Great Plains Blizzard Dies Out

Many Still Marooned

KANSAS CITY (AP)—A late fall blizzard which paralyzed a large strip of the Great Plains area from eastern Colorado to Minnesota blew itself out yesterday, grounding a Lake Superior freighter in one final fling.

Despite the storm's paralyzing fury, only five deaths have been attributed to the blizzard as relief workers reported that of the hundreds of persons marooned only one definitely was known to be still missing.

Many, however, still were in improvised havens, safe from the weather, but in danger of possible food shortages unless relief crews could break through drifts quickly.

Western Kansas and Nebraska appeared to be hardest hit. There was no way of estimating damage and livestock losses.

Most of the stalled trains were moving again—slowly and hours late—as snow plows battered pathways through drifts. Five trains still were stalled, but these were at stations and their passengers were safe.

As Kansas and Nebraska were digging out of the drifts whipped up by winds ranging up to 75 miles an hour, a 68-mile-an-hour gale grounded the freighter Robert Hobson at the mouth of the Duluth-Superior harbor.

The 33 man crew remained on the 19,000-ton vessel and were reported in no danger.

In South Dakota the town of Delmont still was blocked by drifts, some as high as 15 feet. McPherson, Kans., hotels were hard pressed to care for 450 extra guests—stranded travelers who could not get out of town.

Power lines and telephone and telegraph lines were being restored slowly in Kansas and Nebraska, but communications still were uncertain and the exact extent of the damage could not be ascertained.

U.S. Opposes Palestine Split

PARIS (AP) The United States announced its opposition yesterday to a part of the British-supported Bernadotte plan which would slice the huge Negev desert from Israel and give it to the Arabs.

The American position was stated by U. S. delegate Phillip C. Jessup in the 58-member political committee of the United Nations assembly.

In what he described as a preliminary statement, Jessup followed closely President Truman's declaration of Oct. 24 that no reductions in Israel's territory should be made without full consent of the Jews.

Jessup spoke during the debate on the recommendations of Count Folke Bernadotte, slain UN mediator, which Britain is seeking to have the assembly approve.

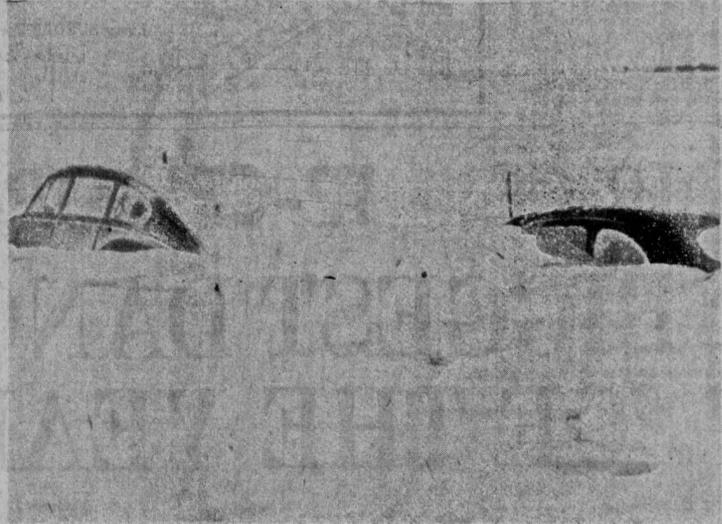

Jessup said the United States was in accord with Bernadotte's conclusions, with the exception of certain principles concerning boundaries.

This was a reference to Bernadotte's proposal that the Jews give up the Negev desert, assigned to them under the partition plan of Nov. 29, 1947, and keep western Galilee, which originally was assigned to the Arabs. This swap would reduce the size of Israel by about 60 percent.

'Wonderful' Rest Ended, President to Fly Home

KEY WEST (AP) — President Truman put away his slacks and open-neck sports shirts last night to fly back to Washington for important peace talks.

A "wonderful" two weeks vacation ended, he boards the "Independence" at 10 a.m. (Iowa time) today for the four-hour flight to the White House.

IN ONE TWO-MILE STRIP OF KANSAS road more than a dozen cars and trucks were drifted in by the blizzard which swept much of the midwest this week. The two autos above were found abandoned and window-high in snow on U.S. Highway 83 near Liberal, Kan. In St. Cloud, Minn., the students below were photographed trudging through that town's six-inch snowfall. In other parts of the gopher state falls were as much as 20 inches. The blizzard hit Wyoming, Colorado, Kansas, Nebraska, the Dakotas, Minnesota and northwestern Iowa. (AP Wirephotos)

CIO Revokes Charter Of New York Council

PORTLAND, ORE. (AP) — The CIO executive board yesterday revoked the charter of the New York CIO council on the ground that this body has given "slavish adherence" to the Communist party line.

The decision, which CIO President Philip Murray said was by a vote of 38 to 5, ends the case.

In a joint statement James Durkin, president of the New York City council, and Saul Mills, executive secretary, said they will not appeal the verdict to the CIO convention here this week.

They denied the charges of Communist party dictation, but said they would accept the decision in the interests of CIO unity.

The executive board appointed Louis Hollander, president of the New York state CIO council, to take over all property, and funds of the city group and wind up all of its affairs.

Then, later, CIO officers will determine when to issue a charter to a new council and will set a time for election of officers.

Officials of the New York City council stirred up CIO wrath when they failed to reject Henry Wallace's third party and neglected to endorse the Marshall plan of aiding European countries.

The case is nationally important because it was a major test in the continuing warfare between the right and left wings of the CIO.

French Dock Strike Postponed by Union

PARIS (AP)—The executive commission of the federation of port and dock workers yesterday postponed a nationwide longshoremen's strikes set for tomorrow. The commission said it will make a final decision Wednesday.

Communist-dominated union officials decided to delay, and perhaps cancel, the strike after an afternoon conference with Transport Minister Christian Pineau, who appealed to the 30,000 dock workers to stay on their jobs.

The union's decision came less than 24 hours after government troops and mobile security guards had regained control of Dunkirk's waterfront where striking longshoremen and port workers had occupied the piers for three days.

Johnson, nicknamed the "Red Dean" because of his pleas for friendship with Russia, spoke at Central Lutheran church here.

"Peace loving peoples all over the earth view with great misgiving the encirclement of the Soviet Union by countless American air and naval bases," he said. "They view with grave misgivings the expenditure by the U.S. of even vaster sums for war purposes."

"To my mind, there is no corresponding menace to the peace of the world from the Russian side. Not only is she in no position to consider aggressive warfare today ... but also the Soviet Union has not sought bases in Canada or in Mexico or in the Orkney Islands."

