Iowa GOP Chooses Synhorst As State Secretary Candidate

DES MOINES (AP)—Melvin D. Synhorst of Orange City, 42-year-old World War II veteran, yesterday won the Republican nomination for secretary of state at the party's state convention. A quick swing of three of the seven candidates to the Synhorst bandwagon soon after the second ballot started gave him the nomination over Mrs. Helen Mitchell, 52, of Council Bluffs. The vote was Synhorst 2,400, Mrs. Mitchell 955.

Killing Spree Halted As Ohio Police Trap Young Murder Team

VAN WERT, OHIO (AP)—Leaving seven murder victims in their wake during a 14-day killing spree, two 22-year-old reformatory parolees reached the end of the trail yesterday. One, fighting it out to the last, was shot between the eyes and killed by a police officer at a road block near here. The other, whimpering, gave up without a struggle. Their death toll—five men and two women.

Partner Killed

Killed in the final gunfight was John Coulter West, former Parkersburg, W. Va., youth, slain by Sgt. L. D. Conn, 42, Van Wert policeman. Conn, seriously wounded by a slug in his chest, killed West while laying in the middle of the highway.

Captured was Robert M. Daniels of Columbus, who gave up to Sheriff Roy Shaffer of Van Wert county without lifting a finger, ignoring a rifle and two pistols which lay on an automobile seat beside him.

Murder Charges

Prosecutor Theodore Lutz of Richland county said first degree murder charges would be filed at Mansfield today against Daniels for killing John E. Niebel, Mansfield reformatory farm superintendent, his wife and daughter.

Apparently an understanding had been reached that other counties would waive their claim to the prisoner and that he would be turned over to Richland county, site of the reformatory.

Daniels was transferred to the Mercer county jail at Celina, about 25 miles south of here, last night.

Seventh Slaying

The two desperadoes were captured only a few hours after the seventh of their slayings, and their second of Thursday night and early yesterday. At Tiffin, 85 miles east, they had killed Orville Taylor, 28, of Niles, Mich., to obtain his driveway truck, loaded with four Studebaker cars, in an attempt to sneak through an ever-tightening noose of law enforcement officers looped over northern Ohio.

Only a couple of hours earlier they had slain a 25-year-old Tiffin farmer, James Smith, as he sat beside his young wife in their car.

Killed for License

The husband, en route home with his wife after an evening at an ice cream parlor, was killed when he objected to the men taking his driver's license.

The two-week manhunt ended as the driveway, with West at the wheel and Daniels in one of the four cars on the trailer, pulled up to the road block. Sheriff Shaffer, Conn "covering" him with a sub-machine-gun, asked West if he had any passengers.

West said he didn't have, but the sheriff told him to wait anyway. As Shaffer discovered Daniels crouched in the car, West came out of the cab shooting.

Wounded Two

He wounded Sgt. Conn and County Game Protector Frank A. Friemoth, 55, before Conn's bullet felled him.

Daniels, although he had three weapons beside him, put up his hands and crawled out.

Sheriff Shaffer said Daniels admitted participation in five of the seven killings for which the pair had been sought in Ohio's most far-flung man hunt. He declined to sign a confession, the sheriff said, but admitted he was in on the triple killing of Farm Supt. John E. Niebel of the Mansfield reformatory, with his wife and 21-year-old daughter last Wednesday; the Earl C. Ambrose slaying in Columbus, July 10, and last night's slaying of Taylor. The sheriff said he did not question him about the Smith killing, and the July 10 slaying of Frank Krech of Flat Rock, Mich., because he (the sheriff) did not know about them.

GOP Candidates for Iowa State Secretary

THE WINNER FROM THIS GROUP OF CANDIDATES for the GOP nomination for the Iowa secretary of state was M. D. Synhorst of Orange City second from left, standing. The 34-year-old World War II veteran was picked by state Republicans on the second ballot at their convention in Des Moines yesterday. The women candidates above are Mrs. Earl G. Miller (left) and Mrs. Helen Mitchell. Mrs. Mitchell was runner-up to Synhorst. Standing (from left) are Richard Mason, Synhorst, Jesse Halden and George W. Prichard. Charles J. Knickerbocker, another candidate, is missing from the picture. The state secretary nominee was picked by the convention because no candidate received 35 percent of the vote in the June Primary.

Highway Crashes Injure 6 Persons

Mrs. William Wilkins, 60, West Liberty, was in serious condition at University hospitals last night after a two-car collision yesterday on Highway 6, seven miles east of Iowa City.

