even "promising" . . . but "precious."

He rather suggests the sort of pitifully apologetic literary figure Oscar Wilde might have been . . . had he not been blessed with a sense of humor.

Community Dads Check Membership Drive Work

The Community Dads will hear a progress report on their membership drive at a meeting in the Community building at 6 p.m. tomorrow, the Rev. Donavan G. Hart said yesterday.

They also discuss features of their "Freedom Train" essay contest which will be open to all grade and high school students in Iowa City. Prizes are to be awarded May 28, the day the "Freedom Train" is scheduled to visit Iowa City.

After the business meeting, the club will view two moving pictures, "King of Swing" and "World Series of 1947," Hart reported. The films will be furnished and shown by Ralph Tucker, 501 N. Dubuque street, courtesy of the city recreation center.

C of C Ready To Aid Any Housing Group

Robert H. Lind, Iowa City Chamber of commerce president, yesterday announced that his organization stood ready to cooperate with any group interested in a housing program for Iowa City.

He emphasized, however, he is sure the Chamber in doing so does not want to imply it is backing the real estate's objection to the proposed Parklawn apartment building project.

Lind said yesterday he was incorrectly quoted as saying the Chamber of Commerce would take part in a meeting between the Iowa City real estate board and the state board of education on the Parklawn project.

"If the Chamber's interest in housing coincides with the housing program recently advocated by the real estate board," he said, "it is only logical that we should try to work together and not independently."

The chamber has talked about a housing program at its annual meeting, Lind stated, and if the board of directors approves, it will probably appoint a committee to study the housing situation here.

"We have never discussed a housing project for Iowa City and we are not now committing ourselves to one. We are interested, however, in alleviating the current housing shortage."

The End Is in Sight; On Page 18 in Frivol

Are you reading Frivol? Do you happen to be on page 11, hm-m-m? Wondering where to go from there? Well, go to page 18.

Sam Fulkerson, editor of Frivol and author of the article, said that the "con'd to page 18" was left out on page 11 and "con'd from page 11" was left out on page 18.

He said he wants to make sure everyone who reads the article knows where it ends.

Asks Raise for Mailmen

MIAMI, FLA. (AP)—The AFL yesterday appealed to congress to grant an $800 annual raise to letter carriers and other government employees who, the labor group said, "are being victimized by inflation."

January Coldest in Last Seven Years

WASHINGTON, (AP)—January was unusually mild for the first two weeks but the rest of the month—br-r-rrrr!—was so icy that the month as a whole turned out to be one of the coldest Januarys in years.

(That is, east of the Rocky mountains. The far west has not had a below-normal January.)

Official figures for cities and states are not ready, but weather bureau employees here said there seems to be no doubt that in many localities, scattered over the eastern two-thirds of the country, January was the coldest since 1940.

And 1940 had one of the worst Januarys in the history of the American weather records.

For example, in St. Louis, Fort Worth, Atlanta, and Miami, January 1940 stands as the coldest January on record, and it was either a record or near-record month everywhere east of the Rockies.

In parts of the north central region—Chicago and Minneapolis for example—January, 1912, was the coldest on record.

Along part of the east coast—New York and Washington for example—January, 1918, was the coldest.

The January which ended yesterday had a strange history. Temperatures were above normal almost everywhere until, around the 12th of the month, the first of a series of cold air masses surged down from Canada and spread over the midwest, south, and east.

This began the nation's ordeal. More masses moved in, one after another, at intervals of two or three days.

In Chicago, during the last two weeks, the mercury has sunk below zero on about half the days.

For two whole weeks, Vicksburg, Miss., averaged 15 degrees below normal. New Orleans felt below-freezing temperatures and had a two-week average, night and day, of 43 degrees (11 below normal). Miami chattered on Jan. 15 with a 34-degree low.

With such experiences that far south, you can imagine what it was like to the northward. You don't have to imagine it. You felt it.

Stanford played in the Rose Bowl three years in a row 1934-seven last season.

Of the 15 players on this season's Texas A. and M. basketball squad, only one is a senior.

Even in Leap Year a—

Buick, Buck and Bottle

—Are Suggested Aids

By MARIE KIERNAN

A girl needs a lot of tact to get a man even in Leap Year, according to Wayne Armstrong, A2, Wall Lake. Five other university men agree with him.

"A girl shouldn't let a man know he's being proposed to or she'll scare him," says Frank McGreen, A3, Chicago. "She might instead lead him past a furniture display with some such remark as, 'Let's have that kind of furniture in our home.' That will give him time to think about it. The romantic approach is too direct and frightening," McGreen advises.

James Keppler, A1, Dubuque, prefers the romantic approach but warns, "Always, always be demure." Keppler thinks a girl who proposes should buy the ring but should be old-fashioned enough to kneel while popping the question.

"It's tactful to wait until a guy's had 26 beers before proposing," says Harold Schwarz, A3, Fairmont, W. Va. "If that fails I'd recommend calling for him in a Buick with the front seat filled with money and the back with liquor." "If she has a lot of personal charm," he reflected, "she might omit the liquor."

