Russ Veto New Plan; Israel Debate Stalled

PARIS (AP)—Andrei Vishinsky of Russia has rejected the six-power face-saving resolution for solving the Berlin crisis, an authoritative informant said last night.

A Soviet veto of the resolution when it comes before the security council on Monday apparently is in the cards. Although there is no certainty that Moscow has given its final answer, it appeared Vishinsky took his stand after consultation with the Kremlin.

Two-Front Firing After UN Deadline In Palestine Fight

TEL AVIV (AP)—Jewish forces still were attacking Egyptian positions in southern Palestine 24 hours after the United Nations cease-fire deadline, UN truce headquarters announced last night.

Heavy fighting also was reported in the northern district of Galilee, although no late details were available. Syria and Israel blame each other for the battle which flared along the Syrian border Friday night.

Vishinsky's objection, it was reported, was to lifting the blockade before a currency solution went into effect.

The western powers already had turned down Friday his counterproposal for simultaneous lifting of the blockade and putting into effect the currency agreement.

Meanwhile, the Arab countries, supported by the United States, succeeded in putting off debate in the UN assembly's political committee on the Bernadotte plan for permanent peace in Palestine.

An Israel spokesman immediately protested, and Poland charged that some countries were stalling until after the United States presidential election.

Hull Assails Soviet Action

WASHINGTON (AP)—Cordell Hull said last night that Russia's "dangerous behavior" is arousing the world's anger and jeopardizing peace.

The 77-year-old former secretary of state declared in a United Nations Day statement that Soviet leaders had broken solemn pledges to cooperate for world peace and security.

French Coal Strike Sees More Clashes

PARIS (AP)—Four persons were injured yesterday in clashes between strikers and combined forces of police and fierce native African soldiers in France's crippling national coal mine strike.

The Communist party and leaders of the Communist-dominated General Federation of Labor, scolding the government's threat of a bloody showdown in the labor war, called on the workers of the western world to support the 20-day-old walkout.

Drake UN Council Debates Minorities

DES MOINES (AP)—The treatment of minorities in all nations, and especially Negroes in the United States, was condemned by the Iowa Intercollegiate United Nations conference at Drake university yesterday.

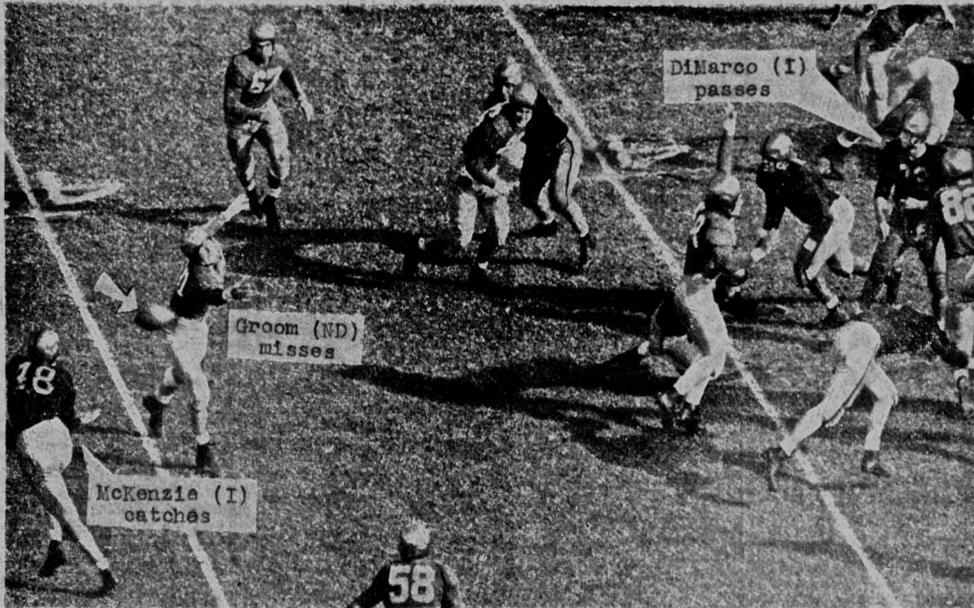

A resolution "disapproving" treatment of Negroes and other groups was adopted by the general assembly of the mock UN meeting after heated debate.

This 'Stealing' Case Proved Their 'Metal'

OMAHA (AP)—One of the "biggest" cases of petit larceny in recent years was tried in police court yesterday.

Three men were convicted of stealing three steel beams from a metal company.

Total weight of the loot was one ton.

GOOD FOR 17 YARDS was this pass from Al DiMarco to Bob McKenzie in the first quarter of Iowa's game with Notre Dame yesterday. Jerry Groom, Notre Dame center from Des Moines, just barely missed knocking the pass down. McKenzie caught the ball on the Iowa 46-yard line and carried it into Notre Dame territory in the Hawkeyes' first quarter drive which brought them their first touchdown. Wendall (58) and Panelli (67) of Notre Dame moved in on the play from both sides but couldn't get there in time to knock down the pass. Martin, Notre Dame end, reached high to deflect the pass but he, too, missed.

Notre Dame's Running Assault Overcomes DiMarco's Passing

By BUCK TURNBULL
Sports Editor

Mighty Notre Dame, utilizing its overwhelming manpower and crushing running game to excellent advantage, continued its unbeaten streak to 23 straight games by lashing Iowa yesterday afternoon, 27-12.

A capacity crowd of 53,000 persons overflowed the Iowa stadium to watch the Hawkeyes put up a furious battle before falling in defeat.

Iowa stayed on even terms with the brilliant Fighting Irish for 41 of the 60 minutes after trailing at halftime, 13-6. Quarterback Al DiMarco kept the Hawks in the threatening role throughout the entire game.

But the Irish, operating a running streak with amazing dexterity, just had too much for the Old Gold eleven to overcome.

Notre Dame scored what was probably one of the quickest touchdowns in football history by a team which opened the game by kicking off. The Ramblers hit pay dirt after only 28 seconds of the first quarter had elapsed.

Tackle Steve Orako blocked the kickoff to Iowa Halfback Jerry Faske on the 10-yard line. Faske returned to his own 34 and fumbled the ball, Fullback Johnny Panelli recovering for Notre Dame.

Panelli Scores
Panelli, behind a flock of six blockers, skirted his own right end on the first running play of the game and rambled the full 34 yards to score. Orako's extra point placement was wide.

On the return kickoff Iowa used exactly seven plays to march 74 yards and tie the count at 6-6.

Three pass plays with DiMarco on the pitching end netted 59 yards. Faske closing the drive with a one-yard plunge over right guard. Ron Headington missed the first of his two extra point tries.

After the first two touchdowns the teams settled down to fundamental football, both stressing their own strong points. Notre Dame's ball carriers proved their outstanding ability, and DiMarco showed that he is by far the best passer in the middle west.

Little Al completed 11 of 26 attempted passes for a total gain of 201 yards.

Irish Passes Futile
It is probably safe to say that Notre Dame, in all of its stupendous football history, was never so futile on offensive passing. The Irish completed one of eight passes during the game and that one reception lost seven yards.

You have to commend the Iowa players, coaches, et al, for accomplishing such a feat. The Hawk pass defense, a major weakness Following Notre Dame's lightning-like first touchdown, the Irish sent the next kickoff to Faske on the Iowa 4. He returned 22 yards to the 26.

DiMarco fired his first aerial to End Jack Dittmer on the 38. Faske hit left guard for three and DiMarco heaved a 14-yard pass to his favorite receiver, Left End Bob McKenzie, on the Notre Dame 45.

Faske found a hole at right guard and drove to the 41. Pint-sized DiMarco then threw a long, lofty pass which McKenzie speared on the 8-yard stripe while hemmed in by two Irish defenders.

POLITICS ON SATURDAY?
Taking their cue from University of Wisconsin students who hoisted a "Goodbye Harry" banner at the Wisconsin-Yale game in Madison last week to express their opposition to Coach Harry Stuhldreher, some SUI Young Democrats yesterday held up a "We're for Harry" sign between halves of the game.

wide opening to the 1-yard line, setting up the subsequent tally by Faske.

Notre Dame immediately came back down the field but failed to score after taking the Iowa kickoff.

Halfback Emil Sitko caught Headington's boot on his own 11 and scampered 78 yards behind terrific blocking to the Hawkeye 11. But the Iowa line held firmly and the Irish lost the ball on downs on the Old Gold 3-yard line.

With 5 minutes, 20 seconds to go in the first half, Notre Dame broke the tie and took the lead, 13-6.

DiMarco, attempting to pass, fumbled the oval on his own 10 with Leon Hart recovering for the Irish. Two line bucks by Sitko led to Halfback Bill Gay's scoring sprint around right end from the 4. Orako split the uprights.

