AVC Requests

No Live Cows Please

—As Drive Begins

The American Veteran committee's drive to help their adopted village, Villers-la-bonne-Eau, Belgium, opens today, Jack McDonough, chairman of the village aid committee, announced yesterday.

Donations of food, clothing and household utensils will be accepted anytime during the day in the basement of the First English Lutheran church, 129 N. Dubuque street.

But please! No live cows! A few months ago a church group offered a cow to the AVC, but they couldn't accept it. Live cattle must be accompanied by a keeper when shipped and they usually must be shipped in herds. "Frankly, the cow had me non-plussed," McDonough said.

McDonough said the AVC prefers food packed in metal rather than glass containers because glass may break when shipped.

Villers-la-bonne-Eau, which means "village of the good water," was adopted by the AVC through Belgo-Americaine, a Belgian relief agency. The village, situated a few miles southeast of Bastogne in southern Belgium, was in the center of the battle of the bulge during the recent war.

Appeals for Abandonment Of 3rd Party

WASHINGTON (AP)—Stung by Bronx cheers and rebel yells, Democratic National Chairman J. Howard McGrath last night issued a virtual appeal for abandonment of the third party drive headed by Henry A. Wallace.

On the eve of the annual Jefferson-Jackson day dinner here, meanwhile, a new threat to party harmony arose.

A group of South Carolina Democrats cancelled plans to attend the fund raising festivities because of a "no segregation" policy. Gov. and Mrs. Strom Thurmond and Senator and Mrs. Olin D. Johnston headed the list of scheduled absentees.

McGrath made his appeal in a radio address after warning Democratic adherents they must intensify their efforts to get out the Truman vote for the fall showdown. This warning resulted from the victory of a Wallace man in a Bronx, N. Y., congressional race.

This is what the national Democratic chairman said about Wallace:

"I believe that Henry Wallace is sincere when he says he wants peace and prosperity. I believe that some of his followers are sincere in their belief that support of Henry Wallace is the way to realize their ideals in government.

"But the fact that the loudest applause for Henry Wallace comes from Communists, Communist fellow travelers and reactionary Republicans causes me to believe that the bulk of Henry Wallace's support is coming from those whose basic allegiance is not to the American way of life.

"I hope that Henry Wallace will realize that unscrupulous forces who look to Moscow for inspiration and guidance see in his candidacy a chance to disrupt the normal activities of our two-party system and bring about the chaos and confusion of splinter parties that has sent so many nations of Europe into governmental collapse."

Third Party May Go On California Ballot

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Backers of Henry A. Wallace's new party yesterday claimed they had enough signatures on nominating petitions to place the ticket on the California primary ballot.

Hugh Bryson, state chairman for the third party, telegraphed Wallace in Miami Beach, Fla., that he had obtained 464,000 signatures. However, these must be certified as those of qualified voters. The names of 275,970 registered voters are required to get the ticket on the ballot.

Bryson is head of the CIO marine cooks and stewards. Recently Harry Bridges, a CIO west coast leader and Wallace supporter, expressed belief at a press conference that Democrats and Republicans in California would see to it that enough names were knocked off to keep the ticket off the ballot.

Stassen Terms Bronx Victory a 'Good Omen'

SPOKANE, WASH., (AP)—Harold E. Stassen, avowed Republican presidential candidate, interprets the New York American Labor party victory of Tuesday as a good omen for the Republican party.

The victory by the Henry Wallace backed candidate, indicates, Stassen said, that the working voters held by President Roosevelt are turning from the Democratic party.

"The Republican party needs only to present a progressive, humanitarian program to win a large percentage of this labor vote," he said.

De Valera's Rule Collapses; Costello Assembles Coalition

DUBLIN, EIRE (AP)—Eamon De Valera's strongly nationalist rule of Eire ended yesterday after 16 years.

In his place stepped John A. Costello, 56-year-old Dublin lawyer, who immediately announced the formation of an oddly assorted government of five parties and independents.