Arnold Larsen, A2, Audubon, advises tact but cautions, "Don't look for a romantic spot to propose in because there are none in Iowa City when the river bank is frozen."

Larsen thinks it's only fair for the courtin' gal to buy the ring and Jimmy Morris, A3, Gary, Ind., thinks Leap Year is a good time for the girls to take over all the expenses. "Since Leap Year comes only once every four years it's a good chance to let the girls help more than usual," Morris says.

Bob Hoag, A1, Long Lake, Ill., doesn't think women should ever propose. "Leap Year should not be used as an excuse to get married," says Hoag. "It's a man's job to propose and it should remain that way," he insists.

"There are ways to accomplish matrimony without actually proposing," hints George McCullough, A4, Wilm., Calif. If a girl does want to propose, however, McCullough believes she should "give it all the trimmings."

None of the men seem concerned about Leap Year. As Armstrong puts it, "If a girl is coy she is coy any year and can always play her cards right."

Buttons—Who's Got 'Em

DES MOINES (AP)—The American Friends Service committee yesterday appealed for buttons—three million of them.

Textile manufacturers have donated a million yards of cloth, which will be sent overseas to give employment to the people there and provide garments for them.

But so far the committee has no buttons.

The committee is asking that Iowans who find extras around their houses send them to "Buttons," 918 Locust street, Des Moines, 9, Iowa.

People Digging Cash From Hiding Places, Economists Assert

WASHINGTON (AP)—The amount of money in the hands of the public has dropped by more than a billion dollars since Christmas, officials said yesterday. They called it the biggest drop ever to occur in so short a period.

Government economists said it may indicate that rising costs of living are forcing people to take money from "hiding places"—bureau drawers, mattresses, socks, et.—for current spending needs.

But they added that it also might reflect only an unusually large decline of the "seasonal" nature which normally follows a Christmas. At this time every year people have paid large sums to merchants and the latter have returned them to the banking system, putting the funds temporarily out of circulation.

If the decline continues through February, it will be evidence that the pinch of higher living costs is the dominant cause of the drop, the economists said.

Official reports show there was a $125 million fall during the week ending last Wednesday in the amount of "money in circulation." This term includes all money outside the central banks, whether it actually is "circulating" or is "hidden" or even "lost." That left the total amount in the hands of the public over $28 billion.

Significantly, that is $179 million less than the amount outstanding at the same time last year. The significance arises from the fact that there has been a big rise in current employment, wage rates, production and prices—all factors which normally increase "circulating" money. The fact that the total has decreased in the face of these factors is further evidence that many people have had to turn loose at least part of the money in their "hiding places," say the economists.

A lot of people do not keep any money in banks. This is especially true of vast numbers, unaccustomed to having bank accounts, whose income jumped suddenly during the war.

Hold Funeral Services

Funeral services were held Wednesday for 4-month-old Annette Marie Geary at Immaculate Conception church, Chicago.

Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony J. Geary, formerly lived in Iowa City. The mother, Vivian, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence F. Mahanna, 131½ S. Capitol street.

Judge Gaffney To Open Feb. Court Term

Judge James P. Gaffney, Marango, will open the February term of the Johnson county district court here tomorrow morning.

The 12 members of the 1948 grand jury will report at 2 p.m. Monday, when seven will be selected to hear cases the county attorney may have.

Included in the grand jury panel are D.J. Ahern, Donald Bowman, Vernon Brown, John Fiala, F.J. Fuhrmeister, Francis Glaspey, Gerald Grace, A.W. Kadera, Russell Mann, Ted Records, F.F. Rittemeyer and L.M. Rohrer.

WIN CASH... ENTER PEPSI-COLA "TREASURE TOP" SWEEPSTAKES and CONTESTS

Look under the cork—every PEPSI-COLA BOTTLE TOP has a hidden design

Collect and swap PEPSI-COLA "TREASURE TOPS"... it's fun

Enter the great PEPSI-COLA $203,725.00* "TREASURE TOP" SWEEPSTAKES and CONTESTS

51 separate prizes in each state each month—plus monthly national prizes—plus $25,000.00 1ST PRIZE in Family Sweepstakes

*TOTAL CASH (including dealer prizes)

HERE ARE THE OFFICIAL CONTEST RULES:

- On your entry blank or a sheet of paper, complete this statement in 25 words or less—"Pepsi-Cola hits the spot because...". Then write down your own name and address, the name of the head of your family, the name and address of the Pepsi-Cola dealer who helped you, and the total number of different designs on Pepsi-Cola "Treasure Tops" you have collected. Then mail your entry, together with one Pepsi-Cola "Treasure Top" with cork removed to show hidden design, to:

