Demos Plan Cabinet Help In Campaign

By JOHN L. CUTLER
WASHINGTON (UP)—The Democratic high command plans to use all cabinet members except Secretary of State George C. Marshall as stump speakers in the election campaign, it was revealed yesterday.

Sen. Carl A. Hatch of New Mexico, chairman of the party's speakers bureau, said Marshall and Undersecretary Robert A. Lovett would keep out of the campaign because of the bi-partisan foreign policy.

"They will not make any speeches unless the bi-partisan foreign policy is attacked or some situation arises, requires them to explain the policies they have carried on," Hatch said.

No Politics
"In that event any speeches they make will be explanatory of the bi-partisan foreign policy rather than defenses, and they would not be political speeches under any circumstances."

Other cabinet members won't be under any such restraints. They will speak politically on behalf of the Truman-Barkley ticket and for the election of a Democratic congress, Hatch said.

Hatch said his bureau also will call upon members of congress, Democratic governors and other state officials to speak. Among them probably will be some anti-Truman Dixiecrats in congress to make speeches in border states where the Democrats will stage a determined drive to regain control of the senate.

"A Real Story"
"We've got a real story to tell and, as chairman of the speakers' bureau, I'm going to see that it is told," Hatch said.
"In large part it deals with the failures of the 80th congress. In every respect the 80th congress failed to meet the occasion which the times demanded. Its efforts to deal with the high cost of living were ineffectual and futile. Its approach to the housing problem was even worse. It was negative."
In other Democratic quarters there were indications that Sen. Alben W. Barkley of Kentucky, the vice-presidential nominee, will do most of the party's tough infighting with Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, the GOP presidential nominee.

Council of Churches Begins Secret Talks

AMSTERDAM, THE NETHERLANDS (AP)—The world council of churches began today secret deliberations over such controversial questions as communism, pacifism and Palestine.

One authoritative American churchman said that on the basis of informal lobby talk among delegates it appeared that world political problems could be rated in that order of importance at this first assembly of the world council.

Fireworks over Soviet policy and spread of communism only sputtered during the day. The controversy was brought into the open Tuesday in speeches by John Foster Dulles of the United States and Prof. Joseph Hromadka of Communist-ruled Czechoslovakia. Dulles told newsmen nothing developed on east-west differences in the closed session except a recognition that they exist.

Even Diapers Go To Bring in Plane

HAMILTON, BERMUDA (UP)—After jettisoning even babies' diapers to keep from crashing into the sea, a big C-54 military airliner carrying 35 passengers limped 880 miles on two of its four motors and landed safely at the United States air base here yesterday.

As the plane halted on a runway at Kindley field after a perfect landing, the passengers, including 12 children, hugged each other hysterically and cheered.

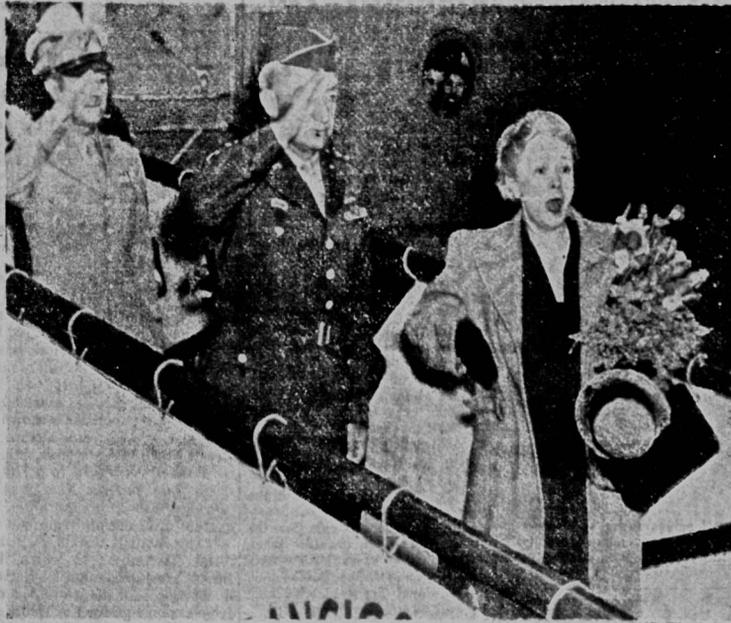

Rush for Marriage Licenses Stalls in IC

Iowa City yesterday went contrary to the national trend established by young men rushing for marriage licenses after President Truman deferred husbands and fathers from the draft.

No marriage licenses were sold at the Johnson county clerk's office yesterday.

"It's just too hot to sell marriage licenses," one of the clerks said.

The General's Wife Was Surprised

ALTHOUGH HER HUSBAND SALUTED, Mrs. Robert Eichelberger forgot military formality in San Francisco yesterday when the U.S. general and his wife returned from the orient. Mrs. Eichelberger had good reason to look surprised—she had just recognized a friend waiting on the pier below. Eichelberger was wartime commander of the 8th army in the far east. Officer at left is Maj. Gen. James Lester, 8th army chief of staff.

'I Jumped To Escape' Teacher Tells Story of Leap

By MARTIN ROGART
NEW YORK (AP)—Mrs. Okasana Kasenkina said yesterday she jumped from a third floor window of the Soviet consulate "to escape."

In her first direct interview with newsmen since her dramatic plunge Aug. 12, the 52-year-old former chemistry teacher for Soviet children in this country said:

"I knew that since they did not permit me to leave the consulate, I would not be able to escape in Russia either."
Therefore, "I jumped out of the window to escape. I didn't want to kill myself. I wanted to escape."

