

Thanks, But No 'Tanks'

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — The Broad Ripple American Legion post didn't figure with the generosity of the war department when it asked for a souvenir to decorate the lawn. The Legionnaires were hoping for some small weapon. But they got a 15-ton M-5 tank. And now they have to figure out how to get it from the freight yards to their post without ruining city streets.

Mundt Calls for Supplement To Clarify Monroe Doctrine

By CLETE WILEY

Calling for an "American doctrine" that "at least the secretary of state can understand," Rep. Karl Mundt (R-SD) addressed a summer session audience on the west approach to Old Capitol last night.

Mundt outlined six points in his American doctrine "to supplement the Monroe doctrine."

Six Drown as Car Topples into Ditch Filled with Water

NEW SHARON (AP) — Six farm girls were drowned yesterday when the car in which they were riding got too near the edge of a rock road east of here and rolled into a deep water-filled ditch.

Sheriff Dwight Mateer identified the girls as:

Helen Van Kampen, 16, daughter of Everett Van Kampen.

Geraldine McMahon, 15; Rowana McMahon, 14; Ila Ruth McMahon, 12 and Caroline McMahon, 6, all daughters of Gerald McMahon, a neighbor of Van Kampen.

Mona McMahon, 15, daughter of Donald McMahon and a cousin of the other McMahon girls.

Sheriff Mateer said the accident occurred only about a quarter of a mile from the Van Kampen farm home.

Miss Van Kampen was driving; the sheriff said, and had just picked up the other girls to take them to a 4-H club meeting.

The only survivor of the tragedy, Mateer said, was Iva May Van Kampen, 5, a sister of Helen.

Iva May got out the window of the car and told her brother, who was driving a tractor along the road, of the accident. They summoned Van Kampen and two neighbors, who got the girls' bodies out of the ditch.

The sheriff said the car apparently stalled and Miss Van Kampen, who was driving, backed up to get started again.

The edge of the road caved as the wheel got too near and the auto tumbled down the slope into the ditch. The car turned over three or four times, he said.

The water in the ditch was so deep that only about four inches of tire showed above the water. The water had collected in the ditch from recent heavy rains, the sheriff said.

Ousts Meyers From Army

WASHINGTON (AP) — Bennett E. Meyers, once an air force major general and now convicted in disgrace, was dismissed yesterday from the armed forces.

President Truman issued the order under a section of the articles of war which permits the President to dismiss any officer who has been in prison or penitentiary confinement for three months following conviction.

The ex-general went to jail, in the District of Columbia, four months ago Thursday.

Meyers was convicted last March by a federal jury of inducing a former business associate to lie under oath to a senate committee. The committee was investigating wartime aviation contracts held by a firm in which Meyers was financially interested.

Subsequently he was sentenced to serve 20 months to five years in prison.

The dismissal order was released by the White House without comment.

The former army air force officer previously had been stripped of his retirement pay as a major general. He also forfeited his decorations—the Distinguished Service medal and the Legion of Merit.

U. S. Steel Hikes Wages; Prices Next

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The giant U. S. Steel Corp. yesterday capitulated in its avowed fight against inflation by giving wage raises averaging 13 cents hourly and announcing price hikes soon would follow.

The wage boosts, ranging between 9 and one-half and 25 cents or about nine percent, went to some 170,000 CIO united steelworkers in "big steel's" producing subsidiaries. The union quickly ratified the increase, hailing it as a "great victory." U. S. Steel said comparative raises would be handed to about 100,000 salaried workers.

President Benjamin Fairless of the corporation admitted U. S. Steel's plan to stabilize the cost of living by pegging wages and cutting prices was abandoned. This intent was avowed last April when Fairless first rejected the union's wage demands and instituted price cuts on some items.

1. He called for a declaration by both major parties to "help those capable of direct resistance to aggressive moves." Our help before the Italian elections was one example, he said.

Mundt called such a program "the best bargain for peace ever seen." He said it would cost less over a period of 10 years than the first thirty minutes of the next war. The cost of failure would be so prodigious the items couldn't be calculated, he said.

2. Mundt praised our information program abroad. He asked that it be well financed and have an able director. He also backed the exchange of student personnel and included teachers and farmers in the exchange program. "Friendship can hold the lines of peace," he said.

3. Abandon remnants of the Morgenthau plan, Mundt demanded. They can wreck the peace, he said. Calling it a plan to keep 70 million farmers where there are no farms, he emphasized the need for integrating German industry with the rest of Europe. The Morgenthau plan for Germany was as improbable as prosperity in the United States without Pennsylvania, he said.