Iowa opened the second half with a drive which had it ended with a touchdown, might have

Truman Speaks, Dewey Rests As Election Race Nears End

PITTSBURGH—President Truman last night accused Governor Thomas E. Dewey of making a "double talk" campaign which he said is an "insult" to American voters.

The President said his Republican opponent is running on a "me too" endorsement of the New Deal which the GOP record won't support.

Meanwhile Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, resting in Albany before the finish sprint of his presidential election race, said last night that he wanted the American navy to be continued as "the strongest in the world."

Mr. Truman spoke in Hunt Armory, from the same platform Dewey used. His crowd, like Dewey's was estimated at 10,000 inside the hall and an indeterminate overflow outside which heard the speech via public address system.

"This soft talk and double talk, this combination of crafty silence and resounding misrepresentation is an insult to the intelligence of the American voter. It proceeds upon the assumption that you can fool all the people — or enough of them — all the time."

Dewey invades four Democratic city strongholds next week in a campaign windup aimed at what he hopes will be a big popular vote victory Nov. 2.

There is every indication that Dewey will continue in the final week of campaigning to plug away at the theme that his election will unify the country and serve notice on the world that there is no division here over foreign policy.

Community Chest Goes Over Quota

The Community Chest was filled to the brim and running over in spots yesterday, according to unofficial total returns tabulated by chest headquarters.

Contributions of $185 yesterday morning pushed unofficial totals of $19,739.92, $7.16 over this year's Community Chest quota.

Figures cannot be official until chest personnel have checked the records for errors. Mrs. J. L. Records, permanent secretary, said official totals would probably be released late next week.

Labor Statistics Report Halt in Living Cost Rise

WASHINGTON (AP)—An end to a five-month record climb in living costs was reported yesterday by the government.

The monthly survey of the bureau of labor statistics showed that the mid-September cost of living in big cities stayed the same as that reported for mid-August.

It was disclosed by officials of the department last night that results of an FBI inquiry into the situation had been presented to a regular grand jury meeting in the District of Columbia. Some members of Thomas' office staff also appeared before the grand jury Friday, department officials said.

WELLESLEY PREXY RESIGNS

WELLESLEY, MASS. (AP)—Mrs. Mildred McAfee Horton, who commanded the navy WAVES during the war, has resigned as president of Wellesley college.

Final Count Shows SUI Enrollment at New High of 10,886

Enrollment at SUI has reached an all-time high of 10,886 students.

A comparative enrollment report released yesterday by Registrar Ted McCarrel showed that 847 more students enrolled this semester than enrolled first semester last year.

The increase is concentrated in the junior and senior classes and in graduate college. McCarrel said this indicates a drop will occur in enrollment in a few years.

Made up entirely of men, the increase swelled the number of male students to 8,018. A total of 2,868 women students—six less than last year—make the man-woman ratio slightly less than three to one.

Veteran enrollment saw a slight decrease, but over 50 percent of the total student body is veteran.

Significant increases of students occurred in the graduate college and in the colleges of commerce and pharmacy. Pharmacy's enrollment increase of 19 is significant because of the small size of the college, McCarrel said.

Over half of the students in graduate college are veterans.

Ranked according to size of the colleges, here is a break-down of the total enrollment:

Liberal arts, 6098, an increase of 135; graduate, 1,841, increase 323; commerce, 1,001, increase 172; engineering, 629, decrease two; law, 384, decrease 42.

Medicine, 297, increase 20; nursing, 264, decrease four; pharmacy, 196, increase 19, and dentistry, 176, increase 26.

The total veteran enrollment this year is 5,453 compared with 5,865 enrolled the first semester last year.

LIST EXPENDITURES

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Republican national committee reported to congress yesterday that it had received contributions totaling $1,464,753 since the first of the year and had spent $1,706,370.

Al Catches Shirttail Hurling Irish Wall

AL DIMARCO SNEAKS over from the one-yard line from his quarterback spot to score Iowa's second touchdown late in the final quarter. Groom's shirttail tackle failed to stop DiMarco as he danced over to make the score 27 to 12. Iowa moved into scoring territory on a pass that bounced off McKenzie's fingertips, hit another player and bounced back into McKenzie's hands for a completed pass.

DiMarco 'Marvelous Passer' Says Leahy

Irish Players Praise Hawks' Forward Wall, Pass Defense

By JOHN HOLWAY

Al DiMarco is "definitely the best passer we've seen all year," declared Frank Leahy, coach of the Fighting Irish, yesterday.

After watching Little Al spin 11 passes for more than 200 yards against his national-title-bound Notre Dame, Leahy was emphatic. "Definitely," exclaimed the Irish mentor. "He's a marvelous passer!"

"It was an exciting game to watch," Leahy answered well-wishers in the dressing room. "I thought for a while there that we could lose it."

Jerry Groom, the Des Moines center from Dowling high who stopped more than his share of Iowa charges through the line, opined afterward that the Iowa forward wall facing him was "a terrific line."

The 210-pound center, who has played prep ball against Iowa's Jimmy Halliburton and Don Fryar, added, "Iowa's got a good team. We knew they were going to have a good team, and they played just like we thought they would."

"I think they were tired," Jerry said. "It was hot today, awful hot, and a lot of them must have played 50 to 60 minutes."

"Iowa's pass defense?" asked Frank Tripucka humorously. "You saw what they did to me; nothing for nine?" (Actually Tripucka was held to a single completion in seven throws.)

"Yes, I'd say Iowa's pass defense was terrific!" praised the usually soft-spoken successor to Johnny Lujack.

Leahy joined his star quarterback in handing bouquets to the Iowa defensive backfield. "It was excellent today," he nodded.

In the Iowa dressing room, Coach Eddie Anderson was downcast, but he was quick to commend the Hawks.

"It sure looked black for a while there, but they tried hard," he said for the Hawks' eyes. It was the second straight game Iowa had driven deep in the opponents' land in the last few seconds in spite of a two-touchdown lead hanging over them.

Jack Dittmer was unhappy about the decision which disallowed his near touchdown in the fourth period. DiMarco had passed to the Elksader end who lost the ball as he fell, making the catch in the end zone.

"I held it until I touched the ground and then dropped it," explained Dittmer. "We got the touchdown anyway," he shrugged and dismissed the subject.

Jerry Fiske analyzed the defeat in part: "They got some breaks," he said.

His own fumble had set up the first Irish tally, but Jerry wouldn't excuse it. "It was a fumble," Fiske said curtly. "You don't know how it happens."

But, admitted the Brookston halfback wholeheartedly, "They had a good school—an excellent school, I should say!"

Jimmy Halliburton agreed. "Oh boy, they were terrific!" exclaimed the sophomore from Des Moines.

Al DiMarco wasn't so overwhelmed by the Irish. "Aw, they got a good team," Alfonso admitted grudgingly.

Mearl Naber summed up the contest with, "We made a few mistakes that were costly." But he quickly balanced his explanations: "They had good downfield blocking," Naber said for the Irish.

Notre Dame-Iowa To Clash in 1949

Scheduling of a game with Notre Dame at South Bend to complete the University of Iowa's 1949 football schedule was announced Saturday morning by Director Paul Brechler.

The game is set for Nov. 19, to close the season, he said.

Director Brechler also said that Iowa and Notre Dame would meet at Iowa City Nov. 18, 1950, thereby continuing the consecutive games which started in 1945.

This is the complete 1949 schedule.

Sept. 24—U.C.L.A. at Iowa City
Oct. 1—Purdue at Lafayette
Oct. 8—Illinois at Iowa City
Oct. 15—Indiana at Iowa City
Oct. 22—Northwestern at Iowa City
Oct. 29—Oregon at Iowa City
Nov. 5—Minnesota at Minneapolis
Nov. 12—Wisconsin at Madison
Nov. 19—Notre Dame at South Bend

DIMARCO GAINS 8 YARDS around his right end after faking a pass in the second quarter. The line of scrimmage was on the Iowa 34-yard line. After Panelli caught him on the 38 Wendell hit them both from behind and drove them forward to the Iowa 42-yard line. The Hawks got the ball when Notre Dame kicked off after scoring to make it 13 to 6. Doran took the kick and ran it to the 34. Iowa drove to the Notre Dame 39-yard line on his series of downs before losing the ball on downs. The Irish took over and ran two plays before the gun went off ending the first half.

Wolves Outlast Gophers

Late Surge Wins, 27-14

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—Undeclared Michigan's best-in-the-nation Wolverines twice came from behind yesterday to smother ponderous Minnesota 27-14, and knock the Gophers out of Rose Bowl contention.

