Price Support Bill Approved
Congress Expected To Pass Permanent Program This Summer
WASHINGTON (IP) - A new proposal for permanent agricultural price support was approved by both the Senate and House this month. The committee, which is expected to pass before the end of this year, is designed to provide for government support of the farm sector in the future. The program would include a price floor of $1.00 per bushel on wheat, $0.75 per bushel on corn, and $0.50 per bushel on rice. The government would agree to purchase any surplus produced by farmers, up to a maximum of 50 million bushels for each crop. The program would be funded by a small tax on each bushel of grain produced.

Pan-Americanism Is No Answer

The crises at Bagdad—first the outcropping which the Latin American delegations have enclosed Marshall's statement that "peace" is a suitable word for the situation at Bagdad—has created an atmosphere in which a Pan-American solution of the problem is more suitable...

The countries of North and South America are too disparate in their economic and social systems to permit a Pan-American solution;...the problem is one of the United States and the United States alone. A Pan-American approach to it...is not only essential but imperative. The reasons are many...but three stand out:

1. The problem is essentially an American problem, and the United States is the most important power involved.
2. The solution of the problem depends on the American government's policy and action.
3. The United States has the right and the duty to take the lead in finding a solution to the problem.

The idea of a Pan-American solution is based on the assumption that the United States is the only power capable of solving the problem. This assumption is false. The United States is capable of solving the problem, but it is not the only power capable of doing so. Other countries, such as Canada, Mexico, and Brazil, have a stake in the solution of the problem and are capable of contributing to it.

In conclusion, the idea of a Pan-American solution of the problem is not a realistic one. The United States must take the lead in finding a solution to the problem, and it must do so alone.

I'd Rather Be Right

Remarkable Bill, Indeed

By Jack Schreiber (New York Post Syndicate)

The media has again attempted to confuse the public...However, the actual facts of the case are as follows:

1. On March 16, 1939, the United States issued an ultimatum to France, demanding that she evacuate her forces from the Rhine.
2. France refused to comply with the ultimatum.
3. On March 22, 1939, the United States declared war on France.
4. The United States has never declared war on any country.

The media's attempt to confuse the public is an example of the tactic of misinformation that is often used by those who wish to mislead the public.

Looking Like Peace, Not War, in Palestine

Tries Odd Danduff 'Cure'

Dirty Work

Threatens Women's Shoe Styles

There's dirty work about it. Women's fashions have taken another turn and this time it's for the best and ends with the lab-coat. High buffed shoes. Right now you may walk about in the dust. But mark my words, you will have to brush your shoes high down. . . . and the slaves are the needs of the wearer that you wear them soon.

The Atlantic says a hardworking young woman who has become versed in the tricks of the shoe trade for seven years andaccordingly knows that these high shoes will be worn for both street and dress after-noon occasions. The street versions will be 'shoe-ty' laced with gilt-colored laces and plain. They \( \text{ } \) will be of silk or satin, either kept up by the sole or laced around the back. (Of course, there will still be a plenty of ordinary "hard hat\( \text{ } \) style for those who like their shoes conservative.")

The Iowa City main department to this end is any indication of its success — high buffed shoes will in all probability stay in the family license, causing first strain.

Chorus Presents — Enjoyable Concert

BY JOHN L. HARVEY

The University Church, under the able guidance of its music director, William J. Sullivan, will give its annual spring concert at 3:15 o'clock on Thursday afternoon, May 19.

The concert will include a number of works of Mendelssohn, Schubert, Dvořák, and the sacred music of Oh, Faithful Shepherd, and the sacred music of Oh, Faithful Shepherd. The sacred music of Oh, Faithful Shepherd will be performed by the church choir under the direction of Mr. Sullivan.

Among the other numbers were the lovely Unconditional Oath, and the moving Creole by César Franck. The choral selections were accompanied by the organ of the church, and the choir, under the leadership of Mr. Sullivan, sang with great spirit and skill.

Dr. Louis Nerby was granted a permis-sion. He said:

Gasoline Overturns, Burns

1,500 gallons of gasoline were spilled when an Elkins Brothers gasoline tank overturned and formed an oil slick with what became a number of |SALTING at one o'clock Mon-day morning.

The track was saved by the Iowa City company, was driven by Vose Tompkins, at 11:00 a.m. Monday. The company rescued over 500 gallons of gasoline, and a tanker truck off the pavement. The highway patrolmen watched the truck roll off.

Jansen was not hurt, and climbed from the track cab before the fire started.

The truck was enroute from Iowa City to Dallas, when the accident happened, according to a track company official. The track was damaged, but there was no loss of life. The track was a total loss.

University Symphony to Play
Rarely-Produced Presentation

The university Symphony orchestra will present its concert next Wednesday by premiering one of the most recently completed symphonies.

The work is Gustav Mahler's 7th symphony, a ten-movement piece written in the style of the time of its premiere and intended as the sixth symphony of his series and the first of his last symphonies.

Its performance next Wednesday will complete the symphony's performance next Wednesday and will also constitute the entire concert program.

The symphony consists of six movements. The long first movement will be separated by inter­ movements. The long

Plan for 150 Foreign Students

Would Centralize International Club

BY FREDERICK C. YU

A plan to centralize the activities of the foreign students at the University of Illinois was announced yesterday by the international club to assist foreign students.

In a letter addressed to President Hersey about this plan, Prof. William G. Enright, director of the center for foreign students, states that the purpose of the center is to provide a better orientation for foreign students.

The center will provide services such as a program of orientation, cultural activities, and assistance with academic and personal issues.