Four other persons, injured in the collision, were held under observation at the hospital. They are Dr. Ben Gelfand, 38, Mrs. Gelfand, 31, and Susan, 7, and Mrs. Wilkins' husband, 79. They were in satisfactory condition.

Mrs. Wilkins received a broken arm and was pinned in the wreckage. Her husband was badly cut. Mrs. Gelfand suffered face lacerations, her husband was badly bruised and Susan's knee was injured.

Cause of the accident was not known. The Gelfands were taking their daughter to children's hospital here and the Wilkins were going to West Liberty.

Another accident yesterday occurred four miles west of Iowa City on Highway 6 about 5:20 p.m.

Phillip Kendall, 227 E. Washington street, was treated for cuts and bruises and released from University hospitals.

A passenger in the car, William Fry, Iowa City, was uninjured.

According to a witness, the Kendall car was passing another car, hit the shoulder on the left side of the highway, swerved across the road and went into the ditch on the right side of the road. The car rolled on its top and bounced twice, sliding about 100 feet in the ditch.

Captured After 14-Day Killing Spree

WITH A TRAIL OF SEVEN MURDER VICTIMS behind him, 22-year-old Robert Murl Daniels (left) was captured yesterday by Ohio police after an extensive, 14-day manhunt. Daniels' companion, John C. West, chose to fight it out with police when the two were apprehended trying to get past a roadblock. But a bullet between the eyes killed him outright. Daniels admitted the pair had participated in seven killings in the last two weeks.

Catholic-Protestant Disunity 'Scandalous,' Minister Says

Russia and the United States cooperate better than Catholics and Protestants, Dr. Joseph Fort Newton, writer and preacher, told a summer session audience on the west approach to Old Capitol last night.

Speaking at the final summer lecture, Newton called Catholic-Protestant disunity "the standing scandal of the Christian world."

If we work as hard at spiritual progress as we have at scientific advances, a united Christianity can save our civilization just as the Roman church saved civilization when the Roman empire collapsed, he said.

Giving an example of what sheer spirit power could do, he numbered the 400 million liberated through "the prayer, fasting, and one spinning wheel" of Mahatma Gandhi.

"A new date in the history of Christian enterprise" was seen by the minister in next month's meeting of the federal council of churches at Amsterdam.

The conference, he believed, aims to bring about closer unity — not uniformity — among the churches of the world.

Turning to his topic of "Education for World Citizenship," the clergyman said, "A man is very imperfectly educated unless he has gained some ideals beyond personal success." The idea of personal success is not enough, he said.

Every man and woman ought to be a politician and work at it, said Dr. Newton. He protested the type of citizenship that shirks its responsibility. Little more than half of our 90 million voters use the polls, he said.

Education must teach the new generation to think in terms of one humanity, he said, adding that if education fails to do that it fails in all.

Ku Klux Klan Takes 700 Into Membership

STONE MOUNTAIN, GA. (AP)—The invisible empire of the Ku Klux Klan last night granted "citizenship" to some 700 "aliens" on a green field near Stone Mountain.

The eerie scene was lighted by a huge cross, flickering summer lightning and the red glare of railroad fuses.

Gov't Price Index Hits All-Time Peak

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government's cost of living index has reached the highest point in history.

In cold figures, the bureau of labor statistics summed up the hottest issue for Americans today: The cost of goods and services bought by families of moderate income in large cities on June 15 hit 171.7 percent of the 1935-39 average. This compared with 129.3 percent at the end of World War II.

Worse apparently was yet to come, for the wholesale price average last Saturday set new records. It stood at 168.9 percent of the 1926 average compared with the previous record of 167 percent in 1920. These wholesale price increases have yet to show up in the retail price index.

Mr. Truman is to give congress his ideas of how to handle the situation next Tuesday. What plans are in detail, and whether congress will regard them as workable, is not known.

Howard speaks And then in the keynote address, a man of different race from most of those gathered in this auditorium, offered this thought to his listeners: "The plain fact that I stand here before you tonight defines our party."

"For the first time in my life I am experiencing human dignity." At stake, Howard said, is the survival of civilization. Yet, he went on: "I say—that we of no party say—that there is no difference between the United States and the Soviet union too big to be settled at the conference table. And we say that the last best hope of earth is the belief that human beings can join together to prevent their destruction."

The new bill would raise the number of displaced persons who could be admitted to this country from 202,000 in two years to approximately 402,000 in four years.