A record crowd of 65,130 packed Memorial stadium for the game.

The tricky Wolverines, storming to their 19th straight victory, spotted the brawny Gophers a 7-0 lead in the second period and a 14-13 edge in the third quarter, but nonchalantly shoved across two more classes to settle the "Little Brown Jug" classic.

The Wolverines, who are excluded from a second straight Rose Bowl trip, won their fifth consecutive game this season with a consistent display of trickery and cagey football.

After a scoreless first period, Minnesota jumped to a 7-0 lead when Harry Elliott's punt was twice fumbled by Gene Derricotte and recovered by huge Tackle Leo Nommellini in the Wolverine end zone for a touchdown.

Michigan drew its first blood in the second period on a 39-yard payoff march with Walt Tenings flipping a 7-yard scoring pass to Fullback Tom Peterson which tied the score at 7-7.

Still in the second period, an Elliott punt was blocked by Ed McNeill and recovered by Quentin Sickle on the Gopher 1-foot line. Peterson rumbled over for a touchdown and Michigan led 13-7 at half time.

The Gophers, full of fight, charged 67 yards for their only other touchdown midway in the third period with Ev Faunce knitting 14 yards on a sizzling scoring run to cap the drive which put Minnesota ahead 14-13.

The pivotal Wolverine touchdown came midway in the third period when Dick Rifenburg, a brilliant end performer the entire perfect football afternoon, grabbed a bobbled Minnesota pass interception and scurried to a score.

The play opened with a pass by Charlie Ortman which Minnesota's Halfback Faunce grabbed on his 15. The ball popped out of his arms and Rifenburg snared it in mid-air. Rifenburg also bobbled the ball, but scooped it up again and snaked into pay dirt.

The final Wolverine touchdown came in the fourth period on a pass play covering 64 yards. With the ball on Michigan's 36, Ortman shot a rifle toss to fleet Leo Koceski, who speared the oval on Minnesota's 40 and behind a phalanx of Wolverine blockers streaked the route across the goal line.

Columbia Upset, 16-14
NEW YORK (AP)—Princeton engineered a major upset yesterday, riding to a 16-14 triumph over Columbia on the right toe of Frank Reichel, a third-string center who transformed himself from goat to hero in less than five minutes.

With only a minute and seven seconds of the game remaining Reichel booted a 24-yard field goal that gave the aroused Tigers the victory.

Hawk Harriers Lose Close Race to Irish

Notre Dame defeated the University of Iowa cross country team over the Hawkeye 3-mile course yesterday morning by the close score of 27-28. Jim Murphy of the Irish team was the first place winner.

Murphy, who was timed in 15:11.4 for the distance finished about eight seconds ahead of Keith Brown, Iowa sophomore. Dick McClanahan of Iowa was third.

Bucks Hold Badgers Off

Win, 34-32, With Passes

COLUMBUS, OHIO (AP)—Ohio State scored five touchdowns through the air yesterday to edge an inspired Wisconsin team, 34 to 32.

The Badgers, fighting out all their touchdowns along the ground, did not disgrace much criticized Coach Harry Stuhldreher.

Travelling down to Ohio in a fighting mood brought on by critical "Good Bye Harry" fans back home, Wisconsin displayed a smooth working offense that netted five touchdowns against an Ohio State defense that was rated among the top 10 in the nation last week.

The Buckeyes, trailing by two touchdowns after the first period, threw caution to the winds and went all out for the victory.

Quarterback Pandel Savic was credited with three of the payoff passes, while the other two were running throws produced by hard-driving Halfback Jerry Krall.

The Badgers pushed across two quick touchdowns in the first period. And they weren't fazed even by a lightning struck through the air for one touchdown by Ohio State at the beginning of the second period. Wisconsin came back for one to make it 19-7.

But then Ohio State scored two more quick ones with passes to go off the field at half-time with a 20-19 lead. Altogether 27 points were scored in the second period.

Wisconsin would not be denied. The Badgers came out for two hard-fought scores in the third period and it looked like it was curtains for Ohio State.

As it finally turned out, the extra point conversions told the tale. End Jimmie Hague counted four for Ohio State, while Lisle Blackbourn could convert only two as ball holder Wally Dreyer fumbled the first two tries. It was Wisconsin's fourth defeat of the season.

Pitt Pass Overtakes Indiana to Win, 21-14

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Little Louis (Bimbo) Ceconi, a 165-pound Pitt halfback with a penchant for the dramatic, did it again yesterday.

He pitched the Panthers to a 21-14 victory over Indiana university in a movie ending to delight 17,118 amazed fans. Ceconi waited until the last minute and 18 seconds for a herculean heave to Halfback Jimmy Joe Robinson of Conneville, Pa., for a touchdown play which covered 63 yards.

A 14-0 Pitt lead was wiped out by a fine Indiana last-half comeback which gained a 14-14 deadlock in the fourth period.

That tie was the individual accomplishment of Halfback George Talaferro, a 190-pound football jack-of-all-trades from Gary, Ind. He took a screen pass and raced like a hungry greyhound 80 yards down the sidelines to score.

In the third period, Talaferro put Indiana into the ball game by taking the pitching end of the same play. He flipped to Halfback John McDonnell of Chicago, who ran 60 yards for the first Indiana score.

Dittmer (I) leaps, gathers in DiMarco pass. But make way for Gay (ND)

AL DIMARCO'S PASS ended up this way after being fired from 14 yards upfield in the second quarter yesterday. Dittmer hopped up to take it on the Iowa 40. Notre Dame's Bill Gay came up to make the tackle.

IOWA GAME

changed the complete complexion of the game.

On the first play following the second half kickoff, Sikko fumbled on his own 27. Tony Guzowski flopped on the ball for Iowa.

Mearl Naber, 18-year-old sophomore halfback from Tipton, and Johnny Tedore, who alternated his running duties between fullback and left half, carried the ball to the 2-yard line in five plays.

The march fizzled when Naber was dropped on the 8 by Gay and two DiMarco passes fell incomplete.

The final outcome of the game remained questionable until Pandel's 39-yard touchdown dash with a little more than three minutes to go in the third quarter. Oracko's extra point kick put Notre Dame ahead, 20-5.

The Irish placed the game in cold storage after 10 seconds of the fourth period had elapsed.

Four plays covered 52 yards with Substitute Halfback Larry Coutre romping 35 yards for Notre Dame's fourth and final score on the first play of the final quarter.

Iowa never gave up the fight, scoring one more touchdown and threatening to get another when the game ended.

Tripucka, who had a passing average of .646 prior to yesterday afternoon, had one of his throws intercepted by Center Dick Meyer on the 50-yard line. Meyer ran the ball to the Irish 24, with eight and one-half minutes left to play.

The officials moved the ball to the 19 when Notre Dame delayed the course of the game.

DiMarco fired a bullet to Halliburton in the left flat which was good for six yards to the 13. DiMarco's next pass to Dittmer in the end zone was ruled incomplete, the officials claiming he did not hold the pigskin long enough to make it a completion.

But the freak incident of the game occurred on the next play. Little Al's flip to McKenzie bounced off the range end's finger tips; it was bobbled by Safety Man Frank Spaniel; it spun high into the air, and lo and behold, McKenzie reached out and caught the errant pigskin on the 2-yard line.

Al Sneaks Over
Halfback Bill Greene plowed the middle for one, but Joe Paulsen failed to gain on the next play. So DiMarco completed the show by sneaking into the end zone for the final score.

The Irish took the ensuing Iowa kickoff, moved the ball into

Illinois Boots Purdue, 10-6

CHAMPAIGN, ILL. (AP)—End Don Maechtle's place-kicking carried Illinois to a 10 to 6 western conference victory over Purdue before 56,451 football fans yesterday.

Maechtle's place-kicks proved to be the difference between the two second-division Big Nine teams as alert defenses bottled up the passes of Purdue's Bob DeMoss and Illinois' Bernie Krueger.

Maechtle booted a 20-yard field goal in the second quarter and added the extra point to an Illinois touchdown in the third quarter to give Illinois its first conference victory.

The game, which had been billed as an offensive show featured by razzle-dazzle passing attacks, turned into a grim defensive battle. Neither DeMoss nor Krueger could find pass receivers in the open. However, DeMoss finally located Ken Gorgal with a 33-yard heave late in the game, providing the only Purdue score. Gorgal took the pass on the one-yard line and stepped across the goal line.

For the day, however, DeMoss completed only three of 15 passes. Krueger fared better for Illinois, hitting three out of seven passes, but they were good for only 14 yards.