She said she did not want to go back to Russia. She had been scheduled to sail for home in July but did not board the ship.
Lying in her Roosevelt hospital bed, still in a serious condition from multiple injuries sustained in the fall to a concrete courtyard at the consulate, Mrs. Kasenkina managed to smile wanly at times as she recounted her story through an interpreter.

Told What To Say
Among other things, she said: Soviet Ambassador Alexander Panyushkin and consul general Jacob M. Lomakin "told me what to say" during a press interview. This was after Lomakin informed newsmen he had "rescued" her from a White Russian (anti-Communist) camp near New York City.

The two Russian officials promised her she would "become a heroine" as a result of the interview.

The teacher said she loves her people and her country but "I don't agree with the policies of Josef Stalin . . . I cannot agree with the regime in the Soviet."

While she was still in Russia she thought that if she could get to America she would be able to remain here. Then during her two years here she found she was "becoming more and more dissatisfied (with Russia)."

"State Enemy"
The Russians termed her an "enemy of the state" and persecuted her in "many picaune ways." She wanted to talk to the Russians "as human beings, but they were not, and perfunctorily they arrested me."

In Russia, the Soviets "took" her husband and she still does not know his fate. Her son, a university student, was placed in a storm troopers division without training and was killed in Leningrad in 1942.

The interview lasted 21 minutes, although the teacher seemed to be struggling with exhaustion at times. Beads of perspiration formed on her forehead. Thirteen questions had been submitted in advance, but only four actually were asked.

Tells of Interview
A part of the questioning yesterday centered upon the White Russian farm and events immediately after she was taken from it. The farm, a Russian refugee retreat at Valley Cottage, N. Y., is operated by the Tolstoy foundation and is headed by Miss Alexander Tolstoy, daughter of the late Count Leo Tolstoy.

Questioned concerning her conversation with Ambassador Panyushkin at the consulate the day she returned there from the Tolstoy camp, Mrs. Kasenkina said: "I spoke with Panyushkin for five minutes. I had written a letter to the consulate which brought Panyushkin into the picture."

"I thought these people had a semblance of human mercy in them and would converse with me. Panyushkin said he would not speak to me and that I would go downstairs and tell reporters this and this and this."

The woman's head was propped slightly as she lay in the bed. One injured leg was suspended in a traction pulley. Her doctor has estimated she will be in the hospital at least three months.

AIR VETERAN DIES

MIAMI, FLA. (AP)—Captain William A. Winston, 52, veteran Pan American airways pilot who once taught flying to Charles A. Lindbergh, died here yesterday, in Pratt General hospital.

Name Former Student for Lifesaving Award

Frank Jacobs, 31-year-old June graduate of the University of Iowa, will be awarded the Iowa Certificate of Valor for saving a life next Wednesday at the state fair in Des Moines. Jacobs is from Lake City.

Announcement of the award was made yesterday by Alfred W. Kahl of the Iowa department of safety and H. C. Brown, president of the Iowa state safety council.

The award will recognize Jacobs' action in rescuing Philip E. Penningroth Jr., 5, from drowning in Templin pond, just below the Law Commons in Iowa City, last Oct. 3.

The boy, son of Philip Penningroth, university student and mechanical superintendent of The Daily Iowan, fell into the pool while playing near its edge.

Jacobs was called to the scene by the boy's playmates from the Templin park housing area. He pulled the lad from the water and administered artificial respiration. Young Penningroth had been in the water four minutes.

Iowa City Fire Chief, J. J. Clark commended Jacobs at the time of the accident. Clark said, "It was very fortunate that the Penningroth boy was rescued so soon

New Fighting In Jerusalem

JERUSALEM (UP)—Fighting broke out Tuesday night after two days of relative peace in Jerusalem, and the Jews charged yesterday that the Arabs started it.

An Israeli high command bulletin said that Egyptian troops were repelled in an attempt to advance from new positions near the disputed government house area into the suburb of north Talpith.

Arabs also opened up with rifles, mortars and artillery on other sections of the city, the Jews charged.

According to a combined American press dispatch, the bulletin said that three southern suburbs came under heavy shellfire from the direction of Beit Safafa village and Mar Elias Monastery hill.

Foreign Educator To Study at SUI

ESTES PARK, COLO. (AP)—Assignment of six German and Austrian educators to American colleges to study administrative procedures was announced yesterday. One will be sent to the University of Iowa.

The educators were sent to this country by the U.S. military government as part of its cultural exchange program to bring Germany back to democracy. Joint sponsor of the project is the Rockefeller foundation.

The group, first of three composed of key educators, arrived in the U.S. in mid-July. At present, they are attending a school at Estes Park for college executives.

Dean Chris A. De Young of Illinois State Normal university, coordinator of the program, announced the assignment of Dr. Gertrude Detsch of the state of Wuerttemberg-Baden for one semester at Illinois State Normal and one semester at the University of Iowa.

after he fell in the water. It would be very easy for a child or anyone to drown in the old quarry."

Thirteen other Iowans also will be awarded certificates for life saving during the ceremonies Wednesday. Eleven of the group also will be given buttons signifying they risked their own lives while saving another.

Jacobs will receive both the certificate and the button. Governor Robert D. Blue will present the awards in front of the grandstand as part of state day at the fair.