New York-born De Valera's Fianna Fail (Soldiers of Destiny) party lost its parliamentary majority in general elections early this month. When the deputies of the 13th dail (parliament) met yesterday they voted 75 to 70 against his re-election as prime minister. He got only four votes outside his own party.

The gaunt, bespectacled De Valera, now 65, thus was forced out of the driver's seat for the first time since 1932.

Silver-haired Costello, who like De Valera has a background in the Irish revolution, then was elected premier 75 to 68.

A leader in the Fine Gael (United Irish) party, second largest in Ireland, he became Eire's first premier and head of its first coalition government.

Like De Valera he is expected to urge the unity of Eire with northern Ireland, the six northern countries which remain a part of the United Kingdom under King George. He also is expected to chart a careful middle course in order to hold together the assortment of parties, ranging from his own conservative Fine Gael to the Socialist Irish Labor party, who supported his election.

National—Senate Eyes '48 Budget; Mystery on the Great Plains

Aims for Budget Slash

Senate Votes $2.5-Billion Reduction Try

WASHINGTON (AP)—The senate voted yesterday to try to hold federal spending to $37.2-billion during the fiscal year starting July 1.

This is $2.5-billion less than President Truman recommended. The Chief Executive has said efforts of Republicans to trim his budget will get exactly no place.

Passage of the resolution to limit spending was by voice vote with fewer than a score of senators in the chamber. Adoption sent it to the house.

The proposed $37.2-billion ceiling is only a target to shoot at. It binds neither congress nor the President.

During the brief debate on the resolution, Senator George (D-Ga) came up with a proposal that the United States finance all its foreign aid programs during the next few years by selling special bonds.

The Georgian suggested that the government issue bonds for "winning the peace as we did for winning the war."

What he has in mind, George told the senate, is a bond issue amounting to 20 or 25 billion dollars, to mature in 20 or 25 years.

He said the bonds should be tax exempt and pay modest interest.

In outlining his idea, George urged congress to "face the cold facts" that the budget for 1951 or 1952 will amount to perhaps $47-billion "if this country continues to move in the direction it is going."

He said the spending load "will one day break down the productive power of America" unless plans are made to meet it.

Grain Skid Slows In Late Rally; Low Meat Supply Seen

CHICAGO (AP)—A late rally pulled some grains out of their price slump yesterday in a session that held mostly bad news for consumers.

The government reported that the nation's meat-on-the-hoof supply is the lowest since 1939. This news caused a temporary slump in grains. Prices rallied later, however, on trade reports that unfavorable weather was endangering the new wheat crop in the southwest.

The most cheerful note for the housewife's food budget was the weakness in butter prices, both in the wholesale markets of the Chicago mercantile exchange. Wholesale butter declined one-half to one and one-half cents a pound in Chicago and one to two cents in New York.

On the Chicago exchange, where butter is sold for future delivery, prices broke as much as two and one-half cents.

Butter trade sources said favorable weather for pasture growth and lower grain feed prices indicate that butter production is due to spurt soon. As a result, many merchants are accumulating only the supplies they need for immediate requirements. This is depressing wholesale prices.

However, Chains in New York City announced that retail butter prices would take a four cent jump today to 89 cents a pound.

A Chicago food chain said it would cut retail butter prices 6 cents today to 83 cents.

Another Chicago food chain announced that retail prices henceforth would be "closely tied" to price movements in the commodity markets with retail adjustments being made without regard to stocks on hand.

Hunt Cause of Mystery Blast

KANSAS CITY (AP)—A brilliant explosion high in the air was seen over a six-state area yesterday causing numerous searches for crashed aircraft.

Civil aeronautic officials and astronomers expressed the opinion the explosive flash came from a meteor. It was seen in Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas, Colorado, Nebraska and New Mexico.

