BANGKOK (P) — Irked at shaggy hair styles in imitation of matinee idols, the Siamese ministry of education has ordered that no schoolboy may wear his hair longer than one centimeter. That's less than four tenths of an inch — real close clip. The ministry also is considering a similar ban on waves and upswept styles for schoolgirls.

ICC Approves New Railroad Rates in East

WASHINGTON (P) — The Interstate Commerce commission yesterday authorized a new 17 percent average increase in railroad passenger fares in the east. The boost will add an estimated $61-million to the annual cost of travel in that section of the country.

The advances involve 20 percent more for interstate passenger tickets in coaches and 14.3 percent more in sleeping and parlor cars.

The higher charges may be put into effect on five-days notice to the public. A Pennsylvania railroad official said at Philadelphia that the roads have chosen July 19 as the date to boost fares.

The ICC authority went to the 61 railroads carrying passengers north of the Ohio and Potomac rivers and east of the Mississippi river.

The same lines pioneered the 1947 proceeding which resulted in an average 10 percent rise in passenger fares last year—first in the east, and subsequently in the west and south.

The western and southern carriers have not indicated whether they will again follow the lead of eastern roads and ask for the new higher rates in their territories.

The new revisions will make coach rates in the east 3 cents a mile and sleeping and parlor car rates 4 cents a mile, compared with 2.5 and 3.5 cents per mile bases now in effect throughout the country. These rates are basic; a federal transportation tax of 15 percent also must be paid.

The ICC order covers interstate travel and travel inside Illinois and Michigan (where the federal commission has authority to fix the intra-state rates). The railroads will have to obtain separate authorities in the other states to make the interstate increases apply to intra-state travel in those states.

Commutation fares are not disturbed by yesterday's action, since they are figured on a different basis. The commutation rates took an average 20 percent advance in the east last year.

Coal Mine Strike Conferences Held

WASHINGTON (P) — Justice T. Alan Goldsborough talked over the "captive" coal mine strike with attorneys for both sides yesterday.

His talks caused speculation on an out-of-court settlement of the four-day-old shut-down in mines owned by the steel industry.

Goldsborough met with attorneys Welly K. Hopkins of the United Mine Workers and John C. Gall of the steel company "captive" mines, and Harry M. Moses, chief negotiator for the operators whose pits are closed down in a new contract dispute.

The steel companies represented by Moses refused to agree to a union shop provision carried over by UMW President John L. Lewis in his new contract with the rest of the soft coal industry.

Moses said the provision violated the Taft-Hartley act, which requires a national labor relations board election to determine whether workers actually favor a union shop before it is imposed on them.

Goldsborough will hear arguments next Wednesday on a complaint of the national labor relations board counsel, charging Lewis with an unfair labor practice. The charge grows out of Lewis' insistence that the employers agree to his union shop provision.

FAMILY TRADITION

ST. LOUIS (P) — Mrs. Robert Barton, in keeping with family tradition, gave birth to a daughter Thursday night at the age of 15.

Mrs. Barton's mother, 35, and her maternal grandmother, 50, both became mothers at the same age.

Government Returns Railroads to Owners

WASHINGTON (P) — The government returned the railroads to their owners yesterday.

They were seized two months ago—May 10—by order of President Truman. He acted in the face of a threatened strike by three operating brotherhoods.

They asked higher wages and changes in working rules. That dispute was settled Thursday night after a series of White House conferences.

Demos Give Up on 'Ike' General Says Refusal 'Final'

PHILADELPHIA (P) — Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower laid down a "final and complete" refusal yesterday to accept the Democratic presidential nomination under any "terms, conditions or premises."

Key anti-Truman Democrats from the north quickly abandoned their campaign to draft the general and switched their support to the President.

Those from the south went into hurried huddles, trying to figure out whether they would try to get behind somebody else.

See Truman Win
Truman backers, and even some party members who wanted another candidate, passed the word that it's all over, that the President will capture the nomination on the first ballot.

So it looked as if delegates were coming to town Monday mostly to pick a vice-presidential nominee and approve a party platform.

Eisenhower gave his positive "no" to Senator Claude A. Pepper of Florida. It was his third attempt to avoid a political draft from either major political party.

Ike Telegram
"Under no condition," Eisenhower said in a telegram, "will I be in the position of repudiating or even seeming to swerve from the letter or spirit of my prior announcements."

"I will not violate my own conception of my appropriate sphere of duty."

"No matter under what terms, conditions or premises a proposal might be couched, I would refuse to accept the nomination."

Pepper Unsatisfied
Pepper was one of those who had declined to accept as final Eisenhower's other two pronouncements that the general could not accept a nomination to public office.

The senator said Thursday he would place Eisenhower's name in nomination at the Democratic convention next week if someone else didn't do it first.

It was for that reason that the general sent his "final and complete" refusal to the senator. Pepper said he would comply with "the greatest reluctance" with Eisenhower's urging that his name not be offered to the convention.