Terriers Give Hawks Scare

SUI's Season Record: 4 Victories, 5 Losses

By BUCK TURNBULL

BOSTON, MASS.—Roaring back with relentless fury in the second half, the Iowa Hawkeyes shellacked surprising Boston university here on the muddy Fenway park gridiron yesterday afternoon, 34-14.

The score gives little indication of this savagely played inter-sectional game. Iowa was glad to win and overjoyed to conquer stubborn Boston by a three-touch-down margin.

The majority of credit for the one-sided victory goes to the sensational, nimble-fingered right end, Jack Dittmer. His catching of Quarterback Al DiMarco's passes was strictly out of this world.

Record of 4-5
 Iowa ends the 1948 season with an over-all record of four wins and five losses. It was a successful campaign for Dr. Eddie Anderson's squad, a team with tremendous spirit and stout-hearted fight.

The Hawkeyes share fifth place with Purdue and Indiana in the final Big Nine standings as a result of yesterday's games.

The Terriers of Boston led the Hawks at the half, 14-7, and the sparse crowd of 12,838 were expecting a very possible upset.

After the first five minutes of the second half, the Hawks had tied the score at 14-14.

Doran Scores
 Ralph Doran, who ended his college football career after only one season of competition as a senior, stampeded Boston's left tackle for the touchdown from seven yards out.

With the score knotted and still anybody's ball game, DiMarco and Dittmer went to work. Little Al concluded his football days at Iowa by exhibiting the ability which has made him one of the greatest passers in the nation.

The Hawks put the ball in play on the 50-yard line with five minutes left in the third period. Two backfield-in-motion penalties moved the oval to the Iowa 40.

DiMarco Hits Dittmer
 Then DiMarco faded back behind excellent protection, spotted Dittmer with a perfect aerial at the Boston 20 and the flashy end spurred the remaining distance to score.

Ron Headington missed the extra point placement, after booting the first two, and the Iowans were still not safe from defeat.

But Dittmer himself assured his teammates that they were not going to lose the verdict.

His catch of DiMarco's heave in the fourth quarter, which put Iowa further in front, 26-14, had the Boston fans stuttering for adjectives to describe it.

Last Period Play
 The Hawks opened the final period on their own 41-yard line. A DiMarco-to-Dittmer completion covered 36 yards and put the ball on Boston's 23.

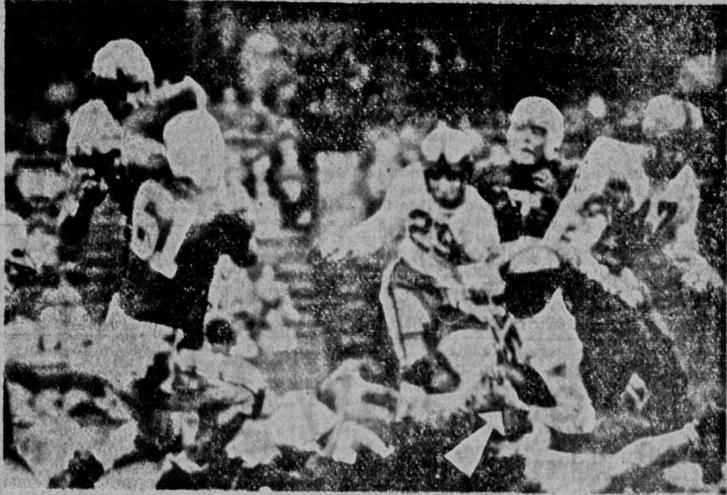

The next two plays lost seven yards. So DiMarco let fly with an arching pass intended for Dittmer.

The Elkader star leaped between two defenders in the end zone, tipped the ball from their reach and tucked it in his back pocket as he fell to the ground.

Headington's toe set the score at 27-14, with 12 minutes and 40 seconds remaining in the game.

Boston gave Iowa the last touchdown with only two minutes of playing time left.

Hancher Praises Courage of Hawkeyes

A few hours after the SUI football team completed its 1948 season yesterday SUI President Virgil M. Hancher praised the Hawkeyes' "courageous performance" during the past season.

Also congratulating the team's coaches and supporters, Hancher said:

"The surging spirit of a band of men expanding every physical and mental resource at its command to the playing of a game—whether in victory or defeat, and sometimes in the face of overwhelming odds—is an inspiring force."

"Our University of Iowa football squad has furnished such inspiration to its university, faculty and student body and its multitude of boosters."

"Courageous performance within the highest standards of sportsmanship will mark this season in memories when victories and defeats are but tables in the record books of the future."

"I feel certain that I express the opinions of thousands on and off our campus in extending my congratulations and commendations to the 1948 football squad, its coaches and all those who contributed to this season's triumph of courage and sportsmanship."

Report Chinese Troop Gain, Peace Urge by U.S. Envoy

NANKING (UP) — Chinese troops yesterday harassed retreating Communists on the flanks of embattled Stuart as reports grew that U.S. Ambassador J. Leighton Stuart had urged new efforts to end the civil war.

Government columns were reported advancing southeast from Suchow and northwest from Pengpu to reopen the 110-mile rail link between the two vital defense bases, while other Chinese troops battled Communist rear guards at Nienchuang, east of Suchow.

Significantly, the Communist radio yesterday had little to say about the Suchow battle, merely reiterating an earlier claim that nationalist Gen. Sun Liang-Cheng had surrendered to the Communists.

Troops advancing from Suchow were reported moving toward Kwoyang, 40 miles southeast of the city, while the Pengpu spearhead had reportedly advanced more than 20 miles—leaving a gap of about 60 miles yet to be closed.

Dr. Ni Tsing-Yuan, one of the chief sponsors of a recent peace appeal addressed to President Chiang Kai-Shek and Communist Leader Mao Tse-Tung, said yesterday that Stuart had urged Chiang to renew peace talks.

Ni said that Stuart had acted privately, as a "friend of China," rather than in his official capacity as U.S. ambassador.

Tarawa's Battle Scars Remain After Five Years

By LEIF ERICKSON

TARAWA (AP)—Five years after the battle of Tarawa young coconut trees stand waist high in the emptied American cemetery on Betio island.

There is no tablet, no marker, no single cross to tell of the 985 marines who were killed in the 76 hours of assault that won proud, but shocking victory on Nov. 23, 1943.

In the swift fierce battle across Betio's evil yellow-green reef, 2,183 of the second marine division were wounded. In the three days as furiously concentrated action as any in World War II more than 5,000 Japanese defenders of Betio's scant 268 acres were killed. Only 17 wounded prisoners were taken.

Scars and rubble still clearly show the fight to the death kind of battle that Tarawa was.

On the U.S. coast guard cutter, Buttonwood, snaking through the lagoon entrance, we saw scattered along Betio's narrow two and a half mile length the few coconut palms that survived the shells and bombs. To the east and north Tarawa atoll's other islands are solid green blocks of lushly thick coconut trees.