The Oklahoma highway patrol first reported a plane had crashed near Enid and the CAP control tower in Kansas City said it had received numerous reports of flaming plane crashes. All proved groundless and were attributed to the "ball of fire" that streaked across the sky.

Dr. Oliver C. Collins, professor of astronomy at the University of Nebraska, Lincoln, said "it might very well have been a meteor."

C. L. Jacoby, editor of the Norton, Kan., Daily Telegram, said his office was swamped by telephone calls from excited residents who said the explosion was of great proportions. He placed the time at 4:50 p.m.

A fiery red ball, traveling eastward, was observed and seen to explode "in a fiercely brilliant white flash," Jacoby said.

Residents at Norcraft, 17 miles west of Norton, said the blast apparently went off "right over head."

E. R. Woodard, editor of the Oberlin Herald, said the explosion "sounded like it would come in the roof of the shop."

Ben Hendricks, manager of the Norton airport, estimated the explosion was 20,000 feet in the air. A large white cloud was observed in the sky following the blast, and was visible for an hour afterward.

Deportation Faces Beatrice Johnson

NEW YORK (AP)—Beatrice Johnson, 45, promotion manager for the recently suspended publication, New Masses, was arrested by federal agents yesterday and taken to Ellis island pending deportation proceedings.

Mrs. Johnson, described by the justice department as long active in the Communist party in this country, is one of a score of alleged alien Communists seized recently for deportation.

A native of Poland, Mrs. Johnson is the mother of a five year old daughter. She is separated from her husband, immigration service officials said.

Her arrest was made under immigration laws providing for the exclusion of aliens who belong to groups advocating the violent overthrow of the U.S. government.

Hungary Pact Completes Russ 'Imperialism Wall'

Truman Asks $570 Million Non-Military Aid for China

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Truman yesterday asked congress to apply a $570-million brake on China's skid toward economic collapse.

But Chairman Bridges (R-N.H.) of the senate appropriations committee said this is not enough. This country should also send Generalissimo Chiang-Kai-Shek military supplies for his war against Chinese Communists, Bridges declared.

It makes little sense to spend billions for European recovery, the senator said in a statement, "if at the same time the government allows China to go to the Communists by default."

Mr. Truman said in a 1,200-word message that the help he recommended would give Chiang a chance to set his nation's house in order.

Nothing this country can do, the President said, can take the place of "the necessary action that can be taken only by the Chinese government."

And although he referred to "continued obstruction and destruction" by Communist forces, he did not propose any military aid for Chiang Kai-Shek.

This was in direct contrast to his stand on Greece and Turkey. He told congress last Monday he would ask more military aid to strengthen both countries against Communism.

Mr. Truman's new foreign aid move came 24 hours after the senate foreign relations committee formally recommended $5.3-billion for the first 12 months of a four-year European recovery program.

The house foreign affairs committee late yesterday decided to draft writing its own ERP bill March 2, and asked the state department to furnish a statement on "all foreign policy legislation needed for this session."

The committee also scheduled hearings, beginning next Friday, on Chinese aid.

Mr. Truman sent with his message a draft bill requiring, among other things, that the Chinese give "full and continuous publicity" to American aid and that they allow U.S. observers to keep an eye on how it is used.

The President said in his new message that a stable China was important "to lasting peace in the Pacific and the entire world."

In Nanking, several Chinese leaders said yesterday they were disappointed because Mr. Truman made no mention of military help.

They expressed the opinion privately that military aid was of "primary importance in order to crush the red rebellion."

Treaty Nails East Europe Area Shut

MOSCOW (AP)—Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov said last night Russia now has treaties with all nations on its western borders.

Molotov spoke following the signing yesterday of a Russian-Hungarian treaty of friendship and mutual assistance.

The treaty with Hungary, he said, was the final link in a chain of pacts which would form a barrier to the "imperialist states."

Russia, Molotov said, now has "pacts of friendship and mutual assistance with all states on its western frontier—from the Black sea to the Baltic."

