Bagpipes at the Ballgame

Highlanders To Be Featured at Polo Grounds; Tour New York City on First 'Leave'

By ROBERT D. NOBLE JR.

NEW YORK—The Polo grounds will re-echo with the notes of bagpipes today as the University of Iowa Highlanders take over a full hour before the New York Giants-Cincinnati Reds baseball game.

For a thin dime each, the inflationary price of the subway, they will ride about 100 blocks to keep appointments with "Lippy Lo" and to cheer the New Yorkers to victory. Monday's win over the Dodgers made every member of the group a special New York fan.

The Highlanders covered New York City from First avenue to the Hudson river yesterday as the young ladies got their first "leave" in two days of big city life.

Saks Fifth Avenue store and Radio City came in for a major part of the attention, but the more curious ventured as far as the top of the Empire State building and the piers of East river.

The Times Square signs probably caused the most interest of the entire trip. The young ladies flocked to the square just for a look at the monstrosities in lights. Neither the traffic nor the news in lights along the Times building held their interest very long from the mathematical wizardry of advertising in the neon signs.

Robert D. Noble Jr., executive assistant of the alumni service, is in New York City with the Highlanders and represents the alumni service and the university information service.

"They all seem to be trying to outdo each other in a hopeless continuous chain," said Beth Wilson, 824 E. College street. After looking at the new Band sign recently featured on Life magazine, she was sure the peak had been reached.

"The next step," she said, "will be Botany ties in Windsor knots on the top of the Empire State building."

The best place to view the signs, according to Bonnie Wanamaker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Wanamaker, 1226 Rochester avenue, is from the balcony of the Penn-top ballroom of the Hotel Pennsylvania.

"From there it's impossible to read the signs, but the lights blend together in a fascinating display of color."

The University of Iowa association of New York outdid themselves Monday night in an effort to entertain the potential members. The young ladies were dined at the Flamingo room of the Waldorf-Astoria and later spent a few minutes visiting with Guy Lombardo and looking over the glamor of the Skylight room. All expenses for the entertainment were handled by the local SUI club.

Communists Driven Back in Battle Around Taiyuan

FEIPING (AP)—The government has seized the initiative from the Communists in the battle around Taiyuan, capital of Shansi province, press dispatches said yesterday. The Communists who once threatened to topple the walled city were reported driven back both south and west of Taiyuan. There was no claim, however, that the siege had been broken.

GOP Senate Booming Anti-Poll Tax Bill

Four Injured; All Workers Accounted for

WASHINGTON (AP)—Republican leaders tied a hard knot last night in President Truman's legislative program by announcing that an anti-poll tax bill will be the first order of business in the senate.

Their announcement was equivalent to shouting: "filibuster ahead!"

A closely-knit band of southern senators is pledged to fight that and all the rest of Mr. Truman's civil rights proposals by any means at their command.

The filibuster quite possibly may begin today, with a series of time-consuming motions to "amend" and "correct" the official journal of yesterday's proceedings. This process could be stretched out for weeks.

The measure would prohibit collection of a poll tax as a prerequisite to voting in federal elections. It already has passed the house.

If the southerners seize on their first opportunity to talk the measure to death, they can begin today by debating the accuracy of the journal of yesterday's senate proceedings. They can "move" to correct and amend it. According to the staple senate parliamentary doctrine, such motions are not subject to the cloture (debate limitation) rule.

To apply cloture requires a two-thirds majority, which Mr. Truman—himself a former senator—contends could be obtained in a showdown. But according to the general interpretation of the rules, cloture can be applied only against a bill or a resolution, not a motion.

The Republicans' strategy put them in the position of saying to the President: you asked for a civil rights bill; there is one; it is the only part of your legislative program that is ready for instant senate consideration; can we help it if some of the members of your own party try to talk it to death?

The journal-amending device which the anti-Truman Democrats may use is possible only at the opening of a new legislative day, following an adjournment—not a recess—of the senate. The senate adjourned yesterday, so it could be used today.

The southerners, who have perfected a tight organization, have agreed informally to let Senator Stennis (D-Miss), Maybank (D-SC) and Stewart (D-Tenn) lead off any time killing debate.

By deciding to turn the "turnip" session into a civil rights fight, the GOP may be ruling out any major legislation along the lines asked by Mr. Truman in a personal appearance before a joint session yesterday afternoon.

The President called for swift enactment of an eight-point program to halt rising prices. His chief recommendations: some price controls now, limited rationing and wage-control in reserve, a new excess profits tax.

If inflation isn't checked, the President said, the result may be "another great depression"—just as the Communists predict—and "the world's hope for lasting peace would vanish."

The Chief Executive called, too, for the house to complete action on the Taft-Ellender-Wagner housing bill, already passed by the senate.

Jeers, Cheers Greet Truman

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Truman's address to the special session of the 80th congress touched off a nationwide storm of jeers and cheers last night.

Backing the President were many Democrats and many labor leaders. Critical were most Republicans, Wall street and business, and a few rebel Dixiecrats.

At the center of the storm were the President's proposals for cost of living controls, his housing program, and civil rights.

Democratic comments: "Excellent message . . . admirably presented . . . a comprehensive challenge . . . effective and courageous . . . unbiased"

The Republicans said: "Purely political . . . height of sophistry and demagoguery . . . full of inaccuracies . . . unworkable . . . last desperate effort."