Pepsi-Cola "Treasure Top" Contests,
P. O. Box 18,
New York 8, N. Y.
- Entries with insufficient postage will not be accepted.
- The number of different designs you have collected will not be a factor in the awarding of the prizes. However, when you win a monthly prize, you must be able to show your total collection of different designs reported in the winning entry. Also, it's fun to collect and swap "Treasure Tops". Do not send your collection of "Treasure Tops" with your entry. Send in only one top with each entry.
- You may enter these contests as many times each month as you wish, but no entry postmarked after June 30, 1948 will be accepted. Each time you enter, whether you win a cash prize or not, we will mail you a Treasure Certificate good for 100 points toward the $37,000 Family Sweepstakes Prizes. If you win any one of the monthly prizes, you will receive 100 additional Treasure Certificate points.
- All entries received during each calendar month will be judged in that month's contest. Entries from each state (and from the District of Columbia) will be judged separately, and will compete for the monthly state prizes only with other entries from that state.
- Monthly cash prizes as listed on this page will be awarded on the basis of aptness, originality and interest of the statements submitted (see Rule 1). Each month's national prizes will be awarded to the three best entries of the 49 state first-prize winners in each monthly contest. All entries will be judged by the impartial judging staff of The Reuben H. Donnelley Corporation, an independent, nationally-known contest judging organization. Decisions of the judges will be final. Names of winners will be published.
- All entries must be prepared by the contestant. Elaborate or fancy entries will not count extra. All entries and statements become the property of the Pepsi-Cola Company and none will be returned. In case of ties, the prize tied for will be awarded to each tied contestant, except for the sweepstakes prizes, procedure for which is listed under Rule 8.
- Only contestants living within the 48 states or the District of Columbia will be eligible. Anyone may enter these contests except the employees of the Pepsi-Cola Company, Pepsi-Cola bottling companies or their advertising agencies. Members of the families of these employees are also excluded.

8. HUGE NATIONAL SWEEPSTAKES PRIZES WILL BE AWARDED AS FOLLOWS:

(a) Each Treasure Certificate received by you or members of your family (see Rule 3) counts 100 Sweepstakes Points for your family. Save them! (For the purpose of this contest, a "family" shall be considered as only persons related by blood, marriage or adoption living in the same household under one family head.)

(b) The 100 families, plus families tying with any of them, who have received the greatest number of Sweepstakes Points in the competition, qualify for the Sweepstakes Finals. Each family thus qualifying must be prepared to show the total number of Treasure Certificates received by the family and also to show the total number of "Treasure Top" designs reported in the family's entries (see Rule 1). Both the number of Treasure Certificates and the number of "Treasure Top" designs must agree with official contest records of the judging staff and these records will be considered final where any discrepancy occurs.

(c) The qualifying families will then be promptly notified and each family will be required to submit one statement of fifty words or less on the subject "How the Sales of Pepsi-Cola Can Be Increased". They must get the help of their Pepsi-Cola dealer in preparing this statement and must submit that dealer's name and address. The Sweepstakes Prizes will then be awarded by the impartial judging staff, mentioned in Rule 5, on the basis of aptness, originality and sincerity of the statements thus submitted.

These contests are subject to all state and local laws and regulations.

HERE ARE THE BIG CASH PRIZES

FAMILY SWEEPSTAKES PRIZES:

1st Prize	$25,000.00
2nd Prize	5,000.00
3rd Prize	2,000.00
4th Prize	1,000.00
5th Prize	500.00
35 Prizes	each 100.00

MONTHLY NATIONAL PRIZES:

1st Prize	$1,000.00
2nd Prize	500.00
3d Prize	250.00

MONTHLY PRIZES IN EACH STATE:

1st Prize	$100.00
2nd Prize	50.00
3rd Prize	25.00
4th to 10th Prizes	each 10.00
Next 41 Prizes	each 5.00

Every entry gets at least a certificate in the FAMILY SWEEPSTAKES.

Treasure Pouch... Treasure Pouch... Get Yourself a Treasure Pouch

Carry your "Treasure Tops" in this sturdy 6-inch pouch, zipper closing; back loops so you can wear it on your belt. Want one? It's a deal! Send 25¢ in coin to Pepsi-Cola Treasure Pouch, P. O. Box 19, New York 8, N. Y.

ENTER HERE AND NOW!!!

PEPSI-COLA "TREASURE TOP" CONTESTS, P. O. BOX 18, NEW YORK 8, N. Y.

NAME _____

ADDRESS _____ (Please Print)

CITY _____ STATE _____

(Name of Head of Family)

PEPSI-COLA HITS THE SPOT BECAUSE _____ (25 Additional Words or Less)

DEALER'S NAME _____ (Your dealer may win a special prize if he has assisted you.)

and ADDRESS _____ (Be sure to enclose one "Treasure Top" with this entry.)

(Not necessary to use this blank. Use any sheet of paper but be sure your entry is complete in every detail.)

all HAWKEYES

agree - -

it's the best "deal" in town

for

- your favorite foamy beverage
- relaxing conversation "play your cards right"

meet the gang at

the HAWK'S NEST

125 S. Clinton

Dial 9037