Hiss Faces Chambers; Accusals, Denials Fly

German Communist Calls for Withdrawal Of West from Berlin

BERLIN (AP)—Germany's top Communist yesterday called on the western allies to leave Berlin.

He charged the United States with postwar ruination of Germany just as the "senseless air attacks" wrecked her during the war.

In a Berlin speech to 3,000 representatives of the Soviet-sponsored Socialist Unity party, Wilhelm Pieck, the party leader, accused America of wanting to saddle Germany with years of military occupation.

He also charged the U.S. wanted to convert the Ruhr into a new munitions springboard for attack against Russia.

Pieck's speech was reported by the Soviet-licensed German news agency, ADN.

The Russians earlier had extended their blockade of Berlin to the intellectual level, banning the western press in the city's Soviet sector.

At the same time they launched a sharp attack against the elected anti-Communist city government. They accused it of splitting the police force and "backing" western-sponsored currency in direct opposition to Russian orders.

Blockade of western publications in the Soviet sector of Berlin will become effective Sept. 1 under an order issued by Maj. Gen. Alexander Kotikov, Russian commandant. It will work through a distribution monopoly allowing only Communist-sponsored organizations to obtain dealers' licenses.

Here's an In-Law Tangle To Figure

LOUISVILLE, KY. (AP)—Charles S. Shartzer, 83, and Mrs. Mary Alda Shartzer, 68, revealed plans here yesterday for their wedding Sunday.

Charles is the widower of Mary's sister and Mary is the widow of Charles' brother. Her husband died in 1922 and Charles' wife died last January.

Thomas Says Perjury Trial To Be Held for One of Men

WASHINGTON (AP)—Alger Hiss and Whittaker Chambers took turns yesterday at stinging charges and denials revolving around a tale of a pre-war Red underground in Washington.

Accused and accuser, they brought their utterly conflicting stories into the open at hearings before the house un-American activities committee. The hearing lasted over eight hours. It will continue today.

Chambers has accused Hiss of being a leader in a Communist underground back in the middle 30's. He repeated the accusations last night, again under oath.

Hiss listened in a few feet away, while hot lights of television and movie cameras bore down on him in the jammed caucus room of the old house office building.

Sanity Questioned
Earlier it was Chambers' turn to listen. He stared stolidly up toward the lofty ceiling as Hiss questioned his "sanity" and accused him of being a "self-confessed liar, spy and traitor."

And when Chambers took over the witness stand, Rep. Nixon (R-Calif.) told him right out: "You have heard the charge here that you have been treated for mental illness."

Chambers: "I have never been treated for mental illness."
Nixon: "Have you ever been treated in any mental institution in the last four years?"

Chambers: "Of course not."
At one point, Chambers asked to be excused from saying publicly where he lives now, since the committee knows his address and:

"I do not want to expose my family or myself to possible attempts on my life."

Refuses Address
Asked if he objected to letting Hiss know where he lives now, he chunky, graying witness replied:

"I believe that is tantamount to telling the Communist party."
Right at the start yesterday morning, Hiss and Chambers confronted each other a few feet apart, and said, yes, they knew each other.

Then, except for time out for lunch, Hiss was on the witness stand all morning and afternoon.

WHITTAKER CHAMBERS Listening to Hiss

Hiss had wound up with a formal statement defending himself as a man of "the highest character" and of "highest adherence to duty and honor."

At the very opening of the hearing Chairman J. Parnell Thomas (R-N.J.) announced that "certainly" one or the other of the men "will be tried for perjury."

Stories Conflict
Yet conflicting statements ran through all their testimony, given under an oath to speak only the truth.

It was the word of Hiss, former high official in the state department and now head of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, against that of a man who admits he used to be a Communist and who now is a senior editor of Time magazine.

Chambers' voice broke and tears glistened in his eyes when he told about his relationship with Hiss.

"I don't hate Mr. Hiss," he said. "I have testified against him with remorse and pity but in the moment of historic jeopardy in which this nation now stands, so help me God, I could not do otherwise."

No Grudge
He said he had heard reports that he had turned against Hiss because of a grudge or to get revenge. Those reports, he said, are not true.

Rep. Hebert (D-La.) asked Chambers' reaction to Hiss' denial of the charges Chambers had leveled against him.

Chambers replied: "Mr. Hiss is lying."
Hebert commented that it was difficult to ascribe to Chambers any motive other than a desire to expose a Communist menace. He said that it was inconceivable that Chambers would fabricate a story and jeopardize his $25,000 a year job.

Hiss had denied again yesterday that he ever was a Communist and he urged the committee to waste no time getting to the bottom of the charge that he was.

Knew "Crosley"

He said he knew Chambers in 1934 and 1935 as a free lance writer named George Crosley, a man to whom he subtlet an apartment while throwing in an old Ford as part of the deal. He said he last saw "Crosley" in 1935.

Chambers told an almost completely different story under questioning by Nixon and Committee Investigator Robert E. Stripling.

Chambers said he believed he and Hiss were first introduced by Harold Ware and J. Peters, "who headed the underground of the Communist party." He said that was in Washington—he thought in a restaurant.

He said he continued to know Hiss until Chambers broke with the Communist party in 1937. Chambers said there never was any question of subletting Hiss' apartment. As he recalled it, he said, Hiss volunteered the use of it in the early summer of 1935 and that he occupied for not more than six weeks.

Yugoslavia Accuses Romania of Trying To Overthrow Tito

LONDON (AP)—The Yugoslav government yesterday accused neighboring Romania of grossly insulting the Tito regime and trying to bring about a revolt to overthrow Tito.