Senator Barkley (D-Ky), President Truman's vice-presidential running mate, said he thought the program is attainable if congress will go to work on it. "The need is certainly here, and I thought it was admirably presented," Barkley said.

Many in Wall street said the effect of the President's proposals would be bad. But they weren't worried because they didn't think congress would do anything about them.

Agreement was not unanimous, however, in financial circles. A partner in one of the larger stock exchange houses said: "I think the objectives of the President's program are wonderful. But I don't think he will get to first base."

William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, said he considered the program "constructive and necessary" and said his group will support it.

Joseph A. Beirne, president of the Communications Workers of America, independent, said he hoped the Republican-dominated congress will "show the same courage the President displayed."

Senator Taft (R-Ohio) said the message was full of inaccuracies and omissions on high prices and housing. He said it would take six months to consider the whole program, and charged it was purely political.

Senator George (D-Ga) said "it's the work for a year if done thoroughly."

House Majority Leader Halleck (R-Ind) said: "The President insults the intelligence of the American people . . . There is nothing new in his recommendations on prices."

U.S. Ambassador Takes New Berlin Proposals to Moscow

LONDON (AP)—U.S. Ambassador Walter Bedell Smith headed back to his Moscow post last night with the western powers' proposals for settling the German crisis with Russia.

A responsible British source said Smith and British and French diplomats in Moscow would seek personal interviews with Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov in an attempt to break the Berlin deadlock.

Top American officials declined all comment on details of the rapid-fire three-power conferences that have been held here the last two days. They said only that the three powers finally had threshed out an agreement on how to meet what they regard as Russia's gravest challenge in the troubled post-war period.

Foreign Secretary Bevin, who had planned a statement of Britain's view of the German crisis to the house of commons today, postponed his speech until tomorrow.

This was regarded by most observers as indicating the three western power diplomats expected to meet Molotov before that time.

American officials regarded the Berlin blockade—and the danger of even worse east-west conflicts—so seriously that they refused even to confirm the British report that a direct approach to Molotov was planned. The American view appeared to be that the impending negotiations in Moscow are so delicate that any tip-off on three-power plans might endanger chances of success.

At the same time one American source disclaimed any intention of making a "secret deal" with Russia.

The German press reported at the same time that the Russians were substantially increasing the force of fighter planes, including jets, in the Soviet zone of Germany surrounding Berlin.

The three western commanders in Berlin talked at length on how to combat the Russian drive to turn the city's police force over to the Communists. By seeking to override the city government's authority to fire the Russian-appointed police chief, the Communists faced Berliners with the prospect of two police forces and two police chiefs.

The American, British and French commanders, Col. Frank Howley, Maj. Gen. E. O. Herbert and Brig. Gen. Jean Ganeval, met for more than three hours and dispatched a letter to the police chief to Berlin's major, Frau Louise Schroeder. The commanders would not say what was in the note.

American and British cargo planes, meanwhile flew new record tonnages to western Berlin despite posting of new Russian warnings of maneuvers by their fighters in air corridors traveled by the transports.

Police chief Paul Markgraf, Moscow-trained German war hero, defied the anti-Communist city government's order dismissing him. He said he not only would remain in office with the Soviet army to back him but would carry out Russian orders to fire socialist Johannes Stumm, Stumm is the deputy who had been appointed successor.

The German press speculated Stumm would transfer his headquarters to the western sectors from the Russian-controlled part of Berlin. This would mean establishment of two police departments in the blockaded city.

The result would be added chaos in this city of 3,250,000 where the western Allies stood firm against Russian moves to squeeze them out and incorporate Berlin into the Soviet zone.

Italy's Togliatti Told To Take Long Rest

ROME (AP)—Doctors last night advised Palmiro Togliatti, wounded Italian Communist leader, to take a long rest.

Togliatti was shot two weeks ago by a would-be assassin. A bedside bulletin said he was "notably improved" and that his discharge from the hospital is imminent.

ROME (AP)—New strikes threatened the Italian economy last night as eleven-hour peacemakers strove to avert the break-up of the Italian general confederation of labor.

Labor leaders representing moderate and Republican elements in the 7-million-member General Labor confederation (CGIL) went before the new Catholic Workers' association and urged them not to quit the confederation because of "political strikes," by the CGIL's Communist leaders.

But the decision apparently was irrevocable. Christian Democrat leaders said last week the "revolutionary" strike called June 14 after an attempt on the life of Communist leader Palmiro Togliatti violated the terms of labor's unity pact. The Communist dominated CPIL executive committee yesterday read the Christian Democrats out of the organization.

Workmen have begun erecting bleachers in the fieldhouse armory to accommodate guests at the summer commencement, according to F. G. Higbee, director of convocations.

Higbee said the decorations will be minor as none of the hangings used in the fieldhouse are tailored to fit the armory. The gold and black drapes used in the June commencement held on the basketball court cannot be used, he said.

Higbee said he could make no estimate as to how many people will attend the commencement ceremonies, but added that, with the addition of bleachers and seats on the armory floor, accommodations can be made for 5,000 people.

The largest summer commencement in the university's history will be held Wednesday, Aug. 4 at 8 p. m. with approximately 730 degrees awarded.