"We Soviet people see in this an important success in the realization of Prime Minister Stalin's foreign policy, directed towards the strengthening of friendship with all neighboring states and consolidating a general peace," he continued.

Molotov stressed that the treaties were concluded in "conformity with the aims and principles of the United Nations organization."

Lajos Dinnyes, Hungarian premier, replied that for the first time in history "the Hungarian people enjoy the opportunity of cooperating with a great power—the Soviet Union—which disinterestedly and without ulterior motives is helping us to security and independence."

The treaty is similar to those signed recently with Romania and Yugoslavia. Romania Tuesday ratified a treaty signed with Hungary.

Observers in Moscow said the treaty signed yesterday precluded possible participation by Hungary in the Marshall plan or a "western European union."

It was reported here that the Finnish parliament Tuesday adopted its government's proposal for approval of a Soviet-Finnish trade agreement.

Russ Send No 'Peace Feelers' Marshall Says

WASHINGTON (AP)—Reports that Russia has been putting out "peace feelers" to the United States have no foundation in fact, Secretary of State Marshall said yesterday.

Marshall also told a news conference:

1. There is no foundation for the Russian charge that this country sought a "separate peace" with Germany in 1943.

2. The American government hopes very much for successful completion of an Austrian independence treaty in talks with Russia, Britain and France opening at London Monday. The U.S. is willing to continue these talks as long as there is any chance of agreement.

2 Busses Carrying Jewish Delegation Fired On at Haifa

JERUSALEM (AP)—Several American members of the United Jewish Appeal delegation, including three women, were fired upon yesterday while entering Haifa in two armored busses.

All escaped injury. One shot pierced the first bus and narrowly missed the Jewish driver. Between 30 and 40 bullets smashed into the armor on the second bus. A tire was punctured and the bus almost overturned.

The incident occurred as the busses were entering Haifa through the Arab section of Wadi Rushmiya.

Elsewhere in Palestine a bomb exploded in the central market square at Ramle, on the highway between Jerusalem and Tel Aviv. Unofficial reports said six Arabs were killed. A police report listed 32 wounded, 16 seriously, but mentioned no deaths.

The American group came to Haifa from Tiberius on the shore of Lake Galilee. It is touring Jewish displaced camps in Europe and Palestine in connection with the drive to raise $250-million for the United Jewish Appeal fund.

Irving G. Rhodes, Milwaukee, Wis., chairman of the group, told newsmen:

"The attack by Arabs with Bren guns was absolutely unprovoked."

"Now I know what Jews in exposed positions have to go through every day."

Those in the first bus included Louis Chanan of Independence, Iowa, and Harold Goldman of Des Moines.

To Set U. S. View On Palestine Issue

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government has just about decided what its next move will be in the United Nations on the hot issue of Palestine, Secretary of State Marshall disclosed yesterday. But he carefully refrained from saying what the move would be.

The American position will be stated in the security council next Tuesday. Presumably the news expressed then will deal with the critical question of how to enforce the UN decision to divide Palestine between Arabs and Jews.

Heaviest Baby

The heaviest baby ever born in the state of Kansas will bring his basketball team to Iowa City Saturday.

Yes, Wisconsin Coach Harold E. (Bud) Foster was almost destined to be the circus fatboy 42 years ago in Newton, Kan., when an anxious mother saw her new-born baby weighed 13 3/4 pounds, a Kansas record.

But Bud's proportions in 1906 failed to "round" into maturity and the popular Badger coach now is one of the tallest but by far not the fattest men in the Big Nine. In fact, Iowa's rotund Popsy Harrison could probably match Foster pound for pound.

Bud's parents moved to Mason City, Iowa, and he prepred there before entering the University of Wisconsin. By college days the child heavy-weight was an elongated center on the Badger basketball team, earning all-Big Nine ratings in 1929 and 1930 and all-American in 1929 and 1930.