Premier Marshal Tito's foreign minister, Stojce Simic, made the charges in a hotly worded note handed the Romanian ambassador in Belgrade.

Yugoslavia accused Mrs. Ana Pauker, Romanian foreign minister and a leading spirit in the Cominform, of leading in a campaign of vilification against Tito and his aides.

Contents of the note were broadcast from Belgrade last night. It was the latest flareup in the fight between Tito and the Cominform. This fight came to a climax in July with the Cominform's decision that Tito and other Yugoslav leaders were not following Moscow closely enough.

Early this month a former chief of staff of the Yugoslav army was shot to death, Belgrade announced, while he was trying to flee into Romania.

Yesterday Tito protested to Romania against any continuance of "this monstrous anti-Yugoslav campaign." The Tito note said "such hostile outrages" threatened the two neighbors' diplomatic relations and weakened the Communist front.

Harvester To Talk With Local Unions

CHICAGO (UP)—International Harvester company said yesterday it has begun negotiating on a plant-to-plant basis with the CIO union auto workers union in an effort to end a strike of 24,000 employees.

The union previously had opposed a company proposal to break overall negotiations down to the local level. General talks here, however, have been fruitless since they began last week.

The UAW called its members out of seven Harvester plants in four states Aug. 17 in a dispute chiefly involving paid holidays and piece work rates. It already had accepted an 11-cent hourly wage increase offer.

The company said it was agreed to conduct contract negotiations on the local level, provided that if no agreement was reached with one plant, negotiations would be held with another local until the process has been exhausted.

Union officials were not available for comment.

Cooler Air Is On The Way

Hold on for one day longed Iowa Citizens—a cold front is reported on its way. That was the prediction given out last night by the CAA weather station at the Iowa City airport.

The front, slowly moving in from the west and northwest, should arrive tonight or tomorrow morning and will drop the temperatures from yesterday's high of 95 down to the 70s and high 60s.

Temperatures today are predicted to range from 70 to 95 over the entire state, according to the Des Moines weather bureau. Showers are predicted for Saturday with cloudiness increasing today.

The hourly weather report for Iowa City as issued by the CAA weather station for the hottest part of the afternoon follows:

Lemon's Four-Hitter Puts Indians Back On Top

Cleveland Hurler Wins 17th As Red Sox Drop Lead, 9-0

BOSTON (AP)—Cleveland's Indians batted early and often yesterday behind the four-hit shutout pitching of erstwhile Outfielder Bob Lemon and regained first place in the American league's flag chase by thumping Boston's Red Sox, 9-0.

A paid crowd of 30,745, sitting in 90-degree heat, saw the Indian right-hander pitch his 17th victory and his eighth shutout for the Redmen. The defeat pushed the Sox back into second place.

A four-run second inning, in which nine of the Tribe batted and drove Starter Denny Galehouse to an early bath, sent the Indians off on their war path.

Every one of the Indians hit at least once except Ken Keltner and Bob Kennedy, who finished up the game in right field.

Shortstop Manager Lou Boudreau hammered his 11th homer of the campaign in the sixth and Larry Doby hit his eighth in the eighth inning.

Boudreau, Joe Gordon, Doby and Jim Hegan each got three hits and three of the nine Indian runs were sent across the plate by Doby, speedy Negro center fielder.

Lemon gave up singles in the first inning but a neat double play, started by Ken Keltner at the expense of Vern Stephens, ended that threat and the inning.

Lemon, obviously bothered by the heat in the game's late innings, didn't give up another hit until Billy Goodman bunted safely in the seventh with two out.

A COUPLE OF HAPPY INDIANS—Lou Boudreau (left), Cleveland Indians manager, smiles proudly as he pats Bob Lemon on the shoulder in the dressing room at Fenway park, after Lemon had shutout the Boston Red Sox, 9-0, allowing the Sox only four hits. The victory put the Tribe back in first place in the American league.

Dewey Watches Game

NEW YORK (AP)—Republican Presidential Nominee Thomas E. Dewey went to the Yankee baseball game yesterday. He was in shirtsleeves as were his two sons.

Tigers Bounce A's To 5th Loss in Row

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Freddie Hutchinson went the route yesterday for his fourth pitching victory of the season over the Philadelphia Athletics as Detroit pounded out a 10 to 4 victory. The defeat was the fifth successive setback for the Mackmen and left them 2 1/2 games behind the third place Yankees.

Hutchinson checked all of the A's except Sam Chapman. The Philadelphia centerfielder drove in a two-run homer in the sixth and a long fly in the eighth.

Dodgers Break Losing Streak, Down Pirates

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The Brooklyn Dodgers snapped out of a four-game losing streak with a vengeance yesterday, walloping four Pittsburgh pitchers for 18 hits in outslugging the Pirates, 11-9.

It was a slugfest match all the way. The Dodgers also used four pitchers with Erv Falcha, the starter, getting credit for the victory. The Buc collected 17 hits including home runs by Ralph Kiner, Ed Stevens and Wally Westlake. It was No. 34 for Kiner who leads the league in that department.

After the game, Manager Billy Meyer of the Pirates protested Brooklyn's victory to plate Umpire Jocko Conlan, basing his protests on the grounds that Relief Pitcher Carl Eskine did not complete pitching to one batter.