REA APPROVES LOAN

WASHINGTON (AP)—The rural electrification administration announced yesterday approval of a $1,165,000 loan to the Clarke Electric cooperative, Osceola, Ia.

CRASH KILLS FIVE

LUGANA, SWITZERLAND (AP)—Five persons were killed and 11 injured yesterday when a bus plunged 140 feet down a mountainside.

PARIS (AP)—Premier Andre Marie's new cabinet successfully passed its first test in the National Assembly yesterday.

The Assembly voted 330 to 191 against a Communist motion for a full debate on the new government's general policy. Premier Marie opposed the motion, urging the deputies to postpone discussion so the government could get to work "on the grave problems" facing France.

Damage Localized in Indiana Shaft Mine; Cause Undetermined

PRINCETON, IND. (AP)—Thirteen miners were killed in an explosion yesterday at Kings' mine, three miles south of Princeton.

Four others were injured, two of them critically.

The blast occurred at 1:55 p. m. (Iowa time). Three hours later, mine officials said no workers remained unaccounted for and they believed the list was complete.

Cause of the explosion was not determined. Officials said it involved only one loading unit, no more than a score of men.

Officials said there were 176 workers in the mine at the time.

They said the rest of the workers were not endangered. The blast caused only a small fire, which was soon extinguished.

The bodies were brought to the Princeton armory. Lt. Murel Jones of the National Guard said a large crowd gathered, but no one was admitted.

King's is one of the largest shaft mines in Indiana, employing 525 men in three shifts.

A number of workers in other parts of the mine came to the surface, but some returned below to aid in rescue work. Miners came from other nearby pits to help. The U. S. bureau of mines office at Vincennes, Ind., 35 miles north sent a rescue crew.

Ambulances from Princeton and Evansville brought the dead and injured to the armory and the hospital here. The sheriff's office at Evansville, 25 miles south sent deputies to help Gibson county authorities.

The mine had resumed operation recently after being closed several days because of water seepage.

The mine reopened had been inspected Sunday by the state mine inspectors.

The explosion occurred at the lowest level, 433 feet down, and three miles east of the tippie. The last body was removed from the mine at 4:40 p. m.

Coroner C. C. Cook said all bodies were badly mutilated and burned.

Joseph N. Potts, 45, safety inspector for the mine, said he was working in the area, 50 feet from the scene of the explosion. He was knocked unconscious but was not injured seriously.

"It was a helluva blast," Potts said. "I don't know what could have caused it."

One rescue worker, George (Red) Creelius, was overcome by gas but was not in serious condition.

Two Oakland City men, Harry Sharp and Lloyd Bason, said they were in the shaft at the lower level three miles from the blast and felt the concussion. They said they got on a car and rode to the scene.

"Miners' bodies were thrown all around," Sharp said. "Some of them were being removed. It was a horrible thing."

Doubt Accounts of Soviet Movements

BUCHAREST, ROMANIA (AP)—British and American sources said last night they viewed with skepticism Turkish newspaper reports of Soviet troop movements on the Yugoslav-Romanian border.

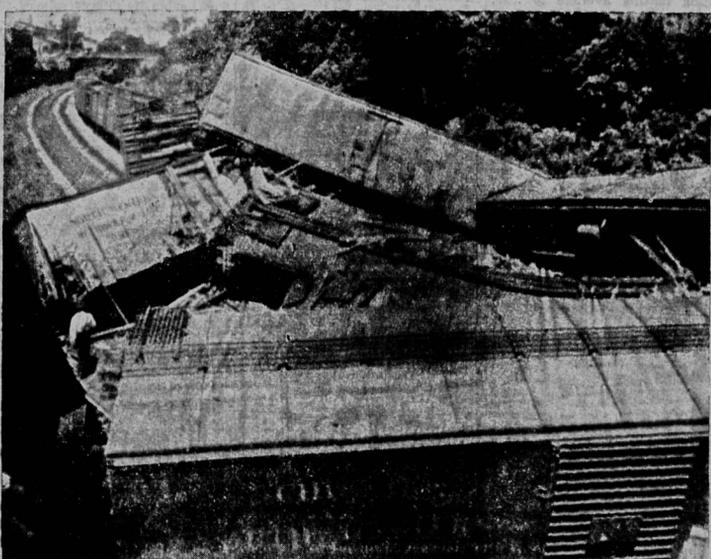

Romanian officials said the reports were not worth denying.

Two Istanbul papers said yesterday that 22 Russian air divisions now are concentrated in Romania and that one group of them is facing Yugoslavia.

French Cabinet Wins

PARIS (AP)—Premier Andre Marie's new cabinet successfully passed its first test in the National Assembly yesterday.

Derailment Piles Up Crack Freight Train

FREIGHT CAR PILEUP resulted when one car of a Chicago and North Western fast freight was derailed on a curve in Milwaukee, Wis., yesterday. Twelve cars of the train enroute to Chicago from Minneapolis left the tracks and jackknifed. No one was injured.

U.S. Olympic Stars Get More Intensified Training

Lesnevich's Defeat Jolts Cocky Yanks

LONDON (AP)—Uncle Sam's Olympic athletes dug into their training yesterday with renewed intensity. None was permitted to forget that American sports prestige suffered a severe jolt when Gus Lesnevich got his lumps Monday night from Freddie Mills.