BUD FOSTER

So when Mr. Foster's proteges take to the court here Saturday night, imagine Bud as taking up half the Badger playing bench. You'd never believe he was a fatty by his present conditions. But, as many tutors will agree, coaching is a tough racket.

Bud Foster's Record

Bud has brought three Big Nine championships and one NCAA title to Wisconsin in 13 years of coaching.

Foster coached two all-Americans, Johnny Koltz and Gene Englund. The duo combined in 1940-41 to bring the Big Ten and NCAA crowns to Wisconsin.

Last year Foster's Badgers were rated as nothing better than a cellar team but surprised the fandom with Bud's third conference winner. Wisconsin also appeared in the eastern NCAA tournament at New York last winter but lost to City College of New York. The Badgers came back to take third place honors in the tourney by nipping Navy, 50-49.

Foster graduated from Wisconsin in 1930 and played semi-pro basketball with Chicago and Oshkosh, selling seeds in the off-season.

In 1933 he took over the Badger freshman coaching assignment and in July, 1934, Bud stepped into the varsity post following the resignation of Dr. Walter Meanwell. In 1934-35, his first season, Foster's squad captured the Big Nine title.

Bud still sells seeds during the summer for the same Oshkosh firm.

Badger Students Here

One-hundred University of Wisconsin students will attend the Badger-Hawkeye clash. They will leave Madison early Saturday morning by chartered bus. It promises to be a big night in Iowa City.

Nation-Wide Look

With the 1948 basketball season just about over and tournament time approaching here are the teams to watch in their respective areas.

The Big Nine—Michigan, Iowa and Wisconsin all in a scramble. Metropolitan conference—NYU far ahead with a 17-0 record followed by CCNY, 12-3.

Eastern league—Princeton tied with Columbia after the Tigers snapped Columbia's undefeated string last night.

Eastern Independents—Seton Hall, 20-2; Duquesne, 16-2; Holy Cross, 16-3; Muhlenberg, 14-2; Lafayette, 15-2; West Virginia, 11-3; Colgate, 10-2, and Rhode Island, 13-3.

Midwest independents—Bradley, 24-1; DePaul, 18-4, and Bowling Green, 21-5.

Southern conference—North Carolina State, 7-0, and North Carolina, 10-1.

Southeastern conference—Kentucky, 6-0, and Tulane, 10-1.

Southwestern conference—Baylor, 9-0.

Big Seven—Missouri, 5-2; Kansas State and Oklahoma, 4-2.

Missouri Valley conference—Oklahoma A & M, 7-0.

Mountain States conference—Brigham Young, 6-1; Utah, 5-2. The two play Saturday night in the decisive game.

Pacific Coast conference—North: Washington State, 7-3; South: California, 6-0.

Rhodies Take Offensive Lead

NEW YORK (AP)—Rolling up 181 points in two games during the week while the best North Carolina State could do was edge out Duke 44-43, Rhode Island State's racehorse Rams swept into the lead in the college basketball scoring race.

Through games of Feb. 14, the Rhodies had amassed 1,243 points in 16 for a 77.7 average, exactly a half point per game better than the Wolkpack's 77.2 average. The southerners have racked up 1,776 markers in 23 games. Rhode Island's rise to the top ended North Carolina's three-week monopoly on first place.

Bowling Green, hitting the hoop for 233 points in three games, regained third place from Bradley by increasing their per game average to 71.3.

No team was even close to the Oklahoma Aggies who continued to hold the best defensive record. They have allowed only 31.7 points per game in 23 contests. The Aggies reached their defensive peak when they limited Creighton university to only 15 points Feb. 9.

There was no change in leadership in the other departments. Texas continued to boast the best free throw shooters. The Longhorns, despite a slump which dropped their conference hopes to a new low, continued their fine foul shooting with a 72.2 percentage on 236 fouls in 327 tries. Northwestern was third with a .672 average and Wisconsin was fourth with .666.