Under the rules, a pitcher must pitch to one batter, either retiring him or putting him on base. The incident passed unnoticed, Meyer said, until both teams had retired to the clubhouse.

Umpire Conlan agreed to file the protest with National league President Ford Frick. The game was interrupted in the seventh inning by a tussle between several Brooklyn players and Danny Jacino, an Associated Press photographer. With Jackie Robinson at bat, Umpire Bill Stewart waved Jacino from the third base coaching lines because he had two cameras. As Jacino retreated toward the Brooklyn dugout, he had some words with Tommy Brown, Dodger reserve infielder, who swung at him. It was soon broken up by other Dodger players.

Yanks Trim Chisox, Advance in AL Race

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Yankees returned to their winning ways yesterday, defeating the Chicago White Sox, 8-2, to move within a game and a half of the league leading Cleveland Indians. The Indians bounced to the top again, blanking the Boston Red Sox, 9-0.

Rookie Bob Porterfield, who pitched seven scoreless innings before he was forced to retire due to the excessive heat, received credit for the victory.

The Yankees pounded out 13 hits, including home runs by Yogi Berra, his 12th, and Tommy Henrich, his 16th, off former Teammate Randy Gumpert.

ard Marshall, he was replaced by Jess Dobner. Rookie Don Mueller batted for Bobby Thomson and clouted a home run to put the Giants ahead. Two more hits, a walk and Billy Rigney's four-bagger gave the Giants four more before they were retired.

Braves Blank Redbirds, 2-0, Behind Spahn

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The Boston Braves pushed two runs across in the fifth inning as Warren Spahn hurled a 2 to 0 shutout against the St. Louis Cardinals last night before 22,765 fans. The victory put the Braves four games ahead of the second place Brooklyn Dodgers. Howie Pollet was the victim in the left-handed pitchers' battle.

Clint Conatser opened the fifth with a double and scored the first run when Phil Masi's grounder took a bad bounce over Marty Marion's head for a single. Spahn bunted to force Masi at second and went to second himself on Tommy Holmes' single. Spahn accounted for the second tally as Al Dard singled sharply off Red Steinfeld's glove.

Both teams missed many other scoring chances with the Braves leaving 10 men on base and the Redbirds nine. The most heart-breaking missed chance for the Cardinals came in the third when they had the bases loaded with two out and Mike McCormick pulled down Terry Moore's long fly ball to end the inning.

Tony Zale, Cerdan Sign Contract for Middleweight Bout

NEW YORK (UP)—Champion Tony Zale and Challenger Marcel Cerdan of Morocco signed contracts yesterday before a large battery of photographers for their middleweight championship fight at Roosevelt stadium, Jersey City, Sept. 21.

The ceremony was staged at a large Broadway restaurant immediately after Cerdan's arrival by plane from Paris. The French mauler, who holds the European title, was delayed two days by bad weather and his own desire to get some sleep.

Zale will receive a guarantee of $120,000 or 22 1/2 percent of the net gate receipts, whichever is larger. Cerdan will receive a flat guarantee of $50,000. The contracts also provide for a return bout within six months in the event that Cerdan wrests the 160-pound crown from Zale.

Ellsworth Vines Enters Reno Open Golf Tourney

RENO, NEV. (AP)—The entry list for Reno's $25,000 Open Golf tournament Sept. 3-6 reached 95 yesterday with the registration of several big name golfers.

Entries were chalked up for Jimmy Demaret, leading Ojai, Calif., pro; E. J. "Dutch" Harrison, the Arkansas traveler who smacked out a par-busting 272 in Reno's 1947 open to take top money; and Ellsworth Vines, Iowa City, Iowa, who tied for second money last year.

Lujack May Make Pro Football Debut Saturday

RENSSELAER, IND. (AP)—Johnny Lujack probably will be able to make his professional football debut Saturday, Owner-Coach George Halas of the Chicago Bears said last night.

Halas said Lujack's ankle injury was not as serious as first reported. Lujack, all-America quarterback from Notre Dame, was hurt in the college All-Stars' game with the Chicago Cardinals last Friday night.

Tunnell Continues To Impress New York Writers

Maybe Emlen Tunnell the professional football player is quite a bit different from Emlen Tunnell the college football player. His exploits with the New York Giants sound a mite fantastic, anyway.

"The Gremlin," even in his most vigorous practice sessions here at Iowa, never went out of his way to find work. He was always easy going, a natural athlete who found it just as easy to loaf in practice and still play the role of the star on Saturday afternoons.

Tunnell was undoubtedly Iowa's best back in 1946 and 1947. He tore through the defensive line on quick-opening plays. Was the best broken field runner and the best short passer Dr. Eddis Anderson had on his ball club. In fact, Tunnell's hardest job during the weeks of practice drills and scrimmages was to find a tree in the nearby vicinity where he could hide without being caught.

However, in pro ball "The Gremlin" is getting paid good money for his services and he must have resolved to take the bitter with the sweet. He's shown up very well in the Giants' drill at Superior, Wis., and has an excellent chance of breaking into Coach Steve Owen's first string backfield.

Tunnell continued to get the big write-ups in New York papers following the New Yorkers' intra-squad game at Grand Rapids, Minn., Sunday night.

Here are excerpts from one story which followed the game: "The football Giants played a squad game in Grand Rapids, Minn., last night, in which the 'Blue' or first team defeated the 'White' or second, 14-7. Paul Governall throwing two touchdown passes for the winners and Emlen Tunnell running 70 yards from scrimmage for the White score.