The lesson taught by the lightly rated Briton might have come at a very handy time—three days before the games begin. The American athletes have not been known for their lack of confidence since their arrival in England.

Driven hard by their coaches, they all put in strenuous practice sessions yesterday in mid-summer heat. They revelled in the strong sunlight. Even the men swimmers had about shaken the last of the colds they contracted upon their frigid arrival.

The women track and fielders worked at a recreation field near Paddington station in the morning, while their male counterparts ran and jumped and sweated throughout the day at outlying Uxbridge. The swimmers and divers shared beautiful Wembley pool with the stars of dozens of other nations.

Meanwhile, in a downtown office the basketball draw was made with the favored United States aggregation paired with Switzerland in the first round. Action for the 23 teams starts Friday morning and 94 games will have been played before a champion is decided on August 13.

Mel Whitfield, America's best bet at both 400 and 800 meters, practically concluded his training with several sprints at shorter distances. He runs in the 800 on the opening day of competition.

He reeled off 220 yards in 21.6 seconds, and then did successive quarter-miles in .50 and :52.6.

Cliff Bourland of Los Angeles, led a fast 200-meter trial in which runners of several nations took part. He finished two yards ahead of Herb McKenley of Jamaica, in 20.8 seconds.

Willie Steele, America's broad jumping ace from San Diego State, was able to run without pain yesterday after having been sidelined Monday with a sore leg.

All the track and field facilities at Wembley were pronounced ready and waiting for the opening trials on Friday morning. The place is mighty pretty, with its new red running track encircling the emerald infield.

Mel Patton, the great Southern California sprinter, took a brief run on a practice track outside the stadium and said it felt lightning fast. It is of the same crushed tile and red clay composition as the championship track.

By air and sea the athletes continued to pour in, barely in time to get their clothes pressed for the grand opening and parade of nations on Thursday afternoon. Twenty planes unloaded 300 of them yesterday.

The Olympic torch, borne by relays of runners, neared the finish of its long trip from Mt. Olympus in Greece. The fiery symbol was scheduled to reach Brussels last night. It will be brought across the channel from Calais to Dover on a British destroyer today.

By meticulous timing, it is planned that the last runner, whose identity has been carefully hidden, shall trot into Wembley stadium at precisely 4:07 on Thursday afternoon—seven minutes after the King has opened the games—and touch the flame to the great torch which will blaze through the nights and days of the games, which end August 14.

Seerey's Homer in 9th Trips Washington, 2-1

CHICAGO (AP)—Pat Seerey's fourteenth home run of the season with Luke Appling aboard and two out in the last half of the ninth gave the Chicago White Sox a 2-1 victory over Washington before 12,164 persons last night.

Tribe Blasts A's, 10-5, Move into 2nd Place

CLEVELAND (AP)—Although he was tagged for a grand slam homer by Sam Chapman and wasn't around at the finish, Bobby Feller was credited with his 10th victory of the season last night as the Cleveland Indians moved into second place with a 10-5 win over the Philadelphia Athletics.

Ken Keltner blasted his 23rd homer of the year in the seventh and Joe Gordon rapped his 19th over the left field fence in the third, but the Indians' big innings were the first and sixth, when they tallied clusters of four runs.

The Indians blasted starter Lou Brissie from the mound in the opening frame with four markers on triples by Allie Clark and Dale Mitchell. Manager Lou Boudreau's double, singles by Gordon and Eddie Robinson and two errors.

7 Linksters Pace Tourney

WATERLOO, IA. (AP)—The seven shotmakers who set the qualifying pace in the Iowa Women's golf tourney at Sunnyside country club here swept to easy first round match play victories yesterday.

Mrs. H. R. (Nell) Staats, veteran tournament player from Davenport who admits her "swing is in the groove" this season, carded the hottest round of the day when she scored a one-under par 41 on the outgoing nine to eliminate Mrs. Russell Ritz of Waterloo, 9 and 8.

Mrs. Staats twice has been a runnerup but never has won the title. Her 41 was the lowest outside nine score of the meet.

Defending champion Mary Louise Cordingley of Des Moines, with a close one up lead at the turn after shooting a ragged out 48, went on to defeat Mrs. Joe Gibson of Waterloo 5 and 3.

Another Des Moines golfer, Lois Penn, easily eliminated Mrs. H. B. Heitland of Tama, 7 and 5, to enter today's second round competition. A third capital city golfer, Mrs. Ray Mansfield, shot an 89 to defeat Francis Weepie of Independence, 4 and 2.

Two Ottumwa challengers had easy going. Mrs. Dave Bonella bowled over Mrs. Ray Winfield of Des Moines, 8 and 6, while collegian Corky Major eliminated Mrs. Jim Piggott of Des Moines, 4 and 3.

Helen Rich of Clinton, another of those who set the qualifying pace, defeated Jane Lohrmiller of Davenport, 8 and 6.

Two Iowa City golfers were among the first round survivors. They were Dr. Lois Bouliware, who defeated Mrs. Sara Urie of Waterloo 2 and 1, and Mrs. Bea Peterson, who eliminated Bonnie Beekman of Atlantic, 4 and 2.