Dodgers Sign Four

BROOKLYN (AP)—The Brooklyn Dodgers announced receipt of four more signed contracts yesterday to bring the number of players in the fold to 25.

The four signed are Outfielder Al Gionfriddo, Catcher Gil Hodges, Infielder Bob Ramazzotti, and Pitcher Ervin Palica.

Detroit Reported Offering Indiana Coach $30,000

DETROIT (AP)—Alvin N. (Bo) McMillin, for 13 years head football coach at Indiana university, flew into Detroit yesterday presumably to cast his football future with the professionals.

While the gray-haired Texan who has directed the Hoosiers' football fortunes since 1934 would not say definitely that he was here to sign a contract with the Detroit Lions of the National football league, his mere presence lent credence to the week-long talk that he was "as good as in" the ranks of the pros.

President D. Lyle Fife of the Lions said that the club's board of directors would meet at noon today, probably to confer with McMillin.

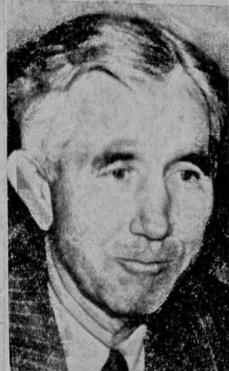

At that time the popular Hoosier mentor is expected to accept a seven-year contract from the Lions at $30,000 a year as general manager and head coach. That would more than double his present salary as athletic director and head football coach at Indiana.

McMillin would not say whether the meeting with Fife and other representatives of the club would be last night or today.

"I honestly don't know when I'll be seeing them," he said as he stepped off the plane. "I'll know more after I've talked with Fife on the phone."

Bo is expected to go to work for the Lions immediately, heading the job of pulling together the loose ends for the new owners, who formed a corporation to buy the club from Fred L. Mandel Jr., last month.

McMillin thus would succeed Charles E. (Gus) Dorais as the Detroit coach and terms of his contract would permit him to bring line coach C. A. (Time) Temerario and backfield Coach Owen L. (Chill) Cochran along with him from Indiana. Temerario and Cochran, however, wouldn't actually start to work for the Lions until summer.

While McMillin doesn't have a formal release from his Indiana contract that still has seven years to go, no difficulty is expected there. Some of the athletic board members already have said that they would not stand in his way if he elects to take the Detroit job.

McMillin went to Indiana university in 1934 after coaching at Centenary (Louisiana), Geneva (Pennsylvania) and Kansas State colleges.

He was named director of athletics in 1946 and, after winning the Big Nine title, was signed to a $13,500-a-year contract which has eight years to run.

McMillin's record at Indiana is 63 games won, 48 lost and 11 tied. The Hoosiers last year won five, lost three and tied one, but ended the season with glory with a 16-14 victory over Purdue in the Old Oaken Bucket classic.

Hawkeyes Face Busy Weekend

Iowa Tank Team Travels to Michigan; Wrestlers Meet Illini

This will be another big weekend for Iowa's athletes.

Iowa's swimmers journey to Ann Arbor to meet the vaunted Michigan aggregation, the grapplers meet Illinois, defending Big Nine champion, and the basketball team is host to Wisconsin.

"In Michigan we meet one of our toughest tests of the season. They have balanced power, and some of the best individual swimmers in the country," Coach Dave Armbruster said last night.

"They have been bolstered by the return of two men from service in addition to having practically all of last year's team back," he added.

Matt Mann Jr., son of the Wolverine tank coach, is back to add strength in the distances. Tittle has also returned to increase the Wolverine sprint power.

In the 100-yard sprint free style Wally Ris, Iowa's ace speed king, may find his roughest competition of the campaign. Dick Weinberg is one of the top sprinters in the country, and will cause plenty of trouble.

The breast stokers will also run into trouble with the one-two combination of Sohl and Uphgrove. Sohl is rated as one of the top two in the country by observers, and has posted the second best time in the country in his specialty this season.