"The two players who engineered the game's three touchdowns have been, and will no doubt continue to be, the outstanding scoring threats of the new Giants of the Winged T-formation.

"Most of the impressions gained in three weeks of training were confirmed during the games (the Giants played another squad game at Fargo, N. D., last week.) . . . Tunnell, the Negro boy from Iowa, once more had the look of one of the shiftest and fastest runners in football today. His seventy-yard gallop-to-a-touchdown was accomplished entirely without aiding blocking on a pitchout from Joe Sullatis, quarterback, around the Blue left flank."

Judging from Tunnell's play so far he'll have no trouble sticking with the boys who play for pay as the time to cut the squad draws near.

Little Remsen, Iowa, a town in the northwest corner of the state with a population of 1,200 came close to capturing the second annual Sioux City Journal-Tribune semi-pro baseball tournament at the Sioux City Soos' Western league ball park last weekend.

Remsen, led by Jack Bruner, SU's ace hurler, battled its way into the final round only to lose out to the Spencer Cardinals Sunday night. Bruner won the semi-final game with a five-hit shutout over Akron, then gave way to former Iowa Pitcher Wendell Hill who lost the finale to Spencer, 6-2.

Remsen fans had hoped Bruner would pitch the final game, too, but it was all Waterloo Jack could do to keep Remsen in the tournament. His record for the meet was a 2 to 1 victory over Beresford and a 2 to 0 win over Akron, giving up a total of eight hits, one unearned run, 24 strikeouts and one walk.

Following the final game Bruner was presented with the "most outstanding" player award given by the Sioux City Soos.

Jack won seven and lost four for Iowa last spring and has one more year of college eligibility remaining.

Cincy Defeats Phillies On Fox's Six-Hitter, 5-1

CINCINNATI (AP)—Howie Fox, Cincinnati's six-foot three-inch righthander, handcuffed Philadelphia on six hits yesterday as the Reds downed the Phillies, 5-1, before a crowd of 2,774.

Danny Litwhiler, Ted Kluszewski and Johnny Wyrostek, clouted homers to assure Fox his fifth win as against eight defeats.

The Phillies got to Fox for their only marker in the second inning when Del Ennis doubled, moved to third on a ground out and came home on Granville Hamner's single.

Nats Maul Browns With 19-Hit Attack

WASHINGTON (AP)—Washington unleashed its biggest run and hitting production of the season here last night to smother the St. Louis Browns, 14-6, and snap a 9-game losing streak. Rae Scarborough posted his 12th win for the Senators, who maulled five St. Louis pitchers for 19 hits.

Foreigners Routed in Tennis

CHESTNUT HILL, MASS. (UP)—Unseeded United States players knocked three high-ranking foreign teams from competition in the third round matches of the men's and women's National Doubles championships at Longwood Cricket Club.

While Uncle Sam's Davis cup quartet — Frank Parker, Ted Schroeder, Bill Talbert and Gardner Mulloy—advanced effortlessly to the fourth round, unseeded and unsung duos conducted a wholesale rout on the ranks of the foreigners, including the Australian Davis cup captain and his number one ace.

The only consolation for foreign visitors to this 87th session of "the biggest show in tennis" was the victory by Enrique Morea of Argentina and Eric Struggess of South Africa. They eliminated the fifth-seeded United States team of Victor Seixas of Philadelphia and Sam Math of San Francisco, 6-2, 6-4, 6-4.

Wins Trapshoot Title
MANDALIA, O. (AP)—Paul Kohler of Tekamah, Neb., with his wife and three children cheering him on, broke 200 straight targets yesterday at the 49th Grand American trapshoot to win the National Class AA championship.

Bruins Win, 8-2

DES MOINES (AP)—Des Moines' long blows—11 hits for 22 bases cut down second-place Lincoln, 8-2, here last night as the Western league-leading Bruins widened their margin to 1 1/2 games.

Whitey Lockman and Sid Gordon opened the top of the ninth with singles. Johnny Mize flied out, but McCall uncorked a wild pitch permitting Lockman to score. After McCall passed Will-successors for eight runs in the top of the ninth to defeat the Chicago Cubs, 9-4.

ard Marshall, he was replaced by Jess Dobner. Rookie Don Mueller batted for Bobby Thomson and clouted a home run to put the Giants ahead. Two more hits, a walk and Billy Rigney's four-bagger gave the Giants four more before they were retired.

SUI Courses by Mail for Young and Old

One of SUI's oldest students last year was a man 67 years old. To prove that age is no barrier to scholastic standing, this student received an "A" in his course, "Beginning Spanish."

Furthermore, he made this four-point mark without ever having attended a classroom lecture.

He was one of the 4,245 students who enrolled last year in SUI's bureau of correspondence study. These students were able to select more than 200 courses in 25 different departments.

The courses are regular university courses, taught by the same professors who conduct classroom work. Courses include English, education, commerce, child welfare, history, romance languages, classics, political science, music, religion and social and natural science.

Instruction by correspondence study is continuous throughout the year, and students may begin courses at any time. Helen Williams, director of correspondence study, said. Credit for correspondence courses is listed in semester hours. Each course contains a definite number of assignments, usually eight for each semester hour of credit. The lesson assignments contain instructions, questions and references, and the student prepares the lesson and mails it back to the bureau of correspondence study.

"One of the most popular courses is short story writing," Miss Williams said. "Many business men register for this course to improve their writing technique and learn how to better express themselves."