Truman's DP Bill Set for Submission

WASHINGTON (AP)—The White House announced last night that President Truman has completed work on proposed legislation designed to admit 402,000 displaced persons into the United States during the next four years.

The President will submit the bill to congress next week in the form of an amendment to the recently enacted displaced persons law.

The new bill would raise the number of displaced persons who could be admitted to this country from 202,000 in two years to approximately 402,000 in four years.

Third Party Says Choice Is Between 'Wallace Or War'

Des Moines Man Makes Keynote Talk

CONVENTION HALL, PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A fervent called the "Progressive" party — marched into national convention last night beckoning to America's "plain people" to choose between "Wallace or war."

Today, the convention nominates Henry A. Wallace for President, Senator Glen Taylor for vice-president.

Last night, Keynote Speaker Charles P. Howard laid down the Wallace-or-war choice as what this party sees for the future.

The 54-year Des Moines lawyer and publisher, a Negro with 30 years of allegiance to the GOP, cried out to Americans everywhere to accept the challenge of new political frontiers.

New Trails

"The new trails await us," he said. "The frontier awaits us. The rebirth of this nation awaits our coming. And we are on the march."

With equal impartiality and force, Howard waded into what he called: "The party of the mechanical smile or the Missouri compromise," a congress whose "order of the day was kill, kill, kill" for civil rights laws and a president — Mr. Truman — who has "been long on say-so and short on do-so."

Wallace himself listened in and looked on with a television set in his headquarters at the Bellevue-Stratford hotel.

Song and Oratory

Tonight's convention program was mostly one of song and oratory and routine business.

The opening speaker was Elmer A. Benson, former governor of Minnesota, in his role of chairman of the national Wallace for President club.

He held out the hand of welcome to the "plain people" and also told the delegates: "You can have peace or war, but it will have to be one or the other."

"These are the alternatives which this new party will place before the American people. Without this party there are no alternatives. There are only military budgets, young men in uniform, and war."

Howard Speaks

And then in the keynote address, a man of different race from most of those gathered in this auditorium, offered this thought to his listeners: "The plain fact that I stand here before you tonight defines our party."

"For the first time in my life I am experiencing human dignity." At stake, Howard said, is the survival of civilization. ## Crime Detection Couldn't Pay

TOYKO (AP)—A slender Japanese youth walked confidently into the attorney general's finance office and asked for the payroll of the crime detection division.

An official handed the youth the equivalent of $1,607. The youth calmly signed a receipt, wrapped the money carefully, stuck the bundle under his arm and sauntered out.

A few minutes later, the real payroll clerk appeared.

Wallace, Press Clash In News Conference

By ROSALIE HALPERN

PHILADELPHIA — An afternoon press conference yesterday almost became a losing quiz for Henry Wallace, as the third party presidential candidate outlined his views on "progressive capitalism" and foreign and domestic affairs.

Wallace tangled with reporters over his alleged authorship of the mystical Guru letters that Westbrook Pegler has charged him with writing to the dead leader of an oriental cult. Questioned about them repeatedly, Wallace would only reply, "I will not discuss anything about, or with Westbrook Pegler. I will answer the question in my own way at my own time."

Before the conference was thrown open to questions, Wallace made a statement regarding Communist support of the third party in an attempt to shut out further discussion of that issue.

"No matter how hard you try, you will not get me to engage in any Red-baiting, and no matter how hard you try, you will not be able to make me out a Communist," Wallace said.

"According to the newspapers, I am getting a lot of Communist support. I will not repudiate any support that comes to me on the basis of an interest in peace."

Wallace declared he would try to make the new party seem "as homelike as possible" to the Americans for Democratic Action leaders and that he wouldn't let them "come in to break up the furniture."

On domestic affairs, Wallace differed from the proposed platform drafted on Thursday. That platform had called for nationalization of the banks, basic industries and public utilities.

Wallace said he favored some government control over the banks rather than outright nationalization.

He claimed the present foreign policy was heading the country into a "depression worse than the one of 1932," and wanted sufficient check on the big banks to prevent them "precipitating us into another depression."

Wallace did advocate nationalization of public utilities and the coal industry, but said the advisability of doing the same with steel was questionable.

"I believe in eating, but not everything at once," he said.

Wallace declared that if he were in the White House he would immediately end segregation in the armed forces by executive order and push for the revival of OPA.