Dotting the edge of the inner reef, which runs out three-quarters of a mile from land, are rusting hulks of amphibious tractors and landing boats.

This reef and one of Tarawa's freakish "dodging tides" were horrible obstacles for the marine assault.

Only broken lines of piles now remain of the Betio pier which was a bloody, hard fought bridge to marine victory. The plank and coral surface has vanished.

Inland from the wharf is a rusting dump of trucks, water distillers and base equipment. In the dump is the burned out hulk of a Sherman tank. Across the roadway the Union Jack flies from a high mast over the British district office, administration seat for the Gilbert islands.

Near the beach west of the pier stands a signboard about four feet square. It is painted on wallboard now warping and the letters are faded by the salt-loaded trade wind. The sign reads:

"RED BEACH TWO"
 "Here the first landing was made and the first beachhead established. At the end of 'D' day, the latter extended only 200 yards along the lagoon and but 70 yards inland but it was never relinquished... the first wave of marines arrived in amphibious tractors, the second came part way along the western side of the pier, then crossed the reef. Our losses were heavy."

Wildcats Clinch Rose Bowl Trip, Beat Illinois, 20-6

Peewee Day Recovers Illini Fumble to Aid in 2nd Score

By NEAL BLACK and CHARLES CARROLL
Daily Iowan Staff Writers

EVANSTON, ILL. — A bit of football thievery by Peewee Day, a native Iowan, helped Northwestern unroll the carpet to the Rose Bowl here yesterday.

The Wildcats clawed a dogged Illinois eleven, 20-7, before a shivering sell-out crowd of 48,000 with three first-half touchdowns. Chuck Hagmann traveled 65 yards for the Cats' second marker after taking a lateral from Day on his own 35 yard line. Day stole a fumble in the air on the 30, dashed five yards and then tossed a lateral to Hagmann, who skirted along the sidelines unmoled.

Northwestern's other two markers also came from far out. Frank Aschenbrenner tallied from the 22 yard strip with two minutes left in the first period for the first touchdown. He took the ball on the 22, went wide, cut inside, shook off an Illinois tackler of the five and crossed the end stripes.

The final Wildcat score came on a 24-yard pass from Don Burson to Zuravleff.

Wayne Siegert, 215-pound tackle, gathered in a fumble that set up Illinois' lone tally. Bernie Krueger flipped three successful aerials and then plunged over on a quarterback sneak from the one. Illinois and Northwestern exchanged punts after the Illini kicked off to open the game. After the Wildcats punted again, Illinois took the ball from its own 30 yard line and drove to the Wildcat 22. Illinois lost back to the 30 and the Wildcats took over on downs.

An offside penalty set the Wildcats back to the 24, but from there they rolled. With Ed Tunnicliff and Aschenbrenner carrying, they moved to the Illinois 22 on six plays. Aschenbrenner took it over from there. The conversion was wide.

Dike Eddleman took Aschenbrenner's kick on his own eight and returned it to the 23. After gaining to the Northwestern 34, Krueger went back to pass and that set up the Wildcat's second score.

Krueger's short pass to Steger was complete, but Steger fumbled. Day picked it out of the air, lateralled to Hagmann and the score conversion made it 13-0.

A clipping penalty set the Illini back to the one after the Wildcats kicked off. Northwestern took the Illini punt on the Illinois' 25.

Gasper Perricone got one yard. Then Burson passed to Zuravleff, who caught the aerial as he fell over the goal line. The conversion gave the Wildcats a 20-0 lead.

Michigan Rally Tops Bucks, 13-3

Undefeated Wolves Win Big 9 Crown

COLUMBUS, O. (AP)—Michigan's mighty Wolverines, their ground attack stymied by a stalwart Ohio State team, took to the airways yesterday and came from behind to win a 13-3 victory.

The second largest crowd ever to throng the Ohio stadium—82,754—saw the Ohioans rise to their greatest heights of the season, take the lead with a first-period field goal, and win everything but the ball game.

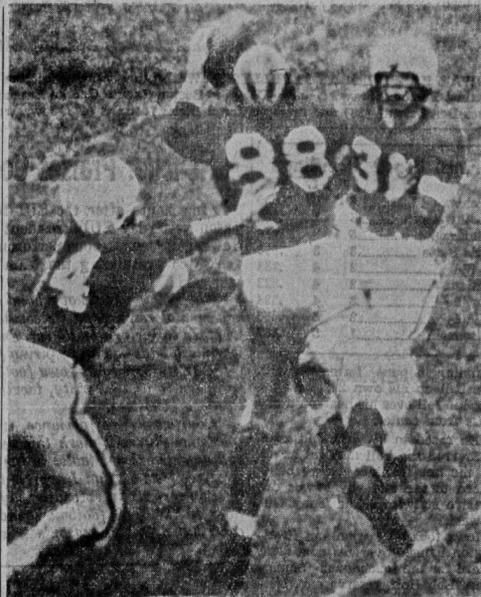

The victory, the Wolves' ninth straight of the season and 23rd in a row, wrapped up their second consecutive Western conference championship and gave them an outstanding claim on the national title. It was their fourth straight conquest over the Bucks, who went into the fray 14-point underdogs.

The Bucks, not the Wolves, looked like the champions in the early going as they allowed the invaders only three first downs in the first half, one on a pass, one by rushing and one on a penalty. Overall, the Ohioans had a 14-9 edge in first downs.

Ohio scored first—a field goal from the 16-yard line by End Jimmy Hague. Ohio had picked up the ball on the Wolverine seven as Halfback Chuck Ortmann's lateral went awry, Center Jack Lininger recovering.

Ortmann flipped a second-period pass to End Dick Rifenburg which was ruled complete on the 44 because of interference. Then Quarterback Pete Elliott passed 13 to Ortmann. Two Ortmann passes failed, and then he smacked one to End Harry Allis who took it on the 20 and raced over for the touchdown.

The Wolves surged 62 yards in eight plays for their fourth-period touchdown which clinched the verdict. Once again the airplanes were used for the distance-eating maneuvers. Fullback Tom Peterson rolled over center for the score. Allis, who booted the first extra point, missed the second.

Gophers Pin 16-0 Verdict on Badgers

MADISON, WIS. (AP)—Minnesota's massive Gophers crushed Wisconsin, 16-0, yesterday on a wet, slippery field in the Western conference football finale for both teams before 45,000 fans.

The Gophers, rambling as they passed, scored twice in the second quarter and added a field goal in the third. They lost two other touchdowns, both on long runs, when the plays were recalled by penalties.

The Badgers spent the first 57 minutes of the game in their own territory—and then got only two yards over the midfield stripe with three minutes to play.