Most of the students registered in the correspondence school are teachers, according to Miss Williams. Teachers must take a certain number of courses each year and the correspondence school affords a method of attending school during leisure hours.

Marshall Calm Over Consulates

Says Action Not Important

WASHINGTON (AP)—Russia's slamming shut her consulate doors and ours failed to get a rise out of the American government yesterday.

Unexcited, Secretary of State Marshall indicated the United States might just let Moscow have the last word in the bizarre quarrel over two Soviet school teachers who balked at going home from here.

The United States is ready to accept the closing of the American consulate in Vladivostok which Moscow ordered, Marshall said.

He brushed off as of slight importance to troubled Soviet-American relations Moscow's brusque action in ordering Soviet consulates in New York and San Francisco shut down.

He left open whether there would be even a reply to the bristling note Moscow delivered Tuesday. This again assailed American authorities for keeping two refugee teachers out of the hands of Soviet consular officials and announced the closing of all three American and Russian consulates.

Revoke Lomakin's Papers
Marshall commented on the weird dispute at a news conference. Shortly afterward President Truman disclosed he has formally revoked the credentials of Jacob M. Lomakin, Soviet consul general in New York, for "abuse" of his official privileges in the teacher cases.

When the White House yesterday put into Yorktown, Va., Presidential Secretary Charles G. Ross announced Mr. Truman signed late Tuesday an order revoking the "exequatur" (credentials) given Lomakin when he was made consul general. Ross said this action was independent of Moscow's latest move.

The U. S. demanded last Friday that Lomakin leave the country. He is scheduled to sail for home Saturday from New York.

SOVIET CONSUL GENERAL in San Francisco, Konstantin A. Efremov, paused for a chat with newsmen yesterday in the entrance to the consulate there. The San Francisco consulate is one of two that the Russians are closing in this country as an aftermath of the Kasenkina case. Mrs. Kasenkina, a Russian school teacher, leaped from the Russian consulate in New York recently, injuring herself seriously. She is recovering at Roosevelt hospital, N. Y.

Marshall stressed that Moscow's retaliation left ample facilities to carry on routine commercial relations between the United States and Russia which have been trade falling off in recent months.

The American embassy in Moscow and Russia's in Washington remain undisturbed.

Wait Translation
Marshall noted these have special sections devoted to carrying on consular duties, which are concerned with commercial relations.

In addition Russia still has in New York the Amtorg trading corporation to handle purchases of American goods.

Marshall said a decision on the next move would await official translation of the Russian note.

SUI Scottish Highlanders To Perform At Railroad Fair in Chicago Sept. 30

SUI's Scottish Highlanders will perform at the Railroad fair in Chicago Sept. 30, it was announced yesterday. About 65 kilt-clad lassies will participate.

The Highlanders, biggest bagpipe band in the world, will participate in the Iowa day festivities at the fair.

The Railroad fair committee invited the group to appear. During the Iowa day activities they will take part in three performances of the pageant "Wheels A'Rollin'" which is a continuous feature of the fair.

Gov. Robert E. Blue will also participate in the Iowa day celebration. Rehearsals under the direction of Pipe Major Bill Adamson will begin when the fall semester at the university opens on Sept. 23.

Capitol Vines Must Come Down For Repairs

The vines on Old Capitol, the oldest building on SU's campus, are coming down.

The famous building, symbolic of the university for over one hundred years, is being repaired for the first time in more than 25 years. The work will consist of repointing the masonry and caulking or putting the windows.

The Boston ivy vines which cover the outer walls must come down for the repairs. However, the roots of the vines are not being destroyed and vines are expected to cover the walls of the building again in several years.

According to William Anderson, assistant professor of botany at SU, Boston ivy grows at the rate of five to eight feet a year. "In four or five years the Boston ivy will be almost at the top of Old Capitol," Anderson said.

The repair work will be completed sometime next month. Old Capitol, constructed in 1840, was rebuilt in 1921 and 1922, according to R. J. Phillips, superintendent of the university physical plant.

Accuse ITU Of Contempt

WASHINGTON (AP)—The national labor relations board's prosecuting office demanded yesterday that the International Typographical union be adjudged in contempt of court.

The petition, if granted by the federal court at Indianapolis, might bring a heavy fine on the union's treasury.

Robert N. Denham, the board's general counsel, acting through Regional Director Jack G. Evans of Cincinnati, charged that the ITU has violated the injunction issued by Judge Luther M. Swygert last March 27, by continuing to insist on what amounted to closed shop conditions in negotiations with newspaper employers.

The step was the toughest crackdown by Denham since the Taft-Hartley act became effective a year ago. The act outlaws the closed shop, but the 96-year-old printer's union has attempted to hold on to its practice of admitting only union members to their places of work.

The injunction was issued in a case brought by the American Newspaper Publishers association for more than 800 newspapers. Similar action was taken by the Printing Industry of America, for the nation's commercial print shops.

Dubuque Street Crash Damage Put at $150

A two-car accident which did an estimated $150 damage to each car was reported yesterday to Iowa City police.

Cars driven by Ray E. Green, Cedar Rapids, and O. M. Albright, 326 S. Madison street, collided yesterday on Dubuque street as Albright was driving his car away from the curb and Green was driving south on Dubuque street, according to the report.

BICYCLING ACROSS THE COUNTRY on a lecture tour, Charles C. White, news analyst and specialist in current history, arrived in Iowa City yesterday. White will speak to the Rotary club at their noon meeting today in the Jefferson hotel. The Yale graduate made a personal survey of public opinion in this country in 1941 by bicycle. White left Los Angeles June 30 and expects to arrive in New York about the first week in October.