Berlin Air Supply Will Be Increased, U.S. General Says

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States soon will double the capacity of the airplane fleet carrying supplies to beleaguered Berlin, General Lucius D. Clay announced yesterday.

He expects this to increase the chances for a peaceful settlement of the crisis by convincing the Russians that the western powers cannot be blockaded out of the city.

The American military governor in Germany revealed the dramatic "air lift" expansion program at a news conference at the Pentagon building. Later the airforce announced that it will start putting the program into effect next week.

Early last night Secretary of State Marshall dispatched one of his top Russian experts, Charles E. Bohlen, to London where he will confer with Ambassador Lewis Douglas and possibly British and French officials on the next joint moves by the western powers in the Berlin crisis.

The first of these scheduled moves is the drafting of a new note to Moscow demanding the end of the Berlin blockade.

Clay's disclosure topped off two days of high speed conferences during which he assured President Truman, congress leaders and finally the American people that he does not expect the Berlin crisis to result in war.

Last night Clay was winging across the Atlantic, hurrying back to his post.

Flyer Wanted for UN 'Bombing' Surrenders

NEW HAVEN, CONN. (AP)—The ex-army flier who dropped a missile near United Nations headquarters surrendered yesterday and said he was anxious to return to Lake Success to "finish my fight for world peace."

With the same dramatic suddenness with which he appeared over Lake Success Thursday, the 36-year-old Ashford, Conn., flier, Stephen J. Supina, walked into the newsroom of the New Haven Register, identified himself and suggested that he be turned over to the police.

Supina produced his pilot's license to identify himself to the skeptical and startled Register men. Later, Detective Captain Raymond J. Eagan said there was no question that the Register's visitor was the flier who dived at the UN headquarters and, loosed the missile which exploded harmlessly in mid-air.

Supina, relatives reported, had been worried about a new war.

To members of the Register staff, City Editor Charles T. McQueeny said, Supina asserted he had dropped the missile to "make them here and abroad look to the United Nation for lasting peace."

Two New Haven detectives, summoned by McQueeny at Supina's suggestion, picked up the flier and took him to headquarters. There he was booked on a charge of being a fugitive.

Captain Eagan said Supina had quickly agreed to waive extradition. In New York, Inspector Stuyvesant Pinnell, chief of Nassau county detectives, said the flier would be taken to New York today to face a charge of illegally possessing explosives likely to cause injuries.

Supina, who fought in World War II as a B-17 turret gunner, was fearless when he walked into the Register building.

The flier related that after landing the plane at La Guardia field, he stayed nearby for about an hour expecting to be picked up.

When he remained unmolested, he said, he boarded a bus in New York for Hartford where he spent the night in a hotel.

Supina said he was on his way back to New York to surrender when lack of funds forced him to stop in New Haven.

Before Supina gave himself up, Nassau county police announced that besides the missile, Supina had dropped a plea for peace near the UN headquarters. The plea, said Captain H. M. Demott, was written on Supina's army discharge papers.

The text of the plea, written in red ink and enclosed in an envelope addressed to the UN general assembly, was not disclosed.

The flier, who runs a diner, gave himself up just 24 hours after a plane swooped toward the UN building in a long dive, circled twice and then loosed a white, long object.

The missile exploded near the ground about 400 feet from the entrance of the main UN building.

Supina flew to Lake Success from the Windham airport, near his home, where he was taking a GI flying course. An official of Allied aviation, owner of the plane, said Supina was instructed to fly close to the field.

E. Gould, Higley Upset Seeded Net Stars

Aces Stun Millikan, Fay Dunn; Hainline Trims Russler, 6-2, 8-6

By ED PERSELLIN
Ed Gould, top Minneapolis junior netster, and Iowa City's surprising Bruce Higley came through with brilliant victories here yesterday in the Central States tennis tourney.

The two youngsters convincingly crushed two seeded players to stun the large gallery watching the tourney's second day of play.

The steady Gould invaded the men's division to out-rush and outplay eighth seeded Dr. Clark Millikan of Iowa City, 6-2, 6-3. Higley knocked off Des Moines' ace men's player, Fay Dunn, 6-4, 6-1.

With coolness and preciseness that both surprised and pleased his audience, Gould hammered away at the favored Millikan's game until he met success. The Minneapolis whiz skidded from one side of the court to the other returning unbelievable shots.

Gould breezed through to a 5-0 lead in the first set before Millikan could notch a game victory. Then the Iowa Citian showed some of his old form to grab two straight games before Gould settled down and snuffed out the fire.