Both teams took advantage of the breaks that came their way. The statistics gave Illinois a wide edge with 16 first downs to Purdue's nine and 292 yards on ground plays to 97 for Purdue. Purdue gained 76 yards on DeMoss' three completed passes.

Northwestern Bows Orange Over, 48-0

EVANSTON, ILL. (AP)—Northwestern's burly football team slaughtered outclassed Syracuse yesterday, 48 to 0.

How badly Northwestern outsped its opponents was obvious from the statistics. The Wildcats swept 345 yards on the ground and 76 yards passing.

It was a scoring breeze for Northwestern. Fullback Art Muralowski netted the first two tallies in the first period, one of them on a 52 yard romp. Next, Halfback Ed Tunniffelt went over and then Gasper Perricone, a reserve fullback.

In the final period, Quarterback Jim Farrar sparked the passing for scores, throwing to End Armand Cureau for two tallies while Halfback Johnny Miller ran eight yards for another.

Heidt Concert Tickets Available Tomorrow

Tickets for the Horace Heidt concert Nov. 6 go on sale tomorrow, the central party and entertainment committee, sponsors of the show, said yesterday.

The Iowa Union desk and Whetstone's drug store will handle local pre-concert sales. The night of the concert, tickets will be available at the field house where the concert will be held. Tickets are $1.50.

Mail orders may be sent to the Horace Heidt concert, Iowa Memorial Union, Iowa City.

Five local amateurs will be featured on the show. They are Leo Cortimiglia, 1946 SUI graduate; Milo Hamilton, A4; Lea Spivak, A1; Jacqueline Fitzgerald, A3, and David McAdams, A1.

Miss Fitzgerald and McAdams will sing. Lea Spivak will play the piano. Cortimiglia will play the accordion and piano, and Hamilton will do impersonations.

Any of these amateurs may have a chance to go on Heidt's radio show and compete in his talent contest.

The local talent is only one part of the three hour show. Heidt has 50 persons in his troupe and 14 in his band.

U. Hospitals Admit Four Polio Patients

The "active" polio list at University hospitals increased to 16 yesterday when four new patients were reported.

The new patients are Thersa Werstein, 4, Mason City, admitted Oct. 20; Allen Knutson, 5, Bryant, admitted Oct. 21; Lee Waters, 15, Birmingham, admitted Oct. 21 and Irene Sibenecher, 19, Clarinda, admitted Oct. 19.

Hospital authorities describe the conditions of all four as "fair."

Rev. Hamill, Christ Methodist church minister in Burlington, is very active in Methodist student work and the article is a chapter from his book on the Christian student written for the National Methodist Student conference to be held in Dec., 1949.

KC's Plan 'Hoe-down' For Tomorrow Night

Knights and their ladies will dance to Hal Webster and his orchestra at a Halloween hoe-down tomorrow night.

Jack Shrader, dance committee chairman, said all Knights of Columbus members are invited to attend the old-clothes party from 8:30 to 12 at the KC club rooms.

Personal Notes

Bridge, euchre and pinchle will be played at a benefit card party for the swimming pool at 8 p.m. Wednesday. The party, sponsored by the East Lucas women's club, will be in the Community building. Admission is 25 cents per person.

Betty Moscoe, Des Moines, is visiting Elaine Reiser, A3, Clinton, this weekend.

Mrs. A. D. Hensleigh, 117 Richards street, returned Friday from Des Moines where she attended semi-annual Y.W.C.A. state board meeting on Thursday and Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Benell, Lone Tree, will be dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Yordi, 714 N. Van Buren street, today. Yordi and Mrs. Benell celebrate their birthdays today.

Mrs. Hugh Carson, Mrs. Robert Buckles, and Mrs. David Braderman returned yesterday from the regional Girl Scout conference in Lincoln, Nebraska. Margie Moeller and Betty Welter were among the 18 senior Girl Scouts from this area present at the six day conference by invitation. Both of the Iowa City Girl Scouts appeared on the program.

Raymond N. Welly, SUI alumnus of the class of '28, visited the campus and engineering building Thursday. Welly, a graduate in hydraulic engineering, is with Union Electric company of Missouri. His home is in St. Louis.

Presbyterians Plan Prayer Workshops

The First Presbyterian church will hold the first of four Sunday night prayer workshops in prayer today at 7:15 p.m. in the church sanctuary.

Mrs. Brainerd N. Covert, Westminster foundation student director, said yesterday that the workshops will be led by the Rev. P. Hewison Pollock and will be open to all students.

Mrs. Covert said the workshops are designed as question and answer periods on prayer and are for open discussion. Tonight's theme will be "Exploring Prayer," she added.

Succeeding workshops will be held on Oct. 31, Nov. 7 and Nov. 14 at the same time and place.

Elect Robert Ballantyne Dramatics Group Head

Robert Ballantyne was elected president of the Jesters club, University high school dramatics group, Tuesday night. Elizabeth Engrav was named vice-president and Marge Kurtz, secretary and treasurer.

Frank Baker, Dennis Hagler and Curtis Miller were initiated into the club. A short skit featuring Elizabeth Engrav, Robert Ballantyne and Kenneth Longman was presented following initiation.

Missouri Masters Cyclones by 49-7

COLUMBIA, MO. (AP)—Missouri started slowly but gained momentum to crush Iowa State, 49-7, yesterday in the Tigers' Big Seven conference football opener.

Bob Dawson, who was released from a hospital this morning after an attack of appendicitis four days ago, converted after each of the touchdowns. He ran his string of perfect boots to an even dozen.

Bus Entsminger, the Missouri field general, completed five of six passes for 88 yards.

The passing of Don Ferguson featured a first quarter drive that carried 70 yards for the Cyclones' only touchdown. After a series of Ferguson passes to Dean Norman, Don Laun and Webb Halbert, Ferguson plunged over from the one-yard line. Joe Brubaker converted.

Switzer Hits SUI Campus Speech by Cain

HARLAN—Carroll, O. Switzer, Democratic candidate for governor, Friday attacked the speech of Sen. Cain (R-Wash.) delivered on the SUI campus Thursday night, as "a perfect example of lop-sided opportunities of expression under a one-party system of government."

"Political speeches by candidates or persons speaking for them are supposedly banned by the state board of education. Yet Mr. Cain declared in his address in a university building that one of his purposes was to speak for two men—Gov. Dewey and Gov. Warren. It is highly significant that only a few days previously Rep. Sam Rayburn (D-Tex.), former speaker of the house of representatives, in keeping with the supposed ban on politics, spoke at the Community building at some expense to the local committee."

"It is increasingly apparent the so-called ban on political discussion is designed only to limit the serious evils of our Iowa one-party system of government."

Switzer recalled that only last week his own speech in the chapel of Iowa Wesleyan college at Mt. Pleasant, was banned from the SUI radio station, WSUI.

"This so-called ban on political speeches and discussion is becoming more ridiculous day by day. It is applied only when it serves the interests of the crowd now in power in our state government. Frank discussion and open debate upon the issues is the one way to preserve democracy. Certainly they should not be prohibited at an institution of higher learning where they form the basis of the educational process."

Switzer spoke at a dinner rally sponsored by the Shelby county Democratic central committee.

Collision Damages Two Cars Slightly

An automobile accident at the intersection of Dodge and Washington streets caused minor damage to two cars Saturday afternoon.

One of the cars, traveling east on Washington street, was driven by Douglas Sawdey, 912 Second avenue. Sawdey's car was in a collision with an automobile driven by Charles Arnett, 729 E. Market street.

There was some damage to the front end of the Sawdey car. The Arnett car had a damaged fender, sprung door and broken glass.

Men With Charm?

The 'Bumbling Brutes' Go to School

By HENRY MINARD SEATTLE (UP)—Because the only real charming men she ever met were the late President Roosevelt, Republican Candidate Thomas E. Dewey and Actor Frank Morgan, Miss Ada Calvy decided it was about time there was a charm school for men.

Packaged charm is being sold to the American girl in every city across the nation, she decided, while her male contemporary still remains a bumbling, awkward brute.

"This new line of so-called masculine perfumes doesn't begin to answer the problem," she sniffed.

"Manly Tramps" "Men think it's manly to walk, talk and smell like a tramp." So Miss Calvy, five-foot-five brunette and northwest director of a well-known women's charm school, is setting up her own version of a charm school "for men only."

And the fact that there were so many lumberjacks, fishermen and longshoremen in the Pacific northwest had no bearing on Miss Calvy's decision.

"Nonsense!" she said. "In New York City they're just as bad. Los Angeles is no better. Only Frank Morgan comes up to snuff."

FDR "Charming" She met the late president and thought he was the "most charming man I've ever met."