4. Mundt attacked the supplying of guns and other armaments to Russia and the dismantling of German war plants which, he said, were being taken to Russia. He emphasized Russian need for machine tools as "their big lack." Let us trade with the Russians, he said, but don't send them machine tools.

He stressed the Russian shortage of machine tools as one of the most important reasons for peace with Russia today.

Speaking of the pre-war sale of scrap metal to the Japanese, he said, the battleship South Dakota was scrapped, sold and shot back "to help kill South Dakota boys."

5. Clean out the traitors in our government, Mundt proposed. Five Communist saboteurs had been "caught cold" on the Aberdeen, Md., proving grounds, he said.

"Truman himself called for $25-million to weed out Communists," said Mundt, mentioning that he was soon to make a "reluctant visit" to see the President.

"Of course it would be unfair to ask how the Communists got into the government," he said and drew audience laughter.

6. In a "postscript," Mundt challenged anyone to testify to one single major victory for lasting peace accomplished by the UN.

With 24 other congressmen Mundt has prepared a measure, he said, directing a revamping and modification of the UN so it would no longer be "exclusively a Communist club."

"They cooked a doughnut and gave us the hole," the former Iowan said, referring to the Russian use of the UN.

In the UN, Mundt said, the Russians used tactics which should be familiar to a "Big-Ten school. They block and run with the ball; they veto and move in."

He objected to football tactics "by rascals who have never seen the game."

Mundt, a former speech teacher, used many gestures; gesticulating, frowning, pointing and hammering the rostrum to emphasize his points. He mentioned a friendship of "these many years" with SUT's Prof. Craig Baird of the speech department.

"Since I was invited to come here, things have transpired to make me more at ease about making a non-political speech," said Mundt. If he were to follow the president's non-political tour, "the sky in the ceiling," he said.

Referring to the title of his talk, "Today's Challenge to World Peace," Mundt said, "The challenge to peace is the challenge of Communism—thrown in the teeth of the world."

Capitol Stage Ready For Command Show

WASHINGTON (AP)—Capitol scene shifters set the stage yesterday for a command performance by congress. Nobody, however, was sure how the acts would run.

President Truman knows what he wants. He told the Democratic national convention all about it in his acceptance speech when he disclosed he is calling congress back. But the house and senate are made up of some 500 super-individualists with their own ideas. Some of these are strikingly different from Mr. Truman's.

Although nobody was taking the idea very seriously, there was some talk of adjourning congress as soon as it meets a week from Monday. Senator Olin Johnston (D-SC) plugged for this plan. He also worked for General Eisenhower and against President Truman at Philadelphia. A house Republican, Ben Jensen of Iowa, said he thought a quick adjournment might be the best move, although he didn't say he would make the motion personally.

Neither house can adjourn for more than three days without the consent of the other, under the constitution. Even if congress voted to quit, the President could call it right back again.

A ticklish situation might develop, however, if a majority of the members didn't show up for the opening. Then, under the rules, it would be up to the members present to compel the others to return. If they chose not to compel attendance, or couldn't do so, there wouldn't be much Mr. Truman could do.

The President presumably will lay down most of his program in a message on the opening day. There isn't any indication yet whether he will do so in person. But after those recommendations are presented, it's congress' ball on the five-months line.

The Republican steering committee will decide the order in which bills reach the floor. Those committees are not likely to confine their recommendations to legislation asked by the President. They may be expected, however, to clear one or more of the civil rights measures endorsed in the 1948 party platform, then stand back and watch the Democrats fight.

Asked whether he thought a man should be asked to state his political convictions before congress, or be cited for contempt, Mundt answered, "It has been held in several court cases to be a perfectly legitimate question."

"In South Dakota we must state our party before we can vote in the primaries," he said. "Before I can draw my pay as a member of congress, I have to state my party too," he added.

Mundt's bill, which died in the last congress, would have required the Communist party and organizations determined by the attorney general as "Communist fronts" to register their memberships and identify their printed material as coming from a Communist organization. It also would have prohibited individuals who are Communists or "may reasonably be determined as such" from seeking federal office. The bill also provided other regulations for Communist organizations and "fronts."

PLANE CRASHES IN SEA
HONG KONG (AP) — Cathay Pacific Airways reported this morning its Macao-Hong Kong Catalina plane crash landed in the South China sea with 23 passengers and four crewmen.

Last winter, the steel companies announced a series of price increases in various specialty products like tubing. In February, the major producers upped the price of semi-finished steel in average of about $5 a ton. That move touched off sharp criticism in congress and elsewhere.