Bo Sox Drop Detroit For 13th Straight; Kinder Gives 3 Hits

DETROIT (AP)—The Boston Red Sox ran their winning streak to 13 straight games last night by blanking the Detroit Tigers, 8 to 0, on Ellis Kinder's three-hit pitching. Hal Newhouse gave up the first three Boston runs before departing in the third inning with a sore arm.

Newhouse, the first of five Detroit pitchers to parade before the league leaders, was charged with his seventh defeat as Boston stretched its first place margin to a full game over Cleveland. The licking broke a string of five straight wins for the Tiger left-hander.

Browns Clip Yanks, 4-0; Arft Bats in 3 Tallies

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Rookie Hank Arft slammed out a triple and home run good for three runs to lead the St. Louis Browns to a 4 to 0 victory over the New York Yankees last night. Cliff Fannin held the Yanks to three hits as he turned in the shutout.

It was Arft's first major league game, having just arrived yesterday from Toledo in the American Association.

Yankee starter Tommy Byrne had a no-hitter until the fifth inning but he was wild, giving up seven walks. Jerry Priddy got the first hit off of him—a double. Don Lund and Less Moss singled in order, Priddy scoring. Then Arft hit his triple bringing in two more tallies.

Dick Doran Blanks Riders With No-Hitter

Dick Doran, City high hurler, pitched a no-hitter last night as the Little Hawks blanked Roosevelt high of Cedar Rapids, 3-0, on the City high diamond.

Doran was the complete master of the situation the entire seven innings, striking out 11 batters and walking only two.

The Teds pitcher, Ronnie Kimball, allowed the Hawks only two safeties, but was a little wild in the first frame when City high scored two runs.

Don A. Strub started the first inning by getting on first when he was hit by a pitched ball. Jim Cilek sacrificed him to second, and Bob Beals drove him across with a triple to centerfield. Beals came home on a wild pitch by Kimball.

Kimball bore down the next four innings, holding the Hawks to no hits and fanning five men in a row. Iowa City got to him for their final hit in the last of the sixth. Holger Christensen singled Gene Hettrick home after Kimball filled the bases with walks.

The Roughriders threatened only once, by the rally fizzled quickly. Bob Saylor drew a walk and stole second. Doran then settled down and whiffed two men and forced the other to pop-up.

City high beat Roosevelt at Cedar Rapids a few weeks ago, 9-2.

Scheffing's Pinch Hit Beats Phils in 11th, 3-2

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Bob Scheffing's pinch single scoring Clarence Maddern in the 11th inning spoiled Eddie Sawyer's debut as a major league manager last night as the Chicago Cubs defeated the Philadelphia Phillies, 3-2. The Phils two runs came on homers by Johnny Blatnik and Andy Seminick.

Hank Borowy, who relieved Johnny Schmitz in the fifth inning, was the winning pitcher—his third victory against the same number of setbacks.

Joe Tinker Dies; Was Member Of Old Cubs Double Play Trio

Succumbs Suddenly In Florida Hospital

ORLANDO, FLA. (AP)—Joe Tinker, one of baseball's greats, died unexpectedly yesterday on his 68th birthday.

He was cheerful to the last hour of his life, although he died in an oxygen tent where he had been placed because of a respiratory ailment which no one considered serious.

Ten days ago the last surviving member of the Chicago Cubs' Tinker to Evers to Chance double play combination was taken to Orange Memorial hospital for treatment for his indisposition and to have his diet straightened out.

Daily he laughed and joked, even when occasion necessitated his being placed under a tent until the respiratory constriction passed. Yesterday he suffered another attack and was placed under the tent. Still, he talked with friends and said he never felt better. That was about 8:30. At 11:15 he died.

Tinker had been troubled with diabetes for several years and last summer his left leg had been amputated because of an infection.

He is survived by four children: Joe Jr., of Tallahassee; William of Baltimore; Mrs. Charles Clapp of Boulder, Colo., and Rowland of Orlando.

Doctors were so puzzled at his sudden death that they planned to ask them to permit an autopsy. Funeral arrangements were held in abeyance until they arrived here.

Tinker was born Joseph Bert Tinker in Muscatoh, Kan., on July 27, 1880.

He broke into baseball with the Coffeyville, Kansas team when he was 19 and through it reached the Cubs three years later in 1902.

He stayed with the Cubs until 1912, managed the Cincinnati Reds in 1913, moved back to Chicago as manager of the old Federal league the next two years; for four years was president and manager of the Columbus club of the American Association and from 1921 to 1923 led the Orlando club in the Florida State league.

Tinker was wealthy at one time but lost much of his money. He engaged in various enterprises and during world war II was a boiler inspector at the army's Orlando air field and served as a committeeman at Longwood track, greyhound racing spot near here.

Freddie Mills' Upset Victory Confuses Heavyweight Plans

NEW YORK (AP)—The shopworn heavyweight "crop" jockeyed for position yesterday in the free-for-all race for Joe Louis' title following Freddie Mills' victory over Gus Lesnevich.

In one day the entire situation has changed. Where Lesnevich once was the key to the situation, now there was only wild confusion on all sides.

Sol Strauss, acting promoter of the Twentieth Century sporting club, once inwardly sure he would be able to lure Louis from retirement for a September date with Lesnevich, was left with empty hands. He had no Louis. Now he had no Lesnevich.