Governor Dewey rates "real nice" in her book.

But outside those favored few, she says, the opinion of the average American woman about the average American man is low indeed where charm is concerned.

"Most men lack the basic funda-mentals of charm," she says. "And yet they're mystified when they fail to impress a woman with their 'clever line.'"

Eyes Important "To most women, the ear impresses much less than the eye and nose . . . if you want the blunt facts."

To her student applicants, which already number a long list from fuzzy-cheeked high school students to tongue-tied middle-aged bachelors, she offers a nine-point "starter" course that sounds something like mother used every morning:

1. Look well scrubbed.
2. Brush teeth often.
3. Shave twice daily.
4. Wash behind (and in) ears.
5. Change socks more often.
6. Wear clean, simple, well-pressed clothes.
7. Learn latest dance steps.
8. Visit barber weekly.
9. Get a daily manicure.

'Queen' Sees Game

Trip to Iowa and the Iowa-Notre Dame Game Among Gifts Received by Radio Winner

"It's wonderful, wonderful," came bubbling over the Amama Iowa City telephone wires yesterday noon from Mrs. Marilee Roefes, a "Queen for a Day" winner of the network radio show.

The "Queen" and her husband had just sat down to an Amama dinner "really fit for a queen" at the Oxyoke Inn.

As guests of the Amama colonies and radio station KCRG-KCRK, Cedar Rapids, the Roefes witnessed the Iowa-Notre Dame game here yesterday.

Their trip to Iowa was one of the gifts Mrs. Roefes received as winner of the "Queen for a Day" program in Hollywood last Tuesday. The Roefes left for Iowa by train Wednesday. They were accompanied by John Pollon, representative of the American Amama society in Los Angeles.

"All the Iowans we've met have been so wonderful," exclaimed Mrs. Roefes. "But I can't figure out how they turn out so many refrigerators in such a small place here in Amama."

John Forester, Amama, planned the trip for the Roefes. He will take them to Chicago tomorrow for the food fair. They will fly back to Los Angeles Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roefes lived in St. Louis until two years ago when they moved to Los Angeles. They have a girl, 2, a boy, 8 months.

Campus Consultants

Jim DuBois had a surprise when he went down to the depot to check on the Phi Delta pledges. They were supposed to be there to meet a fictitious "Commander Arney". When the train pulled out, Jim found himself on his way to Grinnell.

"I'll be down to get you in a taxi, honey" . . . and it'll be a LIMITED CAB . . . because I know they have prompt, efficient service with their two-way radio control. And when I say "at half-past eight" you can bet I mean it—there's no waiting when I dial 9629 and ask for a LIMITED CAB. Getting you there on time is their special business.

We'll have the whole evening to enjoy the music and dancing 'cause we'll "be there when the band starts playing". Lots of dances coming up on the social calendar . . . so I'll be sure to remember 9629, LIMITED CAB's number.

Bob McTaggart and George Buckingham, "guests" at the Sigma Chi house, were quite unhappy with their host's pool facilities. Their friendly little game, played on a rough slate table with tipless cues turned into a near riot, so say their surprised hosts.

Discovery of the week! What every girl is looking for . . . a bra that "cannot be washed out of shape." H. & H. HOSIERY STORE carries this bra, by Bias Cup, which has many special attributes to make it appealing to the college girl.

H. & H. HOSIERY also has the Maiden Form line, with a bra to fit every figure. All bras come in various colors, including white, blue and black, and are attractively priced from $1.50 to $2.50.

"A Foreign Affair" is a funny affair . . . you'll agree when you see the movie, starting at the ENGLERT THEATER next Saturday, October 30. Don't miss "A Foreign Affair" at the ENGLERT!

"Save the women and children" were the cries at the Gamma Phi house last week when the Phi Psi pledges and Sigma Nus Tom Clithero and Jim Coffman, rushed to the aid of the "blazing" house. In the confusion that followed when they threw the "children" (all the stuffed animals) into waiting blankets, they lost one called "Cuddles." If anyone finds her, would they please return her immediately, her mamma is worried.

Peggy Lee made some of her finest recordings in the early 40's with the great Benny Goodman band, among them the famous "Why Don't You Do Right?" Some of the best of the Lee-Goodman sides to be recorded during this period have been reissued into a brand new Columbia album, available now at SPENCER'S HARMONY HALL.

"Sunny Side of the Street" "The Way You Look Tonight", and "Where or When" all with the Sextet, are three of the better sides in this album. Some of the others, with the full Goodman band, are "Winter Weather", and "Somebody Nobody Loves". Another album of interesting vocals just in at SPENCER'S is the Dinah Shore—Buddy Clark Album—also on Columbia. "Summertime", "Just One of Those Things", and "Wonderful" are top tunes from this top album which is called simply, "Wonderful". It is too, just play it and see.

On the singles, "Judaline", from the picture "A Date With Judy", is done up by the Pied Pipers. On the reverse is "Smiles", an oldie-but still good. You'll find all your favorites, old and new, at SPENCER'S HARMONY HALL.

That "Young Man With a Band" is back!! We're referring, of course, to ELLIOT LAWRENCE and his fine band. They're playing for the big DAD'S DAY DANCE sponsored by Omicron Delta Kappa honorary fraternity on Friday, October 29. Tickets will go on sale Monday, October 25, at the Memorial Union.

A special feature of the dance will be the presentation of the honorary Student Dad and Alumni Dad. Remember to get down to the Union tomorrow morning and get your tickets for the DAD'S DAY DANCE.

Smooth is the word for the latest headgear sported by Ken Mayo and Dick Porto, Nu Sigs, two sports if there ever were two. The boys really look continental in their checked, English style golf caps. Ken wears his with his 1926 model wrap-around overcoat while Dick adds effect with a snappy French style drape. Join the boys any afternoon for wine and cheese.

Call out the Phi Psi fire engine! There's smoke pourin' out of one of the Currier Cottages! . . . False alarm, it's just the Cottage girls smoking their corn cob pipes with yellow Mixture 79 from RACINE'S. Seems the girls have really started something new on campus.

Student Political Groups Plan Campaign to Get Straw Votes

SUI promises to have a miniature—or perhaps not so miniature—campaign battle of its own. The student council sponsored straw vote Thursday will climax the week's activities. Council President Evan L. Hultman last night urged everyone to back the straw vote.

"The 1948 straw vote gives SUI students an opportunity to express their political sentiments. The student council and the campus political groups planned it both to acquaint new and future voters with the voting procedure and to stimulate student interest in representative democracy," he said.

A big political rally Wednesday night on the west approach to Old Capitol will highlight the whooping part of SUI's campaign. Leaders of Students for Wallace, Young Democrats and Young Republicans promised to have their forces out en masse and make the rally "a real honest to goodness political shindig."

They swore also to sing and shout for their Harry Wallaces, Harry Trumans and Tom Deweyes from soap boxes to cellars during the week.

Students for Wallace Chairman Joe Howard talked of soap-boxing, tacking posters to every tree and giving "I won't tell you what" demonstrations.

He said his speakers of six will "get down to talk with the fellas and gals" in churches, dormitories, sororities and fraternities. "Our talks aren't of the manuscript type but are aimed at clearing up the Wallace platform that many biased newspapers have succeeded in clouding up."

Students for Wallace will pass out several thousand leaflets on major campaign issues. Howard said his speakers would harp on these issues in their soap box talks.

Henry Allan, president of Young Democrats, explained that his group will "concentrate on getting the vote out both for the straw vote and the regular election." He emphasized that "everybody in Young Democrats will have a job."

Allan talked of packing the main Democratic campaign wallop in Wednesday's political rally. Young Democrats also plan two or three surprise stunts to be sprung sometime this week, he explained.

SUI's Young Republicans, who were busy completing arrangements for Sen. Harry P. Cain's speech here last Thursday, have not yet planned a definite campaign for the straw vote.

Straw vote committee chairman Rod Gelati last night called Thursday's vote "all set." Dean Walter R. Goelsch of the office of student affairs okayed the straw vote plans Oct. 11.

Gelati said students may vote at any one of five places: south lobby, Currier; main lounge, Quadrangle; lobby, Iowa Union; first floor, center, East hall, and first floor, north, Shaeffer hall.

Students voting Thursday will be asked to show ID cards, Gelatt said. They will then be given a ballot listing the Republican, Democratic and Progressive presidential, senatorial, and Iowa gubernatorial candidates.

Election tables will open at 8:30 Thursday morning and remain open until 5 p.m., with representatives from each of the three political groups on duty at each table.

SUI straw votes in previous election years have achieved from fair to high success.