A slick forward-lateral pass counted the first Gopher marker. The play, starting on Wisconsin's 35-yard line following a punt, opened with a short pass from Billy Bye to Harry Grant and closed with a lateral to Stan Thiele who went the last 10 yards.

Four plays later Minnesota was back again, Ken Beiersdorf crashing over tackle for 37 yards and the score.

Purdue Comes Back to Form With 39-0 Win over Indiana

LAFAYETTE, IND. (UP)—Purdue, kicked around all season, staged a comeback on the ground and in the air yesterday to blast Indiana, 39-0, before a record home crowd of 47,161.

It was a glorious season finale for Purdue, humbled six times previously. It gave the Boilermakers the "Old Oaken Bucket," emblematic of more than half a century of rivalry with their fellow Hoosiers, for the first time since 1943.

It was Indiana's seventh straight loss. Not since they lost to powerful Notre Dame early in the season, 28-27, did the Boilermakers click as well as they did yesterday. The gridiron was still slippery from Friday's downpours and Purdue stuck to the ground the greater part of the game.

Coach Stu Holcomb's Purdue squad was weakened by injuries most of the season. But Holcomb didn't have a weak man in his camp yesterday. The Purdue backfield, sparked by Workhorse Harry Szulborski, Norb Adams and John Kerestes, sledge-hammered through Indiana's defense. The backfielders had beautiful support in line play by Phil O'Reilly, Angelo Carnaghi and Abe Gibron.

Purdue chalked up its first of six touchdowns with only a minute gone in the game. The tally climaxed a 75-yard march. It was set up by Adams' 47-yard run. Szulborski, the Big Nine rushing leader, went over from the six.

Football Gambling Denied by Nevada

RENO, NEV. (AP)—The University of Nevada yesterday demanded that the New York publication "sports week" retract a statement that Nevada's football team threw the Nevada-Santa Clara game to benefit Nevada gamblers.

The 14-0 loss by Nevada at Sacramento Nov. 7 was Nevada's first defeat of the season.

Through a law firm, the university said the publication made an "infamous" and "deliberately malicious" attack on the Nevada football team.

The letter was signed by William K. Woodburn of the legal firm of Thatcher, Woodburn and Frman, and was addressed to Marty Berg, publisher of Sports Week, Inc.

The attorneys told Berg the Nov. 22 issue of the paper made "direct and damaging charges against the University of Nevada athletic department and the Nevada football team and individuals connected with each."

"Specifically," it said, "your article charged that there was a well-laid plot for Nevada to 'throw the Nevada-Santa Clara game for the specific benefit of Nevada gamblers.'"

"You further charged," the attorney's letter continued, "that members of the Nevada football team are employed in Reno gambling establishments, and that these boys were a part of your alleged plot to 'throw' the game to Santa Clara."

School authorities said no member of the team has been employed in any of Nevada's legal gambling halls since school started, although some worked in the places during vacation.

Penn State Suffers First Defeat, 7-0, At Panthers' Hands

By DUKE MORAN

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Few will believe it but Pitt beat proud Penn State, 7-0, yesterday.

It was one of the most stunning upsets in a wild college football year. It also was the personal triumph of a big Youngstown, Ohio, kid who shunned glittering orders from gridiron big wheels to come to deflated Pitt.

Nick Bolkovac was sure he could play football here. He did yesterday. He rambled 23 yards for a last quarter score with an intercepted pass and then placed kicked the extra point which sent State spinning into defeat for the first time since 1946. It made 51,075 fan hoarse from yelling.

That run, the last great act by Bolkovac in a day of splendid line play, spelled finish to an unbeaten string of 17 games for State—18 games if you count the 13-13 Cotton Bowl deadlock with Southern Methodist last New Year's.

With only 50 seconds left, State moved forward.

Elwood Petchel hit Larry Ceoney with a pass good for 10 yards and a first down on the Pitt 11. Another pass to John Smidansky took it to the two. Here the powerful Frankie Rogel tried for the score, but bounced off a solid Pitt line as the gun went off.

Everything but the score favored State. The Lions rolled up 186 yards rushing against 65 and 54 yards against 12 on passes. Rogel had no losses and 110 yards in 30 tries—far better than the entire Pitt rushing total.

Oklahoma Crowned; Flogs Kansas, 60-7

LAWRENCE, KAS. (AP)—Oklahoma's razor-sharp football team yesterday won the Big Seven crown with an awe-inspiring display of football power which handed Kansas its worst conference whipping, 60 to 7.

Coach Bud Wilkinson's Oklahomans were out to take the title, which they had shared the past two years with the Kansans, and they were out to take it all the way. Offensively and defensively, there was no comparison between the teams playing for the title.

Neither team had been beaten in four previous conference games.

The Terriers took the return kickoff to a tying touchdown on a pass play covering 71 yards, Whelan to End George Winkler. Winkler angled behind the Hawks' Defensive Right Halfback, Don Fryauf, and took the pass at mid-field, running 50 yards down the sideline to score.

Iowa Line Revives

In the middle of the second period, Iowa's line came to life. The Hawk forwards stopped a Boston march on their own one-foot line when four line cracks by Fullback Pat Giordano could not produce a touchdown.

However, the Terriers came back with Glenn Drahn's punt to Four minutes were left in the first half when Halfback George Luker skirted Iowa's left end on an 11-yard scoring sprint. Ev Dorr kicked the extra point, the second of his two good boots, for the half time 14-7 Boston lead.

Rain Wrecks Grid

Rain managed to slop up the gridiron before the game started. The baseball infield extended out to the 45-yard marker on one end of the field, making matters worse. Both teams used passing attacks despite the condition of the field. The Hawks completed 11 of 18 tosses, Boston 6 of 16.

Iowa led on the ground, 116 to 67, and in the air, 213 to 169.

Boston is a good ball club without a doubt. The Terriers were keyed for this match and had the material to go with their enthusiasm.

In the dressing room after the game, the Iowa players and their coaches heaped compliments on the Beantown club. The Hawks were whooping it up, too, over their well-earned triumph against the spunky Boston opponent.

And, as Tony Guzowski remarked, "Jack Dittmer certainly saved us from making a 1,200 mile trip for nothing."

Student Program Varies on SUI Weekend

EENIE, MEENIE, MINIE, MOE — Elaine Jensen is having a tough time deciding what she's going to take home for Thanksgiving vacation. Will it be books or clothes, queries this Currier girl from Atlanta, Iowa. A sophomore sociology major, Elaine will leave Iowa City Wednesday like hundreds of other students for her first five-day Thanksgiving vacation from SUI.

THE HIGHLANDERS HAD A DANCE. At the "Highland Fling," annual dance sponsored by the SUI Scottish Highlanders, this trio gave an approving once-over to the fancy programs. Col. W. W. Jenna, head of the ROTC department, is flanked by Highlanders, Faye Jensen and Joyce Larsen, in this picture.