Pledged for Ike
That, of course, would not keep someone else from nominating the general. And some delegations actually are pledged to vote for Eisenhower.

But the general could scarcely have made it more certain that he would turn the nomination down. He said his position was based on a "sincere conviction as to the best interests of the country."

In quick succession after Pepper released his wire:

1. Chicago Democratic leader Jacob M. Arvey announced that he and Mayor William O'Dwyer of New York were abandoning the boom to draft Eisenhower and "intend to vote in the convention for the nomination of President Truman." Arvey in Chicago and O'Dwyer in New York both predicted Mr. Truman's nomination.

2. James Roosevelt, chairman of the California Democratic organization, telephoned the Eisenhower headquarters here from Pittsburgh last night "I am now convinced Gen. Eisenhower would not serve if nominated by the Democratic party." It was Roosevelt who called a caucus of anti-Truman, pro-Eisenhower forces for tonight.

3. Southerners weren't giving up quite so easily. But they were scrambling frantically and gloomily for some place to turn.

Senator Lister Hill of Alabama made it clear that supreme court Justice William O. Douglas would be just as unacceptable to the south as President Truman because of the civil rights issue. Next to Eisenhower, Douglas has been mentioned more than anyone else among stop-Truman Democrats.

Won't Take Douglas
Arvey told a news conference he was not turning to Douglas. Instead, he called for united backing for Mr. Truman.

Democratic National Chairman McGrath says he is confident that Douglas also will decline to let his name go before the convention.

Among the southerners, the trend seemed to be to try to get together on a "protest candidate" of their own. That might be someone who could offer no real challenge to Mr. Truman's nomination but who might become the pick of a southern Democratic convention.

Unhappy southerners already have announced they plan such a meeting in Birmingham July 17 if the Philadelphia convention selects Mr. Truman.

Reports Employment Highest in History

WASHINGTON (P) — Employment smashed all records in American history during June, the census bureau reported yesterday.

There were 61,296,000 persons holding civilian jobs and another 1,261,000 in the armed forces—62,557,000 job holders in all. More than five out of six jobs were for 35 hours or more a week.

Government analysts forecast that July, the peak job season, will break the record again. The lure of high pay—the pressure of high living costs—had Americans job conscious as never before.

Civil Rights Fight Flares

PHILADELPHIA (P) — The fight over civil rights within the Democratic party finally exploded into the open last night. A southerner, Aubrey Williams, told Democratic leaders they would not lose southern voters by supporting President Truman's civil rights program.

Southern members of the Democratic platform committee had sat calm and silent while northern Negroes demanded that the party platform contain the President's proposals for laws against lynching, poll taxes, and discrimination in employment.

But when Williams, who is from Montgomery, Ala., and former national youth administrator, said that it was mainly southern Democratic leaders who opposed the Truman program—and not the people—the fireworks broke loose.

Former Alabama Governor Chauncey Sparks snapped that Williams represents nobody but himself and should not carry any weight.

Charles E. Shepperd, Florida state legislator from St. Augustine, declared heatedly:

"We do not propose to tolerate any further interference in states rights in the south. We and the Negro understand each other. We don't want any federal bayonets forcing him down our throats."

U.S. Note Tells Russ To Raise Berlin Block

Russ To Ease Car Traffic In Berlin Area

BERLIN (P) — The Soviet-licensed news agency ADN said Wednesday night the Russians would permit allied automobile traffic to proceed to and from Berlin if the vehicles carry special travel permits issued by Soviet authorities.

This would amount to easing the current highway blockade for traffic moving from the west into Berlin, but would place a new restriction on allied automobiles departing from the city for the west.

The agency report, which it said was obtained from official Soviet sources, did not set a date on which the new regulation would take effect.

It was issued only a short time before the western allies made public three notes calling on Russia to lift the 21-day land blockade which has forced them to supply western Berlin by air.

It was the allied refusal to allow their trains to pass Russian inspection last April that first precipitated the communications crisis. And observers were inclined to feel that the allies would not submit their automobiles to inspection when traveling to and from Berlin which is occupied under four-power agreement.

Allied highway traffic en route to Berlin has been stopped at the Helmstedt border point by Russian authorities since June 18 when a currency reform was decreed for western Germany.

The highway through Helmstedt is the lone authorized road through the Russian occupation zone to the German capital.

Allied motor traffic leaving Berlin for western Germany previously was allowed to proceed without special permits. In this sense the new Russian order represents a tightening of travel restrictions.

Special Russian travel permits were not required for either east or westbound traffic prior to the June 18 order which forced all allied eastbound traffic to halt at the Helmstedt checkpoint.

An American official described as "a lot of hokey" last night, Russian claims that repair work forced them to close the lone railway line to Berlin from the west.

"There is nothing at all wrong with the line," the official added. American and British military government officers joined in saying an investigation of the Soviet claims revealed them a fraud.

Writes Essay Under Sentence

SEATTLE (P) — Mrs. Bertha Devling, an author arrested for speeding, was ordered to write an essay on "why women drivers should not drive over 50 miles an hour"—or spend three days in jail.