In 1944, 2,069 of 3,695 students (about 55 percent) voted in a Gavel club, student debate organization-sponsored straw vote. They gave Republican candidate Thomas Dewey a 181 vote plurality over Democrat Franklin D. Roosevelt. Balloting was preceded by a political rally in Macbride auditorium similar to the one planned this year.

A 20-day Daily Iowan campus and city poll in 1936 canvassed "more than two-thirds of the persons expected to vote" in the regular election, according to an Iowan story. Of 5,150 people participating, 3,292 voted for Roosevelt and 1,786 for Republican candidate Alfred Landau.

In 1932, an "inquisitive" reporter asked 10 Iowa City voters their political leanings as the reporter "ambled down the street." Five were Roosevelt supporters and five backed Republican Herbert Hoover.

Prospective Reserve Officers Must Have College, Army Time

Men with two or more years of college who want to apply for army reserve commissions must have served at least a year in any of the armed forces between Pearl Harbor day and June 30, 1947, Sgt. M. L. Herdlika of the Iowa City recruiting office said yesterday.

Prospective officers must also be able to pass the army general classification test with a score of 110 or better, he said.

Application to go before an examining board must be made to the state senior instructor of organized reserves, room 401, Old Federal building, Des Moines.

Then the applicant must appear before the examining board where he will be either granted or refused a commission.

Applicants must pay all their own expenses to and from the board examination. In the past, the board has met at Omaha, Herdlika said.

Men chosen as reserve officers must show an active interest in their commissions or they will be dropped from the reserve rolls, he said.

Herdlika said reserve officers

Escape with $550 In Swisher Thefts

A thief or thieves broke into two Swisher business places early yesterday morning and escaped with about $550, Sheriff Albert J. "Pat" Murphy said yesterday.

Murphy said about $550 in cash and checks was stolen from the Zimmerli grocery store while 50 cents in pennies was taken from the Pudil tavern.

The thieves gained entrance to the buildings by forcing the front doors, Murphy said.

To Discuss School Signs

New school stop signs and a five-cent an hour pay increase for city street and cemetery workers will be discussed at the regular meeting of the city council at 7:30 tomorrow night.

Alderman W. H. Grandrath said yesterday that he will definitely raise the subject of school crossing stop signs at tomorrow's meeting. At the last council meeting he introduced a resolution concerning stop signs but later withdrew it for further study.

Representatives of various stop sign companies have appeared at several of the council's meetings during the summer.

The wage boost has been pending for some time and aldermen indicated yesterday that some action will be taken on the subject at this meeting.

Analysis of the World's News as —

IT HAPPENED LAST WEEK

The Campaign

Eleanor's a Democrat; Wallace 'Loses' Illinois

Politics blared on for seven more days last week and the public — deafened by the overall clamor — found interest or amusement in a number of side items.

Item. Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, answering a charge that she was no longer a Democrat, assured the White House of her "unqualified" support of President Truman and urged other Americans to follow suit.

Item. The supreme court upheld an Illinois law under which Henry A. Wallace is barred from the state's Nov. 2 election ballot. Progressives challenged the constitutionality of the state law requiring nominating petitions to include at least 200 names from each of at least 50 of the state's 102 counties. As a result of other court rulings, however, the Progressives will be on the Chicago (Cook county) ballot.

Item. A house subcommittee charged that federal employees under Interior Secretary Krug were campaigning for ex-Secretary of Agriculture Anderson in New Mexico. Anderson is running for the senate and stands a good chance of winning.

Item. A United Press survey showed this year's voter registration to be the heaviest on record. The Democrats say this will help them win the senate. Republicans insist "the bigger the vote, the more people want a change."

Item. A rain of eggs nearly kept Glen Taylor, Progressive vice-presidential candidate, from delivering a Jacksonville, Florida, speech. And a single egg plopped onto Henry Wallace's manuscript as he delivered an attack on Mr. Truman in Pittsburgh, Pa.

men under arrest, were searching for a third. Communist guerrillas and Moscow denied the charge; Americans demanded an impartial investigation.

Red ink in Berlin. Soviet police declared all vehicular traffic entering Berlin must pass through the Soviet sector. This is aimed at choking off smuggled food. Gen. Lucius Clay was given 66 more planes for the airlift. In Vienna, two Russian officers flew their plane from Russia into American arms in another "I Choose Freedom" episode.

Red ink in China. Chinese Communists were believed to have control of Changchun, capital of Manchuria, and were reportedly preparing to grab all of Manchuria.

Red ink in Scotland. All but one of 40 persons aboard a Royal Dutch airlines plane were killed when it crashed in landing at Prestwick.

Red ink in Cuba. Communist Aracelio Iglesias, maritime labor leader, was shot to death in front of union headquarters in the climax to a long right-left feud among labor leaders.

Black ink in Uruguay. A group of 620 Italian pioneers sailed for a lonely Antarctic outpost on Tьерро del Fuero island to build a city for 10,000. They carried 72 prefabricated homes, concrete mixers and other machinery.

Warren ticket and appealed for the re-election of Senator Wilson and Representative Martin.

R. T. Elliott, 22, an SUI graduate student from Geneva, Ohio, was found dead in his room at a private rooming house. The coroner's verdict was suicide by hanging. Elliott left a note to his father.

Oscar Anderson, charged with assault with intent to commit murder in connection with the shooting of Clifford Kelly in a local restaurant last April, was found insane in a district court verdict. He was sentenced to the state ward for the criminally insane at Anamosa.

Nine special trains helped clog Iowa City with the football crowd for the sold-out Iowa-Notre Dame football game.

top officials of the Communist party who are charged with advocating the overthrow of the government by force. Their trial, previously delayed, will probably begin Nov. 1.

The Tucker Corp. charged that 10 of its automobile dealers and distributors are trying to gain control of the company with "a variation of the old protection racket."

A group of dealers sent letters to other dealers asking for the power of attorney to act for their protection in franchise relations with the company. The group recommended refinancing of the firm and a shift in some personnel. Tucker is planning to market a radically different rear engine automobile.

Life can be beautiful bureau: Client one—Mrs. Leona M. Sheffield, a middle-aged Baltimore, Md., mother, told police that she kidnapped 10-week-old Jo Ann Mezzanotte because she was having domestic troubles and thought "a new baby in the house might solve them."

Client two — Three wealthy owners of a Las Vegas, Nev., gambling casino were charged with illegal use of the air waves to steal racing results from a rival gambling establishment.

Client three—Consumers of liquor may get inflated but it isn't appropriate for liquor stores to give away a toy balloon with each bottle, the New Jersey state alcoholic beverage commission ruled. The commission told a New York rubber company promoting the balloon idea:

"Toy balloons are an advertising medium having no legitimate place in a sound and socially minded liquor control."

"Why not concentrate on the pabulum and popsicle producers."

United Nations

Berlin Solution Hinted; Palestine War Erupts

A ray of hope broke over the Paris high political pressure area on the weekend. Some progress may be in the making over the Berlin blockade.

A new proposal by the security council neutrals would have the east and west agree on new big four talks, Soviet currency for Berlin supervised by the big four and a complete lifting of the blockade 48 hours after the resolution passed.

The Kremlin has the proposal now. The council will vote on it when it convenes tomorrow. The west is in favor of it, and indications are that Russia may also agree.

If the UN could get the blockade lifted and the east and west talking about something besides disagreement and war, it would be a major international accomplishment. Keep your fingers crossed.

Palestine warfare cut loose as Israel troops drove into the Negev desert, dislodged Arabs from Gaza and Beersheba, and sent convoys to isolated Jewish settlements. The UN quickly clamped down a truce and moved to start Arab-Israeli negotiations. Result: another big gain by Israel, more frustration for the UN.

East and west sparred over the question of atomic control. A general assembly committee outvoted Russia to approve the Baruch plan sponsored by the U.S. A fight on the floor of the assembly looms.

Global

Koreans Meet Revolt; 'Solves' Polk Murder

Pouring over the global ledger of a world striving for peace and stability, we find most of the week's entries in the red.

Red ink in Korea. As Soviet troops began evacuating north Korea, a Communist-led revolt broke out in Syngman Rhee's south Korean republic. A "cell" in the Yosu army garrison began the fight and took two cities before being checked. Loyal troops were wiping out the insurgents on the weekend.

Red ink in France. Along with encouraging news that Communists and DeGaulle's trailed in electoral college balloting for the Nov. 7 elections came news of more strike violence. The strikes settled in the coal fields. At one point more than 1,200 railroad and arms factory workers — inspired by Communists — charged a coal mine to reinforce a 17-day-old strike. More than 170 police and soldiers were injured in the battle.