The Hawkeye wrestlers lay their undefeated record on the line when they tangle with Illinois in the fieldhouse Saturday.

Although the Illini are the defending champions, they have been considerably weakened by

Rickey Tries to Square Himself With Majors

NEW YORK (AP)—Branch Rickey tried to square himself with the rest of baseball yesterday. The Brooklyn Dodgers' president is surprised at the unforeseen interpretations of his Wilberforce university talk Monday when he said Major league officials acted in 1946 against signing Negro players.

Rickey told a news conference his Wilberforce (Ohio) address has resulted in "interpretations not intended and certainly not foreseen."

Rickey told his Ohio listeners, in an address given Monday at the annual football banquet of the Negro school, that the Majors voted to oppose signing of Negro players. He said they approved a statement saying, in effect, "hiring a Negro in professional baseball was jeopardizing the investment of the owners."

"It didn't occur to me Monday night that it was a news item," Rickey said yesterday. "I didn't feel that I made any accusation then and I don't now."

Rickey said there were 35 or 40 men present at the special joint meeting in the Blackstone hotel in Chicago, Sept. 1946 when the vote was taken. He said there was not a dissenting vote with Rickey remaining silent.

Efforts by Rickey to locate a copy of the reference to Negro players have been unsuccessful, he said. But he said there had been other instances of the Majors destroying reports that they believed should not be publicized.

Rifle Team Meets Cyclones

The University of Iowa's rifle team journeys to Ames Saturday to fire against Iowa State college.

It will be the first shoulder to shoulder match the Hawkeyes have participated in this year. Their previous meets have been postal shoots fired during the month of January.

So far this season the Hawkeye riflemen have overwhelmed Penn State and Lawrence Institute of Technology, while dropping a close 8 point decision to the University of Pittsburgh.

In the only match shot against the Cyclones last year, the Hawks posted a 1357-1327, victory.

The team this year is built around four men who fired in the Regional matches last year. The returning quartet is: Jerry Eckhardt (captain), Davenport; Bill Voelkers, Chuck Rogler and John Rohner all of Iowa City. Eckhardt and Rogler received All-American honors last year, while the Hawkeye team was rated second in the United States.

Seven members of the team will participate in the tournament, with the five high scores counting. The match will be over the conventional 30-shot course, with each man firing 10 shots in the prone, kneeling, and standing positions. Ten minutes will be allowed for each ten shots.

The team this year is under the

The regulations and officiates at all the regional meets.

The team is rounded out by William Block, Davenport; Laurence Selby, Odebolt; John Taylor, Mason City, and William Olson, Iowa City. Eight men are taken to each match, with one serving as an alternate in case of sickness or injury to any member of the team.

Iowa is a member of the old Western conference set-up, as Chicago still maintains a rifle team. Postal matches are fired with rifle teams throughout the United States, as well as against the Big Ten teams.

All matches are conducted under the auspices of the National Grants under the scholarships instigated by the Fulbright act of the 79th congress include tuition or salary, maintenance and travel expenses.

 Opportunities exist for 20 graduate students, 20 professors and 10 post-doctoral research students for study in China, and for six professors to study or teach in Burma. This comprises the first step taken by the board of foreign scholarships in complying with the provisions of the act.
 Graduate students may inquire about these scholarships and obtain application forms, by writing the Institute of International Education, 2 West 45th street, New York, 19, N. Y.
 Professors and students working for a Ph.D. degree who are interested in the scholarships should write to the Conference Board of Associated Research Councils, 2101 Constitution avenue, Washington, 25, D. C.