She did both. Part of the essay: "There are sometimes officers of the law abroad in incognito vehicles who hunt 'em and ketchum and then comes de grief." Officers in the case were State Patrolmen A. L. Hunt and Al Ketchum. The judge was Justice of the Peace Roy De Grief.

Say 325 Jews Killed; 10-Day Truce Sought

CAIRO (P) — Arabs reported last night they had killed 325 Jewish fighters during the first day of renewed Palestine warfare even as the United Nations mediator was pleading for a new 10-day truce.

Count Folke Bernadotte, the mediator, said in Rhodes after a meeting with King Abdullah in Amman, Trans-Jordan, that he had asked both sides to stop fighting for 10 days, beginning at 6 a.m. Iowa time, this morning.

The Swedish count's appeal was made on an urgent basis—but neither the Arabs nor the Jews showed any signs of agreeing. An Israeli spokesman said in Tel Aviv no action would be taken last night because of the Jewish sabbath.

Bernadotte will fly today to Lake Success to place the whole situation before the United Nations security council.

The Egyptian defense ministry issued a communique here last night saying 325 Zionist soldiers had been killed in military operations undertaken by the Egyptian army, Saudi Arabaia troops and Sudanese volunteers. The time the operations started was not given. The old truce expired at 12 midnight (Iowa time) Thursday night.

Attacks were launched, the communique said, on points occupied by the Jews during the truce period on the southern Palestine front. These points were recaptured, the communique said. It added that Egyptian planes raided Aqir airport and Tel Aviv harbor. Aqir is 15 miles southeast of Tel Aviv.

Other developments of the day included:

1. Bombs dropped from a Spitfire on the Israeli capital of Tel Aviv killed two and wounded 10 or more persons. Haifa had its first air raid alarm since World War II but no bombs were reported.

2. Jewish mortars opened up on the Arab-held old city of Jerusalem. The heavy guns of the Arab legion of King Abdullah withheld their answering fire while legionnaires deployed toward the Jewish-held modern section of the Holy City.

3. In Washington Secretary of State Marshall indicated the United States government blames the Arabs for renewing the fighting. But Marshall left to the security council any finding of guilt. He also ruled out for the present any idea that the U.S. might now lift its embargo on shipping arms as a means of helping Israel.

4. The United Nations fleet sailed from Haifa with members of the UN truce commission staff on board. Only 40 members of the UN team which once totaled at least 200 remained, most of them on Mount Scopus in Jerusalem.

5. The British foreign office disclosed in London that Britain had appealed to the Arab countries twice in the last 24 hours to extend the old truce.

6. Strong Syrian concentrations of men and armor were reported by the Jews in the Lake Hula area north of the Sea of Galilee. The Jews said they expected a major attack.

Scattered fighting was reported from various fronts.

Threats Won't Move Us Out, Marshall Says

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON (P) — The United States has warned Russia that it will not be compelled "by threats, pressures or other actions" to abandon its rights in Berlin. It has demanded that the Russians lift the blockade of the German capital immediately.

This was revealed by the state department last night with publication of the text of the note which Secretary of State Marshall sent to Moscow last Tuesday through the Soviet embassy here.

The United States acted in concert with Britain and France, who sent separate notes.

Authorities described the American note as extremely firm though not in any sense belligerent in tone.

In it Marshall proclaimed American willingness to negotiate with the Soviets and other occupation powers outstanding disputes over Berlin, but he declared that restoration of communication between the western sectors of the city and the western zones of Germany is "a pre-requisite" of any negotiations.

Marshall indirectly accused the Russian government of breaking an agreement which Premier Stalin made with President Truman in June, 1945, through the imposition of blockade restrictions on travel to Berlin.

"It is intolerable that any one of the occupying authorities should attempt to impose a blockade upon the people of Berlin."

"The United States government is therefore obliged to insist that in accordance with existing agreements for the movement of freight and passenger traffic between the western zones and Berlin be fully restored."

"There can be no question of delay in the restoration of these essential services, since the needs of the civilian population in the Berlin area are imperative."

Britain and France sent separate notes to Moscow on Tuesday, at the same time as the U. S., protesting the blockade. The blockade has been in effect three weeks, forcing the western powers to supply the two million Germans in their areas by air.

The British note, released simultaneously in London last night, said Britain regards the blockade as "clear violation of existing agreements concerning the administration of Berlin by the four occupation powers." It called the attention of Moscow to "the extremely serious international situation" caused by the food and fuel blockade of Berlin.

Marshall's note said also that it will not be induced by threats, pressures or other actions to abandon its Berlin rights. It is hoped that the Soviet government entertains no doubts whatsoever on this point.

CR Man is Candidate On Third Party Slate

DES MOINES (P) — Charles W. Hobbie, Cedar Rapids, was chosen by the Progressive (Henry A. Wallace) party yesterday as the party's candidate for lieutenant governor of Iowa.

