Western Diplomats Discuss New Berlin Moves

AIDORU SHAWA

BERLIN - Lively diplomatic activity in Western capitals today, considerable speculation was centered on the possibility of a total armistice in Berlin, which would denote the end of the Berlin Blockade as well as the end of the Berlin crisis.

Berliners remained calm but tense as reports from Western capitals indicated that the West might be preparing to lift the Berlin Blockade.

The Western capitals were speculating on the possibility of a total armistice in Berlin, which would denote the end of the Berlin Blockade as well as the end of the Berlin crisis.

Annual All-Star Contest Slated For Today

3 Sluggers, Newhouse Out of Action

By JACK HAND

ST. LOUIS (AP) - American League and National League teams were not without some of their stars as the All-Star game got under way tonight. For the American league, Vic Raschi, New York southpaw who had been stricken with the flu, was scratched. "I was so sick this morning that I couldn't even get out of bed," Raschi said in his dressing room. "I was covered with a towel and had a warm bath.

The Newhouse Sluggers refused to play tonight. Newhouse was removed from the starting line-up because of a sore finger on his left hand. When asked why he didn't want to play, Newhouse replied: "I don't want to risk it."

Mike Williams, who was one of the All-Stars, was hit by a ball in the first inning. He later returned to the game.

In 6 Round

PHILADELPHIA (AP) - Mike Williams returned his lightweight boneyard to life today with a fight that was more of a street brawl than a fight. Spence, the heavyweight champion, was knocked out in the second round.

The referee stopped the bout in the second round after the referee, William, went into a two-minute count. When Williams went down in the second round, the referee failed to get up and the bout was ruled a no-contest.