School Board, City Council, Supervisors To Select Assessors
 Selection of a new city assessor will probably be made sometime next week at a special joint meeting of the city council, school board and board of supervisors, Mayor Preston Koser said yesterday.
 The post was left vacant when William J. White, assessor for 26 years, died Tuesday.
 Under the provisions of the new state law regarding assessors, any candidate who passed the last state examination for assessors, given late in 1947, may be appointed to the position.
 In addition to White, two other men, Frank Nesvach, deputy city assessor, and William Kanak, assistant county auditor, passed the examination and are now qualified for the appointment.
 The new state law also stipulates that the appointment must be made within 30 days after the post is vacated.
 If agreement on the appointment is not reached at the combined meeting, the Iowa code requires that a new qualifying examination be given.

Young Republicans Shelve Action On Thomas Committee

The University Young Republican league last night voted to "drop temporarily" a pending resolution condemning the recent activities of the Thomas committee.

The move came from the league's resolutions committee following that group's second consideration of the measure. The resolution was first submitted to the league last Nov. 6 but subsequent adverse opinion sent it back to committee.

Slam acceptance blocked an intended vote to determine which Republican candidate for the presidential nomination the local league will support.

Instead, balloting to choose a "favorite son" will be conducted by mail.

Chairman James E. Goodwin reported a "very kind no" in answer to the league's request that Harold E. Stassen, Republican presidential aspirant, speak on the Iowa campus this spring. He appointed James Jensen as program chairman to secure the substitute services of Iowa Secretary of State Rolfe Bergeson or Sen. Bourke B. Hickenlooper, Republican junior senator from Iowa.

Group Endorses 4 For School Board

Four Iowa Citizens were endorsed last night as nominees for the city board of education by a bi-partisan citizen committee.

They were Clark Caldwell, Glenn Devine, Chan Coulter and Kenneth Dunlop. Caldwell is president of the board and Devine is also a member.

Three persons will be elected to the board at the school election Monday, March 8.

Pupil's Proposal Pains Prim Peiking Prexy

"Love me or kill me because you are the ideal man whom I love."

This startling proposal was recently received by Dr. Hu Hsih, president of the University of Peiking and former Chinese ambassador to Washington.

The writer of the note, a Chinese college girl, personally presented the note to him!

Being married and probably frightened by the daring proposal, President Hu asked police for help. They took the girl to a hospital for psychoanalysis.

This "leap year" affair was told in a front-page story in Peiping Chinese newspapers. It was also printed by the Chinese Journal, a Chinese-language daily in New York.

Reviewer Praises Competent Concert

By JOHN L. HARVEY

The band's program last night, under the baton of Charles B. Righter, presented a program consisting almost entirely of transcriptions.

I have protested against such transcriptions before, and I see no reason whatever to change my mind. However, some distinctions can be made. For instance, the presentation of the Handel-Beecham "The Gods Go A-Begging" was fairly successful, since a band is appropriate for Handel's down-to-earth, common-sensical qualities. And the finale of Shostakovich' Fifth Symphony sounded alarmingly good as transcribed—it makes one wonder about the composer. Actually, the success of this number was due partly to the robustness of the original, partly due to Righter's adept transcription.

On the other hand, the Bach "We All Believe in One God" was, as arranged, a little too Wagnerian for my taste. Even more questionable was a lusty version of Brahms' "Rhapsody," Opus 119. Since I have no particular feelings about the music one way or the other, I do not object to a transcription as such. The sonorities mustered here, however, had very little relation to the original piano score. It is a clever piece of orchestration, but it isn't Brahms.

In purely auditory terms, the band was in good form. There were, of course, difficulties with intonation, and some odd errors in attack and release. However, there was a generally high level of technical competence throughout most of the concert.

Lind Says C of C To Probe Problems Of New Industries

The Chamber of Commerce is planning a committee to investigate problems that may arise when new industries move into Iowa City, President Robert Lind told members of the Lions club at a luncheon yesterday.

Tentative plans call for the committee to report on the following:

1. Housing requirements. This will include a survey of all present housing, university building plans and new construction in the community.
2. Availability of materials and labor.
3. Financing, both local and from outside sources.
4. Possible sites for housing and new plants.