Hobbie, district president of the United Farm Equipment and Metal Workers union, will be the running mate of C. E. Biederman of Mitchell, the party's candidate for governor.

Suffragettes Steamroller Demo Convention

Petticoat Partisans Demand 'Equal Rights'

PHILADELPHIA (P) — They fought another round yesterday in the battle of the sexes, and gentlemen — I mean, you brutes — you took an awful beating.

Eighteen militant ladies, members of the national woman's party appeared before the Democratic convention resolutions committee. Their purpose was to get an "equal rights" plank into the party platform now in process of construction. Rolling up in relays, they talked for 66 minutes.

And they had nothing good to say for that half of the human race that wears suspenders.

For example, do you know why, in some places, women are not permitted to work after 10 o'clock at night in an ice cream parlor?

The question was asked by Mrs. Emma Guffey Miller, leader of the party. She waited in vain for an answer from the committee. "I'll tell you why," said Mrs. Miller. "Because after 10 o'clock, the tips are bigger, that's why."

She paused a moment to let this sink in. Then she added, "that's why the men are so chivalrous . . . won't let women work late at night . . . so-called protective legislation for women." Mrs. Miller sniffed. "It's because the tips are bigger."

Nobody asked the explanation for this phenomenon, and Mrs. Miller did not volunteer it. The inference was that, after 10 o'clock, as those ice cream sodas and double chocolate-malts begin to take effect, the customers are more generous with their tipping,

And they had nothing good to say for that half of the human race that wears suspenders.

Ewell Stuns Youngsters With 100-Meter Victory

Equals World Mark To Grab Olympic Spot

By AUSTIN BEALMEAR

EVANSTON, ILL. (AP) — Old Barney Ewell, dean of American sprinters, showed the youngsters how to run last night when he equalled the world 100 meter dash record of 10.2 seconds in the final U.S. Olympic track and field tryouts at Dwyer stadium.

The 31 year old former Penn State star, winner of half a dozen national sprint titles in the past ten years, flashed to victory by a comfortable margin over Southern California's Mel Patton and four other speedsters in the six man final.

His time, achieved with a non-effective cross wind, tied the recognized world record set by Jesse Owens of Ohio State in 1936 and equalled five years later by Hal Davis of Southern California.

Patton, the favorite, got off to a slow start and never recovered. He barely inched Harrison Dillard of Baldwin Wallace for third place, with Ed Conwell of Jersey City a close fourth and, Don Campbell of Colorado fifth. Bill Mathis of the New York Pioneer club fell only a few yards from the finish.

Ewell's record-equaling upset of Patton not only established him as an Olympic favorite in the century but completely overshadowed anything else witnessed by 20,000 spectators at the opening session of the tryouts last night.

Ewell, the present National AAU 100 meter champion, Patton and Dillard thus qualified to represent the United States in this event at the Olympic games starting in London July 29. Conwell probably will be also included on the team to round out the 400 meter relay team.

If there was any surprise approaching the sizzling triumph by Ewell it came in the high jump, where both Verne McGrew and George Stanich both cleared 6 feet 3/4 inches. Both had barely qualified for the finals in the AAU and NCAA championships, which served as the semi-finals for this first pre-Olympic showdown in a dozen years.

McGrew was declared the winner, since he had only two misses during the event, compared to four for Stanich. Dike Eddleman made the grade by having no misses. Bill Vessie of the New York A.C. got over 6 feet 7/8 inches but missed four times and bowed out.

Curtis Stone, another former Penn State athlete, led most of the way to score by five yards over Jerry Thompson, the NCAA champion who also finished second to the Philadelphian in the AAU 5,000. Clarence Robinson trailed Thompson by about 20 yards in third place.

Roy Cochran, the AAU champion and world record holder in the 440 yard hurdles, was pressed all the way in taking the 400 meter hurdles final. Richard Ault and Jeff Kirk finished close behind, the latter barely beating George Walker, the NCAA champion from Illinois.

Martin Biles' victory in the javelin was a mild surprise, since Steve Seymour had beaten him in the AAU championships. This event saw all the NCAA qualifiers pushed out of the running.

Bob Bennett repeated his AAU triumph in the hammer, adding more than two feet to the distance he achieved in beating Henry Dreyer, the NCAA titleholder. Dreyer, who also outdistanced Sam Felton, was the only previous Olympian to compete yesterday. He placed tenth in the hammer at Berlin in 1936.

Earle Meadows, who won the pole vault in the 1936 Olympics, and Joe McCluskey, who ran in the steeplechase in both the 1932 and 1936 games, will make their bids for additional honors today.

Herb Barten of Michigan, the AAU champion, and Mal Whitfield of Ohio State, CAA titleholder, won the two heats in the 800 meter run to lead the six qualifiers into today's finals.

Both came from behind in the stretch to snatch their victories. Whitfield barely nosed Jack Dianetti of Michigan State in a race so close that both were caught in the same time, 1:52.8. Tarver Perkins of the Illinois Athletic club was third in their heat.