In the second and final set, it was Gould all the way despite a few and scattered moments when he faltered in long volleys. The little Minnesotan didn't have to bother with corner shots or hard drives. He played down the middle almost monotonously and seldom did he make a mistake.

Gould's game was, by far, the most outstanding bit of high-class tennis that this writer has seen in a long time.

The veteran Millikan was good throughout but his "good game" just wasn't enough to halt Gould. Higley, prospective University of Iowa varsity material, has sixth-seeded Dunn's number from the start. But in the first 6-0 set, it was obvious that Dunn helped beat himself. The Des Moines player tightened up to such a degree that was not capable of matching Higley's high-powered attack.

Higley was behind once in the entire match. He dropped the first game of the second set but bounced right back to grab two straight and a 3-1 lead.

Dunn then came to life momentarily to grab a game on his own service, a powerful service—when he got it to work. The two battlers traded games and Dunn had a chance when he knotted the tally at four-all.

But sensing a quick victory, the improving Higley cracked Dunn's serves to get a 5-4 margin and the rest was easy.

Defending men's champ Dick Hainline, of Rock Island, bumped into his first bit of competition in the tourney. And, despite brief moments of championship play, Mr. Hainline definitely did not look like the player who easily garnered the 1947 crown.

Hainline tripped up Dorne Russler of Moline, 6-2, 8-6 in two sparkling sets. Although out of condition, the ex-Iowa varsity star barely got warmed up in the first set. But the second set was a different story.

Russler's booming service was his big asset and he used it well to come from behind to knot the score at 4-all. It was nip and tuck until the fourteenth game when Hainline showed a few reasons why he is so feared in the mid-west tennis circles. And then, Mr. Russler didn't have a ghost of a chance.

Thursday's star, Mike Trueblood, fell yesterday and he fell hard. The fighting Hawkeye netster played three different matches in a space of five hours and the pace took its toll.

After rolling over Harold Long, 6-3, 6-3, in men's second round play, Trueblood battled the Iowa prep champ, Norman Barnes, for two grueling junior sets before bowing, 6-4, 10-8.

After those two contests, Bill Miller, number three men's competitor, had little trouble grinding out Trueblood's last hopes of tournament glory with a fast 6-2, 6-3 win.

Iowa City's last remaining seeded stars, Ken Cline and Ken Donelson, both came through with singles victories to advance to further competition.

Today's highly-rated matches get under way at 9:30 this morning. Two junior singles matches and fourth-round men's niggles play will open the day's long trek to tomorrow's end of the rainbow—those shining trophies.

Olympic Door Closed to Israel

Ris Tops 50-Meter Record in Workout

LONDON (AP)—The international Olympic ruling body closed the door of the games yesterday on the new state of Israel, thereby halting the threat of a walkout by the Arab nations.

This was done by rejecting the appeal of Israeli sports organizations to take over the invitation previously sent to the now obsolete Palestine Olympic committee.

The action cut the number of participating nations to 61—still a record. Of the 5,000 athletes due to parade in the opening ceremonies next Thursday before the king and queen of England and a crowd of 83,000 at Wembley, about half are on hand and training hard.

Israel had planned finally to send only two women athletes to London because its 50 male athletes are in Israel's army.

The international Olympic committee ruled against Israel because the new state is not yet a member of the organization. Egyptians said if Israel had been recognized, the Arab nations would refuse to compete.

Athletes in vari-colored uniforms jostled each other on practice tracks and fields, splashed in the big Wembley pool, and shook off the effects of train and ocean travel.

The American swimmers dazzled spectators and foreign coaches at the Wembley pool with their speed—and with the beauty of the girls, who turned out in a rain-bow of silk and satin suits. They'll have to put on somber black for competition, though. That's one of the rules.

Wally Ris of Iowa churned 50 meters and one bystander caught him in 24.8 seconds as compared to the world record of 25.2. Coach Bob Hiphuth can't work up much enthusiasm, however, when he considers the prospects.

The bogy man of the swimming world is the mighty, rolly-poly French youth, Alex Jany, who conceivably could win all three free style races—100, 400 and 1,500 meters.

Bums Win Again, 4-3;

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The fast-stepping Brooklyn Dodgers maintained their second-place position in the National league last night by defeating the Pittsburgh Pirates, 4-3.