Telephone calls to various spots on the globe were Strauss' first moves toward setting up an elimination tournament, consisting of two 10-rounders at the Yankee stadium, Sept. 22. To date nobody had been signed.

Ezzard Charles, ranking light heavyweight contender from Cincinnati, figured in Strauss' plans. Jake Mititz, Charles' manager, was summoned to a conference later in the week. It is likely he will be offered a date with Lee Savold or Jersey Joe Walcott. A Walcott-Joe Baksi pairing might be on the other ten.

Strauss has hopes of luring Mills to America for an overweight scrap; probably with Savold or Baksi who holds a knockout win over the new light heavyweight king.

Babe Culnan, American representative of Ted Broadribb who manages Mills, echoes the challenge from England, "We want Louis." Culnan will advise Broadribb to skip any elimination tournament and wait for Louis, if he should decide to come back. Louis repeatedly insists he never will change his mind about his retirement.

Mills, off his Lesnevich fight, probably is a salable bill of goods in this country against the right opponent. American fans, however, are hardly ready to recognize as heir to the throne a fighter who has been stopped by Lesnevich and once each by Joe Baksi and Lloyd Marshall. On top of that Marshall has been knocked out twice by Charles and Baksi was beaten by Olle Tandberg.

Bums Score Twice In 9th, Nip Cards, 3-2

(AP Wirephoto)

THE LATEST DANCE STEP is demonstrated by umpire Art Gore as he calls Dodger catcher Roy Campanella but at third base in the fourth inning of yesterday's Brooklyn-St. Louis fracas in Dodgerland. Campanella was attempting to go from first to third on a single and was tagged out by Don Lang (29) who took the accurate throw from Stan Musial.

Rookie Carl Erskine Wins 2nd in Relief

BROOKLYN (AP)—A misjudged fly by Terry Moore and Pee Wee Reese's run producing fly enabled the Brooklyn Dodgers to score twice in the ninth inning and nip the St. Louis Cardinals, 3-2, yesterday.

The Dodgers were trailing 2-1, going into the last frame. Gene Hermanski singled to start the inning, the fifth hit off Howie Pollet. Hermanski moved to second on a sacrifice and romped home with the tying run when Moore misjudged Bruce Edwards' drive, the blow falling for a double.

Pollet intentionally passed Tommy Brown. A wild pitch moved the runners up a base and after Gil Hodges was purposely walked to load the sacks, Reese sent a long fly to Moore. Edwards scoring after the catch with the winning run.

The Cards broke a scoreless tie in the fifth inning when Nippy Jones doubled and Ralph La-pointe singled. The Dodgers tied the count in their half on singles by Hodges, Reese and a force out. In the sixth, the Cards moved ahead again when Stan Musial doubled and Enos Slaughter singled. Musial collected three hits in four trips to boost his league-leading batting average to .390.

Joe Hatten started for the Dodgers and yielded all the Cardinal runs and hits. He left for a pinch-hitter in the eighth and rookie Carl Erskine pitched the ninth and held the Cards hitless.

For Erskine, it is his second victory for only two hitless innings of work.

The recruit hurled one frame against Pittsburgh Sunday and picked up the triumph on a Dodger rally.

The 21-year-oldster won 14 and lost six for Fort Worth in the Texas league before he moved up to the big show last week.

Giants Blank Reds, 3-0; Jansen Captures 13th

NEW YORK (AP)—Larry Jansen turned in his second straight shutout and 13th victory of the season last night as he pitched the New York Giants to a 3-0 six-hit victory over the Cincinnati Reds. The game marked the home debut of Leo Durocher, New Giant manager.

Jansen has now pitched 23 scoreless innings. He allowed but one Red to reach third base, that was Hank Sauer in the second inning when the Rhinelanders filled the bases on two hits and a pass.

Singles by Bill Rigney and Whitey Lockman and a fly by Johnny Mize accounted for the first Giant run.

Relatives To Watch 2 Ex-Iowan Swim Stars

LONDON (AP)—Two quietly intent men from Iowa by way of California pass almost unnoticed in the swarms around Wembley stadium, where the Olympic games open tomorrow.

Each has a big stake in the games. But neither feels he can do much about it except pray and hope for the best.

They are Art Olsen, father of 17-year-old Zoe Ann Olsen, the American springboard diving queen for the past three years, and Lyle Draves, husband of 23-year-old Victoria Manalo Draves, the U. S. tower diving champion and springboard contender in the Olympics.

Olsen and Draves, buddies for nearly 20 years since their Iowa days, are roommates. So are Zoe Ann and Vicki. The menfolk are not officially connected with the American Olympic team, although each is a qualified diving coach.

If they want to see all the three-day water sports programs the cost runs something over $100—and they had to pay their own way over on the Olympic ship.

They take a back row seat at the practice session, keenly watching their girls go through the repertoire of fancy diving under the counsel of Fred Cady, the U. S. women's diving coach and veteran of four Olympiads.

Cady must take an impartial view as regards his all-California quartette in the springboard and high dives. He hopes to sweep these events one-two-three as American girls have done in the past without much challenge.

The other members of Cady's California quartette are Patricia Ann Elsener, 18, from San Francisco, who is in both the springboard and tower diving, and Juno Stover, 19, from Los Angeles, a tower diver.

