Indian new World champs, halt last-stand Boston rally

By CARL LUNDQUIST

United Press International

BOSTON (UP) — The Indians defeated the Boston Braves in the World Series today by 4-3, to take a 3 to 1 lead in the best-of-seven games series.

In baseball, perhaps never, has the game been ruled so much by the pitcher. Two left-handed pitchers, John Smoltz of the Indians and Don Drysdale of the Braves, hurled a shutout for their teams.

The Indians, led by Bob Lemon, had the lead until the seventh inning. Lemon pitched four and two-thirds scoreless innings and lifted his record to 15-5.

Witt THOUSANDS of DOLLARS sitting on the game, Boston Post Starter Earl Wilson miscalculated the game. He pitched the Indians in a valiant attempt to reach a first place, but Indian Pitcher Bob Lemon had just hit the last three series at home.

GOP Plans Big Rally
Two Parades Tonight

The GOP campaign train rolled into Iowa City tonight to lead the fight night rally of its 996 mile trek. Tonight's parade, music, speeches and a free movie are a part of the re-election's program.

The rally will be at 8:30 when two groups of marchers start their parade to the hulking spot located on Iowa Avenue between Anderson and Clinton, bordering on the riverfront.

The first group will consist of the students of the University of Iowa with the second group made up of the students of Central College.

Radio results for the parade will be supplied by stations KXCL and KMUR.

The final rally will be at the University of Iowa when the students of both colleges will be present.

Bob Tyson, parade director, said:

"The rally will be a great day for all of us. The students of both colleges will be present and the parade will be a great success."
The Missing Mission to Moscow

During most of the campaign the Republicans have refused to be drawn by the Democrats on the subject of the mission to Moscow. They have claimed a precedent in 1903 when Senator Henry Cabot Lodge and a group of other Democratic Senators went to Moscow in the name of the United States. But Lodge never did get to Moscow, and the Russians were not notified of the expedition at all.

The Republicans won't say to whom they object the fact that Congress has, by a joint resolution, set up a commission of inquiry to investigate the matter of the United States mission to Moscow. They will not say whether they support or oppose the resolution, but they will say that the mission is not necessary.

The resolution was introduced by Representative Gerald N. Nye, a Democrat of North Dakota. It provides for the appointment of a commission of five senators and five representatives to make a thorough investigation of the mission and to report thereon to Congress.

The Democratic party is now in control of both houses of Congress, and it is likely that the commission will be appointed and will make a report.

The Republicans say they will support the resolution if it is passed by Congress, but they are not in favor of the mission itself.

The Mission to Moscow was an important event in American foreign policy. It marked the beginning of the Cold War between the United States and the Soviet Union.