Defending champion E. J. (Butch) Harrison, Little Rock, Ark., and Johnny Palmer, Badin, N.C., who were tied for the lead with Munday and Haas after the first 18 holes, slipped slightly but still were in position to have plenty to say about the $2,500 first prize.

Another stroke off the pace was Palmer, former tail gunner in the U.S. air force, who with South African Bobby Locke, short shot Keiser, Springfield, Mo., and Pete Cooper, Ponte Verda, Fla., had 135.

Bosox Beat Chicago, 13-1 for 9th Straight; Doerr Shines

BOSTON (AP)—With slugger Ted Williams back in the lineup after missing 15 games, the Boston Red Sox won their ninth straight start with a 13-1 decision over the Chicago White Sox yesterday to pull within a game and a half of the top-place Cleveland Indians.

Those American league leaders come here today for a three-game series.

Lefty Mickey Harris pitched a five-hitter as the Red Sox made a five-game sweep. The lowly Sox escaped a shutout in the fourth inning when Luke Appling walked and Pat Seery and Mike Tresh singled.

Williams, showing but little sign of the torn rib cartilage that sidelined him, got two hits out of four tries, including a seventh-inning two-bagger with the bases loaded.

Bobby Doerr, however, won the individual batting honors by banging out his 18th homer of the season, against Ike Pearson in the eighth, as well as a double and a single.

The Red Sox pounded three Chicago pitchers for 13 hits that totaled 19 bases.

Hughes, Ferentz in Public Links Finals

ATLANTA (AP)—Ben Hughes of Portland, Ore., defeated Oliver Kay of Toledo, Ohio, 4 and 3, and Mike Ferentz of Long Beach, Cal., defeated Charley Barnes of Atlanta, 2 and 1, yesterday in the semi-finals of the National Public Links golf tournament.

The Hughes-Kay match was a contrast between the veteran Hughes, an accountant in private life, and the newcomer, Kay, a member of the University of Miami (Florida) golf team.

After completing this morning's 18 holes with a 4-up lead over Kay, Hughes' victory was never in doubt.

Jansen Gets 12th Victory; Beats Cubs

CHICAGO (AP)—Provided with a two run working margin in the first inning, Larry Jansen went on to pitch the New York Giants to a 5-0 five-hit triumph over the Chicago Cubs yesterday.

Johnny Mize started Jansen on the road to his 12th victory by slamming his 23rd homer with Bill Rigney aboard in the opening session. The circuit drive was the 280th of Mize's major league career.

The Giants picked up another marker in the second inning on a walk, fielder's choice, error and single by Rigney.

Errors by Gene Mauch and Dick Culler aided the Giants in scoring their fourth run in the eighth. The Giants scored their final run in the ninth off Hank Borowy when Bob Thomson doubled and rode home on Buddy Kerr's one-bagger to night.

Jansen had little trouble in checking the Cubs.

Redbirds Blast Sain; Al Brazle Wins 7th

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals bombarded Johnny Sain and Nels Potter for fifteen base blows last night as they downed the league-leading Boston Braves 7-5, before 20,000 fans. Although hit freely, Al Brazle went the route to post his seventh victory.

A four-run third inning, which sent Sain to the showers, iced the games for the Cards. A wild throw by Al Dark permitted one run to score and put two base runners in position to count on a single by Nippy Jones. An infield hit by Ralph Lapointe brought in the fourth run after Potter had relieved Sain, who was handed his eighth defeat against 12 victories.

Potter then blanked the Redbirds until the eighth when a trio of singles by Lapointe, Marty Marion and Stan Musial accounted for their final run. All the Redbird hits were singles except for a harmless double by Musial.

Dark accounted for four of the 12 hits given up by Brazle.

Hawklets Blank Franklin

Council Approves New Budget Raise Millage Tax 3.65 Mills

Iowa City property taxes will increase 3.65 mills for the 1949-50 fiscal year, according to the proposed city budget passed by the city council last night.

The millage rate will be advanced to 26.64 mills. The present rate is 22.99.

The council set Aug. 13 at 7:30 p.m. as the date of the public hearing on the proposed $667,113 budget. Then the budget will be filed with the Johnson county auditor who will use it as authority for levying city taxes after final approval by the state auditor.

The budget approved last night is effective April 1, 1949 to March 31, 1950. The millage rate means that every property owner will pay $26.64 on every $1,000 of assessed property. This is $3.65 more than the amount assessed for this year.

The money receipts estimated, aside from taxes, in the new budget total $254,795. The revenue to be received by taxation is estimated at $347,071 and the unincumbered balance estimate is $65,247.