Willie Steele, NCAA champion from San Diego State, led the broad jump qualifiers with a leap of 26 feet 2 inches. The other five who made the grade for the final today were Lorenzo Wright of Wayne, Jim Holland of Northwestern, Herb Douglass of Pitt, Eural Davis of the San Antonio Texas Athletic club and John Robertson of Texas.

In the shot put, it was Francis Delaney of the San Francisco Olympic club, the AAU champion, who topped the qualifiers with a toss of 54 feet 4 1/2 inches. Charles Fonville of Michigan, the NCAA titleholder whose 58 feet 1/2 inch bettered the world record earlier this season, could do no better than a third place tie.

Fonville's first throw was 53 feet 1 1/2 inches, the same as Rollin Prather of Kansas State. Jim Fuchs of Yale placed second with 54 feet 3/4 inch. Wilbur Thompson of the Los Angeles A.C. and Bill Bayless of Southern California rounded out the qualifying field.

Fortune Gordien, the wild and woolly Minnesota boy, led the discus qualifying field with 166 feet 2 inches, closely followed by William Burton of the United States army and air force team, who barely qualified in the AAU meet, and Victor Frank of Yale.

Nicholson's blow returned Ralph Hamner the victor in a slab duel with Elmer Riddle, who previously had beaten the Cubs four times this year. Hamner allowed only five hits for his fourth win.

Cards To Play Racine There

The Iowa City Cardinals travel to Racine tonight for a double-header with the league leaders and play Hammond, currently third in the western division in a twin bill on tomorrow night.

Racine is the defending champion in the western division and is leading the league a game and a half in front of Rock Island, who took over second from Hammond last week.

Bob Olds, Cardinal number one catcher, will be out of the card lineup for an undetermined period. Last Sunday morning he severely cut the index finger of his left hand.

Manager Ralph Tucker announced the addition of catcher Harold Rinehart to the Card traveling squad. He will make the trip this weekend. Rinehart has been playing this season with Cochran's Roofers, a local City league team. Joe Maher is the other regular receiver.

Only six teams remain in the eastern division with the withdrawal of Ann Arbor and South Bend due to financial difficulties. Ft. Wayne holds a slim lead over the Flint, Mich. Punchers in that division.

Little Hawks Face St. Ambrose High

The Little Hawks of City high will clash with St. Ambrose in 1st round play of the summer high school sectional baseball tournament at Calamus today at 3 p. m.

This will be the third time the Hawks will face Manuel Madrigal, Saint pitcher, this season. Madrigal split with the Hawks in his other two starts.

Oxford Junction and Olin will play the other first round game at 1:30 p. m. Calamus drew a bye in the first round and will meet the winner of the Iowa City, St. Ambrose game in the second round.

Dick Doran is the probable starter for the Hawks. He will be facing Madrigal for the second time. Doran hurled the Hawks to a 2-1 win over the Saints here earlier in the season.

The Boston ace had been slated to hold down the second-base job for the National league in next Tuesday's All-star game.

Zoe Ann Olsen, McLane Win U. S. Olympic Posts

17-Year-Olds Outclass Field

By CHARLES A. GRIMICH

DETROIT (AP) — An Andover prep boy and a California school girl—both 17—outclassed their fields yesterday to win no. 1 berths on the American Olympic swimming and diving teams.

They are Jimmy McLane of Akron, Ohio, who swamped the opposition in winning the 400-meter free style final trial, and Zoe Ann Olsen, near-perfect fancy diving high school senior from Oakland, Calif.

McLane touched the finish in the 400 nearly three lengths ahead of veteran Bill Smith, Hawaii from Ohio State University who has racked up 17 national championships ranging from the sprints to the middle distances and going back as far as 1941.

Bill Huesner of Northwestern university easily took third in the American final test won by McLane in 4:45.6. These three thus won places on the men's Olympic swim team leaving by plane for London next mid-week.

McLane is himself a veteran at 17. Unbeaten since 1944, the tall, slim 150-pounder won the national 800- and 1500-meter swims in 1945 and the 400, 800 and 1500 in 1946 and 1947. At age 13 in 1944 he won the national junior and senior distance swims at 1/4 miles, a week apart.

Miss Olsen heads an all-California contingent in the women's springboard diving. Her teammates in this event who will catch the boat for London at New York next Wednesday are Victoria Manolo Draves of Los Angeles A.C. and Patricia Elsener, of San Francisco's Crystal Plunge.

The Oakland girl set herself far apart from the field with a score of 117.59. Mrs. Draves and Miss Elsener barely beat out Olympic veterans Marjorie Gestring, champion at Berlin in 1936 when she was 13 years old, and 31-year-old Katherine Ravlis of Miami Beach, Fla., springboard second place at the 1932 and 1936 Olympics in Los Angeles and Berlin.

Board Divides Iowa Conference in Two

DES MOINES (AP)—The Iowa conference was officially divided into two divisions at a meeting of faculty representatives here yesterday.

The division is geographic except for Loras and Dubuque U.