The union statement, released by President Philip Murray, said the present contract with big steel is extended to April 30, 1950, with the union reserving the right to negotiate wages and social insurance in July of 1949. The union will have the "right to strike on these subjects at that time," Murray said.

NEW YORK (AP)—Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko left for Russia yesterday and said he hoped he would not return to this country.

As soon as Gromyko stepped aboard the liner Gripsholm he was surrounded by a pushing crowd of newsmen, photographers and onlookers. Visibly irritated, he snapped out several times, "I will not give an interview."

He finally consented to photographers' demands for a few pictures on the sun deck, and as he made his way along a corridor, he said to persisting newsmen: "Yes, I am glad to be going."

Asked if he expected to return, he retorted: "I hope not."

Jews, Arabs To Halt Fighting In Jerusalem

Communist Boss Togliatti Reported 'Holding His Own'

ROME (AP) — Oxygen and American-made penicillin were administered last night to Communist Boss Palmiro Togliatti. Doctors said he is holding his own.

Togliatti, shot Wednesday by a Sicilian assassin, developed pneumonia Thursday night, mostly in his right lung.

He had been reported weakening. His wife, Senator Rita Montagnana, and student-son, Aldo, hurried to his bedside for an hour's visit.

Dr. Pietro Valdoni, one of the three physicians attending Togliatti, was asked whether he thought the Communist leader had a chance to survive. He replied: "Yes, by all means."

Italy's seven-million member labor confederation, meanwhile, began to crack up over the ill-fated, 36-hour general strike which ended at noon.

Italy's anti-Communist labor leaders called for an autonomous union "free of all party influences."

They sent a stiffly-worded letter to the confederation's Communist dominated executive committee denouncing the strike as a violation of the confederation's constitution.

Their letter called for an "extraordinary national meeting of Christian Democrat union leaders" to create a "democratic and autonomous union . . . free of all party influences and operating in a way to reform the rights of labor."

Government workers in Padua and Treviso were reported to be demanding withdrawal from the leftist-led CGIL.

Plan Anti-Truman Move in Missouri

BIRMINGHAM (AP)—Revolting southern Democrats planned yesterday to take their battle for anti-Truman electors into the President's home state of Missouri and at least a dozen other states.

These moves were mapped at pre-convention caucuses yesterday by delegates to the states' rights meeting called by Gov. Fielding H. Wright of Mississippi.

Wright led the walkout of his state at the Philadelphia convention. A decision yesterday by the caucus on the Missouri move also included a plan to have states' rights electors on the ticket of Kentucky, home state of Senator Alben Barkley, the Philadelphia choice for vice-president.

Senator Eastland (D-Miss) predicted the man nominated here today would "carry more states than Mr. Truman."

Former Gov. Frank M. Dixon of Alabama last night was named temporary chairman for the convention.

At St. Louis, Gov. Ben Laney of Arkansas, on the way home from the Democratic national convention, decided to attend the states' rights meeting at Birmingham. He changed trains and headed for Alabama.

Asked if he would accept if nominated for president by the southern conference, he said "I don't care to answer that question at the moment."

Gromyko Departs — 'Glad To Be Going'

NEW YORK (AP)—Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko left for Russia yesterday and said he hoped he would not return to this country.

UN Cease-Fire for All Fronts Accepted by Jews; Arabs Quiet

CAIRO (AP)—Arabs and Jews agreed last night to stop fighting in the Holy City of Jerusalem.

It was reported officially in Amman, capital of Trans-Jordan, that the Arab league political committee had agreed to a cease-fire in the city effective at midnight, Greenwich mean time, (6 p. m. Iowa time) last night.

The Israeli government previously said it was prepared to accept a United Nations truce on all Palestine fronts and cease-fire in Jerusalem provided the Arabs did likewise. There was no word from the Arab league committee regarding a cessation of fighting in areas outside the Holy City. The committee is in session in Lebanon.

(Count Folke Bernadotte, UN mediator, leaves Lake Success by plane today for Rhodes, his headquarters. In a statement last night he said he sent messages to both sides notifying them of the 9 a. m. cease-fire order tomorrow for all Palestine fighting.)

(He also told them that at the start of the truce he would have no peace observer to help him. He asked the Jews and Arabs "to observe scrupulously both the spirit and the letter" of the armistice.)

Jewish troops captured Nazareth yesterday, the boyhood home of Christ, and northern stronghold of Fawzi Pasha Al Kaukji's Arab irregulars, an Israeli announcement said. It was taken following a steady Jewish advance on the city.