CENTER OF ATTENTION at the Chi Omega masked ball Friday night was Bonnie Haney, A3, Glenwood. The "hopeful" men gathered around Bonnie are perhaps trying to identify their date for the evening. With the girls disguising themselves behind masks, the men don't have a chance, or do they.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Sweeting

DOROTHY MAXINE STRANSKY and Byron Sweeting, both of Riverside, were married yesterday at 9 a.m. in St. Mary's church, Riverside. The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Stransky, was given in marriage by her father. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sweeting. Officiating at the double ring ceremony was the bride's uncle, the Rev. Omer H. Kiefer, Davenport. Mrs. John Kron, Riverside, was matron of honor and Mrs. Paul DeCamp, Iowa City, was an attendant. Duane Stransky, Riverside, served as best man. Ushers were Donald Kiefer, Riverside and Lyndon Burris, Pulaski. A 12:15 p.m. reception was held at Hotel Jefferson Rose room.

Mary Hannon Wed In Chapel Ceremony

St. Thomas More chapel was the scene of the marriage of Mary Margaret Hannon to John R. Crowley at 9 a.m. yesterday.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Hannon, 10 1/2 W. Burlington. Mrs. Elizabeth Kaumens, Waterloo, is the mother of the bridegroom.

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. W. L. Hannon, great uncle of the bride, officiated at the single ring ceremony. Mrs. J. M. Driscoll, Des Moines, aunt of the bride, was the matron of honor. Mr. Driscoll was the best man.

A reception was held following the ceremony in Hotel Jefferson. The couple then left on a wedding trip to Des Moines.

The bride graduated from Parnell high school and attended commercial college in Iowa City. She is now employed in the social service department at Oakdale sanitarium. Mr. Crowley graduated from Our Lady of Victory academy in Waterloo.

One of the weirdest parties we've heard of in quite a spell was reported by some Sigma Chis who attended a recent American Legion convention. It seems the uninvited Sigma Chis brought along elevator boys, scrubwomen and anyone else they could drag along. One of the party reportedly spent the night in a linen closet.

Skip nights are fun for the pledges, but not so for the actives who are "invited" to go along. Ask Lucie and Marion, the Zetas who were left in the middle of nowhere when the pledges skipped last Monday... or talk to Fran and Jody, who attended the whole party.

Coal chutes seem to be in the news this week. Another coal chute victim was the girl who got stuck in the slide at the D. U. hobo party. All those attending the party had to enter through a slide leading into the basement. Our unfortunate party didn't quite make it and ended up in the coal bin. No one but she knows how she did it.

Never wear permanent lipsticks to those D. U. parties, girls. Those that did had embarrassing moments when they couldn't show signs of lovin'—the requisite to enter the house.

We've had another report on the gal who broke the Kiss-O-Meter at the Mill last week. Seems her pin-mate has his shoulder in a cast this week.

Two brand new Victor releases share the spotlight this week at SPENCER'S HARMONY HALL. First is a fine Count Basie number, "Bye, Bye Baby" and "Just a Minute." Jimmy Rushing shouts the vocal on the first side in his usual blues style. "Just a Minute" is our favorite side, however—it being a very smooth instrumental arrangement with a good, relaxed beat.

Eddie Heywood comes forth with the other new Victor platter, "The Night Has a Thousand Eyes" and "Everybody Loves Somebody." On both of these sides a new touch has been added to the Heywood formula—vocals. The familiar Heywood piano style remains the same, though—consistently good. In case you Kenton fans haven't already picked up "Harlem Holiday" and "Don't Want That Man Around," you can still get it at SPENCER'S. The first side features four of the sidemen in instrumental solos, while the latter is built around the June Christy vocal.

Other new records at SPENCER'S HARMONY HALL are "I Want A Little Doggie" by Lena Horne and "Rendezvous With A Rose" by the Pied Pipers. You'll find all your favorites at SPENCER'S!

Hekel, Mount Pleasant; Harry Lytle, Davenport; Dr. L. H. Korneder, Davenport; Carl Mather, Tip-top; Howard Smith, Cedar Rapids; O. J. Henderson, Webster City, and Henry K. Peterson, Council Bluffs.

Other parlor hosts and hostesses are Dean Allin Dakin, Dean and Mrs. Bruce Mahan, Sen. and Mrs. LeRoy Mercer, Mr. and Mrs. Ely Briggs, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Swisher, Mr. and Mrs. Kirk Porter and Mrs. Nellie Aurner, all of Iowa City.

Mrs. E. P. T. Tyndall and Mrs. Alexander Kern will be door hostesses.

Wives of the curators of the society will pour.

Huskies Hustled Through Canine Capers

ANTARCTICA WAS NEVER LIKE THIS, growls this Alaskan sled dog to his city high admirer, Phyllis Chaloupka, 1027 Sheridan avenue. The husky and his six buddies were exhibited yesterday at several local schools and downtown in connection with the current Iowa City showing of a U.S. navy film, "The Secret Land." The movie is a documentary film on Admiral Richard E. Byrd's expedition to the Antarctic continent in the winter of 1946-47. On a tour which has taken them to cities all over the U.S. and Alaska, the dogs will be in Newton today.

Council Asks for NSA Committee Volunteers

The Student council NSA committee yesterday called for volunteers to aid on committee projects.

"We want students genuinely interested in National Student association activities," Thomas Gray, committee member from Student council, said.

The council set up the NSA committee as a sub-group at its Nov. 11 meeting. Council President Evan L. Hultman named Gray and Valerie Dierks to the committee. They were given authority to appoint other students to aid in planning and carrying out projects.

The council NSA committee has been split into two operational divisions:

1. National affairs, headed by Richard Dice, Cedar Rapids.

2. International affairs, headed by Thelma Edis, New York City.

These divisions will be split further into sub-groups to work on specific projects, Gray said.

Projects Started

Projects already started by the committee are grading of professors by SUI students and rings for SUI graduates. Other possible projects include a job placement bureau for graduating liberal arts students, a cooperative book store, publication of a book on all SUI organizations and activities, further orientation research and a purchase card system.

"Projects actually undertaken by the committee will be those from which our affiliation with the national NSA can benefit us most by supplying information," Gray explained.

Committee Meeting
Volunteers should attend an open committee meeting at 3:30 p.m., Dec. 2, in conference room two of Iowa Union, he said.

Iowa Regional NSA President Dale Bingham yesterday explained the relation of the council NSA committee to students at SUI, in other U.S. colleges and in foreign schools.