The parking meter fund has been dropped from the budget entirely because money for this came from the parking meter receipts.

In other actions last night the council approved the contract with the William Horrigan company for the paving of seven Iowa City streets and received a request for paving sections of Linn street and Kirkwood avenue.

The council also referred a petition for a street light in the 600 block on Dodge street to the light committee—and received a petition for a stop sign at the intersection of River street and Riverside drive. The council referred the latter petition to the chief of police for immediate action.

SUI Law Graduate Files His First Suit

A June graduate of the college of law, Shirley Porter, filed his first suit as an Iowa City attorney in the Johnson county district court yesterday.

He represented Dale Watts, proprietor of Watts food market, 1608 Muscatine avenue. Watt asked $233.69 judgment from Mrs. Cleo Swails, 1874 Friendship avenue. He said the judgment was for groceries, delivered between March and August, 1947, which had not been paid for.

Catholic, Protestant Barriers— Church Unity Troubles Minister

Will it take an atomic war to break down the barriers between Catholic and Protestant churches? Dr. Joseph Fort Newton asked this question during an interview yesterday afternoon at the Jefferson hotel.

Dr. Newton was in Iowa City to deliver the final lecture of the summer session series last night on "Education for World Citizenship." His son Joseph Emerson Newton, graduate assistant in English, was visiting him.

"Great Promise"

Speaking of the problem of church unity, Dr. Newton said, "It took two world wars to break down the wall between the Protestant churches." He referred to next month's Amsterdam meeting of 150 Protestant faiths as holding "great promise."

"But there is no fellowship or contact with the Catholics," the minister seemed sorry to note. However, he said, official observers are being sent to the Amsterdam meeting from the Vatican. This was a step further than the Roman church had ever gone before, he said.

Even Stalin was allowing the Russian Orthodox church to send representatives to the Amsterdam meeting for church unity, said the clergyman. "The church is flourishing in Russia now," he added.

Dr. Newton is no stranger at SUI. From 1910 to 1916 he lectured in English here and was acting chaplain. "I married scores of students here during that time," he recalled.

The 68-year-old clergyman comes from Texas. A true son of that noble state, he admitted that "a Texan hesitates to go to heaven." But he was able to tear himself away from Texas to attend a seminary in Kentucky, he said.

Furnace Taken From School; 11th So Far

"I'll put in your coal," the coal deliverer said to the Union township director, "but you haven't got any furnace."

And thus the eleventh Johnson county rural school yesterday was discovered robbed of heating facilities.

Frank Snider, county superintendent of schools, related the above anecdote in the outbreak of stove thefts in his schools.

Heating facilities so far have been reported robbed from Scott, Lincoln, Clear Creek, Cedar, Penn, Sharon, and Union township schools. In most cases stoves or their castiron parts have been removed. But the first (in Scott) and latest thefts reported were furnaces.

In yesterday's Union township theft, the whole inside of the furnace was removed, Snider said. He speculated it may have been robbed for reuse and not for sale as scrap iron.

Snider and Sheriff Albert J. (Pat) Murphy yesterday sent a letter to the county rural school directors to check their buildings for theft. The county officers asked the directors to contact people living near the schools and ask them to watch for trucks and suspicious-looking cars near the schools.

"This is about the only way the thieves can be apprehended," Snider and Murphy agreed.

Vets Must Renew Policies by July 31

The veterans administration office will be open July 31 from 8:30 a. m. to 5 p. m. so veterans can reinstate lapsed GI insurance without a physical examination, James H. Lafferty, officer in charge, announced yesterday.

Prior to Aug. 1, veterans with lapsed term insurance have the privilege of reinstating any amount, from $1,000 to $10,000, by certifying that their health is as good as it was when their policy lapsed. Payment of two monthly premiums is required.

After the July 31 deadline, veterans whose insurance has been lapsed for three months or more will have to pass a physical examination to qualify for reinstatement, he said.

Rites Monday For Miss Agnes Otto

Funeral services for Agnes Otto, SUI alumna, will be at 9 a. m. Monday in St. Mary's church.

Surviving Miss Otto are three sisters, Clementine, Lucia and Helen Otto. The four sisters lived together at 629 N. Gilbert street.

Miss Otto was a graduate of City high school and of SUI. She received a bachelor of science degree from the university.

The rosary will be recited at 7:30 p. m. Sunday at the Hohen-schuh mortuary. Burial will be in St. Joseph's cemetery.