An Arab legion communique said a Jewish attack on Bab El Wad, on the important Jerusalem-Tel Aviv highway, was repulsed. It said the Jews left 87 dead on the battlefield.

Jewish aircraft bombed Egypt again yesterday attacking the El Arish air base near the Palestine frontier. The Israeli government also announced that new Egyptian air attacks were made on the Tel Aviv area. The Jews bombed Cairo for the first time Thursday night.

The sprawling Egyptian capital was ordered to begin a partial blackout as a precaution against further raids.

Arab and Jewish military commanders appeared to have begun a race against time in view of a possible new truce period. Arab forces using armored cars, tanks, planes and heavy artillery launched a strong counterattack on the northern front. The Syrian army was reported to have opened a heavy attack following a week-long defense against the Jewish offensive in that sector.

An Israeli communique said

many Arab civilians and soldiers were seen yesterday fleeing northward toward the Lebanese border from the Nazareth district.

Dr. Mary Godfrey To Treat Lepers On Hawaiian Isle

By JIM PLATT
An Iowa City woman doctor is going 4,000 miles to practice medicine in a leper colony.

She is Dr. Mary Beth Godfrey, 31, 630 Bowers street, a 1944 graduate of the SUI college of medicine.

Dr. Godfrey will spend one year in the Hawaiian islands as a staff physician at the Kalaupapa leper colony on Molokai. Founded in 1873 by the famed Belgian priest, Father Damien, the colony is known throughout the world.

A former member of the Oakdale sanatorium staff, Dr. Godfrey says her work among the lepers will be regular hospital practice, similar to that followed with tuberculosis patients.

"I feel the experience I have in a tuberculosis sanatorium will stand me in good stead in my new job," she said.

Asked about the possible risk of infection from treating leprosy patients, Dr. Godfrey said there was little danger.

She said that actual contact with infected persons, outside daily hospital routine, is avoided by strict segregation. Proper antiseptic measures and avoidance of personal contact reduces infection to a minimum.

Dr. Godfrey said real progress had been made in the treatment of leprosy.

"There is a drug called promin, the use of which has proven extremely effective," she said. "The old dosing with chaulmoogra oil is now considered of little value."

A large percentage of patients at Molokai are of oriental and Hawaiian extraction. Save for the fact that they may not leave the colony, they lead lives comparable to those in an average community.

Dr. Godfrey will be permitted frequent vacations from the colony. She plans to visit places of interest in the other islands.

Dr. Godfrey has been living at the home of her sister, Mrs. R. T. Tidrick. She will leave Iowa City by plane Monday. She plans to visit friends for a day in San Francisco, and will then proceed to Honolulu, arriving a day later.

Russ Slate Fighters For Berlin Flights; B-29's to Britain

BERLIN (AP) — The Russians announced yesterday their fighter planes would train in the air corridor used by the western powers to fly supplies to Berlin.

This came as the United States dispatched 60 B-29s — the plane that burned out Japan — to Britain on a "short" training mission.

The training trip greatly builds up U.S. air strength in the European area just when Russia is threatening to put the squeeze on western allied air travel in the Berlin corridors.

The Russians warned the Americans and British their fighters would go aloft from airfields at Koethen, Dalgow and Brandenburg, west and southwest of Berlin. U.S. operations men said the Russians told them the fighters will be flying between 7 a.m. and 7 p.m.

There seemed to be no doubt among American military men that the Russian announcement was another "harassing tactic."

They stressed that the Russian announcement was not affecting the air shuttle into the blockaded city.

There are 30 Superfortresses, one group, already in Germany. For several months, groups of B-29s have been rotated through Germany, flying over and back from the U.S. on training flights, with at least one group always on hand in Germany.

Meanwhile, the western military governments ordered that no vehicles carrying foodstuffs or fuel should go outside the western sectors of the city.

The airforce said 1,435 tons of supplies were brought into Berlin by American planes in 259 flights during the 24-hour period ended at 2 p.m. Food made up the bulk of the cargoes, but 36 big C-54s flew in 359 tons of coal.

First Marshall Aid Money to Iceland

WASHINGTON (AP) — The first Marshall plan loan was announced yesterday — $2.3-million — to Iceland to build up its fishing industry.

Economic Cooperation Administrator Paul G. Hoffman told the first meeting of ECA's advisory board that eight more loans totaling over $700-million are under negotiation for France, Italy, Denmark, The Netherlands, Dutch East Indies, Norway, Britain and Ireland.

Hoffman reported that outright grants to finance relief and recovery purchases here and overseas are rolling at the rate of more than $100-million a week. Up to yesterday, he said, the total outlay was $817-million.