Age Groups Determine Draft Calls—Hershey

WASHINGTON (AP) — Selective Service Director Lewis B. Hershey said yesterday men will be drafted by age groups, with men 25 down through 22 taken first in the initial six months of the program.

It was indicated clearly that although men of this age bracket would be drafted first, the bulk of draftees would come eventually from the 19 through 21 age groups.

Hershey said approximately 5 million men 22 through 25 would be processed during the first six months, but only about 70,000 actually would be subject to the peacetime service of 21 months.

He said he believes that no more than 8,000 would come from the 25-year-old group, first to be drafted.

The army expects to take 225,000 men in the first year. Later the total will be up around 900,000.

It is up to the army to say when it needs men, and how many. The draft service then will provide them. Hershey said yesterday if the army asks for as many as 30,000 in its first call, the draft may have to dip down into the 23-year-olds right at the start.

The date for beginning of the draft has not been set, either, but Hershey said last week it probably will be shortly after Oct. 1.

Registration of all men 18 through 25 begins Aug. 30 and continues through Sept. 18. This will be done by age group, too, with men of 25 signing up first, men 24 next, and so on.

The draft head stressed that all men must register, including veterans, unless they are on active duty in the armed services.

Hershey's decision to draft men by age group was announced yesterday after he held an hour-long unofficial conference with members of the house and senate armed services committees which worked up the draft law.

Both chairman Gurney (R-S.D.) of the senate committee and Chairman Andrews (R-N.Y.) of the house committee agreed that the age plan is "fair and in accordance with the act."

They said yesterday's meeting with Hershey was not official and that the congressmen acted purely in an advisory capacity. Actual administration of the draft, they said, was up to Hershey, recently named by President Truman to handle the peacetime draft as he did the wartime draft.

Complaints continued to come in from this group. The teenagers charge they are being squeezed out of a chance to volunteer and ask that more than 161,000 be accepted.

But Gurney offered them little hope. He said there isn't enough money to train more.

Meanwhile the army closed down temporarily the nation's first peacetime experiment in universal military training at Fort Knox, Ky.

Officials explained that the successful UMT experiment would be resumed around Nov. 1, but in the meantime the army needed the camp's personnel and facilities to train new inductees.

Order Extra Police On Duty after Ohio Picket Line Clash

DAYTON, O. (AP) — Dayton's police force went on an emergency schedule last night, apparently for the duration of the strike at the Univis Lens co.

Police chief R. F. Wurstner said his policemen had been placed on two 12-hour shifts. This action followed by several hours an outbreak of violence along a CIO union electrical workers picket line when Univis employees, answering a back-to-work call by the company, tried to enter the plant yesterday.

Policemen pierced the 200-person picket line with a flying wedge. They formed a corridor through which non-strikers returned to work. One such employee was struck down by a picket who managed to dodge past the police detail.

Police said seven pickets were arrested including one arrested in disorders at the plant Monday.

Stench bombs were used during yesterday's disturbance, police reported.

The plant had been strike-bound since May 5. In a National Labor Relations board election, called last Friday at the request of 300 Univis employees, local 768 of the CIO union electrical workers union was dismissed, 302 to 272, as a bargaining agent for Univis employees.

Iowa Gets $937,746 In Lunch Program

WASHINGTON (AP) — The agriculture department yesterday allocated $58,800,000 to the states and territories for the 1948-49 school lunch program. Iowa's share will be $937,746.

Congress appropriated $75,000,000 for the program, $5,000,000 more than for the previous year.

Money not allocated to the states and territories will be used to pay administrative expenses and for the purchase and distribution of specific foods to schools participating in the program.

Funds allocated to the states are used to reimburse participating schools for a part of their local purchases of food for school lunches.

To Offer Eight Courses for August Term

Eight courses will be offered to students attending the August four-week session, Ted H. McCarrrel, registrar, said yesterday.

Classes begin Aug. 5, and are open to both graduate and undergraduate students. Students will register at the first class meeting. Registration materials for the session may be obtained at the registrar's office Aug. 3 and 4.

An independent study unit for graduate students is also offered,

McCarrrel said. These students may obtain registration materials at the registrar's office tomorrow through Saturday.

Pre-registration for both graduate and undergraduate veterans in the four-week session begins today and ends Saturday at the veterans' service office at 110 Iowa avenue, according to a VA official. The veterans are expected to indicate the number and title of the course they intend to take, he said.

Graduate student veterans enrolling in the independent study unit should pre-register Aug. 2 and 3 at the registrar's office, he said.

All veterans, both graduates and undergraduates, should pre-register for the September term today through Saturday at the veterans' service office. Veterans must indicate the number of hours they expect to carry this fall, he said.

By registering early, the veteran has more assurance of getting his subsistence check earlier.

34th Infantry Set For Field Training

The 34th (Red Bull) Infantry division will receive summer field training at Fort Riley, Kan., Aug. 8-22.

Maj. Gen. Ray C. Fountain of Des Moines will direct the training program.

This will be the first time since 1939 that the 34th division has been in training as a national guard unit.