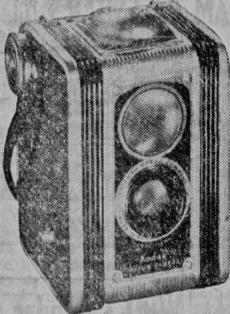

At SUI, he said, "Student Council is providing the means by which the student can help himself." More students can participate as NSA committee members in projects directly related to their welfare, he continued.

National Headquarters
National and international relations are of a "reciprocal" nature, he said. The SUI committee will conduct surveys and carry out projects from which information will go to national NSA headquarters at Madison. From there it will be disseminated to campuses in the U.S. and foreign countries, he explained.

In return, SUI will be able to get information from Madison on many projects the local committee decides to undertake, he said.

The national NSA is divided into two sections, a national division and an international activities commission. The national division is further sub-divided into a cultural welfare group and an education and education problems group. It is through these divisions and groups and in the fields of education and cultural welfare that the SUI committee will be working, according to Bingham.

New Polio Patient Raises Total to 15

One new polio patient was reported at University hospitals yesterday, bringing the total number of active cases to 15.

The patient is Deanna Vennum, 9, Waterloo. She was admitted to the polio ward Friday in "serious" condition.

The list of 14 polio patients reported at University hospitals Friday represented the lowest figure in nearly a month. It possibly reflects a slackening which began late last month in the general Iowa polio problem.

Jacobs to Speak at Physics Colloquium

Prof. James A. Jacobs of the physics department will speak tomorrow on "Mesotrons, Natural and Artificial." The colloquium will be held in room 301, physics building, at 4:30 p.m.

Busienss BRIEFS

Everybody's talking turkey these days, but there's going to be fewer turkeys to talk about this year. That's the sad message of an Iowa City processor of dressed turkeys. He is Alan Graves, manager of the Priebe and Sons hatchery, 916 S. Capitol street.

There's bound to be some disappointed Thanksgiving diners Thursday, Graves thinks. Higher feeding costs means fewer turkeys.

But there's a cheery note for those lucky to have turkey on their Thanksgiving menus. The big birds are larger, meatier and tastier this year, according to Graves.

Building for commercial purposes is on the upswing in Iowa City, even though many building materials are still in the "hard to get" category. Alva Oathout, owner of the Oathout funeral home, said steel and cement are especially scarce.

Some materials, such as bricks, electrical wiring and plumbing fixtures, are more plentiful now than a year ago, Oathout said. Oathout and L. R. Morford of the Morford Specialty company are building a one-story, 80-by-140-foot structure at 328 S. Clinton street.

It will be leased to the Sears and Roebuck company and will be ready for occupancy about January 1. The building will house Sears' service station and farm implement store, which will be moved from its presents location at 20 E. College street.

A new 48-by-24-foot addition is in the making at the Manning Implement store, 220 E. College street. It will provide additional display space for the showing of farm implements and will also house a new repair shop, according to William McManus, owner of the business.

The addition is being built by Josh and Russell Mann, owners of the building. It will be completed about Dec. 1.

The entrance to the service department of Dunlap Motor Sales, Inc., is being winterized. For protection from ice and snow, the company is constructing a concrete covering over the automobile ramp leading into the basement headquarters of service station.

ROOM AND BOARD

Emil H. Wiebel Dies After Short Illness

Emil H. Wiebel, 46, a former fireman at the SUI power plant, died at his home, 407 S. Capitol street, at 8:30 a.m. yesterday after a short illness.

Born on July 17, 1902, he was a resident of Iowa City for 28 years. Surviving are his wife, Blanche, whom he married Oct. 18, 1928; one daughter, Mrs. Chester Stanhope, Cedar Rapids; one granddaughter, Sheila Kay Stanhope, Cedar Rapids; three brothers and one sister.

Building for commercial purposes is on the upswing in Iowa City, even though many building materials are still in the "hard to get" category. Alva Oathout, owner of the Oathout funeral home, said steel and cement are especially scarce.

Still Flowing Strong

With the election out of the way, there are many people who would like to pack the campus political ban in moth balls and forget about the whole affair for a few years. The skeleton would be put back into the closet to gather dust until next time. But there are other people who have smarted under the ban since it was imposed last spring. With the pressure of the campaign lifted, they would like to scrap the ban before the next campaign rolls around. The campus political groups—as usual—are leading the opposition to the ban. It is interesting to note the new tack they are taking. Appealing directly to the state board of education has been sidetracked. That was tried constantly through the spring, summer and fall of this year. These groups aren't interested necessarily in making a lot of noise. Now that the election is over, it is difficult to arouse too many people by shouting "unfair!" At its meeting last week, one campus group considered appealing directly to Governor-elect Beardsley after he is inaugurated. Their state organization, meanwhile, will continue to appeal directly to the board. Another campus political group was contemplating a blow at the money belt. They are interested in a statewide effort to work through the 1949 legislature. This group feels a rider on the state board of education's appropriation measure could strike the political ban from the books. The situation at the moment looks quiet, but the undercurrents are still flowing strong.

Ripened for a Change

While we speculate on what the next congress will do to taxes, labor legislation, tariffs, and price supports there is another issue which may also come up under the influence of the last elections. Besides showing where the power of the electorate lies in the United States this year's election scared the wits out of many politicians who were apprehensive about the presidential election going into the new house of representatives. That "firebell in the night" may well arouse the judiciary committees of both houses into action on a constitutional amendment to the electoral procedure. Under this amendment, the electoral vote of each state would be divided proportionately to its popular vote. For instance, if Iowa with its 10 electoral votes gave 55,000 popular votes to Candidate A, 40,000 votes to Candidate B, and 5,000 votes to Candidate C—then the state's electoral votes would go this way: 5 1/2 to A, 4 to B, and 1/2 to C. Under the present system all 10 votes would go to A. That would reduce the chances of a third or fourth candidate keeping either majority party candidate from achieving an electoral majority. It would doubtless encourage popular voting, since each popular vote would make itself felt regardless of which candidate won a majority or plurality in the state. This amendment has much more chance of adoption than a proposal to elect the president by popular vote. Since three-fourths of the state must accept the amendment this plan might bog down without the small states which are favored now by the electoral system. Nevada is a case in point since that state casts more than 1/2 of 1 percent of the total electoral votes—although in 1944 its popular vote was only one tenth of one percent of the total. Southern states would also be expected to oppose a direct popular election amendment. South Carolina, for instance, has the same number of electoral votes as Kansas, but in 1944 cast less than one-eighth as many popular votes. The country, remembering the photo-finish election this year, is ripe for a change in its old system—the proportionate electoral vote seems the most likely.