New grants of another $28-million approved but not yet announced, are included in the total figure, he said.

Plan Huge Funeral For Gen. Pershing

WASHINGTON (AP)—A mighty military cortege will escort General Pershing to his grave in Arlington national cemetery Monday.

In it will be two elements symbolizing the long span of Pershing's military years — a cavalry horse like those he rode in the Indian wars, a flight of jet fighter planes used in this atomic age.

The army yesterday unrolled the plans for the funeral of the 87-year-old general of the armies and World War I commander, a ceremony equaled in latter years only by that of the burial of the unknown soldier in 1921.

At the grave will be many of the famous of this nation — President Truman, his cabinet, high ranking officers of the military service. The list of those asked to come to the funeral include Former President Hoover.

Following the casket caisson, to be drawn by six grey horses, will be the somber symbol of the dead cavalryman — a riderless black horse, its trappings black. In the stirrups, reversed with the toes pointing to the rear, will be a pair of cavalryman's black boots.

Phillies Dismiss Manager Ben Chapman

'Dusty Cooke' Temporary Successor

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Ben Chapman was dismissed as manager of the Philadelphia Phillies yesterday in a sudden move that caught the entire team by surprise. Coach Allen (Dusty) Cooke, Chapman's close friend for 20 years, was named as his temporary successor.

Club President R. M. Carpenter Jr. called Chapman into his hotel suite here to advise him that he was making the change. Afterward both said they were parting as good friends.

"I want to put the facts on the line," Carpenter told newsmen last night. "We have decided on a change. As a matter of fact, Ben and I decided between ourselves that a change might help."

Carpenter declined to give a more specific reason for his decision or to indicate whom he had in mind to take over as the permanent manager. He said Chapman would be paid his full salary for the remainder of the year.

Chapman called his coaches and players together and told them the news. He said the three coaches and eight of the players wept.

The 39-year-old Chapman said the change came as a complete surprise to him and that he did not quit. "I'm not a quitter," he said. "I was let out." He added, however, that "Mr. Carpenter is the best friend I've ever had in baseball, and I appreciate everything he has done for me."

Chapman, whose Phillies had lost seven straight games until Dutch Leonard pitched them to a 3-1 verdict over the St. Louis Cardinals Thursday night, had been manager of the club for more than three years. He succeeded Fred Fitzsimmons on June 30, 1945.

The Phils finished last season in a tie for seventh place. This year they climbed into fourth place for one day a few weeks ago but yesterday they were in seventh place, 11 lengths out of first place going into last night's game.

A former star outfielder for the New York Yankees, Chapman joined that club in 1930 in his first major league job. Later he was with the Washington Senators, the Boston Red Sox, and the Cleveland Indians.

Cooke, the Phil's new temporary manager, was hired as the club's trainer in January, 1946, at Chapman's suggestion. He was advanced to coach this year and has been coaching at first base.

Durocher Named Giants' New Manager

Burt Shotton Succeeds 'Lip' At Brooklyn

By HUGH FULLERTON
NEW YORK (AP) — In a move as startling as it was sudden, the New York Giants yesterday removed Melvin Ott, the Club's manager since 1942, and installed in his place swashbuckling Leo Durocher, who was released as pilot of the Brooklyn Dodgers to take the job.

The Dodgers, acquiescing in this unprecedented mid-season change of managers, recalled 63-year-old Burt (Barney) Shotton, their pennant winning leader last season, to replace Durocher.

The transaction, completed within a 24-hour period, took effect immediately with Shotton flying to Cincinnati to take over the Brooklyn club at Cincinnati yesterday afternoon and Durocher flying from New York to Pittsburgh to guide the Giants in a night game.

The quick change thus brought to an end the "McGraw era" of Giant management, for Ott was the last of the players who came to the Giants while John McGraw managed the club. At the same time it brought in an aggressive, noisy manager of the McGraw type.

Ott, who joined the club as a 16-year-old "boy wonder" in 1926 and never has been associated with any other team, will remain in the Giants' organization in an undetermined capacity, although he resigned as manager. He will serve out the term of his contract, which runs through 1950, after taking a brief vacation.

Durocher was hired for the remainder of the 1948 season and for 1949 under the exact terms called for in his Brooklyn contract. This was understood to give him a basic salary of $45,000 a year with additional amounts based on attendance figures.

In Cincinnati, where Brooklyn President Branch Rickey announced Durocher's resignation simultaneously with President Horace Stoneham's revelation of the Giant change, no mention was made of the terms of Shotton's contract.