Because of the feeling between these two schools, Loras was placed in division 1 and Dubuque in division 2, though both are in Dubuque.

Other members of division 1 are Luther at Decorah, Upper Iowa at Fayette, Wartburg at Waverly.

Los Angeles A.C. and Miss Rawls qualified in fourth and fifth places for the afternoon finals. Then they just failed to break into the trio that monopolized the top diving rung in the national championships at San Diego last month and carried on through the preliminaries and finals here.

Another California girl, 22-year-old Ann Curtis from San Francisco, set the pace in the women's 100-meter free style finals where she won in six all on plays on the Olympic team. Miss Curtis, holder of three world records for women, was timed at 1:07.7.

The five other free style sprint qualifiers for London competition who will handle the three individual and 4x100-meter relay assignments with Miss Curtis are, in the order of their finishing: Marie Corridon, Norwalk, Conn.; Brenda Helser, Los Angeles; Thelma Kalama, Hawaii; Jackie Lavine, Chicago, and Pat Healy, Watchung Lake, N. J.

Bruce Harlan and Miller Anderson, Ohio State university teammates and proteges at Columbus of Olympic diving Coach Mike Peppe, finished one-two in the men's springboard event. Third place, and membership on the Olympic team with the Buckeye pair, went to Dr. Sammy Lee, a pocket-size American army lieutenant of Korean descent from Pasadena, Calif.

The six American springboard diving winners headed by Harlan and Miss Olsen aim to duplicate the clean sweep made at the 1946 Berlin games by the U. S. stars who finished one-two-three 12 years ago—Dick Degener, Marshall Wayne and Al Greene, and the Misses Gestring and Rawls and Mrs. Dorothy Poynton Hill.

Fifteen men and women membership on the Olympic team during the day at the River Rouge Park pools—three each in the springboard diving contests, six in the women's 100-meter free style and three in the men's 400-meter free style. Three men won berths for London Thursday in the 100-meter free style—Wally Ris, Iowa; Keith Carter, Purdue, and Alan Ford, ex-Yale. The water events team will be completed in competition scheduled for today and tomorrow.

WESTMAR at LeMars and Buena Vista at Storm Lake. Others beside Dubuque in division 2 are Parsons at Fairfield, St. Ambrose at Davenport, Iowa Wesleyan at Mount Pleasant, Central at Pella, Simpson at Indianola and Penn at Oskaleska.

Boston Clips Phils, 13-2; Johnny Sain Wins 11th

BOSTON (AP) — Aided by a 14-hit attack, righthander Johnny Sain became the National league's first 11-game winner by hurling the top-place Boston Braves to a 13-2 win over the Phillies last night before a 27,050 crowd. While hitting safely in his 21st consecutive game, Al Dark, the Tribesmen's shortstop, tripped, doubled, singled and stole home.

Lopat Blanks Nats, 9-0

WASHINGTON (AP) — Joe Di Maggio blasted his 19th home run of the season with one aboard as the New York Yankees breezed to a 9-0 victory over the Washington Senators behind the 4-hit pitching of Ed Lopat here last night.

Browns Defeat Cleveland, 5-3

CLEVELAND (AP) — The St. Louis Browns got away to a three-run first inning and went on to defeat the league-leading Cleveland Indians, 5 to 3, last night.

The Indians out-hit the Browns 12 to 9 but couldn't connect when they needed them. Fred Sanford, who was removed when the Indians threatened in the seventh, was the winning hurler. Sanford helped his own cause with a home run in the second inning. Bob Lemon was charged with the defeat.

Don't Quit School
Draftees Can Continue Through USAFI

Students about to be drafted need not lose 21 months of college time and credit, according to Prof. Hew Roberts of the college of education.

A man can get advanced education in the army through the agency of the United States armed forces institute, Roberts said.

USAFI, as it is usually abbreviated, provided valuable training for troops during the war, and can perform the same function for the peacetime draft, he stated.

At present, one in four of all personnel in the armed services is taking work through USAFI, the proportion being one officer to ten enlisted men.

Men already in college at the time they are drafted can get full credit toward graduation for studies done through the institute.

The goal of the institute program is four-fold:

1. To provide general education to raise the level of soldier's education to the minimum of the eighth grade.
2. To provide instruction in subjects necessary for promotion in rank.
3. To provide continued education for all personnel who will one day return to civilian life.
4. To encourage a better use of leisure time by the soldier through cultural, esthetic and hobby studies.

With sound advice and help from colleges and universities the armed forces hope to prevent any serious interruption in a draftee's education, Roberts said.

The civilian advisory committee to USAFI has appointed a research staff under the direction of Dr. James E. Wert of Iowa State college to make recommendations for improvement of the institute program.

Research will be done to provide better text-books, methods of instruction, guidance and counseling.

An examination of USAFI records will be made with the aim of finding better ways to teach the new soldiers.

A former army education officer, Roberts said the USAFI education program will go a long way toward making a peacetime draft more acceptable to the men concerned.