ANALYSIS OF THE WORLD'S NEWS AS — IT HAPPENED LAST WEEK

Global

Suchow Defense Holds; French Dock Strike Due

With the big election news over, global events came back into their own as the big news makers of the week. General tone: same old crises, no serious developments. China. Things looked black as the week opened. The Communist armies had rolled down from Manchuria almost unchecked. The Nationalist capital of Nanking was threatened. Americans were being evacuated as fast as possible; 1,250 marines and a number of extra ships were sent to speed the exodus. Chiang requested a clarification of American policy. But he didn't get much encouragement, especially when it came to promises of aid dollars. Meanwhile the fate of Nanking was being decided at Suchow, north of the capital. The Communist offensive was slowed, stopped and temporarily thrown back on the Suchow line. Chiang claimed the Communists were retreating after losing 130,000 men. The victory was a shot in the arm to the Chinese. Things have been eased temporarily. But the next Communist advance, now being rallied, may break through. France. Returning after a two-month vacation, France's national assembly became embroiled in the country's strike wave situation. As the assembly debated the conduct of the Queuille government in clamping down on the Communist-led strikes, the Communist-dominated labor unions called a nationwide dock strike of "unlimited duration" for tomorrow. At Dunkerque, strikers walked out ahead of schedule. On the weekend, 1,500 strikers barricaded behind barrels at the port gates faced French troops and tanks. On the right, Gen. Charles De Gaulle attacked the Marshall plan and the Anglo-American plan to turn Germany's industries back to the Germans. Greece. After resigning last weekend because of opposition from within his own party, Themistocles Sophoulis welded 10 of his liberals with 13 Populists into a new government. Populist chief Constantin Tsaldaris continued as foreign minister. Belgium. The lowland country also turned parliamentary flip-flops as Premier Paul Henri Spaak's coalition of Catholics and Socialists resigned over charges of leniency toward convicted Nazi collaborators. Spaak's coalition—the only group strong enough to remain in control—prepared to form a new government. But Spaak himself prepared to step down as premier and devote all his time to foreign affairs as foreign minister. Arab league. King Fakour I and Queen Farida announced their divorce. And in Iran, Fakour's eldest sister, Empress Fawzia, and Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlavi were divorced. The two nations were united by the two marriages nine years ago but there is no sign that politics entered into the divorces. Neither queen had borne any sons and only males may inherit the thrones of Arab nations. Yugoslavia. Marshal Tito displayed the first signs of weakening under the economic squeeze imposed by the Soviet sphere. Tito said fellow Communist states were forcing Yugoslavia to turn to the west for trade deals.

United Nations

Evatt-Lie Plan Rejected; Israel Accepts Armistice

General Assembly president Herbert V. Evatt and Secretary General Trygve Lie appealed to Russia, the U.S., Britain and France to take their Berlin feud out of the UN and settle it by direct negotiations. The western powers turned thumbs down, demanding the blockade be lifted before they will discuss German matters with Russia. Russia said the same thing: we must consider all Germany. No mention was made of lifting the blockade. Result: zero. But the UN triumphed momentarily in the Palestine situation. The security council ordered an armistice with peace talks to follow. Israel was ordered to leave the Negev desert. After several days of bluffing and gruffing, Israel—assured of the upper hand in peace negotiations—consented to removing its troops from the Negev and accepted the armistice. The Arabs are expected to follow through by also accepting the armistice. The bitter east-west clash over disarmament came to a vote with the west winning. Its proposal to refer the conventional armament issue to committee and to let atomic control hang fire was passed. The Soviet demands of immediate outlawing of the atomic bomb and a reduction of big power armaments by one-third

Labor

AFL Parley Opens; Murray Hits Leftists

The AFL's 67th convention, held in Cincinnati, highlighted the week's labor news. Secretary of Labor Tobin and Presidential Assistant Steelman thanked labor for its support of Mr. Truman and pledged the Democratic party to carry out its promises. The AFL—with the election outcome still buzzing around in its head—decided that playing politics was fun, and fruitful. It voted to keep its League for Political Education going with a 10-cent contribution from all members. The Taft-Hartley act forbids direct contributions, but then... Plans for a labor party were put on ice but consolidation with the CIO was a popular thought around the convention. CIO officials preparing for their Portland, Ore., convention saw little hope for an early reunion of the labor movement. CIO President Philip Murray attacked his left-wing lieutenants at a closed meeting of the executive board. A full-scale battle between left and right is supposed to explode on the CIO convention floor. The east coast maritime strike over wage issues idled 143,000 men and tied up 647 ships. Negotiations are deadlocked as yet. Meanwhile, the strike is costing the country almost $50-million a day. The AFL typographical union

Names in the News

Princess Elizabeth—The heir to the British throne gave birth to the seven pound, six ounce Prince of Edinburgh as the happy empire rejoiced. J. Parnell Thomas—The spy prober pleaded not guilty to federal fraud and salary-kickback charges and was released on a $1,000 bond. His trial was set for Jan. 10. Miss Helen Campbell—The former secretary to Rep. Thomas also pleaded innocent to charges of conspiring to help Thomas pad his office payroll. She is free on a $500 bond. Louis St. Laurent—He assumed the prime ministership of Canada as ailing, 73-year-old Mackenzie King resigned his post. An understudy of King's, St. Laurent is expected to follow the retiring minister's policies. Elizabeth Bentley—The Communist courier who told all to the Thomas committee was converted to the Roman Catholic faith under the guidance of Msgr. Fulton J. Sheen and Louis Budenz, former editor of the Communist Daily Worker who also embraced Catholicism. Harry S. Politics

Truman, Forrestal Talk; Hoover Group Approved

With ex-contenders Dewey and Wallace evaporating from the scene and with President Truman still basking in the Florida sun, the national political feeling assumed a manana outlook and lazily waited for January to roll around. James Forrestal, defense secretary, returned from a jaunt in Europe to discuss with the President military and diplomatic matters around the world as well as his own retirement from the cabinet. It is still not known when and if Forrestal will pack up his briefcase. Herbert Hoover's commission on reorganization of the executive branch of the federal government received the official nod from Mr. Truman. A non-partisan plan to streamline the executive bureaucracy will be ready for the new congress. Phillip H. Wilkie, son of the late Wendell L. Wilkie and a newly-elected member of the Indiana legislature, urged the GOP to call an informal policy-setting conference in 1949. Aiming at a general tuning up of the party, he said "if a political party is not fruitful of ideas, policies and men, it will die."