Two regiments are commanded by Iowa officers. Col. Carlton K. Smith of Cedar Rapids heads the 133rd regiment and Col. Chauncey Carl of Atlantic leads the 168th. Lt. Col. Harold S. Brunzell of Burlington is commander of the mechanized cavalry reconnaissance.

Due to curtailment of enlistments by the navy department, the names of the men will be placed on a waiting list, Irwin said.

He estimated that they will leave for physical examinations at Des Moines about Sept. 1.

Chamber Secretary Resigns in Decorah Food Check Quarrel

DECORAH, IA. (AP)—Chamber of Commerce secretary John Johnson, center of a bitter food inspection controversy here, yesterday resigned his post, effective Aug. 15.

The chamber's board accepted the resignation without comment.

Johnson said he had no immediate plans for the future.

In a formal letter of resignation, the chamber secretary said he hoped his departure would restore harmony to the Decorah business community which has been rent by a factional quarrel.

Focal point of the dispute was a proposed city food inspection and sanitary ordinance which Johnson and the chamber had advocated. Restaurant operators and others took sharp exception to the plan.

Johnson's letter said he felt the inevitable result if he stayed would be a continuing community cleavage but that if he remained without promoting a definite chamber program he would not feel justified in accepting the salary paid him.

His letter also referred to a financial loss suffered in the summer festival held here a few weeks ago. He took the view that most "if not all" of the loss was the result of conflicting points of view which broke into the open day before it opened.

Johnson said he felt the inevitable result if he stayed would be a continuing community cleavage but that if he remained without promoting a definite chamber program he would not feel justified in accepting the salary paid him.

UN Rejects Syria's Move On Palestine

LAKE SUCCESS (AP)—The security council refused yesterday to approve a Syrian move to toss the Palestine problem before the international court of justice.

The vote on Syria's proposal was six to one, with four abstentions. A majority of seven votes, including all of the big five, was required to pass it.

Britain, China, Syria, Belgium, Argentina and Colombia voted for the Arab proposal while the Soviet Ukraine stood alone against it and the United States, France, Canada and Russia abstained.

Dr. Phillip C. Jessup, United States deputy, and Jakob A. Malik, Soviet deputy foreign minister, led the opposition to the Syrian proposal.

Jessup told the council that the U. S. feared reference to the court would complicate the task of the United Nations Mediator in Palestine.

He was backed by the Canadian delegate, Gen. A. G. McNaughton.

Malik said the general assembly already had decided the case of Palestine and that there was no need to refer it to the court. He accused Syria of trying to scuttle the U. N. Palestine partition decision.

Faris El Khouri, Syrian delegate, opened the debate yesterday with a pledge that the Arabs would abide by any decision of the international court on Palestine. He said the Arabs wanted justice in the Palestine case.

Thomas Pawley, G; James Tyson, G; Evan Hultman, A4, and Bill Shuttleworth, A3, will take part in the forum.

Current Issue

The university student forum is one of the oldest programs heard on WSUI. Each week the forum attempts to discuss or debate some current issue of national or international importance.

fication of the Japanese policy in the far east in 1934, repeal of the AAA and, as early as 1933, federal aid to education.

Leroy Cowperthwaite, instructor in the department of speech and moderator of the forum, said the purpose of the programs is to inform the public and to stimulate interest in the issues of the day.

Participants on the program usually come from Prof. A. C. Baird's classes in public discussion. Although the forum sometimes takes the form of debate, it usually operates on the discussion level, Cowperthwaite said.

Four to six persons join Moderator Cowperthwaite each week before the microphone for these discussions. This summer over 23 students participated in the summer session's six programs.

Informal Programs

Good arguments and the informality of the programs, Cowperthwaite believes, stimulates interest in the discussions.

"I don't recall that anyone ever became angered during a debate. The students are trained in discussion and are taught to avoid heated arguments," he said.

The programs are entirely unrehearsed, Cowperthwaite explained. However, an outline for each program is made out which the members follow loosely.

Twice before the program is aired those taking part meet with Cowperthwaite to decide on the most important aspects of the subject to be discussed.

Participants are selected far in advance of the program so that they will have a chance to study the problem to be discussed very carefully.

The forum, Cowperthwaite said, is a part of a broad forensic program at WSUI which includes intercollegiate and interannual debate, discussion, extemporaneous speaking and oratory.

SUI To Buy Four Paintings

Four selections from the summer art show will be purchased by the university and added to SUI's permanent collection, Earl E. Harper, director of the school of fine arts, announced yesterday.

The group of paintings, valued at from $2,700 to $3,000 by Harper, are now on exhibition in the main gallery of the art building.

They are "A Drop of Dew, Falling from the Wing of a Bird, Awakens Rosalie Asleep in the Shade of a Cobweb," by Mino; "Green Street," by Baumbach; "Stamos," "Prehistoric Phase," and "Summer Event" by SUI instructor Byron Buford.

Blind Troubadors Sing of the Sage; Chants of the West Echo in Iowa City

Songs of the old west echoed through the Iowa City business district yesterday afternoon when two blind street singers dressed in cowboy garb sang for their supper.

The couple, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Davis, "of no particular town," were accompanied by their seeing-eye dog, Calvin.

Calvin carried a leather pouch on his back in which passerby's dropped coins after listening to the Davis' performance.

Davis said he and his wife started touring the country with their show 13 years ago.