Although the formal statements of the club presidents said the negotiations all had taken place since Wednesday noon, there were other indications that the deal had been brewing for several days and that, at least to some extent, Ott's resignation was given under pressure.

Durocher, who piloted the National league all-star team at St. Louis Tuesday, was sent by Rickey to Montreal to look over farm club material immediately afterward. His first intimation of the change, he said, was when he reached New York Thursday and was met by a Rickey emissary who told him to report to the Dodger president's office.

Stoneham and Durocher met to discuss terms last night and Durocher then went to Brooklyn to give Rickey his resignation.

The first suggestion that Ott would quit as Giant manager came about ten days ago when he and Stoneham met to discuss the plight of the club, which has been wallowing around in fourth and fifth place.

Asked what the club needed most to stay in the pennant race, Ott replied: "Maybe it is a new manager."

Yesterday when reporters asked Ott if his resignation was his own idea, Mel smiled wanly and replied "partly."

The reasons for Durocher's decision to change jobs remained secret. Loquacious Leo insisted that his relations with Brooklyn management had been the best but that he always had admired Ott, Stoneham and the Giant organization.

Dodgers Win for Shotton, 4-2

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Brooklyn Dodgers marked the return of Burt Shotton as manager yesterday by routing Ewell Blackwell and the Cincinnati Reds, 4-2.

Shotton, who piloted the Dodgers to the pennant last year, arrived 45 minutes before game time to take over the helm from Leo Durocher who resigned in order to take a similar post with the New York Giants.

Blackwell held the Dodgers to one hit for six innings but they reached him for a run in the seventh and drove him to cover in the eighth when they scored three times to win.

Joe Hatten opened for the Dodgers and the Reds nicked him for both their runs in the first frame when Bobby Adams singled and Grady Hatton homered.

Boston Nips Tigers, 5-3; Joe Dobson Wins 11th

BOSTON (AP) — The Boston Red Sox made it three in a row over the Detroit Tigers yesterday as Joe Dobson chalked up his 11th pitching win by a 5-3 margin. Junior Stephens ended the Boston scoring by poling his 18th homer into the left-center screen against relief pitcher Al Benton with none aboard in the eighth.

Tavern Men To Face Troff In Raid Case

Police Judge Emil Troff yesterday sent notices to two Johnson county tavern owners to appear in Iowa City police court Monday, July 26, at 5 p.m. for a hearing on seizure of property during a raid last Saturday.

The two taverns involved are the Happy Hour club, Shueyville, and Charlie's tavern, Tiffin.

Iowa law states that a hearing must be held to give the operators of each establishment a chance to show any reason why the property should not be forfeited, according to Judge Troff.

The property taken in the raid at the Happy Hour club included 11 punch boards, two slot machines, one box of slot machine parts, one quart of whiskey and 52 envelopes of joy-jar tickets.

From Charlie's tavern 31 quarts of liquor and one punch board were taken in the raid. Judge Troff released the statement of property seized yesterday.

The places were raided by state agents along with five other Johnson county taverns and night clubs because the "property was being illegally kept in the places of business."

The state men found liquor and slot machines in two taverns.

Worker Slightly Burned In Fire at Men's Shop

Richard Boeke, 4 E. Market street, suffered slight burns on both hands in a fire yesterday afternoon at the Men's Shop, 105 E. College street.

Boeke was removing paint in front of the store when rags saturated with naphtha gas burst into flames, according to firemen.

A nearby can of naphtha also caught fire and local firemen were called to extinguish the blaze.

Draftees Can Enlist For 21-Month Hitch In Regular Army

Draftees need not wait for induction if they want to enlist for the same period in the regular army.

A new directive allows qualified male applicants to enlist for 21 months, Sgt. O. A. McClung, local army recruiting officer, said yesterday.

One advantage of the new regulation is an early choice of enlistment date, rather than waiting until called to active duty, he said.

Under this program, the applicant must be between 19-25 years old, must have no previous regular army service, and must meet the usual army enlistment qualifications.

All enlistments will be for regular army unassigned, with no promise of assignment or geographical location.

After completion of 21 months service, the soldier is still subject to the Selective Service act of 1948, which requires further duty with a reserve unit.

The reserve obligation may be discharged if the soldier extends his enlistment period of active duty for one year.

By enlisting for three years at the outset, a man can choose his branch of service and the job he wants, McClung said.