Red ink in Greece. The Greek government claimed once more that Communists murdered American correspondent George Polk last May. This time they had two

Scrap

American Legion Meets; Upholds Jury Indictments

The American Legion gaily stumped into Miami, Fla.; heard President Truman, Earl Warren, and AFL President Green; condemned the Soviet blockade of Berlin as an "act of aggression which could kindle the flames of war"; called for the outlawing of communism in the U.S. and elected Perry Brown, 56-year-old veteran of both world wars, as its national commander.

Chairman J. Parnell Thomas said that the house un-American activities committee has information indicating the U.S. Communist party has secretly registered 75,000 members. Most of them, he said, do not carry cards.

Meanwhile a federal judge in New York refused to dismiss grand jury indictments against 12

Labor

Stays ITU Citation; Oil Strike Drags On

While a U.S. circuit court of appeals stayed the federal court of court citation against the International Typographical Union, NLRB attorneys sought to broaden the findings of a trial examiner that the ITU has violated the Taft-Hartley law in a "four-year fight to keep the closed shop."

CIO oil refinery workers on the west coast kept up scattered fighting, resumed peace talks after a 13-day lapse. Harry Bridges' longshoremen kept up their strike siege.

A house subcommittee investigating Communists in labor put on earmuffs, journeyed to Alaska and triumphantly announced that they found evidence of Soviet fifth column activity on little Diomedes island, a U.S. possession in the center of the Bering straits.

If your favorite radio comedian begins sounding flat, don't blame him. Chances are his script writers are members of the Council of Authors league which is preparing to go on strike.

Names in the News

Secretary of State Marshall — After a brief jog to Greece, he went to Italy for talks with political leaders and Pope Pius XII.

Field Marshall Walther von Brauchitsch — Commander-in-chief of the German armies until Hitler fired him after reverses in Russia, he died of a heart attack while awaiting trial on war crimes charges.

Elissa Landi — The stage and screen star and novelist died of cancer at the age of 43.

Maximos V — The 53-year-old spiritual head of 140,000 members of the Greek orthodox church resigned his post because of ill health.

August Cardinal Blond — The 67-year-old primate of Poland, an outspoken anti-Communist and critic of the puppet regime, died of pneumonia in Warsaw.

Iowa

Rampaging Man Caught; Probe Army 'Beating'

After burning down one farm home, threatening the occupants of another, firing six shots at a sheriff and wandering around the country during a 20-hour air-ground manhunt, J.B. White meekly surrendered near Afton. White, a former mental patient, feared that some of his neighbors were Nazis.

Iowa Adjutant General Charles H. Grahl ordered a special board of national guard officers to investigate the alleged beating of a 15-year-old private first class by two staff sergeants in the Des Moines army. A preliminary check said the affair was "just one of those things in which a couple of kids got into a fight."

Four army officers were killed and one seriously hurt when a twin-engine C-82 crash landed in a ravine near Clinton. The plane had 33 persons aboard.

McBride's Haul

By BILL MCBRIDE

Coming out of the Iowa Union Friday night where the Newman club held its Autumn Serenade I overheard a conversation which was brief, but held fathoms of meaning. I don't mean to eavesdrop on private talk. I'm no nosier than the next fellow (going on the assumption that the next fellow isn't too nosy).

If people insist on saying things when I'm around, can I help it if my shell pink ears pick up the vibrations!

This conversation didn't start immediately. The woman waited for her husband to look her, see that the windows were rolled up and other similar husband-like duties which a wife and an automobile bring on. Finishing his duties, the husband came around the car and they started for the ball.

In a casual voice the husband queried, "Did you bring the money?" Equally as casual the wife replied, "No." To wit, the husband's voice raised an octave, asking the same question in a far less casual manner, "You didn't bring the money?" This prompted an explanatory, "I thought you had the money."

I knew she thought nothing of the sort, but obviously it was her only out. If the truth were known, I'll bet that woman never gave money a thought when they left their domicile.

The idea of going to an Autumn Serenade without money (not even 20 cents for cokes) was too much for the husband. He sputtered in an outraged and frantic voice, "I didn't have any money!" It was the voice of a man who has gone through this before. The statement that he didn't have any money wasn't so much an explanation as it was a pitiful accusation.

She knew he didn't have any money. This system of women holding student husband purse strings has got to come to some sort of compromise. I suggest a secret meeting in the basement of Old Capitol some afternoon where the oppressed can plan defensive movements.

While we're on the subject of Old Capitol, it may be of interest to you that the bell in that building which rings at the end of every class (the one which some professors ignore at 12:20 when your stomach is not only growling, but snarling for a crust of bread) is completely a hand rung affair.

I chanced upon this tid-bit one afternoon last week when I saw a healthy looking fellow leisurely tugging at a rope in the basement of Iowa's former capitol edifice.

As I walked through the polished interior of that building I saw this fellow pulling at the rope and thought nothing of it. After all, if a man wants to tug at a rope, it's none of my business.

He could have been lowering the mains'l or jibbing the fosc'l or staying the poop-deck as far as I was concerned. We are all free agents. Let him pull a rope if he wants to, I say.

But then I noticed a ringing in my ears, and it dawned upon me that this man in the basement of Old Capitol was tolling the bell in the very top of that structure. It was either that or my hearing was having a poor spell . . . when that happens, clear the decks, student health, here I come. Ringing in the ears is positively a bad sign when there is no bell involved.

So I went over and asked the man tugging at the rope what he was doing, and was pleased to learn he was ringing a bell. The bell-ringer in this instance was Mervin Belger.

He starts ringing that bell at 7:20 a.m. six days a week and does so every hour until his relief, Alfred Klaffenbach, shows up at 3:30. Alfred does the rope pulling for the rest of the afternoon.

Once every hour those fellows go down to the basement and tug at the rope. It takes about 15 tugs each time. Year in, year out, 15 tugs every hour. If this has been going on since 1847, that means the rope has been tugged (according to my figures, which are not quite reliable) 4,695,000 times.

As the Republicans say, it's time for a change.

I was cheered when I learned from Mervin that a change has been planned. Either the class of '48 or '49 plans to replace rope tugging with an electric bell-ringer. I hope it's the '49'ers who will do away with this buggy whip and bustle method of bell-ringing. That's my class, and I'd be proud to be a part of that movement.

Korean Is Confident of Future

By SIGRID ARNE
WASHINGTON (AP)—It's a sort of shock, but a pleasant one, to talk to the southern Koreans who are here to iron out their little nation's shift to independence.

They're not singing the blues. The whole nation was a Japanese prison for 40 years. Now Russia holds the northern half of the country. But men from the new government in south Korea say they hope that within two to four years they will have to ask no more U.S. help to get rolling.

Col. Ben Limb tells the main story. He was one of the exile supporters of Syngman Rhee, who is now president. Limb headed the Korean commission here when the Koreans had no government.

The United Nations sent a commission to supervise an election in Korea this summer. The Russians prevented the northern half of the nation from taking part, but a new government was set up in the American occupation zone in the south. It now rules 20-million people, two thirds of the people in all Korea.

"We're pretty well off," Limb told me. "We have no debt. We don't even owe anything to our own people."

"We have the three essentials of mankind—food, clothing and a roof. For the rest we are willing and able to work. We must make enough so we can exchange some of it abroad for the machinery we need. We need only a little lift to get going."

He said that southern Korea always raised the food for the whole nation—wheat, rice, barley, beans and corn. It even exported food. It wants to export food again, to Japan, China, any part of the world that needs it.

Korea has 11,000 miles of coast line because of its many islands. In 1939-40 it caught 2-million tons of fish, about as much as the United States caught.

"We won't sell fish in the U.S. that competes with your own fish, but maybe you will buy our crab and tuna," Limb said.

Business BRIEFS

Last March, the fire engines clanged and sirened their way through Iowa City streets in a desperate effort to save the Sutton Radio shop at 331 E. Market street.

But the blaze all but destroyed the structure. "It was a complete washout," said Mark Sutton, owner of the shop.

Reconstruction began almost immediately and today a new two-story building has sprung up on the ruins of the old.

The new building houses its sales department downstairs and its service section on the second floor. All fixtures and equipment in the business is "brand new."

Sutton said the radio testing equipment is of the "very latest" make. A freight elevator has been installed to transport heavier-type radios upstairs to the service department.

A 35-foot tower for FM radio reception is mounted atop the building. Through use of the new aerial, Sutton radio technicians have been able to pick up FM stations from Milwaukee, Wis. and Peoria, Ill.

Although open for business at its new location at 3 S. Dubuque street, Young's photographic studio is planning several additional remodeling improvements.

Jack Young, manager, said he plans to completely remodel the studio, shooting rooms, dressing rooms and office within the next month.