'The American Way'

Big Business, Labor Groups Booming Economy

NEW YORK (AP) — Defenders of "The American economic system" are raising their voices in a swelling chorus to shout down their enemies. In newspaper advertisements, radio programs, magazines, books, speeches, movies, pamphlets and dozens of different ways, big business and associations of labor and industry are telling the people their side of the economic story. These are individually selling the American way of life, their campaign being widespread but unorganized. The General Electric company's campaign is regarded as the most ambitious of any attempted by a single company. But that of the American Association of Advertising Agencies and the Association of National Advertisers gets top honors for size and scope as a unified effort. Effectiveness of General Electric's plan won first prize in its class in a competition sponsored by Printers' Ink magazine and the American Heritage foundation. As part of the advertising men's campaign, 127 magazines with circulation of some 73,000,000 ran this month without charge an advertisement "to explain the American economic system." Ten more such ads are to follow. That message is being driven home to 200,000 General Electric employees in 125 plants and to 6,500,000 of their neighbors in 90 plant-cities in 22 states. It is a one-company job. Scores of smaller companies have adopted as their own some of the G.E. message. The advertising men's campaign, directed by Ken Wells, began after two years' planning.

City Council To Discuss Pay Raises

Pay raises for city employees and the downtown street lighting problem will be the principle problems discussed at the regular meeting of the city council tomorrow night.

An ordinance raising the salaries of all the members of the fire and police departments will have its second reading.

Alderman Clark Mighel said yesterday the city council is doing everything it can to give the employees more pay but, in some departments, it is restricted by budget limits.

On the downtown lighting problem, the plans and specifications received last week by Alderman W. H. Grandrath from the Westinghouse company will be introduced.

Favorable Comments

Grandrath said that he has received many favorable comments on the sample Westinghouse mercury-vapor light which was installed early last week at Washington and Linn streets.

He said that he might propose having a public hearing on the lighting problem soon. Grandrath is chairman of the city council's light committee.

Three Lose Watch, Two Coats in Thefts

Thefts of a wrist watch and two coats were reported to police yesterday.

Richard Colvin, an SUI student, told police his watch was taken from his locker in the field-house Friday afternoon.

The two coats were taken from the Amvets club around 10 p.m. Thursday.

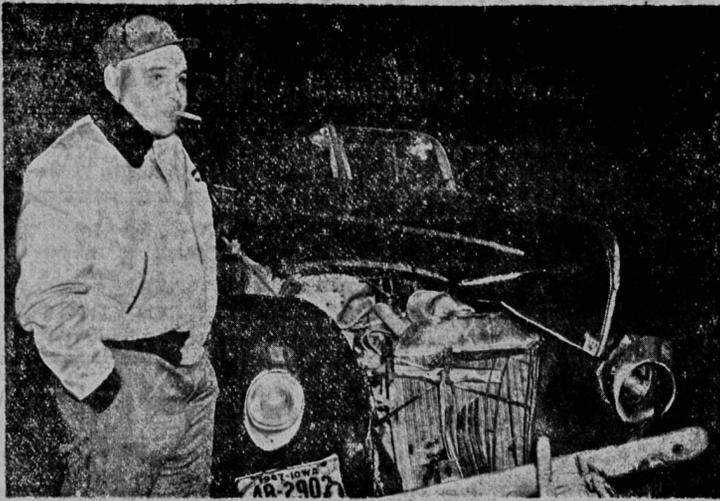

One coat belonged to Marian Hollensworth, another SUI student. George Mocks, 320 Ellis avenue, reported the theft. John Hovland, 711 Kirkwood avenue, the owner of the other coat, told police that it was taken from the Amvets club at approximately the same time.

Holiday Spirit to Invade Downtown Area Today

That old Christmas holiday spirit will be welcomed to Iowa City officially today, with the hanging of Christmas decorations in the downtown area.

The decorations were provided by a Chamber of Commerce committee and will be erected by a group of volunteers from both the Senior and Junior Chambers.

Cars Collide at Intersection; $350 Damages

(Daily Iowan Photo by Dave Nicolette) WAITING FOR THE POLICE. Elmer B. Moser, Williamsburg, stands by his damaged car. Moser was involved in a collision with a car driven by Chris Missley, route 4. The accident occurred at 11:45 a.m. yesterday at the intersection of Capitol and Court streets. No one was injured.

C of C Asks Bond Issue to Pay for Lights

The Iowa City Chamber of Commerce yesterday recommended a three-point program in relation to the business district lighting problem. The recommendations were included in a letter from Chamber President R. Lind, filed at the city clerk's office.

The recommendations were: "1. That immediate steps be taken to install a completely new system of mercury-vapor lights in Iowa City's business district. "2. That the cost of such an installation be met by a general obligation bond issue. Such an issue to be voted upon by the citizens at an early election held for that purpose.

"3. That areas included in the project be determined by the council on the basis of recommendations from competent lighting engineers and its own judgment of the existing situation." Lind said that these recommendations were the result of a meeting of the chamber's board of directors and were based on the following points:

"1. Street lighting is a public improvement enjoyed by the community as a whole and, like police and fire protection, should be paid for by the community. It has been a Chamber of Commerce policy of long standing that permanent public improvements should be paid for by representative taxation.

"2. Because of the higher valuation of downtown property, downtown property owners are paying a far larger amount toward the maintenance of residential street lights than do the directly benefited residents themselves. For this same reason, they will also be paying a much larger share of the downtown street lights.

"3. Downtown property owners do not benefit directly from a garbage collection service, a swimming pool or a new school, yet a large share of the taxes they pay are used for such purposes. As community improvements, such buildings and services are paid for by all property owners to insure the continued worth of their property.

"3. The recent personal property re-evaluation has increased the taxable value of business establishments by $1,200,000. The additional income to the city that this amount will provide is sufficient to pay for the cost of the lighting system without raising the tax rate on real property in the city."

Wife Fails to Appear, Nelson Granted Divorce

John G. Nelson, Iowa City, was granted a divorce from Vera Jeanette Nelson yesterday in Johnson county district court after the defendant failed to appear at the hearing.

The plaintiff charged cruel and inhuman treatment. Clearman and Knoepfler were the plaintiff's attorneys.

Lester Longman Speaks At Conference Banquet

Lester Longman, head of the SUI art department and president of the Midwestern Art conference, spoke at the conference banquet at 7:30 last night. The banquet, attended by 130 people, was held in Hotel Jefferson.

The committee in charge was A. Raoul Delmare and Mrs. Betty Cohen.

MARRIAGE LICENSES ISSUED

Marriage licenses were issued yesterday in the Johnson county clerk's office to Joseph McEnhinney, Iowa City, and Mary Carolyn McCue, Cedar Rapids, Kenneth W. Mass and Jean Hagen, both of Davenport, and Darrell Oliphant and Carmen Schroeder, both of Solon.

Whitesell, Thimmesch Head Kampus Kapers

Jack Whitesell, A3, of Davenport, has been appointed director of the Kampus Kapers, SUI musical which will be held Feb. 23, 24 and 25 in Macbride auditorium. Assistant director will be Al Thimmesch, A3, of Dubuque.