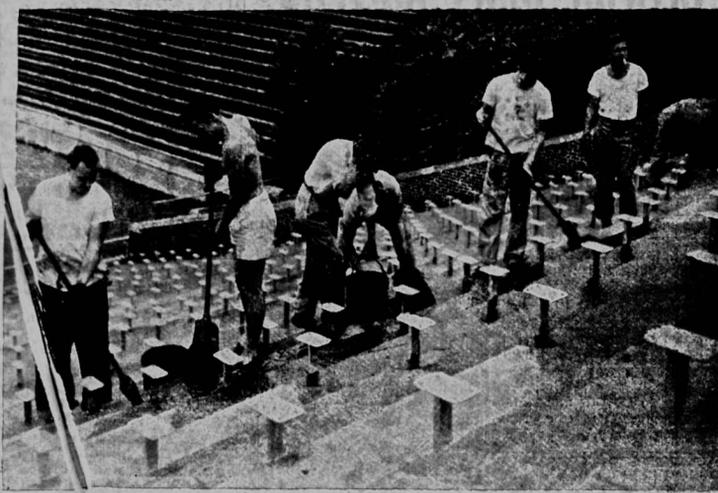

Navy Offers Opportunity To High School Grads

Chief Petty Officer Harry T. Irwin, navy recruiter here, announced yesterday that the navy still proposes to fill its manpower needs through the volunteer system.

"A young man who enlists in the Navy for three years completely discharges his citizen's obligation for military service in peacetime," Irwin said.

"Quotas for enlistment are still unlimited and special opportunities for training are open to high school graduates," Irwin said.

Asphalt 'Facial' Gives Iowa Stadium a 'New Look'

DIRTY PAN'S SWEAT AND STICKY BROOM HANDLES all go into the job of repairing and waterproofing the concrete tiers at SUI stadium, as workmen swab on an asphalt sealer. New seats will also be installed in this section. It was either the hot weather or a dislike for sticky pants that prompted one workman to shed his britches.

Splashed Posters on Lone Tree House; Daily Brothers Circus Sued for $750

A $750 damage suit against the Daily Brothers Circus for posting advertising on a Lone Tree building was filed yesterday in the Johnson county district court.

F. I. Blair, Iowa City, plaintiff in the action, claimed the circus entered Lone Tree between June 29 and July 6 and "injured and defaced a house by affixing to said house large and unsightly posters advertising defendant's circus."

Blair said the owner of the real estate assigned the claim to him. A writ of attachment against the defendant for treble damages in the sum of $750 was asked. Blair posted a $1,000 attachment bond. His surety was Margaret K. Troff, wife of Emil Troff, his attorney.

In another suit filed yesterday Nall Motors asked a $54.05 judgment from J. J. Rinella. The motor company said it has a bill against Rinella in the amount of its plea for repairs made to the defendants car in June, 1947. William R. Hart is attorney for the plaintiff.

Mary Pfothenauer Burial Rites Today

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Price Pfothenauer, 79, life-long Iowa City resident, will be held at 2 p.m. today at the Oathout Funeral chapel. The Rev. Russell Hunter of Chicago will officiate.

Mrs. Pfothenauer died at 4:45 a. m. yesterday at her home, 505 S. Van Buren street.

She was a graduate of Iowa City high school and of the university of Iowa.

Mrs. Pfothenauer was a life member of the state historical society, a member of the Unitarian church and of the DAR.

Her husband died Jan. 29, 1948. She left no survivors.

Burial will be in Oakland cemetery.

TO SPONSOR BREAKFAST

Members of the Newman club will sponsor a communion breakfast after the 9 o'clock Mass Sunday, the Rev. Leonard Brugman announced yesterday.

Michael Linnen and Betty Nolan are co-chairman. The breakfast will be served in the Catholic student center, 108 McLean street.

Arraign 18 Persons In Rath Incident

WATERLOO (AP) — Eighteen persons were arraigned in district court here yesterday afternoon on grand jury indictments growing out of last spring's meat strike at the Rath packing plant.

Fred Lee Roberts, 55, Dunkerton, Ia., pleaded innocent to a charge of manslaughter before Judge Shannon B. Charlton, who set his bond at $2,000. The manslaughter indictment was returned in connection with the death of William Farrell, a union picket, during a riot at the plant.

The grand jury indicted 23 others, but six have not yet been arrested.

Academy Alumni To Picnic in Park

Alumni and former students of the Iowa City academy will attend a picnic in the City park shelter house at 12:30 p.m. tomorrow, according to Mrs. Mary Lawyer, former student of the academy.

Everyone who was affiliated with the academy is urged to come and bring their friends and families, Mrs. Lawyer said.