Mountaineers To Leave On Trip to Palisades

The Iowa Mountaineers will leave today on a two day trip to the Palisades at Savana, Ill. Mickey Thomas, chairman of the promotion committee, said yesterday.

The group will leave the Mountaineer club house at 2 p. m. and will sleep in tents at a campsite beside the Palisades tonight. This will be the Mountaineer's second visit to the Palisades this year, Thomas said.

Swimming Pool Fund Has 'Slow' Day

The Iowa City swimming pool fund advanced only $58 yesterday to a $9,706.28 total in what William Grandrath, publicity chairman of the Community Dads drive, called a "slow day."

The new contributions came from the business district and the residential drive with the business district contributing the bulk with $53 reported to Grandrath. All other figures remained the same, according to Grandrath. He announced the totals for the various phases of the drive at $3,450.91 from the business district, $3,310 from the lodges and organizations, $2,840.37 from the residential area, $50 from Coralville and $55 in miscellaneous contributions.

Grandrath said the drive should reach the $10,000 mark over this weekend.

Plan Training for IC National Guard

The Iowa City national guard is scheduled to go to Fort Riley, Kan., Aug. 8, for a two week field training period, Capt. Harry W. Dick, commander of the local reconnaissance unit, said yesterday.

Enlisted members of the national guard who are eligible for the draft must attend the camp to retain their exemption from selective service, except for "the most cogent reasons of unusual hardship," according to Adj. Gen. Charles H. Grahel.

The draft law provides that men eligible for the draft may substitute service in the national guard or in active reserve units.

SUI Graduate To Join Parsons College Staff

Willard E. Johnston, SUI graduate, received an appointment to the Parsons college sociology department, Tom E. Shearer, Parsons' president announced yesterday.

Johnston was awarded an M.A. degree in sociology here in June. He is a graduate of Iowa City high school and received his B.A. degree from St. Ambrose college in 1946.

Student Couple Files Counter Claim of $500

A university student and his wife yesterday filed a $500 counterclaim in Johnson county district court.

The student is Dave Radcliffe, 218 W. Benton street. The counter claim is against B. G. Gegenheimer, owner of Geg's Electric service, who yesterday filed a $36.76 suit against the Radcliffes. Gegenheimer said the Radcliffes had not paid for electric service he did for them last November.

The Radcliffes, in their counter claim, said the plaintiff was so slow in performing the service that they were inconvenienced and discomforted to the amount of $500.

The defendants said they decided to change from a gas to electric stove in the fall and hired the plaintiff to do the necessary wiring. After Gegenheimer said he would do the work, the defendants disconnected their gas stove, they said.

The plaintiff was tardy starting the work, and did it in such bits that the job dragged out over a 10-day period, the Radcliffes said.

The defendants said that during this time they were forced to use a six by ten grill, "much to their discomfort and inconvenience and to their damage in the amount of $500."

The Radcliffes are represented by Emil G. Trott. William R. Hart is Gegenheimer's attorney.

No One-Year Enlistees Here

Iowa City's 18-year-olds are not following the national trend of swamping the recruiting offices to volunteer for the service's new one-year program.

Although approximately 18 men have inquired about the one-year program, none have made applications, Sgt. O. A. McClung, local recruiting officer, said yesterday.

Most of the men who have asked about the programs are more interested in longer enlistment periods which completely satisfy draft requirements, he said.

After the year's service, draft provisions require the 18-year-old's to serve for four to six years in reserve units.

The men who are enlisting, McClung said, are those who want training from the service's technical schools and are concerned about their future geographical location.

Such enlistments require volunteering for three year periods.

"GREAT PROMISE" was seen in the August meeting in Amsterdam of 150 Protestant faiths by Dr. Joseph Fort Newton, when he was interviewed here yesterday. Newton, a writer and preacher, spoke last night at the final summer session lecture of this year.

an Episcopalian. There was a period, during the years of the first World War, when he was an independent Protestant minister, he said.

Dr. Newton is an author too. He has written 80 books, three of them on Lincoln. Carl Sandburg noted Lincoln authority, used his "Lincoln and Herndon" as a source book, said the minister.

Religion and freemasonry were the themes of many other books he'd written, added the clergyman.

In recent years, Dr. Newton said, he has been "letting down" from the pressures of a daily newspaper column he conducted for the 12 years from 1933 to 1945. He still writes a weekly column from the Philadelphia home where he has lived for the past 22 years.