The studio was moved last summer from 22 1/2 S. Dubuque street. Additional services afforded by the studio includes a new photo supplies department and an expanded art department.

A new color scheme featured the general redecorating operations completed at the Plamor Bowling alley last summer. Walls were painted seafoam green with a darker green trim, replacing the former chocolate brown and tan shades.

SOIL MEN TO MEET

Commissioners of the Johnson county soil conservation district will meet tomorrow at 8 p.m. in room 205 postoffice building, Iowa City.

Compiles Radio Guide

Barnes Edits Booklet Listing Pronunciations Of Iowa Officials, Candidates and Lakes

Nothing rings so sweetly in the ears of a politician as his name pronounced correctly — especially when the elections are just around the corner. And he's the only authority on the pronunciation matter.

Acting on these precepts, Prof. Arthur M. Barnes of the school of journalism has compiled a radio pronunciation guide to the names of Iowa officials and Iowa candidates for political office. The guide also covers Iowa lakes and rivers.

First copies of the guide, a supplement to a similar publication covering Iowa place names issued earlier this year, are being distributed this week to all Iowa radio stations, the various wire services and radio stations in cities bordering on Iowa.

The Iowa Association of Radio Editors, of which Barnes is secretary-treasurer, recognized the need for such a guide. This group, often dealing with names unfamiliar to them, asked Barnes to compile the guide.

Iowa politicians illustrated their willingness to assist in seeing that the public hears their names pronounced correctly. Most of them returned the postcards which Barnes mailed to points throughout the state.

Some expressed their appreciation on the return card which bore their names with the pronunciations correctly noted.

Making a pun on the SUI-Purdue game here Oct. 16, state Senator W. N. Skourup of Burlington wrote that his name was pronounced "score-up," adding, "I expect and feel sure Iowa will put the 'score-up' on the top over Purdue."

The Iowa Hawkeyes didn't put the score up over Purdue but Skourup helped radio men put his name over radio correctly pronounced.

"This is thoughtful of you people," wrote State Senator Elmer Pieper of Waukon, after noting that his name rhymed with "peeper."

Illustrating both his party affiliation and the pronunciation of his name, Charles B. Hoeven, U.S. congressman from the eighth district, explained that his name was "Hoo-ven as in Hoover."

John M. Schaupp of Fort Dodge, a judge in the eleventh judicial district, said the "au" is the same as in "kraut." Another name which has given Arthur M. Barnes of the school of journalism has compiled a radio pronunciation guide to the names of Iowa officials and Iowa candidates for political office. The guide also covers Iowa lakes and rivers.

City Hockey Team Wins 3-1 Yesterday Over SUI Students

The Iowa City Hockey Club beat the SUI Hockey Club 3-1 in a game played yesterday morning. Scorers for the Iowa City team were Betty Everett and Dorothy Ross, an SUI graduate. La Vonne Stock, A4, scored for the student team.

Playing for the student team were Billie Fleck, A4, La Vonne Stock, A4, Sally Henry, A4, Anne Bon Signor, A4, Gertrude Clark, A3, Connie Morrell, A1, Elaine Gehring, A4, Beth Marxmiller, A3, Pat Walter, A3, Dolores Madden, A4.

Arlene Silverman, A3, Janet St. Clair, A2, Wilma Isenberger, A4, and Mary Lou Thomas, A3. On the Iowa City team were SUI faculty members Mary Feaver, Kay McDonald, Jean Stanicek, Betty Everett, Jane Fink, Marian La Fuse, Charlotte Lambert, and M. Gladys Scott.

Yvonne Franzke and Peggy Curtis of Iowa City high school, and SUI graduates Dorothy Ross and Mrs. Pat Rowe completed the city team.

Russ Demand Punishment of Berlin Officials

BERLIN (AP) — Russia officially charged early today that the mayor and five other officials of Berlin had violated the four-power agreement on the city and demanded that they be removed from office and punished.

The Soviet news bureau said that a Russian court had charged the officials with making 'Fascist' speeches, forbidden by an order of the Allied control council.

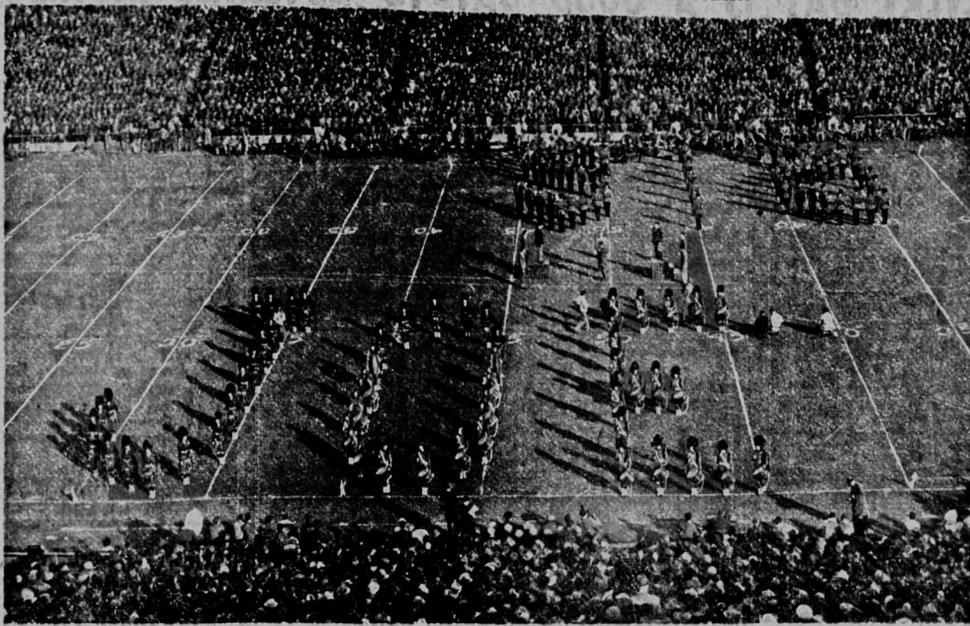

The charge has been turned over to "the proper military authorities" for punishment of the officials, the announcement said.

The charge was regarded as another step in a continued Russian drive to bring the city under Communist rule. By "proper authorities" it was believed the Russians meant the Soviet military administration and the military governments of the three western powers.

Russia brought the charge under Allied control council directive No. 40 which prohibits Germans from making fascist speeches. The order further forbids Germans from offending any occupying power.

Involved in the Russian charge were acting mayor Ferdinand Friedensburg, the elected but unrecognized mayor Ernest Reuter, assembly presi-

Germans Warned By Mrs. Roosevelt

STUTTGART, GERMANY (AP) — Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt addressed a crowd of 1,000 Germans, mostly women, in their own language yesterday and warned them against letting "Sovietism" take the place of Nazism.

The Germans were amazed to hear a prominent American address them in German. The spectators said they understood her very clearly. She began her address by saying, "You must forgive me . . . I have forgotten much in 46 years."

Mrs. Roosevelt, a delegate to the UN assembly, flew here from Paris to address the meeting sponsored by the League of Women Physicians of Wuertemberg-Baden.

Arrests May End Assassination Plot

HAVANA (AP) — Several leading conspirators in an alleged plot to assassinate the ambassadors of the United States and Mexico will be arrested at any moment, authoritative sources reported yesterday.

Maj. Gen. Genovevo Perez Damera, army chief of staff, was said to be directing the search for the alleged plotters identified as members of the leftwing insurrectionary revolutionary union.

The same sources said the government was "extremely incensed" over the "insolence" of the conspirators in threatening the lives of U.S. Ambassador Robert Butler, Mexican Ambassador Benito Coquet and high Cuban officials reportedly including President Carlos Prío Socarras and the education minister Aureliano Sanchez Arango.

Man Sentenced on Bad Check Charge

Earl Hatfield of Des Moines was charged yesterday with passing a bad check and sentenced to serve ten days in the Johnson county jail.

Hatfield was charged with passing a bad check for $10 on September 28. The check was drawn on the First National Bank and made payable to a local restaurant.

A second bad check charge against Hatfield was dismissed.

No Time Off for Lunch!

THE GRASSHOPPER-EATING FAD HOPPED into Iowa City at noon yesterday when Jack "Cast-Iron Stomach" Miller, A2, New York, ate a fat juicy 'hopper' in front of Racine's cigar store. Watching Cast-Iron eat his jumping morsel were some elderly women, one of whom turned her back on the feat and wiggling feet because she couldn't "stomach" the sight. This fad began in Georgia, but the custom itself got its start in North Africa where nomadic Moslem groups eat sugar-coated 'hoppers' as we would eat desserts.