She asked former students to bring old school pictures. Coffee will be served, but Mrs. Lawyer asks those attending to bring their own food and table service.

Anyone wanting more information can contact Mrs. Lawyer at 5222.

Three University Artists Receive Denver Awards

Three SUI artists received awards recently in the Denver art museum's 54th annual exhibition, the art department said yesterday.

John Schulze, G. Emporia, Kan., won a purchase award for his print, "Fighting Cocks."

Honorable mention was given to Prof. Ulfejt Wilke, Iowa City, for a watercolor and to Dale Ballantyne, G. Iowa City, for a print.

Couldn't Hear Warnings; Deaf Man Shot in Head

SEABROOK, N.H. (AP) — A deaf man, who Sheriff Simes Frink said could not hear shouted warnings, was critically shot early yesterday when he attempted to enter a local dwelling.

Forrest Marshall, the householder, related he fired through a door after repeated warnings he would shoot were ignored.

Samuel Fowler, Jr., suffering from a bullet wound in the right lung, was rushed to a Newburyport, Mass., hospital.

Section of Stadium To Get New Seats

New seats will soon be installed in the two sections over each of the dressing rooms on the east side of the stadium, according to R. J. Phillips, superintendent of physical plant.

At present, workmen are busy applying a sealer coat to the concrete tiers in those sections. Finishers will soon apply an asphalt mixture to repair and waterproof the concrete, Phillips said.

The university has received a carload of lumber and will put in new seats in the four sections. If there is any lumber remaining, other sections will also receive new seats. The good lumber from the seats that have been torn out will be used to repair the other seats in the stadium, Phillips said.

NBC Network To Air SUI Symphony Concert

The SUI symphony orchestra will be heard over NBC network Saturday, July 24, from 1:30 to 2 p.m., according to Earl E. Harper, director of the university school of fine arts.

The orchestra, directed by Prof. Philip G. Clapp, will feature "Symphony in E Minor" by Richard Hergiv, university music instructor. The concert will be aired from the north hall of the music building.

Boys Donate 18 Cents, Boost Pool Fund

Donations of 8 cents and 10 cents from two small boys helped the swimming pool fund climb $109.10 yesterday to a $7,983.10 total, the Community Dads, sponsors of the fund drive, announced.

Included in yesterday's addition was $69.10 from the PTA-sponsored residential drive and $40 from the business district. Totals for the various divisions as announced yesterday include $1,975.37 from the residential drive, $2,812.73 from the business district canvass, $3,160 from the lodges and $35 from Coralville.

The Community Dads had a sound-truck on the corner of Washington and Dubuque streets yesterday announcing the drive and accepting donations.

Great American Episodes On the Air

Thornton Broadcasts History Highlights

BROADCASTING "GREAT EPISODES in American History" over a WSUI microphone, H. J. Thornton, professor of history, uses no script. Thornton broadcasts his commentary each Wednesday evening and humanizes his material so as to make his talks on history more interesting to a general radio audience.

"The story of the human journey through time and space," is how H. J. Thornton, professor of history, describes his chosen work. Thornton tells the story, "Great Episodes in American History," which is heard each Wednesday night over WSUI.

He has selected for discussion what he calls the highlights of American history, beginning with the "first discovery" of America by Asiatic tribes.

Dealing with one historical episode each week, Thornton's talks are designed to appeal to a general audience. He uses no script and he speaks in an easy, story-telling style.

The professor makes a distinction between his radio program and his classroom lectures. "When I prepare the radio talks," he said, "I keep in mind that the listener isn't interested in details of scholarship."

History "Alive"

Thornton feels that history is "alive, vibrant and fascinating." He said that the reason some people think history is dull is because of dull textbooks and poor teaching methods.

He tries to make his narrative more vivid by discussing, among other things, personal aspects of the lives of people in history; that is, by humanizing the material.

"In describing Christopher Columbus," he related in reference to one of his recent broadcasts, "I tried to recreate his character, and the difficulties and grandeur of his work."

In this broadcast, the professor read in part from a personal letter written by Columbus, which told of his voyages and experiences.

Thornton plans to trace the growth of American history through the colonial period, which will conclude his current summer series. He said he expected to reconstruct in some detail the life and customs of the early colonists.

"Power Over Words"

In the opinion of John Highlander, WSUI's program director, "Professor Thornton has a power over words that can make anything seem alive and interesting."

The program director said that Thornton was reluctant to begin the new series because he thought, "People are tired of listening to me."

But Highlander thought otherwise. "Professor Thornton has a large, ready-made audience whenever he wants it," he said.