Predicts Record Corn Crop; No Effect on Meat Seen Yet

WASHINGTON (AP)—The agriculture department said yesterday a record corn harvest and the second biggest wheat crop in the nation's history are indicated for 1948.

Yield prospects for other crops, it added, also are very good. The American housewife, however, will not get any immediate break in regard to supplies or price of beef, pork and other meats.

The new record corn crop is expected to total 3,328,862,000 bushels, nearly 41 million above the previous top crop of 1946. It compares with the very small 1947 crop of 2,400,952,000 bushels.

The wheat forecast of 1,241,751,000 bushels is only 123,168,000 bushels below the record set in 1947.

Long Range Effect
A department expert told a reporter that while "this report is one of the most encouraging signs in a long time, benefits in terms of meat and prices will be of long range and not of any immediate effect."

Farmers are expected to hold back large numbers of hogs that would normally go to slaughter this fall for additional fattening. In addition, with the larger supplies of feed in view, farmers are likely to hold out more than the usual number for breeding purposes.

More Meat Next Year
More cattle are expected to be brought into the feed lots this fall for fattening on the ample grain supplies. This will cut the fall slaughter supply. This in turn will raise somewhat the supply of meat for next year, although cattle numbers on the ranges have been steadily dropping.

In contrast with last season, the 1948 growing and seeding season for corn has been excellent. It is in good shape in most areas. Last year's poor corn crop was responsible to a large degree for the cut in meat production this year and the heavy boost in prices.

Indicate Iowa To Regain Lead in Corn Production

DES MOINES (AP)—Iowa will be back on top this year as the number one corn producing state, a government forecast indicated yesterday.

The forecast placed the state ahead of Illinois and estimated that Iowa will harvest 624,602,000 bushels of corn.

Beer Question To Be Aired At Conference

A roundtable conference broadcast will add another chapter to the holiday sale of beer question tomorrow afternoon from 1:30 to 2 p.m.

Dr. L. L. Dunnington of the Iowa city ministerial association; Max Hawkins, city councilman; Prof. W. L. Daykin, and Prof. Jack T. Johnson will take part in the discussion.

City Attorney William H. Bartley said yesterday that he had been asked to participate but refused because he did not think he should discuss "matters that are pending before the council I am advising."

The city council June 28, lifted the restriction on the sale of beer in Iowa City on Memorial Day, the Fourth of July and on any state or municipal election day.

In a special meeting of the city council July 2, the ministerial association protested this action. Its protest resulted in the action's being deferred.

Dr. L. L. Dunnington said yesterday, "There has been no indication up to the present time as to what the council intends to do about this matter but the ministerial association intends to stay with it until something is done."

He said he believed the council meeting next Monday evening would result in some definite action. In his sermon at the Methodist church, "Life Is What You Make It," Dr. Dunnington will discuss the issue tomorrow morning.

The Methodist minister said people in general are very much interested in the repeal of the amendment because the sale of beer on those holidays will "endanger the highways." In referring to the lifting of the ban on election day, Dr. Dunnington said—"Certainly election day is a day on which people should be free-headed."

Station KKIC will sponsor the Sunday afternoon broadcast of the roundtable conference.

Power Failure Cuts Off University Lights

All university buildings were without electricity for 33 minutes yesterday from 2:47 to 3:20 p.m. due to a university power failure.

A new turbine was responsible for the power failure, Harold Hatcher, electrician at the power plant, said. The new turbine was just getting started when the power failed.

"There were several people working around the new turbine," he said. "Someone may have kicked something, or pushed something out of place."

The power failure forced WSUI off the air for 37 minutes. City power was switched over to the station at 3:18 p.m., but six minutes were needed after the power came on to warm up the WSUI transmitters for broadcasting.

Police Hold Burglarly Suspect

HELD ON $5,000 BOND, a man who identified himself as Robert M. Eddy of Chicago was in the Johnson county jail last night on a charge of burglary. Chicago Man Held For Night Burglary At SAE Fraternity

A man who identified himself as Robert M. Eddy, Chicago, was held in the county jail last night on a burglary charge.

In a preliminary hearing in police court yesterday evening, Judge Emil Trot bound Eddy over to the grand jury, setting the bail at $5,000. Eddy entered a plea of not guilty.

He was charged in connection with a break-in early yesterday morning at the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity house, 303 N. Riverside drive.

SAE fraternity members reported someone had broken into their house and had taken $65 from individual billfolds around 4:15 a.m.

The fraternity men called police after one of them failed in an attempt to catch the intruder as he left the house.

Police apprehended Eddy running across City Park bridge when they arrived. Al Schmah, A3, Alford, Iowa, accompanied police to the station and identified Eddy as the one who had been in the fraternity house. Schmah, a member of SAE, had seen Eddy in the house.

Man in Doering
Schmah, The Daily Iowa sports editor, said he came home from the Iowa newsmen, arriving at the house at 4:15 a.m. In the doorway of a room on the second floor, he saw a man in stocking feet.