Asks Leave Time To Complete Book

George Kernode, associate professor of dramatic arts, has requested a leave of absence for the fall semester to do research work for a book.

Kernode will leave in October to do research in the New York public library, the library of congress and the Folger Shakespearean library in Washington, D. C.

The book, dealing with the history of the theater, will require five or six more years to complete. Parts of the book, he said, have already required about 15 years to finish.

His wife will accompany him on the trip to Washington, D. C. and New York. Their residence here is 318 E. Church street.

West Branch Motorist Pays Fine for Speeding

Lyle David Lucky, West Branch, was fined $17.50 for speeding, by Judge J. M. Kadlec in police court yesterday.

He pleaded guilty to the charge which said he was operating a motor vehicle at a speed of 40 miles per hour in a 25 mile an hour speed zone.

Admit New Polio Cases to Hospital

Two new polio cases were admitted to University hospitals, authorities there said yesterday.

James Neiman, 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Neiman of Sumner, is in fair condition. He was admitted Aug. 22.

David Cuckler, 26, Monticello, is in fair condition. He was admitted Tuesday.

The new cases bring to eight the number of "active" polio cases being treated at the hospital.

Judge Gaffney Grants Phyllis Lisle Divorce

Judge James P. Gaffney yesterday granted Phyllis Lisle a divorce from Sanford Lisle in the Johnson county district court.

She charged cruel and inhuman treatment in her petition. Gaffney granted the plaintiff the household furniture and ordered the defendant to pay outstanding debts of the couple.

They were married Aug. 31, 1946, at Muscatine and separated July 5, 1948.

Swisher and Swisher were attorneys for Mrs. Lisle.

PERHAPS THIS LITTLE FORM DOESN'T APPEAL to you, but it holds special interest for you men in the 18-25 age group. It's the new selective service system registration card. Uncle Sam has devised 16 questions for you to answer. Answer them and once you are "selected" brother, don't say we didn't warn you. If you're draft material why not substitute your name where it says "sample" just to see how it fits. But cheer up fellows. It's only a 21-month hitch and President Truman has ordered deferments for married men, most farm workers, men with dependents and many others.

A draft registration point will be established at the veterans service office, 110 Iowa avenue, for non-resident university students, Johnson county draft officials said yesterday.

The draft board, meeting with William D. Coder, director of the veterans office, made arrangements for the registration point.

The point will be established because many university students, including freshmen, will be here awaiting for school opening on the dates they are to register.

Draft age men must register on their scheduled day wherever they happen to be. The records are then sent to their home counties.

Coder will direct the new registration point. In addition to registering draft age men, the office will provide information on queries concerning selective service. The office will be open from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Other Office in Courthouse

The new office is expected to take part of the load off the office in the Johnson county district courthouse. The office there is located in the room formerly occupied by the county superintendent of schools.

Men from 18-25 years of age are required to register for the draft. On Aug. 30 men born in 1922 will register. On Aug. 31, those born in 1923 register. Persons born in 1924 register Sept. 2-3; 1925, Sept. 4 or 7; 1926, Sept. 8-9; 1927, Sept. 10-11; 1928, Sept. 13-14; 1929, Sept. 15-16 and persons born in 1930 before Sept. 30 will register Sept. 17-18.

Selective service headquarters in Washington, D. C. recently advised veterans to bring their discharge papers with them when they report for draft registration.

Although most veterans are exempt from the peacetime draft, selective service officials explained that veterans can make it easier for themselves and for their local boards if they bring proof of previous military service.

After registering, draft-age men will wait for classification forms which should be received within a week or two. These are much more detailed than the cards and must be returned within 10 days. With these forms the local board determines a man's classification.

SUI Housing Open to Single Men Students

Housing is still available for single students planning to enroll at SU this fall. T. M. Rehder, director of dormitories and married students housing, announced yesterday.

Rehder said that 200 beds remain unfilled in the university for single men. All university space for single women is filled, he said, but some cancellations are expected to provide rooms for a few women before the fall term opens.

Off-Campus Rooms
Off-campus rooms are available for both single men and single women, Richard E. Sweitzer, manager of off-campus housing, stated. Last year about 4,200 students lived off the campus.

There are no sleeping rooms or apartments for married students listed at the present time in the off-campus housing office.

Waiting List
Rehder explained that there are still waiting lists for the 890 married student housing units of the university.

Housing is available in the small communities around Iowa City for students who can commute.

University officials suggest that all students have a place to stay before registering.

Mona Wendt Fined In IC Police Court

Mona Wendt, 19, 927 E. Deerpark street, was fined $102.50 by Judge J. M. Kadlec in Iowa City police court yesterday. She was charged with disturbing the peace.

Marcella York, 1119 E. Church street, was held in the Johnson county jail last night after her hearing on a charge of disturbing the peace was continued to this morning by Kadlec.

The two defendants and another woman who did not appear in court yesterday were charged in an information signed by Joe Hobbs, owner of the Hawkeye-Varsity Cab company. Hobbs said the three used obscene and indecent language in his cab company office at 126 1/2 S. Dubuque street on the night of Aug. 23.

Wendt pleaded not guilty at the hearing yesterday. After hearing three witnesses Kadlec found her guilty and fined her. York asked that her case be continued so she could obtain an attorney.