According to Schmah, the man edged for the stairway when he saw him. Schmah grabbed his arm but the prowler twisted free and ran down stairs.

Schmah said he then yelled for the other SAE men to help chase the fleeing man. When they could not find him, Schmah called the police station.

Swisher and Swisher represented Eddy at the hearing, and Glenn Bowen, acting city attorney, represented the state.

INJURES HAND IN FAN
Caspar Gladfetter of West Liberty severely injured the fingers of his right hand yesterday when he caught them in an electric fan. He was taken to Mercy hospital for treatment.

Six Men Enlist, 21 Others Apply; Nine Former Servicemen

Six men enlisted and 21 others applied for enlistment in the armed services last week, Sgt. O. A. McClung, local recruiting officer, said yesterday.

Part of the increase in enlistment is caused by a preference to volunteer over being drafted, but many of the applicants wish to take advantage of the service trade schools, McClung said.

Nine of those who applied for enlistment are former servicemen who are exempt from the draft and wanted to attend trade schools, he added.

The six who enlisted have gone to Davenport for physical examinations. From Davenport they will be assigned to their chosen branches of service.

The men and their branches of service are Howard E. Shrader, 19, 1638 Morningside drive, air force; Howard W. Jensen, 18, route 6, air force; Donald G. Worrell, 19, Solon, army; Frank J. Ciek, 19, Solon, army; Vernon G. Sanders, 19, North English, army, and Keith I. McKinstry, 19, North English, army.

Personal Notes

Benedict O'Meara, Davenport, will visit Virginia Driscoll, A4, Williamsburg, this weekend.

The Rev. Harold F. McGee, pastor of the Trinity Episcopal church will leave today for Grand Haven, Mich., where he will join his wife at the home of her parents.

Marcia Masson, A3, Washington, Iowa, will spend the weekend at home.

Spending the weekend at home will be Sarah Lou Seifert, A4, Keokuk.

SUI Trades With England Physical Education Teachers Swap Posts For One Year; Other Changes

An English college and SUI will swap teachers for a year. A British teacher, Mary Feaver, will teach here, and an SUI instructor, Mary Ella Critz, will fill Miss Feaver's teaching position at an English college, beginning this fall.

Both are women's physical education teachers. Miss Feaver is an instructor at Bedford College of Physical Training, Bedford, England. Miss Critz has been an instructor in the women's physical education department here since 1945.

The English instructor will teach field hockey, English country dancing, tennis and gymnastics during her stay at SUI.

Prof. Elizabeth Halsey, head of women's physical education at SUI, said yesterday the exchange had been arranged by an American committee on interchange of teachers and a similar British committee.

Other changes in the staff of the women's physical education department were also reported by Miss Halsey.

Louise Roloff will replace Helen Poulsen as assistant professor of physical education. Miss Roloff will also serve as advisor to majors in recreational leadership. Miss Poulsen has accepted a position at San Francisco State college.

Miss Roloff received her bachelor of arts degree from the University of Colorado and her master of arts degree from New York University. She comes to SUI from the University of Wyoming, but she has also taught in public schools at Hayden, Col., at the University of Utah, and at Scripps college, Claremont, Calif. During the war she was with the American Red Cross recreational service in Alaska.

Marion Lafuze has been promoted from graduate assistant to instructor. She replaces Gail Hennis, who will teach at Wellesley college, Wellesley, Mass.

An Oshkosh, Wis., high school teacher, Margaret Elizabeth Everett, will replace Mrs. Wilma Kerr Smith, as an instructor. Mrs. Smith plans to teach in the Oshkosh elementary schools.

Miss Halsey also announced the resignation of Mrs. Gladys Ashton. In her place, a graduate assistant, Katherine MacDonald, has been appointed. Miss MacDonald has been teaching at Abbott academy, Andover, Mass.

Also appointed as graduate assistants were Charlotte Lambert, who will take Miss Lafuze's place, and Margaret Buck. Miss Lambert has been teaching at Evansville, Ind., and Miss Buck at Chisholm, Miss.

First Summer Concert Slated

The 92-piece summer session symphony orchestra will give its first performance next Wednesday evening in the main lounge of Iowa Union.

The concert, under the direction of Prof. Phillip Greeley Clapp, will open with Wagner's "March of Homage."

The second work will be Mozart's "Symphony Concertante in E Flat Major," for violin, viola and orchestra.

Soloists in this work will be Prof. Imre Waldbauer, who has headed the work in violin at the university since 1946, and Patricia Trachsel, viola. Miss Trachsel is a graduate of the university and has been a scholarship student at the Curtis Institute of Music in Philadelphia. At present, she is a member of the summer session faculty in the music department.

Following intermission, Gustav Holst's symphonic suite, "The Planets," for augmented orchestra and women's chorus, will conclude the program.

A women's double chorus of 45 members, specially trained by Prof. Herald Stark, will sing with the orchestra.

"The Planets" comprises several movements, each representing the mythological and symbolical attributes of the various planets.
